UCLA CLOSSES HOME SCHEDULE WITH PAC-12 BATTLES AGAINST NO. 1 WASHINGTON, OREGON STATE

The UCLA men's soccer team (5-6-2, 1-3-1) wraps up an eight-game homestand this week by hosting No. 1 Washington (12-1-0, 5-0-0) and Oregon State (5-5-1, 2-2-1) at Wallis Annenberg Stadium. Both games will be part of doubleheaders with the UCLA women's soccer team and represent the final regular season home games at Annenberg Stadium in 2019. UCLA has posted a 2-2-2 record so far on the homestand. Both contests will be televised by the Pac-12 Networks. Fans can also follow along with online radio - Nick Koop will be on the call via UCLA.leanplayer.com - and live stats via UCLALiveStats.com. Live updates will be provided on Twitter at @UCLAMSoccer.

WEEK IN REVIEW

The Bruins played just one game last week, dropping a 4-1 decision to then-No. 13 San Diego last Thursday night. UCLA was doomed by a pair of early goals from the Toreros, who netted in the second and third minutes. The Bruins made it a one-goal game after Marcony Pimentel finished off a Constantinos Michaelides cross in the 18th minute, but USD outscored the home team 2-0 the rest of the way. Miguel Berry had five points (two goals, one assist) to lead the Toreros. The Bruins almost had a second goal just before halftime when a Riley Ferch shot was deflected to a Bruin attacker at the far post, but a re-direct attempt came up just short.

EARLY STARTERS

Early goals have been a common occurrence in UCLA games so far this season. A goal has been scored by either UCLA or the opponent within the opening 10 minutes in eight of UCLA's 13 games this year (62%). The Bruins are 3-4-1 in those contests.

TOUGH ROAD

Entering the week, UCLA can boast that it has the toughest schedule in the country. The Bruins lead the NCAA in both past opponents' winning percentage (.639) and cumulative opponents' winning percentage (.635). UCLA's road doesn't get much easier the rest of the way, as future opponents have a combined .627 winning percentage. No other west coast team is in the top-10 for strength of schedule, with the nearest program being Loyola Marymount (No. 11). UCLA has played half of the top-10 teams in this week's TopDrawerSoccer rankings (No. 1 Washington, No. 2 Georgetown, No. 7 Maryland, No. 8 Indiana, No. 10 Stanford).

BRUINS HELPING BRUINS

UCLA has scored 23 goals so far this season (49th nationwide), accruing 28 assists along the way. The Bruins' 1.22 assists per goal is tied for fifth-best in the nation (Michigan leads the NCAA at 1.52). UCLA has recorded at least one assist on 20 of 23 team goals, including eight tallies with two assists.

ILOSKI MAKES HISTORY AGAINST SDSU

Milan Iloski made school history on Oct. 6 in a contest against San Diego State, scoring a program-record five goals in a 5-2 win for UCLA.

- Iloski scored two goals in the first half, three goals in the second half
- His second half goals came over the span of just 12 minutes; his final two scores happened just 2:28 apart
- First NCAA player to pot five goals in a game since Cal's Christian Thienjung on Sept. 18, 2016
- First Bruin to score 4+ goals since Martin Bruno on Nov. 9, 1997
- His first, second, and fifth goals came on perfectly timed runs; third was scored on a free kick just above the box, fourth was a PK conversion
- After his performance, was named the TopDrawerSoccer National Player of the Week and Pac-12 Player of the Week
- Only one other player in the NCAA has reached the four-goal plateau this season (Northern Kentucky's Alex Greive)

HOT AT HOME

The Bruins have been traditionally tough to beat on their home field. Dating back to 2010, UCLA is 66-26-10 (.696) in home games, and has recorded a winning record at home in every season. UCLA is 9-7-2 (.555) at home since moving to Wallis Annenberg Stadium before the 2018 season.

ILOSKI TAKES OVER NATIONAL SCORING LEAD

Thanks to a five-game scoring streak out of the gate and a five-goal performance against SDSU, UCLA junior forward Milan Iloski has now taken over the national lead in a number of categories.

- Milan is the national leader in goals (15), goals per game (1.25), and points per game (2.67)
- Iloski has played 12 games this year - he has scored a goal in eight and recorded a point in nine
- Ranks third in the country and first in the Pac-12 in total points with 32
- Has nine more goals and 17 more points than the No. 2 scorers in the Pac-12
- Most goals by a Bruin since Chandler Hoffman had 18 in 2011
- UCLA single-game program record holder with five goals (vs. SDSU on Oct. 6, 2019)
- First Bruin with seven goals over the first five games of a season since 2000 (McKinley Tennyson Jr.)
- First Bruin this millennium with 16 points over the first five games of a season
- Has a pair of three-game goalscoring streaks this year; no other Bruin had a single three-game scoring streak since 2015
- Earned national, Pac-12, and UCLA Player of the Week honors twice so far this year (post-Maryland, post-SDSU)

ILOSKI, MICHAELIDES INCLUDED IN TDS MIDSEASON PLAYER RANKINGS UPDATE

After going unnamed in the TopDrawerSoccer preseason player rankings, Milan Iloski was placed at No. 7 in the soccer outlet's midseason update. In addition, left back Constantinos Michaelides was tabbed as the No. 58 player in the TDS Freshman Top-100. Michaelides has recorded one goal and one assist over 13 games, and has racked up 810 minutes on the pitch so far.

FERCH ON FIRE

Sophomore midfielder Riley Ferch has come into his own in the last few weeks, posting five assists and seven points over his last five games. That stretch includes multi-assist performances against SDSU and Cal and a three-point game against UC Riverside featuring his first NCAA goal. Overall on the year, he has one goal, seven assists, and nine points. His seven helpers are tied for the Pac-12 lead, rank 15th nationally, and match UCLA's team leader in 2018 (Matt Hundley).

RED-HOT OCTOBER

The Bruins have stepped up their offensive production since the calendar turned to October, potting 12 goals in five games. That stretch features three games with three or more goals including a season-high five scores against San Diego State. UCLA's 2.4 goals per game for the month of October is almost double their production from the first eight games of the season (1.38) and would be ranked 11th nationally if extrapolated over the whole season. For October, no other Pac-12 team has more goals or a better GPG rate than the Bruins (Cal has 10 goals, Washington has a 2.25 goals per game rate in October).

ILOSKI TO ILOSKI

Junior midfielder Eric Iloski has earned the primary assist on three of his brother's goals this year - his opening goals against Maryland and CSUN as well as his third goal against SDSU. The brothers have now recorded a point on the same goal on four occasions - Milan and elder brother Brian assisted on an Eric goal against San Diego State on Oct. 15, 2017.

SETTING IT UP

Entering the week, the Bruins have four players with four or more assists on the year. Riley Ferch has a team-high seven, while Matt Powell, Cody Sundquist, and Eric Iloski all have a career-high four. UCLA is the only program in the Pac-12 that can boast four players with 4+ assists. Overall, UCLA ranks second in the league and 21st nationally with 28 assists.

UCLA100

UCLA will celebrate its first 100 years with a year-long university-wide Centennial Celebration. UCLA Athletics has several Centennial Celebration plans and giveaways in store for designated home events, including a set of 13 Centennial Pins highlighting each sport, as well as a souvenir mosaic poster that features personal photos submitted by UCLA fans. Men's soccer held its Centennial game on Sept. 26 against UC Irvine.

POWELL TABBED TO PRESEASON ALL-PAC-12 TEAM

Redshirt senior midfielder/defender Matthew Powell was named to the 2019 Preseason All-Pac-12 Team ahead of the new season. Powell was one of just three defenders to make the conference's preseason Best XI. The Castro Valley, Calif. native was an All-Pac-12 second team choice in 2018 after receiving an all-conference honorable mention as a sophomore in 2017. A mainstay of the defensive corps last year, Powell was one of just three Bruins to start all 19 of the team's games. Spending time at both center back and holding mid, Powell played the full 90 in all but three games and ended the year with 1,670 minutes of action, third-most on the team.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, BRUINS

The Bruins will have 16 of 18 regular season games appear on TV this season, including all 10 home games. Pac-12 Networks will provide live television coverage of every regular season game at Annenberg Stadium in addition to four UCLA road games.

HOME COOKING

Starting on Sept. 26 against UC Irvine, UCLA will play a season-high eight consecutive games at home. That is the longest homestand for the program since at least 1980 (home-away designations are unavailable prior to 1980). Once that stretch begins, the Bruins don't play another road game until they head to Berkeley for a matchup against Cal on Halloween.

BRUINS IN RED, WHITE, AND BLUE

Former UCLA players Reggie Cannon and Jackson Yuell as well as current volunteer assistant coach Walker Zimmerman were all named to the 26-man roster for the U.S. Men's National Team in late August. Zimmerman and Cannon both started in the USMNT's battle against Mexico on Sept. 6, while Yuell appeared as a substitute. Then in the US's battle against Uruguay on Sept. 10, both Cannon and Yuell drew starts. Cannon has accrued eight caps with the senior team, including a start at right back in the 2019 Gold Cup final against Mexico. Yuell has three caps, all coming in 2019. Zimmerman, an LAFC defender, has scored twice over 11 career games with Team USA. In early October, the trio were once again recalled to Team USA for Concacaf Nations League matches against Cuba and Canada.

Ryan Jorden

Head Coach
1st Year
Westmont '95

Ryan Jorden was named the 11th men's head soccer in program history on Apr. 29, 2019 by UCLA Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero.

"Ryan Jorden's time has come. I am very excited to welcome our tremendously innovative and well-respected new head men's soccer coach to UCLA," said Guerrero. "At every stop in his tenure as head coach, Ryan has successfully built programs that achieved at impressive levels. He brings with him to Westwood the knowledge of what it takes to establish a consistent, winning culture and a great respect for the UCLA soccer brand, combined with a very high level of technical sports science knowledge. I look forward to seeing his vision for UCLA Men's Soccer come to life."

Jorden brings 23 years of collegiate coaching experience to Westwood, most recently serving as head coach at Pacific where he re-started a dormant program in 2013 and turned the Tigers into perennial national contenders. Pacific reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament in each of the last three seasons, one of just two west coast programs able to make that claim (Stanford).

Prior to that, he helmed the men's soccer program at Cal Baptist, transforming the Lancers into two-time NCCAA National Champions during his five-year tenure.

"It is an incredible honor to be named men's soccer coach at UCLA," said Jorden. "I am specifically grateful to Dan Guerrero and Gavin Crew for granting me the opportunity to guide the Bruin program. I am truly passionate about the student-athlete experience and look forward to bringing this commitment to UCLA. The tradition and history of success at UCLA is unparalleled, and I am thrilled to get started in Westwood."

Jorden was charged with reviving the Pacific men's soccer program in 2013 after a 28-year hiatus, and within three years he turned the Tigers into an NCAA Tournament-qualifying team.

His 2016 squad went 13-4-2, representing the largest single-season win-loss turnaround in Division I men's soccer history at 11.5 games. Jorden secured a number of accolades after that standout season, including NCAA Far West Region and West Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors.

His last two seasons in Stockton were just as successful. In 2017, the Tigers posted an identical 13-4-2 record while reaching as high as No. 14 in the national rankings. Last season, Pacific went 12-5-2 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Over his final three seasons, the Tigers went 38-13-6 (.719).

At Pacific, Jorden oversaw the development of a pair of players who went on to be drafted by MLS teams, as Tristan Blackmon was the third overall selection in the 2018 MLS SuperDraft (LAFC) while Camden Riley was a second-round pick by Sporting Kansas City in 2019. Overall, his time at Pacific yielded 27 All-WCC selections, five All-Far West Region picks, three All-Americans, and 13 WCC All-Academic honorees.

Jorden got his head coaching start at Cal Baptist University in 2008, taking the Lancers to an unprecedented level of success during his five years in Riverside. Taking over a program that had qualified for postseason play just once in the prior 18 years, Jorden guided CBU to the postseason in all five of his seasons, including NCCAA National Championships in both 2011 and 2012. Jorden was honored as the NCCAA National Coach of the Year after both of those championship campaigns.

He recorded a 60-30-10 overall record at Cal Baptist, including a 48-15-3 (.750) mark over his final three seasons. He was instrumental in NCAA compliance management as CBU transitioned to Division II during his tenure.

Cal Baptist had 12 players earn All-PacWest honors over his final two seasons, including two-time Goalkeeper of the Year Joey Pacheco. Seven Lancers earned All-America status during that span, headlined by 2012 NCCAA National Player of the Year Carlos Figueroa.

Jorden made assistant coaching stops at Westmont College – his alma mater – Northern Colorado University, and Oregon State earlier in his career.

He served as the lead assistant under head coach Dave Wolf at Westmont from 2000-2007, helping the Warriors to an 82-39-11 record. Westmont was consistently ranked in the NAIA Top-25 during his time in Santa Barbara, including No. 1 in 2000. The Warriors claimed back-to-back conference championships in 2001 and 2002.

Jorden was an assistant on the Northern Colorado University women's soccer staff in 2003 and 2004 as he pursued his doctoral degree.

His first coaching stop came at Oregon State, where he served as the lone assistant from 1996-1999. With the Beavers, he managed day-to-day aspects of the program such as recruiting, training, scheduling, and compliance.

A graduate of Westmont College, Jorden played for the Warriors from 1991-1994. Westmont won 65 games and made two NAIA Tournament appearances during his time as a student-athlete.

Jorden completed his Ph.D. in sport and exercise science with an emphasis in biomechanics at Northern Colorado in October 2010. He earned his master's degree from Oregon State in 2000 and his bachelor's degree from Westmont in 1995.

Jorden is a USSF "A" Licensed coach, and was head coach of the Olympic Development Program (ODP) Region IV from 2013-19.

He and his wife Liz have two sons, Graeme and Evan.

Coaching Highlights

- 11th head coach in UCLA men's program history
- Earned first win as UCLA head coach on Aug. 30 vs. Northwestern (at Indiana's Armstrong Std.)
- Beat then-No. 1 Maryland on Sept. 6, 2019 for his first career win at Annenberg Stadium
- Two-time NCCAA National Champion at Cal Baptist
- 11.5 win improvement w/ Pacific in 2016 was biggest turnaround in NCAA history
- Revived dormant Pacific men's program, getting them to NCAAAs within three seasons
- Took Pacific to Second Round of NCAA Tournament in three straight years (2016-18), one of just two west coast teams able to make that claim (Stanford)
