Monday marks first-ever UCLA-Georgetown meeting in LA

UCLA FINISHES MINI-HOMESTAND BY HOSTING NO. 6 GEORGETOWN

UCLA, which plays five of its first seven games of the year away from home, is set to host No. 6 Georgetown on Monday evening in the second of a two-game homestand at Wallis Annenberg Stadium. The Bruins opened the weekend by defeating defending national champion and No. 1-ranked Maryland 3-2 on Friday night. UCLA is also in a stretch that sees them play a top-six team in three straight games. Monday's showdown will be televised on the Pac-12 Networks with Troy Clardy on the call. Fans can also follow along with an internet audio broadcast and live stats, both available through UCLAbruins.com.

HOT AT HOME

The Bruins have been traditionally tough to beat on their home field. Dating back to 2010, UCLA is 64-23-8 (.716) in home games, and has recorded a winning record at home in every season. UCLA is 7-4 (.636) at home since moving to Wallis Annenberg Stadium before the 2018 season.

IN THE RANKINGS

This week, UCLA is receiving votes in the College Soccer News poll. The Bruins are also tabbed as the No. 10 team in the United Soccer Coaches Far West Region poll. The Bruins received votes in the United Soccer Coaches preseason national poll. Georgetown is ranked as high as No. 6.

MILAN ILOSKI RECORDS HAT TRICK IN WIN OVER MARYLAND

Junior forward Milan Iloski scored a career-high three goals to power UCLA to a 3-2 win over Maryland on Friday night. Sophomore keeper Justin Garces had a nice night as well, making four saves including a pair of highlight reel stops. Notes on the win:

- First hat trick by a Bruin since Chandler Hoffman on Sept. 16, 2011 (nearly eight years)
- First UCLA win over a top-ranked team since beating Akron 6-1 on Sept. 5, 2016
- First UCLA win over a defending national champion since beating Indiana 1-0 on Sept. 1, 2013
- First career multi-goal game for Iloski
- First goal was assisted by his brother, Eric
- First time that Eric has assisted on a Milan goal, and second time that Eric/Milan have both recorded a point on the same goal (Milan and elder brother Brian assisted on an Eric goal in a game against San Diego State on Oct. 15, 2017).

GARCES NAMED PAC-12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

UCLA sophomore keeper Justin Garces was named the first Pac-12 Player of the Week for the 2019 season. Garces posted a career-high seven saves to help the Bruins blank Northwestern 1-0 in the season-opener. He made all seven of his saves in the second half, shutting down a flurry of offense from the Wildcats. He had to make five saves - equaling his previous career-best - in the opening 10 minutes of the second half alone. It was the first Pac-12 Player of the Week Award in Garces's career, and the second consecutive season that a Bruin took home the league's weekly honor in the first week of the year (Matt Hundley, 2018).

ILOSKIS IN A GROVE

One of the Iloski brothers - forward Milan or midfielder Eric - has recorded at least one point in all five of UCLA's games so far this season. Milan scored against Westmont and Northwestern, recorded an assist against Indiana, then potted a hat trick against No. 1 Maryland. Eric scored the lone goal against Omaha in the preseason and earned an assist on Milan's first goal against the Terps.

POWELL TABBED TO PRESEASON ALL-PAC-12 TEAM

Redshirt senior midfielder/defender Matthew Powell was named to the 2019 Preseason All-Pac-12 Team ahead of the new season. Powell was one of just three defenders to make the conference's preseason Best XI. The Castro Valley, Calif. native was an All-Pac-12 second team choice in 2018 after receiving an all-conference honorable mention as a sophomore in 2017. A mainstay of the defensive corps last year, Powell was one of just three Bruins to start all 19 of the team's games. Spending time at both center back and holding mid, Powell played the full 90 in all but three games and ended the year with 1,670 minutes of action, third-most on the team.

JEFFERSON ALADE INCLUDED ON TOP DRAWER'S PRESEASON FRESHMAN BEST XI

UCLA freshman forward Jefferson Alade was tabbed to the TopDrawerSoccer Preseason Freshman Best XI before the start of the new season. He was one of just three forwards listed among the XI. A product of the Vancouver Whitecaps Academy, Alade scored 36 goals over 83 career games with the club. He saw his productivity go up as he got older, culminating in a career-high 15 scores last year in 31 games. He was a three-star recruit per TopDrawer.

LAST TIME OUT VS. GEORGETOWN

UCLA and Georgetown last met on Sept. 4, 2017, with the Hoyas pulling out a 1-0 win in Washington, D.C. The lone goal of the game was scored by Georgetown's Achara, who netted in the 12th minute. The Bruins' offense was stymied in the contest, mustering just one shot on goal (by Milan Iloski). Kevin Silva made seven saves, including four in the first half, in the loss.

SERIES VS. GEORGETOWN

The Bruins, who are 0-3 all-time against Georgetown, are looking for their first-ever win against the Hoyas. However, Monday's matchup represents the first time ever that the two teams are meeting in Los Angeles. UCLA dropped decisions in the nation's capital in 2009, 2015, and 2017.

2019 SEASON AWARDS

Matt Powell Preseason All-Pac-12
Justin Garces Pac-12 Player of the Week (9/3)

BRUINS IN RED, WHITE, AND BLUE

Former UCLA players Reggie Cannon and Jackson Yueill as well as current volunteer assistant coach Walker Zimmerman were all named to the 26-man roster for the U.S. Men's National Team in late August. Zimmerman and Cannon both started in the USMNT's battle against Mexico on Sept. 6, while Yueill appeared as a substitute. Cannon has accrued seven caps with the senior team, including a start at right back in the 2019 Gold Cup final against Mexico. Yueill received his first cap earlier this year. Zimmerman, an LAFC defender, has scored twice over 11 career games with Team USA.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, BRUINS

The Bruins will have 16 of 18 regular season games appear on TV this season, including all 10 home games. Pac-12 Networks will provide live television coverage of every regular season game at Wallis Annenberg Stadium in addition to four UCLA road games.

HOME COOKING

Starting on Sept. 26, UCLA will play a season-high eight consecutive games at home. That is the longest homestand for the program since at least 1980 (home-away designations are unavailable prior to 1980). Once that stretch begins, the Bruins don't play another road game until they head to Berkeley for a matchup against Cal on Halloween.

NEWEST BRUINS

The 2019 UCLA squad features 10 newcomers. That contingent includes a trio of Division I transfers in midfielders Jose Sosa (Pacific) and Marcony Pimentel (Pitt) as well as defender Ben Reveno (UC Irvine). Defender Ruben Soria (Santa Monica College) joins the Bruins from the junior college ranks, while Jefferson Alade (Vancouver Whitecaps) represents the MLS Academy system. Other newcomers include Cyprus-native Constantinos Michaelides (AEL Limassol), Riley Ferch (South Florida Football Academy), Luke Bone (Placer United), Ollie de Visser (Silicon Valley Academy), and Eric Pearce (San Francisco Glens).

NICE TO MEET YOU

Seven of UCLA's 10 newcomers have made their Bruin debuts so far. Pimentel grabbed a goal against Indiana, while Ferch earned the primary assist on the game-winning goal against Northwestern. Michaelides and Reveno have both started all three games, while Soria has made two starts. Alade and Bone have appeared as substitutes.

BRUINS SPLIT PAIR OF GAMES AT IU/ADIDAS CREDIT UNION CLASSIC TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

UCLA opened its season at the IU/Adidas Credit Union Classic hosted by Indiana, defeating Northwestern 1-0 in a neutral-field contest before falling 2-1 to No. 2 Indiana. Both games were decided in overtime. Junior forward Milan Iloski potted the golden goal against the Wildcats in the 95th minute, finishing off a nice team offensive sequence by re-directing a Riley Ferch cross into the net. Marcony Pimentel opened the scoring with a 53rd minute marker against the Hoosiers, but the home team equalized five minutes later before taking the game in double overtime, as Jack Maher finished a corner kick in the 104th minute.

PRESEASON IN BRIEF

UCLA was a combined 2-0-0 in preseason play, posting shutout wins over NAIA-member Westmont and Omaha. The Bruins began exhibition action with a 3-0 home decision over Montecito, Calif.-based Westmont. Marcony Pimentel opened the scoring in the first half, followed by a second-half PK conversion from Milan Iloski and a late third tally from Jefferson Alade. Eric Iloski potted the lone goal in a 1-0 road win at Omaha. The Bruins posted a 4-0 aggregate scoreline in the two preseason scrimmages.

2018 IN REVIEW

The Bruins posted a 10-9-0 overall record last year, qualifying for the 2018 NCAA Tournament with an at-large bid. The Bruins were eliminated in the first round in a road contest at Portland. The Bruins were 5-5-0 in Pac-12 play, good for fourth place in the conference. UCLA was 4-1-0 at one point in conference action, but closed the season by losing four of five against league foes. Top scorers included Matt Hundley (17 points), Mohammed Kamara (11), and Milan Iloski (8), who missed the early part of the season due to an emergency appendectomy. The Bruins had two players selected in the 2019 MLS SuperDraft, including No. 1 overall pick Frankie Amaya, who went to FC Cincinnati. Midfielder Anderson Asiedu was selected 24th overall by Atlanta.

RYAN JORDEN ERA BEGINS IN WESTWOOD

The 2019 seasons marks the beginning of the Ryan Jordan era at UCLA. Formerly the head coach at Pacific and Cal Baptist, he oversaw historic turnarounds for both programs. Jordan led the revival of Pacific's dormant men's soccer program in 2013, and turned them into one of the top programs on the west coast. Only Stanford and Jordan's Pacific squad made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in each of the last three seasons. The Santa Barbara, Calif. native also helmed Cal Baptist to NCCAA National Championships in 2011 and 2012. He is the 11th head coach in UCLA men's soccer program history.

BRUINS ENTER YEAR TWO AT WALLIS ANNENBERG STADIUM

After playing home games at Drake Stadium from 2000-17, the UCLA soccer teams have moved into a new home, Wallis Annenberg Stadium. The stadium, which seats 2,145, is located at the previously-named North Athletic Field, where UCLA played selected home games from 1967-99. The stadium was made possible thanks to a $5 million lead gift from the Annenberg Foundation. The just-completed first phase of the stadium project includes grandstands and a press box on the west side, a Daktronics LED video board and Musco Sports lighting. Future phases of the stadium project may include expanded seating, a training room, student-athlete locker room, coaches' locker rooms, meeting spaces, ticketing space, and a new press box.

UCLA100

UCLA will celebrate its first 100 years with a year-long university-wide Centennial Celebration. UCLA Athletics has several Centennial Celebration plans and giveaways in store for designated home events, including a set of 13 Centennial Pins highlighting each sport, as well as a souvenir mosaic poster that features personal photos submitted by UCLA fans. UCLA men's soccer will hold its Centennial game on Sept. 26 in a matchup against UC Irvine.

Ryan Jorden

Head Coach
1st Year
Westmont '95

Ryan Jorden was named the 11th men's head soccer in program history on Apr. 29, 2019 by UCLA Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero.

"Ryan Jorden's time has come. I am very excited to welcome our tremendously innovative and well-respected new head men's soccer coach to UCLA," said Guerrero. "At every stop in his tenure as head coach, Ryan has successfully built programs that achieved at impressive levels. He brings with him to Westwood the knowledge of what it takes to establish a consistent, winning culture and a great respect for the UCLA soccer brand, combined with a very high level of technical sports science knowledge. I look forward to seeing his vision for UCLA Men's Soccer come to life."

Jorden brings 23 years of collegiate coaching experience to Westwood, most recently serving as head coach at Pacific where he re-started a dormant program in 2013 and turned the Tigers into perennial national contenders. Pacific reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament in each of the last three seasons, one of just two west coast programs able to make that claim (Stanford).

Prior to that, he helmed the men's soccer program at Cal Baptist, transforming the Lancers into two-time NCCAA National Champions during his five-year tenure.

"It is an incredible honor to be named men's soccer coach at UCLA," said Jorden. "I am specifically grateful to Dan Guerrero and Gavin Crew for granting me the opportunity to guide the Bruin program. I am truly passionate about the student-athlete experience and look forward to bringing this commitment to UCLA. The tradition and history of success at UCLA is unparalleled, and I am thrilled to get started in Westwood."

Jorden was charged with reviving the Pacific men's soccer program in 2013 after a 28-year hiatus, and within three years he turned the Tigers into an NCAA Tournament-qualifying team.

His 2016 squad went 13-4-2, representing the largest single-season win-loss turnaround in Division I men's soccer history at 11.5 games. Jorden secured a number of accolades after that standout season, including NCAA Far West Region and West Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors.

His last two seasons in Stockton were just as successful. In 2017, the Tigers posted an identical 13-4-2 record while reaching as high as No. 14 in the national rankings. Last season, Pacific went 12-5-2 and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Over his final three seasons, the Tigers went 38-13-6 (.719).

At Pacific, Jorden oversaw the development of a pair of players who went on to be drafted by MLS teams, as Tristan Blackmon was the third overall selection in the 2018 MLS SuperDraft (LAFC) while Camden Riley was a second-round pick by Sporting Kansas City in 2019. Overall, his time at Pacific yielded 27 All-WCC selections, five All-Far West Region picks, three All-Americans, and 13 WCC All-Academic honorees.

Jorden got his head coaching start at Cal Baptist University in 2008, taking the Lancers to an unprecedented level of success during his five years in Riverside. Taking over a program that had qualified for postseason play just once in the prior 18 years, Jorden guided CBU to the postseason in all five of his seasons, including NCCAA National Championships in both 2011 and 2012. Jorden was honored as the NCCAA National Coach of the Year after both of those championship campaigns.

He recorded a 60-30-10 overall record at Cal Baptist, including a 48-15-3 (.750) mark over his final three seasons. He was instrumental in NCAA compliance management as CBU transitioned to Division II during his tenure.

Cal Baptist had 12 players earn All-PacWest honors over his final two seasons, including two-time Goalkeeper of the Year Joey Pacheco. Seven Lancers earned All-America status during that span, headlined by 2012 NCCAA National Player of the Year Carlos Figueroa.

Jorden made assistant coaching stops at Westmont College – his alma mater – Northern Colorado University, and Oregon State earlier in his career.

He served as the lead assistant under head coach Dave Wolf at Westmont from 2000-2007, helping the Warriors to an 82-39-11 record. Westmont was consistently ranked in the NAIA Top-25 during his time in Santa Barbara, including No. 1 in 2000. The Warriors claimed back-to-back conference championships in 2001 and 2002.

Jorden was an assistant on the Northern Colorado University women's soccer staff in 2003 and 2004 as he pursued his doctoral degree.

His first coaching stop came at Oregon State, where he served as the lone assistant from 1996-1999. With the Beavers, he managed day-to-day aspects of the program such as recruiting, training, scheduling, and compliance.

A graduate of Westmont College, Jorden played for the Warriors from 1991-1994. Westmont won 65 games and made two NAIA Tournament appearances during his time as a student-athlete.

Jorden completed his Ph.D. in sport and exercise science with an emphasis in biomechanics at Northern Colorado in October 2010. He earned his master's degree from Oregon State in 2000 and his bachelor's degree from Westmont in 1995.

Jorden is a USSF "A" Licensed coach, and was head coach of the Olympic Development Program (ODP) Region IV from 2013-19.

He and his wife Liz have two sons, Graeme and Evan.
