THE COACHES

Kelly Inouye-Perez
7th Year as Head Coach
20th Year at UCLA
UCLA, 1993
Overall Record: 255-88

The Perez Family - Kylie (8), Kelly, Michael (13) and Gerardo

Kelly Inouye-Perez is beginning her seventh season as the Bruins' head coach in 2013 and has an overall record of 255-88 (.743).

Last year, UCLA went 36-20 and tied for fourth in the Pac-12 Conference with a 12-12 record. Four Bruins earned All-American honors, tied for the most for one season during Inouye-Perez's tenure (2008) and tied for the most for any school in 2012, as Stephany LaRosa was named First Team, Andrea Harrison and Katie Schroeder Second Team and Samantha Camuso Third Team. Eight were named to the All-Pac-12 Team, including Freshman of the Year LaRosa, while six were All-Region winners.

In 2011, UCLA recorded a 36-19 mark and tied for sixth in the Pac-10 (9-12). Nine Bruins were honored on the all-conference teams, while Harrison was named First Team All-Region and All-American. Inouye-Perez earned her 200th career victory on March 11 against Sacramento State.

In 2010, Inouye-Perez led the UCLA softball program to its 12th national title and 11th NCAA championship in 2010. The Bruins (50-11) went a perfect 10-0 in the postseason, including 5-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA set numerous WCWS records, including the most home runs in one tournament with 14. Megan Langenfeld was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS, while Camuso and Harrison each earned All-Tournament honors. Following the season, Inouye-Perez and her staff were honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year.

UCLA set single-season school records for home runs, slugging, on base percentage and walks. Langenfeld and GiOnna DiSalvatore were each named to the NFCA All-America First Team. The Bruins also had three players named to the All-Region team and 10 honored by the Pac-10.

In 2009, she led the Bruins to a Pacific-10 Conference Championship, as UCLA went 45-11 overall and 16-5 in league play. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year and earned her 100th career victory on Feb. 22 against Maryland. In 2008, the Bruins went 51-9 and advanced to the Women's College World Series, finishing second in the Pac-10 with a 17-4 record. In her first season at the helm of UCLA in 2007, Inouye-Perez posted a 37-18 overall record and a 12-9 Pac-10 mark (t-3rd).

Over Inouye-Perez's six seasons, the Bruins have earned 16 All-American awards, 25 All-Region honors and 46 All-Pac-10/12 accolades.

Inouye-Perez, just the third head coach in UCLA softball history, officially took over the reins from Sue Enquist on Jan. 1, 2007. Enquist announced her retirement as head coach on Sept. 26, 2006.

No stranger to the Bruin dugout, Inouye-Perez starts her 25th-straight season in Westwood in 2013. She is a link to four decades of Bruin softball success, joining the UCLA softball program as a freshman in 1989. Inouye-Perez's time is highlighted by seven NCAA Championships and eight Pac-10 titles in her previous 24 years, spending five campaigns as a player and 13 as an assistant coach.

Over Inouye-Perez's 13 seasons (1994-2006) as an assistant coach, UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the National Coaching Staff of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Inouye-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruin pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in collegiate softball. Behind the dish, where Inouye-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inouye-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time, first-team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single season and career home run leader.

Since the Pac-10 Conference began issuing a Pitcher of the Year Award, UCLA has been honored with two winners, Courtney Dale in 1999 and Keira Goerl in 2003. Among the other pitching highlights accomplished by the Bruins over her 13 years as an assistant included at least one All-American award earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of those campaigns, including DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

In addition, nearly every UCLA pitching record has been set during the time Inouye-Perez has overseen the Bruin battery and the top four pitchers on UCLA's career wins list, Goerl, Selden, Freed and B'Ann Burns, were coached by her.

As a player, Inouye-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder behind the dish for the Bruins. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning first-team All-Pac-10 as a true freshman and second-team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up second-team All-Pac-10 honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inouye-Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary All-WCWS Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23). Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a B.A. in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

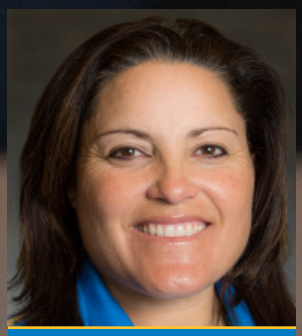

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships, with the Panthers (1984, `85 and `89) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Tournament) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, currently reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher/DH for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning first-team All-West Coast Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches health and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Michael (13) and Kylie (8).

Lisa Fernandez
Assistant Coach
15th Year
UCLA, 1995

One of the most recognizable names in the sport of softball, Lisa Fernandez begins her 15th season on the Bruin coaching staff in 2013.

This is Fernandez's second stint as a full-time assistant coach for UCLA (1997-99, 2007-), also serving as a volunteer assistant from 2000-04. In 14 previous seasons with Fernandez on staff, the Bruins have posted a 649-178-1 (.784) record and have claimed four NCAA Championships in 1999, 2003, 2004 and 2010. UCLA has also won Pac-10 titles in 1999, 2002 and 2009. The program has been honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year twice in 2004 and 2010. Arguably the greatest pitcher in softball history, Fernandez has coached seven Bruin hurlers to 13 All-American awards.

Fernandez is a three-time Olympic Gold Medalist, having helped Team USA to victories in the 1996, 2000 and 2004 Olympic Games. In 1996, Fernandez shined in the United States' 3-1 gold-medal victory over China, recording the final three outs to earn a save. She went 1-1 with a 0.33 ERA in softball's inaugural appearance in the Olympics in Atlanta.

In the 2000 Sydney Games, Fernandez pitched the U.S. to victory in both the semifinal win over Australia and the gold-medal game against Japan. She established an Olympic single-game strikeout record with 25 in a round-robin game against Australia and posted a 0.47 earned run average and 52 strikeouts. In 2004, Fernandez was Team USA's top hitter and pitcher, posting a .545 batting average (12-for-22), which set a new record for an Olympic tournament. For the third-consecutive Games, she was also in the circle for the final out of the gold-medal contest, a 5-1 victory over Australia. Fernandez was selected as an alternate to the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

Away from the U.S. National Team, Fernandez is a member of the ProFastPitch X-treme Tour (PFX), which she has played in for each of the past six summers. In 1999, Fernandez was named the Amateur Softball Association/USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year. As a pitcher and third baseman, she helped the USA Softball Women's National Team to gold medals at both the Pan American Games and the Canada Cup. She also helped the California Commotion win the ASA Women's Major Fast Pitch championship for the fourth consecutive time.

Fernandez played at UCLA from 1990-93 and completed her psychology degree in 1995. A three-time winner of the sport's Honda Award, Fernandez became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup in 1993, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports. A four-time, first-team All-American, Fernandez led the Bruins to two national championships (1990 & 1992) and two runner-up finishes (1991 & 1993). She was also All-Region and All-Pac-10 first-team each season and Pac-10 Player of the Year her final three years.

With a miniscule 0.22 earned run average, Fernandez went 93-7 with 784 strikeouts. Her ERA ranks second in NCAA history and her 74 shutouts are tops at UCLA and ninth in the NCAA annals. In her junior and senior seasons, Fernandez had the lowest ERA in the nation (0.14 in 1992, 0.25 in 1993), sporting a perfect 29-0 mark in `92. She tossed 11 career no-hitters, including a pair in the 1993 College World Series, along with two perfect games. She ranks second in UCLA history in ERA and fourth in wins and shutouts.

Fernandez was just as powerful at the plate, batting .382 with 15 home runs and 128 runs batted in. She hit .401 in her junior season, but eclipsed that mark by more than 100 points in her senior campaign, batting an NCAA-best .510 with 11 homers and 45 RBI. Fernandez ranks in the UCLA Top 10 in numerous offensive categories, including sixth in average and fourth in hits.

In 2003, Fernandez became the eighth Bruin softball player to be inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame.

Fernandez and Mike Lujan, who were married in August 2002, have a son, Antonio (7), and reside in Long Beach.

Kirk Walker
Assistant Coach
12th Year
UCLA, 1988

Kirk Walker returned to his alma mater on Aug. 7, 2012 to begin his second stint on the UCLA softball coaching staff. Walker, who was the head softball coach at Oregon State for the last 18 seasons, previously was a member of the Bruin staff from 1984-94.

"This is a once in a lifetime opportunity for me to return home professionally and personally," Walker said. "UCLA has always been my home and my ties to Westwood make this very easy. The chance to bring my partner, Randy, and daughter, Ava, back to Los Angeles to live in close proximity to my family is incredible. I want to thank Coach Inouye-Perez, (athletic director) Dan Guerrero and (senior woman's administrator) Petrina Long for making this a reality. I look forward to continuing the Bruin traditions I was fortunate to be a part of early in my career, and help my Bruin family, Coach Kelly Inouye-Perez and Coach Lisa Fernandez achieve competitive greatness for the softball program on and off the field."

"The return of Kirk Walker to the UCLA softball team is an incredible addition to our program," Inouye-Perez said. "His coaching accomplishments speak for themselves, as does his ability to make those around him better."

Walker returns to UCLA after spending nearly two decades at Oregon State. The all-time winningest coach in program history and the fifth-winningest in Oregon State history regardless of sport, Walker posted a 594-490-3 record (.548 winning percentage) and eight seasons with at least 40 wins. The Beavers made the postseason 10 times with Walker at the helm, including the 2012 campaign, which saw Oregon State post a 36-23 mark and set team records for runs batted in (269) and runs scored (301). Under Walker's tutelage, the Beavers earned 79 All-Pac-10/12 honors, 28 All-Region accolades and 10 All-American awards.

In 2006, Walker led the Beavers to their first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, as OSU posted a school-record, 28-game winning streak and reached No. 5 in the national rankings with a 43-16 overall mark. In 2005, he guided Oregon State (43-16) to its first-ever Pac-10 Championship (and the first regular-season Pac-10 title for any OSU women's sports program), earning Conference Coach of the Year honors for the second time (1999). The most wins in a season for Oregon State came in 1999, when the Beavers had 47 victories and went to the postseason for the first time in program history. Along with his Pac-10 COY award, Walker's staff was named the Speedline Pacific Region Co-Coaching Staff of the Year.

Walker has also earned coaching acclaim away from the collegiate level. He was named one of 12 coaches to form the USA Softball National Team Coaches Pool through the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens. Walker served as an assistant for the USA Elite Team for three summers (2002-04), and also assisted the USA Red National Team during the summer of 2001.

Walker spent 11 years at UCLA from 1984-94. The Bruins won National Championships six times with Walker on the staff (`84, `85, `88, `89, `90 and `92). He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1988.

The Woodland Hills, Calif. native has a daughter, Ava, with his partner of 16 years, Randy Baltimore. Walker earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1988.

Jodie Legaspi-Kiaha
Volunteer Ass't. Coach
First Year
UCLA, 2008

Jodie Legaspi-Kiaha joins the UCLA coaching staff and returns to her alma mater as a volunteer assistant coach in 2013.

Legaspi-Kiaha won an NCAA Championship as a freshman in 2004 to go with a Pac-10 title in 2006. During her four seasons at UCLA (2004-07), Legaspi-Kiaha, a member of the U.S. Junior National Team in 2002-03, played in 230 games, recording a .342 batting average, 43 home runs, 156 runs batted in, 128 runs scored, 230 hits, 40 doubles and 96 walks. Her name is listed on the UCLA career charts five times, as she ranks seventh all-time in home runs, tied for seventh in walks, ninth in total bases (403) and slugging percentage (.599) and 10th in RBI.

"I am extremely excited to return to Westwood as the volunteer assistant coach for the Bruin softball program," Legaspi-Kiaha said. "I have been blessed to have competed in the Bruin uniform, and I hope to impart my wisdom and experience on the next generation of Bruins. UCLA is a special place. The opportunity to come back and coach on a staff alongside Kelly Inouye-Perez, Lisa Fernandez and Kirk Walker will be a phenomenal experience for not only myself, but for my entire family. Thank you to Dan Guerrero, Petrina Long and the entire UCLA Athletic Department for welcoming me back."

Legaspi-Kiaha was named Second Team All-Region in 2006 and is one of 25 Bruins to earn All-Conference honors all four seasons, receiving First Team honors in `06 and `07, Second Team accolades in 2004 and Honorable Mention plaudits in `05. After her playing days were over, Legaspi-Kiaha remained in Westwood in 2008 as an undergraduate assistant coach for Inouye-Perez, as the Bruins went 51-9 and returned to the Women's College World Series.

In the fall of 2008, Legaspi-Kiaha continued her education in the master's program at Chico State, also assisting with the softball team. She joined the Orange Coast College softball program as an assistant coach in the fall of 2010 and completed her master's degree in coaching and athletic administration at Concordia University of Irvine in 2011.

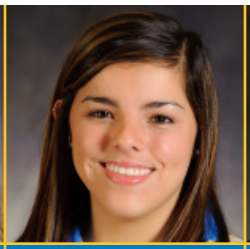

"Jodie represents everything it means to be a Bruin both on and off the field through her competitive greatness, work ethic, respect and being a great role model," Inouye-Perez said. "Jodie will have a tremendously positive impact on our current Bruins."

Legaspi-Kiaha, who graduated from UCLA in 2008 with a degree in sociology and a minor in women's studies, married Ryan Kiaha on Sept. 3, 2011.

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its named, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront. The Networks, including one national network and six regional networks, in conjunction with four of the nation's largest cable operators, marked the first time a U.S. collegiate conference or any other programmer has launched a collection of networks across a variety of platforms, rather than a sole network. In addition, the "TV everywhere" rights will allow fans to access coverage outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions" ®, claiming an incredible 119 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including nine in 2011-12. That is an average of over nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 46 of the last 52 years. The only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third (1998-99 and 2004-05).

For the seventh consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so six times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 451 NCAA Championships (306 men's, 145 women's).

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 18th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2011-12. For the second-straight year, six of the top 25 Division I programs were Pac-12 member institutions: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 3 UCLA, No. 7 USC, No. 11 CALIFORNIA, No. 19 ARIZONA and No. 24 OREGON. With three teams in the top 10, it was the most of any conference.

The Conference's nine national titles came in the form of five women's and four men's crowns. Six different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the five NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12.

CALIFORNIA, STANFORD and USC each won two NCAA Championships. The Golden Bears swept the men's and women's swimming and diving crowns for the second-consecutive year; the Cardinal raised the national championship trophy for the first time ever in women's soccer and added a second-consecutive crown in women's water polo; while the Trojans won their fourth-straight men's tennis and men's water polo crowns.

Arguably the best women's volleyball conference in the country, UCLA brought home the national title, the Pac-12's first in the sport in six years. OREGON also continued its remarkable streak in women's indoor track, winning a third-straight crown. And ARIZONA won its first baseball crown in over a quarter century as it claimed the Conference's ninth of the year.

In addition to the nine national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in eight NCAA Championship events: women's volleyball (USC), cross country (WASHINGTON), men's water polo (UCLA), skiing (UTAH), women's tennis (UCLA), women's track & field (OREGON), men's volleyball (USC) and women's water polo (USC). Overall, the Conference had 39 teams finish in the top four at 25 NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2011-12. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 14 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 53 of a possible 101 teams into the postseason (52.4 percent), while the women sent 67 of a possible 113 teams (59.3 percent).

The Conference has dominated the volleyball field, winning a record 14 NCAA titles in the sport since 1982. UCLA captured its first NCAA title since 1991, while USC advanced to the national semifinals for the second-straight year. Seven Pac-12 teams earned postseason bids, the 12th-consecutive year the Conference has sent at least six teams to the NCAA Tournament.

Pac-12 members have won 306 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 89 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 53 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track & field crowns, and 27 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 43 NCAA titles in volleyball, 38 of 42 in water polo, 27 in skiing, and 23 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions, as well, boasting 2,073 individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 31 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 22 occasions, including the last 12-consecutive years. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 145 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second, with 88. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 19 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 14 of the last 23 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 642 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back over 95 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

The University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Conference teams claimed 258 NCAA titles, including 130 women's and 128 men's.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek.

Four years prior to the start of the NCAA, UCLA softball brought home its first national championship in 1978 under the umbrella of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). After recording just 44 victories in their first three years of existence, the Bruins went 31-3 in 1978, starting and finishing the season strong with victories in 14 of their first 15 and 17 of their last 18. During the regular season, UCLA posted a 22-2 record, outscoring its opponents 101-17.

In her last season in her #6 UCLA uniform, future Hall of Fame coach Sue Enquist led the Bruins in hitting with a .391 batting average. The All-American also finished first on the squad with seven doubles and tied for the team lead with two home runs. Sophomore Kathy Maurice, an All-Region honoree, added seven triples and also belted two home runs. In all, five Bruins earned All-Region honors in 1978, with Enquist and Maurice joined by senior Lisa Richardson, junior Janice Wright and sophomore Gail Edson. Richardson and freshman Jan Jeffers keyed UCLA's success in the circle, as the Bruins posted a team earned run average of 0.30. Richardson led the team with a 0.19 ERA and 16 wins, while Jeffers has a 15-3 mark, a 0.43 ERA and a team-leading 91 strikeouts.

In the postseason, UCLA won its first three at Western Regionals, but all were 1-0 games with a pair going extra innings. The 28 innings in three days caught up to the Bruins on Championship Day against Cal Poly Pomona, losing 6-5 in the first contest. In game two in yet another 1-0 game, the Bruins advanced to the College World Series with an eight-inning victory over the Broncos. Cal Poly Pomona proved to be the Bruins' toughest test en route to the title, as UCLA outscored its opponents 18-0 in the season-ending tournament. In the final game against Northern Colorado, the Bruins prevailed 3-0 to claim their first national title. Jeffers earned three of the wins at Nationals, while Richardson picked up the other two. Enquist posted a tournament-best .421 batting average, while Edson hit .412 with a tournament-best nine RBI.

Having won the most NCAA softball championships, it was only fitting that the Bruins won the sport's first title under the umbrella of the National Collegiate Athletic Association in 1982. UCLA posted a 33-7-2 overall record, but were unable to get past Cal State Fullerton for the WCAA title (Western Collegiate Athletic Association), finishing second with a 15-4-1 mark.

First and foremost, pitching was the main catalyst for the Bruins, allowing just 18 runs for the entire season. UCLA gave up more than one run in a game just five times and 27 of its 33 victories came by shutout. During a 14-game winning streak from March 9 to April 16, the Bruins didn't allow a single run. All four pitchers on the UCLA staff appeared in between 10 and 15 games, keeping everybody fresh. A pair of freshmen keyed the Bruins' success, as All-American Tracy Compton had a team-low ERA of 0.21 and a 10-2 record, while Debbie Doom went 11-2 with a 0.31 ERA and a team-best 193 strikeouts. The upperclassmen did their part too. Senior Karen Andrews had 49 strikeouts, a 0.44 earned run average and a 6-2 record, while junior Lori Warkentin was 6-1 with a 0.25 ERA and 55 strikeouts. The pitching picked up the offensive attack, which went the entire season without a home run. Junior Dot Richardson led the Bruins with a .328 batting average en route to All-American honors, while All-American senior Gina Vecchione and sophomore Barbara Young tied for the team lead with 12 RBI.

In the postseason, the Bruins gave up just one run in seven victories to sweep through the competition. After easily dispatching of Wyoming at their home Regional, the Bruins came out on top in four straight, one-run games at the Women's College World Series, including a 1-0 victory over Cal State Fullerton. In the championship game, Doom struck out 12 and despite getting just one hit, the Bruins scored twice in the eighth inning to defeat Fresno State 2-0. Doom was named the Most Valuable Player of the College World Series, pitching 41.2 of the Bruins' 45 innings and striking out 62.

Behind the outstanding pitching duo of Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom, the 1984 Bruins won their third National Championship and their second NCAA title in three seasons. Finishing with a record of 45-6-1, UCLA claimed the WCAA title with a 7-3 conference record. Bruin hurlers gave up just 20 runs during the season and half of those runs were unearned. After dropping the first game of the season, UCLA won 21 in a row, outscoring its opponents 59-4 during the streak and tossing 18 shutouts. In all, 39 of the Bruins' 45 victories came by way of the shutout.

Doom spelled just that for opposing hitters, as the junior went 24-3 with a 0.10 earned run average and 282 strikeouts. Compton was equally as good, going 20-3 with a 0.29 ERA and 159 strikeouts. Both pitchers received All-American honors, two of four Bruins to earn the accolade that season. The other two All-Americans were on the hitting side. Freshman Tricia Mang led the team with a .376 average, seven home runs and 19 runs batted in. Senior Sheila Cornell also hit above .300 at .309, belting two homers and drawing 26 walks, almost three times as many as the next closest player.

UCLA swept past Arizona State in its home Regional, shutting out the Sun Devils in both games to advance to the Women's College World Series. After dispatching Utah State and Northwestern, the Bruins dropped their first game of the tournament, 2-0 to defending champion Texas A&M. UCLA rebounded with a 1-0 blanking of Nebraska to reach the final, but would need to beat Texas A&M twice to claim the championship. In game one, Mang drove in Mary Ricks for the contest's only run to take down the Aggies 1-0 and force a winner-take-all title matchup. Doom was in command in the circle, striking out 15 in the championship game. But it wasn't until the bottom of the 13th inning when the game was settled, as Mang hit a one-out homer to left field to give the Bruins the championship. Doom, Mang, Leslie Rover and Jennifer Simm were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Another extra-inning game and another walk-off win gave the Bruins back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1985. Recording its third-straight, 40-win season, UCLA began the year with 12 straight triumphs, and after its first setback of the year, reeled off another 11 victories in a row. The Bruins didn't allow more than three runs in a game and gave up more than one just five times.

As was the case during their 1984 championship run, it was the two-headed pitching monster of seniors Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom that propelled the Bruins. Terrorizing opposing hitters since their freshmen seasons, the duo combined for a 0.18 earned run average and 406 strikeouts. Compton led the nation and posted the second-best ERA in NCAA history at 0.08, giving up only two earned runs in 167 1/3 innings while striking out 172. She won 20 games, as did Doom, who struck out 232 with a 0.27 ERA in 180 innings. Both earned All-American accolades for the third straight season.

UCLA was on cruise control down the stretch, but faltered in its final three games of the regular season and then dropped the first game of Regional play to Pacific. The Bruins bounced back though with a pair of shutout victories over the Tigers to advance to the College World Series. UCLA never scored more than three runs in a game in the World Series, but didn't need to thanks to Compton and Doom's pitching. However, the Bruins had to fight out of the loser's bracket following a second-game loss to Cal State Fullerton. With its backs against the wall, UCLA won the next three, including a revenge win over the Titans, and advanced to the title game against Nebraska. The Bruins jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the second behind an RBI single by Chris Olivie, but Nebraska tied it in the fourth. The game went to extras, and in the bottom of the ninth, Janet Pinneau drove home the game-winner on a single to plate Leslie Rover for the championship. Compton, Doom, Olivie and Rover were each named to the College World Series All-Tournament Team.

After falling in the championship game to Texas A&M a year prior, the UCLA softball team brought the NCAA softball title back to Westwood in 1988. In the second year of the Pacific-10 Conference's existence, the Bruins won the league title with a 15-3 record and posted a 53-8 overall mark. UCLA had three separate winning streaks of at least eight games, including 16 in a row from March 21 to April 4. During that streak, the Bruins outscored their opponents 88-6, posting 10 shutouts along the way.

UCLA had four players hit over .300 on the season, with freshman Lorraine Maynez's .337 average leading the way. She also topped the team with 10 doubles and seven triples and was second with 32 runs scored and 29 RBI. Junior Janice Parks led the power department with six homers and 40 RBI, hitting .322. Both players earned first-team All-American honors, with Parks' accolade being her second award in as many seasons. In the circle, sophomore All-American Lisa Longaker handled the bulk of the duties, posting a nation-best 0.30 earned run average, a 31-4 record and 240 strikeouts. Junior Samantha Ford backed up Longaker with an 18-4 mark and a 0.87 ERA.

The NCAA Tournament began with a two-game sweep of Cal State Fullerton in Regional play. For the first time, the Women's College World Series was held in California, as the Bruins traveled north to Sunnyvale. UCLA won its first four games by a 16-2 margin to advance to the championship against Fresno State. Needing to win a pair from the Bruins, the Bulldogs took the first step with a 2-1 victory in game one, setting up a winner-take-all showdown for the title. As she had done all season, Longaker was masterful in the circle, hurling her 23rd shutout of the year. The Bruins gave her the only offense she needed in the fourth inning when Parks doubled in Stacy Sunny and Maynez to put UCLA on top 2-0. The Bruins added an insurance run in the seventh on a Shanna Flynn RBI single and won the sport's fifth national championship. Flynn, Longaker and Sunny were joined on the All-Tournament Team by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1989, again besting Fresno State in the title game. Losing just four games during the season with 48 wins, the Bruins steamrolled through the Pac-10 with a league-best 18-2 record. UCLA had winning streaks of eight, 11 and 13, to go along with a season-ending streak of 16. The Bruins didn't allow a run until the ninth game of the season (88 innings) and had shutouts in their first 10 wins. In all, UCLA hurlers tossed 34 shutouts and gave up only 30 runs in 52 games.

In her first and only season in Westwood, freshman Tiffany Boyd led the nation with a 0.24 earned run average, going 19-4 with 172 strikeouts in the circle. Although not qualifying for the NCAA's top spot, senior Samantha Ford led the staff with a 0.14 ERA and an 11-1 record, while junior Lisa Longaker was 18-1 with a 0.64 ERA. In a rarity for UCLA, no pitchers earned All-American honors, but two hitters did in senior Janice Parks and sophomore Shanna Flynn. Parks led the team with a .426 batting average, 36 runs batted in, seven triples, 10 doubles and two home runs, while Flynn hit .353 with 10 RBI and a team-best seven stolen bases. Although they hit only four home runs, the Bruins batted at a .288 clip and still manufactured 209 runs during the season.

Yet another postseason began with an easy two-game sweep in Regional play, this time of Long Beach State, as the Bruins traveled to Sunnyvale for the second straight College World Series held in Northern California. UCLA ran the table in the first four games of the World Series and had a familiar foe in Fresno State in the championship game. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs were outdueled by a Bruin hurler, as Boyd held Fresno State to three hits while striking out six in the title tilt. Parks had three hits in the final game and Lorraine Maynez's RBI single to score Julie Poulos in the third inning was the only run the Bruins needed for their sixth national title. Boyd, Maynez and Parks were each honored on the College World Series All-Tournament Team and were joined by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

Another NCAA Championship. Another title-game victory over Fresno State. 1990 would end the same way the previous two seasons ended, as the Bruins won the sport's seventh national title. UCLA cracked the 60-win mark for the first time in school history with a 62-7 record and claimed its third straight Pac-10 title with a 17-2 mark. During a 22-game winning streak from March 31 to May 3, the Bruins outscored their opponents 68-3 and did not allow a run for 122 straight innings over 13 games at one point.

As usual, it was the Bruin pitching that keyed the team's success, throwing 46 shutouts and posting a team ERA of 0.42. Four pitchers appeared in at least 15 games and three of them were freshmen, led by All-American Lisa Fernandez's 0.25 ERA and 11-1 record in just 83 innings. Newcomer Heather Compton went 18-1 with a 0.36 ERA and freshman DeeDee Weiman was 13-3 with a 0.64 ERA. The lone upperclassman of the staff was senior All-American Lisa Longaker, who led the team with 20 wins and had a 0.40 ERA. At the plate, sophomore All-American Yvonne Gutierrez had a team-best .384 average with 28 RBI, while Fernandez batted .310 with 22 RBI.

The Bruins quickly dispatched of Northern Iowa in Regional play and won their first four contests at the initial Women's College World Series to be played in Oklahoma City. For the third straight season, Fresno State stood in the way of UCLA and a national championship. Attempting to avenge their previous two losses, the Bulldogs won a 1-0 elimination game against the Bruins to force a winner-take-all final. UCLA jumped out to an early 1-0 lead with a first-inning run when Shanna Flynn scored on a wild pitch. Then in the third inning, a downpour caused the game to be suspended and resume the following afternoon. The Bruins came out the next day and immediately tacked on an insurance run in the bottom of the third when Kerry Dienelt drove in Michelle Montgomery. Compton took care of the rest, one-hitting the Bulldogs to finish off the three-peat. Dienelt, Fernandez, Flynn, Gutierrez and Longaker were named to the All-Tournament Team.

After Arizona spoiled UCLA's chances of four consecutive NCAA Championships in 1991, the Bruins exacted revenge the following year with a title-game victory against their Pac-10 rival. UCLA went 54-2 overall, but both losses came at the hands of Arizona, allowing the Wildcats to end the Bruins' run of four straight Pac-10 titles. UCLA started the season with 33 straight wins, crushing opponents by a 166-17 margin. Following their first loss to Arizona, the Bruins ran off another 14-game win streak, blanking foes in 10 of the victories. After falling in the regular-season finale against the Wildcats, UCLA finished the year with an undefeated postseason, including a title-game win over Arizona.

Junior Lisa Fernandez was masterful both in the circle and at the plate. She posted a nation-best ERA of 0.14 and was undefeated on the year at 29-0. The All-American and Honda Award winner was outstanding at the plate also, hitting .401 with 29 runs batted in. Not to be forgotten in the circle were junior hurlers DeeDee Weiman (11-1, 0.51 ERA) and Heather Compton (14-1, 0.67 ERA), who combined for 16 shutouts and 274 strikeouts. Senior All-American Yvonne Gutierrez was the powerful stick in the lineup, leading the club with a .406 average, 11 home runs and 58 RBI. Her 11 home runs tied for the NCAA lead. Fernandez and Gutierrez were joined on the All-American team by freshmen Joanne Alchin (.323 BA) and Kathi Evans (.363). As a team, the Bruins hit .304 and had five players bat above the .300 mark.

The Bruins skated past Utah in the Regional round and then blew away their first four opponents in the College World Series, winning by a combined score of 29-1 and recording two mercy-rule victories. In the championship game, it was a pitcher's duel between Fernandez and Arizona's Debby Day. The duo matched zeroes on the board until the bottom of the seventh inning. Gutierrez led off the frame with a single, moved over to second on a sacrifice by Jennifer Brundage and came home on Jenny Brewster's walk-off home run to left. Fernandez, who finished the year with 65 straight scoreless innings, was named to the All-Tournament Team along with Evans, Gutierrez and Kelly Inouye.

The winningest team in UCLA softball history set school records for runs scored (429), home runs (95) and total bases (1042), as the Bruins claimed the school's ninth national championship. UCLA posted a 63-6 record, defeating all its non-conference opponents while winning its sixth Pac-10 title with a 22-6 mark. The Bruins won a school-record 35 games to start the season, averaging more than 6.5 runs per game.

Recording one of the best individual years in the history of the sport, sophomore Stacey Nuveman shattered the UCLA single-season home run record and led the nation with 31 bombs and 91 runs batted in, also batting .446. Her 31 homers are the second-best, single-season total in NCAA history, while her 91 RBI are seventh-best. The national leaders didn't stop with Nuveman though, as junior Christie Ambrosi was atop the NCAA with 103 hits, posting a .429 average and a team-leading 25 stolen bases. Seven different players hit over .300 for the Bruins, who batted .339 as a team. In the circle, sophomore Courtney Dale and freshman Amanda Freed combined for 60 of the team's 63 victories. Dale was 33-1 with a 0.98 ERA and 218 strikeouts, while Freed was 27-4 with a 0.96 ERA and 187 strikeouts. A school-record six players were named All-Americans. Ambrosi, Dale, Freed and Nuveman were joined on the team by juniors Julie Adams and Julie Marshall.

The postseason was a clean sweep for the Bruins, going 4-0 in Regional play and 4-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA outscored its opponents 38-5 during Regionals, but things were considerably closer in the World Series, as all four contests were one-run games with two going extra innings. In the championship game against Washington, the Bruins jumped on the Huskies with two in the first and one in the second. Adams singled in a pair to put UCLA up 2-0 and Dale led off the second with a solo homer to make it a three-run game. Washington rallied and had the tying run on base in the final inning, but Freed retired the final batter to make the Bruins victorious. Adams was named Most Outstanding Player of the World Series and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Ambrosi, Dale and Freed.

Behind one of the best pitching performances in College World Series championship game history, the Bruins won their 10th national title in 2003. Sporting a record of 54-7, UCLA had four first-team All-Americans in seniors Tairia Mims and Natasha Watley and juniors Keira Goerl and Claire Sua. On offense, five players hit above .300, led by Watley's .481 average. Leading the nation with 102 hits, Watley, who went on to win the Honda-Broderick Cup, added 10 home runs, 53 runs batted in and a team-best 35 stolen bases. Mims was the top power hitter with 22 homers and 70 RBI, hitting .449. Goerl led the nation in wins with 40, posting a 0.63 earned run average and 342 strikeouts.

After a perfect run through Regional play, UCLA went extra innings in its first College World Series game with California, but fell into the loser's bracket with a 7-3, 10-inning loss. Battling back, the Bruins beat Louisiana-Lafayette and Washington to advance to the semifinals against Texas. Needing to defeat the Longhorns twice to move on to the championship game, the Bruins shutout Texas 3-0 behind a two-hitter by Goerl. In the deciding matchup with Texas, the Bruins fell behind on an unearned run in the first and were down to their last out until a seventh-inning rally propelled them into the championship game. With two outs and Monique Mejia at second, Watley tied the game with a single and moved to second on the throw home. Caitlin Benyi completed the comeback with a single through the right side to win it 2-1. In the title game against California, Goerl didn't allow a hit through the first eight innings, but UCLA was also held in check on offense keeping the game scoreless. In the top of the ninth, Stephanie Ramos led off with a double and scored the go-ahead run on an RBI single by Toria Auelua. Still working on her no-hitter, Goerl retired the Golden Bears 1-2-3 in the ninth to send the Bruins to victory. Goerl was named Most Outstanding Player and her title game no-hitter was selected as one of the Top 25 Defining Moments in NCAA History during the NCAA's 100th anniversary in 2006. Mims and Watley also earned All-College World Series Tournament honors.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA titles in 2004, hoisting the school's 11th national championship trophy in softball. UCLA had a 47-9 record, winning its first 25 games and holding a 27-1 mark heading into league play. Despite struggling to a 12-8 record and a fourth-place finish in conference action, the Bruins turned it on at the end of the regular season, winning their final five contests. Adding in a perfect 8-0 record in the postseason, UCLA won its final 13 games.

Sophomore All-American Caitlin Benyi led the country with 24 home runs, adding 43 runs batted in and a .379 batting average. Freshman Jodie Legaspi was second on the team with a .371 average, seven homers and 35 runs batted in, while senior Stephanie Ramos hit .356 with 12 homers and 31 RBI. In the circle, All-American Keira Goerl closed her career with an outstanding senior season, going 31-7 with a 1.02 ERA and 276 strikeouts. Freshman Lisa Dodd recorded a team-low earned run average of 0.79 with a 15-2 record in 115 2/3 innings.

After going a perfect 4-0 and outscoring their opponents 22-2 during Regional play, the Bruins continued their offensive prowess with an 8-2 victory against Stanford in the opening game of the College World Series. After downing LSU, the Bruins were taken to extra innings by Stanford in an elimination game for the Cardinal. Tied 1-1 going into the top of the 12th, UCLA scored twice on RBI doubles by Dodd and Ramos to go ahead 3-1. Goerl finished off Stanford in the bottom of the inning to send the Bruins to the title game against California for the second straight year. The Golden Bears jumped out to an early lead with a first-inning run and maintained it until the Bruins rallied in the fifth. Claire Sua led off with a homer and the Bruins continued the rally, putting runners at third and second with two outs. Kristen Dedmon came off the bench and got a big pinch-hit single up the middle to plate both runners and put UCLA up 3-1. Goerl held Cal off the scoreboard for the rest of the game to send the Bruins to the repeat title. Benyi, Dodd, Goerl and Legaspi were named to the All-CWS Tournament Team.

After a six-year drought, the Bruins were back on top of the softball mountain in 2010, claiming the program's 11th NCAA Championship and 12th National Title. UCLA set school, single-season records in home runs (108), slugging percentage (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

The postseason began at home with a perfect 3-0 weekend during the Regional round, as the fifth-seeded Bruins defeated Saint Mary's (11-4), San Diego State (4-3) and Fresno State (7-2). After hitting 11 home runs in the three-game Regional, the Bruins blasted three in each of the Super Regional contests against Louisiana-Lafayette, winning 10-2 and 10-1. The pair of mercy-rule wins gave the Bruins 20, which set a school record.

In the Women's College World Series opener against Florida, the game was tied at three after two innings when UCLA scored 13 unanswered to mercy rule the Gators 16-3. The 16 runs were the most ever for UCLA in a postseason contest. The Bruins broke the school record for home runs the next evening against Hawai'i in a 5-2 win with three more bombs. A two-run shot and a three-run jack against Georgia accounted for the only five runs the Bruins needed in a 5-2 win to put the Bruins in the Championship Series against Arizona.

Game one of the Finals was an instant classic. After a two-out double in the bottom of the sixth by Monica Harrison gave the Bruins a 4-2 lead, the Wildcats rallied with three in the top of the seventh to go ahead 5-4. But with the help of a two-out Arizona miscue in the bottom of the seventh, UCLA scored the game-tying run on a Kaila Shull double to send the game into extra innings. The Wildcats left the bases loaded in the top of the eighth and the Bruins would take advantage in the bottom half, as Megan Langenfeld hit a 1-0 pitch over the center-field fence with two outs to give UCLA a thrilling 6-5 victory.

The next evening, Langenfeld and Andrea Harrison hit their WCWS-record fourth homers, as the Bruins routed Arizona 15-9 to finish off the championship run. Harrison also set a new WCWS mark with 11 runs batted in, while the Bruins' 14 homers were also a World Series record.

Langenfeld was named the WCWS' Most Outstanding Player, while Andrea Harrison and Samantha Camuso, who hit eight homers in the postseason, were also named to the All-Tournament Team. Along with their 108 home runs, the Bruins also set school, single-season records in slugging percentage (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

#16 Lisa Fernandez
Retired April 22, 1995

Lisa Fernandez's #16 jersey was the first number retired by the UCLA softball program in a ceremony prior to a doubleheader against California on April 22, 1995.

Fernandez, who enters her 15th year as an assistant coach for the Bruins in 2013, played for UCLA from 1990-93, earning four, first-team All-American honors, four All-College World Series selections, three Pac-10 Player of the Year accolades and three Honda Awards. In 1993, she became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup, awarded to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in the nation.

As a senior in 1993, Fernandez led the country in both batting average (.510) and earned run average (0.25). Fernandez posted a 29-0 mark as a junior, a year in which she had a 0.14 ERA, the lowest mark by any player since that 1992 season. Fernandez also recorded a 42-game winning streak (Feb. 5, 1992-Apr. 4, 1993), the second-longest winning streak in softball history. Her career .930 winning percentage (93-7) and 0.22 earned run average rank her second in NCAA history. Fernandez, who hurled 11 career no-hitters, ranks in the UCLA Top 10 in numerous offensive and pitching categories. On the hitting charts, she is sixth in batting average (.382) and fourth in hits (287), while pitching-wise she is fourth in strikeouts (784). Fernandez is also tops at UCLA in shutouts with 74, which places her ninth in the NCAA annals.

An eight-time ASA All-American, Fernandez was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1990-2008 and won Olympic gold medals with Team USA in 1996, 2000 and 2004. Fernandez was also named ASA/USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year in 1999 and was enshrined in the UCLA Hall of Fame in 2003.

#1 Dot Richardson
Retired May 1, 1999

One of the most recognizable names and faces in softball, Dot Richardson's #1 UCLA softball jersey was retired in a pre-game ceremony on May 1, 1999 prior to a doubleheader against Oregon.

Richardson played for the Bruins from 1981-83 and was a member of UCLA's 1982 NCAA Championship team. She led the Bruins in hits and batting average each season and was named an All-American at the conclusion of those three years, earning first-team honors as a junior and senior. Richardson hit above .300 all three years, including a career-best .379 average in her first season in Westwood in 1981. She posted a marvelous walk-to-strikeout ratio, drawing 73 walks to just 16 strikeouts in three campaigns. Richardson was also named to the All-College World Series Team in 1982 and 1983 and was honored as the NCAA's Player of the Decade for the 1980's.

A 14-time Amateur Softball Association (ASA) All-American Selection, Richardson also earned seven ASA Best Defensive Player honors and three ASA National Championship Most Valuable Player awards. A member of the USA National Team program from 1979-2000, Richardson won a gold medal with the 1996 U.S. Olympic Team as a shortstop and was the second baseman on the gold-medal winning 2000 United States squad. Following the 1996 season, Richardson was named ASA Sportswoman of the Year.

In 1996, Richardson was the third softball player inducted into UCLA's Hall of Fame. She was also enshrined in the ASA Hall of Fame in 2006. Richardson earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA and is an orthopedic surgeon.

#6 Sue Enquist
Retired April 29, 2000

In a surprise ceremony on April 29, 2000, the #6 jersey of former UCLA All-American and six-time national champion head coach Sue Enquist was retired prior to a game against California.

A four-year letterwinner from 1975-78, Enquist sparked the Bruins to their first National Championship, an AIAW title in 1978, and was the tournament's leading hitter. Enquist led the team in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and RBI once. An All-American in 1978, she led the Bruins with a .391 average, 45 hits, two home runs and seven doubles. She was also named All-Region in 1976, '77 and '78. Enquist still stands third on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career average.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead that team to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, 1980). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the 1979 Pan American Games.

Enquist spent just one season away from the Bruins following her collegiate playing career, returning to UCLA as an assistant coach in 1980. She held that position until 1989, when she was elevated to co-head coach. As co-head coach or head coach (1997-2006), Enquist led the Bruins to six NCAA Championships. The first softball player to be inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame in 1993, the three-time National Coach of the Year was enshrined into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame in 2006. Enquist retired on Sept. 26, 2006 with an 887-175-1 career record.

#2 Gina Vecchione
Retired April 28, 2007

Gina Vecchione became the fourth UCLA softball player to have her jersey retired when she was honored prior to the Bruins' game against Oregon State on April 28, 2007.

As a player in Westwood, Vecchione earned All-Pacific Region honors in the outfield three straight seasons (1980-82) and is one of 27 Bruins to receive the award at least three times. In 1981, she led the Bruins in doubles with 10 and tied for the team lead with three triples and 21 runs batted in. Vecchione again tied for the top spot in triples with four and runs batted in with 12 as a senior. In 1982, Vecchione was a member of the All-College World Series team, as the Bruins won the inaugural NCAA Softball Championship. Following that season, Vecchione received second-team All-American honors.

After the conclusion of her collegiate career, Vecchione played 12 seasons with the Raybestos Brakettes, winners of eight ASA titles and three World titles. Vecchione was named to the ASA All-American team seven times and was the top hitter at the 1988 national tournament with a .444 average. Vecchione earned softball's top honor in 1997 when she became the first UCLA player inducted into the ASA Hall of Fame.

Returning to her alma mater as an assistant coach in 2000, Vecchione helped the Bruins reach the NCAA Championship game or series in six of her 13 seasons, winning back-to-back NCAA titles in 2003 and 2004, and another title in 2010. The Bruins amassed a 609-160-1 record during her 13 campaigns for a .792 winning percentage. During Vecchione's tenure, UCLA was tabbed as the NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and '04 and NFCA National CSOY in 2004 and '10.

#9 Lisa Longaker
Retired May 7, 2011

In a ceremony on May 7, 2011 prior to a game against Arizona, Lisa Longaker's #9 jersey was retired, the fifth in program history.

A three-time First Team All-American and All-Region selection, Longaker was a part of three straight NCAA Championships for the Bruins from 1988-1990. She is also one of only four Bruins to earn four First Team All-Pac-10 honors and was a two-time Honda Award winner ('88 and '90), recognizing the sport's top player.

After making the All-Tournament Team at the Women's College World Series as a freshman in 1987, Longaker was the winning pitcher in the '88 championship game against Fresno State, striking out three in a six-hit shutout, her 23rd blanking of the season. She posted an 18-1 record and a 0.64 ERA the following season during the Bruins' second straight championship campaign. One year later, Longaker completed her collegiate career with another title, again going 18-1 with a 0.40 ERA.

Longaker sits in the all-time UCLA Top 10 in all eight pitching categories, ranking second in saves (7), fifth in earned run average (0.40), shutouts (61) and complete games (96), tied for fifth in innings pitched (725.2), sixth in wins (89) and appearances (113) and eighth in strikeouts (698).

Longaker led the Bruins in ERA in 1987 (0.35) and 1988 (0.30), wins, strikeouts, shutouts, innings and complete games three times ('87, '88 and '90) and appearances every season. She tossed five no-hitters, including a perfect game, the ninth in program history, against Arizona State on April 7, 1990.

A member of the NCAA All-Decade Team (1980's) and the NCAA 25th-Anniversary Team, Longaker was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

On Jan. 6, 1997, the UCLA softball program entered a new era as Sharron Backus announced her retirement from coaching after 22 years of leading the Bruins.

Considered by many a softball icon, Backus was the guiding force of the top softball program in the nation at UCLA. The third-winningest Division I softball coach in NCAA history, Backus coached 22 seasons, posting an 854-173-3 (.831) lifetime record - all at UCLA. Included in that impressive 22-year slate was a 111-32 (.776) mark in postseason play. Backus and the Bruins brought eight national championship trophies to Westwood (seven NCAA and one AIAW), including an unprecedented three in a row (1988, '89 and '90). The Backus era's trophy case also includes four second-place finishes and three third-place awards. Her UCLA teams played in the College World Series 16 times, and after the Bruins joined the NCAA in 1982, Backus' squads made the College World Series every year they made the NCAA Tournament.

Including her award as the Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1995, Backus earned the league's top honor four times in her final seven seasons, also winning in 1990, 1992 and 1993. In 1990, Backus was chosen Northwest Region Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA). She was also selected as the Diamond National and Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA) Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985.

Backus has been enshrined in several Hall of Fames in recognition of her contributions as a player and coach. The Amateur Softball Association (ASA) Hall of Fame recognized her as one of the most honored players and coaches with induction in 1985. In 1992, the NFCA Hall of Fame welcomed Backus, honoring her tremendous successes in collegiate softball. In 1993, the Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame inducted Backus, spotlighting her enormous contributions to women's athletics. And in 2001, Backus was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility.

The Bruin mentor is most noted for her ability to teach the fundamentals. In fact, UCLA did not commit a single error in College World Series play in the championship seasons of 1978, 1982 and 1988. Backus provided solid background in the handling of pitchers such as Debbie Doom, Tracy Compton, Lisa Longaker, Lisa Fernandez and DeeDee Weiman and hitters such as Fernandez, Janice Parks, Yvonne Gutierrez and Jennifer Brundage. Backus coached the first softball player to win the most prestigious honor in women's athletics, as Fernandez won the 1993 Honda-Broderick Cup, which recognized her as the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports during the 1992-93 season.

UCLA's strength in fundamentals evolved from Backus' legendary ASA playing career. The Cal State Fullerton graduate was instrumental in seven ASA titles (1961, 1965 and 1971-75) and two international championships (1972 and 1974). A star shortstop, Backus was named to numerous ASA All-America teams during her playing career. She also played professional softball for the Connecticut Falcons from 1976-78, when the team won three World Championships.

A native of Anaheim and a resident of Fullerton, Backus continued her coaching duties in the professional ranks, coaching in the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). In 1998, she was named WPSL Coach of the Year after leading the Orlando Wahoos to the league championship. Backus also went on to serve as the Director of Player Personnel for the WPSL. She earned a bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1969 from Cal State Fullerton, along with her teaching credential, which enabled her to teach at Western High School before coming to UCLA.

After spending 31 years as a player, assistant coach or head coach in the UCLA softball program, Sue Enquist announced her retirement from coaching on Sept. 26, 2006. Enquist currently works on special projects in the UCLA Athletic Development office.

Enquist spent 10 years as the Bruins' head coach, taking over that role for the 1997 season following the retirement of longtime mentor Sharron Backus. Enquist compiled a 484-119-1 (.802) from 1997-2006 and an overall mark of 887-175-1 (.835) in 18 seasons of coaching, serving as co-head coaches with Backus from 1989-96. Enquist's .835 winning percentage puts her at the top of the NCAA charts for Division I head softball coaches. As co-head and head coach, Enquist led the Bruins to six national championships (1989, 1990, 1992, 1999, 2003, 2004) and seven Pacific-10 Conference titles. Before being named co-head coach, Enquist spent nine seasons (1980-88) as an assistant under Backus, with the Bruins posting a record of 352-85-3 (.803).

A three-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995, 1999, 2006), Enquist was named National Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) three times in 1992, 1995 and 2004. She also led coaching staffs that were named NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2004. Enquist coached 60 All-Americans during her 18 seasons as head coach and seven Honda Award winners, including Natasha Watley, who became the second softball player in UCLA history in 2003 to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports.

Enquist was either a player or coach on 11 UCLA national championship teams, including the program's first as a member of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) in 1978 when she was the tournament's leading hitter. When the NCAA brought women's sports under its umbrella starting with the 1982 season, the Bruins won the inaugural championship.

As one of eight softball coaches chosen to work with the U.S. National Team, Enquist was involved in the preparation of the gold-medal winning U.S. Olympic Team for the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta, the inaugural Games for softball as an Olympic sport.

After graduating from San Clemente High School in December of 1974, Enquist went on to play four seasons for Backus from 1975-78. Enquist became the prototypical player for Bruin softball in terms of attitude, desire and will to win. UCLA's first softball All-American, Enquist led the Bruins in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and runs batted in once. A three-time All-Region selection, Enquist still stands third on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career batting average. On April 29, 2000, Enquist's No. 6 jersey was immortalized when it became the third number in Bruin softball history to be retired.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead them to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, '80). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the '79 Pan American Games.

Away from the field, Enquist has received numerous honors, including induction into four Hall of Fames. In 1993, she became the first softball player inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2000, Enquist was enshrined into the Capistrano Unified School District Hall of Fame and in 2006, she was inducted into the NFCA Hall of Fame. In June of 2008, Enquist was inducted into the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame. Enquist was recognized with the 2004 C. Vivian Stringer Coaching Award by the United States Sports Academy. The award pays tribute to those who have made significant contributions to sports and is named in honor of C. Vivian Stringer, the Women's Basketball Hall of Famer who is the only coach to take three different schools to the Final Four.

A pioneer in softball technology, Enquist invented the SB401 training bat and the Kwik-Slide Sliding Wrap. She also completed a series of 20 instructional videos, released in 2003, and partnered with former UCLA and Major League Baseball catcher Don Slaught on the RightViewPro hitting instructional software.

Enquist earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1980. A native of San Clemente, Enquist surfed professionally from '79-'81 and continues to be an avid surfer. She currently resides in Huntington Beach.

Joanne Alchin - Australia

Kerry Dienelt - Australia

Since the sport of softball became an Olympic sport for the 1996 Atlanta Games, 15 former Bruins have participated on the world's biggest stage in their quest to bring home gold for their country. Eleven of those players have put on the Red, White and Blue for the United States and succeeded in winning medals in all four Olympic softball competitions. In the first Olympic softball competition in 1996, Team USA went 8-1, with its lone loss coming to Australia in round-robin play. In the championship game, the U.S. defeated China 3-1 behind the hitting of Sheila Cornell and Dot Richardson, who each homered and combined for all three RBI in the victory. Lisa Fernandez, who defeated China in the semifinals, recorded the final out to clinch the gold for the Americans. Former Bruins Jennifer Brundage and Christa Williams also earned gold. Joanne Alchin, Kerry Dienelt and Tanya Harding won bronze medals with Australia.

Four years later in Sydney, Australia, the United States won its second-straight gold medal, but it didn't come easy. After seeing its 112-game winning streak snapped with an extra-inning loss to Japan during round-robin play, Team USA lost its next two games in the preliminaries to China and Australia. But they would avenge all three losses in the medal round to win the gold. In the first semifinal against China, the U.S. claimed a 3-0 win in 10 innings. With Brundage and Cornell ahead of her on the base paths in the third extra inning, Stacey Nuveman launched a walk-off homer to send her team to a second semifinal against Australia. Against the host country, Richardson drove in the game's lone run and Fernandez struck out 13 in a 1-0 U.S. victory. In the gold-medal game against Japan, Fernandez picked up the win in a 2-1 triumph to give the United States its second-straight gold medal. Former Bruin Christie Ambrosi also won gold, while Amanda Freed was an alternate for the team. Alchin (Brown), Dienelt and Harding again won the bronze with Australia.

In 2004 in Athens, Greece, the U.S. was anointed as "The Real Dream Team" by Sports Illustrated. Team USA posted a perfect 9-0 record and shutout the competition in eight of those victories. The U.S. outscored its opponents 51-1 and did not allow a run until the sixth inning of the gold-medal contest against Australia. For the second-straight, gold-medal game, Fernandez earned the win in the circle. Fernandez, a three-time gold medalist, was joined on the team by former Bruins Nuveman, Freed, Tairia (Mims) Flowers and Natasha Watley. Harding represented Australia, winning a silver medal.

In 2008 in Beijing, China, Team USA steamrolled through pool play with a 7-0 record, outscoring its opponents 53-1. In the semifinals, a 4-1 victory over Japan put the United States in the gold-medal game for the fourth consecutive time. But for the first time in four Olympic competitions, the U.S. did not win the gold, as Japan claimed a 3-1 victory to upset the favorites. Nuveman won her third Olympic medal, Flowers and Watley each earned their second and Andrea Duran claimed her first Olympic medal. Fernandez was an alternate for the Olympic team. Australia won the bronze for Harding's fourth medal.

On July 11, 2005, the International Olympic Committee voted to drop softball from the Olympics and on August 13, 2009, the IOC denied softball's application for reinstatement.

NATIONAL PRO FASTPITCH™

The Women's Profastpitch League (WPF) began play on May 30, 1997. Since its inception, the league has undergone many changes with franchise locations and league names, changing to the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL) in 1999. Suspending play following the 2000 campaign, the league, renamed as National Pro Fastpitch (NPF), resumed on June 1, 2004. The four-team league has franchises in Akron, Ohio, Charlotte, N.C., Kissimmee, Fla. and Rosemont, Ill.

UCLA players have decorated NPF rosters since the league began play. In 1997, the Orlando Wahoos won the league's first title and were led by Bruin pitchers B'Ann Burns and Debbie Doom. In 1998, former Bruin Dot Richardson became a WPF Spokesperson and later that season, DeeDee Weiman tossed the first perfect game in league history. Orlando once again won the championship in 1998 and former Bruins Doom, Kaci Clark, Nicole Odom and Alleah Poulson were on the squad which was coached by UCLA great Sharron Backus, who was named WPSL Coach of the Year. In 1999, the Tampa Bay FireStix claimed the title with Bruin hurlers Weiman and Heather Compton on the squad. Clark won her second league championship in 2000 when the Florida Wahoos won the title. In the league's return for 2004, the New York/New Jersey Juggernaut captured the crown, with Clark earning her third championship and joined by former Bruin Lyndsey Klein. In 2010, former Bruin Olympians Andrea Duran and Natasha Watley led the USSSA Pride to the Cowles Cup Championship. Throughout the league's history, 22 Bruins have played for the fastpitch organization. (profastpitch.com)

The PFX Tour brings professional and amateur athletes together at tournaments so not only do young athletes get to compete, they get the opportunity to watch, learn and interact with their favorite stars at the same event. The PFX Tour offers packages that bring the amateur athletes, coaches and fans up close and personal to today's stars. The tour packages include Learn From the Pros, College Showcase Skill Session, Skill Comparisons, Pro-Am Skill Challenges and more. The PFX Tour also includes Photo and Autograph opportunities along with Meet & Greet the Pros sessions.

The PFX Tour was designed for all ages to participate and enjoy and to help promote the sport worldwide, build an elite level for more than only a few select athletes, expand the sport's fan base, create an opportunity for athletes who have graduated from college to continue to play, provide a financial package that grows with the Tour's success to offer a career choice in the sport, generate value to sponsors for a "win-win" relationship and above all, give back to the sport from the grass roots up.

Among the former Bruins who have participated on the PFX Tour are Sharron Backus, Kaci Clark, Andrea Duran, Lisa Fernandez, Amanda Kamekona, Jodie Legaspi, Tairia Mims-Flowers, Stacey Nuveman and Natasha Watley. (pfxtour.com)

Dr. Gene Block
Chancellor
Stanford, 1970
Fifth Year

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with Los Angeles, a city that offers a microcosm of the global community, and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations. An advocate of interdisciplinary scholarship, he emphasizes broad-based, campus-wide planning.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. A fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, he specializes in circadian biology, which deals with the functioning of 24-hour rhythms in higher organisms.

Previously, Chancellor Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he held the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology and directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups.

A native of Monticello, N.Y., Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

The inventor of a number of devices, Chancellor Block holds a patent for a non-contact respiratory monitor for the prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, and he is an avid collector of vacuum-tube radios.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two children.

Dan Guerrero
Athletic Director
UCLA, 1974
10th Year

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, has enjoyed great success and exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is in charge of the program at his alma mater.

Guerrero is one of the most respected administrators in all of intercollegiate athletics. He is the current president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of the NACDA Executive Committee and served as president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association in 2010-11. In Guerrero's nine years as Athletic Director, he has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (107) won, a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those nine years, UCLA teams have won 21 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 17 times and have had an additional 32 Top Five finishes (70 total). A staggering 172 teams (of 207 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 46 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 460 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

This past year Guerrero received recognition by several prestigious organizations. In May of 2011, he was honored by the Black Coaches and Administrators Association as by awarding him as the Dr. Myles Brand Administrator of the Year. In April, he was presented with the Crystal Eagle Award by CORO Southern California, an organization that provides training of civic and government leaders. Additionally, this past March, Guerrero was recognized by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) at the Guardian of the Games Awards Show by presenting him with the Clifford Wells Award for distinguished service to the organization. This past June, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the new $10.8 million, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package as well as the decision to expand the Tournament to 68 teams.

In June of 2010, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the Chair in 2009-10, he served on the NCAA Advisory Committee that resulted in the $10.8 million, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package with CBS and Turner Sports, as well as the decision to create the "First Four" and the expansion of the Tournament to 68 teams.

Under Guerrero's leadership, UCLA continues to remain one of the premier broad-based intercollegiate athletic programs in the country. In the last nine years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third twice (2004-05 and 2003-04), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

This past year in NCAA competition, UCLA won its 107th NCAA title in women's golf, placed second in women's gymnastics, third in women's water polo and women's tennis (tied), fifth (tied) in men's golf and men's soccer, ninth (tied) in men's tennis and women's soccer, 17th (tied) in men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, softball and women's volleyball and 20th in women's swimming.

Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UC Irvine's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UCI, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years.

Guerrero is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and have two daughters Jenna and Katie.

Petrina Long
Sr. Associate AD/SWA
California, 1977
Eighth Year

Petrina Long is in her eighth year as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator at UCLA, having joined the staff in June of 2004.

Long has oversight responsibility for several sports, including women's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and gymnastics, as well as several administrative areas, among them academic services, compliance, equity issues, and governmental relations.

Long came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where she served as senior associate athletic director/senior women's administrator since 1993, working closely with Bruin athletic director Dan Guerrero. She also served as interim athletic director following Guerrero's departure to UCLA.

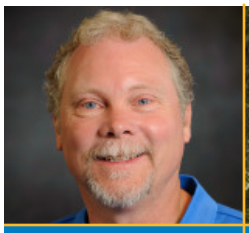

In addition to her UCLA commitments, Long is also extensively involved in a number of areas relating to intercollegiate athletics. She currently serves as chair of the new NCAA Recruiting Cabinet after serving for three years as chair of the NCAA Academics and Eligibility Cabinet (AEC) Subcommittee on Recruiting. Long also serves on the NCAA Men's Volleyball Committee. On the conference level, Long is an administrative liaison to several sports, including women's volleyball, cross country, track & field and men's soccer. She is also a past chair of the Senior Women's Administrative Committee (SWAC) and is a member of the Women's Basketball Tournament Committee.

During her 11 years at UC Irvine, Long supervised several of the university's 23 sports teams, as well as academic and student support, compliance and sports medicine. In addition, she was active in numerous groups on campus and in the community. Her campus activities included serving on the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics (CACIA), and recently chairing the Diversity Development Program Board for two years. She was a board member of the Irvine Chamber of Commerce for several years and has been a school volunteer in the city of Tustin.

Long was a member of the Big West Conference Council and previously chaired the Big West Compliance Committee for two years. She also served on the Executive Committee of both the Big West Conference and the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Prior to her tenure at UC Irvine, Long spent nine years at Columbia University, serving in both the associate and assistant athletic director positions. She was the Assistant Athletic Director for Academic Affairs at Southern Methodist University from 1982-84 and was an advisor for student-athletes at the University of California from 1979-82.

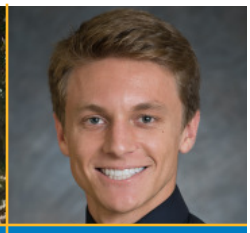

Long received her B.A. degree in Anthropology from the University of California, Berkeley in 1977 and her Master's degree in Anthropology from Columbia in 1992. She and her husband, Sam McCamey, have a daughter, Samantha, and two sons, Monte and Traland.

Nation's #1 Overall College Experience

10 SIGNIFICANT REASONS TO ATTEND UCLA

1. #1 in NCAA Titles (108)

1st ever to reach the 100 title milestone; 22 NCAA Titles in the last 10 years (#1 nationally) since Dan Guerrero became UCLA Athletic Director; #1 in Olympians and Olympic Gold Medals from 1984-2012; leader in producing professional athletes; nation's finest overall combined academic, athletic and career resources for student-athletes; the best is possible at UCLA!

2. Prestigious Academic Degree / A National Leader in Producing Top Students

Ranked in the top ten among universities in most academic surveys; professional schools ranked among top five in most areas and top ten in others; #1 in the nation for undergraduate student applications every year since 1999; among all-time leaders in producing NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners; #1 in Kaplan Report survey of student resources for the college experience.

3. Highest Quality of Life/Best Place to Live

Best in West and #2 overall public university in 'Princeton Review' in on-campus housing options and dorm food; 334 sunshine days a year; average year-round temperature of 74 degrees; 5 miles from the beach; thriving campus community of Westwood Village as part of UCLA; surrounded by Bel Air, Beverly Hills, Century City, Brentwood, and Santa Monica.

4. World Class Facilities

Remodeled historic Pauley Pavilion; the Rose Bowl (SI's #1 venue of all college sites); Los Angeles Tennis Center; Drake Stadium for track & soccer; Jackie Robinson Stadium; Easton Stadium; Spieker Aquatics Center; Sunset Canyon Recreation Center; numerous championship golf courses; on-campus golf practice facility; Acosta Athletic Training Complex for the best in sports medicine, athletic performance, and finest training equipment.

5. Legendary Coaching, Tremendous Sport Stability, Consistently Training Winners

UCLA has Olympic, National and USA Team coaches on its staff and individuals who have trained at the highest level and know how to win! No university can match UCLA's coaching stability in that only two Bruin head coaches have left for another Division I head coaching position over the past 40 years.

6. Exceptional Academic Support for All Student-Athletes

17 full-time staff working in academic and student services. This includes academic counseling, learning specialist, life skills coordinator, priority pre-enrollment in classes, academic mentors, individual and group tutoring, academic awards banquet, lecture notes, laptop lending program and career guidance.

7. Your Future at the Highest Level

USA's #1 Career Center for full-time, part-time or internship positions; average personal income for a UCLA graduate is $77,500; average home value for UCLA grads is over $500,000; Bruin Works program for Networking; the UCLA degree means success across the world!

8. Complete National Sports Media Coverage/ L.A. is the Place/Pac-12 Network Begins

More overall national, regional and local television team exposure than any other college in the nation; numerous daily newspapers; #1 in former student-athletes and students in sportscasting, news broadcasting, sports writing, acting, etc. to act as contacts for current athletes; #1 in Sports Illustrated cover appearances; Major media outlets like ESPN, Fox Sports and USA Today have offices in L.A.

9. Nation's #1 Tradition of Athletic Excellence With Historic Long-Term Success

Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Troy Aikman, Arthur Ashe, Lauren Cheney, Jimmy Connors, Lisa Fernandez, Troy Glaus, Natalie Golda, Rafer Johnson, Jackie Joyner-Kersee, Karch Kiraly, Liz Masakayan, Ann Meyers, Jonathan Ogden, Corey Pavin, Jackie Robinson, Al Scates, Sharon Shapiro, Chase Utley, Bill Walton, and John Wooden are just a few of the most significant people that have attended/coached at UCLA. UCLA is the #1 school world-wide in name recognition.

10. UCLA Intangibles/Best College Location

UCLA's overall success combining prestigious academics, top athletic finishes and tremendous social life cannot be matched by any other university. UCLA has great resources available on a daily basis for our student-athletes to be the best in any area they select. UCLA's axiom is Champions Made Here!

UCLA Has #1 Career Center

Business Week magazine has ranked the UCLA Career Center as #1 in the nation when blending opportunities for students for internships, part-time work, full-time jobs, and other needed services to prepare a person for today's job market.

Academic & Student Services (AS2)

Mission Statement: S.U.C.C.E.S.S.
"Student-athletes Understand that Character Creates Educational Self-Sufficiency"

The mission of the UCLA Academic & Student Services office (AS2) and its S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program is to provide an interactive learning environment that emphasizes life-long learning habits, goal setting, teamwork, leadership and character. Centered on the idea of the self-sufficient, independent learner, the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program features academic counseling, academic and student support services, and student-athlete development programs that support and encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential academically and personally.

The AS2 team promotes a healthy balance between academics and athletics and embraces UCLA's "True Bruin" philosophy setting forth the ethical standards of integrity, excellence, accountability, respect and service. Our commitment is to assist student-athletes in their transition to the university, earning their UCLA degree, and develop their skills and confidence to be champions in life.

Student-Athlete Development

The Bruin Student-Athlete Development Program strives to enhance the student-athlete experience within the University setting by coordinating educational programs that address personal growth, leadership, professional development, and community service. Our goal is to assist student-athletes with their transition to college, provide opportunities to enhance their college experience, support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle, and prepare student-athletes to be champions in life.

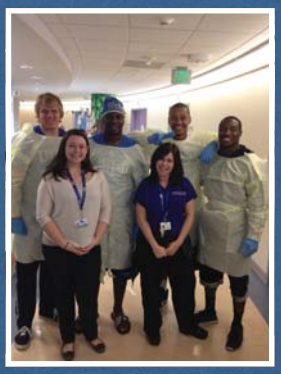

Bruins in the Community

Bruin student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in community outreach activities on campus and throughout the Los Angeles area. Examples of these events include:

- Dribble for the Cure
- Weekly visits to Mattel Children's Hospital
- Prime Time Games: Championship Saturday
- UCLA Lab School Jog-A-Thon
- 'I'm Going to College' Program
- Adopt a Classroom
- Bruin for a Day
- Sports clinics
- Elementary school activities and reading days

These opportunities give student-athletes the chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

WOODEN ACADEMY: Teamwork, Leadership & Character

The Wooden Academy is a leadership development program designed to educate and support Bruin student-athlete leaders. The program was named after legendary Coach John Wooden, and strives to teach the principles of his Pyramid of Success. We believe that these skills will assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA, and as they prepare to be champions in life. Student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars to learn practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

- Leadership Development Program (LDP): The LDP is designed to teach freshmen and transfers the skills they need to lead themselves and effectively work with others. Our goal is to create a strong network of future Bruin leaders.
- Wooden Academy Seminars: These seminars are offered to all student-athletes and address leadership, personal and professional development topics that are relevant to the student-athlete experience.

The J.D. Morgan Center

UCLA's commitment to comprehensive academic support services and a desire to expand existing resources to best serve the Bruin student-athlete of today and tomorrow remains constant. In an effort to support this ideal, UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center underwent a major expansion that upgraded the former facility into a high-tech building for the 21st century.

The project increased office space for both administrative and coaching staff, improved the student academic support services, and provided a "state of the art" Athletic Hall of Fame exhibiting the illustrious Bruin history and highlighting current events.

Below are some highlights of the J.D. Morgan Center.

Student-Athlete Academic Learning Center
