AMY FULLER KEARNEY

HEAD COACH
17th Season
UC Santa Barbara '90

Fuller Kearney enters her 17th season at the helm of the UCLA women's rowing program in 2017-18 and has established the Bruins as a consistent national competitor. After making a successful transition from a club team to a varsity program in 2001-02, UCLA earned its first-ever team bid to the NCAA Championships in 2010. In addition, the Bruins advanced to the NCAA Championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014.

UCLA's three consecutive NCAA berths helped to produce consistently top marks and strong results for the women's rowing program. In addition to three consecutive team appearances at NCAA Championships, UCLA has routinely been ranked among the nation's top 20 programs in weekly CRCA collegiate polls. The Bruins have finished as high as third at Pac-12 Championships (2012) and have competed with regular success at national events such as the San Diego Crew Classic and the Clemson Invitational.

In 2014, UCLA finished 12th overall at the NCAA Championships, with the team's second varsity eight finishing second in the Petite Final (eighth overall). The Bruins' varsity eight crew advanced to the Grand Final at the San Diego Crew Classic and won each of its three races against the nation's top competitors at the Clemson Invitational.

Amy Fuller Kearney's Key Accomplishments at UCLA

- Led UCLA to four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last eight seasons
- Helped the Bruins advance to each of three consecutive NCAA Tournaments (2012-14)
- Guided the Bruins to their first team trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2010
- Coached UCLA to a school-record 8th-place overall finish at NCAA Championships in 2012
- Saw UCLA's varsity eight crew finish first in the Petite Final in the 2013 NCAA Championships
- Responsible for the development of six first-team CRCA All-America selections
- Has produced 23 CRCA All-West Region selections since the spring of 2002
- In 16 seasons as head coach, 55 Bruins have secured CRCA National Scholar-Athlete honors
- Has seen her student-athletes secure 95 total Pac-12 All-Academic Team selections
- Developed two three-time All-Pac-12 Team selections (Britta Syverson and Vanessa Teff)
- Helped UCLA transition from club team to NCAA varsity status in 2001-02

UCLA posted its two highest team finishes at the NCAA Championships in back-to-back seasons. The Bruins finished eighth in 2012 and were ninth in 2013. UCLA's varsity eight crew finished first in the Petite Final (places 7-12) at each of those two NCAA Championships. Britta Syverson capped her four-year career in 2013 by becoming UCLA's second three-time All-America selection, along with Vanessa Teff.

The Bruins' 2012 squad not only secured the program's best-ever finish at NCAA Championships (eighth), but also raced to a third-place team finish at Pac-12 Championships, the highest such finish of any UCLA team at the season-culminating event. Not only did UCLA's varsity eight finish first in the Petite Final at NCAA Championships, but the Bruins' second varsity eight finished sixth in the Grand Final, and the varsity four was first in the Petite Final.

Fuller Kearney helped UCLA break into its first-ever NCAA Championships as a team in 2010, when the Bruins finished 12th overall at the national event. UCLA's eight finished ninth at the 2010 NCAA Championships, placing higher than any Pac-12 program in the Petite Final.

UCLA's previous NCAA Championship appearances included varsity eight at-large selections in 2005, 2006 and 2007. The eight crew's highest finish in that three-year span was a 12th-place finish in 2006.

Fuller Kearney led the Bruins' top two varsity eights to the Pac-10 Championship Grand Final from 2004 through 2007. UCLA's second varsity eight won the silver medal in 2005 and 2006 at the Pac-10 Championships.

Under Fuller Kearney, the Bruins have secured national rankings (during the season) as high as No. 3 in 2012, No. 5 in 2013, No. 9 in 2014, No. 11 in 2010, No. 13 in 2008 and 2009, and No. 17 in 2011. UCLA concluded its 2014 campaign ranked ranked No. 12 in the CRCA national poll.

Upon conclusion of the 2009 season, UCLA's Vanessa Teff was honored as an All-Pac-10 selection for the fourth consecutive season, becoming the first women's rower in program history to accomplish that feat. In addition, Teff secured CRCA All-West Region honors.

UCLA's 2007 team earned an at-large varsity eight bid to NCAA Championships, where they finished 14th overall. The Bruins helped earn the at-large entry after finishing fourth overall at Pac-10 Championships in May.

In 2006, the varsity eight raced to a 12th-place finish as an at-large selection to the NCAA Championships. Racing at the 2006 San Diego Crew Classic, UCLA advanced to the Grand Final in all three events and finished fifth in the varsity eight race.

The Bruins made history in 2005, sending their first-ever varsity eight to NCAA Championships as an at-large bid. The Bruins' crew finished 15th overall. Earlier that season, UCLA advanced to the Grand Final in each event at Pac-10 Championships. The first eight raced to a top-16 ranking and an at-large invite to the NCAA Championships for the first time in program history. The second eight made history, bringing home a silver medal from the Pac-10 Championships, a first at UCLA since rowing was elevated to NCAA varsity status.

Named UCLA's head coach on July 2, 2001 – the sport's inaugural NCAA season – Fuller Kearney came to Westwood after having served one year as assistant coach for the Stanford women's crew program (2000-01). At Stanford, she guided the Cardinal to its first top-20 national ranking in the program's NCAA history.

Prior to serving as assistant coach at Stanford, Fuller Kearney was an assistant coach at San Diego State for two years (1998-2000). She worked with the Aztecs while training for the 2000 Olympics with the U.S. National Team. Fuller Kearney has also spent time working as an assistant coach at the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga (1996-98) and for the U.S. National Team (1997).

From 1993-96, Fuller Kearney served as a motivational speaker for Champion International, a U.S. Rowing sponsor. She began her coaching career at UC Santa Barbara, her alma mater. From 1990-91, she led the women's novice program. Two years later, from 1992-93, she was the head coach of the women's team.

A three-time Olympian and world record holder, Fuller Kearney has accrued a strong national and international rowing background. In 1993, she earned U.S. Rowing Female Athlete of the Year honors. Two years later, she was a finalist for the Sullivan Award, presented annually to the nation's top amateur athlete. She spent the fall and winter of 1995 competing with the America's Cup Syndicate, America 3. She was a member of the first ever all-women's team to challenge for the America's Cup.

As a starboard aft grinder, Fuller Kearney used her strength and endurance to earn a starting spot among the world's top female sailors. In the spring and summer, Fuller Kearney again turned her focus to rowing and helped the women's eight to a World Championship in Tampere, Finland.

Fuller Kearney earned trips to the Olympics in 1992, 1996, and 2000. In 1992, she brought home a silver medal in the Women's 4-. In 1996 and 2000, she placed in the top 6 in the Women's 8+.

Additionally, Fuller Kearney has competed in eight World Championships, earning one gold medal and six silver medals (1989, 1991, 1993-94, 1997-98 and 1999). An extension of Fuller Kearney's international experience includes the Goodwill Games, the Lucerne International Regatta, and the Henley Royal Regatta. At the 1994 Goodwill Games, her women's 8+ team captured the bronze. Competing at the Lucerne International Regatta (1991, 1994-96 and 1998), she brought home five medals - three gold, one silver, and one bronze. At the 1998 Henley Royal Regatta, Fuller Kearney added another gold medal.

Fuller Kearney continued her rowing success at the C.R.A.S.H. B Sprints. She was the 2000 and 2001 World Record holder on the rowing ergometer and placed first for open women. On the national level, Fuller Kearney rowed for the U.S. National Team for 11 years (1989, 1991-2000). During this era, she recorded 12 gold medals, two silver and one bronze.

As a sophomore at UC Santa Barbara, Fuller Kearney discovered a passion for rowing. She later earned one gold medal and one bronze medal on the collegiate national level. In 1990, she was honored with the school's Associated Students Athlete of the Year Award. In 2006, Fuller Kearney was an inaugural inductee into the UC Santa Barbara Recreational Sports Hall of Fame.

A Westlake Village, Calif., native who prepped at Westlake High School, Fuller Kearney graduated from UC Santa Barbara in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in biology. She earned her master's degree in education from University of Tennessee, Chattanooga in 1998.

Fuller Kearney has also been certified by the American College of Sports Medicine as a Health Fitness Instructor and is a U.S. Rowing certified coach. She resides in Newhall, Calif., with her husband, Joe, and daughter, Shannon.

PREVIN CHANDRARATNA

ASSISTANT COACH, 3rd Season
Columbia '97

Previn Chandraratna enters his third season as an assistant coach with the UCLA women's rowing program in 2017-18, his second year as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In his current position, Chandraratna works with all aspects of the program's varsity and novice student-athlete development.

During his first season with UCLA, Chandraratna primarily coached the team's novice and freshmen rowers in addition to assisting with recruiting efforts. Among the novice highlights in 2015-16 included a third-place finish in the N8+ at the San Diego Crew Classic, finishing ahead of Big 10 bronze medalist Minnesota.

A 1997 graduate of Columbia University, Chandraratna arrived at UCLA in August 2015 with 16 years of coaching experience, including seven years working with collegiate rowing programs. Most recently, he served for three seasons as an assistant coach and director of recruiting with the women's rowing team at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). In 2014 at MIT, he helped the program to its fastest team finish in program history, including bronze medals in the varsity eight and varsity four the Patriot League Championships. The squad made appearances in the Grand Finals of its regional championships in all events during his three years in Cambridge, Mass.

Prior to his time at MIT, Chandraratna served as freshman heavyweight coach and director of recruiting at his alma mater, Columbia University, for four years. During his tenure at Columbia, the team earned a national ranking as high as No. 9.

Chandraratna also brings 10 years of scholastic coaching experience. He worked as head coach of Row New York and as an assistant coach at Pelham Community Rowing, where he helped lead squads to 10 state titles and one national championship. As Director of Programs at Row New York, he helped the program win the prestigious US Rowing Anita de Frantz Golden Oars Award.

As a rower, Chandraratna earned Most Valuable Player honors as the stroke seat of the heavyweights program at Columbia. He earned national level medals with NYAC and Union BC and trained with the U.S. national team at the National Sculling Center in Augusta, Ga.

Chandraratna earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in international relations from Columbia. He currently resides in Playa del Rey, Calif.

ANTHEA BARNETT

ASSISTANT COACH, 2nd season
Ithaca College '09

Anthea Barnett enters her second season as an assistant coach with the UCLA women's rowing program in 2017-18.

Prior to joining the Bruins' program, Barnett worked with Cleveland Youth Rowing Association and the Foundry High Performance Center in Cleveland, Ohio. Barnett's impression was made through the development of several new rowing programs and her diligence to embrace Cleveland's community.

Barnett began her rowing career at Ithaca College in New York, competing for the Bombers for four years. She helped lead her college program to the 2009 NCAA Championships.

Barnett continued coaching with the Ithaca women's rowing program from 2009-14, while also pursuing graduate studies in sport psychology. She served as an intern with Chris Kerber and the Cornell University lightweight men's team in 2014. That season, Cornell's team had a consecutive undefeated season and won the IRA title.

Hailing from Augusta, Ga., Barnett graduated with a bachelor's degree in politics from Ithaca College in 2009. In her free time, she enjoys biking and hiking outdoors with her dog.

IVA OBRADOVIC

ASSISTANT COACH, 2nd season
California '11

Iva Obradovic enters her second season as an assistant coach with the UCLA women's rowing program in 2017-18.

Obradovic was named a Pac-12 All-Century rowing selection in May 2016 after having had a decorated career as a student-athlete at California. She was a member of Cal's 2005 varsity eight that overcame a two-second comeback victory that set a championship record of 6:20.74 in the process, helping the Golden Bears clinch its first-ever NCAA women's rowing championship.

Obradovic secured All-Pac-10 and all-region honors in 2009 and 2010. In addition, she was named a Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association (CRCA) first-team All-America selection in 2005, 2009 and 2010. In 2008, she led Cal to a fourth-place finish at NCAA Championships, taking first in the varsity eight at that season's Pac-10 Championships. In 2009, Obradovic guided the Golden Bears to a third-place finish at NCAA Championships.

Internationally, Obradovic competed for the Serbian National Team from 2004-16. She represented Serbia at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China. She took fifth place in the B final of the single scull at the 2008 Olympics. As an U23 single scull rower, Obradovic secured a bronze medal at the 2004 World U23 Regatta, gold at the 2005 World U23 Championships and silver at the U23 Championships in 2006.

In addition, she won silver medals rowing for Serbia in the 2X and 1X at the 2011 and 2012 European Championships. Through her career, she raced in many finals at World and European Championships and other international regattas.

Obradovic, who grew up in Novi Sad, Serbia, returned to California for the 2011 season as an undergraduate assistant coach.

Following her days at Cal, Obradovic trained with the United States 2013 lightweight women's double sculls and the men's quadruple sculls, who were based out of the California Rowing Club. She earned her bachelor's degree in anthropology from California in 2016.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Media and photography credentials are not required for UCLA home meets. For any media request prior to a rowing event, e-mail Alex Timiraos from the athletic communications office (atimiraos@athletics.ucla.edu). All requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. During competition, video and still photographers may only shoot from the bike path. The dock or launch areas may not be obstructed. Contact the athletic communications office at (310) 206-7870 for special arrangements.

INTERVIEWS: All interviews with student-athletes and coaches must be facilitated through UCLA's athletic communications office. Please do not expect student-athletes to be available if prior arrangements have not been made.

TEAM TRAVEL: For security purposes, UCLA does not release its travel information or travel plans for athletic teams to the general public. To contact a member of the rowing team on the road, please reach out to Alex Timiraos in the athletic communications office.

UCLA'S BOATHOUSE

The boathouse is located off-campus in Marina del Rey, Calif. From campus, take the San Diego Freeway (405 South) to the Marina del Rey Freeway (90 West) until the freeway ends. Make a left on "Mindanao", a left on "Lincoln Blvd", and a right on "Fiji Way". The Aquatic Center is located at the end of Fiji Way, behind the Villa Venetia Apartment Complex. The phone number at the facility is (310) 823-0048.

Pac-12 Conference

The Conference of Champions

ABOUT THE PAC-12 CONFERENCE

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network, marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions ®," claiming an incredible 158 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including a nation-leading 13 in 2016-17, an average of nearly 10 championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 29 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 51 of the last 57 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the 12th consecutive year (in 2016-17), the Pac-12 had the most or tied for the most NCAA titles of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so nine times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 has claimed 501 NCAA Championships, nearly 200 more than the next league. The Pac-12 also became the first league to win 400 championships and then surpassed 450 when Colorado and Utah joined the conference prior to the 2011-12 school year.

The Conference's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford continued its remarkable run and won a remarkable 23rd consecutive Directors' Cup in 2016-17 to lead the conference. Five Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-15 Division I programs and six were in the top 20: No. 1 Stanford, No. 3 USC, No. 8 Oregon, No. 9 UCLA, No. 12 California and No. 20 Washington. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 20 in all but one year of the Director's Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occations (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

The Pac-12's 13 NCAA titles featured a record 10 women's crowns, two men's and one combined (skiing by Utah). Seven membership schools claimed at least one NCAA title and, of the six institutions in the country to have won multiple titles, three were from the Pac-12.

In addition to the 13 national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in nine NCAA Championship events. Overall, the Conference had 38 teams finish in the top four at 24 NCAA Championship events, including at least three teams in the top four in women's golf, and men's and women's water polo.

GENE BLOCK

CHANCELLOR
11th Year
Stanford '70

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007 and enters his seventh year as the university's chief executive officer. In his current capacity, Chancellor Block oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has set four major priorities for UCLA during his administration: academic excellence, diversity, civic engagement and financial security. He has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the Los Angeles region and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, he served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children. The Blocks are avid Bruin fans and attend the competitions of various Bruin athletic programs.

DAN GUERRERO

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
16th Year
UCLA '74

Fifteen years and 27 NCAA Championships later, Dan Guerrero's mantra of 'image and substance' has clearly been established at a level that few others in his profession can approach. At the department's helm when UCLA Athletics became the first to 100 NCAA team championships, the Bruins' program had totaled 113 NCAA titles entering the 2017-18 school year. While UCLA teams have won 27 NCAA championships since his appointment, they have also finished second 27 times and have enjoyed an additional 63 Top Five finishes.

Since 2002, more than 80 percent of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA postseason competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in 12 bowl games while recording three 10-win seasons and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08 and has made six trips to the Sweet 16. The program has also won 65 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 650 All-America selections and featured eight Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

UCLA's success under Guerrero, however, has not just been confined to North America. On the world stage, in just the past two Summer Olympic Games alone, 80 Bruin athletes and coaches have represented their respective countries, bringing home 20 medals in all, 14 of which were gold – a total most countries can only dream of.

Guerrero, who earned the 2014 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award, is the only athletic director at the NCAA Division I level (FBS, FCS and NCAA Division I-AAA) to earn three such awards (2006-07 at UCLA, 2001-02 at UC Irvine). During his time at UCLA, the Bruins have finished second four times (2005-06, 2006- 07, 2007-08 and 2014-15), third four times (2003-04, 2004-05, 2011-12 and 2012-13), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03 and 2015-16), seventh (2013-14), 11th (2010-11 and 2016-17) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

In 2012-13, UCLA won its first Capital One Cup since its inception in 2010-11, taking home the title in men's sports by vaulting to the top of the standings by claiming the 2013 College World Series. In 2011-12, both men (3rd) and women (2nd) finished in the top three, while in 2013-14, UCLA finished second in the Capital One Cup women's standings, having captured national titles in both women's soccer and tennis. The UCLA women finished 10th in the 2014-15 Capital One Cup, giving UCLA three Top 10 finishes in the last four years on both the men's and women's side.

During the 2016-17 season, 10 UCLA teams finished in the Top 10 nationally, including seven in the Top 5: women's water polo (2nd), men's water polo (T-3rd), gymnastics (4th), and beach volleyball, softball, men's tennis and women's volleyball (T-5th). Additionally, both men's and women's basketball teams advanced to the "Sweet 16" and achieved simultaneous Top 10 national rankings for the first time since 1999, and women's golf, men's tennis and women's water polo won conference championships.

Overall, with Guerrero at the helm, UCLA teams have captured the following NCAA team titles: six in women's water polo, three each in men's water polo, women's softball and women's gymnastics, two in women's golf and women's tennis, and one each in women's soccer, men's tennis, men's volleyball, women's volleyball, men's golf, men's soccer, women's outdoor track and baseball. The Bruins have recorded 44 additional national podium finishes in that span.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002), helping to elevate that program to unprecedented success. Prior to arriving at UCI, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

A proud alumnus of UCLA, Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from the University in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. Known as "Warrior" during his playing career, he was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero was raised in Wilmington, Calif. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello, and they have two grown daughters.

MICHAEL TEITELL

FACULTY ATHLETICS REP.
UCLA '85

Dr. Michael A. Teitell is in his fourth year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative, following six years of service on the Academic Senate Intercollegiate Athletics Committee. Teitell, a specialist in stem cells, cancer, and biotechnology, holds the Lya and Harrison Latta Endowed Chair in Pathology and is a Professor and Chief of the Division of Pediatric and Neonatal Pathology in the David Geffen School of Medicine.

A 1985 graduate of UCLA with a B.S. and M.S. in biochemistry, Teitell earned a M.D., Ph.D. specializing in immunology from the Medical Scientist Training Program (MSTP) at UCLA in 1993. He performed clinical residencies in pathology and post-doctoral research training at Harvard's Brigham and Women's Hospital and at UCSF before returning to the southland for a fellowship in pediatric pathology at Children's Hospital Los Angeles. He joined the faculty of the UCLA School of Medicine in 1999 as an assistant professor, served as associate professor from 2004, and was promoted to professor in the Departments of Pathology, Pediatrics, and Bioengineering in 2008.

Over the past 16 years, Teitell has supervised the doctoral dissertations of a number of students who are now becoming tenured faculty members at UCLA and other leading academic institutions in the US and abroad. Teitell is the founding director of the Cancer Nanotechnology Program in the Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center, director of the Tumor Immunology Training Program, and associate director of the MSTP at UCLA. He is Phi Beta Kappa, UCLA Eta Chapter, a Scholar and Stohlman Scholar of the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and was elected to the American Society of Clinical Investigators in 2004.

He has authored over 155 articles and 12 book chapters, with a special emphasis on immunology, cancer, metabolism, stem cells, and biotechnology. He is on multiple academic and philanthropic scientific advisory boards and funding agency review panels. Teitell's research has led to 15 patents or patent applications for improved cell engineering and disease characterization through the creation of new instrumentation. His inventions are being commercialized through a local startup company. He is an avid runner, softball player, and little league umpire.

Teitell's wife, Cindy Malone, is a professor in the Department of Biology at the California State University, Northridge. They have two children, Benjamin and Liliana.
