A UCLA WIN WOULD ...

Would mark the second bowl victory under head coach Jim Mora.

Would be the first time since 1997-98 with back-to-back 10-win seasons.

Would be the 10th straight win away from the Rose Bowl and 8th against a non-conference opponent.

Would mark the 29th win for head coach Jim Mora at UCLA.

JIM MORA
HEAD COACH
THIRD SEASON
28-11 RECORD

On December 10, 2011, former Atlanta Falcons and Seattle Seahawks head coach Jim Mora was named UCLA's 17th head coach in school history.

In year two, Mora led the Bruins to the eighth 10-win season in school history, tying the school mark for wins in a season. His total of 19 wins during his first two seasons at the helm is the most ever by a UCLA head coach in their initial couple of seasons on the job. The team captured its 10th win by besting Virginia Tech in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. UCLA remained in the Associated Press rankings throughout the full 2013 season for the first time since 1998. Linebacker Anthony Barr was selected as a first-team All-America and as the school's first winner of the Lott IMPACT Trophy. A school record 18 true freshmen saw action during the season and seven true freshmen position players started in a game to match that school record. Five Bruins, the most by the program since 2002, were selected in the NFL Draft, headed by Barr's pick at No. 9 overall by the Minnesota Vikings.

In his first year, Mora guided the Bruins to the 2012 South Division Championship of the Pac-12 Conference and matched the school-record for wins by a first-year coach, with nine. The Bruins, who played in the Holiday Bowl, set numerous offensive records during the course of the 2012 season, including establishing a new school rushing leader, in Johnathan Franklin, and several passing marks achieved by Brett Hundley. On defense, Barr emerged as one of the most dynamic performers in the country in his first season as a linebacker and led the nation in sacks for a good portion of the year. Eric Kendricks led the conference in tackles, ranking 11th in the country. Four players were selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, including defensive end Datone Jones in the first round by the Green Bay Packers.

Mora, a former NFC Coach of the Year, came to UCLA after spending part of 2010 and most of 2011 as an analyst and contributor for the NFL Network and the NFL on FOX. He brought 25 years of NFL coaching acumen with him to UCLA, including four years of NFL head coaching experience while at the helm of the Atlanta Falcons (2004-06) and the Seattle Seahawks (2009).

Mora took over for Mike Holmgren as head coach of the Seattle Seahawks in 2009. He had served as assistant head coach and defensive backs coach for Seattle in 2007 and 2008. The Seahawks went 10-6 and finished first in the NFC West in the 2007 season and won the Wild Card game. In his initial season as the head coach of the Falcons in 2004, Mora guided the team to an 11-5 record, becoming just the eighth rookie head coach in NFL history to win 11 games and the 11th to bring home a Division title. Atlanta captured the NFC South title and earned an appearance in the NFC Championship game for only the second time in franchise history. Mora was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year.

The Falcons' defense improved from a league ranking of 32nd in 2003 to No. 14 overall the next season, fueled by a league-leading and franchise record 48 quarterback sacks. Atlanta topped the NFL in rushing in all three of coach Mora's seasons as head coach. In 2006, Michael Vick became the first quarterback in NFL history to rush for at least 1,000 yards.

Mora had joined the Falcons from the San Francisco 49ers where he spent seven seasons, from 1997-2003, including the last five as the defensive coordinator. In his first year, the 49ers finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense, No. 2 in pass defense (with 25 interceptions), takeaways (41) and run defense, as well as No. 3 in the League in sacks (with 54). The 1998 squad tied for No. 1 in the NFC, and No. 4 in the NFL, with 21 interceptions. The 1997 team advanced to the NFC Championship Game, while the 1998 and 2002 squads captured Wild Card Game wins.

Mora worked the previous five seasons (1992-1996) on the staff of his dad, Jim E. Mora, as the secondary coach with the New Orleans Saints. His defensive expertise began to take shape and the Saints boasted the No. 1 pass defense in the NFL during his first two years. In 1985, Mora broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the San Diego Chargers under head coach Don Coryell. He spent seven seasons with the Chargers, advancing from the league's first quality control coach position to defensive backs coach.

Mora began his coaching career in 1984 at the University of Washington. He joined the staff of Don James in the role of defensive assistant following a four-year playing career as a defensive back for the Huskies. While at UW, Mora had the opportunity to be a part of two Rose Bowl teams (1981-loss to Michigan and 1982-win over Iowa) as a player, in addition to helping the Huskies land a berth in the 1985 Orange Bowl (win over Oklahoma) as a graduate assistant. During his five seasons in the Husky program, Washington compiled a 48-12 record, ranked among the nation's top 10 teams on three occasions, and did not finish lower than second in the Pac-10 standings.

NFL Pro Bowlers who have played under coach Mora include -- Julian Peterson, LB Seattle and 49ers; Marcus Trufant, DB Seattle; Allen Rossum, DB Atlanta; Patrick Kerney, DL Atlanta; Roderick Coleman, DL Atlanta; Keith Brooking, LB Atlanta; DeAngelo Hall, DB Atlanta; Michael Vick, QB Atlanta; Alge Crumpler, TE Atlanta; Warrick Dunn, RB Atlanta; Bryant Young, DL 49ers; Lance Schulters, DB 49ers; Merton Hanks, DB 49ers; Eric Allen, DB Saints; Tyrone Hughes, DB Saints; Gill Byrd, DB San Diego.

ROSE BOWL: THE 33rd YEAR

The 2014 season marked the 33rd year that the Rose Bowl will serve as home of the Bruins. UCLA moved to Pasadena from the L.A. Coliseum in the summer of 1982 and went 6-0-1 in that first year, capping the season with a victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl game. The 2006 season-opening win against Utah was UCLA's 100th at the Rose Bowl. The Bruins own a record of 137-62-2 since moving to Pasadena, including a 3-2 record in Rose Bowl games. UCLA is 13-6 under Coach Mora in games played in the Rose Bowl. The Bruins are 18-7 in the previous 25 home contests.

milestone in a season during the first quarter v. Arizona

Brett Hundley (now with 11,481) moved past Cade McNown (11,285) vs. USC and into top spot on all-time school total offense list; he is the first Bruin to throw for at least 3,000 yards in three different seasons

UCLA has won 10 of its last 11 non-conference matchups, seven in a row since losing to Baylor ('12 Holiday Bowl). It has won all nine regular season non-conference games and split a pair of bowl games under Coach Mora.

UCLA played its ninth bowl eligible opponent (6-3 record) of the season in Stanford ...Uva and Cal ended one win away

Bruins 8-6 Vs. Ranked Teams Since 2012 -- 2014-W #24 USC, W #14 Arizona, L #12 Oregon, W at #15 ASU; 2013-W at #23 USC, L #17 ASU, L at #2 Oregon, L at #13 Stanford, W at #23 Nebraska; 2012-L at #8 Stanford, L #11 Stanford, W #21 USC, W #24 Arizona, W #17 Nebraska.

The Bruins are 44 for 47 in the red zone this season (30 tds) for a 93.6% success rate, fourth in the nation

UCLA has 2 wins this season against teams ranked in top-15 at the time of the contest -- #14 Arizona and at #15 Arizona State and three wins vs. the final Top 25 in the College Football Playoff Rankings (#10 Arizona, #15 ASU, #24 USC)

Coach Jim Mora's 28 wins in his first three seasons moves him past Bob Toledo's total of 25 as most by Bruin coach in first three campaigns

UCLA has won its last nine games played away from the Rose Bowl (6-0 this season); last time it had a longer winning streak was in 1997-98 (10); it went unbeaten (10-0-2) in 12 straight games away from home in a series of contests in 1974-76 but never won more than six straight

Five seniors are seeing consistent action - Ryan Hofmeister LB, Jordan James RB, Anthony Jefferson DB, Eric Kendricks LB, Owamagbe Odighizuwa DL -- Jefferson, Kendricks and Odighizuwa were starters in last game vs. Stanford

Junior REC Jordan Payton's streak of 15 straight games with a reception is longest on team; his 151 yards receiving at ASU is most by a Bruin since '09; he has moved into the school's top 15 on season receptions list at #8, receiving yds at #12, career receptions at #14

Senior DL Owamagbe Odighizuwa picked up 2 sacks vs. USC and has 9.5 TFLs which surpass his previous season-best total and leads team

Brett Hundley extended his own school record with his 19th 300-yd total offense game vs. USC (326) ... He posted the 10th career 300-yd passing game (326) vs. USC which is second on the all-time school list behind Cade McNown's total of 11

The total of five 500-yard total offense games in '14 ties for most ever in season (also 1998, 1976, 1973 --records through 1973)

UCLA has put together a stretch of at least five straight wins in each season under Coach Mora; the last time it had a longer streak was in the 8-0 start to the 2005 season

After holding USC to 62 yards rushing, UCLA has won 15 of its last 16 times when limiting the opponent to less than 100 yards rushing

The 2013 Bruins became the eighth team in school history to have won more than 9 games when they tied the school record with 10 wins.

Brett Hundley owns five of the 10 400-yard total offense games in UCLA history after his 424-yard effort at Cal; It was his third 400-yard plus game of 2014. No other Bruin had recorded more than two in their career

Sophomore LB Myles Jack recorded a career-best 13 tackles at Uva. In 2013, he became the first player in Pac-12 Conference history to be selected both Freshman Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year. He was also one of five finalists for the Hornung Award as the nation's most versatile player. He has 28 carries this season for 113 yds and three rushing touchdowns (10 career rushing tds).

Soph DB Ishmael Adams, a first-team All-P12 selection, has tied the school record with two interception returns (at Uva, at ASU) for touchdowns in a season; current NFL performer Alterraun Verner holds the school career mark with four returns for score.

UCLA's six wins in the games played away from home this season are the most ever by a Bruin team during the regular season; UCLA last went unbeaten in its regular season games away from home during the 1993 campaign (5-0).

Eric Kendricks has three career defensive TDs, one shy of the school record mark held jointly by DB Alterraun Verner (2006-09) and LB Spencer Havner (2001-05) ... Kendricks became the 4th Bruin to reach the 400 tackle plateau in the Oregon game.

Eric Kendricks has 24 career double-digit tackle games and has tied the school mark with 10 this season

Brett Hundley with a completion % of .704 and a pass efficiency rating of 155.4 is hovering around school season marks of .693 (Rick Neuheisel-1983) and 168.6 (Cade McNown-1997)

UCLA has won 27 of its last 32 games when winning the turnover battle (84%) and owns a 21-37 record in its last 58 games (36%) when losing or tying the turnover ratio

Soph RB Paul Perkins has run for at least 80 yards in 14 career games, including a career-best 190 yards v. Oregon this season

UCLA won its 24th straight game in which it has limited the opponent to less than 20 points in win over Arizona; the last time UCLA held the opposition to 7 points or less was in game 3 of the 2012 season (37-6 win over Houston)

Returning defensive players who saw action on offense in 2013 include - LB Myles Jack; DL Eddie Vanderdoes; DL Kenny Clark -- They have each seen action this season as well as DL Eli Ankou, DL Ellis McCarthy, LB Isaako Savaiinaea, DB Ishmael Adams.

PK Kai'i Fairbairn has connected on 28 straight FG attempts from 35 yards and in and 11 of his last 12 attempts overall; he is now 6th in career scoring at UCLA and has seen 45 of his 72 kickoffs go for touchbacks this season.

UCLA's No. 9 AP ranking (11/24) was its highest ranking, on-or-after Nov. 23, since it was listed No. 3 in December of 1998

UCLA is 21-4 under Coach Mora when scoring first, 10-1 when doing so at home; the Bruins are 24-0 under Mora when ahead at the half

Brett Hundley has thrown for and/or run for a touchdown in all but this year's Texas game (38/39g) in which he was injured in the first quarter...He has at least one scoring pass in 35 of his 39 career games (not v. Texas-'14, at Uva-2014, at USC-'13, at Stanford-'12)...He has thrown for multiple scores in 25 contests and as many as four scores in three contests.

UCLA has produced plays this season tying for #2 on all-time lists in passing (Hundley-Devin Fuller 93 v. Utah) and rushing (Perkins 92 at Colo.)

Hundley is first UCLA QB to ever throw for at least 300 yards in three straight games (305 Nebraska/320 Houston/372 Oregon St. in 2012).

Most 300-yd passing games in a season -- Cade McNown 6-1998, Hundley 5-2014; Ramsey 4-1982, Hundley 4-2012

Most Career 300-yd passing games -- McNown 11, Hundley 10, Cory Paus 7, Drew Olson 4, Tommy Maddox 4, Troy Aikman 4, Tom Ramsey 4

DB Ishmael Adams' blocked FG v. Arizona in '14 was 13th kick blocked by Bruins since Jim Mora became head coach

UCLA ON THE RADIO

The 2014 season is UCLA's 18th with Clear Channel Radio. This will be the eighth year for the Bruins games to be aired on AM 570 Fox Sports LA in Southern California. The broadcasts are produced by IMG, UCLA's corporate and media-rights holder.

The Los Angeles all-sports station's broadcast includes a two-hour pre-game show (one hour local, one hour network) and a post-game show. Hall of Fame broadcaster Chris Roberts, a four-time Golden Mike Award winner, has been the voice of the Bruins for over 20 years (this is year 23). Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens ('83-86) is set to begin his 17th year on the broadcast team and his 13th as the analyst in the booth. Former Bruin quarterback Wayne Cook ('91-94) is in his 12th season as sideline reporter.

AM 570 Fox Sports LA also provides ancillary programming, including head coach and player interviews during game weeks.

UCLA IMG Sports Network games are available nationally through an agreement with Sirius XM Satellite Radio, the Official Satellite Radio Partner of UCLA Athletics.

Games can also be heard via the internet at uclabruins.com, and on the tunein radio app on your mobile devices.

UCLA ON TELEVISION

Following the Stanford game 134 of UCLA's last 135 games have been televised live, including 70 in a row. All of UCLA's games in the 2013, 2012 and 2011 seasons were on live TV. In 2010, each of the 12 contests were broadcast live. The Oregon State game in 2009 is the last game not to be aired live (it was delayed).

The Pac-12 Networks will air conference games and ancillary programming which will feature football coach and player interviews during the season.

UCLA is being featured on "The Drive" this season which airs each Wednesday at 7 p.m. PT

BRUIN TIDBITS

Three Bruin coaches and 12 players, including 2014 inductee John Sciarra, 2012 inductee Jonathan Ogden, 2010 inductee Randy Cross and 2008 inductee Troy Aikman, are enshrined in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

UCLA has 15 former players working in the broadcast media - Troy Aikman, Charles Arbuckle, Wayne Cook, Randy Cross, Terry Donahue, Danny Farmer, Ryan Nece, Rick Neuheisel, David Norrie, Ron Pitts, Tom Ramsey, Matt Stevens, J.J. Stokes, Rick Walker, James Washington.

Five Bruins have been voted in to the NFL Hall of Fame-OL Johnathan Ogden-2013; QB Troy Aikman-2006; DB Jimmy Johnson-1994; WR/coach Tom Fears-1970; QB/P/PK/DB Bob Waterfield-1965.

The selection of linebacker Anthony Barr by the Minnesota Vikings in the first round of the 2014 NFL draft marked the 31st time a UCLA player has been taken in round one.

Twenty-two UCLA players have been selected to CoSIDA Academic All-America teams a total of 27 times. Offensive lineman Chris Joseph (2006, 2007) and wide receiver Cormac Carney (1981, 1982) were two-time first-team selections.

UCLA is the only school to produce six quarterbacks — Troy Aikman, Steve Bono, Billy Kilmer, Tommy Maddox, Tom Ramsey, Jay Schroeder — to have played that position on a Super Bowl team.

Quarterback Drew Olson finished eighth in the 2005 Heisman Trophy balloting. It marked the 21st time that a Bruin has finished in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy voting.

UCLA has had at least one former player participate in 30 of the last 33 Super Bowl games.

The only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-10 history are Bruins (LB Jerry Robinson and S Kenny Easley).

Since 2000, UCLA has had 21 finalists / winners of National player awards --- 2014 - Eric Kendricks - Butkus Award winner, Lott IMPACT Trophy winner; Brett Hundley - Unitas Golden Arm finalist, Manning Award finalist; 2013 Anthony Barr - Lott IMPACT Trophy winner, Lombardi Award finalist, Bednarik Award finalist; Myles Jack - Hornung Award finalist; 2012 Johnathan Franklin - Doak Walker Award finalist; 2009 Kai Forbath - Groza Award winner; 2005 Marcedes Lewis-Mackey Award winner; 2004 M. Lewis, Mackey finalist; 2002 Mike Seidman-Mackey finalist; 2004 Chris Kluwe-Ray Guy Award finalist; 2003 Dave Ball-Bronco Nagurski Award finalist; 2001 Robert Thomas-Dick Butkus Award finalist; 2000 Freddie Mitchell-Fred Biletnikoff Award finalist; 2003 D. Ball-Vince Lombardi Award finalist; 2006 Justin Hickman-Ted Hendricks Award finalist; 2003 D. Ball-Ted Hendricks Award finalist; 2003 D. Ball-Chevrolet National Defensive Player of the Year Award.

On May 13, 2007 UCLA became the first school in history to win 100 NCAA team championships. The Bruins currently have 112 NCAA titles to their credit (winning men's water polo earlier this season).

MORE BRUIN NOTES

Texas 2nd home — After the Alamo Bowl, UCLA will have played games in the state of Texas in each of the past six years — 2015 - San Antonio, 2014 - Arlington, 2013 - El Paso, 2012 - Houston, 2011 - Houston, 2010 - Austin
 Road Record — UCLA is 13-4 in true road games (4-2 in '13 and '12) under Coach Mora...In 2012, the Bruins won as many as four road games in a season for the first time since 2002...UCLA is 10-3 in regular season P12 away games since 2012
 Starts — LB Eric Kendricks tops the team with 41 career starts; QB Brett Hundley is next at 39; LB Spencer Havner, 2002-05 is the all-time school leader with 48 career starts
 700 Club — During the Cal game, Hundley became UCLA's all-time leader in completions and first player to go over the 700 completion mark; also moved up into second on the all-time school passing yards list
 Rank — The No. 7 AP preseason ranking was the highest for the program since it was also ranked No. 7 prior to the 1998 campaign. UCLA climbed as high as No. 7 on both the AP and Coaches polls (Oct. 30) during the regular season in 2005.
 Long Haul — Almost one half of the Bruin regulation time scoring drives this season have been at least 70 yards long (29/59)
 Rushing 100 — The Bruins have rushed for at least 100 yards as a team in 19 straight games
 Homeward Bound — UCLA lists nine players from the state of Texas on the roster
 Under 20 — The 17-7 win over Arizona marked the 24th straight game the Bruins have won when the opponent has scored less than 20 points. UCLA's last setback when holding an opponent to less than 20 came in a 17-16 decision against BYU in the 2007 Las Vegas Bowl. The last regular season loss came in a 2003 date at Colorado (14-16) which has been followed by a streak of 43 straight Bruin wins in regular season games that the opponent has scored less than 20 points.
 Ranked Streak — The Bruins had played as a ranked team for the previous 24 straight games heading into the contest at Cal. UCLA was ranked going into 25 straight contests in 1997-99.
 100-yd Receiving Duo — Thomas Duarte (110 yds vs. Memphis) and Jordan Payton (104) became the first receiver duo to have 100-yard games in the same contest since Marcedes Lewis-108, Joe Cowan-109, Chris Markey-120 hit the mark in 2005 game v. ASU
 Defense — UCLA held Arizona to 255 yards of total offense (80 rush; 10 carries/7 yds in 2nd half)... The last time the Bruin defense allowed fewer total yards was game 11 of 2011 season (229 by Colorado)... Last time it yielded fewer rushing yards was earlier this season at Cal (56)

Fresh Count — UCLA played seven true freshmen (OL Najee Toran, DB Jaleel Wadood, DL Jacob Tuioiti-Mariner, DL Matt Dickerson, LB Zach Whitley, LB Kenny Young, WR Mossi Johnson) in the opener at Uva. RB Nate Stark joined the list against Memphis and Alex VanDyke at ASU. Last season, it established a school record by playing 18 true freshmen during the year. It also matched the school record of seven true freshmen position players starting in a game (2013 games at Oregon, vs. Colorado).
 Payton's Best — Junior receiver Jordan Payton made a career-best eight catches at Uva and set a career-high with 151 yards at ASU.
 Clark's Best — DL Kenny Clark registered a career-best eight tackles in the opener at Uva and matched that total at Cal, adding 1.5 TFLs.
 Owa's Best — DL Owamagbe Odighizuwa totaled a career-best eight stops vs. Utah and added a career-high 4.0 tackles for loss. He matched the tackle total at Washington.
 Inside the 20 — Punter Matt Mengel downed six punts inside the 20 v. Arizona; most by a Bruin since Chris Sailer had five v. Houston (1998)
 500 Club — This is the 3rd straight season in which UCLA has recorded at least three 500-yard total offense games in a season and put three back-to-back-to-back. Prior to 2012, the last time UCLA had at least three 500-yarders was in 2005. It had not previously recorded three straight in any previous season.
 Completions Record — Hundley completed school-record-tying 33 passes (for 396 yds, 3 scores) v. Memphis.
 Early Win Streak — The Bruins have started off each of the past three seasons with early win streaks - 2012 won first 3; 2013-5; 2014-5 — they enjoyed five-game win streaks in each of past three seasons
 Freshmen — Thirty-two freshmen and sophomores saw action in the opener vs. Virginia - seven true freshmen / 9 have played this season
 Schedule — UCLA played three of its first four games away from home for the first time since 2001 season when it played at Alabama, at Kansas, home to Ohio State, and at Oregon State in a 4-0 start
 Perkins Rushing — Paul Perkins ran for a career-best 190 yards on the ground v. Oregon. It was the most rushing yardage by a Bruin since Johnathan Franklin totaled 194 at Stanford in 2012. Perkins came up just shy of a third straight 100-yard game (99 v. Utah). He has four other 100-yard games this season vs. Stanford (116), at Colorado (180), vs. Texas (126) and at ASU (137).
 Long Plays — Devin Fuller's 93-yard pass play vs. Utah ties for the second-longest in school history
 Long Passes — Hundley's pair of 80-yard completions at ASU marked first time a UCLA QB had two completions of at least that distance in same game
 KOR/All-P Yds — Ishmael Adams' kickoff return for a score at ASU was first by Bruin since Matthew Slater (now NE Pats) in 2007 v. Arizona. Comparing Adams at ASU to the school records — 296 Adams' all-purpose yards/ record is 384 Maurice Jones Drew v. UW 2004 and his 201 return yards / record is 206 Terrence Austin 2008 v. Fresno St. Adams' KOR and Int. Return for scores were the first by a FBS player in a road game since 2003 (Adam Jones, WVU)
 Defense — UCLA's three defensive scores at Uva were the first by a Bruin team since a 1986 contest at Oregon State, played in Portland, Ore., where LB Eric Smith (fumble), DB Craig Rutledge (int.) and DB Alan Dial (int.) each scored.
 W/O an Interception — Hundley finished 2013 with one interception in his last 158 pass attempts and none in his final 77. He threw his first interception after 146 attempts v. Memphis. The school mark-199 by Drew Olson in 2005.
 Three D — The Bruins became the first FBS team since 2009 to score three defensive touchdowns in one quarter; they also were the first in a decade to score three in one half against a Power Five conf. opponent.
 NFL Bound — UCLA had as many as four players selected in the first four rounds of the 2014 NFL Draft for the first time since 1996.
 AP Ranked — 2013 was the first season UCLA has managed to be ranked in each of the year's AP polls since the 1998 campaign. The No. 16 ranking in the final AP poll was the first time UCLA has been listed in the season-ending rankings since 2005 (also 16).
 Staff Update — The coaching staff was kept virtually intact from 2013, with Mike Tuiasosopo (OLB/Special Teams) joining the group for Spring practice. Kennedy Polamalu (Running Backs) was added to the staff in time to coach for the Sun Bowl.
 Hundley On Target — Hundley's completion % of .668 in 2013 was the highest by a Bruin starter since 1983 (Rick Neuheisel - .693). Hundley was the first Bruin QB to lead the team in rushing since Larry Zeno in 1964.
 Fresh OL — UCLA started a true freshman on OL in season-opener for 3rd straight season (Najee Toran-2014; Alex Redmond-2013; Simon Goines-2012)
 Jack — Myles Jack's 75 tackles ranked second on the all-time true freshman tackle list behind Kenny Easley (93 in 1977). Jack's four rushing touchdowns against Washington in 2013 set a true freshman record for a single game. Five of the touchdowns versus the Huskies in 2013 were scored by defensive players.
 Touchdown Versatility — Hundley became first Bruin to throw for a score, run for a td and catch a pass for a score in the same game (at Utah-2013).
 Tackles — Safety Randall Goforth's 19 tackles at Stanford in 2013 were most since S Dennis Keyes 19 v. USC '07.
 D-Line — Eddie Vanderdoes' 11 tackles at Stanford in 2013 were most by D-lineman since 1992 (Bruce Walker-12 v. ASU)

NON-SATURDAY GAMES — UCLA played this season on Thursday night at Arizona State (win) and on Friday of Thanksgiving week at home in the Rose Bowl against Stanford (loss). Last season, the Bruins won at Utah on a Thursday night and at home versus Washington on a Friday night. UCLA had also played a Friday game during the regular season in 2011 at Arizona State. Prior last year's UW contest, the most recent home game to have been played on Friday was against Arizona on Oct. 27, 1978.

In 2012, UCLA opened the season with a win at Rice on a Thursday evening. In 2011, it played at Arizona on a Thursday evening. In the 2010 season, the Bruins played three non-Saturday games - Thu. Oct. 21 at Oregon, Thu. Nov. 18 at Washington and Fri. Nov. 26 at ASU.

Prior to 2010, the last time the Bruins played a regular-season non-Saturday game was Friday, Nov. 28, 2008 at Arizona State, dropping a 34-9 decision. The Bruins also played a Monday night game that year, defeating Tennessee, 27-24 in overtime on Labor Day night (Aug. 30). Before 2008, UCLA had not played on a week night since Thurs., Sept. 30, 1993, a 52-13 victory at San Diego State. The Bruins also played at San Diego State on Thurs., Sept. 26, 1991 (won, 37-12).

AT THE STARTING LINE — Redshirt senior linebacker Eric Kendricks tops the team with 41 career starts. The player with the most offensive starts (39) is redshirt junior Brett Hundley. The position player with the longest starting streak on the squad is Hundley with 39. Position players making their first career starts this season include - LB Deon Hollins, DB Tahaan Goodman, LB Kenny Young, DB Jaleel Wadood, OL Najee Toran, FB Nate Iese, REC Eldridge Massington, OL Malcolm Bunche (note: started previously at Miami), REC Tyler Scott, OL Kenny Lacy, DB Marcus Rios, OL Conor McDermott, DL Takkarist McKinley, DB Priest Willis, REC Mossi Johnson.

BRUIN FRESHMEN OVER THE YEARS — Seven true freshmen saw action in the 2014 opener at UVA -- OL Najee Toran, DB Jaleel Wadood, WR Mossi Johnson, LB Zach Whitley, LB Kenny Young, DL Jacob Tuoti-Mariner, DL Matt Dickerson. RB Nate Starks took the field v. Memphis and a ninth frosh, WR Alex VanDyke, saw his first action at ASU.

The Bruins established a new school mark in 2013 when guard Scott Quessenberry took the field at Oregon as the 18th true freshman to see action that season. Fifteen true frosh saw action in the 2013 opener against Nevada. UCLA played 12 true freshmen in 2012. One first-year player saw action in 2011. In both 2009 and 2010, UCLA played 10 true freshmen.

UCLA has started a true freshman in each of the last three season-openers along the offensive line. The last true freshman defender to start an opener was safety Rahim Moore in 2008 vs. Tennessee.

FIRST ACTION IN 2014 — In addition to the seven true freshmen who saw action at UVA, and Nate Starks who appeared first in the Memphis game and Alex VanDyke at ASU, other players seeing their first action as a Bruin included DL, Zach Vinci, OL Malcolm Bunche, P Matt Mengel, P Adam Searl, WR Eldridge Massington, OL Kenny Lacy, LB Takkarist McKinley, DB Alex Staff, OL Poasi Moala.

LINEBACKER — Senior ERIC KENDRICKS (#6) ranks first in the NCAA in solo tackles (8.0/g) and sixth in total tackles (11.6/g). He became UCLA's all-time leading tackler with a fourth quarter stop against Stanford. Earlier in the season vs. Oregon, Kendrickricks became just the fourth Bruin defender to total as many as 400 tackles for a career. The Fresno native moved into second on the all-time school list for tackles during the Cal game. He matched his season-best with 16 stops at Colorado and added an interception. Against Arizona, Kendrickricks reached the century mark and became the third Bruin to post three straight 100-tackle seasons. Against USC, he totaled 14 stops and added an interception. He recorded the 24th double-digit tackles game of his career with an 11-tackle effort vs. Stanford.

Kendrickricks has three defensive touchdowns in his career, one shy of the school record held jointly by future NFL performers Alterraun Verner (2006-09) and Spencer Havner (2001-05). He had 10 stops v. Oregon. At UVa, he began the 2014 season with 16 tackles. The co-captain added a forced fumble which was returned for a touchdown and a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown of his own. Kendrickricks was named the National Defensive Player of the Week by Nagurski, Athlon and Walter Camp and the Pac-12 Conference POW. He started all 11 games he played in 2013 and served as co-captain. He led the team in tackles for the second straight season; ranked third in the Pac-12 in tackles average (8.8). He posted four double-digit tackle games topped by 13-stop efforts at Utah and at Arizona. In 2012, he started all 14 games in 2012. He led the Pac-12 in tackles with an average of 10.64, a mark which ranked 11th in the nation. He was the first Bruin to lead the conference in tackles since Spencer Havner in 2004. During 2012, Kendrickricks returned two fumbles for scores (23 yards Houston/40 at Washington St.), blocked a punt (USC) and made his first career interception (USC). His total of 150 tackles was the most by a Bruin player since Jerry Robinson registered a school-record 161 stops in 1978. He had a best of 17 tackles at Arizona State. He was named Pac-12 Player of the Week after the USC and Arizona wins. He appeared in all 14 games in 2011, starting the final three, and was second on squad in tackles.

Kendrickricks' dad, Marv, played at UCLA and led the team in rushing in 1970 and 1971. Eric's brother, Mychal, played linebacker for Cal and is now starting his third season in the NFL with the Eagles.

True sophomore linebacker MYLES JACK (#30) ranks second on the team with seven pass breakups. The second-team All-P12 selection recorded 10 stops vs. Stanford. He found the end zone on a 28-yd run at Washington. Jack scored a rushing touchdown and made 2.0 tackles for loss at Colorado. He registered nine stops, including a tackle for loss, v. Oregon. He added three carries on offense (14 yds) and ran in a two-point conversion. Jack had seven tackles v. Texas and had five carries on offense for 14 yards. He had six tackles, one for loss, and carried three times on offense for one score v. Memphis. Jack recorded a career-best 13 tackles in the opener at UVa and was credited with two pass defenses. He did not see action on offense versus the Cavaliers.

Last season, he became the first player in conference history to be named both Offensive and Defensive Freshman of the Year by the Pac-12 coaches. He was a finalist for the Hornung Award as the nation's most versatile player. Jack joined the starting lineup at linebacker in game two at Nebraska. He had recorded eight tackles in the opener against Nevada. He made his first interception at Utah. Jack forced a fumble and blocked a punt at Oregon. He returned an interception for a score against Virginia Tech.

He played on offense for the first time in 2013 at Arizona (game 9) and ran six times for 120 yards, including a 66-yard touchdown jaunt. His total of four rushing touchdowns against Washington set a true freshman record (old mark Wendell Tyler, 1972 and DeShaun Foster, 1998 - 3). Jack made his first start at running back against Arizona State and carried 16 times for 86 yards and a touchdown.

ISHMAEL ADAMS (#1) has been granted a substitute year of eligibility due to injury (2012) and is now considered a redshirt sophomore. The first-team All-P12 selection was credited with a blocked field goal late in the Arizona game. Adams racked up 296 all-purpose yards, including a 95-yard interception return and a 100-yard kickoff return at Arizona State (5 KORs for 201 yds). Adams returned four kickoffs for 95 yds (38 yd long) and added seven tackles v. Memphis. He tied for the team lead with 98 all-purpose yards (p ret./ko ret./int.) in the opener at Virginia. He added four tackles and returned an interception for a touchdown. He has twice been listed on the Hornung Award Week Honor Roll.

In 2013, he led the Bruins in interceptions in 2013 with four. It was his initial season as a starter after seeing action in just two games in 2012 due to injury. He returned kicks for the first time in his career last season against Arizona State (game 11) and was named the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week after compiling 234 return yards in that contest. His efforts in the return game led to three UCLA scores, including a 58-yard return on the Sun Devil's first kickoff of the game and a 49-yard punt return.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Senior OWAMAGBE ODIGHIZUWA (#94) has 9.5 tackles for loss (tops on team) and 55 tackles which each surpass his previous season-best totals. The second-team All-P12 selection had a career-best eight stops v. Utah, including 4.0 tackles for loss and a sack. He matched that tackle total in his last outing at Washington. He sat out in 2013 due to injury. He returned to the starting lineup at UVa and was credited with two tackles and a quarterback pressure which led to an interception.

In 2012, he saw action in all 14 games, with one start, and ranked ninth on team with 44 tackles. Owa appeared in all 14 games in 2011 and made a start. A strong student, he has earned academic honors in each of his seasons.

True sophomore EDDIE VANDERDOES (#47) was credited with eight tackles v. Arizona. He totaled a season-best nine stops v. Utah, including a tackle for loss, and added a rushing touchdown on offense. He had three tackles and a forced fumble at Arizona State. Vanderdoes made four tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss v. Texas.

He appeared in all 13 games in 2013 and made seven starts. He registered 39 tackles on the year, 4.5 for loss. Vanderdoes' 11 tackles at Stanford were the most by a Bruin defensive lineman since 1992 (Bruce Walker-12). He made multiple tackles in nine games and had two tackles for loss in his first career game versus Nevada. Vanderdoes (fullback/TE) also played on offense last year, scoring a touchdown on a one-yard run and catching a pass for an 18-yard gain.

Hundley scored a touchdown after taking his first snap as a college player at Rice in 2012. His 372 passing yards against Oregon State in 2012 marked the third straight game above the 300-yard mark, a new school record. It was the second-highest total in a single game by a UCLA freshman (Maddox, 409 vs. USC, 1990).

Hundley graduated early from Chandler HS in Chandler, AZ and joined the Bruins in Winter Quarter 2011 (January). He took part in spring practice at UCLA, but was limited early in the 2011 fall camp due to a summer injury. Hundley did not see action in the 2011 season. He participated in a second spring practice in 2012 and won the starting job in pre-season camp.

OFFENSIVE LINE — This group paved the way for the 13th Bruin to surpass the 1,000-yard rushing milestone and the conference rushing leader, Paul Perkins. For the third straight season, UCLA started a true freshman in the opening day lineup. NAJEE TORAN (#69) opened at guard at UVa joining Alex Redmond in 2013 and Simon Goines in 2012.

Redshirt junior JAKE BRENDL (#54), a team co-captain, was named to the 2014 Outland and Rimington Watch Lists after starting 27 games in the previous two seasons. He was an honorable mention all-conf. performer last year and a first-team Academic All-Pac-12 selection.

True junior SIMON GOINES (#70), who has not played this season, started 13 games at tackle in 2012, matching Xavier Su'a-Filo's school record total for a true freshman position player.

He was one of three Bruin freshmen to start in the 2012 season-opener at Rice, the most freshmen (true and redshirt) UCLA has ever started along the o-line in a season's first game.

Sophomore guard ALEX REDMOND (#51) matched that school mark with 13 starts last year.

He joined tackle CALEB BENENOCH (#74) to become the first pair of Bruin true freshmen to ever start together on the offensive line in the 2013 game against Cal. SCOTT QUESSENBERY (#52) joined the group to make it the first trio of true freshmen to ever start together on the offensive line at Oregon in 2013. Benenoch made nine starts in 2013, while Quessenberry totaled six last season. Tackle CONOR McDERMOTT (#68) made his first start vs. Oregon as a blocking tight end and then at tackle versus Cal.

Brendel was named to the second-team of the all-conference unit. Benenoch, Quessenberry and Redmond earned honorable mention 2014 All-P12 honors.

RECEIVERS — True junior DEVIN FULLER (#7) hauled in a pass and ran 93-yards for a score vs. Utah. It tied for the second-longest pass play in UCLA history. His 120 career catches rank 13th on the all-time school list. Fuller caught nine passes for 58 yards v. Memphis. He grabbed 43 receptions last season to more than double his total in 2012. In 2013, he made 10 starts. He saw action in nine games, with two starts (both v. Stanford) in 2012. Fuller made a true freshman school record seven catches in 2012 P12 Championship Game at Stanford.

The second-team All-P12 selection has caught a pass in a team-best 15 consecutive games. He grabbed two scoring passes vs. Oregon (5 and 25 yds). Payton caught seven balls v. Utah. He totaled 151 receiving yards and made two scoring catches, one for 80-yards, at ASU. Payton hauled in the game-winner v. Texas (33 yds) among his four catches on the night. He recorded a career-best 8 catches for 98 yards in the season-opener at Virginia. Payton had 104 yards v. Memphis on seven catches.

He more than doubled his 2012 season total number of catches (18) with 38 last year to rank third on team. He made 10 starts in 2013 and caught multiple passes in 12 of the 13 games. In 2012, he saw action in 13 games, with four starts. He grabbed three passes (37) and scored his first career touchdown (17-yard pass from Hundley) against Arizona.

RUNNING BACKS — Redshirt sophomore PAUL PERKINS (#24) has moved to the top of the Pac-12 rushing lists (115.1 per game avg.). His total of 1,381 rushing yards rank sixth on the all-time school list. He achieved his fifth 100-yard game vs. Stanford (116). Perkins became the 13th Bruin to reach the 1,000-yard mark for a season in the game against Arizona. At Colorado, he used a 92-scoring run (tied for second-longest in UCLA history) to help total 180 yards. The Arizona native recorded his first two scoring receptions at Cal. He also ran for 86 yards. Perkins ran for a career-best 190 yards on 22 carries v. Oregon. He had 137 yards at ASU. In Texas, he produced a big night with 24 carries for 126 yards and five catches (69 yds). He ran for 99 yards vs. Utah. Perkins came off the bench to run 16 times for 80 yards in the 2014 season opener at UVa. He rushed for 98 yards on 23 carries and two touchdowns vs. Memphis and made three catches.

In 2013, he saw his first game action and made four starts. He ran for scores in games vs. Nevada, at Nebraska, Cal, ASU, USC and Virginia Tech. He caught three balls at USC for 79 yards. Perkins ran for 92 yards at Utah and for 93 yards, on 22 carries, at Oregon. He was named honorable mention academic all-conference.

QUARTERBACK— Redshirt soph JERRY NEUHEISEL (#11) came off the bench after a first-quarter injury to starter Brett Hundley in Texas to throw a pair of scoring passes and directed three scoring drives in the second half to rally the Bruins from a 10-3 halftime deficit. The second of Neuheisel's scoring passes was the game-winner, a 33-yard toss to Jordan Payton with 3:00 remaining. Neuheisel's first touchdown pass of his career, a three-yarder to Nate Iese, came on the initial drive of the second half and evened the score at 10-all. He also piloted the Bruins on a 16-play, 71-yard field goal drive which had put UCLA up 13-10 early in the fourth quarter.

Neuheisel has been the holder on placekicks the past two seasons. He saw action at quarterback last season against Nevada (two drives), New Mexico State (three drives, two for scores) and at Utah (for one series).

UCLA scored three defensive touchdowns in its season opener at Virginia. Randall Goforth took this fumble recovery back 75 yards.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - Brett Hundley was all smiles, mostly because of his defense.

Seventh-ranked UCLA scored three defensive touchdowns in the second quarter Saturday, and Hundley led them on a critical second-half scoring drive as the Bruins escaped Virginia 28-20 in the opener for both teams.

Hundley, widely regarded as one of the nation's top quarterbacks, was harassed all day by Virginia's pressure defense, which sacked him five times, and made the biggest play of the day for UCLA with his feet. It came on a 6-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter when safety Quin Blanding met him around the 3 yard-line, and Hundley overpowered him.

That he only had to make one was thanks to the defense, which registered three scores for the first time since 1986.

The Cavaliers had a first down at the Bruins' 19 late in the game, but three running plays netted just two yards, and linebacker Myles Jack disrupted Matt Johns' fourth-and-8 pass to Doni Dowling.

The third-down run was Johns' fault, he said.

That Johns was even in the game was a surprise, but he came on to replace Greyson Lambert late in the first half, after the Bruins' third defensive touchdown gave them a 21-3 lead. Johns then led a touchdown drive and played the entire second half, creating questions about what had seemed to be a settled quarterback situation for Virginia.

Throughout the preseason, the development of Lambert as a player and a leader was touted by players and coaches as a great reason to be optimistic about the season. Then Johns outplayed him.

The Bruins have no such problem behind center, and when he needed to, Hundley showed why. UCLA led just 21-17 and had not scored an offensive touchdown when it took over at its 34 late in the third quarter.

Hundley completed passes of 15 yards to Eldridge Massington and 25 yards to Thomas Duarte on the 66-yard march, and capped it with the run up the middle, bullying over safety Blanding for the TD. That made it 28-17, and all the momentum brought by Johns' play dissipated.

Johns put together his second touchdown march on Virginia's second drive of the second half. He kept it alive by hitting Dowling for 11 yards on a third-and-6, saw Kevin Parks run for 13 on a fourth-and-2 to the Bruins' 13, then hit Darius Jennings for 23 yards and the touchdown to make it 21-17.

The drive brought life back into the crowd of 44,479, the smallest for a Virginia opener since 1998, but after the teams exchanged possessions, Hundley put together the drive that proved the difference.

Lambert and the Cavaliers' defense were heralded as reasons for optimism, and while the defense was solid all day, Lambert didn't even make it to halftime. He had one passed tipped at the line and intercepted by Ishmael Adams, who returned it 20 yards for a touchdown, and another one that Eric Kendrick picked off and took 37 yards for a score. In between, Lambert hit Kyle Dockins for what appeared to be a third-down conversion in Bruins territory, but Dockins fumbled into the hands of Randall Goforth, who returned it 75 yards for a TD.

In the home opener Brett Hundley tied a school record with 33 completions en route to throwing for 396 yards and three touchdowns.

PASADENA, Calif. - Brett Hundley passed for 396 yards and three touchdowns, Paul Perkins rushed for two scores and No. 11 UCLA survived a fourth-quarter scare for a 42-35 victory over Memphis on Saturday night.

Thomas Duarte caught two TD passes and linebacker Myles Jack rushed for his first score of the season for the Bruins (2-0), who held off the underdog Tigers (1-1) despite 540 yards of total offense.

Memphis safety Fritz Etienne returned an interception 17 yards for the tying score with 13:44 to play moments after Doroland Dorceus' 40-yard TD run, stunning a Rose Bowl crowd expecting an easy win.

But Duarte caught a 33-yard TD pass with 10:52 left, and the Bruins' defense made three late stops to secure their fourth straight win in a home opener.

Paxton Lynch passed for 305 yards and rushed for a score for Memphis in the schools' first meeting. The Tigers fell agonizingly short of upset victories over Louisville and UCF last season, and coach Justin Fuente nearly pulled off another stunner in his school's first trip to the Rose Bowl, scoring the most points in school history against an opponent ranked in the top 11.

Brandon Hayes caught a TD pass and Sam Craft rushed for a score for the Tigers, who have scored 98 points in their first two games this season.

Kenneth Walker III caught an early 62-yard TD pass as the Bruins' offense bounced back from a weak effort in their closer-than-expected 28-20 victory at Virginia last week, which included just one offensive touchdown.

The Bruins had little trouble scoring at the Rose Bowl, but their defense struggled against the Memphis offense led by Lynch, racking up 469 yards.

Jack, the Bruins' two-way star, saw action at running back for the first time this season, and he scored on a bruising 4-yard rush in the third quarter. The sophomore linebacker was the Pac-12's offensive and defensive newcomer of the year last season.

Perkins rushed for a 17-yard score on UCLA's second drive, but the Tigers answered with a scoring run up the middle by Lynch. Hundley threw a picture-perfect pass to Walker for another score, but Craft put Memphis back ahead after another fast-paced drive.

Duarte and Perkins scored on back-to-back drives, but Hayes caught an 18-yard TD pass to cap an 85-yard drive in just 1:34, cutting UCLA's halftime lead to 28-21.

After Duarte's go-ahead score, UCLA sniffed out a Memphis fake punt and returned it for a score - but it was waved off on a personal foul behind the play.

Center Jake Brendel started for the Bruins after sitting out the opener, ending his streak of 27 consecutive starts. UCLA then lost starting safety Randall Goforth to a shoulder injury in the first half.

Backup quarterback Jerry Neuheisel came in for an injured Brett Hundley and led the Bruins to a hard fought win over Texas.

ARLINGTON, Texas - UCLA backup quarterback Jerry Neuheisel threw two touchdown passes, including a 33-yarder to Jordan Payton with 3 minutes left, and the No. 12 Bruins avoided an upset with a 20-17 win over Texas on Saturday night.

The go-ahead score for the Bruins (3-0) came on the first play after Ishmael Adams' 58-yard punt return when he was helped by a crushing open-field block by Cameron Judge.

Neuheisel completed 23 of 30 passes for 178 yards after Brett Hundley injured his left elbow in the first quarter.

Texas (1-2), which started the game with a big blunder, had gone ahead when Tyrone Swoopes hit John Harris for an 8-yard TD with 5:13 left. The Longhorns then forced a fumble, but went three-and-out before punting the ball to Adams.

Swoopes threw for 196 yards and two touchdowns in his second start for concussion-plagued David Ash.

The Bruins got the ball to start both halves after Texas botched the opening coin toss.

UCLA won the coin toss and elected to defer its choice until the second half, then Texas said it wanted to go on defense. The referee then turned off his microphone and briefly said something to the Longhorns players after their decision.

When the Bruins unexpectedly got the ball to start the game, they got one first down before stalling at midfield and punting. On the opening-half possession they expected, they drove 75 yards on seven plays after halftime for a game-tying 3-yard TD pass from Neuheisel to Nate Iese.

After its go-ahead with just over 5 minutes left, the ensuing Texas kickoff went out of bounds, putting the Bruins at the 35 before a 30-yard pass on the next play to the other 35. But James Jordan was stripped by Steve Edmond, and the fumble recovered by Paul Boyette.

Texas went three-and-out, and took only 71 seconds off the clock. But the Bruins didn't need much time.

Paul Perkins had 126 yards on 24 carries for the Bruins, and caught five passes for 69 yards.

Hundley got hurt at the end of an 11-yard run to convert a third-and-9 with just under 5 minutes left in the first quarter. He appeared to land awkwardly on his left arm when he reached down while being tackled at the Bruins 35.

Neuheisel took over in the middle of what was a 15-play, 61-yard drive that ended with Ka'imi Fairbairn's 47-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead.

Fairbairn added a 25-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, ending a string of seven consecutive drives that ended with punts - four by Texas and three by UCLA - after the Bruins' drive to start the second half.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Ishmael Adams returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touch-down and an interception 95 yards for another score, sparking No. 11 UCLA's 62-27 trouncing of No. 15 Arizona State on Thursday night. UCLA (4-0, 1-0 Pac-12) won its first three games by a combined 18 points against non-ranked opponents.

The Bruins turned a matchup of the past two Pac-12 South champions into a rout, scoring 28 points during a 7-minute span of the second and third quarters.

Brett Hundley returned from a left arm injury to throw for 355 yards and four touchdowns, including an 80-yarder to Jordan Payton to open the second half.

UCLA had 582 total yards and scored the most points by an opponent in the 55-year history of Sun Devil Stadium.

Leading 17-6 in the second quarter, Arizona State (3-1, 1-1) fell apart behind four turnovers and a rash of defensive miscues.

Mike Bercovici, who replaced injured starter Taylor Kelly, threw for 488 yards and three touchdowns on 42-of-68 passing. But he also threw two interceptions and lost a fumble that led to a UCLA touchdown.

Wearing a brace on his left elbow, Hundley trotted out for the first series - and had the Bruins rolling from the start.

He led UCLA to a pair of field goals in the first quarter, and then hit Eldridge Massington on a short pass that he turned into an 80-yard touchdown by breaking a couple of tackles. Hundley followed with a 21-yard run to set up a 3-yard touchdown pass to Nate Iese and had 219 yards passing by halftime.

He quickly added to his numbers in the second half with the first-play TD pass to Payton, putting the Bruins up 34-17 to start the third quarter.

Hundley hit 18 of 23 passes, including five for 151 yards to Payton. Hundley also ran for 72 yards and a score.

Bercovici had been waiting for this chance since Kelly beat him out as Arizona State's starter in 2012.

Kelly injured his right foot against Colorado on Sept. 13 and was still on crutches when he went out for the coin flip.

Jittery early, Bercovici seemed to right himself with 5-yard touchdown pass to Kody Kohl and added a 29-yard scoring pass to Cameron Smith just over the reach of a UCLA defender.

He had some shaky moments after that, throwing a pair of interceptions, including the one Adams returned for a touchdown with 2 seconds left in the first half.

The Bruins poured it on from there.

Hundley threw his long touchdown to Payton, Adams raced off on his kick return and Nate Starks put UCLA up 48-20 on a 1-yard run, two plays after Bercovici lost a fumble at the Arizona State 23.

Eldridge Massington caught a 40-yard TD pass from Brett Hundley but it was not enough as UCLA was edged by Utah, 30-28.

PASADENA, Calif. - Brett Hundley passed for 269 yards and two touchdowns for No. 8 UCLA however it was Utah that came away with the victory at the Rose Bowl on Saturday night, winning 30-28 in an exciting Pac-12 showdown.

Andy Phillips kicked a 29-yard field goal with 34 seconds left for Utah, and UCLA's Ka'imi Fairbairn missed two field-goal attempts with no time on the clock.

Utah (4-1, 1-1) drove 63 yards in 10 plays for the go-ahead kick, taking 4:16 off the clock behind the rushing of Kendal Thompson and Devontae Booker to set up the kick by Phillips, the one-time member of the U.S. Ski Team.

Hundley drove the Bruins (4-1; 1-1) to the Utah 37, but Fairbairn missed a 50-yard field goal on an untimed down after Eric Rowe was penalized for running into Fairbairn on a failed 55-yard attempt as time expired.

Booker ran for 156 yards and Oklahoma transfer Thompson added 83 yards on the ground for the Utes, who bounced back splendidly after blowing a 21-point lead last week in home loss to Washington State.

UCLA led 28-27 after Hundley hit Eldridge Massington for a 40-yard TD strike with 4:50 to play, part of a second-half flurry in which Hundley passed for 165 yards and two scores on just five completions.

But Hundley also was sacked 10 times while UCLA played from behind almost all night at the Rose Bowl, and Tevin Carter returned an interception 27 yards for a score in the first quarter.

Earlier in the fourth quarter, Hundley connected with a streaking Devin Fuller down the Bruins' sideline for a 93-yard touchdown pass, the longest UCLA connection since 2005.

But Utah capitalized on favorable field position after Hundley was sacked three times on UCLA's next drive, and Phillips' second field goal put the Utes up 27-21.

Paul Perkins ran for 99 yards for UCLA, scoring the Bruins' first touchdown in the second quarter. Defensive tackle Eddie Vanderdoes added a 1-yard touchdown run in the third quarter for UCLA, whose sputtering offense was a dramatic contrast from a Utah game plan that consistently delivered gains.

Thompson passed for 95 yards, finding receiver Dres Anderson for a leaping catch between two defenders for a 42-yard TD early in the second quarter.

Thompson replaced starter Travis Wilson after two series and seemingly caught UCLA off-guard several times with his elusiveness as a runner. Thompson rushed for 83 yards, using his legs to spark a late second-quarter drive that ended in Phillips' 48-yard field goal for a 17-7 halftime lead.

PASADENA, Calif. - The No. 18 UCLA football team lost to No. 12 Oregon, 42-30, before 80,139 fans at the Rose Bowl in a Pac-12 showdown on Saturday afternoon.

UCLA's offense accounted for 553 total yards, with running back Paul Perkins leading the way. Perkins had a career-high 190 rushing yards on 22 carries for the Bruins (4-2, 1-2 Pac-12).

Quarterback Brett Hundley accounted for four UCLA touchdowns (three passing, one rushing), totaling 216 passing yards and 89 yards on the ground. Hundley completed 26 of 37 pass attempts and had one pass intercepted.

Oregon (5-1, 2-1) took an 8-0 lead with 4:47 to play in the opening quarter and led for the rest of the game. The Ducks got on the board with a 13-yard run from quarterback Marcus Mariota, who accounted for four total touchdowns on Saturday – two in the air and two on the ground.

Mariota finished the game having completed 17 of 27 passes for 210 yards and two touchdowns. The Ducks' quarterback netted 75 rushing yards on seven attempts, including a pair of rushing touchdowns.

UCLA's 20-yard field goal at the 12:04 mark in the second quarter reduced Oregon's lead to 8-3. The Ducks answered with a 21-yard touchdown pass from Mariota no less than three minutes later, pushing their advantage to 15-3.

Trailing 21-3 with 16 seconds to play before halftime, UCLA trimmed Oregon's margin to 21-10. Hundley scampered 16 yards for the touchdown, marking his third rushing touchdown of the season.

Hundley finished the game having completed 19 of 29 passes for 115 yards and one touchdown. On the ground, the Bruins' quarterback netted 85 yards on 20 carries.

Oregon opened the third quarter by scoring the game's next 21 points, securing a 42-10 cushion. The Ducks had a pair of rushing touchdowns in the third quarter – Mariota at 9:06 and Royce Freeman at 7:59 – before Freeman found the end zone again on a two-yard run in the first minute of the fourth quarter.

UCLA added a trio of fourth-quarter touchdowns (missed the two-point conversion attempt on the last two scores), cutting Oregon's advantage to 42-30. With 9:46 to play in the quarter, Hundley found Jordan Payton for a five-yard touchdown pass. With 4:21 remaining, running back Nate Starks carried the ball nine yards for a touchdown.

The Bruins recovered an onside kick after Starks' nine-yard touchdown run and moved the ball 55 yards in four plays to close the gap to 42-30. UCLA's final touchdown of the day came on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Hundley to Payton.

Marcus Rios made a game-saving interception late in the fourth quarter to seal the Bruins' 36-34 victory on the road at Cal.

BERKELEY, Calif. - Brett Hundley threw for 330 yards and two touchdowns and added a third score on the ground to help UCLA snap a seven-game skid at California with a 36-34 victory Saturday.

Hundley accounted for 424 yards of offense to overcome his own fumble and interception as the Bruins (5-2, 2-2 Pac-12) won at Memorial Stadium for the first time since 1998.

It wasn't easy with the Bruins not taking the lead for good until Ka'imi Fairbairn kicked his third field goal, a 26-yarder with 3:40 remaining that provided the go-ahead score and helped UCLA get back on the winning track after losses to Utah and Oregon.

The win was sealed when Marcus Rios made a juggling interception on a Jared Goff pass at the 2-yard line with 51 seconds left to thwart Cal's comeback attempt.

Goff threw for 303 yards and two touchdowns for the Golden Bears (4-3, 2-3), who have lost back-to-back home games after an impressive 4-1 start to the season.

There was a scary moment late in the game when Cal's Trevor Davis had to be taken off the field on a stretcher after being injured on a kickoff return. Davis was down on the turf for several minutes as teammates watched anxiously. He was able to move his legs and talk, and gave a thumb's up to the crowd. There was no immediate word on the extent of the injury.

UCLA moved the ball with ease for most of the game, punting just three times on 15 drives. But they committed three turnovers that turned into short touchdown drives for Cal, which proved to be a big factor in the game.

The most costly came midway through the fourth quarter when the Bruins had the ball in Cal territory looking to add to a 5-point lead. But Hundley threw behind Jordan Payton and Cameron Walker cut in front for an interception that he returned to the UCLA 32.

That set up Goff's 23-yard touchdown pass down the right sideline to Kenny Lawler that gave the Bears a 34-33 lead with less than 7 minutes to play.

But Hundley responded by leading the field goal drive and then got the big play from his defense to win it.

Cal stopped Hundley on a fourth-and-1 sneak just across midfield on the opening drive of the third quarter. Lasco scored on his second short run three plays later to cut UCLA's lead to 24-21.

The Bruins were then held to a field goal following Mossi Johnson's 67-yard kickoff return and the Bears managed to take the lead late in the third when Davis made a leaping grab while being interfered with by Jaleel Wadood for a 24-yard score.

UCLA answered on Hundley's 15-yard run in the closing seconds of the third to take a 33-28 lead heading into the fourth.

The Bruins controlled the play in the first half but led only 24-14 at the break because Cal converted a pair of fumbles into two short touchdown drives.

BOULDER, Colo. - Quarterback Brett Hundley scored on an 8-yard keeper in double overtime to give No. 25 UCLA a 40-37 victory over Colorado on Saturday.

UCLA (6-2, 3-2 Pac-12) had a 17-point lead in the fourth quarter, however Colorado tied the game on a 35-yard field goal by Will Oliver with 36 seconds remaining.

The teams traded field goals in the first OT. The Bruins then stopped the Buffaloes (2-6, 0-5) in the second OT and they settled for a 34-yarder from Oliver.

Hundley faked a handoff and went into the end zone untouched for the winning score.

The junior quarterback rushed for 110 yards. Hundley also threw for 200 yards and one TD pass, giving him 67 in his career and moving him one away from tying Cade McNown for most in program history.

Paul Perkins rushed for 180 yards and two TDs, including a 92-yard score in the first quarter.

Sefo Liufau finished with two TD passes. He has 23 TD passes this year and broke Koy Detmer's single-season mark.

Once again, Colorado struggled at the start, falling behind 17-0 after the first quarter. Last weekend at USC, the Buffaloes were behind 28-0 after the opening 15 minutes on their way to a 56-28 drubbing.

This time, they rallied.

However, a penalty at the end of the first half loomed large for Colorado.

The Buffaloes had the ball at the 4, but were called for a false start that ended the half without running a final play.

Down 31-14 late in the third after a short score by Myles Jack, Colorado climbed back into the game behind the right arm of Liufau, who connected with Bryce Bobo for TDs of 38 and 3 yards.

Liufau was leading another drive when Marcus Rios thwarted it with an interception.

Colorado got the ball back after stuffing UCLA on fourth down.

The Buffaloes went on a nine-play, 59-yard drive that culminated with a 35-yard field goal from Oliver.

Perkins got the Bruins going early. On their first play from scrimmage, Perkins headed left, found a seam and scampered 92 yards down the sideline for a score. That play tied for the second-longest run in school history. The longest was 93 by Chuck Cheshire against Montana in 1934.

The Bruins led 24-14 at halftime, pushing the team's record to 22-0 under coach Jim Mora when they go into the locker room ahead. They're also 12-4 under Mora in true road games.

Jordan Payton caught six passes for 119 yards, including a 70-yard touchdown to help UCLA down No. 12 Arizona, 17-7.

PASADENA, Calif. - Brett Hundley accounted for 320 total yards to lead No. 22 UCLA past No. 12 Arizona, 17-7, before 80,246 at the Rose Bowl in a Pac-12 showdown on Saturday night. Hundley keyed the offense for UCLA (6-2, 3-2 Pac-12), totaling 189 yards in the air and a season-high 131 rushing yards. UCLA's quarterback completed 19 of 26 passes and carried the ball 24 times.

The Bruins limited Arizona (6-2, 3-2) to 255 total yards, including 80 yards on the ground.

Jordan Payton caught six passes for a game-leading 119 yards, including a 70-yard touchdown pass from Hundley to give the Bruins a 10-point cushion late in the third quarter. Hundley's 70-yard pass helped him tie Cade McNown's career touchdown record of 68.

Trailing 7-3 at halftime, UCLA scored two touchdowns in a 50-second span midway through the third quarter to secure a 17-7 advantage.

The first of UCLA's consecutive touchdowns came from within the red zone, as Perkins had a five-yard touchdown carry to put the Bruins ahead, 10-7. After holding Arizona's offense to a three-and-out, UCLA scored on its next offensive play. Hundley found Payton down the sideline for a 70-yard scoring strike, putting the Bruins ahead, 17-7.

Arizona missed a 39-yard field goal attempt on its next possession, as kicker Casey Skowron's attempt sailed wide right.

Late in the fourth quarter, UCLA extinguished a potential Arizona rally with a blocked field goal attempt. With 2:47 to play in regulation, Ishmael Adams broke through Arizona's offensive line to block the 26-yard attempt before Anthony Jefferson returned the loose ball 39 yards.

The field goal block came after Eric Kendricks registered a four-yard quarterback sack on a pivotal third down situation.

Running back Paul Perkins, who registered 78 rushing yards on 21 carries for UCLA, became the 13th Bruin to reach the 1,000-yard milestone.

UCLA's defense blanked Arizona through the game's final three quarters. Arizona quarterback Anu Solomon managed just 18 completions on 48 pass attempts for 175 yards and one touchdown (one interception). The Wildcats were limited to 255 total yards, including 80 yards on the ground.

Arizona claimed a 7-0 lead on the first possession of the game. Cayleb Jones hauled in a 14-yard pass from Solomon in the corner of the end zone with 12:29 remaining in the first quarter, completing a 12-play, 75-yard drive.

UCLA got on the board with 12:22 to play in the second quarter, as Ka'imi Fairbairn kicked a 24-yard field goal to reduce Arizona's advantage to 7-3.

Hundley rushed for over 100 yards for the second time this season and for the fourth time in his career. In last week's win at Colorado, he netted 110 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Myles Jack scored on a highlight-reel 28-yard run for his fifth career touchdown against Washington. He also added six solo tackles in the win.

SEATTLE, Wash. - Brett Hundley threw for two touchdowns to become UCLA's all-time leader in TD passes, ran for two more scores, and Myles Jack added a highlight-reel 28-yard touchdown run in No. 18 UCLA's 44-30 win over Washington on Saturday night.

Hundley threw his 69th career touchdown on a 57-yard TD strike to Kenneth Walker III in the first quarter to give the Bruins an early 14-0 lead and pass Cade McNown on the school's all-time list. Hundley added touchdown runs of 4 and 6 yards as UCLA (8-2, 5-2 Pac-12) kept alive its hopes of winning the Pac-12 South.

Jack's offensive touches were limited, but the linebacker scored his fifth touchdown rushing against Washington in the past two seasons late in the second quarter to give the Bruins a 28-10 lead.

Fellow linebacker turned running back Shaq Thompson played mostly on offense for Washington (6-4, 2-4) with a handful of defensive snaps, including the tackle on Jack's first carry of the game. Thompson finished with 100 yards rushing on 16 carries, a week after rushing for 174 yards against Colorado. Washington quarterback Cyler Miles was 14-of-24 passing for 155 yards and one interception as most of the highlights belonged to the Bruins.

UCLA coach Jim Mora downplayed his return to Washington all week, saying it was strictly a business trip coming up to Seattle to face the school where he played.

Mora's team followed his lead, and while they still need help down the line, the Bruins remained in contention for a spot in the Pac-12 championship game.

Hundley was 29-of-36 for 302 yards, his fourth 300-yard passing game this season. Paul Perkins added 98 yards rushing, but it was Jack's run that will get all the replays.

Late in the first half Jack bounced a third-down handoff to the outside, picking up the needed yards for the first down then made the play spectacular. He first stiff-armed former high school teammate Budda Baker to the turf, then spun out of the tackle attempt of Najiel Hale. Jack kept his balance without going out of bounds and scampered the final few yards for his third touchdown rushing this season.

Ka'imi Fairbairn made field goals of 30-and-37 yards, and his 46-yarder with 8:30 left gave the Bruins a 44-27 lead.

The Huskies got a 100-yard kickoff return from John Ross in the third quarter and Washington pulled within 41-27 early in the fourth quarter on Dwayne Washington's 12-yard TD run.

Hundley and UCLA's pass game was more than willing to expose Washington's biggest flaw: it's young and inexperienced secondary. The Huskies started three true freshmen in the defensive backfield following the dismissal of junior cornerback and NFL prospect Marcus Peters from the program earlier this week. That inexperience was evident on Hundley's 57-yard TD pass to Walker. Baker and Hale -- replacing Peters -- got confused on the coverage assignment and Walker was left uncovered to give UCLA a 14-0 lead. Hundley added a 15-yard TD pass to Mossi Johnson in the second half.

Not helping the young secondary was the lack of a pass rush after Hau'oli Kikaha, the national leader in sacks, left in the first quarter with an apparent shoulder injury. Kikaha sacked Hundley on UCLA's first possession but was a spectator the rest of the half getting his shoulder and neck worked on and never returned in the second half.

UCLA continued its stranglehold on Los Angeles with a convincing, 38-20 victory over rival USC. The win was the third in a row over the Trojans.

PASADENA, Calif. - Brett Hundley threw for 326 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for one more in UCLA's 38-20 win over USC before 82,431 at the Rose Bowl on Saturday night, the Bruins' third straight win over their crosstown rival.

UCLA (9-2, 6-2) kept pace in the Pac-12 South with Saturday's win over USC (7-4, 6-4). With a victory against Stanford next Friday (12:30 p.m., Rose Bowl), UCLA can advance to the Pac-12 Football Championship Game for the third time in four years.

Hundley, who completed 22 of 31 passes, became UCLA's first quarterback since Cade McNown (1995-98) to guide the Bruins to at least three consecutive wins against USC. McNown helped UCLA win four straight against the Trojans from 1995 through 1998. Hundley also became the Bruins' all-time leader in total offense with 11,353 yards.

Paul Perkins led UCLA's rushing attack, netting 90 yards and one touchdown in 21 carries. The Bruins had touchdown receptions from Devin Lucien, Thomas Duarte and Eldridge Massington.

UCLA limited USC's offense to 276 total yards, including 62 on the ground. The Bruins held their opponent to fewer than 65 rushing yards for the second time this season (surrendered just 56 yards to California on Oct. 18).

USC quarterback Cody Kessler completed 22 of 34 passes for 214 yards and one touchdown.

After both teams traded two touchdowns into the early second quarter, the Bruins secured a 24-14 lead by halftime. Tied at 14-14, UCLA took the lead for good on Ka'imi Fairbairn's 32-yard field goal with 5:14 remaining in the second quarter.

Eric Kendricks, who finished with a game-high 14 tackles, came up with a critical interception in the final five minutes of the second quarter. UCLA drove 68 yards on an 11-play drive capped by Hundley's 13-yard strike to a wide-open Massington in the end zone with 14 seconds to play before intermission.

UCLA maintained momentum in the second half, receiving the opening kickoff and scoring a touchdown on a methodic, nine-play and 84-yard drive that spanned 3:07. A 10-yard carry into the end zone by Perkins put UCLA ahead, 31-14.

After holding the Trojans to three-and-out, UCLA charged downfield on a six-play, minute-long drive, capped by a 15-yard touchdown run by Hundley. The Bruin quarterback's rushing touchdown gave UCLA a commanding 38-14 cushion.

In the first quarter, Hundley threw an interception on UCLA's second offensive play that was returned 17 yards for a touchdown by Anthony Sarao, putting the Trojans ahead, 7-0. Minutes later, the Bruins took advantage of a muffed punt by Nelson Agholor. Hundley completed a 10-yard pass to Lucien, tying the contest 7-7.

In the fourth quarter, USC ended the Bruins' 24-0 scoring run, trimming UCLA's margin to 38-20. Javorius Allen had a three-yard touchdown run with 3:08 to play before USC's two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

PASADENA, Calif. - Kevin Hogan passed for 234 yards and two touchdowns, and Stanford downed No. 9 UCLA's hopes for the Pac-12 South title and a College Football Playoff spot with a 31-10 victory Friday.

Devon Cajuste and Michael Rector caught scoring passes for the Cardinal (7-5, 5-4 Pac-12) as the two-time defending Pac-12 champions salvaged satisfaction from a down season by beating the Bruins (9-3, 6-3) for the seventh consecutive time.

With a dynamite 16-for-19 performance by Hogan and two rushing TDs from Remound Wright, Stanford snatched the South title away from UCLA, which needed a victory to advance to the conference title game.

"We had very good preparation," Hogan said. "We knew what looks they were going to be in, and I got great protection. We had a lot of fun."

Brett Hundley passed for 146 yards in likely his final home game for the Bruins.

After an up-and-down season, an inspired Hogan made sure the Cardinal didn't miss top receiver Ty Montgomery, who sat out with a shoulder injury. Hogan completed his first 12 passes, scrambled for key yards and showed poise in the pocket, particularly in avoiding a sack before uncorking a 37-yard TD throw to Cajuste 41 seconds before halftime to cap a 92-yard drive.

Just six days after a blowout win over rival Southern California, UCLA retained none of that momentum in its third home loss of the season. The loss ended the Bruins' five-game winning streak, which had given them an outside shot at the four-team playoff after a slow start to their season.

Backup Jerry Neuheisel finished the game after Hundley left with UCLA on the Stanford goal line midway through the fourth quarter.

The Cardinal are comfortable in Pasadena after playing here on the last two New Year's Days, and Hogan sparked the Pac-12's lowest-scoring offense to a dominant, clock-chewing performance that measured up with Stanford's best efforts during its current renaissance.

Hundley hit Thomas Duarte with a sharp TD throw to cap a strong opening drive on a beautiful 80-degree day in Arroyo Seco, but Stanford answered with an impressive half of offense after several poor weeks.

The Cardinal made two 75-yard scoring drives capped by Wright's TD dive and Rector's sliding catch of an impressive 22-yard TD throw by Hogan. While Hundley struggled, Hogan capped his magnificent half with a late TD throw to Cajuste, putting Stanford up 21-10. Hogan went 14 for 15 for 189 yards and two TDs before halftime.

The Cardinal went 80 yards on their first drive of the third quarter, capped by Wright's 2-yard run.

UCLA retired Troy Aikman's No. 8 jersey in a halftime ceremony, honoring the quarterback who led the Bruins to a No. 1 ranking and a Cotton Bowl victory in 1988 before heading to the Dallas Cowboys for three Super Bowl victories.

BRUIN ASSISTANT COACHES —

Running Backs - Kennedy Polamalu (USC, 1987) Kennedy Polamalu was hired as running backs coach on UCLA Head Football Coach Jim Mora's staff during December 2013 and coached in the Hyundai Sun Bowl win over Virginia Tech. A long-time collegiate and NFL coach, Polamalu returned to Westwood where he had previously served as a graduate assistant coach for the Bruins during the 1992 and 1993 seasons.

This season, Polamalu's unit has produced the 13th back in UCLA history to reach the 1,000-yard rushing milestone in Paul Perkins. The sophomore led the Pac-12 in rushing yards and rushing yards per game.

A four-year letterman (1982-85) as both a fullback and linebacker at USC, Polamalu was the Bruins' offensive coordinator and running backs coach from 2010-12, his second stint with the team. During his first tenure, from 2000-03, he served as running backs coach (2000), special teams coordinator (2001 Las Vegas Bowl) and running backs coach & special teams coordinator (2002 Orange Bowl, 2003 Rose Bowl).

From 2004-09, Polamalu worked in the NFL ranks. He joined the Tennessee Titans following the 2009 season before returning to Los Angeles. He also served as Jacksonville Jaguars running backs coach (2005-09) and Cleveland Browns running backs coach (2004). While in Jacksonville, both Fred Taylor (2007) and former UCLA great, Maurice Jones-Drew (2009) earned Pro Bowl honors as the Jaguars' offense totaled the third-most rushing yards in the NFL over that time, including four Top 10 rushing finishes. In 2009, Jones-Drew ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (1,391 yds), fourth in scrimmage yards (1,765) and second in total touchdowns scored (16). In 2008, Greg Jones became the highest paid fullback in NFL history.

Polamalu also previously served as an assistant coach at San Diego State (1999 linebackers coach, 1994-96 running backs/special teams coach) and Colorado (running backs 1997, 1998 Aloha Bowl). At SDSU, he coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in Wayne Pittman and George Jones, who went on to play in the NFL with Jacksonville and Pittsburgh. While with the Bruins as a graduate assistant coach (1992-93), he worked with the secondary and special teams and helped the 1993 team earn a Rose Bowl berth.

He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Crespi High in Encino (Calif.) for three seasons (1986-88) and then at Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.) for three more seasons (1989-91). Polamalu helped lead Crespi to the 1986 CIF Division I championship.

Polamalu, who earned his bachelor's degree in history from USC in 1987, was a four-year letterwinner as a fullback and linebacker. He attended Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif., where he was a prep All-American in football, member of the basketball and track teams and also served as the student body president.

Polamalu's family football tree is extensive. His nephew, Troy Polamalu, currently stars in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers; his brother, Ao Polamalu, played football at Penn State (1985-87); his nephew Nicky Sualea played running back in the NFL with Dallas and Cincinnati after attending Ohio State; and three other nephews played college football (Lele Sualea - Oregon, Joe Polamalu - Oregon State and Kaio Aumua - UTEP).

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from the University of Southern California, 1987; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in December of 2013); Born: Nov. 22, 1963 in Pago Pago, American Samoa; Family: wife-Diane; children-K.C., Matthew Aotoa, Kendra and Raymond Trey.

Assoc. Head Coach/Run Game Coordinator/

Offensive Line - Adrian Klemm

(Hawaii, Excelsior 2008) Former NFL offensive lineman and three-time Super Bowl winner Adrian Klemm joined the Bruin staff in December 2011 after coaching four seasons at SMU, and has quickly established himself as one of the top coaches and recruiters in the nation. In February of 2014, he was elevated to Associate Head Coach.

In just a few short weeks in Westwood, he helped the Bruins bring in one of the nation's top recruiting classes for 2012 and was named the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by 24/7 Sports. Klemm was also tabbed by Rivals.com as one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters in 2013.

This past season, his O-line has helped produce the 13th Bruin rusher to reach the 1,000-yard milestone and the Pac-12 rushing leader. Center Jake Brendel earned second-team all-conference honors and three others were named to the honorable mention all-conference list. In each of his first two seasons, one of his Bruin linemen has been selected in the NFL Draft. Xavier Su'a-Filo's second-round selection in 2014 was the highest for a UCLA offensive lineman since the Baltimore Ravens tabbed Hall of Famer Jonathan Ogden with the No. 4 overall pick in 1996.

In year two, Klemm tutored a group which featured Su'a-Filo who earned All-America honors for the second straight season and was selected as the Pac-12's Morris Trophy winner as the league's top offensive lineman. Three true freshmen emerged as starters during the course of the season. Guard Alex Redmond was recognized with Freshman All-America honors and tackle Caleb Benenoch and guard Scott Quessenberry also posted high grades. Steady center Jake Bendel was a standout in the middle and was an honorable mention all-conference pick and first-team Pac-12 All-Academic team selection.

In his first season on the field with the Bruins, his offensive linemen helped pave the way for record-setting senior running back Johnathan Franklin. New school rushing marks were established in 2012 for most rushing yards by a back in a season, most rushing yards by a back in a career, most all-purpose yards in a season, most all-purpose yards in a career and most 100-yard rushing games in a season. Su'a-Filo earned first-team all-conference honors and All-America acclaim from several publications. In addition, center Jake Brendel, tackle Torian White and tackle Simon Goines were recognized on Freshman All-America teams.

A four-year starter as a player at the University of Hawaii, Klemm began volunteering with the SMU program in 2008 after spending seven seasons in the NFL and winning Super Bowls (XXXVI, XXXVII, XXXIX) as a member of the New England Patriots. He made an immediate impact at SMU, quickly emerging as one of the nation's top recruiters and helping coach June Jones produce his first 1,000-yard rusher.

In 2011, SMU featured the nation's seventh-leading rusher in Zach Line (122.4 yards per game). Two Mustang offensive linemen went on to be selected in the 2012 NFL Draft - Josh LeRibeus in the third round by the Redskins; Kelvin Beachum, in the seventh round by the Steelers.

On the field in 2010, Klemm tutored a young SMU line and guided Beachum to first-team All-Conference USA honors. He also led J.T. Brooks and Blake McJunkin to honorable mention all-conference accolades. His line paved the way for an SMU offense which set school records in total offense, passing yards, passing touchdowns and first downs among others. Line finished the season with 1,494 rushing yards, the second-best single-season total in school history, trailing only Eric Dickerson's 1982 effort.

Following the 2010 season, Klemm was named the top non-BCSAQ Recruiter in the nation by Rivals.com, and was further recognized by the outlet as one of the Top 25 recruiters in the country overall. Other services took note as well, as FoxSports/Scout.com named him the Conference USA Recruiter of the Year. Following this success, Klemm was named SMU's Recruiting Coordinator in the summer of 2011.

In 2009, Klemm helped Beachum earn second-team all-conference honors. The line blocked for an offense that passed for a then-school record total of 3,666 yards and produced the first collegiate 1,000-yard rusher under coach Jones.

Klemm was the 46th overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft after a standout playing career at Hawaii. He played under Jones during his senior season (1999), and was a part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history, as Hawaii improved from 0-12 to 9-4 and won a bowl game that season. Following that season, Klemm was selected as a starting left tackle at the Senior Bowl and also received invitations to the Hula Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game. He attended Saint Monica HS in Santa Monica, CA.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended the University of Hawaii and earned his Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Arts from Excelsior College; ('08); At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in December of 2011); Born: May 21, 1977 in Los Angeles, CA.

Asst. Head Coach/ Passing Game Coordinator / Defensive Backs - Demetree Martin

(Michigan State, Excelsior 2006) Demetree Martin was named to Coach Mora's staff in December of 2011 and promoted to Assistant Head Coach in February of 2014. He left a position as the secondary/cornerbacks coach at the University of Washington to join the Bruins and has had a large impact in the area of recruiting and player development.

This season, UCLA ranked fourth in the conference in pass defense and four defensive backs (Ishmael Adams, Fabian Moreau, Anthony Jefferson, Jaleel Wadood) earned all-conference recognition. In 2013, Martin helped to prepare a secondary which featured three new starters. Adams, who led the team in interceptions, and Moreau were first-time starters at the corners. Jefferson ranked third on the team in tackles (89) in his initial season as a starter. Soph. Randall Goforth, the veteran of the group, was fourth on the squad in tackles (78) and second with three interceptions. Moreau, Jefferson and Goforth were each named honorable mention All-Pac-12.

Martin mentored a veteran group in his first season on the field with the Bruins in 2012. Senior cornerback Sheldon Price matched a school record with three interceptions in the Houston win. Andrew Abbott, along with Price, ranked among the Pac-12 leaders with four interceptions. Tevin McDonald was listed with the conference leaders in passes defended.

Martin had been on the University of Washington staff for three seasons prior to coming to UCLA. The 2010 Husky secondary finished second in the Pac-10 in pass defense.

In 2006 and 2007, he was a defensive graduate assistant at USC, working with the Trojan secondary. Prior to joining the USC staff, Martin spent three seasons (2003-05) as the pass defense coordinator and secondary coach at Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC) in Walnut, CA. The Mounties played in the National Bowl in 2003 and 2004. He was also the secondary coach at Pasadena City College in 2001 and 2002. The Lancers went 18-4 during that period, winning the Mission Conference title both seasons and appearing in two bowl games. He began his career in coaching at Monrovia (Calif.) High (1999-2000).

A product of Pasadena (Calif.) Muir High School, Martin went to Michigan State, where he played wide receiver and cornerback from 1992 to 1995, earning first-team All-Big Ten honors in 1994 when he led the conference with seven interceptions. He had 10 interceptions in his career and the Spartans went on to play in the Liberty (1993) and Independence (1995) bowl games.

Martin played professionally as a cornerback for the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe (1997) and for the Houston Thunderbears (1998-99) in the Arena Football League. He signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Rams in the NFL and spent time on the practice squad.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended Michigan State and earned his Bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts from Excelsior College, 2006; At UCLA: Third year (named to staff in December 2011); Born: February 23, 1973; Family: Wife, Tiffany; son, Cole and daughter, Kori.

Offensive Coordinator - Noel Mazzone

Noel Mazzone (pronounced Muh-ZONE-ee) joined the Bruin staff in January of 2012 after working as the offensive coordinator at Arizona State in the 2010 and 2011 seasons. His impressive coaching resume includes time as an assistant coach in the NFL and as an offensive coordinator in the ACC, the Big Ten, the SEC and the Pac-12 conferences.

This season Brett Hundley has become UCLA's all-time leader in total offense and touchdown passes. He is also the first Bruin quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in three different seasons. Paul Perkins is the 13th Bruin back to surpass the 1,000-yard mark and he led the Pac-12 in rushing. The offense has tied the school record with five 500-yard total offense games. Receivers Jordan Payton and Devin Fuller have steadily moved up the school charts as well.

The big numbers kept coming for Mazzone's offense in year two at UCLA. The team set school records for total offense (692 yds) and first downs (39) in the New Mexico State contest. A school record 26 players caught a pass during the season. Quarterback Brett Hundley ranked among the nation's top 25 in completion % (14th-668), passing efficiency (20th-152.9), touchdown passes (23rd-24) and total offense (23rd-293.8). Shaq Evans, a fourth-round pick of the Jets, finished his career ranked tied for 10th on the all-time school receptions list and tied for ninth on the single-season touchdown reception list. Hundley also produced the third-most rushing yards by a quarterback in school history. Junior Jordan James posted career-best rushing totals and three 100-yard games.

Mazzone's first season on the field with the Bruins turned into a record-setting campaign. Senior running back Johnathan Franklin established new school marks for career rushing yards (4,403 yards), career all-purpose yards (4,925), single-season rushing yards (1,734), single-season 100-yard rushing games (9) and single-season all-purpose yards (2,062). Hundley, in his redshirt freshman year, set records for single-season passing yards (3,740), single-season completions (318) and single-season total offense yards (4,095-fifth on the all-time Pac-12 list). In addition, Hundley became the first UCLA quarterback to throw for over 300 yards in three straight games. Team records were also achieved for most yards in a season (6,531), most points scored in a season (482), most passing yards gained in a season (3,860), most first downs in a season (331) and most points scored in a quarter (30).

In 2011, the Sun Devils' offense ranked 25th in the nation, averaging 445.8 yards per game. It was ranked 10th in passing offense (316.7 yards per game) and 28th in scoring offense (33.2 points). ASU quarterback Brock Osweiler ranked 11th in the NCAA in total offense (3,174) and his 4,126 yards ranked third on the all-time Pac-12 list. Running back Cameron Marshall recorded 18 rushing touchdowns and ranked seventh in the Pac-12 with an 80.8 rushing yards per game mark. In 2010, Arizona State was listed No. 15 nationally in passing offense and No. 29 in total offense. In addition, ASU rushed for 19 touchdowns in 2010 after totaling 14 in all of 2009. Marshall had nine TD runs in 2010, the most by an ASU runner since 2001.

Mazzone came to Arizona State from the NFL after having served as wide receivers coach of the New York Jets from 2006-2008 and working as a personnel consultant for the franchise in 2009. There, he coached wideouts Jericho Cotchery and Laveranues Coles, who set a Jets record for combined yardage and receptions.

Before his time in the professional ranks, Mazzone coached in college football for more than two decades. He has tutored quarterbacks, running backs, receivers and tight ends, while also serving as offensive coordinator at three schools (Ole Miss, Auburn and North Carolina State).

In 2005, Mazzone enjoyed a second stint at the University of Mississippi as the offensive coordinator. From 2003-04, he was the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at North Carolina State. While at NC State, he coached All-American quarterback Philip Rivers (currently quarterback with the San Diego Chargers), who went on to become the fourth overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft, and Cotchery, a wide receiver. The Wolfpack offense led the Atlantic Coast Conference in six offensive categories and topped the NCAA in pass efficiency. It ranked third in the NCAA in passing offense and was No. 8 in scoring offense.

In 2002, he was on Dennis Erickson's Oregon State staff as the running backs and special teams coach. While with the Beavers, he coached Steven Jackson, now an All-Pro running back.

Mazzone worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1999-2001 on Tommy Tuberville's staff at Auburn. He recruited and coached the 2000 SEC Player of the Year, Rudi Johnson, a future Pro Bowler with the Cincinnati Bengals. He also tutored All-SEC quarterback Ben Leard, who set an NCAA record in pass efficiency, NFL quarterback Jason Campbell, and NFL running backs Carnell Williams and Ronnie Brown. Auburn won the SEC West Championship under his watch (2000-01) and set the Citrus Bowl passing record.

From 1994-98, he was on Tuberville's staff at Mississippi as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. Ole Miss won the 1997 Motor City Bowl and produced the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1950, Deuce McAllister, who would later star in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints. Mazzone also coached quarterback Stu Patridge, who set an NCAA record in passing efficiency and a school record with 200 straight pass attempts without an interception.

Mazzone was the quarterbacks coach at the University of Minnesota from 1992-94 and at TCU from 1987-91. At Texas Christian, he coached quarterback Matt Vogler who set a then NCAA single-game passing record with 690 yards, completing 44 passes, in a 1990 game against Houston.

The first stop on Mazzone's coaching journey was a five-year stint at Colorado State working with the quarterbacks and receivers. He mentored quarterback Kelly Stouffer, who was the sixth overall selection in the 1986 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

Mazzone began his coaching career, in 1980-81, as a graduate assistant at the University of New Mexico. He was an assistant coach at Boulder High School in Boulder, Colorado, in 1981.

A native of Raton, N.M., Mazzone graduated from the University of New Mexico in 1980. He also played quarterback for the Lobos, leading the team in passing in 1976 and 1977.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's from New Mexico, 1980; At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: March 21, 1957; Family: has one daughter and two sons, UCLA quarterbacks coach, Taylor; former UCLA receiver, Grayson.

Recruiting Coordinator / Defensive Line - Angus McClure

(Sacramento State 1993) Angus McClure has over 20 years of coaching experience and is in his eighth season as a member of the Bruin staff. In 2012, he began coaching the defensive line, having previously coached tight ends, offensive line and special teams since arriving in Westwood in 2007. Angus continues in his role as the Recruiting Coordinator. Over the past seven years, McClure has also led the recruiting effort which has resulted in Bruin classes being ranked among the nation's top 20 in each year.

This season, the Bruin defense ranked third in the Pac-12. Linemen Kenny Clark, Eddie Vanderdoes and Owamagbe Odighizuwa each earned All-Pac-12 accolades. Clark led the linemen in tackles while Owa topped the team in tackles for loss.

Seniors Cassius Marsh, a fourth-round selection by the Super Bowl Champion Seattle Seahawks, and Keenan Graham each enjoyed career seasons in 2013. McClure also helped tutor a group of impressive young linemen. Soph Ellis McCarthy was named one of the team's most improved players at the annual banquet. True freshmen Vanderdoes, a freshman All-America pick, and Clark, Most Valuable Lineman at the Sun Bowl, caused opponents problems all season long.

Several of McClure's defensive linemen enjoyed career seasons in 2012 and helped the Bruins rank among the nation's best in sacks while advancing to the Conference Championship game for a second straight season. Senior Datone Jones finished fifth on the team with 62 tackles, 19.0 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks and went on to be a first-round selection in the NFL Draft. Marsh registered 50 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss and 8.0 sacks. Odighizuwa totaled 44 tackles, 6.0 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.

In 2011, UCLA led the South Division of the Pac-12 in rushing and played in the inaugural Pac-12 Championship Game. Over his time as a Bruin coach, McClure has tutored a number of current NFL players: Marsh (Seahawks), Jones (Packers), Logan Paulsen (Redskins), Matt Slater (Patriots), Mike Harris (Chargers), Nate Chandler (Panthers), Cory Harkey (Rams), Kai Forbath (Redskins) and Christian Yount (Browns).

McClure came to UCLA after serving as the offensive line/run game coordinator on Turner Gill's staff at the University of Buffalo in 2006. Buffalo scored more points (201) in conference games than any other team in the Mid-American Conference East Division. Running back James Starks (starter for the 2011 Packers' Super Bowl Championship team) earned second-team All-MAC honors and was an honorable mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News. Offensive lineman Jamie Richard was drafted and became a starter for the Indianapolis Colts.

McClure spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as an assistant on Bill Callahan's staff at Nebraska. He assisted with the offensive line, coaching tackles, as well as working with the special teams. The Cornhuskers defeated Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. As a Husker coach, McClure tutored a number of NFL bound players: Matt Slauson (Jets), Lydon Murtha (Dolphins), Chris Patrick (Giants) and Sam Koch (Ravens).

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, McClure was an assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Sacramento State University (1997-2003) where he played a major role in some record-breaking offenses. During his tenure, the Hornets set 52 NCAA Division I-AA, Big Sky Conference, or school records. He coached 20 All-Big Sky conference honorees and had six of his players sign NFL contracts. One of McClure's pupils, Lonie Paxton of the Patriots (also Broncos), went on to collect three Super Bowl rings. Another McClure pupil, Marco Cavka was drafted by the Jets. In addition, five Sacramento State players earned All-American honors and four were chosen to participate in college all-star games. In his seven seasons at Sac State, the Hornets led the Big Sky in rushing four times (1998, 1999, 2000, 2002).

In 1996, McClure coached tight ends at the University of Nevada. He helped the Wolf Pack to the Big West title, a 9-3 record, and the Las Vegas Bowl championship. His tight ends produced a school record 13 touchdowns during the season. Nevada led Division I-A with 527.3 yard per game of total offense and topped the Big West Conference in both rushing and passing.

Angus has served as a guest coach in several NFL camps over the years, including the Buffalo Bills (2007, 2006), San Francisco 49ers (2002, 2000, 1999, 1998, 1997, 1996), Seattle Seahawks (1998) and San Diego Chargers (1997).

A graduate of Sacramento State, McClure played football there from 1987-91 and later served as a member of the faculty from 1997-2004. He was on the 1988 Hornet team that advanced to the NCAA Division II championship semifinals with an offense which averaged 486.0 yards per game. He began his coaching career at McClatchy High School in Sacramento as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1992-95 while also coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Liberal Studies from Sacramento State, 1995; At UCLA: Eighth year overall on staff (first joined staff in June 2007 as tight ends coach); Born: December 9, 1968 in San Francisco, CA; Family: Angus and his wife Erin have two sons, Hamish and Malcolm.

Outside Linebackers / Special Teams - Mike Tuiaosopo

(Pacific Lutheran 1989) - Mike Tuiaosopo was hired in February 2014 as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator on Head Coach Jim Mora's staff. Tuiaosopo returns to the Pac-12 after coaching most recently at Colorado (defensive line 2011-12) and Arizona (defensive tackles/line 2004-10). He has 18 years of Division I level coaching experience.

In his first season with the Bruins, the defense ended the season rated as the third-best group in the conference. Deon Hollins became the Bruin sack leader in his first season as a starter. On special teams, the punt return defense rated as the fourth best in the nation.

At Arizona, the Wildcats ranked among the nation's top schools in total defense the last three seasons (24th in 2008, 25th in 2009, 33rd in 2010), leading the Pac-10 in quarterback sacks all three years, largely due to the play of the 'Cats defensive front.

Defensive ends Ricky Elmore (All-Pac-10 in 2010), Brooks Reed and De'Aundre Reed were selected in the 2011 NFL Draft (Reed in second round, 42nd overall), and he also coached two others that earned all-conference honors who were drafted into the NFL, Earl Mitchell (third rounder, 2010) and Lionel Dotson (2008). In 2010, he coached Justin Washington who was named to several Freshman All-America team honors.

Tuiaosopo lettered four years as a defensive tackle at Pacific Lutheran University (1985-88), starting his sophomore through senior years. He was a two-time first-team All-Columbia Conference performer, and junior year, Pacific Lutheran won the NAIA Division II National Championship. PLU was 36-7-2 during his career.

After he graduated from Pacific Lutheran with a degree in Physical Education and Health in 1989, he soon entered coaching, working as the defensive line and special teams coach at Montclair Academy (Van Nuys, Calif.) in 1990, before joining the University of Pacific staff as a graduate assistant for the 1991 season. While coaching at Pacific, as well as at nearby St. Mary's High School in Stockton in 1992, he earned his master's degree in Education Administration Credentials in 1991.

He served as head coach the next three seasons (1993-95) at Berkeley High School. In his time there, he coached two future NFL players in Hannibal Navies and Rashidi Barnes. Navies was drafted in the fourth round of the 1999 Draft by the Carolina Panthers and went on to play for the Packers, Bengals and 49ers through 2007. Barnes played for the Cleveland Browns in 2000.

In 1997, he entered the Division I-A coaching ranks for the first time, joining the Utah State staff where he coached the defensive line the next four seasons (1996-99). With the Aggies, he tutored three all-Big West defensive linemen, including the 1997 Big West Defensive Player of the Year Ben Crosland.

He then moved on to work with the D-line at the University of Nevada from 2000-02. At Nevada, he coached WAC sack leader Jorge Cordova, who was a third round draft pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2004.

From Nevada, he joined Urban Meyer's staff at the University of Utah where he coached the defensive tackles for the 2003 season. He was instrumental there in the recruitment and development of Sione Pouha, a future third round selection by the New York Jets in the 2005 NFL Draft, and Jonathan Fanene, who was drafted that same year (7th round) by the Cincinnati Bengals. After one year in Salt Lake City, he headed south and joined Stoops' staff at Arizona.

He also served two NFL Minority Intern Fellowships, with the San Francisco 49ers (1997) and the Green Bay Packers (2002).

Tuiaosopo comes from a football rich family tradition. His uncle, Bob Apisa, was a two-time All-America fullback at Michigan State and was drafted by Green Bay in 1968. A cousin, Manu Tuiaosopo, was a two-time All-America defensive lineman at UCLA and was the No. 18 overall pick by Seattle in the 1979 NFL Draft and started for the Super Bowl XIX champion (1984 season) San Francisco 49ers.

A younger brother, Navy, lettered at Utah State from 1983-86 and played for both the Los Angeles Rams and St. Louis Cardinals, with a younger sibling, Titus, playing for Southern California from 1988-91. Two more cousins played collegiately and in the NFL, John Tautolo (offensive line, UCLA/N.Y. Giants, New England) and Terry Tautolo (linebacker, UCLA/Philadelphia, Detroit, San Francisco, Miami). His cousin, Marques Tuiaosopo, was a quarterback at Washington and was drafted by the Oakland Raiders and also played for the New York Jets. And another nephew, Conan Amituanai, was an offensive lineman at Arizona.

Tuiaosopo grew up in Carson, Calif. He graduated from Phineas Banning High School in Wilmington, Calif., where he lettered in football.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Physical Education and Health from Pacific Lutheran, 1989; Master's in Education Administration Credentials from the University of the Pacific, 1991; At UCLA: First year (joined the staff in February of 2014); Born: Sept. 10, 1963 in American Samoa; Family: Wife, Kathy; sons, Titus and Luke; daughters, Lanea and Maya.

Quarterbacks - Taylor Mazzone (East Carolina 2009)

Taylor, the son of offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone, was promoted to quarterbacks coach in January of 2013. In the 2012 season, he was a graduate assistant coach for special teams at UCLA. He had been on the coaching staff at Arizona State University prior to coming to Westwood.

Quarterback Brett Hundley became UCLA's all-time leader in total offense and touchdown passes this season while ranking in the top five nationally in completion percentage. He also became the first Bruin to record three seasons of at least 3,000 passing yards. Hundley has thrown for and / or run for a score in 38 of his 39 career games. He established a school record with his 19th game of 300-yards total offense this season. Hundley owns five of the 10 400-yard total offense efforts in school history. Jerry Neuheisel came off the bench to relieve an injured Hundley and led UCLA a victory over Texas.

Hundley continued to put up big numbers in 2013. He threw for over 400 yards for the first time in his career (410 v. Cal, third-highest total in school history) and his sum of 428 yards of total offense against Cal ranked fourth on the all-time school list. Hundley also became the first Bruin to ever throw for a touchdown, run for a score and catch a touchdown pass in the same game. The Bruins also racked up a school record 692 yards of total offense in the game against New Mexico State. Hundley threw just one interception in his last 158 attempts of the 2013 campaign. He ranked among the nation's top-25 in completion % (14th-.668), passing efficiency (20th-152.9), touchdown passes (23rd-24), points responsible for (14th-216), points responsible for per game (18th-16.8) and total offense (23rd-293.8).

Mazzone joined the ASU staff in February of 2010, serving as a quality control coach. In 2011, he became an offensive assistant and the Sun Devil offense ranked 25th in the nation (445.8 yds/g) and 10th in passing offense (316.7 yds/g). Quarterback Brock Osweiler (2nd round selection of the Denver Broncos in 2012 NFL Draft) ranked 11th in the NCAA in total offense (317.4). In 2010, Arizona State was listed as the No. 15 pass offense in the nation and the No. 29 total offense in the country. Mazzone has also worked with college quarterbacks training for the jump to the NFL, such as Tim Tebow, Christian Ponder, Robert Griffin III and Osweiler.

Taylor attended both Ole Miss and East Carolina University where he was a member of the football teams. He spent one season at Mississippi (2005) and then transferred to East Carolina where he played quarterback and on special teams under head coach Skip Holtz. The Pirates went on to play in four bowl games and capture two Conference USA championships. His ECU teams racked up 33 wins as a class.

In high school, Mazzone played football, basketball, baseball and ran track. In 2005, he graduated, with honors, from Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, North Carolina. His brother, Grayson, played receiver on the UCLA team in 2013.

PERSONAL -- Education: Bachelor's in Construction Management, minor in Business, from East Carolina in 2009; At UCLA: Third year on staff (joined staff in March of 2012 as graduate asst.; named quarterbacks coach in January of 2013); Born: June 1, 1987 in Ft. Worth, TX.

Defensive Coordinator / Inside Linebackers - Jeff Ulbrich

(Hawaii) Jeff Ulbrich joined the UCLA staff in January, 2012 after a playing and coaching career in the NFL. He was on staff with the Seattle Seahawks in the 2010 and 2011 seasons as a special teams assistant before arriving in Westwood.

After originally joining the Bruin staff as linebackers and special teams coach, Ulbrich was named assistant head coach in the spring of 2012, in addition to his duties with the linebackers and special teams. In February of 2014, he was promoted to Defensive Coordinator. Two of his linebacker group, Anthony Barr and Jordan Zumwalt were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft.

In 2014, the Bruin defense ranked third in the conference and featured the nation's top solo tackler in Butkus Award and Lott Trophy winner Eric Kendricks. The linebacker also ranked sixth in the nation in total tackles per game. Seven defenders earned first or second-team all-conference honors. Cal, Arizona and USC were each limited to less than 80 yards rushing.

Named the 2013 FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator of the Year, Ulbrich has guided the Bruins special teams unit to one of the top rankings in the country in each of his first two seasons. Under Ulbrich, UCLA special teams have led the country in blocked kicks and punts over the last two seasons. UCLA also joined Stanford, Florida and Florida State as the only FBS teams to finish the regular season among the top-20 nationally in both kickoffs and kickoff returns. The Bruins finished in the top-17 nationally in kickoff returns (9th), blocked kicks (10th), net punting (16th), punt return defense (16th) and kickoff return defense (17th) in 2013.

Instrumental in the development of one of the top linebacking corps in the country, Ulbrich helped lead the conversion of Barr, an H-back before Ulbrich stepped on campus, to outside linebacker. Barr, who transformed into one of the top pass rushers in college football over that span, was named a finalist for the Bednarik and Lombardi awards and won the Lott IMPACT Trophy while also garnering consensus All-American honors in 2013. He was selected with the ninth overall pick of the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Minnesota.

Ulbrich also worked with Myles Jack, Zumwalt and Eric Kendricks in 2013. Jack earned Pac-12 Defensive and Offensive Freshman of the Year honors, after totaling 75 tackles, seven for a loss, one sack, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and a team-high 13 passes defended.

Zumwalt ranked second on the team with 93 tackles, added 5.5 for loss, forced three fumbles and had two interceptions and capped off his career by being named Sun Bowl-Co-MVP. Invited to the Senior Bowl and NFL combine, he was chosen in the sixth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh.

In addition, linebacker Ryan Hofmeister was named a second-team All-Pac-12 selection for his standout special teams work in 2013.

Eclipsing the century mark in tackles for the second consecutive season, Kendricks led UCLA with 106 tackles. He added four tackles for loss, two sacks, one interception, forced a fumble and blocked a kick and ranks eighth (tied) on the all-time school tackle list.

In his first season with the Bruins, Ulbrich helped immediately elevated the performance of the special teams units. Punter Jeff Locke (Vikings) was named 2012 first-team all-conference and fullback David Allen was selected to the second-team all-conference squad for his play on special teams. UCLA ranked 13th in the country in net punting (39.94) and improved its own punt return average by almost six yards per attempt from the previous season.

Ulbrich's linebacker group also excelled. Barr was ranked among the national leaders in sacks all season long (finished second) and Kendricks led the Pac-12 in tackle average and ranked ninth in the nation with his 10.7 per game mark. His total of 150 tackles was the most by a Bruin player since Jerry Robinson set the school record with 161 in 1978. Zumwalt finished fourth on the squad with 71 tackles.

Professionally, in 2010, Seahawks kicker Olindo Mare matched the sixth-longest field goal streak with 30 straight. The kickoff return units ranked third in the NFL and the kickoff cover group ranked fifth in the league.

A linebacker as a player, Ulbrich was drafted in the third round of the 2000 NFL Draft (86th pick) out of the University of Hawaii by the San Francisco 49ers. He earned a starting linebacker job with the 49ers in 2001 and was on the team for 10 seasons, playing for head coaches Steve Mariucci, Dennis Erickson, Mike Nolan and Mike Singletary. In 2007, Ulbrich played a backup role to first round pick Patrick Willis, and also had an impact on special teams. He was placed on injured reserve in October, 2009 and decided to end his playing career. Ulbrich was hired by the Seattle Seahawks as a special teams assistant on January 29, 2010.

Ulbrich attended junior college and went on to become a two-year starter at the University of Hawaii. He earned All-WAC first-team honors at middle linebacker and was a team co-captain as a senior. He led the conference with a school season record 169 tackles that season, setting another school mark with 127 assisted tackles. He ranked third in the league with eight sacks for 67 yards and totaled 15 tackles for loss (58 yards) and two interceptions. In his junior season, he finished with 41 tackles, including a sack.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended the University of Hawaii; At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: February 17, 1977. Family: Jeff and his wife Cristina have three children, Sammy, Jax and Jace.

Wide Receivers - Eric Yarber (Idaho 1995) Eric Yarber joined the Bruins staff in January, 2012 after two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and five seasons in the NFL overall.

Receivers Jordan Payton and Devin Fuller have climbed up the all-time school charts this season. Payton's 151-yard effort against ASU was the highest since the 2009 season. Thomas Duarte has emerged as a big-play performer and ended the regular season ranked 10th in the nation in receiving yards per catch.

In year two at UCLA, Yarber helped senior Shaq Evans, a fourth-round selection in the 2014 NFL Draft, finish up his career ranked tied for 10th on the school's all-time reception list. Evans earned an invite to the Senior Bowl and the NFL combine.

after catching nine scoring passes in 2013, a total which tied for ninth on the all-time school list. Sophomore receivers Devin Fuller, Jordan Payton and Devin Lucien each nearly doubled their first-year production.

In his first season with the Bruins, Yarber's direction helped wide receivers Evans and Jerry Johnson record breakout years. Evans' 60 catches led the team in 2012 and were the eighth-most receptions by a Bruin in a single-season. Evans' total of 877 receiving yards ranked 11th-best on that single-season school list. Johnson caught a career-best 31 balls for 428 yards, including a 100-yard game in the Holiday Bowl.

In 2011, Yarber worked as the Tampa Bay wide receivers coach for a promising young unit that included the development of second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams. Williams turned into one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneers history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was becoming an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber came to Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) on the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State. While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight scores before being a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to second-team All-Pac 10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pacific-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards-after-the-catch with a 13.6 and 13.1 average (min. 10 receptions) respectively in 2004. From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds, respectively, by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive quality control coach with the Seattle Seahawks, after spending the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV. His coaching career began in 1996 when he took a secondary coaching position at his alma mater, Idaho.

Yarber was selected by the Washington Redskins as a 12th-round pick in the 1986 NFL Draft and spent three seasons as a wide receiver and punt returner. He was part of the Washington squad that defeated the Denver Broncos to win Super Bowl XXII in 1988, leading that team with 37 punt returns. At Idaho, Yarber was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference's Most Valuable Player during his senior year, catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 receiving yards on 54 catches. He attended Crenshaw High School in Los Angeles.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in General Studies from the University of Idaho, 1995; At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: September 22, 1963, in Chicago, IL. Family: Wife, Estevanica; sons Kameryon and Robert.

Strength and Conditioning Coordinator - Sal Alosi (Hofstra '01)

Sal Alosi, who has both collegiate and NFL experience, was hired on Jan. 10, 2012 to be UCLA's strength and conditioning coordinator for football. He came to the Bruins after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at Bryant University (Rhode Island) in 2011, where he worked with all 22 of the Bulldogs' varsity programs. Alosi's skill and knowledge in the weight room played a vital role in the development of the Bryant athletic department in its final year of transition to full Division I status.

Prior to working at Bryant, Alosi spent nine years in the NFL, where he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for both the New York Jets and the Atlanta Falcons. A four-year letterwinner and linebacker at Hofstra University, Alosi led the Pride to back-to-back Division I-AA (now FCS) quarterfinal playoff appearances in 1999 and 2000 and topped the team in tackles as a senior.

Following his playing career, he joined the coaching staff at his alma mater, becoming an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Hofstra in 2001, when the Pride won its first Atlantic 10 Conference title in football, advancing to the Division I-AA playoffs for the third-straight year. Alosi went on to join the NFL's New York Jets a season later and stayed there until the 2006 campaign, when he was hired by the Atlanta Falcons to direct the team's strength and conditioning program under head coach Jim Mora. After one season with the Falcons, though, Alosi returned to New York on Feb. 21, 2007 as the Jets' head strength and conditioning coach and was on the same staff as new Bruin offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone.

A native of Massapequa, N.Y., Alosi graduated from Hofstra University with a degree in exercise science.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Exercise Science, Hofstra, 2001; At UCLA: Second year (joined staff in January, 2012); Born: May 11, 1977; Family: Alosi is married with two children.
