HEAD COACH CHARMIN SMITH

A mainstay on the Golden Bear bench for over a decade, Charmin Smith was named head coach of the Cal women's basketball team on June 21, 2019.

Smith became the 10th head coach in Cal women's basketball history after spending 12 seasons as an assistant on the Golden Bear staff, including serving as the program's associate head coach since 2012. Cal has had ten 20-win seasons and made nine trips to the NCAA Tournament since Smith's arrival in Berkeley in 2007, highlighted by the program's first trip to the Final Four in 2013.

Smith experienced a number of successes in her first year as head coach, leading the Golden Bears to three upsets over higher-ranked opponents. The first came in the form of a 4-point victory over No. 20 Arkansas on November 24 and then a win over No. 13 Arizona on the road in the regular season finale. The Bears completed their second upset in the same week as just four days later, they defeated 5-seeded and No. 22-ranked Arizona State in the opening round of the 2020 Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament in Las Vegas. The win over the Sun Devils made the Golden Bears just the second 12-seed to win a game in the Pac-12 Tournament. Smith's efforts also saw three players named to the Pac-12 Winter Academic Honor Roll and another three receive All-Pac-12 Honors. She also oversaw the signing of the seventh-ranked recruiting class in the nation, the program's highest-ranked class since 2009.

Year two in the Smith era was marred by the COVID-19 pandemic as a young Golden Bear squad, which featured the nation's seventh-ranked recruiting class, gained valuable experience over a 17-game season. On the court, Cal was led by freshman Dalayah Daniels who earned Pac-12 Freshmen Team Honorable Mention honors. Off the court, the Bears excelled in the classroom, winning the Newmark Award, an annual accolade given to the teams in the Cal Athletics's department with the best cumulative grade-point average for the previous year. The Bears finished the year with a 3.61 team GPA.

Highly-regarded throughout the coaching ranks at both the collegiate and professional levels, Smith has played a key role in building Cal into one of the premier programs on the West Coast, handling duties from recruiting and scheduling, to alumni engagement and campus equity and inclusion. She has served on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Board of Directors and was hired in April 2019 to serve as an assistant coach for the WNBA's New York Liberty.

On the hardwood, Smith has helped coach the Bears to the top three individual seasons in program history. In her first two years in Berkeley, Cal set then-school records for wins in a season, finishing both years with 27-7 marks before Cal pushed itself into elite status with the record-breaking 32-4 Final Four campaign in 2012-13. The Bears also recorded their best Pac-12 record (17-1) and won their first conference regular-season crown that season. Smith has helped lead the Bears to the postseason in 11 of her 13 seasons and was also part of the staff that led the Bears to the 2010 WNIT championship.

Smith arrived at Cal for the 2007-08 under head coach Joanne Boyle and remained on staff when Lindsay Gottlieb became head coach in 2011-12. Over the course of her tenure, she has played a key role in the Bears' player development, which has seen Cal produce seven WNBA Draft picks in recent years, including guards Layshia Clarendon, a 2017 WNBA All-Star and the ninth overall pick in the 2013 WNBA Draft, and Brittany Boyd, who earned WNBA All-Rookie recognition after being drafted ninth overall in 2015. More recently, Smith has worked extensively with Cal's post players, including 2019 National Defensive Player of the Year and four-time All-American Kristine Anigwe, who was selected by the Connecticut Sun with the ninth overall pick in the 2019 WNBA Draft.

Of the 15 McDonald's All-Americans in Cal women's basketball history, Smith has helped sign 13 of them since joining the Cal staff in 2007, including an impressive haul in 2009 with a class that featured four All-Americans that served as the foundation to the Bears' 2013 NCAA Final Four run. Cal has put together five top-20 recruiting classes in Smith's tenure, which includes three in the top 10 (2009, 2011, and 2020).

A St. Louis native, Smith was a star player for Stanford from 1993-97, helping the Cardinal to three NCAA Final Fours and three Pac-10 titles. A four-year letter winner at Stanford, she earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in civil and environmental engineering from the school.

Following her collegiate playing career, Smith joined the professional ranks in the ABL from 1997-98 as a member of the Portland Power and played three years in the WNBA, along with one year in the Swedish Basketball League. She began her coaching career in 2003 as an assistant coach at Boston College, where she spent one season before joining Tara Vanderveer's coaching staff at Stanford.

During Smith's tenure as an assistant with Stanford, the Cardinal posted an 87-16 (.845) record and made a pair of NCAA Elite Eight appearances. Smith played an integral role in the development of three of the Pac-10's top posts - Brooke Smith, Jayne Appel and Kristen Newlin - and in the spring of 2007, she switched her focus to working with the Cardinal guards, including three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year Candice Wiggins. After three years, Smith left the Farm for Berkeley and joined the Golden Bear staff for the 2007-08 season.

Passionate about increasing coaching opportunities for women and particularly BIPOC women, Coach Smith has undertaken several initiatives aimed at creating a more diverse and inclusive community at Cal and the larger women's basketball community. Last year, she rebranded the program's 41-year-old Cal Classic tournament to the "Raising the B.A.R. (Basketball, Activism and Representation) Invitational powered by Cal." The annual event is used to elevate the voices, stories and people in the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging space and features teams led by Black female head coaches. She is also a member of the Women's Basketball Board of Directors, a co-chair of the WBCA Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee, a member of the Women of Color group (a network where women of color coaches collaborate, advocate, empower, and mentor one another) and is a part of the Advancement of Blacks in Sports working to review the hiring practices in college athletics.

VS. UCLA

Series

This game marks the 82nd all time meeting between the two programs with UCLA holding a 58-23 series lead and a nine game winning streak coming into the contest. Cal's last win against UCLA came on Feb. 3, 2017 in a 80-77 win at Haas Pavilion.

About the Bruins

UCLA is led by 12th year head coach Cori Close and is coming off an 18-13 season in which the Bruins advanced to the semifinal round of the WNIT before falling to South Dakota State. They are led by lone returning starter Charisma Osborne who was recently named to the Wooden Award Midseason Top 25 list.

Last Time Out Versus UCLA

Cal took control of the game early with a 15-2 run out the gate behind a hot start from Kemery Martín, who had eight first quarter points, but it wasn't enough as the Bears fell on the road 87-70 to then No. 8 UCLA.

It was a close game until the fourth quarter when UCLA, trailing by two points, went on a 12-2 run to lead 78-65 and put the game away.

Martín tied her career-high with five 3-pointers for the third time in her career and second time this season. Jayda Curry and Leilani McIntosh joined Martín in double-figures with 13 and 11 points respectively. The Bears also got contributions from Peanut Tuitele, who had nine points and seven rebounds and Karisma Ortiz, who had two 3-pointers for the first time this season. The Bears shot 47.1 percent from deep, their second highest mark of the season.

Martín made her first eight field goals in the game and was 5 of 5 from 3-point range. Her first miss came at 6:50 in the third quarter on a 10-foot jumper.

NOTABLE

In the 87-70 loss at No. 17 Arizona:

- Cal was led by Jayda Curry's team-high 15 points, all of which came in the second half.
- Michelle Onyiah scored 14 points off the bench while grabbing eight rebounds for her fifth game this season with at least eight and Leilani McIntosh added 10 points while swiping a season-high three steals.
- The Bears turned up the defensive pressure in the second half and went on an extended 15-0 run between the third and fourth quarter to get within 61-54 with 5:01 remaining in the game but finished on a 1-for-11 shooting slump.
- Cal forced the Wildcats into 19 turnovers, their third most in any game this season.

Against Top 10 opponents:

- Against then No. 9 Notre Dame on Nov. 12, Cal scored the most 3-pointers (9) and points (79), had the most assists (17) and steals (12 - only opponent to register double-digit steals) against Notre Dame among any of its opponents this season. Opponents include No. 5 UConn, No. 9 Virginia Tech and No. 13 Maryland.
- In the first meeting at No. 2 Stanford on Dec. 23, Cal shot 43.9 percent from deep, the highest percentage allowed by Stanford, held Stanford to just 29.2 percent from 3-point range, its fourth lowest percentage of the season and the 69 points the Bears put up were the third highest total allowed by the Cardinal all season. In the second meeting at home on Jan. 8, Cal held them to its lowest FG (32.3) and 3PT (20.0) percentages and 3PT makes (4) of the season while outperforming them in all three categories along with its lowest scoring output (60 points).
- Against No. 8 UCLA On Jan. 15, Cal was able to take control of the game early with a 15-2 lead and was down just one point in the fourth quarter before going on a scoring drought to seal the loss. The Bears shot 47.1 percent from deep, their second highest mark of the season.

- Team national rankings: 63rd asst/to ratio (1.10), 70th fewest turnovers per game (14.2), 72nd 3PT% (33.8), 73rd assists per game (15.0)

- With her 3-pointer against Arizona, Curry kept her streak of consecutive regular season games with at least one 3-pointer going at 47 games. Her streak is the longest among all active Pac-12 players and now marks the longest streak of any Pac-12 player since the 1999-00 season.

- Curry is the only player in the Pac-12 who has a hit a 3-pointer in every game this year.

- Cal has two players in the top 15 of the Pac-12 in 3-point makes: Martín (7th) - 49 and Curry (8th) - 48 and 3-point percentage: McIntosh (3rd) - 43.8, Martín (13th) - 38.0. Martín's percentage ranks 66th nationally among qualified players. The duo of Curry and Martín rank third in the Pac-12 for 3-point makes (97) is one of only two pairs among Pac-12 schools with 48+ 3-pointers.

- Evelien Lutje Schipholt's career as a Bear will go down in Cal's history books as she took the fifth spot on Cal's all-time list for career blocks with 104 career blocks.
- Cal is one of two schools in the Pac-12 with two players in the top 10 in assists: Curry (6th) at 3.8 apg and McIntosh (10th) at 3.6 apg.
- Curry ranks second among all sophomores in the Pac-12 in scoring (14.2) and 34th nationally. She has scored in double-figures in all but six games this season.
- Lutje Schipholt has been a steady force leading the team in rebounds (128) and ranking third in scoring at 10.1 points per game (career-high). Her 57 offensive rebounds rank 9th in the Pac-12. Her 45.3 offensive rebounding percentage ranks 1st in the Pac-12 among the top 30 rebounders.
- McIntosh has dramatically improved her accuracy from deep, continuing her year-over-year improvement. She is currently shooting a career-high 43.8 percent from 3-point range and is one of only four players in the Pac-12 shooting at least 48 percent from the field and 43 percent from deep.

- Martín has been one of the Bears' most consistent players from 3-point range this season shooting at a 38.0 percent rate. She has hit at least two 3-pointers in all but 11 games this season and seven of 14 conference games.
- Off The Bench: Michelle Onyiah has been a key contributor off the bench this season. Onyiah is the leading scorer off the bench (6.3) and has a team-high two double-doubles this season. In the last eight games, 21 of her 46 rebounds have come on the offensive end and she has been leading the team in rebounding (5.6) during Pac-12 play. Her 49 offensive rebounds this season rank in the top 20 of the Pac-12 and she is the only player on that list who has not started a game this year.
- Cal's offense is coming from multiple sources this season with four Bears averaging double-figure scoring: Curry - 14.2, Martín - 10.4, Lutje Schipholt - 10.1, McIntosh - 10.0. Last season only Curry averaged double-figures.
- Peanut Tuitele has been instrumental in helping the Bears control the glass this season, currently leading the team in rebounding average at 5.2 boards per game and has had 34 offensive rebounds so far which ranks in the top 35 in the Pac-12, while having missed two games.
- The Bears' bench has been a solid contributing factor this season accounting for 27.3 percent of the team's scoring to date. Cal's bench has outscored its opponents in all but nine games this season.
- Curry is coming off a historic season in which she became the first freshman in Pac-12 history to lead the conference in scoring (18.6 ppg) and to open the season with three consecutive conference Freshman of the Week honors.
- Curry entered the season as one of the most dynamic scorers in the conference. Not only did she finish in the top five in the conference in 3-point field goals per game (2.0), but she also ranked second in the Pac-12 in free throws made (111) and attempts (138).
- McIntosh is coming off a season in which she ranked third in the conference in steals (2.1 spg) on her way to earning Pac-12 All-Defensive honorable mention. She was also the top distributor for the team as her 4.2 assists per game led the team and ranked third in the Pac-12.
- Schipholt started all 24 games for the Bears last season and led the team in rebounding (6.8 rpg), which ranked 10th in the Pac-12. Last season, Schipholt was named the Pac-12 Player of the Week for the first time in her career on Dec. 27 following her 20-point, 10-rebound performance against Saint Mary's.
- Cal welcomed five newcomers to the team: sophomore guard Kemery Martín from Utah, graduate forward Peanut Tuitele from Colorado, sophomore forward Claudia Langarita from the University of San Francisco and freshmen guards Amaya Bonner from San Jose, CA and Bella Stevens from Santa Cruz, CA.
- Both Martín and Tuitele have had success in the competitive Pac-12 with Martin receiving All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors in 2021 and Tuitele being named to the 2019 Pac-12 All-Freshman honorable mention team.
- As a freshman at the USF last season, Langarita was a four-time WCC Freshman of the Week on her way to making the WCC All-Freshman Team. She finished the season with 16 games in double figures, including three games with 20 or more.
- Bonner comes in as a four-star prospect with an overall ranking of 94 according to ESPN.com and Hoopgurlz Recruiting rankings. She was the nation's 51st overall prospect for 2022 and the 13th highest ranked guard.
- Making her debut with the Bears in her second year with the team will be Karisma Ortiz, who missed all of last year due to injury. She comes to Cal via a transfer from the University of Texas, where she made 15 starts for the Longhorns as a sophomore during the 2020-21 season.
