KELLY INOUE-PEREZ

HEAD COACH

15TH YEAR

UCLA, 1993

RECORD: 625-173-1 (.783)

Kelly Inoue-Perez is beginning her 15th season as the Bruins' head coach in 2021 and has an overall record of 625-173-1 (.783) through 14 campaigns. During the 2020 abbreviated season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Bruins posted a 25-1 record, with the .962 winning percentage ranking first in the nation. The Bruins were voted the No. 1 team in the nation in the final NFCA, USA Softball and D1Softball polls. As a team, UCLA was also first in strikeout-to-walk ratio (10.52), second in batting average (.368) and earned run average (1.20), fourth in runs per game (7.69), sixth in slugging percentage (.594) and tied for ninth in doubles (45). Megan Faraimo led the nation with a 29.80 strikeout-to-walk ratio, ranked second with 149 strikeouts and was tied for second with 13 victories, earning Softball America Pitcher of the Year honors. In addition, Maya Brady was named Softball America Freshman Player of the Year. (No All-American, All-Region or All-Pac-12 awards were given).

In 2019, Inoue-Perez guided the Bruins to their 13th National Championship and 12th NCAA title. The Bruins never trailed at the Women's College World Series, as Inoue-Perez won her 600th career game in the title-clinching victory over Oklahoma. During their 5-0 run in Oklahoma City, UCLA led the WCWS field in batting average (.310), earned run average (1.84), home runs (12), on base percentage (.392), runs scored (37) and slugging (.574). The Bruins also led the entire NCAA Tournament in average (.317), runs (79), slugging (.548) and homers (18).

Rachel Garcia was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Aaliyah Jordan, Bubba Nickles and Kinsley Washington. Garcia was also selected as the Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year (Honda Cup), USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, NFCA National Pitcher of the Year, Softball America and ESPNW POY and Pac-12 Conference Player and Pitcher of the Year. Six Bruins earned All-American status (Garcia - First Team NFCA and SA, Nickles - First Team SA and Second Team NFCA, Briana Perez - First Team SA, Kelli Godin - Second Team SA, Taylor Pack - Third Team SA, Megan Faraimo - Third Team SA, Pac-12 Freshman of the Year). Seven players were also honored on the All-Region and All-Pac-12 teams.

The Bruins, who had 14 comeback victories, went 56-6 and tied for first in the Pac-12 Conference (20-4), UCLA's first league title since 2009. The Bruins finished the season ranked second in ERA (1.43), third in average (.339) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (5.52), fourth in runs per game (7.03), seventh in on base (.416), eighth in slugging (.547), tied for eighth in shutouts (20), 11th in homers (78), 20th in fielding percentage (.974) and tied for 20th in doubles (90).

Inoue-Perez and her staff were named the 2019 NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year, the second time in a decade they earned the award (2010), and NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year (fifth time).

In 2018, the Bruins again advanced to the WCWS, going 58-7 and placing second in the Pac-12 (20-4). The 58 victories, tied for the most in the nation in 2018, were the most for a Bruin team since 2001. UCLA won the first 25 games of the season, was the last undefeated team in the country and had 14 comeback wins. UCLA finished second in the nation in batting (.335), fifth in runs per game (6.32), sixth in slugging (.520), ninth in on base percentage (.404), 10th in homers (68), tied for 10th in doubles (88) and 12th in ERA (1.83).

Garcia was named the Honda Sport Award winner for softball, as well as NFCA, USA Softball and ESPNW National Player of the Year. Garcia was a First Team NFCA All-American, along with Jordan, while Kylee Perez was named Second Team All-American. Seven Bruins were named NFCA All-Region to tie a school record, and six were honored on the All-Pac-12 Teams, with Garcia earning POY honors and Jordan picking up Freshman of the Year and Batting Champion accolades. On Feb. 25, 2018, Inoue-Perez won the 500th game of her head coaching career with a victory over Missouri. In the classroom, the 2018 Graduation Success Rate was at 100 percent, the sixth-straight season UCLA softball accomplished that feat.

In 2017, the Bruins went 51-12 and tied for third in the Pac-12 (16-8). UCLA finished third in the nation in homers (78) and doubles (97) and seventh in slugging (.521). Garcia, the NFCA National Freshman of the Year, was also an NFCA Second Team All-American, with five Bruins earning NFCA All-West Region First Team accolades, as well as All-Pac-12 nods.

In 2016, the Bruins advanced to the WCWS after winning the final two games of the Eugene Super Regional to oust Oregon. UCLA went 40-16-1 and placed second in the Pac-12 (16-5-1). The Bruins led the nation in double plays turned with 45 and also ranked in the Top 31 in five other categories. Three Bruins earned NFCA All-American honors, with Mysha Sataraka and Delaney Spaulding receiving Second Team accolades and Alexis Bennett picking up Third Team plaudits. In addition, six players earned All-Region honors and five were named to the All-Pac-12 Teams. On Feb. 13, 2016, Inoue-Perez won her 400th career game against Wichita State. Inoue-Perez and her staff were named the NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the third season in a row and fourth time during Inoue-Perez's head coaching tenure (2010).

In 2015, the Bruins went 51-12, finishing second in the Pac-12 (19-5). The Bruins, who led all NCAA Tournament teams in homers during the postseason with 17, were tops in the country in batting (.367), second in on base percentage (.467), tied for second in doubles (107), fourth in runs scored (7.92) and slugging (.608) and 11th in homers (89). The Bruins set single-season school records in average, slugging, on base, runs, RBI and walks. Four Bruins were named NFCA All-Americans, with Bennett and Ally Carda earning First Team honors and Spaulding and Stephany LaRosa being named Second Team. A school-record seven Bruins were named NFCA West All-Region, while seven were honored on the All-Pac-12 teams, including Carda, the back-to-back Player of the Year.

In 2014, the Bruins recorded the nation's best winning percentage (.867) with a 52-8 record. Inoue-Perez picked up her 300th career coaching victory at Hawai'i on Feb. 8. The Bruins finished second in the Pac-12 (19-5) and tied for ninth nationally, reaching the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament. UCLA ranked fourth in the country in slugging and ninth in average and homers per game. Carda and LaRosa each earned First Team All-American accolades, with Carda also being named a Top Three finalist for the USA Softball National Player of the Year Award and Pac-12 Player of the Year. Six Bruins were named All-Region and seven were honored on the All-Pac-12 Teams.

The Bruins posted a 40-20 record in 2013, tying for fifth in the Pac-12 with a 10-14 mark and reaching the Regional Championship game of the Louisville Regional. B.B. Bates was named Second Team NFCA All-American, four were honored on the All-Region squad and six earned All-Pac-12 accolades.

In 2012, UCLA went 36-20 and tied for fourth in the Pac-12 with a 12-12 record. Four Bruins earned All-American honors, tied for the most for any school in 2012, as LaRosa was named First Team, Andrea Harrison and Katie Schroeder Second Team and Samantha Camuso Third Team. Seven were named to the All-Pac-12 Team, including Freshman of the Year LaRosa, while six were All-Region winners.

In 2011, UCLA recorded a 36-19 mark and tied for sixth in the Pac-10 (9-12). Six Bruins were honored on the All-Conference Teams, while Harrison was named First Team All-Region and All-American. Inoue-Perez earned her 200th career victory on March 11 against Sacramento State.

Inoue-Perez led the UCLA softball program to its 12th national title and 11th NCAA Championship in 2010. The Bruins (50-11) went a perfect 10-0 in the postseason, including 5-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA set numerous WCWS records, including the most home runs in one tournament with 14. Megan Langenfeld was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS, while Camuso and Harrison each earned All-Tournament honors. Following the season, Inoue-Perez and her staff were honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year. UCLA set a single-season school record for home runs with 108. Langenfeld and GiOnna DiSalvatore were each named to the NFCA All-American First Team. The Bruins also had three players named to the All-Region Team and eight honored by the Pac-10.

In 2009, she led the Bruins to a Pacific-10 Conference Championship, as UCLA went 45-11 overall and 16-5 in league play. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year and earned her 100th career victory on Feb. 22 against Maryland. In 2008, the Bruins went 51-9 and advanced to the WCWS, finishing second in the Pac-10 with a 17-4 record. In her first season at the helm of UCLA in 2007, Inoue-Perez posted a 37-18 overall record and a 12-9 Pac-10 mark (T-3rd).

Over Inoue-Perez's 14 seasons, the Bruins have earned 32 NFCA All-American awards, 67 All-Region honors and 89 All-Pac-10/12 accolades.

Inoue-Perez, just the third head coach in UCLA softball history, officially took over the reins from Sue Enquist on Jan. 1, 2007. Enquist announced her retirement as head coach on Sept. 26, 2006. No stranger to the Bruin dugout, Inoue-Perez starts her 33rd straight season in Westwood in 2021. She is a link to five decades of Bruin softball success, joining the UCLA softball program as a freshman in 1989. Inoue-Perez's time is highlighted by eight NCAA Championships and nine Pac-10/12 titles in her previous 32 years, spending five campaigns as a player and 13 as an assistant coach.

Over Inoue-Perez's 13 seasons (1994-2006) as an assistant coach, UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the National Coaching Staff of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Inoue-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruin pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in collegiate softball. Behind the dish, where Inoue-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inoue-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time, First Team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single-season and career home run leader.

Among the other pitching highlights accomplished by the Bruins over her 13 years as an assistant included at least one All-American award earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of those campaigns, including Pac-10 Pitchers of the Year Courtney Dale (1999) and Keira Goerl (2003), DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

In addition, nearly every UCLA pitching record has been set during the time Inoue-Perez has overseen the Bruin battery and the top five pitchers on UCLA's career wins list, Goerl, Selden, Carda, Freed and B'Ann Burns, were coached by her.

As a player, Inoue-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder behind the dish for the Bruins. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning First Team All-Pac-10 as a true freshman and Second Team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up Second Team All-Pac-10 honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inoue-

Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary All-WCWS Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23). Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a B.A. in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships, with the Panthers (1984, '85 and '89) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Qualifier) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, currently reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher/DH for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning First Team All-West Coast Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches health and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Michael (21), a junior on the UCLA baseball team, and Kylie (16).

LISA FERNANDEZ
ASSISTANT COACH
23RD YEAR • UCLA, 1995

One of the most recognizable names in the sport of softball, Lisa Fernandez begins her 23rd season on the Bruin coaching staff in 2021.

This is Fernandez's second stint as a full-time assistant coach for UCLA (1997-99, 2007-present), also serving as a volunteer assistant from 2000-04. In 22 previous seasons with Fernandez on staff, the Bruins have posted a 1,019-263-2 (.794) record and have claimed five NCAA Championships in 1999, 2003, 2004, 2010 and 2019. UCLA has also won Pac-10/12 titles in 1999, 2002, 2009 and 2019. The program has been honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year three times in 2004, 2010 and 2019 and NFCA Regional CSOY six times in 2000, '10, '14, '15, '16 and '19. Arguably the greatest pitcher in softball history, Fernandez has coached nine Bruin hurlers to 18 NFCA All-American awards.

In November 2013, Fernandez was inducted into the ASA/USA Softball National Hall of Fame, joining Sharron Backus, Gina Vecchione, Sheila Cornell, Dot Richardson and Sue Enquist. A decade prior, she was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2003.

Fernandez is a three-time Olympic Gold Medalist, having helped Team USA to victories in the 1996, 2000 and 2004 Olympic Games. In 1996, Fernandez shined in the United States' 3-1 gold-medal victory over China, recording the final three outs to earn a save. She went 1-1 with a 0.33 ERA in softball's inaugural appearance in the Olympics in Atlanta.

In the 2000 Sydney Games, Fernandez pitched the U.S. to victory in both the semifinal win over Australia and the gold-medal game against Japan. She established an Olympic single-game strikeout record with 25 in a round-robin game against Australia and posted a 0.47 earned run average and 52 strikeouts. In 2004, Fernandez was Team USA's top hitter and pitcher, posting a .545 batting average (12-for-22), which set a new record for an Olympic tournament. For the third-consecutive Games, she was also in the circle for the final out of the gold-medal contest, a 5-1 victory over Australia. Fernandez was selected as an alternate to the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

In 1999, Fernandez was named the ASA/USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year. As a pitcher and third baseman, she helped the USA Softball Women's National Team to gold medals at both the Pan American Games and the Canada Cup. She also helped the California Commotion win the ASA Women's Major Fast Pitch championship for the fourth consecutive time.

Fernandez played at UCLA from 1990-93 and completed her psychology degree in 1995. A three-time winner of the sport's Honda Award, Fernandez became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup in 1993, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports. A four-time, First Team All-American, Fernandez led the Bruins to two national championships (1990 & 1992) and two runner-up finishes (1991 & 1993). She was also All-Region and All-Pac-10 First Team each season and Pac-10 Player of the Year her final three years.

With a miniscule 0.22 earned run average, Fernandez went 93-7 with 784 strikeouts. Her ERA ranks second in NCAA history and her 74 shutouts are tops at UCLA and tied for ninth in the NCAA annals. In her junior and senior seasons, Fernandez had the lowest ERA in the nation (0.14 in 1992, 0.25 in 1993), sporting a perfect 29-0 mark in '92. She tossed 11 career no-hitters, including a pair in the 1993 Women's College World Series, along with two perfect games. She ranks second in UCLA history in ERA and sixth in wins and strikeouts.

Fernandez was just as powerful at the plate, batting .382 with 15 home runs and 128 runs batted in. She hit .401 in her junior season, but eclipsed that mark by more than 100 points in her senior campaign, batting an NCAA-best .510 with 11 homers and 45 RBI. Fernandez ranks in the UCLA Top 10 in numerous offensive categories, including fifth in hits.

Fernandez and Mike Lujan, who were married in August 2002, have two sons, Antonio (15) and Cruz (8), and reside in Long Beach.

KIRK WALKER
ASSISTANT COACH
20TH YEAR • UCLA, 1988

Fresh off helping the Bruins to a National Championship in 2019, Kirk Walker begins his 20th season on the UCLA coaching staff in 2021 and his ninth year since returning to Westwood on Aug. 7, 2012. Walker, who was the head softball coach at Oregon State from 1995-2012, previously was a member of the Bruin staff from 1984-94. In 18 years on the Bruins' staff, Walker has a coaching record of 635-120-1 (.841). UCLA was honored as the NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2019.

During the summer of 2017, Walker was an assistant coach on the USA Softball Junior Women's National Team, featuring Bruins Holly Azevedo and Bubba Nickles, which won gold at the WBSC Junior Women's World Championship.

Walker returned to UCLA after spending nearly two decades at Oregon State. The all-time winningest coach in program history and the fifth-winningest in Oregon State history regardless of sport, Walker posted a 594-490-3 record (.548 winning percentage) and eight seasons with at least 40 wins. The Beavers made the postseason 10 times with Walker at the helm, including the 2012 campaign, which saw Oregon State post a 36-23 mark and set team records for runs batted in (269) and runs scored (301). Under Walker's tutelage, the Beavers earned 79 All-Pac-10/12 honors, 28 All-Region accolades and 10 All-American awards.

In 2006, Walker led the Beavers to their first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, as OSU posted a school-record, 28-game winning streak and reached No. 5 in the national rankings with a 43-16 overall mark. In 2005, he guided Oregon State (43-16) to its first-ever Pac-10 Championship (and the first regular-season Pac-10 title for any OSU women's sports program), earning Conference Coach of the Year honors for the second time (1999). The most wins in a season for Oregon State came in 1999, when the Beavers had 47 victories and went to the postseason for the first time in program history. Along with his Pac-10 COY award, Walker's staff was named the Speedline Pacific Region Co-Coaching Staff of the Year.

Walker has also earned coaching acclaim away from the collegiate level. He was named one of 12 coaches to form the USA Softball National Team Coaches Pool through the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens. Walker served as an assistant for the USA Elite Team for three summers (2002-04), and also assisted the USA Red National Team during the summer of 2001.

He was the head coach of the four-time USA Women's Major National Champion California Commotion from 1996-1999, and will be head coach of the Commotion again as they start back up in the National Pro Fastpitch league in the summer of 2020.

In addition, Walker was named the Most Valuable Pitcher in the summer of 2015 after winning his first National Championship as a player at the NAFA Men's Masters 40 and over National Championships in Carson City, Nevada. He claimed his second National Title in the summer of 2019 and was named to the All-World Team for the sixth time.

Walker spent 11 years at UCLA from 1984-94. The Bruins won National Championships six times with Walker on the staff ('84, '85, '88, '89, '90 and '92). He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1988. The Woodland Hills, Calif. native has an adopted daughter, Ava, with his ex-partner. A visible and vocal advocate for diversity and inclusion in sports across the country, he is one of the founders of the Equality Coaching Alliance and the LGBT Sports Coalition. Walker also serves as a founding board member for the non-profit Sports Equality Foundation along with being the chair of the UCLA Athlete Allies committee for UCLA Athletics.

DON SLAUGHT
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR • UCLA, 1983

Head coach Kelly Inouye-Perez has announced the addition of UCLA baseball alum and former Major League Baseball player Don Slaught as a volunteer assistant coach on the UCLA softball coaching staff.

"We are very excited to add Don Slaught to our 2019-2020 coaching staff," Inouye-Perez said. "Don is a respected hitting instructor in Major League Baseball, and all levels of collegiate baseball and softball. Don is the owner of the hitting analysis program, RightView Pro (RVP), which UCLA softball has used since Sue Enquist was the head coach. He is also a partner with OnBaseU, which I believe will be a big part of our continued success with our lineup, as we are always looking to stay ahead of the game with the most current information regarding the biomechanics of the swing. As a Bruin alum, we welcome him back to the UCLA family."

Slaught played on the UCLA baseball team for three seasons (1977-1980), holding a .342 batting average, 11 home runs, 80 runs batted in, 24 doubles, 16 stolen bases and 38 walks to just 25 strikeouts. He led the Bruins with a .428 batting average in '79, the second-best, single-season total in school history. Slaught, a member of the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame, was named All-Conference in 1979 and 1980 on the field, while off the field, he was a 1979 CoSIDA Academic All-America selection.

His 16-year MLB career saw him play in 1,327 games with the Kansas City Royals (1982-1984), Texas Rangers (1985-1986), New York Yankees (1987-1989), Pittsburgh Pirates (1990-1995), California Angels (1996), Chicago White Sox (1996) and San Diego Padres (1997). He hit .283 in over 4,000 at-bats, recording 77 homers, 476 RBI, 311 walks, 235 doubles and 28 triples. Slaught played in four postseasons, including three straight ('90-'92) with the Pirates.

Slaught spent two seasons as the hitting coach for the Detroit Tigers (2005-2006). The Long Beach native is the founder and owner of RightView Pro, the first video analysis system for baseball and softball licensed by Major League Baseball, the MLB Players Association and National Pro Fastpitch. Slaught is also a partner in OnBaseU, an educational organization dedicated to the study of how the human body functions in relation to baseball and softball.
