The UNLV men's basketball team (4-2) will host its most anticipated home game of the season on Saturday, Nov. 27 against No. 2 UCLA at the Thomas & Mack Center at 2 p.m.

Runnin' Rebel legend Freddie Banks will have his jersey retired at halftime. Starring at UNLV from 1983-87 under Hall of Fame coach Jerry Tarkanian, Banks, who stayed home to play for the Runnin' Rebels after attending Valley High School where he earned McDonald's High School All-American honors, helped lead UNLV to the 1987 Final Four. He will be the 10th player in program history to have his jersey hung in the rafters at the Thomas & Mack Center.

The Runnin' Rebels have opened the 2021-22 campaign with six games in Las Vegas (four at the TMC and two at T-Mobile Arena). UNLV started with three straight wins at home against Gardner-Webb, California and North Dakota State, then lost to then-No. 4 Michigan and Wichita State in the Roman Main Event on the Las Vegas Strip last weekend. UNLV played the Wolverines tough before falling 74-61 and lost a heartbreaker to the Shockers 74-73. The Runnin' Rebels got back in the win column Wednesday with a 101-45 victory over Division III Whittier at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Senior guard Bryce Hamilton leads the team in scoring at 15.8 points per game, with junior forward Donovan Williams second at 11.0 ppg. Senior forward Royce Hamm Jr. is second in the Mountain West in rebounding with 11.7 per contest (fifth in the country) and is also averaging 8.3 ppg and 1.5 bpg. Senior guard Jordan McCabe leads the team in assists at 4.2 apg (seventh in the MW).

UNLV has an entirely new look this year with nine transfers - eight coming from the Division I level, including four from Big 12 programs. Ten of the Runnin' Rebels' 13 scholarship players had yet to play in a game in a UNLV uniform before this season began.

The returners include senior guards Hamilton and Marvin Coleman and the 15-man roster includes 13 upperclassmen. Hamilton was selected to the 2021-22 Preseason All-Mountain West Team in October. Initially declaring for the 2021 NBA Draft, the second-team All-MW honoree last season who led the Runnin' Rebels in scoring with 17.9 points per game decided to return to the program.

No. 2 UCLA (5-1) opened the season with five straight victories, including an overtime win at home against then-No. 4 Villanova, but is coming off an 83-63 loss to No. 1 Gonzaga Tuesday at T-Mobile Arena. Johnny Juzang has averaged a team-best 18.3 points per game and UCLA has shot 46.5% from the field and 37.7% from the beyond the 3-point arc.

Saturday's game will be broadcast on Stadium with Chris Hassel and Doug Gottlieb calling the action. Jon Sandler, former Runnin' Rebel Curtis Terry and Steve Cofield (sidelines) will handle the UNLV radio call, which may be heard live on ESPN Radio 1100 in Las Vegas. All streaming links and live stats are available at UNLVRebels.com.

Tickets may be purchased at UNLVtickets.com, by calling 702-739-FANS (3267) or by visiting the Thomas & Mack Center Box Office.

FREDDIE BANKS TO HAVE JERSEY RETIRED SATURDAY

Freddie Banks will have his UNLV jersey retired during a halftime ceremony Saturday vs. No. 2 UCLA. Although the jersey will be retired, his No. 13 will still be available for current student-athletes to wear. Starring at UNLV from 1983-87 under Hall of Fame coach Jerry Tarkanian, Banks, who stayed home to play for the Runnin' Rebels after attending Valley High School where he earned McDonald's High School All-American honors, helped lead UNLV to the 1987 Final Four. As a senior that year, Banks averaged over 19 points per game, leading the team to a 37-2 record. A two-time All-Big West First Team honoree and a three-time Big West All-Tournament selection, including MVP of the 1987 championship, Banks holds the UNLV record for most 3-pointers in a season with 152 during the 1986-87 campaign. One of the more memorable games in program history was one of Banks best performances as he made a school record 10 3-pointers against Indiana in the 1987 Final Four, scoring 38 points, which ranks as the top-scoring UNLV performance in a game in its NCAA Tournament history. Banks ranks second all-time at UNLV in career 3-pointers made with 220 and is fourth all-time in career 3-point field-goal percentage at 41.2 percent. Banks is one of only four players to ever score 2,000 points in a UNLV uniform as he ranks fourth in program history with 2,007 career points. Banks is also among the best ever to play at UNLV in sharing the ball as he led his team in assists during the 1984-85 season and ranks eighth in career assists with 497. Additionally, he is fourth in career steals with 184. A member of the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame, Banks was the first pick of the second round – No. 24 overall – in the 1987 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons. Freddie's number 13 is the 10th player jersey to be raised to the rafters at the Thomas & Mack Center.

CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

The Runnin' Rebels will face five opponents during 2021-22 that appeared in last season's NCAA Tournament: No. 2 UCLA, then-No. 4 Michigan, Hartford, San Diego State and Wichita State.

UP NEXT

After hosting UCLA on Saturday, the Runnin' Rebels will head out on the road for the first time this season, playing at SMU on Wednesday, Dec. 1 and at San Francisco on Saturday. Dec. 4.

THE KEVIN KRUGER HEAD COACHING ERA AT UNLV

Former Runnin' Rebel student-athlete and assistant coach Kevin Kruger was appointed the new head coach of the UNLV's men's basketball program in March. Kruger completed his second year as an assistant coach for the UNLV program in 2020-21 after he returned to his alma mater in April 2019. The point guard on UNLV's 2007 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 team as a senior under his father, legendary coach Lon Kruger, Kevin returned to Las Vegas after spending three years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma (2016-19). With Kevin on the coaching staff, Oklahoma made multiple NCAA Tournament appearances. He was also an assistant coach at Northern Arizona for two seasons (2014-16) following a year as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. Prior to making the move into coaching, Kevin played professionally from 2007-13. During his first season on the coaching staff at UNLV in 2019-20, the Runnin' Rebels tied for second place in the Mountain West, marking the program's best league finish in 12 years. The team also sent shockwaves through the college basketball world with its victory at fourth-ranked and previously undefeated San Diego State, posting the program's best true road win since 1991 (a span of 29 seasons). Achievement in the classroom has been just as important with Kruger on staff. The team turned in a semester grade point average of 3.57 for fall 2020, the program's highest ever. It also holds a record-cumulative GPA of 3.32 with an all-time program-high nine student-athletes on the Dean's Honor List. Kruger began his collegiate playing career at Arizona State, where he earned his criminal justice degree in 2006, before transferring to UNLV. In his lone season as a Runnin' Rebel student-athlete, UNLV won 30 games. He earned All-Mountain West Third Team honors and was named to the conference's all-tournament team. At ASU, Kruger was named an honorable mention All-Pac-10 and second-team NABC District 15 selection in his third and final season in Tempe. Also a Pac-10 All-Freshman honorable mention pick, Kruger left the Sun Devils ranked fourth in career free throw percentage at ASU, fifth all-time in 3-pointers made and attempted and seventh in 3-point percentage. Kruger had professional basketball stints in Bulgaria, Italy, China, Mexico, Belgium and Germany in addition to NBA training camp invitations from the Orlando Magic and Milwaukee Bucks. He also played with the Utah Flash and Los Angeles D-Fenders of the NBA D-League before launching his coaching career. His father, Lon, coached the Runnin' Rebels from 2004-2011 and made four NCAA Tournament appearances (2007, 2008, 2010 and 2011) and an NIT (2009). Kevin earned a master's degree from Oklahoma in human relations in 2017 and is married to the former Allison Gerding. The couple has two daughters, Cameron, who celebrated her second birthday in October and Vivienne, who was born on Monday.

UNLV WAS 3-0 FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 2017-18

Prior to the two losses in the Roman Main Event at T-Mobile Arena, UNLV started the season off 3-0 for the first time since the 2017-18 season. The Runnin' Rebels began that season 6-0.

HAMILTON CAREER SCORING WATCH

Bryce Hamilton has scored 1,171 points during his college career, which currently ranks tied for 27th in UNLV history. Gerald Paddio is also 27th, Reggie Theus is 26th with 1,177, Booker Washington is 25th with 1,190, Tony Smith is 24th with 1,204 and Chace Stanback is 23rd with 1,219.

DEFENSIVE IDENTITY

The Runnin' Rebels are establishing a defensive identity this season as they currently rank second in the Mountain West in field-goal percentage defense at 36.9% (29th in the nation) and third in 3-point field-goal percentage defense at 27.9% (59th in the nation). Additionally, UNLV ranks third in rebounding in the MW with 38.2 rpg and 58th nationally in scoring defense at 60.8 ppg.

AMONG THE NATIONAL LEADERS

UNLV senior forward Royce Hamm Jr. is fifth in the country in rebounds per game (11.7), sixth in total rebounds (70), 12th in defensive rebounds per game (8.2) and 29th in offensive rebounds per game (3.5). As a team, UNLV is 29th in field-goal percentage defense (36.9) and 34th in free-throw percentage (77.3).

"3-POINT GOAL..." - UNLV HOLDS NCAA RECORD

UNLV holds the NCAA record for most consecutive games scoring at least one 3-pointer. Since the 3-point field goal was adopted by the NCAA in 1986-87, UNLV has converted at least one 3-pointer in all 1,135 games played. With Vanderbilt failing to make one in a game during the 2019-20 season, UNLV and Princeton are the only schools left that have made at least one 3-pointer in every game played since the shot was introduced.

KYERON LINDSAY SIGNS WITH RUNNIN' REBELS

The UNLV men's basketball program received a signed commitment from KyeRon Lindsay on the first day of the early signing period. "We are very excited about Kye joining the UNLV family," head coach Kevin Kruger said. "He is extremely talented, versatile and skilled at his size, which gives him the ability to play and guard multiple positions on the court." Lindsay, a 6-foot-8-inch, 205-pound forward from Denton, Texas, is a consensus four-star recruit and top-100 player in his class and attends John H. Guyer High School. He averaged 17 points and nine rebounds per game in Nike's most prestigious summer event, Peach Jam in July, earning First Team All-EYBL honors. He was also named the Breakout Performer of the Year in EYBL, as he shot 53.3 percent from the field and recorded 1.5 blocks and 1.2 steals per contest at the event. As a junior at Guyer HS, he averaged a double-double of 19 points and 11 rebounds per game. He was named the Denton Record-Chronicle's 2020 Impact Player of the Year, shooting 49.3% from the field, while also averaging two steals and two blocks per game. Lindsay, who chose the Runnin' Rebels over Georgia, Oklahoma State and Tennessee on his final list of schools, also plays with the Pro Skills AAU program and will be a freshman in the program starting with the 2022-23 season.

BANKS AND SMITH TO HAVE JERSEYS RETIRED THIS SEASON

Former UNLV men's basketball student-athletes and Runnin' Rebel legends Freddie Banks and Robert Smith will be honored with jersey retirements this season. Banks, who starred for UNLV from 1983-87 and helped lead the Runnin' Rebels to the 1987 Final Four will be honored during the UCLA game on Saturday, November 27 at the Thomas & Mack Center, while Smith, who many say is the best point guard to ever wear a UNLV uniform (1974-77) and led the team to its first Final Four in 1977, will be honored on Saturday, February 19 vs. Colorado State. Although their jerseys will hang from the TMC rafters, their numbers will not be retired and will remain available for current players to wear. "We are very much looking forward to honoring these two Runnin' Rebel legends," Kruger said. "Freddie and Robert both had incredible careers at UNLV and have been amazing ambassadors for our university and the men's basketball program. They are both very deserving and those will be two special nights for them, their families and the fans."

OPEN PRACTICE EVENT RAISES OVER $25,000 FOR SMITH

The UNLV men's basketball program invited the public to attend a practice in October, which was designed to raise funds for Runnin' Rebel legend and former broadcaster Robert Smith. The result was over $25,000 raised! Smith suffered a severe, life-changing stroke in 2019 and medical expenses overwhelmed his family. Contributions went directly to the Smith family to help pay for his medical bills. "Robert is truly a UNLV legend and has meant so much to our program throughout the years," head coach Kevin Kruger said. "We have been looking for ways to help him and his family in any way that we can and we thought this is a wonderful way to assist someone that is important to us all, while bringing the community together." Many say Smith is the greatest point guard in UNLV history. He wore the Scarlet & Gray from 1974-77, was a member of the "Hardway Eight," and led the team to its first Final Four in 1977. He will be honored with a jersey retirement on Saturday, February 19 vs. Colorado State.

KRUGER'S KREW PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

UNLV Athletics has announced a new initiative for community organizations in Southern Nevada, providing an opportunity to attend Runnin' Rebel basketball games at no charge. Dubbed "Kruger's Krew," chosen community groups will be invited as special guests of the UNLV men's basketball program and head coach Kevin Kruger. "There are so many important local organizations that make a difference here in our community and we want to recognize those groups by inviting them to a UNLV men's basketball game at the Thomas & Mack Center," Kruger said. "We look forward to inviting deserving members to enjoy a game as part of this initiative to show our support for the work they do in making Las Vegas such a great place to live." UNLV Athletics invites community leaders to nominate a deserving group to join the 'Krew" by completing the nomination form. Fans may also contribute to help bring this opportunity to more organizations by visiting the contribution page. All links may be found at UNLVRebels.com.

PROOF OF VACCINATION REQUIRED FOR ATTENDEES AT TMC FOR UNLV BASKETBALL

UNLV Athletics has announced the process that it will use for UNLV basketball games at the Thomas & Mack Center for attendees to show proof of vaccination for entry. Through a partnership with Fobi's CheckVax™, fans will be able to verify their proof of vaccination through a simple one-time verification of vaccine process that does not require an App, rather uses a web-based pass that will be used to show confirmation of vaccination at the arena entrance. The pass can be accessed each game via a text or email message link, or saved in the native wallets that are embedded in every Apple and Android mobile phone. Ticket holders have been sent details regarding the proof of vaccination process via e-mail. Fans, media and gameday personnel may complete the proof of vaccination by visiting UNLVRebels.com/CheckVax. UNLV Athletics announced Nov. 2 that it will require proof of full COVID-19 vaccination for entry to its basketball games at the Thomas & Mack Center, allowing attendance without a mask. In accordance with the Emergency Directive from Nevada Governor Steve Sisolak regarding large events, medical or religious exemptions and partial vaccinations will not be accepted. More information may be found at UNLVRebels.com.

RUNNIN' REBELS WIN SEASON OPENER IN KRUGER'S DEBUT

Royce Hamm Jr. records double-double with career highs of 18 points and 17 rebounds, while Bryce Hamilton scores 22 on his 21st birthday in 64-58 home victory over Gardner-Webb

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (1-0) opened the 2021-22 season on Nov. 10 at the Thomas & Mack Center with a 64-58 win over Gardner-Webb (0-1) in Kevin Kruger's head coaching debut.

Runnin' Rebel senior Royce Hamm Jr. had career highs of 18 points and 17 rebounds for a double-double. He also added a career-high-tying four blocks. Senior Bryce Hamilton scored 22 points on his 21st birthday and junior Donovan Williams added 10.

Gardner-Webb was led by D'Maurian Williams' double-double of 21 points and 10 rebounds. Zion Williams had a team-high 11 rebounds and Lance Terry added 13 points.

STAT OF THE GAME: Both teams had a rough shooting night, combining to go 1 for 26 from 3-point range in the first half. UNLV finished the game 2 for 25 from long range, while GWU was 3 for 20.

TURNING POINT: UNLV used a 9-0 run, all by Hamilton, to take a 60-51 lead with just under three minutes to go. Gardner-Webb cut it to two with under a minute left but the Runnin' Rebels hung on for the six-point win.

QUOTABLE: "I'm very proud of the guys for fighting and competing. I really feel that when we go back and watch the film we will be really encouraged how much better we can get. We'll take this one as a staff because we didn't put as much emphasis on the offensive side of the ball until a little more recently because we really felt we could make an imprint with this team defensively. As they continue to play together and start to learn each other's instincts and movements, I think the offense will get better." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

NOTES:
- UNLV forced GWU to commit 16 turnovers.
- The Runnin' Rebels shot 30.3% from the field for the game and GWU shot 38.3%.
- UNLV is now 50-14 all-time in season lid-lifters and is 42-8 when opening the season at home.
- The Runnin' Rebels are 26-4 in season openers at the Thomas & Mack Center.
- UNLV has won 14 of its last 17 season openers overall.
- This marked just the second time the Runnin' Rebels have played Gardner-Webb in men's basketball and are now 2-0 against the Bulldogs.
- UNLV is now 6-1 all-time against teams that currently make up the Big South Conference.
- UNLV was without Victor Iwuakor, James Hampshire and Jordan McCabe.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,130 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS IMPROVE TO 2-0 WITH WIN OVER CAL

Bryce Hamilton led all scorers with 12 points and Michael Nuga added 10 for UNLV Saturday night at the Thomas & Mack Center

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (2-0) is two for two on the season as it won its second straight game to open the 2021-22 campaign, 55-52, against Cal Nov. 13 at the Thomas & Mack Center.

Bryce Hamilton led all scorers with 12 points and Michael Nuga added 10 with six rebounds, while Royce Hamm Jr. led the Runnin' Rebels in boards with seven and blocks with two.

Cal (0-2) was led by Grant Anticevich's 10-point, 11-rebound double-double.

STAT OF THE GAME: The Runnin' Rebels held the Golden Bears to just 36.8% from the field (21 of 57), marking the second straight game they held their opponent to under 39% shooting.

FROM DEEP: After making just two 3-pointers in its season opener, UNLV put any concerns of poor outside shooting to rest as it made 10 from long range vs. Cal.

TURNING POINT: With the score tied at 46 with seven minutes to play, the Runnin' Rebels used a 7-2 spurt to take a five-point lead with 3 minutes left. Cal cut it to just one point at 53-52 with two minutes to go, but a Royce Hamm Jr. blocked shot with 27 seconds left and two free throws from Jordan McCabe at 12 seconds was the difference. Jordan Shepherd missed a potential game-tying 3-pointer at the end.

TOUGH DEFENSE DOWN THE STRETCH: UNLV allowed only two points in the final 2:30 of the game.

QUOTABLE: "We are just really proud of the team. There were a number of times where things could have gone the other way, but we just continued to fight and battle. We had some big plays down the stretch, and again, Keshon Gilbert just goes in and changes the flow of the game. It's fun to watch. He plays hard and the city is going to love him - he just plays basketball the way it's supposed to be played. And Donovan Williams goes in there and just plays as hard as he can. It was huge for us. Looking forward to watching the film and getting ready for Monday." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

NOTES:
- UNLV is 2-0 for the first time since 2017-18.
- UNLV recorded 14 assists on 21 made field goals, while Cal had nine on the same number.
- The Runnin' Rebels held Cal to 28.6% on 3-pointers (4 of 14).
- UNLV led by a point at halftime, 30-29.
- There were six lead changes and three ties throughout the game.
- UNLV is now 6-3 all-time against Cal, including 4-1 at home.
- The win snapped a two-game losing streak against the Golden Bears for UNLV.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,131 straight games.

REBELS RUN RECORD TO 3-0 WITH 64-62 WIN OVER NORTH DAKOTA STATE

Royce Hamm Jr.'s game-saving block keeps UNLV undefeated heading into game on the Strip vs. No. 4 Michigan

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (3-0) kept its record perfect on the young campaign with a 64-62 win over North Dakota State on Nov. 15 at the Thomas & Mack Center to close out its three-game season-opening homestand.

Royce Hamm Jr. pulled down a career-high-tying 17 rebounds and blocked two shots, including the game-saver with three seconds left. Bryce Hamilton led all scorers for the third straight game, tallying 17 points, while Donovan Williams added a career-high 15 and Jordan McCabe chipped in 13.

North Dakota State (2-1) was led by Rocky Kreuser's double-double of 17 points and 10 rebounds, while Maleeck Harden-Hayes also scored in double figures with 12.

STAT OF THE GAME: The Runnin' Rebels held the Bison to a UNLV opponent season-low 35.8% shooting (19 of 53).

THAT'S WHY THEY CALL HIM STRETCH: Williams had two spectacular high-flying dunks, showing the Thomas & Mack Center faithful about his nickname. One was off a Marvin Coleman steal, which extended UNLV's lead to five points with eight minutes to play, electrifying the crowd. "I told Jordan I have been dreaming about getting a fast break dunk in the Mack since June," Williams said after the game. "I go home and I just dream about getting dunks. Some people dream about getting steals, blocks, threes, whatever. I just dream about getting dunks."

HOW IT ENDED: With a 64-62 lead with nine seconds to go, Marvin Coleman missed the front end of a one-and-one, but Hamm Jr.'s rejection was the deciding factor. He said it was the first walk-off block in his career. It marked the second game-saving block in a row as he also had one on Saturday vs. Cal.

QUOTABLE: "We are proud of the way that they continue to fight and grit it out. North Dakota State is a nightmare of a matchup from a scouting standpoint with Kreuser and (Grant) Nelson and what they can do. Royce did an unbelievable job. It's a really weird matchup when somebody that big can shoot it as well as he does. So for Royce to do what he did was great. David (Muoka) came in and gave a huge lift. Donovan guarded him for a little bit and then Bryce coming in at the end and kind of putting them on their heels was big for us. Just really happy for them and really proud of them because we feel like they're guys that deserve it. So to come out on top in three close games when we could have lost all three it's just a good feeling." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

NOTES:
- UNLV is 3-0 for the first time since 2017-18.
- UNLV held its opponent to 38.3% or less shooting for the third straight game.
- UNLV outrebounded NDSU 42-38.
- The Runnin' Rebels had a season-low eight turnovers and a season-high 17 assists.
- Williams (career-high tying) and Muoka both pulled down six rebounds.
- UNLV doubled up the Bison's points in the paint, 36-18.
- UNLV's bench outscored NDSU's 23-16.
- There were seven lead changes and seven ties throughout the game.
- It marked only the second meeting between the two teams. UNLV is now 2-0 all-time in the series.
- UNLV led at halftime for the third straight game.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,133 straight games.

RUNNIN' REBELS SUFFER FIRST LOSS OF THE SEASON AGAINST NO. 4 MICHIGAN

Bryce Hamilton scores team-high 21 points in 74-61 defeat in Roman Main Event at T-Mobile Arena

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team (3-1) suffered its first loss of the season Nov. 19 against No. 4 Michigan, 74-61, in the Roman Main Event at T-Mobile Arena on the Las Vegas Strip.

Bryce Hamilton scored a team-high 21 points, while Michael Nuga and Donovan Williams each added 12. Royce Hamm Jr. had a game-high 10 rebounds.

Michigan (3-1) was led by Eli Brooks' game-high 22 points, while Moussa Diabate and Hunter Dickinson added 14 and 13, respectively. DeVante' Jones had a game-high eight assists and three Wolverines recorded seven rebounds each.

STAT OF THE GAME: Michigan shot 51.0% from the field (25 of 51). Brooks, Diabate and Dickinson combined to shoot 66.7% (18 of 27).

QUOTABLE: "We'd love to sit back and say we are happy that we hung tough, but honestly that's not really the feeling right now. But on that note, there were a number of opportunities where we could have given in, but guys fought and competed to get good shots to stop runs and did a good job of banding together. This game was pretty similar to the first three in the sense that we had a little lull in the second half, but tonight we just weren't able to get back over the hump and get in front." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

NOTES:
- The all-time series between UNLV and Michigan in men's basketball is now tied 2-2.
- This was the first meeting between the two schools in men's basketball since 1997 and the first overall at a neutral site in the series.
- UNLV is now 6-3 all-time in games played on the Strip and 3-2 in T-Mobile Arena.
- UNLV had a 9-0 run at the end of the first half and trailed 35-32 at the break.
- Michigan shot 17 more free throws than UNLV did for the game, making 16 to the Runnin' Rebels' two.
- Michigan out-rebounded the Runnin' Rebels 33-24.
- Michigan's bench outscored UNLV's 18-4.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,133 straight games.

SOLID SHOOTING: UNLV shot 52.6% from the field (40 of 76) and 42.9% on 3-pointers (12 of 28).

QUOTABLE: "We are proud of the guys for fighting back after a nice kick to the gut the way the game finished on Sunday night (against Wichita State). It was definitely a concern going in because sometimes those hangovers can last a little longer than you want with all the emotion that was in that game. Tonight, especially that second group, they went out and took advantage of the minutes that they had and just played hard, played fun and widened the gap. Happy for guys like Justin and Reece (Brown). No matter how many minutes they play, no matter whether the ball goes in or not, they are the ones talking and clapping during timeouts, and to see them get out there and have a few shots fall and have fun, that was really positive." - UNLV head coach Kevin Kruger

NOTES:
- UNLV limited Whittier to just 21.1 % from the field (15 of 71) and 17.2% on 3-pointers (5 of 29).
- UNLV outrebounded the Poets 58-39.
- UNLV had 26 assists and just eight turnovers.
- The Runnin' Rebels also recorded eight steals.
- UNLV scored 19 points off Whittier's 12 turnovers.
- The Runnin' Rebels outscored Whittier in points in the paint 52-14 and bench points 61-16.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,135 straight games.
