With six soon-to-be WNBA players and Coach Cori Close at the helm, the UCLA Bruins captured their first-ever NCAA title in 2026. Taking down a gauntlet of No. 1-seeded teams, UCLA (37-1, 18-0 Big Ten) avenged its only regular season loss with a get-back victory over Texas in the Final Four (W, 51-44) before defeating No. 1 seed South Carolina, 79-51, in the championship game. The Bruins also saw conference foe Minnesota in the Sweet Sixteen (W, 80-56) before a rematch with Duke in the Elite Eight (W, 70-58) in the Sacramento 2 Region of the NCAA bracket.

UCLA was led by the NCAA Tournament's Most Outstanding Player Lauren Betts, who tabbed double-doubles in her final three games as a Bruin and lifted UCLA to the mountain top as the climax of a 37-1 season.

The historic postseason began at home with back-to-back victories against No. 16-seed California Baptist on March 21; Lauren Betts led all scorers with 22 points and 10 rebounds. The two-time Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year added two steals and a block to her final stat line in the opening round win. Five Bruins finished in double figures, and three had double-doubles (S. Betts - 10 PTS, 12 REB; A. Dugalic - 10 PTS, 11 REB). Senior Kiki Rice was a perfect 10-for-10 from the line in the victory.

The Bruins followed that with a 19-point victory over Oklahoma State to move on to the Sacramento 2 Region and a fourth-consecutive Sweet Sixteen appearance. Lauren Betts, in her final game inside Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom Financial, notched a career-high 35 points (15-19 FG, 5-7 FT) in the victory. Gianna Kneepkens splashed a trio of triples and added 15 points to UCLA's tally.

UCLA continued its dominance with an 80-56 win over conference foe Minnesota, a No. 4 seed, inside the Golden 1 Center in Sacramento. Kiki Rice led all scorers with 21 points and a perfect 6-for-6 mark from the charity stripe. Angela Dugalic collected a double-double off the bench (13 PTS, 10 REB), and Lauren Betts made her presence felt on both ends of the floor (16 PTS, 7-9 FG, 5 BLK).

Duke presented UCLA's first big challenge of the postseason. At the halftime intermission, UCLA trailed 39-31. It was just the second time all season that the Bruins had a deficit at the midway break. Dugalic and Lauren Betts led the second-half effort; Betts led all scorers with 23 points, and she became UCLA's all-time leading shot blocker with her fourth rejection of the game. She had five blocks to go with her 10 rebounds, the first of three double-doubles on the way to a national championship. Dugalic added 15 points, the only other Bruin to reach double figures. UCLA's third quarter lifted the Bruins past the Blue Devils; the team outscored Duke 39-19 in the second half to make its second-consecutive trip to the Final Four.

With an opportunity to avenge its only loss of the season, the Bruins and Longhorns were locked in a defensive battle in Phoenix. UCLA held Texas (35-4) to a season-low 44 points in the Final Four matchup in Phoenix, limiting the Longhorns to 30.8 percent shooting from the field and 2-for-9 from long range. Lauren Betts led the Bruins once again with 16 points, 11 rebounds and three blocks through 34 minutes. Betts, the two-time Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, finished the game 7-for-10 from the field and had a significant block with under 21 seconds left in the final quarter and UCLA holding onto a 47-44 lead.

Kiki Rice totaled 11 points, while Gianna Kneepkens and Gabriela Jaquez each finished with 10 points for UCLA. The Bruins led 20-17 at halftime and entered the fourth quarter with a 31-28 cushion.

After having lost to Texas, 76-65, on Nov. 26 earlier in the season, UCLA won 30-consecutive games. The Bruins entered the national title showdown with a 36-1 overall record after having won the Big Ten Conference regular-season title (18-0 B1G) and the league's tournament title (three wins in three days, in Indianapolis).

The title drive included Bruin wins in the final 21 games of the season and culminated in the 90-74 championship victory over Maryland before an AIAW record crowd of 9,351. In all, the Final Four weekend drew more than 17,000 fans to Pauley Pavilion and included a national semifinal win over Montclair State by an 85-77 count.

After capturing the WCAA conference championship, the road to the Final Four began with regional wins in Stanford, CA over Stanford (80-54), Long Beach State (79-78) and UNLV (100-88). Sectional wins followed over BYU (102-57) and Stephen F. Austin (86-60). UCLA finished with a 27-3 record, with all three losses coming on the road against top-10 ranked opponents. It averaged 96.2 points per game and outscored its opponents by an average of 28 points per contest.

The Bruins captured their first Pac-10 Conference championship in 1999. UCLA posted a 15-3 conference record, the most Pac-10 wins in its history. Its 26-8 overall record included the most wins by a Bruin team since the 1981 squad went 29-7. Coach Kathy Olivier's unit went on to advance further in the NCAA tournament, with a trip to the Elite Eight, than any other Bruin team in history. It marked UCLA's sixth overall tournament appearance and first-ever back-to-back appearances. In addition, the #3 seeding into the tournament was a school-best.

UCLA's run to the Elite Eight began in Pauley Pavilion, as the Bruins hosted Wisconsin-Green Bay for a first-round matchup. Four Bruin players scored in double-figures to lead UCLA to a 76-69 victory, setting up a second-round matchup with Kentucky. Pac-10 Player of the Year and Kodak All-American Maylana Martin led all players with 21 points, 15 coming from the free throw line, and Marie Philman posted a double-double with 16 points and 10 boards in the 87-63 win over the Wildcats.

UCLA continued its playoff run with a West Regional contest against seventh-ranked Colorado State at the Los Angeles Sports Arena. The Bruins' hopes suffered an early setback when point guard Erica Gomez sprained her ankle in the game's first minute, but freshman Michelle Greco stepped in and helped keep the team on course to a 26-25 lead at the half. It was a tight game throughout, and the Bruins led by one point, 67-66, with 2:12 to play when LaCresha Flannigan made five of six free throws down the stretch to put the game away. UCLA advanced to its first-ever Elite Eight with a 77-68 decision and a date with third-ranked Louisiana Tech.

The Bruins played some of their best basketball of the year in jumping out to a 28-18 lead at the 7:23 mark of the first half in the Regional championship battle. However, the Lady Techsters scored the next 11 points in the game and led 35-32 at the break. The Bruins regained the lead at 38-37, but it would be their last of the contest as Tech rolled to a 88-62 win. Martin led four Bruins in double digits with 16 points.

The team set a school and Pac-10 record for steals in a season with 435 and for best field goal percentage in a game with a .695 mark (41-59 fg) at Washington State on February 25. The overall team shooting percentage for the season of .476 (ninth-best in the nation) was the best by a Bruin team since 1983-84 (.491). Opponents were held to .400 shooting in the 1999 season, which was the lowest mark since the 1978 UCLA team limited opponents to .395. The scoring average of 85.2 points per contest ranked fifth-best in the nation.

The attendance of 9,530 fans which gathered to witness the USC game on January 23 was the largest ever to see a women's game in UCLA's Pauley Pavilion, surpassing the total of 9,351 which were on hand for the 1978 AIAW National Championship game vs. Maryland. The team's final ranking of No. 7 in the USA Today coaches poll marked UCLA's highest finish ever in that poll and the best finish in either poll since a No. 7 ranking in the Associated Press listings in 1981.

Martin, led the conference in scoring with an 18.2 mark and ranked as the second-leading rebounder at 9.4 caroms per contest. Martin, who was a finalist for the Naismith Award presented to the nation's outstanding player, exploded for a career-best 38 points (seventh-highest total in school history) in a win at USC in which she connected on 13-19 shots from the field and 12-14 free throws. The junior also grabbed a career-best matching 18 rebounds in that game.

UCLA's biggest surprise during the season was the play of sophomore guard Flannigan, who earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors as well. She was the second-leading scorer on the team behind Martin with a 14.1 mark and managed to do most of her damage in the conference, where she averaged 17.2 points per game.

The Bruins' third first-team All-Pac-10 selection was Gomez, who broke Ann Meyers' (544) school record for career assists. Gomez set the record at home against Arizona State on March 4 and finished her junior season with 573 assists. She also established a school record for assists in a single-game with 16 in the game at Arizona State on January 5. Her season assist average of 6.67 edged Mary Hegarty's old school record of 6.66 for best single-season mark.

Two other starters averaged in double figures for the Bruins in the championship season. Junior center Janae Hubbard, an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection, averaged 12.5 points per game and ranked fourth in the conference in rebounding with a 7.9 mark. During the year, Hubbard pulled down 22 rebounds in a game vs. Arizona on March 6, the fourth-highest single-game total in school history. Earlier in the year, she had scored a career-best 29 points against UConn. Philman scored 11.1 points per game and grabbed five boards. She set or tied her career high in points in four games during the season, including a best of 24 vs. Washington on January 28.

The Bruin bench was a big reason for the success of this team, and three players were the primary contributors. Junior Melanie Pearson appeared in all 34 games and averaged 8.5 points while leading the team with 40 three-point goals. Junior Carly Funicello provided valuable assistance on the inside. She averaged 5.6 points and 4.1 rebounds per game and saw action in 31 contests. Greco was the third key member of the team, providing a lift off the bench. Greco, who was named to the All-Pac-10 freshman team and to the NCAA West Regional All-Tournament team, scored at a 7.8 points per game clip and handed out 94 assists in 34 games.

Head coach Kathy Olivier celebrates on the bench with players during the Bruins' Sweet 16 win.

Led by the Triple Threat of Nikki Blue, Noelle Quinn and Lisa Willis, the Bruins entered the 2006 State Farm Pac-10 Tournament as the third seeded team and proceeded to knock off California (#6 seed), Arizona State (#2) and Stanford (#1) on consecutive days in the HP Pavilion in San Jose, CA to win the school's first-ever conference tournament championship.

Willis was named the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament after averaging 20.3 points per game over the three days. Blue, who set a tournament record with 11 assists in the win over Cal, was named to the All-Tournament team for the fourth consecutive season, becoming the first Pac-10 player to accomplish this feat. Quinn, who led the Bruins with 22 points in the championship win over Stanford, was also selected to the All-Tournament Team.

As the No. 3 seed in the tournament, the Bruins had a first-round bye and then faced No. 6 California in the second round. The Bruin defense was swarming, setting a Pac-10 Tournament record with 20 steals in the game and forcing a total of 23 California turnovers in a 80-63 victory. Offensively, four Bruins were in double-figure scoring, with double-doubles from Noelle Quinn (18 points/10 rebounds) and Nikki Blue (14 points/Pac-10 Tournament record 11 assists). Lisa Willis was one steal shy of Blue's Tournament steals record, finishing with seven, and also had 14 points. Chinyere Ibekwe added 10 and Ortal Oren scored eight off the Bruin bench which contributed a total of 21 points for the game.

Cal led early in the game, but UCLA went on an 8-0 run to take an 11-5 lead that it never relinquished. The Golden Bears used a 6-0 second-half run to close to within eight, 50-42, with 13:05 on the clock, but Willis stopped Cal's momentum by burying a three-pointer. Willis' three jump-started a 17-4 Bruin run that gave UCLA a 67-46 lead and put the game away. UCLA went on to lead by as many as 22 points, 75-53.

Chinyere Ibekwe and Lindsey Pluimer

In the semifinals, UCLA matched up against No. 2 seed Arizona State and got a huge second-half surge from Willis to come away with a 60-59 victory that not only sent the Bruins to the title game but gave head coach Kathy Olivier her 200th career victory. UCLA got off to a slow start in the game and trailed, 28-19, at the half. The second half saw seven ties and 11 lead changes, the last coming when Quinn made two free throws with 28.9 seconds remaining. UCLA forced a turnover in the final seconds to secure the win, but it was Willis' 20 second-half points that put the Bruins in position for the win. Willis finished with 27 points, five three-point shots, two blocks and six steals. Quinn contributed another double-double with 16 points, 10 rebounds, three steals, two assists and two blocks for the Bruins, who snapped ASU's school-record 10-game winning streak. The Bruin defense came through again, forcing 26 Sun Devil turnovers, 17 via steals.

With UCLA in the Championship game for the first time in the Tournament's history, only No. 1 seed and three-time defending champion Stanford stood in the way of the Tournament crown. The two teams had split the regular season series, with each winning at home. UCLA trailed by as many as 13 points in the second half of the game and by seven points, 70-63, with 1:29 to play but refused to give up. The Bruins scored the final seven points in regulation time with a basket by Quinn with five seconds to play knotting the score at 70. A three-point shot by Lindsey Pluimer pushed the Bruins into a 73-72 lead in overtime they would not give up. Two big free throws by Ibekwe with 28 seconds to play in overtime gave UCLA an 80-76 advantage. UCLA hits five of six free throws down the stretch while holding Stanford without a basket to earn its first conference tournament championship. Quinn finished with 22 points and eight rebounds. Willis added 20 points, four assists and six steals. Pluimer contributed 16, and Blue had 14 points, eight assists and six steals.

The Bruins set several tournament records - Quinn with 23 field goals; Willis with 11 made three-point shots, 19 steals and a 6.3 steals average; Blue with 11 assists in the Cal game and an assist average of 8.3. UCLA also set a tournament record with 20 steals in the game against California, and their total of 52 for the three games in the tournament were a record.

With the NCAA automatic bid in hand, the Bruins traveled to Purdue for the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round against 23rd-ranked Bowling Green, UCLA used an 18-1 run in the first half to turn a 13-15 deficit into a 31-16 lead and went on to win by a final score of 74-61. The Triple Threat once again dominated, combining to score 51 of the Bruins' 74 points. Willis led all players with 23 points and 12 rebounds, the 15th NCAA Tournament double-double in UCLA history. Quinn added 21 points with seven rebounds, and Blue contributed seven points and six assists. Pluimer also had a solid game with eight points and 10 rebounds. UCLA outshot Bowling Green, 46.9-36.5% and outrebounced the Falcons, 49-31. Willis set a school record for three-point shots made in the NCAA Tournament, connecting on five treys.

Although UCLA's NCAA Tournament run ended in the next round against 11th-ranked Purdue, the 2006 Bruins enjoyed a stellar season, finishing the year with 21 victories and 12 conference wins (third-most in school history) and placing three players (Blue, Quinn, Willis) on the AP honorable mention All-America team.

2015 - WOMEN'S NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Freshman point guard Jordin Canada scored a career-high 31 points to lead the UCLA women's basketball team past West Virginia, 62-60, to win the 2015 Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) on April 4, 2015 at the Charleston (W.Va.) Civic Center.

Canada connected on 9 of 19 shots from the field and made 13 of 15 free throws, helping UCLA (19-18) win its sixth consecutive game. She was the Bruins' only player to score in double figures, shattering her previous career high of 19 points, in addition to tallying four steals and two assists. She was named the WNIT MVP.

West Virginia's Avereé Fields led the Mountaineers with 17 points. WVU also received 14 points from Bria Holmes and 10 points from Linda Stepney.

The Bruins scored the first four points of the game and led 12-9 on a pair of free throws by Kelli Hayes at the 12:32 mark. But West Virginia would go on a 15-6 run to build their largest lead of six points (24-18) with 5:51 left in the first half. Jordin Canada would tie the game on a layup at 26-26 (1:18). Canada would get her third steal of the first half and race down the floor, beating the buzzer to give UCLA a 30-28 lead at the break. Her 14 points in the first half led all scorers.

UCLA took the lead for good with fewer than four minutes to play in the game. West Virginia's Crystal Leary made one of two free throws with 4:31 to play, pushing the Mountaineers ahead, 53-50.

Kari Korver, who finished with five points and six rebounds, nailed a 3-pointer at the 4:19 mark to tie the contest 53-53.

After a missed jump shot by West Virginia, Canada made a layup with 3:45 remaining to put UCLA ahead by a 55-53 margin. An ensuing steal and layup by Kelli Hayes gave UCLA a 57-53 advantage with 3:19 remaining.

UCLA won its first-ever WNIT title with a 62-60 win over West Virginia in Charleston, W. Va., on April 4, 2015.

West Virginia trimmed its deficit to two points (57-55) with less than three minutes to play. UCLA added to its lead with 49 seconds to play, as Monique Billings made one of two free throws, putting the Bruins ahead, 58-55.

A layup by Stepney cut UCLA's lead to 58-57 with 44 seconds to play, before Canada answered with a layup at the 25-second mark. Canada helped UCLA ice the victory with a steal and two ensuing free throws with 19 seconds remaining to put UCLA ahead, 61-57. The Bruins held on in the final moments for the 62-60 win.

Prior to Saturday's victory over West Virginia, UCLA had not won a postseason tournament since upsetting Stanford to win the 2006 Pac-10 Tournament. This marked the Bruins' first-ever WNIT Tournament appearance and was the latest UCLA had ever played a basketball game.

WNIT MVP Jordin Canada was lifted onto the shoulders of her teammates after scoring a career-high 31 points.

2018 - ELITE EIGHT

In 2017-18, the Bruins made their first appearance in the Elite Eight since 1999 while reaching the Sweet Sixteen for the third straight season in the process, the first time in UCLA history that a team accomplished that feat. UCLA posted a 14-4 record in the Pac-12, which tied for third in the league, while surpassing the 25-point win plateau for the third consecutive year (27-8).

UCLA's run to the Elite Eight began in Pauley Pavilion, as the Bruins hosted American in a first-round matchup. Senior Monique Billings scored 20 points and had 10 rebounds, Kennedy Burke added 15 points as third-seeded UCLA posted a 71-60 win. Jordin Canada had 10 points and 11 assists for the Bruins. After the Eagles took an early lead to start the game, the Bruins countered with a 22-3 run over the final 4:33 of the opening quarter to build a double-digit advantage and take control. Billings scored 10 points during the UCLA surge as the Bruins opened a 27-12 lead after the first quarter. American cut the lead to 45-41 following Liddane's basket at the 4:33 mark of the third quarter but UCLA rallied and upped its lead to 63-48 on a bucket by Lajahna Drummer with 6:48 to play and cruised to the victory.

UCLA continued its playoff run as Jordin Canada scored 21 points and junior Japreece Dean added 16 points to lead third-seeded UCLA to an 86-64 victory over No. 11 seed Creighton in the second round of the women's NCAA Tournament. Canada, made six of seven shots and dished out eight assists to lead the Bruins. The senior guard was the 2018 Pac 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Billings scored 15 points and Burke added 11 points for UCLA. The Bruins scored on eight of their first nine possessions to jump to an early double-digit lead. Dean's 3-pointer at the 4:12 mark of the opening quarter gave UCLA an 18-7 lead. The Bruins kept the defensive pressure on the Bluejays and led 26-15 after the first quarter. UCLA continued to use its speed and quickness in the second quarter and forced 10 first half turnovers while upping its lead to 49-32 at the break, following a pair of free throws by Billings down the stretch. Billings led the Bruins with 13 points in the first half. Creighton never got closer than 17 points in the second half. The Bruins improved to 15-2 at home on the season.

In the Sweet Sixteen game against Texas, Canada was struggling with her shot, the Longhorns had emerged from the locker room on a run and No. 3 UCLA was suddenly reeling in a game that was shaping up a lot like their Sweet 16 matchup two years ago. This time, Canada and the Bruins rose to the occasion. Canada finished with 22 points, often putting the third-seeded Bruins on her back, and UCLA held on for an 84-75 victory to avenge that frustrating loss to the Longhorns. Billings added 17 points and Burke had 15 for the Bruins, who finally made it to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament after falling a game short the past two seasons. Texas made one last charge when it got back-to-back 3-pointers from Ariel Atkins and Alecia Sutton to close within 76-72 with less than two minutes left. But Burke answered with a layup for UCLA, and Canada's jumper with just under a minute to go helped put the game away. UCLA wound up shooting 56.3 percent from the field in the second half.

Taira McCowan had 23 points and 21 rebounds, Victoria

The UCLA bench erupts at the end of the 2018 NCAA Second Round game after Chrissy Baird drained a three-pointer.

Vivans added 24 points and top-seeded Mississippi State beat relentless UCLA 89-73 in Kansas City's Sprint Center to reach its second straight Final Four. Canada led the third-seeded Bruins (27-8) with 23 points, eight rebounds and five assists. Dean finished with 16 points, and Billings and Burke had 12 apiece, most of it coming when the Bruins were trying to rally from a 50-32 deficit. They closed within 74-68 on Dean's 3-pointer with 2:53 left, but they couldn't get a stop on the defensive end. Instead, they traded basket-for-basket down the stretch, and Mississippi State managed to clinch the win from the foul line in the final minute.

Canada finished as the second-leading scorer in UCLA history with 2,153 career points and is the UCLA and Pac-12 Conference's all-time assists leader (831). This past season, the three-time All-Pac-12 and three-time All-America selection led the team in scoring at 17.0 points per game. She also led the team in assists (7.1 app) and steals (3.3 spg) while averaging 3.7 rebounds per game.

Billings finished as the ninth-leading scorer in UCLA history with 1,761 career points and is UCLA's all-time blocks leader (228). She is also second on the Bruins' career charts in rebounds (1,159) and first in career games played (141). This past season, the three-time All-Pac-12 honoree was second on the team in scoring (15.3 ppg) and led the team and the Pac-12 in rebounding (9.5 rpg) and in double-doubles (17).

Senior point guard Jordin Canada averaged 19.0 points, 8.0 assists, 5.3 rebound and 4.0 steals per game in the Bruins' Elite Eight run in 2018.

The Bruins traveled to Indianapolis as the No. 2 seed of a 15-team tournament in early March, ready to face a gauntlet of conference foes and looking to make a splash in their first year as members of the Big Ten. UCLA finished the regular season 27-2, marking new records in consecutive wins (23), in most wins (27) and in consecutive weeks ranked No. 1 in the country (12) by the Associated Press, but fell one win short of a regular season conference championship.

UCLA earned a double bye as it finished the conference play in the top four of the Big Ten, starting the postseason championship in the quarterfinal round. The Bruins opened the 2025 TIAA Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament against No. 10-seed Nebraska – UCLA downed the Cornhuskers 91-54 on Dec. 29 in the regular season matchup between the teams. The Bruins jumped out to a 10-point lead after the first quarter of the tournament game; junior Gabriela Jaquez shined early, scoring seven points in the first three minutes of play. The Cornhuskers fought back and brought it to a one-score game at the break, but the Bruins outscored Nebraska 21-16 in the third frame. UCLA finished the Huskers off with a strong fourth quarter, shooting 9-for-16 from the field in the final period to close out the quarterfinals. Junior Lauren Betts racked up 28 points (11-15 FG, 6-7 FT) and 13 rebounds for her 17th double-double of the season. The unanimous Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year also had five assist, zero turnovers, seven blocks and three steals. Jaquez finished with 23 points and nine rebounds as the Bruins captured victory, 85-74.

The Bruins moved on to face No. 3-seed Ohio State in what would end up as a commanding win in the semifinals. UCLA had doubled up the Buckeyes by halftime, holding a 44-21 at the break. Eight Bruins scored in the first half; UCLA shot a scorching 20-for-30 from the field (4-6 3FG) through the first 20 minutes. Junior Londynn Jones was UCLA's leading scorer with 22 points (6-12 3FG). Betts had 12 points in just 23 minutes, shot 6-for-7 from the field. Jaquez had a perfect shooting performance, 12 points on 5-of-5 shooting (2-2 3FG). Graduate forward Angela Dugalic finished with 10 points, nine rebounds, two blocks and two steals against the Buckeyes.

Looking to avenge the loss it took in the final game of the regular season, UCLA suited up against No. 1-seed USC in the championship game. Both teams got off to a quick start but the Bruins fell slightly behind, 24-19, after the first 10 minutes of play. Junior Timea Gardiner laced a 3-pointer and Rice sunk a late layup in transition to pull the Bruins closer to the Trojans, but USC stacked a few scores and capitalized on UCLA's 10 first-half turnovers to take a 45-35 lead at the break.

The Bruins came out of the halftime break determined and prepared for battle. UCLA stalled USC's offense, only allowing four made baskets in the third quarter. The Bruins roared back with a 10-2 run to close the frame; Betts had nine of UCLA's 17 points in the third. UCLA trailed 54-52 heading into the final period.

UCLA's defense proved overwhelming in the fourth quarter, holding the Trojans to zero field goals made for nearly nine minutes. Betts collected three blocks as UCLA outscored USC 20-13 to close out the program's first Big Ten Tournament and claim the championship trophy.

UCLA headed into the NCAA Tournament as the No. 1 overall seed, marking the program's first No. 1 ranking in the postseason tournament. The Bruins played the first and second rounds in front of the home crowd for the third-consecutive year; No. 1 UCLA downed No. 16 Southern (84-46) and No. 8 Richmond (84-67) in back-to-back games at Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom.

The Bruins made a trip north to the Spokane 1 Regional Tournament where they would face No. 5 Ole Miss in the first of two SEC battles. UCLA handed the Rebels a 14-point loss in the Sweet 16 behind a 31-point, 10-rebound outing by the UCLA center, Lauren Betts (15-16 FG). UCLA got its rematch with No. 3 LSU in the Elite 8; the Bruins fended off a 28-point game from Flau'Jae Johnson thanks to strong efforts by Jaquez (18 PTS, 5-7 FG, 4-5 3FG), Betts (17 PTS, 6 BLK) and Gardiner.

With the win over LSU, UCLA advanced the NCAA Final Four for the first time in program history; the Bruins reached the national semifinal game in the 1978 and 1979 AIAW tournaments, prior to the establishment of NCAA women's basketball.

The Bruins would fall to the eventual national champions, the UConn Huskies, in the Final Four.

A CLOSER LOOK AT UCLA'S TITLES

UCLA's collegiate sports championship history stands out as one of the most impressive of any university in the nation. UCLA has proudly totaled 127 NCAA team championships (heading into the 2026-27 school year), an accomplishment that speaks to the Bruins' commitment to excellence. UCLA's student-athletes have consistently performed at an elite level in their sports, studies and public service. This well-rounded approach has helped to create champions on the field and in the community.

UCLA won a school-record five NCAA team titles during the 1981-82 school year, with softball, men's swimming & diving, men's tennis, men's volleyball and women's outdoor track & field. The Bruins' athletic programs have captured four NCAA team championships in eight school years and have totaled three titles nine times.

The athletics department has seen 17 of its teams win the NCAA title after having posted an undefeated record. Those sports include men's tennis (five times), men's basketball (four), men's volleyball (three), women's water polo (three) and men's water polo (two). Most recently, the UCLA women's water polo team compiled a perfect record of 26-0 in the spring of 2024.
