Requesting Credentials

Credentials can be obtained by contacting Greg Steiner in the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office. They can be requested by calling 734.487.0317 or via e-mail to greg.steiner@emich.edu. Requests must be received at least two days prior to the game. Passes that are not mailed will be available at the Will Call window at the Convocation Center. EMU does not issue parking credentials for basketball. Parking is free and on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Practice Procedures

Most practices are open to the media. However, all media are recommended to make an advance call to the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office to check on the status of practice for a particular day.

Interview Policies (Mid-Week)

Head Coach Rob Murphy is available to speak to the media via phone Monday-Friday mornings. All arrangements for interviews with Coach Murphy should be made through Sean Hostetter.

Individual players are available for interviews Monday-Thursday. Please contact the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office to set up interviews. One note to the media: Home phone numbers for players and coaches WILL NOT be given out by the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office.

Interview Policies (Postgame)

All post-game interviews will be conducted in Media Room A at the north end of the Convocation Center. Both head coaches will be available to the media after a 10-minute cooling-off period, with the visiting coach and players going first in the media room (unless circumstances warrant a change). Individual players may also be available for interviews at the conclusion of the game. Please see a member of the athletic media relations staff from either EMU or the visiting institution about player interviews.

Obtaining Media Information

Information will be updated regularly at EMU's official athletics website, EMUEagles.com. For media information, go to the men's basketball web page to find updated PDF files containing, notes, statistics, rosters and schedules. To be added to the basketball e-mail distribution list, contact Greg Steiner.

Phone/Internet Access in the Convocation Center

If media are in need of a phone line for the game or season, please inform Greg Steiner at time of credential request of those needs. For those with laptop computers that can automatically select an IP address, there is a wireless Internet connection available in the Convocation Center. See an athletic media relations representative for the login password.

THE ROB MURPHY FILE

Rob Murphy put an instant mark on the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball program in the 2011-12 season, his first as the head coach, the Eagles found themselves on top of the Mid-American Conference West Division, the first-ever division title for EMU.

For his efforts in leading the team to that West championship, Murphy was named MAC Coach of the Year while also earning Co-Coach of the Year honors in the NCAA District 14 Division I ranks by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

Murphy took over the EMU job with a strong understanding of high school basketball in the state of Michigan. He spent six years coaching in the Detroit Public School League (1996-2002), four as the head boys basketball coach at Detroit Crockett Technical High School. He led Crockett to the Class B State Championship in 2000-01.

A graduate of Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, Murphy was a two-year starter on the basketball team and the team's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

After graduating from Central State, Murphy returned to his hometown of Detroit to begin his coaching career at Detroit Central High School as the associate head coach in 1996-98. Central won the state Class A championship in 1997-98 after finishing runner-up in 1996-97.

From Crockett, Murphy joined the Kent State University staff for two seasons, 2002-03 and 2003-04, and the teams turned in back-to-back 22-9 seasons on the way to two Mid-American Conference East Division crowns. Both teams were invited to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

After that successful two-year stint as an assistant for the Golden Flashes, Murphy joined Head Coach Jim Boeheim's Syracuse University men's basketball program as an assistant. During his seven years on the staff, the Orange recorded a 180-67 overall record and played in the post season every year, with five NCAA appearances and two NIT stops.

A native of Detroit, Murphy attended Mumford High School where he lettered in both football and basketball, earning All-State honors in football.

ALL-TIME VERSUS KENTUCKY: The Eagles will take on another nationally ranked institution Wednesday, Jan. 2, when they travel to Lexington, Ky. to take on the defending 2012 NCAA national champion University of Kentucky Wildcats. This will be the first meeting between No. 23-ranked Kentucky and Eastern Michigan.

FIRST TIME OVER 75: Eastern made history in the Rob Murphy era Friday, Dec. 28, when they posted 87 points. That output was the most recorded by a team coached by Murphy. The previous high was 75 when the Eagles defeated Madonna University, 75-57, Nov. 24, 2012. This is also only the third time that a team coached by Murphy has posted 70-or-more points in a contest. The third time EMU scored 70 was in a 74-70 loss to Colgate, Dec. 1, 2011.

FOUR IN DOUBLE-DIGITS: Eastern's offensive balance showed in the game against Siena Heights as they put four players in double figures. That was the first time this season that EMU has had more than three players score 10-or-more points. Daylen Harrison, Derek Thompson and Jalen Ross each had double-digit scoring affairs against Oakland, Dec. 22.

SCORCHING SHOOTING: EMU's win over Siena Heights was the first time the Eagles have shot 50% or better from the field they shot 22-of-44 (50.0 percent) in a 57-62 overtime loss to Miami last season, Feb. 1, 2012. The Eagles' 33-of-60 (55.0 percent) is the best shooting percentage since Eastern shot a sizzling 28-of-39 (57.1 percent) against Toledo during the 2007-08 campaign, Jan. 22, 2008.

GET THAT OUTTA HERE: The Eagles posted a season-high 10 blocks for the second time in the 2012-13 campaign Friday, Dec. 28, against Siena Heights, including five from junior Da'Shonte Riley. The Eagles also posted 10 blocks against Eastern Illinois, Nov. 16. That game against EIU was the first time EMU had posted 10-or-more blocks in a game since the 1998-99 campaign when it notched 11 blocks in an overtime win against Central Michigan, Jan. 20, 1999.

DISHING OUT THE ROCK: Including five assists from Antoine Chandler, along with four apiece from Daylen Harrison and Jalen Ross, the Eagles posted 20 assists against Siena Heights which is the most this season, since dishing out 18 against Madonna, Nov. 24.

UMASS ON THE HORIZON: The Eagles will stay on the road after taking on the Kentucky Wildcats. EMU is scheduled to travel to Amherst, Mass. to take on the University of Massachusetts for a 2 p.m. contest.

Eastern is 0-1 all-time against UMass. The last time EMU and the Minutemen faced off was during the 1972-73 season when the Eagles fell, 61-68, in the Motor City Tournament

HAVE TO HIT THE FREE ONES: Free throw shooting proved to be the difference down the stretch in the Eagles' loss to Oakland. Despite hitting 73.7 percent of its shots from the charity stripe in the second half, Eastern shot just 50 percent (3-of-6) from the line in the final minute of its first home loss of the 2012-13 campaign.

ROSS WITH A CAREER DAY: Freshman Jalen Ross posted 17 points, four assists, three rebounds and two steals in the EMU's loss to Oakland. His 17 points almost doubled his previous career-high of nine points that he scored at No. 2 Michigan.

LUCKY NUMBER SEVEN: EMU entered Saturday's game against Oakland looking to win their seventh-straight game at home to start the season. The last time the Green and White accomplished that feat was the 1997-98 season in which the Eagles rattled off ten straight home wins en route to qualifying for the NCAA Tournament. Eastern has won six straight at home to start a season twice since then, but has not been able to get to the lucky number seven.

FIRST HALF DROUGHTS: In the past two road contests, the Eagles have gone through major scoring droughts in the first twenty minutes of play. In the Windy City against UIC, the Green and White went over nine minutes without finding the basket. Against No. 2-ranked Michigan, Eastern got off to an early 6-2 lead before going nearly eight minutes until scoring its next points.

EARLY SEASON TESTS: The non-conference schedule has not been kind to the Eagles this season. Coach Rob Murphy's squad has had to face two top-five teams on the road in No. 4 Syracuse, Dec. 3, and No. 2 Michigan, Dec. 20. Since games against ranked teams have been recorded (1995-96 season), Eastern Michigan has never faced a pair of the nation's top-ten teams, let alone two top-five teams.

IN THE NATIONAL RANKS: As of the last NCAA statistical update (Dec. 16), the Eagles boasted the 27th-best scoring defense in the country at 57.6 points per game this season. EMU is also tied for 20th in the NCAA in blocked shots per game (5.6). Defensively, the Eagles hold their opponents to a 37.9 percent field goal percentage which is tied for 33rd in the country. Da'Shonte Riley is tied for 20th in the nation for blocked shots per game (2.7).

CAREER-HIGHS AGAINST COUNTY RIVAL: True freshman Jalen Ross and sophomore Antoine Chandler both registered career-high in scoring against Washtenaw County rival Michigan, Dec. 20. Ross tallied nine points in the loss while Chandler added eight.

BURNED BY THE THREE: Over a three game stretch, Dec. 15-22, the Eagles were torched by the three-point ball in three games, surrendering 31 made baskets from beyond the arc. Both Michigan and Illinois-Chicago made a dozen three-balls, while Oakland knocked down seven.

MISSING SOME TIME: EMU true freshman, Ray Lee, will be out indefinitely with an injury to his foot.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: When playing at home this season, the Eagles are 7-1. Eastern shoots a blistering 42.8 percent within the friendly confines of the Convocation Center, while holding its opponents to just 34.1 percent shooting from the floor. The Eagles also hold their opponents to 50.9 points per game when playing in Ypsilanti.

Conversely, the Green and White is 0-4 outside of the Convo this season. EMU is shooting just 34.8 percent on the road, while its opponents are hitting 45.3 percent of its shots. EMU scores just 51.0 points per game away from Ypsilanti and the opposition is posting 78.0 points per game in those four contests.

MAKING THE BEST OF IT: Since the 1998-99 season when the most accurate records have been kept, the Eagles had not won a game shooting less than 32.0 percent from the field. However, in the victory over Purdue, Dec. 8, EMU shot just 30.8 percent but slid past the Boilermakers, 47-44, at the Convocation Center.

THOSE ARE SOME FORMIDABLE FOES: Eastern has made a habit of traveling to top-notch teams over the past five seasons. EMU has played a team ranked in the top-25 each of the last seven seasons, including matchups with top-five teams in the last three-consecutive seasons.

In 2010-11 the Eagles opened the season with No. 2-ranked Michigan State. In 2011-12 EMU traveled to Syracuse to take on the No. 3/4-ranked Orange. This year the Eagles took on No. 4 Syracuse and now square off with No. 2 Michigan.

TOPPING THE BIG DOGS: With the 47-44 win, Dec. 8, against Purdue, Eastern defeated a Big Ten Conference opponent for the first time since an 89-83 overtime victory against the University of Michigan, Dec. 17, 1997, in Ann Arbor. The win was also the first home victory over a Big 10 team since a 92-76 throttling of Wisconsin, Dec. 10, 1994, at venerable Bowen Field House.

TAKING CARE OF THE ROCK: Since the 1998-99 campaign when the most accurate records have been kept, the Eagles had not turned the ball over less than six times in a single game. EMU coughed up the rock just five times against Purdue, while causing 18 Boilermaker miscues, good for a +13.0 turnover margin.

AREN'T THEY SUPPOSED TO BE FREE: Eastern Michigan shot a dismal 8-of-19 (42.1 percent) from the free throw line in its victory against the Boilermakers. The last time EMU shot that poorly from the charity stripe was Nov. 27, 2011, when EMU hit just 5-of-13 (38.5 percent) free throws when Michigan State came to the Convocation Center and topped the Green and White, 72-40. The last time the Eagles won a game shooting less than 50.0 percent from the free throw line was back in the 2010-11 season when they hosted Jacksonville State, Feb. 19. Eastern shot 13-of-28 (46.4 percent) from the line en route to a 63-60 win.

EMU'S STIFLING DEFENSE: The Eagles have prided themselves on defense since head coach Rob Murphy took over in Ypsilanti. Eastern is second the Mid-American Conference in scoring defense (61.1 ppg), but leads the MAC in field goal percentage defense (39.5 percent) and three-point field goal percentage defense (31.2 percent). EMU is also second in the MAC in blocks (5.6 bpg).

LOW SCORING AFFAIRS: The Eagles defeated Purdue without having a player post double digit points. Eastern had not won a game without someone scoring in double figures since Jan. 21, 2012, against Toledo when Darrell Lampley was EMU's high scorer with nine points.

BRYANT FINDS HIS FORM: Junior transfer Glenn Bryant notched the first double-double of his career Monday, Dec. 3, at Syracuse. Bryant poured in 16 points and pulled down 10 rebounds in the 48-84 loss at the Carrier Dome.

TURNOVER TROUBLES: The Eagles turned the ball over a season-high 24 times against Syracuse, Dec. 3. Those 24 turnovers were the most in a game since the Eagles turned the ball over 24 times against then No. 15 Ohio State, Dec. 12, 2009. It was also the first time EMU had turned the ball over 20 or more times since Dec. 21, 2010, when they had 21 turnovers against Samford.

STRUGGLES AGAINST THE BIG BOYS: Eastern Michigan is 9-71 all-time against Big Ten competition in its history. The most wins over a Big Ten opponent have come against Michigan State University, with four. The Eagles have defeated Michigan twice, Wisconsin twice and are 1-0 against Penn State. The only Big Ten team EMU has not faced is Northwestern.

LET'S NOT DO THAT AGAIN: In two straight seasons taking on Syracuse the Eagles have dropped both contests, and both were by the same score and margin. Back on Nov. 29, 2011 the Eagles fell, 48-84, at the Carrier Dome. EMU dropped its tilt with SU, 48-84, Monday, Dec. 3, 2012, as well.

RILEY GETTING IT DONE: Junior Da'Shonte Riley pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds against the Crusaders of Madonna, Nov. 24. He currently is second on the Eagles with 6.3 rebounds a game. The Detroit, Mich. native is also providing a force on the defensive end. Riley is posting 2.7 blocks per game, including notching a season-high six against Syracuse.

Riley notched a career-high seven blocks, which is also good for second-best all-time in EMU laurels against Buffalo, Jan. 24, 2012, last season.

FINDING .500: Eastern Michigan second year Head Coach Rob Murphy moved to a .500 winning percentage in his short career as a head coach for the first time since Dec. 8, 2011, after defeating Madonna University, 75-57, Nov. 24.

SEEING DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Junior transfer, Daylen Harrison, posted the first double-double of the 2012-13 campaign by an Eagle when he posted 16 points and 12 rebounds against Texas-Pan American, Nov. 18.

THOMPSON NAMED MVP: Senior guard, Derek Thompson, was named the 2012 "Ice Man" Classic Tournament Most Valuable Player Sunday, Nov. 18. Thompson averaged 15 points per game, while shooting 48.8 percent from the field and 44.8 percent from beyond the arc, leading EMU to a sweep of the tournament's field. Defensively, Thompson had a team-high five steals in the tournament.

HARRISON EARNS ALL-TOURNAMENT HONORS: Akron, Ohio native, Daylen Harrison, was named to the 2012 "Ice Man" Classic All-Tournament Team Sunday, Nov. 18. Harrison posted 13.5 points and six rebounds a game. Not only was Harrison strong offensively, but on the other side of the ball, he picked up a block and four steals in the tournament.

EAGLES SWEEP FIRST EVER EMU "ICE MAN" CLASSIC: The EMU men's basketball team hosted a tournament inside the friendly confines of the Convocation Center. The Green and White swept the inaugural EMU "Ice Man" Classic, Nov. 9-21, going 4-0 in the four games they played at the Convo.

Eastern opened the tournament with a 66-52 victory over Rochester College, Nov. 9. After taking a break from the classic, EMU won three games in three days, topping Eastern Illinois, 60-52, IPFW, 60-47, and Texas-Pan American, 57-47. STRUGGLES IN THE LANE: Despite having an average height of over 6-feet and 6-inches in the starting lineup, the Eagles struggled to get points in the paint against the Jacksonville State Gamecocks, Nov. 11. Eastern was out-scored, 34-20, by JSU in the paint, while they also allowed 16 points off of turnovers. Jacksonville State allowed just four points off turnovers en route to a 61-54 victory.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION: EMU opened up its 2012-13 campaign with an exciting offensive performance against Rochester College. The Eagles shot 49.0 percent (25-for-51) from the floor, while hitting 33.3 percent (4-for-12) of their shots from beyond the arc. Derek Thompson went 4-for-6 from the three-point line with 14 points, while "true" freshman Ray Lee and redshirt junior Daylen Harrison posted 12 points in the 66-52 victory at the Convocation Center.

NEW FACES IN THE CROWD: The EMU men's hoops squad has a slew of new faces on the court this season for second-year Head Coach Rob Murphy's Eagles. Returning this season after sitting out due to transfer rules will be redshirt juniors Glenn Bryant, Daylen Harrison, and sophomore Josh Lyle.

Mike Talley will sit out the season for EMU as a junior transfer, but will be eligible for the 2013-14 campaign with a pair of seasons left, as a redshirt junior.

Other new faces to Ypsilanti, Mich. will be a pair of freshmen guards, Ray Lee and Jalen Ross.

FILLING IN HIS SHOES: In 2011-12, Darrell Lampley was the starting point guard for the 2012 MAC West Divsion Champion Eagles. With the graduation of Lampley, the Eagles had to fill a Third Team All-MAC performer's shoes, and Head Coach Rob Murphy thinks he has done just that with a pair of freshmen point guards.

Ray Lee and Jalen Ross will be vying for the starting point guard positon for the first few games of the 2012-13 campaign. Both Lee and Ross were extremely talented point guards for their respective high school teams. Lee known more for his offensive scoring ability, while Ross is more of a "true" point guard who can distribute the ball and play strong defense.

BLOCKING HIS WAY IN THE RECORD BOOKS: Eastern Michigan senior forward, Jamell Harris, posted 40 blocks last season which ranks as the ninth-most in EMU laurels. The Euclid, Ohio native trails former EMU defensive great Theron Wilson (1992-96) by 108 blocks. Harris sits second in the record books with 151 career blocks.

Harris not only has been a force blocking shots, but he has made a name for himself on the glass as well. With 444 career rebounds, he is 33rd all-time. Kennedy McIntosh (1967-71) has the most with 1,426.

EAGLES PICKED TO FINISH SECOND IN THE WEST: EMU was picked to finish second in the West Division in the 2012-13 Mid-American Conference preseason poll by the MAC News Media Panel. The announcement was made in Cleveland Tuesday, Oct. 30. Second-year Head Coach Rob Murphy and his Eagles received 118 votes, which was shy of only the University of Toledo's 143 votes in the West Division. Following Toledo and EMU in the poll was Western Michigan (88), Ball State (74), Northern Illinois (46) and Central Michigan (35).

PLAYING TOP-NOTCH TALENT: The EMU men's basketball team has a schedule chock-full of top-notch NCAA talent for the 2012-13 campaign. Throughout the next few months, Eastern will take on three teams ranked in the NCAA top-ten polls.

First, the Eagles traveled to Syracuse, N.Y. to take on the then No. 4/4-ranked Orange of Syracuse University and fell, 48-84. Next, Dec. 20, EMU makes the short trek down Washtenaw to take-on in-county rival University of Michigan who comes into the polls ranked No. 2/2. And, finally Eastern heads to Lexington, Ky. to take on the 2012 NCAA National Champion University of Kentucky Wildcats, Jan. 2. The Wildcats come into the 2012-13 campaign ranked No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

CELBRATING THE FIRST MAC WEST TITLE IN HISTORY: Prior to the Eagles' 2012-13 opening matchup against Rochester College, Nov. 9, the Green and White received their 2012 MAC West Championship rings and raised a banner for winning the division with a record of 9-7 in conference tilts. It was Eastern Michigan's first ever divisional title since the conference moved to the division format in 1997-98.

39th MAC SEASON: The 2012-13 season will also be the 39th for the Eagles in the Mid-American Conference. The first year of MAC play for EMU was 1974-75 when the then-Hurons went 12-14 overall and 4-9 in league play.

EMU has won three Mid-American Conference titles: 1987-88, 1990-91, and 1995-96. The Green and White captured MAC Tournament crowns in all three of those years in addition to winning the tournament title in 1997-98. In 2011-12, the Eagles captured their first-ever Mid-American Conference West Division crown, going 9-7 in MAC tilts.

CONVO UPGRADES SCOREBOARD FOR 2012-13 SEASON: The scoreboard has been replaced inside the Convocation Center just in time for the 2012-13 campaign. The fixture will feature four 10MM full color video boards, with each board's active area measuring 15.7-foot wide by 11.5-foot tall. In addition, the system also features three ribbon displays on the west and east sides and under the scoreboard. The arena also showcases an integrated light emitting diode (LED) courtside scorer's table. It will also features ribbon boards along the sidelines above, between the lower and upper bowls.

EMU'S MURPHY NAMED 2011-12 MAC COACH OF THE YEAR: It did not take long for Eastern Michigan University Head Men's Basketball Coach Rob Murphy to make his mark on the Mid-American Conference as the first-year Head Coach was named Mid-American Conference Men's Basketball Coach of the Year for the 2011-12 season. Murphy led the Eagles to a 9-7 MAC record and the school's first-ever West Division championship. Murphy is one of just four first-year coaches to earn the Coach of the Year Award since its inception in 1970.

EAGLES FACE FOES FROM 10 LEAGUES: The 2012-13 EMU men's basketball team will square off against teams from at least 10 different leagues. In addition to its Mid-American Conference schedule that starts Wednesday, Jan. 9, the Eagles will meet teams from the Big Ten (Michigan and Purdue), the Ohio Valley Conference (Jacksonville State and Eastern Illinois), the Summit League (IPFW and Oakland), Horizon (UIC), Great West (Texas-Pan American), Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference (Madonna and Siena Heights), Big East (Syracuse), Southeastern Conference (Kentucky) and Atlantic 10 (Massachusetts). The Eagles will also meet a team that does not hail from a conference, as Rochester College is an independent NAIA school.

MAC TOURNAMENT FORMAT REMAINS THE SAME IN 2013: The 2012 MAC Tournament format returns this season, as the top four seeds will receive multiple byes in 2013. The third and fourth seeds will earn berths in the quarterfinals, with seeds one and two being placed directly into the semifinal round. To put it another way, a team seeded first or second will need to win only two MAC Tournament games to capture the title, while the third or fourth seed would need three wins. Any team seeded fifth through 12th will need to reel off five consecutive wins to capture the tourney crown. The seeding is based on conference winning percentage, regardless of division.

EMU ON THE SMALL SCREEN: Eastern Michigan men's basketball is scheduled to play nine games that will televised on various channels throughout the 2012-13 season.

The EMU-Syracuse game set for Monday, Dec. 3, at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y., will be a televised on ESPNU with a 7 p.m. tipoff. The Purdue-Eastern Michigan game Saturday, Dec. 8, at the Convocation Center will appear on ESPN3 at 2 p.m. Also, when the Eagles travel to Lexington, Ky. for a matchup with defending national champion Kentucky Wednesday, Jan. 2, the game will appear on ESPNU with a 6 p.m. scheduled start time.

Eagles will have four games televised as part of the Mid-American Conference television package which will be aired on SportsTime Ohio, Comcast Michigan (channel 900), Comcast Indiana (channel 81) and Comcast Sports Net Chicago. The first of the games covered in the MAC package will be Saturday, Jan. 13, when the Green and White travels to Bowling Green for a 6 p.m. tip with the Falcons. Eastern will then host in-state rival Central Michigan Tuesday, Jan. 15, at 7 p.m. Eastern's next televised game is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 2, when the Eagles travel to Kent State for a 6 p.m. matchup, and the final game of the MAC package will be Wednesday, Feb. 6, when EMU plays host to Buffalo for a 7 p.m. contest.

EAGLES OPEN UP BASKETBALL FOR THE 2012 NCAA SEASON: The game between Rochester and Eastern Michigan, Nov. 9, at noon was the first game played by any NCAA Division I team in the 2012-13 basketball season.

FOLLOW EMU MEN'S BASKETBALL ON EAGLE ALL-ACCESS: Building off the success of Eagle All-Access through spring 2012, the Eastern Michigan University Department of Athletics has continued the growth of the broadband channel with the announcement of the school's 2012-13 broadcast schedule. The productions are a combined effort between the EMU Athletic Media Relations Office, WEMU (89.1 FM) and SIDEARM Sports. The following men's basketball games in 2011-12 will be part of Eagles All-Access.

Eastern Michigan University utilizes Internet Consulting Services (ICS) SIDEARM Live Stats system for women's basketball. Live Stats is the next generation in live stat presentation, powered solely by Flash and XML.

Using official stats generated through the Stat Crew system by EMU's Sports Information Office, the interface automatically pulls in fresh statistical data in the background with each receipt of an updated XML file directly from the scoring computer. As a result, Live Stats never needs to refresh/reload. The system also integrated with head shots of the active student-athletes.

MEN'S HOOPS OPENS SEASON WITH 66-52 WIN Victorious EMU Kicks Off "Ice Man" Classic

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team officially kicked off the 2012-13 college basketball season and the EMU "Ice Man" Classic with a 66-52 victory over Rochester College Friday, Nov. 9, inside the friendly confines of the Convocation Center. Prior to the contest, the 2011-12 EMU men's basketball team received their championship rings and raised a banner for capturing the MAC West Division crown one year ago.

Three Eagles reached double digits as senior Derek Thompson (Detroit, Mich. - Mel-vindale) led the way with 14 points followed by 12 points each from redshirt junior Daylen Harrison (Akron, Ohio - St. Vincent St. Mary) and true freshman Ray Lee (Detroit, Mich. - Romulus). Rochester's Maynard led all scorers with 27 points.

EMU's bench proved to be a huge factor throughout the contest outscoring the opponent 35-2. The Green and White shot 49.0 percent from the floor while the Warriors shot 40.4 percent during the game. The Eagles also dominated the boards grabbing 39 rebounds compared to Rochester's 22, leading to 14 second chance points.

With the victory, Eastern moves to 1-0 on the season, and Rochester drops to 5-2.

EMU never allowed Rochester to lead in the contest. Both teams had to gather themselves as the game started out slow, but Harrison began the scoring, converting on three freethrows after getting fouled shooting from beyond the arc. That sparked a 9-3 Eagles run to begin the game into the first media timeout. The Eagles did not let off the gas as Head Coach Rob Murphy's 2-3 zone defense along with back-to-back three-balls and a Glenn Bryant (Detroit, Mich. - Oak Hill Academy) dunk gave EMU a 19-5 lead.

After being held scoreless for six minutes, Rochester responded, finding holes in the EMU zone prompting a 7-0 run for the Warriors to cut the Eagle's lead in half. Thompson ended the 12-0 Rochester run with a three-pointer as the senior scored 11-of-17 first half bench points. However, Rochester senior Drew Maynard kept his team in the game by scoring half (14) of his team's points as EMU went into the locker room with a 31-28 halftime lead. The Eagles and Warriors went back-and-forth to start the second half. A Matt Balkema (Roseville, Mich. - Warren Cousino) put-back sparked a 7-0 EMU run as the Eagles built a 51-37 lead midway through the second half.

Rochester would not go away though, as Stavros Schizaas' three got the Warriors back within single digits at 52-44 with 7:10 remaining in the game. One minute later, the Green and White were able to get into the double-bonus taking advantage of Rochester's foul trouble and going on an 11-0 run to put the game away.

The Eagles will be in action Sunday, Nov. 11, as they travel to Jacksonville State for the first road contest of the season with tipoff scheduled for 2 p.m.

Eagles Fall in Road Contest at Jacksonville State, 61-54 Despite out-shooting the Gamecocks, EMU fell to 1-1 on the season

JACKSONVILLE, Ala. (EMUEagles.com) - The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team dropped its first road tilt of the 2012-13 campaign Sunday, Nov. 11, to the Jacksonville State University Gamecocks. The Eagles (1-1) hit 45.5 percent (10-of-22) of their second-half shots but fell short, 61-54, on the road at Jacksonville State (2-0).

Daylen Harrison (Akron, Ohio-St. Vincent St. Mary-Wyoming) led the Eagles' offense with 14 points and nine rebounds, while Glenn Bryant (Detroit, Mich.-Oak Hill Academy-Arkansas) picked up 13 points of his own. The Green and White outshot the Gamecocks with a 41.7 field goal percentage (20-of-48), while JSU shot 38.5 percent (20-of-52) from the field. Eastern went 5-of-12 from beyond the arc good for a 41.7 three-point shooting percentage, while holding Jacksonville State to a 3-of-19 performance from three-point land. Darion Rackley led all scorers with 17 points for JSU and Brian Williams added 16 of his own.

The Eagles started the scoring with a pair of Matt Balkema (Roseville, Mich.-Cousino) free throws to take the lead out of the gate. A fastbreak dunk from Bryant extended the early lead to 4-0, but the Gamecocks took their first lead just two minutes later. After trading buckets back and forth, JSU used a 7-2 run to take a 17-12 lead with 9:46 remaining in the first half. The Gamecocks never relinquished their lead through the rest of the half and led by as many as six points. At the break, Eastern trailed JSU by three, 27-24. Bryant led all scorers in the first half with nine points, while Harrison added seven. EMU out-rebounded the Gamecocks, 18-16, in the opening 20 minutes, with Harrison pulling down five boards, and Balkema and Bryant each notchin four caroms.

JSU's offense was strong in the opening half shooting 10-of-25 from the field, good for a 40 percent field goal percentage. The Gamecocks had eight players score in the first half, with Rackley leading with six.

Jacksonville State opened the second half by extending its lead to 10, 36-26, with 15:08 left in regulation. It was a Derek Thompson (Detroit, Mich.-Melvindale-SEMO) threepointer that sparked an Eastern Michigan 16-6 run, which tied the game, 42-42, with 8:06 remaining.

The Eagles took their first lead of the second half, 44-43, when Harrison knocked down a jumper in the paint with 6:42 left, but the Gamecocks did not allow the Green and White to extend that lead, JSU then outscored Eastern, 18-10, down the stretch to take the game. 61-54.

The Green and White continues its 2012-13 schedule Friday, Nov. 16, when it begins a three-games-in-three-days weekend as part of the first ever EMU "Ice Man" Classic. That Friday matchup will showcase the Eagles and Eastern Illinois University at 7 p.m inside the Convocation Center.

Behind a solid defensive effort, EMU (3-1) held IPFW (2-2) to only 5-of-26 cent) shooting from the field and 3-of-14 from beyond the arc in the second half. For the game, the Eagles had seven blocks and forced 18 turnovers which led to 15 points. IPFW also struggled from the free-throw line only connecting on 11-of-21 (52 percent).

The defense also ignited the offense after a sluggish start. Eastern dominated in the paint scoring 30 of its 60 points in the paint and used a timely 13-0 run at the end of the first half and 16-8 second-half stretch to the turn the tide of the game.

For the second straight home contest, senior Derek Thompson (Detroit, Mich.-Melvindale-SEMO) led the way for EMU with 17 points on 7-of-12 shooting from the field while junior Glenn Bryant (Detroit, Mich.-Oak Hill Academy-Arkansas) added 11 points. Junior Daylen Harrison (Akron, Ohio-St. Vincent St. Mary-Wyoming) led the way grabbing a team-high eight rebounds with junior Da'Shonte Riley (Detroit, Mich.-Detroit Country Day-Syracuse) chipped in defensively with a game-high four blocks.

IPFW was led by Frank Gaines and Luis Jacobo with 17 and 10 points, respectively.

IPFW opened the first half on fire hitting all five shots from the field including going 3-of-3 from long range to take a 16-8 lead. EMU rattled off the next five points closing the gap to 16-13. IPFW extended its lead to 24-19 before Thompson and Harrison hit two buckets each, followed by two Harris free throws and a Harrison three-pointer that ignited an 13-0 run giving EMU its largest lead of the half, 32-24. Thompson led all scorers with 13 points while Gaines paced the Mastodons with eight points.

EMU continued its run to open up the second half with a 7-2 spurt to move ahead by 10, 39-29. IPFW responded with run of its own, outscoring Eastern 10-3 over the next four minutes to pull within three, 42-39, at the 11:52 mark. However, EMU would close out the game outscoring the Mastodons 16-8 down the stretch highlighted by two thunderous dunks by Riley and Jamell Harris (Euclid, Ohio-Euclid) to seal the 60-47 victory.

There is a full slate of hoops action at the Convocation Center on Sunday, Nov. 18, as the EMU women's basketball team leads off with a contest against in-state rival University of Detroit Mercy at 2 p.m. The "Ice Man" Classic concludes with IPFW and Eastern IIlinois squaring off at 4:30 p.m. followed by the men's squad against Texas-Pan American at 7 p.m.

11-for-22 (50% clip) en-route to the victory. The Eagles also took advantage from the foul line hitting 18-for-24 free throws.

Senior Derek Thompson (Detroit, Mich.-Melvindale) led the way for EMU with a seasonhigh 22 points while junior Daylen Harrison (Akron, Ohio-St. Vincent St. Mary) added 18 points going a perfect 11-11 from the charity stripe. On the defensive end, Eastern turned a solid effort behind a season-high 10 bocks lead by senior Jamell Harris (Euclid, Ohio-Euclid) who tallied four blocks while junior Da'Shonte Riley (Detroit, Mich.-Detroit Country Day) and junior Glenn Bryant (Detroit, Mich.-Oak Hill Academy) had three and two respectively. EIU was lead by junior forward Sherman Blanford who scored 14 points and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds while sophomore forward Josh Piper added 13 and six boards.

EIU used a 10-5 second half run to pull ahead, 43-35, before EMU answered with a 5-0 run of its own to pull within three points, 43-40, with 7:50 remaining. Eastern's offense continued to heat up outscoring the Panthers 14-5 over the next four minutes to take a 54-48 lead.

The first half proved to be a defensive struggle as both teams shot a combined 16-for-51 from the field. Midway through the period EMU held a slim 12-11 lead before EIU outscored the Eagles 15-11 down the stretch taking a 26-23 lead into the locker room. EMU finished the half with six blocks while holding the Panthers to 3-for-13 from behind the arc. The Eagles also took advantage from the charity stripe going 8-of-10.

The Eagles continue play in the Iceman Classic against IPFW on Saturday, Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. Prior to the contest, Texas-Pan American and Eastern Illinois will square off at 4:30 p.m.

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - Behind a stifling 2-3 zone defense that limited its opponent to a 36.7 shooting percentage from the floor, the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team finished with a 4-0 record as host of the inaugural "Ice Man" Classic with a 57-47 victory over the University of Texas Pan-American Sunday, Nov. 18, at the Convocation Center.

Daylen Harrison (Akron, Ohio-St. Vincent St. Mary) recorded a double-double with 16 points and 12 rebounds to lead the Eagles to victory, also earning him "Ice Man" Classic All-. Tournament Team honors.

A trio of Detroit natives assisted in the win as Glenn Bryant (Detroit, Mich.-Oak Hill Academy) added 11 points, Da'Shonte Riley (Detroit Mich.-Detroit Country Day) posted 8 points to go with 11 rebounds, and Derek Thompson (Detroit, Mich.-Melvindale) followed with 7 points of his own. Averaging 15 points per game throughout the tournament, Thompson was named the "Ice Man" Classic's Most Valuable Player.

The Green and White exploited its size advantage, out-rebounding the Broncs, 39-27. The plus-12 rebounding margin led to 18 second-chance points and 30 points in the paint. EMU was 23-of-57 (40.4 percent) from the field in the contest which included a 3-of-8 (37.5 percent) effort from beyond the arc.

UTPA was limited to 18 buckets in the game on 49 shots for a 36.7 percent clip. The Broncs shot well from three-point land, going 6-of-20 (30 percent). Brandon Provost was the leading scorer for the visitors with 11 points. He was the only Bronc to reach double digits.

Winning all four games in the tournament, EMU moves to 4-1 on the season. With the loss, UTPA drops to 1-5 on the season.

Both teams struggled to find points early on as the Eagles held a 10-9 lead midway through the first half. Following four straight points by Texas Pan-American, Eastern went on a 13-2 run in the next six minutes to take a 23-15 led with 3:03 remaining in the opening half. The Eagles were able to hold on to the lead as they went into the locker room, 24-19.

Unlike the slow start in the first half, EMU came out lightning-fast in the second half, going on a 12-3 run in just over three minutes to take a 36-22 lead. Sticking with the 2-3 zone defense, the Eagles prevented Texas Pan-American from getting closer than six points for the rest of the game.

The Green and White will hit the home hardwood again Saturday, Nov. 24 at 6:30 p.m. against Madonna. The game will be the nightcap of a doubleheader as the women's team will face off against Harvard beginning at 4 p.m.

team scored 28 points off of 21 turnovers as the Eagles defeated Madonna University, 75-57, Saturday night, Nov. 24 at the Convocation Center.

Daylen Harrison (Akron, Ohio-St. Vincent St. Mary) scored 17 points to lead the Eagles, who shot 44.9 percent from the floor. Glenn Bryant (Detroit, Mich.-Oak Hill Academy) and Ray Lee (Detroit, Mich.-Romulus) notched career-highs in points, scoring 16 and 14, respectively. Da'Shonte Riley (Detroit, Mich.-Detroit Country Day) added a team-best and career-high 13 rebounds

Travis Schuba scored 23 points to lead the Crusaders in the loss, going 7-of-22 from threepoint land. As a team, Madonna shot 35.2 percent (19-of-54) from the floor.

EMU improves to 5-1 on the 2012-13 campaign, its best start to a season since going 6-1 to start the 2004-05 season. Madonna drops to 5-2 on the year.

Two contrasting offenses took the floor as Eastern Michigan controlled the paint while Ma-donna dominated from beyond the arc. EMU outscored MU, 38-12, in the paint, but Madonna shot 12-of-33 from three-point range while Eastern only managed to go 4-of-17 from deep.

Unlike in recent games, both teams got off to fast starts as Madonna took a 12-8 lead into the first media timeout. The Crusaders shot 4-of-8 from the floor, including 3-of-6 from threepoint land, while the Eagles shot 4-of-9 to start.

Coming out of the timeout, Madonna increased its lead with its fourth three-pointer of the game. A put-back dunk and a layup followed as EMU Head Coach Rob Murphy was forced to take a timeout with his team down, 19-8, with 12:22 remaining in the first half.

The timeout seemed to work as the Eagles went on a 7-0 run over the next four minutes to cut the lead to four points. While the Green and White found success on the inside, Madonna continued to hit from the outside, making three more long balls to maintain a 30-21 lead with 6:18 to go in the opening half.

However, the Eastern defense stepped up, holding Madonna scoreless for the rest of the half and going on a 12-0 run to take a 33-30 lead into the locker room. The Eagles opened up the second half scoring the first four points to take a 37-30 lead.

Schuba finally ended his team's 10-minute scoring drought with his fourth three of the game, to cut the EMU lead to only four points. The Crusaders would not get any closer the rest of the game as Eastern responded with a 10-0 run that included back-to-back three-pointers by Derek Thompson (Detroit, Mich.-Melvindale) to make it 47-33 with 13:22 remaining in the game.

The lead increased as Jamell Harris (Euclid, Ohio-Euclid), Bryant, and Lee all added dunks along with a three from Austin Harper (Grand Haven, Mich.-Grand Haven) to make it a 75-52 game with under two minutes to go.

Bryant and Thompson hit double figures, Riley racks up six blocks

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team fell for just the second time this season Monday night, Dec. 3, with a 84-48 setback to No. 4 Syracuse University inside the Carrier Dome. Glenn Bryant ,posted a double-double performance for the Eagles (5-2) with 16 points and 10 rebounds.

EMU has now dropped a road contest to the Orange (6-0) in consecutive seasons by the same 36-point margin. SU won for a program-best 26th straight time on their home court while improving to 2-1 all-time against the Eagles.

The Green and White entered Monday's matchup boasting the eighth-best scoring defense in the nation, but was largely outmatched by Syracuse's press. The Eagles committed 24 turnovers which resulted in 31 points for the Orange. In comparison, EMU converted just nine points off of 18 SU turnovers.

Derek Thompson led all scorers with 18 points, going 7-of-18 with a trio of three-pointers in the second half. Bryant was 6-of-18 to go along with a perfect 4-of-4 effort from the free throw line. The double-double was his first as an Eagle.

Da'Shonte Riley was a force under the basket for the Eagles, denying six Syracuse shots. Those six blocks fell just one shy of his career-best mark of seven.

As a team, the Eagles shot at a 29.5 percent clip (18-of-16) with a 4-of-19 (21.1 percent) effort from downtown and 8-of-12 (66.7 percent) from the charity stripe.

Five Syracuse players reached double figures, with DaJuan Ćoleman's 14 points pacing the Orange. Brandon Triche's strong second half gave him 12 points for the game, with Mike Carter-Williams, Jerami Grant and Trevor Cooney all posting 11. SU was a blistering 44.1 percent (30-of-68) from the field and went 5-of-22 (22.7 percent) from long distance.

Syracuse's early struggles were nearly forgotten by the end of the first half, as the Orange shot 11-of-31 (35.5 percent) from the floor despite going 1-of-10 from beyond the arc. Carter-Williams and Triche each had seven points at the break.

Eastern Michigan will host Purdue University Saturday, Dec. 8, at 2 p.m. inside the Convocation Center. The game will be available on ESPN3 and 89.1 FM (WEMU). YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) –The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team held off Purdue University, 47-44, Saturday, Dec. 8, at the Convocation Center. The Eagles (6-2) defeated a Big Ten Conference opponent for the first time since an 89-83 overtime victory against the University of Michigan, Dec. 17, 1997, in Ann Arbor.

Saturday's win was the first home victory over a Big Ten team since a 92-76 throttling of Wisconsin, Dec. 10, 1994 at venerable Bowen Field House.

The Green and White trailed by as many as nine points early in the first half, but were behind by just one at the break after closing the period on a 6-0 run. Efficient three-point shooting and solid defense contributed to the Eagles charging ahead by as many as 10 in the second frame. A late push by the Boilermakers (4-5) proved not to be enough as the Eagles remained undefeated (6-0) at home this season.

As a team, Eastern Michigan shot 17-of-55 (30.9 percent) for the game and 5-of-18 (27.8 percent) from long distance. Following a 0-for-8 mark from three-point range in the opening 20 minutes, EMU caught fire to the tune of a 5-of-10 effort in the second half.

Senior Derek Thompson had a pair of those three-pointers and led the Eagles in scoring with eight points. Saturday's win was truly a team effort as all 10 players that saw action scored at least two points. Redshirt junior Daylen Harrison hauled in 11 boards and added four points.

EMU also won the turnover battle, forcing 18 Purdue turnovers while making just five of its own. The Eagles also picked the Boilermakers' pocket 11 times, with nine players turning in at least one steal. Junior Da'Shonte Riley and redshirt junior Glenn Bryant each posted a pair of blocks on the afternoon.

• For the Boilermakers, Terone Johnson (12 points), A.J. Hammons (11) and Ronnie Johnson (11) all reached double figures despite the rest of the team only contributing a total of 10 points. Purdue shot just under 30 percent for the game (14-of-47) and was 4-of-14 (28.6 percent) from downtown.

The Eagles are back on the hardwood Saturday, Dec. 15, with a 1 p.m. road tilt against the University of Illinois-Chicago in Chicago, Ill. EMU will have a chance to win its first road game of the year against the Flames after starting the season 0-2 away from home.

EMU Hoops Falls in Windy City Tussle, 74-48 Eagles drop to 6-3 on the season

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - In a battle between two of the best defensive teams in the country, the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team fell on the road in the Windy City to the University of Illinois-Chicago Flames, 74-48, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 15 at UIC Pavilion.

Glenn Bryant led EMU in scoring and rebounding in the loss, notching 10 points and grabbing seven rebounds. J.R. Sims scored nine points, and Antoine Chandler added a career-high six points off the bench for the Green and White, who fall to 6-3 on the season. The Eagles ended the contest with a 33.9 shooting percentage.

Former Eagle and Current UIC guard Daniel Barnes scored a career-high 30 points to lead UIC. shooting 6-of-13 from three point range. UIC shot 12-of-29 from beyond the arc including 9-of-13 in the second half. Fellow guard Gary Talton netted a dozen for the Flames as they improve their record to 9-1. UIC shot 17-of-28 in the second half to shoot 46.3 percent from the floor for the game.

Surprisingly, both teams got off to fast starts as both teams hit 4 of their first 7 shots. Barnes hit two threes, giving UIC an early 10-8 cushion. Jalen Ross nailed a three to give the Eagles the lead; however, the Flames answered as Barnes converted the old-fashioned three point play to give the lead back to his team. On the next UIC offensive possession, Barnes hit two more free-throws, giving him 10 points and UIC a 14-11 advantage with 13:11 remaining in the first half.

Derek Thompson's jumper made it 16-15 in favor of UIC at the 10:44 mark in the opening half. The game slowed down immensely as both teams' defenses settling in, and the offenses struggling to get any shots to fall. The game's next point would not come until over six minutes later when UIC's Gary Talton was intentionally fouled on a breakaway. Maintaining possession of the basketball, Barnes drilled another three to give the Flames a five point lead, 20-15 with 3:47 to go in the opening stanza

With the Eagles trailing, 24-15, with 1:30 remaining in the first twenty minutes, Da'Shonte Riley finally ended EMU's nine minute scoring drought with a thunderous dunk as he was fouled. Riley missed his free throw, but Eastern kept the ball after UIC knocked it out of play. Riley took advantage of the second chance opportunity with a turnaround jumper from fifteen feet, and EMU went into halftime trailing 24-19.

EMU outshot (37.5 percent-30.8 percent) and outrebounded (20-16) UIC in the first half, but it was the Flames' conversion of 12 points off 11 turnovers that gave them the lead at the break.

Following the timeout. Eastern responded with back-to-back buckets, but the Flames continued to find success on their side of the floor, keeping the game out of reach by outscoring the Eagles 50-29 in the second half.

EMU will be back in action with a pair of games next week. The Eagles will travel down the road to Ann Arbor to take on the No. 3 ranked University of Michigan Wolverines in the Battle of Washtenaw County, Dec. 20. The Green and White will then return home, Dec. 22, for an afternoon slate against in-state rival Oakland University with a 4 p.m. tip from the Convocation Center.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) — The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team's bid to knock off a second-straight Big Ten Conference opponent fell short in a 93-54 loss to the No. 2-ranked University of Michigan Thursday evening, Dec. 20, at the Crisler Center.

The Eagles (6-4) held the lead early on a pair of three-pointers by freshman Jalen Ross and redshirt junior Glenn Bryant, but a fast-paced Wolverines' (12-0) offense quickly turned the tables and owned the lead for the remainder of the contest.

Redshirt junior Daylen Harrison tallied 13 points on the evening and Bryant knocked down 10 to lead the Eagles offensively. Ross' nine points were good for a career high and sophomore Antoine Chandler's eight points set a personal best as well.

Overall, the Green and White went 22-of-62 (35.5 percent) including a 7-of-26 (26.9 percent) performance from beyond the arc. EMU went to the line just six times in the game, converting three.

For Michigan, Tim Hardaway, Jr. led the way with 17 points and was one-of-five Wolverines to hit double figures. Mitch McGary turned in a double-double effort with 10 points and 11 boards. U-M shot a blistering 50.7 percent (35-of-69) from the floor and was just as efficient from long range, going 12-of-24 (50.0 percent).

Trey Burke opened the scoring for Michigan off an EMU turnover, but Ross answered with a trey of his own, and Bryant did the same in back-to-back possessions to put the Eagles ahead, 6-2, less than two minutes in.

But a rash of turnovers and missed shots combined with stealthy play in transition by the Wolverines allowed Michigan take an 18-6 lead as Head Coach Rob Murphy called his second timeout of the half with 12:45 showing. U-M would string together 20 consecutive points before a Derek Thompson jumper snapped EMU's skid at the 10:40 mark and made it 22-10 for the home team.

A Bryant block led to a fast-break jumper by Ross with 3:19 to go and cut U-M's lead to 37-20. Another make by Ross and one from redshirt junior J.R. Sims before halftime made it a 16-point EMU deficit, 40-24, after 20 minutes.

Ross led all EMU scorers at the break with nine points on 4-of-5 shooting with one long-range bucket. As a team, the Eagles shot 10-of-28 (35.7 percent) and 3-of-10 (30.0 percent) from beyond the arc. Despite their opponent's 40-point output, the Eagles managed six blocks with three credited to junior Da'Shonte Riley, two to Bryant and one to senior Jamell Harris.

Burke paced the Wolverines with 11 points as Michigan completed the first half 16-of-36 (44.4 percent) overall with a 6-of-13 (46.2 percent) effort from three-point range. The storyline remained the same in the second half, with EMU keeping pace, 49-32, following a

Bryant three-pointer. Glenn Robinson III's and-one layup and McGary's fast-break bucket promptly nullified EMU's short rally and gave U-M its largest lead of the evening to that point, 54-32, with 14:15 left

Chandler chimed in with his first points of the game off a three-point basket, and Harrison filled a layup and his free throw to bring EMU back to within 19, 64-45, at the 8:46 mark.

The Green and White were unable to come any closer to pulling off an upset, as Michigan complied a 29-9 run over the final eight minutes of play to cruise to the 39-point victory, 93-54. The Eagles head back to Ypsilanti to start a two-game home swing Saturday, Dec. 22, with a matchup against Oakland. Tipoff is slated for 2 p.m. at the Convocation Center.

EMU Comeback Falls Short, 59-57 Eagles drops first home contest of the season

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team dropped its first home contest of the season, falling to the Oakland Golden Grizzles, 59-57. Oakland's quick ball movement and a first half deficit were too much for the Eagles to overcome despite late game heroics.

Jalen Ross scored a career-high 17 points shooting 6-of-13, while Jamell Harris led Eastern's defensive effort with two blocks, two steals, and six rebounds.

Oakland's Travis Bader led all scorers with 21 points; shooting a perfect 6-of-6 from the line and nailing five triple tries.

Eastern (6-5) shot 19-of-47 (40.4 percent) for the game, while Oakland (5-8) went 17-of-54 (31.5 percent).

Oakland opened the scoring with a three from Ryan Bass. The Grizzles took an early 8-2 lead assisted by two quick turnovers by Eastern. go Junior Da'Shonte Riley worked the glass impressively for the Eagles, tallying five rebounds in the opening 10 minutes of play and eight total on the day.

Tough defense by Harris and seven first-half points from the hot hand of Ross kept the Eagles in the contest.

Glenn Bryant's huge dunk energized the entire Convocation Center and brought the Eagles back to within a two score game. Bryant then closed the half for Eastern with a long three. However, the Grizzles countered with a 4-0 run to extend their lead to 29-21. The Eagles shot 9-of-23 (39.1 percent) from the field in the first half scoring eight in the paint. The

The Eagles shot 9-of-23 (39.1 percent) from the field in the first half scoring eight in the paint. The Grizzlies, who looked committed to taking three points shots, went 8-of-26 (30.8 percent) from the field and specifically 4-of-12 (33.3 percent) from downtown. Oakland opened the second half on a 6-0 run before Derek Thompson responded with a floater

Oakland opened the second half on a 6-0 run before Derek Thompson responded with a floater in the lane opening an 8-0 run for the Eagles.

Midway through the half, Oakland scoring threat Bader hit back-to-back threes before EMU Head Coach Rob Murphy called a timeout to refocus his squad. The timeout worked, as Ross answered with a quick three of his own immediately following the break.

Four hard-earned points and solid defensive play from junior Daylen Harrison powered an 11-4 Eastern run that cut Oakland's lead to 49-40 with eight minutes remaining in the game.

A late six-point surge by Thompson pulled Eastern to within two, which opened the door for Ross to tie the game up with two made free throws and a go-ahead layup by Matt Balkema. Balkema's first points of the game gave Eastern their first lead of the afternoon.

After Oakland retook the lead, smart defensive play earned redshirt junior J.R. Sims free throws and the opportunity to take the lead or send it to overtime. He converted 1-of-2 to tie the game. Oakland's Bass, who scored the opening points of the contest, drained a mid-range jumper to take Oakland's Bass, who scored the opening points of the contest, drained a mid-range jumper to take the lead with only five seconds remaining. The Eagles were unable to score on their final possession and in turn failed to defend home court for the first time this season.

The Eagles will be back in action inside the Convocation Center, Dec. 28, to take on Siena Heights with tipoff scheduled for 4 p.m.

Men's Hoops Rolls Past Siena Heights, 87-49 Eagles put four in double figures, set season-high mark offensively

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) - The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team snapped its three-game losing skid with a convincing 87-49 victory over Siena Heights University Friday, Dec. 28, at the Convocation Center.

The Eagles (7-5) started the game on a 14-0 run and did not look back. EMU shot 55.0 percent (33-of-60) from the floor and 6-of-14 (42.9 percent) from beyond the arc en route to their largest offensive output of the 2012-13 campaign. In addition to moving to 7-1 inside the Convocation Center, the Green and White held an opponent to less than 50 points for the fourth time this season.

Senior Derek Thompson (Detroit, Mich.-Melvindale) notched a game-high 17 points and was one-of-four EMU players to hit double figures. Thompson was dangerous from outside, going 5-of-9 from three-point land and 6-of-10 overall.

Setting a career-high in the scoring column was junior Da'Shonte Riley (Detroit, Mich.-Detroit Country Day), whose 5-for-6 effort gave him 10 points on the afternoon. Riley also chipped in on the defensive side of the ball with five blocks and five boards.

Redshirt juniors Daylen Harrison (Akron, Ohio-St. Vincent St. Mary) and Glenn Bryant (Detroit, Mich,-Oak Hill Academy) tallied 15 and 13 points, respectively.

The Saints (4-11) struggled offensively particularly in the first half, when they amassed just 16 points. In the second stanza, Siena Heights scored 33 points to finish the game 17-of-53 (32.1 percent) with an 8-of-24 (33.3 percent) showing from three-point range. Ryan Hopson led all SHU scorers with 11 points.

EMU's offense showed no mercy on the Saints in the first half, shooting a blistering 58.1 percent (18-of-31) overall and 42.9 percent (3-of-7) from long distance. The Eagles capitalized on 11 Saints' turnovers to the tune of 26 points. Thompson led all scorers at the break with 11 points.

Hopson paced the Saints' offense in the first half with 10 points. As a team, Siena Heights was just 6-of-26 (23.1 percent) from the floor with three of those buckets coming from downtown.

EMU kicks off the 2013 calendar year with a road game Wednesday, Jan. 2, against the University of Kentucky in Lexington, Ky. Tipoff is scheduled for 2 p.m.
