CAT SCRATCHES

• UK is in its 112th season of basketball and remains the national leader in total wins with 2,162.

• With 22 consecutive victories to begin the season, UK is off to the third-best start in program history and best under John Calipari. The Cats are three wins away from tying the best start in school history. It's also the best start to a year since the 1965-66 squad began the year 23-0.

• Kentucky is the only undefeated team remaining in the country.

• Kentucky owns a 94-37 all-time record against Florida, including a 33-24 edge in Gainesville, Fla. The Gators won all three meetings a season ago.

• UK will be a part of ESPN's College GameDay for the ninth time in program history and the sixth consecutive season. The Wildcats have faced Florida as part of GameDay festivities four other times. Kentucky is 3-2 under Calipari in GameDay games

• Calipari has notched 20 or more on-court victories in 21 consecutive seasons. That's the most of any current coach in Division I and it trails only Dean Smith (27) in the all-time record book.

• Coach Calipari has the best record of any Kentucky coach through the first 210 games of their careers. Also, Calipari (.825) recently surpassed the legendary Adolph Rupp (.822) in UK career winning percentage.

• UK has only trailed for 103:43 of the possible 895 minutes this season.

• The Wildcats have won 44 of their last 46 contests as the Associated Press top-ranked team. Calipari is 47-4 (.922) as the top-ranked coach at Kentucky.

• Devin Booker earned his fourth straight SEC Freshman of the Week accolade on Monday. He is only the third player in league history (Nerlens Noel, John Wall) to earn the honor in four straight weeks.

Booker Nabs Freshman of the Week ... Again
• Devin Booker averaged 10 points and 1.5 rebounds in wins over Missouri and Alabama last week and earned his fourth straight SEC Freshman of the Week honor.
• Booker is shooting 65.8 percent behind the arc over his last 11 games.
• Only two other players in league history earned the accolade in four straight weeks: UK's Nerlens Noel and John Wall.

Season Notes:

And Then There Was One
• With Virginia's loss to Duke, Kentucky is now the only undefeated team remaining in the country.
• At 22-0, Kentucky is the last remaining unbeaten team in the country. This marks the fourth time in Coach Cal's career, and his second time while at UK that his team has been the last remaining unbeaten team in the country.

1995-96 – UMass (26-0)
2007-08 – Memphis (26-0)
2014-15 – Kentucky (22-0)
2009-10 – Kentucky (19-0)

History Happens Here
• A victory at Missouri marked two separate milestones for John Calipari and the Wildcats:
    • A win propelled Calipari to his 21st straight season with 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach.
• He leads all active coaches with that streak. Mike Krzyzewski (Duke) and Jim Boeheim (Syracuse) have 18 and 17, respectively.
    • Dean Smith holds the all-time record with 27 consecutive seasons with 20-plus wins.
• At 20-0, UK achieved its best start under Coach Calipari.
• The win over the Tigers also marked the program's 59th season with 20 or more victories.

Off to the Races
• Kentucky's 22-0 start to the season is one of the best starts in school history. It's the best start to the year under the direction of John Calipari. It's also UK's best start to a conference season since the 2011-12 team went 16-0 in league play.
    1. 25-0 (1953-54)
    2. 23-0 (1965-66)
    3. 22-0 (2014-15)
• UK's 22 game winning streak is the ninth-longest streak in Kentucky history.

Coach Cal's 100th Career Game at Rupp
• John Calipari coached in his 100th home game as the head coach at UK on Jan. 20 in a win over Vanderbilt. Through 100 games, he had a record of 96-4 at Rupp Arena, the best record of any UK national championship coach through their first 100 games at home.
    1. John Calipari (96-4)
    2. Rick Pitino (94-6)
       Adolph Rupp (94-6)
    3. Joe B. Hall (88-12)
       Tubby Smith (88-12)

A League of His Own
• There have been a number of legends to put on a Wildcats uniform, but Willie Cauley-Stein stands alone in one regard: With two steals agaisnt South Carolina, Cauley-Stein became the first player in program history with 200 or more blocks and 100 or more steals in a career.
• For his career, Cauley-Stein has amassed 202 blocks, 101 steals and 544 career rebounds.
    • He is the eighth player in UK history to total 100 or more blocks, 75 or more steals, and 500 or more rebounds in a career.
    • The last player to achieve the feat was Terrence Jones.
    • Jules Camara, Reggie Hanson, Chuck Hayes, Walter McCarty, Tayshaun Prince and Kenny Walker join Jones and Cauley-Stein among players to achieve the 500, 100, 75-plateau.

Fit For Any Situation
• The Wildcats have shown the ability to win in a number of ways. They are the only team in the country to win games in all of the following ways:
    • 50+ point win: Once (Montana State)
    • 40-49 point win: 3 times (last: Missouri)
    • 30-39 point win: 2 times (last: UCLA)
    • 20-29 point win: 4 times (last: Missouri)
    • 10-19 point win: 6 times (last: Georgia)
    • 5-9 point win: 3 times (last: Vanderbilt)
    • 1-4 point win: Once (Ole Miss)
    • Overtime win: 2 times (last: Texas A&M)

• Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 931-262 mark (.780).

• Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee) and no other team has a better winning percentage.
• UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 78 years in the SEC.
• The Wildcats have won 45 SEC titles and 27 SEC Tournament championships, more than the other 13 teams combined.
• Kentucky has won 11 of the last 21 SEC Tournament titles.
• As of Feb. 1, nine SEC teams are ranked in the NCAA RPI top 100, including six in the top 50.
• The SEC owns the nation's No. 4 strength of schedule (through games played on Feb. 1).
• Twelve of the SEC's 14 teams have played schedules that rank in the top 100. UK's slate ranks as the 21st-most difficult, Missouri's is fourth and Georgia's ranks 18th.

Players on the Charts
• Several Wildcat players are moving up the rankings on UK's all-time career lists:
    • Willie Cauley-Stein ranks fifth in career blocks (202), 31st in total steals (101), 40th in career rebounds (544), and 106th in career points (686).
    • Aaron Harrison charts at 24th in career made 3-pointers (99) and 86th in career points (791).
    • Andrew Harrison ranks 32nd in total assists (247) and 123rd in career points (615).
    • With 51 blocks this season, freshman Karl-Anthony Towns already ranks 35th in career blocks.

Defensive Dominance
• Kentucky is allowing just 51.0 points per game, the second-best mark in the country (through games played on Feb. 4).
    • The 2014-15 Cats hold four of the top six spots in the John Calipari era for fewest points yielded to an opponent, including the top two vs. Montana State (28) and Missouri (37).
    • Only six opponents have scored more than 55 points in a game this year, and only two have poured in 65 or more.
    • The last time a Kentucky team held the opposition to less than 50 points per game for the year was the 1948-49 season.
    • UK is 54-0 under John Calipari when holding its opponent to 55 points or less, including 16 victories this season.
• Opponents are shooting a mere 32.9 percent vs. UK, the best mark in the country.
• The Cats have blocked 160 shots and are averaging 7.3 swats a game, both rate as the second-most in the country.
    • According to kenpom.com, Kentucky is blocking 20 percent of its opponents' shots, more than any other team in the country.
• UK has held the opposition to less than 20 points in 14 halves it has played this year.
    • The 12 points the Cats yielded in the second half vs. Kansas were the fewest after halftime since Dec. 18, 1999, when Louisville scored 12 in a 76-46 UK victory.

    • The seven points yielded in the opening half vs. UCLA marked the fewest since Dec. 20, 1983, when the Cats gave up just four points in the second half and seven in the first half in a 24-11 victory over Cincinnati.
    • The 18 and 19 point halves vs. Missouri marked the first time UK limited an opponent to less than 20 points in both halves of the same game in league play.
• The Cats held Montana State to 28 points for the entire game, the fewest for a Wildcat opponent since the shot-clock era began in 1985-86.
    • The previous low was 32 by Morehead State on Dec. 16, 1995, a 96-32 UK win.
    • The 28 points were also the fewest ever scored at Rupp Arena.
• This year's team is the first Wildcat team in the modern era of the 3-point field goal to hold its first 10 opponents below 40 percent.
    • Ten opponents have been held to less than 30 percent, including four of five ranked foes.
• Kentucky limited No. 5 Kansas to just 19.6 percent from the floor, three field goals and just 12 points in the second half.
    • The last time Kentucky limited an opponent to a sub-.200 field-goal percentage was Dec. 16, 1995 vs. Morehead State when the Eagles posted a 13.8 field-goal clip.
• Against No. 4 Louisville, the Cats held the Cardinals to 25.9-percent shooting, the worst single-game field-goal percent for U of L under Rick Pitino, which dates back to the 2001-02 season.
• UK limited the Cardinals to just one assist for the game, the fewest assists a Kentucky opponent has recorded since at least the 1974-75 season, the first season Kentucky has complete game-by-game assist totals for.
    • With the exception of four games UK is missing assist totals for, the one assist recorded is actually the fewest assists a Kentucky opponent has recorded through the 1971-72 season (UK has no records of game-by-game assist totals prior to the 1971-72 season).

   • Defensive turnover percentage - 11th (.240)
   • Points per possession scored - 15th (1.146)
   • Rebound margin - 19th (+6.7)

Balance
• Under the two-platoon system, the top 10 available players are averaging between 10.0 and 26.0 minutes per game.
   • For the first seven games of the season, no player saw more than 26 minutes in a game, before Willie Cauley-Stein totaled 33 minutes against No. 6/7 Texas.
• UK's top seven scorers are averaging between 7.5 and 11.0 points per game.
• Eight different players have led UK in scoring.

Block Party
• As of games through Feb. 4, UK's 160 blocks and 7.3 blocks per game rank second in the nation.
• At the pace UK is blocking shots, if the Cats were to play the full 40 games this year, they would finish the season with 291 rejections.
   • The current national and school record is 344, set by the 2011-12 national title team.
• According to kenpom.com, Kentucky is blocking 20 percent of its opponents' shots, more than any other team in the country.
• Karl-Anthony Towns leads UK with 51 blocks through 22 games. Four additional players have posted double-figure blocking totals thus far.
   • Towns is averaging one block for every 8.5 minutes he plays. For perspective, Kentucky's single-season blocked shots leader, Anthony Davis, averaged a block every 6.9 minutes.
• The Cats have blocked 10 or more shots in eight of their 22 games, including a season-high 13 vs. UCLA.

Big and Tall
• According to ESPN Stats and Info and prior to the Alex Poythress injury, UK's frontcourt players were an average height of 6-10.14. If UK was an NBA team, only the Portland Trail Blazers would have a taller front court (6-10.44) than the Cats.
• For the second consecutive season, UK boasts the tallest roster in the country, according to Ken-Pom.com. UK's average height of 79.4 inches is a little taller than the second-tallest team, Florida State, at 79.1 inches.
• The Cats aren't just tall; they're long. UK's 13 scholarship players have an average wingspan of 6-10. Five of them have a wingspan of 7 feet or more, led by Karl-Anthony Towns at 7-3.25.
• If you were to line up Kentucky's 13 scholarship players from one end of the court and have them extend their arms to each side (their wingspan), they would nearly reach the other end of the court. Combined, UK's 13 scholarship players have nearly 89 feet of wingspan length, just short of the length of a basketball court (94 feet).

Deceivingly Young
• Despite having the most collective experience in the John Calipari era, UK's average experience is still only 0.78 years. That ranks 346th out of 351 teams in the country, according to KenPom.com.

• Only Vanderbilt (348th) and Southern Cal (349th) have less experience among schools in the Power Five conferences.

On Fire From Long Range
• After making a combined 46 of 165 (27.9 percent) 3-pointers in the first 10 games of the season, the Wildcats found their stroke from long range over the last 12, hitting 84 of 197 (42.6 percent) during that stretch, including a season-best 12 treys vs. UCLA and 11 in the SEC opener against Ole Miss.
  • UK is averaging seven 3-point field goals per game during that stretch.
  • Kentucky's 84 3-point field goals marked the most the Wildcats have made in a 12-game span since hitting 87 in a 12-game stretch from Nov. 16, 2009 to Dec. 29, 2009.
  • During that span, Devin Booker hit 26 of 44 3-pointers (59.1 percent), Tyler Ulis made 13 of 29 (44.8 percent) and Aaron Harrison connected on 27 made 3s.

Efficient Cats
• According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on KenPom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession. The 2015 rankings are through games played on Feb. 3.

  • No Wildcat team has averaged better than 16 assists per game during a season since the 1998-99 team.
• UK posted a season-high 25 assists vs. UCLA, topping the 24 the Cats had against Boston. Prior to the Boston game, the last time with 24 or more assists came against LIU Brooklyn on Nov. 23, 2012, when UK posted 28 dimes.
• Of UK's 557 made field goals, 336 (60.3 percent) have been assisted.
• UK's 1.40 assist-to-turnover ratio is the 18th-best mark in the nation (through games on Feb. 4).

UK as the Top-Ranked Team
• The Wildcats own an all-time record of 199-27 (.881) as the nation's top-ranked squad.
• UK has won 44 of its last 46 contests as the AP's top team.
• Kentucky has lost just twice at home as the top-ranked team in the history of the program and just once in Rupp Arena.

• Both losses came by just one point.
• The Wildcats are 45-1 all-time as the No. 1-ranked team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The lone loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Calipari at No. 1
• Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking.
• Calipari is 88-9 (.907) as the top-ranked coach in the country.
• He tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the pinnacle of the rankings.
• Calipari is 47-4 (.922) when his team is at the top as UK's head coach.
• Calipari has guided five of his last eight teams to the No. 1 ranking and this year marks the seventh time he's led his team to the top ranking throughout his career.
• He guided his 1994-95 and 1995-96 UMass teams to the No. 1 ranking, as well as his 2007-08 Memphis team and his 2009-10, 2011-12, 2013-14 and 2014-15 Kentucky teams.

'Camp Cal' Turns in Results
• In what has become known as "Camp Cal," John Calipari has used the time over the holiday/semester break to mold his squads for the stretch run in the second half of campaigns. This time includes several two-a-day sessions since school is in recess. In his previous 14 years both at Memphis and Kentucky, his teams have put together winning streaks during and following Camp Cal in each of those seasons.

• Calipari has recorded a 71-27 (.724) record on the road dating back to 2005-06 season.

The Success Rate
• Coach Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (10 of 10) who have been eligiblie to graduate by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility.
• Of that group, Patrick Patterson and Jarrod Polson each completed their degrees in just three years.
• For the seventh time in the last eight semesters under Coach Cal, the Cats posted better than a 3.0 grade-point average in the classroom. The Wildcats posted a 3.129 cumulative GPA for the 2014 fall semester with 13 of 16 players on roster earning a 3.0 or higher.

Double-Digit Win Streaks
• Coach Cal has the Wildcats out to their best start with him at the helm with a 21-game winning streak. Kentucky's 22-game winning streak is the 17th streak of Calipari's career where his teams have won 10 or more consecutive games during the season and the sixth streak where they have won 20 or more.

The following is a breakdown of Calipari's win streaks:

Calipari's Undefeated Conference Teams
• Calipari is believed to be one of three coaches, along with Frank McGuire and Jerry Tarkanian, to lead multiple teams to an unblemished mark in multiple Division I conferences.
• Calipari did so at Memphis in Conference USA and Kentucky in the SEC.
• McGuire led St. John's in the Metro New York ('51, '52), North Carolina in the ACC ('57) and South Carolina in the ACC ('70) to undefeated marks.
• Jerry Tarkanian guided Long Beach State in the Pacific Coast Athletics Association ('70, '71) and UNLV in the Big West ('87, '91, '92) to perfect conference seasons.

Calipari and the NBA Draft
• Coach John Calipari has had two or more players selected in seven consecutive NBA drafts dating back to 2008 with Memphis.
• He has three players who have been taken No. 1 overall.
• Following the 2014 draft, Calipari has had 10 players taken in the top 10 of the draft in the last five seasons and 15 taken in the first round of the draft.
• With Anthony Davis going No. 1 overall in 2012, Calipari coached three No. 1 picks in a five-year span.
• His three No. 1 picks are the most by one coach in NBA Draft history.

In the process of churning out 19 NBA Draft picks over five seasons at Kentucky, including 15 first-rounders and two No. 1 overall selections, Calipari and his staff have proven there are no equals when it comes to developing elite recruits into NBA Draft picks.

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari has guided five teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 31 players make it to the NBA during his 22-year college coaching career.

John Calipari reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, guiding Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title. He is one of only two coaches to lead three different schools to a Final Four (UMass-1996; Memphis-2008; Kentucky-2011, 2012, 2014).

The Wildcats rode the trademark hard-nosed Calipari defense to the 2012 title, finishing the season as the nation's top-ranked team in field-goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

Kentucky lost three members of its 2011 Final Four team (two to the draft, one to graduation), but Calipari reloaded with the nation's top-ranked recruiting class for the third straight season. Included in the class were eventual National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist.

En route to the national championship, Calipari guided the Wildcats to an NCAA record-tying 38 wins, a perfect 16-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference and the school's 45th SEC championship, all while extending his winning streak in Rupp Arena to 51 straight games. Calipari extended his perfect mark at home as UK's coach to 54 games before finally losing in his fourth year at Kentucky.

Upon being named head coach on April 1, 2009, Calipari continued to work his magic of resurrecting three proud programs, taking an NIT team in 2009 to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way he led the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking (UK's first since 2003), the program's 44th SEC regular-season championship and 26th SEC Tournament title.

The honors continued after the 2009-10 season as Calipari became the first coach in UK history to receive the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award. He then watched as five of his players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school has ever produced five first-round picks. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall pick, John Wall.

In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, Calipari posted his fifth straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. In addition to the Rupp National Coach of the Year, Calipari was also named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year.

When he led Kentucky back to the No. 1 spot in the country, Calipari became one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) in NCAA history to lead three teams to a No. 1 ranking. He led UMass to a No. 1 ranking in 1995 and 1996, and he led Memphis to the No. 1 spot in the 2008 season.

In his second year in 2010-11, a season that was labeled as a "rebuilding effort," one in which Calipari and the Cats were supposed to struggle after losing an unprecedented five first-round picks in the 2010 NBA Draft, Kentucky reloaded as Calipari guided UK to its 27th SEC Tournament championship, kept his unbeaten record at Rupp Arena alive and collected his 500th career on-court win.

His latest season, in 2013-14, may have been his best work yet. Coaching the youngest team in the nation, Calipari guided Kentucky back to the Final Four for the third time in four seasons, coming up just one win short of his second national championship and the program's ninth title.

Calipari and the Cats reached the championship game in what some national pundits called one of the greatest NCAA Tournament runs of all-time. Seeded No. 8 in a region analysts called "the region of doom," UK knocked off previously undefeated and top-seeded Wichita State, downed defending national champion and archrival Louisville, defeated defending national runner-up and Big 10 champion Michigan, before edging Wisconsin in the Final Four. UK became the first team ever to knock off three of the previous season's Final Four teams. And the Cats did so starting five freshmen and coming off an appearance in the NIT the season before.

Much like he did at UMass, when his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his final 18 seniors that came through the Memphis program earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 10 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a degree in hand, while two (Jarrod Polson and Patrick Patterson) earned a degree in just three years.

Following a 3.4 grade-point average in the 2013 spring semester — the highest in Coach Cal's tenure at UK — the Wildcats' scholarship players posted a 3.11 GPA for the second consecutive semester in the 2014 fall semester. It marked the seventh time in the last eight semesters Coach Cal's team earned a 3.0 or better.

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, he has placed 31 players in the NBA during his college coaching career, including 19 over his first five seasons at Kentucky. The 19 picks over that five-season span is the most of any coach.

In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history. He followed that up with four players in the draft in 2011, six players in 2012 — the most in a two-round draft — two more in 2013 and another two in 2014.

Overall, he's churned out 19 NBA draft picks, 15 first-rounders, two No. 1 overall selections, five top-five picks and nine lottery selections at Kentucky. Since the 2008 draft, 24 of Coach Cal's players have been taken in the NBA Draft, including 17 first-rounders. Calipari has produced a top-10 pick in seven straight drafts. No other school has had a first-rounder in each of the last seven drafts.

Included in Calipari's NBA success are three No. 1 overall picks (Derrick Rose, Wall and Davis) over a five-year period. No other coach has had three No. 1 picks, and 2012 was the first time two players from the same team (Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist) were taken with the top two picks in the draft.

After bringing the University of Massachusetts basketball program to national prominence in the '90s and resurrecting the Memphis basketball program in the 2000s, Calipari became the 22nd coach in UK history and seventh in the last 80 years.

Following his fifth season at UK, Calipari's overall on-court record is 597-166, giving him the third-highest winning percentage (.771) among active NCAA Division I coaches with 10 years experience at college basketball's Division I level, trailing only Mark Few and Roy Williams. After opening the 2014-15 campaign with three straight wins, he became the 13th active coach with 600 wins.

Calipari is one of only two coaches (Williams) in NCAA Division I history to have 400 or more wins in his first 16 years as a head coach, and his 173 victories from 2008-12 are the most ever for a coach over a five-year span in Division I history. Since the 2005-06 season, he has the best winning percentage among all Division I coaches. On the NCAA Division I list for winning percentage for all coaches (minimum 10 years), Calipari is in 10th place and ahead of Mike Krzyzewski, Jim Boeheim, Bob Huggins and Lute Olson.

Calipari's eight 30-win seasons are third most for a head coach in NCAA Division I history, and he is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons. For his college career (22 years), Calipari has 20 20-win seasons and 13 25-win campaigns. The 20 consecutive 20-win seasons tie Olson for the second-longest streak in NCAA history, trailing only Dean Smith, who had 27.

His NCAA Tournament record of 43-14 (.754) gives him the second-highest winning percentage among active coaches and the second highest of all-time (minimum 20 games). His five Final Four appearances is tied for ninth most by a coach all-time, and his 11 straight NCAA Tournament wins prior to the 2014 national championship loss was the longest winning streak in the tournament since the Florida Gators won 12 straight in 2006 and 2007.

Coach Cal started his head-coaching career at UMass in 1998, guiding a struggling program at UMass to the top of college basketball, capped off by a Final Four appearance in 1996.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari began building a program from the ground up, going 10-18 his first season before posting a 17-14 record his second year (receiving a bid to the NIT). The Minutemen won their first Atlantic 10 championship in 1992 with a 30-5 record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. With a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game, UMass made its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

From there, the program skyrocketed under Coach Cal.

Calipari compiled a 193-71 record (.731) during his eight-year career at Massachusetts, including a 108-44 mark (.684) in A-10 play. In addition to five straight NCAA Tournaments and a Final Four appearance in 1996, UMass also made two appearances in the NIT, advancing to the NIT semifinals in 1991. The 1990-91 season was the first of six straight seasons in which the Minutemen won at least 20 games.

In his final season at UMass, Calipari was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the A-10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, as well as Basketball Times East Region Coach of the Year.

During the Minutemen's 35-2 Final Four season in 1995-96, UMass posted wins over Kentucky, Maryland, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and Louisville. UMass ended the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final regular-season poll after being the top-ranked team for nine weeks earlier in the year. The Minutemen also won their first 26 games of the season, setting a school record for most consecutive wins.

In addition to his Naismith National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

Calipari left UMass in June of 1996 to become executive vice president of basketball operations and head coach of the New Jersey Nets. He led the Nets to a second-place finish in the NBA's Atlantic Division and the playoffs in 1998, ending a five-year postseason drought for the franchise. The Nets' 17-game turnaround from the previous year was the best that season in the NBA.

He became a member of the Philadelphia 76ers coaching staff in 1999, rejoining Philadelphia coach Larry Brown, for whom Calipari was an assistant at Kansas.

Calipari returned to the college game in 2000 at Memphis, where he led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game. Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 made him the winningest coach for a single season in NCAA history. As a result, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career. He is only the second coach to receive the honor multiple times since the award's inception in 1987. Krzyzewski is the other to do so.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 wins — 28 wins per season — as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

Calipari, who is on the board of directors for the National Association of Basketball Coaches, began his coaching career at Kansas as a volunteer assistant under Ted Owens. In 1983, he was hired as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Vermont, but he was swayed back to the nation's heartland when Brown was hired as head coach at KU. He spent three seasons at Kansas (1982-85) before another three-year stint as an assistant coach to Paul Evans at Pittsburgh (1985-88).

The 55-year-old lettered two years at North Carolina-Wilmington before transferring to Clarion State. He played point guard at Clarion during the 1981 and 1982 seasons, leading the team in assists and free-throw percentage. The Eagles were ranked in the Division II Top 20 both years and participated in the 1981 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Calipari's foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country, and in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with another telethon in 2012 that raised $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy.

A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend.

His foundation has also worked with and donated money to Samaritan's Feet, the West Liberty Recovery Fund, 4 Paws for Ability, the Starkey Hearing Foundation, the Urban League of Lexington and the V Foundation. Calipari has also headed up the EverFi Financial Literacy Program, which teaches students across Kentucky the importance of money management.

Author of the national bestseller, "Bounce Back: Overcoming Setbacks to Succeed in Business and in Life" and the recently released "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto "that it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

Calipari and his wife, Ellen, have two daughters, Erin and Megan, and a son, Bradley.
