THIS GAME

Louisville plays its second of four consecutive road games as the Cardinals visit intrastate rival Kentucky in Lexington on Saturday in a matchup of the last two national champions. It is Louisville's final non-conference game of the season. Louisville won 85-56 at FIU last Saturday as Russ Smith scored 18 points for the Cardinals, hitting 4-of-7 three-pointers. The Wildcats (9-3), ranked 18th in the AP and USA Today polls, beat Belmont 93-80 on Dec. 21 in their last outing as freshman forward Julius Randle totaled 29 points and 10 rebounds, his ninth double-double of the season.

BY THE NUMBERS

- Louisville leads the nation in turnover margin (+9.4) and is fourth in fewest turnovers per game (9.2). UofL has committed 10 or fewer turnovers in 11 of its last 15 games dating back to last year. The Cardinals are generating an average of 23 points per game off turnovers.
- Louisville's national ranking in steals (9.8). The Cardinals have collected double-digit steals in six of their 12 games this season. Louisville is the only team to rank among the nation's top 10 in steals each of the last three seasons.
- The Cardinals have started with at least an 11-1 record in six of Coach Rick Pitino's 13 seasons at UofL. Louisville has opened 11-1 for the last four years, extending to a 16-1 mark last year before dropping three in a row.
- Season-high three-point goals made by UofL against FIU, the Cardinals' seventh game with at least nine this season. Louisville made 13-of-24 threes for a season-best 54.2 percent from long range.
- Consecutive games scoring in double figures for Wayne Blackshear, the first time he has accomplished that feat in his career. He has hit 10-of-21 three-pointers over the last four games.
- Days between Louisville's Dec. 17 game vs. Missouri State and its next home game on Jan. 9 vs. Memphis. It is UofL's longest stretch between home games since 1980-81.

■ About Kentucky —Louisville plays its second of four consecutive road games as the Cardinals visit intrastate rival Kentucky in Lexington on Saturday. The Wildcats (9-3), ranked 18th in the AP and USA Today polls, beat Belmont 93-80 on Dec. 21 in their last outing as freshman forward Julius Randle totaled 29 points and 10 rebounds.

Randle has nine double-doubles this season and averages a team-high 18.2 points and 11.3 rebounds. Sophomore forward Willie Cauley-Stein is fourth in the nation in blocked shots, swatting 50 shots on the season. Kentucky is fifth nationally in rebound margin (+12.8), sixth in blocked shots (7.4), and 17th in field goal percentage defense (.381). Both teams fell to North Carolina this year; Louisville lost 93-84 on Nov. 24 and Kentucky fell 82-77 on Dec. 14.

Louisville trails the all-time series against Kentucky 15-30, but won last year's matchup in Louisville 80-77 (12/29/12) as Russ Smith led the Cardinals with 21 points and seven rebounds. The campuses are 78 miles apart, connected by Interstate 64.

■ Cards-Cats Ties -- Louisville Coach Rick Pitino coached eight years at Kentucky (1989-97, 219-50 record), including guiding the Wildcats to the 1996 NCAA Championship and a 1997 national runner-up finish. A retired jersey hangs in his honor in Rupp Arena.

□ Kentucky assistant coach Kenny Payne played at Louisville from 1985-89 and totaled 1,083 career points. He was a freshman on the Cardinals' 1986 NCAA Championship team. He averaged 14.5 points, 5.7 rebounds and shot 50.8 percent from the field as a senior. He had 10 points and five rebounds against UK his junior year (12/12/87) and totaled 16 points and five rebounds as a senior (12/31/88).

□ UofL equipment manager Vinny Tatum was a student manager at UK under Pitino for four years (1990-93).

□ UofL program assistant Wayne Turner helped Kentucky win the 1996 and 1998 national titles in his four seasons there (1995-99). UK's career leader in steals (238), Turner worked on UK's staff in 2010-11 while completing his undergraduate degree. He had 11 points, four assists and two steals vs. Louisville as a senior in 1998-99.

□ Louisville began its run to the 2013 NCAA Championship in Kentucky's Rupp Arena last season, beating North Carolina A&T 79-48 in the second round and Colorado State 82-56 in the third round.

■ Taking Care of the Ball -- Louisville is fourth in the nation in fewest turnovers per game (9.2) and is seventh in assists-to-turnovers ratio (1.68) through games of Dec. 22. Louisville has committed 10 or fewer turnovers in 11 of its last 15 games, including the last three games of the Cardinals' 2013 championship season. Louisville has committed just 110 turnovers in its 12 games this season.

■ Cardinal Spurts — Over its first 12 games of the season, Louisville has produced 32 runs of 8-0 or better, including first-half runs of 12-0 and 9-0 in its last game at FIU. The Cardinals have forced their opponents into 31 scoring droughts of three minutes or more, including holding FIU scoreless for over three minutes on three occasions in their last game. UofL had five scoring runs of 8-0 or better against Cornell, including a season-best 20-0 scoring blast early in the game.

■ Road Trip — With their Dec. 21 game at FIU, the Cardinals embarked on a four-game stretch of road games. Louisville's next home game will be Jan. 9 against Memphis, a span of 23 days. It is the longest mid-season stretch between home games since the 1980-81 season, when UofL played a home game on Dec. 22 and returned to Freedom Hall on Jan. 17. It is the first time the Cardinals have played four straight true road games since 2000-01 (Feb. 14, 17, 21 and 24).

■ Card File — Louisville is 24-4 in the month of December over the last four years (since 2010) ... Eight Louisville players are averaging at least eight points over the last five games ... Albeit only through 12 games, the Cards' team scoring average of 86.2 points per game is just over the school record of 86.0 points per game, accomplished by the Cardinals' 1956 NIT Championship team. UofL has scored 90 or more points on five occasions this year, three more than during the entire 2012-13 season ... Louisville has won five games by a 30-point margin this season and nine of its 12 by at least 22 points. Louisville leads the nation in scoring margin (+26.0) ... UofL shot 51.5 percent from the field vs. Missouri State, its sixth game at 50 percent or better this year ... Louisville made a season-high 13 three-point goals against FIU, its seventh game with at least nine this season ... Montrezl Harrell has grabbed eight or more rebounds in eight games this season, including a 17-point, eight rebound effort vs. Missouri State ... The remainder of Louisville's games this season will appear on national television.

■ Thieving Cardinals -- Louisville has picked up where it left off last season with good defensive pressure, leading the nation in turnover margin (+9.4) and ranking 11th nationally in steals (9.8 per game). Louisville is the top team nationally in Ken Pomeroy's ratings, with the Cards fifth nationally in adjusted defense and leads the nation in offense through Dec. 22. Last season, Louisville forced an average of 18.3 turnovers and collected double-digit steals in 28 of its 40 games. UofL, which was second in the nation in turnover margin (+5.9) and third in steals (10.8) a year ago, was rated as the top defense in the nation in Ken Pomeroy's 2012-13 rankings. Louisville is the only team to rank among the nation's top 10 in steals each of the last three seasons (8.8 steals in 2011-12, 7th in the nation; 9.3 steals in 2010-11, 7th in the nation). The Cardinals' 430 steals in 2012-13 was a new school record. Cardinal opponents had more turnovers than field goals in 14 games during the 2012-13 season, and that has occurred four times this season (against College of Charleston, Hartford, Fairfield and Southern Mississippi).

■ Career Milestones — With 18 points against FIU in its last game, Russ Smith moved up to No. 23 in career scoring at Louisville with 1,436 points, 15 behind John Turner (1,451, 1958-61) and 17 behind Allen Murphy (1,453, 1972-75) ... With three steals vs. Louisiana Lafayette, Russ Smith passed the career 200 steals mark. He is currently eighth in career steals at UofL with 203, 45 behind the career record of 254 set by Peyton Siva ... Against Western Kentucky, Luke Hancock passed 400 points in his second season with the Cardinals. Hancock has reached 1,014 career points between both George Mason and Louisville ... Montrezl Harrell needs 24 points for 400 in his career ... Stephan Van Treese passed 300 career rebounds two games ago.

■ Special 'Color' Events Set -- University of Louisville men's basketball fans can participate in two "color" events later this season. A "White Out" is scheduled for the Jan. 9 game against No. 16 Memphis in the KFC Yum! Center, UofL's first American Athletic Conference home game. The annual "Wear Red for the Seniors" game is set for March 8 when the Cardinals face No. 9 Connecticut in the final home game of the season. Cardinal fans are encouraged to wear white and red attire on those respective days.

■ Cards Among National Statistical Leaders

— Louisville ranks among the nation's top 12 in seven statistical categories through games of Dec. 22. Individually Wayne Blackshear is 41st in free throw percentage (.886), Luke Hancock is 52nd in free throw pct. (.878), Chris Jones is 48th in steals (2.0 spg), and Montrezl Harrell is eighth in field goal percentage (.639).

■ Cards Have Seven Ranked Teams —

Louisville and Duke are the only schools in the nation with its football and men's and women's basketball teams all currently ranked among the nation's AP Top 25 (MBB 6, WBB 7, FB 18; Duke MBB 8, WBB 2, FB 24). In addition, the Cardinals' men's soccer team finished 17th in the NSCAA rankings, field hockey 14th in the NFHCA poll, and the UofL men's (8th) and women's (13th) swimming and diving teams are both ranked in the CSCAA poll to give the Cardinals seven currently nationally ranked teams. UofL has won 2013 American Athletic Conference championships in men's cross country, field hockey, men's soccer and volleyball. Louisville's football team (11-1, 16th USA Today/18th AP) faces Miami (9-3, 25th USA Today) in the Russell Athletic Bowl on Dec. 28.

■ Offensive Explosion — Louisville's 113 points scored against Louisiana Lafayette was its most since a 114-82 victory over Western Kentucky on Dec. 22, 2010 and a record for scoring in the KFC Yum! Center. The Cardinals' 61.3 percent field goal accuracy was their best since shooting 64.6 percent in that same 2010 game against Western Kentucky. Louisville's 71.4 percent shooting from the field in the first half against ULL was UofL's highest in any half during Coach Rick Pitino's 13 seasons. Six Cardinals scored in double figures in the game. Louisville made 33-of-40 free throws in the game (.825), the fourth time in the previous five games that the Cardinals have shot 70 percent or better at the line.

■ Hall of Fame Tipoff — Louisville fell 93-84 to North Carolina in the championship game of the eight-team 2013 Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame Tipoff. Each team played two games at campus sites Nov. 11-20, as well as the final two games at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. on Nov. 23-24. Louisville participated in the Naismith Bracket with Fairfield, North Carolina and Richmond while the Springfield Bracket included Belmont, Hartford, Hofstra and Holy Cross. Louisville's Russ Smith and Chris Jones were named to the all-tournament team for the Naismith Bracket, which also included Richmond's Cedrick Lindsay and North Carolina's Marcus Paige (MVP) and Brice Johnson.

■ Card Clips — Two Cardinals are currently out of action. Kevin Ware is resting his right leg after being kicked late in the Missouri State game on Dec. 17. Akoy Agau was suspended indefinitely on Dec. 20 for a minor attitude issue ... After practice on Dec. 23, the team took two days off for the Christmas holidays ... Louisville opponents are averaging 27.0 points in the first half against UofL this season ... Louisville has held a rebounding advantage in nine games, but FIU had a 38-34 edge on the boards in the Cardinals' last game ... All nine of Louisville's steals against FIU came in the second half ... Montrezl Harrell has 27 dunks in 12 games this season, just 16 short of ranking among the top 10 for a single season at UofL. Chane Behanan (2012-13) and Pervis Ellison (1987-88) hold the single-season dunk record with 59 each.

■ Russ Arena -- Louisville's Russ Smith has posted significant numbers playing in Rupp Arena against Kentucky in the 2011-12 season and a pair of games in the 2013 NCAA Tournament. In three games within the arena, he has averaged 26.7 points and 4.3 steals while shooting 52.9 percent from the field (27-51), including 8-of-19 from three-point range (.421). He tied an NCAA Tournament record with eight steals against North Carolina A&T.

■ Happy Holidays — The Cardinals have enjoyed success in recent years with their first game after Christmas. Louisville has won 18 of its last 20 games played after Christmas, including 11 of the last 12 under U of L Coach Rick Pitino. All but two of those have been UofL home games. The Cardinals beat Kentucky on Dec. 29, 2012 in U of L's first game after Christmas last season.

■ Finals Over — The last day of classes for the UofL fall semester was Dec. 9 and final examinations occurred Dec. 11-17. Classes for the spring semester begin on Jan. 6.

■ Cards Among Nation's Best in Pitino Era — Louisville is among 16 programs in the nation that have won at least 70 percent of its games over the last 13 years. Louisville has a .741 winning percentage since U of L Coach Rick Pitino took over the reins of the Cardinal program, ninth best in the nation.

Series vs. Kentucky

■ Louisville trails the all-time series against Kentucky 15-30. UK has won four of the last five. The Wildcats hold a 21-11 advantage since the series resumed in 1983. Current U of L Coach Rick Pitino had a 6-2 record as the Wildcats' head coach in games against Louisville; and has a 5-8 record facing Kentucky.

■ In last year's meeting, Louisville prevailed 80-77 over Kentucky in the KFC Yum! Center as Russ Smith led the Cardinals with 21 points, seven rebounds and three steals (12/29/12). Chane Behanan added 20 points, seven rebounds and three steals for the Cardinals, who led 36-28 at halftime. Archie Goodwin scored a team-high 22 points for the Wildcats.

■ Louisville has a 7-13 record in Rupp Arena, including a 4-12 record in games against the University of Kentucky (5-16 in games played in Lexington). In the last meeting in Lexington two years ago, Louisville's Russ Smith exploded for 30 points off the bench but Kentucky won 69-62 (12/31/11). Gorgui Dieng had six blocked shots in the game, and the Cardinals' defense totaled 12 steals. UK's Michael Kidd-Gilchrist produced a team-best 24 points and 19 rebounds, and Anthony Davis contributed 18 points and 10 rebounds. The Wildcats, who scored 32 points from the free throw line, were held to their lowest field goal percentage of the season (29.8 percent).

■ The two teams had not met in regular season play for 62 years before the current series was renewed in 1983; the rivals have met all 31 seasons since.

■ The two teams have met in NCAA Tournament competition on five occasions, with Louisville winning two. The Wildcats beat UofL 69-61 in the 2012 NCAA National Semifinals in New Orleans, La. UofL won 80-68 in overtime in the 1983 Mid-east Regional championship in Knoxville, Tenn. in a game labeled as the first "Dream Game."

■ UofL has a collective 83-64 all-time record against current members of the SEC and trails only three of the 14 teams in all-time series results. Louisville has won 15 of its last 20 games against SEC competition over the last 12 seasons.

■ The Bluegrass Sports Commission presents an award to the Most Valuable Player of the UofL-UK game, an award won by Russ Smith last season.

■ New Year's Eve, New Conference

-- Louisville will play its first conference game of the season and its first game in the new American Athletic Conference when the Cardinals play at UCF (8-3) on Dec. 31.

The American is the seventh league in which the Cardinals have been a member and its fourth conference in the last 20 years. A special pregame ceremony at UCF will commemorate the initial league game for both schools in The American.

Conference realignment shifted the Cardinals from their eight-year affiliation in the BIG EAST Conference, in which a group of universities began a new league under that same name. The Cardinals' membership in the American will be for a short time, however, as Louisville accepted an invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference on Nov. 28, 2012 and will soon move on to join that 15-member league.

■ 100th Season of Cardinal Basketball — This year marks the 100th season of intercollegiate basketball at the University of Louisville. While the Cardinals played their first official men's basketball game on Jan. 28, 1912 when they lost 35-3 to Louisville YMCA, UofL did not field teams in 1916-17, 1922-23 or 1942-43. UofL has amassed an all-time 1,708-870 record its 100th season. The Cardinals are 12th among all NCAA schools in victories. The Cardinals have produced winning seasons in 65 of the last 68 years, including winning 20 or more games in the last 11 straight seasons.

■ King Luke -- Luke Hancock, the Most Outstanding Player of the 2013 NCAA Final Four, was crowned as Homecoming King at the Cardinals' Oct. 19 homecoming game against UCF. He edged out teammate Russ Smith, who was also one of the five finalists for the honor. It was the third time in the last four years that a member of the men's basketball team was selected as homecoming king, joining Peyton Siva (2011) and Kyle Kuric (2010) who also won the award.

■ Cards Streak Reached 21 — Louisville won 21 consecutive games dating back to last season -- setting a new school record -- before falling to North Carolina on Nov. 24. UofL closed its 2013 NCAA Championship season winning its last 16 games of the season. Seven of the Cards' 10 Final Four teams had winning streaks of at least 13 games during those years. After UofL ended its 1980 and 1986 NCAA title years with winning streaks, they both lost opening games the following years. The loss to North Carolina was UofL's first since Feb. 9.

■ High Production Returns -- While the Cardinals miss departed starters C Gorgui Dieng (9.8 ppg, 9.4 rpg, 83 blocks) and G Peyton Siva (10.0 ppg, 5.7 apg), a large percentage of their total production will return. Louisville returns 75 percent of its scoring from the 2012-13 squad (2230 of 2978 points), 65 percent of its rebounding (952 of 1471), 49 percent of its assists (289 of 584) and 70 percent of the total minutes played (5689 of 8125).

■ Third NCAA Title for Cardinals -- Louisville won its third NCAA Championship in 2013 and its first in 27 years. The Cardinals also won the 1980 and 1986 NCAA titles. It was the fifth national championship in men's basketball for UofL, as the Cardinals won the 1956 NIT Championship and 1948 NAIB title. It was the second NCAA Championship for Coach Rick Pitino, who previously led Kentucky to the 1996 title. Pitino is the first coach to win an NCAA Championship at two schools. UofL is one of 14 schools that has won multiple NCAA Championships and is one of eight universities with at least three titles.

■ Ten Final Fours for Cardinals -- Louisville advanced to its 10th NCAA Final Four, reaching that plateau the last two years. Louisville is seventh in NCAA Final Four appearances. Louisville has reached the Elite Eight in four of the last six years. Only three coaches have coached more Final Four teams than Pitino's seven, a feat matched by one other. Pitino became the first coach to lead three different teams to the Final Four in 2005. Louisville's NCAA Final Four teams: 1959, 1972, 1975, 1980, 1982, 1983, 1986, 2005, 2012, 2013.

■ Cards Won Record Total — Louisville won a school-record 35 games during 2012-13. UofL's 1980 NCAA Championship team (33-3) and 2005 Final Four team (33-5) held the previous mark with two fewer wins. Louisville reached 30 wins on the season for the seventh time in school history and won 30 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in school history (30-10 in 2001-12). Louisville is one of just four schools that has won 30 or more games in at least three of the last five seasons, joining Duke, Kansas and Syracuse. UofL coach Rick Pitino has won 30 or more games on seven occasions, tied for third most all-time.

■ Year of the Cardinal -- Louisville's athletic teams experienced incredible success during the 2012-13 season.

■ Louisville is the first university ever to win a BCS Bowl game, place both its men's and women's basketball teams in the NCAA Final Four and reach the College World Series in the same season. In addition to the Cardinals' NCAA men's basketball title, UofL's women's team was the national runner-up to Connecticut. The Cardinals' football team beat then No. 3/4 Florida 33-23 in the 2013 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 2. UofL's baseball team won a record 51 games while reaching a visit to Omaha.

■ Louisville's combined 126 wins in its four highly visible sports (baseball, men's and women's basketball, and football) was just three wins short of the NCAA record for a single season (126-30, .808 winning percentage).

■ Louisville's combined 75 wins in football and men's and women's basketball was just five victories shy of the NCAA record for a single season (75-21, .781 winning percentage).

■ Louisville was the only school in the nation with its football and men's and women's basketball teams all ranked among the nation's AP Top 20.

■ Louisville had 11 teams ranked among the nation's top 25 in final polls: Men's Basketball (USA Today, 1st); Women's Basketball (USA Today, 3rd); Men's Soccer (TopDrawerSoccer, 7th); Baseball (NCBWA, 9th); Football (AP, 13th); Men's Swimming & Diving (CSCAA Coaches, 14th); Women's Swimming & Diving (CSCAA Coaches, 15th); Volleyball (AVCA, 17th); Softball (USA Today/NFCA, 19th); Rowing (CRCA/USRowing, 20th); Field Hockey (NFCA, 25th).

■ Louisville is the only university in the nation over the last seven years (since 2007) to have participated in multiple BCS bowl games, College World Series, and men's and women's Final Fours.

■ Louisville is one of just four schools in the BCS era (since 1998) to win football, men's basketball and baseball conference titles in the same season (Stanford 1999-00, Texas 2005-06, Louisville 2012-13, Kansas State 2012-13).

■ Louisville athletics teams posted 49 victories over top 25 nationally ranked opponents during the 2012-13 season.

■ Louisville's student-athletes achieved remarkable success in the classroom, posting a record 3.124 cumulative GPA for all 23 sports. Additionally, a school-best 355 student-athletes earned AD Honor Roll status for the 2012 fall semester (3.0 GPA).

■ UofL accepted an invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference on Nov. 28, 2012.

■ Hancock Reaches 1,000 — Luke Hancock has reached the 1,000 career collegiate points plateau from two different schools. He scored 604 in two seasons at George Mason and has 410 at Louisville for a 1,014 career total.

■ Jones Back From Injury — Chris Jones sprained his right wrist in practice on Dec. 12. He missed the Dec. 14 WKU game, but returned to play vs. Missouri State on Dec. 17, scoring nine points in 19 minutes of action. The 2013 junior college player of the year, Jones has averaged 13.5 points (second on team) and 2.7 assists with only 14 turnovers in his 11 games. Jones had five points, six assists and a season-best five steals in his last game at FIU.

■ Pitino a 2013 Hall of Fame Inductee — U of L head coach Rick Pitino was enshrined in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on Sept. 8, 2013 in Springfield, Mass. The Cardinals' coach was part of a 12-member class that included former NBA All-Stars Gary Payton, Bernard King and Richie Guerin; former ABA All-Star Roger Brown; former college coaches Jerry Tarkanian and Guy Lewis; former WNBA All-Star Dawn Staley; North Carolina women's coach Sylvia Hatchell; African-American basketball pioneer E.B. Henderson; NBA deputy commissioner Russ Granik; and former Brazilian great Oscar Schmidt.

■ Academic Performance at All-Time High -- While the University of Louisville men's basketball team has performed well on the court, the Cardinals have excelled in the classroom as well. Louisville received an NCAA Public Recognition Award in 2013 for ranking among the top 10 percent in men's basketball in the Academic Progress Rate, which measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation for student-athletes. The team produced a collective 3.295 grade point average for the 2012-13 academic year, with a record 3.41 combined GPA for the fall semester, the highest ever for the Cardinals. A total of 14 of 16 Cardinals earned a 3.0 or better for the spring semester, with 15 of 17 attaining that mark in the fall semester.

The academic achievement is not new to the Cardinals. UofL's men's basketball team earned the last three BIG EAST Conference Team Academic Excellence Awards, which recognizes the highest collective grade-point averages in each of the conference's 23 sports. The men's basketball team has hovered around a collective 3.0 GPA for 10 straight semesters, including a 3.18 GPA for the most recent spring 2013 semester.

Major individual academic awards were also won as well over the past year. Peyton Siva was a Capital One CoSIDA Academic All-America second team selection and was named the 2013 BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Wayne Blackshear won the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball Elite 89 Award, presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating in the finals site for each of the NCAA championships. Russ Smith was honored with a 2013 Scholar Baller Academic Momentum Award, which is presented to an individual based on the level of academic improvement and the impact of that academic momentum.

HEAD COACH RICK PITINO

In 29 seasons as a collegiate head coach and 13 at Louisville, UofL Coach Rick Pitino has compiled a 675-240 overall record (321-112 at UofL). He is the first coach to take three different schools to the NCAA Final Four -- including his 2005, 2012 and 2013 Cardinal teams -- and first to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools after guiding Louisville to the 2013 NCAA title. Among active coaches, Pitino (Massachusetts '74) has the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games (.750 winning percentage, 48-16 record in 18 NCAA tournament appearances) and his overall .735 winning percentage ranks him 12th among active coaches. He guided Kentucky to three NCAA Final Four appearances in eight seasons (1989-97), winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997. He has also served as head coach at Providence College (1985-87, 1987 Final Four), Boston University (1978-83), Hawaii (last six games in 1975-76) as well as the NBA New York Knicks (1987-89) and Boston Celtics (1997-2001). Pitino has a 5-8 record against Kentucky; he had a 6-2 record vs. Louisville as the UK coach.

■ Tickets Available -- A limited number of tickets for UofL's home men's basketball games in the KFC Yum! Center are on sale. Tickets, $39 each, are on sale at the UofL Ticket Office, located near Gate 2 of Papa John's Cardinal Stadium at 2800 South Floyd Street. The ticket office is open weekdays from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Cardinal fans may also purchase tickets by visiting Ticketmaster online, calling 1-800-745-3000 or by visiting any Ticketmaster Ticket Center.

■ Cards Compete in American — UofL athletic teams are competing in the American Athletic Conference during the 2013-14 season. Conference realignment shifted the Cardinals from their eight-year affiliation in the BIG EAST Conference, in which a group of universities began a new league under that same name. Louisville accepted an invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference on Nov. 28, 2012 and will soon move on to join that 15-member league. The American's 2014 men's basketball post-season tournament will be played in Memphis' FedEx Forum.

■ Cards Lost Two to NBA -- Two Cardinals who were starters on UofL's 2013 NCAA Championship team are rookies in the NBA. Guard Peyton Siva earned his degree and was drafted in the NBA second round and 56th overall by the Detroit Pistons. Center Gorgui Dieng departed after his junior season and was drafted in the NBA first round and 21st overall by the Utah Jazz and was subsequently traded to the Minnesota Timberwolves.

■ Cards Chosen First in American Preseason Poll — U of L was the unanimous choice to win the inaugural 2013-14 American Athletic Conference championship in a preseason poll of league coaches. UofL guard Russ Smith was honored as the preseason Player of the Year while teammate Chane Behanan was selected to the preseason all-conference first team and Montrezl Harrell was a second-team pick. SMU freshman guard Keith Frazier was named The American's preseason Rookie of the Year. The league championship will be staged March 12-15 at Memphis' FedEx Forum.

■ Cards Sixth All-Time in the Polls — Louisville has been ranked in the Associated Press poll on 555 occasions, sixth most all-time. U of L has been ranked among the nation's top 10 in the preseason poll for the last two years (second in 2012-13, ninth in 2011-12). Louisville has been ranked 17th or higher over the last 27 straight polls.

■ Cards Have 11 Straight 20-Win Seasons — Louisville is one of eight Division I schools in the nation which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 11 seasons. Kansas tops the list with 24 consecutive years, followed by Duke (17), Syracuse (16), Gonzaga (16), Florida (15), Pittsburgh (12), Utah State (12) and Louisville (11). UofL Coach Rick Pitino has won at least 20 games in a season on 21 occasions, ranking him sixth among active coaches in 20-win seasons and 16th overall. Pitino won 30 in a single season for the sixth time last year. UofL has won at least 20 games in 40 of the last 44 years.

■ Cards Won Two BIG EAST Championships -- Louisville captured both the BIG EAST tournament championship and shared the league regular season title during the 2012-13 season. Louisville shared the regular season championship with Georgetown and Marquette, each of which posted a 14-4 conference record. It was the second regular season title for the Cardinals in their eight years in the league, also winning in 2009. Louisville won its second straight BIG EAST tournament championship in New York's Madison Square Garden, recovering from a 16-point deficit to beat Syracuse 78-61 in the title game. It was the Cardinals' third tournament title in the last five years, also winning the 2009 and 2012 championship. Louisville was the first repeat BIG EAST tournament champion in seven years, since Syracuse won the tournament title in 2005 and 2006. Louisville reached the championship game of the tournament for the fourth time in the last five years and third straight.

Louisville moved to the American Athletic Conference in 2013. The Cardinals will make another change later to the Atlantic Coast Conference, having accepted an invitation to join the ACC on Nov. 28, 2012.

■ Cards Led in BIG EAST Wins -- Louisville had the most BIG EAST Conference victories over the last eight years during the regular season, since the 2005-06 season when the Cardinals first joined the BIG EAST. Louisville had a 95-45 BIG EAST record, just ahead of Syracuse and Pittsburgh (both at 92-48) in league victories during the regular season. UofL won or finished second in the BIG EAST on four occasions, winning the league regular season title in 2009 and 2013.

UofL had the most victories in the BIG EAST Championship over the last four years, posting a 12-2 record (.857) with three titles (2009, 2012, 2013) over that stretch. The Cardinals have four more tournament wins than the next closest participant.

■ Cards Have Been Tough on the Road — Louisville had the most road victories in BIG EAST Conference games over the last seven years (38; six last year; five in 2011-12, three in 2010-11, four in '09-10, eight in 2008-09, and six in each of the previous two years). Overall, UofL has a 44-24 record over the last six years on their opponent's home court. Louisville has won 34 of its last 55 on the road, including seven vs. Top 25 ranked foes.

■ Success vs. Top 25 Foes -- Louisville has won 19 of its last 29 against Associated Press ranked opponents, falling to No. 24 North Carolina in its last top 25 matchup. Louisville has a 37-24 record against Top 25 teams over the last six years, including a 23-20 record during the regular season (0-1 this year, 6-3 last year). UofL has been victorious six of the last 11 times it has faced an AP top-five opponent. UofL has won 15 of its last 30 games when facing Top 10 teams, spanning the last seven years.

■ Second Highest Preseason Ranking -- Louisville's No. 3 preseason AP ranking is its second-highest ever. The Cardinals were No. 2 in the 2012-13 and 1986-87 seasons. The 1986-87 season marked the highest the Cardinals have been ranked in the preseason coaches' poll, when UofL was tabbed No. 1 in the 1986-87 UPI coaches poll. UofL was No. 2 in both the preseason AP and USA Today polls last season.

The Cardinals have been ranked as the No. 1 team in the nation on four occasions: in both the AP and USA Today polls on Jan. 14, 2013; in the ESPN/USA Today poll on March 15, 2009; in the final Associated Press poll that same 2008-09 season; and in the final USA Today coaches poll of 2012-13.

The links next to player names on the roster are supplied by TheNameEngine.com, an interactive audio service that provides proper audio pronunciations and phonetic spellings.

■ Cards Seeking Rare Feat — Louisville Coach Rick Pitino has talked about the possibility of the Cardinals creating a mini-dynasty should they be able to reach the NCAA Final Four for a third straight year and win a third straight conference tournament championship. In the last 35 years, only one school has accomplished that combined three-peat of consecutive Final Fours and conference tournament titles: UCLA from 2006-08. Louisville reached the 2012 Final Four, won the 2013 NCAA title and won the Big East Conference tournament championship each of the last two seasons.

■ Billy Minardi Classic Champs — Louisville beat Western Kentucky 79-63 on Dec. 14 to win the Billy Minardi Classic, presented by Kentucky One Health, Sun Tan City and Planet Fitness. The event originated in 2002 to honor the memory of Billy Minardi, brother-in-law of U of L Coach Rick Pitino who died in the Sept. 11 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. Chane Behanan earned MVP honors with 11 points, seven rebounds and 5-of-6 shooting from the field off the bench. Louisville has won 11 championships in 12 years in the event, in which the Cardinals have a 15-1 record.

■ Tough Schedule — Louisville's 2012-13 schedule was ranked as the fourth toughest in the nation by the ratings percentage index (RPI). The Cardinals schedule this year may not reach that status, but 20 of Louisville's 31 games will be played against teams that won at least 18 games last season. Nearly half of the Cards' games will be played against teams that participated in postseason competition in 2013, including eight NCAA tournament participants. Four opponents are among the nation's current Associated Press Top 25.

■ Smith a Senior CLASS Award Candidate — UofL guard Russ Smith has been selected as one of 30 candidates for the 2013-14 Senior CLASS Award in collegiate basketball. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. The candidates will be narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, and those names will be placed on the official ballot. Ballots will be distributed through a nationwide voting system to media, coaches and fans, who will select one men's finalist and one women's finalist who best exemplifies excellence in the four Cs of community, classroom, character and competition. The Senior CLASS Award winner will be announced during the 2014 NCAA Final Four.

■ Non-Conference Success -- UofL has a 162-38 record (.810) against non-conference opponents in Coach Rick Pitino's 13 seasons (includes post-season), including a 115-10 record at home (14-6 away). UofL has a 42-4 mark at home in non-conference games over the last four seasons.

■ Fourth Season in KFC Yum! Center -- Louisville is in its fourth season in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The Cardinals had previously played basketball for 54 years in Freedom Hall (1956-2010). The 22,000-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million, includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

U of L's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot U of L adidas store, the 3,000-square foot U of L Hall of Honor, or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in March 2012, will be the site for a similar event in March 2015 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship on December 13 and 15.

■ UCF Awaits Next — Louisville will play its first conference game of the season and embark on its first game in the new American Athletic Conference when the Cardinals play at UCF in Orlando, Fla. on Dec. 31 (5 p.m. ET, ESPN2). It will be the first conference game played in the new league, with two others following that evening.

The Knights (8-3) are off for nine days following two games in the Jackson Hewitt UCF Holiday Classic. UCF has won its last five games -- all at home -- including a 90-62 victory over Valparaiso on Dec. 22 as Tristan Spurlock led UCF with 22 points. Four Knights are averaging double digits in scoring, led by senior guards Calvin Newell (14.8 ppg) and Isaiah Sykes (13.9 ppg). UCF is 7-1 in home games this season.

The Cardinals' football team is also spending time in Orlando, as UofL (11-1, 16th USA Today/18th AP) faces Miami (9-3, 25th USA Today) in the Russell Athletic Bowl on Dec. 28.

Louisville won its only previous meeting against UCF 78-58 in Louisville's Freedom Hall (12/15/99) as Tony Williams led the Cards with 16 points, 10 rebounds and three blocked shots. Williams participated in the UofL 2013 Fall Commencement ceremony after recently returning to complete his collegiate degree after 11 years of professional basketball in Turkey, Italy, France and Lebanon.

■ Russdicolous Covers — Louisville guard Russ Smith has been featured on the covers of multiple early season covers this year, including sharing the cover of one of four regional Sports Illustrated covers for the Nov. 18 college basketball preseason issue.

Cardinals in the NCAA Tournament

■ Louisville made its 39th NCAA Tournament appearance in 2013. The Cardinals have reached the NCAA Tournament 30 of the last 37 years (seven straight, 10 of the last 11, 12 of the last 15 years, 18 of last 22). The Cards have reached the Sweet 16 on 19 occasions and have advanced to the Elite Eight four of the last six seasons.

Louisville is sixth in tournament victories (70) and is fifth in NCAA Tournament appearances (39). UofL has a 70-40 overall NCAA Tournament record, reaching the Final Four 10 times.

■ Only four teams -- Kentucky (52), North Carolina (44), UCLA (43), and Kansas (42) -- have more NCAA Tournament appearances than Louisville's 39.

■ U of L Coach Rick Pitino has a 48-16 record in NCAA Tournament play (.750), ranking him second among active coaches in winning percentage and 10th all time. Only three coaches have coached more Final Four teams than Pitino's seven, a feat matched by one other. Pitino is the first coach to lead three different teams to the Final Four; is one of eight coaches to lead four different schools to the NCAA Tournament; and one of 10 active collegiate coaches who have won an NCAA Championship.

■ Only four teams have been to more Sweet 16 appearances than Louisville's 19 since the NCAA began Sweet 16 records in 1975 (North Carolina 25, Kentucky 24, Duke 23 and Kansas 20).

■ U of L Coach Rick Pitino has guided 18 teams to NCAA tournament appearances, including 10 of his last 11 years at Louisville (seven straight). His last six straight Kentucky teams reached the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats won the 1996 NCAA title and were national runner-up in 1997 under his guidance.

■ Louisville advanced to its 19th NCAA Sweet 16 in 2012-13. Only four teams have been to more Sweet 16 appearances than Louisville's 19.

■ All-America Russ -- Louisville senior guard Russ Smith was named to the Associated Press preseason, five-man All-America team. He is only the second Cardinal ever selected to the team joining Pervis Ellison, who was chosen on the first preseason team prior to the 1986-87 season. He is one of 16 on the US Basketball Writer's Association preseason Oscar Robertson Trophy Watch List, Naismith Trophy Watch List for national player of the year.

Smith is on the All-America first team by 2013-14 Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook and graces the cover of the publication. The preseason American Athletic Conference Player of the Year, Smith is also a preseason first-team All-America selection by CBSSports.com.

The 2013 NCAA Midwest Regional Most Outstanding Player, Smith was named to three national All-America teams last season. He was named to the third team of All-America teams selected by the Associated Press, NABC, and The Sporting News. Smith was honored as the 2012-13 National Player of the Year by Ken Pomeroy.

■ Cardinals Have 101 Wins in Last Four Years --

UofL has won a combined 101 victories over the last four seasons, fourth-most in the nation over that period behind Kansas (106), Ohio State (106) and Syracuse (102) (including this season, through games of Dec. 26). The Cards won a school-record 35 games last season while winning the NCAA title.

■ Cardinals' Basketball Signing Class Among Nation's Best -- Five impressive high school products, including one from abroad, have each signed a national letter-of-intent to continue their basketball playing careers at the University of Louisville, ranking this Cardinal group among the nation's top recruiting classes.

The list of highly-touted signees consists of Shaquuan Aaron, a 6-7, 175-pound guard from Rainier Beach High School in Seattle, Wash.; Jaylen Johnson, a 6-9, 215-pound forward from Ypsilanti (Mich.) High School; Chinanu Onuaku, a 6-10, 230-pound forward/center from Lanham, Md. and Riverdale Baptist High School; Quentin Snider, a 6-1, 170-pound guard from Ballard High School in Louisville; and Matz Stockman, a 7-2, 238-pound forward/center from Oslo, Norway.

Shaquuan Aaron averaged 17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds and 4.3 assists as a junior last season in helping Rainier Beach to a 25-4 record and the Washington Class 3A state championship. He had nine points and three rebounds in the 62-59 overtime victory in the title game over Lakeside.

A first-team AP Class 3A all-state selection as a junior, Aaron is ranked No. 14 nationally by 247Sports.com, 27th by Rivals.com, 34th by Scout.com and is No. 33 in the ESPN 100. His season scoring high as a junior was 38 points. He is the third Seattle product to play for the Cardinals in recent years, joining Peyton Siva (2009-13), UofL's starting point guard on the 2013 NCAA Championship team; and Terrence Williams (2005-09), who led UofL to two NCAA Elite Eight appearances and also played at Rainier Beach.

Jaylen Johnson averaged 13.8 points and 8.5 rebounds as a junior last season in helping Ypsilanti to a 20-5 record and the school's first regional championship since 1981. He averaged 19.7 points and 15.3 rebounds in three district games before Ypsilanti reached the state quarterfinals, where Johnson totaled 15 points and 12 boards.

A first-team all-county selection as a junior, Johnson is ranked No. 55 nationally by 247Sports.com, 56th by Rivals.com, 62nd by Scout.com and is No. 57 in the ESPN 100. His mother Janetta Johnson played for Wisconsin and professionally in Portugal. Her 130 blocked shots in 1988-89 is the Badgers' single-season record and she averaged a team-high 12.6 points and 8.5 rebounds that season.

Chinanu Onuaku (name pronounced Chih-NAH-noo On-ooH-AH-koo) averaged 8.2 points, 10.6 rebounds and 3.4 blocked shots as a junior last season in helping Riverdale Baptist achieve a 26-10 record and the Capital Beltway League title.

Onuaku is ranked No. 64 nationally by 247Sports.com, 65th by Rivals.com, 69th by Scout.com and is No. 74 in the ESPN 100. He led his DC Assault AAU team to the Under Armour Summer Jam title as the event's second-leading rebounder. Also on the AAU circuit, he played on the Adidas Nations championship team and was named to the Reebok Breakout Classic All-Star game. His brother Arinze Onuaku played for Syracuse from 2005-10 and opened this season on the New Orleans Pelicans roster.

Quentin Snider averaged 19.3 points, 4.5 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 2.0 steals as a junior last season in helping Ballard High School to a 32-5 record and the Kentucky state championship game, where the Bruins fell 65-64 to Madison Central.

A first-team all-state selection and the seventh region player of the year as a junior, Snider is ranked No. 31 nationally by Rivals.com, 32nd by Scout.com, 35th in the ESPN 100 and 51st by 247Sports.com. He connected on 40.2 percent of his three-point goals and 78.2 percent of his free throw attempts last season.

DeJuan Wheat (1993-97), the Cardinals' No. 2 all-time scorer, and Jerry Eaves (1978-82), the starting point guard on UofL's 1980 NCAA Championship team, were also graduates of Ballard High School.

Matz Stockman (pronounced Motts) is currently enrolled at the Canarias Basketball Academy in Gran Canaria in Spain's Canary Islands. He averaged 7.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.5 blocked shots over nine games while playing for Norway in the 2013 U18 European Championships. He scored 18 points against Holland in 21 minutes for his top scoring effort in that event and blocked eight shots against Romania.

Stockman, who has a 7-6 wingspan, will be the first seven-footer to play for the Cardinals since Felton Spencer, a 7-0 center from Louisville who scored 1,168 points at UofL from 1986-90. David Schrag, a 7-1 center from Winterthur, Switzerland, who prepped at Maine Central Institute, initially signed to play with the Cardinals in 1997 but went to Vincennes instead.

■ Cards Men, Women in Top Ten -- Louisville is one of two schools in the nation with both its men's and women's teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams, joining Duke with that distinction. Louisville was the only school in the nation last season with its football and men's and women's basketball teams all ranked among the nation's AP Top 20: Men's Basketball (USA Today, 1st); Women's Basketball (USA Today, 3rd); Football (AP, 13th).

■ Scoring Clamp -- Southern Miss' 13 points in the first half on Nov. 29 are tied for the fourth fewest points allowed in a half by Louisville since 1972-73. It equals the second half total by Samford on Nov. 15, 2012 (42-13). Southern Miss' 38 total points marked the seventh time in the last four years UofL has held an opponent under 40 points.

■ Smith, Harrell on Wooden Award

List -- Louisville's Russ Smith and Montrezl Harrell are among the John R. Wooden Award Preseason Top 50. Louisville is one of 10 schools with at least two candidates for the sport's prestigious honor. The players on the list are considered strong candidates for the midseason list and the official voting ballot, which will consist of approximately 20 top players who have proven they are also making progress toward graduation and maintaining at least a cumulative 2.0 GPA. The Wooden Award All American Team, consisting of the nation's top 10 players, will be announced the week of the NCAA Tournament regional final. Michigan's Trey Burke won the 2013 Wooden Award presented by Wendy's.

■ Smith, Harrell on Naismith Trophy

Watch List -- Louisville's Russ Smith and Montrezl Harrell are also on the Naismith Trophy Early Season Watch List, announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. UofL is one of 13 schools with at least two candidates in contention for the prestigious national player of the year award.

■ 26 Former Pitino Assistants/Players Became Head Coaches -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino has had 26 of his former assistants or players rise to a collegiate head coaching position. Kareem Richardson, an assistant on the 2012-13 staff, became the latest to join that list when he was named the head coach at Missouri-Kansas City on March 19. Pitino's son, Richard Pitino, added his name to that list in April of 2012 when he was named head coach at FIU and now is at Minnesota. There are eight additional former assistants as current head coaches to bring the total to 11 active, including Mick Cronin at Cincinnati; Scott Davenport at Bellarmine; Billy Donovan at Florida; Steve Masiello at Manhattan; Marvin Menzies at New Mexico State; Herb Sendek at Arizona St.; Reggie Theus at Cal State Northridge; Kevin Willard at Seton Hall; and Tubby Smith at Texas Tech. Four active coaches reached the NCAA Tournament in 2013 (Cronin, Donovan, Menzies and Smith). Pitino's 10 Division I former assistants as current head coaches is the most in the nation (Sendek second with eight).

Pitino has a collective 34-9 record in games against his former assistants (3-0 vs. Ralph Willard; 7-5 Tubby Smith; 7-0 Billy Donovan, 6-4 Mick Cronin, 1-0 Scott Davenport, 1-0 Marvin Menzies, 6-0 Kevin Willard, 1-0 Steve Masiello, 1-0 Richard Pitino, 1-0 Kareem Richardson). Davenport's team won the 2011 NCAA Division II Championship. Indiana Pacers head coach Frank Vogel was a student manager for Pitino at Kentucky and his video coordinator with the Celtics. Pitino coached current Golden State Warriors coach Mark Jackson at the New York Knicks. Six former Pitino players also became collegiate head coaches, four of which are currently active, including Travis Ford of Oklahoma St.; Sean Woods of Morehead St.; Donovan and Masiello. Including games against both his 25 former assistants and former players who went on to become collegiate head coaches, Pitino is 39-10 (record vs. former players as head coaches: 3-1 vs. Travis Ford, 2-0 vs. John Pelphrey and Donovan).

■ Statistical Trends — U of L is 135-9 over the last 13 seasons under Coach Rick Pitino when scoring 80 or more points (7-1 this season, 11-1 in 2012-13) ... Over the past 13 years under Pitino, Louisville is 109-6 when shooting 50 percent or better from the field (6-0 this year, 10-0 in 2012-13) ... U of L is 255-41 when holding its opponent below 70 points over the past 13 years under Pitino (10-0 this year, 32-1 in 2012-13).

■ Don't Count the Cards Out — Louisville has rallied from nine or more points down to win on 19 occasions over the last four seasons, including seven times last season. Two occurred in both games of the Final Four as Louisville trailed by 12 points to both Wichita State and Michigan before storming back to win both games. The Cardinals fell behind by 16 (45-29) with 15:51 to play in the second half against Syracuse in the the BIG EAST Championship game. A 27-3 run put Louisville up to stay and the Cardinals completed the remarkable recovery by outscoring Syracuse 56-26 in the second half. Also in 2012-13, the Cards trailed by 16 at Memphis before recovering, were down 13 in the first half against Illinois State on Dec. 1 before coming back, and Providence and Connecticut both led by 10 in the first half.

The Cardinals pulled off a dramatic comeback victory against Florida in the 2012 NCAA West Region Championship after trailing by 11 with 8:04 remaining (65-54), using an 18-3 closing run to cap the Louisville victory and sending the Cardinals to their ninth Final Four. Also in 2011-12, UofL was down 17 at DePaul with 5:17 left in the first half (34-17) before rallying for the win. One of the most improbable recoveries occurred two years ago when the Cardinals beat Marquette 71-70 on Jan. 15, 2011 after U of L had trailed by 18 with 5:44 to play.

■ Toy Collection

Successful — Cardinal fans contributed 2,606 new toys at the Cardinals's Dec. 17 home game. The collection was associated with UofL Athletics' CardsCARE program and Kyle's Korner for Kids, the community outreach established in 2011 by former Cards' forward Kyle Kuric two years ago. The toys will be delivered to kids at Kosair Children's Hospital on Christmas day by Luke Hancock and others.

■ Horsing Around — UofL Coach Rick Pitino has participated as a thoroughbred race horse owner since 1988 and over the last two years has named five of his horses in honor of Cardinal players. His most recent additions have been colts named "Megatrez" after Montrezl Harrell and "Three Point Luke" after Luke Hancock. Last year, he named three horses after Cardinals: "Rusddiculous" after Russ Smith (Rusddiculous was purchased by another owner after a claiming race last year); "Siva" after former UofL guard Peyton Siva; and "Gorgui" after former Cardinal center Gorgui Dieng. Four horses — Halory Hunter, The Groom is Red, AP Valentine and Goldencents — of which Pitino was a partial owner have won Grade I races. To put that success in perspective, just 0.6 percent of North American thoroughbreds ever win a stakes race. Goldencents ran in the Kentucky Derby last year.

■ Cards Will Open in Puerto Rico
Next Season — UofL will open its 2014-15 season against Minnesota in the 2014 Armed Forces Classic, an ESPN-televized event which will be played on the U.S. Coast Guard base in Puerto Rico on Dec. 14. The game will be a father-son matchup of UofL Coach Rick Pitino and his son Richard Pitino, the first-year head coach of the Gophers. The United States Air Station Borinquen in Puerto Rico will be the site of the event, which serves as part of ESPN's America's Heroes: A Salute to Our Veterans initiative honoring the men and women who are serving and who have served in the United States military, both at home and abroad.

■ Smith Pours in 36 — All-American guard Russ Smith scored a career-high 36 points against North Carolina on Nov. 24. It is tied for the eighth most points ever scored by a Louisville player and was the most since Samardo Samuels scored 36 against Notre Dame on Feb. 17, 2010. His 22 first-half points were three short of a school record. Smith has moved up to 23rd on the all-time UofL scoring list with his current total of 1,436 career points; he needs 15 to move up to No. 22 and 17 to reach No. 21 on the Louisville career scoring list. It was the fifth time Smith has scored 30 or more in a game in his career and the second time this season, totaling 30 vs. Hofstra in the Cardinals' second game. He has scored 20 or more points in 22 games over the last two seasons. Smith has scored 20 or more in 10 of his last 21 games dating back to last season. In addition to his scoring, Smith is the Cardinals' leader in assists (5.2 app).

20 Wayne Blackshear

G/F 6-5 230 Jr. - 2L Chicago, Ill. (Morgan Park HS)

■ Has scored in double digits in the four straight games for the first time in his career, connecting on 10-of-21 three-pointers in those last four games.

■ Tallied 13 points against FIU, his fourth-consecutive game with double-digit points. He knocked down three treys in the win. It's the first time in his career he has scored in double digits in four-straight games.

■ Leads the AAC in free throw percentage (.886; 41st nationally) and ranks fifth in 3-point percentage (.453) and 3-pointers made per game (2.0).

■ Has hit at least one 3-pointer in 11 of 12 games this season, including 10 in the last four games.

■ Registered 12 points and two steals against Western Kentucky. He hit two 3-pointers en route to his second-straight double-digit point performance. The last time he had consecutive games with double-digit points - then a career best - was last year (18 vs. FIU, 12/19/12; 17 vs. Western Kentucky, 12/22/12).

■ Had one of his most complete games, totaling 15 points, five rebounds, and four steals against Louisiana-Lafayette. He made a career-best nine free throws on 10 attempts and hit two 3-pointers.

■ Has scored 11 points against three opponents: Missouri State, Fairfield, and College of Charleston. He also had two blocks and two steals against College of Charleston.

■ Scored a collegiate-best 20 against Cornell on 6-of-7 shooting, including four 3-pointers.

■ Last season, he scored a season-high 19 points at Rutgers in just 14 minutes off the bench, making 7-of-11 field goals (3-of-5 threes).

■ Earned the prestigious 2013 NCAA Elite 89 Award, presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's championships. Blackshear has a cumulative 3.55 GPA.

■ Suffered a torn labrum in his right shoulder on Oct. 28, 2011, and had surgery on Nov. 1, 2011. He was medically cleared to play on Feb. 8, 2012.

■ Averaged 32.6 points, 14.6 rebounds, 5.6 assists and 3.7 steals as a senior to lead Morgan Park to a 20-7 record and the 3-A sectional finals.

■ Suffered a dislocated left shoulder in a collision in practice prior to competing in the McDonald's All-American game. He had surgery soon thereafter to repair his injury.

■ Born Feb. 11, 1992 ... Major is communication.

44 Stephan Van Treese

F 6-9 245 Sr. - 3L Indianapolis, Ind. (Lawrence North HS)

- Has grabbed at least five rebounds in six games this season, including three of the last five.
- Recorded a season-high eight rebounds, while totaling four points against Missouri State. His dunk on an alley-oop in the first half made SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that night.
- Registered two blocks against FIU, his third multi-block game this season.
- Scored five points against Western Kentucky to surpass 200 for his career. He also had four rebounds and one block.
- Tied a career best with three steals against Hartford.
- Totaled 10 points and six rebounds in the win over Cornell. It was the first time he reached double-digit points since Jan. 22, 2011, against Providence.
- Had six points and seven rebounds, and tied career highs with two blocks and three steals in the second half against College of Charleston.
- Averaged 3.7 rebounds in nine postseason games last year, including leading the Cardinals with eight rebounds against Villanova in the BIG EAST quarterfinals and grabbing seven boards against North Carolina A&T in the NCAA Second Round.
- His 11.2 rebounds per 40 minutes average last season was second on the team to Gorgui Dieng (12.1).
- Played a career-high 34 minutes off the bench against Illinois State last season, producing six points, eight rebounds, two steals and two blocked shots.
- His 70.5 percent field goal accuracy (31-of-44) in league games as a sophomore was among the BIG EAST leaders before he dropped below the per-game minimum.
- Produced career highs of 14 rebounds and 12 points against USF in his second career start (1/9/11), marking his first career double-double.
- Born Sept. 26, 1990 ... Major is sport administration.
