KENTUCKY

FOOTBALL

Kentucky is in the process of completing a rejuvenation of Commonwealth Stadium that will feature:

- a redesigned exterior of Kentucky limestone
- wider concourses
- new concession stands and restrooms
- new premium spaces, featuring new loge boxes, two new club areas and more than 20 new suites
- new press box
- new recruiting room
- new playing surface

In addition, UK is constructing a new comprehensive football complex next to the stadium on the south side of the Nutter Field House.

2015 OUTLOOK

Much progress has been made by the Kentucky football team over the last year, but as Coach Mark Stoops would be the first to say, there is much more progress to be made as the Wildcats head into the 2015 season.

"Our team really did improve (last season)," said Stoops, who saw his team advance to five victories in 2014 after a two-win season the year before. "I feel good about our team, the way they compete, the way they're trying to do things right.

"I think we're getting closer and closer to where we want to be. I know we're making strides, and we're going to continue to put our head down and go to work and get better. I'm very optimistic about the future."

Stoops welcomes back 14 primary returning starters from last season, seven each on offense and defense. And, as a byproduct of the team's youth over recent seasons, 34 returnees have started at least one game during their careers.

The optimism was bolstered with what Stoops saw during spring practice.

"It's definitely the most consistent we've been for 15 practices," the coach said. "We had great energy and I was really pleased with the progress we've made. I feel like we have more depth. We have some good, young talent. Overall, it was a very productive, very good spring."

The Wildcats get the opportunity to resume practice on August 7. Four weeks later, the team will debut in the new Commonwealth Stadium against a formidable opponent -- UL Lafayette, winner of four consecutive bowl games.

OFFENSE

After Neal Brown departed to become head coach at Troy last December, Kentucky welcomed a new offensive coordinator in the spring as Shannon Dawson moved to UK from West Virginia.

Fortunately, the learning curve was much shorter than one might expect. Dawson is from the same coaching heritage as Brown and his offensive system at WVU is similar to the one Brown employed at UK.

"I was impressed with the balance of West Virginia's offense and how difficult they are to defend," Stoops said about hiring Dawson. "I love the continuity he brought to what we've been doing as we build on the progress we've made so far."

Dawson inherited a returning starter at quarterback in junior Patrick Towles, who accounted for more than 3,000 yards total offense last season. Showing the ability to connect on both long and short passes, he completed 57.3 of his passes for 2,718 yards and 14 touchdowns. Towles also showed notable running ability. Even with sack yardage factored in, he rushed for 303 net yards and six TDs.

However, it's not a cinch that Towles will retain the starting quarterback post. Redshirt freshman Drew Barker played well in the spring and the coaches indicated that they are comfortable with either one being the starter.

A third contender, sophomore Reese Phillips, missed the spring because of injury but should return in the fall.

Despite the departure of starting wide receivers Javess Blue and Demarco Robinson, there are nine returning lettermen -- six of whom caught at least 14 passes in one of the last two seasons.

Despite battling injuries last year, junior Ryan Timmons led the Wildcats in receiving with 45 catches for 536 yards and two TDs. A quartet of freshmen flashed exciting potential -- Garrett Johnson (22 catches for 271 yards and two TDs), Dorian Baker (19 for 199, one TD), Blake Bone (14 for 194, two TDs) and T.V. Williams (4 for 64). Senior Joey Herrick (8 for 116) has emerged as a contributor as well.

A huge bonus is the return of two sophomores who missed last season because of injury. In 2013, speedy Jeff Badet caught 22 for 285 yards and one TD while sure-handed Alexander Montgomery snagged 16 for 137 yards and two scores.

UK must rebuild the tight end position after the departure of both players who manned the spot a year ago. Redshirt freshman Darryl Long and mid-year freshman enrollee C.J. Conrad showed intriguing potential.

There is good talent and depth at the running back position.

Stanley "Boom" Williams emerged as the team's leading rusher as a true freshman with 486 yards and five touchdowns. He lived up to his nickname with three touchdowns over 50 yards and he averaged an outstanding 6.6 yards per carry.

Junior Jojo Kemp continued his penchant for running hard, rushing for 323 yards and four TDs last season. Sophomore Mikel Horton brings a big back to the group, rushing for 306 yards and two TDs as a true freshman.

At fullback, juniors Will Tom Collins and Tanner Fink are competing.

QUARTERBACK PATRICK TOWLES

had more than 3,000 yards total offense and accounted for 20 touchdowns last season.

An interesting facet of the spring was working 6-2, 333-pound defensive tackle Jacob Hyde at the position, an experiment which will continue in August.

One of the goals since Stoops' arrival has been to build depth in the offensive line and that effort is beginning to bear fruit. Four starters return up front and additional good news is that three lettermen and three freshman redshirts bring quality competition to the group.

Senior Jordan Swindle, a two-year starter at right tackle, moved to left tackle in the spring. Swindle has some game experience as the blindside protector on the left side.

Sophomore Kyle Meadows was the team's third tackle a year ago and is a strong contender for the open tackle slot. Mid-year freshman enrollee George Asafo-Adjei made a big impact in the spring and appears to be game ready.

Both starting guards return, senior Zach West on the left side and sophomore Ramsey Meyers on the right side. West is a three-year starter and Meyers received SEC All-Freshman recognition last season.

West and Meyers have capable competition. Sophs Cole Mosier and Nick Haynes each saw game action last year.

Junior Jon Toth is a two-year starter at center and the coaches commented on the improvement he made a year ago. Junior Zach Myers has some game experience at center and coaches noted the progress he displayed in the spring. Redshirt freshman Jervontius "Bunchy" Stallings brings additional competition and can play center or guard.

DEFENSE

Heading into the 2015 season, defensive coordinator D.J. Eliot is challenged by the departure of three starters in the defensive line -- including All-America end/linebacker Bud Dupree -- along with a starting safety.

However, 11 of the top 15 tacklers return from a year ago and there are 17 players on hand who have started at least one game as Wildcats.

Although Dupree, end Za'Darius Smith and tackle Mike Douglas are no longer available, there is some talent and experience returning up front.

Senior defensive tackle Melvin Lewis is the lone returning starter. He contributed 37 tackles, including 2.5 for loss last season, his first at UK after coming in as a junior college transfer. Another juco transfer, Cory Johnson, showed excellent ability to get into the backfield with four tackles for loss, 2.5 quarterback sacks and three QB hurries. Regie Meant turned in 18 tackles as a freshman last season, including two sacks.

Sophomore Matt Elam made 10 tackles last season and broke up a pair of passes. Sophomore Jacob Hyde and redshirt freshman Tymere Dubose are also in the mix.

There is some experience returning at end with seniors Farrington Huguenin (18 tackles last season) and Jabari Johnson (20 tackles, four TFL). Similar to Dupree, versatile Jason Hatcher has the athleticism to play end or linebacker and he contributed 28 tackles last season, including 5.5 TFL. Talented redshirt freshman Denzil Ware also has the hybrid end/linebacker ability.

There is abundant experience available at linebacker and the secondary. At middle linebacker, Josh Forrest made 110 tackles last season, including eight for loss, along with a pair of pass interceptions as he earned third-team All-SEC honors.

Seniors Khalid Henderson and Ryan Flannigan shared the weakside linebacker duties last season, combining for 110 tackles -- Flannigan with 57 and Henderson with 53.

Senior Daron Blaylock and redshirt freshmen Kobie Walker, Dorian Hendrix and Nico Firios give the team additional options, along with sophomore Courtney Love, who enrolled in January after transferring from Nebraska.

The secondary is well-stocked with veterans and promising newcomers. Former junior college transfer A.J. Stamps proved to be an exciting addition in his first season, coming up with four interceptions and five pass breakups. Juniors Marcus McWilson and Zach Blaylock and redshirt freshmen Darius West and Mike Edwards will compete for the open safety job and provide depth. McWilson had three interceptions last season.

The cornerbacks return intact. Seniors Fred Tiller (two interceptions, nine pass breakups last season) and Cody Quinn (six PBU) are the returning starters and junior J.D. Harmon (three PBU) is well-seasoned. Sophomore Kendall Randolph showed good potential as a freshman, breaking up three passes. Senior Glenn Faulkner, junior Jaleel Hytchye and redshirt freshman Jared Tucker will get a look as well.

Another key contributor in the secondary is junior Blake McClain, who can play safety or the corner. He's often called on as the team's nickelback when an extra defensive back is needed. He made seven pass breakups last season and also has been productive as a blitzer. Kendall Randolph also can handle the nickelback capably when he's not playing cornerback.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Much like offense and defense, there is a lot of experience available on special teams as there are returning starters at all specialist positions except punt returner and holder.

Steady senior Landon Foster has averaged over 42 yards per punt during his three years as the starting punter. He did an outstanding job last season of placing punts inside the opponent 20-yard line. Long snapper Kelly Mason has done a good job in his role.

One of the pleasant developments of last season was the performance of kicker Austin MacGinnis. MacGinnis made 21 of 27 field goals, including a school-record 54-yarder, and all 41 extra points en route to Freshman All-America and first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors.

Stanley "Boom" Williams averaged 26.9 yards per kickoff return last season and was named Freshman All-America as a kick returner. A new punt returner must be identified in 2015.

LANDON FOSTER has been a dependable punter during his career, averaging more than 42 yards per punt while continuing to improve his punt placement.

CAT SCRATCHES

OFFENSIVE GUARD RAMSEY MEYERS (69) was one of three Wildcats who earned All-America or Freshman All-SEC honors last season.

14 STARTERS RETURN

A total of 14 offensive and defensive starters from 2014 return for the Wildcats, seven on each side of the ball.

On offense, UK has four starters back in the line, along with quarterback Patrick Towles and wide receivers Ryan Timmons and Joey Herrick.

The seven returning regulars on defense are tackle Melvin Lewis, end/linebacker Jason Hatcher, linebackers Josh Forrest and Khalid Henderson, cornerbacks Fred Tiller and Cody Quinn, and safety A.J. Stamps.

A lot of young players have seen the field for UK in recent seasons. UK has 45 returning lettermen but it is interesting to note that 34 of those players have started at least one game on offense or defense during their careers.

A nice bonus is the return of several special teams starters – kicker Austin MacGinnis, punter Landon Foster, snapper Kelly Mason, and kickoff returner Stanley “Boom” Williams.

NEW OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR FOR THE WILDCATS

Kentucky brought in a new offensive coordinator during the offseason as Shannon Dawson takes over for Neal Brown, who is now the head coach at Troy.

The players’ adaptation in the spring was not as drastic as one might think. Dawson and Brown have similar systems, each coming from the coaching tree whose roots are in the Hal Mumme offensive philosophy.

Dawson spent the previous four years at West Virginia, the last three as offensive coordinator, and the Mountaineers threw for more than 3,000 yards each season. In 2014, WVU ranked in the nation’s top 12 in total offense and passing offense, averaging almost 500 yards and 33.5 points per game. In addition to the success throwing the ball, WVU also had a physical running attack, averaging more than 180 yards per game.

Dawson also was offensive coordinator at Stephen F. Austin (2008-10) and Millsaps College (2006-07). He built dynamic offenses while helping engineer dramatic turnarounds at each school, as those teams won four conference championships during that five-year period.

UK SETS SCHOOL RECORD FOR DEFENSIVE TDS

The Kentucky defense scored six touchdowns last season, setting a school record for most defensive TDs in a season.

Linebacker Khalid Henderson got the season off to a good start with an 89-yard fumble return for a score in the opener. In the season finale, tackle Mike Douglas returned a fumble for a TD at Louisville.

UK got four interception returns for a touchdown, one each by linebacker Josh Forrest, safety Marcus McWilson, defensive end Bud Dupree and cornerback Fred Tiller.

Dupree’s pick-six was the biggest play of the season, the winning score of UK’s dramatic 45-38 win over South Carolina, capping the largest fourth-quarter comeback in school history.

UK’s six defensive touchdowns led the SEC and ranked second nationally in that category.

THREE CONTENDERS AT QUARTERBACK

“Who’s the quarterback?” is usually the most popular question among fan bases and there are three contenders for the position.

Junior Patrick Towles has a leg up on the position, starting all 12 games last season while accounting for more than 3,000 yards total offense. He threw for 2,718 yards and 14 touchdowns while rushing for 303 net yards and six TDs.

Although Towles’ success and experience are obvious assets, the answer to the QB question is far from settled. Redshirt freshman Drew Barker appears ready to play after a year of practice action. One of the nation’s top QBs coming out of high school, Barker has demonstrated a strong arm and the ability to throw the long ball. Sophomore Reese Phillips has played very well in practice, showing an accurate arm and calm demeanor, but missed the spring because of injury.

WILDCATS DIAL LONG DISTANCE

Kentucky turned in long-distance plays last season on offense, defense and special teams.

Offensively, quarterback Patrick Towles connected on an 83-yard pass to Javess Blue, tying for the seventh-longest pass play in school history. Freshman Stanley "Boom" Williams had three touchdown runs of at least 50 yards, one of only 10 players in the nation who achieved that distinction last season.

Defensively, linebacker Khalid Henderson alertly gathered a fumble in the season opener against UT Martin and returned it 89 yards for a touchdown.

On special teams, freshman kicker Austin MacGinnis tied the existing school record with a 53-yard field goal against Ohio. He followed with a 51-yard field goal at Florida, sending that game to overtime. Finally, he eclipsed the school record with a 54-yard blast at Tennessee.

$165 MILLION OF FOOTBALL CONSTRUCTION

Kentucky has two major football construction projects in process, totaling $165 million investment in the Wildcat program.

A $120 million "reimagining" of Commonwealth Stadium is scheduled for completion in time for the 2015 season.

The project features a new look for the exterior of the stadium, wider and redesigned concourses, new concession stands and restrooms, new suites and other premium seating, a recruiting room and a new press box.

In addition, construction began in January 2015 on a new $45 million practice/office complex being built on the south side of the existing Nutter Field House. The comprehensive complex features state-of-the-art practice, office and support facilities for the players and coaches. Completion is planned in time for the 2016 season.

FRESHMEN MAKE BIG IMPACT

Kentucky had several freshmen make a big impact last season, boding well for the future of the Wildcats.

Two of the yearlings earned Freshman All-America honors, running back Stanley "Boom" Williams and kicker Austin MacGinnis.

Williams led the Wildcats in rushing, zipping for 486 yards and 6.6 yards per carry, while living up to his nickname with three touchdown runs over 50 yards. He also returned kickoffs and was named Freshman All-America as a return man. MacGinnis nailed 21 of 27 field goals and set six school records.

In addition, MacGinnis and offensive guard Ramsey Meyers earned Freshman All-SEC honors. Four wide receivers provided immediate help at their position, while on the defensive side, first-year tackles Regie Meant and Matt Elam showed flashes of outstanding ability.

2015 SCHEDULE NOTES

- Kentucky will play eight home games in 2015, joining the 2007 season as the only years in school history that the Wildcats have had eight home contests.
- Kentucky has the nation's fifth most difficult schedule, according to the NCAA preseason evaluation.
- Kentucky's first nine opponents in 2015 advanced to postseason play last year. All totaled, 10 of UK's 12 opponents were in the postseason – nine bowl teams plus FCS playoff participant Eastern Kentucky.
- It will be Kentucky's first-ever meeting against UL Lafayette and Charlotte. Charlotte will play its first season as an FBS team (Conference USA) in 2015.
- For the second consecutive season, the UK-Louisville game will be on the final weekend of the regular season. Prior to 2014, the UK-UofL game had been played early in the season since the series renewed in 1994.
- Kentucky and Tennessee will face off in the month of October for the first time since 1909. It will only be the fourth time in UK's 125-year history it has faced Tennessee in the month of October.
- Kentucky will start SEC play against South Carolina for the first time in program history. UK had opened SEC play each of the past six seasons against Florida.
- The Wildcats will have a four-game home stretch from Sept. 19 to Oct. 15, marking the longest homestand since the 2001 team started the season with four straight home games.
- Kentucky's game against Auburn will be on Thursday, Oct. 15. It will be the first Thursday home game since 1939.
- UK ends the regular season with consecutive non-conference games for the first time since it entered the SEC in 1933.

HEAD COACH

MARK STOOPS

Following Kentucky's upset of South Carolina last season -- the biggest fourth-quarter comeback in UK history -- Coach Mark Stoops excited the Big Blue Nation by proclaiming, "We're just getting started!"

Given the improvement evident on the field and the recruiting trail during his first two years on the job, and the blue-collar work ethic he displays daily, Stoops has a strong chance of fulfilling that vow.

On the field, the Wildcats improved from two wins in his first season to five victories last season -- not the end result Stoops seeks, of course, but undeniable progress nonetheless.

Stoops' three recruiting classes have ranked higher in the Rivals.com rankings than any previous classes in the history of the recruiting evaluator.

With the reinvention of Commonwealth Stadium and construction of a new football training complex on the horizon, Stoops is continuing the enthusiasm and momentum he's inspired since being introduced as UK's head coach in December 2012.

Now, Stoops turns his attention to his third season, where he will work to continue the turnaround of Wildcat on-field fortunes. Part of the acclaimed Stoops coaching family, he has a history of dramatic improvements during his time as defensive coordinator at Florida State and Arizona.

Stoops was defensive coordinator at FSU from 2010-12, inheriting a unit ranked 108th in the NCAA in total defense and turning it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornelius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops, with Mark being the youngest of the three. Mike is currently the defensive coordinator on Bob's staff at Oklahoma.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. Like his brothers, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Stoops and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

DERRICK ANSLEY

Now in his third season at Kentucky, Derrick Ansley has expanded responsibilities heading into the 2015 season.

Ansley, who coached cornerbacks the last two years, will guide the entire Wildcat secondary in the coming season.

With the exception of departed safety Ashely Lowery, Kentucky's secondary returns mostly intact. Three senior starters, safety A.J. Stamps and cornerbacks Fred Tiller and Cody Quinn, headline the returnees. Versatile junior Blake McClain has been a part-time starter at nickelback for two years and can play any position in the defensive backfield. Several more veterans provide plenty of competition, and additional redshirts and signees give Ansley significantly more depth and experience than he had a year ago.

Last season, Ansley helped lead the UK defense which scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns and created 23 turnovers, ranking second in the SEC in turnover margin.

Ansley joined the Wildcat staff after a one-year term at Tennessee. In his one season, Ansley helped the Volunteers improve their national ranking in interceptions from 86th to 56th. He came to UT in Feb. 2012 after accepting the position of defensive back coach at Central Florida in Dec. 2011.

Ansley was a defensive graduate assistant coach with Alabama in 2010-11, helping the Crimson Tide to a 22-4 record, including the 2011 national championship season. Alabama went 10-3 in Ansley's first year en route to a win in the Capital One Bowl over Michigan State. The Tide won the 2011 national championship to finish a 12-1 season.

The Crimson Tide had one of the best defenses in the country both years Ansley was on staff, ranking fifth in total defense, third in scoring defense, sixth in pass efficiency defense and 13th in passing defense in 2010. In 2011, Alabama led the nation in total defense, scoring defense, passing defense and pass efficiency defense. Ansley also helped tutor Mark Barron, Dre Kirkpatrick and DeQuan Menzie to All-America honors in 2011.

Ansley spent five seasons coaching at NCAA Division III Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala. before taking the graduate assistant position with Alabama. During his five-year stint with the Hawks, Ansley helped guide the team to its first-ever winning season and the school's first playoff appearance. The Hawks posted a winning record four of the five seasons he was on staff, including two eight-win seasons.

The year before Ansley got to Huntingdon, the team had 12 interceptions and 23 pass breakups. Those numbers improved to 15 interceptions and 44 pass breakups in year one. In Ansley's final season with Huntingdon, the Hawks had 22 interceptions and an impressive 56 pass breakups.

Ansley had a very successful collegiate playing career at Troy University, starting 40 consecutive games for the Trojans. The defensive back had a great junior season in 2003, finishing third in the nation in interceptions with nine pickoffs. He was first-team All-Sun Belt Conference in 2004, Troy's first season in the league. He graduated in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism and was working on his master's in human environmental sciences at Alabama.

Ansley is originally from Tallahassee, Ala. Derrick and his wife Alaea have a daughter, Selena.

DEFENSIVE LINE

JIMMY BRUMBAUGH

The 2015 National Football League Draft was an exciting time for Kentucky defensive line coach Jimmy Brumbaugh, who saw two of his proteges selected. End/OLB Alvin "Bud" Dupree was taken in the first round by Pittsburgh Steelers. End Za'Darius Smith was tabbed in Round 4 by the Baltimore Ravens.

Dupree had earned All-Southeastern Conference honors the last two years, including first-team honors as a senior, and finished his career No. 2 on the UK career sack list.

A former All-SEC player himself, Brumbaugh has had three players earn the honor during his two years at Kentucky as Smith and tackle Donte Rumph also were chosen in 2013.

For the coming season, Brumbaugh begins the rebuilding process with one returning starter, nose guard Melvin Lewis, and several additional lettermen.

As a former professional football player, a protege of legendary defensive line coach Pete Jenkins, and a member of the LSU staff when the Tigers won the 2007 national championship, Brumbaugh has a pedigree of success.

Prior to UK, Brumbaugh's most recent major-college stop was a two-year stint at Syracuse, where he coached defensive tackles in 2011 and the defensive line in 2010. Brumbaugh helped guide the team to an 8-5 record his first season and a victory over Kansas State in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

SU showed drastic improvements in national defensive rankings in 2010 under Brumbaugh, moving from 81st in scoring defense to 17th and 37th in total defense to seventh. One of the reasons for the defensive improvements was two-time All-Big East defensive end Chandler Jones, who was drafted 21st overall by the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Prior to Syracuse, Brumbaugh coached the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2008 and 2009, helping the Bulldogs to an 8-5 record, including a win in the 2008 Independence Bowl over Northern Illinois. Brumbaugh took over a defensive front that ranked 46th nationally against the rush in 2007 and moved that ranking to 13th at the conclusion of 2008.

Brumbaugh's line was led by D'Anthony Smith, who was a two-time first-team All-Western Athletic Conference performer. Louisiana Tech earned 27 sacks in 2008, which was the most by a Bulldog team in nearly a decade. Tech also recorded its first shutout since 1996, spanning 148 games.

In addition to coaching, the native of Keystone Heights, Fla., also has experience in strength and conditioning. Brumbaugh served two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU in 2006 and 2007, helping the Tigers to the 2007 national championship. While with LSU, Brumbaugh helped produce 12 NFL draft selections, including five first-round picks.

Brumbaugh got his first coaching role at Jacksonville State as a student assistant as the Gamecocks won the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference championship and a 9-2 record. He spent the 2005 season at Tennessee-Chattanooga as the defensive line coach.

In 2012, Brumbaugh was at East Mississippi Community College, where he was in charge of the defensive line and the strength and conditioning coordinator. Brumbaugh helped lead the Lions to a top-10 national ranking with an 8-2 record and the Mississippi North Division championship. Brumbaugh's defensive line combined for 224 tackles, including 44.5 tackles for loss, 21.5 sacks and seven fumbles forced. For the season, the EMCC defense allowed just 74.5 rushing yards per game and only 15.3 points per game.

In just one season, Brumbaugh developed six defensive linemen who signed Division I scholarships, including end Za'Darius Smith at Kentucky. Smith was rated as the nation's No. 1 junior college strongside defensive end prospect by JCGridiron.com.

During his playing days at Auburn, Brumbaugh started 44 of his 48 career games, gathering 291 tackles and 15 sacks as a nose tackle and defensive tackle. Brumbaugh was named Freshman All-SEC in 1995, second-team All-SEC in 1996 and first-team All-SEC in 1997. He helped the Tigers earn the 1997 SEC Western Division championship and play in three bowl games, winning two.

After his collegiate career ended, Brumbaugh signed a free-agent deal with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 although most of his professional playing career was spent in the XFL with the Birmingham Bolts and in arena football with the Georgia Force and Birmingham Steel Dogs.

Brumbaugh graduated from Auburn with a degree in health and human performance. He is married to the former Kelly Jones. They have two sons, Legend and Nash.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

ANDY BUH

Andy Buh, who has been defensive coordinator or co-defensive coordinator at Stanford, Nevada and California, also coached for a Big Ten champion at Wisconsin, has joined the Kentucky staff as outside linebackers coach.

Buh's coaching legacy includes helping engineer major turnarounds at Stanford and Nevada, making four consecutive bowl appearances from 2009-12 and sending numerous players to the NFL.

Buh (pronounced same as "boo") coached most recently at California, where he was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2013. The Golden Bear defense was ravaged by injuries that year as 16 players from the team's preseason two-deep were sidelined for a total of 109 games. A highlight was the performance of All-Pac-12 defensive lineman Deandre Coleman, who now plays for the Miami Dolphins.

Buh was the linebackers coach at Wisconsin in 2012 and the UW defense ranked in the nation's top 25 in several statistical categories, including 15th in the nation in total defense and 17th in scoring defense.

Individually, Wisconsin linebacker Mike Taylor ranked 25th in the nation in total tackles. Linebacker Chris Borland received All-Big Ten honors. Borland played for the San Francisco 49ers and Taylor was a member of the reserve squad for Seattle.

Prior to Wisconsin, Buh was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Nevada in 2010-11. In his first season, Buh helped lead Nevada to arguably the greatest season in school history with a 13-1 record, tying for the Western Athletic Conference championship and defeating Boston College in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Defensive end Dontay Moch led the WAC with 22 tackles for loss. Moch, Kaelin Burnett, Brandon Marshall and James Michael Johnson all went on to the NFL.

The Wolf Pack went 7-6 in his second season and played Southern Mississippi in the Hawaii Bowl, limiting the nation's No. 15 scoring offense to 13 points and 125 yards below its season average. Nevada was led by first-team All-America defensive tackle Brett Roy.

Buh's success came after inheriting a unit that had ranked 91st nationally in total defense in 2009, the season before his arrival. By 2011, Nevada had improved to 52nd nationally in total defense.

Buh also was part of a major turnaround during his term at Stanford. He was linebackers coach in 2007 for a team that had gone 1-11 the year before. The 2007 squad improved to four wins, including one of the greatest upsets in college football history – as a 41-point underdog, the Cardinal scored a 24-23 road victory at Southern California.

Buh was promoted by then-head coach Jim Harbaugh to co-defensive coordinator for his final two seasons. In his first year as co-defensive coordinator, Stanford improved to five wins. In 2009, Stanford played in the Sun Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since 2001, and had four players receive All-Pac-12 honors, including NFL All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman.

A native of Escondido, Calif., Buh played linebacker for two seasons at Palomar College, where he helped the team to a share of the 1991 Junior College Grid-Wire national championship as a freshman. He was a juco All-American as a sophomore. Buh went on to play at Nevada in 1993-94 and was part of a Big West championship team as a senior.

After a year coaching at his high school alma mater, Buh began collegiate coaching at Nevada. He was a defensive administrative assistant at California in 2000-01.

Buh coached linebackers at San Diego State at 2002-05. At SDSU, Buh coached six players who advanced to the NFL, including Kirk Morrison, a first-team All-American and two-time Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Morrison went on to play eight years in the NFL. Buh coached one season at Fresno State before going to Stanford.

Buh's wife, Kelly, is a native of New Albany, Ind. They have two sons, Luke and Logan.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR, QUARTERBACKS

SHANNON DAWSON

Shannon Dawson, who helped build some of the nation's most prolific offenses at West Virginia, has joined the Kentucky staff as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Dawson spent four seasons at WVU, including the last three as offensive coordinator. A year ago, West Virginia ranked 12th in the nation in total offense, averaging 499.8 yards per game, and was ninth nationally in passing offense with 317 yards per contest. The Mountaineers tallied 33.5 points per game and set a school record by scoring at least 30 points in eight consecutive games. WVU also averaged more than 182 rushing yards per game.

Individually, quarterback Clint Trickett threw for more than 3,000 yards. Wide receiver Kevin White caught 109 passes for 1,447 yards and 10 touchdowns en route to first-team All-America honors. Three running backs rushed for at least 450 yards each.

Dawson's first season at WVU was 2011 when he joined the staff of Dana Holgorsen as inside receivers coach. WVU went 10-3 and was co-champion of the Big East Conference, one of five league title teams Dawson has helped coach during his career.

WVU ranked in the nation's top 15 teams in scoring offense, total offense and passing offense that season. The Mountaineers capped the campaign with a 70-33 win over Clemson in the Orange Bowl, setting the bowl's scoring record.

Dawson's role expanded to offensive coordinator in 2012 as the Mountaineers rated top-10 nationally in scoring offense (39.5 points per game), total offense (502 yards per game) and passing (330.1 yards per game).

WVU advanced to the Pinstripe Bowl.

Dawson coached the receiving duo of Tavon Austin and Stedman Bailey, who each earned All-America recognition and combined to tie or break 26 school records. Bailey caught 114 passes for 1,622 yards while leading the nation with 25 touchdown receptions. Austin also caught 114 balls and topped the 1,000-yard receiving mark. Austin was the Paul Hornung Award winner for college football's most versatile player and the Jet Award for the top returner in the nation. Both players were selected by St. Louis in the NFL Draft, Austin as the eighth pick of the first round and Bailey in the third round.

In addition to his coordinator responsibilities, Dawson coached the quarterbacks in 2013-14 and WVU threw for more than 3,000 yards each season.

A native of Clinton, La., Dawson played his college football at Wingate (N.C.) University as a quarterback and wide receiver. He began his coaching career as receivers coach at his alma mater in 2002.

Dawson linked with former Kentucky head coach Hal Mumme in 2003-04, helping revive a program at Southeastern Louisiana that had been dormant for 17 years. He also coached with Mumme at New Mexico State in 2005.

Dawson went to Millsaps College as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2006-07. The Majors won the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference championship both years, the first back-to-back titles in school history, and quarterback Juan Joseph was two-time SCAC Offensive Player of the Year. Millsaps played in the NCAA Division III playoffs in 2006.

Dawson moved to Stephen F. Austin University as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2008-10. Coming off a winless season and only 16 points per game in 2007, Dawson orchestrated an amazing turnaround in SFA's offensive fortunes. In his first season, the Lumberjacks ranked third in the nation in passing offense, 13th in total offense and 14th in scoring offense.

SFA won or shared the Southland Conference championship the next two seasons, advancing to the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs both years. In 2009 and '10, SFA led the nation in passing offense while ranking in the top six nationally in total offense and scoring. Quarterback Jeremy Moses was a two-time All-American, two-time Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year and won the Walter Payton Award as the FCS National Player of the Year. Wide receivers Dominique Edison and Contrevious Parks went on to play in the NFL.

Shannon and his wife, Chelsea, have a daughter, Acelyn.

DEFENSIVE COORD., INSIDE LINEBACKERS

D.J. ELIOT

D.J. Eliot, who sparked Kentucky to a school-record six defensive touchdowns last season, is in his third year as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach.

Kentucky's 2014 defense created 23 turnovers, including the record six returned for TDs, as the Wildcats finished second in the Southeastern Conference in turnover margin. UK made a significant improvement in yards allowed per play, jumping 45 places in the rankings from 2013 to 2014, finishing in the top half of the nation in that statistic. The Cats also improved to sixth in the SEC in quarterback sacks.

In his first two years with UK, Eliot has seen five of his defensive players earn All-SEC recognition and three have become NFL draft choices. In 2015, Alvin "Bud" Dupree was taken in the first round by Pittsburgh and Za'Darius Smith was a fourth-round pick by Baltimore.

Eliot's top linebackers, Avery Williamson in 2013 and Josh Forrest in 2014, each totaled more than 100 tackles, finished among the SEC's top-five tacklers and earned All-SEC honors.

Prior to UK, Eliot helped Mark Stoops orchestrate a magnificent revival of the defense at Florida State, where Eliot coached defensive ends from 2010-12. In 2012, he helped lead FSU to one of the best defensive campaigns in school history en route to a 12-2 record, the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and a 2013 Orange Bowl victory.

The year before Eliot and Stoops arrived in Tallahassee, the Seminoles ranked 108th in total defense and rushing defense. But in 2012, FSU ranked second nationally in total defense (254.1 yards per game) and sixth in scoring defense (14.7 points per game). FSU also allowed only 3.86 yards per play, leading the nation in that category. In each of Eliot's first two years on the job, FSU ranked among the nation's top-10 teams in sacks and the top 25 in tackles for loss. Eliot's players also had outstanding individual achievements.

- Bjoern Werner had 13 sacks in 2012, leading the ACC and tying for third nationally in sacks. He was first-team All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year. He was a first-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

- Brandon Jenkins earned All-ACC honors in 2010 and '11 before sustaining a season-ending injury in the 2012 opener. Despite not playing the remainder of the year, he was still a fifth-round selection in the NFL Draft.

- After Jenkins' injury, Cornellius Carradine went from FSU backup to joining Werner as first-team All-ACC. He had 11 sacks, second in the ACC behind his teammate, and 15th nationally. He went in the second round of the NFL Draft.

- Under Eliot's guidance, Markus White had a breakout season in 2010 and played three seasons in the NFL.

Werner and Carradine formed the top defensive end tandem in the nation in 2012 with a combined 24 sacks and 31 total tackles for loss. In 2011, FSU limited opponents to just 2.35 yards per carry, which led the nation in that category. In Eliot's first season at FSU, the 'Noles tied for the national lead for most sacks with 48.

Eliot and Stoops first became acquainted at Wyoming, where Stoops coached the defensive backs while Eliot played linebacker. The two coached together at Wyoming as Eliot was a graduate assistant in 1999.

The two continued to work together in 2000 when Stoops joined the staff at the University of Houston as the co-defensive coordinator/safeties coach and Eliot was a graduate assistant. Eliot remained at Houston through 2001 before rejoining Stoops in 2002 at Miami (Fla.) as a grad assistant. The two helped lead the Canes to a 12-1 record and a berth in the Fiesta Bowl.

Eliot earned his first full-time coaching position in 2003 at Texas State. The Bobcats went from a 4-8 record to 5-6 to 11-3 in the 2005 season, which featured a Southland Conference championship and a berth in the semifinals of the Division I-AA playoffs.

Eliot helped lead a defensive turnaround at Texas State. In his first season, TSU gave up 34.8 points per game, 394.6 yards per game and 191.3 rushing yards per game. Two years later, the Bobcats gave up only 20.3 points per game, 313.9 yards per game and 136.2 rushing yards per game.

Eliot moved from Texas State to Tulsa, helping lead the Golden Hurricane to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the 2006 Armed Forces Bowl. As linebackers coach, Eliot developed Nick Bunting into the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year and all three of his LBs, Bunting, Nelson Coleman and Chris Chamberlain, earned All-CUSA honors. Chamberlain played several years in the NFL.

After Tulsa, Eliot coached three seasons (2007-2009) at Rice as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach. His best year was in 2008 when the Owls went 10-3 and won the Texas Bowl. It was a historic season, serving as the Owls' first 10-win season since 1949 and first bowl victory since 1950.

Two of the players Eliot recruited and developed were defensive ends Scott Solomon and Cheta Ozougwu, who led Conference USA linemen in 2009 with 124 combined tackles along with 21 tackles for loss and 11 sacks. Both Solomon and Ozougwu became All-CUSA selections and are in the NFL.

A native of Edmond, Okla., Eliot graduated from Wyoming with a degree in natural science. He earned a master's degree in education at Houston. He and his wife, Miekell, have one son, Dawson, and three daughters, Drue, Page and Reace.

WIDE RECEIVERS

TOMMY MAINORD

Tommy Mainord continues to develop a deeper, more experienced group of pass catchers in his third season as wide receivers coach at Kentucky.

Mainord has seven lettermen returning, plus two players who missed last season because of injury. With an infusion of talented newcomers as well, Mainord is poised to take another step in developing a top-flight set of receivers.

Mainord brought several years of offensive coaching success to Lexington, including 2010-12 with Texas Tech. In every season in Lubbock, Mainord helped lead TTU to top-10 national rankings in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense. The Red Raiders increased their production in all three categories every season under Mainord, including finishing the 2012 season ranked second in passing offense (355.9 yards per game), 13th in total offense (495.8 ypg) and 20th in scoring offense (37.5 points per game).

Mainord coached two of the best receivers in college football in 2012. Darrin Moore finished 12th nationally in receptions per game with 92 catches for 1,032 yards and 13 touchdowns, while Eric Ward was 19th with 82 catches for 1,053 yards and 12 TDs.

The success in 2012 was spurred off the solid season the Red Raider offense posted in 2011, when TTU finished seventh in passing offense, racking up 4,145 passing yards. Mainord's squad also performed well in his first season, including Lyle Leong, who ranked second nationally with 19 touchdown catches.

Before his stint in Lubbock, Mainord was named the offensive coordinator at Lamar in Sept. 2008 as the Cardinals' program began preparation to return to the field in 2010 after being dormant for more than 20 years.

Mainord had a three-year stint at Sam Houston State in 2005-07, spending three seasons as an assistant coach for wide receivers or running backs. In 2007, SHS ranked 16th in the country in passing offense and 21st in total offense. Following the '07 season, Mainord was promoted to co-offensive coordinator but he departed before the next season began.

Mainord tutored several talented players while with the Bearkats, including D.D. Terry, who rushed for a school-record 1,328 yards to rank seventh in the Football Championship Subdivision and pace the Southland Conference. Terry was honored as the Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year and was one of 16 finalists for the Walter Payton Award, which honors the Division I FCS Offensive Player of the Year.

Mainord cut his teeth in coaching at his alma mater, spending six seasons at Tarleton State. Mainord began his coaching career as a student assistant in 1999, followed by two years as a graduate assistant from 2000-01, helping the team to the Lone Star Conference Championship in '01 with a 10-3 record. The Texans also won the LSC North Division Title in 2002 and 2003.

Tarleton State had a solid offensive season in 2004 while Mainord was coaching quarterbacks and running backs. Derrick Ross, who earned NCAA Division II honorable mention All-America honors and was an NCAA All-Region and All-Lone Star Conference first-team selection. Ross gained 1,560 yards in 10 games for the Texans, which was the best rushing total by an LSC back in 14 seasons.

The Texans also had a great offensive season in 2001, gathering 1,773 yards and scoring 24 touchdowns on the ground en route to a top-10 national ranking and advancing to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

Mainord played baseball at TSU before joining the football program as a student assistant coach. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in health and sports science in 2000 and his master's degree in education in 2001.

Mainord grew up with the game of football as his father, Carlos, was a National Football League coach with Chicago, New Orleans, Carolina and St. Louis and also coached in college at Texas Tech, Miami (Fla.) and Rice.

Mainord and his wife, Tiffany, have a daughter, Maecee, and a son, Davis.

TIGHT ENDS, RECRUITING COORDINATOR VINCE MARROW

In addition to his contributions as tight ends coach at Kentucky, Vince Marrow is also the recruiting coordinator for the Wildcats.

When bringing Marrow to Kentucky, head coach Mark Stoops spoke prophetically -- "His diverse experiences as a coach and NFL player will be invaluable to our players and our program. He also is a great recruiter, especially with his outstanding connections in Ohio."

Kentucky's three recruiting classes under the current staff are UK's three highest-rated groups in the history of the Rivals.com evaluation. Marrow has played a key role in those efforts, spearheaded with numerous signees who hail from the Buckeye State.

Stoops and Marrow, both from Youngstown, Ohio, knew each other as children before playing football together at Cardinal Mooney High School. Marrow went on to have a successful playing career collegiately and professionally as a tight end before entering the coaching ranks.

Marrow (pronounced the same as in the term "bone marrow") came to UK from Nebraska, where he coached the Cornhuskers' tight ends for two years. In 2012, Marrow helped guide NU's tight ends to a combined 48 catches for 651 yards and five touchdowns, while their blocking ability helped NU rank eighth in the country in rushing offense. Two of Marrow's tight ends, Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed, who ranked fourth and sixth on the team respectively in receiving, earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors. The Huskers went 10-4 and played in the Capital One Bowl.

Marrow's knowledge and coaching had an impact on the Nebraska offense as the Cornhuskers ranked 26th in total offense and 28th in scoring offense nationally, an improvement from 44th in total offense and 39th in scoring offense the year before he arrived.

Marrow showed an impact on the Huskers' offense in his first season, helping Nebraska average nearly 30 points per game in 2011, scoring at least two touchdowns in every game throughout the season, a feat that an NU team had accomplished only twice in the past 10 seasons. The Cornhuskers went 9-4, including a trip to the Capital One Bowl.

Although Marrow's title was graduate assistant in his term at Nebraska, he had an expanded role in the spring of 2012, getting to hit the recruiting trail after Nebraska was granted a waiver from the NCAA to allow Marrow to recruit off campus while associate head coach Barney Cotton was unable to recruit because of surgery. Marrow made an immediate impact on NU's recruiting in Ohio.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Marrow spent six years in the coaching ranks, mostly in professional football with NFL Europe and the United Football League. The year before joining the staff at NU, Marrow was tight ends coach with the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL.

Before serving as the head coach of Holland High School in Springfield, Ohio in 2009, Marrow earned his first collegiate coaching position at his alma mater, Toledo, in 2008. Marrow coached the Rockets' tight ends, helping John Allen and Tom Burzine to finish third and fifth on the team in receiving, respectively.

Marrow began his coaching career in NFL Europe, coaching tackles and tight ends with the Rhein Fire (Düsseldorf, Germany) from 2006-07 before holding the same position with the Berlin Thunder from 2005-06.

Marrow had a professional playing career as a member of NFL rosters on five teams, including Buffalo, Carolina, New York Jets, Chicago and San Francisco. After his NFL days ended, Marrow played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1998, earning all-league honors with 32 receptions for 345 yards. He also played for the Orlando Rage in the XFL in 2001.

Marrow began his collegiate playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to Toledo. Marrow played two seasons at Toledo, earning second-team All-Mid-American Conference honors in 1991 before being drafted by the Bills in 1992.

Marrow graduated from Toledo with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Dr. Monique Marrow, have five children, Mike, Phylia, Merrisa, Victoria and Aryanna.

OFFENSIVE LINE

JOHN SCHLARMAN

John Schlarmar, a former All-Southeastern Conference offensive guard at the University of Kentucky, is in his third year as offensive line coach at his alma mater.

Schlarmar has turned in a solid performance while rebuilding the Wildcat forward wall. In 2014, UK improved its offensive output by more than 11 points per game and more than 69 yards of total offense per game over the 2012 season, the year before Schlarmar arrived.

Looking ahead, Schlarmar returns four starters from last season, and with the addition of several newcomers, has the goal of building a deeper line in 2015. Two of the building blocks are center Jon Toth and guard Ramsey Meyers, each of whom have earned SEC All-Freshman team honors -- Toth in 2013, Meyers in 2014.

Schlarmar came to UK from Troy University, where he coached the offensive line from 2007-12, adding the duty of running game coordinator in 2010. He helped Troy win or share four Sun Belt Conference championships and advance to three bowl games.

Troy had one of the nation's most productive offenses during Schlarmar's term, ranking among the nation's top 26 in total offense in five of his six seasons at the school. The Trojans hit a No. 3 ranking in total offense in 2009 with 485.7 yards per game. Troy averaged 498.8 yards per game in 2012, ranking 13th nationally.

Featuring pass-oriented offenses, the Trojans rated as high as No. 4 in the nation in passing yardage, accomplished in 2009 at 336.5 yards per game. Troy was eighth nationally in passing in 2012 with 331.5 yards per game.

Troy also had complementary running games with Schlarmar, averaging at least 149 yards per game in five of his six seasons, featuring a high mark of 182.6 yards per contest in 2007. All the yardage also has resulted in point production as the team averaged at least 30 points per game in five of his six years.

Individually, Schlarmar coached eight first-team All-Sun Belt selections, including at least one first-teamer each season. Two of his linemen, Dion Small and Tyler Clark, were two-time first-team All-SBC. Another All-SBC lineman, James Brown, went on to the National Football League and played for the Chicago Bears.

Schlarmar originally came to the University from Highlands High School in Ft. Thomas, Ky., where he was an all-state offensive lineman. He was a four-year starter at Kentucky from 1994-97, earning first-team All-SEC honors as a senior. He also was a member of the SEC All-Freshman Team in 1994 and was chosen the team's most outstanding offensive lineman in 1995 and '96. Following his junior season, he was chosen for the "Unsung Hero All-America Team" by the College Football Chronicle.

Also an outstanding student, Schlarmar was a three-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was a finalist for Academic All-America in 1997 after earning a place on the Academic All-District Team. He graduated with a degree in mathematics and later earned his master's in sports management.

Schlarmar entered coaching at Bourbon County High School, coaching the defensive line in 1998 and '99, helping guide the team to the state playoffs both seasons. He returned to UK as a graduate assistant coach from 2000-02, helping with the offensive line all three seasons. He also had sole responsibility of the tight ends in the '02 campaign when the Wildcats compiled a 7-5 record.

Schlarmar re-entered the high-school ranks in 2003 as head coach at Campbell County for two seasons. He moved to Newport HS in 2004-05 and had a two-year record of 19-6, including two state playoff appearances and a district title. The best season was 2005, when Newport went 11-2 and reached the state playoff quarterfinals before losing to the eventual state champion. He was named District Coach of the Year in 2005 by the Kentucky Football Coaches Association.

Schlarmar is married to the former Lee Anne Federspiel, daughter of former UK linebacker Joe Federspiel. They have three sons, Joseph, Benjamin and Matthew.

RUNNING BACKS, RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR

CHAD SCOTT

Now in his third season on the Kentucky coaching staff, Chad Scott serves as running backs coach and running game coordinator.

Scott works closely with offensive coordinator Shannon Dawson in the development of the ground game. In spring practice, UK implemented the offensive attack that worked well for Dawson at West Virginia, highlighted by a physical rushing presence.

Under the guidance of Scott, the running back position has become one of the deepest positions on the team. The group features the team's leading rusher from each of the last two seasons, Stanley "Boom" Williams in 2014 and Jojo Kemp in 2013. Sophomore Mikel Horton showed exciting potential last season and freshman Sihiem King adds more talent to the mix.

Himself a former running back at Kentucky, Scott ventured back to the Bluegrass after spending 2010-12 at Texas Tech. While TTU was known for great success throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense as well. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt.

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked 115th in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to 75th nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and spent three years with that team.

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers both sustained season-ending injuries. The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards each. Overall, Texas Tech won the TicketCity Bowl over Northwestern following the 2010 season and defeated Minnesota in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2012.

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked 66th in rushing offense and 77th in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to 35th nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and 16th in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked third in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris ranked second in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077 yards and plays for the Minnesota Vikings. In Scott's last season at Troy he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, to Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

In his six seasons at Troy and Texas Tech, Scott's teams averaged 34.1 points per game.

A native of Plant City, Fla., Scott enrolled at Kentucky in 2000, rushing for 611 yards as a true freshman en route to All-SEC Freshman Team honors and third-team Freshman All-America honors. Scott's sophomore season with UK was limited because of injury and he transferred to North Carolina to complete his collegiate career.

With the Tar Heels, Scott rushed for 182 yards as a junior. In a solid senior campaign, Scott ranked seventh in the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing with 796 yards and eight rushing touchdowns.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with Cleveland and Pittsburgh before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

Scott graduated from UNC with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky, and the couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACHES

JONATHAN COOLEY*GRADUATE ASSISTANT/DEFENSE

Jonathan Cooley enters his first season at Kentucky as a graduate assistant for the defense.

Cooley came to Kentucky from his alma mater, John Carroll University (Cleveland, Ohio), where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach in charge of the secondary. With Cooley's help, the Blue Streaks' defense finished in the top five nationally both seasons, including a No. 1 ranking in 2013. That year, JCU went 9-1 overall and earned a spot in the NCAA Division III Championships for the first time since 2002. Under Cooley's tutelage, defensive back Randy Greenwood earned D3football.com second-team All-America and first-team all-region honors. He also was named the 2013 Lee J. Tressel Most Outstanding Defensive Back.

In 2014, the Blue Streaks finished 11-2 overall and advanced to the quarterfinals of the Division III NCAA Championship. A school-record 20 players earned all-conference honors, including three of Cooley's defensive backs. First-team all-region returner Aramis Greenwood went on to be named a D3football.com honorable mention All-American.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Cooley coached safeties and was the equipment manager for Bluffton University (Bluffton, Ohio) in 2012 and was the defensive backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator at Millikin University (Decatur, Ill.) in 2011.

As a student-athlete at John Carroll, Cooley was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter, finishing in the top 10 all time in career pass breakups. He also was elected as a Unity Council Member all four years of his collegiate career.

The Columbus, Ohio native earned his bachelor's degree in finance from John Carroll in 2011 and a master's in business administration in 2014. He will work on a second master's degree in sport leadership at UK.

MARK PELINI*GRADUATE ASSISTANT/OFFENSE

Former Nebraska standout Mark Pelini joins the Kentucky football staff as graduate assistant for the offense.

Pelini played in 30 career games at center with 13 starting assignments from 2011-14. As a senior, he started the first 11 games before suffering a season-ending ankle injury. Prior to the injury, he was a key part of an offensive line that powered record-setting performances in 2014. The Huskers ranked among the top 20 units in scoring and rushing offense, and running back Ameer Abdullah became NU's all-time leader in all-purpose yardage, while ranking second in career rushing yards. Pelini, who started his collegiate career as a walk-on before earning a scholarship during his junior season, was on the 2014 Rimington Trophy and Campbell Trophy Watch Lists because of his stellar play in the middle.

Pelini also excelled in the classroom and in the community at Nebraska. He was a four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll eight times during his career. He went on to earn degrees in history and mathematics from Nebraska in December of 2014. He is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership at UK.

Off the field, Pelini was named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team and Tom Osborne Citizenship Team in 2014 because of his involvement in the community. He volunteered his time with School is Cool Week, Huskers Heroes, Husker Hotline, Super Hero Day, NFL Fuel Up to Play 60 and local school and hospital outreach activities.

The Youngstown, Ohio, native was a key cog of the offensive line at Cardinal Mooney High School, where his play helped Mooney to a perfect 15-0 record and Ohio Division III state title in 2009.

MAX DRISKO*GRADUATE ASSISTANT/OFFENSE

Max Drisko, in his third season on the Kentucky staff, is in his second year as a graduate assistant coach for the offense.

Drisko moved into a graduate assistant coaching role last season after serving as a graduate assistant manager in 2013. Before coming to Kentucky, he worked as a student assistant coach at Texas Tech from 2010-13 under former UK offensive coordinator Neal Brown. While at Tech, he also worked closely with UK assistant coaches Chad Scott and Tommy Mainord and was hands-on in helping the Red Raiders become one of the best offensive teams in the country. TTU ranked sixth nationally in passing in 2010, seventh in 2011 and second in 2012, and won two straight bowl games while Drisko was a part of the staff.

Originally from Raleigh, N.C., Drisko is a former spread offense quarterback at Middle Creek High School in Apex, N.C. He chose to attend Texas Tech to further his knowledge in the spread offense with hopes of pursuing a career in coaching.

Drisko graduated from Texas Tech in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He is currently working on his master's degree in kinesiology and health promotion.

HIGH PERFORMANCE STAFF

ERIK KOREM*HIGH PERFORMANCE COACH

After spending the last decade developing some of the best athletes in the world – from football All-Americans to Olympic medalists – Erik Korem enters his third season with the University of Kentucky football program as its high performance coach, overseeing all aspects of performance: physical, mental, technical, tactical and intellectual development.

Korem works closely with strength and conditioning coach Corey Edmond, director of sports sciences Chris Ronald, nutritionist Monica Fowler and all of UK football's support staff on player development. Under Korem and his staff's direction, UK football players have seen positive changes to not only their on-field ability and strength, but off-the-field training and conditioning habits that will have an immediate impact on the student-athletes and strengthen their lives beyond football as well.

The Dallas, Texas, native has traveled abroad where the application of sports science is both more widespread and advanced to help develop Kentucky's High Performance program. Korem and his staff use the latest in athlete-tracking technology to help student-athletes reach and enhance their potential, while the program also educates players on sports psychology principles and how to apply them to help manage in-game stress and decision-making processes.

Korem's impressive resume includes work with some of the best athletes in the world, including world-class track and field sprinters and Olympic medalists. Korem served as a speed development consultant during the 2008 Olympic year.

Prior to joining UK's staff, Korem spent three seasons at Florida State University, where he started as the speed and nutrition specialist for the football program before being elevated to the director of sport science and football operations. While with the Seminoles, FSU had three very successful seasons on the field, winning a bowl game all three seasons and finishing with one of the best defensive units in the nation.

Before joining FSU's staff, Korem spent time at Mississippi State as an assistant strength and conditioning coach and as a professor in the Exercise Science Department. Korem also served as the director of athletic performance at the University of the Pacific and was the head strength and conditioning coach at Fort Valley State University.

Korem graduated with a bachelor's degree in applied exercise physiology from Texas A&M University in 2003 before serving as an intern and graduate assistant from 2004-06 at the University of Arkansas, where he completed his master's degree in exercise science. He is currently working on his doctorate in exercise science at UK with a research focus on sleep and performance.

Korem and his wife, Hayle Lynn, have a son, Cooper Jet. Hayle earned her doctorate of physical therapy from UK in 2014.

COREY EDMOND*STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

With over 20 years of experience in college football, including six years at Arizona with University of Kentucky head coach Mark Stoops, Corey Edmond is entering his third season as the head strength and conditioning coach with the UK football program.

This past season, footballscoop.com and ProGrassTurf.com named Edmond runner-up for National Strength Coach of the Year. He was named a semifinalist for the same award in 2009 by footballscoop.com while at Arizona.

Edmond joined the Kentucky staff in 2013 with a great pedigree and outstanding credentials on improving player development. The native of Sussex, Va., has served directly in player development for the last 19 years, including a stop at perennial national power Oklahoma as the assistant director of performance enhancement. While at OU, Edmond helped the Sooners win a national championship in 2000 and finish as the national runners-up in 2003. Edmond also worked one season at his alma mater, North Carolina State, as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to his year at N.C. State, Edmond spent eight successful years at Arizona under Mike Stoops, Mark's older brother, starting as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2004 before being promoted to director of performance enhancement in 2005. In 2010, Edmond was named associate athletics director.

Edmond started coaching in 1994 at Tennessee-Chattanooga as an outside linebacker/defensive end coach for three seasons before serving as head strength coach from 1996-99. Before his time at UTC, Edmond had a successful playing career with N.C. State from 1987-90, playing in multiple bowl games. He signed a free-agent deal with the Houston Oilers in 1991, staying with the organization for two seasons before returning to N.C. State to finish his degree in 1993.

Edmond and his wife, Laurie, have a daughter, Leah, and a son, Darren.

CHRIS RONALD*DIRECTOR OF SPORTS SCIENCES

Chris Ronald is entering his third season with the Kentucky football program as its director of sports sciences.

Ronald, who is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, works closely with high performance coach Erik Korem and strength and conditioning coach Corey Edmond to maximize player development.

Ronald came to Kentucky after spending a year as a strength and conditioning coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL. While with the Jaguars, Ronald assisted with the implementation of the competition period of training and rehabilitation program, while also setting up, executing and collecting data for the Catapult GPS tracking system.

Before his time in the NFL, Ronald worked in collegiate athletics at several different universities as a strength and conditioning coach. Ronald started coaching at the University of South Florida, where he served as an intern strength and conditioning coach for USF's nationally ranked football program.

After a short stint with USF, Ronald spent two years as a graduate assistant coach at Marshall University, where he handled nearly all Olympic sports while completing his master's degree in sports administration in 2010. Ronald then coached at three universities in 2011, including short stints with Detroit-Mercy and Memphis, before serving as a football strength and conditioning coach at North Texas during the 2011 season. While at North Texas, Ronald assisted the director of football performance in designing and implementing the strength and conditioning program for the Mean Green.

The native of Guelph, Ontario, earned his bachelor's of science in recreation and leisure studies with honors from Brock University in St. Catharines, Ontario in 2007.

DONALD HORTON

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Former Arizona football standout Donald Horton is in his third season at Kentucky as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Horton came to the Bluegrass in 2013 after serving one year as an assistant strength coach for the football program at North Carolina State. Before that, he spent three years at his alma mater, where he served as an assistant strength coach, working with football, women's basketball, women's soccer and baseball. He also stepped in to be the assistant interim defensive line coach for the Wildcats' 2010 Alamo Bowl appearance.

Horton was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at defensive tackle for head coach Mike Stoops at Arizona. He played on the 2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl championship team and was a member of the 2009 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl squad, where he was chosen as the keynote speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes bowl breakfast. He also was a nominee for the Pac-10 Sportsmanship Award in 2010 and for the NCAA Leadership Conference in 2007.

Horton is married to former Arizona volleyball standout, Tiffany Owens, of San Bernardino, Calif. They have one son, Josiah.

TONY SANDOVAL

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Tony Sandoval is in his first season as a member of Erik Korem's high performance staff as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Sandoval comes to Kentucky after spending two seasons at Colorado as the assistant director of sports performance, working primarily with football, men's golf and spirit programs.

Prior to Colorado, he spent seven years as the director of athletic performance at the University of the Pacific (Stockton, Calif) where he oversaw the Tigers' 16 varsity sports programs. He also served as an assistant director of strength and conditioning at Sacramento State from 2005-07, where he earned a master's degree in sports performance in December of 2006.

While at Sacramento State, Sandoval also worked with UCLA on a mentorship program that allowed him to travel to Los Angeles approximately once a month to work with the Bruin athletics department.

The Los Angeles, Calif., native earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Cal State San Bernardino in 2004. During his undergraduate studies, he served as the boxing coach and the boxing strength and conditioning coach for the city of Chino, Calif.

Sandoval is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and also holds a Level 1 certification through USA Weightlifting and the American Red Cross in CPR. He also is certified through the Titleist Performance Institute (TPI) as a Level I performance coach. It is considered the "gold standard" in current training and performance for golfers, and Sandoval utilizes what he learned there and incorporates it into some aspects for football training.

MONICA FOWLER

REGISTERED DIETITIAN

Monica Fowler is in her fourth season at Kentucky as the Wildcats' registered dietitian. She is responsible for the nutritional aspects of all 22 athletic teams at UK, which includes nutritional counseling and assessments, meal planning and maintaining nutritional supplements.

Prior to working with the development of Nutrition Department at UK, she served as a clinical dietitian from 2010-12 for RD Associates of Kentucky.

In 2009, Fowler developed a color coding program called "Connect the Dots" which helps local elementary students choose balanced, nutritious meals. This system has now been implemented in every elementary school in Fayette County.

The "Dots" program which consists of dairy/milk (blue), breads/grains (orange), meat/protein alternative (purple), vegetables (green) and fruits (red), relies on the USDA's MyPlate model, which color-codes the food groups and illustrates proper portion sizes. Students continue to have the freedom to make their own selections; the "offer vs. serve" provision in Fayette County Public Schools allows young customers to choose a helping from three, four or all five food groups.

Fowler, originally of Leitchfield, Ky., has volunteered numerous hours to the Lexington community since arriving in 1980. She has served as the president of the Bluegrass Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, chaired the planning committee for the Phi Upsilon Omicron Honor Society Biennial Convention and served on the board of directors for the Living Arts and Science Center. She also was president of the Maxwell Elementary Parent Teacher Association for two years.

Fowler earned her bachelor's degree in dietetics in 2010 and a master's degree in hospitality and dietetics administration from UK in 2012. She became a certified specialist in sports dietetics in 2013.

Fowler is a member of several professional organizations, including Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, Bluegrass Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, Kentucky Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, Sports, Cardiovascular and Wellness Nutrition and School Nutrition Association.

She and her husband Shane have two children, a son Satchel and a daughter Rebecca.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

GABE AMPONSAH*HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER / FOOTBALL

Gabe Amponsah enters his seventh year in his current stint at the University of Kentucky. He was promoted to head athletic trainer for football in 2015 after serving previously with the football team as senior athletic trainer.

Amponsah, who was a graduate assistant with the Kentucky athletic training staff in 2006 and 2007, returned to UK in '09 after spending a year at Florida State, working with the Seminoles' football team.

Before graduating from UK with a master's degree in athletic training in May 2008, Amponsah completed his undergraduate studies in the same discipline at Duquesne University. He also served as an athletic training intern for the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers.

Amponsah is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

DANIEL BEREZOWITZ*DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Dan Berezowitz enters his third year at Kentucky as the director of football recruiting operations.

In this role, he manages all aspects of recruiting administration for the football program, including managing the recruiting staff, coordinating recruit visits and handling all aspects of on-campus recruiting.

In his first full year as director of recruiting, Kentucky's 2014 recruiting class was ranked in the top 20 by multiple recruiting publications and considered one of the best recruiting classes in UK football history.

Prior to Kentucky, Berezowitz spent six seasons at Arizona with Mike Stoops, including the last four as the recruiting coordinator. He played a key role in helping Arizona garner consecutive Top-20 recruiting classes in 2005 and 2006. Berezowitz managed all aspects of the football recruiting process and worked with operations in regard to compliance issues in recruiting and other office responsibilities.

In 2007, he left Arizona to become the recruiting coordinator at the University of Minnesota, where he helped the Gophers bring in the nation's 14th-best recruiting class in 2008.

He also worked under head coach Mack Brown at both North Carolina and Texas, serving as the Tar Heels' director of video operations and football center director from 1994-97 and the director of football operations at Texas from 1998-99.

Berezowitz, originally from Whitewater, Wisc., was a four-year letterman at quarterback for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he earned a degree in athletic administration in 1994. He coached at UW-Whitewater as an assistant from 1992-94.

Overall, Berezowitz has 21 years of experience in college athletics and has been a part of seven bowl games, including North Carolina at the 1994 Sun Bowl, the 1995 Carquest Bowl, and the 1996 and 1997 Gator Bowls; with Texas at the 1998 Cotton Bowl; and the 2008 and 2009 Insight Bowls at Minnesota.

Berezowitz and his wife, Jane, have four sons, twins Bryan and Brayden, Zachary, Jordan and a daughter, Alexa Grace.

FRANK BUFFANO*DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Having spent a majority of his coaching career with current UK head coach Mark Stoops, including working directly under Stoops at Arizona for five seasons, Frank Buffano has again teamed up with the UK head coach as he enters his third season as the director of football operations at Kentucky.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, and a graduate of Cardinal Mooney High School along with Stoops and tight ends coach Vince Marrow, Buffano already has a relationship with much of UK's football staff. He assists Coach Stoops in all daily football operations and administrative duties.

Prior to UK, Buffano served as an assistant coach at Youngstown State, coaching linebackers in 2012 and 2011 after serving as the secondary coach in 2010. During his time with the Penguins, YSU defeated its first-ever BCS opponent while he led multiple players to all-conference honors. One of his players, cornerback Brandian Ross, went on to the National Football League and is in his third season with the Oakland Raiders. Buffano also recruited tight end Will Shaw, who has completed his career at YSU and signed a free-agent contract with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Prior to his stint at YSU, Buffano spent five seasons with Stoops at Arizona, serving as a defensive graduate assistant coach his last two seasons after three years of working as a video graduate assistant with the Wildcats. During his time with UA, Buffano helped Stoops with all aspects of Arizona's defense, including breaking down game film and developing weekly game plans.

While in high school, Buffano was a member of Cardinal Mooney's state championship team in 1987. He attended Youngstown State in the early 1990s while helping coach at Cardinal Mooney from 1990-96 and was in private business in Ohio and Florida before joining the Arizona program. Buffano graduated with a bachelor's degree in geography and regional development from Arizona in 2006.

Frank and his wife, Kelley, have three daughters, Isabella, Gabriella and Olivia.

JON DENIO*DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Jon Denio is in his fifth year at Kentucky as the director of equipment operations for Kentucky athletics. He came to the Bluegrass after serving seven years as an assistant director of equipment at the University of Oklahoma.

As the director of equipment operations for UK, Denio handles the management of UK's Nike account, working directly with each coaching staff in UK's 22-sport intercollegiate athletics program. He also oversees the department's inventory control software system as well as contract purchasing any athletic equipment needed by the athletic department.

In his seven years at OU, the native of Mexico, Mo., served as the men's basketball equipment director as well as the liaison to the Lloyd Noble Center for both the men's and women's basketball teams. He started at OU in 2004 as a graduate assistant equipment manager, working with the football, softball and wrestling programs.

Prior to OU, Denio worked two seasons as an assistant equipment manager for the Washington Redskins, in charge of on-field setup and maintenance, and player footwear. He also spent four years as a student equipment manager working with the football team at his alma mater, the University of Missouri.

Denio spent the 1999 and 2000 summers as a college intern with the New York Jets equipment department and was responsible for setting up practice, prepping for travel and handling laundry.

Denio earned a degree from Missouri in economics, personal finance and sociology in 2002. He is married to the former Brooke Holt of Fremont, Neb.

TAYLOR EAVENSON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Taylor Eavenson is in her second season as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky. She works primarily with the Wildcat football team and also oversees the graduate assistant covering men's and women's tennis and cheerleading.

She came to Kentucky after serving as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at LSU for two seasons. In Baton Rouge, she worked with the nationally renowned football program and served as the athletic trainer for the swimming and diving teams. In addition, she was a teaching assistant for the kinesiology department at LSU.

Eavenson, a native of Scott Depot, W. Va., began her athletic training career as an undergraduate student at West Virginia. She worked with various sports during her four-year stint in Morgantown, including baseball, men's soccer, women's tennis and football.

She graduated from WVU in 2012 with a degree in athletic training and earned a master's of science in kinesiology with an emphasis in sports pedagogy and psychosocial science from LSU in 2014.

Eavenson is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a licensed athletic trainer by the Kentucky State Board of Medical Examiners. She also is a performance enhancement specialist through American College of Sports Medicine, is a certified Graston manual therapy technician and is CPR/AED professional rescuer and healthcare provider for the American Red Cross.

JOSH ESTES-WAUGH

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Josh Estes-Waugh enters his seventh season overall with the Kentucky football program, his second as the assistant director of recruiting. He assists director of football recruiting operations Dan Berezowitz in all areas of recruiting.

Estes-Waugh is very familiar with the UK football program as he spent three years as a student manager for the Wildcats from 2009-11. Along with managerial duties, he served as student assistant coach for the wide receivers and provided game preparation and film breakdown for the defensive coaches.

He moved into a graduate assistant/video analyst role for special teams in 2012, helping develop game plans and scouting reports for the Wildcats and then in 2013, was named the offensive analyst under offensive coordinator Neal Brown. Under Brown, Estes-Waugh assisted with opponent breakdown, developed recruiting boards and charted offensive play goals.

The Paris, Ky., native attended Paris High School where he was a three-sport standout in football, baseball and basketball.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Kentucky in economics in 2012 and is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership.

SHANE FANNIN

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS VIDEO

Shane Fannin is in his eighth year at the University of Kentucky as the director of sports video.

Prior to joining the UK team in 2007, Fannin owned and operated Digital Blue, a video production business. He also spent time as a member of WKYT-TV in Lexington.

Fannin graduated from Morehead State University with a major in communications and a minor in marketing/ public relations. A native of Morehead, Ky., he is married to Ganan Fannin. The couple has three children, Clay, Cali and Ciah.

CHRISTIAN FIERO

SPORTS VIDEO PRODUCTION COORDINATOR

Christian Fiero is in his second year as the football video coordinator at Kentucky.

He came to the Bluegrass in 2014 with over seven years of experience, four of which came in the sports video department at Florida State. For three years he served as the assistant director of video operations and football video coordinator and in 2013 was voted the Atlantic Coast Conference Co-Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers. Before being promoted to assistant director, he was the coaches video assistant at FSU from 2010-11, and prior to moving to Tallahassee, Fla., was the sports video graduate assistant at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., for two seasons.

The Midway, Ky., native, received his bachelor's degree in broadcasting and electronic media in 2008 from Eastern Kentucky and was a student football video coordinator for Colonels during the 2007-08 season.

Fiero is an active member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

Hancock works primarily with special teams. He spent two seasons as defensive quality control and a recruiting assistant for the Wildcats as he worked with the defensive coaches, broke down opponent and self-scout film and organized daily meeting review tapes. He also assisted in on-campus recruiting and built defensive recruiting boards.

Prior to UK, he served as the quarterbacks coach and co-passing game coordinator at Kentucky Wesleyan College and was the assistant quarterbacks coach for one season at his high school alma mater, Lexington Catholic. He played quarterback for the Knights and was a member of the 2005 state championship team. Hancock earned all-district honors as a senior and holds several school passing records.

Hancock, a Lexington, Ky., native, graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan in 2012 with a degree in communications and is currently working on a master's degree in sport leadership from UK.

MARC HILL*EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Marc Hill is in his 17th year at the University of Kentucky and in his fifth year in his current role as executive associate director of athletics.

Hill serves as the primary sport administrator for the UK football program, overseeing day-to-day operations and budget, assisting the coaching and support staff and functioning as the liaison between the program and the UK Athletics Department.

In addition, Hill oversees the internal operations of UK Athletics, including business and accounting, human resources, event and facility operations, capital projects, sports turf, sport equipment operations and strength and conditioning programs.

Hill also is working with the $120 million renovation of Commonwealth Stadium and the planning and construction of the new $45 million football practice/office complex. Previously, he helped oversee the development of three new facilities, the John Cropp Softball Stadium, the Wendell and Vickie Bell Soccer Complex and the UK Golf House.

Prior to his current role, Hill spent two years as the sport administrator for UK baseball, including the 2012 campaign that was the most successful season in the history of the team.

Hill arrived at Kentucky in 1999, spending 11 years as director of strength and conditioning for all of UK's 22 sports, including direct supervision of football. During his term as a strength coach, Hill helped UK advance to five bowl games, including three victories. In Hill's final eight seasons working as the director of strength and conditioning, a Kentucky player was named to the All-America Strength Team by the National Strength Coaches Association.

Hill came to UK from the University of Arizona, where he worked from 1995-99 as the strength coach for the men's basketball and baseball teams and assistant strength coach in football. During Hill's time in Tucson, Arizona went to three bowl games, and as strength coach for the men's basketball team, he worked with the 1997 national championship team. He also was a graduate assistant coach in the 1994-95 school year and has completed his master's degree.

Hill is a native of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. He went on to Iowa Wesleyan College, where he was a four-year starter at linebacker from 1990-93.

Hill and his wife, Jenny, have sons Dalton and Cogan and a daughter, Brooke. Jenny, a former athlete at the University of Arizona, was the 1996 national player of the year in college softball.

TOM KALINOWSKI*EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Tom Kalinowski enters his 38th year as equipment manager for the Kentucky football program.

Kalinowski, a native of Middletown, Conn., received his undergraduate degree from Kentucky in 1978. He had served as a student manager at UK, beginning in 1974 until his graduation. Kalinowski was named head football equipment manager in 1978.

Kalinowski is a Certified Equipment Manager as designated by the American Equipment Managers Association. He has served on advisory boards for two equipment manufacturing companies, Shutt and Bike.

He graduated from Xavier High School in Middletown in 1974. He was the student manager there for the football, baseball and basketball programs.

Kalinowski and his wife, Vicki, have two sons, Ian and Cody.

JIM MADALENO*DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

Jim Madaleno enters his 11th year as director of sports medicine at Kentucky, his 19th year overall with the Wildcats' athletic training staff.

Madaleno came to UK from Valdosta State University, where he was head athletic trainer from 1989-97 and also served as assistant athletics director for sports medicine.

Madaleno also worked as the undergraduate curriculum director for an athletic training education program that has been accredited nationally.

Madaleno began his athletic training career as a student athletic trainer at Michigan State University, where he graduated in 1980. He was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Florida State in 1980-81 and earned a master's in the department of movement science.

Madaleno first went to Valdosta State in 1982 with the inception of the school's football program as the school's first full-time athletics trainer.

In 1985, Madaleno took an assistant athletics trainer's position with the New York Giants. He was with the team when the Giants defeated Denver in the 1987 Super Bowl.

In 1988, Madaleno joined the renowned Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, Ga. He specialized in high school relations and promoted the need for certified athletic trainers on the high school level. However, Madaleno missed the day-to-day relationships with athletes and the excitement of competition, so he returned to Valdosta State in 1989.

Over his career, Madaleno has mentored hundreds of students in their pursuit of athletic training. Four of his former Kentucky assistants are now head athletic trainers for football in the Southeastern Conference - Jeff Allen at Alabama, Paul Silvestri at Florida, Owen Stanley at Texas A&M and Matt Summers at Arkansas.

In addition to his bachelor's and master's degrees, Madaleno is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and in the state of Kentucky.

He is a native of Dearborn, Mich. Jim and his wife, Paddy, have two children, Kiley Ann and Ryan James.

BRITTANY MULLINS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT/RECRUITING

Brittany Mullins is in her fourth season working in the Kentucky football recruiting office, her first as a graduate assistant.

An integral part of day-to-day operations in the UK football offices for the last four years, Mullins' current duties include managing all recruiting mailings and UK's in-house football social media platforms. She also oversees student workers in the recruiting office and assists in the coordination of registration for recruiting visits.

Mullins started in the football office as an operations intern in 2012 and 2013, serving as an assistant to the entire UK coaching and support staff. She then served as the recruiting assistant from 2013-14.

Mullins, a native of Lewisburg, Ohio, is working on her master's degree in sport leadership. She earned a bachelor of science degree in sports management from Eastern Kentucky University in 2012 with a minor in business.

NICHOLAS PAPAS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT/VIDEO ANALYST

Nicholas Papas is entering his second season as a graduate assistant/video analyst, working primarily in the UK football recruiting office.

Papas spent the last two years at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, La., where he last served as the assistant director of football operations in 2013. In the fall of 2012, he served as a graduate assistant for marketing at NSU, helping execute the athletic department's marketing plan for football, men's basketball, women's basketball and women's soccer.

Prior to NSU, Papas spent three years as an assistant football coach at Central Academy in his hometown of Macon, Miss., helping coach the junior high and high school offensive and defensive lines and special teams.

Papas graduated from Mississippi State in 2009 with a degree in communications before receiving his master's degree in health and human performance with a concentration in sport administration in 2014 from Northwestern State. He is currently working on a second degree in sport leadership from UK.

JOSH PRUITT

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Josh Pruitt enters his third season on the UK coaching staff, his first in a new role as the director of player development. Prior to being promoted to his current position in April, he served as a graduate assistant for the offense.

Pruitt came to Kentucky from Kilgore Junior College where he was the assistant head coach. He ran the offense at Kilgore that saw 2013 transfer Steven Borden, head coach Mark Stoops' first signee at Kentucky, catch 11 passes for 181 yards and four touchdowns as a sophomore. Pruitt also coached Division I signee Ed'Marques Batties to All-America and first-team all-conference honors.

Under Pruitt's tutelage, Kilgore went 8-3 in 2012 and earned an invitation to the inaugural Brazos Valley Bowl at Kyle Field in College Station, Texas. Four of his offensive players went on to earn all-conference awards that season.

Pruitt played for two seasons at Garden City (Kan.) Community College before transferring to Troy. He was a member of the 2006 Sun Belt championship and the 2006 New Orleans Bowl championship team.

After his playing days, Pruitt moved into a graduate assistant role for the Trojans. Pruitt helped coach the 2009 squad that ranked third nationally in total offense, fourth in passing and 16th in scoring. Troy went on to win four conference championships and appear in the 2008 New Orleans Bowl and 2009 GMAC Bowl.

Before Kilgore, Pruitt had coaching stints at Catholic University in Washington D.C. and East Mississippi Junior College in Scooba, Miss. While at East Mississippi Junior College, he helped sign transfer Za'Darius Smith, a 2015 NFL Draft Pick by the Baltimore Ravens.

Pruitt, a native of Ellsworth, Kan., received his undergraduate degree in criminal justice and a master's degree in criminal law, both from Troy.

2015 PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

GEORGE ASAFO-ADJEI

Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 325, Fr-HS
WEST CHESTER, OHIO (LAKOTA WEST)

Graduated a semester early and enrolled at Kentucky in January ... Made a great impression during spring practice and could earn a spot in the playing rotation ... Was tried at both guard and tackle ... Very strong for a player coming out of high school ... Also light on his feet.

High School: Physical offensive line prospect who brings SEC size to the Bluegrass out of Lakota West High School in West Chester, Ohio ... Two-year starter on the offensive line and also played some on the defensive line ... Four-star prospect by 247sports.com and three-star player by Scout.com, Rivals.com and ESPN.com ... Scout.com ranks him the 27th-best offensive guard in the class of 2015 and the second best in the state of Ohio ... Rivals.com and 247Sports.com rank him the No. 21 overall prospect in the state of Ohio ... Scout.com says he is a "natural bender with the ability to pull and reach his target while keeping balance and getting great explosion from the hips along with his physical size and strength to overpower defenders" ... Was a 2014 All-Ohio first-team selection ... First-team All-Southwest Ohio in 2013 and 2014 ... Also first-team Greater Miami Conference ... Participated in the Semper Fidelis All-American Bowl in January 2015 after being named a Semper Fidelis All-American ... Named the Anthony Munoz Foundation Offensive Lineman of the Year this past season ... Blocking helped guide Lakota West to the Elite 8 of the state playoffs as a senior, the best finish in school history ... His pass protection helped the team shatter the school's single-season passing record in 2014 ... Coached by Larry Cox ... "George's success had a direct correlation with his character," Cox said. "As great a football player he is, he is an even better human being. He is the hardest worker and strongest player we have had here in this program and that is broad ranging because I have players that have started for Texas, Alabama and Ohio State. He has only been playing football since his freshman season and has just scratched the surface of his potential. The sky is the limit for him and it has been very rewarding for me to see him go from a first-time player his freshman season to a High School All-American" ... Asafo-Adjei will rejoin former Lakota West teammates Mikel Horton and Kyle Meadows at UK ... Also wrestled in high school one season, winning several varsity meets ... Chose Kentucky over Louisville, Florida, Ohio State and Nebraska.

Personal: Born in the Bronx, N.Y. ... Last name pronounced "ah-SAH-fo ah-JAY" ... Son of Kate Boadi ... Major is sociology.

George Says ... Other than the NFL, my dream job is: to take care of underprivileged kids ... My favorite part of the game is: fourth quarter ... The coolest thing about UK is: the fan base ... The one thing I like most about football is: it teaches core values such as attitude and character ... What's the best advice you've ever received? Work hard in all aspects of life.

JACOB HYDE

Nose Guard/Fullback, 6-2, 320, So-Sq
MANCHESTER, KY. (CLAY COUNTY)

One of the more intriguing stories of spring practice ... Got a trial at fullback and was an instant "hit" ... Coaches and teammates were very enthusiastic about his potential to contribute, except for the defensive players who had to take on a 320-pound fullback ... Will begin preseason drills as a nose guard and fullback ... Has demonstrated a solid work ethic in practice and also has made good gains in strength in UK's high-performance program ... In the defensive line, he does a good job holding his own at the point of attack.

2013 (Freshman): Redshirt season.

High School: Was Kentucky's first verbal commitment of the 2013 signing class ... One of the nation's top-50 defensive tackles by Rivals.com and 247Sports.com ... First-team all-state as a senior as chosen by The Associated Press ... Comes to Lexington from Clay County High School, where he played for head coach Evan Napier ... Played defensive tackle and offensive guard in high school, but is projected on the defensive side for Kentucky ... Helped Clay County finish 8-4 his sophomore season en route to an appearance in the Class AAAAA state playoffs ... Helped lead Kentucky all-stars to a 29-27 win over Tennessee in the National Guard Border Bowl ... Played for the USA national team in the International Bowl on Feb. 5 in Austin, Tex. ... Also attended the USA national team summer camp in the summer between his junior and senior years ... Named All-SEK by MaxPreps.com ... Also chosen first team on the All-Mountain squad.

Personal: Born in Lexington ... Son of Patricia and Mackey Hyde ... Plans a major in social work, hopes to eventually work with children.

Community Cats: Visitor at nursing home (2015).

Jacob Says: I wear uniform number 66 because: it has sentimental value ... Other than the NFL, my dream job is: warden at a prison / major case worker ... I couldn't live without my: family, God ... If I could witness any event, past, present or future, it would be: UK vs. LSU in 2007 ... The coolest thing about UK is: seeing all the different cultures spread throughout the campus ... Something people might not know about me is: passion for mentoring children.

2014 SEASON IN REVIEW

2014 GAME RECAPS

1 KENTUCKY 59, UT MARTIN 14

AUG. 30, 2014 • LEXINGTON, KY.

Braylon Heard's first-half touchdown runs of 73 and 43 yards spurred Kentucky to a season-opening, 59-14 rout of Tennessee-Martin.

Quarterback Patrick Towles added a TD passing and running in his first career start for Kentucky, which outgained the Skyhawks 656-398. The Wildcats' sophomore threw for 377 yards and accounted for 407 yards total offense. Kentucky's tailbacks set the tone by flying through huge holes and scoring virtually untouched, especially Heard, the junior transfer whose TDs were his only carries of the day. The scores propelled Kentucky to a 35-0 halftime lead and the Wildcats never looked back.

True freshman Mikel Horton also scored twice and sophomore Jojo Kemp added a TD run for Kentucky. Linebacker Khalid Henderson returned a third-quarter fumble 89 yards for a score.

UT Martin spoiled Kentucky's bid for its first shutout since September 2009 as Najee Ray and Caylo Weathers scored fourth-quarter TDs on 1-yard run and 15-yard reception, respectively.

By then the Wildcats had already overwhelmed the Skyhawks on both sides of the ball. The Wildcats' 656 yards were their fourth-highest total in a game. Besides the lopsided yardage margin, the UK defense claimed five turnovers, two interceptions and three fumble recoveries. Safety A.J. Stamps, a junior-college transfer in his first UK contest, made a spectacular one-handed interception and a tackle for loss. Stamps and Henderson shared game-high honors with eight tackles each.

Towles was great in his first career start, completing 20 of 29 attempts without an interception and the backfield rushed for 234 yards and ended up showing the scheme's big-play potential. Heard demonstrated that on both TDs, blazing through big holes on consecutive drives to put Kentucky up 21-0 after Kemp started the scoring with a two-yard rush.

True freshman Blake Bone and Horton added touchdowns before halftime to give the Wildcats a 35-0 lead. The Wildcats didn't let off the gas coming out of the locker room as UK forced a fumble on the opening kickoff and Towles rushed in from 23 yards out three plays later to put UK up 42-0.

Freshman kicker Austin MacGinnis nailed a 20-yard field goal later in the third quarter before Henderson's fumble return for a touchdown gave UK a 52-0 lead.

2 KENTUCKY 20, OHIO 3

SEPT. 6, 2014 • LEXINGTON, KY.

Kentucky quarterback Patrick Towles threw for 170 yards and rushed for 59 more to lead the Wildcats to a 20-3 win over Ohio on Saturday at Commonwealth Stadium.

Towles completed 17-of-31 passes and one touchdown and led the Wildcats to their first 2-0 start since 2011. He got the Wildcats off to a fast start with touchdown drives on the first two possessions, including an 8-yard touchdown toss to freshman wide receiver Dorian Baker, followed by a 53-yard scoring burst by freshman running back Stanley "Boom" Williams.

Williams, Jojo Kemp, Josh Clemons and Mikel Horton split time in the backfield in the absence of starter Braylon Heard, who missed the game because of a sprained ankle. Williams led the Wildcats with 60 yards rushing on five carries, including the 53-yard TD. Towles and the backs combined to rush for 232 yards, UK's second-consecutive game over the 200-yard rushing mark.

Towles had six rushes of 10 yards or more on 22 attempts, including a 16-yard jaunt in the second quarter. Towles made successful completions to four different receivers, with sophomore receiver Ryan Timmons catching 10 passes for 95 yards, both career highs. Baker had two catches for 41 yards, including the touchdown.

Redshirt freshman kicker Austin MacGinnis added a pair of field goals, including a 53-yarder in the second quarter that tied Doug Pelfrey's school record for longest field goal in school history.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense kept the visitors out of the end zone as the Wildcats held consecutive opponents scoreless in the first half for the first time since 1988. UK limited Ohio to just 223 total yards. Safety A.J. Stamps was the leading tackler with six stops and he was one of five Wildcats who had a pass breakup. Sophomore defensive end Jason Hatcher had 2.5 tackles for loss.

Ohio avoided the shut out on Josiah Yazdani's 44-yard field goal at the 12:12 mark of the third quarter.

3 FLORIDA 36, KENTUCKY 30 (3 OT)

SEPT. 13, 2014 • GAINESVILLE, FLA.

Matt Jones' 1-yard touchdown plunge in the third overtime gave Florida a 36-30 home victory over Kentucky, ending one of the most exciting games in series history.

After Kentucky missed a field goal to begin the third frame, Jones followed with three runs that put Florida at the 1 and then slammed through the line on second down for the game-winner.

Overtime began with UK's Stanley "Boom" Williams taking a short pass, reversing field, and outrunning several tacklers to score from 25 yards out. Florida countered when Jeff Driskel hit Demarcus Robinson in the corner of the endzone on 4th-and-7 from the UK 9-yard line. The teams exchanged field goals in the second overtime.

The game began with a defensive struggle and was tied at 3-3 at halftime. Kentucky's third-consecutive game without allowing a touchdown in the first half. A third-quarter offensive explosion saw both teams score two touchdowns, including Wildcat freshman wide receiver Garrett Johnson hauling in TD tosses of 60 and 33 yards from Patrick Towles. Johnson finished the game with six catches for 154 yards, a UK freshman record. Towles completed 24-of-45 passes for 369 yards and three touchdowns.

Kentucky kicker Austin MacGinnis, who made three field goals in the game, hit a clutch 51-yarder with 3:52 left in the game to deadlock it at 20-20. Florida missed a 52-yarder on the final play of regulation to put it to extra time.

Florida was led by Driskel, who threw for 295 yards and three touchdowns. Robinson caught 15 passes for 216 yards and two scores, while Jones had a game-high 156 rushing yards.

SEPT. 27, 2014 • LEXINGTON, KY.

A stifling defensive effort limited Vanderbilt to 139 yards of total offense and propelled Kentucky to a 17-7 win on a perfect Saturday afternoon in front of a season-best 56,940 at Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky posted its first league win in the head coach Mark Stoops era, while showcasing a dominating defense that handcuffed Vanderbilt into just 85 passing and 54 rushing yards. In holding Vandy to just 139 yards, it marked the fewest yards allowed by UK in an SEC game since holding the Commodores to 91 yards in 1996.

The Wildcats jumped out to the lead on a 20-yard pass from UK sophomore quarterback Patrick Towles to wide receiver Ryan Timmons, completing a 13-play, 99-yard drive. Towles was 9-for-9 on the drive, connecting with eight different receivers.

The 'Dores evened the game on a 13-yard interception return for a touchdown by Darius Sims in the second quarter. UK answered immediately on the strength of a 44-yard field goal from freshman Austin MacGinnis, completing an 11-play, 47-yard drive. UK stretched the lead to the final margin with a 66-yard drive that concluded with Towles plunging in on third and one with eight seconds remaining in the first half. It improved UK's stretch of outscoring foes in the first half through four games to 72-10, with the UK defense not allowing a touchdown on the campaign.

With the Commodores facing a 10-point hole after intermission, UK's defense went to work, picking off three passes in the fourth quarter to clinch the conference win for UK, improving the Wildcats to 3-0 at home in 2014.

UK's defense totaled three interceptions and six pass breakups, charting four sacks and forcing VU quarterback Wade Freebeck into an 8-for-25 game. UK's front seven was paced by 1.5 sacks from senior defensive end Alvin "Bud" Dupree, with Ashely Lowery, Marcus McWilson and A.J. Stamps each recording interceptions. The interception for McWilson, a sophomore safety, marked his first career pick.

A native of Ft. Thomas, Ky., Towles was 23-for-30 from the air for 201 yards, notching rushing and receiving touchdowns. Senior Javess Blue hauled in a game-high four catches, collecting 35 yards. Timmons, who notched his third career touchdown and his first of the year, finished with three catches for 34 yards.

On the ground, junior Braylon Heard rushed a career-best 15 times for 64 yards, with sophomore Jojo Kemp totaling 60 yards on eight carries. Freshman Mikel Horton rushed six times for 31 yards, with freshman Stanley Williams charting 27 rushing yards on five carries, 39 yards on three catches and 56 yards on two kick returns.

5 KENTUCKY 45, SOUTH CAROLINA 38

OCT. 4, 2014 • LEXINGTON, KY.

Alvin "Bud" Dupree's six-yard interception return for a touchdown with 2:29 remaining capped the biggest fourth-quarter comeback win in school history, a 45-38 victory over South Carolina at Commonwealth Stadium.

In front of 62,135, Patrick Towles threw for 208 yards and a touchdown and Jojo Kemp had 131 yards rushing and three scores - most of them out of the Wildcat formation - to lead the Wildcats to their second consecutive Southeastern Conference victory. Kentucky improved to 4-1 and 2-1 in league play, while South Carolina fell to 3-3 and 2-2 in the SEC.

Kentucky found itself down by two scores twice, but continued to battle back. Trailing 38-24 early in the fourth quarter, UK tallied 21 unanswered points that was the game changer. UK's offense found the end zone on consecutive drives, both Kemp touchdown runs, to tie the game at 38-38.

It was on South Carolina's possession after Kentucky tied the game that the UK defense made its biggest statement yet. With the Gamecocks on their own 20-yard line, defensive tackle Mike Douglas tipped a pass which Dupree gathered at the six-yard line and the senior went untouched into the end zone for the game-winning touchdown. The Kentucky defense followed with another crucial stop, an Ashely Lowery interception on UK's 30-yard line with just over 1:30 to play that all but sealed the Wildcats victory.

South Carolina scored the first 14 points of the game, with touchdowns on its first two possessions. A Mike Davis one-yard run capped a 19-play, 79-yard drive to open the night to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead. After Kentucky punted on its next possession, Davis scored from two yards out to end a 72-yard drive 18 seconds into the second quarter.

Kemp rushed in on UK's following drive to cut the lead in half and after a SC field goal made it 17-7, UK's Braylon Heard scored and A.J. Stamps had a key interception late in the half to set up a 47-yard field goal to tie the game 17-17 at the break.

6 KENTUCKY 48, ULM 14

OCT. 11, 2014 • LEXINGTON, KY.

Led by a strong defensive effort that included two interceptions returned for touchdowns, the Kentucky football team scored 45 unanswered points to defeat ULM, 48-14, at Commonwealth Stadium.

UK overcame a slow start to eclipse at least 45 points for the third time in 2014, the most since 2010. All but three of those points came after Kentucky spotted ULM a 14-3 advantage in the first quarter.

The UK defense, which had two interceptions returned for touchdowns in a game for the first time since 1986, held the Warhawks to 187 yards passing and just 77 yards on the ground. ULM was forced to punt eight times and fumbled five times, one which Kentucky recovered.

Kentucky entered the second quarter trailing 14-3, but after the UK defense forced ULM to punt with less than 10 minutes remaining in the quarter the Wildcats quickly began to cut away at the deficit. Patrick Towles hit Javess Blue for an 83-yard touchdown pass, the longest play of the season for Kentucky, to bring UK within four.

On the next ULM possession, linebacker Josh Forrest returned an interception 29 yards to give UK a 17-14 lead. Following Forrest's pick-six that resulted in the go-ahead score, the UK defense forced ULM into a three-and-out, and six plays later, Blake Bone caught a four-yard touchdown pass from Towles to give UK a 24-14 halftime lead.

UK scored three consecutive touchdowns in the third quarter - Blue made a spectacular one-handed 21-yard grab from Towles; safety Marcus McWilson had a 36-yard interception return for a TD; and Stanley "Boom" Williams raced 58 yards for a score, part of his career-high 104 rushing yards. The TDs by Forrest and McWilson marked the first time since 2008 that UK returned two turnovers for touchdowns in one game, while the four defensive touchdowns are the most in one season since 2008.

LSU 41, KENTUCKY 3

OCT. 18, 2014 • BATON ROUGE, LA.

Facing arguably its toughest test of the season, the Kentucky football team suffered a 41-3 loss to LSU Saturday night in front of 101,581 at Tiger Stadium.

The Wildcats (5-2, 2-2 Southeastern Conference) were held to 217 yards offensively, with 146 coming through the air and 71 rushing yards. UK quarterback Patrick Towles was 19-36 for 146 yards in addition to 16 yards rushing. Demarco Robinson caught three passes for 52 yards, while Ryan Timmons had four catches for 24 yards. On the ground, Mikel Horton led Kentucky with 29 yards.

Defensively, three Wildcats had 10 tackles apiece. Marcus McWilson had an interception, his third pick of the season, along with a career-best 10 tackles. Za'Darius Smith added a sack.

The Tigers (6-2, 2-2 SEC) had 423 total yards, including 303 on the ground and 120 passing. LSU's offensive production was led by Terrence Magee, who ran for 127 yards and two touchdowns in addition to hauling in three passes for 44 yards. Quarterback Anthony Jennings was 7-14 for 120 yards and one touchdown.

LSU scored on the game's opening drive to give the Tigers an early 7-0 lead. The touchdown marked just the second time this season that UK has allowed a game-opening touchdown drive by its opponent. The Tigers' Tre Davious White also returned a 67-yard punt for a touchdown to make it 17-0. Kentucky got on the board with 1:15 left in the first quarter on an Austin MacGinnis 33-yard field goal to cut LSU's lead to 17-3. The score capped a 13-play, 66-yard drive for the Wildcat offense.

LSU went ahead 27-3 at the half. The halftime deficit was the first time this season UK has trailed after 30 minutes.

The Tigers scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, both Magee runs, for the final scores of the contest.

OCT. 25, 2014 • LEXINGTON, KY.

A career outing by sophomore quarterback Patrick Towles was not enough for Kentucky to pull off an upset of visiting No. 1 Mississippi State at Commonwealth Stadium. Towles' career-high numbers included total touchdowns (4), passing yards (390), rushing yards (76) and total offensive yards (466) but it was not enough to offset a 45-31 victory by the Bulldogs.

Towles was 24-of-43 for 390 yards with two touchdowns through the air. The Ft. Thomas, Ky., native logged 76 yards on 23 attempts and a pair of scores on the ground which included a career-long rush of 48 yards in the third quarter. Senior Alvin 'Bud' Dupree led the defensive charge with 10 total tackles. He accounted for 1.5 tackles for a loss, including a sack in the second quarter. He had two quarterback hurries, one which forced an interception and another on a fourth-down play, turning the ball over on downs.

The Bulldogs were led by quarterback Dak Prescott, who passed for 216 yards and a touchdown. He added 88 rushing yards and a pair of scores. Running back Josh Robinson rushed for 198 yards and two touchdowns.

After Mississippi State drove 82 yards for a touchdown on its first possession, the Wildcats utilized a five-play 78-yard drive to counter the top-ranked Bulldogs. Towles found senior Demarco Robinson on a route to the sidelines, and he tip-toed the sideline before racing 67 yards for the score.

Kentucky's defense forced a three-and-out on the Bulldogs' next drive, but suffered a fumble at its own 19-yard line on its second play giving the ball back to State. UK's defense limited the Bulldogs to a 26-yard field goal giving the visitors a 10-7 lead with 2:41 remaining in the opening quarter.

Mississippi State started the second quarter by going 68 yards over 10 plays capped by a two-yard plunge by Prescott to lift the Bulldogs to a 17-7 advantage. Kentucky answered with a 12-play, 58-yard drive of its own which ended in a 34-yard field goal by freshman Austin MacGinnis.

Mississippi State began the second half with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive to take a 24-10 lead. Prescott scampered 12-yards for the score, his second rushing TD of the game. The Wildcats answered with an eight-play, 86-yard scoring drive. A career-long 48-yard dash by Towles highlighted the drive. The QB scurried for a 10-yard score on third down to make it 24-17 in favor of the visitors with 8:33 remaining in the third quarter.

After trading three-and-outs, Mississippi State capitalized on an 81-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Prescott to Brandon Hill for a 31-17 advantage. Kentucky fired back with a gorgeous pitch-and-catch from Towles to senior wideout Javess Blue for 58 yards and the touchdown to make it a one-score game yet again.

With the Wildcats within striking distance, MSU's Robinson broke free for a 73-yard touchdown run with 11:47 remaining in the game to give the visitors a two-possession lead at 38-24.

Kentucky made it a one-score game with 2:31 to go after Towles rushed for his second TD of the game on a four-yard charge. On the ensuing kickoff, Kentucky attempted an on-side kick which was picked up and returned 61 yards for the game-clinching score by Christian Holmes.

MISSOURI 20, KENTUCKY 10

NOV. 1, 2014 • COLUMBIA, MO.

The Kentucky football team's late-game comeback fell short in a 20-10 loss on Faurot Field at Missouri.

Trailing 20-3, the Wildcats scored with 3:26 remaining in the game, recovered the ensuing onside kick, and drove to the 21-yard line, but could not any closer after the Tigers stopped UK on fourth down. Kentucky's touchdown came on a 12-play, 80-yard drive that was capped by a Javess Blue 1-yard touchdown pass from sophomore Patrick Towles.

The Kentucky defense held Missouri to 320 total yards. Junior linebacker Josh Forrest led UK with 10 tackles, two tackles for loss and caused a fumble. Senior DE/LB Alvin "Bud" Dupree finished with five tackles, a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 quarterback sacks.

Offensively, Towles was 19-of-37 for 158 yards with one touchdown. Towles hit freshman Stanley "Boom" Williams five times for 58 yards, including a long of 32 yards. Freshman Mikel Horton led UK on the ground with 62 yards on 10 attempts. Towles also threw one interception, ending a streak of 159 consecutive passes without a pickoff, the second-longest streak in school history.

After both teams punted twice to open the game, Missouri got on the board first with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Maty Mauk to Bud Sasser with 12:56 left in the second quarter. On the following drive, freshman Austin MacGinnis hit a 47-yard field goal to cap a four-play, 45-yard drive.

Mizzou answered on its next drive with another touchdown, a 26-yard pass from Mauk to Sasser, to take a 14-3 lead. The Tigers got on the board again late in the third quarter with a 41-yard field goal before another field goal with 7:23 left in the fourth quarter to make it 20-3. It was on the next drive that the Wildcats answered with the game's final score.

GEORGIA 63, KENTUCKY 31

NOV. 8, 2014 • LEXINGTON, KY.

The Kentucky football team was unable to overcome an early 21-0 deficit in a 63-31 loss to No. 17 Georgia in UK's final home contest Commonwealth Stadium of the 2014 season.

The Wildcats trailed the Bulldogs 21-0 just 10 minutes into the game, but quickly rallied back to score 24 second-quarter points to trail 35-24 at halftime. Georgia scored four unanswered touchdowns in the second half to extend its lead and clinch the verdict.

UK second-quarter spurt began with a three-yard touchdown run by Braylon Heard. Heard's rush capped a 16-play, 74-yard drive that took 6:15, UK's longest scoring drive of the year in number of plays and time of possession. On the ensuing kickoff, Georgia couldn't gain control of the ball, and UK's J.D. Harmon recovered to give the Wildcats possession on UGA's 23-yardline. Eight plays later, Austin MacGinnis hit a 38-yard field goal.

The Bulldogs scored a touchdown on their next drive, but the Wildcats answered. On the third play of the drive, Stanley 'Boom' Williams found a hole and ran for a 56-yard touchdown. Williams finished the day with exactly 100 rushing yards, his second game of the season at the century mark. UK's next possession featured a 13-play, 75-yard touchdown drive capped by a 1-yard quarterback sneak by Patrick Towles. On the day, Towles passes for 139 yards, including an 9-yard TD to Javess Blue in the fourth quarter, and the UK QB also rushed for 60 net yards.

Georgia quarterback Hutson Mason threw for 174 yards and four touchdowns while tailback Nick Chubb led all rushers with 170 yards and a TD. Isaiah McKenzie returned a kickoff and a punt for touchdowns.

11 TENNESSEE 50, KENTUCKY 16
 NOV. 15, 2014 • KNOXVILLE, TENN.

Josh Dobbs threw for 297 yards and rushed for 48, amassing four total touchdowns to lead Tennessee to a 50-16 win over Kentucky in UK's final Southeastern Conference game of the year, on a cold Saturday evening at Neyland Stadium.

Kentucky quarterback Patrick Towles was 13-for-25 and threw for 168 yards. The sophomore also rushed for 29 yards, including a two-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Wide receiver Javess Blue caught six passes for 131 yards. On the game's opening drive, the senior became the 23rd player in program history to eclipse 1,000 career receiving yards. Blue recorded his second game with at least 100 yards receiving in 2014 and third of his career. Ryan Timmons added four catches for 28 yards.

Defensively, junior linebacker Josh Forrest had a career-high 20 tackles. Senior Bud Dupree recorded a career-best 14 total tackles, including a sack and two tackles for loss. With 22.5 sacks in his career, Dupree has recorded the most sacks among current SEC players.

Redshirt freshman Austin MacGinnis had three field goals, including a school-record 54-yard kick to close out the first half. It was MacGinnis' third field goal of 50 or more yards, joining two other kickers in the NCAA to achieve the feat this season.

The Wildcats got on the board first on the game's opening drive. To cap a 12-play, 77-yard drive, MacGinnis hit his first of three field goals, a 32-yarder, to give Kentucky a 3-0 lead. The Volunteers came back with 30 points before UK found the end zone with 1:27 left in the first half on a two-yard run by Towles. The touchdown run, Towles' sixth of the season, was set up thanks to a pair of big receptions by Blue. He hauled in catches of 39 and 30 yards to put UK at the Tennessee 15. Four plays later, Towles' legs found the goal line.

As time expired on the first half, MacGinnis nailed the 54-yard try. His third field goal, a 30-yarder, came on UK's first possession of the third quarter.

12 LOUISVILLE 44, KENTUCKY 40
 NOV. 29, 2014 / LOUISVILLE, KY.

Brandon Radcliff ran for a 4-yard touchdown with 2:47 remaining and Louisville held on to earn a wild 44-40 victory over Kentucky at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

No lead was safe in a back-and-forth game as there were four fourth-quarter lead changes alone. The Cardinals ultimately got the win by driving 81 yards for the game-winning score that capped their fourth and final comeback against the Wildcats.

Kentucky freshman tailback Boom Williams rushed for 126 yards two TDs, barging through several tackles for a 14-yard go-ahead score for a 40-37 lead with 5:31 left.

But the Wildcats left too much time for Louisville and redshirt freshman Kyle Bolin to work with, as he completed three straight passes for 46 yards to James Quick, Kai DeLa Cruz and DeVante Parker (26 yards) before Radcliff ran it in two plays later.

Bolin finished 21 of 31 passing for 381 yards in relief of freshman Reggie Bonnafon, who left the game in the second quarter with a knee injury and did not return. Louisville outgained Kentucky 472-327.

Kentucky got defensive TDs on Fred Tiller's 40-yard interception return and Mike Douglas' 30-yard fumble return along with four Austin MacGinnis field goals. Defensive end Bud Dupree was magnificent in his final game in a Wildcat uniform as he totaled three tackles for loss, had a quarterback sack and forced two fumbles.

HISTORY & TRADITION

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

One of the most impressive collegiate staffs assembled was Blanton Collier's 1959 coaching staff.

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Bud Dupree; from Professor A.M. Miller to Coach Mark Stoops; from old Stoll Field to Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest – vs. Ole Miss in 1967, and in 1969 Wilbur Hackett became the first African-American captain for any SEC team. Then, in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 124 seasons, Kentucky has participated in the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, who the students asked to coach despite his admitted limited knowledge of the game. Miller began the 1892 season, then graciously stepped aside later in the year for John A. Thompson, who had more experience with the sport.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage took the reins of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first national championship and Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with defending national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

In the 1990s, research by Jeff Sagarin, who compiles the Sagarin Computer Ratings for USA Today, indicated that UK is the national champion for the 1950 season under that ranking system.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season.

Kentucky has claimed one national championship, won two SEC championships, and appeared in 15 bowls.

1,230 contests. UK football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in 15 bowls.

UK football has had 16 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 24 first-team All-Americans (selected 28 times), 15 Academic All-Americans (selected 18 times), 75 first-team All-SEC players (selected 101 times), and 564 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easily for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0).

Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland Coach Bear Bryant guided Kentucky to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games from 1946-53.

Other legendary Kentucky football names include Art Still (above), who earned consensus first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1977 and All-America quarterback Tim Couch (left), who led Kentucky to its first New Year's Day Bowl appearance in 47 years in the 1999 Outback Bowl.

He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the task of following in Bryant's footsteps. He stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK. Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his term at UK came in 1964, a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, in Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Commonwealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) in University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) in Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) in Athens, Ga., and beat Florida (14-7) in Gainesville, Fla.

In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white. In all, Curci worked nine years, the longest term of any UK head coach.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

After an 0-10-1 mark in Claiborne's first season, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1 and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 win over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne won 41 games during his eight seasons with the Wildcats. Claiborne and Bryant are the only two UK coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a then-league record of 17 players named to the 1989 honor roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

After Claiborne's retirement, Bill Curry took over as head coach in 1990. The highlight of Curry's term came in 1993 as the Wildcats played in the Peach Bowl.

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a then-record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

The arrival of Coach Hal Mumme in 1997 unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for Kentucky football. Mumme's dynamic "Air Raid" offense put UK among the national leaders in passing yardage and total offense and the '97 team broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

Kentucky returned to the bowl scene in 1998 when the Wildcats won seven games. Quarterback Tim Couch was a first-team All-American, SEC Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy while rewriting NCAA, SEC, and UK record books. Wide receiver Craig Yeast became the leading pass catcher in SEC history. The Wildcats capped their season by playing Penn State in the Outback Bowl, the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 47 years.

Following the Outback Bowl season, Commonwealth Stadium was expanded. UK enclosed both end zones and added personal suites in time for the 1999 season, boosting seating capacity to 67,606. The Wildcats celebrated the stadium expansion with another bowl season. All-America tight end James Whalen helped lead UK to the 1999 HomePoint.com Music City Bowl, marking the school's first back-to-back bowl appearances since 1983-84.

Guy Morriss coached the Wildcats in 2001-02. He guided UK to seven wins in '02, but the Wildcats could not go to a bowl game because of NCAA probation. Derek Abney returned six kicks for touchdowns, more than any player in one season in NCAA history, and was named first-team All-

America along with punter Glenn Pakulak. Pakulak emerged as the best punter in school history and won the Mosi Tatupu Award as National Special Teams Player of the Year.

Inheriting a roster weakened by probation was the major obstacle for Rich Brooks when he took over as head coach in 2003. Brooks' rebuilding efforts began bearing fruit in 2006. The Wildcats had their best season in 22 years by winning eight games, including a 28-20 upset of highly favored Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Led by quarterback Andre' Woodson, tailback Rafael Little, wide receiver Keenan Burton, tight end Jacob Tamme and linebacker Wesley Woodyard, the 2007 season contained some of the most exciting moments in school history.

UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback victory over No. 9 Louisville. UK reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU -- the eventual national champion -- with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music

City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State.

Kentucky capped the 2008 season with a win over East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, the first time in school history that UK won bowl games in three consecutive seasons.

Brooks retired following the 2009 season, handing the reins to former Wildcat player and long-time assistant coach Joker Phillips. Sparked by All-America receiver Randall Cobb, Phillips became the first head coach in UK history to take the Wildcats to a bowl game in his first season, completing a school-record streak of five-straight postseason appearances. Another highlight of Phillips' term was ending the 26-year losing streak vs. Tennessee with a 10-7 win over the Volunteers in 2011.

A new era began in 2013 with the hiring of Mark Stoops as head coach. Stoops and his staff are making a huge impact in recruiting as he works to rebuild the program.

WILDCAT TRADITIONS & LEGENDS

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 124 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A AND 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

BLUE AND WHITE

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

RICH BROOKS

Rich Brooks coached the Wildcats from 2003-09 and became the first coach in school history to go to four-straight bowl games. After enduring three years of rebuilding caused by an NCAA probation, Brooks guided UK to postseason play from 2006-09, winning a school-record three straight bowls following the 2006, '07 and '08 seasons.

Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a victory ride following UK's win at Tennessee in 1984. Claiborne was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT

Paul Bryant, one of the greatest coaches in college football history, spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson and Steve Meilinger.

UK CHEERLEADERS 20-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 20th national cheerleading championship in 2014 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995-2002, 2004-06, 2008-10, 2012 and 2014. They have been the runners-up on six occasions. Jomo Thompson is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach. Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any league school, including a then-record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division I coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in Aug. 2000.

CFA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93, '94 and 2010, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its incoming freshman class.

BLANTON COLLIER AND THE STAFF

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ernal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsparger.

Bear Bryant's Sugar Bowl champion Wildcats earned the 1950 national title, according to the Sagarin computer ratings.

FRAN CURCI

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and downs at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DIGIURO SCHOLARSHIP

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 2014 winner of the scholarship was manager Michael Burchett.

FORWARD PASS

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

The goalposts came down after UK's 1997 overtime win against Alabama.

GOALPOSTS

The Commonwealth Stadium goalposts have been torn down twice since the stadium opened in 1973.

They were first toppled on Oct. 4, 1997, following Kentucky's 40-34 overtime win vs. Alabama. It was Kentucky's first victory against the Crimson Tide in 75 years, prompting the UK student body to storm the field. "If I weren't so old, I'd have torn them down myself," said then-UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton.

It happened again on Nov. 4, 2006, after the Wildcats' dramatic 24-20 triumph over Georgia. It was UK's first win over the Bulldogs in 10 years and the crowd brought down the east goalpost.

Citing safety concerns, UK has installed collapsible goalposts, which will prevent repeats of the popular -- but potentially dangerous -- celebration ritual.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

HOMECOMING GAMES

As is the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 48-21 record in those 69 contests.

THE IMMORTALS

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

In 1965, Nate Northington became the first African-American football player to sign with an SEC school.

CAWOOD LEDFORD

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

MASCOTS

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, entertaining fans at Commonwealth Stadium, Rupp Arena and Memorial Coliseum during athletic events.

Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends academic functions and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University.

Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers.

In the past, UK had a live wildcat mascot that has resided in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60. The most recent live mascot was named "Blue." Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT," "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

MINUS NINETY-THREE

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, in Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Kentucky is the 1950 national champion, according to Jeff Sagarin, who handles computer rankings for USA Today. Sagarin, who has generated computer ratings since the 1970s, has reconstructed earlier seasons and his computer rates the Wildcats as tops for the 1950 campaign.

At the time, the national champs were crowned after the regular season but before the bowl games. UK finished the regular season with a 10-1 record and No. 7 ranking before knocking off No. 1 Oklahoma, 13-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Four teams can lay claim to the 1950 title, according to the official NCAA record book. Six selectors went with Oklahoma (final record 10-1), six picked Tennessee (11-1), two chose Princeton (9-0), and one -- the Sagarin ratings -- named Kentucky (11-1).

THE FIRST NIGHT GAME

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

NIGHT GAMES

Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October -- football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1:15 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate live national or regional television.

NATE NORTINGTON

Nate Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game in Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

Northington, who was known as "Nat" during his playing days, has written an autobiography, Still Running, that was published in 2014.

OUTLAND TROPHY

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

THE PRINCE OF WALES

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales, his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Prince Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

RED DOC, BLACK DOC

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

RUSSELL RICE

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice was recognized as the historian of Wildcats football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, The Wildcats, which details Kentucky football and its history. After his retirement from UK, Rice wrote a weekly historical column for The Cats' Pause magazine and continued to be a rich historical resource for the UK media relations office. He was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012. Rice passed away in 2015.

KENTUCKY FIGHT SONG

On, on U of K, we are right for the fight today,
Hold that ball and hit that line,
Every Wildcat star will shine,
We'll fight, fight, fight,
For the blue and white,
As we roll to that goal, varsity,
And we'll kick, pass and run,
'til the battle is won,
And we'll bring home the victory.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corntop's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.

(Chorus)

Weep no more, my lady!
Oh! Weep no more today!
We will sing one song for my old Kentucky home,
For my old Kentucky home far away.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All merry, all happy, and bright;
By-n-by hard times come a-knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home, good-

UK ALMA MATER

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the Blue and White be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

STOLL FIELD/MCLEAN STADIUM

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

THE THIN THIRTY

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

WILDCATS NICKNAME

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972).

WINNING STREAK

Kentucky ended one of the longest winning streaks in college football history when the Wildcats faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run - was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners.

At the time, the 31-game winning streak was the fifth-longest in NCAA history and today it still ranks as the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

THE YEAR (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

THE YEAR (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. Kentucky has been named national champion for the 1950 season by the Sagarin Ratings. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2.

Kentucky Superfan JIM BROWN

If it has to do with Kentucky football, Jim Brown has seen it all.

When the 96-year-old Brown began attending UK football games, Franklin D. Roosevelt was president, bread cost a few cents a loaf, and Bear Bryant was just a cub.

With one exception we'll get to later, Brown was present for every UK home football game from 1938 until his streak ended during the 2009 season -- a total of 412 home games.

"I'm all for Kentucky football," Brown said. "I liked football from an early age, when I was a little kid in Western Kentucky. Football was the big thing in the 1920s and I followed UK in the sports pages."

Brown's streak began in 1938 when he enrolled as a UK freshman. A standout halfback in high school, he had hoped to play for the Wildcats, but was unable to try out for the team because he had to work his way through school. That didn't stop him from going to the games. In fact, it took a world war to separate Brown from Kentucky football.

"I was in a race with Uncle Sam to graduate before I got inducted into the service," Brown said. "I graduated in 1942 and got sent to Wright Field in Dayton. You couldn't get gasoline, and I didn't have a car anyway, so I caught the train from Dayton to Cincinnati to Lexington to see the games that season. I didn't miss any games in 1943 because, like a lot of schools, UK didn't field a team that year."

World War II finally got bigger than Kentucky football in 1944. Brown was a navigator/bombardier on a B-25 in Asia, part of a squadron called the "Burma Bridge Busters," definitely too far for a weekend excursion to catch the Cats. But he was discharged just in time for the 1945 season, and he didn't miss a home game for 64 straight seasons.

(An interesting side note is that the "Burma Bridge Busters" were the subject of a 2003 documentary by the History Channel. Brown was one of the members of the squadron who was interviewed and featured in the documentary.)

A member of what has become known as "The Greatest Generation," Brown helped build America - literally. He was involved with the construction business, a lumber company, and in real estate.

Even his marriage had a tie to Kentucky football. He married Caroline Rodes, daughter of William "Black Doc" Rodes, a UK football star in 1914-16.

The Browns didn't always live in Lexington but all the while he kept turning out to see his favorite team.

"I always worked on Saturday mornings (at the lumber company). I left a lot of people standing in the store, saying 'I have to go to Lexington,'" Brown recalled with a laugh. "I wasn't trying to set a record. It just happened."

Brown's favorite gridiron memories involve the 1949-50-51 teams that played in the Orange, Sugar and Cotton Bowls, along with the mid-1970s teams that won an SEC championship and a Peach Bowl.

"People who go back that far feel that our 1950 team probably was our best," said Brown, referring to the Wildcat squad that is the 1950 national champion, according to the Sagarin computer ratings. "(Quarterback) Babe Parilli was as good at deception as anyone I've ever seen. I was in a game in Atlanta against Georgia Tech, and a Tech fan was sitting beside me. He said, 'It looks like Parilli is shaking hands with everybody in the backfield before he hands the ball off.'"

"That bunch in 1977 was probably the second-best team we've had," Brown continued. "They had a lot of terrific athletes, especially (future NFL stars) Art Still and Derrick Ramsey."

As much as he enjoys talking about the past, Brown is just as excited about the present and future. After 52 years of marriage, wife Caroline passed away in 1999. He married again in 2002, and new wife Mary Anne Goodson Brown also is a UK grad.

Brown is happy with the progress made at the University.

"We're going in the right direction with Mitch Barnhart ... The whole university is charting an exciting course."

Brown's streak finally came to an end when an illness forced him to miss the Alabama game in 2009. However, he continues to go to Kentucky games when health permits. And, he's a model of faithfulness in more than football. He had a decades-long streak of perfect attendance at the Lexington Rotary Club. He's also a pillar of Crestwood Christian Church, where he is an elder emeritus. Asked about his consistency, Brown replied in what must be the understatement of the year.

"I've always had a tendency to be loyal," he said.

KENTUCKY BOWL SUMMARIES

1947 • GREAT LAKES BOWL // KENTUCKY 24, VILLANOVA 14

The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback/kicker George Blanda gave Kentucky a 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

1950 • ORANGE BOWL // SANTA CLARA 21, KENTUCKY 13

Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64,816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry Williams on a 25-yard pass. Santa Clara eventually scored on a 1-yard sneak by Pasco to tie the game, 7-7.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

Mike Martin was the Defensive Most Valuable Player of the 1976 Peach Bowl when the Wildcats shut out North Carolina.

1951 • SUGAR BOWL // KENTUCKY 13, OKLAHOMA 7

Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 in New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his handoffs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the score. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Marc Logan was the MVP of Kentucky's 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl win over Wisconsin.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a 5-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another Oklahoma scoring threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

1952 • COTTON BOWL // KENTUCKY 20, TCU 7

Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 in Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8-of-20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a 5-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a 3-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

1976 • PEACH BOWL // KENTUCKY 21, NORTH CAROLINA 0

Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the postseason bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the three TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold UNC to just over 100 yards.

1983 • HALL OF FAME BOWL // WEST VIRGINIA 20, KENTUCKY 16

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

WVU scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the Mountaineers' 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead. Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

1984 • HALL OF FAME BOWL // KENTUCKY 20, WISCONSIN 19

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a nine-point deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

The next time Kentucky got the ball, Ransdell moved the Cats into position for Worley's 52-yarder. Starting from the UK 22, tailback Mark Higgs got the call four consecutive times, then it was Adams' turn the next four plays. Facing a fourth-and-two at the UW 34, Worley nailed the game-winner with 8:55 left.

Wisconsin came back and marched to the UK 8 with less than two minutes left. With the Badgers facing a fourth-and-six, Gregoire was called on for his fifth field goal attempt. This time, the snap from center was bobbled and UK sealed the victory.

1993 • PEACH BOWL // CLEMSON 14, KENTUCKY 13

The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson 2-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonso Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a 2-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive. Kentucky was stopped again at the 1-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a 5-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

1999 • OUTBACK BOWL // PENN STATE 26, KENTUCKY 14

Playing on New Year's Day for the first time in 47 years, the Kentucky Wildcats jumped out to an early lead, but the Penn State Nittany Lions rallied for a 26-14 victory in the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla.

Although the game was played in Tampa, the Wildcats certainly felt at home. Heavy ticket demand gave the Outback Bowl its first sellout ever, as more than 40,000 UK fans were packed among the 66,005 patrons in Raymond James Stadium.

Kentucky got on the board first with 7:36 remaining in the first quarter. At the PSU 36-yard line, under heavy pressure, quarterback Tim Couch lofted a rainbow into the end zone that wide receiver Lance Mickelsen caught for a touchdown.

Later in the opening period, UK stretched the lead to 14-3 with a 64-yard drive, capped by a 16-yard TD pass from Couch to halfback Anthony White. Key plays on the drive included a 22-yard pass from Couch to wide receiver Kevin Coleman and a 30-yard aerial to Mickelsen.

From the second quarter, however, Penn State chipped away. Quarterback Kevin Thompson hit flanker Joe Nastasi with a 56-yard touchdown bomb. A second field goal from Travis Forney narrowed the UK advantage to 14-13 at halftime.

The Nittany Lions took the lead for good in the third quarter on two more field goals by Forney, giving him four on the day. Penn State put the game away in the fourth quarter with a 19-yard end-around TD run by Chafie Fields.

Meanwhile, the PSU defense shut out the Wildcats the last three quarters. Kentucky continued to move the ball, but three scoring opportunities came up empty - one on an interception, one on a missed field goal, and the other when the Wildcats were held on downs.

Kentucky actually outgained Penn State, 441 yards to 420. UK might have done even better, but the Wildcats offensive line was missing three senior starters, all of whom were replaced by freshmen.

Couch paced the attack by completing 30-of-48 passes for 336 yards and two TDs, completing his streak of at least 300 passing yards and at least one TD pass in every game of the season. Running backs Anthony White and Derek Homer caught seven balls each. White totaled 101 yards on the day, with eight rushes for 61 yards and seven receptions for 40 yards.

1999 • HOMEPOINT.COM MUSIC CITY BOWL // SYRACUSE 20, KENTUCKY 13

Playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since 1983-84, the Kentucky Wildcats went down to the wire before falling to Syracuse, 20-13, in the HomePoint.com Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn. Kentucky played before a heavily partisan crowd, as almost all of the 59,221 fans were pulling for the Wildcats.

Kentucky blazed to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and maneuvered 79 yards for a touchdown. Tight end James Whalen set up the TD with a 45-yard reception and Kendrick Shanklin ran it in from the 3-yard line.

The Wildcats held on defense, forcing a punt. Quarterback Dusty Bonner again drove the Wildcats inside the 10-yard line before settling for a 22-yard field goal by Marc Samuel. Whalen, however, was injured during the series and was lost for the remainder of the game. Already having caught four passes for 79 yards midway through the first quarter, his presence was sorely missed.

The Kentucky defense continued to stop Syracuse, including two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal, but the Orangemen got on the board late in the second quarter. The Wildcats led at halftime, 10-7.

A scoreless third quarter led to a dramatic final stanza. Samuel extended the UK lead to 13-7 with a 35-yard field goal. Syracuse countered with two scoring runs by James Mungro, taking a 20-13 lead.

Kentucky got its last chance by taking over on its own 4-yard line with only 1:35 remaining and no timeouts. Bonner did a great job of moving the team to the Syracuse 41-yard line, but ran out of time, and a desperation heave on the game's final play fell incomplete.

Bonner led the UK attack by completing 30 of 43 passes for 308 yards and he also ran for 16 yards. In his final game as a Wildcat, running back Anthony White caught eight passes for 85 yards – both figures setting UK bowl records.

Dennis Johnson (56) blocked this Syracuse field goal attempt. Later in the game, Jamal White (47) also blocked a field goal attempt.

Kendrick Shanklin bulled his way into the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown run.

Linebacker Ryan Murphy led the defense in tackles with a career-high 15 stops. Linebacker Marlon McCree had an outstanding game. He tied his career high for tackles with 10, including two tackles for loss and a quarterback sack, caused two fumbles and recovered a fumble. Defensive tackle George Massey (nine) and free safety Anthony Wajda (eight) each tied his career high for tackles.

The Wildcats blocked two field goals, one each by defensive end Dennis Johnson and another by linebacker Jamal White.

Kentucky quarterback André Woodson threw for 299 yards with three touchdowns and the Wildcats won their first bowl game in 22 years with a 28-20 victory over Clemson in front of a record 68,024 fans at the 2006 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson, the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 20-of-28 passes and finished the season with 31 touchdown strikes, joining Tim Couch as the only Wildcats in school history to reach 30 TD tosses in a season. Woodson directed an offense that gave the Wildcats their sixth bowl win in school history by setting a UK record for most points scored in a bowl game.

Kentucky, making its first postseason appearance since 1999, used some offensive wrinkles to score its first-half points. The Wildcats quickly got on the board with a one-yard run by Micah Johnson less than four minutes into the game. Johnson, normally a linebacker, was called upon in the short-yardage situation and the 270-pounder bulldozed his way into the end zone for his first collegiate score.

The Wildcat defense gave ground early, but Clemson stayed off the scoreboard after a pair of missed field goals. The Tigers finally tallied and came within one, 7-6, after a 32-yard pass by quarterback Will Proctor to Durrell Barry in the second quarter.

From there, both teams combined for four turnovers on the next seven plays, but UK closed the half with another surprise maneuver. Facing fourth down and four yards to go from his own 20-yard line, Wildcat punter Tim Masthay faked a punt and completed a 10-yard pass to Marcus McClinton for the first down. On the next play, Woodson followed with a 70-yard bomb to receiver DeMoreo Ford to go into the locker room up 14-6.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense stiffened, stopping the Tigers on six consecutive possessions in the second and third quarters. The Wildcat offense took advantage, making it 21-6 early in the second half after a Clemson fumble. Woodson found wide receiver Dicky Lyons Jr. on a short sideline pass and Lyons took it the rest of the way for a 24-yard score. UK built its lead to 28-6 with a touchdown pass to tight end Jacob Tamme with 11:29 remaining in the game.

Trading yardage for time, Kentucky gave up a pair of clock-eating scoring drives and clinched the victory when Tamme recovered an onside kick with less than a minute to go. That set off a wild celebration among the Wildcats and the 50,000-plus UK fans who packed LP Field.

2007 • GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // KENTUCKY 35, FLORIDA STATE 28

It was a case of "Deja Blue" as Kentucky defeated perennial national power Florida State, 35-28, in the 2007 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

For the second consecutive year, the Wildcats claimed the Music City Bowl championship, quarterback Andre' Woodson won the Most Valuable Player Award and a heavily blue-tinted record sellout crowd of 68,661 packed LP Field in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson capped his UK career in fine fashion, completing 32 of 50 passes for 358 yards and four touchdowns. And, as was typical of the season, a variety of players contributed to UK tallying its most points ever in a bowl game.

Versatile tailback Rafael Little had one of his best games as a Wildcat, rushing for 152 yards while catching eight passes for 50 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Steve Johnson caught seven balls for 124 yards and two TDs. Not expected to participate because of a knee injury, determined wideout Keenan Burton played anyway and also snagged seven passes. Linebacker Wesley Woodyard checked in with his usual solid performance, a game-high 15 tackles.

Kentucky struck quickly and never trailed. Safety Roger Williams blocked a punt on the first possession of the game and tight end Jacob Tamme got the Wildcats on the board with a 14-yard touchdown catch. However, a fumble near the FSU goal line and a missed field goal ruined other UK scoring chances and the teams were tied at 14 apiece at halftime.

Like the year before, Kentucky took control in the third quarter. Woodson directed a pair of 80-yard touchdown drives, with Little scoring on a two-yard pass reception and tailback Tony Dixon running it home from four yards away.

Andre' Woodson was the Music City Bowl Most Valuable Player for the second-consecutive year.

UK made the score 35-21 in the fourth quarter on a 38-yard pass to Johnson, but just like the previous year, the opponent rallied late. FSU drove for a touchdown, got the ball back and was able to throw a bomb to the end zone on the game's final play, but cornerback David Jones knocked down the pass to preserve the victory.

The win marked some big milestones for the Kentucky football program. This was the first time since the 1950 and '51 seasons that the Wildcats notched bowl victories in consecutive years. It was the first time since 1976-77 that UK won eight games in back-to-back seasons.

2009 • AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL // KENTUCKY 25, EAST CAROLINA 19

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown on a 56-yard fumble return as the Kentucky Wildcats defeated East Carolina 25-19 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and won their third-straight bowl game for the first time in school history.

With the game tied at 19 and less than four minutes remaining, UK defensive tackle Myron Pryor knocked the ball away from an ECU running back. The 6-foot-2, 285-pound Jenkins scooped up the ball, stiff-armed a Pirate lineman, and thundered his way down the sideline towards the end zone. The senior from Columbia, S.C., pulled a double move on East Carolina quarterback Patrick Pinkney with a devastating stiff arm – knocking an earpad out of Pinkney's helmet – and a high step. Jenkins said the next thing he remembered was lying in the end zone with his teammates on top of him.

Jenkins' return capped a big Kentucky comeback. East Carolina led 16-3 at halftime, but senior cornerback David Jones gave a huge lift to the Wildcats by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It set a record for the longest kickoff return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Kentucky's lone offensive touchdown came minutes after Jones' kickoff return. Sophomore wide receiver Kyrus Lanxter caught a pass from quarterback Mike Hartline, broke a tackle, and made a nice inside move to avoid another defender and get into the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown reception. Lones Seiber's extra point tied the game at 16 and the teams traded field goals before Jenkins' game-winning fumble rumble.

Following Jenkins' TD, Kentucky got a huge break when East Carolina accidentally downed the kickoff on its own one-yard line. With the help of two pass breakups from freshman cornerback Randall Burden, who was subbing for injured All-American Trevard Lindley, the UK defense forced a punt. UK took over with 2:34 to play and senior tailback Tony Dixon clinched the victory with six straight running plays, grinding out two first downs to run out the clock.

Dixon led all rushers with 89 yards on a career-high 28 carries. Hartline completed 19 of 31 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown. Lanxter set career highs with five catches for 46 yards.

Kentucky's defense held up its end of the bargain with several big plays, totaling nine tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, seven pass breakups and the game's decisive touchdown. Senior linebacker Braxton Kelley made eight tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack. Defensive tackle Myron Pryor went out with a bang with a career-high seven tackles, one for loss, the caused fumble and a pass breakup.

East Carolina took an early 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a Ben Hartman field goal and a 28-yard rushing touchdown by Brandon Simmons. Kentucky got on the board midway through the second quarter with a 21-yard field goal by Seiber, but 12 seconds later East Carolina increased its lead with an 80-yard touchdown pass from Pinkney to Darryl Freeney. That gave the Pirates a 16-3 lead at halftime and set the stage for UK's second-half heroics.

Jenkins was named the game's overall Most Valuable player, while Hartline and Kelley were selected UK's most outstanding offensive and defensive players, respectively. After all the bowl games were completed, Jones and Pryor were named to "All-Bowl Teams" by various college football websites in honor of their outstanding performances.

2009 • GAYLORD HOTELS MUSIC CITY BOWL // CLEMSON 21, KENTUCKY 13

The exciting duo of Derrick Locke and Randall Cobb combined for 224 all-purpose yards and senior Lones Seiber kicked two field goals, but Clemson downed the Kentucky 21-13 in what would turn out to be head coach Rich Brooks' final game on the sidelines.

Played at Nashville's LP Field before a crowd of 57,280, the game was primarily dominated by the defenses. Kentucky gained 277 total yards and Clemson's potent attack was limited to 321 total yards.

Kentucky got on the board on its first possession of the game. True freshman quarterback Morgan Newton drove the Wildcats 61 yards, the final 17 on a touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Seiber provided the rest of the scoring for the Wildcats, booting field goals of 39 and 44 yards.

Clemson, champion of the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference, gradually moved back into contention. The Tigers tied the score at 7-7 on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Parker to Jacoby Ford, then went ahead 14-10 at halftime with one-yard run by Jamie Harper.

Trailing 14-13 to start the fourth quarter, the Wildcats forced a three-and-out and took over at their own 13-yard line. Newton completed a short pass, but Clemson linebacker Kavell Konnor forced the ball loose and the Tigers recovered the only turnover of the game. All-America tailback C.J. Spiller scored three plays later as Clemson went up 21-13.

Kentucky tried to battle back on the following possession, keeping the drive alive on a fourth-down conversion by punter Ryan Tydlacka. Four plays later, Newton came up inches short on a fourth-and-eight scramble, and the Wildcats turned the ball over on downs. Clemson was able to run out the remaining time on the clock.

Chris Matthews got the scoring started with a 17-yard touchdown reception from Morgan Newton.

Coach Rich Brooks concluded his career by taking Kentucky to a school-record four-straight bowl games.

Spiller, the ACC Player of the Year, was the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite his gaudy numbers entering the game and Heisman-caliber resume, the Kentucky defense did a solid job on Spiller, allowing him just 67 rushing yards and one TD.

Sophomore linebacker Danny Trevathan led the UK defense with eight tackles, including one for loss, and caused one fumble. Junior cornerback Paul Warford and senior linebacker Micah Johnson added five tackles each.

The loss snapped Kentucky's three-game bowl winning streak, the longest in school history. Following the game, Brooks announced he probably would step down as head coach and turn the headset over to offensive head coach, and selected coach-in-waiting, Joker Phillips. Brooks finalized the decision a week later.

The game marked the second time in four seasons Kentucky played Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The Wildcats won the previous meeting in 2006, 28-20.

2010 • BBVA COMPASS BOWL // PITTSBURGH 27, KENTUCKY 10

In what would eventually be his final game as a Kentucky Wildcat, UK All-American Randall Cobb earned a game-high 204 all-purpose yards, breaking the Southeastern Conference single-season record as Kentucky fell 27-10 to Big East tri-champion Pittsburgh in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl.

The bowl appearance was the school-record fifth consecutive for the Wildcats, who have now appeared in postseason play a total of 15 times with an 8-7 record. The bowl appearance for head coach Joker Phillips marked the first time in school history that a UK coach has gone to a bowl game in his first season on the job.

Kentucky entered the game with new faces on the coaching staff and at quarterback as co-defensive coordinator Rick Minter coached his first game with the Wildcats, while sophomore Morgan Newton gained his first start of the season at quarterback after the suspension of senior Mike Hartline.

Minter's defense performed well in the game, limiting Pittsburgh to 96 passing yards on just nine completions while Randall Burden grabbed a key interception in the first quarter. Danny Trevathan led UK in tackles with 14, while Winston Guy had eight tackles, a tackle-for-loss and a pass breakup.

On the offensive side, Newton was 21-for-36 for 211 yards, while senior Derrick Locke paced UK in rushing and receiving with 12 rushes for 71 yards and six receptions for 61 yards. Cobb ended his UK career with three rushes for 23 yards and five catches for 62 yards.

The game started with Pittsburgh receiving the ball and marching 53 yards down the field before Tino Sunseri was picked off by Burden to swing momentum to the Wildcats. After Newton completed three consecutive passes and Locke had a brilliant 28-yard rush into Pitt territory, the Wildcats made their only turnover of the game and fumbled the ball. The Panthers then went three and out and on the ensuing position, Craig McIntosh drilled a 50-yard field goal to give the Wildcats their lone lead of the game 3-0.

Pittsburgh took the lead late in the second quarter 6-3 after Dan Hutchins hit back-to-back field goals from 21 and 33 yards. The Panthers scored their first touchdown late in the quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Sunseri to go up 13-3 at halftime.

The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. On Pitt's first possession of the half, Sunseri hit Brock DeCicco for a touchdown to give the Panthers their biggest lead of the game at 20-3.

The Wildcats put together a good drive later in the quarter. Newton guided the Cats 74 yards on 14 plays, capped when senior fullback Moncell Allen bulldozed in from one-yard out to cut the lead to 20-10. Pittsburgh tacked on its final touchdown in the fourth quarter.

TEAM RECORDS

OLE MISS BEHIND KESTNER

Rick Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson in 1964 . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

BISHOP'S THEFT GIVES UK VICTORY

Darryl Bishop of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14 . . . One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Commonwealth Stadium is undergoing a $120 million renovation in time for the 2015 season.

Commonwealth Stadium is undergoing a $120 million renovation that is scheduled to be complete in time for the 2015 season.

The renovation includes a new look for the exterior of the stadium, along with redesigned concourses, new concession stands and restrooms, additional suites, new loge boxes, two new club areas, a new press box, a new recruiting room and upgraded team support facilities. A new artificial turf playing surface also is being installed, providing sure footing regardless of the weather or time of year.

Commonwealth Stadium has had several upgrades over the years and the most recent change was in 2011 as new video boards were installed in each end zone of the stadium. The two boards, each measuring 39 by 79 feet, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability to the stadium. Installed by Daktronics, the project cost approximately $6 million dollars. Along with the video boards, a "ribbon board" was installed around the upper deck of the stadium, adding more information and enjoyment to the fan experience.

The updates further enhance the home of Kentucky football, which is now in its 43rd season as the lair of the Wildcats. When constructed in 1973, Commonwealth Stadium had a capacity of 57,800 and was completed at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols. The stadium and parking areas rest on an 86-acre plot that was once part of the UK Experimental Station Farm Grounds.

The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/McLean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis ran for two touchdowns and threw for another TD to lead the Wildcats. Since its opening, Kentucky has played 270 games in the friendly confines, including a 143-123-4 (.537) record.

The playing area was named C.M. Newton Field, in honor of the former UK director of athletics, in 2001.

The stadium was expanded in 1999. Both end zones were enclosed, along with the construction of 40 suites, 10 in each corner of the stadium.

The project was handled by HNTB of Kansas City, Mo., and Turner Construction of Cincinnati, Ohio. A total of $27.6 million was allocated for the expansion, which also included the original Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video boards, new scoreboards and additional restrooms and concession stands. The attendance capacity was 67,942 in 2012 but will be less this year as construction has eliminated an undetermined number of seats.

Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 63,408 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 25 teams in attendance for 11 seasons. Every single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years.

Media will enjoy a spacious new press box in the new stadium. In addition to the main media area, there are television and radio broadcast booths, coaches booths, an instant replay facility and additional suites.

There is also a field-level room to service photographers, located on the south concourse.

Former Kentucky linebacker Terry Clayton, who is deaf, could not hear the roar of the crowd at Commonwealth Stadium.
“But,” Clayton said, “I can feel the rumble!”

THE UNIVERSITY

The University of Kentucky is in the midst of $1.7 billion of campus construction, including several new dormitories such as Central Hall (pictured here).

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

DID YOU KNOW ...

- UK students enjoy a great range of academic choices, with approximately 200 majors available in 17 academic colleges supported by a comprehensive library system.
- UK is one of only eight public institutions in the United States with colleges of agriculture, engineering, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.
- UK has a diverse student body with enrolled students representing every Kentucky county, all 50 states and more than 100 countries around the world.
- In the last five years, UK earned nearly 100 national rankings for excellence in teaching, research and service. Overall, UK has 28 programs ranked among the top 10 in their discipline.
- UK was the nation's first university to raise a billion dollars in its first-ever capital campaign, making it the 31st American university – both public and private – that successfully completed campaigns of more than $1 billion.
- UK Libraries is among the world's leading research libraries, and boasts among the largest book endowment of all public universities in the United States.
- The UK Chandler Medical Center, established in 1957, is one of the nation's finest academic medical centers. Through its state-of-the-art patient care facility and emergency rooms, advanced medical and biological research, and a network of affiliate health care agencies, UK HealthCare has strategically developed an incredible capacity serve the Commonwealth and region.
- UK has a vibrant fine arts program and is a cultural hub for arts engagement in the Commonwealth. Through performances, exhibitions, teaching and education programs, UK's efforts and creativity in the arts reach thousands across the Commonwealth, region and world.
- UK Athletics continues to be a leader beyond the field of play. UK Athletics provided $3 million to the university this past year in support of non-athletic, academic scholarships, as well as $65 million toward a new Academic Science Building.
- UK alumni see success too. A shining example of that success is Matt Cutts (A&S and Engineering 1995), a native of Morehead, Ky., who is one of Google's first 100 employees ever and was on the ground floor of what is today the world's largest search engine.

OPEN UP A WORLD OF PROMISE

For 150 years, the University of Kentucky has served the people of the Commonwealth and our region. Through the education we provide, the creative research we conduct, and the care and service we render, we are the university for Kentucky -- the institution our Commonwealth has charged with asking and addressing the most penetrating questions confronting our state and her people, the vexations that challenge us in education, economic development, health care, and cultural and societal advance.

What does that commitment mean to you?

It means that from day one on our campus you can study with faculty who are leaders in their fields. You can walk 10 minutes in any direction and work with a world-class clinician, chemist, historian, poet, engineer, business specialist, and others. We hold fast to our first priority -- the development of our students, the young men and women who come here with bright, uncompromising potential and who we expect to leave here ready to lead lives of leadership, meaning and purpose.

We have a deep sense of service, along with an uncommon position as both the state's flagship and land-grant institution. Strong linkages exist among graduate education, academic research and our clinical medical enterprise. Those partnerships have helped build a nationally respected medical center that increasingly provides access to advanced subspecialty care for those most in need across the state and region.

Together, our campus is at the forefront of creativity and discovery. UK is currently one of only 22 public institutions with a trifecta of federal designations of excellence -- for aging, in cancer and with respect to translational science. We have been home or educational proving ground for Nobel Laureates and the National Book Award winner; state poet laureates and winners of the Pulitzer Prize. Our faculty members across disciplines are working in communities to improve cancer-screening rates; are using the latest computational science technology to unlock the treasures of the Dead Sea Scrolls in Paris; or are providing their skills to improve drinking water in Central and South America.

To support our work, the University is investing more than $1.7 billion in its academic, research, health care, athletic and community infrastructure, the vast majority of which is the result of private fund-raising efforts, public-private partnerships, and the support of university athletics. The physical transformation -- combined with our traditional mission of service, discovery and teaching -- has given us a sense of momentum and a renewed sense of purpose.

Our campus is the Commonwealth. Though we are in and of Lexington, we have a footprint through our extension network in all 120 Kentucky counties. Our health care enterprise partners with 170 clinical outreach practices reaching some 4,300 beds. The economic impact of our research exceeds $580 million, creates jobs, generates tax revenue and addresses the seemingly intractable challenges we face.

As an institution, collectively, we represent a powerful pairing of global reach, but enduring commitment to one state. We have a vision to be one of the handful of truly outstanding residential public research campuses in the United States, a special place that elevates a Commonwealth and impacts a larger world beyond its borders.

WE INVITE YOU TO COME SEE BLUE WITH US!

DR. ELI CAPILOUTO, PRESIDENT

Dr. Eli Capilouto became the 12th President of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2011.

As President, Dr. Capilouto has intently engaged with university and community stakeholders to renew our founding mission and vision as a public, Flagship, Land-Grant and Research University. This covenant with the Commonwealth calls upon the University of Kentucky to be a guidepost for the state through a multi-faceted mission of teaching, research, service and health care.

To embolden the institution's enduring legacy, Dr. Capilouto has led a process to enrich UK's academic experience by increasing institutional investments in merit-based financial aid and expanding the University Honors Program. Because of his priorities, the University has enrolled 289 National Merit, National Achievement and National Hispanic Scholars in the last three years – tripling the number of incoming Scholars.

Since Dr. Capilouto's arrival, UK has initiated more than 89 projects and $1.7 billion in ongoing and approved capital construction to rapidly enhance and expand the college experience on the University campus.

Under his leadership, the University engaged in an innovative public/private partnership to revitalize the core of campus and create modern living/learning communities. Thus far, 12 new residence halls have been completed or are underway – a total investment of $348 million by our private partner, EdR. In addition to the investment in the residential core, the University is self-financing and partnering on major capital projects essential to its academic and financial future: a $65 million renovated and expanded Gatton College of Business and Economics supported by donors and private philanthropy; a new $110 Academic Science Building financed, in-part, through a $65 million partnership with UK Athletics; and a $120 million revitalized Commonwealth Stadium funded with Athletics revenue; a new football training complex financed by philanthropy; a $175 million renovation and expansion of the Student Center; $150 million to continue the fit-out of Chandler Hospital; a new home for the School of Art and Visual Studies; a new $265 million multi-disciplinary health sciences research facility in partnership with the state; and the renewal of the College of Law in partnership with donors and the state.

Research at the University of Kentucky is a dynamic enterprise encompassing a full spectrum of academic inquiry, including the humanities, social sciences, traditional scholarship and emerging technologies. UK's research faculty, staff and students are establishing UK as one of the nation's most prolific public research universities in the nation. In 2013, UK's Markey Cancer Center was designated as a National Cancer Center by the National Cancer Institute; placing UK among an elite group of 22 research universities with the triple crown of federal research awards: NCI-designation, the Clinical and Translational Sciences Award and a federally supported Alzheimer's Disease Center.

Essential to the service mission of the University of Kentucky is the advanced patient care and outreach provided by UK HealthCare. As the flagship academic-medical center in the region, UK serves patients through a network of health care professionals around the Commonwealth while providing acute, sub-specialty medical care at UK Chandler Hospital. In 2013, UK HealthCare was distinguished as a Top Performer by the Joint Commission, the largest medical accreditation body in the nation, and won a Rising Star Award from the University Health System Consortium.

Dr. Eli Capilouto is enhancing UK's multi-faceted mission of teaching, research, service and health care.

Under his leadership, the $3.0 billion flagship university for the Commonwealth has gained significant momentum in fulfilling its broad and visionary mission. In doing so, President Capilouto has invested considerable time in building partnerships with external stakeholders, as well as new and enduring commitments from donors and friends of the institution.

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Dr. Capilouto previously served as Provost of the University of Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) and Dean of the UAB School of Public Health. Dr. Capilouto holds several undergraduate and graduate degrees from schools within the University of Alabama system, and a Doctorate in Health Policy and Management from Harvard University. He and his wife, Dr. Mary Lynne Capilouto (D.M.D.) a former Dean of the UAB School of Dentistry, have one daughter.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mitch Barnhart, University of Kentucky Director of Athletics, is being recognized as one of the best in the nation in his profession.

Barnhart was named NCAA Division I Athletics Director of the Year, one of four Division I ADs selected for the honor, in June at the annual convention of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

A month earlier, Barnhart was one of four finalists for the Athletics Director of the Year as chosen by the SportsBusiness Journal. And, in February, Barnhart received the Sports Business Award from the Bluegrass Sports Commission.

It is no coincidence that Barnhart's multiple accolades came in the same year as the completion of his 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, an ambitious blueprint set in 2008 in which Kentucky would rank in the nation's top 15 athletic programs and win 15 conference or national championships by 2015. At the same time, Barnhart set a goal of a 3.0 composite grade-point average for UK student-athletes and an even greater commitment to community service by Wildcat athletes and staff. All of the goals presented bold, unprecedented challenges for UK Athletics.

The academic goal was first achieved in the spring semester of 2010 and has an active streak of six consecutive 3.0 semesters, hitting a peak in spring 2014 with a school-record 3.218 composite GPA. Community service has risen to more than 4,000 hours annually and includes outreach to the Lexington area, the Commonwealth of Kentucky and as far away as Ethiopia.

The Directors' Cup objective was reached a year early when UK checked in at a school-record No. 11 in the 2013-14 national all-sports standings. The Wildcats followed with a No. 22 ranking in 2014-15, marking the third consecutive year that UK landed in the top 25 and the three highest rankings in school history.

The final goal was reached in March when UK

men's basketball claimed the Southeastern Conference Tournament title, the 15th championship won by Wildcat athletes since 2008.

Reaching the peaks of the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan didn't happen overnight and it didn't happen by accident, either. It was the result of a steady, methodical process which Barnhart began upon his arrival at Kentucky in 2002.

Barnhart started by providing funds for full coaching staffs and scholarship allotments for all 22 UK sports.

Next, Barnhart constructed new facilities, including the Joe Craft Center; new stadiums for track and field, softball and soccer; the UK Golf House; and the Wildcat Coal Lodge dormitory. Currently, Commonwealth Stadium is completing major renovations and a new football practice/ office complex is underway. A new baseball stadium and indoor tennis facility are on the drawing board. All totaled, Barnhart has completed or is in the process of approximately $297 million of facility construction.

Additional achievements have occurred on and off the field under Barnhart's guidance. UK athletes have set records for graduation rates and maintained a perfect mark in the 11-year history of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate. In the arenas of competition, records have been achieved for winning conference championships and two Wildcat teams -- rifle in 2011 and men's basketball in 2012 -- have earned national championships.

Even with the department's growth and the increasingly competitive nature of college sports, UK Athletics has remained financially self-sufficient under Barnhart's management, operating with a balanced budget and with Mitch Barnhart has led UK Athletics to three consecutive top-25 finishes in the Directors' Cup national all-sports standings. Shown here is Barnhart with Kendra Harrison and Dezerea Bryant of UK women's track, which finished No. 2 in the nation at the 2015 NCAA Outdoor Championships.

During the past year, Mitch Barnhart was named Athletics Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and also won the Jim Host Sports Business Award from the Bluegrass Sports Commission. Shown here is Barnhart being presented the Sports Business Award from its namesake, Jim Host.

to the University's scholarship program. Millions more dollars from the athletics budget stay on campus each year through athletic scholarship payments, administrative support payments, merchandise royalties and other avenues.

The influence of the UK AD extends beyond the borders of campus and the fields of competition. Barnhart has served on numerous national committees and currently is a member of the NCAA Division I Management Council, is chairman of the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee and is on the SEC Network Content Committee.

Barnhart's legacy at UK includes helping develop administrators who have gone on to become athletics directors at nationally prominent universities, including Greg Byrne of Arizona, Mark Coyle at Syracuse, Rob Mullens at Oregon and Scott Stricklin at Mississippi State.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

In addition to the extraordinary achievements of his work world, reaching new heights is also a theme of his personal life. An avid mountain climber, Barnhart has scaled Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest mountain in Africa, along with two of the most challenging peaks in the United States, Mount Rainier in Washington and the Grand Teton in Wyoming. Active in community service, Barnhart is on the national advisory board of K-Love Radio.

Barnhart's family includes his wife, Connie; three children, Blaire, Scott, and Kirby Willoughby; Kirby's husband, McKenzie, and a grandson, Cooper.

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for working media, videographers and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested at this website: www.sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 31. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

Season-credential privileges may be granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Credentials are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics and additional requests and affiliations are considered on an individual basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media will call of Commonwealth Stadium, beginning two and one-half hours prior to kickoff.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

Photographers, videographers and television reporters accompanying their camera operators must wear special identification in order to get field access. The special identification was in the process of being determined at press time and will be announced prior to the season.

INTERNET CREDENTIALS

The official site of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-free paying media will be granted access. Other Internet representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will be considered on a game-by-game basis, based on factors such as the length of existence of the site, amount of original copy generated, number of visitors to the site, the number of full-time employees on the site, the journalistic experience of the reporter(s) and space availability. All credential privileges are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics.

SEC INTERNET REAL-TIME POLICY

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Wildcats. Additional information or photos can be obtained by calling UK Media Relations at (859) 257-3838. E-mail addresses and other contact info are on the next page. Our website is UKAthletics.com.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

MONDAY NEWS CONFERENCE

Coach Mark Stoops will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season. The news conferences will be conducted in the Wildcat Den at Commonwealth Stadium. Parking is available outside Gate One of Commonwealth Stadium. Media members may access the Wildcat Den by entering at Gate One and proceeding down the concourse to the Den.

The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 31 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 23. No news conference is scheduled for Oct. 5, the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The news conference schedule is generally as follows:

- lunch is from 11:15 a.m. to 11:50
- UK Olympic sports coach from 11:50 a.m. to noon
- Coach Mark Stoops from noon to 12:20

News conferences are live streamed on the Internet. A link is available each week on UKAthletics.com.

Quotes from the news conference will be posted on UKAthletics.com by mid-to-late afternoon on Monday.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERVICES

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Herb Vincent, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given 10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

11:00 a.m. Les Miles, LSU
 11:10 a.m. Steve Spurrier, South Carolina
 11:20 a.m. Jim McElwain, Florida
 11:30 a.m. Derek Mason, Vanderbilt
 11:40 a.m. Nick Saban, Alabama
 11:50 a.m. Butch Jones, Tennessee
 12:00 p.m. Bret Bielema, Arkansas
 12:10 p.m. Gary Pinkel, Missouri
 12:20 p.m. Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss
 12:30 p.m. Kevin Sumlin, Texas A&M

12:40 p.m. Mark Stoops, Kentucky
 12:50 p.m. Dan Mullen, Mississippi State
 1:00 p.m. Mark Richt, Georgia
 1:10 p.m. Gus Malzahn, Auburn

The SEC Internet address is accessible for media and public usage at www.secsports.com. The Web site is updated continuously with information on all 14 conference schools and their sports.

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football.

Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

SEC AFFILIATE NETWORK / XOS DIGITAL

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

WILDCAT PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office.

Depending on class schedules or other commitments, most players are available to the media after practice, Tuesday or Wednesday. Post-practice interviews will be conducted at the Nutter Training Facility or by telephone. On game days, interviews will be granted only after the conclusion of the contest.

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only. Individual player telephone numbers WILL NOT be given to members of the media. Players are instructed NOT to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete. Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

The university dormitories, dining halls, team locker and weight rooms, and team training rooms are considered private team areas. These areas are OFF-LIMITS to the media unless accompanied by UK Media Relations Office personnel.

INTERNET

The official University of Kentucky athletics Internet site is UKathletics.com. Statistics and game notes are available on the website.

For home games, live in-game statistics are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Other than announced exceptions, Kentucky football practices are closed to the media. Interviews are available after most practices. Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice and interview times.

for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

For practices that are open to the public, video or still photos may not be taken during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

GAME SERVICES

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. The primary media parking area is Parking Structure #1, at the corner of Cooper Drive and University Drive.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call table. Instructions for media entrance for 2015 will be announced prior to the season. Media Will Call opens two and one-half hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

PRESS BOX

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium on level five of the press box/suite complex. Instructions for access to the elevator and press box will be distributed closer to the season.

The radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and other VIP booths are located on the press box level of the stadium. The photo deck is on top of the press box.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Commonwealth Stadium press box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

For further questions, contact Susan Lax, UK Associate Media Relations Director, on the second row of the main media area.

VISITING RADIO

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the locker room area.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

Access from the field to the photo room will be from behind the Kentucky bench.

There will be a pregame meal and soft drinks served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game.

Wireless Internet and a limited number of hardwired Internet connections (first-come, first-served) are available. Access instructions are posted in the room.

2016 SCHEDULE

As the media guide went to press, the 2016 schedule is being determined by the Southeastern Conference.

The league schedule format will be similar to previous seasons – Kentucky will play every team in the Eastern Division; play one permanent opponent from the Western Division (Mississippi State); and one rotating opponent each year from the Western Division.

Kentucky's non-conference schedule for 2016 includes Southern Mississippi and Austin Peay at home, a game at Louisville and an additional home game to be determined.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

UK Coach Mark Stoops will conduct his post-game news conference in the new media room located under the west grandstand. Directions from the press box to the interview room will be announced prior to the season.

The Kentucky locker room is closed to the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the postgame media room following the conclusion of Stoops' news conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the game in order for the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area.

SEC NETWORK/UK ON THE AIR

Kentucky Athletics' television coverage was enhanced greatly by the most successful new channel launch in history when the SEC Network debuted in 62 million homes nationwide in 2014.

The SEC Network now includes 70 million subscribers and produced 1,500 events, surrounded by 1,400 hours of original programming, in its first year.

Notable event totals for the SEC Network, and additional events carried on SEC Network+ and WatchESPN, during the first year included:

- Televising 48 SEC football games
- Carrying 196 football press conferences
- Quintupled the amount of soccer and volleyball events available on national television
- 21 SEC gymnastics meets were available live for the first time in conference history
- Increased softball games threefold
- Quadrupled baseball coverage
- Every men's and women's basketball intra-conference game also was available

The network is operated by ESPN as part of a 20-year partnership, and features coverage of SEC sports, along with news/analysis programs and other content focusing on the SEC.

In 2015, the SEC Network will air more than 45 football games and every SEC team will be on the network during the first three weeks of the season.

The new venture complements the existing television agreements with CBS and ESPN, which began in 2009 and features every SEC home football and basketball game on CBS or an ESPN affiliate.

On the radio side, UK is in its second year working with JMI Sports. JMI has been awarded UK's multimedia marketing rights with a 15-year agreement. The JMI Sports Network also handles corporate sponsorships, stadium and arena signage and the official athletics Web site, UKAthletics.com

At press time, JMI was in the midst of finalizing the radio affiliate list for 2015-16, with nearly 70 stations expected to be on board.

For the 2015 football season, the UK radio broadcast team consists of play-by-play announcer Tom Leach (26 years with the network, 18th season on play-by-play), former Wildcat Jeff Piecoro (13th season) as the analyst, sideline reporter/post-game host Dick Gabriel (26th season), pregame analyst Oscar Combs (18th season) and pregame host Neil Price (fourth season).

Working behind the scenes with the broadcasts are producer Neil Price and game-day engineer Daryl Doss.

FROM COACH MARK STOOPS

"Obviously, it is of the utmost importance that our coaches, athletic staff, and fans stay compliant to the NCAA rules involving recruiting. The NCAA rules do not allow fans to call, write, send electronic messages or make in-person contact with prospective student-athletes, their families, or coaches on behalf of the University of Kentucky.

"It is permissible for you to recommend a prospective student-athlete to us. If you would like to recommend a player, please write or call the UK football office (Nutter Training Center, 136 Sports Center Drive, Lexington, Ky., 40506-0277, phone 859-257-3611). Give us the player's name and the high school he attends. The coaching staff will take it from there. Please do not contact the player, his family or his coaches on our behalf. Thank you for your cooperation."

THE NCAA RULES AND YOU

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Kentucky is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the UK Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible. We encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act."

Inquiries should be directed as follows:

Sandra Bell, Executive Associate AD or Rachel Newman Baker, Senior Associate AD
University of Kentucky Athletics
Joe Craft Center
338 Lexington Avenue
Lexington, KY 40506-0604
Phone: (859) 257-8604 | E-mail: sbell@uky.edu

If, for any reason, you are uncomfortable reporting a violation or a concern directly to the athletics department, you may use the "ComplyCat" hotline. The ComplyCat hotline can be reached by dialing 1-877-898-6072.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS — "BOOSTERS"

A representative of Kentucky's athletic interests, or "booster," is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various athletic department support groups;
- Has purchased season tickets;
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;
- Has assisted or been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospects; examples -- writing, texting or e-mailing a prospect; participating in a chat room with a prospect; posting on a prospect's personal website, such as Twitter or Facebook; talking to a prospect on the phone or in person;
- Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to student-athletes; or
- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of UK's athletic program.

RECRUITING

Only UK coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, text, e-mail, personal website posts, tweets or in person. This prohibition remains in effect until the prospect attends class as a full-time student in a fall or spring term at UK.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

In the sport of football, a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade.

EXTRA BENEFITS

Prospective, current student-athletes and former student-athletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

- Cash or loans in any amount;
- Co-signing or arranging a loan;
- Gifts or free services (such as airline ticket, restaurant meal, etc.);
- Use of an automobile;
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing;
- Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond;
- Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work; and
- Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed.

Your commitment to helping the University of Kentucky comply with the letter and spirit of the rules of the NCAA and SEC is greatly appreciated.
