OHIO CASUALTY CENTER FOR ACADEMIC & TUTORIAL SERVICES

CATS

The University of Kentucky has made a commitment to put the student-athlete at the heart of the program.

The cornerstone of that commitment lies in the academic success of the University's student-athletes. And at UK, that success stems from the resources within the Ohio Casualty Group's Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS).

UK opened CATS in 1981, the nation's first academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes. Over the years, as the services offered by CATS have grown, so did the need for additional space.

As a result, UK built a new facility - the Ohio Casualty Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, thanks to a one-million dollar grant from the Ohio Casualty Insurance Group. The Ohio Casualty Center opened in 1998 at a total cost of $2.4 million.

Much of the credit for UK's academic success goes to the Athletics Association's academic support system - the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services, or simply, "CATS."

CATS, constructed in Memorial Coliseum, includes:

- 20,000 square feet of space - more than double the size of the former CATS facility;
- a computer room housing 35 computers;
- a study area which accommodates 90-100 people;
- 24 tutoring rooms;
- a career development and life skills resource center;
- a community outreach office; and
- offices for the staff.

“There are not many schools across the country that can boast of having an academic facility like the CATS Center. CATS shows that the University of Kentucky is committed to having its student-athletes succeed not only on the playing field, but in the classroom and in life as well.”

— Coach Ian Collins

MIKE HALEY DIRECTOR OF ADVISING SERVICES

Mike Haley is in his 21st year working with student-athletes in the CATS center, working directly with men's and women's soccer, tennis and gymnastics.

Haley has a Bachelor's degree in Education and a master's in Sports Administration from the University of Kentucky.

Certainly, a facility is a good start, but any program - especially in academics - is only as good as the people who run it. And UK is fortunate to have outstanding leaders in its academics support system.

Bob Bradley, Associate Athletics Director for Student Services, oversees the CATS program. Bradley was named National Academic Advisor of the Year in 1989 and 1992. In 2000 he was selected as the CHAMPS Life Skills Coordinator of the Year by the NCAA Division I-A Athletic Directors Association.

“We are extremely proud of what we have accomplished in the academic arena,” Bradley said. “The CATS program is focused on winning in the classroom. We look at each student-athlete's individual needs, set goals, and develop strategies to attain those goals. The center provides our student-athletes with a definite advantage over student-athletes at many other institutions. Our goal is to show that we care about the student as well as the athlete.”

For the CATS staff, showing you care means more than helping athletes maintain eligibility, graduate, or win awards. The academics staff also prepares student-athletes for life after college with the Wildcat Career Development Program.

The Career Development Program helps student-athletes look to the future through a step-by-step process which includes:

- mentoring and internships, which help determine career interests;
- career counseling;
- resume writing; and
- forming a career plan.

The Wildcat Career Development Program works closely with the University's Career Planning and Placement Center in order to provide additional assistance when needed.

UK SOCCER

COMPLEX

The University of Kentucky is committed to providing its student-athletes with the very best in athletics facilities. The UK Soccer Complex is evidence of that dedication.

The stadium, which opened in late 1996, is part of a complex that houses a game field, a practice field, locker rooms and a training room. Since its opening, the Complex has played host to some of the largest crowds to see MAC and C-USA soccer action, including the 1998 MAC Tournament. UK also hosted the 1999 and 2001 MAC Championship games, which the Wildcats won to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The first round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament was played in front of more than 1,500 fans as UK advanced over Cincinnati in penalty kicks in a thrilling finish. In 2007, UK welcomed 2,307 fans for a rivalry game with Louisville.

The stadium features grandstand seating for more than 1,500 fans on the sideline. A new student section, dubbed "The Big Blue Wall" was added in the north endzone prior to the 2004 season. The section is one of the most raucous in all of the nation.

The stadium's capacity can exceed 3,000 with temporary seating. In fact, Kentucky's record crowd of 3,327 was set in the 2005 season opener as the Wildcats beat rival Louisville, 1-0 in front of a standing-room only crowd.

The grandstand also houses a spacious press box for use by the media and professional scouts who visit UK.

The Complex features a lighted international regulation-sized playing field of lush Bermuda grass. The surface is a modified sand-based field with an in-ground irrigation system for drainage of rainwater and a sprinkler system that allows the UK grounds crew to keep the field in top playing condition throughout the year. The system makes the field safer and more playable in a rain-soaked game.

The combination of sandy soil and irrigation allows UK grounds keepers to maintain a healthy and vigorous playing surface. The field is mowed every day with a mower designed for golf fairways, which results in a field that rivals those of professional soccer.

Representing the third largest crowd in UK history, 2,458 fans watched as Kentucky battled eventual national champion Indiana to a draw in 2004.

FIELD HOUSE

The University of Kentucky is committed to providing the finest training facilities to its programs.

The University of Kentucky Athletics Department is at the forefront of college athletics in terms of indoor practice facilities. Along with the UK Soccer Complex, UK also boasts the Nutter Field House, an $8.5 million climate-controlled structure that is used for winter conditioning.

The indoor facility features an artificial turf football playing field of 108,000 square feet, surrounded by a six-lane, 290-meter track.

One of the most unique features of this 132,000-square foot, multi-million dollar showplace is the electronic netting system. The system allows for different combinations of sports to practice safely and simultaneously by dividing the playing field into multiple practice areas. During the fall season, the men's soccer team has priority for training during inclement weather.

“The Nutter Field House is such a boost to our program. The indoor field gives us a great place to work out in the winter and the padded turf is a lot easier on our players’ bodies. And with the netting system, we can have space any time we want it.”

— Coach Ian Collins

SOCCER LOCKER ROOM

UK boasts some of the best facilities in the nation, highlighted by a spacious locker room and team lounge.

The multi-purpose center at the Soccer Complex houses a training room, ticket office, concession stand and locker rooms. The facility serves both student-athletes and UK's many fans. The spacious UK locker room contains lockers for each of the team's players as well as a private showering area. The room includes a new plasma TV that is enjoyed by the team.

MEDICAL

TRAINING

In collegiate athletics, there is no substitute for proper health care and medical treatment. Kentucky is blessed to have one of the finest training staffs in the nation, which includes six full-time athletic trainers as well as graduate assistants and student assistants.

The trainers also work closely with team physicians and a variety of consultants that cover every medical specialty.

Altogether, the medical staff handles the needs of athletes in all 22 sports at UK. The UK athletic trainers work in an outstanding facility. The Nutter Center training room covers more than 5,000 square feet and includes ample space for taping and treatment. Inside the training room is a modern rehabilitation area and whirlpool therapy area, as well as physicians' and trainers' offices.

The latest addition to the training room is the "Swim-Ex," a state-of-the-art aquatic therapy system that is used for the rehabilitation of injuries.

"Walt McCombs is a backbone of our program," coach Ian Collins said. "He has been here since day one and is an unbelievable resource."

Athletic Trainer

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

The Kentucky soccer team calls Shively Training Center its home for strength and conditioning. The 2,000-square foot complex is under the direction of Coach Scott Willis and features a variety of free weight equipment, which complements the training philosophy of the Shively staff.

“Our top goal is to create a comprehensive training program, which encompasses the areas of speed, power, strength, agility, flexibility, balance and nutrition,” Willis said. “Through these avenues, we are providing the athletes with the tools they need to reach their athletic potential while remaining injury-free.”

The primary focus of the facility is the development of core strength using ground-based, multi-joint lifting through use of the Olympic lifts. By incorporating this explosive style of lifting, athletes become more powerful, resulting in an increase in speed. The core of the athlete’s body also is trained and complemented with a variety of lifts, including squats, lunges, plyometrics, presses, pulls, trunk rotation and abdominal exercise. Through the combination of these exercises, the athletes are better able to reach their goals.

UK TRAINING PHILOSOPHY

1. Development of core strength.

Imagine the body as a 3-link chain with the head and arms being one link, the torso / trunk being the second link and the legs being the third link. If the core (trunk / torso) link is weak or inflexible, there is little chance of maximizing potential because all body movements stem from the core.

2. Train using ground-based, multi-joint lifting versus machine lifting.

Most athletes participate in stand up power sports using many muscle groups at once. The emphasis of training should be on total body athleticism and flexibility rather than having body weight supported by a machine and forcing isolation of just one muscle group. By incorporating ground-based lifts and exercises that focus on the total body, the athlete becomes more prepared to use their whole body in sport skills.

3. Train for power (which results in increased speed).

Power = (Mass Moved x Distance) / Time

The less time it takes to move a mass a certain distance, the higher the output. As seen in the above formula, an increase in speed of movement results in an increase in power.

4. Train athleticism.

Many factors are included in athleticism: strength, power, speed, agility, flexibility, coordination, fitness level and mental toughness are just a few. It is the goal to maximize an athlete's overall athleticism.

5. Train as a team.

When teams train together, it provides another opportunity to develop chemistry, teamwork, leadership skills and a competitive environment. Within this competitive environment, teams can work on mental toughness, attacking the weights and maintaining a positive attitude. By enabling athletes to work on these things as a team, it helps to promote a stronger sense of unity, therefore making it harder to "fold" under pressure.

6. Make workouts short and intense.

There are many philosophies on how to get athletes stronger, faster and more flexible. But, when combined, all these philosophies have the same 3 underlying principles:

1. The workouts should be highly organized;
2. The workouts should be short in duration;
3. The workouts should be extremely intense.

The following are recommendations for athletes concerning days and times of strength training (including warmups):

- In-season: 2-4 days /week; 25-45 mins /workout;
- Post-season: 3-4 days /week; 45-60 mins /workout;
- Pre-season: 3-4 days /week; 30-60 mins /workout.

Another major focus of the strength staff is the development of sport-specific speed, agility and conditioning. This facet of training is organized through different types of footwork patterns, drills and linear fitness. While nearly all of UK's Olympic sports teams train at Shively, they also take part in "Speed School," a twice-weekly seven-week training session in Nutter Field House.

With the help of staff nutritionists, the Shively staff also helps educate the athletes on nutrition and supplement awareness.

Every squad trains together at Shively, promoting team chemistry and teamwork. Through this set-up, teams work on mental toughness, attacking goals and maintaining a positive attitude, keeping everyone moving toward a common goal.

UK'S OUTREACH PROGRAM

Community Cats That Care

A privilege at a major university is to be a student-athlete. Among the benefits that student-athletes enjoy are significant learning experiences that teach important life lessons. None is more important than learning to return that benefit to individuals in the community that have supported and cheered the student-athlete, win or lose.

The University of Kentucky has a community outreach program that, when initiated more than 15 years ago, was intended to provide support for young people. The program was viewed as a "one-way" effort with the student-athlete giving and the community and schools receiving. But as the "Cats That Care" program has grown, one of the most notable results is what the student-athletes learn about themselves – they really do receive by giving.

The athletic department's community outreach program began in 1990 when, in cooperation with the College of Education, UK student-athletes "adopted" the fifth-grade class at a local school. The program matched UK student-athletes one-on-one with school children, who in turn, set goals while the student-athletes monitored their progress and assisted the children in achieving their stated objectives.

The program was highly successful and continues today. "Cats That Care" has expanded and now includes many worthwhile projects, including:

Celebrity Hospital Visitor

Student-athletes visit patients at local hospitals, including rehabilitation facilities and veterans hospitals.

Cats Cultivating Character

Student-athletes teach character lessons twice a month to third grade students at a local elementary school.

Mentoring

Student-athletes serve as role models for many elementary and middle school students. As a mentor, they help younger students develop self esteem and promote academic success through weekly interaction.

Hospital Breakfast with Santa

Each year, UK student-athletes assist the UK Children's Hospital with a special Christmas breakfast for children at the hospital.

Kentucky Excel Mentor Program

UK student-athletes serve as mentors for high school students participating in the program. It provides scholarships for students who complete the program.

UK Children's Hospital

Student-athletes volunteer at least once a month to play games and visit with the patients.

School Speaker

Student-athletes visit a number of local schools, speaking to children on a variety of topics, including the importance of an education, staying off drugs and promoting reading.

Boys and Girls Club

Student-athletes mentor and interact with children and young adults on a weekly basis. They also volunteer for various holiday activities, such as the "Mountain of Love."

Food Drive

Student-athletes organize a food drive that benefits God's Pantry.

Great Leaps Program

Student-athletes volunteer on a weekly basis at various elementary schools to help students become better readers.

Ronald McDonald House

Student-athletes volunteer to bake dessert items for the families staying here who have a child in the hospital. They also help clean up the ground and take time to clean the inside of the House as well.

Hope Center

The Hope Center is a shelter for men serving the Lexington-Fayette County area. Student-Athletes volunteer at least once a month to serve lunch and/or dinner to those currently staying at the center.

Salvation Army

During the holiday season student-athletes volunteer their time ringing bells for the "Red Kettle Campaign" to help raise money. Students also purchase small gifts to stuff in Christmas stockings to be distributed to local families in need.

THE BLUEGRASS STATE KENTUCKY

*"If the United States can be called a body... then Kentucky can be called its heart."
— Jesse Stuart, Noted Kentucky Author*

Though the above words were written by one of Kentucky's favorite sons, any one of the millions of visitors to the Bluegrass State each year might nod in agreement.

Kentucky embodies the very essence of America, from majestic mountains and forests to vast sparkling lakes, from rolling acres of farm and pastureland to the hustle and bustle of metropolitan centers. And around every turn in the road, Kentucky's colorful past, which helped shape our country's character, is preserved and maintained for all to enjoy. The result is a state so diverse in travel and recreational opportunities that one is hard-pressed to name its equal.

If asked to describe Kentucky, one word that quickly comes to mind is horses. The Bluegrass region of Lexington and central Kentucky is internationally recognized as the Horse Capital of the World. Lexington is at the heart of the Bluegrass and it preserves the romantic tradition of the horse farms and is the hub of the multi-billion-dollar horse industry.

Kentucky also is a land steeped in the rich history of our nation. Legendary pioneer Daniel Boone laid out Kentucky's second settlement at Fort Boonesborough and nearby, a hundred years later, the Shaker religious sect prospered at picturesque Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill.

Abraham Lincoln was born in Hodgenville (the one-room cabin is part of a National Historic Site). The plantation home that inspired Stephen Foster to write "My Old Kentucky Home" still stands at a state park of the same name. And the region that 200 years ago gave birth to one of Kentucky's most famous exports bourbon whiskey is dotted with world-famous distilleries.

COACHES

KENTUCKY SOCCER

HEAD COACH • 15TH YEAR AT UK IAN COLLINS

Career Record: 179-139-36 (.556), 17 years
Record at UK: 156-105-27 (.589), 14 years

As Ian Collins enters his 15th season at the helm and 18th season overall, he continues to build Kentucky into a nationally recognized program.

A year ago, Collins' club battled some significant injury issues early in the season, at times missing as many as 14 members of the regular playing rotation. Despite a sluggish start, Collins molded the team into a conference winner, posting a 5-3 Conference USA record, placing second in the league to top-10 ranked Tulsa and SMU. The highlight of the season came when the Wildcats scratched out a come-from-behind victory over then-No. 1 ranked SMU in November, giving UK its first ever Collins put together one of the best coaching jobs of his career in 2006 after leading UK to one of the most successful seasons in school history. The Wildcats won 14 games, their second highest total ever and finished in second place in rugged Conference USA -- one point behind SMU, which was ranked No. 1 all season long.

Along with the wins in 2006 came national recognition as UK returned to the top 25 after a one-year absence, reaching as high as No. 13, the best in school annals.

Kentucky also returned to dominance at home, posting a school-record 10-1 mark at the UK Soccer Complex in 2006, including a stunning 1-0 double-overtime victory over sixth-ranked South Carolina.

The Wildcats were the third most improved team in the nation during the 2006 campaign, going 14-5-2 after a 6-7-6 campaign in 2005. However, that year, while not up to Kentucky standards, a young UK squad suffered six one-goal losses, including two in overtime.

Looking back over the past three seasons, it's easy to see Collins has led a successful transition from the Mid-American Conference to C-USA. Along with last year's runner-up finish and Conference USA Tournament runner-up position, UK has had 12 players named all-conference, including five first teamers. In 2007, sophomore defender Barry Rice was tabbed as the Defensive Player of the Year in the conference.

Prior to joining C-USA, Collins had built Kentucky into a MAC powerhouse. In 2004, he led the Wildcats to their fourth MAC championship in five years. Kentucky's dominance was evident by the seven players named all-conference, led by Player of the Year Jamal Shteivi. At 11-5-3, UK registered its eighth straight 10-win season.

Collins coached Shteivi to his second consecutive Player of the Year honor, a first in MAC history. Shteivi also became the second Wildcat to earn All-America honors under Collins tutelage as both collegesoc-cernews.com and the NSCAA recognized him.

The 2004 UK defense also proved to be one of the best in the nation. The Wildcats held their final 17 opponents of the year to one goal or fewer. It is the longest such streak in school annals.

In 2003, Kentucky put together arguably its most successful season in the program's young history. The Wildcats asserted their dominance in the MAC by posting a 6-0-0 regular season conference record, only the fourth team in league history to finish with an unblemished season. Even more impressive during the season was the fact that Kentucky shutout each of its six league foes in that span. As a team, the Cats finished ninth in the nation with an 0.68 goals against average and its 10 shutouts ranks second in school annals.

Collins took over the reins at Kentucky in 1994 as the program entered its fourth year. In the time since, he has established UK as a nationally recognized program that competes with the nation's top teams year in and year out.

Since 1999, the Wildcats have won four conference championships, three conference tournament titles and made four trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Collins has been recognized for his excellent coaching ability since before he had UK regularly winning championships. In 1997, he was named the MAC Coach of the Year for the first time after leading the Wildcats to a second-place finish in the league.

In 1999, Collins earned his second MAC Coach of the Year award and was also named the NSCAA Mid-east Region Coach of the Year. That season, he guided Kentucky to the MAC Tournament championship and its first NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. In a heart-breaker, the Wildcats pushed defending national champion Indiana to the brink before falling in double overtime.

Collins led Kentucky to its first regular-season MAC championship in 2000 while repeating as tournament champs. UK completed the incredible season in the Sweet 16 after advancing past No. 9 St. Louis in the NCAA Tournament.

In 2001, the Wildcats provided Collins with the team's highest offensive output since 1995, nearly breaking a school record for points with 125 on 39 goals and a school-record 47 assists. UK finished the year with a 14-6-1 record, its first undefeated MAC season, its third straight MAC tourney title as well as another berth in the NCAA tourney. Collins received his third MAC Coach of the Year Award for his efforts.

Arriving in the Bluegrass as an assistant coach in 1992, Collins has been a part of the Wildcat family for 15 of its 18 years. He spent two seasons as assistant for Sam Wooten before taking over the reins prior to the 1994 campaign.

In just his second season, Collins led the Wildcats to a school-record 16 wins, including a victory over established powerhouse Indiana. Two years later, Collins Kentucky squad posted a 12-7-2 overall record, including a 2-1 triumph over rival Bowling Green in front of more than 3,000 fans at the UK Soccer Complex.

In addition to producing outstanding teams, Collins has shaped outstanding student-athletes as well. He has helped produce 44 All-MAC selections, 23 All-Region selections, four MAC Newcomers of the Year, three MAC Players of the Year and two NSCAA All-Americans. Collins' players have excelled in the classroom, resulting in 44 MAC Academic Honor Roll and 70 Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll selections, as well as two academic All-Americans.

Collins, a native of Bridge North, England, came to UK after spending three years at St. John's University in Jamaica, N.Y. As the top assistant, Collins was involved with all areas of coaching the Red Storm, including allocation of scholarship and recruiting funds. He was directly responsible for a daily training schedule and developed team techniques and tactics.

After coming to the United States in 1986 from Great Britain, a 22-year-old Collins became the youngest head coach in Division I soccer when he accepted the head coaching job at Hofstra University in Hempstead, N.Y.

During his playing days, Collins earned a spot on the English School Boy Under-18 National Team. Collins also spent three years in the Northeast Professional Soccer League.

In January 1993, Collins was awarded the Robert McNulty Award as the outstanding coaching candidate at the United States Soccer Federation Coaching School. In January 1994, Collins earned his USSF "A" coaching license, and he also holds a NSCAA Premier Diploma. Two summers ago, Collins spent time in Europe attending the UEFA "A" course.

Collins spent three years in New York working as a stockbroker on Wall Street, and in 1990, he earned his real estate sales license.

A graduate of Bridge North Endowed High School in England, Collins attended Crewe and Alsager College (Cheshire, England) and received his HNC degree in business finance in 1985.

Born April 14, 1963, Collins and his wife Jenny have two children, Jack (8) and Victoria (5). They reside in Lexington, Ky.

ASSISTANT COACH • 17TH YEAR AT UK JEFF CHANEY

Jeff Chaney has played an integral role for the University of Kentucky men's and women's soccer teams for the past 16 seasons, 14 of which he's been a men's assistant coach.

Chaney was an assistant for the women's program in its first two seasons (1992 and 1993) before being named men's assistant in 1994. He has played a vital role in the Wildcat's success, including the 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004 Mid-American Conference regular-season titles, the 1999, 2000 and 2001 MAC Tournament Championships and NCAA Tournament bids in 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2003.

Chaney handles a majority of the administrative duties for the program in addition to his training responsibilities. He is responsible for oversight of the players' academic development. It is the latter area that gives Chaney particular pride in the program, as the Wildcats have shown the same kind of success in the classroom as on the field.

Over the past few years, the Wildcats have had 15 selections to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll, three Verizon Academic All-Americans, two NSCAA Scholar-Athlete All-Americans, 106 Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll Selections and three Arthur Ashe Scholar Athletes. This past spring, the team as a whole earned the Team Academic CATSPY for the third straight year as UK's highest achieving athletic team.

The Wildcats have also earned four NSCAA

Team Academic Awards since 2000 and combined for a team grade-point average of 3.30 in the 2005-06 academic year.

Perhaps the best indicator of the Kentucky soccer program's dual commitment to academics and on-the-field excellence can be found in the finalists for the SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award. Every year, the SEC selects two Student-Athletes of the Year. A male and female nominee, considered the top student-athletes from their university, represents each SEC school. For five of the last eight years, the University of Kentucky's male nominee has been a member of the men's soccer program: Jason Bell in 2000, Giovani Fernandes in 2001, Ilkka Jantti in 2002, Chris Austin in 2004 and Nathan Li in 2007.

A native of Georgetown, Ky., Chaney graduated from Scott County High School, where he earned All-State and All-Conference honors and was a co-founder of the soccer program. In 1984, Chaney received the prestigious American High School Athlete Award.

Chaney continued his soccer career at Georgetown (Ky.) College where he was named to the NAIA All-District team in 1985 and was team captain for three seasons. He was also awarded the Outstanding Senior Award in Political Science in 1991.

Since 1986, Chaney has spent his summers as staff coach at numerous soccer camps across the country as well as in Germany.

Chaney served as an assistant boys coach at Lexington Catholic High School (Lexington, Ky.) from 1989-1991, helping the Knights reach the state semifinals in 1989. He has also worked with the Kentucky Olympic Development Program where he was a state coach from 1992-1997 and the girl's state coach in 1995 and 1996.

Since 1987, Chaney has been working with the many local clubs in Lexington. His club teams have reached the State Cup final eight times, coming away with five championships.

Chaney has received the NSCAA National Diploma and his USSF "A" coaching license.

Chaney resides in Lexington, Ky., and has one daughter, Caroline.

COLLINS ON CHANEY

"Jeff Chaney is the backbone of our program. He has been with me since day one and has been a stabilizing force in everything we do. He is easily one of the top assistants in the country."

ASSISTANT COACH • 6TH YEAR AT UK MATT WILKERSON

Matt Wilkerson enters his sixth year as a full-time assistant for the UK men's soccer team, after spending one year as a student assistant. For the second season, Wilkerson will function as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In his time at Kentucky, he has helped the Wildcats to two conference championships while helping UK produce scoring offenses and defenses ranked in the top-25 nationally in 2006. In just the past three seasons, he has helped develop 12 players into all-conference performers, including five first teamers and the 2007 C-USA Defensive Player of the Year, Barry Rice.

Wilkerson was a two-year letterman for the Wildcats in 1996 and 1997 after transferring from Wisconsin-Green Bay following his sophomore season.

A young coach with a tremendous passion for the game, Wilkerson helped lead the team to the Mid-American Conference championship in his first season.

In three seasons playing for the Wildcats, Wilkerson started in 24 of 37 games and helped the team advance to the MAC Tournament finals and semifinals. As one of the team's most versatile players, he contributed two goals as a junior and three goals as a senior in addition to two assists.

After leaving UK, Wilkerson played one season in the EISL Indoor Soccer League until his career was shortened after breaking the tibia and fibula bones in his leg.

In 2000, Wilkerson returned to his hometown of Iowa City, Iowa, to become head coach at Iowa City West High School. It did not take Wilkerson long to make his mark as a coach. In his first season, he led his alma mater to the Iowa Class 2A State Championship. With a state title under his belt, Wilkerson became the Assistant Director of Coaching at the Iowa Soccer Club from 2000-02.

Wilkerson has earned a USSF "B" national coaching license.

COLLINS ON WILKERSON

"Matt is one of the top up-and-coming coaches in the country. He understands the game extremely well and is very driven. He was a terrific player here at UK, so he understands our style of play. We are very fortunate to have a bright young coach like him on our staff."

SUPPORT STAFF

Jonathan Brunet Volunteer Assistant Coach

Jonathan Brunet, a former three-year letterwinner for Kentucky, is in his first year as the volunteer assistant coach for the Wildcats.

Brunet, who played for coach Ian Collins from 2002-05, will assist the coaching staff in the day-to-day office responsibilities, as well as playing a role in instruction and player development.

Brunet started his collegiate soccer career at the University of Alabama-Huntsville in 2001, earning All-Gulf South Conference second-team honors. Brunet played in the PDL in 2001-04.

Since 2007, Brunet has been active in the coaching community, serving as the head coach for the 2008 Louisiana State Champion, Tuerlings. Brunet also functioned as the head coach for CSC Soccer Club in Lafayette, La., leading the U-11 and U-12 boys age group to the State Championship in 2007 and 2008. In 2007, Brunet was the assistant coach for Tuerlings, helping them finish second in the Louisiana State Championships.

Brunet graduated from Kentucky in August of 2006 with a bachelor of science in kinesiology, with a concentration in sport management.

Jeremy Groves Manager

A native of Leeds, England, Jeremy Groves is in his second season as a manager with the Kentucky soccer program after serving as the women's team manager in 2006.

However, Groves is no stranger to Kentucky or the sport of soccer. A two-time letterman for the Wildcats, Groves helped lead the Kentucky men's team to the 2004 Mid-American Conference championship while anchoring the defense from his sweeper position. PREVIEW

2008 OUTLOOK

Expectations never change for the UK men's soccer program, under the direction of 15th-year head coach Ian Collins.

"We have high expectations," Collins detailed. "We have a solid group of returning players plus some very talented incoming players, so our expectations remain the same. We want to win Conference USA, get into the NCAA Tournament and make a deep run in the postseason. I don't think coming off a disappointing season makes the expectations drop, in fact we are very excited about the upcoming year."

A year removed from a third-place finish in the rugged C-USA, Kentucky spent the 2007 season running out an injury depleted team, at times missing as many as 14 members of the regular playing rotation.

While injuries certainly had an effect on the roster, it did help prepare younger players for the physical and emotional challenges of collegiate soccer.

"We had some guys to play that maybe weren't ready to play at the time that have really developed into nice players," Collins said. "Guys like C.J. Tappel, Tyler Burns and Torey Beiro, for them it was a beneficial year. Obviously it was a disappointing year with all the injuries and that we didn't perform up to a level we expect. Those guys got to play every minute of every game and a lot of other guys got some good experience, so hopefully that will benefit them."

While Collins can find the positives of UK's 2007 season, his eyes are fixed on the future, one that looks bright with a slew of returning players, including three of the better players in all of college soccer, junior defender Barry Rice, junior midfielder Jason Griffiths and goalkeeper Dan Williams.

"We expect the competition to be much higher this year on the team and the level of talent will be very good," Collins said.

The Forwards

UK must replace 30-percent of its goal scoring and 35-percent of its assists, losing second-leading scorer, forward Aaron Swanson, who netted five goals on the year. Besides Swanson, UK lost only two more goals on the season.

"The biggest difference between last year and this year is the attacking end of the field, we have a lot more weapons than we did in 2007," Collins said. "We have a lot more quality weapons all over the field and we are a much better team with better personnel. The attitude of the team in the spring was fantastic, now everyone is looking to get us back to where we belong."

Tim Crone leads the way after totaling five goals and an assist in 15 games a year ago. A quick, athletic forward, Crone had the game of his career while leading UK to an upset of then-No. 1 ranked SMU in 2007. Crone came off the bench and needed 30 seconds to erase a 1-0 Mustang lead with a header, later giving UK the monumental win with his second goal of the game.

"Tim Crone did a great job last year and he didn't get a whole lot of help up front," Collins said. "There were a lot of injuries and things didn't really pan out offensively along with him on the front line. Tim is back and he is healthy after he played the end of last year with a sports hernia, but he is back and recovered fully and we expect big things from him."

Crone, a 5-foot-7 junior from Cincinnati, will join redshirt senior Michael Strong in leading several fresh faces in the UK front line, including talented Brazilian freshman Marco dos Santos and junior college transfer Sam Vernalls.

"We've got several other players we think are going to be very good, a Brazilian, Marco dos Santos, had to sit out last year to gain eligibility, possesses all the tools of a great striker," Collins said. "He has great pace, he is great in the air, he has good feet, he runs at people and is tricky. We think he is going to be a primetime player for us."

Vernalls comes to UK after spending two years playing for Northern Oklahoma College, where he earned first-team junior college All-America honors and conference player of the year accolades. In 2007, Vernalls set the school record for goals scored in a season (28), finishing his two-year career with a record 49 goals.

"Also another guy we think is a primetime player, an English lad, Sam Vernalls," Collins explained. "Sam was a first-team All-American in junior college and he scored 40-50 goals during his junior college career. Sam is a very smart player, he understands the game and is a pure finisher."

Strong, a 5-foot-7 forward from San Antonio, Texas, comes back to UK after sitting out the 2007 season with a redshirt. A player with 28 career points, 11 goals and six assists, Strong brings a veteran presence to the front line.

"Michael Strong is back and he is a guy that has scored a number of goals for us," Collins said. "Michael is a guy that has unbelievable pace and he brings experience."

One of the more heralded incoming freshmen for the UK roster is forward Taylor White, a 6-foot-3, 205-pounder from Marietta, Ga.

"We have several newcomers, including a freshman named Taylor White from Atlanta," Collins said. "I wouldn't be surprised to see Taylor on the under-20 national team very soon. He was a starting player for region three, just a big physical presence, 6-foot-3, 200-pounds, holds the ball well and has good pace."

The Midfield

Another area of the field decimated by injuries in 2007, the midfield, appears to have all the elements necessary to help UK push towards its goals and expectations.

The midfield will be led by returning veterans Masmui Turnbull and Griffiths. Turnbull, a second-team C-USA selection in 2007, returns as UK's leading assist man the past two years, totaling seven assists in 2006 and 2007. Turnbull finished with nine points, adding a goal on nine shots.

"Masumi Turnbull is back for his fourth year and he is just a really steady and solid player," Collins said. "He really flourished again in the spring and I think we will see him at his best again in the spring."

Griffiths, a junior from Bracknell, England, battled injuries much of the year, not seeing action until six games deep in the season. The junior will be seeking to return to form that saw him score four goals and dish out six assists as a true freshman in 2006.

Tim Crone

Masumi Turnbull

"Jason Griffiths will hopefully be healthy - he missed the majority of the season last year and never really recovered from a sports hernia," Collins said. "Jase is a great player, I think one of the best players in the league. He will be a major driving force in the midfield just like his freshman year."

Griffiths and Turnbull will be joined by several familiar faces in the midfield, as Tyler Burns, Lucas Carden, Chad Hagerty, Jirijoonas Kanth, Bingy Lara, Issam Sawtarie, Cody Smith, and C.J. Tappel all bolster the midfield outlook.

"Bingy Lara, it is his last year and he has really developed and pushed on well," Collins said. "Chad Hagerty, C.J. Tappel and Tyler Burns are among the players who gained valuable experience last year and we expect big things from them."

"Tyler Burns, I think he will be a major impact in the midfield. It is going to be very competitive because we like to play three or four in the midfield, so I think it is going to be tough to get in the game, which is what we want."

Tappel, a 2007 C-USA All-Freshman team selection, scored one goal on the season and added a beautiful assist in UK's upset of SMU in November.

"Issam Sawtarie is one of the fastest players in Conference USA, he took a little time to settle down but he has had a great spring and can either play right back, midfield or up front, but he has major speed," Collins raved. "It is going to be interesting to see how he comes along. J.J. Kanth, he has gotten better after his first year, another guy who has gained valuable experience. Lucas Carden, played in his first year last year and he got some good playing time."

"After a year here, traditionally, players get better, so we are glad they got some experience. We are going to have a lot of competition."

A few newcomers have the ability to step in to the midfield and have an impact, including George Davis IV, Shaun Deliberato, Mark Lavery and Thomas Zimmerman.

"We have a new lad from Bowling Green State University, George Davis, the first time he played with us was in the spring and he was fantastic," Collins said. "George is a really positive player who really runs at people. We have some other parts and we are going to have a very competitive situation in the midfield. Thomas Zimmerman and Shaun Deliberato are a pair that have tremendous ability."

The Defense

At the cornerstone of the philosophy of the UK program is a physical and athletic defense. That will again be the case in 2008, as Rice returns as the reigning C-USA Defensive Player of the Year.

Arguably the best defender in the college game, Rice led UK in nearly every category in 2007. With UK searching for reliable goal-scoring options in the face of numerous injuries, Rice stepped up to lead the way, scoring seven goals and adding an assist, leading the conference with three game winners. Rice scored nearly all of his goals off set pieces, with six of his seven goals coming off headers from a free or corner kicks.

"There is no question about that, Barry is one of the top 10 players in the country," Collins detailed. "Barry is a guy that has really matured since his freshman year. I don't think we have seen the best of him yet. I think mentally, he is putting it together, he is starting to understand the level at which he needs to train to make it as a professional and to get to where he wants to get to, which he can do. His leadership skills have really blossomed and I think Barry for sure has the talent to go a long way and we are hoping he is going to lead the team a long way as well."

Rice will be joined on the backline by several talented players, including returnees Reid Baker and Stephen Beiro.

"I think Torey Beiro has turned into a really good player," Collins said. "He came in under the radar last year, played a ton of games and he played when he was hurt. A tough, physical player, he had a great spring too so expect for him to be a major physical presence on the back. Reid Baker had to sit out a year because of transfer and then he got hurt and that was the first time he has played in two years. He did a good job - he is a big strong powerful player and I think people will really enjoy seeing him play."

The defensive side of the field is one position where several newcomers will be counted on to make an impact, including Greg Goldbach, Chris Jumalon, Tim Muessig, Cameron Reilly, Jordan Rose, Kyle Smith and Brad Walker.

"I think we have a lot of guys coming in who can make an impact defensively," Collins said. "Chris Jumalon is a guy coming in that is a very good player. Cameron Riley and Tyler Smith, are two players out of Chicago, who are very good defenders. Jordan Rose, out of Ohio is a big lad, 6-foot-3 who can really play. Michael Lavery is versatile, he can play right back or can play and wide position as well. We have a lad coming in from Western Kentucky, Tim Muessig who is a Lexington Dunbar boy who has really developed since his high school days. I expect him to be a major impact on the back.

Barry Rice

2008 KENTUCKY MEN'S SOCCER

"We are going to have a few new faces, but I think Barry will lead the charge. There are some really good players and we are going to have to figure out who plays where, but I am pretty excited about it."

Goalkeepers

Junior keeper Dan Williams returns in-between the pipes for UK, giving the Wildcats one of the top goalkeepers in college soccer.

Williams has started since showing up as a freshman, starting 33 games in goal in two years, allowing a combined 1.38 goals against average. Williams stepped in immediately in 2006 and ranked third in the conference with a 0.84 goals against average, the fifth-best total in UK history. 2007 was different for Williams, who had to maintain some stability in goal despite an ever-changing defensive line, crippled by injuries.

"Dan has really matured, he is developing from when he got here," Collins said. "He has obviously had two really good years for us. He has the potential and the talent to be one of the best goalkeepers in the country and go on and make a career out of playing. He is really starting to put it all together mentally and physically. We expect big things from him and I believe he expects big things from himself. He is a very driven guy and we are looking forward to see how far he can go with it."

Williams will be charged with tutoring several young keepers who may be asked to take the reigns, including freshman Patrick Martineau and Joseph Peglow. Also, UK returns senior Grant Ward, a veteran presence, who has been a fixture on the UK roster since arriving as a freshman in 2005.

"Grant Ward coming back gives us some veteran leadership," Collins said. "Patrick Martineau and Joey Peglow are a pair of freshman who have a lot of potential."

Schedule

As always, UK will face one of the more difficult schedules in the nation, running the gauntlet that is C-USA along with a challenging non-conference slate.

"We are really excited about the schedule we have put together for 2008," Collins said. "As always, we will play some of the best teams in the collegiate ranks both in Lexington and on the road. I think our fans will enjoy the games here in Lexington."

UK will face off with five 2007 NCAA Tournament teams, with a total of nine home dates – eight regular season dates. The Wildcats will again present a challenging home schedule in 2008, facing West Virginia in an exhibition, as well as high-profile home games with Michigan, Xavier, South Carolina, Central Florida, Florida International and Memphis.

Kentucky will open its season with a road exhibition game at Dayton on August 18, before wrapping up its preseason with an August 23 matchup with 2007 NCAA Tournament team, WVU. The Wildcats kick off its regular season with the annual Kentucky Invitational, hosting Detroit, Evansville and Central Arkansas in a four-team field. UK will face Central Arkansas in the season opener on Friday, August 29 before squaring off with Detroit on August 31.

"The challenging non-conference schedule should prepare us for the demands of a very difficult conference slate," Collin said. "C-USA is a difficult and demanding conference and we will have to be prepared for the challenges of facing top level teams every game."

September brings a challenging west-coast trip to face national soccer powers UC-Santa Barbara and Cal-Poly. UK faces UC-Santa Barbara on September 5, before facing Cal Poly on Sunday, September 7.

"Our trip to California is going to be a great experience, a real good chance to face some of the top competition in the nation and experience electric atmospheres," Collins detailed. "UCSB and Cal Poly both have tremendous crowd support, presenting us a challenging road environment."

After a road game at Cincinnati, UK hosts Michigan (September 17) and Alabama A&M (September 21), before traveling to Asheville, N.C., for a non-conference tilt with UNC-Asheville.

Kentucky opens C-USA play with a October 1 matchup at Marshall, returning home to host Xavier in a non-conference game on October 4. The Wildcats return to its conference season with a road showdown with Tulsa on October 8 and a crucial home game with South Carolina on October 12. After a trip to UAB, the site of the 2007 C-USA Tournament, Kentucky hosts Central Florida (October 22) and Florida International (October 25). In its final non-conference game of the year, Kentucky travels to rival Indiana for a 7 p.m. October 29 match in Bloomington, Ind.

UK will wrap up its regular season with a road C-USA game at conference front-runner SMU, a team the Wildcats defeated a year ago, UK's first-ever win over a No. 1 ranked foe. Memphis will come to the UK Soccer Complex on November 7 to close the regular season. The Conference USA Tournament, in Dallas, Texas, will be held November 12-16.

"There are no easy games, none, our league is now fulfilling its potential as one of the top leagues in the country," Collins concluded. "The league was really young last year but now it is going to be a great year, a very difficult year, but I think we have some great players. We are excited about the potential, the attitude and we will see where we can go."

2008 KENTUCKY MEN'S SOCCER

2007 SEASON IN REVIEW

Thumbing through a dictionary and examining the word perseverance, one would find it defined as “steady persistence in a course of action or a purpose in spite of difficulties, obstacles, or discouragement.”

That same definition might be found in the Kentucky soccer record book next to its definition of the 2007 season. Despite being plagued with injuries throughout the season that saw the Wildcats, at times, missing as many as 14 members of their regular playing rotation, UK finished the season winning five of its last 10 matches, including four of its last five Conference USA contests.

Senior Aaron Swanson ranked second on the team with five goals.

“We had more than 10 players hurt throughout last season,” UK head coach Ian Collins said. “Our results didn’t prove what a good team we had because we didn’t have a chance to put a healthy team out on the field until late in the season.”

The highlight of Kentucky’s 2007 season and perhaps its biggest reward for continuing to maintain its intensity in the face of adversity came on Senior Night, Nov. 3. The Wildcats stunned No. 1 SMU in a thrilling comeback affair that gave UK a 2-1 victory against the nation’s top-ranked team, UK’s first-ever win over a No. 1 ranked foe.

“For us to have been able to come out on Senior Night and beat the No. 1 team in the country really said a lot about the toughness of our team,” Collins said. “It was all about our players leaving it all out on the field.”

The Wildcats finished with a 5-3 record in league play to finish third in the rigorous Conference USA, which featured two teams in the top 10 nationally in the final National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) poll and four teams in the nation’s top 60 in RPI.

Sophomore defender Barry Rice was named the 2007 C-USA Defensive Player of the Year and was a first-team all-region selection by the NSCAA. Additionally, Masumi Turnbull, Aaron Swanson and C.J. Tappel earned spots on All-Conference USA teams.

“Barry was one of the finest players in college soccer,” Collins said. “This opinion was obviously shared by many other coaches. The honor was a testament to his tremendous work-ethic and his high quality of play.”

The Wildcats started the season slow, adjusting to a number of fresh faces and compensating for injuries to veteran players. Kentucky had to find its way through a new offensive scheme, as the Wildcats lost 32 of its school-record-tying 44 goals from the 2006 season either to graduation or European professional soccer.

UK dropped its season opener to Cornell, 2-0, despite a five-save performance from goalkeeper Dan Williams. The Wildcats struggled to find scoring opportunities in their opener, registering just three shots on goals to the Big Red’s nine. Kentucky rebounded in the final match of the UK Invitational, using strong defensive work and three second-half goals to post a 3-0 victory against UNC-Asheville.

The Wildcats dropped a 4-2 decision to intrastate rival Louisville before tying Cleveland State 1-1 in double overtime at the UK Soccer Complex. Tim Crone, in the 67th minute, netted his second goal in as many games against the Vikings to force the tie. His goal against Louisville just three days prior was the first of his collegiate career. The fourth-largest crowd in school history – 2,303 fans – attended the match vs. the Cardinals.

Kentucky then hit the road for the first time of the season to play at the Michigan Invitational in Ann Arbor, Mich. The Wildcats fell 4-0 to the host and No. 18-ranked Wolverines before battling undefeated Michigan State to a 1-1 tie. Rice headed in his second goal of the season in the 19th minute to help UK fight to a draw against the Spartans.

Following losses to Eastern Illinois and Akron, the Wildcats again hit the road to face state rival Western Kentucky. After suffering through 281 minutes of scoreless soccer over the previous two games, Kentucky exploded for two goals in a 14-minute span to knock off the host Hilltoppers for a 2-1 victory in Bowling Green. Chad Hagerty's goal in the 77th minute marked the first of his career and also proved to be the game-winner.

UK entertained UAB in the Conference USA opener for both teams and Rice's goal in the 82nd minute lifted the Wildcats to a 1-0 victory. It marked the sophomore's third goal of the season, which tied him for the team lead. Kentucky charted a dominant 11-4 advantage in shots in the game, limiting UAB to just one shot on goal after the Blazers entered the game averaging 1.56 goals per contest.

The Wildcats then dropped back-to-back league matches to No. 14 Tulsa and Memphis. The match against the Golden Hurricane was especially frustrating for Collins and his team, as Kentucky allowed two own-goals in a three-minute span to seal the victory for Tulsa.

A midweek showdown with UCF in Orlando saw the Wildcats get back on the winning track with a 3-2 overtime victory against the Knights. UK held an early 3-2 lead in the match and then broke a 2-all tie with Aaron Swanson's goal in the 98th minute marking the game-winner.

The victory against UCF was a momentum builder for Kentucky, which would go on to defeat Marshall, 3-1, on a cold and windy evening at the UK Soccer Complex thanks to two goals by Rice. Junior Brad Frederick then delivered the game-winning goal in the 61st minute in a road match at Florida International to give the Wildcats their third consecutive C-USA win. That victory guaranteed Kentucky a spot in the Conference USA Tournament.

The Wildcats stepped out of league play for a mid-week showdown with No. 7 Indiana in Lexington. Behind four goals from four different players, the Hoosiers shut down Kentucky, 4-0.

The Wildcats then prepared to host the nation's top-ranked SMU Mustangs for Senior Night at the UK Soccer Complex. It turned into more than an event to honor the program's departing players – it became the night Kentucky posted the biggest win in school history.

SMU entered the match with an unbeaten C-USA record and a seven-match winning streak. The Mustangs had never lost to the Wildcats in their previous five attempts. Kentucky was held scoreless in its two previous meetings with SMU, both of which took place during the 2006 campaign. The Mustangs took an early lead in the sixth minute and went into the half-time intermission with that advantage.

In the 59th minute, just 30 seconds after entering the game off the bench, Tim Crone

NOTABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN 2007

- The Wildcats recorded their first win against a No. 1-ranked opponent in school history, toppling top-rated SMU 2-1.
- Kentucky led Conference USA in attendance for the second time in three years.
- Sophomore defender Barry Rice was named the 2007 Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team all-region selection by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.
- Masumi Turnbull was a C-USA second-team selection, Aaron Swanson earned third-team honors and C.J. Tappel was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team.
- Junior midfielder Chad Hagerty was a CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Selection. He also was named to the Conference USA All-Academic Team.

connected with the game-tying goal after a perfectly-placed cross by Tappel. Just minutes later, Crone took a cross from Turnbull and headed the ball off the top of the post from about five yards out. The ball skidded off the crossbar and bounced into the goal, giving Crone his first career game-winning goal.

"It was a big win for the program," Crone, who earned several National Player of the Week honors following the upset, said. "Obviously, SMU is consistently one of the best in teams in the country. We really wanted to play well for the seniors and send them out on a high note."

The Wildcats fell on the road to South Carolina in the season finale and entered the C-USA Tournament as its No. 3 seed. Leading 1-0 midway through the first half of its opening league tournament match against Marshall, Kentucky allowed three unanswered goals in a span of 17 minutes to give the Thundering Herd a 3-1 win and end UK's season.

Despite the loss in the opening round of the C-USA Tournament, Kentucky accomplished a number of impressive feats in 2007, especially considering the injuries and inexperience that plagued the team.

The achievements of 2007 cannot be overlooked, as they helped to cement a strong foundation for a breakout season in 2008. Breakout – (n) – "An instance of surpassing any previous achievement."

Tim Crone was named National Player of the Week after scoring both goals of a 2-1 win over No. 1 SMU.

Kentucky 2, Western Kentucky 1

Sept. 28 at Bowling Green, Ky.

After suffering through 281 minutes of scoreless soccer over the past two games, Kentucky exploded for two goals in 14 minutes to knock off Western Kentucky 2-1, at the WKU Soccer Complex.

Trailing 1-0 in the 64th minute, the Wildcats got on the board, as forward Mark Halma delivered a cross from the right side to a wide open Tim Crone, who booted the ball into the back of the net, past a diving WKU keeper.

The Wildcats were not finished however, as UK took the lead for good in the 77th minute, as Crone picked up a deflected shot and bounced it to midfielder Chad Hagerty, who pounded it home in the middle back of the net.

With the game on the line in the closing minutes of the game, a foul was called in the UK box in the 87th minute, setting up WKU up for a controversial penalty kick. WKU's Paul Kopeck fired the shot to the left of UK keeper Dan Williams who guessed right and reached out to bounce the ball away. The Hilltoppers were not finished, as another shot was fired and Williams came diving back into the net to save his second consecutive shot with the game on the line.

Barry Rice's goal in the 82nd minute Saturday lifted Kentucky to a 1-0 win against UAB in the Conference USA opener for the Wildcats.

The Wildcats limited UAB to just four shots and one shot on goal.

Behind four goals from four different players and a three-assist night from senior midfielder Billy Weaver, the No. 7 Indiana men's soccer team cruised by the Kentucky Wildcats, 4-0.

Kentucky entered the contest as winners in its past three games, having earned crucial conference wins over UCF, Marshall, and FIU, securing the Wildcats a bid in the C-USA tournament.

UK played without several of its key starters vs. the powerful Hoosiers, including leading assist man, Masumi Turnbull, who missed the game after receiving his fifth caution of the season vs. FIU. Of UK's regular playing rotation, 13 players have missed significant time this season due to injury.

MATCH 17 Kentucky 2, #1 SMU 1

Nov. 3 at Lexington, Ky.

Tim Crone netted the game-winning goal in the 65th minute, to lead Kentucky to a dramatic, come-from-behind 2-1 win over the No. 1 SMU Mustangs.

The win, arguably the biggest win school history, marked the first win for Kentucky over a No. 1 ranked foe in the 17-year history of the UK soccer program.

SMU entered the game as the top-ranked team in the land, rolling to an undefeated conference record, a seven-game winning streak, and needing only a win over UK to seal the C-USA Championship. The Mustangs held an all-time 5-0 record against UK, having pounded the Wildcats by a combined 6-0 score in two meetings last season. Kentucky entered the game having never scored more than one goal on the Mustangs. SMU has proven to be extremely stout defensively, allowing only 14 goals all season entering the game, including only allowing two goals in a game four times.

Kentucky goalkeeper Dan Williams kept UK in the game in the first half, making several miraculous saves to keep UK down just one goal heading into the final period. Williams finished with five saves, but the stat sheet does not tell the impact that the sophomore had on the SMU offensive prowess, as the keeper helped stifle every scoring chance created by an extremely athletic SMU team.

In the 59th minute, Crone entered the game for the first time in the contest and the sophomore forward immediately had an impact on the game. Forward Mark Halma set up freshman C.J. Tappel on the left side of the field, and Tappel lofted a beautiful cross into the penalty box for a diving Crone, who connected with the ball for the game-tying goal.

Just minutes later in the 65th minute, with UK controlling the momentum, Crone took a cross from Masumi Turnbull, and headed the ball off the top post from about five yards out. The ball skidded off the cross bar and bounced into the goal.

Lindsey took a feed from Mark Wiltse and delivered the game winner just four minutes into overtime, giving USC a crucial win during the final regular season weekend of competition. The loss solidifies a third-place finish in the conference and a third-seed in the tournament, behind No. 5 SMU and No. 7 Tulsa.

Nov. 14 at Birmingham, Ala.

Leading 1-0 midway through the first half, Kentucky allowed three unanswered goals in a span of 17 minutes, to give Marshall a 3-1 win in round one of the Conference USA Tournament, ending UK's season.

Kentucky came out of the gate strong, taking an early 1-0 lead in the 22nd minute. Forward Luke Maitland fired a cross to the opposite end of the 18-yard box, finding a leaping Masumi Turnbull about 10 yards out, who headed the ball into the corner of the net for his first goal of the season.

The Thundering Herd evened up the score in the 37th minute as John Daniele took a cross from Sammy Boateng and fired home a deflected shot into the back of the net.

Marshall took the lead into half, as UK was called for a foul about 20 yards out from its own goal, setting up a free-kick opportunity for the Thundering Herd.

HISTORY

2008 KENTUCKY SOCCER

2008 KENTUCKY MEN'S SOCCER

HISTORY OF UK SOCCER

The University of Kentucky men's soccer program has steadily climbed to the level of the nation's elite since it was established on June 1, 1991. The Wildcats have been a force on the regional and national scene, posting a 184-130-34 (.578) all-time record.

Before joining one of the nation's top soccer conferences in Conference USA in 2005, Kentucky spent a decade in the Mid-American Conference, where it dominated the opposition. In that span, Kentucky won four conference championships and advanced to the finals or semifinals of the league tournament every season.

The program has continued to grow over time, drawing a school-record 3,327 fans for its 1-0 win over Louisville in 2005 and ranking 21st in the nation in attendance during that season. In 2008, UK led the conference in attendance for the second time in the past three years.

Through the years, UK's soccer program has produced highlight after highlight, from its 1995 1-0 win over Indiana in Bloomington to its 2-1 win over MAC-rival Bowling Green in 1997 in front of 3,003 screaming Wildcats fans at the UK Soccer Complex and its No. 13 national ranking in 2006. From head coach Sam Wooten's first Cats squad in 1991 to current head coach Ian Collins' four NCAA Tournament appearances, it has been an exciting 16 years.

Coach Ian Collins accepts the game ball commemorating his 100th win at UK. Collins eclipsed the 150-win mark in 2007.

The 2008 highlight came when the Wildcats upended No. 1 SMU at the UK Soccer Complex, UK's first win over a top-ranked foe in program history.

When UK soccer became a varsity sport on June 1, 1991, Lexington native Sam Wooten took the helm. He had served as the Kentucky coach during UK's club soccer days, and he was the natural choice to lead the new varsity squad. Known for his big, physical squads, Wooten racked up a 28-25-7 record in three seasons at the reins.

From 1991 to 1996, the Wildcats called The Cage home. The Cage Soccer Field, which stood where UK's Boone Tennis Center now stands, placed fans just feet from the pitch and the UK fans gave Kentucky a tremendous home field advantage. In its five-and-a-half seasons at The Cage, UK put up an impressive 34-17-8 home mark.

In 1994, Ian Collins was brought in by then-UK Athletics Director C.M. Newton to lead the UK Soccer Wildcats. In his 13 years, Collins has taken the UK program to new heights, leading UK to a 156-105-27 (.589) mark. Under Collins, the Wildcats have been consistent conference title contenders in both the MAC and Conference USA. The Wildcats won the MAC Tournament title three straight years from 1999-2001 and regular-season championships in 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004. In 2001, the Wildcats ran through the league with a perfect 6-0-0 record. UK repeated the feat in 2003 and became the first team in conference history to go through the regular season without relinquishing a goal.

Collins also was instrumental in the construction of the UK Soccer Complex. Opened on Oct. 24, 1996, the Complex houses a playing field, a practice field, team lounge and locker rooms. UK has been dominant on its new turf, going an astonishing 69-27-11 there all time, for a winning percentage of better than 70 percent.

In addition to its successful teams, the UK soccer program has also been a successful academically. Four times since 2000 the program has won an NSCAA Team Academic Award and has produced five Boyd McWhorter Scholarship nominees in that same span. In 2006, 2007 and 2008, the soccer team was named the UK Male Academic Team of the Year at the CATSPY Awards.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

1999 MAC Tournament Champs

The 1999 Mid-American Conference Tournament began a three-year championship run for the Wildcats. The second-seeded Wildcats marched through Eastern and Western Michigan before avenging a regular-season loss to Northern Illinois with a 2-1 victory to win the title. Jason Bell scored both goals in the final en route to All-Tournament Team honors. He was joined on the team by Giovanni Fernandes, Chris McAlpine and goalkeeper Brian O'Leary, who pitched two shutouts. The championship sealed Kentucky's first NCAA Tournament appearance.

2001 MAC Champs

Kentucky became the first team in five years to go unbeaten and untied in conference play while wrapping up its second straight MAC championship. The Wildcats absolutely dominated its opposition, outscoring them 18-4 in league games. The championship came down to the final game of the regular-season when UK scored a 2-1 win over Akron, which also entered the contest with a perfect league record. MAC Player of the Year Ilkka Jantti headlined a group of six UK players named to the all-conference squad that included Nathan Fleetwood, John Monebrake, Antti Peltonen, Greg Raber and J.D. Stephenson. Monebrake was tabbed the league's Newcomer of the Year while head coach Ian Collins was named the MAC Coach of the Year for the third time.

2000 MAC Tournament Champs

Despite winning a share of the conference title, Kentucky entered the 2000 MAC Tournament seeded fourth due to the league's tiebreaking procedure. Unfazed, the Wildcats defended their way to a second-straight tournament championship with three straight 1-0 victories. In the second round, UK overcame No. 2 seed Marshall, which taken the regular season meeting between the two. Kentucky then went on the road and knocked off top seed Bowling Green for the title. Brooke Pearse scored the championship winning goal. Greg Bironas, Ilkka Jantti, J.D. Stephenson and goalkeeper Brian O'Leary were each named to the All-Tournament team.

2008 KENTUCKY MEN'S SOCCER

After winning the regular-season championship outright, Kentucky earned the top seed and a first-round bye in the MAC Tournament. Needing two wins, the Wildcats tallied back-to-back 1-0 victories to run their conference tournament win streak to eight, including five straight shutouts. In the championship game played in front of the home crowd in Lexington, MAC Player of the Year Ilkka Jantti scored the winner in the 114th minute for UK's third straight conference championship. Kentucky joined Bowling Green as the only MAC teams to win three straight league titles. Jantti, Marc Theriault, Chris McAlpine and Chris McDaniel were named to the All-Tournament Team.

In the most dominant season in Mid-American Conference history, Kentucky went a perfect 6-0 without allowing a goal in league play. The Wildcats' defense was stifling, led by All-Conference defenders Nathan Li, Thomas Senecal and Brandon Stewart as well as goalkeeper Andy Gruenebaum. Offensively, MAC Newcomer of the Year Riley O'Neill was the scorer with a team-high seven goals and MAC Player of the Year Jamal Shteivi proved the playmaker, tallying a school-record 13 assists. Both were also named all-conference along with midfielder Joey Gaworecki.

The soccer Cats' first NCAA appearance took place in Bloomington in 1999 on the campus of Indiana University. The second-seeded Hoosiers played host to Kentucky, which had won the MAC Championship to receive an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats stretched IU to the limit as the game remained scoreless for nearly two hours. In the second overtime, with the Cats down two men - one from injury and the other from ejection - Indiana finally got the decisive break when All-American Aleksey Korol scored the game-winning goal in the 113th minute of play. The Cats ended their best season since 1995 by making it to their first NCAA Tournament. The Hoosiers would go on to win the National Championship that season.

In their second NCAA appearance, the Cats played at ninth-ranked Saint Louis in the first round of the 2000 NCAA Tournament. The Billikens outshot the Cats by a tally of 21-7, but were held scoreless by Brian O'Leary's 12 saves in front of a strong UK defense that chipped in with a pair of team saves. Four overtime periods could not decide the game, which entered the record books as a 0-0 tie. Per NCAA rules, penalty kicks were required to break the 150 minute deadlock, and O'Leary again shined, making two key saves and netting a penalty of his own to help the Cats advance to the second round.

November 25, 2001 • Second Round No. 5 Clemson 1, Kentucky 0 at Clemson, S.C.

Fifth-seeded Clemson played host to the Cats in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The match was even throughout, with neither team able to get on the board during regulation. Both teams had chances in the first two overtime periods, but neither squad could catch a break and the match eclipsed the two-hour mark. It wasn't until the 124th minute that the Tigers were able to finally find the back of the net. Kenneth Cutler scored the game-winning goal in the third overtime period.

November 22, 2003 • First Round Kentucky 0, Cincinnati 0 (2 ot) (UK Advances on Penalties, 4-2) at Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky hosted an NCAA Tournament game for the first time in front of 1,593 fans. The Wildcats had a pair of great chances for a goal as Jamal Shteiwi just missed the right post on a free kick from 23 yards out in the 20th minute and Olli Lehtimaki missed wide-right from the top of the box in the 49th minute. Other than that, both teams played solid defense leading to a shootout, which Kentucky won 4-2 on the strength of two Andy Gruenebaum saves, one of which was dubbed "the best save I've ever seen" by head coach Ian Collins.

November 26, 2003 • Second Round No. 5 Indiana 2, Kentucky 1 (2 ot) at Bloomington, Ind.

UK got on the board first in the 27th minute when freshman Riley O'Neill buried a shot in the lower-left corner after a feed from Jamal Shteiwi. The Wildcats looked to take the lead into intermission, but Jacob Peterson tallied the equalizer from six yards out to tie the match just before halftime. After a scoreless second half, Kentucky had a man sent off four minutes into the first overtime. Despite a valliant effort by the short-handed Wildcats, Indiana broke through with less than five minutes left before the game would go to penalty kicks for the winner.

DR. LEE T. TODD, JR., PRESIDENT

Lee T. Todd, Jr. became the 11th president of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2001, after serving as senior vice president of IBM's Lotus Development Corp. President Todd is the sixth UK alumnus to hold the presidency.

President Todd has concentrated his efforts and energies on helping his alma mater achieve a greater level of national prominence. He launched the University of Kentucky's Top 20 Business Plan in December 2005. The plan is a quantitative analysis highlighting what it will take for UK to achieve its state-mandated goal of building a Top 20 public research university. Widely hailed as the first business plan by a public university in the nation, UK's plan garnered widespread national attention. It has been featured by national media outlets and recognized by peer institutions, as several higher education leaders have visited UK's campus to learn more about the Business Plan approach.

He continues to champion UK's outreach efforts. President Todd launched a university-funded research program called the Commonwealth Collaboratives. The initiative features 36 of UK's top research teams, who are focused on solving the intrinsic problems that have held the state back from reaching its full potential. It is part of UK's effort to ensure that its research hits the ground in Kentucky and changes lives throughout the Commonwealth.

President Todd has spearheaded an effort to revitalize health care in Kentucky. In June 2006, UK unveiled the Commonwealth's Medical Campus of the Future, a multi-phased project aimed at providing Kentuckians with cutting-edge, 21st century health care. As part of the revamped academic medical campus, UK will construct a new, one million square foot University of Kentucky Albert B. Chandler Hospital and a new College of Pharmacy.

President Todd is currently a member of the Board of Directors and Vice Chair of the Executive Committee for the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC). He is President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Executive Committee. President Todd serves on the Equitable Resources Board of Directors and is chair of the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education's STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) Task Force. He is chair of the National Consortium for Continuous Improvement in Higher Education's (NCCI) Leveraging Excellence Award selection panel. President Todd also is a member of the Business Higher Education Forum and the Council on Competitiveness.

He is married to the former Patricia Brantley, a UK graduate who earned her master's degree from Simmons College in Boston. They have two adult children, UK graduates Troy and Kathryn.

MITCH BARNHART, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mitch Barnhart is in his seventh year as Director of Athletics for the University of Kentucky, having set a clear course for making Kentucky one of the top athletics programs in the country.

Hired July 15, 2002,

Barnhart has made the desire for overall excellence the cornerstone of Wildcat Athletics. His decision to fully fund all 22 varsity sports has produced a wave of firsts in a number of programs, while also allowing UK to achieve at a consistently high level.

Numerous sports have reached never-before-seen levels of success. Baseball won the school's first-ever Southeastern Conference title in 2006, following in the SEC championship footsteps of women's tennis, men's golf and men's basketball from 2005. Four Wildcat coaches earned SEC Coach of the Year honors in 2005-06.

The women's soccer and rifle teams added league titles in 2006-07, with conference Coach of the Year honors going to Warren Lipka and Harry Mullins, respectively.

Perhaps the biggest on-field turnaround besides baseball has been in football, where Rich Brooks has led the Wildcats to back-to-back bowl wins (2006 and 2007) for the first time in more than 50 years. Barnhart's support of Brooks and his staff has manifested itself in a string of wins over traditional football powers, including a victory over top-ranked LSU in October 2007.

Financially, Barnhart instructed his staff to seek out new revenue streams, and that resulted in a record $80 million multimedia rights agreement with Host Communications (now IMG College). The additional resources allow UK to continue its commitment to its student-athletes, a commitment Barnhart takes personally. Athletics spends $1.5 million annually on its nationally-renowned CATS Academic Center and each spring hosts the CATSPYs, an awards program designed to recognize the very best in UK Athletics.

Other initiatives begun under Barnhart's leadership include the Big Blue Caravan, which connects UK to its vast fan base, the UK Athletics Hall of Fame, which honors past greats across all sports, a revamping of UK's donor program that has resulted in record K Fund dollars, and a 10-year, $10-million commitment to help fund the University's general scholarship program. UK also completed the Joe Craft Center, a $30 million expansion of Memorial Coliseum that includes new practice and office space for a variety of sports.

Barnhart's connection to UK's student-athlete is evident by his personal interaction and commitment to provide all support services necessary to meet the needs of these students.

Barnhart arrived at Kentucky from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before his tenure at OSU, he worked at Tennessee for 12 years (1986-98); served as assistant executive director of the SMU Mustang Club (1983-86); regional director for the Duck Athletic Fund at Oregon (1983); and was an intern for the Aztec Athletic Foundation at San Diego State (1982-1983). Barnhart, 48, is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He received his bachelor degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a masters in sports administration from Ohio University in 1982. He and his wife, the former Connie Brown, have three children, Kirby, 20, Blaire, 17, and Scott, 14.

SOCCER CAMPS

The University of Kentucky Soccer Camp is designed to challenge youngsters to improve their abilities as soccer players. Training is designed to help both individual and team aspects of the game.

Led by the UK coaching staff, the camp provides intense individual training by enlisting the help of additional college, club and high school coaches, along with current collegiate players.

For field players, the camp stresses passing, receiving, finishing and heading, and practice these skills in small-sided and full-sided games. The camp also provides specialized goalkeeper training through a blend of training in fundamentals and game experience.

The camp offers technical and tactical development, highly challenging competition and fitness training while practicing at the UK Soccer Complex.

The University of Kentucky Soccer Camp also provides a seminar for players interested in pursuing soccer on the college level. The seminar discusses the many sides of college soccer, including different levels of play, how to contact college coaches, what scholarships and financial aid may be available, and information on college admissions.

Prepare for the season with an exciting summer of soccer at the UK Soccer Camps.
