Credential Requests

Current season credentials previously issued for football and/or men's basketball, will be accepted for use in covering home UK Hoops games. If you do not have season credentials for football or men's basketball but wish to cover UK Hoops throughout the season, e-mail your season credential requests to:

SEC Credential Policy

By accepting or using a media credential ("Credential") for access to any game or athletic contest sponsored or hosted by the Southeastern Conference (the "SEC") or by any one or more of its member institutions (herein an "Event" or the "Events") each person and entity issued such a Credential (herein referred to, along with the employer of each such person, collectively as a "Bearer") agrees to the following terms and conditions:

General

Each Bearer must be and hereby represents that he or she is acting on a specific assignment for an accredited media agency and has a legitimate working function in connection with the Event attended. The Credential is not transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The rights and privileges granted to Bearer may be terminated if any term or condition for use of the Credential is breached. The unauthorized use of the Credential subjects the Bearer to ejection from the Event.

While within the Event venue, Bearer shall, at all times, adhere to the policies in place for the Event, abide by and respect access limitations, and accept and follow directions provided by the SEC or the SEC member institution(s) hosting the Event.

Bearer assumes all risks incidental to the performance by the Bearer of Bearer's services in connection with the Event and assumes all risks incidental to each Event, whether occurring before, during or after the actual playing of the Event, and agrees that the SEC, its member institutions, and their respective agents, employees, directors, officers, student-athletes, coaches, and contractors shall not be liable for bodily injury, property damage or theft losses suffered or incurred by Bearer at the Event. Bearer understands that sports contests are physical, and that in the normal course of play it is possible for balls, players, or other objects to leave the court, track, course, or field of play and impact spectators. Bearer hereby waives and releases any and all Claims (as defined below) against the SEC and its member institutions arising directly or indirectly from any such injury, including those attributable to their negligence or that of their agents.

In the event that the name or likeness of Bearer is included in any broadcast, telecast, photograph, film, video or other media taken in connection with any Event, Bearer grants the SEC (or, if the media is controlled by a SEC member, grants such SEC member) the nonexclusive, transferable, perpetual right and license to use (and to sub-license the use of) such name and likeness in any media worldwide whether now known or thereafter devised.

Media Services

Interview Policies-General — All interviews with Kentucky women's basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly. Team locker rooms, and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate University personnel.

Practice — Practice will run from 1-4 p.m. on the women's court of the Joe Craft Center. Media planning to attend practice should call in advance due to changing practice schedules during the season. Player and coaches interviews can be conducted following each practice. Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

News Conference — Coach Mitchell and selected players meet with members of the media in the Memorial Coliseum media room at schedule times to be announced.

Telephone Player Interviews — Request telephone interviews at least 24 hours in advance through the Media Relations office. Telephone requests will be returned when players' schedules allow.

Radio Call-In Shows/Internet Chats — As specified by the Southeastern Conference, no players will be allowed to participate in live radio shows or on live chat sessions on the Internet other than UKAthletics.com. Coach Mitchell may participate in radio shows as his schedule allows.

Postgame Interviews — Selected players and both head coaches will be available to the media following a 10-minute cooling off period at the end of the game in the Memorial Coliseum media room.

Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Mitchell conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK IMG Sports Radio Network. Following Coach Mitchell's press conference and the visiting team's press conference, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

SIDs from each school should be asked to coordinate any other interview requests.

Quotes will be available for all working media in the UK Media Relations Office and on the official UK website, UKAthletics.com.

UKAthletics.com — The official Web site for University of Kentucky Athletics is updated 24 hours before each game with the latest game notes and quotes from Coach Mitchell and selected players.

Following each game, the site will post a game box score with summary, postgame quotes and notes from all home games and updated season statistics.

Accessing Publicity Photos/Logos — Media members wishing to obtain photos and logos of the University of Kentucky women's basketball team may do so by utilizing the XOS Vault System. Please contact a member of the UK Media Relations Office for the website and login information.

MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Bearer agrees to indemnify and save harmless the SEC, its member institutions, and their respective agents, employees, directors, officers, student-athletes, coaches, and contractors, of and from any and all claims, liabilities, demands and causes of action asserted by persons and entities other than the SEC and its member institutions (jointly "Claims") arising out of any act or omission, or anything done or purported to have been done, by Bearer, including but not limited to Claims arising from Bearer's breach of any term or condition hereof. With respect to any Claim that might give rise to liability of the Bearer as an indemnitor, the indemnified party shall: (a) have the right to fully participate in the litigation of such claim with counsel selected by the indemnified party at the sole expense of the Bearer, and (b) not be obligated, without its consent, to participate in any settlement of such Claim.

SEC Real-Time Internet Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

- (a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.
- (b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.
- (c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.
- 2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.
- 3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Tournament. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future basketball games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

made when submitting press and/or photo credential requests.

Media Entrance/Will Call — The media entrance is located in the back of Memorial Coliseum (behind Papa John's and Qdoba). The entrance is marked MEDIA ROOM. Credentials are not available at the public Will Call window on Euclid Avenue and will not be mailed.

Media Room — The media room is located in Memorial Coliseum and can be accessed through the hallway on the press row side of the Coliseum. Working facilities, with electrical outlets and a limited number of telephones, are available.

Media Services — The University of Kentucky uses a computerized statistics system. Working media will receive:

- Game program and notes
- · Halftime statistics
- · Final statistics
- · Complete play-by-play
- · Shot charts
- · Coach and player quotes

Wireless Access — Memorial Coliseum offers free wireless internet service to media members. To log on, open a browser window, go to https://ukwg1.uky.edu, sign in as a Guest and type in a valid email address.

To use the UK Wireless Network, you must select the 'ukyedu' network name (SSID, service set identifier) from the list of available wireless networks that appear in your wireless card configuration program, and WEP (wireless encryption protocol) must be disabled.

For more information about wireless access to UK computing systems, please see the Wireless Authentication page (http://www.uky.edu/Wireless/authentication.html).

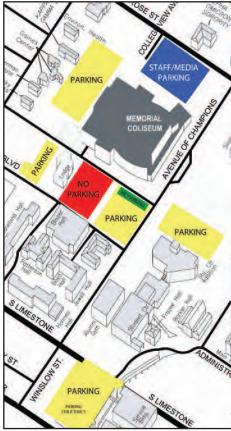

Stats on Your Laptop — The University of Kentucky has partnered with BCS Stats Systems to provide stats technologies, namely its StatMonitr wireless stat monitors and online media stats, at Kentucky women's basketball home games this season.

To access live game stats on your personal laptop, go to: http://kentucky.bcsstats.com. Passwords, if applicable, will be distributed on game day.

Press Row Telephone — Working media not able to attend games at Memorial Coliseum may get score updates by dialing (859) 323-5900 or by logging on to the official website: UKAthletics.com

Photographers — The photo zones are located in each end zone of the playing floor. Some photo spots have been assigned. Because of safety concerns, no shooting is allowed on either sideline. See Chet White at the site for technical assistance.

Matthew Mitchell discusses upcoming games during weekly press conferences in the Memorial Coliseum media room.

The University of Kentucky is in the midst of a landmark 10-year deal for the University's expanded multimedia marketing rights.

The agreement was signed in 2005 with IMG College (formerly Host Communications) and Gray Television. IMG partnered with Lexington's top-rated television station, WKYT, to pay the University $80.5 million over the 10 years of the agreement, making it one of the most lucrative deals of its kind in NCAA history.

Also, enhancing Kentucky's national presence is the SEC's unprecedented 15-year deal with ESPN. Beginning in 2009, at least 60 SEC women's basketball games were available on national or regional television.

"The SEC Network, through the efforts of ESPN, will be the largest college sports syndication television package in the country," SEC Commissioner Mike Slive said. "The SEC will be the most widely distributed conference in the country, utilizing every known distribution platform, including national network, national cable, over the air syndication, regional cable, Internet, broadband, and mobile TV phones, all of which will be supplemented by the SEC Digital Network and our local institutional packages."

ESPN's deal is reportedly worth more than $2 billion, the most lucrative in history for a college athletics conference.

In addition to the SEC TV pacts, the UK IMG Sports Network features full-game action of five selected UK Hoops home games that also will be broadcast on Fox Sports Net South. The crew includes WKYT-TV sports anchor Christi Thomas (left) as the analyst and former WHAS-TV sports anchor Garry Gupton (right) on play-by-play. Sideline reporter Carl Nathe (pictured above) also is a member of the UK IMG Sports TV crew for UK Hoops.

Neil PricePlay-by-Play Broadcaster

Neil Price, a 16-year radio veteran, enters his sixth season as the voice of UK Hoops on the UK IMG Sports Network. He also serves as the host of the Coach Matthew Mitchell and the Coach Gary Henderson radio show, the Wildcat Sports Update (a daily radio feature on the network, highlighting UK's Olympic sports programs), radio play-by-play announcer for UK Baseball and also provides play-by-play for the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament and SEC Baseball Tournament on the SEC Radio Network heard on XM Radio.

Price had a memorable first season as a member of the UK IMG Sports Network, serving as the play-by-play announcer for a UK Hoops squad that advanced to its first NCAA Tournament since 1998-99 and a UK baseball squad that completed an historic worst-to-first turnaround to claim the school's first SEC title. His last four seasons, UK Hoops has advanced to the third and quarterfinal rounds of the WNIT, and the NCAA Elite Eight and the NCAA Second Round, respectively.

Price, a native of Russellville, Tenn., joined the UK IMG Sports Network from Middle Tennessee State, where he spent three seasons as the school's broadcast coordinator. He called the action for the Blue Raiders' women's basketball and baseball teams, and was the sideline reporter for football broadcasts.

Price, a 2003 graduate of MTSU, received his bachelor's degree in mass communications with an emphasis in electronic media journalism. While working at MTSU, he also began his master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sport management. Prior to MTSU, he attended Walters State Community College in Morristown, Tenn., where he earned an associates degree in general studies with an emphasis in broadcasting.

At the young age of 15, Price began working in the broadcasting business at WCRK in Morristown. He learned everything from serving as a studio producer for high school and college sports broadcasts to disc jockeying during morning and afternoon drives. He even worked as a part-time news anchor and reporter. It was also where he debuted as a radio sports broadcaster, serving as a play-by-play announcer and color commentator on Morristown East HS football, basketball, and baseball broadcasts.

Price, 31, resides in Lexington and is married to the former Beth Davis, a UK Hoops student manager (2002-06) and administrative assistant (2006-08). Beth graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2006 followed by a master's degree in sports leadership from UK in 2008.

The rights to the UK broadcasts are owned by IMG College and Gray Television with WLAP Radio Lexington serving as the flagship station. For information on the UK IMG Sports Network, contact Mike Dodson at IMG College, (859) 226-4678.

SEC Player of the Week

The SEC will name a Player of the Week and a Freshman of the Week throughout the 2011-12 season. Each week's selection will be selected on Monday a.m. for Monday p.m. publication.

SEC History

The Southeastern Conference was formed Dec. 8-9, 1932, to include 13 schools: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

On September 25, 2011, the SEC Presidents and Chancellors announced that Texas A&M University would join the SEC effective July 1, 2012, with competition to begin in all sports for the 2012-13 academic year.

The addition of Texas A&M will increase the SEC membership back to 13 institutions. It is the first expansion for the SEC since September of 1991 when the University of South Carolina joined the league. The University of Arkansas joined the SEC in August of 1991. With the addition of Arkansas and South Carolina, the SEC was the first conference to split into divisions and add a conference championship game in 1992.

Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was the first president of the league. The first commissioner was former Mississippi governor Martin Conner (1940-48), followed by Bernie Moore (1948-66), A.M. "Tonto" Coleman (1966-72), Dr. Boyd McWhorter (1972-86), Dr. Harvey Schiller (1986-90) and Roy Kramer (1990-2002).

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. Cross country, golf, swimming, tennis and indoor track were added later. The SEC began recognizing women's championships during the 1979-80 school year and women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 11 women's sports. The men's sports are baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (indoor, outdoor and cross country). The women's sports are basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track and volleyball.

The conference schedule increased from 14 games to 16 in the 2009-10 season. Each institution will play every other member institution once. Each team will also play five additional games consisting of one permanent opponent (South Carolina), two rotating opponents from its division (Florida and Tennessee) and two rotating opponents from the other division (Alabama and Mississippi State). The league as a whole is divided into the Eastern and Western Divisions but the women will not use a division format for scheduling.

Kentucky head coach Matthew Mitchell's teams are known for using three "winning tools" for success: honesty, hard work and discipline. So it's no surprise that in just four seasons at the helm, he has used those winning tools to build a program that has quickly ascended back into the national spotlight.

Under his leadership, the Wildcats have advanced to four consecutive postseason tournaments, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in 28 years. UK has also finished second in the Southeastern Conference race, advanced to the Southeastern Conference Tournament championship game and charted over 20 wins in consecutive seasons, including a school-record 28 victories in 2009-10.

In the last two seasons alone, the Wildcats have defeated 10 nationally-ranked opponents, finished in the top 25 of the national polls, garnered top 25 rankings in average attendance and recorded a remarkable 30-2 record in Memorial Coliseum

Eight different players have received All-SEC accolades, including Victoria Dunlap who was named UK's first SEC Player of the Year and first SEC Defensive Player of the Year. She also was just the second player in school history to be named to the prestigious WBCA/State Farm All-America team. In the classroom, seven Wildcats have been SEC Academic Honor Roll members over 12 times and all 10 players in their final season of eligibility received their degree.

Mitchell's success on the hardwood has already moved him up to No. 4 in all-time wins at Kentucky with 86. His winning percentage of 63.7 percent (86-49) ranks third.

Last season, Mitchell once again led the Wildcats to an outstanding season with a 25-9 overall record and a school-record-tying 11 wins (11-5) in the SEC. UK took a second-place finish in the league standings for the second-consecutive year and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament as the No. 4 seed.

Year three proved to be the best year yet, as Mitchell was named SEC Coach of the Year for his remarkable job in turning around a team that went 16-16 overall, 5-9 in conference play a year prior, to an impressive 28-8 overall record in 2009-10. The Cats' 28 overall wins, including 11 SEC wins, were school records. UK finished second in the league despite being picked to finish 11th in the preseason polls.

Mitchell became Kentucky's head coach on April 23, 2007, when he was hired by Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart. A whirlwind salesman, Mitchell presented a vision of UK Hoops as a powerhouse program; and a warm and loving family. His pitch has resonated with recruits and their families as he has signed a top-10 recruiting class nationally for next season. UK's roster will boast three highly touted freshmen, including Bria Goss, a top-20 recruit according to ESPN HoopGurlz.

In his first season with the Wildcats, Mitchell led UK to a school-record fourth-consecutive postseason tournament. The Wildcats posted a 17-16 overall record and finished fourth in the SEC with an 8-6 mark, just one win shy of the school record. The eight league wins were the most conference wins by a first-year head coach in UK Hoops history. Mitchell also became the first head coach in UK Hoops history to lead his team to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament in his/her debut season. The Wildcats earned a first-round bye and upset No. 23/21 Georgia in the quarterfinals (57-50) before falling to NCAA Final Four participant LSU in the semis. UK went on to defeat Middle Tennessee and James Madison in the postseason WNIT before falling to eventual champion Marquette in the quarterfinals, 69-64.

Despite another tough schedule and injuries to key players throughout the season, the Wildcats again advanced to postseason play with a second-round finish in the WNIT in his second season. It marked their school-record fifth consecutive postseason tournament appearance. Mitchell became the first head coach since Terry Hall in the 1980-81 and 1981-82 seasons to advance to postseason play in his first two seasons as head coach.

The Cats finished 16-16 overall, 5-9 in the SEC and defeated No. 13/19 Tennessee 66-56, their first win over the Lady Vols in Memorial Coliseum in 23 years. Mitchell also captured his 30th win at UK on Feb. 5, 2009, vs. South Carolina. He did it in only 56 games, becoming the second-fastest coach to reach 30 wins behind Hall who earned it in only 38 games during her first two seasons in 1980 and 1981.

Mitchell came to Kentucky in the spring of 2007 when Mickie DeMoss resigned as head coach after four seasons. So when Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart went about the daunting task of finding a coach whose skills, personality and charisma could build on the success and excitement that DeMoss had brought to the program, he immediately thought of Mitchell, who had played a key role in UK Hoops landing four brilliant prep performers in the fall of 2004 – a class ranked No. 6 by the All-Star Girls Report.

In his first season as an assistant coach under DeMoss at UK, Mitchell helped lure former Wildcats Chanté Bowman, Samantha Mahoney and Eleia Roddy away from Big Ten powers Michigan State and Ohio State while convincing 6-6 center Sarah Elliott, a Kentucky high school legend, to stay at home

Mitchell then became a key factor in the development and improvement of UK's young post players. Elliott ranked in the top 10 in two Southeastern Conference statistical categories and was named to the 2004-05 SEC All-Freshman team. Forward Jennifer Humphrey – then a sophomore – also flourished under Mitchell's direction, leading the team in rebounding and ranking 15th in that category in the SEC in 2004-2005. She finished her college career as UK's second all-time leading rebounder.

quickly shifted to her replacement, Barnhart needed to look no further than 60 miles east on Interstate 64, where Mitchell already had established himself as an up-and-coming head coach at in-state OVC school Morehead State.

When Barnhart interviewed Mitchell, Morehead State was fresh off two exciting campaigns in which he had revived a declining Lady Eagles women's basketball program with a 30-29 record (.508) – the third-highest coach's winning percentage in school history. The Lady Eagles were coming off a 5-22 record a year prior to Mitchell's arrival and earned a 16-13 overall mark and 11-9 league record in his first season. The Lady Eagles also reached the semifinals of the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament.

In his second season, Mitchell guided Morehead to a third-place finish in the league with a school-record 13 conference wins. During the season, the Lady Eagles strung together a nine-game winning streak, the program's longest in 20 seasons.

Mitchell's two-year MSU conference record of 24-16 (.600) marks the second-highest OVC winning percentage in school history. He was only the third coach in the program's history to post an overall winning record during his tenure.

Barnhart also was impressed with Mitchell's coaching pedigree. He had served as an assistant coach and recruiter at Florida under Carol Ross beginning in 2000. He helped the Gators compile a 51-36 record, and during his first two seasons the Gators recorded a 19-9 league record en route to two NCAA Tournament (2001 and 2002) appearances. With Mitchell's help, the Gators had a program-tying 24 wins and tied the school record with 11 SEC wins in 2001. He stayed at Florida to serve under then-new UF Coach Carolyn Peck during the 2002-03 season. As the primary recruiter at UF, Mitchell brought in the nation's ninth-ranked recruiting class in 2002 and the No. 2-ranked class by All-Star Girls Report in 2003.

The Louisville, Miss., native began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Tennessee under Hall of Fame Coach Pat Summitt during the Lady Vols' run to the Final Four in 2000. UT advanced to the national championship game before losing to top-ranked Connecticut. The Lady Vols finished No. 2 in the national polls with a 33-4 overall record and a 13-1 mark in the SEC.

Prior to his stint at Tennessee, Mitchell spent one year in Yazoo City, Miss., as a coach and teacher at Manchester Academy. He taught American history and served as both the boys' and girls' head basketball coach.

A 1995 graduate of Mississippi State, Mitchell's first head-coaching experience came in 1996 at Central Holmes Academy High School in Lexington, Miss. Mitchell performed multiple duties at the school, including head coach of both basketball teams as well as the track and golf teams. He also served as the defensive coordinator for the football team.

Mitchell, 40, is married to Jenna Ramsey Mitchell of Amelia Island, Fla., and has two daughters, Lacy Mitchell, of Madison, Miss., and newborn Saylor Rose Mitchell. The couple are very active in community service as Jenna serves on the board of the Children's Advocacy Center and Matthew volunteers his time for several area charities and organizations. Matthew also is an honorary Rotarian in the Lexington chapter.

GETTING TO KNOW MATTHEW MITCHELL

When did you know you wanted to be a coach?

"I was in the 10th grade. I loved athletics and played everything. But in 10th grade I realized that I was not going to play in the NBA and was not going to make a living playing basketball. I knew then that coaching would be the way to go."

In one sentence, what is your coaching philosophy?

"To instill honesty, hard work and discipline in our team on and off the court."

Who are your coaching influences or mentors?

"My dad, John Mitchell, has been my greatest coaching influence. He taught me the winning tools of honesty, hard work and discipline. He always challenged us to be honest. His work-ethic is phenomenal and he's always had a lot of discipline in his life. Mickie DeMoss and Carol Ross have had the biggest impact on my development as a college coach. Farrell Rigby, my high school coach, also was a big influence on me because he was the first person to give me an opportunity to coach."

What is your favorite professional sports team?

"The Cincinnati Reds. I fell in love with the Big Red Machine back when I was about five or six years old. I wore Johnny Bench's number back when I was a catcher. I just always loved the Reds. I can't believe that I ended up living in a place that is so close to them."

Is it true that you were the lead singer in a band called "Coach Mitchell and the B Team?" "Yes, it's true. It all came about when I was joking with a friend of mine about what a good singer I was and I asked him when he was going to let me sing with his band. Their singer couldn't make it for a rehearsal one weekend and he called me. The rest is history. We were local celebrities in Louisville, Miss., from 1995-99."

How would you describe your parents?

"My mom and dad are people of great integrity and great character. They've been married 48 years and have lived their lives in a manner which has given our family respect in our community. They worked with the Cub Scouts for eight years and impacted countless boys' lives in that process. My mother taught school and they've been very active in our church. They're just really solid, hardworking people that have always cared about their community."

What is one thing most people don't know about you? "I'm an Eagle Scout. My whole family was involved with the Scouts and all of my brothers are Eagles as well."

Kyra Elzy is in her fourth season at Kentucky, her second as associate head coach. She was promoted to her current position in August of 2010. Elzy also serves as the recruiting coordinator and is responsible for coaching the guards with Matt Insell.

Elzy, considered one of the top recruiters in the nation, has helped Kentucky bring in a top-10 recruiting class three-straight seasons which has included the signing of four high school McDonald's All-Americans.

Elzy has been instrumental in helping UK advance to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, chart back-to-back 20-win seasons, including two straight seasons with a school-record 11 SEC wins.

Last year, two of Elzy's guards received SEC recognition as sophomore A'dia Mathies was named to the All-SEC Second Team and rookie Bernisha Pinkett was named to the SEC All-Freshman team.

In 2009-10, UK won a program-best 28 victories despite being picked to finish 11th in the preseason SEC polls. UK ended its record-breaking season second in the league and tied for ninth in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. Kentucky was a force to be reckoned with all year as it marched all the way to the NCAA Elite Eight, upsetting top-seeded and fourth-ranked Nebraska along the way. The Cats fell just one win shy of their first Final Four appearance after falling to Oklahoma in the regional finals.

Under Elzy's tutelage, Mathies received UK's first SEC Freshman of the Year honor in 2010 and was named UK's first freshman All-American since Valerie Still in 1980. Mathies was also named to the SEC All-Tournament team along with teammate Victoria Dunlan

Prior to Kentucky, Elzy spent four years as an assistant coach at Kansas. As the recruiting coordinator, she helped the Jayhawks land its first top 20 signing class in 2007 under head coach Bonnie Henrickson. She also helped KU earn two post-season bids in her four seasons. In 2006-07, KU finished 17-16 overall and advanced to the third round of the WNIT while guard Danielle McCray was named Big 12 honorable mention.

Elzy also coached at Western Kentucky for two seasons under head coach Mary Taylor Cowles. She coordinated the recruiting efforts for the Lady Toppers and also worked with the guards and handled individual workouts. The Lady Toppers posted 20+ wins both of her seasons at WKU and in 2002-03 WKU won the Sun Belt Conference championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Elzy helped coach Sun Belt Player of the Year Shala Reese and Newcomer of the Year Tiffany Porter-Talbert. In 2003-04, WKU was the Sun Belt runner-up and advanced to the quarterfinals of the WNIT.

Before coaching, Elzy spent one year as an administrative assistant under Henrickson at Virginia Tech. She was responsible for team travel, scheduling community service events, and working with the women's basketball summer camps.

As a student-athlete, Elzy tutored under the nation's all-time winningest coach in Hall of Famer Pat Summitt at Tennessee. The four-year letter winner, who actually spent five seasons in a Lady Vol uniform after missing the 1998-99 season with an injury, was a member of two national championship teams (1997).

Coach Elzy on Kentucky:

"It's so awesome to be a part of the excitement and tradition that the Kentucky name represents across the country. I'm a Kentucky girl and I love the green grass, the southern hospitality and the horses. It's a beautiful place. I also love working with Coach Mitchell and this staff. He displays a contagious energy, passion and heart on and off the court. He never lacks and 1998) and a national runner-up squad (2000). During her time in Knoxville, she played in 126 games and earned the Holly Warlick Defensive Player of the Year award in 1997 and the Unsung Hero Award in 1998.

Elzy became just the fifth freshman in Tennessee history to start her first game as a Lady Vol when she started at guard in the 1996-97 season opener against Austin Peay. She also earned another distinction during her playing career, becoming the first Tennessee player to earn her master's degree while still playing.

Also excelling in the classroom, Elzy was named to the 2000 and 2001 SEC All-Academic teams. She was a three-time Lady Vol Academic Achiever, a distinction given to student-athletes who maintain a 3.0 grade point average for the year and earned Tennessee's Dean's List honors each semester while in graduate school.

The 31-year-old is a 1996 graduate of Oldham County High School where she guided the Lady Colonels to four district championships, two regional titles and a state semifinals appearance during her prep career. Her outstanding prep career earned her induction into the Kentucky Lions Club Hall of Fame in 2009.

Elzy holds a bachelor's degree in psychology and a master's in cultural studies in education with an emphasis in sports psychology from Tennessee.

"Kyra Elzy is a consummate professional. She is an incredibly hard worker who cares greatly about Kentucky women's b asketball. She shows that by how she organizes recruiting, connects with players and the way she goes out and represents our program. I don't have enough positive superlatives to describe her. In my mind, she is the best in the business. I am thrilled everyday to be able to work with her. She pushes me to be a better coach and I'm so grateful for her contributions."

In his role as an assistant coach, Insell has been a key component in recruiting and player development.

Insell has helped Kentucky ink three straight top-10 recruiting classes which included the signing of four high school McDonald's All-Americans in Bria Goss, Jennifer O'Neill, DeNesha Stallworth and Samarie Walker.

Insell has also helped lead UK to back-to-back 20-win seasons and finish second in the always-tough Southeastern Conference race. The Wildcats, who finished in the top 25 in the final AP polls the last two seasons, also earned back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids for the first time in 28 years.

In 2009-10, Insell helped guide UK to a program-best 28-8 record, including a school-record 11-5 mark in the SEC. Despite low expectations from outside observers, Kentucky went from being picked to finish 11th in the SEC to an NCAA Elite Eight team. The Cats defeated five nationally-ranked opponents, including a historic win over LSU in Baton Rouge, La., and an exciting upset over top-seeded and fourth-ranked Nebraska in the Sweet 16.

With Insell's help, Louisville native A'dia Mathies received UK's first SEC Freshman of the Year honor and was named the Cats' first freshman All-American since Valerie Still in 1980. Mathies also was named to the SEC All-Tournament team along with teammate Victoria Dunlap, marking UK's first honorees to that team since 1992. Mathies was again impressive in her sophomore season, earning All-SEC Second Team honors. Freshman guard Bernisha Pinkett also received conference honors as she was named to the SEC All-Freshman team.

Prior to Kentucky, Insell was the Director of Basketball Operations at Louisiana Tech under Coach Chris Long. Before that, he was considered one of the top AAU coaches in the country, coaching the Tennessee Flight, a Nike Elite Travel Program, for three years.

Insell made a national name for himself after coaching 41 of his former AAU players to play Division I basketball, including current Wildcats Victoria Dunlap and Crystal Riley. He also coached the Shelbyville Sports Shop 15-Under team to the AAU National Championship title in 2004.

Insell, 29, earned valuable basketball experience while attending the University of Tennessee from 2001-2005. He worked closely with both the men's and women's basketball programs, serving as a student assistant/video coordinator under former men's head coach Buzz Peterson and as an instructor at Pat Summitt's summer basketball camps. The Shelbyville, Tenn., native transferred to Middle Tennessee State during the 2005-06 season where his father, Rick Insell, is the head women's basketball coach. He went on to earn his bachelor's degree in political science from MTSU in 2007.

On Kentucky:

"When you think of Kentucky, you think basketball. What fans invest in this program with their passion, year-in and year-out, is priceless. One thing that sets Coach Mitchell apart from the rest is his passion to succeed at the top level and the direction in which he wants to take this program. I love Kentucky and wouldn't want to live anywhere else. Everyone has been great, everyone is friendly and it's a great atmosphere."

"Matt is a very well-rounded coach and we are very fortunate to have him at Kentucky. Matt is invested in this program and you can tell that by the time and the care in which he does his job. He is a dynamic recruiter and he has done an excellent job of getting us involved with some outstanding players. He has been around basketball his whole life and his insight on how to handle players and the feedback and input he gives me is invaluable. He continues to get better and his future in this game is extremely bright." — Head Coach Matthew Mitchell

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR • MITCH BARNHART DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS (10TH YEAR) • OTTAWA UNIVERSITY, 1981

Mitch Barnhart is in his 10th year at the University of Kentucky, with unparalleled accomplishments in his past and unprecedented goals for the future.

In the last year alone, UK Athletics' success featured the school's first national championship in rifle; the men's basketball team returned to the Final Four for the first time since 1998; softball advanced to the super regional for the first time ever; and the football team continued its school-record five-year bowl streak.

Combined with other achievements, these feats are fulfilling Barnhart's ambitious course for the future, which was revealed in November 2008 with the 15 by 15 Plan. The goals are to win at least 15 conference or national championships and rank among the NCAA's top 15 athletic programs by 2015 – all of which would be unprecedented achievements for UK Athletics – while continuing to expand the department's service to the commonwealth of Kentucky. Another goal is a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average for UK's 500-plus student-athletes on an annual basis.

Barnhart's commitment to the 15 x 15 x 15 Plan, and beyond, was reinforced this year when he signed a contract extension that reaches 2019.

UK's steady improvement in the Directors' Cup standings under Barnhart was highlighted with its 29th-place finish in 2009-10. It was the school's best showing since Barnhart's arrival, its top finish since 1997-98 and only three slots away from the best mark in school history.

The primary academic target was met during the 2010 spring semester as UK's student-athletes notched a composite 3.04 GPA. but Barnhart wants to continue to see academic success and improvement in the future. In addition, UK has consistently posted strong numbers in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate as every one of UK's 22 varsity sports have avoided penalties in the APR's seven-year existence. Graduation rates, which date back to classes that entered six years ago, are beginning to show the improvement Barnhart emphasized upon his arrival in 2002.

Additional initiatives begun under Barnhart's leadership include fully funding all 22 varsity sports with maximum number of scholarships and coaches; creating the UK Athletics Hall of Fame; initiating the CAT-SPYs, an awards program that honors the best of UK Athletics; the construction of the Joe Craft Center, a $30 million facility that includes practice and administrative space for a variety of sports; more than $14 million of football facility improvements; and the construction of a new $12 million track.

Barnhart's influence reaches far beyond the fields of competition. Despite athletics' urgent financial needs, Barnhart directs a $1.7-million annual contribution to the University's scholarship program.

Social responsibility in the Commonwealth of Kentucky also is a priority for Barnhart, who is extremely active in community service and encourages UK athletics staff and student-athletes to do the same.

Barnhart has been involved on the national level as well and in 2010 became the chair of the NCAA Basketball Issues Committee.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1982.

His family includes his wife, Connie, three children, Blaire, Scott, Kirby Willoughby and her husband, McKenzie.

MITCHELL'S MARK IN MARCH

The Wildcats are 12-9 overall during the month of March under head coach Matthew Mitchell, including an impressive 8-4 mark the past two seasons. The only losses came against No. 4 Tennessee in the championship game of the 2010 and 2011 SEC Tournaments, vs. No. 12 Oklahoma in the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight and against No. 14 North Carolina in the 2011 NCAA Tournament second round.

SEC TOURNAMENT NOTABLES

Kentucky earned a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament for the fourth time in the last six years, including a No. 2 seed for the second consecutive season after finishing SEC play at 11-5.

In the Wildcats' quarterfinal matchup vs. LSU, sophomore A'dia Mathies converted an old-fashioned three-point play with 38.8 seconds left to put the Wildcats ahead and give UK a thrilling 60-58 win.

Senior Victoria Dunlap, who assisted Mathies' goahead layup and hit a free-throw with 13 seconds left to give UK a two-point lead, was the only player in double digits for the Wildcats. She recorded a gamehigh 21 points, including 13 in the second half while grabbing a team-high-tying seven rebounds.

Victoria Dunlap, along with head coach Matthew Mitchell and her mother Robin Dunlap, was invited to the 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas at ESPN in Bristol, Conn. Victoria was chosen as the 11th overall pick in the first round by the Washington Mystics.

In the semifinals vs. Vanderbilt, Kentucky used a 22-0 run in the opening stanza and held the Commodores to just 11 first-half points en route to a 69-56 win. Dunlap again led the charge, charting her eighth double-double of the season with 22 points and 11 rebounds. Sophomore forward Brittany Henderson had a career day on the boards, grabbing a careerbest 18 caroms.

Mathies also scored in double digits, netting 11 points before being sidelined most of the second half with soreness in her lower back.

For the second-straight season, UK met border-rival Tennessee in the championship game. Despite trailing only 39-30 at the half, the Wildcats couldn't overcome the hot-shooting Lady Vols. Angie Bjorklund scored 23 points, including seven 3-pointers, and No. 4 Tennessee hit a school- and tournament-record 16 3-pointers to defeat Kentucky, 90-65.

Dunlap and freshman guard Bernisha Pinkett each had a team-high 15 points. The Wildcats won the rebounding battle against the much taller Lady Vols 46-41, including grabbing a school-record 31 offensive rebounds.

DUNLAP FINALIST FOR THREE MAJOR NATIONAL AWARDS

Senior Victoria Dunlap was selected as one of the top 40 finalists for the 2011 State Farm Coaches' All-America Team, as announced by The Women's Basketball Coaches Association, in cooperation with State Farm. Dunlap was one of the final 10 members last season, UK's first since Valerie Still in 1983.

She was also one of 20 finalists on the national ballot for the John R. Wooden Award, and was on the Naismith midseason top 30 list for the Naismith Trophy.

UK CHARTS 2ND STRAIGHT 20-WIN SEASON

With the win over Vanderbilt in Nashville, Tenn., on Feb. 20, the Wildcats charted their second-straight 20-win season, marking the first time UK accomplished that feat since the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons.

UK has totaled 12 20-win seasons in its 37 years of varsity status. Four of those 20-win seasons have been accomplished in the last six years.

The all-time record for wins is 28 set by the 2009-10 squad.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

Kentucky's schedule is always tough, as it plays in the nation's premier women's basketball league, the Southeastern Conference. Kentucky played five ranked opponents, including No. 4 Tennessee twice and eventual NCAA Tournament runner up, Notre Dame. CollegeRPI.com listed UK's strength of schedule at No. 18.

BASKETBALL STATE OF MIND

Both of Kentucky's basketball teams were ranked in the top 25 of the final regular-season AP poll. The men's team finished at No. 11 while the women's team was No. 17.

UK was one of eight schools in the nation to have both its men's and women's teams ranked in the top 25 of the AP poll. The others are: UConn, Duke, Texas A&M, Notre Dame, Michigan State, Ohio State, North Carolina and Xavier.

UK RANKS IN BOTH NATIONAL POLLS

Since the middle of the 2009-10 season, Kentucky has been ranked in both polls for 26-consecutive weeks, and was listed at No. 17 in the final regular season AP poll. It's the highest final ranking since the 1983 team finished at No. 13.

UK has appeared in the AP poll 122 times in the poll's 37-year history. UK's longest streak in the poll is 61 consecutive weeks from week 11 of the 1979-80 season to week 17 of the 1982-83 season.

CATS' FORMULA FOR SUCCESS

The Wildcats' formula for success is comprised of two things: turnovers forced and rebounding margin. For an undersized team like Kentucky, winning the turnover margin offsets a deficit in rebounding margin. UK went 9-2 this season when it lost the rebounding margin but won the turnover margin. The only losses came against No. 4 Tennessee on Feb. 7 and No. 14 North Carolina on March 21.

The Cats are 38-27 (.584) overall in "close games" (games decided by 10 points or less) under Mitchell, including a 10-4 mark this season. In games decided by five points or less during the 2010-11 season, UK went 6-2.

UK defeated No. 12 Notre Dame by five points (81-76), Ole Miss by six, Middle Tennessee by nine (81-72), Florida by one (59-58), Vanderbilt by 10 (78-68) in Lexington and nine (80-71) in Nashville, Tenn. DUNLAP NAMED AP SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Victoria Dunlap was selected as The Associated Press Southeastern Conference Player of the Year for the second-consecutive season. She also was a unanimous choice for the All-SEC first team for the second-straight season.

Dunlap, also named SEC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-SEC by the league coaches, was UK's first-ever SEC Player of the Year in 2009-10.

DUNLAP IN RARE COMPANY

With four steals vs. Vanderbilt on March 5, senior forward Victoria Dunlap became the only player in UK Hoops history to record more than 100 assists, 100 blocks and 300 steals in a career. She and former Wildcat Stacey Reed (1991-95) are the only two players at UK to chart 300 or more career steals.

She also is just one of two players in UK annals to chart more than 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career. The other is UK's all-time leading scorer for men or women, Valerie Still (2,763 points and 1,525 rebounds).

TRENDS OF THE WINS/LOSSES

In 25 wins, UK averaged 74.7 points per game and shot 40.7 percent from the floor, 34.0 percent from the 3-point arc and 69.1 percent from the charity stripe. In the nine losses, UK averaged 60.4 points per game and shot 32.5 percent from the floor, 20.3 percent from the 3-point line and 70.0 percent from the charity stripe.

- In 25 wins, UK averaged 16.0 turnovers per game while the opponent averages 25.4. In nine losses, the Cats averaged 17.4 turnovers while the opponent averages 20.3.

CATS' PRESSURE DEFENSE TOUGH TO TAKE

Once again, opponents found the Wildcats' pressure and full-court defense tough to handle. In 2009-10. UK led the SEC and ranked as one of the top teams nationally in steals and turnover margin, and 2010-11 was no different. The Cats ranked among the nation's and SEC's leaders in both of those defensive statistical categories:

NCAA	SEC	Category	Stat
5th	1st	Turnover Margin	+7.6
26th	1st	Steals	11.0

DEFENSE CREATES OFFENSE

Kentucky's stellar defensive play created scoring opportunities, and lots of them. UK, which forced a league-high 24.0 turnovers per game, averaged 24.4 points off those miscues compared to the opponents' 13.3.

The Cats' pressure defense has forced doubledigit turnovers in 82-consecutive games, dating back to the 2008-09 season. UK forced 20-plus turnovers in 26 of 34 games during the 2010-11 season. including four with 30 or more (33 by Southern Miss, 36 by Morehead State, 31 by Alabama A&M, 41 by Arkansas Pine-Bluff).

Since the beginning of the 2009-10 season when Mitchell implemented UK's pressure, trapping, invour-face defense, the Cats have forced 20-plus turnovers in 52 of 70 games (74.2 percent).

UK is 49-12 overall when forcing more turnovers than the opponent during that span, including an impressive 24-1 when forcing 25-plus miscues.

CATS HAVE STICKY PAWS

Kentucky ranked 26th nationally and led the SEC in steals per game after recording double-digit steals in 20 of 34 games, including a season-high 25 vs. Arkansas Pine-Bluff. The 25 steals were just three shy of the school record of 28 set vs. West Virginia on Dec. 12, 1993.

SEC All-Defensive team members Victoria Dunlap (SEC Defensive Player of the Year) and A'dia Mathies led the charge. Dunlap ranked 17th nationally and leds the SEC in steals per game (3.0) while Mathies was fifth in the SEC with 2.1 steals per game. Every available player on UK's roster charted at least four steals. including seven players with 20 or more.

Kentucky led the SEC and was one of the top teams nationally in steals per game (11.0) and turnover margin (+7.6) in 2010-11.

MATHIES MAKES A MOVE

With starting point guard Amber Smith out for the season with a knee injury, along with the growing pains of freshmen point guards, head coach Matthew Mitchell decided UK's best option at floor general was All-SEC selection A'dia Mathies. He moved Mathies to the point guard spot during the second half of the Georgia game on Jan. 9 and it seemed to have been just what the Cats needed. Despite narrowly falling to the Lady Bulldogs, 61-59, UK responded by winning 14 of its last 19 games.

As a point guard, Mathies averaged 11.8 points, 3.7 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 2.2 steals per game while shooting 42.4 percent (78-of-184) from the floor, including 35.9 percent (14-of-39) from beyond the arc and 69.6 percent from the charity stripe (55of-79).

SCORING MARGIN

The Wildcats were third in the SEC and 42nd nationally with an +8.7 scoring margin. In UK's 25 wins, 16 were won by 10 points or more, including six by 20 or more points.

UK's 74-point margin of victory vs. Arkansas Pine-Bluff was the third-largest in school history. The last time UK defeated an opponent by 70-plus points was in 1989 vs. Kentucky St. (+77, 121-44).

UK's 31-point margin of victory over Auburn on Feb. 3 was the largest in SEC play in school history. The previous high was a 29-point victory over Arkansas (79-50) on Feb. 12, 2006.

CATS FROM DOWNTOWN

Kentucky hit 182 3-pointers which averaged to 5.4 treys per game (sixth in the SEC). That mark ranked second on UK's single-season list. In 2009-10, UK hit 187 3s for a new single-season record.

Key contributors beyond the arc were junior Keyla Snowden with a team-high 65, followed by sophomore A'dia Mathies with 22 and freshman Jennifer O'Neill with 21. Redshirt freshman Bernisha Pinkett had 20 while freshman Maegan Conwright charted 14. Eleven of UK's 12 players hit at least one 3-pointer.

Snowden ended the season ranking second in the SEC in 3-point field goal percentage (.380 percent) and seventh in 3-pointers made per game (2.2). The sharpshooting junior has nailed at least one threepointer in 36 of her last 40 games and holds the school record for the longest streak of games hitting at least one 3-pointer (25).

UK went 14-0 when it hit six or more 3-pointers during the 2010-11 season.

FRESHMEN CATS CONTRIBUTE

Six newcomers donned the Blue and White this season and all six contributed in big ways.

Five of the rookies (Maegan Conwright, Samantha Drake, Kastine Evans, Jennifer O'Neill and Bernisha Pinkett) earned starting assignments. Overall, the freshman class made up 34.6 percent of the overall scoring.

Pinkett was UK's fourth-leading scorer with 7.0 points per game, while Conwright and O'Neill followed close behind, averaging 6.2 and 5.1 ppg, respectively.

Conwright also ranked second on the team in assists with 58. Drake was the team's second-leading shot blocker (21) and fourth-leading rebounder (3.0 rpg).

All six UK freshmen played at least 6.7 minutes per game.

Kentucky has started a freshman in 103 of 135 games during the Matthew Mitchell era, including 70 consecutive.

CATS CAPTURE HISTORIC WIN IN VANDER-BILT'S MEMORIAL GYM

Kentucky's 80-71 win over Vanderbilt in Nashville, Tenn., on Feb. 20 marked its first win in Memorial Gym since 1986. The Cats had dropped 13 consecutive games in the storied gymnasium with their last win coming Feb. 5, 1986.

AUBURN WIN SETS TWO SCHOOL RECORDS

Kentucky's 31-point win (69-38) over Auburn on Feb. 3 marked the largest margin of victory in SEC play (since 1982-83). The previous high was a 29point win over Arkansas (79-50) on Feb. 12, 2006. Auburn's 38 points were also the lowest point total by an SEC team in school history. The previous low was 44 points vs. Alabama on Feb. 17, 2008 (64-44) and Georgia (47-44) on Jan. 31, 2008.

CATS' HOME WIN STREAK ENDS AT 25

Kentucky's impressive home winning streak ended at 25 with a 61-59 loss to Georgia on Jan. 9. The streak ranks as the second-longest home winning streak in school history. The UK record is 30 consecutive wins from Feb. 12, 1980 until Jan. 31, 1982. The loss also snapped an eight-game winning streak at home vs. conference opponents.

UK is 50-15 overall (76.9) at home in the Matthew Mitchell era (49-12 in Memorial, 1-3 in Rupp Arena).

ALL-TIME KENTUCKY COACHES

SUE FEAMSTER • 1971-76

RECORD AT UK: 64-39 (62.1%)

Sue Feamster became UK's first head women's basketball coach of the modern era when the program regained its varsity status in 1974. Women's basketball had been a varsity sport at UK from 1903 until 1925, when the University senate passed a bill abolishing the sport for being "too strenuous" for females. Feamster began coaching the UK women in 1971-72, when the squad earned a 10-3 record, and remained head coach as the squad rolled up a 26-15 record over the next two seasons. After women's basketball became a varsity sport, Feamster helped the program to a fast start, passing along to incoming coach Debbie Yow a squad that included All-American Pam Browning, who still holds several spots in the UK record book, and standout Ceal Barry.

DEBBIE YOW • 1976-80

RECORD AT UK: 79-40 (66.4%)

In the last year of her four seasons at Kentucky, Debbie Yow's Wildcats stormed to a 24-5 record and earned the school's first trip to the national playoffs — then the Association of Intercollegiate Women's Athletics Tournament. It was clear then that both Yow and the UK women's program were primed for success. And just as the Cats continued to earn postseason berths, Yow's career remained on the fast track as well. Yow enjoyed a successful coaching stint at Florida and subsequent athletics administration positions at Florida and UNC-Greensboro. She then became Athletics Director at St. Louis, and since 1994, has been AD at Maryland. She served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Athletics Directors.

TERRY HALL • 1980-87

Terry Hall holds the laudable distinction of being the winningest coach in UK women's basketball history as well as owning the best winning percentage of any coach to guide the program. Hall coached the Cats to seven straight winning seasons, starting with a 25-6 record and a trip to the second round of the AIAW national tournament before falling by one point to Maryland to end the 1980-81 season. The NCAA welcomed women's basketball into its ranks the following year, and that historical season ended with the Cats falling to eventual national champion Louisiana Tech in the Midwest Regional finals on the Lady Techsters' home floor. After the Cats failed to make the NCAA tournament in 1986-87, Hall left coaching for the business sector. But three years later, she accepted the head coaching job at Wright State University, where she coached for seven years before succumbing to cancer in 1997.

SHARON FANNING • 1987-95

Sharon Fanning guided the Cats through eight seasons and despite a dubious beginning that saw her squad record back-to-back losing seasons, she never suffered another losing season. In just her third year, Fanning coached the Wildcats to an impressive 23-8 record while also edging them into the top 25. UK won three tournament titles in 1989-90, including an 85-76 come-from-behind victory over Toledo in the NWIT Championship. The following season, the Wildcats advanced to the NCAA Tournament, UK's first appearance in the Big Dance in five years. Prior to her stint at UK, Fanning was a graduate assistant at Tennessee and a head coach at UT-Chattanooga. Since leaving UK, she has been head coach at Mississippi State University.

BERNADETTE MATTOX • 1995-2003

Bernadette Mattox spent eight seasons at the helm of the Wildcats basketball program. She began her coaching career at her alma mater, Georgia, but became a household name in Kentucky and across the nation when she was hired by former Wildcats coach Rick Pitino as the first female Division I assistant "bench" coach for a men's team in 1990. She was promoted to assistant athletics director at Kentucky for one year before taking over the UK women's program in 1995. Her most notable season came in 1998-99, when she led the Cats to their first 20-plus win season and first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in nearly a decade. The Cats won their first NCAA Tournament game in 17 years, finished with a 21-11 overall record and captured seven wins in the SEC, the most conference wins in school history at the time.

Since leaving UK in 2003, Mattox has served as an assistant coach for the WNBA's Connecticut Sun.

MICKIE DEMOSS • 2003-07

RECORD AT UK: 71-56 (55.9%)

Mickie DeMoss will best be remembered as the architect who took over a struggling program in 2003 and in just a short amount of time rebuilt UK women's basketball back into a national contender. During her tenure the Wildcats participated in postseason play three consecutive seasons (one NCAA Tournament and two WNIT) and captured back-to-back 20-win seasons (2005-06 and 2006-07) for the first time since the 1989-90 and 1990-91 teams accomplished the feat. DeMoss was named the 2006 SEC Coach of the Year, a UK Hoops first, after guiding the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in seven seasons. The Cats posted a 22-9 overall record in 2005-06, including a school-record nine conference wins and Kentucky made national headlines when it defeated No. 1 Tennessee in Rupp Arena. It was UK's first win over a top-ranked team in school history. DeMoss also drastically increased fan attendance, as UK ranked in the top three of the SEC and top 20 in the national average attendance poll all four of her seasons.UK went from averaging 1,694 fans prior to her arrival in 2003 to breaking the school record with 5,863 fans per game in her final season.

Prior to UK, DeMoss spent 18 seasons at Tennessee, helping the Lady Vols garner six national championship titles and 13 Final Four appearances. She also was the head coach four seasons at Florida (1979-83). In eight seasons as a head coach, DeMoss has a career record of 116-124, including a 26-65 mark in the SEC. Since leaving UK, DeMoss has served as an assistant coach at Texas and currently at Tennessee.

RETIRED JERSEY—VALERIE STILL

UK's All-Time Leading Scorer and Rebounder, UK Hall of Fame Charter Class

UK Great Valerie Still

Some programs have a once-in-a-lifetime player who serves as a standard for all future student-athletes. An exceptional personality. An outstanding role model. A great basketball player. For Kentucky, that player is Valerie Still.

Although Still played long ago (1979-83), she remains the "Top Cat" in UK women's basketball annals. She was honored as such on Jan. 12, 2003 with a jersey retirement ceremony at halftime of the Alabama game. She became the first female letter winner in any UK sport to have her jersey retired.

Still is the leader among all Wildcats (men or women) for career scoring (2,763) and rebounding (1,525). She was a three-time consensus All-American. She led the program in scoring four-straight seasons with a career average of 23.2 points. At one point during the 1981-82 season, she led the nation in both scoring and rebounding before finishing second in both categories (24.8 ppg and 14.3 rpg).

She led the Cats to their highest national ranking (4th) in 1983 and helped UK roll up a 30-game home court win streak from 1980-82. In 1983, Still led the sixth-ranked Cats to an 80-66 upset over powerhouse Old Dominion before a record crowd of 10,622 in UK's Memorial Coliseum.

After leaving Kentucky, Still had a successful career in the Italian Professional League. While in Italy, Still was a television actress and hosted her own TV show, "Still Basket." She is also an accomplished print model and a professional caliber jazz, pop and concert pianist.

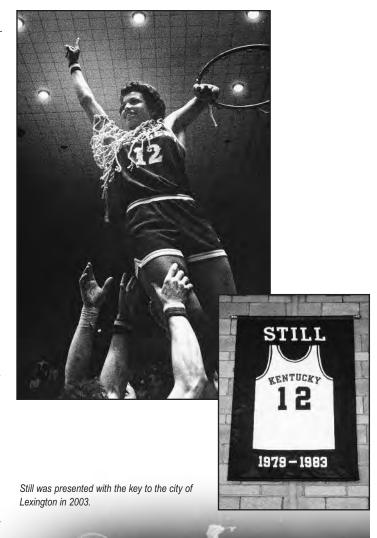

Upon her return to the United States, Still became a charter member of the American Basketball League for Women and was a two-time MVP of the ABL Championship Series. Still later played for the Washington Mystics of the WNBA before retiring from basketball. She also was an assistant coach for the Orlando Miracle for two seasons.

Still returned to Lexington to complete her degree in animal sciences and graduated with honors in 2001. She went on to earn a master's degree in African American and African studies at The Ohio State University and is working on a doctorate in sports and humanties from there as well.

In September 2005, Still was inducted into the charter class in the newly created UK Athletics Hall of Fame. She was the only female of the 88 inductees.

Still lives in Lawrence, Kan., with her son, Aaron. Along with serving as the executive administrator for OI School Sports Academy, Still also runs The Valerie Still Foundation, a not-forprofit organization that works to ensure that girls are encouraged and instructed to develop their talents.

UK Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart and former UK President Dr. Lee Todd, Jr. present Still with her Hall of Fame honor in September 2005.

SEC DOMINANCE

- Since the SEC began to sponsor women's basketball in 1982, it has failed only three times to place at least four members in each of the final polls (the USA Today/ESPN poll began in 1986).
- Last season, the SEC had two in the final AP poll and three in the final coaches poll.
- In terms of rankings, the SEC has the richest history of any conference in the nation, boasting more poll appearances than any other.
- Since the 1982 season, SEC teams have been ranked 532 consecutive weeks in the AP Poll.
- League teams have been ranked 2,694 times, including 1,306 Top 10 appearances and 743 Top 5 appearances.

CATS IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

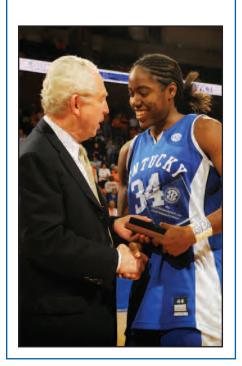

KENTUCKY AND THE SEC

Women's basketball first came under the auspices of the Southeastern Conference for the 1982-83 season. Games played between SEC teams before that time are not counted in the all-time SEC standings, since there was no uniform number of conference games played each season prior to that time. From 1980-85, the SEC champion was the winner of the SEC Tournament. Since 1986, the SEC champion has been determined by a round robin schedule. The tournament continues to be held to decide the recipient of the league's automatic NCAA tournament bid.

Six Kentucky players have been named to the SEC All-Tournament team:

Valerie Still (1980, 1981, 1982*) Patty Jo Hedges (1982) Jodie Whitaker (1988) Stacy McIntyre (1992) Victoria Dunlap (2010, 2011) A'dia Mathies (2010) *Tournament MVP

Victoria Dunlap (below) was a SEC All-Tournament team selection in both the 2010 and 2011 SEC Tournaments.

 Over the past two seasons, the UK men's and women's basketball teams have posted a 63-2 (.969) mark in home games. That's the second-best record in the country for a school at home. Situated along Euclid Avenue on the University of Kentucky campus, Memorial Coliseum is the home of one of the richest basketball traditions in the nation. It is also home to the University of Kentucky women's basketball team, a team that has returned glory and excitement to a facility that has known a wealth of both.

For 25 years, the historic coliseum housed the renowned Kentucky Wildcats men's team, which won two national championships and 16 Southeastern Conference titles while playing in the facility under the direction of legendary coaches Adolph Rupp and Joe B. Hall. When the Wildcats moved downtown to 23,000-seat Rupp Arena in 1976, the then-11,500 seat Coliseum became the exclusive basketball home for the women's team.

Although the Coliseum is nicknamed "the house that Rupp built," University President H.L. Donovan is credited with beginning the plans for the Coliseum's construction in 1941 when he recommended a building that would "properly take care of our athletics, our health services, our physical education and our recreation."

Memorial Coliseum was completed in 1950 at a cost of $3,925,000. The huge building was dedicated to serve as a memorial to the nearly 10,000 Kentuckians who lost their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict. The Coliseum covers an entire city block and has as much space as a seven-story office building.

A new state-of-the-art floor was installed in the summer of 2007, as the original 52-year-old floor was taken out in place of a playing surface that will be much more friendly to each athlete's tendencies and will cut down on injuries. A new sound system and speaker cluster were added in the summer of 2008.

Adolph Rupp is synonymous with winning. As coach of Kentucky, he was a pioneer in the Wildcats' fast-break offense while becoming the winningest coach the game had ever seen.

The site that now serves as a tribute to his outstanding coaching accomplishments – Rupp Arena – has become one of the most recognizable gymnasiums in the world while serving as home to college basketball's most storied program.

Now in its 36th season as the Kentucky Wildcats' home court, the facility has seen UK win 88 percent of its home games since it was opened in 1976.

In recent years, Rupp Arena completed renovations - including the lower arena seats being changed to blue from their previous rainbow colors. In addition, new end-zone seating moved the student section closer to the floor in an intimidating, standing-room only arrangement. While the endowment seats along courtside continue to entice fans to financially support their Wildcats, a large portion of the media have been moved to a "press box" location between the lower and upper seating areas. And finally, nearly 40 seats were added to each corner, the first additions in seating in nearly two decades.

The improvements followed changes that included four new video boards, a new playing floor with a striking new design and enhancements to the concourses as well. It was all part of a $15 million upgrade to what many consider the mecca of college basketball.

Since the fall of 1976, the arena in downtown Lexington has served as home to three national championship teams at Kentucky. Four others have advanced to the Final Four. Ten seasons have witnessed the Cats go unbeaten at home. It has played host to over 500 UK games, countless KHSAA Sweet 16s, a number of NBA exhibitions, 11 NCAA Tournaments, three SEC Tournaments and two Ohio Valley Conference Tournaments. With so many unforgettable moments, the old floor still maintained a value to hoop fans across the Bluegrass and beyond. Therefore, officials made pieces of the relic available for public sale, with proceeds going to the UK Basketball Museum, the Kentucky High School Athletic Association and to help offset the costs of the new playing floor. Thanks to an auction of additional sections, like coaching boxes and lettered end zones, the old floor generated more than

The new portable basketball court, adorned with the official interlocking UK logo at midcourt, was designed by both UK officials and the Lexington Center Corporation. Robbins, Inc., in Cincinnati constructed it in 2001 at a cost of $125,000. When assembled, it lies 118 feet below the ceiling and is made of a high-grade northern maple. The floor can be removed and an ice rink can be constructed for ice shows or hockey games thanks to a $2.5 million renovation during the summer of '96.

But the playing surface is just one aspect of the impressive home of the Cats. Situated in downtown Lexington, Rupp Arena has played host to several premier basketball events. In March of 1985, all roads led to Lexington for the NCAA Final Four as Villanova shocked Georgetown in a memorable finale.

In 1986, Rupp played host to both the Southeastern Conference Tournament and the NCAA Women's Final Four. On numerous other occasions, the arena has served as one stop en route to the NCAA title game.

An awesome structure in sight and scope, the arena is divided into two seating areas. The lower level features 10,000 cushioned theater seats. The upper level has 13,000 seats on epoxy-coated metal bleachers. The latter can be visually isolated to provide more natural setting for small shows.

Built by the city of Lexington, the arena is the major portion of the $53 million Lexington Center complex, which includes an expanded convention-exhibition hall, a 50-store tri-level enclosed shopping mall and a Hyatt Regency Hotel.

The Wildcats command an exclusive locker room 365 days a year, while other amenities include six team-size dressing rooms and eight smaller units.

In January 2001, the arena unveiled four new video boards, each 12'6" by 20' in size and mounted in each corner. It allowed the Wildcats to utilize a new "lights out" introduction, featuring a video presentation and indoor fireworks.

The UK Hoops team will play Duke in Rupp Arena on Thursday, Dec. 8

2010Victoria Dunlap (Kansas City)

In 2010, UK swept the SEC awards as Matthew Mitchell was named SEC Coach of the Year, Victoria Dunlap was SEC Player of the Year and A'dia Mathies was SEC Freshman of the Year. It marked just the second time in SEC history that one team won all three of the top honors. Tennessee's Pat Summitt, Chamique Holdsclaw and Tamika Catchings also accomplished the feat in 1998 en route to its sixth NCAA Championship title.

THE EARLY ERA

Did you know that basketball began on the University of Kentucky campus as a women's sport? Its first game was on Feb. 21, 1903 vs. Kentucky University (now Transylvania). That game was followed one year later by the formation of a men's team.

Women's basketball at UK, then known as Kentucky State College, was first led by Coach Jane Todd Watson. Eight coaches followed, including former University of Florida president and U.S. Commissioner of Education Dr. John J. Tigert (1911-15, 1917), before Sarah Blanding took over the coaching reigns in the 1919-20 season. She coached three years before becoming a player-captain in 1923 under a young post-graduate student named A.B. "Happy" Chandler. Blanding eventually would become president of Vassar College while Chandler would become a two-time governor of Kentucky, U.S. Senator and Baseball Commissioner.

The 1924 team, coached by Bart Peak, swept its 10-game schedule and claimed not only the championship of Kentucky, but the championship of the South. As the 1924-25 season got under way, the University Senate passed a bill to abolish women's basketball because basketball had proven to be a strenuous sport for boys and therefore was too strenuous for girls and due to inadequate facilities and general mores of the time.

Women's basketball finally reached varsity status after a 50-year absence and Assistant Athletics Director Sue Feamster was named the first coach in the new era. She guided the first varsity squad in the 1974-75 season to a 16-9 record.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TIMELINE

Kentucky women's basketball has been recognized as having a spirited and winning tradition. It was in the early 1900s that women began playing the new game on "Miss Nettie's Lawn" in Lexington ... and so the tradition continues.

1902 — The very first University of Kentucky basketball team was organized. Women's basketball begins on the UK campus with its first game on Feb. 21, 1903.

1924 — The 1924 team, coached by Bart Peak, swept its 10-game schedule and claimed not only the championship of Kentucky, but the championship of the South.

1924 — The University Senate passed a bill to abolish women's basketball in part because according to state politicians basketball had proven to be a strenuous sport for boys and therefore was too strenuous for girls.

(Right:) The 1924 team claimed the Championship of the South after defeating Peabody and Chattanooga.

After a 50-year absence, at the turn of the 70s, women teams at UK once again began playing intercollegiate games.

1974 — Women's basketball finally reached varsity status. Sue Feamster was named the first coach. She guided that first squad to a 16-9 record. The team is given the nickname "Lady Cats."

1976 — Feamster handed over the coaching reins to Debbie Yow, who compiled a 79-40 record in four seasons from 1976-1980. In 1979, Yow recruited Valerie Still, Lea Wise and Patty Jo Hedges, one of the best recruiting classes in UK women's basketball history.

Sue Feamster coached UK from 1971-74 before it gained varsity status.

1977 — Lady Kat starting center Pam Browning became an All-American and compiled 1,598 points in her collegiate career. She ranks as the third-leading scorer at UK to this day.

1979 — The Lady Kats upset second-ranked Tennessee, 66-64, before 4,500 fans in Memorial Coliseum. The attendance got a big boost when the much-anticipated game between the school's men's teams later that evening was canceled because of Terry Hall arrived at UK in 1980 and was named the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference Coach of the Year in her first season at UK.

Memorial Coliseum hosted the largest crowd ever to attend a women's college basketball game in 1983.

1980 — Terry Hall became the third head coach of the Lady Kats.

1982 — Lea Wise hit 15-of-16 outside shots against Illinois in an NCAA playoff game, helping the Cats win 88-80. Wise, a Lexington product, also led the team in autograph and photo requests because of her flashy and productive court play and her resemblance to actress Farrah Fawcett.

1982 — The Cats captured the SEC Tournament title for the first time in school history with an 80-74 victory over Tennessee. Following the game, the huge home crowd stormed the court in a celebration that lasted nearly 30 minutes.

1983 — With the talented trio of Hedges, Still and Wise, Kentucky was ranked fourth twice during the '82-83 season and broke the national record for attendance at a women's collegiate game when 10,622 fans saw the Cats defeat Old Dominion, 80-66, in Memorial Coliseum on Feb. 5, 1983.

In her third year, Sharon Fanning led UK to an impressive 23-8 record, into the top-25 poll and won three tournament titles ('90).

1983 — Valerie Still became the all-time leading scorer (among men and women) in Kentucky basketball history with 2,763 points in 119 games, a record that still stands.

1986 — Kentucky served as the host to the NCAA women's Final Four in Rupp Arena.

1987 — Sharon Fanning is named the fourth head coach of the Lady Kats.

1987 — The three-point goal is introduced to the women's game, proving to be an integral part of Kentucky basketball history for years to come.
