WILDCATS HEAD TO STARKVILLE TO FACE BULLDOGS

After a four-game homestand, Kentucky will return to the road with a conference tilt at Mississippi State, with kickoff on Saturday slated for 7:30 p.m. ET and the game televised live on the SEC Network.

Kentucky will be seeking its first win over the Bulldogs since 2008, a 14-13 result in Starkville. The all-time series, which dates back to 1914, is tied 21-21.

The Wildcats are coming off a 30-27 loss over Auburn in its first Thursday night home game since 1939. UK fell behind 23-10 at halftime to the Tigers, before rallying to cut the lead to three points with 4:06 remaining in the fourth quarter on a Mikel Horton TD rush to cap a 75-yard drive. UK's defense then responded, forcing Auburn to punt with 2:12 left in regulation. UK's drive was stopped at on fourth and three from the Auburn 46-yard line, thwarting a potential comeback win for the Wildcats.

In the game with Auburn, UK got a career outing from sophomore WR Garrett Johnson, who nabbed nine catches for 160 yards, the most receiving yards for a UK player since 2010. Junior QB Patrick Towles led a UK offense that collected a season-best 497 yards, with 359 coming in the air. The 497 yards also is the most allowed by Auburn this season. Junior S Marcus McWilson's 10 tackles led a strong second-half defensive effort that limited the Bulldogs to 110 yards in the second period.

Conrad, a 6-foot-5, 245-pound product of LaGrange, Ohio, is one of just two freshman tight ends in the nation honored on the Mackey Award Midseason Watch List.
- Conrad has started three of UK's six games, emerging as a notable weapon in run and pass blocking throughout UK's first three games. In UK's win over No. 23/25 Missouri, Conrad broke out as a receiving option, nabbing three catches for 57 yards and a touchdown. Following the UK win, Conrad was named one of two honorable mentions for the Mackey Tight End of the Week award.

- Senior punter Landon Foster has 223 career punts, qualifying him for UK's career punt records. His career average of 42 yards per punt (9,359 yards) ranks him third all-time.
- Junior QB Patrick Towles has 4,463 passing yards for his career, ranking seventh in UK history. Towles needs 51 passing yards to pass Rick Norton (1963-65) for sixth in school annals. Towles also ranks sixth in completions (367), 102 behind fifth-place Bill Ransdell (1983-86).

- The John Mackey Award has been presented since 2000 and includes 13 former winners who have graduated to the NFL. The Mackey Award is determined by a selection committee and will be announced on Dec. 9 at the College Football Awards.

CATS IN THE CLOSE ONES

- UK's first six games were decided by eight points or less. Dating back to 1881, Kentucky has never opened a season with six consecutive games decided by eight points or less.
- The last time UK had six straight games (in the same season) decided by eight or less came in 1975.
- With wins in the first two games it marked the first time UK won consecutive close ones (games decided by seven points or less) since 2006, when the Wildcats defeated Mississippi State (34-31) and Georgia (24-20).

"FIRSTS" UNDER STOOPS

- Just five games into the season and Kentucky has already experienced several "firsts" to boast about:
- The win over South Carolina marked UK's first road win since a 2010 win at Louisville, snapping a 22-game losing skid.
- The USC win was UK's first SEC road win since defeating Georgia in 2009.
- UK's win over Missouri marked its first win over a ranked opponent since upsetting South Carolina in 2010, snapping an 18-game losing streak to ranked teams.
- The win over No. 23/25 Missouri marked Stoops' first win over a ranked opponent and snapped Missouri's 11-game road winning streak, which was the third-longest active streak in the nation.
- The win over No. 23/25 Missouri marked UK's first win over a defending SEC Eastern Division Champion since 2006 vs. Georgia.
- UK's win over Eastern Kentucky marked the first overtime win in the Stoops era and tied for the largest fourth-quarter comeback (behind by 14) in school history.

GRINDING OUT THE VICTORIES

One of the goals Coach Mark Stoops established for 2015 was to be a more physical running team, especially when needed at the end of games. UK has been able to do that successfully in wins this season.

- Tied at 33 with 4:37 left against UL Lafayette in the season opener, Kentucky went on a 58-yard drive for the game-winning touchdown. Seven of the nine plays on the drive were running plays, including a 12-yard run by Mikel Horton for the touchdown.
- Clinging to a 26-22 lead at South Carolina with 4:32 remaining, UK ran out the clock with nine straight rushing plays, earning three first downs in the process.
- Nursing a 21-13 advantage over Missouri with 2:26 left in the game, UK ran the ball seven consecutive plays, generating two first downs and running out the clock to secure the win.
- UK's explosive fourth quarter keyed a comeback win over Eastern Kentucky, with UK scoring 21 unanswered points on its final three possessions, including an overtime drive to finish the game.

CONSECUTIVE SELL-OUTS IN THE NEW CWS

- After a $120-million reinvention, Kentucky has had consecutive sell-out crowds in The New CWS for the first time since 2009.
- In the opening-win over UL Lafayette, 62,933 filled the 61,000 capacity stadium, and in the SEC home opener vs. Florida, a crowd of 63,040 filled The New CWS. Despite inclement weather, a total of 63,380 attended UK's matchup with in-state foe ECU, a record in The New CWS.
- The UK-Auburn game, UK's first home Thursday game since 1939, marked a new high of 63,407 at The New CWS.

ONE OF THE NATION'S YOUNGEST OFFENSES

Kentucky will have one of the youngest offenses in the nation this year. UK's three offensive seniors are offensive linemen Jordan Swindle and Zach West, along with wide receiver Joey Herrick.

Commonwealth Stadium

On game day, Commonwealth Stadium often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

- The Wildcats are in their 43rd season at Commonwealth Stadium, their first in the newly $120 million renovated venue.
- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 275 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. UK has a 146-125-4 record in CWS (.542), 10-9 under Mark Stoops.
- UK announced its first sellout since 2010 when 62,933 fans attended the season opener vs. Louisiana Lafayette on Sept. 5.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 63,030 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance for 13 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years.
- The playing surface is named C.M. Newton Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

Commonwealth Stadium Renovations:

Through a $120-million reinvention, Commonwealth Stadium has been transformed into a state-of-the-art facility. As the Kentucky football program enters a new era, the Big Blue Nation will enjoy an intimate game-day atmosphere to match. The experience will begin outside the stadium, as the longtime home of the Wildcats will undergo a dramatic external facelift. The new Commonwealth Stadium has taken on a modern look, but one that remains uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Commonwealth has been reduced over the course of the two-year project, but the value of all remaining seats will be increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses have been revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches will reap the benefits of the new Commonwealth Stadium as well, as new home-team facilities will be built, while a new multi-purpose recruiting room will play host to future Wildcats on their on-campus visits. For more information, visit TheNewCWS.com.

Facts and Figures on Commonwealth Stadium:

Seating Capacity: 61,000, including the Commonwealth Suites.

Playing Field: UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri.

Video Boards: Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

Game Day Experiences

The "Cat Walk": Fans are encouraged to greet the team when the Wildcats arrive for the "Cat Walk." The team buses will arrive at the Nutter Field House approximately two hours and 15 minutes before the game and the players will make the "Cat Walk" to their stadium entry point at Gate 1. Fans are encouraged to line up on the sidewalk and cheer the players as they enter the stadium. A siren will be sounded while the team buses are on their way to the stadium. That's the fans' cue to proceed to the Cat Walk area to greet the team.

Wildcat Park: Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the newly named Wildcat Park, located outside of the southwest corner (outside Gate 9) of Commonwealth Stadium. There are inflatable games that are available two hours before kickoff.

FOSTER NAMED TO ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

Senior punter Landon Foster has been named to the 2015 Allstate AFCA (American Football Coaches Association) Good Works Team®. Landon is one of 22 student-athletes selected, including one of just 11 Football Bowl Subdivision players, honored for making a positive impact on others and their communities.

Foster has been very involved in community service projects during his time at Kentucky. In May of 2014, he represented UK Football on a week-long community service trip to Ethiopia where he interacted with residents of impoverished communities, visited imprisoned men, helped widows, cared for orphans, and helped renovate houses. On the trip, he befriended a 14-year-old boy living in the streets of Korah named Dejene. He was so moved by the boy's resilience and character to succeed despite his circumstances that Foster worked through an organization called "Adoption Ministry of Youth with a Mission" to pay out of his own pocket to sponsor Dejene. He sent his own money for four months to help pay for his food, clothing, shelter and schooling until Dejene (now named Joshua) was able to move to America with a family from North Carolina.

Foster's other community service activities include being a frequent visitor to Indian Summer Camp, a cancer survivor camp for kids ages 6-11. He volunteers to speak at local elementary schools and other summer camps and he has taken blankets to Kentucky Children's Hospital and served as a "Breakfast with Santa" volunteer during Christmas, helping Santa Claus pass out presents.

Foster also excels in the classroom. He was named Academic All-America second team by the College Sports Information Directors of America in 2014 and is a three-time Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll Member. Set to graduate with a double major in finance and marketing in May of 2015, Foster maintains a 3.97 grade point average.

- UK fell behind before QB Patrick Towles scampered for a 14-yard touchdown to even the game at halftime. UK's offense then went to work with a pair of TD drives, including a 24-yard TD pass from Towles to freshman TE C.J. Conrad in the third quarter for a 14-10 lead, and a five-yard strike to WR Dorian Baker for a 21-10 advantage with 6:20 remaining in the fourth quarter. UK's defense then held Mizzou to a field goal with three minutes remaining and junior RB Jojo Kemp helped UK churn out the clock for its first win over a ranked foe since 2010.

DEFENSIVE NUGGETS VS. FLORIDA

- Kentucky did not allow a UF score in the second half, the first time the Cats have shut out an opponent in the 2nd half since vs. ULM on Oct. 11, 2014.
- Kentucky allowed their fewest points vs. Florida (14) since Nov. 15, 1986 (3).
- Kentucky allowed their fewest yards of total offense against Florida (245) since Nov. 15, 1986 (241).
- Kentucky held Florida scoreless in the second half for just the third time in the last 30 seasons (1986, 2005, 2015).
- Kentucky held Florida to less than 60 offensive plays for just the third time in the last 30 seasons (1986, 2008, 2015).

UK OPENS THE NEW CWS AND 2015 WITH WIN OVER UL LAFAYETTE

- Kentucky opened the game with a 75-yard touchdown rush from sophomore tailback Boom Williams, marking the first UK touchdown on the first play from scrimmage since 2009 vs. Eastern Kentucky.
- UK totaled the next 14 points to stretch its lead on touchdown passes of at least 35 yards to Garrett Johnson and Jeff Badet, with Badet returning to the field after missing 2014 due to injury.
- Lafayette then rallied with its first touchdown run but UK answered with a pair of Austin MacGinnis field goals to take a 27-7 lead.
- After UK owned a 33-10 lead in the third quarter, ULL then scored 23 straight points to even the game at 33-33 with 3:34 left in regulation.

ART STILL SELECTED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Art Still, whose dominance at defensive end helped lead Kentucky to some of its greatest moments in school history, was named to the College Football Hall of Fame by the National Football Foundation.

Originally from Camden, N.J., Still played at Kentucky from 1974-77 under Coach Fran Curci. Still helped the Wildcats to a 19-4 record in his final two seasons. UK went 9-3 in his junior year, winning a share of the Southeastern Conference championship, and capped the season with a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the Peach Bowl. The Cats were ranked 18th in the final Associated Press poll.

UK posted a 10-1 mark in his senior season, finishing the campaign No. 6 in the final AP ranking. The Wildcats went 7-3 against Top-20 ranked teams his last two seasons, winning the last five in a row vs. ranked foes Florida, North Carolina, West Virginia, at Penn State and at LSU. Paced by Still's dominating performances, Kentucky led the SEC in total defense and rushing defense.

Still was a four-year starter who totaled 327 tackles during his career, an amazing figure for a defensive end. Quarterback sacks were not kept during his career and tackles for loss are available only for his senior year, when he compiled 22 TFL - a school record that "Still" stands.

One interesting fact about Still is that he also saw significant action on offense as a tight end in short-yardage or goalline situations, averaging approximately 15 plays per game and frequently helping pave the way for touchdowns or first downs. Kentucky rushed for 269.1 yards per game in 1976, the second-highest mark in school history, and rushed for 228.7 yards per game in 1977.

Still was a unanimous first-team All-America selection in 1977 as chosen by AP, United Press International, Football Writers Association of America, the American Football Coaches Association, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, The Sporting News and Football News.

Still was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the UPI National Lineman of the Year. He was the Brooks-Irvine Memorial Football Club of South Jersey College Player of the Year.

$165 MILLION OF FOOTBALL CONSTRUCTION

Kentucky has two major football construction projects in process, totaling $165 million investment in the Wildcat program.

A $120 million "reimagining" of Commonwealth Stadium was completed for the 2015 season.

The project features a new look for the exterior of the stadium, wider and redesigned concourses, new concession stands and restrooms, new suites and other premium seating, a recruiting room and a new press box.

In addition, construction began in January 2015 on a new $45 million practice/office complex being built on the south side of the existing Nutter Field House. The comprehensive complex features state-of-the-art practice, office and support facilities for the players and coaches. Completion is planned in time for the 2016 season.

NEW OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR FOR THE WILDCATS

Kentucky brought in a new offensive coordinator during the offseason as Shannon Dawson takes over for Neal Brown, who is now the head coach at Troy.

The players' adaptation in the spring was not as drastic as one might think. Dawson and Brown have similar systems, each coming from the coaching tree whose roots are in the Hal Mumme offensive philosophy.

Dawson spent the previous four years at West Virginia, the last three as offensive coordinator, and the Mountaineers threw for more than 3,000 yards each season. In 2014, WVU ranked in the nation's top 12 in total offense and passing offense, averaging almost 500 yards and 33.5 points per game. In addition to the success throwing the ball, WVU also had a physical running attack, averaging more than 180 yards per game.

Dawson also was offensive coordinator at Stephen F. Austin (2008-10) and Millsaps College (2006-07). He built dynamic offenses while helping engineer dramatic turnarounds at each school, as those teams won four conference championships during that five-year period.

KENTUCKY 40, LOUISIANA LAFAYETTE 33

SEPT. 5, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY.

THE NEW CWS (62,933)

Anticipation. Electricity. And then a Boom. Williams, that is.

Kentucky's Stanley "Boom" Williams raced 75 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage to open the 2015 season and The New Commonwealth Stadium in storybook fashion. But, the Wildcats would need a storybook ending to fend off a late UL Lafayette charge.

Sophomore running back Mikel Horton scampered 12 yards for a touchdown with 57 seconds remaining to lift UK to a 40-33 win over visiting UL Lafayette in front of a sellout crowd of 62,933 fans.

After jumping out to a 23-point advantage behind three touchdown passes from junior Patrick Towles, Boom's rushing touchdown and two field goals, Kentucky yielded 23 consecutive points to the Ragin' Cajuns in less than nine minutes of play to tie the score at 33.

UL Lafayette forced the home team into a three-and-out to take over possession with a chance at seizing the lead with 6:58 remaining. UK senior lineman Melvin Lewis stuffed Louisiana's Elijah McGuire for a three-yard loss to help force the Cajuns into a punt, setting the stage for Horton and the offense.

Needing a score, UK generated a nine-play, 58-yard game-winning drive. Kentucky's offense benefited from two 15-yard penalties during the winning push, but Horton was able to take advantage of the miscues to lift Kentucky to the win.

Kentucky quarterback Patrick Towles threw for 257 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. UK generated 435 yards of total offense. Williams secured his third-career 100-yard rushing game on 10 carries for 135 yards, which included the opening-drive score. Horton carried six times for 28 yards and the final touchdown. Sophomore Garrett Johnson led the receiving corps with five catches for 85 yards and a touchdown. Five receivers snared at least one ball for 30 or more receiving yards, and three different receivers caught touchdowns from Towles.

Senior linebacker Josh Forrest paced the defensive effort with 15 tackles, including a sack, three pass breakups and the game-clinching interception. Junior corner J.D. Harmon was a part of two turnovers for the Cats. He forced a fumble deep in Kentucky's territory to end a lengthy Ragin' Cajun drive in the opening quarter before picking off a pass in the second quarter. Lewis added nine tackles to the defensive effort.

KENTUCKY 26, SOUTH CAROLINA 22

SEPT. 12, 2015 • COLUMBIA, S.C.

WILLIAMS BRICE STADIUM (82,178)

It was a tale of two halves, with Kentucky's offense scoring 24 unanswered first-half points before the Wildcat defense made big play after big play in the second half, securing a 26-22 victory over South Carolina in front of 82,178 at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia, S.C.

Heading into halftime with a 24-7 lead, South Carolina scored the first 15 points of the second half, including three Elliott Fry field goals and a 33-yard touchdown pass from Perry Orth - who was playing for injured Gamecock quarterback Connor Mitch - to Jerrell Adams, to cut the UK lead to 24-22.

The Gamecocks decided to go for the two-point conversion to try to tie the game before freshman Denzil Ware scooped up a fumble and returned it 98 yards for two points to give UK a 26-22 lead with 8:09 to go in the game.

After a short drive by the UK offense, South Carolina started another drive on a tired Kentucky defense before another freshman made a big play with rookie cornerback Chris Westry earning his first-career interception to put the Wildcats back in the driver's seat.

The Wildcat offense, which struggled for much of the second half, sealed the victory from there, taking the final 4:32 off the clock, including a key 11-yard quarterback draw by Patrick Towles on third down to drain the Gamecocks of timeouts. Sophomore Stanley "Boom" Williams took over from there with a 25-yard rush to end the game.

The victory for Kentucky broke a 22-game losing streak in road games with the Wildcats last road win coming at Louisville in Sept. 2010. Kentucky's last SEC road victory was at Georgia in Nov. 2009. UK is now 2-0 on the season and starts conference play with a victory for the first time since defeating Arkansas in 2007 in Fayetteville.

Towles was in command in the first half through the air, going 21-for-29 overall for 192 yards. The junior signal caller threw his only interception on the first drive of the game that set up South Carolina deep in Kentucky territory with Mitch rushing in from one-yard out to give USC a 7-0 lead with 12:03 to play in the first quarter.

That was all the Gamecocks would get offensively in the first half as Kentucky rattled off the next 24 points to end the half, starting with an eight-yard rush from Horton to tie the game 7-7. Kemp got in on the scoring later in the first quarter, completing an eight-play drive with a two-yard rush for a touchdown to give Kentucky a 14-7 lead.

A USC missed field goal gave possession back to Kentucky with 2:46 to go in the half and Towles and Co. took advantage. After a 20-yard completion to Dorian Baker, Towles connected to Jeff Badet for 43 yards to the USC 11-yard line to set up a 1-yard rush from Towles with 17 seconds to go in the half to give UK a 24-7 lead.

FLORIDA 14, KENTUCKY 9 SEPT. 19, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY.

THE NEW CWS (63,040)

Despite a sparkling defensive effort in which the Kentucky football team held Florida scoreless in the second half, a fourth-quarter rally fell short as Florida prevailed 14-9 on Saturday night in a front of a sold-out Commonwealth Stadium.

Trailing 14-3 going into the fourth quarter, the Wildcats made it a one-score game behind two Austin MacGinnis field goals. UK had the ball twice over the final five minutes in an attempt to score the go-ahead touchdown but Florida held on for the win.

Kentucky's defense stymied the Gator attack for the entire second half. Five Wildcats registered six or more tackles on the night, led by Khalid Henderson's nine stops. UK posted three tackles for a loss and J.D. Harmon picked off a pass in the end zone to halt a Florida drive in the middle of the third quarter that would have pushed UF's lead to three scores. The interception sparked a momentum change in the game as UK would go on to put together back-to-back scoring drives.

Following Harmon's interception in the third quarter, Patrick Towles' 33-yard quarterback scramble highlighted a 75-yard drive by the Wildcats to inch closer at 14-6 with 14:50 in the fourth. MacGinnis connected on a 22-yard field goal for the Wildcats to make it a one-possession game.

After the UK defense forced a three-and-out, MacGinnis made it a five-point contest with 10:57 to go with a 45-yard field goal. Towles found Jeff Badet for a 45-yard strike down the left sideline to push the Wildcats into field-goal range as the drive's highlight.

Following UK's third field goal of the game, Florida managed one first down before being forced to punt with 8:34 remaining. Faced with a third-and-10 from its own 22, Towles found Baker open on the right sideline to keep the drive alive. Williams followed with a 14-yard rush, but the drive stalled at UK's 48.

The Gators picked up two first downs and killed 3:44 of clock before punting back to the Wildcats, which began the final drive at their own 20. Towles and Baker hooked up for a 20-yard gain on fourth-and-3 at the Kentucky 27 to keep the drive alive. On a subsequent fourth-down play, Towles' deep ball down the left side line intended for Ryan Timmons was picked off to preserve the Gators' victory.

Florida opened the game's scoring with a 1-yard run by Will Grier on fourth down to go ahead 7-0. Kentucky answered with a 14-play, 64-yard drive that resulted in a MacGinnis 29-yard field goal to make the score 7-3.

In the second quarter, the Gators put together an 11-play, 67-yard drive, which ended in a 34-yard field goal attempt by Austin Hardin that was subsequently blocked by UK's CJ Johnson to preserve the 7-3 score. The visitors capped the half by marching 57 yards for a three-yard plunge by running back Kelvin Taylor to push UF's lead to 14-3 with 14 seconds remaining.

KENTUCKY 21, MISSOURI 13 SEPT. 26, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY.

THE NEW CWS (58,008)

Patrick Towles guided Kentucky to two second-half touchdowns, while pacing the Wildcats to a 21-13 victory over No. 25 Missouri and a myriad of firsts on Saturday night at Commonwealth Stadium. The win was UK's first league victory at the New Commonwealth Stadium and its first win over a ranked foe since 2010.

Towles directed scoring drives in the third and fourth quarters to ignite the offensive effort in the second half. The junior found C.J. Conrad for a 24-yard strike before connecting with Dorian Baker with less than seven minutes to play to give the Wildcats an 11-point lead it would not relinquish.

Towles had his most consistent game of the season, connecting on 22-of-27 passes for 249 yards with the two touchdown passes. He also added a 14-yard scamper for a score in the opening half.

Defensively, lineman C.J. Johnson paced the Wildcats with 11 tackles, besting his career high by five. Senior linebacker Josh Forrest added nine tackles, while junior end/linebacker Jason Hatcher posted eight stops to aid the stout defensive effort.

Garrett Johnson led the team in receiving with a season-high 119 yards, including a long of 35 yards that matched his season best. Conrad had a breakout game, not only recording his first career catch but also his first career touchdown with 55 yards of offense through the air. Baker also had a standout game, matching his career high of 51 yards and recording the second touchdown of his career.

Mizzou was the first team of the night to scratch the scoreboard, using two third-down conversions to reach the red zone. With 17 yards between himself and the end zone, Mauk tossed a lob to an open J'Mon Moore for a touchdown with a successful extra point to give the Tigers the 7-0 advantage with 3:42 remaining in the opening quarter.

Following a rocky start to the drive that found the Wildcats in a first-and-29 situation, Towles found Johnson for consecutive 20-plus-yard throws to move the chains and get UK into Missouri territory for the first time in the contest. Towles used the opening play of the second quarter to dodge and weave through the Tiger defense for a rushing touchdown. That knotted the score at seven apiece.

A Missouri field goal made the score 10-7 before sophomore running back Jojo Kemp acted as the catalyst for the team, as three of his carries totaled a combined 37 yards, giving UK a first-and-goal late in the third quarter to set up the Conrad touchdown and put UK on top 14-10.

Kentucky continued to pour it on offensively in the final quarter, taking to the air again when Towles first found Johnson for a 35-yard reception, matching the wide receiver's season long, before Baker pulled in a 25-yard toss on the sideline.

Another pass to Johnson, fanned out to the left sideline for a 24-yarder, put the Wildcats within five yards of the end zone. Towles then found Baker on a 5-yard lob for his first touchdown of the season and the second of his career, putting UK up 21-10 over the Tigers with 6:20 left in the game.

The Tigers looked like they would soon answer back with a touchdown, quickly making their way through Kentucky territory. Despite their momentum, the staunch UK red zone defense, led by a pass breakup followed by a quarterback hurry by Ryan Flannigan, once again forced Missouri to concede a field-goal attempt. Baggett's 24-yard attempt was good, but the Wildcats were able to close out the final 2:56 of the game with a pair of first downs.

KENTUCKY 34, EKU 27

OCT. 3, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY.

THE NEW CWS (63,380)

Despite trailing by 14 points with less than eight minutes in the fourth quarter, the Kentucky football team celebrated its 100th Homecoming anniversary at The New CWS in thrilling fashion, notching a 34-27 comeback overtime victory over in-state foe Eastern Kentucky University.

Kentucky rallied from a 27-13 deficit late in the fourth quarter with back-to-back touchdown drives. Facing a fourth-and-3 at the end of regulation, Patrick Towles stood in the face of a blitz and found Dorian Baker for a 5-yard touchdown to force overtime.

The duo connected again in overtime with a 3-yard pitch-and-catch to take a 34-27 lead. CJ Johnson, who recorded 19 tackles, the most by a defensive lineman in program history, fittingly sealed the outcome with a game-clinching sack.

The outcome tied the school record for biggest fourth-quarter comeback in school history – previously set a year ago when UK rallied from 14 down in the final stanza to win vs. South Carolina.

Towles rebounded from a two-interception first half to lead the offense for the Wildcats, connecting on 29-of-42 pass attempts for 329 yards and three touchdowns to go along with a rushing score.

The duo of Baker and Blake Bone carried the offense in receiving with 86 and 85 yards, respectively. Both bested their career highs by more than 20 yards each, and Baker's two touchdowns, which included the game-tying and game-winning catches, is a career best for the wide receiver.

Kentucky stayed in the game thanks to standout defensive performances by a number of players. Eight of Johnson's 19 tackles were solo stops, including a sack and two-and-a-half tackles for loss. Ryan Flannigan was one tackle off his career best with 11 tackles, Josh Forrest recorded double-digit tackles with 10 stops on the night, and Farrington Huguenin blocked a field goal and recovered a fumble.

For the Colonels, Bennie Coney paced the offense with 19-of-32 passing for 183 yards and two touchdowns. The pair of Thomas Ethan and Dy'Shawn Mobley combined for 158 of EKU's 180 rushing yards with 84 yards and 74 yards, respectively. Mobley also led the team in receiving with 50 yards on five catches.

AUBURN 30, KENTUCKY 27

OCT. 15, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY.

THE NEW CWS (63,407)

Kentucky scored 17 second-half points and rallied to within one score, but the Auburn Tigers held on for a 30-27 win in front of 63,407 fans in The New CWS in the first Thursday night primetime game in program history.

Auburn earned a 10-point advantage at 30-20 with less than eight minutes to play before the Wildcats pulled to within three following a Mikel Horton 1-yard plunge. Kentucky got the ball back at its own 15-yard line with 2:12 remaining and drove into Auburn territory, but lost the ball on downs as the Tigers clinched the victory.

Auburn took little time in taking an early lead thanks to the combination of Sean White and Ricardo Louis moving the chains with a pair of 20-plus-yard receptions. Once in the red zone, the Tigers turned to Peyton Barber to carry the ball in for a 1-yard rushing touchdown and a 7-0 advantage with just under four minutes into the quarter.

The Wildcats quickly retaliated, covering 75 yards on just six plays. Boom Williams broke through the Auburn defense and tore away for a 60-yard dash to put the Wildcats at first-and-goal from the 3-yard line. Williams completed the drive with consecutive rushes, tying the game at 7-7.

Three Daniel Carlson field goals and a Kerryon Johnson TD rush allowed Auburn to open up a 23-10 halftime lead.

Kentucky came out energized in the second half, with Patrick Towles spreading out the offense through the air as Johnson, Jeff Badet and Dorian Baker combined for 50 receiving yards to set up Williams for a 13-yard rush along the left sideline. Williams shouldered his way through the Auburn line and extended his arm with the ball in hand to complete a 6-yard rush for his second touchdown of the game. Within just over three minutes' time, the Wildcats were within six points of the Tigers, 23-17.

The Wildcats' defense came up with some impactful plays following the touchdown, forcing Auburn to concede a punt on consecutive drives. Highlighted by a 13-yard rush by Towles and an 11-yard pass to C.J. Conrad, who pulled two Auburn defenders along with him to give the team a first down, UK was able to lessen the deficit to 23-20 with 1:03 remaining in the quarter after an Austin MacGinnis field goal.

The fourth quarter saw the Tigers retaliate, aided by a 34-yard pass to Louis to reach the red zone. Barber added another rushing touchdown with 7:56 remaining in the contest, as the Wildcats fell behind 30-20.

With plenty of fight left, Kentucky answered back immediately. Towles found Blake Bone for an 11-yard pass and later launched to Badet on the Auburn 2-yard line for a 27-yard catch. Horton scored for the Wildcats on a 1-yard rush, once more bringing the Blue and White within three points of the Tigers, 30-27.
