HEAD COACH BRIAN CRAIG

Brian Craig enters his 15th season as head coach of the University of Kentucky's men's golf team. In 14 seasons at the helm, Craig has elevated the program to unprecedented heights, taking the team to three top-10 NCAA finishes in 2003, 2005 and 2006 and the school's first Southeastern Conference title in 2005.

Craig has reached success in 14 years that the Kentucky men's golf program took decades to accomplish. Since 1930, the Wildcats have finished in the top half of the SEC Championship a total of 11 times, with almost half of those finishes coming under Craig's tenure. However, more impressive for Craig's tenure is the fact that Kentucky has been to eight NCAA Championships since golf was started at Kentucky with Craig making the NCAA Championship five times including its most recent finish of 17th in 2014.

The native of Gastonia, N.C., led UK to its first SEC Championship in 2005 and finished with a school-best fifth-place finish at the NCAA tourney in 2006. He earned SEC Coach of the Year honors in 2005 and was twice named the Eaton Golf Pride Regional Coach of the Year for the Midwest Region.

Before coming to UK, Craig spent two years at the helm of the University of Central Florida's golf team. At UCF, Craig coached the Golden Knights to a second-place finish in the 2001 Trans America Athletic Conference Tournament. In his first recruiting class at UCF in 2000, Craig signed four nationally ranked golfers, three of whom made the TAAC's All-Freshman Team, including league Freshman of the Year.

Before landing his first head-coaching job, Craig served as assistant coach at the University of Florida, his alma mater, for two years (1997-99). As a Gator assistant, Craig had the opportunity to mentor two All-Americans and seven All-SEC golfers, including 1999 SEC Player of the Year Steve Scott. He also helped guide Florida to the 1999 SEC Championship.

Craig began a three-year professional career as a golfer shortly after graduating from UF with honors in economics in 1992. He competed in numerous mini-tour events, winning the Powerbilt Tour Northwoods Championship in 1995 and the 1996 Future Majors Tour Harbor Hills Championship. In 1994, Craig competed in the U.S. Open at Oakmont Country Club in Pittsburgh and finished sixth at the Jamaican Open. He finished 11th on the 1995 Powerbilt Tour money list and followed with a 15th-place ranking on the Golden Bear Tour money list in 1996.

Craig finished his college career ranked among the leaders in University of Florida history for most top-10 finishes. He received Academic All-SEC honors three times in his career and was honored as an Academic All-American during his senior campaign in 1992.

During his time at UF, Craig was a member of one of the most successful teams in school history as the Gators claimed runner-up honors at the 1990 NCAA Championships. Florida also won three SEC Championships in Craig's four years, as well as the 1992 NCAA East Region Championship title.

Craig arrived at Florida in 1987 rated the fifth-best junior golfer in the nation. As an amateur golfer, he advanced to the semifinals of the Carolinas Amateur Championships in 1987. Craig won the Carolinas Junior Championship in 1986. In 1987, Craig won the Insurance Youth Classic, earning him an exemption into the 1988 PGA Tour Houston Open.

Craig has been married for 20 years to his college sweetheart, Tami. They reside in Lexington with their three children, Katie Beth, Carson and Philip.

Brian Craig, the 2005 SEC Coach of the Year, is entering his 15th season as the men's golf head coach.

"It is with great enthusiasm that I announce Ben Fuqua as our new assistant coach," Craig said at the time of his hire. "Ben played for us and was an exceptional player and a true servant leader as team captain. He has tremendous integrity and a passion for mentoring young people. Throw in the fact that he can flat-out teach putting and loves the University of Kentucky and we have a perfect match. I can't wait for Coach Fuqua to get started helping us pursue our goal of winning SEC and NCAA Championships."

Fuqua (pronounced FEW-kway) began his career at Kentucky as a member of the 2005 SEC Championship squad. In all, he served as team captain for his final two seasons and appeared in 24 tournaments throughout his career. He claimed four top-five performances, which included one victory.

"I am honored to once again be a part of the UK golf program," Fuqua said. "I thoroughly enjoyed my time here as a player. I am excited to help Coach Craig continue his success and represent the Big Blue Nation at the highest level."

Following his playing career, Fuqua played professional golf for three years before moving into the coaching ranks.

Fuqua served as the head coach at Asbury University and Lexington Catholic High School from 2013-14 before serving as a volunteer assistant at Kentucky during the 2014-15 season. At Asbury, Fuqua helped direct Steven Brooks to the 2013 Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Individual Championship. During his rise up the coaching ranks, Fuqua also served as a private golf instructor.

He holds the UK record for a 54-hole tournament score (198) and was a two-time All-SEC Academic team member. Furthermore, he rose to a top-10 ranking in the GolfWeek Individual College Rankings during his junior season.

A native of Danville, Ky., Fuqua earned a bachelor of arts in communications from Kentucky in 2010.
