IMPORTANT INFORMATION

CREENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Joe Craft Center lower-level lobby. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the lower level lobby of the Joe Craft Center.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

2015-16 SEASON NOTES

Murray Narrowly Misses Triple-Double in Dominant Exhibition Win

In their first action of the season against another opponent, the Kentucky Wildcats blitzed Ottawa early and often. With a three-guard lineup, an uptempo offense and a smothering full-court press, Kentucky pulled away by as many as 35 points in the first half and cruised to a 117-53 victory in the exhibition opener.

The highlights of the game:

- Kentucky tallied the first 13 points of the game, scoring on the first six possessions, in the opening 2:06 of the game
- UK hit the century mark with 5:12 left in the game on an offensive rebound and putback by Alex Poythress, making the score 101-50
- Freshman guard Jamal Murray led the Wildcats with 22 points and 12 rebounds. Murray also had nine assists, narrowly missing a triple-double. The only triple-double in Kentucky history was by Chris Mills, who had 19 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists against Austin Peay on Dec. 27, 1988
- Sophomore guard Tyler Ulis also had a double-double with 17 points and 10 assists. Ulis made 4 of 5 on his 3-point shots.
- Six Wildcats scored in double figures – Murray 22, Skal Labissiere 18, Ulis 17, Isaiah Briscoe 11, Marcus Lee 10 and Derek Willis 10

Wildcats Start Season at No. 1 in Coaches' Poll

Kentucky begins the season as the top-ranked team in the USA Today Coaches' Poll for the third season in a row.

The Wildcats share the preseason top spot with North Carolina. The two teams both garnered 749 points from the ballots of 32 Division I coaches. UNC had 12 first-place votes, compared with UK's 11.

Four preseason coaches' top-25 teams are on Kentucky's 2015-16 schedule (No. 4 Duke, No. 5 Kansas, No. 19 LSU and No. 20 Vanderbilt).

Wildcats Tabled No. 2 in AP Top 25

For the fifth straight season, the Wildcats are ranked in the top three of the Associated Press Top 25 to begin the season, as Kentucky checked in at No. 2 in the preseason poll.

Kentucky picked up 10 of the 65 first-place votes in the preseason poll. North Carolina was ranked the No. 1 team in the country with 1,566 points, followed by UK (1,520), Maryland (1,487), Kansas (1,410) and Duke (1,350).

The Wildcats have been ranked in the preseason top five in six of John Calipari's seven seasons in Lexington.

Kentucky Picked to Win SEC

A select panel of both SEC and national media members picked UK to win its 47th SEC regular-season championship in 2015-16. It's the 11th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite.

Trio of Wildcats Tabled Preseason All-SEC

UK sophomore guard Tyler Ulis and freshman forward Skal Labissiere were tabbed to the six-man All-SEC First Team alongside Danuel House (Texas A&M), Damian Jones (Vanderbilt), Stefan Moody (Ole Miss) and Ben Simmons (LSU).

Senior forward Alex Poythress was named to the All-SEC Second Team with Dorian Finney-Smith (Florida), Malik Newman (Mississippi State), Charles Mann (Georgia), Tim Quarterman (LSU) and Alex Caruso (Texas A&M).

Lee, Poythress, Ulis Among Returners

Despite losing seven players to the NBA Draft, Kentucky will return an explosive and talented nucleus in 2015-16. Scholarship players EJ Floreal, Dominique Hawkins, Marcus Lee, Alex Poythress, Derek Willis and Tyler Ulis will return and join a talented recruiting class that's ranked No. 2 in the country.

Ulis ranked third in the country and first among league competition last season with a 3.6 assist-to-turnover ratio. Poythress is just 90 rebounds shy of becoming the 52nd player in program history to snatch 500 or more career boards. Lee boasts 41 career blocks.

Recruit and Reload

To help offset for losing 85.9 percent of its scoring and 77.3 percent of its rebounding from the historic 38-1 Final Four team of a season ago, Kentucky will welcome eight newcomers to the 2015-16 roster.

The spring and summer scholarship editions included Canadians Mychal Mulder and Jamal Murray, and Australian Isaac Humphries, who join fall signees Isaiah Briscoe, Skal Labissiere and Charles Matthews. UK also added walk-ons Jonny David and Dillon Pulliam.

Mulder was a junior college All-America selection as a sophomore at Vincennes University. Murray and Humphries reclassified to the 2015 class. Murray is rated a top-15 prospect by nearly every recruiting service, while Humphries is a top-50 prospect.

Briscoe adds to Calipari's growing list of McDonald's All-Americans, while Labissiere is rated as the No. 1

overall player in the 2015 class by both Rivals and Scout. Matthews, who played in the Jordan Brand Classic, was the first to commit to the class and joins former AAU teammate Tyler Ulis on the roster.

Hawkins Recovering from Broken Hand

Sophomore guard Dominique Hawkins is recovering from a broken right hand suffered in practice in early October. He had surgery to repair the break and recently had his cast removed.

Hawkins has played in 56 games in his Kentucky career, including nine starts in his sophomore season. The Richmond, Ky., native has been one of UK's best on-ball defenders in his first two seasons as a Wildcat, serving as a key stopper during Kentucky's memorable 2014 Final Four run.

Another Historic NBA Draft for UK

A record six Wildcats were selected in the 2015 NBA Draft in June, tying Kentucky's NBA record set in 2012. Also tying an NBA record, four Wildcats were selected in the NBA lottery (the opening 14 picks). Karl-Anthony Towns was selected No. 1 overall, the program's third No. 1 overall selection since 2010.

John Calipari has had 25 players selected in the NBA Draft since becoming UK's head coach. Nineteen players have gone in the first round, and he's had three players taken No. 1 overall.

Calipari has had two or more players selected in the NBA Draft in eight consecutive seasons dating back to his time as the head coach at Memphis. He has had at least one player selected in the top 10 of the draft in each of the last eight seasons. No other school has even a first rounder in eight straight seasons.

Though Aaron Harrison went undrafted, he was signed by the Charlotte Hornets in the summer and made the Hornets' opening-day roster.

- 1st - Karl-Anthony Towns (Minnesota Timberwolves)
- 6th - Willie Cauley-Stein (Sacramento Kings)
- 12th - Trey Lyles (Utah Jazz)
- 13th - Devin Booker (Phoenix Suns)
- 44th - Andrew Harrison (Memphis Grizzlies)
- 48th - Dakari Johnson (Oklahoma City Thunder)

Kentucky's NBA Footprint Continues to Grow

The nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program once again leads the country with 21 players on an opening-day NBA roster.

Of the 446 players in the NBA to start the 2015-16 season, approximately 4.7 percent played college basketball at Kentucky. The Wildcats bettered any other college program by two players as the NBA season opened.

Kentucky's NBA dominance was best represented in Phoenix and Sacramento, where a combined seven Wildcats started the 2015-16 season on the respective rosters. Eric Bledsoe, Devin Booker, Archie Goodwin and Brandon Knight were all part of the Phoenix Suns' opening-day roster, while former UK stars Willie Cauley-Stein, DeMarcus Cousins and Rajon Rondo started the year in Sacramento.

Two other franchises – the Charlotte Hornets (Aaron Harrison, Michael Kidd-Gilchrist) and the Minnesota Timberwolves (Tayshaun Prince, Karl-Anthony Towns) – opened the season with two Wildcats apiece.

Chuck Hayes signed with the Houston Rockets earlier this week, bringing the current total to 22 Wildcats in the NBA.

2015-16 SEASON NOTES

Wildcats Face Tough Nonconference Slate

A 13-game non-conference schedule will feature 10 games against teams who advanced to the postseason a season ago for the 2015-16 season.

That list includes national champion Duke in the third game of the season at the Champions Classic in the United Center in Chicago on Nov. 17. In all, the Wildcats will take on six NCAA Tournament squads, two NIT participants and two teams that advanced to at least the quarterfinals of the CollegiateInsider.com Tournament. The average final RPI of the teams comes in at 105, with five teams in the all-important top 50 of the RPI.

In addition to Duke, the Wildcats will also take on powerhouses such as UCLA, Ohio State, Kansas and the annual rivalry game with Louisville.

SEC Announces New Scheduling Model

The SEC announced a new scheduling model for conference games that will feature three permanent opponents. The change will take place beginning with the 2015-16 season.

Kentucky's new permanent opponents are Florida, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Each SEC team will play the other 13 teams at least one time during league play. They will then play their three permanent opponents a second time and the remaining two games will be scheduled on a rotating basis.

Success Rate Continues at 2015 Graduation

Four Wildcats -- Alex Poythress, Tod Lanter, Brian Long and Sam Malone -- all received their undergraduate degrees during the university's May 2015 commencement ceremonies, continuing the remarkable success rate under Calipari.

All 14 players who have been eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years in the Calipari era have received their degrees, including three players (Poythress, Patrick Patterson and Jarrod Polson) who completed their undergraduate degrees in three years.

Additionally, the team received an academic award in May for its Academic Progress Rate score. The Wildcats placed in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball schools. The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship.

Calipari, Dampier Enshrined in Naismith HOF

Kentucky Wildcats John Calipari and Louie Dampier were enshrined in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in September. The fraternity of basketball legends is considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

Calipari and Dampier were two of 11 basketball legends in the Class of 2015 and the ninth and 10th UK representatives, respectively, to join basketball's fraternity of legends.

A Season for the Record Books

Kentucky's 2014-15 was historic from beginning to end. In a season rich with milestones, here are some of the most notable ones:

- UK became the first team in NCAA Division I history to post a 38-0 record, tying the most wins in a college basketball season (John Calipari's 2008-09 Memphis team and the 2011-12 UK team are the others)
- Kentucky reached the Final Four for the fourth time in five seasons
- UK's 18-0 conference season tied the best mark in SEC history
- The Wildcats won their 46th SEC regular-season championship and their 28th SEC Tournament title
- Kentucky was one of the most defensively dominant teams in college basketball history, holding 22 of its 39 opponents to 55 points or less (the most in school history), while nearly setting the NCAA opponent field-goal percentage record with a .354 mark

A Winning Institution

Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 938-262 mark (.782). Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee) and no other team has a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.5 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 82 seasons in the SEC
- The Wildcats have won 46 SEC titles and 28 SEC Tournament championships
- Kentucky has won 13 of the last 23 SEC Tournament titles

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams posted a sixth straight 20-win season in 2014-15. Kentucky is currently one of just four institutions (UK, BYU, Duke and Gonzaga) in the NCAA that has seen both its men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in six consecutive seasons.

Three is Better Than Two

UK has the nation's second-longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer, knocking down at least one from long range in 939 consecutive games.

The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout.

UNLV holds the nation's longest streak with 941 consecutive games with a made 3-pointer.

Cats Rock at Rupp

UK has won 185 of its last 212 home games, including a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era. All-time, the Wildcats are 529-64 (.892) in Rupp Arena.

Among the most notable marks of dominance in the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- The Wildcats are 282-40 (.876) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK is currently on a 20-game winning streak at Rupp Arena, dating back to 2013-14
- The Wildcats have gone undefeated at home in four of John Calipari's six seasons. Overall, UK has posted a perfect mark in 12 of Rupp Arena's 39 seasons

Calipari Owns Record in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 17 of the last 20 seasons, including a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

- Kentucky averaged 23,572 fans during the 2015-16 season, the most since 2011-12
- UK has averaged 23,000 or more fans in five of Calipari's six seasons

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just twice at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just once in Rupp Arena. Both losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 50-1 all-time as the No. 1-ranked team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The lone loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal Reaches 100 Wins at Rupp

It took Calipari just 104 games to reach the century mark at home, the fastest of any UK coach.

HEAD COACH JOHN CALIPARI

First Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

Calipari and the Class of 2015, which included Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White, were enshrined during Hall of Fame festivities in Springfield, Mass., Sept. 10-11.

Nearly Unanimous

John Calipari collected nearly every major national coach of the year award after guiding the historic 2014-15 Wildcats to a perfect regular season and eventually a fourth Final Four appearance in five seasons. Among the awards Calipari won in 2014-15:

- Associated Press National Coach of the Year
- Naismith National Coach of the Year
- NABC National Coach of the Year
- The Sporting News National Coach of the Year
- Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year
- SEC Coach of the Year
- 2015 USBWA District IV Coach of the Year

UMass to Retire Jersey in Calipari's Honor

As part of a 20th anniversary celebration of the UMass men's basketball 1995-96 Final Four team, the UMass Department of Athletics announced plans to retire a jersey in honor of John Calipari during the 2015-16 season. Calipari will have his jersey lifted to the Mullins Center rafters on Dec. 16, prior to the Minutemen's game vs. New Orleans.

- Calipari began his head coaching career at UMass where he turned the Minutemen into a national powerhouse from 1988-1996.
- In addition to the 1995-96's team's 35-2 record and the Final Four appearance, Calipari led the Minutemen to the 1991-92 NCAA Sweet 16, the 1992-93 and 1993-94 NCAA second round and the 1994-95 NCAA Elite Eight. UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 titles during that span as well.

600 On-Court Victories

With a win over No. 5 Kansas on Nov. 18, 2014, John Calipari claimed his 600th on-court victory as a Division I head coach. He became the 13th active Division I coach to achieve the feat.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. With UK's preseason No. 1 ranking in the USA Today Coaches' Poll, Calipari has guided six of his last nine teams to the No. 1 ranking (and the eighth time he's done it overall).

When Coach Cal's teams have been at the top, they're been difficult to knock off.

- Calipari is 104-10 (.912) as the top-ranked Associated Press coach in the country
- He's 63-5 (.926) when his team is at the top of the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach.
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the pinnacle of the rankings
- Calipari (104) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (189) in active coaches with victories as the No. 1 head coach.

AHEAD OF THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

- Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to five NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.
- John Calipari is ahead of the pace with the legend as far as victories to begin his career at UK. Also, Calipari (.833) is ahead of Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Since the 2000 season, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 255-22 (.921) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 102-4 (.962) at Rupp Arena.

In four of Calipari's six seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari's 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena to begin his UK coaching career was the longest winning streak since the arena opening in 1976.

On the Road Again

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're nearly as good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 76-27 (.738) record on the road.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 13 league championships (including the 2010, 2012 and 2015 SEC championships) six more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). Calipari also has 12 conference tournament titles, seven more than his closest competitor (Howland).

He's tallied a 290-86 (.772) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns an 82-20 (.804) record since joining the SEC.

Calipari's Undefeated Conference Teams

John Calipari is believed to be one of three coaches, along with Frank McGuire and Jerry Tarkanian, to lead multiple teams to an unblemished mark in multiple Division I conferences. Calipari did so at Memphis in Conference USA and Kentucky in the SEC.

- McGuire led St. John's in the Metro New York ('51, '52), North Carolina in the ACC ('57) and South Carolina in the ACC ('70) to undefeated marks
- Jerry Tarkanian guided Long Beach State in the Pacific Coast Athletics Association ('70, '71) and UNLV in the Big West ('87, '91, '92) to perfect conference seasons

30 is the new 20

John Calipari has 21 consecutive seasons of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (19), Jim Boeheim (17) and Bill Self (17).

More impressive, Calipari has nine seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Mike Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (10) have more.

Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 straight in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (14 of 14) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's APR, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 979 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last two reports. Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May, was a 995, earning the team an NCAA academic award for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the team has also posted a 3.0 grade-point average or better in seven of the last nine semesters.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

Kentucky's 38-game winning streak in 2014-15 was historic, but it wasn't completely out of the norm for John Calipari. It was the 17th streak of Calipari's career where his teams have won 10 or more consecutive games during the season, the sixth where they have won 20 or more, the fifth where they have won 25 or more, the first where they have won 30 or more, and the first with 35 or more. Here's a list of all of them:

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 23 top-25 players Kentucky has signed prior to this season (according to Rivals), 19 were drafted and 16 were selected in the first round. Those draft numbers don't include Marcus Lee, Alex Poythress and Kyle Wiltjer, who are currently in college.

But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's nearly 40 NBA pros have made approximately $1.25 billion in NBA contracts alone, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts.

CALIPARI KNOWS DEFENSE

John Calipari's 2014-15 Kentucky Wildcat team was heralded as one of the best defensive teams ever, however, defense has always been a staple of Calipari-coached teams. Dating back to complete NCAA records beginning in 2001-02, Calipari's teams have been among national leaders in several critical defensive categories:

RECRUITING TRAIL

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players over the past seven seasons than any other school under John Calipari's leadership. Nearly one-quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past seven classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats.

HEAD COACH JOHN CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 38 players make it to the NBA during his 23-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up over 600 victories, 16 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 38 players realize their dreams and guide them to the NBA, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he’s had 25 players drafted during his six years at Kentucky, including 19 first-round picks.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 14 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. The Wildcats posted a 3.11 grade-point average for the 2014 fall semester, the seventh time in the last eight semesters they earned a 3.0 GPA or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, and he organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy. A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend, and then $1.5 million in 2015.

Author of the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out” and “Bounce Back: Overcoming Setbacks to Succeed in Business and in Life,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”
