REISCHEL'S FIRST DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Senior Jarelle Reischel recorded his first double-double as a Colonel on Monday at UNCW, scoring 17 points and grabbing a career-high 13 boards. The transfer from Rhode Island now leads the Colonels in scoring (19.0 ppg) and rebounding (8.0 rpg) this season.

NEWCOMERS LEAD THE WAY

Four of the Colonels' top five scorers on Friday were newcomers. Redshirt junior JaVontae Hawkins (a transfer from South Florida) scored 19, sophomore Greg King (a transfer from Chipola College) scored 11 and freshman Nick Mayo scored 10.

FIVE IN DOUBLE FIGURES

Senior Jarelle Reischel - a transfer from Rhode Island - paced five Colonels in double figures with 21 points in Friday's win. It was the first time five Colonels had scored in double figures in a single game since the OVC semifinal win over Murray State on March 7, 2014.

CENTURY MARK

The win over Coppin State was the first time Eastern had scored more than 100 points against a Division-I opponent since a 107-71 win over Alabama A&M on December 30, 2004.

MCHALE ERA BEGINS ON A HIGH NOTE

EKU opened the Dan McHale Era with a resounding 107-80 win over Coppin State on Friday at McBrayer Arena.

IMPRESSIVE FRESHMAN

Colonel fans will have to get acquainted with several new faces this year, one of whom is freshman forward Nick Mayo. Mayo - the 2014-15 Gatorade Maine Boys Basketball Player of the Year - started the exhibition vs. Union College and led the Colonels with 17 points on 8-of-11 shooting from the field.

TIMES THEY ARE A 'CHANGIN'

2015-16 will feature a new-look Colonel team. First-year head coach Dan McHale took over the program in April. The Colonels lost 72 percent of its scoring and 67 percent of its rebounding from last year's 21-win team. Senior Ja'Mill Powell and junior Isaac McGlone are the lone returning Colonels who saw significant minutes last year.

--2014-15 Notes--

GOLDEN ERA?

Three of Eastern Kentucky's eight winningest seasons, including the top-2, have come in the last three years. The 2012-13 team won a school record 25 games. The 2013-14 squad won 24 games. The 2014-15 team tied for fourth with 21 wins.

20 WINS FOR 3RD STRAIGHT YEAR

With its victory over Norfolk State (March 17) in the CIT, the Colonels recorded their third straight 20-win season and the 10th in program history. It's only the second time EKU has posted three straight 20-win seasons.

BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK POSTSEASON TRIPS

EKU has earned three consecutive bids to national postseason tournaments. Before this streak, Eastern Kentucky had never played in two straight national postseason tournaments.

POSTSEASON WINS ARE ROUTINE?

In 2013 Eastern beat Gardner-Webb in the CIT for the first win in a national postseason tournament since 1945 (68 years). After beating Norfolk State and High Point, EKU has three postseason wins in three years.

TOP-3 FOR THREE

Eastern Kentucky has finished in the top-3 in the OVC for three straight years. Two of those years, 2012-13 and 2014-15, the Colonels finished with the second best record in the league.

TWO ON 1ST TEAM ALL-OVC

Corey Walden and Eric Stutz were chosen First Team All-OVC. It is the first time since 1994 that two Colonels earned first team honors in the same season.

1ST IN TURNOVER MARGIN

EKU led the country in turnover margin (+7.2).

HIGH RANKINGS YEAR-AFTER-YEAR

Eastern Kentucky has ranked in the top-5 in the nation in turnover margin the last three years (2013 - 4th, 2014 - 2nd, 2015 - 1st) and in the top-10 in the nation in steals the last two years (2014 - 6th, 2015 - 2nd).

What Have They Said About The Colonels?

- "Give Eastern Kentucky credit because they kicked us for about 12 to 14 minutes there and we were on our heels offensively. We were turning the ball over and we could not stop them defensively."
-- Roy Williams, North Carolina Head Coach
March 15, 2007 after EKU went on a 32-9 run midway through the game in the first round of the 2007 NCAA Tournament
- "That's why we scheduled this game. That's the type of team you could see win a game or two in the NCAA Tournament, a la Florida Gulf Coast. Those are the type of teams you want to play, but you've got to win. They certainly made that difficult tonight."
-- Shaka Smart, Virginia Commonwealth Head Coach
Dec. 5, 2013 after EKU lost at VCU by three points in overtime
- "The game matched two teams capable of doing some damage in the NCAA tournament, and they didn't disappoint in a fun-to-watch, wide-open affair that left both teams drained and VCU pushed to the limit."
-- Tim Pearrell, Richmond Times-Dispatch
Dec. 6, 2013 after EKU lost at VCU by three points in overtime
- "I'm telling you, we've got this team on tape, on DVD, and they're a much better shooting team than this. So you've got to give our guys credit for what they did defensively."
-- Bo Ryan, Wisconsin Head Coach
- Dec. 14, 2013 after EKU shot 21.1 percent from three-point range and lost at No. 4 Wisconsin 86-61
- "First off, I think this a good win for our team because that might potentially be an NCAA Tournament team. They are a really good team with terrific guards. They do a really good job of changing defenses to keep teams off balance."
-- Mark Gottfried, North Carolina State Head Coach
Nov. 30, 2013 after EKU had a 10-point first half lead, led by six at the break and trailed by only three with six minutes to go
- "We obviously feel fortunate because I thought Eastern Kentucky was well prepared. They played great. They played loose and certainly gave us everything we wanted. It was a hard-fought game and one in which we had to work our tail off for 40 minutes to come out with a win."
-- Bill Self, Kansas Head Coach
March 21, 2014 after EKU gave No. 2 seed Kansas all it could handle in the NCAA Tournament

Coaching Accomplishments

- Staff assistant on a Louisville team that went 25-7 and won the Conference USA Tournament in 2003
- Helped revitalize Iona College's program, as the Gaels won two games the year before he arrived and 21 games two years later
- Recruited NBA draft pick and 2012 MAAC Player of the Year Scott Machado to Iona
- Assistant coach on a Minnesota team that captured the 2013-14 National Invitation Tournament (NIT) crown

Dan McHale, a former University of Louisville assistant, was introduced as Eastern Kentucky's new head coach on April 9, 2015.

"We are ecstatic to welcome Coach Dan McHale and his family to the Colonel Family," Eastern Kentucky University President Michael Benson said. "Dan brings years of experience at some top-flight programs to EKU, along with ties to Kentucky and this region. He came to us with the highest recommendations from some of America's best coaches and we have every confidence he will take our basketball program to the next level."

Before being chosen as Eastern Kentucky's 20th head men's basketball coach, McHale completed his second season as an assistant coach at the University of Minnesota where he worked under head coach Richard Pitino. McHale got his coaching start under Hall of Fame coach Rick Pitino as a staff assistant at Louisville from 2001 to 2003.

"I'm extremely excited to be working at Eastern Kentucky University," McHale said. "I want to thank President Benson and Steve Lochmueller for this opportunity. With the leadership of these two, it's an honor to be a part of these exciting times at EKU. We are going to bring excitement to McBrayer Arena with a fast paced style of play. It's going to be fun for our players and our fans."

In his first season at Minnesota, McHale helped the Gophers to a NIT Championship and a 25-13 record that included wins over No. 9 Wisconsin and No. 11 Ohio State. The 25 victories are the second-most in program history. The 2014-15 squad won 18 games, including a victory at Michigan State, a team that would reach the Final Four.

"I am extremely excited and proud of Dan McHale," Richard Pitino said. "Eastern Kentucky is getting a tremendous coach and recruiter, but more importantly a great person. He will represent the Eastern Kentucky program in a first-class manner. There is no doubt in my mind that he will do great things there."

McHale served as a student manager for four seasons (1997-01) at Kentucky. He was part of one national championship team, four NCAA Tournament teams and three Southeastern Conference championships while working with Tubby Smith's Wildcats.

The Cardinals went 25-7, won the 2003 Conference USA Tournament title and reached the NCAA Tournament in McHale's second season as a staff assistant at Louisville. During his first stint he assisted with opponent scouting, game preparation and on-campus recruiting. After one year as the director of operations at Manhattan College, McHale returned to UofL for two seasons as the director of video operations, overseeing advance scouting video and evaluation video of Cardinal players. In his second two-year stint at Louisville, the Cardinals won 45 games and played in two NCAA Tournaments.

"Dan is one of the hardest working coaches in our profession," Rick Pitino said. "I have great admiration for his dedication to our game. He is a great addition to our state."

In 2007, McHale joined Kevin Willard's first staff at Iona College. As an assistant, McHale helped lead the Gaels from two wins the season before the duo arrived to 12 wins their first season and 21 wins in year three at Iona. He recruited NBA draft pick and 2012 MAAC Player of the Year Scott Machado to Iona.

McHale followed Willard to Seton Hall when he was named head coach in 2010. In their second season, the Pirates won 20 games. While at Seton Hall, McHale was responsible for the Pirates' defensive game planning and spearheaded opponent scouting and game preparation.

"Eastern Kentucky has hit a home run with the hiring of Dan McHale, who is a rising star within the coaching ranks," Willard said. "He is not only a terrific recruiter and mentor of student-athletes, but he also has a great mind for the game of basketball. Dan has earned the opportunity to lead a basketball program, and with his outstanding knowledge, personality and work ethic, he will make a positive impact at Eastern Kentucky."

McHale will look to add to the success of the Rick Pitino coaching tree that includes Billy Donovan (Florida), Tubby Smith (Texas Tech), Mick Cronin (Cincinnati), Richard Pitino (Minnesota) and former EKU head coach Travis Ford (Oklahoma State).

McHale has caught the eye of one of America's top young college basketball coaches - Memphis head coach Josh Pastner.

"Dan is going to do an outstanding job at Eastern Kentucky University," said Pastner. "He is a tireless worker and will do the job with great principle and great work ethic. Eastern Kentucky got a winner in Dan McHale."

The Chatham, New Jersey native earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and graduated with honors from UK in 2001. McHale and his wife Jackie have two daughters, Lilly and Molly, and a son, Daniel.
