IMPORTANT INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA
The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL
All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES
Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Joe Craft Center lower-level lobby. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the lower level lobby of the Joe Craft Center.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS
Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

Murray-Ulis the Top Scoring Duo in the Country in League Play

Jamal Murray and Tyler Ulis are proving to be two of the best scoring guards in the country. Combined in league play, they are the best.

Through games on Feb. 14, Murray and Ulis are averaging 40.8 points per game in conference play, more than any other duo in the major conferences, which includes the Power 5 conferences and the American and the Big East.

Rank	Duo	Team	Conference	Combined PPG

Kentucky Wins Fourth Straight with Victory over Tennessee

Avenging a loss to Tennessee two weeks earlier, the Kentucky Wildcats won their fourth straight game -- their longest winning streak since opening the season with seven consecutive wins -- on Thursday with an 80-70 victory over the Volunteers. UK remained in sole possession of first place in the Southeastern Conference with the win while extending its Rupp Arena winning streak to 35 games.

On a rare off-night for sophomore guard Tyler Ulis, freshman guard Jamal Murray and junior forward Derek Willis more than picked up the slack. Murray notched his fifth straight game with 20 or more points while Willis enjoyed another career night with a career-high 25 points on a career-high seven 3-pointers.

UK led by as many as 22 in this one thanks to a first-half 15-1 run, but unlike the game in Knoxville, Tenn., earlier in the season when the Wildcats surrendered a 21-point lead, Kentucky would hang on to this one with another stellar defensive effort. UK held Tennessee to 37.9 percent from the floor, improving to 11-0 on the season when holding the opposition to 38 percent or less.

Thursday marked the 16th straight game that a Wildcat has scored at least 20 points, and Willis became the fifth different player to score at least 25 in a game this season. Willis did so by connecting on 8 of 12 from the field and 7 of 11 from 3-point range.

Meanwhile Murray scored in double figures for his 24th straight game, the most since Brandon Knight had a 28-game double-figure stretch in 2010-11. With a 3-for-6 night from behind the 3-point line, he's hit multiple 3-pointers in five straight games.

Together, the duo hit 10 of Kentucky's 11 3-pointers, the fourth straight game UK has made 10 or more 3-pointers. The last time the Wildcats turned that trick was 1993.

Freshman Isaiah Briscoe grabbed 10 rebounds, the second time this season he's reached double figures on the glass.
- UK has won its last four games by an average margin of 22.5 points
- Kentucky notched its 60th season with 20 or more victories, including the eighth year in a row and the 25th time in the last 26 seasons. It's Calipari's 22nd consecutive season with 20 or more wins, the longest active streak in the country
- Ulis extended his school-record streak of four or more assists in a game to 19 straight
- Kentucky has scored at least 76 points in nine straight regular-season SEC games for the first time since the 1995-96 season (12 straight)

Ulis, Murray Sweep SEC Awards

After combining for 53.2 percent of Kentucky's scoring in dominant victories over Georgia and South Carolina, Tyler Ulis was named Southeastern Conference Player of the Week and Jamal Murray was tabbed SEC Freshman of the Week. Ulis was also named ESPN's National Player of the Week and earned Capital One Cup Impact Performance of the Week honors.

Ulis earned his third SEC Player of the Week honor, while Murray has now garnered a team-leading three SEC Freshman of the Week honors. Ulis' ESPN National Player of the Week honor is the team's first of the season and the first since James Young claimed the honor on Dec. 30, 2013. Kentucky leads the league with eight total honors.

Ulis averaged 20.5 points, 10.0 assists and 2.5 steals in leading the Wildcats to a 2-0 week, including a victory over the South Carolina Gamecocks, who were ranked No. 20 in the USA Today Coaches' Poll and in a tie with the Wildcats for first place in the SEC heading into Saturday's game in Columbia, S.C.

Murray averaged a team-high 25.0 points per game in the two dominating victories this week, which included 10 made 3-pointers.

Poythress Out with Right Knee Injury

Following the Georgia game, head coach John Calipari announced that senior foward Alex Poythress will be out approximately two weeks with a right knee injury. It is not the knee in which he had surgically repaired for a torn ACL a season ago.

Poythress has missed the last two games with the injury after averaging 12.8 points in the previous four outings. The senior is averaging 10.0 points and 6.6 rebounds this season and recently became just the 15th player in school history with 800 points, 500 rebounds and 70 blocks in a career. He leads UK in games played (103) and games started (54).

Kentucky will continue with the "next man up" mantra it has worn all season long. The Wildcats have played without a scholarship player because of injury or illness in 18 of 26 games this season.

From Wildcats to NBA All-Stars

 Further proving the notion that the Kentucky men's basketball program helps prepare its players for the NBA better than any other school, three former Wildcats – DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, and John Wall – were selected for the 2016 NBA All-Star Game as reserves. No college had more than two representatives in the NBA All-Star Game.

Davis led the West All-Stars to a 196-173 win with 24 points on 12-of-13 shooting and six rebounds. Wall added 22 points on 10-of-14 shooting with three assiss, while Cousins posted 11 points on a perfect 5-of-5 night from the floor.

It was the third All-Star appearances for Davis and Wall, while Cousins will made his second straight appearance.

Rookie Karl-Anthony Towns won the Skills Challenge in thrilling fashion, defeating fellow Wildcats Davis and Cousins. Towns became the first frontcourt player to win the challenge. Meanwhile Devin Booker finished in third place in the Three-Point Contest behind arguably the NBA's two best 3-point shooters in Steph Curry and Klay Thompson

Booker was one of the stars of the Rising Stars Challenge, which pits 10 of the best first- and second-year NBA players from the United States against 10 first- and second-year NBA players from around the world. Booker scored 23 points behind five 3-pointers. Towns posted 18 points, seven rebounds and four assists, and Trey Lyles added two points and two rebounds. Nerlens Noel was chosen for the game but could not play due to injury.

No Surrender Here

Surrendering a 21-point lead at Tennessee wasn't just unusual for Kentucky in the John Calipari era, it was downright rare.

UK is 182-3 in the Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest. Two of those three losses (a 21-point lead at Tennessee and a 12-point lead at Auburn) have come during the 2015-16 campaign. The only other loss in the Cal era came during the 2012-13 season when UK gave up an 11-point first-half lead and lost 59-55 at Alabama. All three losses have come to Southeastern Conference foes on the road.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 72.8 percent of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 86.7 percent of Calipari's 210 career wins at Kentucky.

Foul Trouble

A common denominator in Kentucky's losses at Kansas and at Tennessee: foul trouble.

UK committed 33 fouls at Kansas, the most ever in the John Calipari era, and followed that with 26 fouls at Tennessee, which ties for eighth most in the Calipari era. In both games the two teams made 30 free throws apiece, the highest marks of the season. Furthermore, four players fouled out at Kansas, the first time that's happened since Dec. 4, 2010 at North Carolina, and another two were disqualified from the Tennessee game with five fouls apiece.

The glaring foul problems of late have shed light on a problem UK has had for much of the season of letting the other team be the aggressor. Kentucky (543) has committed more fouls than its opponents (524) and committed 45 more of them in Southeastern Conference play.

The result: UK's opponents have shot more free throws (623) than Kentucky (590) and 83 more free throws in conference play. The last time UK ended a season with fewer free-throw attempts than its opponents was 2007-08.

Kentucky is averaging 20.9 fouls per game, which is on pace for the highest average since the 1994-95 team committed 22.2 fouls per game.

Fab-Ulis

John Calipari has called sophomore point guard Tyler Ulis possibly the best floor general he's ever coached. Even amid lofty company (i.e. past Calipari point guards like Derrick Rose, Tyreke Evans, John Wall and Brandon Knight), the numbers back it up.

Ulis is averaging 16.4 points, a Southeastern Conference-best 6.8 assists per game and a league-best 3.6 assist-to-turnover ratio. He's scored 20 or more points in 10 of his last 15 games, averaging 19.4 points and 7.7 assists while shooting 48.2 percent over that stretch.

The Chicago native is the only player in the SEC averaging at least 16.4 points and 6.8 assists or better. He is one of just four players nationally to achieve that feat (Kahil Felder, Oakland; Juan'Ya Green, Hofstra; Denzel Valentine, Michigan State;) and the lone underclassman.

With 27 points and a career-high 12 assists at South Carolina, Ulis has posted 11 games this season with at least 20 points and at least five assists in the same game, the most by a Wildcat in any season since 1972-73.

Ulis' value is probably best represented by his performances in Kentucky's biggest games. He's averaging a team-best 23.0 points and a team-high 8.5 assists in UK's four games vs. ranked opponents in either the Associated Press Top 25 or the USA Today Coaches' Poll. He shot 53.4 percent with a 6.8 assist-to-turnover ratio in those games.

Some of his other notable milestones thus far:

• He needed just 17 games to top 100 assists in a season. That's the sixth-fastest pace in program history for 100 or more assists in a single year

• Ulis is the only player with 19 consecutive games with four or more assists since assist became a stat in 1972-73. Roger Harden (1985-86) held the record with 17 games

2015-16 SEASON NOTES

Statistically Speaking

In most all of sports it's easy to pinpoint areas of improvement in losses versus a team's wins. The 2015-16 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats is no different. Here's a look at some of the key stats in wins compared with those same stats in losses.

Result	FG%	Opp. FG%	3-Pt. FG%	Opp 3-Pt. FG%	FT%	RPG	APG	TOPG	BPG	SPG	Pts in Pt.	PPG
Wins	.493	.377	.358	.285	.675	39.7	14.3	11.9	6.1	6.4	36.1	80.4
Losses	.413	.446	.331	.457	.672	37.3	13.2	12.0	4.2	5.7	29.7	73.7

• He's the first player in school history to post at least 20 points, at least 10 assists and at least six steals in a single game (vs. Ole Miss). It was also the first 20-point, 10-assist game since John Wall did it vs. Rider on Nov. 21, 2009

• Ulis is the first UK player with 26 points and eight assists (at Kansas) in a game since Jack Givens against Auburn on Feb. 23, 1976

• His 11-assist game vs. Florida was the first since John Wall dished out 11 vs. East Tennessee State on March 18, 2010

• He's the only Wildcat since 1972-73 with consecutive games of at least 20 points and at least eight assists (vs. Louisville and Ole Miss)

• With a then career-high 23 points at LSU, he became the first UK guard to score at least 20 points in three consecutive games since Jodie Meeks on Feb. 10, 14 and 17, 2009

• He is the first UK player to have at least 20 points and at least six assists (vs. Ole Miss and at LSU) in consecutive SEC games since Ed Davender on Feb. 24 and March 2, 1988

• He was the first Wildcat with at least 15 points and at least five assists in three consecutive games (Duke, Wright State and Boston U.) since Wall in 2009-10

• His nine assists vs. UCLA was the most by a Wildcat in a nonconference road game since Saul Smith dished out 10 vs. Michigan State on Dec. 16, 2000

• He is currently averaging 6.8 assists. No player in school history has averaged that much in a single season with a minimum of 100 assists

• In only his second season at UK, Ulis has become the 16th player in school history with at least 300 assists. At 304 on the season, he needs just 60 more to tie Saul Smith for 10th all-time

Wall vs. Ulis

John Wall, the former No. 1 overall pick and first point guard during the John Calipari era, put up remarkable numbers in his one season at UK. Current UK floor general, Tyler Ulis, is keeping pace with Wall statistically through the first 26 games of the season.

Ulis has 22 games with five or more assists while Wall had 19 through the same point in the season. Ulis protects the ball better than Wall did with just 47 turnovers compared with 101 for Wall. Each player missed one game during the team's first 26 contests, although Ulis missed an additional half against South Florida. Also, they are the only two players in the Calipari era to both have a double-double by way of points and rebounds and points and assists in the same season.

Player	PPG (Total)	RPG (T)	APG (T)	TO (T)	A/TO	SPG(T)
Wall	17.0 (425)	4.1 (102)	6.5 (162)	4.0 (101)	1.6	1.9 (48)
Ulis	16.4 (411)	3.1 (78)	6.8 (169)	1.9 (47)	3.6	1.5 (37)

Workhorse(s)

Tyler Ulis' value can perhaps best be represented by the number of minutes he's playing this season. Simply put, the Wildcats need him on the floor as often as he can play.

The result is Ulis is averaging 36.4 minutes per game, most in the Southeastern Con-ference and 36th nationally. The 36.4 minutes per game are the most since Kenny Walker averaged 36.7 minutes during the 1984-85 season. Only Brandon Knight (35.9 mpg) has averaged more than 35 minutes in the John Calipari era.

Five times this season Ulis has played 40 or more minutes, including all 45 minutes in the overtime game at Kansas.

Freshman Jamal Murray also ranks fourth in the SEC at 34.4 minutes per game. Freshman Isaiah Briscoe is 10th at 31.8 minutes per contest.

Whatcha Talkin Bout, Willis?

Kentucky has received a spark from junior Derek Willis thanks in large part to a post-game speech at Auburn. That's when John Calipari asked the team, "Do we need to make some changes?" One of those changes was Willis, who had just posted a career outing during the loss to the Tigers. Willis registered his first career double-double with 12 points and a team-high 12 rebounds.

Following that game, Willis was inserted into the starting lineup. Over the last 10 games, which includes the Auburn performance, Willis is averaging 12.0 points and a team-high 7.2 rebounds per game, including a career-high 25-point outing with a career-high seven 3-pointers vs. Tennessee. He's led the Cats in rebounding in six of those 10 games.

Willis has helped stretch the floor for guards Tyler Ulis, Isaiah Briscoe and Jamal Murray to convernt drives off of pick-and-rolls. All the while, Willis has been reliable from the permiter with 27 made 3-pointers during the stretch.

Briscoe is Ulis' Bledsoe

In keeping with comparisons, through 26 games it has become statstically eerie at the similarities Isaiah Briscoe is for Tyler Ulis, as Eric Bledsoe was for John Wall in 2009-10.

Bledsoe was a heralded point guard, just as Briscoe entered the 2015-16 season as the No. 1 point guard in most recruiting services. Both players began their careers with a magnificant opening game. Bledsoe had 24 points, seven rebounds and four assists in his debut. Briscoe posted 11 points, 12 rebounds and a pair of assists.

Through 26 games in the season, both players notched double-figure scoring in 13 games. Bledsoe had garnered 16 games with three or more assists, while Briscoe has notched 15 such contests. Briscoe has been more aggressive on the boards, averaging 5.3 per game, while Bledsoe held the better shooting numbers at this point at 44.9 percent. It is important to also note that Briscoe has only played in 24 of UK's 26 games, while Bledsoe appeared in 25 of the 26.

Ulis Named Finalist for Bob Cousy Award

Sophomore point guard Tyler Ulis has been named one of 10 finalists for the 2016 Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year Award by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Named after Hall of Fame guard Bob Cousy, the annual honor recognizes the top point guard in Division I men's basketball.

A national committee comprised of top college basketball personnel determined the initial watch list of 20 candidates in October. The final five finalists will be presented to Cousy and the Hall of Fame's selection committee in March, and the winner will be presented at the ESPN College Basketball Awards Show in Los Angeles on April 8.

Ulis is looking to become the first Kentucky guard to win the award.

Calipari Reaches 200 UK Wins in Record Time

With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any other school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. The legendary Adolph Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Division I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau.

He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Bounce Back

The Wildcats don't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when they do, they almost always bounce back.

UK is 32-7 under Calipari following a loss. Kentucky's back-to-back losses at Kansas and at Tennessee were its first consecutive losses since since losing a pair to Arkansas and South Carolina on Feb. 27, 2014 and March 1, 2014, respectively.

The Wildcats have only lost back-to-back games seven times during the Calipari era and they've never lost three in a row with Calipari on the sidelines. The last time UK lost three games in a row was in February 2009 when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season.

Murray Can Score with the Best of Them

Through 26 games of the season, it's clear freshman guard Jamal Murray is one of the best pure scorers UK has had during the John Calipari era.

Murray currently leads the Wildcats in scoring at 19.2 points per game. If the season ended today, he would have the highest scoring average under Calipari. Brandon Knight, in 2010-11, finished at 17.3 points per game.

And that only tells just a small part of the story:

• His 35 points vs. Florida tied Terrence Jones (Jan. 11, 2011 vs. Auburn) for the school record single-game scoring mark by a freshman. It also tied Jones for the most points in a single game in the Calipari era

• With 35 points vs. Florida and 33 points vs. Ohio State, he is the only player under Calipari with two 30-point games in a season or in a career. He's also the only freshman to ever record two 30-point games in a single season

• After scoring 35 points vs. Florida, Murray followed with 24 points against Georgia, 26 points at South Carolina and 28 points vs. Tennessee. The 113 points over the four-game span are the most by a freshman in school history and the most in the Calipari era

• His 27 second-half points vs. Ohio State were the most of any Wildcat under Calipari

• His 20 first-half points vs. Florida were the most of any Wildcat under Calipari

• He has made a 3-pointer in all 26 games this season, the only player in program history to hit at least one trey in his first 25 collegiate games

• He is the first player in the Calipari era to make a 3-point field goal in 26 consecutive games in a single season. The UK record is 32, set by Tony Delk during the 1993-94 season

• His eight 3-pointers vs. Florida tied Eric Bledsoe (March 18, 2010 vs. East Tennessee State) for the most in the Calipari era

• He's one of only two players (Kyle Wiltjer) with two games of seven or more 3-point field goals in a game under Cal

• He has scored in double figures in all but one game this season and 15 or more in 21 of the 26 contests

• He is the first Wildcat to reach double figures in 24 straight games since Knight did it 28 times in 2010-11

• He is just the second freshman in program history to tally 11 or more 20 point-game efforts. Knight in 2010-11 owns the record with 14 20-point outputs

• His .800 percentage from behind the arc vs. Florida is the best 3-point percentage in a single game in school history with a minimum of 10 attempts

• He was the first UK player to score at least 18 points in each of the first seven SEC games of a season since Jodie Meeks in 2008-09. He is the first freshman in school history to achieve the feat

• He and Terrence Jones are the only two players in the Calipari era to score 400 points in their first 23 games

• He was the third player in school history to score at least 12 points in at least 18 of his first 19 games played at UK. Cotton Nash (1961-62) scored at least 12 points in 35 of his first 36 games played at UK and Bill Spivey (1949-50) scored at least 12 points in 24 of his first 25 games played at UK

• Murray is the first freshman in school history to make at least five 3-point field goals in consecutive games

• He is the third player in UK history to make at least 70 3-point field goals in their freshman season (Knight, James Young)

• His 79 made 3-pointers through 26 games in the season is the most in the Calipari era, bettering Knight's 64 through the same number of games. Knight owns the single-season record of made 3-pointers for a freshman at 87 and Murray is only eight made 3-pointers away from matching that mark

• Murray is the fifth player in UK history -- and first since Jodie Meeks in 2008-09 -- with six or more made 3-point field goals in consecutive games

Kentucky opened Southeastern Conference play vs. Ole Miss with the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 953-266 mark (.782) in confernce play. Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee) and no other team has a better winning percentage.

• UK has averaged 11.5 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 82 seasons in the SEC
• Kentucky has won 46 SEC titles and 28 SEC Tournament championships
• The Wildcats have won 13 of the last 23 SEC Tournament titles

Kentucky Elite under Cal

Since John Calipari took over the program in 2009-10, no one in the country has had more wins than Kentucky, and only Duke and Kansas have a better winning percentage. UK is 210-44 (.827) during that time span.

1. Duke: 205-42 (.8300)
   Kansas: 205-42 (.8300)
3. Kentucky: 210-44 (.8268)
4. Gonzaga: 195-43 (.8193)
5. Wichita State: 195-46 (.8091)

numbers through Feb. 18

Home-Court Advantage

Kentucky is currently on a 35-game win streak when playing in the friendly confines of Rupp Arena, the second-longest winning streak in the venue's history.

UK's last home loss came on Feb. 27, 2014 in an overtime loss to Arkansas. With an all-time record of 543-64 (.895) in Rupp Arena, Kentucky's current run includes the following streaks:

• Under John Calipari, UK is 117-4 (.967) in Rupp Arena, including 62-1 (.984) against nonconference opponents
• Calipari is just two wins shy of tying Tubby Smith for the second most for any UK head coach in the arena
• Prior to the close victory over Louisville, UK had won 13 straight home games by at least 11 points, the longest such streak since a 27-game stretch from 1995-97
• Mississippi State shot 52.9 percent from the field. Prior to that, UK had held the last 54 home opponents and the last 81 nonconference home opponents to less than 50 percent from the field
• Kentucky has won its last 75 games in Rupp Arena when ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25, dating back to the 2003-04 season

Next Man Up

When starting freshman guard Isaiah Briscoe turned his ankle in warmups prior to the Louisville game, all it meant was an opportunity for another player. That man vs. the Cardinals was junior guard Dominique Hawkins.

The Kentucky native cemented his legacy in the rivalry's storied history with the best game of his career. Hawkins posted career highs in points (13), 3-pointers made (three) and minutes (26) to lead the Wildcats over the Cardinals.

But Hawkins is far from the only Wildcat who has embraced the "next man up" mentality and stepped up for the Wildcats this season. Isaac Humphries filled in admirably with four points and a career-high six rebounds in the win over Florida when Alex Poythress was ruled out of the game with a right knee injury just minutes before tip.

In 18 of UK's 26 games, a scholarship player has either not played or left the game with an injury or illness. It hasn't slowed the Wildcats down too much -- as evidenced by Kentucky's 20-6 record -- but it also speaks to UK's depth and, perhaps, strengthens the notion that we are yet to see the best from this team.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 43-16 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under John Calipari, UK is 167-28 vs. unranked competition, a .856 winning percentage.

The Wildcats' loss to UCLA was its first loss to an unranked opponent since March 1, 2014.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Poythress Named Candidate for Senior CLASS Award

Senior Alex Poythress was named one of 30 candidates for the prestigious Senior CLASS Award. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Poythress was the first Wildcat to earn recognition for the award since Darius Miller in 2012. He was also the only player from the Southeastern Conference among the 30 candidates.

Since his arrival on campus, Poythress has been a steady presence within the community. He's contributed to various activities such as the God's Pantry Food Drive and Samaritan's Feet. He is often a volunteer for stops at local children's hospitals as well as appearances at local elementary schools. Poythress has played kickball with elementary students, read to them at various times and has even made guest appearances at camps in his hometown.

Along with his teammates, he has been involved in a Hurricane Sandy telethon, a clothing drive for the needy, various meet-and-greets during the holidays, as well as a presence at the annual pizza delivery during Big Blue Madness campouts. Furthermore, Poythress is a mainstay within the UK Basketball camps throughout the summer serving as a camp counselor for kids of all ages as well as for the John Calipari Fantasy Camp.

Poythress graduated in just three years with a degree in business marketing. He earned a 3.517 undergraduate grade point average and is now pursuing a master's of science in kinesiology and health promotion with an emphasis on sport leadership. He finished his first semester of grad school with a 4.0 GPA.

Poythress Tabbed Academic All-District

Alex Poythress has been tabbed to the College Sports Information Directors of America Academic All-District Team and is eligible to earn Academic All-America honors.

The CoSIDA Academic All-District teams recognize the nation's top student-athletes for their combined performances athletically and in the classroom. First Team Academic All-District honorees advance to the CoSIDA Academic All-America ballot where First, Second, and Third-team All-America honorees will be selected later this month.

Poythress has appeared on the SEC Academic Honor Roll during every year of college. He is also a two-time Arthur Ashe, Jr., Sports Scholar and has been named to the Athletic Director's honor roll three times, which honors the student-athlete with the highest GPA of his team.

Consistently Good

When you're everyone's Super Bowl, it's hard to stay at the top, but the Wildcats are doing exaclty that under John Calipari.

Before falling out of the top five on Dec. 21, UK had been ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25 for 24 consecutive weeks, the longest such streak since going 30 straight weeks in the top five from 1953-55.

Lee Tabbed Good Works Nominee, Set to Represent SEC at National Forum

Junior Marcus Lee was tabbed to the Allstate Good Works Team by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. The five-member Division I team will be announced Feb. 6.
- Lee has contributed more than 100 hours of community service while at UK
- He is a 2015 SEC Community Service Team member
- UK's SAAC treasurer
- Worked with various organizations such as God's Pantry, Salvation Army and Samaritan's Feet
- Lee was recently chosen as the male student-athlete to represent the Southeastern Conference at the 2016 NCAA Leadership Forum April 7-10 in Phoenix. Only two athletes from one of the 14 schools comprising the league can be selected. Lee will be joined by women's soccer player Michele Christy from Tennessee

Poythress Returning to Form

Senior Alex Poythress quickly returned to form to the elite athlete that John Calipari expects him to be, after returning from a torn ACL in December of 2014.

Poythress posted double-doubles in back-to-back games vs. Wright State and Boston University (the third and fourth of his career), the first Kentucky senior to post consecutive double-doubles since Josh Harrellson in 2010-11.

He then broke out for a 21-point, 13-rebound effort in leading UK past Eastern Kentucky. The 21 points were the most since his career-high of 22 set during his freshman season, and the 13 rebounds marked a new career-best mark. It was the first 20-point, 10-rebound game of his career, and the 21 points were the most for a UK senior since his former teammate Julius Mays scored 24 points against Missouri in the 2012-13 season.

The senior forward just became the 52nd player in program history with 500 career boards after the vicory over Ole Miss. He's the third player in the Calipari era (Terrence Jones and Willie Cauley-Stein) to achieve the feat.

He enjoyed the best offensive performance of his career with a 25-point outing in a bounce-back win for the Wildcats at Alabama on Jan. 9. Poythress was 8 of 10 (.800) from the field and 9 of 11 (.818) from the charity stripe.

With 25 points against the Tide, Poythress has 800 career points. He is just the 15th player in school history with 800 points, 500 rebounds and 70 blocks in a career.

Three is Better Than Two

UK has the nation's second-longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer, knocking down at least one from long range in 965 consecutive games. The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout.

Through games on Feb. 18, UNLV holds the nation's longest streak with 968 consecutive games with a made 3-pointer.

Wynyard Joins Wildcats

With the 2015 fall semester now complete, 2016 fall signee Tai Wynyard has enrolled at the University of Kentucky a semester early and joined the Wildcats. He was eligible for UK's game against Ohio State.

Wynard, a 6-foot-10, 255-pound forward, graduated from his hometown school in Auckland, New Zealand. He was the youngest player to make the New Zealand National Team when he made the club at 16 years old.

The burly forward was named the most valuable player of the FIBA 3-on-3 World Championships after leading New Zealand to the gold medal. He was also a part of the World Select Team that edged the USA Junior National Select Team at the 2015 Nike Hoop Summit.

It has not been decided if Wynard will redshirt for th spring semester or if he will suit up for the Wildcats this season.

numbers on TV for college basketball games. Of course, this season is no different.

UK's game against Duke in the Champions Classic was WatchESPN's most-watched college basketball game ever. Additionally, the game averaged 3,120,000 viewers, the second-most watched Champions Classic game during the event's history.

The Wildcats' game vs. Kansas on Jan. 30 was the largest in the history of the Big/SEC 12 Challenge. The game drew 2,984,000 total viewers.

Five Double-Doubles

Five different Wildcats have tallied a double-double this season. It's the first time five different players have logged a double-double in the same season since since 2000-01, when Keith Bogans, Marquis Estill, Gerald Fitch, Jason Parker and Tayshaun Prince turned the trick.

Guards Isaiah Briscoe and Tyler Ulis have both earned double-doubles via points and rebounds. Ulis has also notched a double-double with points and assists. He's the first player since John Wall to have two variations of a double-double in the same season.

Marcus Lee and Derek Willis have both logged their first career double-doubles this season, while Alex Poythress has notched three during his senior season after entering the year with two career double-doubles.

From the Hunted to the Hunter

As the winningest program in Division I college basketball and eight-time national champions, Kentucky is used to having a target on its back. However, the Wildcats are pretty good at playing the role of the hunted as well.

UK's victory over Duke marked the 11th NCAA defending national champion the Wildcats have defeated in school history.

Forever Young

Kentucky began the 2015-16 season with two veterans in the starting lineup in junior Marcus Lee and sophomore Tyler Ulis. However, Kentucky once again checks in as one of the youngest teams in terms of experience, according to kenpom.com. UK ranks No. 341 out of 351 in terms of experience per minute and the third youngest among Power Five schools.

Still Big, Still Dominant on the Glass

Though Kentucky isn't quite as big and as long as it was last season, the Wildcats are still one of the tallest teams in the country and one of the best on the boards. The Wildcats rank first in the Southeastern Conference in rebounds allowed per game (33.2) and second in rebound margin (plus-5.9) and offensive rebound percentage (.384).

Against NJIT, Kentucky grabbed 31 more rebounds than the Highlanders, the best mark of the John Calipari era. The 54 total rebounds ranked as the fourth most of the Coach Cal era, and the 22 offensive rebounds tied for the fourth most in Calipari's seven seasons.

The battle of the boards has proven to be an important factor for the Wildcats, as they are 14-2 when they outrebound their opponent.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky has been dominant against teams in the state under John Calipari. UK is 14-1 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm, including 8-1 vs. Louisville.

Two of the victories over the Cardinals came in postseason play. UK has won four straight in the series and all four meetings in Rupp Arena.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Coach Cal took over at Kentucky:
• Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
• Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at KFC YUM! Center
• Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
• March 31, 2012 - UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
• Dec. 29, 2012 - Louisville won 80-77 at KFC YUM! Center
• Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
• March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
• Dec. 27, 2014 - UK won 58-50 at KFC YUM! Center
• Dec. 26, 2015 - UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena

Time to Start Some New Streaks

The Wildcats' loss at UCLA halted several impressive streaks Kentucky had going:
• Kentucky had won 38 consecutive regular-season games before the loss. UK had not lost since dropping a road contest at Florida on March 8, 2014
• It was the first loss to an unranked opponent since March 1, 2014, halting that streak at 41 straight wins
• UCLA's 52.8-percent shooting was the first time the Wildcats had allowed an opponent to shoot better than 50 percent since Wichita State did it on March 23, 2014, a 50-game streak

2015-16 SEASON NOTES

Wildcats Faced Tough Nonconference Slate

Conference play, of course, signals the end of nonconfernece play. UK's 14-game nonconference schedule featured 10 games against teams who advanced to the postseason in 2014-15. That list included national champion Duke in the third game of the season at the Champions Classic in the United Center in Chicago, which UK won.

In addition to Duke and Kansas, the Wildcats took on powerhouses such as UCLA, Ohio State and the annual rivalry game with Louisville. Following UK's game with Kansas, at which point most teams have completed their nonconference schedule, the Wildcats' nonconfernece schedule ranked 25th in the country.

Kentucky Picked to Win SEC

A select panel of both SEC and national media members picked Kentucky to win its 47th SEC regular-season championship in 2015-16. It's the 11th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite.

UK has won the regular-season league title three times in John Calipari's six seasons and twice navigated through the regular-season conference schedule with a perfect record. Last season's 18-0 mark tied the most wins in SEC history.

Wildcat Trio Tabbed Preseason All-SEC by Media

UK sophomore guard Tyler Ulis and freshman forward Skal Labissiere were tabbed to the six-man All-SEC First Team alongside Danuel House (Texas A&M), Damian Jones (Vanderbilt), Stefan Moody (Ole Miss) and Ben Simmons (LSU).

Senior forward Alex Poythress was named to the All-SEC Second Team with Dorian Finney-Smith (Florida), Malik Newman (Mississippi State), Charles Mann (Georgia), Tim Quarterman (LSU) and Alex Caruso (Texas A&M).

Another Four Named Preseason All-SEC by SEC Coaches

Kentucky led the Southeastern Conference with four players on the coaches' preseason All-SEC teams, two more than any other school. Sophomore Tyler Ulis and freshman Skal Labissere were named to the All-SEC First Team while senior Alex Poythress and freshman Jamal Murray made the All-SEC Second Team.

Four Wildcats on National Preseason Watch Lists; Two Make Midseason Lists

Yet again blessed with elite talent and tremendous depth, four Wildcats are on preseason watch lists for major national awards.

Skal Labissiere, Jamal Murray and Tyler Ulis were all tabbed to both the Naismith and the USBWA Oscar Robertson watch lists for national players of the year, while Isaiah Briscoe, Labissiere and Murray were placed on the USBWA's Wayman Tisdale Award watch list for the nation's top-performing freshman.

Both Ulis and Murray also made the John R. Wooden Award Midseason Watch List and the Naismith Trophy Midseason List. The duo also made the midseason list for the Oscar Robertson and Wayman Tisdale awards, respectivley. Ulis is on the Wooden Award Late Season 20 List.

Kentucky Signs Super Six in 2016 Class

The Kentucky men's basketball program has put together one of the strongest recruiting classes of all time, signing six of the nation's top players during the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Edrice "Bam" Adebayo, De'Aaron Fox, Wenyen Gabriel, Sacha Killeya-Jones, Malik Monk and Tai Wynyard have all signed with UK.

All six players are consensus four- or five-star prospects, and four are ranked in the top 10 by the major national recruiting services. In a class stocked full of highly regarded players, national analysts are already calling this the nation's top signing haul for 2016.

In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed either the nation's No. 1 or No. 2 recruiting class. UK looks to continue that streak with the latest additions of Adebayo, Fox, Gabriel, Killeya-Jones, Monk and Wynyard.

Adebayo, Fox and Monk have all been selected to the McDonald's All-America and Jordan Brand Classic Games. Killeya-Jones will join the trio at the McDonald's All-America game.

• Edrice "Bam" Adebayo, F, 6-9, 230 - ranked as high as No. 6 overall by Rivals and ESPN
• De'Aaron Fox, G, 6-3, 170 - ranked as high as No. 2 overall by 247Sports
• Wenyen Gabriel, F, 6-9, 200 - ranked as high as No. 10 overall by Scout
• Sacha Killeya-Jones, F, 6-10, 207 - ranked as high as No. 16 by 247Sports
• Malik Monk, G, 6-3, 185 - ranked as high as No. 5 overall by 247Sports and ESPN
• Tai Wynyard, F, 6-9, 230

Future Wildcats Selected for McDonald's All-American Game, Jordan Classic

Kentucky's top-ranked recruiting class will be well represented during the 2016 McDonald's All-American Game in March with the selections of Edrice "Bam" Adebayo, De'Aaron Fox, Sacha Killeya-Jones and Malik Monk.

Adebayo, Fox and Killeya-Jones will suit up for the East team while Fox will play for the West. Kentucky's two other signees in the 2016 class, Wenyen Gabriel (fifth-year senior) and Tai Wynard (already enrolled at Kentucky), were not eligible for the game, which will take place March 30 at 9 p.m. ET at the United Center in Chicago. It will be televised on ESPN.

With the selections of Adebayo, Fox, Killeya-Jones and Monk, UK has signed 25 players during the John Calipari era who have been named to the prestigious high school event, more than any other school in the country during that time period. Four players or more from each signing class have been tabbed McDonald's All-Americans during the Calipari era, including five in the 2013 class.

Kentucky has signed 57 McDonald's All-Americans since the team began in 1977, including current Wildcats Isaiah Briscoe (2015), Marcus Lee (2013), Alex Poythress (2012) and Tyler Ulis (2014).

Also, Adebayo, Fox and Monk were selected for the Jordan Brand Classic, which will be held April 15 at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. A total of 29 UK signees have been chosen for the Jordan Brand Classic during the Calipari era.

2015-16 SEASON NOTES

Another Historic NBA Draft for UK

A record six Wildcats were selected in the 2015 NBA Draft in June, tying Kentucky's NBA record set in 2012. Also tying an NBA record, four Wildcats were selected in the NBA lottery (the opening 14 picks). Karl-Anthony Towns was selected No. 1 overall, the program's third No. 1 overall selection since 2010.

John Calipari has had 25 players selected in the NBA Draft since becoming UK's head coach. Nineteen players have gone in the first round, and he's had three players taken No. 1 overall.

Calipari has had two or more players selected in the NBA Draft in eight consecutive seasons dating back to his time as the head coach at Memphis. He has had at least one player selected in the top 10 of the draft in each of the last eight seasons. No other school has even a first rounder in eight straight seasons.

Though Aaron Harrison went undrafted, he was signed by the Charlotte Hornets in the summer and made the Hornets' opening-day roster.

- 1st - Karl-Anthony Towns (Minnesota Timberwolves)
- 6th - Willie Cauley-Stein (Sacramento Kings)
- 12th - Trey Lyles (Utah Jazz)
- 13th - Devin Booker (Phoenix Suns)
- 44th - Andrew Harrison (Memphis Grizzlies)
- 48th - Dakari Johnson (Oklahoma City Thunder)

Three Former Wildcats Among Finalists for 2016 U.S. Olympic Team

Former Kentucky men's basketball stars DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis and John Wall have been named finalists for the 2016 U.S. Olympic Men's Basketball Team by USA Basketball. The trio, all of whom played under current UK head coach John Calipari, are among 30 players vying for a spot on the final 12-man roster that will compete in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil in August.

The official 12-member team will be announced later this year. Also, the USA National Team's complete training schedule will be announced at a later date as well.

All three former Wildcats have prior USA Basketball experience.

Kentucky's NBA Footprint Continues to Grow

The nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program once again leads the country with 21 players on an opening-day NBA roster. Of the 446 players in the NBA to start the 2015-16 season, approximately 4.7 percent played college basketball at Kentucky. The Wildcats bettered any other college program by two players as the NBA season opened.

Kentucky's NBA dominance was best represented in Phoenix and Sacramento, where a combined seven Wildcats started the 2015-16 season on the respective rosters. Eric Bledsoe, Devin Booker, Archie Goodwin and Brandon Knight were all part of the Phoenix Suns' opening-day roster, while former UK stars Willie Cauley-Stein, DeMarcus Cousins and Rajon Rondo started the year in Sacramento.

Two other franchises – the Charlotte Hornets (Aaron Harrison, Michael Kidd-Gilchrist) and the Minnesota Timberwolves (Tayshaun Prince, Karl-Anthony Towns) – opened the season with two Wildcats apiece.

Success Rate Continues at 2015 Graduation

Four Wildcats -- Alex Poythress, Tod Lanter, Brian Long and Sam Malone -- all received their undergraduate degrees during the university's May 2015 commencement ceremonies, continuing the remarkable Success Rate under Calipari.

All 14 players who have been eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years in the Calipari era have received their degrees, including three players (Poythress, Patrick Patterson and Jarrod Polson) who completed their undergraduate degrees in three years.

Additionally, the team received an academic award in May for its Academic Progress Rate score. The Wildcats placed in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball schools. The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship.

Conley Named 2016 SEC Legend

Larry Conley will be honored at the SEC Tournament in Nashville as a member of the 2016 Legends. He was a key member of the 1965-66 "Rupp's Runts," one of the most beloved teams in Kentucky basketball history, Larry Conley helped lead the Wildcats to a 1966 national runner-up finish, a 27-2 record and a Southeastern Conference championship. On a starting five that featured no player taller than 6-foot-5, Conley dished out a team-best 100 assists while averaging 11.5 points per game. Conley was named to the All-SEC First Team by the league's coaches in 1966 for his efforts and the All-SEC Third Team by the Associated Press. Conley was also an All-SEC Third Team selection in 1964 and 1965, a two-time Academic All-SEC selection, and an Academic All-American during the 1963-64 season. A member of the University of Kentucky Athletics Hall of Fame, Conley went on to play a season in the American Basketball Association for the Kentucky Colonels before diving into a longtime and ongoing broadcasting career. He's called games for ESPN, NBC, CBS, ABC, Fox Sports and Raycom Sports.

Calipari, Dampier Enshrined in Naismith HOF

Kentucky Wildcats John Calipari and Louie Dampier were enshrined in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in September. The fraternity of basketball legends is considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

Calipari and Dampier were two of 11 basketball legends in the Class of 2015 and the ninth and 10th UK representatives, respectively, to join basketball's fraternity of legends.

A Winning Institution

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams posted a sixth straight 20-win season in 2014-15. Kentucky is currently one of just four institutions (UK, BYU, Duke and Gonzaga) in the NCAA that has seen both its men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in six consecutive seasons. UK's men's team has 20 total wins, while the women have won 17 (through Feb. 18) as both teams look for a seventh straight 20-win season.

Cats Rock at Rupp

UK has won 200 of its last 227 home games, including a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era. All-time, the Wildcats are 544-64 (.895) in Rupp Arena.

Among the most notable marks of dominance in the nation's toughest venue to play include:
- The Wildcats are 291-40 (.879) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK is currently on a 35-game winning streak at Rupp Arena, dating back to 2013-14
- The Wildcats have gone undefeated at home in four of John Calipari's six seasons
- Overall, UK has posted a perfect mark in 12 of Rupp Arena's 39 seasons

Calipari Owns Record in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He currently also owns the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats have won 35 straight dating back to the 2013-14 season.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 17 of the last 20 seasons, including a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.
- Kentucky averaged 23,572 fans during the 2015-16 season, the most since 2011-12
- UK has averaged 23,000 or more fans in five of Calipari's six seasons

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just twice at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just once in Rupp Arena. Both losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 51-1 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The lone loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat the Wildcats at Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 117-4 (.967) at Rupp Arena under Calipari.
- UK is 16-1 vs. ranked opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- The Wildcats are 101-3 vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- UK is 62-1 at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari. The only loss was against Baylor on Dec. 1, 2012
- Calipari notched his 100th career win at Rupp Arena as UK's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari just 104 games to reach the century mark at home, the fastest of any UK coach

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

Calipari and the Class of 2015, which included Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White, were enshrined during Hall of Fame festivities in Springfield, Mass., Sept. 10-11.

Calipari Wins 200th Career Game at UK in Record Time

With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any other school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. The legendary Adolph Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Dvision I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau.

He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Here's a look at some of the more impressive numbers in Calipari's journey to 200 wins:
• UK beat Florida more than anyone else during the first 200 wins, defeating the Gators 11 times
• Likewise, Kentucky beat Louisville (eight times) more than any other nonconference opponent
• Calipari defeated 89 different Division I schools (25.4 percent) of current Division I schools) during the run
• A total of 176 wins came with UK ranked in the AP Top 25, and 66 of them were while UK was No. 1

UMass Raises Banner in Calipari's Honor

As part of a 20th anniversary celebration of the UMass men's basketball 1995-96 Final Four team, the UMass Department of Athletics honored John Calipari on Dec. 16 prior to its game against New Orleans by raising a banner into the rafters at the Mullins Center.

Calipari's banner joined the retired jerseys of five all-time Minutemen: George "Trigger" Burkey, Marcus Camby, Julius "Dr. J" Erving, Lou Roe and Al Skinner.
• Calipari began his head coaching career at UMass where he turned the Minutemen into a national powerhouse from 1988-96
• In addition to the 1995-96's team's 35-2 record and the Final Four appearance, Calipari led the Minutemen to the 1991-92 NCAA Sweet 16, the 1992-93 and 1993-94 NCAA second round, and the 1994-95 NCAA Elite Eight. UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 titles during that span as well

Nearly Unanimous

John Calipari collected nearly every major national coach of the year award after guiding the historic 2014-15 Wildcats to a perfect regular season and eventually a fourth Final Four appearance in five seasons. Among the awards Calipari won in 2014-15:
• Associated Press National Coach of the Year
• Naismith National Coach of the Year
• NABC National Coach of the Year
• The Sporting News National Coach of the Year
• Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year
• SEC Coach of the Year
• 2015 USBWA District IV Coach of the Year

600 On-Court Victories

With a win over No. 5 Kansas on Nov. 18, 2014, John Calipari claimed his 600th on-court victory as a Division I head coach. He became the 13th active Division I coach to achieve the feat.

AHEAD OF THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

• Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to five NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.
• John Calipari is ahead of the pace with the legend as far as victories to begin his career at UK. Also, Calipari (.827) is ahead of Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. With UK's No. 1 ranking this season, Calipari has guided five of his last seven and six of his last nine teams to the No. 1 ranking (and the eighth time he's done it overall).

When Coach Cal's teams have been at the top, they're been difficult to knock off:
- Calipari is 107-11 (.907) as the top-ranked Associated Press coach in the country
- He's 66-6 (.917) when his team is at the top of the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the pinnacle of the rankings
- Calipari (107) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (189) in active coaches with victories as the No. 1 head coach

Big-Game Cal

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky have a 43-16 record vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams, UK is 5-2 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five under Calipari.

All-time, Calipari is 11-6 in AP top-five matchups. According to the SEC Network, only four coaches have won more such games.

When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 66-41, including a 36-13 mark at Kentucky. In AP top-10 matchups he's got a 22-11 mark, including 11-4 at UK.

There's No Place Like Home

Since the 2000 season, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 270-22 (.925) record at home through Feb. 18. At UK, Coach Cal is 117-4 (.967) in Rupp Arena.

In four of Calipari's six full seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opening in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games.

Life on the Road Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're nearly as good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 79-32 (.712) record on the road.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 13 league championships (including the 2010, 2012 and 2015 SEC championships) six more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). Calipari also has 12 conference tournament titles, seven more than his closest competitor (Howland).

He's tallied a 300-89 (.771) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 93-22 (.809) record since joining the SEC.

Calipari's Undefeated Conference Teams

John Calipari is believed to be one of three coaches, along with Frank McGuire and Jerry Tarkanian, to lead multiple teams to an unblemished mark in multiple Division I conferences. Calipari did so at Memphis in Conference USA and Kentucky in the SEC.
- McGuire led St. John's in the Metro New York ('51, '52), North Carolina in the ACC ('57) and South Carolina in the ACC ('70) to undefeated marks
- Jerry Tarkanian guided Long Beach State in the Pacific Coast Athletics Association ('70, '71) and UNLV in the Big West ('87, '91, '92) to perfect conference seasons

30 is the new 20

With Thursday's win vs. Tennessee John Calipari now has 22 consecutive seasons of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (20), Bill Self (18) Jim Boeheim (17).

More impressive, Calipari has nine seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Mike Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (10) have more.

Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 straight in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (14 of 14) who have been eligbilie to receive their diopma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's APR, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 979 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last two reports.

Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May, was a 995, earning the team an NCAA academic award for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the team has also posted a 3.0 grade-point average or better in seven of the last 10 semesters.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

Kentucky's 38-game winning streak in 2014-15 was historic, but it wasn't completely out of the norm for John Calipari. It was the 17th streak of Calipari's career where his teams have won 10 or more consecutive games during the season, the sixth where they have won 20 or more, the fifth where they have won 25 or more, the first where they have won 30 or more, and the first with 35 or more. Here's a list of all of them:

1. 38 Kentucky, 2014-15
2. 27 Memphis, 2008-09
3. 26 Memphis, 2007-08

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 23 top-25 players Kentucky has signed prior to this season (according to Rivals), 19 were drafted and 16 were selected in the first round. Those draft numbers don't include Marcus Lee, Alex Poythress and Kyle Wiltjer, who are currently in college.

But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's nearly 40 NBA pros have made approximately $1.25 billion in NBA contracts alone, which doesn't include endoresement deals and overseas contracts.

CALIPARI KNOWS DEFENSE

John Calipari's 2014-15 Kentucky Wildcat team was heralded as one of the best defensive teams ever. However, defense has always been a staple of Calipari-coached teams. Dating back to complete NCAA records beginning in 2001-02, Calipari's teams have been among national leaders in several critical defensive categories (rankings through Feb. 18).

RECRUITING TRAIL

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players over the past seven seasons than any other school under John Calipari's leadership. A quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past eight classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats.

Calipari's Draft Picks

In 23 seasons as a head coach, John Calipari has coached 36 NBA Draft picks, including 25 first-round selections, with 14 of those going in the top 10. He's had four players draft No. 1 overall, twice as many as any other coach, and two or more players selected in eight consecutive NBA drafts, dating back to 2008 with Memphis.

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 38 players make it to the NBA during his 23-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up over 600 victories, 16 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball's first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport's greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari's on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 38 players realize their dreams and guide them to the NBA, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari's help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he's had 25 players drafted during his six years at Kentucky, including 19 first-round picks.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 14 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. The Wildcats posted a 3.11 grade-point average for the 2014 fall semester, the seventh time in the last eight semesters they earned a 3.0 GPA or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, and he organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy. A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend, and then $1.5 million in 2015.

Author of the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out" and "Bounce Back: Overcoming Setbacks to Succeed in Business and in Life," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

Notes

• Left the Ole Miss game in the second half -- the game following his career-best performance, against Louisville -- with a sprained left ankle and missed seven straight games before playing 15 minutes at Kansas

• Had a career game against Louisville with 13 points, adding three 3-pointers. Prior to that game he'd never made more than one 3 in a game

• Became the first Kentucky native to score in double figures for the Wildcats against Louisville since Darius Miller did so in the 2012 Final Four

• Calipari on Hawkins' performance vs. Louisville: "He'll fight like crazy, he's got a great temperament, a great demeanor. One of the great kids of all time. I mean, literally one of the great kids."

• Scored nine points against Georgia, his most since the Louisville game and second most in a game this year

• Broke his hand during preseason practices and did not compete in the exhibition games but has played in 11 regular-season games

• Appeared in 73 career games and has made nine starts

Did You Know ...

Dominique is the self-proclaimed best video game player on the team. He lists his mom, Denise, as the greatest influence in his life.
