KENTUCKY HITS ROAD TO ROCK HILL

The No. 17/16 Kentucky softball team will close out its 21-game road trip to begin the season this weekend in Rock Hill, S.C., to compete in the 2016 Winthrop Invitational hosted by Winthrop University. Kentucky is off to its best start through 16 games in program history, sporting a 14-2 overall record and four wins over ranked opponents through the opening three weekends of the season.

This weekend in the Palmeto State, Kentucky will play five games over three days with Friday's games against Albany and Lehigh, Saturday competition against UNC Charlotte and host Winthrop before the tournament finale against Winthrop again at 10 a.m. ET.

All four UK pitchers pitched a complete game over the weekend as Kentucky went 5-0 to claim the Chattanooga Frost Classic title a week ago in the Volunteer State. Erin Rethlake had a no-hitter and recorded a career-high 14 strikeouts - joining Shannon Smith (11), Kelsey Nunley (12) and Meagan Prince (12) who all recorded career-high's in their tournament performances. The staff ERA over the tournament was 0.88, recorded 49 strikeouts and allowed a total of seven hits in five games.

Freshman Katie Reed continued her hot hitting start to the season, as the St. Louis, Mo., native broke the school record - and has now registered a 16-game hitting streak to start the season - the longest hitting streak in Kentucky softball history. The previous high was 15 games set by Kara Dill in 2013. Reed is batting .520 on the season with 26 hits, 18 runs scored, 12 RBI and today went 2-for-4 with an RBI-single, and an RBI-triple - the first of her young career.

UK has its most runs scored through 16 games of a season (104) since 2007 (131). This season also marks the largest run differential through 16 games of a season (+63) since 2011 (+65).

Rethlake's Lucky #14

Sophomore pitcher Erin Rethlake threw the second no-hitter by UK pitching this season against Lipscomb in a 4-0 win over the Bison on Feb. 26 in the Chattanooga Classic. Rethlake had 14 strikeouts in the game - the 14th no-hitter in UK history, which more than tripled her previous career high of four set against South Carolina a season ago. The Huntington, Ind., native only walked one in the game, while facing 23 Lipscomb batters and throwing 104 pitches, with 66 of them recorded as strikes.

Rethlake had the most strikeouts by a UK softball player in a single game, that didn't go into extra innings (14), since Apr. 6, 2011 (Chanda Bell had 15 strikeouts vs. Austin Peay).

Katie Reed Breaks School Hit Streak Record

The previous high was 15 games set by Kara Dill in 2013. Reed is batting .520 on the season with 26 hits, 18 runs scored, 12 RBI and today went 2-for-4 with an RBI-single, and an RBI-triple – the first of her young career.

Erin Rethlake had a no-hitter and recorded a career-high 14 strikeouts - joining Shannon Smith (11), Kelsey Nunley (12) and Meagan Prince (12) who all recorded strikeout career-high's in their tournament performances. The staff ERA over the tournament was 0.88, recorded 49 strikeouts and allowed a total of seven hits in five games.

W, 10-7 vs. No. 25 Notre Dame*

W, 8-6 vs. No. 4 Oregon*

W, 1-0 vs. No. 24 Utah*

W, 5-3 at No. 22 Arizona State*

Katie Reed was named the SEC Freshman of the Week on Monday, Feb. 22, as she hit .524 with 11 hits in 21 at bats, six runs scored, a team-leading six RBI and also hit her first three career home runs. The first long ball came off her bat against San Diego State in the top of the first inning to give Kentucky a 2-0 lead – a lead the Wildcats would not relinquish. Later in the game, she gave UK an insurance run with a solo shot to left before belting a homer to left again against South Dakota to close out the weekend.

Prince Throws No-Hitter

Junior starting pitcher Meagan Prince threw just the 13th no hitter in Kentucky softball history and the first of her career in a 10-0 win on Saturday to complete the Campbell/Cartier Classic in San Diego. She went 4.1 innings, earning the start and pitching brilliantly in UK's road win against No. 22 Arizona State to cap off the Kajikawa Classic on Monday afternoon in Tempe. Prince pitched a five-hit, one-run game to earn the road win at San Diego State in Thursday night's opening day of the Campbell/Cartier Classic. Nunley has racked up pre, post, and mid-season accolades during her tenure under head coach Rachel Lawson, including three SEC Player of the Week awards, 2014 Women's College World Series All-Tournament Team, All-SEC Freshman Team in 2013, as well as preseason All-America in 2015.

Lawson at Media Day

Quotes from Rachel Lawson at Kentucky's annual softball media day on Feb. 8:

"2015 was a tough year, but it was a cool year from the standpoint of our team really got to show how tough we were. The thing I liked about last year's squad was we figured out how to scratch and claw our way into Super Regionals again, and that really goes to show you the strength of our program." - Lawson

"We have a very deep pitching staff. Kelsey Nunley returns for us, and then we have two juniors, Meagan Prince and Shannon Smith who have gotten to see significant time in the offseason, so I'm looking forward to that. We are very strong up the middle, we return Christian Stokes, we return Ansley Smith, we return Nikki Sagermann – who when not playing third can play second base. Sylvester Samuel is in centerfield and she's going to do a great job for us. We have a newcomer named Katie Reed who can play in the middle, and is arguable one of the best freshman that we've ever brought in here defensively." - Lawson

"You start to think – OK – national championship. What is going to bring Kentucky a national championship? I couldn't have talked about this four years ago – but I can talk about this now. We are now at the point where going to Super Regionals is a great thing, but we are from Kentucky. That is what we are expected to do here. We are supposed to win championships – and right now we are here trying to find out how to win a championship. The only way that we can do that is with a deep pitching staff." - Lawson

UK Athletics Unveils Updated Graphic Identity and a New UK Wildcat Logo

One week before the season kicked off from Tempe, UK Athletics unveiled an updated graphic identity in conjunction with its longtime partner, Nike at an event on Friday, Feb. 7 with new football uniforms for the 2016 season and a one-time men's basketball uniform making their debut.

Royal blue and white remain the primary colors of Kentucky Athletics, and black, cool gray and metallic silver have been included as a part of the secondary color palette.

Kentucky's checkerboard pattern remains an important part of the identity. Echoing the iconic checkerboard blinker worn by Secretariat in winning the Triple Crown in 1973, the UK checkerboard is used as a graphic, with its eight units representing the eight NCAA national championships won by the men's basketball team.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (NINTH SEASON)

When Rachel Lawson was named head coach of the University of Kentucky softball team in July 2007 she saw a program poised for success. She knew athletics director Mitch Barnhart and the rest of UK's administration would give her unwavering support, and most importantly she knew the Big Blue Nation would provide the home-field advantage necessary for her team to compete in the Southeastern Conference.

Now entering her eighth season as UK's head coach, Lawson's vision for the UK softball program has started to become a realization. The winningest head coach in program history has not only lead UK to its first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, three NCAA Super Regionals the last four seasons, including a program-best 50 wins in 2014, but UK's administration came through on their promise and commitment to softball by providing Lawson with one of the nation's greatest collegiate softball facilities in the $9.5 million John Cropp Stadium.

Lawson and Co. have made sure the beautiful stadium has seen lots of wins over the past few seasons as UK has had its two most successful seasons in program history each of the last two years. In 2014, Lawson guided Kentucky to the Women's College World Series behind 50 wins. The Wildcats also set single-season records in at-bats, runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, total bases, walks, fielding percentage, putouts, lowest ERA and strikeouts. UK, which advanced to the program's first SEC Tournament Championship, started the season with a program-best 12 straight wins.

Each of the last two seasons, Lawson had led the Wildcats to a national seed in the NCAA Tournament - the school's first-ever national seed was in 2013 - and hosted a NCAA Regional. Kentucky, which has made the NCAA Tournament each of the last six seasons - one of just 21 schools nationally to claim that honor - is one of just nine schools to be a national seed each of the last two seasons.

Now sitting at 244-173 in her seven seasons at Kentucky, Lawson is the winningest head coach in school history and already has more wins in SEC play than UK had all told as a program when she took over in 2007. UK finished the 2014 season ranked sixth in both national listings for its best final ranking ever. In 2013, Kentucky was ranked in the top 14 of both collegiate softball rankings for the second time in school history with nine wins over ranked teams. In her seven seasons at Kentucky, Lawson has defeated 55 ranked foes, including 30 wins vs. top-10 teams and 15 against top-five teams.

Lawson's 2013 squad set the stage for the 2014 run to the Women's College World Series, setting several school records, including a then-program record 41 wins. All told, Lawson has directed the Wildcats to 30 or more victories in six-straight seasons, which also resonates as a program record. In her seven years with Kentucky, Lawson has helped UK players earn 25 All-SEC honors and 18 SEC Player of the Week honors.

Lawson's impact on the UK program is obviously, but her ability to develop players sometimes gets overshadowed by her impressive credentials in handling the day-to-day running of a program. Lawson, who serves as the pitching coach for the Wildcats, has guided three different pitchers to throw no-hitters against top-25 teams in just the last three seasons alone. In all, UK has 12 career no-hitters - all of which have come under Lawson's tenure - including two perfect games.

Kentucky's 2012 season was highlighted by an impressive second-half surge with upsets of 12 ranked opponents, a then Lawson-best fifth place finish in SEC action, a program-record six captured conference series and a senior class who became the first class in school history to tally a .500 record or better in each of their four seasons of play.

The end of the 2012 season also marked the conclusion of some of the best individual careers in UK history as Lawson helped pitcher Chanda Bell become the first player in school history to record 200-plus strikeouts all four seasons, while slugger Brittany Cervantes is the school's leading home run hitter. Pitcher/infielder Rachel Riley also excelled under Lawson, ranking top 10 in school history in field percentage and nearly every pitching category.

In 2011, Lawson directed the Wildcats to their first NCAA Super Regional appearance and finished the season ranked No.12 in the country. The 2011 team earned a 40-16 overall record to set a new single-season standard for wins in a season before Lawson's 2013 team posted 41. UK appeared in the national rankings for a school-record 14 consecutive weeks, defeated 12 top-25 ranked opponents, captured five SEC series and became a national story with a dramatic postseason run which included a seventh-inning rally to knock off the nation's No. 2 team in Michigan in Ann Arbor to advance to Super Regionals.

The 2011 Wildcats shattered 12 single-season UK records, including home runs (65), RBI (275) and batting average (.275). Individually, the Wildcats had a school-record five players earn National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region honors in Meagan Aull, Cervantes, Kara Dill, Riley and Megan Yocke. Following the end of the impressive 2011 season, Lawson was rewarded with a five-year contract extension keeping her at the helm of the Wildcat program through 2016. That contract has been extended several times since, including June of 2014, which keeps Lawson in UK blue through the 2020 season.

In 2010, the Wildcats charted a 32-27 record and entered into the national rankings for the first time in program history, while also knocking off five top-seven ranked opponents on the year. Behind the pitching tandem of sophomores Riley and Bell, the Wildcats broke school records in nearly every pitching category. Kentucky's offense continued to make strides as well with improvements in batting average, home runs, RBI and sacrifice hits for the third consecutive season under the direction of Lawson.

Lawson led the Wildcats to their first NCAA Tournament appearance and charted the school's first postseason victories in 2009, just her second season leading Kentucky. UK notched a 34-23 record and the first winning season in UK history in nearly 10 seasons. Kentucky upset three ranked opponents on the year, including No. 7 Georgia in a 2-0 victory in the SEC Tournament. Molly Johnson became the school's first All-America selection when she was voted to the second team in 2009. Kentucky earned 13 victories in conference play, and finished sixth overall in league action.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (NINTH SEASON)

Lawson's impact on the program was immediate as many Wildcats broke into the school record books under her tutelage. Pitcher Amber Matousek became the first pitcher in 10 years to record 10 or more strikeouts in a game when the sophomore right-hander achieved the feat three times in the season. Johnson set the school record for most doubles (20) in a season, while rocketing up the school charts for career home runs, doubles, batting average, slugging percentage and on-base percentage.

During the season the head coach also charted her 100th career victory in a 5-1 UK triumph over Eastern Illinois on March 1. Lawson became the winningest head coach in program history on April 10, 2013 with win No. 182 against Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, Ky.

Lawson became just the third head coach in the history of the Kentucky softball program after spending three seasons at Western Kentucky. She also served as an assistant coach at Maryland from 1996-2002 and was the associate head coach of the Philadelphia Force professional team in 2006.

Lawson tallied a record of 92-84 (.523) during her tenure with the Hilltoppers. In her first season at WKU, she led the Toppers to a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game. Picked to finish last in the preseason poll, WKU tied for second in the conference standings after setting a school record with 12 Sun Belt victories. The Billings, Mont., native led WKU to a 33-24 record in 2005 and reached the 30-win plateau again in 2007.

Lawson and the Hilltoppers battled nine NCAA Regional participants in 2006, including four teams ranked in the top 25, while finishing third in the Sun Belt regular-season play. She guided the squad to wins over perennial powers Long Beach State, South Florida, Mississippi Valley, as well as No. 13 Louisiana-Lafayette and No. 21 Louisville. In fact, then-freshman pitcher Ryan Rogge tossed the school's third no hitter against the Ragin' Cajuns in WKU's 8-0 victory.

The win handed UL its first run-rule defeat in an SBC contest. Three Hilltoppers - Lathrop, Rolfs and Rogge - each earned SBC Player- and Pitcher-of-the-Week honors throughout the season, as Rolfs and outfielder Alana Towns notched all-conference honors.

Lawson was a two-time all-conference player at Massachusetts, where she was part of a program that advanced to the 1992 Women's College World Series, and has seven years experience as an assistant coach at Maryland.

During her four-year career at UMass, Lawson helped the Minutewomen post a combined record of 142-68 (67.6 percent) including a 39-3 (92.9 percent) Atlantic 10 mark. In addition to the 1992 WCWS appearance, she was a part of squads that also advanced to the NCAA Tournament her freshman season, won three A-10 Tournament titles and claimed the league regular-season championship four straight years.

Lawson was honored individually for her accomplishments on and off the field. She was both an All-Conference and All-Atlantic 10 Tournament performer in 1992 and 1994, and was also named to the A-10 Academic all-conference squad following each of her final two seasons.

Lawson joined the Maryland staff in 1996 and helped the Terrapins post six winning seasons in her seven years in College Park. Her responsibilities included recruiting, scheduling, organizing practice and travel, as well as running camps and clinics. In 1999, Lawson and company were selected the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Terrapins to a 51-23 record, their first ACC regular-season title and the championship game of the NCAA Region II Tournament.

During her time at Maryland, Lawson helped eight individuals earn NFCA all-region accolades -- with an All-America honoree in 1999 -- and nine players collected all-conference honors.

A 1994 graduate of Massachusetts with a degree in exercise science, Lawson also earned her master's degree in sports management from UMass in 1998. She is the daughter of Elaine and Gerald Lawson and has 12 siblings.
