Kentucky is preparing athletes to pursue their dreams beyond football

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

"Along with everything else Kentucky gives us, two of the things I like the most are the leadership development programs and the nutrition programs they provide. They help me be the best player I can be on and off the field." -C.J. Conrad, Tight End

STUDENT-ATHLETE

"My number one priority for each player that enters our program is to leave with a college degree."

— Head Coach Mark Stoops

COMMUNITY

Many Kentucky players choose to take part in serving the community in a variety of projects, including mentoring, hospital visits, speaking engagements and food drives. Also, each May, a select number of UK football players and athletics staff participate in a unique educational/service trip to Ethiopia.

"Getting the opportunity to visit Ethiopia was life-changing. It's an experience I wake up every morning thinking about. It truly was an opportunity of a lifetime." — Landon Foster, Class of 2016

KENTUCKY

Thanks to Nike's extensive research and product development, the Kentucky Wildcats stay on the cutting edge of quality and style with all of their gear.

All 22 sports use Nike shoes and equipment and over the course of a newly signed eight-year contract, one of the lengthiest contracts in collegiate sports, the Wildcats will receive MILLIONS of DOLLARS worth of clothing and equipment.

Recently, Nike unveiled three new football uniform combinations, including an all-blue, all-white and all-black combination. New matte-black and matte-blue helmets were also introduced. Each uniform features a blue collar which signifies Kentucky's working-class background.

"We've got a state that is all about hard work and effort, and we want people to understand that that's what it takes. If you put that jersey on, that's part of what it means at the University of Kentucky to represent the Commonwealth." — UK Athletics Director, Mitch Barnhart

CATS

Kentucky was the first school in the nation to open an academic center dedicated exclusively to student-athletes. The mission of the Center for Academic and Tutorial Services is to create an environment where all student-athletes have the opportunity to maximize their academic, personal and social growth to improve their post-college quality of life.

A new CATS area will now be located in the football practice facility. It will provide around-the-clock access for student-athletes in addition to spacious study areas and tutoring rooms with more than 7,500 square feet. Among the many features of CATS are a computer lab with 30 state-of-the-art computer stations with universal access to software, another 10 laptop computer stations, a study area that accommodates 30 seats, nine private tutor rooms housing computers with Internet access, and a group tutoring room for special projects.

CATS has one of the largest advising staffs in the country, consisting of nine full-time counselors and over 10 part-time peer advisors. In addition, the center annually maintains a corps of more than 100 tutors who average over 2,000 hours of tutoring and mentoring each week of the academic year.

UK Athletics' Impact Leadership Program is headed by Lt. Col. Jason Cummins, a former Army officer and instructor at West Point, whose mission is to build champions of character, competence, and consequence for the field of play and the game of life.

"Having the opportunity to learn leadership skills from someone like Jason Cummins is such a blessing. I'm learning so much about what it takes to be an effective leader and I know these skills will not only help me be a better player but a better person."

- Junior linebacker Courtney Love

JASON CUMMINS IMPACT LEADERSHIP

- We work very closely with the entire coaching staff to help SELECT the right teammates, DEVELOP them to be their best, so that we WIN better.
- Leadership Development is not an event. It is a deliberate, systematic process that involves and impacts everyone in the organization. It is a continuous effort. Just as we coach the technical skills of football, we must be equally as precise when coaching a player's character and leadership skills.
- Better people make better players. At Kentucky, we are focused on the whole person the physical, mental, technical, tactical, and behavioral.
- Coach Stoops has defined a demanding culture based on a set of shared beliefs. Our job is to teach, communicate, reinforce, and hold each other accountable. Ultimately, beliefs drive behavior and behavior produces results.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT produces results. DEVELOPMENT OF PRODUCTION OF THE PRODUCT OF

MONICA FOWLER REGISTERED DIETITIAN

- My goal for our athletes is to teach them that what they do off the field directly translates to their performance on the field. When you have the skills to prepare your own food, you put your performance in your own hands. You don't have to depend on someone else to give you the fuel you need to perform at a high level.
- We want our athletes' plates to be half full of fruits and vegetables. Fruits and veggies are like the linemen of the team, they protect your body. Your plate of food should be colorful as each color provides different vitamins and minerals.

Outside the weight room, development doesn't stop. In fact, that's where some of the most important work happens. Registered Dietitian Monica Fowler and graduate assistant Ethan Mattingly are part of the High Performance staff and they craft diets that ensure student-athletes get the nutrition they need to fuel the workout and recovery process.

"Being away from home, you have to be able to cook for yourself. Ms. Monica has helped teach me how to make foods that are important to my success - the 'prepare' food, 'repair' food and 'build' food. I definitely have a more balanced diet and I feel like my body is the best it's ever been because of all I've learned in our nutrition program."

— Senior running back Jojo Kemp

EVERY COLLEGE FOOTBALL PROGRAM puts a premium on developing student-athletes, but the Performance program is unique to Kentucky. From strength and conditioning to practice plans to nutrition to sleep patterns, the program brings all aspects of performance under one umbrella.

The Performance program uses the latest in athlete-tracking technology to help student-athletes reach and even enhance their potential. UK football players are educated in the principles of sports psychology and learn to apply them to help manage in-game stress and decision-making processes.

The Performance program devotes considerable resources to the restoration process to make sure student-athletes are prepared for tomorrow and minimize injury risk. It has already proven to reduce the occurrence soft-tissue injuries, but UK's award-winning sports medicine staff is on call at all times to provide state-of-the-art care.

COREY EDMOND DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE

- Our main goal is the overall development of the student-athlete. We are hands-on and purposeful in our training. We individualize each player's development for his specific position, integrating the psychological, the nutritional, and the strength training all in one.
- When a student-athlete walks through the door at Kentucky, he is going to be continually developed through all aspects of life. We educate our athletes to lead others, and not just in the weight room.

MARK HILL DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

- We take an individual approach to the personal and athletic development of each student-athlete by developing an interpersonal relationship and applying the latest in scientific and training methods.
- The weight room will be a place where each student-athlete will truly understand the long-term benefits of the work he does. By utilizing the structure of our performance program, it will ensure the student-athlete has a great opportunity for success in his athletic career.

DUSTIN LEWIS LIFE SKILLS COORDINATOR

- Our main goal is for our athletes to leave UK with a career plan. That plan goes beyond sports. We have a lot of athletes who will turn professional in their respective sports but they still need to have a career plan as backup. We get to know them and try to expose them to different career options based on what they are interested in doing. We also want to expose them to different scholarships or graduate schools if that's the path they want to take.
- Another important area of our program is teaching our athletes the value of community service. We want to give back to the community that supports us. The goal is for our studentathletes to grow as servant leaders --- they can truly make a difference in the lives of others, whether it be visiting a fan in the hospital, mentoring at-risk youth or by devoting time to a charity.

Dustin assists student-athletes with all facets of their career development, including major selection, resume/cover letter assistance and identifying internship and full-time employment opportunities. In addition, he works with the UK coaching staff to provide a variety of personal development programs including alcohol education, bystander intervention, financial responsibility and programming mandated by the Southeastern Conference. Dustin also directs CATS community service projects involving all UK student-athletes including the weekly UK Athletics/God's Pantry Back Pack Program, Cats Cultivating Character and the CATS Awards and Scholarships program each year.

"Having Dustin as a resource I can use to help guide me in the right direction with my major and all the volunteer hours I want to do is crucial. I want to work with children after football and Dustin tells me about every advantage I need to impact and interact with the community."

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTURY (C.K.Y

- More than 30,000 students on campus
- Record retention and graduation rates and bold goals for continued growth in our strategic plan
- Diverse, inclusive campus community with students from all 120 Kentucky counties, all 50 states and more than 100 countries
- Top 10 public institution for students who are National Merit, National Achievement and National Hispanic Finalists
- Nearly $2 billion in campus construction, much of it paid with private dollars or in partnership, focused on student living and learning spaces; innovative, high-tech teaching and research space; and expansion of one of the fastest growing academic medical centers in the country
- One of eight institutions in the country with the full range of undergraduate, professional, health care and medical colleges and programs on a contiguous campus
- One of 22 institutions in the country with the trifecta of research designations for excellence in cancer, aging and translational science
- Nearly 100 national rankings for excellence in teaching, research and service
- Twenty-eight Top 10 ranked programs

- One of the world's leading research library systems UK Libriaries boasting one of the largest book endowments in the United States
- UK HealthCare and UK Chandler Medical Center is one of the nation's finest academic medical centers with its state-of-the-art patient care facility and emergency rooms, advanced research and network of affiliate health care agencies to serve the Commonwealth and region
- UK is a cultural hub for arts engagement in the Commonwealth; through performances, exhibitions and educational programs, thousands are exposed to fine arts across the Commonwealth, region and world
- UK alumni see success too. A shining example of that success is Matt Cutts (A&S and Engineering 1995), a native of Morehead, Ky., who is one of Google's first 100 employees ever and was on the ground floor of what is today the world's largest search engine

LEXINGTON

- Lexington is within a day's drive of 75% of the U.S. population
- Lexington is also accessible by air with approximately 100 direct and nonstop flights. Nestled among world famous Thoroughbred horse farms, Blue Grass Airport (LEX) welcomes travelers with one of the most beautiful air approaches in the nation. It is a just a 10-minute drive to campus from the airport
- One of the main attractions of Lexington is the horse industry. More than 80 percent of the world's racehorses are born here, and $4 billion from the horse industry benefits the Kentucky economy annually. The rolling hills of bluegrass in your UK backyard have been the setting for several Hollywood films liked Seabiscuit, Dreamer and Secretariat, and in 2010 Lexington hosted the World Equestrian Games. In 2015, Lexington was home to the prestigious Breeder's Cup
- Lexington's main horse attractions are located at the Red Mile Race Track, Kentucky Horse Park and Keeneland
- Along with UK, there are 14 other universities/ colleges in Lexington and the region
- Lexington is the home of major corporations such as Jif Peanut Butter, Lexmark International, Long Johns Silver's, Toyota Motor Manufacturing, The Valvoline Company and Xerox

LEXINGTON IS LEGIT

- A survey released in 2012 by Parenting magazine ranked Lexington as one of the 10 safest cities in the United States
- Lexington is a six-time winner of America's Promise Alliance 100 Best Communities for Young People Award
- According to The Daily Beast, Lexington is the sixth best city for college graduates
- In 2015, Lexington was ranked in the top 20 for college towns in small metro cities

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

- In Kentucky, hang onto your senses because they will be blown away. Within its borders, you'll find the Horse Capital of the World, Bourbon Capital of the World and Houseboat Capital of the World, along with beloved figures who have stamped their legacies on American history, music, food, sports and more
- Here is where Abraham Lincoln once played, Muhammad Ali perfected his lightning-fast reflexes and Bill Monroe founded a musical genre. This is where Rosemary Clooney invited audiences to "Come On-A My House" and Loretta Lynn watched her daddy head to work in a Kentucky coal mine
- Frankfort became the state capital of Kentucky in 1792 after pledging more manpower toward the construction of a statehouse than any other city. During the Civil War, Frankfort was the only Union capital occupied by Confederate troops
- Famous Kentuckians born or raised, or both, in the Bluegrass State include explorers and legendary pioneers (Daniel Boone); some of the world's most athletic and influential sports stars (Muhammad Ali), actors (George Clooney), musicians (The Judds), and even some of America's most significant political figures (Abraham Lincoln)
- State flower is the goldenrod
- State tree is the Kentucky Coffee Tree
- State song is "My Old Kentucky Home"

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

- Kentucky is one of only four states in the nation designated as a commonwealth
- Kentucky has more miles of running water than any other state except Alaska
- Kentucky has the world's longest cave system – Mammoth Cave – with over 300 miles of mapped passageways
- Central Kentucky is internationally known as the Horse Capital of the World

2016 OUTLOOK

UK Assistant Head Coach Offense/Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs Coach Eddie Gran bring his multiple pro-style offense to Kentucky after three seasons at Cincinnati.

OFFENSIVE PREVIEW

- Year Four of the Mark Stoops era began with major changes in the offensive coaching staff, including the additions of new offensive coordinator Eddie Gran, co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Darin Hinshaw and wide receivers coach Lamar Thomas.
- Gran will inherit 22 returning letterwinners on offense from the 2015 season, including nine primary starters.

Quarterbacks

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 0/1 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 1/2

 Sophomore Drew Barker was named as the team's No. 1 quarterback coming out of spring practice. He played in five games last season, earning a starting nod in the final two contests for the Wildcats (35 of 70 passes for 364 yards and 1 TD). Continuing to push Barker for the starting spot are junior college transfer Stephen Johnson and freshman Gunnar Hoak.

Running Backs / Fullbacks

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 1/0 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 5/0

- Kentucky is blessed to be able to go four deep on the running back depth chart, including senior Jojo Kemp, juniors Stanley "Boom" Williams and Mikel Horton and sophomore Sihiem King.
- Williams has 1,341 yards on 195 carries in his career, adding 11 TDs. He set a single-season school record by averaging 7.1 yards per carry last season.

KENTUCKY.

ŦŁ

- Kemp has carried it 268 times for 1,360 yards, including 13 TDs. Horton, a physical bruiser, has five touchdowns on 141 career carries and 624 yards.
- An explosive talent, King played in all 12 games last season as a freshman, notching 11 carries for 127 yards and a touchdown.
- In 2015, UK's running backs combined for 1,855 yards on 312 carries, an average of 5.9 yards per carry.
- Williams and Kemp are already over the 1,000-yard mark in their careers. The last time UK entered a season with two 1,000-yard career rushers on the roster was 1999 with Anthony White and Derek Homer.
- Senior Will Tom Collins saw the majority of action last season when UK used a two-back set. Senior Tanner Fink also is available.

Wide Receivers / Tight Ends

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 4/0 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 9/2

- New wide receivers coach Lamar Thomas will have depth of talent at the wide receiver position, including returning starters Jeff Badet (29 catches for 430 yards and two TDs), Dorian Baker (55 catches for 608 yards and three TDs) and Garrett "Juice" Johnson (46 catches for 694 yards and two TDs).
- UK has four other receivers with significant game experience, including senior Ryan Timmons and juniors Blake Bone, Alexander Montgomery and Charles Walker.

- Kentucky had 14 different players catch passes last season and 12 of them return in 2016, including eight wideouts.
- Tight end C.J. Conrad, a Freshman All-American in 2015, caught 15 passes for 149 yards and one TD last season and was a fierce run blocker.
- Junior Greg Hart is now available at tight end after sitting out last season as a transfer from Nebraska. Sophomore Darryl Long and freshman Justin Rigg give the team additional flexibility at the position.

Offensive Line

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 4/1 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/2

- The offensive line is one of the most experienced positions as it returns 83 career starts, including 46 from 2015.
- Senior center Jon Toth headlines the O-line as he has started in 35 consecutive games and is considered one of the top centers in college football. Toth was a nominee for the Rimington Trophy last season, given to the nation's top center. Sophomore Jervontius "Bunchy" Stallings came out of spring practice as the backup.
- Junior Kyle Meadows, who started the final nine games last season, returns at right tackle.
- Junior Cole Mosier had a strong spring and juniorcollege transfer Tate Leavitt are having a spirited competition at left tackle.
- Returning starters at the left and right guard positions are juniors Nick Haynes and Ramsey Meyers. Sophomore George Asafo-Adjei can play guard or tackle and gives the coaching staff a talented option in the line.

Special Teams

- Junior kicker Austin MacGinnis returns as the kickoff specialist and placekicker. In just two seasons, MacGinnins has already recorded 165 points, which ranks him 10th on UK's career scoring list. Despite battling injuries last season, he hit 13 of 17 field goals and 22 of 23 PATS.
- Sophomore Miles Butler can also step in at placekicker. He hit 4 of 4 field goals last season with a long kick of 46 yards and was 11 of 12 in PATs.
- With the graduation of four-year starting punter Landon Foster, that position is up for grabs.
   Sophomore Bryan Kirshe punted in one game last season and freshman signee Grant McKinniss, rated the nation's No. 4 punter in high school last year, looks to compete for the starting role as well.
- Four-year long snapper Kelly Mason graduated and UK has three options to replace him in sophomores Logan Blue and Tristan Yeomans.
   Freshman walk-on Colton Piatt will also battle for the starting nod.

DEFENSIVE PREVIEW

- Defensive coordinator, D.J. Eliot, welcomes back 17 returning letterwinners, including six starters.
- Two new assistant coaches join the defensive staff in Steve Clinkscale, defensive backs, and Matt House, inside linebackers/special teams coordinator.
- Seven of the top eight tacklers from last season have departed.
- There is significant experience in the defensive backfield but much of the defensive line and linebackers must be replaced.
- Kentucky started 17 different players on defense last season, with only three (DE Farrington Huguenin, CB Chris Westry and MLB Josh Forrest) starting in all 12 games. Of the 17 starters last season, six received their first career start in 2015 (DE Denzil Ware, CB Chris Westry, S Mike Edwards, CB Derrick Baity, DT Regie Meant and DT Cory Johnson) and only one was a senior (Johnson).

Linebackers

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 0/3 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 2/6

- Most of the experience and production must be replaced from this group after the departure of Josh Forrest, the team's leading tackler the last two seasons, along with three other major contributors.
- Courtney Love, a transfer from Nebraska, is expected to anchor the defense at middle linebacker.
- Weakside linebacker Jordan Jones and strongside linebacker Josh Allen each showed flashes of explosive potential last season as freshmen. Jordan made 10 tackles last season and Allen made four stops.
- Sophomores Kobie Walker and Nico Firios, redshirt freshman Eli Brown and mid-year enrollee Kash Daniel bring talented depth but need to add game experience.

Defensive Line

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 2/2 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/3

- New talent will emerge in the defensive line after the departure of end Farrington Huguenin, tackle Cory Johnson and noseguard Melvin Lewis.
- Junior tackle Regie Meant and junior noseguard Matt Elam were part-time starters last season and are counted on for leadership of this year's line. Meant made 31 tackles last season and Elam had 23 stops.
- At end, senior Courtney Miggins made 12 tackles last season and junior college transfer Alvonte Bell is a talented newcomer.
- The hybrid end/linebacker position is held by sophomore Denzil Ware, who made 39 tackles last season, including 5.5 tackles for loss. De'Niro Laster, a transfer from Minnesota, and juniorcollege transfer Jordan Bonner bring more experience.
- Four additional young linemen (Kengera Daniel, Tymere Dubose, Jacob Hyde and Adrian Middleton) return in the fall after earning playing time in 2015. Junior college transfer Naquez Pringle participated in spring practice and also is in the mix.

Cornerbacks

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 2/0 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 4/1

- Kentucky has five cornerbacks with extensive experience, including Freshman All-American and Freshman All-SEC cornerback Chris Westry (36 tackles, 1.5 TFL, 1 sack, 2 interceptions, 8 pass breakups).
   Sophomore Derrick Baity started the last four games of his freshman season, totaling 19 tackles and two pass breakups.
- Senior J.D. Harmon has five interceptions and six pass breakups during his career.
- Junior Kendall Randolph can play corner or the nickelback position as needed. Randolph has contributed 27 tackles and two PBU.

Safeties

2015 Starters Returning/Lost: 1/1 2015 Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 4/3

- Sophomore Mike Edwards (39 tackles, 2 TFL, 1 interception, 2 PBU, 1 FF) emerged as a starter last season at strong safety.
- Versatile Blake McClain can play any position in the defensive backfield and came out of the spring as the starting free safety. He has totaled 118 tackles and 17 pass breakups in his career.
- Senior Marcus McWilson (66 tackles, 1.5 TFL, 1.0 sacks, 2 PBU, 1 QBH, 1 FF) brings an experienced option at safety and sophomore Darius West picked up 17 tackles last season in his first game action.

SCHEDULE NOTES

- The 2016 Kentucky football schedule will feature seven home games and five road tilts.
- Kentucky will face a challenging schedule in 2016, including home conference games with South Carolina, Vanderbilt, Georgia and Mississippi State. UK will travel to Florida, Alabama, Tennessee and Missouri in league play.
- UK will open its schedule with the 2016 lidlifter vs. Southern Miss on Sept. 3 at Commonwealth Stadium. The Wildcats will then travel to Florida on Sept. 10 to open its league slate, before breaking from SEC play to host New Mexico State on Sept. 17.

In two seasons as a Wildcat, junior kicker Austin MacGinnis already ranks in the top 10 on UK's all-time scoring list.

Asafo-Adjei, tight end C.J. Conrad, defensive end Kengera Daniel and linebacker Jordan Jones, and two Nebraska transfers, tight end Greg Hart and linebacker Courtney Love.

• The four freshmen all made an immediate impact on the team in their debut season. Asafo-Adjei played in 11 of 12 games with three starts. Conrad played in all 12 games with nine starts and ranked fifth on the team in receptions with 15 catches for 149 yards and a touchdown. He was named thirdteam Freshman All-America. Daniel saw action in seven games and Jordan Jones charted 10 tackles in nine games played.

BOOM MAKING NOISE, MOVING UP CAREER CHARTS

- Stanley "Boom" Williams totaled 855 rushing yards in 2015, the most for a Wildcat in a season in five years, since Derrick Locke had 887 yards in 2010. He amassed that total despite missing two games and most of two others because of injury.
- Williams averaged a school record 7.1 yards per carry in 2015, leading the SEC and ranking fourth in the nation. Williams is the third UK player in school history to have five 100-yard rushing games in his sophomore season (Sonny Collins, 1973 and Rafael Little, 2005).
- Williams is the first UK player with three 100-yard rushing games against SEC opponents in a single season since Derrick Locke in 2009.
- Williams now has 1,341 rushing yards for his career and ranks 23rd on the UK career rushing list.

MacGINNIS AMONG TOP 10 SCORERS

- Junior kicker Austin MacGinnis is among the top-10 scorers in Kentucky history. He has already recorded 165 points which ranks 10th on the career list. He needs one more point to move up to No. 9 with George Adams (1981-84) and two to jump to No. 8 with Doug Pelfrey (1990-92).
- MacGinnis has made 34 of 44 field goals in his career, 77.3 percent. He set six school records as a freshman in 2014, earning first-team Freshman All-America and first-team All-SEC honors.

NEW $45 MILLION PRACTICE FACILITY TO OPEN IN JULY

 Two major football construction projects have been in progress over the last two seasons, totaling $170 million. A $125 million "reimagining" of Commonwealth Stadium opened in September of 2015 and a new $45 million practice/support complex is currently being built on the south side of the existing Nutter Field House. The comprehensive complex features state-of-the-art practice, office and support facilities for the players and coaches. Completion is planned for July of 2016.

DID YOU KNOW?

- This fall will be the 126th season of intercollegiate football for the UK football program.
- Kentucky is entering its fourth season under head coach Mark Stoops, who has energized the UK fan base with record-setting recruiting classes, facility upgrades and an influx in talent.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 21 national cheerleading championships, including 17 of the last 21, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.
- Kentucky is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.
- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.
- Kentucky linebacker Josh Forrest was chosen by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round of the 2016 National Football League Draft. Five other Wildcats signed free agents contracts: Farrington Huguenin (Miami Dolphins), Cory Johnson (Atlanta Falcons), Melvin Lewis (New York Giants), A.J. Stamps (Cleveland Browns) and Jordan Swindle (Los Angeles Rams).

MARK STOOPS HEAD COACH FOURTH SEASON • IOWA, 1989

During Kentucky head football coach Mark Stoops' first three years on the job, a construction hard hat has been just as important as helmets are for his players.

Since his arrival at Kentucky, Stoops has methodically built Wildcat football on and off the field. He helped plan and raise funds for the $125 million renovation of Commonwealth Stadium and the new $45 million football complex that opened in July.

The re-imagining of Commonwealth Stadium in 2015 opened to rave reviews from fans. players and recruits. The new complex will be a showcase for Kentucky football as well as the hub where the Cats and their coaches focus their energies.

Stoops' building also has been evident in recruiting as he steadily improves the Wildcats' talent base. Stoops' first four recruiting classes have been rated higher in the Rivals.com rankings than any previous classes in the history of the recruiting evaluator.

On the field, after inheriting a program that had produced a 2-10 record the season before his arrival, Stoops has markedly improved the team's performance. In 2014, UK won five games - more than the previous two seasons combined. The squad also won five games last season, including a victory at South Carolina, UK's first SEC road win since 2009, and a win over Missouri, UK's first triumph against a ranked opponent since 2010.

That's progress, certainly, but only part of the way toward his goal of fielding championship teams at UK. Part of the acclaimed Stoops coaching family, he has a history of championship performance as an assistant coach and dramatic improvements during his years as a defensive coordinator at Florida State and Arizona.

Stoops was defensive coordinator at FSU from 2010-12, inheriting a unit ranked 108th in the NCAA in total defense and turning it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

COACHES & STAFF

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops, with Mark being the youngest of the three. Mike is currently the defensive coordinator on Bob's staff at Oklahoma.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. Like his brothers, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Stoops and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

JIMMY BRUMBAUGH DEFENSIVE LINE FOURTH SEASON • AUBURN, 2003

Former All-SEC defensive lineman Jimmy Brumbaugh enters his fourth season as the defensive line coach at Kentucky.

The 2015 National Football League Draft was an exciting time for Brumbaugh, who saw two of his proteges selected. End/OLB Alvin "Bud" Dupree was taken in the first round by Pittsburgh Steelers. End Za'Darius Smith was tabbed in Round 4 by the Baltimore Ravens.

Dupree had earned All-Southeastern Conference honors the last two years, including first-team honors as a senior, and finished his career No. 2 on the UK career sack list.

Brumbaugh has had four players earn the honor during his three years at Kentucky as Smith and tackle Donte Rumph were chosen in 2013 and C.J. Johnson earned second team honors in 2015.

> As a former professional football player, a protege of legendary defensive line coach Pete Jenkins, and a member of the LSU staff when the Tigers won the 2007 national championship, Brumbaugh has a pedigree of success.

> > Prior to UK, Brumbaugh's most recent major-college stop was a two-year stint at Syracuse, where he coached defensive tackles in 2011 and the defensive line in 2010. Brumbaugh helped guide the team to an 8-5 record his first season and a victory over Kansas State in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

SU showed drastic improvements in national defensive rankings in 2010 under Brumbaugh, moving from 81st in scoring defense to 17th and 37th in total defense to seventh. One of the reasons for the defensive improvements was two-time All-Big East defensive end Chandler Jones, who was drafted 21st overall by the New England Patriots in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Prior to Syracuse, Brumbaugh coached the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2008 and 2009, helping the Bulldogs to an 8-5 record, including a win in the 2008 Independence Bowl over Northern Illinois. Brumbaugh took over a defensive front that ranked 46th nationally against the rush in 2007 and moved that ranking to 13th at the conclusion of 2008.

Brumbaugh's line was led by D'Anthony Smith, who was a two-time first-team All-Western Athletic Conference performer. Louisiana Tech earned 27 sacks in 2008, which was the most by a Bulldog team in nearly a decade. Tech also recorded its first shutout since 1996, spanning 148 games.

In addition to coaching, the native of Keystone Heights, Fla., also has experience in strength and conditioning. Brumbaugh served two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU in 2006 and 2007, helping the Tigers to the 2007 national championship. While with LSU, Brumbaugh helped produce 12 NFL draft selections, including five first-round picks.

Brumbaugh got his first coaching role at Jacksonville State as a student assistant as the Gamecocks won the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference championship and a 9-2 record. He spent the 2005 season at Tennessee-Chattanooga as the defensive line coach.

In 2012, Brumbaugh was at East Mississippi Community College, where he was in charge of the defensive line and the strength and conditioning coordinator. Brumbaugh helped lead the Lions to a top-10 national ranking with an 8-2 record and the Mississippi North Division championship. Brumbaugh's defensive line combined for 224 tackles, including 44.5 tackles for loss, 21.5 sacks and seven fumbles forced. For the season, the EMCC defense allowed just 74.5 rushing yards per game and only 15.3 points per game.

In just one season, Brumbaugh developed six defensive linemen who signed Division I scholarships, including end Za'Darius Smith at Kentucky. Smith was rated as the nation's No. 1 junior college strongside defensive end prospect by JCGridiron.com.

During his playing days at Auburn, Brumbaugh started 44 of his 48 career games, gathering 291 tackles and 15 sacks as a nose tackle and defensive tackle. Brumbaugh was named Freshman All-SEC in 1995, second-team All-SEC in 1996 and first-team All-SEC in 1997. He helped the Tigers earn the 1997 SEC Western Division championship and play in three bowl games, winning two.

After his collegiate career ended, Brumbaugh signed a free-agent deal with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 although most of his professional playing career was spent in the XFL with the Birmingham Bolts and in arena football with the Georgia Force and Birmingham Steel Dogs.

Brumbaugh graduated from Auburn with a degree in health and human performance. He is married to the former Kelly Jones. They have two sons, Legend and Nash.

STEVE CLINKSCALE DEFENSIVE BACKS FIRST SEASON • ASHLAND, 2000

Steve Clinkscale is in his first season as Kentucky's defensive backs coach.

Clinkscale joined the Kentucky coaching staff after serving three seasons with Cincinnati as secondary coach, including the 2015 campaign as co-defensive coordinator.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Clinkscale previously spent a year as the cornerbacks coach at Illinois (2012), after a three-year run with Toledo. He also served as an assistant with Western Carolina in 2008, after opening his coaching career at his alma mater Ashland University (2001-07) in Ohio.

In his three seasons at Cincinnati, Clinkscale helped the Bearcats advance to three straight bowl games – Belk Bowl (2013), Military Bowl (2014) and Hawai'i Bowl (2015). As the main defensive play-caller in 2015, his defense ranked third in the American Athletic Conference, allowing only 217 passing yards per game. Junior UC linebacker Eric Wilson blossomed under Clinkscale's guidance as he charted a 106-tackle season, while safety Zach Edwards starred with 94 tackles and three interceptions.

Edwards excelled under Clinkscale's tutelage in 2014, amassing 121 tackles, two interceptions and six pass break-ups. During UC's nine-win season in 2013, Edwards shined as a freshman with 73 tackles and a pair of interceptions.

Before joining the UC staff, Clinkscale spent a season on the staff at Illinois as the cornerbacks coach, helping the Fighting Illini rank in the Top-20 nationally in pass defense, surrendering under 200 yards passing per game.

He joined the Illini staff after spending three seasons at Toledo, including the final two as the cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator. Under his leadership, Toledo's cornerbacks played a key role in the Rockets' defensive resurgence, while special teams were a strong suit as well. The kickoff return team ranked 11th in the nation in 2010 and the punt return unit ranked 17th in 2011.

In 2011, Clinkscale helped the Rockets become a national leader in takeaways, as Toledo ranked 16th in turnovers gained. UT also ranked third in the nation in turnover margin and 29th in third-down defense in 2011. Clinkscale guided the Rockets to a No. 17 finish in punt return average in 2011, which helped Toledo to a 9-4 campaign and a victory in the Military Bowl.

Clinkscale also helped develop Toledo's Eric Page into one of the most electrifying return men in college football, as Page was named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele and a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the nation's most versatile player. Page also was named first-team All-Mid-American Conference as a receiver, kickoff returner and punt returner.

Toledo went from allowing 37.7 points per game in 2009 to 28.5 in 2010. The Rocket defense also increased its turnovers from 21 to 34, the fifth-highest takeaway total in the nation in 2010, and tied for eighth-most interceptions in the country with 20. Toledo also finished 11th in the nation in kickoff return average, helping propel Toledo to an 8-5 season and its first bowl appearance in five years.

With the Rockets in 2010, Clinkscale helped guide junior Desmond Marrow as he returned to the lineup after nearly a two-year absence. Marrow responded with an outstanding season, with 72 tackles, three interceptions and six pass breakups. On special teams, Clinkscale helped coach Page, who averaged 31.1 yards per return, earn numerous first-team All-America honors. He was the only player in the FBS to return three kickoffs for touchdowns.

Clinkscale went to Toledo with eight years of college coaching experience: one year at Western Carolina (2008) and seven seasons at Ashland University (2001-07). In his only season at Western Carolina, he worked with the Catamount defensive backs in addition to serving as Western's academic liaison.

During his seven seasons at Ashland, Clinkscale served mostly as a secondary coach, spending his final season as the linebackers coach. He also served as the academic liaison at AU, where the football team routinely posted combined GPAs of 3.0 or better.

Clinkscale mentored two All-Americans (Devin Conwell and Toure Carter) and two Cactus Bowl (NCAA Division II all-star game) participants at Ashland. Conwell was named the 2005 GLIAC Defensive Back of the Year.

> Clinkscale was a four-year starter and a team captain at Ashland. He played in the 2000 Snow Bowl, the Division II all-star game that was the predecessor to the Catcus Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports science, with a concentration in therapeutic recreation in 2000.

> Clinkscale and his wife, Jasena, have four sons: Isaiah, Elijah, and twins, Zion and Zivon.

D.J.ELIOT DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS FOURTH SEASON • WYOMING, 1999

D.J. Eliot is in his fourth year as the defensive coordinator. He will also serve as the outside linebackers coach. Last season, the Wildcats ranked in the top half of the Southeastern Conference in passing yards allowed and touchdown passes allowed, while Kentucky's 2014 defense created 23 turnovers, including a school-record six returned for TDs. The Wildcats finished second in the SEC in turnover margin and made significant improvements in yards allowed per play. UK jumped 45 places in the rankings from 2013 to 2014, finishing in the top half of the nation in that statistic. The Cats also improved to sixth in the SEC in quarterback sacks.

In his first three years with UK, Eliot has seen eight of his defensive players earn All-SEC recognition and four have become NFL draft choices. In 2016, linebacker Josh Forrest was drafted in the sixth round by the Los Angeles Rams, while Alvin "Bud" Dupree was taken in the first round by Pittsburgh and Za'Darius Smith was a fourth-round pick by Baltimore in the 2015 draft. Eliot's top linebackers, Avery Williamson in 2013 and Forrest in 2014, each totaled more than 100 tackles, finished among the SEC's top-five tacklers and earned All-SEC honors. Prior to UK, Eliot helped Mark Stoops orchestrate a magnificent revival of the defense at Florida State, where Eliot coached defensive ends from 2010-12. In 2012, he helped lead FSU to one of the best defensive campaigns in school history en route to a 12-2 record, the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and a 2013 Orange Rowl victory

The year before Eliot and Stoops arrived in Tallahassee, the Seminoles ranked 108th in total defense and rushing defense. But in 2012, FSU ranked second nationally in total defense (254.1 yards per game) and sixth in scoring defense (14.7 points per game). FSU also allowed only 3.86 yards per play, leading the nation in that category. In each of Eliot's first two years on the job, FSU ranked among the nation's top-10 teams in sacks and the top 25 in tackles for loss. Eliot's players also had outstanding individual achievements.

- Bjoern Werner had 13 sacks in 2012, leading the ACC and tying for third nationally in sacks. He was first-team All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year. He was a first-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.
- Brandon Jenkins earned All-ACC honors in 2010 and '11 before sustaining a season-ending injury in the 2012 opener. Despite not playing the remainder of the year, he was still a fifth-round selection in the NFL Draft.
- After Jenkins' injury, Cornellius Carradine went from FSU backup to joining Werner as first-team All-ACC. He had 11 sacks, second in the ACC behind his teammate, and 15th nationally. He went in the second round of the NFL Draft.
- Under Eliot's guidance, Markus White had a breakout season in 2010 and played three seasons in the NFL.

Werner and Carradine formed the top defensive end tandem in the nation in 2012 with a combined 24 sacks and 31 total tackles for loss. In 2011, FSU limited opponents to just 2.35 yards per carry, which led the nation in that category. In Eliot's first season at FSU, the 'Noles tied for the national lead for most sacks with 48.

Eliot and Stoops first became acquainted at Wyoming, where Stoops coached the defensive backs while Eliot played linebacker. The two coached together at Wyoming as Eliot was a graduate assistant in 1999.

The two continued to work together in 2000 when Stoops joined the staff at the University of Houston as the co-defensive coordinator/safeties coach and Eliot was a graduate assistant. Eliot remained at Houston through 2001 before rejoining Stoops in 2002 at Miami (Fla.) as a grad assistant. The two helped lead the Canes to a 12-1 record and a berth in the Fiesta Bowl.

Eliot earned his first full-time coaching position in 2003 at Texas State. The Bobcats went from a 4-8 record to 5-6 to 11-3 in the 2005 season, which featured a Southland Conference championship and a berth in the semifinals of the Division I-AA playoffs.

Eliot helped lead a defensive turnaround at Texas State. In his first season, TSU gave up 34.8 points per game, 394.6 yards per game and 191.3 rushing yards per game. Two years later, the Bobcats gave up only 20.3 points per game, 313.9 yards per game and 136.2 rushing yards per game.

Eliot moved from Texas State to Tulsa, helping lead the Golden Hurricane to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the 2006 Armed Forces Bowl. As linebackers coach, Eliot developed Nick Bunting into the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year and all three of his LBs, Bunting, Nelson Coleman and Chris Chamberlain, earned All-CUSA honors. Chamberlain played several years in the NFL.

After Tulsa, Eliot coached three seasons (2007-2009) at Rice as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach. His best year was in 2008 when the Owls went 10-3 and won the Texas Bowl. It was a historic season, serving as the Owls' first 10-win season since 1949 and first bowl victory since 1950.

Two of the players Eliot recruited and developed were defensive ends Scott Solomon and Cheta Ozougwu, who led Conference USA linemen in 2009 with 124 combined tackles along with 21 tackles for loss and 11 sacks. Both Solomon and Ozougwu became All-CUSA selections and are in the NFL.

A native of Edmond, Okla., Eliot graduated from Wyoming with a degree in natural science. He earned a master's degree in education at Houston. He and his wife, Miekel, have one son, Dawson, and three daughters, Drue, Page and Reace.

EDDIE GRAN ASST. HEAD COACH OFFENSE/OFFENSIVE COORD. AND RB COACH FIRST SEASON • CAL LUTHERAN, 1987

A 28-year collegiate coaching veteran, Eddie Gran enters his first season at Kentucky as the assistant head coach of the offense/offensive coordinator as well as running backs coach.

Gran joins the Kentucky staff after a three-year run as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati and is reunited with Stoops after serving as the associate head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Florida State from 2010-12.

A veteran offensive mind with coaching stops including Miami (Fla.), Ole Miss, Auburn, Tennessee and Florida State, Gran boasts a reputation for mentoring running backs. He has helped develop dynamic running backs at nearly every coaching stop during his decorated career, including former Auburn stars Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Rudi Johnson, Ben Tate, Brandon Jacobs, Heath Evans and Kenny Irons, and Ole Miss greats Deuce McAllister and John Avery. While at Tennessee, he guided Montario Hardesty to a 1,000-yard season.

Gran also boasts an impressive record on the recruiting trail, succeeding throughout his career in Florida. He helped Florida State obtain the nation's top-ranked class in 2011 and was named by ESPN.com as one of the top 25 recruiters of the year in 2011, helping secure a bevy of talent that helped the Seminoles to the national championship in the 2013 season.

While teaming with Stoops on the Florida State coaching staff, Gran served as associate head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator, helping lead the Seminoles to their first Atlantic Coast Conference Championship since 2005, first 11-win season since 2000 and ninth Orange Bowl appearance in 2012.

He had an immediate impact at Cincinnati, guiding a record-setting offense in 2013, as the Bearcats led the American Athletic Conference in total offense (472.1) and rushing offense (168.3) with the offense totaling a school-record 6,137 yards. In 2015, those marks were eclipsed. Cincinnati ranked sixth in the nation in total offense at 537.8 yards per game, having accumulated a staggering 6,992 total yards. UC was also sixth in the nation in passing offense with 359.9 yards per game and rushed for 177.9 yards per game.

Gran's coaching career began at his alma mater Cal Lutheran, where he played four seasons as a wide receiver. He spent 14 seasons as a running backs coach and special team coordinator in the Southeastern Conference, including 10 years at Auburn, followed by a stop at Tennessee.

While guiding the special teams unit for FSU in 2012, kicker Dustin Hopkins set the NCAA career record for scoring by a kicker and was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award for the second-straight year in addition to All-America honors and First Team All-ACC accolades. Hopkins set the NCAA career scoring record for kickers (466 points), as well as establishing NCAA, ACC and FSU records with 88 career field goals.

The Seminoles' punt return and kickoff return units were arguably the most dynamic in the country, as each ranked second in the ACC and No. 7 and No. 17 in nation, respectively. Rashad Greene scored two touchdowns on punt returns and ranked second in the country with a 15.35 punt return average, while Tyler Hunter also had a punt return score. On kickoff returns, Lamarcus Joyner and Karlos Williams combined to average 24.6 yards per return.

Under Gran's direction, FSU's stable of running backs also had one of the most prolific seasons in the country and in school history, averaging 203 rushing yards per game and tallying 2,639 yards and an FSU-record 37 touchdowns on the ground in 2012.

The Seminoles rushed for over 200 yards seven times, including a 385-yard performance versus Wake Forest, and had three different running backs rush for over 500 yards in Chris Thompson (687 yards, five touchdowns), Devonta Freeman (630 yards, eight touchdowns) and James Wilder, Jr. (583 yards, 13 touchdowns). Thompson, who played in eight games before suffering a season-ending knee injury, was named Second Team All-ACC and captured the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award given to the conference's "most courageous" player.

Florida State boasted the nation's second-best special teams unit in 2011 based on the Football Outsiders Efficiency Ratings. Shawn Powell became FSU's first consensus All-America punter and the school's all-time leader in multiple punting categories as a three-year starter. Powell led the Football Bowl Subdivision with a 47-yard overall average and the Seminoles ranked second nationally in net punting (41.3). Hopkins was named one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award and Gran's return game featured some of the most electrifying players in Greg Reid, Joyner and Williams. Reid was one of the nation's most dangerous punt return specialists in the ACC, averaging 10.7 yards per return and scoring two touchdowns during the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

In 2011 for FSU, Gran's running back corps played behind a banged-up offensive line, bringing down the group's production from the 2010 season. However, Gran still produced one of the top freshman running backs in FSU history as Freeman ran for 579 yards - the fifth-best single season total by an FSU freshman. Freeman also led the team with eight rushing touchdowns.

Gran helped develop Florida State's running game into one of the strongest in the ACC in his first season in Tallahassee in 2010. The Seminoles averaged nearly 5.0 yards per carry and ranked third in the league in rushing touchdowns with 27. The Seminoles ranked fourth in the league in scoring as compared to sixth the year before Gran's arrival. In 2010, three Seminole running backs gained more than 400 yards rushing on the ground led by FSU's leading rusher Thompson, who gained 845 yards. It was only the sixth time in FSU history that a trio gained more than 400 yards in a season. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298yard performance against in-state rival Miami, which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games - BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina. Gran has a strong record for developing backfield talent.

Tennessee's Hardesty (1,345 yards) added his name to the lengthy list of 1,000-yard rushers Gran has worked with over the course of his career in '09. Hardesty, who did not fumble on 282 carries from scrimmage in 2009, was a second-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2010. He

DARIN HINSHAW co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks first season • UCF, 1993

Darin Hinshaw, who helped guide some of the best offenses in University of Cincinnati history, is in his first season as Kentucky's co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Hinshaw, a former record-setting quarterback at UCF, joins the Kentucky staff after serving on the Cincinnati coaching staff since 2013. Before his time with the Bearcats, Hinshaw coached three seasons with Tennessee, including functioning as the recruiting coordinator in 2012, with Rivals.com ranking him as one of the top 10 recruiters in college football in 2011.

> In each year, Hinshaw has helped guide the Bearcats to a bowl game, with UC collecting 25 wins. In 2013, UC led the American Athletic Conference in total offense (472.1) and rushing offense (168.3) with the offense totaling a school-record 6,137 yards. Those marks were erased in 2015. Cincinnati amassed 6,992 offensive vards. 537.8 vards per game, including 359.9 passing yards per contest and 177.9 rushing yards per game. The Bearcats ranked sixth in the nation in passing offense and total offense.

Hinshaw is no stranger to record-setting offenses, helping direct Tennessee to 5,711 yards in 2012, the second-most in school history. His star wide receiver, Cordarrelle Patterson, a First-Team All-SEC selection, set UT's single-season record with 1,858 all-purpose yards. Included in that total were 46 receptions for 778 yards and five TDs. Justin Hunter, who earned Second-Team All-SEC honors, grabbed 73 balls for 1,083 yards and nine TDs, the second-best single-season mark for receptions.

Hinshaw guided QB Tyler Bray to a record-setting start to the 2011 season as the signal caller set a school record for completion percentage in a game. He also started the year with the most passing yards in a three-game span in UT's storied history.

In 2010, Hinshaw's impact was immediate as Tennessee's quarterbacks coach. The former signalcaller helped a pair of UT quarterbacks debut in leading the Vols' offense to a bowl game and a third-place finish in the SEC's Eastern Division.

Hinshaw's quarterback duo of Matt Simms and Bray combined for 3,309 yards passing and 26 touchdowns in 2010. Bray assumed the starter's role in November and guided the team to a 4-0 finish to claim bowl eligibility.

Hinshaw, a Punta Gorda, Fla., native, was at Memphis from 2007-09 as the wide receivers coach. He joined the Tigers' staff after serving one season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia Southern. In 2006, Georgia Southern ranked 27th nationally in total offense, averaging 359.9 yards per game.

Prior to that, Hinshaw worked at Middle Tennessee for five seasons. He was the running backs coach his first two seasons before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator in February 2003.

Under Hinshaw's guidance, the MTSU offense consistently led the Sun Belt Conference and was among the nation's statistical leaders. A highlight was in 2003, when the Blue Raiders' offense was the highest scoring unit in the league at 27.7 points a contest. Hinshaw made his way to Middle Tennessee from Central Florida, his alma mater. Hinshaw spent 1999 as a graduate assistant before taking over the quarterback coaching duties in 2000.

As a player, Hinshaw set numerous school records for the Knights, finishing as the career leader in every major passing category, including yards (9,000) and TDs (82). During his time under center, UCF had a combined 28-16 record, including a 9-3 mark in 1993 that resulted in a berth in the Division I-AA playoffs. Hinshaw was named to UCF's 25th Anniversary Team in 2004.

Following his playing days at UCF, Hinshaw began a career in pro football. After a brief stint with the Cleveland Browns, he spent two years with the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League.

Hinshaw earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 1993 and a master's in business administration from UCF in 1996.

Hinshaw and his wife, Pam, have four children: daughters Sydney, Hayley and Carley; and son Darin Jr.

MATT HOUSE INSIDE LINEBACKERS/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR FIRST SEASON • MICHIGAN STATE, 2000

Matt House, a former defensive coordinator at Florida International and Pittsburgh who has spent the better part of two decades coaching in Division I football or the National Football League, is in his first season as the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator.

House joins the Wildcat coaching staff after spending the past three seasons as a defensive coordinator in the college ranks, helping Pittsburgh to two bowl games before becoming the defensive coordinator at FIU last season. Since beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 2001, House has had success at stops in Division I and the NFL.

In his lone season with FIU, as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, House helped guide the Panthers to five wins, despite injuries at key positions, and limited four opponents to 14 points or less. FIU ended the season ranked 16th nationally in redzone defense, 45th nationally in fumbles recovered, 44th nationally in defensive touchdowns and 33rd in fourth-down conversion percentage defense. He also helped coach the kickoff return, kickoff coverage and punt units on special teams.

Under House's guidance, senior defensive end Michael Wakefield tied the school record for tackles for loss and sacks in a game, earning Conference USA Defensive Player of the Week honors. After the season, five defensive players earned all-conference honors, while four signed NFL free-agent contracts.

House spent three years at Pitt before heading to FIU, coaching the secondary his first season in 2012 before being promoted to defensive coordinator/ linebackers coach for two seasons. During those two years, House helped guide the Panthers to the 2013 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl and the 2015 Armed Forces Bowl. Under House, Pittsburgh defensive tackle Aaron Donald was drafted 13th overall by the Rams in the 2014 NFL Draft and eventually was selected for the Pro Bowl.

In 2013, House helped Pitt rank 34th nationally in total defense, allowing 367.5 yards of total offense per game. House's defense really performed well in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl that season, limiting Mid-American Conference Champion Bowling Green, who was averaging 472 yards and 35 points per game, to just 27 points and 289 yards in the Panthers' 30-27 victory.

As the Pitt secondary coach in 2012, House's unit helped the Panthers rank 20th nationally in pass defense, 21st nationally in pass efficiency defense and 26th nationally in interceptions. At various times at Pitt, he worked with the kickoff, kickoff return and punt return teams.

Before his recent collegiate success, House spent four seasons in the NFL. He served as a defensive quality control coach and assistant linebackers coach for the St. Louis Rams from 2009 to 2011 after a stop with the Carolina Panthers in 2008 as a special teams assistant and strength and conditioning assistant. While with Carolina, the Panthers went 12-4 and claimed the NFC South Division title and the franchise's fourth-ever playoff berth.

House started his coaching career in 2001 as a graduate assistant at Michigan State, where he helped guide the Spartans to the 2001 Silicon Valley Classic helping coaching the team's secondary and special teams. Following his time with MSU, House spent two seasons as a defensive assistant at North Carolina, helping the Tar Heels to the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl. In 2005, House was the defensive line coach at Gardner-Webb.

In 2006 and 2007, House was defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator under Turner Gill at the University of Buffalo, leading the Bulls to a share of the MAC East Division title his final season. While at Buffalo, House helped develop All-MAC safety Davonte Shannon, who finished as the Bulls' all-time leading tackler and signed an NFL free agent deal. House. a native of Harrison. Mich., earned his bachelor's degree from Michigan State in 2000. He and his wife, Jessi, have a daughter, Avery, and three sons, Jackson,

Jacob and Trent.

VINCE MARROW TIGHT ENDS, RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOURTH SEASON • TOLEDO, 1992

In addition to his contributions as tight ends coach at Kentucky, Vince Marrow is also the recruiting coordinator for the Wildcats.

When bringing Marrow to Kentucky, head coach Mark Stoops spoke prophetically -- "His diverse experiences as a coach and NFL player will be invaluable to our players and our program. He also is a great recruiter, especially with his outstanding connections in Ohio."

Kentucky's four recruiting classes under the current staff are UK's four highest-rated groups in the history of the Rivals.com evaluation. Marrow has played a key role in those efforts, spearheaded with numerous signees who hail from the Buckeye State.

Stoops and Marrow, both from Youngstown, Ohio, knew each other as children before playing football together at Cardinal Mooney High School. Marrow went on to have a successful playing career collegiately and professionally as a tight end before entering the coaching ranks.

Marrow (pronounced the same as in the term "bone marrow") came to UK from Nebraska, where he coached the Cornhuskers' tight ends for two years. In 2012, Marrow helped guide NU's tight ends to a combined 48 catches for 651 yards and five touchdowns, while their blocking ability helped NU rank eighth in the country in rushing offense. Two of Marrow's tight ends, Ben Cotton and Kyler Reed, who ranked fourth and sixth on the team respectively in receiving, earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors. The Huskers went 10-4 and played in the Capital One Bowl.

Marrow's knowledge and coaching had an impact on the Nebraska offense as the Cornhuskers ranked 26th in total offense and 28th in scoring offense nationally, an improvement from 44th in total offense and 39th in scoring offense the year before he arrived.

Marrow showed an impact on the Huskers' offense in his first season, helping Nebraska average nearly 30 points per game in 2011, scoring at least two touchdowns in every game throughout the season, a feat that an NU team had accomplished only twice in the past 10 seasons. The Cornhuskers went 9-4, including a trip to the Capital One Bowl.

Although Marrow's title was graduate assistant in his term at Nebraska, he had an expanded role in the spring of 2012, getting to hit the recruiting trail after Nebraska was granted a waiver from the NCAA to allow Marrow to recruit off campus while associate head coach Barney Cotton was unable to recruit because of surgery. Marrow made an immediate impact on NU's recruiting in Ohio.

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Marrow spent six years in the coaching ranks, mostly in professional football with NFL Europe and the United Football League. The year before joining the staff at NU, Marrow was tight ends coach with the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL.

Before serving as the head coach of Holland High School in Springfield, Ohio in 2009, Marrow earned his first collegiate coaching position at his alma mater, Toledo, in 2008. Marrow coached the Rockets' tight ends, helping John Allen and Tom Burzine to finish third and fifth on the team in receiving, respectively.

Marrow began his coaching career in NFL Europe, coaching tackles and tight ends with the Rhein Fire (Düsseldorf, Germany) from 2006-07 before holding the same position with the Berlin Thunder from 2005-06.

Marrow had a professional playing career as a member of NFL rosters on five teams, including Buffalo, Carolina, New York Jets, Chicago and San Francisco. After his NFL days ended, Marrow played for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1998, earning all-league honors with 32 receptions for 345 yards. He also played for the Orlando Rage in the XFL in 2001.

Marrow began his collegiate playing career at Youngstown State before transferring to Toledo. Marrow played two seasons at Toledo, earning second-team All-Mid-American Conference honors in 1991 before being drafted by the Bills in 1992.

Marrow graduated from Toledo with a degree in criminal justice. He and his wife, Dr. Monique Marrow, have five children, Mike, Phylica, Merrisa, Victoria and Aryanna.

JOHN SCHLARMAN OFFENSIVE LINE FOURTH SEASON • KENTUCKY, 1997

John Schlarman, a former All-Southeastern Conference offensive guard at the University of Kentucky, is in his fourth year as offensive line coach, in his current term, at his alma mater.

Schlarman has turned in a solid performance while rebuilding the Wildcat forward wall. Last season, his offensive line paved the way for 25 points, 209 passing and 163 yards rushing yards per game. The line helped sophomore running back Stanley "Boom" Williams set a new single-season school record by averaging 7.1 yards per carry.

In 2014, UK improved its offensive output by more than 11 points per game and more than 69 yards of total offense per game over the 2012 season, the year before Schlarman arrived.

For the 2016 season, the offensive line is one of the most experienced positions as it returns 86 career starts, including 47 from 2015. Senior center Jon Toth, a nominee for the Rimington Trophy for the nation's top center, headlines the O-line. Zach Myers, Kyle Meadows, George Asafo-Adjei, Nick Haynes and Ramsey Meyers also return.

Schlarman came to UK from Troy University, where he coached the offensive line from 2007-12, adding the duty of running game coordinator in 2010. He helped Troy win or share four Sun Belt Conference championships and advance to three bowl games.

Troy had one of the nation's most productive offenses during Schlarman's term, ranking among the nation's top 26 in total offense in five of his six seasons at the school. The Trojans hit a No. 3 ranking in total offense in 2009 with 485.7 yards per game. Troy averaged 498.8 yards per game in 2012, ranking 13th nationally. Featuring pass-oriented offenses, the Trojans rated as high as No. 4 in the nation in passing yardage, accomplished in 2009 at 336.5 yards per game. Troy was eighth nationally in passing in 2012 with 331.5 yards per game.

Troy also had complementary running games with Schlarman, averaging at least 149 yards per game in five of his six seasons, featuring a high mark of 182.6 yards per contest in 2007. All the yardage also has resulted in point production as the team averaged at least 30 points per game in five of his six years.

Individually, Schlarman coached eight firstteam All-Sun Belt selections, including at least one first-teamer each season. Two of his linemen, Dion Small and Tyler Clark, were two-time first-team All-SBC. Another All-SBC lineman, James Brown, went on to the National Football League and played for the Chicago Bears.

Schlarman originally came to the University from Highlands High School in Ft. Thomas, Ky., where he was an all-state offensive lineman. He was a four-year starter at Kentucky from 1994-97, earning first-team All-SEC honors as a senior. He also was a member of the SEC All-Freshman Team in 1994 and was chosen the team's most outstanding offensive lineman in 1995 and '96. Following his junior season, he was chosen for the "Unsung Hero All-America Team" by the College Football Chronicle.

Also an outstanding student, Schlarman was a three-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was a finalist for Academic All-America in 1997 after earning a place on the Academic All-District Team. He graduated with a degree in mathematics and later earned his master's in sports management.

Schlarman entered coaching at Bourbon County High School, coaching the defensive line in 1998 and '99, helping guide the team to the state playoffs both seasons. He returned to UK as a graduate assistant coach from 2000-02, helping with the offensive line all three seasons. He also had sole responsibility of the tight ends in the '02 campaign when the Wildcats compiled a 7-5 record.

Schlarman re-entered the high-school ranks in 2003 as head coach at Campbell County for two seasons. He moved to Newport HS in 2004-05 and had a two-year record of 19-6, including two state playoff appearances and a district title. The best season was 2005, when Newport went 11-2 and reached the state playoff quarterfinals before losing to the eventual state champion. He was named District Coach of the Year in 2005 by the Kentucky Football Coaches Association.

Schlarman is married to the former Lee Anne Federspiel, daughter of former UK linebacker Joe Federspiel. They have three sons, Joseph, Benjamin and Matthew.

LAMAR THOMAS WIDE RECEIVERS FIRST SEASON • MIAMI, 2008

Lamar Thomas, former Miami three-sport great and eight-year veteran of the NFL, is in his first season as Kentucky's wide receivers coach.

Thomas, one of the most productive wide receivers in college football history, joins the Kentucky coaching staff after two seasons at Louisville, a season with Western Kentucky and two years at Hampton.

During the last two seasons, Thomas guided a productive wide receiving corps for Louisville's offensive attack. During his first season, he mentored DeVante Parker, who was the Cards' first ever top-15 NFL draft selection. Parker was picked by Miami with the 14th overall selection after leading the team in receiving with 855 yards on 43 receptions and five scores in just six games. Another of Thomas' wide receivers, Eli Rogers was a free-agent signee by Pittsburgh and earned a spot on the Steelers' reserve squad. In 2015, Thomas helped junior James Quick to a 39-catch season with 624 yards and a teamhigh five TDs despite missing two games with injury. In addition, Jamari Staples caught 37 passes for a team-high 638 vards and three touchdowns. In his two years at Louisville, the Cardinals went 17-9 and made two bowl appearances.

In his season at WKU, Thomas' wide receivers were key components in the Hilltoppers setting single-season school records for passing yardage and total offense. Wide receivers Willie McNeal and Joel German enjoyed career seasons, catching 46 and 26 passes, respectively. McNeal eclipsed the 100-catch mark for his career in 2013 as well as the 1,000-yard mark.

Also at WKU, Thomas developed a pair of freshmen, Taywan Taylor and Nicholas Norris, into dynamic receivers. The duo combined for 57 catches and 701 yards, while Norris tallied four touchdowns on the season and caught at least one pass in all 12 games. The Hilltoppers went 8-4 that season.

Prior to his year at Western Kentucky, Thomas spent two seasons coaching the wide receivers at Hampton. In 2011, four of his wide receivers caught at least 33 passes each as the Pirates went 7-4.

Before beginning his collegiate coaching career, Thomas served as passing game coordinator for three seasons at Boynton Beach Community High in Boynton Beach, Fla. During his tenure, the Tigers qualified for the Florida High School Athletic Association playoffs for the first time in school history. He also coached varsity basketball and track.

Thomas was a standout wide receiver at Miami (Fla.) from 1988-92, where he earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts, while lettering in football, basketball, and track. His impressive career earned him induction into the Miami Hall of Fame in 2013. Thomas was a two-time All-Big East consensus firstteam selection as a receiver. He also played basketball in 1990 for Leonard Hamilton, and he competed in track, winning the 1992 BIG EAST outdoor high jump title with a jump of 6-7.5.

While at Miami, Thomas won two national championships (1989, 1991) and holds the school record for the most career receptions (144). When he graduated, he ranked second in both receiving yards (2,271) and touchdowns (23), behind only NFL Hall of Fame wide receiver Michael Irvin.

After his collegiate career, Thomas was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by Tampa Bay, where he played three seasons (1993-95), before finishing his career with Miami (1996-2000). His career totals featured 106 catches for 1,558 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Scholastically, Thomas was a four-sport letterman at F.W. Buchholz High in Gainesville, Fla., where he was a first team all-state selection in football and basketball his senior year.

Thomas has four sons, Chandler, Jamar, Miles and Trey, and he and wife Erin have one daughter, Parker.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

Art Still Selected to College Football Hall of Fame

Art Still, whose dominance at defensive end helped lead Kentucky to some of its greatest moments in school history, was named to the College Football Hall of Fame by the National Football Foundation.

Originally from Camden, N.J., Still played at Kentucky from 1974-77 under Coach Fran Curci. Still helped the Wildcats to a 19-4 record in his final two seasons. UK went 9-3 in his junior year, winning a share of the Southeastern Conference championship, and capped the season with a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the Peach Bowl. The Cats were ranked 18th in the final Associated Press poll.

UK posted a 10-1 mark in his senior season, finishing the campaign No. 6 in the final AP ranking. The Wildcats went 7-3 against Top-20 ranked teams his last two seasons, winning the last five in a row vs. ranked foes Florida, North Carolina, West Virginia, at Penn State and at LSU. Paced by Still's dominating performances, Kentucky led the SEC in total defense and rushing defense.

Still was a four-year starter who totaled 327 tackles during his career, an amazing figure for a defensive end. Quarterback sacks were not kept during his career and tackles for loss are available only for his senior year, when he compiled 22 TFL a school record that "Still" stands.

One interesting fact about Still is that he also saw significant action on offense as a tight end in short-yardage or goalline situations, averaging approximately 15 plays per game and frequently helping pave the way for touchdowns or first downs. Kentucky rushed for 269.1 yards per game in 1976, the second-highest mark in school history, and rushed for 228.7 yards per game in 1977.

Still was a unanimous first-team All-America selection in 1977 as chosen by AP, United Press International, Football Writers Association of America, the American Football Coaches Association, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, The Sporting News and Football News.

Still was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the UPI National Lineman of the Year. He was the Brooks-Irvine Memorial Football Club of South Jersey College Player of the Year.

2015 GAME RECAPS

KENTUCKY 40, LOUISIANA LAFAYETTE 33

SEPT. 5, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY. THE NEW CWS (62,933)

Anticipation. Electricity. And then a Boom. Williams, that is.

Kentucky's Stanley "Boom" Williams raced 75 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage to open the 2015 season and The New Commonwealth Stadium in storybook fashion. But, the Wildcats would need a storybook ending to fend off a late UL Lafayette charge.

Sophomore running back Mikel Horton scampered 12 yards for a touchdown with 57 seconds remaining to lift UK to a 40-33 win over visiting UL Lafayette in front of a sellout crowd of 62,933 fans.

After jumping out to a 23-point advantage behind three touchdown passes from junior Patrick Towles, Boom's rushing touchdown and two field goals. Kentucky vielded 23 consecutive points to the Ragin' Caiuns in less than nine minutes of play to tie the score at 33.

UL Lafayette forced the home team into a three-and-out to take over possession with a chance at seizing the lead with 6:58 remaining. UK senior lineman Melvin Lewis stuffed Louisiana's Elijah McGuire for a three-yard loss to help force the Cajuns into a punt, setting the stage for Horton and the offense

Needing a score, UK generated a nine-play, 58-yard game-winning drive. Kentucky's offense benefited from two 15-vard penalties during the winning push, but Horton was able to take advantage of the miscues to lift Kentucky to the win

Kentucky quarterback Patrick Towles threw for 257 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. UK generated 435 yards of total offense. Williams secured his third-career 100-yard rushing game on 10 carries for 135 yards, which included the opening-drive score. Horton carried six times for 28 yards and the final touchdown. Sophomore Garrett Johnson led the receiving corps with five catches for 85 yards and a touchdown. Five receivers snared at least one ball for 30 or more receiving yards, and three different receivers caught touchdowns from Towles.

Senior linebacker Josh Forrest paced the defensive effort with 15 tackles, including a sack, three pass breakups and the game-clinching interception. Junior corner J.D. Harmon was a part of two turnovers for the Cats. He forced a fumble deep in Kentucky's territory to end a lengthy Ragin' Cajun drive in the opening quarter before picking off a pass in the second quarter. Lewis added nine tackles to the defensive effort.

It was a tale of two halves, with Kentucky's offense scoring 24 unanswered first-half points before the Wildcat defense made big play after big play in the second half, securing a 26-22 victory over South Carolina in front of 82,178 at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia. S.C.

Heading into halftime with a 24-7 lead, South Carolina scored the first 15 points of the second half, including three Elliott Fry field goals and a 33-yard touchdown pass from Perry Orth – who was playing for injured Gamecock quarterback Connor Mitch - to Jerrell Adams, to cut the UK lead to 24-22.

The Gamecocks decided to go for the two-point conversion to try to tie the game before freshman Denzil Ware scooped up a fumble and returned it 98 yards for two points to give UK a 26-22 lead with 8:09 to go in the game.

After a short drive by the UK offense, South Carolina started another drive on a tired Kentucky defense before another freshman made a big play with rookie cornerback Chris Westry earning his first-career interception to put the Wildcats back in the driver's seat.

The Wildcat offense, which struggled for much of the second half, sealed the victory from there, taking the final 4:32 off the clock, including a key 11-yard quarterback draw by Patrick Towles on third down to drain the Gamecocks of timeouts. Sophomore Stanley "Boom" Williams took over from there with a 25-yard rush to end the game.

The victory for Kentucky broke a 22-game losing streak in road games with the Wildcats last road win coming at Louisville in Sept. 2010. Kentucky's last SEC road victory was at Georgia in Nov. 2009. UK is now 2-0 on the season and starts conference play with a victory for the first time since defeating Arkansas in 2007 in Favetteville

. Towles was in command in the first half through the air, going 21-for-29 overall for 192 yards. The junior signal caller threw his only interception on the first drive of the game that set up South Carolina deep in Kentucky territory with Mitch rushing in from one-vard out to give USC a 7-0 lead with 12:03 to play in the first quarter.

That was all the Gamecocks would get offensively in the first half as Kentucky rattled off the next 24 points to end the half, starting with an eight-yard rush from Horton to tie the game 7-7. Kemp got in on the scoring later in the first quarter, completing an eight-play drive with a two-yard rush for a touchdown to give Kentucky a 14-7 lead.

A USC missed field goal gave possession back to Kentucky with 2:46 to go in the half and Towles and Co. took advantage. After a 20-yard completion to Dorian Baker. Towles connected to Jeff Badet for 43 yards to the USC 11-yard line to set up a 1-yard rush from Towles with 17 seconds to go in the half to give UK a 24-7 lead.

SEPT. 19, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY. THE NEW CWS (63,040)

Despite a sparkling defensive effort in which the Kentucky football team held Florida scoreless in the second half, a fourth-quarter rally fell short as Florida prevailed 14-9 in front of a sold-out Commonwealth Stadium.

Trailing 14-3 going into the fourth quarter, the Wildcats made it a onescore game behind two Austin MacGinnis field goals. UK had the ball twice over the final five minutes in an attempt to score the go-ahead touchdown but Florida held on for the win.

Kentucky's defense stymied the Gator attack for the entire second half. Five Wildcats registered six or more tackles on the night, led by Khalid Henderson's nine stops. UK posted three tackles for a loss and J.D. Harmon picked off a pass in the end zone to halt a Florida drive in the middle of the third quarter that would have pushed UF's lead to three scores. The interception sparked a momentum change in the game as UK would go on to put together back-to-back scoring drives.

Following Harmon's interception in the third quarter, Patrick Towles' 33-yard quarterback scramble highlighted a 75-yard drive by the Wildcats to inch closer at 14-6 with 14:50 in the fourth. MacGinnis connected on a 22-yard field goal for the Wildcats to make it a one-possession game.

After the UK defense forced a three-and-out, MacGinnis made it a five-point contest with 10:57 to go with a 45-yard field goal. Towles found Jeff Badet for a 45-yard strike down the left sideline to push the Wildcats into field-goal range as the drive's highlight.

Following UK's third field goal of the game, Florida managed one first down before being forced to punt with 8:34 remaining. Faced with a third-and-10 from its own 22, Towles found Baker open on the right sideline to keep the drive alive. Williams followed with a 14-yard rush, but the drive stalled at UK's 48.

The Gators picked up two first downs and killed 3:44 of clock before punting back to the Wildcats, which began the final drive at their own 20. Towles and Baker hooked up for a 20-yard gain on fourth-and-3 at the Kentucky 27 to keep the drive alive. On a subsequent fourth-down play, Towles' deep ball down the left side line intended for Ryan Timmons was picked off to preserve the Gators' victory.

Florida opened the game's scoring with a 1-yard run by Will Grier on fourth down to go ahead 7-0. Kentucky answered with a 14-play, 64-yard drive that resulted in a MacGinnis 29-yard field goal to make the score 7-3. In the second quarter, the Gators put together an 11-play, 67-yard drive, which ended in a 34-yard field goal attempt by Austin Hardin that was subsequently blocked by UK's CJ Johnson to preserve the 7-3 score. The visitors capped the half by marching 57 yards for a three-yard plunge by running back Kelvin Taylor to push UF's lead to 14-3 with 14 seconds remaining.

Patrick Towles guided Kentucky to two second-half touchdowns, while pacing the Wildcats to a 21-13 victory over No. 25 Missouri and a myriad of firsts at Commonwealth Stadium. The win was UK's first league victory at the New Commonwealth Stadium and its first win over a ranked foe since 2010.

Towles directed scoring drives in the third and fourth quarters to ignite the offensive effort in the second half. The junior found C.J. Conrad for a 24-yard strike before connecting with Dorian Baker with less than seven minutes to play to give the Wildcats an 11-point lead it would not relinquish.

Garrett Johnson led the team in receiving with a season-high 119 yards, including a long of 35 yards that matched his season best. Conrad had a breakout game, not only recording his first career catch but also his first career touchdown with 55 yards of offense through the air. Baker also had a standout game, matching his career high of 51 yards and recording the second buchdown of his career.

Mizzou was the first team of the night to scratch the scoreboard, using two third-down conversions to reach the red zone. With 17 yards between himself and the end zone, Mauk tossed a lob to an open J'Mon Moore for a touchdown with a successful extra point to give the Tigers the 7-0 advantage with 3:42 remaining in the opening quarter. Following a rocky start to the drive that found the Wildcats in a first-and-29 situation, Towles found

Johnson for consecutive 20-plus-yard throws to move the chains and get UK into Missouri territory for the first time in the contest. Towles used the opening play of the second quarter to dodge and weave through the Tiger defense for a rushing touchdown. That knotted the score at seven apiece.

A Missouri field goal made the score 10-7 before junior running back Jojo Kemp acted as the catalyst for the team, as three of his carries totaled a combined 37 yards, giving UK a first-and-goal late in the third quarter to set up the Conrad touchdown and put UK on top 14-10.

Kentucky continued to pour it on offensively in the final quarter, taking to the air again when Towles first found Johnson for a 35-yard reception, matching the wide receiver's season long, before Baker pulled in a 25-yard toss on the sideline.

Another pass to Johnson, fanned out to the left sideline for a 24-yarder, put the Wildcats within five yards of the end zone. Towles then found Baker on a 5-yard lob for his first touchdown of the season and the second of his career, putting UK up 21-10 over the Tigers with 6:20 left in the game.

The Tigers looked like they would soon answer back with a touchdown, quickly making their way through Kentucky territory. Despite their momentum, the staunch UK red zone defense, led by a pass breakup followed by a quarterback hurry by Ryan Flannigan, once again forced Missouri to concede a field-goal attempt. Baggett's 24-yard attempt was good, but the Wildcats were able to close out the final 2:56 of the game with a pair of first downs.

Despite trailing by 14 points with less than eight minutes in the fourth quarter, the Kentucky football team celebrated its 100th Homecoming anniversary at The New CWS in thrilling fashion, notching a 34-27 comeback overtime victory over in-state foe Eastern Kentucky University.

Kentucky rallied from a 27-13 deficit late in the fourth quarter with back-to-back touchdown drives. Facing a fourth-and-3 at the end of regulation, Patrick Towles stood in the face of a blitz and found Dorian Baker for a 5-yard touchdown to force overtime.

The duo connected again in overtime with a 3-yard pitch-and-catch to take a 34-27 lead. CJ Johnson, who recorded 19 tackles, the most by a defensive lineman in program history, fittingly sealed the outcome with a game-clinching sack.

The outcome tied the school record for biggest fourth-quarter comeback in school history - previously set a year ago when UK rallied from 14 down in the final stanza to win vs. South Carolina.

Towles rebounded from a two-interception first half to lead the offense for the Wildcats, connecting on 29-of-42 pass attempts for 329 yards and three touchdowns to go along with a rushing score.

The duo of Baker and Blake Bone carried the offense in receiving with 86 and 85 yards, respectively. Both bested their career highs by more than 20 yards each, and Baker's two touchdowns, which included the gametying and game-winning catches, is a career best for the wide receiver.

Kentucky stayed in the game thanks to standout defensive performances by a number of players. Eight of Johnson's 19 tackles were solo stops, including a sack and two-and-a-half tackles for loss. Ryan Flannigan was one tackle off his career best with 11 tackles, Josh Forrest recorded double-digit tackles with 10 stops on the night, and Farrington Huguenin blocked a field goal and recovered a fumble.

For the Colonels, Bennie Coney paced the offense with 19-of-32 passing for 183 yards and two touchdowns. The pair of Thomas Ethan and Dy'Shawn Mobley combined for 158 of EKU's 180 rushing yards with 84 yards and 74 yards, respectively. Mobley also led the team in receiving with 50 yards on five catches.

OCT. 15. 2015 • LEXINGTON. KY. THE NEW CWS (63.407)

Kentucky scored 17 second-half points and rallied to within one score, but the Auburn Tigers held on for a 30-27 win in front of 63.407 fans in The New CWS in the first Thursday night primetime home game in program history.

Auburn earned a 10-point advantage at 30-20 with less than eight minutes to play before the Wildcats pulled to within three following a Mikel Horton 1-yard plunge. Kentucky got the ball back at its own 15-yard line with 2:12 remaining and drove into Auburn territory, but lost the ball on downs as the Tigers clinched the victory.

Auburn took little time in taking an early lead thanks to the combination of Sean White and Ricardo Louis moving the chains with a pair of 20-plus-vard receptions. Once in the red zone, the Tigers turned to Peyton Barber to carry the ball in for a 1-yard rushing touchdown and a 7-0 advantage with just under four minutes into the quarter.

The Wildcats quickly retaliated, covering 75 yards on just six plays. Boom Williams broke through the Auburn defense and tore away for a 60-yard dash to put the Wildcats at first-and-goal from the 3-yard line. Williams completed the drive with consecutive rushes, tying the game at 7-7.

Three Daniel Carlson field goals and a Kerryon Johnson TD rush allowed Auburn to open up a 23-10 halftime lead.

Kentucky came out energized in the second half, with Patrick Towles spreading out the offense through the air as Johnson, Jeff Badet and Dorian Baker combined for 50 receiving yards to set up Williams for a 13-yard rush along the left sideline. Williams shouldered his way through the Auburn line and extended his arm with the ball in hand to complete a 6-yard rush for his second touchdown of the game. Within just over three minutes' time, the Wildcats were within six points of the Tigers, 23-17.

The Wildcats' defense came up with some impactful plays following the touchdown, forcing Auburn to concede a punt on consecutive drives. Highlighted by a 13-yard rush by Towles and an 11-yard pass to C.J. Conrad, who pulled two Auburn defenders along with him to give the team a first down, UK was able to lessen the deficit to 23-20 with 1:03 remaining in the quarter after an Austin MacGinnis field goal.

The fourth quarter saw the Tigers retaliate, aided by a 34-yard pass to Louis to reach the red zone. Barber added another rushing touchdown with 7:56 remaining in the contest, as the Wildcats fell behind 30-20.

With plenty of fight left, Kentucky answered back immediately. Towles found Blake Bone for an 11-yard pass and later launched to Badet on the Auburn 2-yard line for a 27-yard catch. Horton scored for the Wildcats on a 1-yard rush, once more bringing the Blue and White within three points of the Tigers, 30-27

MISSISSIPPI STATE 42, KENTUCKY 16

OCT. 24. 2015 • STARKVILLE. MISS. DAVIS WADE STADIUM (61.168)

Mississippi State scored 21 points in the second guarter behind the impressive play of Bulldog senior quarterback Dak Prescott. handing Kentucky its first road loss of the season, 42-16, at Davis Wade Stadium in Starkville, Miss.

Prescott was the star of the game, going 25-for-35 through the air for 348 yards and three touchdowns, while rushing 13 times for 117 yards and three touchdowns on the ground. Brandon Holloway was the team's second-leading rusher, carrying the ball six times for 36 vards. Holloway was also the team's leading receiver with five catches for 98 yards and a touchdown.

Kentucky quarterback Patrick Towles went 23-for-42 in the game for 218 yards, rushing for a touchdown on six carries for 13 yards. Boom Williams was the leading rusher for Kentucky, carrying the ball 18 times for 95 yards, including a 25-yard rush. Dorian Baker had seven receptions for 56 yards, while tight end C.J. Conrad had a career game with six receptions for 56 yards and sophomore Juice Johnson had five catches for 74 yards.

Kentucky (4-3, 2-3 Southeastern Conference) scored first when Towles put in a quarterback sneak from two yards out to complete a seven-play, 69-yard drive in the first guarter. After the Bulldogs responded with a Prescott touchdown run to tie the game 7-7. UK put together an eight-play drive to retake the lead 10-7 after an Austin MacGinnis 44-yard field goal, his first of three on the day

That was the last lead the Wildcats would claim as Mississippi State opened up the lead with three straight touchdowns in the second quarter, including two in the final 1:34 of the half. Prescott was at the center of all three touchdowns, throwing a 13-yard score to De'Runnya Wilson and eight-yard TD pass to Holloway before rushing in for 20 yards late in the first half.

MacGinnis added a 48-yard field goal with three seconds to go in the half and a 32-yarder late in the third quarter before Prescott connected with Darrion Hutcherson to increase the lead to 35-16. Prescott put the finishing touches on the win with 9:14 to play in the fourth quarter, rushing in from 18 yards out to give the Bulldogs a 42-16 victory

Kentucky fell while hosting Tennessee in a 52-21 decision inside The New Commonwealth Stadium as the Volunteers used four touchdowns in the third quarter to clinch the game.

Josh Dobbs was the offensive leader for the Volunteers on 16-of-26 passing for 233 vards and two touchdowns. Dobbs added 51 rushing vards and two TDs on the ground. Josh Malone led the receiving corps with 103 yards and one touchdown on four catches.

The UK defense shined on Tennessee's opening possession, with Marcus McWilson sacking Dobbs, forcing a fumble that was picked up by C.J. Johnson, who returned it for a 77-yard touchdown.

Tennessee retaliated shortly thereafter, with Dobbs scoring on a 28-yard run to equalize the score at 7-7 with 2:45 remaining in the opening quarter.

After the Vols added a field goal to go up 10-7, Kentucky was able to swing the lead to a 14-10 advantage, penetrating the red zone after Patrick Towles had a 21-yard scamper to break out of fourth-and-5. With a 6-yard lob to CJ Conrad, the Wildcats earned a first-and-goal but quickly found themselves at fourth down once more. Towles took charge again, with a 1-vard scramble that would land him in the end zone.

However, the lead changed hands again after a 75-yard pass from Dobbs found its way into the hands of Malone. Tennessee put more points up to close out the half, fueled by a 63-yard run by Alvin Kamara that set Dobbs up for a 1-yard rush for a touchdown.

The Volunteers started off the second half with a pair of touchdowns within five minutes, both courtesy of Jalen Hurd. He first caught a 37-yard pass and later ran in a 4-yard carry.

Kentucky found a way to break through the UT defense, scoring in just four plays and traversing 75 yards of the field. Mikel Horton started things with an 18-yard carry, and Towles finished with a 39-yard TD pass to Garrett Johnson. Tennessee responded with a pair of touchdowns to complete the scoring.

GEORGIA 27, KENTUCKY 3

NOV. 7, 2015 • ATHENS, GA. SANFORD STADIUM (92,746)

The University of Georgia football team scored 14 points in the third quarter to open up a 21-point lead and roll to a 27-3 victory over Kentucky at Sanford Stadium.

Georgia started the scoring, getting a 28-yard touchdown rush by Terry Godwin with 8:57 to play in the first quarter to put the Bulldogs up 7-0.

The two teams traded field goals the reminder of the first half with Marshall Morgan hitting from 22 yards and UK's Austin MacGinnis hitting from 32 yards to cut the UGA halftime lead to 10-3.

Georgia took control of the game in the third quarter. Kentucky received the opening kickoff of the second half and elected to go for it on fourth-and-short near midfield, but could not convert. The Bulldogs marched 52 yards down the field with Sony Michel's one-yard scoring rush giving UGA a 17-3 lead. The Bulldogs added to that lead late in the third quarter when Keith Marshall scored on a 10-yard pass from quarterback Greyson Lambert to put UGA up 24-3. Georgia added a 27-yard field goal by

Morgan in the fourth quarter to put the finishing touches on the

The Wildcat offense struggled to find momentum in the game with quarterback Patrick Towles going 8-for-21 for 96 yards. Redshirt freshman quarterback Drew Barker replaced Towles in the fourth quarter and went 1-for-2 with a five-yard pass.

Junior running back Jojo Kemp paced the UK ground game with 12 carries for 48 yards, while sophomore Mikel Horton had nine carries for 35 yards. Sophomore wide receiver Garrett Johnson had three receptions for 49 yards, including a 27-yard grab, while sophomore Dorian Baker had three receptions for 31 yards and Jeff Badet had one catch for 16 yards.

Senior linebacker Josh Forrest had 10 tackles in the game with one tackle-for-loss, while safety Marcus McWilson had nine tackles and senior safety A.J. Stamps had a career-high 11 tackles, 0.5 tackles for loss and one pass breakup.

VANDERBILT 21, KENTUCKY 17

NOV. 14, 2015 • NASHVILLE, TENN. VANDERBILT STADIUM (30,301)

Sophomore running back Stanley "Boom" Williams rushed 13 times for 115 yards as Kentucky fell to Vanderbilt 21-17 in Nashville. Williams had rushes of 66 and 38 yards in his return from an elbow injury.

Kentucky got on the board first in the game, as Austin MacGinnis hit a 38-yard field goal in the first quarter. But Vandy took its first lead later in that period when Kyle Shurmur hit Kyle Anderton for a four-yard touchdown to give the Commodores a 7-3 lead.

In the second quarter, Kentucky got into the end zone when redshirt freshman quarterback Drew Barker connected with Ryan Timmons on a seven-yard pass to make it 10-7 Kentucky. That marked Barker's first career touchdown pass.

On Kentucky's next possession, Barker was intercepted by Oren Burks, who returned the pick 30 yards for a touchdown to give Vanderbilt a 14-10 lead before the half.

Vanderbilt tacked on another touchdown before the half when Shurmur connected with Caleb Scott on a 37-yard pass, giving the Commodores a 21-10 lead at the break.

The second half was largely dominated by the defenses. In fact, the only score after the break came when Kentucky running back Jojo Kemp found the end zone from two yards out with 1:06 left in the third quarter, pulling Kentucky within four points.

Kentucky starting quarterback Patrick Towles was 10 of 26 through the air for 67 yards with an interception, while Barker hit on 5-of-8 passes for 60 yards, with a touchdown and an interception.

Kentucky wide receiver Dorian Baker caught seven passes for 42 yards in the game, while teammate Jeff Badet caught two passes for 50 yards.

2015 REVIEW

KENTUCKY 58, CHARLOTTE 10

NOV. 21, 2015 • LEXINGTON, KY. THE NEW CWS (56.195)

Jojo Kemp rushed for three touchdowns, Boom Williams ran for two and Kentucky rolled up 544 yards in a 58-10 blowout of Charlotte that ended a five-game losing streak.

Kemp broke TD runs of 6, 18, and 47 yards, Williams scored from 20 and 53 yards and Sihiem King added a 62-yarder as Kentucky (5-6) rushed for 415 yards, fourth most in school history.

Mike Edwards returned an interception 20 yards for another Wildcats score that handed the 49ers (2-9) their ninth straight loss.

Redshirt freshman Drew Barker added 129 vards passing in his first career start for Kentucky, which earned the first of two wins needed to reach the threshold for bowl eligibility. The Wildcats' defense held Charlotte to just 233 yards, recorded four sacks and forced three turnovers.

Miles Butler kicked field goals of 21, 46 and 32 yards for Kentucky.

Kentucky registered 50 points for the first time since August 2014 against UT Martin, and their 48-point victory margin was its largest since beating UTEP 77-17 in 2002.

One skid was bound to end with 13 combined consecutive losses between the schools coming in. Charlotte's growing pains were somewhat expected considering it's a firstyear FBS member, but the Wildcats' slump was putting them on the cusp of missing the postseason for a fifth straight season.

The Wildcats succeeded behind a powerful ground game led by Kemp and Williams, who rushed for 165 and 140 yards respectively. That gave Kentucky its first pair of 100-yard rushers in a game since Randall Cobb and Derrick Locke in November 2010.

Barker was 16 of 29 passing in his first start for the Wildcats in place of junior Patrick Towles. His first offensive series wasn't encouraging as the drive mostly went backwards, but he quickly recovered to direct four straight scoring drives, including two ending with Kemp TD runs.

Kentucky built a 20-3 halftime lead that soon exploded into a rout thanks to its running backs and an opportunistic defense that forced two turnovers leading to 10 points and Edwards' interception return.

Kentucky raced out to a 21-0 lead in the first guarter but couldn't hold on, as Louisville rallied for a 38-24 win at Commonwealth Stadium in the regular season finale.

Kentucky received the opening kickoff and marched down the field, taking a 7-0 lead on a one-vard rush by guarterback Drew Barker

After an A.J. Stamps interception, Kentucky took advantage of a short field, going 13 yards in two plays, capped off by a six-yard touchdown rush by Boom Williams to make it 14-0 Kentucky.

On Louisville's next possession. Kentucky intercepted Louisville quarterback Kyle Bolin for the second time, and Josh Forrest returned the pick 81 yards for a touchdown to make it 21-0, still in the first quarter.

- Louisville got on the board late in the first quarter when backup quarterback Lamar Jackson rushed 16 yards for a score to make it 21-7. In the second quarter, Kentucky added a 20-yard field goal by Miles
- Butler to take a 24-7 lead, which would be the halftime score. Louisville rallied in the second half, eventually tying the game late in the third quarter, and going on to the victory.

Dorian Baker had three catches for 94 yards for Kentucky, while Mikel Horton had 44 vards on the ground to lead the Cats.

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL HISTORY

One of the most impressive collegiate staffs assembled was Blanton Collier's 1959 coaching staff. From left: Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Collier, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsparger.

From UK's first All-American, Clyde Johnson, to its most recent, Bud Dupree; from Professor A.M. Miller to Coach Mark Stoops; from old Stoll Field to Commonwealth Stadium; from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association to the Southeastern Conference; and with all the ensuing changes, Kentucky football holds a unique and storied tradition that began in 1881.

UK football holds a captivating list of firsts: UK was the first Southeastern Conference team to introduce football, which it did in 1881; UK played in the first and only Great Lakes Bowl in 1947, defeating Villanova, 24-14; Kentucky tackle Bob Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy, making him the first player from the SEC to claim the honor; the Wildcats' Nat Northington was the first African-American player to sign with a Southeastern Conference institution and the first to play in a league contest – vs. Ole Miss in 1967, and in 1969 Wilbur Hackett became the first African-American captain for any SEC team. Then, in 1989, UK became the first SEC school to win the coveted College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate.

In 125 seasons, Kentucky has participated in 1,242 contests. UK football has won one national championship, two Southeastern Conference championships and appeared in 15 bowls.

UK football has had 16 National Football League first-round draft choices, one Outland Trophy winner, 24 first-team All-Americans (selected 28 times), 17 Academic All-Americans (selected 20 times), 75 firstteam All-SEC players (selected 101 times), and 590 Academic All-SEC selections.

Kentucky football got its start on Nov. 12, 1881. Kentucky, known in those days as A&M College, Kentucky

122

State College and/or State University of Kentucky, defeated Kentucky University by the clumsy score of 7 1/4 to 1. The game of football resembled more of a rugby form and the scoring procedure is still unclear. Though football came to Kentucky in 1881, it quickly vanished after the three-game season. UK finished 1-2 in the inaugural campaign, but the lid was shut on UK football for the next nine seasons.

Football returned to the University of Kentucky in 1891, when UK defeated Georgetown College, 8-2, on April 10, 1891. The sport would not again be interrupted until the 1943 season because of World War II.

The first known head football coach at Kentucky was Professor A.M. Miller, who the students asked to coach despite his admitted limited knowledge of the game. Miller began the 1892 season, then graciously stepped aside later in the year for John A. Thompson, who had more experience with the sport.

Some successful years in the early 1900s dot the UK record book. Kentucky finished 7-1 in 1903 under Coach C.A. Wright; 9-1 in 1904 under Coach F.E. Schact; 9-1-1 in 1907 with Coach J. White Guyn, and 9-1 in 1909 under E.R. Sweetland.

The greatest UK team of that era was the 1898 squad, known simply to Kentuckians as "The Immortals." To this day, the Immortals remain the only undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team in UK football history. The Immortals were coached by W.R. Bass and ended the year a perfect 7-0-0, despite an average weight of 147 pounds per player. Victories came easily for this squad, as the Immortals raced by Kentucky University (18-0), Georgetown (28-0), Company H of the 8th Massachusetts (59-0), Louisville Athletic Club (16-0), Centre (6-0), 160th Indiana (17-0) and Newcastle Athletic Club (36-0). Besides Bass, two of the most successful coaches in the early stages of UK football were E.R. Sweetland and Harry Gamage. Sweetland compiled a 23-5 mark in three seasons (1909-10, 12). His best year was 9-1 in '09. Gamage took the reins of the UK program in 1927 and remained until following the 1933 campaign. In between, Gamage led the Wildcats to a combined 32-25-5 record. His best season was 6-1-1 in '29.

One of Gamage's brightest moments came during the 1930 season. During the 57-0 blanking of Maryville, UK running back Shipwreck Kelly rushed for a school-record 280 yards in leading the Cats.

Coach Bear Bryant guided Kentucky to eight consecutive winning seasons and four bowl games from 1946-53.

More than a decade after Gamage had left UK, a young man by the name of Paul "Bear" Bryant arrived on the scene at Lexington in 1946. Bryant quickly grabbed the UK program by the collar and turned the Cats into a national power.

Bryant took UK to eight consecutive winning seasons (1946-53) and helped the Wildcats claim their first national championship and Southeastern Conference championship in 1950. He also sent UK squads to four bowl games which included the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl, 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and the 1952 Cotton Bowl.

The biggest win in UK football history came under Bryant. After leading Kentucky to its first SEC title and a 10-1 regular-season record, UK found itself matched with defending national champion Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl. The Wildcats scored early and held off the Sooners, 13-7, breaking Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak which is currently the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

In the 1990s, research by Jeff Sagarin, who compiles the Sagarin Computer Ratings for USA Today, indicated that UK is the national champion for the 1950 season under that ranking system.

Also under Bryant, tackle Bob Gain became the first UK and SEC player to win the Outland Trophy in 1950. Other standouts in the Bryant era included George Blanda, All-American Babe Parilli, and eventual UK coach Jerry Claiborne.

Bryant left Kentucky following the 1953 season. He compiled an impressive 60-23-5 record in eight years. Bryant's 60 victories are still a UK football record for head coaches.

Blanton Collier had the task of following in Bryant's footsteps. He stayed eight years at UK as well, etching a 41-36-3 record from 1954 to 1961. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his 5-2-1 record against arch-rival Tennessee. He coached All-Americans Lou Michaels (1957-58) and Howard Schnellenberger (1955) at UK.

Charlie Bradshaw became the head mentor at UK in time for the 1962 season. Bradshaw, a UK graduate who lettered four years (1946-49), managed only a 25-41-4 record in seven seasons. One highlight of his term at UK came in 1964, a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss in Jackson, Miss.

John Ray entered the scene in 1969 as head coach. In four years, Ray was 10-33. His biggest win came during his first year as Kentucky again victimized Ole Miss and Archie Manning. The Cats upset the Rebels, 10-9, in Lexington.

The Fran Curci era began in 1973, the same year Kentucky moved from ancient Stoll Field/McLean Stadium to spacious Common-wealth Stadium. Though Curci had only one winning campaign during his first three years, things got interesting beginning with the 1976 season. UK ended the '76 year with an 8-3 record and its second SEC championship.

Kentucky helped secure its second league title on the strength of a 62-yard touchdown pass from Derrick Ramsey to Greg Woods to beat Tennessee, 7-0, at Art Still earned consensus first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1977.

Knoxville, Tenn. The victory clinched a berth in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina, UK's first postseason appearance in 25 years. Before a UK contingent estimated at 25,000, the Cats blanked the Tar Heels, 21-0.

The following year, Kentucky went on NCAA probation. Despite an early season loss at Baylor, the Wildcats rolled to an impressive 10-1 record doing it the hard way. Kentucky defeated Penn State (24-20) in University Park, Pa., defeated LSU (33-13) in Baton Rouge, La., blanked Georgia (33-0) in Athens, Ga., and beat Florida (14-7) in Gainesville, Fla. In the Curci era, players like Sonny Collins (UK career leader with 3,835 yards rushing), All-Americans Warren Bryant and Art Still and multi-talented Derrick Ramsey, wore the blue and white. In all, Curci worked nine years, the longest term of any UK head coach.

Jerry Claiborne answered the call of his alma mater in December of 1981 and was named the school's 31st head football coach. Claiborne had played at UK from 1946-49 and was an assistant coach under Bryant at UK in 1952-53.

After an 0-10-1 mark in Claiborne's first season, his 1983 squad tied for the nation's most improved program with a regular-season record of 6-4-1 and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Kentucky improved in 1984, finishing with a 9-3 record which included a thrilling 20-19 win over Wisconsin in the '84 Hall of Fame Bowl.

Claiborne won 41 games during his eight seasons with the Wildcats. Claiborne and Bryant are the only two UK coaches to win at least five games in seven consecutive seasons.

During Claiborne's tenure, Kentucky captured the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. UK led the SEC in SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (68) during the Claiborne era, including a then-league record of 17 players named to the 1989 honor roll.

Individually, quarterback Bill Ransdell played under Claiborne and left as UK's all-time leader in passing and total offense. Mark Higgs departed as the school's second-leading rusher and tackle Oliver Barnett set a UK record with 26 quarterback sacks.

After Claiborne's retirement, Bill Curry took over as head coach in 1990. The highlight of Curry's term came in 1993 as the Wildcats played in the Peach Bowl.

KENTUCKY

All-America quarterback Tim Couch led Kentucky to its first New Year's Day Bowl appearance in 47 years in the 1999 Outback Bowl.

In 1994, the Wildcats faced intrastate rival Louisville for the first time in 70 years and defeated the Cardinals 20-14 in front of a then-record 59,162 fans in Commonwealth Stadium.

The 1995 season was highlighted by tailback Moe Williams, who rushed for 1,600 yards, broke three SEC records, and broke or tied 15 school records. Williams had 429 all-purpose yards in a win at South Carolina, the second-highest single-game total in NCAA history.

The arrival of Coach Hal Mumme in 1997 unleashed a lightning bolt of enthusiasm for Kentucky football. Mumme's dynamic "Air Raid" offense put UK among the national leaders in passing yardage and total offense and the '97 team broke or tied 51 school records and 15 Southeastern Conference records.

Kentucky returned to the bowl scene in 1998 when the Wildcats won seven games. Quarterback Tim Couch was a first-team All-American, SEC Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy while rewriting NCAA, SEC, and UK record books. Wide receiver Craig Yeast became the leading pass catcher in SEC history. The Wildcats capped their season by playing Penn State in the Outback Bowl, the school's first New Year's Day bowl game in 47 years.

Following the Outback Bowl season, Commonwealth Stadium was expanded. UK enclosed both end zones and added personal suites in time for the 1999 season, boosting seating capacity to 67,606.

Kentucky has claimed one national championship, won two SEC Championships and appeared in 15 bowls.

The Wildcats celebrated the stadium expansion with another bowl season. All-America tight end James Whalen helped lead UK to the 1999 HomePoint.com Music City Bowl, marking the school's first back-toback bowl appearances since 1983-84.

Guy Morriss coached the Wildcats in 2001-02. He guided UK to seven wins in '02, but the Wildcats could not go to a bowl game because of NCAA probation. Derek Abney returned six kicks for touchdowns, more than any player in one season in NCAA history, and was named first-team All-America along with punter Glenn Pakulak. Pakulak emerged as the best punter in school history and won the Mosi Tatupu Award as National Special Teams Player of the Year.

Inheriting a roster weakened by probation was the major obstacle for Rich Brooks when he took over as head coach in 2003. Brooks' rebuilding efforts began bearing fruit in 2006. The Wildcats had their best season in 22 years by winning eight games, including a 28-20 upset of highly favored Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Led by quarterback Andre' Woodson, tailback Rafael Little, wide receiver Keenan Burton, tight end Jacob Tamme and linebacker Wesley Woodyard, the 2007 season contained some of the most exciting moments in school history.

UK notched its first win over a Top-10 opponent in 30 years with a dramatic comeback victory over No. 9 Louisville. UK reached the Top-10 rankings for the first time since 1977 and the popular "ESPN GameDay" crew made its first visit to campus. UK also knocked off No. 1-ranked LSU -- the eventual national champion -- with a 43-37 triple-overtime thriller. The campaign was capped with another Music City Bowl win, this time over traditional power Florida State.

Kentucky capped the 2008 season with a win over East Carolina in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, the first time in school history that UK won bowl games in three consecutive seasons.

Brooks retired following the 2009 season, handing the reins to former Wildcat player and long-time assistant coach Joker Phillips. Sparked by All-America receiver Randall Cobb, Phillips became the first head coach in UK history to take the Wildcats to a bowl game in his first season, completing a school-record streak of five-straight postseason appearances. Another highlight of Phillips' term was ending the 26year losing streak vs. Tennessee with a 10-7 win over the Volunteers in 2011.

A new era began in 2013 with the hiring of Mark Stoops as head coach. Stoops and his staff are making a huge impact in recruiting as he works to rebuild the program.

WILDCAT TRADITIONS & LEGENDS

Below is a closer look at some of the traditions and history which has molded the past 125 seasons of Kentucky football. Some of the anecdotes were derived from the book, "The Wildcats," which was written by former UK Sports Information Director Russell Rice.

1A And 1B

During the course of his legendary career, Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant was known as an innovator of introducing changes in the game of football. One change Bryant introduced during his tenure at Kentucky was the use of a unique number system to identify twins Harry and Larry Jones, who both lettered three years (1950-52) with the Wildcats. Harry wore 1A and Larry wore 1B. Harry led the Wildcats in all-purpose yardage in 1951 with 964 while Larry led UK in kickoff returns (21.1 avg) in 1952.

Blue and White

124

The University of Kentucky adopted blue and white as its official colors in 1892. Originally, UK students had decided on blue and yellow prior to the Kentucky-Centre football game on Dec. 19, 1891. The shade of blue came about when a student asked the question, "What color blue?" Richard C. Stoll, who lettered on the 1893-94 football teams, pulled off his necktie and held it up. The students adopted that particular shade of blue in Stoll's necktie. A year later, UK students dropped yellow for white.

Rich Brooks

Rich Brooks coached the Wildcats from 2003-09 and became the first coach in school history to go to four-straight bowl games. After enduring three years of rebuilding caused by an NCAA probation, Brooks guided UK to postseason play from 2006-09, winning a school-record three straight bowls following the 2006, '07 and '08 seasons.

Rich Brooks led the Wildcats to an unprecedented four consecutive bowl appearances and three bowl victories during his seven-year tenure (2003-09) as UK's head coach.

Paul "Bear" Bryant

Paul Bryant, one of the greatest coaches in college football history, spent eight years at UK (1946-53) and produced a 60-23-5 (.710 pct.) record. The 60 victories are the most by any UK football coach. He led the Wildcats to four bowl games and their first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He coached such UK stars as George Blanda, Jerry Claiborne, Bob Gain, Babe Parilli, Doug Moseley, Wilbur Jamerson and Steve Meilinger.

UK Cheerleaders 21-Time National Champions

The Kentucky cheerleading squad won an unprecedented 21st national cheerleading championship in 2016 at the competition sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association. The cheerleaders have won the UCA national title in 1985, 1987, 1988, 1992, 1995-2002, 2004-06, 2008-10, 2012, 2014 and 2016. They have been the runners-up on six occasions. Jomo Thompson is coach of the cheerleaders and T. Lynn Williamson is the cheerleader advisor. A total of 40 students comprise the squad, 16 of whom represent the school at the championship.

Jerry Claiborne

After lettering three years (1946-49) as a player and serving two seasons (1952-53) as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Jerry Claiborne returned to his alma mater in 1982 as UK's 31st head football coach.

Coach Jerry Claiborne gets a victory ride following UK's win at Tennessee in 1984. Claiborne was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Claiborne stepped down after 28 years as a collegiate head coach in 1989. He led the Wildcats to two bowls and four non-losing seasons. During his era, Kentucky placed more players (68) on the SEC Academic Honor Roll than any league school, including a then-record 17 in 1989. Claiborne also led UK to a national academic title by capturing the 1989 CFA Academic Achievement Award. His eight-year UK record was 41-46-3. Overall, Claiborne finished 21st among Division 1 coaches with 179 career victories and 179-122-8 in all games. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in Aug. 2000.

CFA Academic Achievement Award

The University of Kentucky became the first Southeastern Conference institution to win the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award after claiming the prestigious honor in 1989. The Academic Achievement Award is given to the CFA institution with the highest graduation rate of its football program based on a five-year period. UK had graduated 90 percent (18 of 20) of its incoming freshman signee class of 1983, thus earning the honor in May, 1989. A year earlier (1988), UK finished second with a graduation rate of 90.5 percent. Kentucky earned honorable mention honors in 1988, '91, '93, '94 and 2010, for having graduated better than 70 percent of its incoming freshman class.

Blanton Collier And The Staff

Blanton Collier had the challenge of following Paul Bryant as head football coach at the University of Kentucky. But, Collier posted a fine 41-36-3 record in eight seasons at UK. Kentuckians best remember Collier for his record against arch-rival Tennessee which stood at 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. Standouts such as Howard Schnellenberger, Lou Michaels, Tom Hutchinson, Bobby Cravens, Calvin Bird and Irv Goode played under Collier. One fascinating item in Collier's tenure was the football coaching staff he assembled in 1959. The 1959 UK staff included Collier, Ed Rutledge, Howard Schnellenberger, Ermal Allen, Don Shula, John North, Bob Cummings and Bill Arnsparger.

Fran Curci

The Fran Curci era (1973-81) was one of ups and downs at the University of Kentucky. Curci remained at UK for nine seasons, the longest tenure of any UK football coach, and posted a 47-51-2 record. The ups consisted of sharing the 1976 Southeastern Conference title with Georgia, a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina in the '76 Peach Bowl, and a 1977 squad which boasted a 10-1 record and No. 5 national ranking. The down was probation which forced the '77 squad to miss a certain bowl invitation.

DiGiuro Scholarship

The Trent DiGiuro Memorial Scholarship was established in the autumn of 1994 in honor of the Wildcat offensive guard who died in July of that year. The scholarship is awarded each year to a walk-on football player who has completed his eligibility, maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, and has exemplified the dedication, determination, hard work and leadership typified by Trent DiGiuro. If there is no suitable walk-on candidate that year, the scholarship will go to a team manager or trainer who meets the above criteria. The scholarship was established by DiGiuro's family and friends. The 2015 winner of the scholarship was Max Godby.

Forward Pass

The first forward pass attempted by a University of Kentucky football player was thrown on Oct. 13, 1906, by quarterback Earl Stone as the Wildcats faced Eminence Athletic Club. This was the first year the forward pass was legalized by national rules. Accounts from this early contest do not indicate if the first forward UK pass was completed.

Goalposts

The Commonwealth Stadium goalposts have been torn down twice since the stadium opened in 1973.

They were first toppled on Oct. 4, 1997, following Kentucky's 40-34 overtime win vs. Alabama. It was Kentucky's first victory against the Crimson Tide in 75 years, prompting the UK student body to storm the field. "If I weren't so old, I'd have torn them down myself," said then-UK Athletics Director C. M. Newton.

The goalposts came down after UK's 1997 overtime win against Alabama.

It happened again on Nov. 4, 2006, after the Wildcats' dramatic 24-20 triumph over Georgia. It was UK's first win over the Bulldogs in 10 years and the crowd brought down the east goalpost.

Citing safety concerns, UK has installed collapsible goalposts, which will prevent repeats of the popular -- but potentially dangerous -- celebration ritual.

Governor's Cup

The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by Kroger at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are comprised of Optic grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is solid pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish. The Governor's Cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The UK-U of L series was renewed in 1994 with the Wildcats winning the game, 20-14.

Homecoming Games

As is the case of most institutions, Homecoming football games are special. Kentucky is no exception. Alumni and old friends converge on the UK campus each fall for Homecoming Day, highlighted by a Kentucky football game. The first Homecoming Day occurred on Nov. 25, 1915, as Kentucky defeated Tennessee, 6-0. Though records are sketchy, Kentucky has hosted a Homecoming game every year since 1946 and owns a 49-21 record in those 70 contests.

The Immortals

Simply known as "The Immortals," the 1898 University of Kentucky football squad still remains as the only undefeated, untied, and unscored on Wildcats club in school history. The Immortals outscored opponents 180-0 while posting a perfect 7-0-0 record. Roscoe Severs served as team captain under coach W.R. Bass. The closest of all seven games was a 6-0 victory over Centre College.

Cawood Ledford

The legendary "Voice of the Wildcats" was none other than Cawood Ledford. For 39 years, Cawood called Wildcats football and basketball. His voice alone symbolized UK Athletics. Cawood called his last UK football game vs. Tennessee on Nov. 23, 1991, and retired from the microphone following the 1991-92 basketball season.

Mascots

The Wildcat mascot originated during the 1976-77 year at Kentucky. Gary Tanner was the original Wildcat, entertaining fans at Commonwealth Stadium, Rupp Arena and Memorial Coliseum during athletic events.

Today, the Wildcat mascot also attends academic functions and generally serves as a friendly ambassador for the University.

Scratch, another costumed mascot, was unveiled in August of 1996. During UK games, the Wildcat and Scratch entertain with enthusiastic dances and cheers.

KENTUCKY

ŦŁ

Bear Bryant's Sugar Bowl champion Wildcats earned the 1950 national title, according to the Sagarin computer ratings.

In the past, UK had a live wildcat mascot that has resided in the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife's Salato Wildlife Center three miles west of Frankfort on US 60. The most recent live mascot was named "Blue." Through the years, UK has had other official live mascots with colorful names. Records indicate that the first wild animal, named "Tom," was given to the University in 1921. Other live mascots followed, including "TNT," "Whiskers," "Hot Tamale" and "Colonel."

Minus Ninety-Three

The University of Kentucky holds the Southeastern Conference record for fewest yards allowed rushing in a single game. Kentucky limited Kansas State to minus-93 yards on the ground as UK defeated Kansas State, 16-3, on Sept. 19, 1970, in Lexington. Kentucky defenders sacked KSU quarterbacks Lynn Dickey (2) and Max Arreguin (5) seven times while intercepting three of their passes. Ironically, KSU outgained UK in total offense 214-107 as Dickey and Arreguin combined for 307 yards in the air.

National Champions

Kentucky is the 1950 national champion, according to Jeff Sagarin, who handles computer rankings for USA Today. Sagarin, who has generated computer ratings since the 1970s, has reconstructed earlier seasons and his computer rates the Wildcats as tops for the 1950 campaign.

At the time, the national champs were crowned after the regular season but before the bowl games. UK finished the regular season with a 10-1 record and No. 7 ranking before knocking off No. 1 Oklahoma, 13-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Four teams can lay claim to the 1950 title, according to the official NCAA record book. Six selectors went with Oklahoma (final record 10-1), six picked Tennessee (11-1), two chose Princeton (9-0), and one – the Sagarin ratings – named Kentucky (11-1).

The First Night Game

The University of Kentucky was one of the first institutions to play intercollegiate football at night. The first UK home night game was played on Oct. 5, 1929, at Stoll Field as Kentucky defeated Maryville, 40-0. Kentucky did not play more than one home night game per season until 1946.

Night Games

Kentucky began holding its October home football games during the evening hours in 1949. UK and Keeneland Race Course, located in Lexington, have enjoyed a close relationship through the years and assist in giving UK faithful an opportunity to enjoy two of the Commonwealth's best-loved events in October — football and horse racing. With the traditional post time at Keeneland for the thoroughbred races at 1:15 p.m., UK began moving its October home games to night during the 1949 season. The only occasion UK has not conducted its October home games in the evening is to accommodate live national or regional television.

Nate Northington

Nate Northington of Louisville became the first black player to sign with the University of Kentucky and a Southeastern Conference institution. Northington signed a national letter-of-intent with UK in December of 1965. He later became the first African-American football player to play in an SEC vs. SEC game, appearing in the UK-Ole Miss game in Lexington on Sept. 30, 1967.

Northington, who was known as "Nat" during his playing days, has written an autobiography, Still Running, that was published in 2014.

Outland Trophy

Two-time All-American Bob Gain is the only player in University of Kentucky football history to be awarded the Outland Trophy, signifying the best interior lineman in collegiate football. Gain was awarded the 1950 Outland Trophy after helping lead UK to its first Southeastern Conference title and a 10-1 regular-season record. Besides being the first UK player to claim the award, Gain was also the first SEC player to be given the award.

The Prince of Wales

The Kentucky Wildcats gave Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales, his first taste of American football on Oct. 22, 1977. That's right, Prince Charles' first football game was the UK-Georgia matchup at Athens. Prince Charles was introduced to UK Coach Fran Curci and All-American Art Still at halftime. After looking at the 6-6 Still, Prince Charles said, "You're a tall one aren't you?" Still and Co. blanked the Bulldogs on this day, 33-0, on their way to a 10-1 record.

Red Doc, Black Doc

A pair of cousins named William Rodes played football for the University of Kentucky during the early 1900s. To distinguish one from the other, one was nicknamed "Red Doc" and the other "Black Doc." William "Red Doc" Rodes lettered three years (1909, 11-12) as a 140-pound halfback and defensive end. William "Black Doc" Rodes lettered two years (1915-16) as quarterback. Black Doc was considered by many to be one of the best open-field runners in that era. He also placekicked and personally delivered UK's 6-0 victory over Tennessee in 1915 with field goals of 45 and 43 yards.

Russell Rice

Longtime UK sports information director Russell Rice was recognized as the historian of Wildcats football. Rice retired from the UK Athletics Department in 1989 after serving 18 years as sports information director. He came to UK in 1967 as assistant SID, then was named sports information director in 1969. Rice authored the book, "The Wildcats," which details Kentucky football and its history. After his retirement from UK, Rice wrote a weekly historical column for The Cats' Pause magazine and continued to be a rich historical resource for the UK media relations office. He was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012. Rice passed away in 2015.

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was home to Kentucky football for 56 years (1916-1972).

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium

Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was the first home for Kentucky football. The stadium was located adjacent to Memorial Coliseum and served as UK's football home since 1916. The University Board of Trustees voted to name the playing field "Stoll Field" and the actual grandstand structures as "McLean Stadium," thus the often confusing double names. Stoll Field was named in honor of the late Judge Richard C. Stoll, a prominent alumnus, trustee and benefactor of UK. Stoll Field was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1916. McLean Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1924, in memory of Price Innes McLean, a regular center on the 1923 UK squad who died as a result of injuries sustained in the Kentucky-Cincinnati game on Nov. 6, 1923. The final seating capacity of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium was 37,000 during its last year of use, 1972.

The Thin Thirty

When Blanton Collier stepped down as head football coach at Kentucky following the 1961 season, UK promptly named former Wildcats player Charlie Bradshaw as its 28th coach. Bradshaw inherited a squad of 88 players left from Collier's 5-5-0 team in '61. Bradshaw promised his new UK squad hard work and talked of training to an absolute peak of condition. His conditioning tactics took their toll as more than 50 players left the squad, leaving 30 to open the season against Florida State and prompting the name "Thin Thirty." The Thin Thirty finished 3-5-2 with victories over Detroit (27-8), Vanderbilt (7-0) and arch-rival Tennessee (12-10). The ties were against Florida State (0-0) and Georgia (7-7).

Wildcats Nickname

The nickname "Wildcats" became synonymous with UK shortly after a 6-2 football victory at Illinois on Oct. 9, 1909. Commandant Philip Carbusier, then head of the military department, told a group of students in a chapel service following the game that the Kentucky football team had "fought like wildcats." The nickname grew in popularity and was adopted by the university.

Kentucky Fight Song

On, on U of K, we are right for the fight today, Hold that ball and hit that line, Every Wildcat star will shine, We'll fight, fight, fight, For the blue and white, As we roll to that goal, varsity, And we'll kick, pass and run, 'til the battle is won, And we'll bring home the victory.

My Old Kentucky Home

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,

'Tis summer, the people are gay;

The corntop's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,

While the birds make music all the day.

(Chorus)

Weep no more, my lady!

Oh! Weep no more today!

We will sing one song for my old Kentucky home,

For my old Kentucky home far away.

The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,

All merry, all happy, and bright;

By-n-by hard times come a-knocking at the door,

Then my old Kentucky home, goodnight!

UK Alma Mater

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater! Loyal sons and daughters sing; Sound her praise with voice united; To the breeze her colors fling. To the Blue and White be true; Badge triumphant age on age; Blue, the sky that o'er us bends; White, Kentucky's stainless page.

In 1965, Nate Northington became the first African-American football player to sign with an SEC school.

Winning Streak

Kentucky ended one of the longest winning streaks in college football history when the Wildcats faced Oklahoma in the 1951 Sugar Bowl.

Kentucky was coming off its first Southeastern Conference title and brought in a 10-1 record. Oklahoma entered as national champions and riding a 31-game winning streak. A pair of Wilbur Jamerson scores - a 22-yard pass from Babe Parilli and a one-yard run was all UK needed in picking up a 13-7 upset of the Sooners.

At the time, the 31-game winning streak was the fifth-longest in NCAA history and today it still ranks as the ninth-longest in NCAA history.

The Year (1977-78)

Perhaps the most successful year in UK Athletics occurred during the 1977-78 academic year at the University of Kentucky. The 1977 Wildcats football squad, under Fran Curci, raced to a 10-1 record and ended the year ranked No. 5 by The Sporting News. Highlights were victories over North Carolina (10-7), West Virginia (28-13), Penn State (24-20), LSU (33-13), Georgia (33-0), Florida (14-7) and Tennessee (21-17). On the basketball side, UK wrapped up its fifth NCAA title by defeating Duke, 94-88, at St. Louis. The UK basketballers ended the campaign with a 30-2 record under Joe B. Hall.

The Year (1950-51)

An argument to the most successful year in UK Athletics is the 1950-51 academic year. UK football, under Paul Bryant, ended the 1950 regular season with a 10-1 record and ranked No. 7 nationally by both A.P. and U.P.I. The Wildcats then proceeded to snap national champion Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak with a 13-7 victory in the Sugar Bowl. Kentucky has been named national champion for the 1950 season by the Sagarin Ratings. On the basketball front, Adolph Rupp gave UK its third national title by defeating Kansas State, 68-58, at Minneapolis, Minn. The Wildcats ended the year 32-2.

JIM BROWN

If it has to do with Kentucky football, Jim Brown has seen it all.

When the 97-year-old Brown began attending UK football games, Franklin D. Roosevelt was president, bread cost a few cents a loaf, and Bear Bryant was just a cub.

With one exception we'll get to later, Brown was present for every UK home football game from 1938 until his streak ended during the 2009 season -- a total of 412 home games.

"I'm all for Kentucky football," Brown said. "I liked football from an early age, when I was a little kid in Western Kentucky. Football was the big thing in the 1920s and I followed UK in the sports pages."

Brown's streak began in 1938 when he enrolled as a UK freshman. A standout halfback in high school, he had hoped to play for the Wildcats, but was unable to try out for the team because he had to work his way through school. That didn't stop him from going to the games. In fact, it took a world war to separate Brown from Kentucky football.

"I was in a race with Uncle Sam to graduate before I got inducted into the service," Brown said. "I graduated in 1942 and got sent to Wright Field in Dayton. You couldn't get gasoline, and I didn't have a car anyway, so I caught the train from Dayton to Cincinnati to Lexington to see the games that season. I didn't miss any games in 1943 because, like a lot of schools, UK didn't field a team that year." World War II finally got bigger than Kentucky football in 1944. Brown was a navigator/bombardier on a B-25 in Asia, part of a squadron called the "Burma Bridge Busters," definitely too far for a weekend excursion to catch the Cats. But he was discharged just in time for the 1945 season, and he didn't miss a home game for 64 straight seasons.

(An interesting side note is that the "Burma Bridge Busters" were the subject of a 2003 documentary by the History Channel. Brown was one of the members of the squadron who was interviewed and featured in the documentary.)

A member of what has become known as "The Greatest Generation," Brown helped build America – literally. He was involved with the construction business, a lumber company, and in real estate.

Even his marriage had a tie to Kentucky football. He married Caroline Rodes, daughter of William "Black Doc" Rodes, a UK football star in 1914-16.

The Browns didn't always live in Lexington but all the while he kept turning out to see his favorite team.

"I always worked on Saturday mornings (at the lumber company). I left a lot of people standing in the store, saying 'I have to go to Lexington," Brown recalled with a laugh. "I wasn't trying to set a record. It just happened."

Brown's favorite gridiron memories involve the 1949-50-51 teams that played in the Orange, Sugar and Cotton Bowls, along with the mid-1970s teams that won an SEC championship and a Peach Bowl.

"People who go back that far feel that our 1950 team probably was our best," said Brown, referring to the Wildcat squad that is the 1950 national champion, according to the Sagarin computer ratings. "(Quarterback) Babe Parilli was as good at deception as anyone I've ever seen. I was in a game in Atlanta against Georgia Tech, and a Tech fan was sitting beside me. He said, 'It looks like Parilli is shaking hands with everybody in the backfield before he hands the ball off.'

"That bunch in 1977 was probably the second-best team we've had," Brown continued. "They had a lot of terrific athletes, especially (future NFL stars) Art Still and Derrick Ramsey."

As much as he enjoys talking about the past, Brown is just as excited about the present and future. After 52 years of marriage, wife Caroline passed away in 1999. He married again in 2002, and new wife Mary Anne Goodson Brown also is a UK grad.

Brown is happy with the progress made at the University.

"We're going in the right direction with MItch Barnhart ... The whole university is charting an exciting course."

Brown's streak finally came to an end when an illness forced him to miss the Alabama game in 2009. However, he continues to go to Kentucky games when health permits. And, he's a model of faithfulness in more than football. He had a decades-long streak of perfect attendance at the Lexington Rotary Club. He's also a pillar of Crestwood Christian Church, where he is an elder emeritus. Asked about his consistency, Brown replied in what must be the understatement of the year.

"I've always had a tendency to be loyal," he said.

PIONEERS OF INTEGRATION IN THE SEC

Kentucky Wildcats Nate Northington, Greg Page, Wilbur Hackett and Houston Hogg were the pioneers of integration for Southeastern Conference football. In 1966, Northington and Page became the first African-American football players to enroll at an SEC school and played for the UK freshman team. A year later, Hackett and Hogg followed in their footsteps. On Sept. 23, 1967, Northington played his first varsity game. On Sept. 30, 1967 – a day after Page, his close friend and classmate, passed away following a tragic accident – Northington became the first African-American in an SEC game when UK played Ole Miss. Hackett and Hogg would carry on Northington and Page's trailblazing legacy, with Hackett becoming the first African-American team captain in any sport at an SEC school in 1969.

The Wildcats will be honored with four life-sized statues outside Commonwealth Stadium which will be unveiled in September of 2016 in correlation with the unveiling of UK's $45 million practice facility.

NATE NORTHINGTON

A native of Louisville and an All-State performer at Thomas Jefferson High School, Nate Northington was recruited by Kentucky Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, University of Kentucky President John W. Oswald and UK football head coach Charlie Bradshaw to break the Southeastern Conference's football color barrier. Embracing the opportunity to be a trailblazer and accepting the monumental challenges that came with it, Northington signed with UK and enrolled in 1966. The defensive back spent his first season as a Wildcat as a member of the freshman team before making his varsity debut on Sept. 23, 1967. A week later - and a day following the passing of Greg Page, his close friend and fellow trailblazer - became the first African-American to play in an SEC game when UK played host to Ole Miss. Northington would later transfer to Western Kentucky, but not before encouraging Wilbur Hackett and Houston Hogg to stay and finish the noble work he and Page started.

Greg Page, a talented defensive end hailing from Middlesboro, enrolled at the University of Kentucky in 1966 in the height of the Civil Rights movement. Poised to break the Southeastern Conference color barrier in football, Page played with close friend Nate Northington on the freshman team in his first season before moving up to varsity a year later. Before he could play in his first game, Page suffered a neck injury in a tragic accident in practice on Aug. 22, 1967. Left paralyzed, Page remained in intensive care for the next 38 days - during which Northington often visited Page – before passing away. His passing came one day before Northington became the first African-American to play in an SEC game. Though he was not on the field for the groundbreaking moment, his courage had helped pave the way for it and forever changed the face of sports in the South.

WILBUR

Hailing from Louisville, Wilbur Hackett came to the University of Kentucky in 1967 after a standout high-school career at Manual, where he was named All State and a Parade Magazine All-American. Heeding Nate Northington's advice to continue to break racial barriers at UK, Hackett joined the varsity team as a sophomore in 1968. In spite of receiving death threats and needing armed guards for one Southeastern Conference road trip, Hackett remained steadfast and became a three-year starter at linebacker. He received Sophomore All-SEC honors in 1968, honorable mention All-SEC recognition as a junior and was Kentucky's Co-Most Valuable Player as a senior. Even more notably, he became the first African-American team captain in any sport in SEC history in 1969, cementing his legacy as one of the foremost pioneers of racial integration in collegiate athletics.

ŦŁ.

Starting his career in Hazard before finishing high school at Daviess County in Owensboro, Houston Hogg followed in the footsteps of Nate Northington and Greg Page in enrolling at the University of Kentucky in 1967. A running back, Hogg lettered for Kentucky in 1969 and 1970 as one of the first African-American football players in the history of the Southeastern Conference. Hogg faced prejudice throughout his career played during tumultuous times in America – but did not let the racism of others deter him from completing his career and graduating from UK. Hogg's resoluteness and sacrifice were instrumental in paving the way for equality at the University of Kentucky and in both the SEC and college sports nationwide.

PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT HEAD COACH (INDUCTED IN 1986)

Paul "Bear" Bryant, a national football legend, coached at Kentucky for eight seasons and compiled a record of 60-23-5 for a .710 win percentage while reaching four bowl games. Not only did Bryant total 60 wins during his time at UK, but he also led the Wildcats to their first bowl game (1947 Great Lakes Bowl), first national championship and first Southeastern Conference title in 1950. He also took Kentucky to consecutive appearances in the 1950 Orange Bowl, 1951 Sugar Bowl, and 1952 Cotton Bowl. Bryant coached eight first-team All-Americans during his tenure at Kentucky.

1946, 1948-49 JERRY

CLAIBORNE

DEFENSIVE BACK/END HEAD COACH (1982-89) (INDUCTED IN 1999)

Jerry Claiborne lettered three years at Kentucky under Paul "Bear" Bryant as a blocking back, end and defensive back. He set a UK single-season record for interceptions with nine thefts for 130 yards during the 1949 campaign. As an assistant coach. Claiborne spent 10 years at the collegiate ranks of Kentucky (1952-53), Texas A&M (1954-56), Missouri (1957), Alabama (1958-60), and Colorado (1971) before becoming a head coach. He ended his career as a head coach ranked 21st among all NCAA coaches with 179 victories and compiled an overall record of 179-122-8 in 28 seasons as a collegiate head coach. Claiborne's career included stops at Virginia Tech (61-39-2), Maryland (77-37-3) and Kentucky (41-46-3). He was named Coach of the Year in three different conferences – Southern (1963), Atlantic Coast (1973, 1975, 1976) and Southeastern (1983) - in addition to being named National Coach of the Year by The Sporting News in 1974. Claiborne led the Wildcats to a pair of bowl berths with the 1983 and 1984 Hall of Fame Bowls. In 1989, he guided UK to the College Football Association Academic Achievement Award for highest graduation rate and set an SEC record by placing 17 Wildcats on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. The former head coach received the Neyland Award in 1994 and was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1999.

1947-50 BOB

GAIN TACKLE/PLACEKICKER (INDUCTED IN 1980)

Bob Gain played four years at Kentucky, 1947 through 1950, and was a two-way starter at tackle. He also was the team's place kicker, accounting for 38 extra points. In 1950, he blocked kicks against North Texas and Georgia Tech. He recovered both kicks inside the opponents' 20 to set up touchdowns for Kentucky. Gain also served as a powerful blocker on offense, and he won the 1950 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman. This helped Kentucky to a 10-1 regular season record, its first Southeastern Conference title, and a victory over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl. He was a consensus All-America and conference MVP after gaining first-team All-America status as a junior. He played in 1951 with Ottawa in the Canadian League and 1952 with Cleveland in the National Football League. In 1953, he served as a first lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force in Korea. He returned to play with the Cleveland Browns 1954-64.

1951-53

STEVE MEILINGER

END/HALFBACK/ DEFENSIVE BACK/ LINEBACKER (INDUCTED IN 2013)

Steve Meilinger gained fame as "Mr. Anywhere" for his versatility and value to the Kentucky football program. He lettered three years for the Wildcats as an end, halfback, defensive back, and linebacker under Hall of Fame head coach Bear Bryant. He also served as the Wildcats' two-year starting punter while returning punts and kickoffs. His career totals include 75 catches for 1,210 yards (16.1 avg.) and 17 touchdowns, a former UK team record. Meilinger had 41 receptions and racked up 576 yards and eight touchdowns during the 1951 season, which led to him becoming a first-team All-American in 1952 and 1953. He was also named first-team All-SEC three times (1951-53) and the Birmingham QB Club Quarter Century All-SEC Team (1950-74). He rushed for 714 yards and intercepted six passes during his college career and was later a first-round NFL Draft choice by Washington in the 1954 NFL Draft. Meilinger played six seasons in the league for the Redskins, Green Bay Packers and Pittsburgh Steelers. He spent the entirety of his non-football life in military or public service. Immediately following his selection by the Redskins, Meilinger served two years as a tank commander in the U.S. Army's 100th Tank Battalion of the 1st Armored Division before embarking on his pro football career. From 1962-83, Meilinger was a United States Marshal, and he was one of the original six marshals who founded the U.S. Federal Witness Protection Program. The Bethlehem, Pa., native is a member of the State of Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame, the University of Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame, the Fork Union Military Academy Hall of Fame, the Lehigh Valley (Penn.) Hall of Fame and the Liberty High School Hall of Fame.

1955-57 LOU MICHAELS

TACKLE/KICKER/PUNTER (INDUCTED IN 1992)

ŦŁ

Lou Michaels played tackle for Kentucky from 1955 through 1957, was a consensus All-America the last two years, and was named the Most Valuable Player in the Southeastern Conference in 1957. This MVP award, given by the Nashville Banner, is decided by a vote of the coaches. It started in 1933 and in its first 50 years only one tackle - Michaels - won it. Also in 1957, the Washington Touchdown Club made him Lineman of the Year. He was fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1957. Michaels was named the outstanding lineman in the Southeastern Conference twice - by the Birmingham Touchdown Club in 1956 and the Atlanta Touchdown Club in 1957. He did some of Kentucky's punting and place kicking. Michaels averaged 39.8 yards per punt, had 122 punts for 4,852 yards, and connected on 13 of 16 PATs and 2 of 3 field goals during his career at UK. Kentucky retired his jersey, number 79, in 1990. Michaels played professionally for 14 years, 1958-1971, with the Los Angeles Rams, Pittsburgh Steelers, Baltimore Colts and Green Bay Packers. His brother Walter, played football at Washington and Lee and then had a 12-year pro career.

KENTUCKY

1949-51 VITO "BABE" PARILLI QUARTERBACK (INDUCTED IN 1982)

Vito "Babe" Parilli brought Kentucky national recognition as he introduced Bear Bryant's "T" Formation that baffled opponents and spectators alike. Parilli was a great ball handler. Defenders tackled backs not carrying the ball as Parilli's fakes enabled receivers to become wide open for his passes. In 1949 and 1950, Parilli directed teams that ran up 684 points against 115 opposition points. The Wildcats held 10 of 22 opponents scoreless, and all but three to seven points or less. In 1950, while Parilli was breaking a long list of Southeastern Conference records, Kentucky won the Southeastern Conference title. In his illustrious career, Parilli threw 50 touchdown passes, led Kentucky to wins over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl and TCU in the Cotton Bowl, and won consensus firstteam All-America honors in 1950. He twice placed in the top-four of the Heisman vote. He ended his remarkable college career with consensus All-America honors again in 1951 and Most Valuable Player citation in the College All-Star Game. After being taken in the first-round of the NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers in 1952, the quarterback played for six years in the NFL, then 10 years in the AFL, culminating with a 1969 Super Bowl championship with the New York Jets.

ART STILL DEFENSIVE END (INDUCTED IN 2015)

Art Still lettered four years at the University of Kentucky as a defensive end and was a consensus first-team All-American in 1977 after he broke the UK single-season record with 22 tackles behind the line. He was also named two-time, first-team All-SEC in 1976 and 1977. Still was honored by the Birmingham Touchdown Club and the Columbus (Ga.) Touchdown Club as the SEC Outstanding Senior Player in 1977. The legendary defensive end finished his career with 327 tackles and was named to the Lakeland (Fla.) Ledger 25-year All-SEC team (1961-1975). A first-round draft choice by Kansas City in 1978, Still played 12 seasons in the NFL with Kansas City and Buffalo.

- The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® was established in 1992 by the College Football Association, recognizing the extra efforts made by college football players and student support staff off the field. AFCA became the governing body of the award in 1997 and continues to honor college football players who go the extra mile for those in need. Allstate worked to present the award starting with the 2008 season.
- The SEC leads all conferences with 65 selections to the Good Works Team since it began in 1992. UK ranks tied for third all-time with St. Thomas (Minn.) in award winners behind Georgia (16) and Nebraska (14).

Jake Lewellen was named to the "Good Works Team" after he spearheaded a group of UK athletes and staff members to pack bags to take to Joplin, Mo., after the town was devastated by a tornado in July of 2011. He got teammates to donate money before he personally delivered 100 bags to Joplin filled with toiletries, pens, pencils, paper and bibles.

Landon Foster was very involved in community service projects during his time at Kentucky. In May of 2014, he represented UK on a week-long community service trip to Ethiopia, where he interacted with residents of impoverished communities, visited imprisoned men, helped widows, cared for orphans, and helped renovate houses. On the trip, he befriended a 14-year-old boy living in the streets of Korah named Dejene. He was so moved by the boy's resilience and character to succeed despite his circumstances that Foster worked through an organization called ''Adoption Ministry of Youth with a Mission'' to pay out of his own pocket to sponsor Dejene. He sent his own money for four months to help pay for his food, clothing, shelter and schooling until Dejene (now named Joshua) was able to move to America with a family from North Carolina.

Max Godby led UK with over 180 hours of community service in 2014. One of the biggest projects he undertook was creating and developing, with the help of Catholic Action Center, a program called Bucks for Backpacks which provided 150 homeless men and women in Lexington, Ky., with a backpack filled with items essential for survival and dignity. He made phone calls to ask for donations for the backpacks and items placed inside, packed the backpacks and distributed them to the homeless.

RETIRED JERSEYS: RING OF HONOR

#33 George Adams (1981-84): Running Back

As a steadfast running back for the Wildcats from 1981-84, George Adams led the team in rushing and all-purpose yardage as a sophomore, junior, and senior. His great 1984 campaign was topped by being named first-team All-SEC, UK's Most Valuable Senior, and UK's Most Outstanding Offensive Back. Adams helped lead the Wildcats to Hall of Fame Bowl appearances in 1983 and 1984 and was chosen as Kentucky's MVP of the 1983 bowl. He ranks highly in school history in seven career categories and six single-season categories. The persistent back finished his career with 2,468 rushing yards on 638 attempts and played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. Adams was a first-round draft pick of the New York Giants and had a seven-year career with the Giants and New England Patriots.

#2 Ermal Allen (1939-41): Quarterback/ Halfback

Ermal Allen lettered for three years (1939-41) at quarterback for Coach A.D. Kirwan and guided the Wildcats to three consecutive winning seasons. In addition to football, he also played varsity basketball for three seasons under Coach Adolph Rupp and helped pace the Wildcats to a pair of SEC Tournament championships. Following military service, Allen came to Kentucky in 1946 as an assistant coach before playing professionally with the Cleveland Browns in 1947. He returned to UK in 1948 to be an assistant coach until 1961. His assignments included offensive backs coach, head coach of the freshman team, and defensive coordinator. During Allen's time as an assistant, the Wildcats racked up 12 winning seasons. Following his success at Kentucky, Allen spent 22 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1962-83) as an assistant coach and Director of Research and Development. He made five trips to the Super Bowl during his tenure with Dallas.

#73 Sam Ball (1963-65): Offensive Tackle

During his three letter years as on offensive tackle at Kentucky, Sam Ball was named a first-team All-American in 1965 by United Press International, Football Writers, and Sporting News. He was also named first-team All-Southeastern Conference the same year. Ball played in the College All-Star Game, North-South Shrine Game, and the Senior Bowl. He was later a first-round draft choice by Baltimore in 1966.

#21 Calvin Bird (1958-60): Halfback

Calvin Bird excelled as a running back, pass receiver, defensive back, kickoff returner, and punt returner during his three letter years. He set four school records for highest kickoff return average in a season (30.4, 1959) and career (27.05). Bird averaged 8.44 yards every time he touched the ball during his career, formerly a school record (min. 300 plays), and scored a school-record 25 points in one game, vs. Hawaii, in 1958 and tied the school mark for touchdowns in a game with four. A second-team All-SEC selection as a junior, Bird was also a third-team All-SEC selection as a senior and chosen as the SEC's "Sophomore of the Year" in 1958 when he led the league in pass receiving. He led the team in receiving and all-purpose yardage for three consecutive seasons, played in three all-star games following his senior season and was chosen as the Most Valuable Back in the All-American Bowl.

#21 Rodger Bird (1963-65): Halfback

Rodger Bird lettered three years for the Wildcats as a halfback. He was named first-team All-American in 1965 by Time magazine and NBC and a two-time All-Southeastern Conference first-team (1964-65) by the Associated Press and United Press International. Bird played in the College All-Star Game, North-South Shrine All-Star Game, and the Senior Bowl. Career wise, he caught 72 passes for 1,422 yards and 36.9 yards per punt during his career. Known as a big-play collegian, Seiple had four catches of 70 yards or more during his career and on 4th-and-41 yards to go against Mississippi in 1965, he ran a fake punt over 70 yards for a touchdown. After college, Seiple played with the Miami Dolphins for 11 years (1967-77) and later served as an assistant coach to the Dolphins.

#48 Washington Serini (1944-47): #Tackle

Also known as "Wash," Washington Serini earned four varsity letters as a tackle at Kentucky and played under three different head coaches – A.D. Kirwan, Bernie Shively, and Paul "Bear" Bryant.

He was named first-team All-Southeastern Conference by the Associated Press in 1944 and twice was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference in 1945 and 1947. Serini was a member of the Wildcats' first bowl team (1947 Great Lakes Bowl) and participated in three Blue-Gray All-Star games in 1944, 1946, and 1947. He went on to play in the NFL for the Chicago Bears from 1948-51 and the Green Bay Packers in 1952.

Bernie Shively (1938-67): Athletic Director

Bernie A. Shively served as director of athletics at the University of Kentucky for 30 years and supervised major expansions of UK athletic facilities during his tenure. He is responsible for the expansion of Stoll Field/McLean Stadium in 1948, 1949, and 1950 to increase the seating capacity to 37,500. Shively is also credited with the construction of Memorial Coliseum (11,500) in 1950 and for what is now known as the Shively Sports Complex that was constructed in 1959. The complex includes the football practice fields and is now home to Kentucky baseball and track & field. In addition to being the head coach of the football team for a year in 1945, Shively was also a Chairman of the NCAA Basketball Tournament Committee.

#97 Art Still (1974-77): Defensive End

Art Still lettered four years at the University of Kentucky as a defensive end and was a consensus first-team All-American in 1977 after he broke the UK single-season record with 22 tackles behind the line. He was also named two-time, first-team All-SEC in 1976 and 1977. Still was honored by the Birmingham Touchdown Club and the Columbus (Ga.) Touchdown Club as the SEC Outstanding Senior Player in 1977. The legendary defensive end finished his career with 327 tackles and was named to the Lakeland (Fla.) Ledger 25-year All-SEC team (1961-1975). A first-round draft choice by Kansas City in 1978, Still played 12 seasons in the NFL with Kansas City and Buffalo.

#70 Herschel Turner (1961-63): Tackle

In 1963, Herschel Turner was named a first-team All-American as an offensive tackle and defensive tackle. He was also named first-team All-Southeastern Conference as a senior and participated in the Blue-Gray Game and the Senior Bowl. Turner logged the most minutes played on UK's 1962 squad known as the "Thin Thirty." After being drafted in the second round of the 1964 NFL Draft by St. Louis, Turner played two seasons (1964-65) with the Cardinals as a guard and tackle.

#50 Harry Ulinski

(1946-49): Center/Linebacker A four-year letterman under Paul "Bear" Bryant, Harry Ulinski was a standout center, linebacker and a captain of the 1949 Wildcat squad, which posted a 9-3 record, played in the Orange Bowl, and at one point in the season was ranked seventh, but finished eleventh. He was named to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference in 1949 by the Associated Press, first-team All-South by Collier's Magazine, and honorable mention All-America. Ulinski was named SEC Player of the Week after Kentucky's 25-0 blanking of Georgia. He also played in the 1950 College All-Star Game and had a six-year career in the NFL with the Washington Redskins.

#88 Jeff Van Note (1966-68): Defensive End

Jeff Van Note originally came to Kentucky as a fullback, but ended his career as an outstanding defensive end. Under head coach Charlie Bradshaw, he earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a sophomore in 1966 and was the squad's Most Valuable Player as a senior in 1968. Drafted in the 11th round by the Atlanta Falcons in 1969, Van Note played 18 years in the NFL (1969-1986), all with the Falcons, as a center. Through a great career, he received All-National Football Conference honors in 1980 and was named All-Pro in 1982. He played in six Pro Bowls (1974, 1975, 1979, 1980, 1981, and 1982). The UK great also served as an expert analyst on radio broadcasts of UK football games.

1947 • Great Lakes Bowl // Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

The Kentucky Wildcats made their first appearance on the bowl scene in the 1947 Great Lakes Bowl and came away with a 24-14 victory over Villanova before a crowd of 14,908 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

Kentucky, in its second year under head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, finished at 8-3 on the season with the victory.

Quarterback/kicker George Blanda gave Kentucky a 3-0 lead in the first quarter. Blanda connected on a 27-yard field goal to put the Cats up and it remained that way until halftime.

In the third quarter, UK's Jim Howe scampered 29 yards for a score. Kentucky led 10-0 after three periods.

Bill Boller scored both Kentucky touchdowns in the fourth period, romping 15 yards on a handoff

1950 • Orange Bowl // Santa Clara 21, Kentucky 13

Kentucky committed three turnovers and let a seven-point halftime lead slip away in dropping its first major bowl game, 21-13, to Santa Clara in the 1950 Orange Bowl before a crowd of 64.816.

The Wildcats, 9-3, scored their first touchdown early in the second quarter as a result of a Santa Clara turnover. UK's John Netoskie recovered at fumble at the Wildcat 49 to set up Kentucky's first score. The Wildcats drove 51 yards in 14 plays as Wilbur Jamerson hammered over from two yards. Bobby Brooks added the PAT to make it 7-0.

Kentucky wasted a golden scoring opportunity late in the second quarter when Babe Parilli found Bill Leskovar for a 45-yard completion to the SC 3 with time running out. Leskovar and runningmate Don Phelps each were stopped short on their respective rush attempts and the clock ran out before UK could score. The Wildcats led 7-0 at halftime.

UK coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said afterward he should have sent in a pass play just before the half. "If it failed," he said, "the clock was killed then we could have tried a field goal."

A short 9-yard punt by Phelps set up Santa Clara's first score in the third quarter. After taking over on the SC 46, Bronco quarterback John Pasco hit Larry from Blanda and racing 49 yards to paydirt with an interception. Blanda added both PATs to round out the Kentucky scoring.

Villanova also added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, but it was not enough as Kentucky captured its first bowl victory in school history.

Santa Clara scored again later in the third period, thanks in part to a pass interference call against Kentucky. Hall Haynes went over from 4 yards to make it 14-7 after three quarters.

Parilli led Kentucky right back, hitting Emery Clark on a 52-yard touchdown strike. Brooks, however, missed the tying PAT, breaking a personal streak of 18 straight, as Santa Clara led 14-13 with 12 minutes left in the contest.

Santa Clara managed to hold off the Cats and added an insurance score with less than a minute left, a 16-yard TD run by Buster Wraith.

1951 • Sugar Bowl // Kentucky 13, Oklahoma 7

Kentucky arrived on the national football scene and stunned national champion Oklahoma, 13-7, to capture the 1951 Sugar Bowl before 82,000 in New Orleans.

The Wildcats, 11-1, displayed a tough defense and opportunistic offense in snapping Oklahoma's 31-game winning streak, the longest in the nation at that time. More than 13,000 Kentucky fans made the long trip to New Orleans to watch the Southeastern Conference champions pick up their school record 11th win.

Under the direction of coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, Kentucky continually confused the favored Sooners with different defensive looks. The Wildcats used three tackles much of the time, causing OU quarterback Claude Arnold to hasten his playmaking.

Inflicting the most damage on the Sooners was

KENTUCKY

150

Walt Yowarsky, a tackle who had played less than five minutes on the defensive side of the football in 1950. Yowarsky operated at left end, next to Outland Trophy winner Bob Gain, and repeatedly sliced into the Sooner backfield to break up passes and to make Arnold hurry his handoffs and laterals.

Yowarsky recovered a fumble on the OU 22 that set up UK's first touchdown. On the very next play, Babe Parilli hit Wilbur Jamerson in the right corner of the end zone for the score. Gain added the PAT to make it 7-0 in the first quarter.

Kentucky marched 81 yards in the second quarter to go up 13-0. Jamerson dove over from the one to cap the drive, but Gain missed wide on the PAT.

The Wildcat defense, ranked number two in the nation, showed Oklahoma why late in the third quarter. The Sooners drove 67 yards with the second-half kickoff, sitting at the UK 3 with a first-and-goal. Yowarsky helped UK turn back the Sooners, throwing an OU runner for a 5-yard loss on third down and Oklahoma eventually turned the ball over on downs.

All-America quarterback Vito "Babe" Parilli led the Wildcats to the Orange, Sugar, and Cotton bowls in consecutive seasons.

Yowarsky, voted the game's MVP, thwarted another Oklahoma scoring threat in the fourth quarter as he recovered a fumbled punt.

Oklahoma did score with seven minutes to play as Billy Vessels hit Merrill Green on a 17-yard pass for the touchdown. Jim Weatherall added the PAT.

The Wildcats managed to hold on to the football for all but one play the rest of the way to claim a stirring 13-7 win.

1952 • Cotton Bowl // Kentucky 20, TCU 7

Quarterback Babe Parilli threw for two touchdowns to lead the Kentucky Wildcats to a 20-7 victory over the TCU Horned Frogs in the 1952 Cotton Bowl before a crowd of 75,349 in Dallas, Texas.

Parilli, who completed 8-of-20 passes for 85 yards, tossed both touchdown strikes to Emery Clark. With the victory, the Wildcats ended the season at 8-4.

Kentucky got on the scoreboard first, as Parilli found Clark for the first of two TDs. Parilli hit Clark with a 5-yard toss to culminate a 53-yard scoring march. Harry Jones added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after one quarter.

In the second period, UK got its second touchdown when Parilli and Clark hooked up again. This time, Parilli found Clark on a 13-yard TD strike to cap a 57-yard drive. Jones missed on the PAT attempt and UK settled for a 13-0 lead in the second period with a little over 10 minutes left.

The Wildcat defense made that 13-point lead stand up until halftime as the Horned Frogs drove four times deep into UK territory. Led by All-American guard Ray Correll, the Wildcats turned TCU away on drives to the UK 4, 24, 5 and 2-yard lines to take a 13-0 lead at intermission.

TCU's Bobby Jack Floyd sliced the UK lead to 13-7 when he galloped 43 yards on a sweep. Floyd's run capped an 80-yard scoring drive which took only four plays. Keith Flowers added the PAT with 1:12 left in the third period.

Kentucky ended any thoughts of a TCU comeback, thwarting the only two Horned Frog offensive drives in the fourth period and scoring an insurance touchdown as well. Ed Hamilton sealed the UK victory with a 3-yard score off left tackle with 3:33 left. Jones added the PAT for the final 20-7 score.

1976 • Peach Bowl // Kentucky 21, North Carolina O

Kentucky tailback Rod Stewart scored three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a 21-0 blanking of North Carolina before a sellout crowd of 54,132 in the 1976 Peach Bowl in Atlanta, Ga.

The Wildcats, after a 25-year absence from the postseason bowl scene, returned in fine fashion as Kentucky completely smothered the Tar Heels. Kentucky outgained North Carolina 334-108 in total yards, limiting the Tar Heels to just five first downs and forcing five UNC turnovers.

After a scoreless first half, Kentucky went to work in the third period after UNC quarterback Matt Kupec fumbled at the Tar Heel 21. UK's James Ramey recovered and the Wildcats were in business.

Seven plays later, Stewart busted over from the one for the touchdown. John Pierce added the PAT and Kentucky led 7-0 after three quarters.

Stewart sent the 37,000-plus Kentuckians, who had followed UK to the Peach Bowl, into a frenzy with his second touchdown early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats marched 57 yards in 9 plays as Stewart capped the drive with a 13-yard gallop behind All-American tackle Warren Bryant. Pierce was good on the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 13:01 left to play.

The Big Blue had to go only 47 yards for their final score. Kentucky faced a fourth-and-one from the UNC 3 with a little over three minutes remaining. Once again, Stewart (104 yards on 19 carries) got the call and he picked up both - the first down and the touchdown. Pierce was true on the PAT and UK had put the game away.

Stewart tied the Peach Bowl record for most touchdowns and scoring with the three TDs and 18 points. He was named the game's MVP. The Most Valuable Defensive Player of the game was UK linebacker Mike Martin, who helped hold UNC to just over 100 yards.

1983 • Hall of Fame Bowl // West Virginia 20, Kentucky 16

Kentucky won much of the statistical battle but lost the war in dropping a tough 20-16 decision to the West Virginia Mountaineers in the 1983 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

The Wildcats, in a bowl for the first time since 1976, outgained West Virginia 306-288 in total offense and held the edge in first downs 19-18 and passing yards 216-88. But 17 second-half points by West Virginia were too much for the Wildcats to overcome.

WVU scratched first as placekicker Paul Woodside connected on a 39-yard field goal late in the first quarter.

Kentucky countered with 10 points in the second stanza to take a 10-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats marched 54 yards in eight plays for their first score. Facing a third-and-three from the Mountaineers' 26, Kentucky used some razzle-dazzle as Tony Mayes swept right, then threw-back to quarterback Randy Jenkins in the left corner of the endzone for the TD. John Hutcherson added the PAT and UK led 7-3 with 10:59 left in the second period.

Jenkins hit two big passes late in the second quarter to help set up a 32-yard field goal by Hutcherson. Jenkins connected with Joe Phillips for a 19-yard pass play and then hit George Adams for a 14-yarder as Hutcherson connected with 38 seconds left in the half.

WVU kicker Paul Woodside fooled everyone to begin the second half. Woodside tried an on-side kick to start the half and then recovered it to give the Mountaineers the football at the UK 48. Eight plays later, QB Jeff Hostetler found Rich Hollins for a 16-yard TD strike. Woodside added the PAT and it was 10-10 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

West Virginia scored twice in a span of two minutes early in the fourth quarter to take a commanding 20-10 lead.

1984 • Hall of Fame Bowl // Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

Kentucky's Joey Worley booted a career-long 52-yard field goal with just under nine minutes remaining to give the Wildcats a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Wisconsin Badgers in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala.

Worley, a freshman, helped Kentucky overcome a ninepoint deficit in the second half with his school and bowl record field goal.

Wisconsin jumped on top early, scoring twice in the first quarter. Todd Gregoire nailed a 40-yard field goal just under four minutes into the game and Michael Howard hit Thad McFadden with a 3-yard TD pass. Gregoire added the PAT and the Badgers led 10-0 with 5:34 left in the opening period.

Gregoire added another field goal, this one from 27 yards, to make it 13-0 with 7:05 left in the second period.

Kentucky got on the board after safety Paul Calhoun intercepted a Howard pass to give UK possession at the Badger 42. It took Kentucky just five plays to score as Marc Logan went over from nine yards. Worley added the PAT to cut the deficit to 13-7 with 1:29 left in the half.

Wisconsin was not through. The Badgers used four running plays, two passes and a costly 15-yard penalty to move the football to the UK 3 with two seconds left in the half. From there, Wisconsin decided on a Gregoire field goal (20-yarder) to take a 16-7 edge at halftime.

Kentucky narrowed the gap to 16-10 on a 22-yard field goal by Worley with 11:28 left in the third quarter. But Gregoire responded with a 40-yarder two minutes later to move the count back to nine, 19-10.

Behind UK quarterback Bill Ransdell, the Wildcats marched 82 yards in 11 plays later in the quarter to get within two, 19-17. Ransdell hit Logan on a screen pass to cover the final 27 yards and with the Worley PAT, UK was back in it

Hostetler capped off a 10-play, 81-yard drive with a 2-yard scoring toss to Rob Bennett to make it 17-10 with 11:15 left to play.

Two plays later, West Virginia took over after an interception of a Jenkins pass at the UK 16. The interception set up a 23-yard field goal by Woodside as the Mountaineers went up 20-10 with 9:18 remaining.

Kentucky freshman quarterback Bill Ransdell led the Wildcats back, marching UK 92 yards in 11 plays following the kickoff. Ransdell hit Phillips for a 13-yard scoring toss to make it 20-16 with 5:50 left. Hutcherson missed the PAT.

The Wildcats got one more shot, but could get no further than the UK 37.

1993 • Peach Bowl // Clemson 14, Kentucky 13

The Wildcats met the 24th-ranked Clemson Tigers in the 26th annual Peach Bowl and came within one minute of winning their sixth bowl in eight tries. But a Clemson TD in the closing seconds sent UK home with a 14-13 loss.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the Clemson 2-yard line, where what appeared to be a QB Pookie Jones-to-WB Alfonzo Browning TD was instead a turnover when Browning fumbled the ball while attempting to extend it over the goal line.

Clemson took over on its own one and proceeded to march 99 yards for the game's first score, a 2-yard TD plunge by TB Emory Smith. The PAT gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Clemson ran the ball 15 times and attempted only three passes in the drive. Kentucky was stopped again at the 1-yard line before the Wildcats finally scored on Nicky Nickels' 34-yard FG in the second period, making the score Clemson 7, Kentucky 3.

UK captured the lead early in the fourth quarter when Jones hit WR Mark Chatmon with a 5-yard TD pass, making it UK 10, Clemson 7. Nickels added another FG, this one from 26 yards, to extend UK's lead to 13-7. But after Dan Ariza's 55-yard punt pinned the Tigers inside their own 18-yard line, QB Patrick Sapp hit Smith with a 57-yard screen pass to move Clemson into scoring position. With less than a minute remaining, LB Marty Moore intercepted a Sapp pass, but fumbled it back, giving Clemson a second chance. The Tigers capitalized when Sapp

1999 • Outback Bowl // Penn State 26, Kentucky 14

Playing on New Year's Day for the first time in 47 years, the Kentucky Wildcats jumped out to an early lead, but the Penn State Nittany Lions rallied for a 26-14 victory in the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla.

Although the game was played in Tampa, the Wildcats certainly felt at home. Heavy ticket demand gave the Outback Bowl its first sellout ever, as more than 40,000 UK fans were packed among the 66,005 patrons in Raymond James Stadium.

Kentucky got on the board first with 7:36 remaining in the first quarter. At the PSU 36-yard line, under heavy pressure, guarterback Tim Couch lofted a rainbow into the end zone that wide receiver Lance Mickelsen caught for a touchdown.

Later in the opening period, UK stretched the lead to 14-3 with a 64-yard drive, capped by a 16-yard TD pass from Couch to halfback Anthony White. Key plays on the drive included a 22-yard pass from Couch to wide receiver Kevin Coleman and a 30-yard aerial to Mickelsen.

From the second quarter, however, Penn State chipped away. Quarterback Kevin Thompson hit flanker Joe Nastasi with a 56-yard touchdown bomb. A second field goal from Travis Forney narrowed the UK advantage to 14-13 at halftime.

The Nittany Lions took the lead for good in the third quarter on two more field goals by Forney, giving him four on the day. Penn State put the game away in the fourth guarter with a 19-yard end-around TD run by Chafie Fields.

Meanwhile, the PSU defense shut out the Wildcats the last three quarters. Kentucky continued to move the ball, but three scoring opportunities came up empty - one on an interception, one on a missed field goal, and the other when the Wildcats were held on downs.

hit WR Henry Smith with the game-winning 21-yard

TD pass. Kentucky got the ball back with less than 20 seconds remaining, but could move no farther than its own 40.

Kentucky actually outgained Penn State, 441 yards to 420. UK might have done even better, but the Wildcats offensive line was missing three senior starters, all of whom were replaced by freshmen.

Couch paced the attack by completing 30-of-48 passes for 336 yards and two TDs, completing his streak of at least 300 passing yards and at least one TD pass in every game of the season. Running backs Anthony White and Derek Homer caught seven balls each. White totaled 101 yards on the day, with eight rushes for 61 yards and seven receptions for 40 yards.

1999 • HomePoint.com Music City Bowl // Syracuse 20, Kentucky 13

Playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since 1983-84, the Kentucky Wildcats went down to the wire before falling to Syracuse, 20-13, in the HomePoint.com Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn. Kentucky played before a heavily partisan crowd, as almost all of the 59,221 fans were pulling for the Wildcats.

Kentucky blazed to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and maneuvered 79 yards for a touchdown. Tight end James Whalen set up the TD with a 45-yard reception and Kendrick Shanklin ran it in from the 3-yard line.

The Wildcats held on defense, forcing a punt. Quarterback Dusty Bonner again drove the Wildcats inside the 10-yard line before settling for a 22-yard field goal by Marc Samuel. Whalen, however, was injured during the series and was lost for the remainder of the game. Already having caught four passes for 79 yards midway through the first quarter, his presence was sorely missed.

The Kentucky defense continued to stop Syracuse, including two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal, but the Orangemen got on the board late in the second quarter. The Wildcats led at halftime, 10-7.

A scoreless third quarter led to a dramatic final stanza. Samuel extended the UK lead to 13-7 with a 35-yard field goal. Syracuse countered with two scoring runs by James Mungro, taking a 20-13 lead.

Kentucky got its last chance by taking over on its own 4-yard line with only 1:35 remaining and no timeouts.

Bonner did a great job of moving the team to the Syracuse 41-yard line, but ran out of time, and a desperation heave on the game's final play fell incomplete.

Bonner led the UK attack by completing 30 of 43 passes for 308 yards and he also ran for 16 yards. In his final game as a Wildcat, running back Anthony White caught eight passes for 85 yards – both figures setting UK bowl records.

Linebacker Ryan Murphy led the defense in tackles with a career-high 15 stops. Linebacker Marlon McCree had an outstanding game. He tied his career high for tackles with 10, including two tackles for loss and a quarterback sack, caused two fumbles and recovered a fumble. Defensive tackle George Massey (nine) and free safety Anthony Wajda (eight) each tied his career high for tackles.

The Wildcats blocked two field goals, one each by defensive end Dennis Johnson and another by linebacker Jamal White.

2006 • Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl // Kentucky 28, Clemson 20

Kentucky guarterback André Woodson threw for 299 yards with three touchdowns and the Wildcats won their first bowl game in 22 years with a 28-20 victory over Clemson in front of a record 68,024 fans at the 2006 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson, the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 20-of-28 passes and finished the season with 31 touchdown strikes, joining Tim Couch as the only Wildcats in school history to reach 30 TD tosses in a season. Woodson directed an offense that gave the Wildcats their sixth bowl win in school history by setting a UK record for most points scored in a bowl game.

Kentucky, making its first postseason appearance since 1999, used some offensive wrinkles to score its first-half points. The Wildcats guickly got on the board with a oneyard run by Micah Johnson less than four minutes into the game. Johnson, normally a linebacker, was called upon in the short-yardage situation and the 270-pounder bulldozed his way into the end zone for his first collegiate score.

The Wildcat defense gave ground early, but Clemson stayed off the scoreboard after a pair of missed field goals. The Tigers finally tallied and came within one, 7-6, after a 32-yard pass by guarterback Will Proctor to Durrell Barry in the second quarter.

From there, both teams combined for four turnovers on the next seven plays, but UK closed the half with another surprise maneuver. Facing fourth down and four yards to go from his own 20-yard line, Wildcat punter Tim Masthay faked a punt and completed a 10-yard pass to Marcus McClinton for the first down. On the next play, Woodson followed with a 70-yard bomb to receiver DeMoreo Ford to go into the locker room up 14-6.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense stiffened, stopping the Tigers on six consecutive possessions in the second and third quarters. The Wildcat offense took advantage, making it 21-6 early in the second half after a Clemson fumble. Woodson found wide receiver Dicky Lyons Jr. on a short sideline pass and Lyons took it the rest of the way for a 24-yard score. UK built its lead to 28-6 with a touchdown pass to tight end Jacob Tamme with 11:29 remaining in the game.

Trading yardage for time, Kentucky gave up a pair of clock-eating scoring drives and clinched the victory when Tamme recovered an onside kick with less than a minute to go. That set off a wild celebration among the Wildcats and the 50,000-plus UK fans who packed LP Field.

2007 • Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl // Kentucky 35, Florida State 28

It was a case of "Deja Blue" as Kentucky defeated perennial national power Florida State, 35-28, in the 2007 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

For the second consecutive year, the Wildcats claimed the Music City Bowl championship, quarterback Andre' Woodson won the Most Valuable Player Award and a heavily blue-tinted record sellout crowd of 68,661 packed LP Field in Nashville, Tenn.

Woodson capped his UK career in fine fashion, completing 32 of 50 passes for 358 yards and four touchdowns. And, as was typical of the season, a variety of players contributed to UK tallying its most points ever in a bowl game.

Versatile tailback Rafael Little had one of his best games as a Wildcat, rushing for 152 yards while catching eight passes for 50 yards and a touchdown. Wide receiver Steve Johnson caught seven balls for 124 yards and two TDs. Not expected to participate because of a knee injury, determined wideout Keenan Burton played anyway and also snagged seven passes. Linebacker Wesley Woodyard checked in with his usual solid performance, a game-high 15 tackles.

Kentucky struck quickly and never trailed. Safety Roger Williams blocked a punt on the first possession of the game and tight end Jacob Tamme got the Wildcats on the board with a 14-yard touchdown catch. However, a fumble near the FSU goal line and a missed field goal ruined other UK scoring chances and the teams were tied at 14 apiece at halftime.

Like the year before, Kentucky took control in the third quarter. Woodson directed a pair of 80-yard touchdown drives, with Little scoring on a two-yard pass reception and tailback Tony Dixon running it home from four yards away. UK made the score 35-21 in the fourth guarter on a 38-yard pass to Johnson, but just like the previous year, the opponent rallied late. FSU drove for a touchdown, got the ball back and was able to throw a bomb to the end zone on the game's final play, but cornerback David Jones knocked down the pass to preserve the victory.

The win marked some big milestones for the Kentucky football program. This was the first time since the 1950 and '51 seasons that the Wildcats notched bowl victories in consecutive years. It was the first time since 1976-77 that UK won eight games in back-to-back seasons.

2009 • AutoZone Liberty Bowl // Kentucky 25, East Carolina 19

Defensive end Ventrell Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown on a 56-yard fumble return as the Kentucky Wildcats defeated East Carolina 25-19 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl and won their third-straight bowl game for the first time in school history.

With the game tied at 19 and less than four minutes remaining, UK defensive tackle Myron Pryor knocked the ball away from an ECU running back. The 6-foot-2, 285-pound Jenkins scooped up the ball, stiff-armed a Pirate lineman, and thundered his way down the sideline towards the end zone. The senior from Columbia, S.C., pulled a double move on East Carolina quarterback Patrick Pinkney with a devastating stiff arm – knocking an earpad out of Pinkney's helmet – and a high step. Jenkins said the next thing he remembered was lving in the end zone with his teammates on top of him.

Jenkins' return capped a big Kentucky comeback. East Carolina led 16-3 at halftime, but senior cornerback David Jones gave a huge lift to the Wildcats by opening the second half with a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. It set a record for the longest kickoff return in the 50-year history of the Liberty Bowl.

Kentucky's lone offensive touchdown came minutes after Jones' kickoff return. Sophomore wide receiver Kyrus Lanxter caught a pass from quarterback Mike Hartline, broke a tackle, and made a nice inside move to avoid another defender and get into the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown reception. Lones Seiber's extra point tied the game at 16 and the teams traded field goals before Jenkins' game-winning fumble rumble.

Following Jenkins' TD, Kentucky got a huge break when East Carolina accidentally downed the kickoff on its own oneyard line. With the help of two pass breakups from freshman cornerback Randall Burden, who was subbing for injured All-American Trevard Lindley, the UK defense forced a punt. UK took over with 2:34 to play and senior tailback Tony Dixon clinched the victory with six straight running plays, grinding out two first downs to run out the clock. Dixon led all rushers with 89 yards on a career-high 28 carries. Hartline completed 19 of 31 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown. Lanxter set career highs with five catches for 46 yards.

Kentucky's defense held up its end of the bargain with several big plays, totaling nine tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, seven pass breakups and the game's decisive touchdown. Senior linebacker Braxton Kelley made eight tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack. Defensive tackle Myron Pryor went out with a bang with a career-high seven tackles, one for loss, the caused fumble and a pass breakup.

East Carolina took an early 10-0 lead in the first quarter after a Ben Hartman field goal and a 28-yard rushing touchdown by Brandon Simmons. Kentucky got on the board midway through the second quarter with a 21-yard field goal by Seiber, but 12 seconds later East Carolina increased its lead with an 80-yard touchdown pass from Pinkney to Darryl Freeney. That gave the Pirates a 16-3 lead at halftime and set the stage for UK's second-half heroics.

Jenkins was named the game's overall Most Valuable player, while Hartline and Kelley were selected UK's most outstanding offensive and defensive players, respectively. After all the bowl games were completed, Jones and Pryor were named to "All-Bowl Teams" by various college football websites in honor of their outstanding performances.

2009 • Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl // Clemson 21, Kentucky 13

The exciting duo of Derrick Locke and Randall Cobb combined for 224 all-purpose yards and senior Lones Seiber kicked two field goals, but Clemson downed the Kentucky 21-13 in what would turn out to be head coach Rich Brooks' final game on the sidelines.

Played at Nashville's LP Field before a crowd of 57,280, the game was primarily dominated by the defenses. Kentucky gained 277 total yards and Clemson's potent attack was limited to 321 total yards.

Kentucky got on the board on its first possession of the game. True freshman quarterback Morgan Newton drove the Wildcats 61 yards, the final 17 on a touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Seiber provided the rest of the scoring for the Wildcats, booting field goals of 39 and 44 vards.

Clemson, champion of the Atlantic Division of the Atlantic Coast Conference, gradually moved back into contention. The Tigers tied the score at 7-7 on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Parker to Jacoby Ford, then went ahead 14-10 at halftime with one-yard run by Jamie Harper.

Trailing 14-13 to start the fourth quarter, the Wildcats forced a three-and-out and took over at their own 13-yard line. Newton completed a short pass, but Clemson linebacker Kavell Konnor forced the ball loose and the Tigers recovered the only turnover of the game. All-America tailback C.J. Spiller scored three plays later as Clemson went up 21-13.

Kentucky tried to battle back on the following possession, keeping the drive alive on a fourth-down conversion by punter Ryan Tydlacka. Four plays later, Newton came up inches short on a fourth-and-eight scramble, and the Wildcats turned the ball over on downs. Clemson was able to run out the remaining time on the clock.

Spiller, the ACC Player of the Year, was the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite his gaudy numbers entering the game and Heisman-caliber resume, the Kentucky defense did a solid job on Spiller, allowing him just 67 rushing yards and one TD.

Sophomore linebacker Danny Trevathan led the UK defense with eight tackles, including one for loss, and caused one fumble. Junior cornerback Paul Warford and senior linebacker Micah Johnson added five tackles each.

The loss snapped Kentucky's three-game bowl winning streak, the longest in school history. Following the game, Brooks announced he probably would step down as head coach and turn the headset over to offensive head coach, and selected coach-in-waiting, Joker Phillips. Brooks finalized the decision a week later.

The game marked the second time in four seasons Kentucky played Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The Wildcats won the previous meeting in 2006, 28-20.

2010 • BBVA Compass Bowl // Pittsburgh 27, Kentucky 10

In what would eventually be his final game as a Kentucky Wildcat, UK All-American Randall Cobb earned a game-high 204 all-purpose yards, breaking the Southeastern Conference single-season record as Kentucky fell 27-10 to Big East tri-champion Pittsburgh in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl.

The bowl appearance was the school-record fifth consecutive for the Wildcats, who have now appeared in postseason play a total of 15 times with an 8-7 record. The bowl appearance for head coach Joker Phillips marked the first time in school history that a UK coach has gone to a bowl game in his first season on the job.

Kentucky entered the game with new faces on the coaching staff and at quarterback as co-defensive coordinator Rick Minter coached his first game with the Wildcats, while sophomore Morgan Newton gained his first start of the season at quarterback after the suspension of senior Mike Hartline.

Minter's defense performed well in the game, limiting Pittsburgh to 96 passing yards on just nine completions while Randall Burden grabbed a key interception in the first quarter. Danny Trevathan led UK in tackles with 14, while Winston Guy had eight tackles, a tackle-for-loss and a pass breakup.

On the offensive side, Newton was 21-for-36 for 211 yards, while senior Derrick Locke paced UK in rushing and receiving with 12 rushes for 71 yards and six receptions for 61 yards. Cobb ended his UK career with three rushes for 23 yards and five catches for 62 yards.

The game started with Pittsburgh receiving the ball and marching 53 yards down the field before Tino Sunseri was picked off by Burden to swing momentum to the Wildcats. After Newton completed three consecutive passes and Locke had a brilliant 28-yard rush into Pitt territory, the Wildcats made their only turnover of the game and fumbled the ball. The Panthers then went three and out and on the ensuing position, Craig McIntosh drilled a 50-yard field goal to give the Wildcats their lone lead of the game 3-0.

Pittsburgh took the lead late in the second quarter 6-3 after Dan Hutchins hit back-to-back field goals from 21 and 33 yards. The Panthers scored their first touchdown late in the quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak by Sunseri to go up 13-3 at halftime.

The teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. On Pitt's first possession of the half, Sunseri hit Brock DeCicco for a touchdown to give the Panthers their biggest lead of the game at 20-3.

The Wildcats put together a good drive later in the quarter. Newton guided the Cats 74 yards on 14 plays, capped when senior fullback Moncell Allen bulldozed in from oneyard out to cut the lead to 20-10. Pittsburgh tacked on its final touchdown in the fourth quarter.

See Moe Go for 429 Yards

Moe Williams enjoyed the greatest day ever by a UK running back on September 23, 1995, in the Wildcats' 35-30 win at South Carolina ... Williams compiled 429 all-purpose yards (299 rushing, 57 receiving, 73 kickoff returns) - the second highest total in NCAA history ... Williams set three SEC records and broke or tied five school records ... He was named National Player of the Week by the National Football Foundation and National Offensive Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated.

UK Upsets No. 1 Ole Miss Behind Kestner

Rick Kestner hauled in nine passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Wildcats to a 27-21 upset of No. 1-ranked Ole Miss at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson in 1964 . . . In the third quarter, Kestner was on the receiving end of a 32-yard halfback pass from Rodger Bird to give UK a 13-7 lead . . . Kestner added two additional scores on tosses from QB Rick Norton (60 and 23) as the Wildcats rallied from 14-13 and 21-20 deficits late in the second half for the upset.

Darrvl Bishop

H.

Bishop's Theft Gives UK Victory

Darryl Bishop of Louisville, whose final season was 1973, remains the UK leader in career interceptions with 14... One of his most notable interceptions took place on Nov. 6, 1971, at Dudley Field in Nashville . . . With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44 . . . Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down . . . After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout . . . Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley . . . The ball never got to Chesley as Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

Playing Field

UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri.

Video Boards

Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System

Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

Commonwealth Stadium Renovations:

Through a $120-million reinvention, Commonwealth Stadium has been transformed into a state-of-the-art facility. As the Kentucky football program enters a new era, the Big Blue Nation will enjoy an intimate game-day atmosphere to match. The experience will begin outside the stadium, as the longtime home of the Wildcats will undergo a dramatic external facelift. The new Commonwealth Stadium has taken on a modern look, but one that remains uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Commonwealth has been reduced over the course of the two-year project, but the value of all remaining seats will be increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses have been revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reap the benefits of the new Commonwealth Stadium as well, as new home-team facilities have been built, while a new multi-purpose recruiting room plays host to future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

Facts About Commonwealth Stadium:

- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 278 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. UK has a 147-127-4 record in CWS (.536), 11-11 under Mark Stoops.
   UK announced its first sellout since 2010 when
- UK announced its first sellout since 2010 wher 62,933 fans attended the season opener vs. Louisiana Lafayette on Sept. 5, 2015.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 63,030 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance for 13 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years.
- The playing surface is named C.M. Newton Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.
- When constructed in 1973, Commonwealth Stadium had a capacity of 57,800 and was completed at a cost of $12 million by the firm of Huber, Hunt and Nichols. The stadium and parking areas rest on an 86-acre plot that was once part of the UK Experimental Station Farm Grounds.
- The stadium was officially opened on Sept. 15, 1973, as the Wildcats moved into their new home after spending 48 years at Stoll Field/Mc-

Lean Stadium across from Memorial Coliseum. Kentucky defeated Virginia Tech in the stadium opener, 31-26, as quarterback Ernie Lewis ran for two touchdowns and threw for another TD to lead the Wildcats.

 The stadium was expanded in 1999. Both end zones were enclosed, along with the construction of 40 suites, 10 in each corner of the stadium. The project was handled by HNTB of Kansas City, Mo., and Turner Construction of Cincinnati, Ohio. A total of $27.6 million was allocated for the expansion, which also included the original Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video boards, new scoreboards and additional restrooms and concession stands. The attendance capacity was 67,942 in 2012.

 The playing area was named C.M. Newton Field, in honor of the former UK director of athletics, in 2001.

The "Cat Walk"

Fans are encouraged to greet the team when the Wildcats arrive for the "Cat Walk." The team buses will arrive at Gate 1 approximately two hours and 15 minutes before the game. The players and coaches will make the "Cat Walk" from Gate 1 and proceed down the walkway between CWS and Nutter Field House to the new football practice facility. Fans may also greet the team at Gate 12. In the event of inclement weather, the team will walk through Nutter Field House.

Wildcat Park

Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the newly named Wildcat Park, located outside of the southwest corner (outside Gate 9) of Commonwealth Stadium. There are inflatable games that are available two hours before kickoff.

Former Kentucky linebacker Terry Clayton, who is deaf, could not hear the roar of the crowd at Commonwealth Stadium. "But," Clayton said, "I can feel the rumble!"

2011 BBVA Compass Bowl Team – 2010 Season

KENTUCKY

DR. ELI CAPILOUTO, PRESIDENT

Dr. Eli Capilouto became the 12th President of the University of Kentucky on July 1, 2011. Under his leadership, the $3.5 billion flagship and land grant research university has gained significant momentum in fulfilling its multi-faceted mission of teaching, research, service and health care.

To embolden the institution's enduring legacy, Dr. Capilouto has led a process to enrich UK's academic experience by increasing institutional investments in student financial aid, developing the Lewis Honors College, expanding Living-Learning Communities, and rebuilding academic and community spaces. Because of his priorities, the University has enrolled nearly 400 National Merit, National Achievement and National Hispanic Scholars in the last several years – tripling the number of incoming Scholars and putting UK in the Top 10 public institutions enrolling these students.

Under Dr. Capilouto's leadership, the University of Kentucky is undergoing a significant physical transformation of its academic, research, residential, health care and community spaces. Through partnership, increased philanthropy and effective financial management, UK is self-financing the vast majority of its more than $1.9 billion infrastructure development.

Over the last five years, the University has completed, initiated or authorized construction on: 14 new residence halls; several dining facilities, including the 1,000-seat facility known as "the 90;" a $65 million renovated and expanded Gatton College of Business and Economics supported by donors and private philanthropy; a new $110 Academic Science Building financed, in-part, through a $65 million partnership with UK Athletics; and a $120 million revitalized Commonwealth Stadium funded with Athletics revenue; a renovated and expanded Nutter Training Center financed by philanthropy; a $201 million renovation and expansion of the Student Center; $150 million to continue the fit-out of Chandler Hospital; a new home for the School of Art and Visual Studies; a new $265 million multi-disciplinary health sciences research facility in partnership with the state; and the renewal of the College of Law in partnership with donors and the state.

Research at the University of Kentucky is a dynamic enterprise encompassing a full spectrum of academic inquiry, including the humanities, social sciences, traditional scholarship and emerging technologies. UK's research faculty, staff and students are establishing UK as one of the nation's most prolific public research universities in the nation. In 2013, UK's Markey Cancer Center was designated as a National Cancer Center by the National Cancer Institute; placing UK among an elite group of 22 research universities with the triple crown of federal research awards: NCI-designation, the Clinical and Translational Sciences Award and a federally supported Alzheimer's Disease Center.

Essential to the service mission of the University of Kentucky is the advanced patient care and outreach provided by UK HealthCare. As the flagship academic-medical center in the region, UK serves patients through a network of health care professionals around the Commonwealth while providing acute, sub-specialty medical care at UK Chandler Hospital. In 2013, UK HealthCare was distinguished as a Top Performer by the Joint Commission, the largest medical accreditation body in the nation, and won a Rising Star Award from the University Health System Consortium.

A native of Montgomery, Alabama, Dr. Capilouto previously served as Provost of the University of Alabama-Birmingham (UAB) and Dean of the UAB School of Public Health -- a period of remarkable growth and transformation at one of the leading academic and health sciences institutions in the South.

Dr. Capilouto holds several undergraduate and graduate degrees from schools within the University of Alabama system, and a Doctorate in Health Policy and Management from Harvard University. He and his wife, Dr. Mary Lynne Capilouto (D.M.D.) a former Dean of the UAB School of Dentistry, have one daughter.

ІМРАСТ.

It's a word that can have a meaning of stark suddenness, as when a streaking meteor slams into an object in outer space. Or, as in the case of University of Kentucky Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart, impact comes as the result of a stream of accomplishments and service that grows steadily through the test of time.

Now in his 15th year at UK, Barnhart's influence is felt not only in Wildcat athletics, but in conference and national forums as well.

Already having served on numerous committees and boards for the NCAA and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), Barnhart's national leadership will continue to expand as a new member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, which brings responsibility for selecting, seeding and bracketing teams, along with administration of the NCAA's highest-profile event.

With his extensive previous experience on the NCAA Division I Council, as chair of the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee and as a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee, in addition to several other leadership groups, Barnhart is well-suited for his latest task.

On a league level, Barnhart has been active in Southeastern Conference projects. Of recent note is his work with the SEC Compliance Committee and the SEC Network Content Committee, which helped the highly successful launch of the largest new cable channel in television history.

Barnhart's acumen and achievements are being recognized. In 2015, he was named NCAA Division I Athletics Director of the Year, one of four Division I ADs selected for the honor, at the annual NACDA convention. Barnhart also was one of four finalists for the Athletics Director of the Year as chosen by the SportsBusiness Journal and he received the Sports Business Award from the Bluegrass Sports Commission.

It is no coincidence that Barnhart's multiple accolades came in the same year as the completion of his 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, an ambitious blueprint set in 2008 in which Kentucky would rank in the nation's top 15 athletic programs and win 15 conference or national championships by 2015. At the same time, Barnhart set a goal of a 3.0 composite grade-point average for UK student-athletes and an even greater commitment to community service by Wildcat athletes and staff. All of the goals presented bold, unprecedented challenges for UK Athletics.

The academic goal was first achieved in the spring semester of 2010 and has an active streak of eight consecutive 3.0 semesters, hitting a peak in spring 2014 with a school-record 3.218 composite GPA. Community service has risen to more than 4,000 hours annually and includes outreach to the Lexington area, the Commonwealth of Kentucky and as far away as Ethiopia.

The Directors' Cup objective was reached a year early when UK checked in at a school-record No. 11 in the 2013-14 national all-sports standings. Kentucky has a current streak of five straight top-30 finishes in the Directors' Cup, including four of the top five rankings in school history.

The final goal was reached when UK men's basketball claimed the 2015 SEC Tournament title, the 15th championship won by Wildcat athletes since 2008.

Not content with reaching one set of goals, Barnhart has initiated a new objective – Elite 1-3-5. The aim is for each UK team to be No. 1 by winning a conference or national championship, continue a department-wide 3.0 GPA and rank in the top 5 of the Directors' Cup standings by 2022 – in the process making UK Athletics not just outstanding, but an elite national program.

In addition to attaining the 15 by 15 by 15 Plan, championship performance also has been reached in other levels of measurement. In Barnhart's term at UK, the Wildcats have won SEC titles for the first time in baseball, men's golf and women's tennis. More league crowns have been won by teams that hadn't done so in decades. National championships have been claimed in men's basketball and, for the first time, in rifle.

With team success growing, individual accolades have naturally followed. Since 2013, at least one Wildcat has won all four of the SEC's top individual awards – the Roy Kramer Athlete of the Year, Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year, Brad Davis Community Service Leader of the Year and the SEC Sportsmanship Award. UK and Georgia are the only two league schools that can make that claim.

Mitch Barnhart has led UK Athletics to five consecutive top-30 finishes in the Directors' Cup national all-sports standings.

The impact of Barnhart is recognized by the award-winning Cats. In her acceptance speech for the SEC Community Service Leader Award, golfer Megan Moir acknowledged the inspiration provided by the UK athletic director.

"I would like to thank Mr. Barnhart for the opportunity and the privilege of being a student-athlete at the University of Kentucky," Moir said. "I have so much respect for you and you have shown me what it means to be a true servant-leader. You are a man of high integrity and character and I have grown so much watching your leadership permeate throughout the entire athletic department. I think it is unique to find an athletic director like Mr. Barnhart – he can personally name each student-athlete and really takes the time to get to know us. It was not uncommon for Mr. Barnhart to stop and ask me about my family or for us to spend time talking about projects in the community we are involved in."

The team and individual accolades didn't happen overnight and they haven't occurred by accident, either. They have been the result of a steady, methodical process which Barnhart implemented upon his arrival at Kentucky in 2002.

Barnhart began by providing funds for full coaching staffs and scholarship allotments for all 22 UK sports.

Next, Barnhart directed the construction of new facilities, including the Joe Craft Center; new stadiums for track and field, softball and soccer; the UK Golf House; and the Wildcat Coal Lodge dormitory. Commonwealth Stadium had major renovations completed in 2015 and a new football practice/support complex opened in 2016. A new baseball stadium and indoor tennis facility are on the drawing board. All totaled, Barnhart has completed or is in the process of more than $300 million of facility construction.

Additional milestones have occurred under Barnhart's guidance. UK athletes have set records for graduation rates and maintained a perfect mark in the 12-year history of the NCAA Academic Progress Rate.

Even with the department's growth and the increasingly competitive nature of college sports, UK Athletics has remained financially self-sufficient under Barnhart's management, operating with a balanced budget and with the help of no state or University funds. Seeing pressing facility needs on campus as well, Barnhart has made a $65 million commitment for athletics to fund nearly two-thirds of the new Academic Science Building. He also directs an annual $1.7-million contribution to the University's scholarship program. Millions more dollars from the athletics budget stay on campus each year through athletic scholarship payments, administrative support payments, merchandise royalties, and other avenues.

Barnhart's legacy at UK includes helping develop administrators who have gone on to become athletics directors at nationally prominent universities, including Greg Byrne of Arizona, Mark Coyle at Minnesota, Rob Mullens at Oregon and Scott Stricklin at Mississippi State.

Barnhart arrived at UK from Oregon State, where he served four successful years (1998-2002) as athletics director. Before OSU, he worked in athletics administration posts at Tennessee (1986-98), Southern Methodist University (1983-86), Oregon (1983) and San Diego State (1982-83).

Barnhart is a native of Kansas City, Kan. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ottawa University (Kansas) in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

In addition to the extraordinary achievements of his work world, reaching new heights is also a theme of his personal life. An avid mountain climber, Barnhart has scaled Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest mountain in Africa, along with two of the most challenging peaks in the United States, Mount Rainier in Washington and the Grand Tetons in Wyoming. Impactful in community service, Barnhart has taken part in mission trips and is on the national advisory board of K-Love Radio.

Barnhart's family includes his wife, Connie; three children, Blaire, Scott, and Kirby Willoughby; Kirby's husband, McKenzie, and a grandson, Cooper.

COVERING KENTUCKY FOOTBALL

Credential Policies

Media Credentials

Credentials for working media, videographers and photographers for UK's home football games should be requested at this website: www.sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 29. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

Season-credential privileges may be granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the UK football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Credentials are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics and additional requests and affiliations are considered on an individual basis.

Credentials will not be mailed. On game day, credentials may be picked up at media will call of Commonwealth Stadium, beginning two and one-half hours prior to kickoff.

Approved parking passes will be mailed in advance.

Photographers, videographers and television reporters accompanying their camera operators must wear special identification in order to get field access. The special identification can be picked up at media will call prior to every game.

Internet Credentials

The official site of each participating institution and representatives of contractual rights-fee paying media will be granted access. Other Internet representatives not earning credentials through the criteria listed above will be considered on a game-by-game basis, based on factors such as the length of existence of the site, amount of original copy generated, number of visitors to the site, the number of full-time employees on the site, the journalistic experience of the reporter(s) and space availability. All credential privileges are granted at the discretion of UK Athletics.

SEC Internet Real-Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

KENTUCKY

The 2016 edition of the University of Kentucky Football Media Guide is a comprehensive source of information for media covering the Wildcats. Additional information or photos can be obtained by calling UK Media Relations at (859) 257-3838. E-mail addresses and other contact info are on the next page. Our website is UKAthletics.com.

DAILY/WEEKLY SERVICES

Monday News Conference

Coach Mark Stoops will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season.

The news conferences will be conducted in the Press Room at Commonwealth Stadium. To enter, go through Gate 1 and go left. Use the 37/38 ramp and the press room door will be on your left.

There is limited parking is available on the apron outside of Gate 1. Media with a University issued parking pass may park in any lot surrounding CWS.

The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 30 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 21. No news conference is scheduled for Oct. 10, the Monday prior to UK's open date.

The news conference schedule is generally as follows:

- lunch is from 11:00 a.m. to 11:50 in the Recruiting Room at CWS
- UK Olympic sports coach from 11:50 a.m. to noon
- Coach Mark Stoops from noon to 12:20

News conferences are live streamed on the Internet. A link is available each week on UKathletics.com.

Quotes from the news conference will be posted on UKathletics.com by mid-to-late afternoon on Monday.

Southeastern Conference Services

The Southeastern Conference Media Relations Office, headed by Herb Vincent, offers a variety of services to the media throughout the year.

SEC head football coaches are available each Wednesday via teleconference. Each coach is given 10 minutes to address media questions about his upcoming game. The starting date and telephone number will be available to the media by contacting the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3010.

This is the schedule for the Wednesday teleconferences, all times Eastern:

| 11:00 a.m. | Les Miles, LSU          |

The SEC Internet address is accessible for media and public usage at www.secsports.com. The Web site is updated continuously with information on all 14 conference schools and their sports.

Collegepressbox.com

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Division I football.

Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

SEC Affiliate Network/XOS Digital

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@ xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

Wildcat Player Interviews

All player interviews must be coordinated through the UK Media Relations Office.

Internet

The official University of Kentucky athletics Internet site is UKathletics.com. Statistics and game notes are available on the website.

- 1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:
  - (a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.
  - (b) Video tape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.
  - (c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed halftime story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.
- 2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online sight of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy or detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.
- 3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularlyscheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Media Relations Assistant chloe.smith@uky.edu

For home games, live in-game statistics are available on the website. After the game, notes and quotes also will be posted on the web.

Football Practice

Other than announced exceptions, Kentucky football practices are closed to the media. Interviews are available after most practices. Media members should contact the UK Media Relations Office, (859) 257-3838, for practice and interview times.

For practices that are open, media may not shoot video or still photos during 11-on-11 sessions of practice. Video is not to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program).

GAME SERVICES

Media Parking

Media parking at Commonwealth Stadium is available on a limited basis. Requests for parking should be made when submitting media and/or photo credentials. The primary media parking area is Parking Structure #1, at the corner of Cooper Drive and University Drive.

Media Will Call

Approved media or photo credentials can be obtained at the Media Will Call entrance located at Gate 11. Media Will Call opens two and one-half hours prior to kickoff and closes 15 minutes following kickoff.

Press Box

226

The Commonwealth Stadium press box is for working media members only. It is located on the south side (Alumni Drive) of Commonwealth Stadium on level five of the press box/suite complex. Access the elevator and press box at Gate 11.

KENTUCKY

ŦŁ

The radio booths, television booths, coaches booths, and other VIP booths are located on the press box level of the stadium. The photo deck is on top of the press box.

Wireless Internet

The Commonwealth Stadium press box offers free wireless Internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided in the press box on game day.

For further questions, contact Susan Lax, UK Associate Media Relations Director, on the second row of the main media area.

Visiting Radio

The official visiting radio broadcast network personnel should be designated in writing by the visiting team's sports information director or athletics director. Two phone lines (including one ISDN) will be made available in the broadcast booth, plus one phone line and two dry pair in the locker room area.

Networks wishing to install additional telephone lines, either in the press box booth or locker room, can do so by contacting UK Phone Services Department at (859) 257-0712.

Field-Level Photo Room

The field-level photo area is located on the south concourse of the stadium under the press box complex.

Access from the field to the photo room will be from behind the Kentucky bench.

There will be a pregame meal and soft drinks served in the room. Flip cards will be available. Statistics and play-by-play sheets will be brought to the room during the game.

Wireless Internet and a limited number of hard-wired Internet connections (first-come, first-served) are available. Access instructions are posted in the room.

Post-Game Interviews

UK Coach Mark Stoops will conduct his postgame news conference in the new media room located under the west grandstand. Media should enter from the concourse ramp 37/38. If coming from the field, exit through Field Gate 1 or 12 and circle around the concourse.

The Kentucky locker room is closed to the media. UK players requested for interviews are brought to the postgame media room following the conclusion of Stoops' news conference. Interview cards are distributed in the press box during the second half of the game in order for the media to request Wildcats players.

The visitors' locker room is located at the southwest corner of Commonwealth Stadium. A press conference room is located next to the visitors' locker room. The visiting coach and players generally conduct their post-game comments from that area.

2017 Schedule

As the media guide went to press, the 2017 schedule is being determined by the Southeastern Conference.

The league schedule format will be similar to previous seasons – Kentucky will play every team in the Eastern Division; play one permanent opponent from the Western Division (Mississippi State); and one rotating opponent each year from the Western Division.

2016 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

SEC NETWORK/UK ON THE AIR

Kentucky Athletics' television coverage was enhanced greatly by the most successful new channel launch in history when the SEC Network debuted in 62 million homes nationwide in 2014.

The SEC Network has over-delivered on the number of SEC events available year after year, carrying 1,600 live events in 2015-16 surrounded by 1,200 hours of original programming.

The network is operated by ESPN as part of a 20-year partnership. Programming includes in-depth analysis and storytelling in studio shows such as SEC Nation, daily news and information with SEC Now, original content such as SEC Storied and SEC Inside, and more.

In 2016, the SEC Network will air more than 45 football games.

The new venture complements the existing television agreements with CBS and ESPN, which began in 2009 and features every SEC home football and basketball game on CBS or an ESPN affiliate.

On the radio side, UK is in its third year working with JMI Sports. JMI Sports was awarded UK's multimedia marketing rights with a 15-year agreement. The JMI Sports Network also handles corporate sponsorships, stadium and arena signage and the official athletics Web site, UKAthletics.com.

At press time, JMI Sports is finalizing the radio list for 2016-17, with nearly 70 stations expected to be on board.

For the 2016 football season, the UK radio broadcast team consists of play-by-play announcer Tom Leach (27 years with the network, 19th season on play-by-play), former Wildcat Jeff Piecoro (14th season) as the color analyst, sideline reporter/post-game host Dick Gabriel (27th season), and host Neil Price (fifth season).

For the second straight season, the UK Radio Network is expanding its game day coverage, starting two hours prior to kickoff, in the "Texas Roadhouse Countdown to Kickoff." Christi Thomas and former UK quarterback Freddie Maggard will join Leach, Piecoro and the rest of the broadcast team in the pregame coverage.

From the Cat Walk to Cat Talk, they will focus on the X's and O's of the game and bring a little fun to pregame in the first 30 minutes of the show.

The show is broadcast in Lexington on WLAP-630AM, online at ukathletics.com and the UK Radio Network affiliates.

The two-hour pregame show also will be live streamed on ukathletics.com for fans to not only listen to the "Texas Roadhouse Countdown to Kickoff" but also watch online and on the phone. Working behind the scenes with the broadcasts are producer Neil Price and game-day engineer Daryl Doss.

Freddie Maggard and Christi Thomas are hosts of the "Texas Roadhouse Countdown to Kickoff."

From Coach Mark Stoops

"Obviously, it is of the utmost importance that our coaches, athletic staff, and fans stay compliant to the NCAA rules involving recruiting. The NCAA rules do not allow fans to call, write, tweet, send other social media messages or send electronic messages. Fans are also not allowed to make in-person contact with prospective student-athletes, their families, or coaches on behalf of the University of Kentucky.

"It is permissible for you to recommend a prospective studentathlete to us. If you would like to recommend a player, please write or call the UK football office (UK Football Training Center, 295 Alumni Drive, Lexington, Ky., 40506, phone 859-257-3611) or email Director of Recruiting, Dan Berezowitz (danbrez22@uky. edu). Give us the player's name and the high school he attends. The coaching staff will take it from there. Please do not contact the player, his family or his coaches on our behalf. Thank you for your cooperation."

The NCAA Rules and You

Compliance with NCAA rules is of the highest priority for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Kentucky is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on your part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the UK Compliance Office if you have any questions regarding what is permissible. We encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act."

Inquiries should be directed as follows:

Rachel Baker, Senior Associate AD

University of Kentucky Athletics Joe Craft Center 338 Lexington Avenue Lexington, KY 40506-0604 Phone: (859) 257-8604 | E-mail: rachel.baker@uky.edu

If, for any reason, you are uncomfortable reporting a violation or a concern directly to the athletics department, you may use the "ComplyCat" hotline. The ComplyCat hotline can be reached by dialing 1-877-898-6072.

Representatives of Athletic Interests - "Boosters"

A representative of Kentucky's athletic interests, or "booster," is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various athletic department support groups;
- Has purchased season tickets;
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;

KENTUCKY.

235

 Has assisted or been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospects; examples
 -- writing, texting or e-mailing a prospect; participating in a chat room with a prospect; posting on a prospect's personal website, such as Twitter or Facebook; talking to a prospect on the phone or in person;

ŦŁ

- Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to student-athletes; or
- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of UK's athletic program.

Recruiting

Only UK coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, text, e-mail, personal website posts, tweets or in person. This prohibition remains in effect until the prospect attends class as a full-time student in a fall or spring term at UK.

Prospective Student-Athlete

In the sport of football, a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade.

Extra Benefits

Prospective, current student-athletes and former student-athletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

- Cash or loans in any amount;
- Co-signing or arranging a loan;
- Gifts or free services (such as airline ticket, restaurant meal, etc.);
- Use of an automobile;
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing;
- Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond;
- Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work; and
- Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed.

Your commitment to helping the University of Kentucky comply with the letter and spirit of the rules of the NCAA and SEC is greatly appreciated.

COMMONWEALTH STADIUM

Through a $120-million reinvention, Commonwealth Stadium transformed into a state-of-the-art facility in the 2015 season. The new Commonwealth Stadium has taken on a modern look, but one that remains uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Commonwealth (61,000) has been reduced over the course of the two-year project, but the value of all remaining seats have been increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses have been revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and premium spaces.

Players and coaches have reaped the benefits of the new Commonwealth Stadium as well, as new home-team facilities have been built and new multi-purpose recruiting room plays host to future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.
