NOTES

Scouting the Opponent

Kentucky continues its road stand at the USC Radisson Classic, where the Wildcats will face Southern California, No. 22 Creighton and Northern Iowa.

Southern California (0-3):

USC enters the match during a rare rough start to open its season, as the Trojans begin the year at 0-3 for the first time since 1990. Freshman outside hitter Khalia Lanier produced consecutive double-digit kills performances in losses to UC Irvine and Santa Clara, while being named to the Baden Invitational All-Tournament Team. She leads the team in kills with 39 (3.55/set), while libero Taylor Whittingham leads team in digs (36, 3.27/set)

#22 Creighton (1-1):

The Blue Jays opened their season with a loss to Wichita State in five sets, but bounced back in their second game with a win over Iowa State in four. Through two matches, Creighton has accumulated 108 kills with an average of 12 per set, 149 digs and average of 2.11 blocks per set. Creighton's key players include sophomore outside Jaali Winters who leads the team in kills (34) and setter Lydia Dimke who paced the offense to .208 hitting in the first weekend while ranking second on the team in digs. Both made the Iowa State Challenge All-Tournament Team.

Northern Iowa (2-1):

The UNI volleyball team is coming off a second-place finish at the 2016 Michigan Invitational. The squad swept Miami (Ohio) and Saint Louis before losing 3-0 to Michigan in the championship match. Senior middle hitter Kayla Haneline leads the team with 34 kills, while sophomore outside Bri Weber and defensive specialist Kendyl Sorge lead the team in digs with 34 each. Middle hitter Piper Thomas has 12 blocks on the season.

Cats Close Opening Weekend with Pair of Wins

After a tough season opening loss to Washington State, 3-0 (17-25, 22-25, 17-25), the Kentucky Wildcats rallied, sweeping Wyoming, 3-0, before notching their first ranked win of the season in a 3-2 thriller over then-No. 20 Purdue. Freshman outside hitter Leah Edmond paved the way for UK on offense, hitting .316 with 3.91 kills per set over the weekend, while junior Darian Mack added 3.00 kills per frame. Sophomore Olivia Dailey filled the starting setter role, guiding the Cats to .258 hitting over the weekend, as UK notched the only win over a ranked opponent for any SEC team in the opening weekend. Junior middle blocker Emily Franklin led UK in both hitting percentage (.429) and blocks per set (0.73) during

Mack, Edmond Explode on Offense at Purdue

Kentucky's tandem of outside hitters in junior Darian Mack and freshman Leah Edmond had standout performances, pacing the offense in UK's upset of Purdue. Mack and Edmond each accounted for 20 kills in the 3-2 win over the Boilermakers, marking the first time since Nov. 7, 2008 in which a pair of Kentucky players had 20 or more kills in a single match (Sarah Mendoza, 24; Lauren Rapp, 23). It also marked the first time in a year that a Kentucky player had 20 or more kills in a single match - the last Wildcat to do so was middle blocker Kaz Brown, who posted 20 kills in the 2015 season opener against Michigan State.

Dusek Named Defensive Player of the Week

Following the season's opening weekend of play, the reigning Southeastern Conference Libero of the Year, Ashley Dusek, claimed the league's first Defensive Player of the Week honor.

Dusek anchored the Wildcats' defense with a team-best 46 digs over the weekend. In 51 reception attempts, she committed just one error. Dusek's weekend was highlighted by a 20-dig performance in three sets against Wyoming, four short of a Kentucky three-set record. The 20 digs in a three-set match were second most by an SEC player in three sets in the early season. Her passing led UK to hit .258 over the weekend and helped the Cats notch the SEC's lone win over a nationally ranked opponent in the opening weekend.

Franklin, Dailey Rank Top Five in SEC Statistical Categories

Junior middle blocker Emily Franklin and sophomore setter Olivia Dailey both strung together strong performances over the weekend, finding themselves among the top five in statistical categories within the SEC. Franklin was extremely efficient in the first three matches, hitting at a .429 clip, leading the team while ranking fourth in the SEC. Her most efficient match was against Purdue, going 12-for-21 with two errors (.476). Dailey ranked fifth in the SEC in assists per set, averaging 10.91 over the weekend. Her first three matches were highlighted against Purdue as well, where she registered 59 assists, nine digs, a pair of aces, a kill and a block.

Thomasson On Track for 1,000 Kill Club

In her final season with Kentucky, senior Anni Thomasson is on pace to become the 16th member of UK's 1,000 kill club, needing just 180 more to reach the milestone. With a minimum of 26 matches and 78 sets to play, Thomasson would need to average 2.30 kills per set to hit 1,000 career kills. Thomasson has averaged 2.50 kills per set to this point in her career.

Wildcats Ranked in the Preseason Again

Kentucky enters the season ranked for a school-record fifth consecutive year, coming in at No. 24 in the initial AVCA preseason poll. Kentucky has now been ranked in 48 of the last 49 AVCA polls. UK will once again have one of the toughest schedules in the country this season, with six of its opponents ranked in the preseason top 25 and two more receiving votes.

Brown, Dusek Pegged Preseason All-SEC

Nine days prior to the season opener, the Southeastern Conference released its preseason polls, with juniors Kaz Brown and Ashley Dusek named to the All-SEC preseason team, while Kentucky was pegged to finish third in the SEC.

Brown, a middle blocker from Waterloo, Iowa, finished the 2015 season third in the nation in blocks per set (1.61) and seventh in total blocks (180). With 160 block assists last season, the All-SEC player ranked second in single-season block assists for Kentucky all-time, while claiming the most blocks ever by a UK player in a single season during the 25-point rally scoring era. She also notched two double-double efforts in the season, the first time a Kentucky middle had notched a double-double since 2007.

Brown's 2015 Key Stats

2015	112-31	306	2.73	.312	20	160	180	1.61	406.0	3.62

Dusek, the team's libero from East Bernard, Texas, led the Southeastern Conference in digs from wire-to-wire, averaging 5.05 per set during her sophomore campaign. The reigning SEC Libero of the Year's season was highlighted by a 40-dig performance at Auburn, breaking a 22-year-old UK record for most digs in a single match. Her 40 digs were the most in a single match for any player in the SEC last season and the only 40-dig performance from a player at a Power Five institution. Dusek was a model for consistency during the season, only registering two matches with less than 10 digs.

Wildcats Notch Second-Straight AVCA Academic Award

For the second consecutive season, the Kentucky Wildcats volleyball team earned the AVCA Team Academic Award, honoring the team's 3.383 cumulative grade point average for the 2015-16 school year. The Wildcats had an accomplished season in the classroom, surpassing the required 3.3 grade point average during both the fall and spring semesters. Additionally, eight members of the team held a 3.5 GPA or higher in both semesters, while three Wildcats posted individual GPA's of 3.9 or higher for the academic year. Kentucky was one of just four Southeastern Conference programs to be named award winners, with Alabama, Missouri and South Carolina also making the mark.

Kentucky Hauls in Another Top-10 Recruiting Class

Kentucky continues a tradition of stellar recruiting this season as the 2016 class was ranked the ninth-highest in the country earlier this year. The Cats boast the seventh-best prospect in the nation in Lexington native outside hitter Leah Edmond along with middle blocker Jordan Fry and defensive specialist Kylie Schmaltz.

With the top-10 class, Kentucky is just one of four schools in the country to have back-to-back top-10 recruiting classes, and the only school in the Southeastern Conference to do so. It also marks UK's seventh top-20 class under the guidance of head coach Craig Skinner. Skinner's rookies have always been able to make an impact, as Kentucky has placed a member of the team on the SEC All-Freshman team in each of the past 11 seasons.

Brown, Dusek Represent UK for Team USA

Wildcat junior duo Kaz Brown and Ashley Dusek both represented Kentucky as a part of the 2016 USA Collegiate National Team program. Brown was one of three Dusek was selected as one of six liberos at the Collegiate National Team's training program. The 36-member team trained and competed in conjunction with the USA Volleyball Girls' Junior National Championships, June 21-30 in Indianapolis. Dusek guided her squad to the championship of the event.

UKVB Earns SEC Sportsmanship Award

The Kentucky Volleyball team became the first UK team or individual to ever be honored with the SEC Sportsmanship Award earlier this year. The University of Kentucky volleyball team and support staff were named co-winners of the women's SEC Sportsmanship Award for their care of an injured LSU volleyball player last November.

During a pre-match warmup period, LSU senior Cati Leak suffered an ankle dislocation that was originally thought to be a compound fracture. Led by Kentucky athletic trainer Katy Poole, UK Athletics personnel leaped into action, providing immediate medical care and assistance to Leak's parents. UK personnel stayed with the family at a hospital throughout the medical evaluation period, and then provided hotel rooms to the family when it was determined surgery would be necessary. UK personnel remained with the family and Leak in the aftermath of the successful surgery.

In a follow-up gesture, Leak was honored at LSU's senior day three weeks later when Kentucky visited Baton Rouge. It was agreed upon by the teams to allow Leak to serve the first point of the match. UK deferred first serve to enable Leak to have the first serve of the match.

Tourney Time

Kentucky is one of just 10 teams in the country to advance to the NCAA tournament in each of the last 11 seasons. UK joins Colorado State, Florida, Hawai'i, Nebraska, Penn State, Southern California, Stanford, Texas and Washington in achieving the feat.

NCAA Revival Under Skinner

When head coach Craig Skinner arrived in Lexington prior to the 2005 season, UK had made six NCAA Tournaments, most recently in 1993 and never in more than two consecutive seasons. Eleven years later, the Wildcats have advanced to the postseason in each of Skinner's 11 seasons. Kentucky made its first NCAA Tournament under Skinner in 2005, won its first postseason match since 1992 in 2006 and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2009. UK's Sweet 16 run in 2009 was UK's first regional appearance since 1993 and the first time the Wildcats had won two NCAA matches in the same season since 1989. Five times under Skinner's leadership, UK has earned a national seed and hosted the first and second rounds.

HEAD COACH CRAIG SKINNER

Since being tabbed Kentucky's head coach in December 2004, Craig Skinner has rejuvenated the Kentucky volleyball program into national prominence once again. Skinner has directed the Wildcats to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments - a feat only 10 other schools in the nation have achieved. That run includes THREE Sweet Sixteen appearances in the last six seasons. Furthermore, the Wildcats have captured 17 or more victories in all 11 seasons under Skinner's direction, including tallying 20 or more wins in EIGHT of the last NINE, including 2015.

He became the fastest coach in school allure to total 100 career victories in just his fifth season, and is the only coach in program history to advance to postseason play in each season at the helm. With the team's 3-1 victory over Georgia Southern on Sept. 13, 2014, he eclipsed Kathy DeBoer as the winningest coach in UK volleyball history.

Twelve players have garnered 18 All-America distinctions, while UK has hauled in 37 All-Southeastern Conference honors in his 10 seasons - including the 2008 SEC Player of the Year, 2006 SEC Freshman of the Year, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015 SEC Libero of the Year and the 2005 SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

The Wildcats have enjoyed unprecedented success which has included a school-record run of 47 consecutive weeks ranked in the top 25 of the American Volleyball Coaches Association poll, record-breaking attendance marks and a six time host of NCAA Tournament play including serving as one of four host sites for the 2011, 2013 and 2015 NCAA Regionals.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM

Playing in the friendly confines of Memorial Coliseum is a tremendous home-court advantage for the Kentucky volleyball team, which plays all of its matches in the historic facility.

The Wildcats have compiled a 398-154 record, good for a .721 winning percentage in 39 seasons of play in the facility. In the last 10 seasons, Kentucky is an astounding 140-29 (.828) at home.

The Coliseum has played host to first-and second-round NCAA volleyball action as well as the 1983 NCAA Volleyball Final Four. It played host to NCAA Regionals in 2011, 2013 and 2015. Memorial also currently serves as the home court for the UK women's basketball and gymnastics teams. The storied gymnasium also housed some of the greatest moments in UK men's basketball history as its home for 26 seasons from 1950 to 1976.
