NOTES

Scouting the Opponents

The Wildcats continue Southeastern Conference play with a home match in Memorial on Sunday against Mississippi State before heading on the road to take on the No. 6 Florida Gators in Gainesville.

Mississippi State (9-6):

Mississippi State heads to Lexington 1-0 in the SEC after a 3-0 sweep of Tennessee. Evie Grace Singleton averages 3.85 kills per set to lead the offensive effort. In a 6-2 system, Blossom Sato is posting 6.39 assists per frame. The Bulldogs have had five players log at least 20 blocks thus far with Jazmyne Johnson pacing the frontline defense with 1.14 blocks a set. Payton Harris anchors the backline with 3.92 digs per stanza.

Florida (10-1): Florida enters conference play ranked No. 6 in the country in the AVCA Division I Coaches poll. The Gators one loss this year was against the current No. 1 team in the country, Nebraska, in four sets on a neutral court on opening day in Eugene, Oregon. Florida has only dropped four sets since its loss, and opens the SEC season at Ole Miss and Alabama.

Brown Shines as Kentucky Takes SEC Opener

Kentucky began the SEC season the same way it ended its non-conference slate, with a 3-0 win over Georgia. Junior Kaz Brown was heavily involved in the offense, contributing 13 kills on 19 swings, hitting .579. Brown committed just two errors and tossed in a dig during the win.

Dailey Helping the Cause

Sophomore setter Olivia Dailey became just the fourth player in the 25-point rally scoring era to have multiple 40+ assist nights in the win over Georgia. Dailey contributed 40 helpers during the sweep and also tossed in six digs. The sophomore also hit the mark against Purdue with a career-high 59.

Edmond Repeats as SEC Freshman of the Week

The 6-foot-2 outside hitter led the way for the Wildcats in wins over Louisville and Lipscomb to end the non-conference season with four-consecutive wins in the form of sweeps. Leah Edmond averaged 4.50 kills, 3.17 digs, 0.67 blocks and attacked at a .385 rate for the week. She's posted 10 or more kills in 10 of 11 matches this season – including both that week. In her first taste of the rivalry match between Louisville, the calm, sure-handed freshman from Lexington, Kentucky, torched the Cards for a match-high 13 kills on .346 hitting. She added eight digs, the second most on the team, and a trio of blocks. Against Lipscomb, Edmond once again led the way with her third career double-double with match highs in kills (14) and digs (11). She posted a .423 attacking percentage, which was the second-highest of her career.

Non-Conference Season Ends in Style

Kentucky wrapped up non-conference action on Saturday with its fourth-consecutive win by way of a sweep, this time downing Lipscomb. UK was paced by the electric offensive play of its starting outside hitters in junior Darian Mack and freshman Leah Edmond. The duo teamed up for 24 kills and both boasted at least a .400 attacking percentage to pave the way for the Cats. Kentucky also limited an up-tempo Lipscomb offense to a mere .162 hitting and 35 kills on the night. UK posted seven blocks, four from junior Emily Franklin, while picking up 39 digs to frustrate the Bison all night. Edmond led the backline defensive effort with a match-high 11 digs.

Make That Four in a Row

With a 3-0 win over Louisville in the annual matchup with the Cardinals, UK extended its streak to four in a row over its instate rival. The Wildcats dominated in all phases of the match, including displaying a balanced offensive attack anchored by a steady presence defensively. Sophomore setter Olivia Dailey was the engineer to UK's crippling attack that boasted 46 total kills on a .358 attacking percentage. Dailey dished out 37 assists and added seven digs and a pair of blocks. Freshman Leah Edmond led the way with 13 kills, with Brooke Morgan and Kaz Brown adding nine apiece. Libero Ashley Dusek posted a match-high 15 digs, while junior Emily Franklin had a squad-best five blocks. In addition to the four-straight wins, UK has also taken six of the last seven overall and improved to 6-3 in the Skinner era.

Block Party at the Bluegrass Battle

Kentucky logged back-to-back matches of 16 or more blocks to conclude the Bluegrass Battle with sweeps of Virginia and Saint Louis. Junior middle blocker Kaz Brown broke out for 10 blocks in the win over the Cavaliers in which UK held the visitors to a negative hitting percentage. UK followed that performance with a 16.5 block party against Saint Louis. Brown had eight rejections, while classmate Emily Franklin joined in with seven.

Edmond Named SEC Freshman of the Week

Freshman Leah Edmond enjoyed the most complete weekend of her young career in helping lead UK to a 2-1 mark at the Bluegrass Battle. She once again led the team in kills with a trio of 10+ kill performances, but she also registered a pair of double-doubles for the first time. In a loss to Marquette, Edmond posted 17 kills, just three shy of a career best, and broke out for a career-high 10 digs. Entering the weekend, she had registered just one dig in six combined matches. Against Virginia in a three-set victory she led the team with 11 kills, notched seven digs and then added a career-best seven blocks. Edmond followed that performance with 11 more kills in the win over Saint Louis that evening. She picked up her second career double-double as she added 10 digs and then she also contributed five rejections.

For the weekend, Edmond averaged 3.90 kills per set, 2.70 digs and 1.20 blocks per frame. She logged a team-high 4.60 points per set and utilized an efficient .243 attacking percentage on 107 attempts.

Thomasson On Track for 1,000 Kill Club

In her final season with Kentucky, senior Anni Thomasson could become the 16th member of UK's 1,000 kill club, needing just 167 more to reach the milestone.

NOTES

3. UK hit at a blistering .415 clip against the Bluejays. The match marked the first time since Nov. 4, 2014 that Kentucky hit .400 or better, when the Cats hit .449 against Morehead State. The team's efficiency was incredible as UK committed just five hitting errors the entire match, including a flawless third set. The last time Kentucky made five errors or less in a match was on Oct. 4, 2013, against Ole Miss.

Cats Close Opening Weekend with Pair of Wins

After a tough season opening loss to Washington State, 3-0 (17-25, 22-25, 17-25), the Kentucky Wildcats rallied, sweeping Wyoming, 3-0, before notching their first ranked win of the season in a 3-2 thriller over then-No. 20 Purdue. Freshman outside hitter Leah Edmond paved the way for UK on offense, hitting .316 with 3.91 kills per set over the weekend, while junior Darian Mack added 3.00 kills per frame. Sophomore Olivia Dailey filled the starting setter role, guiding the Cats to .258 hitting over the weekend, as UK notched the only win over a ranked opponent for any SEC team in the opening weekend. Junior middle blocker Emily Franklin led UK in both hitting percentage (.429) and blocks per set (0.73) during the first three matches.

Mack, Edmond Explode on Offense at Purdue

Kentucky's tandem of outside hitters in junior Darian Mack and freshman Leah Edmond had standout performances, pacing the offense in UK's upset of Purdue. Mack and Edmond each accounted for 20 kills in the 3-2 win over the Boilermakers, marking the first time since Nov. 7, 2008 in which a pair of Kentucky players had 20 or more kills in a single match (Sarah Mendoza, 24; Lauren Rapp, 23). It also marked the first time in a year that a Kentucky player had 20 or more kills in a single match - the last Wildcat to do so was middle blocker Kaz Brown, who posted 20 kills in the 2015 season opener against Michigan State.

Dusek Named Defensive Player of the Week

Following the season's opening weekend of play, the reigning Southeastern Conference Libero of the Year, Ashley Dusek, claimed the league's first Defensive Player of the Week honor.

Dusek anchored the Wildcats' defense with a team-best 46 digs over the weekend. In 51 reception attempts, she committed just one error. Dusek's weekend was highlighted by a 20-dig performance in three sets against Wyoming, four short of a Kentucky three-set record. The 20 digs in a three-set match were second most by an SEC player in three sets in the early season. Her passing led UK to hit .258 over the weekend and helped the Cats notch the SEC's lone win over a nationally ranked opponent in the opening weekend.

Wildcats Among League Leaders in SEC Statistical Categories

Kaz Brown, Olivia Dailey, Ashley Dusek, Leah Edmond and Emily Franklin all are among the league leaders in individual statistical categories. Two-straight eight-plus block performances vs. Virginia and Saint Louis enabled Brown to ascend to No. 5 in the conference with 1.25 blocks per set. Franklin ranks eighth with an average of 1.19 blocks per set. Dusek, the 2015 league leader in digs per set, ranks second overall this year with a 4.44 average. Edmond currently ranks fifth in the league with 3.83 kills per set, it's also tops among all freshmen. She also ranks sixth overall in points per set with a 4.26 mark. Dailey is fifth in assists per set with 10.66 per frame.

Wildcats Ranked in the Preseason Again

Kentucky enters the season ranked for a school-record fifth consecutive year, coming in at No. 24 in the initial AVCA preseason poll. Kentucky has now been ranked in 48 of the last 49 AVCA polls. UK will once again have one of the toughest schedules in the country this season, with six of its opponents ranked in the preseason top 25 and two more receiving votes.

Brown, Dusek Pegged Preseason All-SEC

Nine days prior to the season opener, the Southeastern Conference released its preseason polls, with juniors Kaz Brown and Ashley Dusek named to the All-SEC preseason team, while Kentucky was pegged to finish third in the SEC. Brown, a middle blocker from Waterloo, Iowa, finished the 2015 season third in the nation in blocks per set (1.61) and seventh in total blocks (180). With 160 block assists last season, the All-SEC player ranked second in single-season block assists for Kentucky all-time, while claiming the most blocks ever by a UK player in a single season during the 25-point rally scoring era. She also notched two double-double efforts in the season, the first time a Kentucky middle had notched a double-double since 2007.

Dusek, the team's libero from East Bernard, Texas, led the Southeastern Conference in digs from wire-to-wire, averaging 5.05 per set during her sophomore campaign. The reigning SEC Libero of the Year's season was highlighted by a 40-dig performance at Auburn, breaking a 22-year-old UK record for most digs in a single match. Her 40 digs were the most in a single match for any player in the SEC last season and the only 40-dig performance from a player at a Power Five institution. Dusek was a model for consistency during the season, only registering two matches with less than 10 digs.

Wildcats Notch Second-Straight AVCA Academic Award

For the second consecutive season, the Kentucky Wildcats volleyball team earned the AVCA Team Academic Award, honoring the team's 3.383 cumulative grade point average for the 2015-16 school year. The Wildcats had an accomplished season in the classroom, surpassing the required 3.3 grade point average during both the fall and spring semesters. Additionally, eight members of the team held a 3.5 GPA or higher in both semesters, while three Wildcats posted individual GPA's of 3.9 or higher for the academic year. Kentucky was one of just four Southeastern Conference programs to be named award winners, with Alabama, Missouri and South Carolina also making the mark.

Kentucky Hauls in Another Top-10 Recruiting Class

Kentucky continues a tradition of stellar recruiting this season as the 2016 class was ranked the ninth-highest in the country earlier this year. The Cats boast the seventh-best prospect in the nation in Lexington native outside hitter Leah Edmond along with middle blocker Jordan Fry and defensive specialist Kylie Schmaltz.

With the top-10 class, Kentucky is just one of four schools in the country to have back-to-back top-10 recruiting classes, and the only school in the Southeastern Conference to do so. It also marks UK's seventh top-20 class under the guidance of head coach Craig Skinner. Skinner's rookies have always been able to make an impact, as Kentucky has placed a member of the team on the SEC All-Freshman team in each of the past 11 seasons.

Brown, Dusek Represent UK for Team USA

Wildcat junior duo Kaz Brown and Ashley Dusek both represented Kentucky as a part of the 2016 USA Collegiate National Team program. Brown was one of three middle blockers taken on the 12-person Chinese tour roster. A starter by the end of the tour, Brown helped guide the Collegiate National Team to the championship title after facing staunch competition in Shanghai, Nanjing and Beijing from June 18 - July 1.

Dusek was selected as one of six liberos at the Collegiate National Team's training program. The 36-member team trained and competed in conjunction with the USA Volleyball Girls' Junior National Championships, June 21-30 in Indianapolis. Dusek guided her squad to the championship of the event.

UKVB Earns SEC Sportsmanship Award

The Kentucky Volleyball team became the first UK team or individual to ever be honored with the SEC Sportsmanship Award earlier this year. The University of Kentucky volleyball team and support staff were named co-winners of the women's SEC Sportsmanship Award for their care of an injured LSU volleyball player last November.

During a pre-match warmup period, LSU senior Cati Leak suffered an ankle dislocation that was originally thought to be a compound fracture. Led by Kentucky athletic trainer Katy Poole, UK Athletics personnel leaped into action, providing immediate medical care and assistance to Leak's parents. UK personnel stayed with the family at a hospital throughout the medical evaluation period, and then provided hotel rooms to the family when it was determined surgery would be necessary. UK personnel remained with the family and Leak in the aftermath of the successful surgery.

In a follow-up gesture, Leak was honored at LSU's senior day three weeks later when Kentucky visited Baton Rouge. It was agreed upon by the teams to allow Leak to serve the first point of the match. UK deferred first serve to enable Leak to have the first serve of the match.

Tourney Time

Kentucky is one of just 10 teams in the country to advance to the NCAA tournament in each of the last 11 seasons. UK joins Colorado State, Florida, Hawai'i, Nebraska, Penn State, Southern California, Stanford, Texas and Washington in achieving the feat.

NCAA Revival Under Skinner

When head coach Craig Skinner arrived in Lexington prior to the 2005 season, UK had made six NCAA Tournaments, most recently in 1993 and never in more than two consecutive seasons. Eleven years later, the Wildcats have advanced to the postseason in each of Skinner's 11 seasons. Kentucky made its first NCAA Tournament under Skinner in 2005, won its first postseason match since 1992 in 2006 and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2009. UK's Sweet 16 run in 2009 was UK's first regional appearance since 1993 and the first time the Wildcats had won two NCAA matches in the same season since 1989. Five times under Skinner's leadership, UK has earned a national seed and hosted the first and second rounds.

HEAD COACH CRAIG SKINNER

Since being tabbed Kentucky's head coach in December 2004, Craig Skinner has rejuvenated the Kentucky volleyball program into national prominence once again. Skinner has directed the Wildcats to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments - a feat only 10 other schools in the nation have achieved. That run includes THREE Sweet Sixteen appearances in the last six seasons. Furthermore, the Wildcats have captured 17 or more victories in all 11 seasons under Skinner's direction, including tallying 20 or more wins in EIGHT of the last NINE, including 2015.

He became the fastest coach in school allure to total 100 career victories in just his fifth season, and is the only coach in program history to advance to postseason play in each season at the helm. With the team's 3-1 victory over Georgia Southern on Sept. 13, 2014, he eclipsed Kathy DeBoer as the winningest coach in UK volleyball history.

Twelve players have garnered 18 All-America distinctions, while UK has hauled in 37 All-Southeastern Conference honors in his 10 seasons - including the 2008 SEC Player of the Year, 2006 SEC Freshman of the Year, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015 SEC Libero of the Year and the 2005 SEC Defensive Player of the Year.

The Wildcats have enjoyed unprecedented success which has included a school-record run of 47 consecutive weeks ranked in the top 25 of the American Volleyball Coaches Association poll, record-breaking attendance marks and a six time host of NCAA Tournament play including serving as one of four host sites for the 2011, 2013 and 2015 NCAA Regionals.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM

Playing in the friendly confines of Memorial Coliseum is a tremendous home-court advantage for the Kentucky volleyball team, which plays all of its matches in the historic facility.

The Wildcats have compiled a 401-155 record, good for a .721 winning percentage in their 40th season in the facility. In the last 12 seasons, Kentucky is an astounding 147-36 (.803) at home.

The Coliseum has played host to first-and second-round NCAA volleyball action as well as the 1983 NCAA Volleyball Final Four. It played host to NCAA Regionals in 2011, 2013 and 2015. Memorial also currently serves as the home court for the UK women's basketball and gymnastics teams. The storied gymnasium also housed some of the greatest moments in UK men's basketball history as its home for 26 seasons from 1950 to 1976.
