KENTUCKY OPENS 2017 IN ORLANDO

After the best regular season in Kentucky softball history a season ago in 2016, the Wildcats are primed for action to kick off in 2017 as UK travels south to the Sunshine State to compete in the UCF Knights Invitational at the UCF Softball Complex in Orlando, Florida to start the 2017 season.

The Wildcats will commence the season with a 10 a.m. ET game against Florida A&M University before the back end of Friday's doubleheader against Pittsburgh. The Wildcats will be up early again on Saturday to face the Panthers at 10 a.m. ET on Saturday before playing the host Knights of UCF on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

The tournament for UK wraps up on Sunday with a single game against FAMU at 9:30 a.m. ET.

Kentucky will be turning to Meagan Prince and Shannon Smith in the circle this season in addition to a fully-healthy Erin Rethlake and freshman Larissa Spellman and Ashley Ruiz. Prince had nothing short of a sensational season in 2016, tying NFCA All-American Kelsey Nunley for a team-best 21 wins, as the two pitchers had identical win totals for the first time in Nunley's four years at Kentucky. Smith, who had a season without a loss for the first time in her career, has been having a sensational off-season, as head coach Rachel Lawson described on media day Monday.

"She is going to be the anchor of this team," Lawson said about Prince. "Meagan is great because she was a 20-game winner last night, but she is a great starter – and she is also a great closer and has a great closing mentality, so you could see her in two different roles. Shannon Smith is somebody who is a returner along with Erin Rethlake."

Offensively, some of UK's biggest bats, and its two best sluggers from a season ago return for the Wildcats. Abbey Cheek and Brooklin Hinz who combined to hit 17 home runs ago, in addition to knocking in 87 run, both are back for the Wildcats. In addition, UK returns key sophomore Jenny Schaper behind the dish, as well as sophomore Katie Reed - who in 2017 will move from a second basemen to the UK starting shortstop.

Kelsey Nunley Honored as First Team NFCA All-American

Kentucky softball's Kelsey Nunley made more program history on Wednesday afternoon, becoming the first player in UK history to be named a National Fastpitch Coaches' Association First Team All-American.

Nunley, who was crowned the 2016 Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year, joins current assistant coach Molly Johnson-Belcher as the two All-Americans in Kentucky's program, with Johnson-Belcher earning second team honors in 2009.

Nunley joins five other pitchers on the NFCA First Team, including Delanie Gourney (Florida), Megan Good (James Madison), Paige Parker (Oklahoma), Aleshia Ocasio (Florida) and Jailyn Ford (James Madison). Nunley and Ocasio were at-large selections for the first team pitcher spot.

The senior from Soddy Daisy, Tenn., pitched a fantastic senior season for Kentucky, ending the year with a 21-6 overall record and a program single-season best 1.26 ERA in her 37 appearances in the circle for the Blue and White. Nunley started 23 games for UK, throwing 13 complete games and seven shutouts.

With her 181.1 innings pitched, Nunley overtook the NCAA active pitchers career innings lead, as she ended her career with a whopping 943.1 innings thrown in her four years in Lexington. She started 117 games in her four-year career with 21 shutouts and 86 complete games for the Wildcats.

Kelsey Nunley Named Senior CLASS Award First Team All-American

Premier Sports Management announced that Kentucky softball pitcher Kelsey Nunley has been named to the 2016 Senior CLASS Award All-American First Team, it was announced on Thursday, June 2, 2016. The honor comes less than 24 hours after Nunley became the first-ever National Fastpitch Coaches' Association First Team All-American at Kentucky on Wednesday afternoon.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.

Rachel Lawson Media Day Transcription

"I'm real excited about 2017. We have a new look to us in 2017, but I have the same staff. My staff is here, Kristine Himes and Molly Johnson-Belcher, so they're here with me. Kristine has been with me the entire time. Molly has been here the entire time as a player and as a coach. She's been around forever. She was around here before me. So the staff is completely intact and we are really looking forward to the season. This is going to be a completely different season than everyone is accustomed to the last couple of years. We have a completely new look in 2017. First, we are going to have a lot of people playing new positions. A lot of the people returning are playing a position that they did not play at last year. But, in addition to 2017's new look positionally, we have a lot more team speed – it's been something we have been working very hard on. We have Bailey Vick, Katie Reed, Erin Rethlake and Brynlee Bigelow – they are incredibly, incredibly fast. We've always had fast people on our team – but we have never had this many fast people on the same team at the same time, so we are looking forward to our team speed. In addition, (Brooklyn) Hinz and (Sarah) Rainwater, they are just a step off of those guys. They have done an exceptional job in the outfield and right now, they are projecting to be starters as well.

The big question that I've been getting asked all year is how do you replace Kelsey Nunley. And it is a very good question – but I think one thing when you think of Kelsey Nunley, is that she was not only exceptional, but she threw a ton of innings, and they were all very productive innings. So, we have to figure out how are we going to get as many innings out of our pitching staff as we can to try and help with replacing all of the innings that we will need to replace Kelsey Nunley. I feel very good about the staff that we have put together. It is going to have a different look, but we are very versatile. It's a lot of different people doing what Kelsey Nunley could do by herself. She was a workhorse, she was very big and she was very strong, but there are more than one ways to get things done. Luckily, we have Meagan Prince coming back. She is going to be the anchor of this team. Meagan is great because she was a 20-game winner last night, but she is a great starter – and she is also a great closer and has a great closing mentality, so you could see her in two different roles. Shannon Smith is somebody who is a returner along with Erin Rethlake. Erin had surgery this offseason, but she's improving everyday and she has experience, so she is someone we really will lean on during the course of the season for this staff. She looks great – she's full go. She is on a little bit of a pitch count, but in the innings that she has pitched, she's looked incredibly strong. We've added to the pitching staff. We have three freshman who have come in. One freshman who has really been impressive as of late on the mound is Larissa Spellman – she is from New Jersey – and she is not very large in stature – but she throws the ball incredibly hard and one thing that I have been really impressed with her is that she's really figuring out her own body. She is figuring out her mechanics and she is increasing the command of her pitching everyday and her mindset. She has really worked hard on that in the offseason – she has worked hard at how to deal with failure, and because she has done such a good job with that, she has been able to figure out her own mechanics at a much faster rate." - Rachel Lawson.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (NINTH SEASON)

When Rachel Lawson was named head coach of the University of Kentucky softball team in July 2007 she saw a program poised for success. She knew athletics director Mitch Barnhart and the rest of UK's administration would give her unwavering support, and most importantly she knew the Big Blue Nation would provide the home-field advantage necessary for her team to compete in the Southeastern Conference.

Entering her 10th season as UK's head coach in 2017, Lawson's vision for the UK softball program has started to become a realization. The winningest head coach in program history has not only lead UK to its first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, four NCAA Super Regionals the last five seasons, including a program-best 50 wins in 2014, but UK's administration come through on their promise and commitment to softball by providing Lawson with one of the nation's greatest collegiate softball facilities in the $9.5 million John Cropp Stadium.

She became the first coach in program history to eclipse 300 wins at Kentucky against Ole Miss on March 19 in a 3-1 win at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

Lawson and Co. have made sure the beautiful stadium has seen lots of wins over the past few seasons as UK had had some of its three most successful seasons in program history each of the last four years. In 2014, Lawson guided Kentucky to the Women's College World Series behind 50 wins. The Wildcats also set single-season records in at-bats, runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, total bases, walks, fielding percentage, putouts, lowest ERA and strikeouts. UK, which advanced to the program's first SEC Tournament Championship, started the season with a program-best 12 straight wins.

Three of the last four seasons, Lawson has led the Wildcats to a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The school's first-ever national seed was in 2013 - and UK hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time ever. Kentucky, which has made the NCAA Tournament each of the last eight seasons, is one of just 18 schools nationally to claim that honor.

Lawson helped guide Kentucky to its best regular season in program history in 2016, winning 43 games in the regular season, ending with a No. 9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, a new program best. The Wildcats earned the right to host the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four seasons at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington. Lawson was named the 2016 SEC Coach of the Year, and joined Kelsey Nunley (SEC Pitcher of the Year) as the first two Kentucky winners of those awards.

The 2016 team finished with some of the best pitching numbers in program history, setting school records in the circle for lowest team ERA (1.71), lowest opponent batting average (.191), fewest runs allowed (130), fewest earned runs allowed (98), fewest hits allowed (280) and fewest doubles allowed (44).

Now entering her 10th season in 2017, Lawson has won 411 career games at the head of the dugout and has earned her first-career NFCA First Team All-American in 2016 when Kelsey Nunley was named to the elite squad as a pitcher. Nunley became the second All-American in program history (Molly Johnson, 2nd Team), and the first to be named to the First Team.

Now sitting at 322-213 in her ten seasons at Kentucky, Lawson is the winningest head coach in school history and already has more wins in SEC play than UK had all told as a program when she took over in 2007. UK finished the 2014 season ranked sixth in both national listings for its best final ranking ever. In 2013, Kentucky was ranked in the top 14 of both collegiate softball rankings for the second time in school history with nine wins over ranked teams. In her nine seasons at Kentucky, Lawson has defeated over 70 ranked foes, including 40 wins vs. top-10 teams and 18 against top-five teams.

Lawson's 2013 squad set the stage for the 2014 run to the Women's College World Series, setting several school records, including a then-program record 41 wins. All told, Lawson has directed the Wildcats to 30 or more victories in seven-straight seasons, which also resonates as a program record. In her nine years with Kentucky, Lawson has helped UK players earn 33 All-SEC honors and 23 SEC Player of the Week honors.

Lawson's impact on the UK program is obviously, but her ability to develop players sometimes gets overshadowed by her impressive credentials in handling the day-to-day running of a program. Lawson, who serves as the pitching coach for the Wildcats, has guided three different pitchers to throw no-hitters against top-25 teams in just the last four seasons alone.

In all, UK has 17 career no-hitters - all of which have come under Lawson's tenure - including two perfect games.

Kentucky's 2012 season was highlighted by an impressive second-half surge with upsets of 12 ranked opponents, a then Lawson-best fifth place finish in SEC action, a program-record six captured conference series and a senior class who became the first class in school history to tally a .500 record or better in each of their four seasons of play.

The end of the 2012 season also marked the conclusion of some of the best individual careers in UK history as Lawson helped pitcher Chanda Bell become the first player in school history to record 200-plus strikeouts all four seasons, while slugger Brittany Cervantes is the school's leading home run hitter. Pitcher/infielder Rachel Riley also excelled under Lawson, ranking top 10 in school history in field percentage and nearly every pitching category.

In 2011, Lawson directed the Wildcats to their first NCAA Super Regional appearance and finished the season ranked No.12 in the country. The 2011 team earned a 40-16 overall record to set a new single-season standard for wins in a season before Lawson's 2013 team posted 41. UK appeared in the national rankings for a school-record 14 consecutive weeks, defeated 12 top-25 ranked opponents, captured five SEC series and became a national story with a dramatic postseason run which included a seventh-inning rally to knock off the nation's No. 2 team in Michigan in Ann Arbor to advance to Super Regionals.

The 2011 Wildcats shattered 12 single-season UK records, including home runs (65), RBI (275) and batting average (.275). Individually, the Wildcats had a school-record five players earn National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region honors in Meagan Aull, Cervantes, Kara Dill, Riley and Megan Yocke. Following the end of the impressive 2011 season, Lawson was rewarded with a five-year contract extension keeping her at the helm of the Wildcat program through 2016. That contract has been extended several times since, including June of 2014, which keeps Lawson in UK blue through the 2020 season.

In 2010, the Wildcats charted a 32-27 record and entered into the national rankings for the first time in program history, while also knocking off five top-seven ranked opponents on the year. Behind the pitching tandem of sophomores Riley and Bell, the Wildcats broke school records in nearly every pitching category. Kentucky's offense continued to make strides as well with improvements in batting average, home runs, RBI and sacrifice hits for the third consecutive season under the direction of Lawson.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (NINTH SEASON)

Lawson's impact on the program was immediate as many Wildcats broke into the school record books under her tutelage. Pitcher Amber Matousek became the first pitcher in 10 years to record 10 or more strikeouts in a game when the sophomore right-hander achieved the feat three times in the season. Johnson set the school record for most doubles (20) in a season, while rocketing up the school charts for career home runs, doubles, batting average, slugging percentage and on-base percentage.

During the season the head coach also charted her 100th career victory in a 5-1 UK triumph over Eastern Illinois on March 1. Lawson became the winningest head coach in program history on April 10, 2013 with win No. 182 against Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, Ky.

Lawson became just the third head coach in the history of the Kentucky softball program after spending three seasons at Western Kentucky. She also served as an assistant coach at Maryland from 1996-2002 and was the associate head coach of the Philadelphia Force professional team in 2006.

Lawson tallied a record of 92-84 (.523) during her tenure with the Hilltoppers. In her first season at WKU, she led the Toppers to a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game. Picked to finish last in the preseason poll, WKU tied for second in the conference standings after setting a school record with 12 Sun Belt victories. The Billings, Mont., native led WKU to a 33-24 record in 2005 and reached the 30-win plateau again in 2007.

Lawson and the Hilltoppers battled nine NCAA Regional participants in 2006, including four teams ranked in the top 25, while finishing third in the Sun Belt regular-season play. She guided the squad to wins over perennial powers Long Beach State, South Florida, Mississippi Valley, as well as No. 13 Louisiana-Lafayette and No. 21 Louisville. In fact, then-freshman pitcher Ryan Rogge tossed the school's third no hitter against the Ragin' Cajuns in WKU's 8-0 victory.

The win handed UL its first run-rule defeat in an SBC contest. Three Hilltoppers - Lathrop, Rolfs and Rogge - each earned SBC Player- and Pitcher-of-the-Week honors throughout the season, as Rolfs and outfielder Alana Towns notched all-conference honors.

Lawson was a two-time all-conference player at Massachusetts, where she was part of a program that advanced to the 1992 Women's College World Series, and has seven years experience as an assistant coach at Maryland.

During her four-year career at UMass, Lawson helped the Minutewomen post a combined record of 142-68 (67.6 percent) including a 39-3 (92.9 percent) Atlantic 10 mark. In addition to the 1992 WCWS appearance, she was a part of squads that also advanced to the NCAA Tournament her freshman season, won three A-10 Tournament titles and claimed the league regular-season championship four straight years.

Lawson was honored individually for her accomplishments on and off the field. She was both an All-Conference and All-Atlantic 10 Tournament performer in 1992 and 1994, and was also named to the A-10 Academic all-conference squad following each of her final two seasons.

Lawson joined the Maryland staff in 1996 and helped the Terrapins post six winning seasons in her seven years in College Park. Her responsibilities included recruiting, scheduling, organizing practice and travel, as well as running camps and clinics. In 1999, Lawson and company were selected the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Terrapins to a 51-23 record, their first ACC regular-season title and the championship game of the NCAA Region II Tournament.

During her time at Maryland, Lawson helped eight individuals earn NFCA all-region accolades -- with an All-America honoree in 1999 -- and nine players collected all-conference honors.

A 1994 graduate of Massachusetts with a degree in exercise science, Lawson also earned her master's degree in sports management from UMass in 1998. She is the daughter of Elaine and Gerald Lawson and has 12 siblings.
