KENTUCKY OPENS HOME SEC SLATE WITH HOGS

The No. 17/18 Kentucky softball teams opens its Southeastern Conference home slate of games this weekend in Lexington, hosting the No. 24/22 Arkansas Razorbacks for a three-game series set to kick off on Friday night at 6 p.m. ET. All three games of the weekend will be shown live on the SEC Network+, ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app with Saturday and Sunday's games being called by Dave Baker (pxp) and former head coach Carol Bruggeman (color).

Kentucky is coming off a 2-1 series defeat down in Athens against No. 16 Georgia. The Wildcats took the opening game in a pitcher's dual on Saturday afternoon, but dropped the final two games of the series to exit its opening SEC weekend 1-2. Kentucky was on a bye for the first weekend of SEC play and has only played one league series to this point.

Meagan Prince got her third top-20 win of the season for the Wildcats in the circle on Saturday afternoon, throwing a one-run gem over seven innings in the 2-1 win over the Bulldogs. The win for UK was its first in Athens since 2007 and head coach Rachel Lawson's first win as Kentucky's head coach at Jack Turner Stadium.

Offensively, Kentucky remains amongst the nation's best at stolen bases, with 53 this season, which is good for 18th in the NCAA. UK as a team is hitting .303 on the season and has hit 23 home runs with Rachael Metzger leading the offense with six long balls on the season. Abbey Cheek leads UK in batting average, at .368.

Rethlake's Improvement

One of the key's to Kentucky's great start to the season is no doubt Erin Rethlake, both at the plate and in the circle. In week two of the season, she became a slapper - for the first time in her softball career - she is hitting .333 with 23 hits and eight RBI. In the circle, she leads UK with a 0.90 ERA and a perfect 5-0 record. Last year, Rethlake had the highest ERA on UK's pitching staff and was the worst statistical hitter than met UK's statistical minimums.

Fifth Inning is the Right Inning

UK has scored 31 runs in the fifth innings of games this season - by far and away the most for any inning. The breakdown of UK runs by inning is as follows:

1st: 6 runs
2nd: 18 runs
3rd: 17 runs
4th: 14 runs
5th: 31 runs
6th: 13 runs
7th: 6 runs
8th: 0 runs
9th: 0 runs
10th: 0 runs
11th: 1 run

Scouting Arkansas

The Razorbacks have been the suprise of the SEC so far this season, entering the third weekend of conference play at 21-6 overall after winning just 10 games a season ago in Courtney Deifel's first season at the helm of the Razorbacks. Arkansas is ranked first in the SEC and seventh in the NCAA with 1.26 home runs per game this season, led by Nicole Schroeder, who is fifth nationally and first in the SEC in home runs hit. In the circle, the Hogs have used five different pitchers this season, with Autunm Storms leading the charge. Storms has a 1.54 ERA in a team-high 77 innings thrown.

Series History vs. Arkansas

Arkansas leads the all-time series with Kentucky 30-22, but the Wildcats have won each of the last two series and five of the last six games with the Razorbacks. Last year, the Wildcats outscored Arkansas by at least six runs in all three games. The last time Arkansas won a series in Lexington was Rachel Lawson's first season in Lexington (2008), when the Hogs took both games of a weekday doubleheader.

Good Spot in the RPI

The Wildcats checked in at No. 19 in the NCAA's initial release of the RPI. Kentucky has the No. 20 strength of non-conference schedule in the nation and have three wins against the RPI top 25 already. The SEC is the No. 1 RPI confrence.

Rachel Lawson Elected to Serve on NCAA Softball Rules Committee

Head coach Rachel Lawson is serving her second season on the NCAA Rules Committee. She is focusing on the pace of play and duration of games as her main point of emphasis during her term.

Metzger's Homers

Rachael Metzger hit two home runs in game two at Georgia on Sunday night, marking the second time in the last two weeks that she has gone yard in the same game (Drexel). Metzger had two home runs in her career entering 2017 - but already has six in 2017 including a grand slam against Memphis at the FAU Invite.

Lawson Cracks the Athens Code

UK's 2-1 win at No. 16 Georgia on Saturday afternoon was UK's first win at Jack Turner Stadium in Athens since 2007, and marked Rachel Lawson's first win at UGA since taking over as UK's head coach in 2008.

Three Tourney Crowns in Three Weeks

The Wildcats won the last three weekend tournaments that they participated in, with perfect records in all three:

*FAU Invite, Boca Raton, Florida (5-0)
*Coach B Classic, Carbondale, Illinois (3-0)
*John Cropp Classic, Lexington, (5-0)

Smaller and Smaller ERA's

Kentucky's pitching staff currently sports a 1.56 ERA, which is actually better than 2016's ERA of 1.64 through 25 games a season ago. Last season, UK set a school record with its lowest ERA ever - with a 1.71 - and this staff is on pace to better that mark.

Homers on Homers

UK's bats came to life at the John Cropp Classic in Lexington, hitting six home runs on the weekend after hitting a total of 13 as a team in the previous 17 games. UK hit four HR's against Drexel, which was the most HR's in a single game since UK hit four vs. Tennessee Tech on Feb. 28, 2015. The homers came from:

--Brooklin Hinz (vs. Evansville, Solo)
--Rachael Metzger (vs. Drexel, 2-R HR)
--Abbey Cheek (vs. Drexel, 3-R HR)
--Rachael Metzger (vs. Drexel, 2-R HR)
--Breanne Ray (vs. Drexel, Solo)
--Breanne Ray (vs. #15 Michigan, 3-R HR)

Offensive Explosion

Kentucky scored nine runs and 12 runs in its two games against Memphis. Those were the two best offensive performances by a UK team since March of 2016 when it beat Arkansas by double-digit runs in the series.

FAU Invite Champions

Kentucky won the Florida Atlantic Invitational Championship over the weekend of Feb. 24-16 in Boca Raton, going 5-0 against the field including a win over (RV) FAU in the Saturday night featured game of the weekend.

Grand Slam Central

Junior catcher Rachael Metzger hit her first-career grand slam on Sunday against Memphis, in the top of the second inning to put UK up, 4-0. It was her second home run of the season and fourth-career long bomb after not hitting one her sophomore season.

A week later in Carbondale - Abbey Cheek belted a go-ahead homer against Illinois-Chicago in a 2-2 game in the bottom of the fifth inning. UK ended up winning 6-2, with her grand slam making the difference.

Stealing All The Bases

UK has stolen 53 bases this season through the opening six weeks of 2017. Last season through five weeks the Wildcats successfully stole just 37 bases, 16 less than this season. The Wildcats rank 18th nationally in stolen bases per game, and Erin Rethlake ranks 33rd individually - as she is 16-for-16 this season and that ranks second in the SEC.

Holding Onto Leads

The Wildcats are 14-0 this season when leading after four innings and 15-1 when leading through five innings this season. The Wildcats have scored first in 16 of their 25 games and UK is 14-2 of those games (UCLA - game 1, UGA - game 2 are the only two losses).

Schaper's HR in Westwood

Jenny Schaper hit a towering HR to deep center at Easton Stadium on Wednesday, Feb. 17 to give UK a win at No. 5 UCLA, 2-1 in extra innings. Meagan Prince pitched the entire game, throwing 162 pitches - a new career high by over 40 pitches - to give Kentucky its fourth win of the season.

Tough Sledding Early

In keeping with tradition - Kentucky has played one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country to date, with games against No. 19 Pitt twice, two games against No. 5/4 UCLA, and a game against No. 4/6 Oregon - all inside of the first two weekends of play.

The Wildcats are 2-2 against top-15 teams this season with wins over #5 UCLA and #15 Michigan.

Buzzing Through Michigan

UK outfielder Breanne Ray hit a key three-run HR in the bottom of the sixth inning to give Kentucky a 5-1 lead over #15 Michigan. It was her second HR in three nights in the John Cropp Classic. She is hitting .286 on the season.

Martens Stepping Up

With Katie Reed moving to SS, Alex Martens has been great filling in at second base as a true freshman - hitting at a .286 mark with 34 total bases and eight two-out RBI. The freshman had a two-run, two-out RBI single against Oregon at the Mary Nutter Classic in the fifth inning to put the Wildcats up, 4-1 at the time.

Katie Reed Moving to SS

After a sensational season as Kentucky's second basemen - sophomore Katie Reed has moved over to shortstop for 2017. She went 7-for-19 on opening weekend in Orlando, hitting .368 with a double and an RBI. In the field, Reed made just one miscue and several inning-saving plays for the UK defense.

Freshman Making an Impact Right Away for the Wildcats

UK started many freshman on opening weekend, and a lot of them had a major impact on games for "career-firsts" -

* Alex Martens had a walk-off HR in her first-career game against FAMU

* Larissa Spellman was perfect through four innings and faced the minimim through five innings in her first-career start - a win over FAMU.

* Kierston Moore hit her first-career HR against Central Florida, a 3-run shot. It was the eventual game-winning runs that crossed the plate on her bomb.

* Bailey Vick went 3-for-3 in her first game as a Wildcats and stole two bases.

Rachel Lawson Media Day Transcription

"I'm real excited about 2017. We have a new look to us in 2017, but I have the same staff. My staff is here, Kristine Himes and Molly Johnson-Belcher, so they're here with me. Kristine has been with me the entire time. Molly has been here the entire time as a player and as a coach. She's been around forever. She was around here before me. So the staff is completely intact and we are really looking forward to the season. This is going to be a completely different season than everyone is accustom to the last couple of years. We have a completely new look in 2017. First, we are going to have a lot of people playing new positions. A lot of the people returning are playing a positon that they did not play at last year. But, in addition to 2017's new look positionally, we have a lot more team speed – it's been something we have been working very hard on. We have Bailey Vick, Katie Reed, Erin Rethlake and Brynlee Bigelow – they are incredibly, incredibly fast. We've always had fast people on our team – but we have never had this many fast people on the same team at the same time, so we are looking forward to our team speed. In addition, (Brooklin) Hinz and (Sarah) Rainwater, they are just a step off of those guys. They have don an exceptional job in the outfield and right now, they are projecting to be starters as well.

The big question that I've been getting

asked all year is how do you replace Kelsey Nunley. And it is a very good question – but I think one thing when you think of Kelsey Nunley, is that she was not only exceptional, but she threw a ton of innings, and they were all very productive innings. So, we have to figure out how are we going to get as many innings out of our pitching staff as we can to try and help with replacing all of the innings that we will need to replace Kelsey Nunley. I feel very good about the staff that we have put together. It is going to have a different look, but we are very versatile. It's a lot of different people doing what Kelsey Nunley could do by herself. She was a workhorse, she was very big and she was very strong, but there are more than one ways to get things done. Luckily, we have Meagan Prince coming back. She is going to be the anchor of this team. Meagan is great because she was a 20-game winner last night, but she is a great starter – and she is also a great closer and has a great closing mentality, so you could see her in two different roles. Shannon Smith is somebody who is a returner along with Erin Rethlake. Erin had surgery this offseason, but she's improving everyday and she has experience, so she is someone we really will lean on during the course of the season for this staff. She looks great – she's full go. She is on a little bit of a pitch count, but in the innings that she has pitched, she's looked incredibly strong. We've added to the pitching staff. We have three freshman who have come in. One freshman who has really been impressive as of late on the mound is Larissa Spellman – she is from New Jersey – and she is not very large in stature – but she throws the ball incredibly hard and one thing that I have been really impressed with her is that she's really figuring out her own body. She is figuring out her mechanics and she is increasing the command of her pitching everyday and her mindset. She has really worked hard on that in the offseason – she has worked hard at how to deal with failure, and because she has done such a good job with that, she has been able to figure out her own mechanics at a much faster rate." - Rachel Lawson.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (TENTH SEASON)

When Rachel Lawson was named head coach of the University of Kentucky softball team in July 2007 she saw a program poised for success. She knew athletics director Mitch Barnhart and the rest of UK's administration would give her unwavering support, and most importantly she knew the Big Blue Nation would provide the home-field advantage necessary for her team to compete in the Southeastern Conference.

Entering her 10th season as UK's head coach in 2017, Lawson's vision for the UK softball program has started to become a realization. The winningest head coach in program history has not only lead UK to its first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, four NCAA Super Regionals the last five seasons, including a program-best 50 wins in 2014, but UK's administration come through on their promise and commitment to softball by providing Lawson with one of the nation's greatest collegiate softball facilities in the $9.5 million John Cropp Stadium.

She became the first coach in program history to eclipse 300 wins at Kentucky against Ole Miss on March 19 in a 3-1 win at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

Lawson and Co. have made sure the beautiful stadium has seen lots of wins over the past few seasons as UK had had some of its three most successful seasons in program history each of the last four years. In 2014, Lawson guided Kentucky to the Women's College World Series behind 50 wins. The Wildcats also set single-season records in at-bats, runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, total bases, walks, fielding percentage, putouts, lowest ERA and strikeouts. UK, which advanced to the program's first SEC Tournament Championship, started the season with a program-best 12 straight wins.

Three of the last four seasons, Lawson has led the Wildcats to a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The school's first-ever national seed was in 2013 - and UK hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time ever. Kentucky, which has made the NCAA Tournament each of the last eight seasons, is one of just 18 schools nationally to claim that honor.

Lawson helped guide Kentucky to its best regular season in program history in 2016, winning 43 games in the regular season, ending with a No. 9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, a new program best. The Wildcats earned the right to host the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four seasons at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington. Lawson was named the 2016 SEC Coach of the Year, and joined Kelsey Nunley (SEC Pitcher of the Year) as the first two Kentucky winners of those awards.

The 2016 team finished with some of the best pitching numbers in program history, setting school records in the circle for lowest team ERA (1.71), lowest opponent batting average (.191), fewest runs allowed (130), fewest earned runs allowed (98), fewest hits allowed (280) and fewest doubles allowed (44)

Now entering her 10th season in 2017, Lawson has won 411 career games at the head of the dugout and has earned her first-career NFCA First Team All-American in 2016 when Kelsey Nunley was named to the elite squad as a pitcher. Nunley became the second All-American in program history (Molly Johnson, 2nd Team), and the first to be named to the First Team.

Now sitting at 322-213 in her ten seasons at Kentucky, Lawson is the winningest head coach in school history and already has more wins in SEC play than UK had all told as a program when she took over in 2007. UK finished the 2014 season ranked sixth in both national listings for its best final ranking ever. In 2013, Kentucky was ranked in the top 14 of both collegiate softball rankings for the second time in school history with nine wins over ranked teams. In her nine seasons at Kentucky, Lawson has defeated over 70 ranked foes, including 40 wins vs. top-10 teams and 18 against top-five teams.

Lawson's 2013 squad set the stage for the 2014 run to the Women's College World Series, setting several school records, including a then-program record 41 wins. All told, Lawson has directed the Wildcats to 30 or more victories in seven-straight seasons, which also resonates as a program record. In her nine years with Kentucky, Lawson has helped UK players earn 33 All-SEC honors and 23 SEC Player of the Week honors.

Lawson's impact on the UK program is obviously, but her ability to develop players sometimes gets overshadowed by her impressive credentials in handling the day-to-day running of a program. Lawson, who serves as the pitching coach for the Wildcats, has guided three different pitchers to throw no-hitters against top-25 teams in just the last four seasons alone.

In all, UK has 17 career no-hitters - all of which have come under Lawson's tenure - including two perfect games.

Kentucky's 2012 season was highlighted by an impressive second-half surge with upsets of 12 ranked opponents, a then Lawson-best fifth place finish in SEC action, a program-record six captured conference series and a senior class who became the first class in school history to tally a .500 record or better in each of their four seasons of play.

The end of the 2012 season also marked the conclusion of some of the best individual careers in UK history as Lawson helped pitcher Chanda Bell become the first player in school history to record 200-plus strikeouts all four seasons, while slugger Brittany Cervantes is the school's leading home run hitter. Pitcher/infielder Rachel Riley also excelled under Lawson, ranking top 10 in school history in field percentage and nearly every pitching category.

In 2011, Lawson directed the Wildcats to their first NCAA Super Regional appearance and finished the season ranked No.12 in the country. The 2011 team earned a 40-16 overall record to set a new single-season standard for wins in a season before Lawson's 2013 team posted 41. UK appeared in the national rankings for a school-record 14 consecutive weeks, defeated 12 top-25 ranked opponents, captured five SEC series and became a national story with a dramatic postseason run which included a seventh-inning rally to knock off the nation's No. 2 team in Michigan in Ann Arbor to advance to Super Regionals.

The 2011 Wildcats shattered 12 single-season UK records, including home runs (65), RBI (275) and batting average (.275). Individually, the Wildcats had a school-record five players earn National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region honors in Meagan Aull, Cervantes, Kara Dill, Riley and Megan Yocke. Following the end of the impressive 2011 season, Lawson was rewarded with a five-year contract extension keeping her at the helm of the Wildcat program through 2016. That contract has been extended several times since, including June of 2014, which keeps Lawson in UK blue through the 2020 season.

In 2010, the Wildcats charted a 32-27 record and entered into the national rankings for the first time in program history, while also knocking off five top-seven ranked opponents on the year. Behind the pitching tandem of sophomores Riley and Bell, the Wildcats broke school records in nearly every pitching category. Kentucky's offense continued to make strides as well with improvements in batting average, home runs, RBI and sacrifice hits for the third consecutive season under the direction of Lawson.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (TENTH SEASON)

Lawson's impact on the program was immediate as many Wildcats broke into the school record books under her tutelage. Pitcher Amber Matousek became the first pitcher in 10 years to record 10 or more strikeouts in a game when the sophomore right-hander achieved the feat three times in the season. Johnson set the school record for most doubles (20) in a season, while rocketing up the school charts for career home runs, doubles, batting average, slugging percentage and on-base percentage.

During the season the head coach also charted her 100th career victory in a 5-1 UK triumph over Eastern Illinois on March 1. Lawson became the winningest head coach in program history on April 10, 2013 with win No. 182 against Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, Ky.

Lawson became just the third head coach in the history of the Kentucky softball program after spending three seasons at Western Kentucky. She also served as an assistant coach at Maryland from 1996-2002 and was the associate head coach of the Philadelphia Force professional team in 2006.

Lawson tallied a record of 92-84 (.523) during her tenure with the Hilltoppers. In her first season at WKU, she led the Toppers to a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game. Picked to finish last in the preseason poll, WKU tied for second in the conference standings after setting a school record with 12 Sun Belt victories. The Billings, Mont., native led WKU to a 33-24 record in 2005 and reached the 30-win plateau again in 2007.

Lawson and the Hilltoppers battled nine NCAA Regional participants in 2006, including four teams ranked in the top 25, while finishing third in the Sun Belt regular-season play. She guided the squad to wins over perennial powers Long Beach State, South Florida, Mississippi Valley, as well as No. 13 Louisiana-Lafayette and No. 21 Louisville. In fact, then-freshman pitcher Ryan Rogge tossed the school's third no hitter against the Ragin' Cajuns in WKU's 8-0 victory.

The win handed UL its first run-rule defeat in an SBC contest. Three Hilltoppers - Lathrop, Rolfs and Rogge - each earned SBC Player- and Pitcher-of-the-Week honors throughout the season, as Rolfs and outfielder Alana Towns notched all-conference honors.

Lawson was a two-time all-conference player at Massachusetts, where she was part of a program that advanced to the 1992 Women's College World Series, and has seven years experience as an assistant coach at Maryland.

During her four-year career at UMass, Lawson helped the Minutewomen post a combined record of 142-68 (67.6 percent) including a 39-3 (92.9 percent) Atlantic 10 mark. In addition to the 1992 WCWS appearance, she was a part of squads that also advanced to the NCAA Tournament her freshman season, won three A-10 Tournament titles and claimed the league regular-season championship four straight years.

Lawson was honored individually for her accomplishments on and off the field. She was both an All-Conference and All-Atlantic 10 Tournament performer in 1992 and 1994, and was also named to the A-10 Academic all-conference squad following each of her final two seasons.

Lawson joined the Maryland staff in 1996 and helped the Terrapins post six winning seasons in her seven years in College Park. Her responsibilities included recruiting, scheduling, organizing practice and travel, as well as running camps and clinics. In 1999, Lawson and company were selected the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Terrapins to a 51-23 record, their first ACC regular-season title and the championship game of the NCAA Region II Tournament.

During her time at Maryland, Lawson helped eight individuals earn NFCA all-region accolades -- with an All-America honoree in 1999 -- and nine players collected all-conference honors.

A 1994 graduate of Massachusetts with a degree in exercise science, Lawson also earned her master's degree in sports management from UMass in 1998. She is the daughter of Elaine and Gerald Lawson and has 12 siblings.

ERIN RETHLAKE

#8 • L/L • LHP/INF • JUNIOR • HUNTINGTON, IND. (HUNTINGTON NORTH)

Overall: Is by far the most improved player for Kentucky in 2017, especially on the offensive end ... Converted to a slapper after week one of the regular season for the first time in her career, and is now hitting a career-best .333 - some 200+ points better than her sophomore season

Hitting: Currently batting .333 at the plate with hits in 14 games this season ... Converted to a slapper after the first week of the season ... Has driven in eight runs, after driving in six all of her first two seasons combined ... Is extremely fast on the base-paths, having stolen 15 bases this season, to lead all UK players and rank 27th nationally ... Went 4-for-4 vs. Drexel, and tied the school record with four stolen bases in the game ... Has a hit in five of the last seven games ... Has three multi-RBI games since converting to a slapper ... Scored the game-winning run vs. Michigan on heads-up baserunning on a scamper home from third on a Megan Betsa wild pitch ... Scored both runs in UK's 2-1 win at #16 Georgia by getting on with a single, stealing a base, getting moved over by a SAC bunt - and then scoring on a SAC fly ... Those two runs marked the first multi-run game of her career as the previous 21 had all been scoring one run in 21 different games.

Pitching: Leads Kentucky with a 0.90 ERA in the circle ... Has thrown against Pittsburgh, UCLA, UC-Davis, FAMU, Memphis, Southern Illinois, Dayton, Kent State and Georgia ... Started five games this season, including a complete-game shutout of Memphis on Feb. 26 - just the third of her career ... Also pitched a complete-game shutout against Dayton to open the John Cropp Classic and 2017 home schedule ... Has struck out 32 batters ... Has been under 75 pitches thrown in every outing this season but one (Dayton) ... Has five wins already this season, which surpasses her previous career-high of four set back in 2015.
