

Dear Visiting Team Athletic Trainers,

I would like to welcome you to the University of Kentucky and Lancaster Aquatics Center. I would like to provide you with a little information prior to your visit about the services at our facility.

The athletic training room in the Lancaster Aquatics Center is very limited. We do not have any electrical stimulation or ultrasound machines on site during the course of the meet. However, if you need these services, please let me know and I would be happy to make arrangements for you and your athletes. If your team is travelling without a certified athletic trainer and athletes require services please send a note with treatment required.

The emergency equipment that will be available:

- AED
- Crutches.

The following items will be available:

- Water
- Gatorade
- Cups
- Treatment ice, bags

Below is a list of contact information. Please do not hesitate to call or email me with any questions. Once again, welcome to the University of Kentucky and good luck with your season.

Sincerely,

Minda McCullough, ATC
