Need to Know

- Kentucky was picked to win the SEC regular-season title by the league's media members
- Hamidou Diallo and Kevin Knox are on the preseason watch lists for the three major national player of the year awards: the Naismith Trophy, the John R. Wooden Award and the Oscar Robertson Trophy
- Calipari is four victories shy of 700 on-court wins after winning the season's opening two games
- Kentucky's freshman class is the No. 1 ranked recruiting class, and the Recruiting Services Consensus Index pegs it the best ever
- The Wildcats returned just 7.4 percent of their scoring and 23.4 percent of their rebounding from 2016-17
- Kentucky is 38-8 under Calipari in games following a loss
- UK is averaging 7.3 blocks per game. Four different players have four or more blocks on the year

Last Time Out

- Kentucky dropped its first game of the year with a four-point loss, 65-61, to No. 4/3 Kansas in the Champions Classic on Tuesday in Chicago
- PJ Washington, Hamidou Diallo and Shai Gilgeous-Alexander all had three or more assists in the game and UK has now had three or more players with 3 or more assists in all three games
- After getting outrebounded by a plus-11 margin in the first half, UK reversed its fortune and held a plus-11 margin in the second half
- Kentucky's 39 boards in the game were a season high
- UK committed a season-high 18 turnovers in which the Jayhawks turned into 17 points
- Kevin Knox led all scorers with 20 points
- Sacha Killeya-Jones had career-highs in rebounds (nine) and blocks (three) to go along with eight points

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

GENERAL INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Memorial Coliseum media room. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the Memorial Coliseum media room.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

Calipari Inks Three for 2018 During Fall Signing Period

In what's become somewhat of a fall tradition in college basketball and a celebration of riches in the Big Blue Nation, the Kentucky men's basketball team has begun building one of the strongest recruiting classes in the country, signing three of the nation's top players during the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Tyler Herro, Keldon Johnson and Immanuel Quickley have all inked national letters of intent with UK.

All three players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by the major national recruiting services. Although it's still early in the recruiting process with a number of dominoes still to fall, national analysts once again believe UK's class will be one of the top hauls for 2018.

"We've signed three really good players, really good kids who had a burning desire to be at Kentucky, which tells you they've got a toughness to them," UK head coach John Calipari said. "They didn't need to be begged; they wanted to be here. All three are guards, all three are tough, and all three have a fight and a skill about them. All three of them are gym rats – the kind of guys who come here and do well. All three are driven and wired the way you have to be to be successful here. They're going to add to what we do."

In every season in the John Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking.

At 6-foot-5, Herro has length, and now listed at 195 pounds by 247Sports, he's quickly adding muscle to his frame. The shooting guard out of Whitnall High School in Greenfield, Wisconsin, averaged 23.9 points and shot 39 percent from 3-point range in his junior season in high school.

The top-ranked player out of Wisconsin, Herro is considered one of the top shooting guards in the 2018 class. A consensus four-star recruit, Herro is ranked as high as No. 27 in ESPN's rankings, No. 38 by Rivals and No. 40 by 247Sports.

Herro was one of 54 players selected for the USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October. He also averaged 14.8 points, 5.9 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game on the Nike circuit this past summer, shooting 36 percent from 3-point range.

A 6-6 shooting guard out of Oak Hill Academy in Mouth of Wilson, Virginia, Johnson is a consensus five-star player and one of the best in the class of 2018. A native of South Hill, Virginia, he previously played for Huntington Prep in Huntington, West Virginia, before transferring to Oak Hill for the 2017-18 season.

Johnson is ranked as high as the No. 7 overall prospect by ESPN, including third at his position. 247Sports ranks him as the nation's No. 11 overall player, while Rivals has him at No. 18.

He led his Boo Williams (Va.) AAU team to the semifinals of the Peach Jam after averaging 20.7 points, 8.5 rebounds and 3.1 assists during the Nike regular season. Johnson took home MVP honors at the NBPA Top 100 Camp in June. Like Herro, Johnson was one of 54 players selected for the USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October.

A 6-4 guard out of the John Carroll School in Bel Air, Maryland, Quickley is a consensus five-star prospect. Considered a consensus top-three player at his position, he's ranked as high as No. 10 by Rivals, No. 12 by ESPN and No. 13 by 247Sports.

In his junior season at John Carroll, Quickley averaged 23.7 points and 7.2 assists. He scored 30 or more in five games, 20 or more in 14 games and finished with eight double-doubles. He also averaged 25.7 points, 4.7 rebounds and shot 42.1 percent from 3-point range in the Adidas Summer Championships in July.

Quickley was a member of the 2017 USA Men's U19 World Cup Team that competed in Cairo. Playing under Calipari, Quickley averaged 6.7 points and 2.4 assists in 18.3 minutes per game. He was named the Baltimore Sun Metro Player of the Year in 2016.

No. 7 Cats Fall Just Short Against No. 4 Jayhawks

Kevin Knox scored a career-high 20 points and Hamidou Diallo added 14, but No. 7/4 Kentucky came up just short, falling to No. 4 Kansas 65-61 on Tuesday night in the Champions Classic in Chicago.

UK shot 41.8 percent (23 of 55) from the field, but held Kansas to just 24 of 68 (35.3 percent) from the field. The Jayhawks were able to make eight shots from behind the arc, compared to just three for the Wildcats.

Sacha Killeya-Jones came off the bench to score eight points and grab nine rebounds for the Cats. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander had six points, four rebounds and three assists in the game.

Kentucky fell behind early in the first half when Kansas used an 11-0 run to turn a tie game into an 18-7 advantage. The Jayhawks led 20-9 before the Wildcats put together a run of their own. When Knox hit a 3-pointer with 8:49 left in the half, Kentucky had cut the lead to 23-20.

The Wildcats tied the game at 28-28 on a long jumper by Wenyen Gabriel. Kentucky would grab its first lead of the game a bit later when Gabriel hit one of two from the line, giving the Cats a 33-32 advantage. Kansas scored 14 seconds later, and neither team would score for the rest of the half, as the Jayhawks took a 34-33 lead into the break.

In the second half, the teams traded leads early before Kansas took a 51-45 lead with 9:16 left in the contest. But the young Wildcats would not go away, as Kentucky scored the next six points to tie the game at 51-51 with 6:48 to go.

With 3:38 to go, Kentucky took the lead on a layup by Nick Richards, giving the Cats a 57-55 advantage. But Kansas scored the next six points, and Kentucky could only get within two before falling by four.

- Kentucky hauled in a season-high 39 rebounds and was plus-11 in the rebound margin in the second half after Kansas owned a plus-11 margin in the opening stanza
- UK committed a season-high 18 turnovers, which Kansas turned into 17 points
- Knox is the fourth Wildcat freshman to score at least 20 points in a Champions Classic game (Alex Poythress vs. Duke in 2012, Julius Randle vs. Michigan State in 2013 and Malik Monk vs. Michigan State in 2016)
- Kentucky blocked a season-high 10 shots. PJ Washington (four) and Killeya-Jones (three) had career highs in the category
- Gilgeous-Alexander had a game-high three steals. He's had at least two steals in all three games this season

Bounce Back

The Wildcats don't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when they do, they almost always bounce back.

UK is 38-8 under Calipari following a loss. Kentucky's back-to-back losses to Kansas and Tennessee in 2016-17 were its first since also losing back-to-back games at Kansas and at Tennessee in 2015-16.

The Wildcats have only lost back-to-back games eight times during the Calipari era and they've never lost three in a row with Calipari on the sidelines -- including avoiding a three-game skid despite trailing by 14 to Georgia in the first half on Jan. 31, 2017. The last time UK lost three games in a row was in February 2009 when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season.

Block Party

With the length on the 2017-18 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats, John Calipari has put a premium on shot blocking. With 10 swats against No. 4/3 Kansas in the Champions Classic, the Wildcats showed a glimpse of that potential.

Five of nine players who saw the floor for UK registered at least one block. PJ Washington and Sacha Killeya-Jones led the way with career-high totals of four and three, respectively.

Through the first three games, UK is averaging 7.3 blocks per game. Not since the 2012 national championship team, which featured one of the best rim protectors of all-time in Anthony Davis, has UK blocked at least 7.0 shots per game.

Washington, Wenyen Gabriel, Killeya-Jones and Nick Richards are all averaging at least 1.3 blocks per game thus far. Only the 2009-10 and 2010-11 teams had at least three players average at least 1.0 blocks per game for the season. In 2009-10 DeMarcus Cousins (1.8), Daniel Orton

(1.4) and Patrick Patterson (1.3) achieved the feat. In 2010-11 it was Terrence Jones (1.9), Josh Harrellson (1.5) and Darius Miller (1.1). No Calipari-coached team at UK has ever had four or more players average 1.0 blocks per game or more for the season.

Strip, Swipe, Steal

It isn't just at the rim that Kentucky is using its length to change the game. With lengthy wingspans (official measurements in the measurables section) all over the court, the Wildcats have been able to close passing lanes and pick off passes with regularity.

As a result, Kentucky is averaging 7.0 steals per game, the squad's best average since the speedy and long 2009-10 team that featured John Wall, Eric Bledsoe and DeMarcus Cousins who averaged 7.3 swipes per game.

Shai Gilgeous-Alexander has been the best of the group so far with nine steals.

The Cal-Zone?

John Calipari isn't shy in voicing his aversion to zone defenses. The way he explains it, it doesn't hold players personally accountable like man-to-man defense does and it isn't the defense his players will have to play if they are fortunate enough to make it to the NBA.

But, as Calipari conceded after comeback victory vs. Utah Valley that was fueled by his surprising move to go to a 2-3 zone in the second half, he also has a responsibility to win, and the best way to do that with this team given its length may just be to use a zone.

It's a small sample size, but when the Wildcats went to the zone against the Wolverines, it flipped the game. UK exclusively used a 2-3 zone during a game-changing 18-0 run that turned a 12-point deficit into a six-point UK lead it would never relinquish.

During the run, the Wildcats forced four turnovers and held Utah Valley without a field goal for 4:19 of game time. The Wildcats eventually mixed up the defense with some man defense later in the half (using both later in the game, Kentucky had another stretch of 5:34 where it held the Wolverines without a made shot), but Utah Valley couldn't crack the Wildcat D from that point forward.

Calipari, who has always entertained but never really bought into using a zone during his nine seasons at UK, admitted after the Utah Valley win that this may be the team that finally forces him to use it more.

"The issue becomes I have a responsibility to teach these kids how to play pick-and-roll defense, how to stay in front of people, man-to-man," Calipari said after the Utah Valley game. "I mean, from here on there is no more zone. I mean, they're going to have to learn. But I also have a responsibility to win, so I'll play as much as I have to, to win a game. ... Whatever this team needs, I'm going to have to do."

Despite the zone working to its favor in the win over Utah Valley, UK did not turn to it at all in a win over Vermont or against Kansas.

Off and Running

Kentucky certainly won't ease into its 2017-18 schedule.

The Wildcats opened the season with three games in five days, the third of which concluded with the matchup vs. Kansas on Tuesday in Chicago for the State Farm Champions Classic. But at least the Wildcats will get a breather after the stretch, right? Wrong.

November as a whole is packed with games. UK will play seven games in 17 days to start the season before a small gap between the UIC (Nov. 26) and Harvard (Dec. 2) games.

Diallo, Knox Tapped to National POY Watch Lists

Although just freshmen, Kentucky men's basketball players Hamidou Diallo and Kevin Knox were both on the preseason watch lists for the Oscar Robertson Trophy, the Naismith Trophy and the Wooden Award, honoring the nation's best player.

The Oscar Robertson Trophy is presented annually by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association to the national player of the year, the Naismith Trophy is presented by the Atlanta Tip Off Club and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the Wooden Award is presented by the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

The Wildcats' Anthony Davis won all three awards in 2012 as he led Kentucky to the national championship.

Kentucky Picked to Win 49th SEC Title

The Kentucky men's basketball program finds itself in familiar territory under the direction of ninth-year head coach John Calipari. A select panel of media voted the Wildcats to once again win the Southeastern Conference championship. Should Kentucky achieve that standard, it would mark the sixth regular-season title under Calipari and the program's 49th overall.

NOTES

CATS IN THE NBA

It's the 13th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite. UK was picked to win the title a season ago and did not disappoint. Calipari has directed his teams to regular-season SEC crowns in 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017.

Each school selected media members that cover their team and additional media from across the nation were selected by the conference office to comprise the voting panel. Points were compiled on a 14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Each media member also voted for two All-SEC teams.

UK Starts Season in Top Five

Despite losing nearly 93 percent of its scoring and almost 77 percent of its rebounding from a season ago, Kentucky began the season in the top five of both major polls. The Wildcats were No. 4 in the USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 to start the year.

It's the ninth consecutive season under head coach John Calipari that Kentucky began the season ranked among the top 25 teams in the country in both polls. As a matter of fact, the Wildcats have been ranked in the preseason top five in both polls in eight of Calipari's nine seasons, including seven straight.

Seven Kentucky opponents entered the 2017-18 season ranked in one or both of the polls, including three top-10 opponents in Kansas (Nov. 14), Florida (Jan. 20, March 3) and West Virginia (Jan. 27). UK will also face nationally ranked Louisville (Dec. 29), UCLA (Dec. 23), Alabama (Feb. 17) and Texas A&M (Jan. 9, Feb. 10).

Four Players on Hall of Fame Watch Lists

Freshmen Hamidou Diallo, Kevin Knox, Nick Richards and PJ Washington were tabbed as members of the preseason watch lists for their positional player of the year awards presented by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Diallo is on the list for the Jerry West Award for the nation's best shooting guard. Malik Monk was the winner of the award a season ago, a first in program history. Knox was tabbed to the Julius Erving list for the best small forward. Richards is among the candidates for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar list for the best center, and Washington is on the Karl Malone list for the best power forward.

By mid-February, each watch list of 20 players will be narrowed down to just 10. In March, five finalists will be presented to the various awards' committees and the Hall of Fame's selection committee. The winner of the 2017 positional awards will be presented at the ESPN College Basketball Awards Show in Los Angeles on April 7. Broadcast information will be released at a later date.

Two Wildcats Selected to Preseason All-SEC Teams

Two players were selected to the preseason All-SEC squads. Freshman Hamidou Diallo was picked to the first team by the league's media and the second team by the coaches, while classmate Kevin Knox was tabbed to the second team by the media and the first team by the head coaches.

Conference play opens Dec. 30 and the 2018 SEC Tournament is set to begin March 7 at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis.

Wildcats Banged Up

It feels like the Wildcats have already dealt with a season's worth of injuries before the regular season even began.

Three Wildcats -- Jarred Vanderbilt, Jemarl Baker and Tai Wynyard -- have all dealt with various ailments.

It was announced at the end of September that Vanderbilt would be out until at least January after suffering an injury to his left foot.

After consulting with his family and medical personnel, Vanderbilt has decided to delay surgery and re-evaluate his injury in the next couple of weeks. John Calipari recently said he's hopeful Vanderbilt could return to the practice court by the end of November.

Baker has been sidelined the last few weeks with a left knee injury. He underwent knee surgery on Oct. 27 and is expected to miss three months. Wynyard missed UK's first exhibition game vs. Thomas More College with a facial injury.

Forever Young

It seems like with every John Calipari team youth is the story, but this year's team is on a whole new level.

Zero seniors. Eight freshmen. Nearly 93 percent of last season's scoring and almost 77 percent of the rebounding gone. And the leading returner, Wenyen Gabriel, averaged just 4.6 points and 4.8 rebounds a year ago. For another perspective, only Mississippi Valley State (386) and Pittsburgh (648) return fewer minutes from last season than the Wildcats (890), according to a recent survey sent to all Division I men's basketball schools.

Even for a Calipari-coached team, this team could be historically young. Entering the 2017-18 season, the average age of the Wildcats' roster is just 19.43 years old. In the same survey, only Chattanooga has reported having a younger roster with an average age of 19.31 years old.

Although all of Calipari's teams have been young, they've all had some sort of veteran presence. The 2010 team with John

Wall and DeMarcus Cousins had Patrick Patterson. The 2012 national title squad featured Darius Miller. The unforgettable 2015 team that flirted with an undefeated season had Willie Cauley-Stein and Alex Poythress.

In another recent survey, Kentucky's lineup features more underclassmen without a senior on the roster than any other school in the country. The Wildcats are one of just a handful of schools without any seniors on the roster and are tied for the fewest amount of upperclassmen (juniors and seniors) with just two. It's worth noting that those upperclassmen are walk-ons.

It remains to be seen where UK stacks up to the rest of the nation experience wise in KenPom.com's annual experience rankings, but by just about any other measure, the Wildcats are one of the youngest teams in the nation yet again.

Recruit and Reload

With everything the Wildcats lost last season to the professional ranks and graduation, help is on the way in the form of a historic recruiting class.

The Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking, not only rated UK's 2017 class the best of the season – it measures this group as the best ever.

With 582 points in its recruiting calculations, this 2017 Kentucky group beat out another Wildcat class – the 2013 haul – to claim the title as the best recruiting class ever. That 2013 group had 557 points and consisted of Julius Randle, Andrew Harrison, Aaron Harrison, Dakari Johnson, James Young, Marcus Lee and Derek Willis. The RSCI rankings began in 1998.

The 2017 class consists of Kevin Knox (No. 10), Jarred Vanderbilt (No. 13), PJ Washington (No. 14), Nick Richards (No. 18), Quade Green (No. 23), Shai Gilgeous-Alexander (No. 30), Hamidou Diallo (No. 46) and Jemarl Baker (No. 72).

The RSCI includes individual player rankings from all of the major recruiting services, which this season featured Rivals, Scout, 247Sports and longtime recruiting analyst Van Coleman. The RSCI formula uses each of those services' rankings (only the top 100) players to assign a point value to each recruit. Using the point totals for all the five major services, it then adds the totals for all players in a class for the team's final score.

UK has ranked No. 1 in the RSCI in seven of Calipari's nine classes at Kentucky.

If all five RSCI sources had counted Diallo with the 2017 class, the Wildcats' score would have been closer to 630, according to the site.

Another Demanding Schedule

Kentucky's young team will be put to the test early and often with another formidable schedule.

Twelve of UK's 13 nonconference opponents in the upcoming season made a postseason tournament in 2017, including eight who made the NCAA Tournament. Three of those advanced to the Sweet 16 or better.

Five nonconference teams finished the 2016-17 season with an RPI in the top 50 and four ended the season in both the Associated Press Top 25 and USA Today Coaches Poll. All told, Kentucky's 2017-18 nonconference opponents combined for a record of 314-134 in 2016-17, a .701 winning percentage.

Kentucky's nonconference schedule will see the Wildcats play in premier venues such as the United Center in Chicago (vs. Kansas) and Madison Square Garden in New York (vs. Monmouth), take them to a Big Blue Nation favorite in New Orleans (vs. UCLA), and feature a difficult trip to Morgantown, West Virginia, to play the West Virginia Mountaineers.

And that doesn't even include an arduous league schedule in what is expected to be a much-improved Southeastern Conference.

A quarter of ESPN's top-100 recruits in the 2017 class signed to play in the SEC. The league is coming off a season in which its teams combined to go 11-5 in the NCAA Tournament and had three teams advance to the Elite Eight.

Seven UK opponents entered the 2017-18 season ranked in one or both of the major polls, including three top-10 opponents.

Tall Order Facing These Cats

John Calipari has said before that you can teach shooting, defense and effort, among other things, but you can't teach height and you can't teach length. This group of Wildcats has both.

The average wingspan of this Kentucky team is just over 6-foot-9. Take out walk-ons Jonny David and Dillon Pulliam and the average wingspan of the scholarship players increases to more than 6-10.

Seven players on the roster have a wingspan of 7 feet or more, making this is a potentially devastating shot-blocking team.

Just in terms of pure height, the Wildcats average better than 6-6 in height. Of John Calipari's nine teams at Kentucky, only his 2009-10 and 2010-11 teams had a taller average height.

According to kenpom.com, UK's average height of 79.0 is the fifth-tallest in the country. Syracuse, San Jose State, Iowa and Duke are the only teams taller than the Cats. The Orange lead the country at 79.7.

International Cats

The Wildcats were well represented in international basketball this summer.

Hamidou Diallo, PJ Washington, Tai Wynyard and John Calipari all were part of the 2017 FIBA World Cup in Cairo. Sacha Killeya-Jones and Brad Calipari also traveled abroad this summer to play basketball.

Diallo and Washington, coached by John Calipari, captured a bronze medal for Team USA, while Wynyard was the star for the New Zealand Junior Tall Blacks.

Washington led Team USA in scoring at 12.9 points per game and added 5.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists. Diallo contributed 10.9 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.1 steals per game. Wynyard led the Junior Tall Blacks in scoring at 14.3 points per game and rebounding with 9.3 boards per outing.

Kevin Knox made the final 16 cuts for Team USA before the roster was trimmed to 12, but he pulled his name from contention after suffering a minor hamstring injury. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander declined an invite to join the Canadian national team for its training camp.

Meanwhile, Killeya-Jones attended Great Britain's national training camp in August to compete for a spot on Great Britain's FIBA EuroBasket 2017 team, while Brad Calipari went on an international basketball trip with Global Sports Academy to Croatia. He averaged 14.3 points, 6.5 assists and 3.3 rebounds in four games.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Three is Better Than Two

Kentucky and UNLV went back and forth all season long last year for the claim of having the longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer. Fittingly, both schools reached a historic milestone -- 1,000 straight games -- within a few hours of each other.

UK just beat out the Runnin' Rebels by mere hours, becoming the first school ever to hit a 3-pointer in 1,000 straight games with a trey at Alabama on Feb. 11, 2017. Freshman guard Malik Monk, UK's leader in 3-point field goals last season, got the Wildcats to 1,000 straight games with a 3-pointer from the right wing with 15:26 to go in the first half. UNLV would match it later in the day.

Kentucky passed UNLV for the nation's longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer in its final game of 2015-16. UK has now knocked down at least one 3-pointer in 1,016 consecutive games. UNLV has hit one in 1,007 straight, through games on Nov. 14.

The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout. The streak began on Nov. 28, 1998, in an 89-71 win vs. California.

The Wildcats' record during the 1,016-game streak is 785-231.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

UK is 216-4 (.982) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest. Two of those four losses (a 21-point lead at Tennessee and a 12-point lead at Auburn) came during the 2015-16 campaign. Two other losses came during the 2012-13 season when UK gave up an 11-point first-half lead and lost 59-55 at Alabama and vs. Kansas in 2016-17 when the Wildcats failed to capitalize on a 12-point first-half lead. The loss to Kansas was the first and only to a nonconference opponent when leading by 10 or more in the Calipari era.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 72.1 percent of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 86.1 percent of Calipari's 251 career wins at Kentucky.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky have a 50-23 record (.685) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams, UK is 5-3 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five under Calipari.

All-time, Calipari is 11-7 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 75-47, including a 44-19 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 24-15 record, including 13-8 at UK.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 50-23 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 201-31 vs. unranked competition, an .866 winning percentage.

The Wildcats' loss to Tennessee during the 2016-17 season was its first since falling at unranked Vanderbilt on Feb. 27, 2016.

A Winning Institution

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams posted an eighth straight 20-win season in 2016-17. Kentucky is one of just three institutions (Duke and BYU) in the NCAA that have seen both their men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in each of the last eight seasons.

Kentucky has the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 972-270 mark (.783) in regular-season conference play. Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee), and no other team has a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 84 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 48 SEC titles and 30 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 15 of the last 25 SEC Tournament titles
- UK has won at least a share of five of the last eight SEC regular-season championships under head coach John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in seven of Calipari's eight seasons following its 2017 title
- The SEC was 11-5 in NCAA Tournament games in 2017 with three teams in the Elite Eight
- Six SEC teams are receiving votes in the Associated Press Top 25, a testament to the league's strength this season
- Nine SEC schools have recruiting classes that ranked in the top 40 of ESPN's 2017 national rankings. A quarter of all ESPN's top 100 players signed with SEC schools
- SEC teams went a perfect 15-0 on the opening weekend of the season. The SEC was the only league in the country to go undefeated on opening weekend

Hold Them to 55

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 63-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer. The Wildcats are 147-5 under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less.

Wall Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

John Wall was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2017 class in September.

Wall was the first national player of the year in program history as winner of the Adolph Rupp Trophy. He was named 2010 USBWA National Freshman of the Year, a Consensus First Team All-American, 2010 SEC Player of the Year by Associated Press and SEC Coaches, SEC Freshman of the Year by the AP, First Team All-SEC and SEC Tournament MVP.

Wall led UK to a No. 1 national ranking, SEC regular-season championship and the SEC Tournament championship. He set the single-season assists record with 241 assists (broken in 2016 by Tyler Ulis) and averaged 16.6 points and 6.5 assists. He was the first No. 1 overall NBA Draft pick in UK history. A four-time NBA All-Star through his first seven seasons, he has averaged double-figure scoring every season. Wall was tabbed to the All-NBA Third Team in 2017. He is the Washington franchise career leader in assists and steals.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky has been dominant against teams in the state under John Calipari. UK is 15-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm.

The mark also includes an 8-2 mark vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals came in postseason play. UK had its four-game winning streak snapped last season, but has won all four meetings played in Rupp Arena. Louisville's two wins have come by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Cal took over at UK:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
- March 31, 2012 - UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
- Dec. 29, 2012 - Louisville won 80-77 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
- Dec. 27, 2014 - UK won 58-50 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 26, 2015 - UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 21, 2016 - Louisville won 73-70 at KFC YUM! Center

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2017 for placing in the top 10 percent of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a perfect 1,000.

It's the third straight year the men's basketball team received the award and the fourth time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2012-13 through 2015-16 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in each of the last four single-year APR rates.

UK Tops Nation with 27 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

Kentucky's unprecedented success with helping players reach the NBA has surpassed a new level of extreme. At the start of the 2017-18 NBA season, a whopping 27 players on NBA opening-day rosters played and finished their college basketball careers at the University of Kentucky, the nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program in the country. UK's 27 players are once again far and away the most of any college basketball program. Duke is in second with 20 former players and North Carolina and Kansas each have 16 on opening-day rosters.

Of the 489 players in the NBA to start the 2017-18 season, more than 5.5 percent played and finished their college basketball careers at UK. Seven NBA teams feature multiple Wildcats.

All told, UK's 27 players are represented on 15 of the league's 30 teams. Of the 27 Wildcats on an opening-day NBA roster, head coach John Calipari has coached 25 of them. With Tyreke Evans (Memphis Grizzlies) and Derrick Rose (Cleveland Cavaliers), who played for Calipari at Memphis, Calipari has coached 27 players on 2017-18 opening-day rosters, the most of any coach.

The Wildcats also have a handful of players on the doorstep of the league in the NBA G-League, including Aaron Harrison, Mychal Mulder, Marquis Teague, Derek Willis and James Young, and several others playing professionally internationally.

Kentucky has experienced unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the eight seasons of the Calipari era, 31 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 24 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Anthony Davis, Karl-Anthony Towns and John Wall), seven top-five picks and 17 lottery selections.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose and Evans but not Jodie Meeks or Rajon Rondo) have amassed nearly $1.5 billion in career NBA contracts ($1.455 billion). In the eight seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled more than $1.09 billion in NBA contracts.

In just the 2017-18 season alone, UK players are slated to make more than $178 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose and Evans but not Meeks or Rondo) will make more than $177 million.

UK's growing NBA contingent is already off to a fast start to the 2017-18 season:

- According to Basketball Reference, Davis is the only player since 1983-84 to post 95-plus points and 50-plus rebounds in the first three games of a season
- DeMarcus Cousins returned to Sacramento, his former team, for the first time by recording 41 points, 23 rebounds and six assists. It is the first time a player scored at least 40 points, grabbed at least 20 rebounds and dished out at least five assists since Chris Webber did it on Jan. 5, 2001. According to NBA.com/stats, he is the first player with at least 40 points, at least 20 rebounds and at least six assists on 50-percent shooting since Bob McAdoo did it on Jan. 15, 1976
- Malik Monk became the first Charlotte rookie to score 25 or more points in a game since Michael Kidd-Gilchrist in December of 2012 when he netted 25 on Nov. 1
- In November, Devin Booker became the fourth-youngest player in league history to reach 3,000 points behind LeBron James, Kevin Durant and Carmelo Anthony
- Towns recorded his 122th double-double of his career in his 175th career game. According to the Timberwolves public relations staff, in the past 35 years, only Shaquille O'Neal, Tim Duncan and David Robinson have recorded more double-doubles in their first 175 games
- In mid-November, Booker joined Charlie Scott as the only two players in franchise history to have at least five 30-point performances through the season's first 14 games

Cats Rock at Rupp

UK has won 219 of its last 248 home games, including a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era. All-time, the Wildcats are 563-66 (.895) in Rupp Arena.

Among the most notable marks of dominance in the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- The Wildcats are 302-40 (.883) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- The Wildcats have gone undefeated at home in five of John Calipari's eight seasons
- Overall, UK has posted a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 40 seasons

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 19 of the last 22 seasons entering this year, including a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

- Kentucky averaged 23,461 fans during the 2016-17 season
- UK has averaged 23,000 or more fans in seven of Calipari's eight seasons

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just three times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just twice in Rupp Arena. Prior to the loss to UCLA by three on Dec. 3, 2016, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 53-2 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat the Wildcats at Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 136-6 (.958) at Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- UK is 18-3 (.857) vs. ranked opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- The Wildcats are 118-3 (.975) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- UK is 70-3 (.959) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win at Rupp Arena as UK's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari just 104 games to reach the century mark at home, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, 2016, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for wins in Rupp Arena history.

Calipari currently has 135 victories inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

Cal in Elite Company with Conference Championships

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017.

When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, 2017, he made history as a head coach. Calipari is the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, 93, 94, 95 and 96. Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, 06, 07, 08 and 09. Kentucky has captured the SEC five times in 2010, 12, 15, 16 and 17.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 29 combined regular-season and tournament championships. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (30 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41), Dean Smith (30) and Few.

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and Jojo White.

Calipari Wins 200th Career Game at UK in Record Time

With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville on Dec. 26, 2015, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. The legendary Adolph Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Division I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau.

He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools. Here's a look at some of the more impressive numbers in Calipari's journey to 200 wins:

- UK beat Florida more than anyone else during the first 200 wins, defeating the Gators 11 times
- Likewise, Kentucky beat Louisville (eight times) more than any other nonconference opponent
- Calipari defeated 89 different Division I schools (25.4 percent) of current Division I schools) during the run
- A total of 176 wins came with UK ranked in the AP Top 25, and 66 of them were while UK was No. 1

And Cal Wins 250th in Record Fashion As Well

John Calipari reached his 250th career win at Kentucky with a 73-63 come-from-behind victory vs. Utah Valley for the 2017-18 season opener. Calipari reached 250 wins at UK faster than any other Wildcat coach. It took legendary UK coach Adolph Rupp 312 games to reach 250 wins, whereas it took Calipari just 303.

Approaching 700 On-Court Victories

With a win over No. 5 Kansas on Nov. 18, 2014, John Calipari claimed his 600th on-court victory as a Division I head coach. He became the 13th active Division I coach to achieve the feat.

As of Nov. 14, he needs four more wins to get to 700. Only 38 coaches have ever reached 700 and only 12 active coaches (regardless of classification. Calipari needs just four wins over his 14 games to become the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever.

There's No Place Like Home

Since the 2000-01 season, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 289-25 (.920) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 136-6 (.958) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's eight seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

Life on the Road Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're nearly as good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded an 88-37 (.704) record on the road.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. With UK's No. 1 ranking in 2016-17, Calipari has guided six of his last eight and seven of his last 10 teams to the No. 1 ranking (and the ninth time he's done it overall).

When Coach Cal's teams have been at the top, they've been difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-12 (.902) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-7 (.908) when his team is at the top of the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the

AHEAD OF THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

• Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to five NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.

• John Calipari is ahead of the pace set by the legend as far as victories to begin his career at UK. Also, Calipari (.823) is ahead of Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

pinnacle of the rankings

- Calipari (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (196) in active coaches with victories as the No. 1 head coach
- Calipari has coached 122 career games as a No. 1 team, the fourth most in NCAA history, trailing John Wooden (228), Krzyzewski (234) and Adolph Rupp (131)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .902 trails only Wooden (.952) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (.871)

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 15 league regular-season championships (including the 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017 SEC championships) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). With a 2017 SEC Tournament championship -- Calipari's third straight and fifth at UK -- he now owns 14 conference tournament titles, nine more than his closest competitor (Howland).

Calipari's 29 combined championships (regular season and tournament) is just one shy of Mark Few (30) of Gonzaga for the most among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41), Dean Smith (30) and Few.

He's tallied a 319-93 (.774) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 111-27 (.804) record since joining the SEC.

30 is the new 20

With a road win at Alabama on Feb. 11, John Calipari notched his 23rd consecutive season of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski (21), Bill Self (19) and Jim Boeheim (17).

With a first-round win over Northern Kentucky in the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Calipari and the Cats clinched a 30-win season for the fourth time in his eight seasons as head coach. Calipari currently now has 10 seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (11) have more 30-win seasons as an active head coach. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 wins in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (17 of 17) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last four single-year reports. Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May, was a 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the third year in a row for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the Wildcats routinely post a 3.0 grade-point average or better.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, Coach Cal has helped 42 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 31 over his first eight seasons at Kentucky, which is more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008

COACH CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 42 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his 25-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 600 victories, 18 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 42 players realize their dreams and guide them to NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he’s had 31 players drafted during his first eight years at Kentucky, including 24 first-round picks.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. He’s coached an MVP, four All-NBA players, three Rookie of the Year winners, and 10 players from Calipari’s first six teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 17 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point averages of 3.0 or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy and another one in 2017 for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

In 2013, Calipari came up with the idea of hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend (the game and the fantasy experience) has generated more than $1 million for charity every year since, including in 2014 without the funds from an alumni game and 2016 with a celebrity softball game in place of the traditional basketball game.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”

MISCELLANEOUS ON-COURT RECORDS

Overall On-Court Record:696-194 (.782)
 March/April Record:152-42 (.784)
 NCAA Record:51-17 (.750)
 Record in Conference Games:319-93 (.774)
 Record in Conference Tournament:53-12 (.815)

- Calipari owns the most single-season wins with 38, tying his own record (Memphis in '08 and UK in '12) in 2016 with 38 wins
- Calipari is one of two coaches (Roy Williams) in NCAA Division I history to have 400 or more wins in the first 16 years as a head coach. Calipari had 416 wins in his first 16 years
- Calipari is the winningest coach in NCAA Division I history for a five-year span with 173 victories (2008-12)
- Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons. Memphis hit the 30-win plateau from 2006-09
- Calipari is one of only two coaches (Rick Pitino) to lead three different schools to a Final Four
- Calipari is one of only three coaches (John Wooden, Mike Krzyzewski) to go to four Final Fours in five seasons
- Calipari started with a 54-0 record in Rupp Arena as head coach of the Wildcats
- Calipari has 31 players that have been chosen in the NBA Draft (24 first-round picks) over the last eight seasons
- Calipari has more wins (327) in a 10-year period (2006-15) than any other coach in college basketball history
- Calipari is the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Claire Bee
- Calipari's 29 combined regular season and tournament league titles trail only Mark Few of Gonzaga for the most among active coaches
