THE STARTING FIVE

- Sacramento State returns just two starters and four letter winners from last year's squad. The two returning starters, however, are last season's leading scorer Maranne Johnson (15.0 ppg) and the team's assist leader, Justyce Dawson (4.3 apg).
- For the fourth straight season, Sacramento State led NCAA Div. I in 3-pointers made per game with 10.7. After leading in 3-pointers made for three straight seasons, the Hornets fell to sixth last year.
- The Hornets open their season with three of four games against 2016-17 NCAA Tournament teams (Kentucky, West Virginia, Arizona State). The fourth, Morehead State, was a WNIT team last season.
- Returning senior Maranne Johnson starts the year with 220 career made 3-pointers, just 18 behind program leader Alle Moreno (238, 2010-14).
- Among returners in Div. I women's basketball, point guard Justyce Dawson's 2.76 assist/turnover ratio is fifth best in the nation.

Off We Go

Sacramento State enters the 2017-18 season with one of its youngest and smallest rosters under fifth-year head coach Bunky Harkleroad. The team features just three seniors and two juniors while including four sophomores and four freshmen. Only two starters return from last year's post-season squad, but those returners - senior guards Maranne Johnson and Justyce Dawson - led the 2016-17 team in points per game (15.0) and assists per game (4.3), respectively. The team is coming off a 10-20 season (6-12 Big Sky Conference) in which they lost a heartbreaker in the first round of the Big Sky Tournament.

An Exhibition Story

Sacramento State defeated Holy Names, 100-53, in their only preseason Exhibition game of the season. The Hornets came out firing early, jumping out to a 33-9 lead after just one quarter of play. Sacramento State's aggressive style of play, known as "The System," was on display in the team's win as they forced 35 turnovers - 26 steals - and put up 38 3-point field goals. As a team, they shot 41.3% (31.6%) from three and held Holy Names to just 35.2% shooting overall. Senior guard led the way with 24 points and seven steals, but newcomer Hannah Friend, a redshirt sophomore, stole the show with a double-double (21 points, 10 rebounds) in her first Hornets action.

Terrific Twosome

The Hornets return just two starters from last year's postseason squad: senior guards Maranne Johnson and Justyce Dawson. Johnson led the team in scoring last season, averaging 15.0 points per game. She was also the team's leading 3-point shooter, shooting 33% from outside the arc. She was top-20 in NCAA Div. I in 3-pointers attempted (10th, 282), 3-pointers made (20th, 93), and 3-pointers made per game (13th, 3.10). Dawson, a 5-4 point guard, led the club in assists, average 4.3 per game. With 130 assists all season compared to just 47 turnovers, Dawson was 11th in NCAA Div. I with a 2.77 assist/turnover ratio. Among those returning to NCAA play this year, Dawson's 2.77 mark is the fifth best in the nation.

A Young Squad

Sacramento State's roster features five newcomers and two returning from redshirt seasons. Among the seven total players joining the roster this season, four are true freshmen: Tiana Johnson, Dana DeGraffenreid, Anna Weibel, and Skylar Jackson. Of the 13 players on the roster, eight are underclassmen.

The Nation's Best

For the fourth straight season, Sacramento State led NCAA Div. I in 3-pointers made per game (10.7). The Hornets set and all-time NCAA Div. I record when scoring 12.5 3FG/game in both 2015-16 and 2016-17.

Top-10 Finishes

Sacramento State finished in the top-10 in multiple stats per game last season, including steals (3rd, 12.3), turnovers (7th, 21.13), offensive rebounds (5th, 18), and overall scoring (8th, 82.4). Since the arrival of Coach Harkleroad, the Hornets have finished top-5 in steals for four straight seasons, including first from 2013-16.

SCOUTING KENTUCKY

The Wildcats finished their regular season ranked 20th in the nation with a 20-9 record (11-5 SEC), good enough to earn the No. 4 seed in the 2017 Southeastern Conference Tournament. After falling to South Carolina in the semifinals, Kentucky advanced to the NCAA Tournament as a No. 4 seed. After defeating the No. 13 seed Belmont, the Wildcats fell to Ohio State in the second round. Kentucky finished the year 22-11 and has lost just three players from last year's squad, though two of the three were starters and the team's leading scorers. They are led into the 2017-18 season by head coach Matthew Mitchell in his 11th season. Among Kentucky's returners are Maci Morris and Taylor Murray, each who averaged double-digit points per game last season. Kentucky was selected to finish sixth in the SEC in both the coaches and media preseason polls.

SCOUTING MOREHEAD STATE

Morehead State finished their regular season 21-10 (11-5 OVC) and earned a No. 2 seed in the 2017 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament, matching their highest tournament seed ever. Despite dropping their first game, they advanced to their first-ever WNIT, facing Middle Tennessee. The 20-win season was MSU's seventh in program history and their first since the 2010-11 season (also 21-10). The Eagles return eight of 14 players from last year's squad, including three starters, and have added six newcomers. They are led into the 2017-18 season by returning senior Eriel McKee, who was second in scoring for MSU last season (13.0 points). At the helm for his fourth season is Greg Todd. After finishing second last season, Morehead State was picked to finish fourth in the 2017-18 OVC Preseason Poll, as selected by coaches and media.

3-pointers last season, setting a new single-season record for Sacramento State women's basketball. The previous record was 86 and was held by both Brianna Burgos (2016-17) and Hallie Gennett (2015-16). Johnson made 76 3-pointers her sophomore year and now has 220 in her career. She is just one of two players to ever break the 200-mark and is only 18 made 3-pointers behind Alle Moreno's program career record of 238 career threes.

Chasing Records

In addition to chasing the program record for career made 3-pointers, Maranne Johnson also enters the season second in career saves. After an 87-steal season last year, Johnson has 248 in her career and is poised to overtaking the all-time program leader Fantasia Hilliard, who has 308.

Happy to Share

Senior point guard Justyce Dawson led the Big Sky and ranked 11th in NCAA Div. I with a 2.77 assist to turnover ratio last season. Among returners in NCAA Div. I women's basketball, Dawson's 2.77 assist/to number ranks fifth. She had a career-high 13 assists last season at Southern Utah, the second most assists in a game in program history and the most by a Hornets player in the Div. I era. She has 224 career assists and is just outside the top-10 all-time.

All The Threes

The Hornets knocked down 21 threes in two games last season, the most by a team in NCAA Div. I. Sacramento hold the NCAA Div. I record for 3-pointers made in a game with 25, a feat they achieved twice during the 2015-16 season. Sacramento State owns the NCAA Div. I record for both 3-pointers made (25) and 3-pointers attempted (80) in a single game.

Big Sky Preseason Polls

Sacramento State was picked to finish 10th in the Big Sky preseason media poll and ninth in the coaches' poll. The Hornets earned 61 points in the media poll, just five behind Weber State and 27 ahead of Northern Arizona. In the coaches' poll, Sacramento State received 37 points, 26 back of Idaho State and three ahead of Weber State. The polls were unanimous on the Big Sky

Champion, with Northern Colorado taking the top spot in both. North Dakota was selected to finish second in both polls, as well.

Presence in the Post

While Coach Harkleroad has built his program around "The System," a style of play that calls for aggressive traps, steals, and lots of quick outside shots, the Hornets have one of their tallest teams in recent history, averaging 5-9 across the roster. Senior Kyhonta Doughty, a 6-1 forward is back from injury while sophomore guard Hannah Friend (6-0) is back after redshirting last season. They are joined by freshmen newcomers Tiana Johnson (6-2) and Anna Weibel (6-3) and returning sophomore Kennedy Nicholas (6-3) as the six-footers on the roster. With the added height, the Hornets could see more post-play this season than in years past.

Non-Conference Non-Easy

Sacramento State faces one of their most challenging non-conference schedules to date, taking on three 2017 NCAA Tournament teams in their first four regular season games. They will face Kentucky and West Virginia for the first time before traveling to Arizona State. Their fourth matchup is against Miami on the road. In addition, all but one of Sacramento State's non-conference opponents advanced to the post-season last year.

On the Road Again

The Hornets play 11 of their first 12 games on the road. Their only non-conference home game is on Dec. 6 against Antelope Valley. Sacramento State will not return to the Nest until Big Sky Conference play has begun as they host Idaho on Jan. 4. Last season, Sacramento State went 4-8 on the road and was 0-3 in neutral sites.

On Point(s)

Sacramento State enters the 2017-18 season having led the Big Sky in scoring for eight straight seasons. Last year, their 82.4 points per game were 10.2 more than second-place Montana State (72.2 ppg). Their 82.4 ppg was the eighth highest in the nation.

BUNKY HARKLEROAD - HEAD COACH - FIFTH SEASON

Bunky Harkleroad is in his fifth season at Sacramento State in 2017-18 after four record-breaking years leading the Hornet women's basketball program.

In four years under Harkleroad the Hornets have twice broken the NCAA Div. I single season records for 3-pointers made and attempted. The team has led NCAA Div. I in 3-pointers made per game for four straight seasons while leading in total 3-pointers made in three of the last four. They have also finished top-10 in steals per game, offensive rebounds, turnovers forced, and turnover margin in each of Harkleroad's seasons.

Harkleroad's Sacramento State teams have broken Big Sky season records for points, field goals, scoring average, steals, 3-pointers, and assists and have established new conference game records in points (132), steals (30), and made 3-pointers (25). They have led the Big Sky Conference in scoring for eight straight seasons.

In 2016-17, the Hornets led all NCAA Div. I with 10.7 3-pointers made per game. It was the fourth straight year that the team finished in double-digits. They also averaged over 80 points per game, finishing the season at 82.4, eight-most in NCAA Div. I and far and away the most in the Big Sky Conference (Montana finished second with 62.2).

The 2016-17 team struggled toward the end of the season, dropping four of their last five games, but still advanced to their sixth straight Big Sky Tournament appearance under Harkleroad. His squad was led by standout junior Maranne Johnson, who led the team with 15.0 points per game, 93 made 3-pointers, and 87 steals. Behind her, a trio of seniors - Gretchen Harrigan, Emily Easom, and Ashlyn Crenshaw - all averaged double-digit points.

In 2015-16 the team twice broke the NCAA Div. I single game record with 25 made 3-pointers and shattered the 3-point attempts record with 80 against Cal. The team broke the program record for single-season scoring average and ranked second in the nation behind only national champion UConn scoring 87.5 points per game.

The 2015-16 team won six of its last eight games of the regular season and beat Southern Utah in the first round of the Big Sky Tournament. The team won a Big Sky Tournament game for the second consecutive year and had a winning record in conference play for the second straight year and just the fourth time in program history. Senior Adella Randle-El led the Big Sky and ranked third in NCAA Div. I averaging 3.8 steals per game while also leading the team in points, rebounds, and assists and earned All-Big Sky First Team honors.

In 2014-15 Harkleroad led Sacramento State to the postseason for the first time in the Div. I era (1991-pres.). The Hornets qualified for the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) and defeated Pacific and Eastern Washington to reach the round-of-16 before being narrowly defeated by Saint Mary's.

The squad tied for second in the regular season Big Sky standings and was the No. 2 seed for the Big Sky Tournament, the highest tournament seed in program history. The Hornets advanced to the semifinals of the Big Sky Tournament before an overtime loss. Senior Fantasia Hilliard, the program's all-time leader in assists and steals, was an all-Big Sky First Team selection while sophomore Gretchen Harrigan was named the Top Reserve in the conference and was honorable mention.

In his first season in Sacramento Harkleroad was one of five finalists for the 2014 Spalding Maggie Dixon Division I Rookie Coach of the Year award, which honors a Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Division I head coach who has led his or her team to a successful season during his or her first year at the helm.

Harkleroad came to Sacramento State less than a month before the start of the 2013-14 season after he was hired to replace former head coach Jamie Craighead. He had served as the head coach at Glenville State College (WV) for four years after nine seasons as the head coach at Berea College (KY), his alma mater.

Harkleroad led the 2013-14 Hornets to a school record 11-1 start with a record nine-game winning streak, using his up-tempo system to lead the team to wins over quality programs such as Oregon and Saint Mary's. Sacramento State qualified for the Big Sky Tournament for the third consecutive season and finished the year at 18-12, just one win shy of the program record.

During the 2013-14 season Harkleroad's squad broke the NCAA single-season record for three-pointers made and attempted while also breaking school records in points, scoring average, and fewest turnovers. The team led the nation in steals per game and 3-pointers per game while also ranking highly in points per game and turnover margin. Junior point guard Fantasia Hilliard earned honorable mention All-Big Sky

Honors after breaking the program career and single-season assist records.

Harkleroad runs a high-tempo system that continued the playing style employed by Craighead. His non-traditional style produces fast-paced play aimed at overwhelming an opponent both physically and mentally while providing fans with an entertaining product.

Glenville State, which is located in Glenville, W.Va., led NCAA Div. II in scoring in each of Harkleroad's four seasons and averaged 95.3 points per game in 2012-13. Glenville's record improved every season during Harkleroad's tenure while the squad broke virtually every offensive record at the college, compiling a 91-30 overall record with a 47-3 mark in home games. He was a finalist for NCAA Div. II Coach of the Year after his final season at Glenville State.

Glenville State made two NCAA Tournament appearances in Harkleroad's four seasons at the school while winning a West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) tournament title and a regular season title. The Pioneers went 27-4 in 2012-13 while outscoring their opposition by an average of 18.1 points per game with 13 games scoring more than 100 points. The team also broke the Div. II NCAA Tournament record with 21 three-pointers made in a game vs. Shaw that season.

In addition to leading NCAA Div. II in scoring Glenville State also led in three-pointers made per game in three of Harkleroad's four seasons at the school and led Div. II in turnover margin in 2012. He was named the 2013 WVIAC Coach of the Year and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Region Coach of the Year before becoming a finalist for national Coach of the Year honors.

Harkleroad came to Glenville State after spending nine seasons as the head coach at Berea College, an NAIA Div. II school located in Berea, Ky. His overall record at Berea was 167-93 while he led the team to its first 20-win season in school history and totaled five 20-win seasons. Berea won three consecutive Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (KIAC) tournament titles and made three straight NAIA National Tournament appearances between 2005 and 2007.

Berea College also broke 33 NAIA records and 24 team records during Harkleroad's tenure. His players earned two NAIA honorable mention All-America honors and one WBCA/Kodak honorable mention All-American.

Harkleroad attended Berea College where he played for NAIA Hall of Fame coach Roland Wierwille and graduated in 1993 with a bachelor of arts degree in history. He earned a teaching certificate and taught public school in Berea for 12 years before earning a master's degree in sports administration from the United States Sports Academy in 2004.
