Need to Know

- With a win over UIC, John Calipari earned his 700th on-court win as a collegiate head coach. He is the fourth-fastest coach to 700 wins
- This Kentucky team is considered the least experienced team in the history of Ken Pomeroy's experience rankings
- Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 974-270 mark (.783) in regular-season conference play
- Before the season began, UK was picked to win its 49th SEC regular-season crown. UK has won five SEC regular-season titles under Calipari, including three straight
- Shai Gilgeous-Alexander is averaging 21.0 points over his last three games
- Kentucky is in the middle of playing four of five games on the road
- UK is limiting its opponents to just 15.7 percent from 3-point range over the last three games
- The Wildcats have dropped three of their last four games in Knoxville, Tennessee

Last Time Out

- Kentucky passed its first road test of the season with a 74-71 victory at LSU on Wednesday
- UK improved to 7-2 in SEC road openers under John Calipari
- PJ Washington scored 14 of his team-high-tying 18 points in the second half to lead UK from a halftime deficit
- Shai Gilgeous-Alexander continued his strong play off the bench with 18 points
- Washington and Gilgeous-Alexander combined to score 15 of UK's last 18 points over the final 11:15 of the game to hold off the Tigers
- Kevin Knox busted out of a recent slide with his team-leading second double-double. He posted 16 points and a career-high 11 rebounds
- After giving up five 3-pointers in the opening half, UK limited LSU to 1 of 13 from behind the arc in the second half and 6 of 24 for the game
- Kentucky improved to 4-2 this season when trailing at halftime

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

GENERAL INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Memorial Coliseum media room. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the Memorial Coliseum media room.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

Kentucky Passes First Road Test of Season in Win at LSU

Freshman forward PJ Washington scored 14 of his 18 points in the second half as No. 17/14 Kentucky held off feisty LSU 74-71 on Wednesday night in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Kentucky trailed 36-31 at halftime, but Washington asserted himself in the second half with an array of power moves, getting free along the baseline for three dunks in a three-minute span to help Kentucky move in front. He also blocked two shots.

Shai Gilgeous-Alexander capped his 18-point night with two free throws with 16 seconds left for the Wildcats (12-2, 2-0 Southeastern Conference), who survived their first true road test this season.

Duop Reath had 24 points and 11 rebounds for LSU (9-4, 0-1), which missed two 3-point attempts that could have tied it in the final seconds. Tremont Waters had 18 points and 11 rebounds for the Tigers, but his attempt to tie the game with a late 3 was off-balance and way off-target.

He said coach Will Wade had drawn up a good play which had worked in the first half, but the players failed to execute it correctly.

The ball deflected out of bounds off Kentucky, giving LSU 0.8 seconds to get off one more shot, but Brandon Sampson's right corner 3-point attempt bounced off the far rim as time expired.

Washington got the roll and the call when he collided with Sampson under the hoop on a fast break, completing a three-point play that gave Kentucky a 67-65 lead.

Shortly after, Gilgeous-Alexander hit a tough driving scoop to put Kentucky ahead 71-67 with 1:22 left.

NOTABLES:

- Kentucky leads the series 89-26 and 31-18 in Baton Rouge
- The Wildcats improved to 7-2 in SEC road openers under Calipari
- Kevin Knox busted out of a recent slump with his team-leading second double-double. Knox totaled 16 points and a career-high 11 rebounds, including 10 points in the first half. It was the fourth time he's scored 10 or more in the first half but the first time he's done so since Dec. 2 vs. Harvard
- UK did not attempt a free throw in the first half. It was the first time Kentucky has failed to shoot a free throw in a half since an 88-79 win at Florida on March 1, 2016. UK shot a combined 33 free throws in each of its previous two halves. Kentucky shot a season-low 13 free throws for the game
- Trailing at halftime, the Wildcats used a 7-0 run over 1:30 to regain the lead 43-42
- Washington had three dunks over 2:44 of play to help UK take a 56-52 lead into the under-12 media timeout
- UK made seven straight field goals between the 15:53 and 11:16 marks
- Washington and Gilgeous-Alexander combined to score 15 of UK's last 18 points over the final 11:15 of the game
- After LSU went 5 of 11 from 3-point range in the first half, UK limited the Tigers to 1 for 13 in the second half
- Gilgeous-Alexander is averaging 21.0 points over the last three games
- Wenyen Gabriel tied his career high with three steals

Tennessee Has Been Tough on the Cats

In the big picture of things, Kentucky's series history vs. Tennessee fits the same storyline as it does against just about every opponent it's played in its storied history: dominance. The Wildcats are 153-69 vs. the Volunteers all-time and 11-4 under the direction of John Calipari.

But, the Volunteers have been a bit of a nuisance for Kentucky, especially as it relates to games in Knoxville, Tennessee. UK is just 4-6 over its last 10 trips to Knoxville, 3-4 under Calipari and just 1-3 over the last four games. Kentucky's four losses on the road under Calipari are more losses on the road than any other opponent under Coach Cal.

Tennessee has beaten the Wildcats 69 times, more than any other opponent in UK history, but again, perspective is needed in that its taken place over 222 games, the most of any matchup in school history.

The Wildcats own a slight 54-50 edge over UT in Knoxville.

Kentucky has the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 974-270 mark (.783) in regular-season conference play. Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee), and no other team has a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 84 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 48 SEC titles and 30 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 15 of the last 25 SEC Tournament titles
- UK has won at least a share of five of the last eight SEC regular-season championships under head coach John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in seven of Calipari's eight seasons following its 2017 title
- The SEC was 11-5 in NCAA Tournament games in 2017 with three teams in the Elite Eight
- Nine SEC schools have recruiting classes that ranked in the top 40 of ESPN's 2017 national rankings. A quarter of all ESPN's top 100 players signed with SEC schools
- Four SEC teams are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, and three are receiving votes, a testament to the league's strength this season
- An NCAA-best six SEC teams rank in the top 25 of the Jan. 4 NCAA RPI. Eight teams are in the top 60 and 11 rank in the top 100
- UK improved to 7-2 in SEC road openers under Calipari with the win over LSU

Kentucky Picked to Win 49th SEC Title

Heading into conference play, Kentucky finds itself in familiar territory under the direction of ninth-year head coach John Calipari. A select panel of media voted the Wildcats to once again win the Southeastern Conference championship. Should Kentucky achieve that standard, it would mark the sixth regular-season title under Calipari and the program's 49th overall.

It's the 13th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite. UK was picked to win the title a season ago and did not disappoint. Calipari has directed his teams to regular-season SEC crowns in 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017.

Each school selected media members that cover their team and additional media from across the nation were selected by the conference office to comprise the voting panel. Points were compiled on a 14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Each media member also voted for two All-SEC teams.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky have a 50-23 record (.685) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams, UK is 5-3 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five under Calipari.

All-time, Calipari is 11-7 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 75-47, including a 44-19 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 24-15 record, including 13-8 at UK.

Wildcats Near End of Solid Nonconference Schedule

Kentucky's young team was put to the test early and often with another formidable nonconference schedule.

Twelve of UK's 13 nonconference opponents made a postseason tournament in 2017, including eight who made the NCAA Tournament. Three of those advanced to the Sweet 16 or better.

Five nonconference teams finished the 2016-17 season with an RPI in the top 50 and four ended the season in both the Associated Press Top 25 and USA Today Coaches Poll. All told, Kentucky's 2017-18 nonconference opponents combined for a record of 314-134 in 2016-17, a .701 winning percentage.

As of games through Jan. 3, UK's nonconference schedule ranked 37th in the country in the NCAA's RPI report.

Kentucky's nonconference schedule saw the Wildcats play in premier venues such as the United Center in Chicago (vs. Kansas) and Madison Square Garden in New York (vs. Monmouth), took them to a Big Blue Nation favorite in New Orleans (vs. UCLA), and still features a difficult trip to Morgantown, West Virginia, to play the West Virginia Mountaineers in January.

And that doesn't even include an arduous league schedule in what is expected to be a much-improved Southeastern Conference.

A quarter of ESPN's top-100 recruits in the 2017 class signed to play in the SEC. The league is coming off a season in which its teams combined to go 11-5 in the NCAA Tournament and had three teams advance to the Elite Eight.

Seven UK opponents entered the 2017-18 season ranked in one or both of the major polls, including three top-10 opponents.

Historically Young

It seems like with every John Calipari team youth is the story, but this year's team is on a whole new level.

Zero seniors. Eight freshmen. Nearly 93 percent of last season's scoring and almost 77 percent of the rebounding gone. And the leading returner, Wenyen Gabriel, averaged just 4.6 points and 4.8 rebounds a year ago.

The Wildcats began the season with 0.18 years of experience in the KenPom.com experience rankings. Not only is that the least experience of any team this season, it's the most inexperienced team since KenPom.com began tracking its experience rankings in 2006-07. As the season has progressed, UK now has 0.19 years of experience as of Dec. 31.

For another perspective, only Mississippi Valley State (386) and Pittsburgh (648) return fewer minutes from last season than the Wildcats (890), according to a survey sent to all Division I men's basketball schools.

Even for a Calipari-coached team, this team is extremely young. Entering the 2017-18 season, the average age of the Wildcats' roster is just 19.43 years old. In an updated survey, no other team is younger than the Cats after Chattanooga added a player to its roster at the semester.

Although all of Calipari's teams have been young, they've all had some sort of veteran presence. The 2010 team with John Wall and DeMarcus Cousins had Patrick Patterson. The 2012 national title squad featured Darius Miller. The unforgettable 2015 team that flirted with an undefeated season had Willie Cauley-Stein and Alex Poythress.

In another recent survey, Kentucky's lineup features more underclassmen without a senior on the roster than any other school in the country. The Wildcats are one of just a handful of schools without any seniors on the roster and are tied for the fewest amount of upperclassmen (juniors and seniors) with just two. It's worth noting that those upperclassmen are walk-ons.

Shai Super Sixth Man

Technically Shai Gilgeous-Alexander is Kentucky's sixth man, but that's by design and not because he hasn't earned the right to start.

With Gilgeous-Alexander's ability to affect the game in a number of ways, John Calipari prefers to bring him off the bench so he can plug any holes with his do-it-all sixth man.

For example, there's the defense. Gilgeous-Alexander is averaging 2.3 steals per game through UK's first 14 games. Although early, those numbers are within reach of Kentucky's best-ever individual season since steals became a statistic regularly kept in 1979.

Rajon Rondo's freshman campaign in 2004-05 ranks as Kentucky's top defensive display. Rondo averaged 2.6 steals a game and had 87 in 34 games. Under John Calipari, John Wall's 1.8 steals and 66 for the season are the most of any player.

Gilgeous-Alexander has 32 steals through 14 games and has registered multiple steals in all but three games thus far. Comparatively, through 14 games of Rondo's historic season he had 36 steals and nine outings with multiple swipes. Rondo finished the season with at least one steal in every game he played.

But what has really taken Gilgeous-Alexander's game to another level in recent games is his poise and consistency on the offensive end.

The Canadian has been Kentucky's best player during three critical wins vs. Louisville, Georgia and at LSU. He's averaged a team-best 21.0 points per game during those victories, including back-to-back games of 20 points or more vs. Louisville and Georgia.

The back-to-back games of 20 points or more marked the first time a player has scored 20 or more points off the bench since Deron Feldhaus turned the trick Jan. 21 and 25, 1992. Gilgeous-Alexander nearly made it three in a row with 18 points in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in the Wildcats' first road victory of the season.

He's been particularly good with the game on the line, averaging 14.7 points in the second half alone on 60.9-percent shooting and 15 of 16 from the free-throw line in those three wins.

And although he's not Kentucky's starting point guard, he leads the team in assists with a 4.1 average and has led the team in assists in seven games.

Said Calipari after the effort against Georgia: "He's our best player. The greatest thing about him, he's coming off the bench and not saying anything. Doesn't worry about his shots or anything. He's just playing."

Feldhaus has long been considered one of UK's best off the bench during the "Unforgettables" run, while Darius Miller, Kyle Wiltjer and Devin Booker were selected as UK's only winners of the SEC's Sixth Man of the Year during their respective seasons.

How does Gilgeous-Alexander measure up statistically with some of those sixth-man greats over the last 30 years?

	MPG	PPG	RPG	SPG	BPG	APG	FG%
Gilgeous-Alexander (2017-18)	28.9	12.1	3.5	2.3	0.4	4.1	50.0

Turning in the Right Direction

A youthful team points towards a big learning curve. The area in which it most affects? Turnovers.

Early on, this Kentucky team struggled holding on to the ball. During a five-game streak from Nov. 14-26, UK turned it over 15 or more times in five straight games, the first time a Kentucky team turned it over 15 or more times in five consecutive games since doing it eight straight games midway through conference play in 2010. Overall, the Wildcats have 199 turnovers, the second-most miscues of John Calipari's nine teams at UK through 14 games, behind only the 2009-10 team.

With that said, the Wildcats are cutting down on the turnovers. After averaging 15.9 turnovers in the first seven games, UK is averaging 12.6 over its last six outings, including four games with 11 or fewer miscues.

Offensive Uptick

If there is a reason to have patience with the development of this historically young Kentucky team, the statistics are it.

Over the last eight games -- as Kentucky has had more time to get on the practice court and develop, as this inexperienced group has gained more experience, and as John Calipari has figured out how to play with this team -- Kentucky's offensive numbers have surged.

After averaging just 71.0 points in the first five games of the season, UK is averaging 84.8 points over the last nine. The numbers are up across the board.

The Wildcats are shooting 49.9 percent over their last nine games after making 45.6 percent in their first five. The free-throw numbers (71.5 percent over the last eight after 62.7 percent in the first five) are up while turnovers are down (13.2 per game the last nine; 16.0 the first five).

And as Calipari often says, as individuals get better, so too does the team. The foundation of Kentucky's recent offensive surge is improved play from individuals. A look at some of the Wildcats trending up offensively:

- Hamidou Diallo - Averaging 15.3 points over his last nine games and scored in double figures in eight in a row until the LSU game; he's made 47.2 percent from the floor during that nine-game stretch
- Shai Gilgeous-Alexander - Averaging 14.4 points over the last nine games after posting 7.8 in the first five. He's also had four or more assists in seven of the last nine games
- PJ Washington is logging 12.0 points per game on 54.5-percent shooting after scoring 8.0 points per game through the first five
- Nick Richards - Averaging 8.4 points and 5.8 rebounds over the last eight games after tallying 4.7 points and 5.4 boards in the first five
- Quade Green - Averaging 3.8 assists per game over the last nine after 2.6 in the first five
- Wenyen Gabriel has shined of late after averaging 5.8 points, three made 3-pointers and a .370 field-goal percentage through his first five games. Gabriel over his last nine games is averaging 6.8 points, has hit at least one three in all but one game and is shooting at a 46.7-percent rate

Defensive Surge

After a disappointing loss to UCLA prior to the holiday break, UK has turned to defense in arguably three of its biggest wins of the season. A 29-point win over rival Louisville, a five-point dogfight in its Southeastern Conference lidifter and the Wildcats' first SEC road win of the season at LSU saw the Cats utilize an increased defensive effort to lead the way.

In the three wins, UK is limiting the opponent to 64.3 points per game, a .396 field-goal percentage and a .157 3-point field-goal percentage. In its previous 11 games, UK's opponents were averaging 70.5 points per game, a .405 field-goal percentage and a .323 3-point field-goal percentage.

A common denominator in some of the recent defensive success is UK's increased use of the 2-3 zone.

The Cal-Zone?

John Calipari isn't shy in voicing his aversion to zone defenses. The way he explains it, it doesn't hold players personally accountable like man-to-man defense does and it isn't the defense his players will have to play if they are fortunate enough to make it to the NBA.

But, as Calipari has conceded at times this season, he also has a responsibility to win, and the best way to do that with this team given its length may just be to use a zone from time to time.

According to Synergy Sports, UK has played zone defense on 16.1 percent of its defensive possessions this season, by far the most of the Calipari era at Kentucky. The 2013-14 team played zone 5.3 percent of the time, but no other Calipari team featured it more than 3.4 percent of the time.

Calipari is still primarily a man-to-man defensive coach, but the success of the zone has given the Wildcats a change-of-pace defense it can go to at times.

"The issue becomes I have a responsibility to teach these kids how to play pick-and-roll defense, how to stay in front of people, man-to-man," Calipari said after the Utah Valley game. "I mean, from here on there is no more zone. I mean, they're going to have to learn. But I also have a responsibility to win, so I'll play as much as I have to, to win a game. ... Whatever this team needs, I'm going to have to do."

Schedule Presents Early Lessons, Development

Kentucky certainly didn't ease into its 2017-18 schedule.

The Wildcats opened the season with three games in five days, including a matchup vs. Kansas in Chicago for the State Farm Champions Classic. UK played three more over a six-day stretch and six total games in 13 days. All told, the Wildcats played seven games in 17 days to start the season.

After that busy stretch, Kentucky played just five games in 33 days, concluding with Louisville. That gave the Wildcats considerably more time between games, an important development for a team that wasn't able to get on the practice court all that much early in the season to fix any problems and improve. Part of that period took place while classes were out of session, allowing for John Calipari to institute what he calls "Camp Cal."

During that time period when there are no restrictions on practice hours and the Wildcats are free of any academic responsibilities, the Wildcats often practice two times a day and sometimes even three if one includes a workout session with strength and conditioning coach Rob Harris. The team basically eats, sleeps and drinks basketball during that time of the season, and it's often when Calipari's teams improve the most.

But now that the conference season is here, the Wildcats are busy again. They had a quick turnaround with just one day in between its game with Louisville before playing Georgia on Sunday. Saturday's game vs. Tennessee will be Kentucky's fourth in eight days. UK will follow that format of two games a week for the rest of the season.

It should be noted that Camp Cal will continue, however, until classes are back in session on Jan. 10.

Efficiency is the Name of the Game

National analysts pointed to the Wildcats' shooting as a perceived weakness heading into the 2017-18 season. As it turns out, it may be a strength. Through 14 games, UK is shooting 48.4 percent from the floor, ranked 43rd in the country (as of games played through Jan. 3). That number was only recently dented a bit after a 31.5 percent shooting night in a win over Georgia in the SEC lidlifter. Prior to the UGA game, UK ranked in the top 30 in the category.

Kentucky's shooting numbers were boosted by back-to-back 60-percent shooting performances vs. Fort Wayne and UIC. It was the first time a team in the John Calipari era shot 60 percent or better in back-to-back games. It was also the first time UK shot 60 percent or better in consecutive games since turning the trick against High Point and North Carolina in 2002.

Kentucky utilized a 60.0-percent clip against Fort Wayne and then shot 66.7 percent against UIC. Both of those numbers rank among the top 10 all-time under Calipari. The output against UIC was the second highest in the Calipari era, trailing only a 67.7-percent mark against LIU-Brooklyn during the 2012-13 season.

UK is also making 36.6 percent of its shots from behind the 3-point line, tied for the third-best mark during the Calipari era.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Tall Order Facing These Cats

John Calipari has said before that you can teach shooting, defense and effort, among other things, but you can't teach height and you can't teach length. This group of Wildcats has both.

The average wingspan of this Kentucky team is just over 6-foot-9. Take out walk-ons Jonny

NOTES

David and Dillon Pulliam and the average wingspan of the scholarship players increases to more than 6-10.

Seven players on the roster have a wingspan of 7 feet or more, making this is a potentially devastating shot-blocking team.

Just in terms of pure height, the Wildcats average better than 6-6 in height. According to kenpom.com, UK's average playing height of 78.9 inches is the fourth tallest in the country. Syracuse, San Jose State, and Duke are the only teams taller than the Cats. The Orange lead the country at 79.8.

Three is Better Than Two

Kentucky and UNLV went back and forth all season long last year for the claim of having the longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer. Fittingly, both schools reached a historic milestone -- 1,000 straight games -- within a few hours of each other.

UK just beat out the Runnin' Rebels by mere hours, becoming the first school ever to hit a 3-pointer in 1,000 straight games with a trey at Alabama on Feb. 11, 2017. Malik Monk, UK's leader in 3-point field goals last season, got the Wildcats to 1,000 straight games with a 3-pointer from the right wing with 15:26 to go in the first half. UNLV would match it later in the day.

Kentucky passed UNLV for the nation's longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer in its final game of 2015-16. UK has now knocked down at least one 3-pointer in 1,027 consecutive games. UNLV has hit one in 1,021 straight, through games on Jan. 3.

The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout. The streak began on Nov. 28, 1998, in an 89-71 win vs. California.

The Wildcats' record during the 1,027-game streak is 795-232.

Knowing When to Shoot the 3 is Important, Too

Kentucky is currently taking the fewest number of 3-point shots in the John Calipari era but is shooting it at one of the most efficient rates in Calipari's nine seasons.

As of games played on Jan. 3, Kentucky is attempting a 3-point shot on just 24.1 percent of its total field-goal attempts, far and away the lowest of the Calipari era. As a matter of fact, that's ranked 347th out of 351 teams in the country, according to KenPom.com.

On the flipside, when the Wildcats do hoist one from behind the arc, they're doing a good job making them at a 36.6-percent rate. Kentucky's 2-point scoring production of 59.4 percent is the fourth-highest mark in the country, according to KenPom.com.

UK's program record low for percentage of 3-point attempts is 13.7 percent in 1987-88, just the second year of existence for the 3-point shot. Only one other team (1988-89) had a rate less than 20 percent at 16.9 percent.

Kentucky's current rate is the lowest since Kentucky attempted a 3-pointer on 27.2 percent of its attempts during the 1995-96 season. That same team holds the program record for the best 3-point field-goal percent with a 39.7 rate.

Here's a look at UK's percentages of 3-point attempts and 3-point field-goal percentages in the Calipari era:

Year	Pct. of FG Attempts that were 3-pointers	3-Point FG Pct.
2009-10:	.313	.331 (lowest)
2010-11:	.324 (highest)	.397 (highest)
2011-12:	.265	.378
2012-13:	.293	.346
2013-14:	.276	.332
2014-15:	.271	.349
2015-16:	.310	.366
2016-17:	.316	.353
2017-18:	.241 (lowest)	.366

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

UK is 223-4 (.982) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

Two of those four losses (a 21-point lead at Tennessee and a 12-point lead at Auburn) came during the 2015-16 campaign. Two other losses came during the 2012-13 season when UK gave up an 11-point first-half lead and lost 59-55 at Alabama and vs. Kansas in 2016-17 when the Wildcats failed to capitalize on a 12-point first-half lead. The loss to Kansas was the first and only to a nonconference opponent when leading by 10 or more in the Calipari era.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 71.8 percent of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 85.4 percent of Calipari's 261 career wins at Kentucky.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 50-23 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 211-32 vs. unranked competition, an .868 winning percentage.

The Wildcats' loss to UCLA was their first since dropping a road game at Tennessee during the 2016-17 season.

Bounce Back

The Wildcats don't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when they do, they almost always bounce back.

UK improved to 40-8 under Calipari following a loss after a victory over Louisville that followed a setback vs. UCLA. Kentucky's back-to-back losses to Kansas and Tennessee in 2016-17 were its first since also losing back-to-back games at Kansas and at Tennessee in 2015-16.

The Wildcats have only lost back-to-back games eight times during the Calipari era and they've never lost three in a row with Calipari on the sidelines -- including avoiding a three-game skid despite trailing by 14 to Georgia in the first half on Jan. 31, 2017. The last time UK lost three games in a row was in February 2009 when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season.

Hold Them to 55

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 63-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer. The Wildcats are 150-5 under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky has been dominant against teams in the state under John Calipari. UK is 16-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm.

The mark also includes an 9-2 mark vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals came in postseason play. UK had its four-game winning streak snapped in 2016-17 but has won all five meetings played in Rupp Arena, including a 29-point blowout this season, the third-biggest margin of victory in the history of the series. Louisville's two wins have come by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Cal took over at UK:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
- March 31, 2012 - UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
- Dec. 29, 2012 - Louisville won 80-77 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
- Dec. 27, 2014 - UK won 58-50 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 26, 2015 - UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 21, 2016 - Louisville won 73-70 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 29, 2017 - UK won 90-61 at Rupp Arena

Recruit and Reload

With everything the Wildcats lost last season to the professional ranks and graduation, UK reloaded with a historic recruiting class.

The Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking, not only rated UK's 2017 class the best of the season -- it measures this group as the best ever.

With 582 points in its recruiting calculations, this 2017 Kentucky group beat out another Wildcat class -- the 2013 haul -- to claim the title as the best recruiting class ever. That 2013 group had 557 points and consisted of Julius Randle, Andrew Harrison, Aaron Harrison, Darius Johnson, James Young, Marcus Lee and Derek Willis. The RSCI rankings began in 1998.

The 2017 class consists of Kevin Knox (No. 10), Jarred Vanderbilt (No. 13), PJ Washington (No. 14), Nick Richards (No. 18), Quade Green (No. 23), Shai Gilgeous-Alexander (No. 30), Hamidou Diallo (No. 46) and Jemarl Baker (No. 72).

The RSCI includes individual player rankings from all of the major recruiting services, which this season featured Rivals, Scout, 247Sports and longtime recruiting analyst Van Coleman. The RSCI formula uses each of those services' rankings (only the top 100) players to assign a point value to each recruit. Using the point totals for all the five major services, it then adds the totals for all players in a class for the team's final score.

If all five RSCI sources had counted Diallo with the 2017 class, the Wildcats' score would have been closer to 630, according to the site.

UK has ranked No. 1 in the RSCI in seven of Calipari's nine classes at Kentucky.

Keep a Watchful Eye on the Cats

Stocked full of some of the nation's top talent, a handful of Wildcats are on a number of national preseason watch lists:

- Hamidou Diallo - Naismith Trophy, Oscar Robertson Trophy, John R. Wooden Award, Jerry West Award
- Kevin Knox - Naismith Trophy, Oscar Robertson Trophy, John R. Wooden Award, Julius Erving Award
- Nick Richards - Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award
- PJ Washington - Karl Malone Award

UK Starts Season in Top Five

Despite losing nearly 93 percent of its scoring and almost 77 percent of its rebounding from a season ago, Kentucky began the season in the top five of both major polls. The Wildcats were No. 4 in the USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 to start the year.

It's the ninth consecutive season under head coach John Calipari that Kentucky played the season ranked among the top 25 teams in the country in both polls. As a matter of fact, the Wildcats have been ranked in the preseason top five in both polls in eight of Calipari's nine seasons, including seven straight.

Two Wildcats Selected to Preseason All-SEC Teams

Two players were selected to the preseason All-SEC squads. Freshman Hamidou Diallo was picked to the first team by the league's media and the second team by the coaches, while classmate Kevin Knox was tabbed to the second team by the media and the first team by the head coaches.

Conference play opens Dec. 30 and the 2018 SEC Tournament is set to begin March 7 at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis.

Wildcats Banged Up

It felt like the Wildcats dealt with a season's worth of injuries before the regular season even began. Three Wildcats -- Jarred Vanderbilt, Jemarl Baker and Tai Wynyard -- all dealt with various ailments before the first regular-season game.

It was announced at the end of September that Vanderbilt would be out until at least January after suffering an injury to his left foot.

After consulting with his family and medical personnel, Vanderbilt decided to delay surgery and re-evaluate his injury. He's currently undergoing individual workouts but no timetable has been set for his return.

Baker underwent left knee surgery on Oct. 27 and is expected to miss three months. He has started to work out recently.

Wynyard missed UK's first exhibition game vs. Thomas More College with a facial injury and dealt with a back and a hamstring issue prior to that. He missed the UCLA game with a back injury but was cleared for the Louisville game.

Sacha Killeya-Jones sat out the Monmouth game with a sprained ankle but has since returned.

A Winning Institution

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams posted an eighth straight 20-win season in 2016-17. Kentucky is one of just three institutions (Duke and BYU) in the NCAA that have seen both their men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in each of the last eight seasons.

International Cats

The Wildcats were well represented in international basketball this summer.

Hamidou Diallo, PJ Washington, Tai Wynyard and John Calipari all were part of the 2017 FIBA World Cup in Cairo. Sacha Killeya-Jones and Brad Calipari also traveled abroad this summer to play basketball.

Diallo and Washington, coached by John Calipari, captured a bronze medal for Team USA, while Wynyard was the star for the New Zealand Junior Tall Blacks.

Washington led Team USA in scoring at 12.9 points per game and added 5.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists. Diallo contributed 10.9 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.1 steals per game. Wynyard led the Junior Tall Blacks in scoring at 14.3 points per game and rebounding with 9.3 boards per outing.

Kevin Knox made the final 16 cuts for Team USA before the roster was trimmed to 12, but he pulled his name from contention after suffering a minor hamstring injury. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander declined an invite to join the Canadian national team for its training camp.

Meanwhile, Killeya-Jones attended Great Britain's national training camp in August to compete for a spot on Great Britain's FIBA EuroBasket 2017 team, while Brad Calipari went on an international basketball trip with Global Sports Academy to Croatia. He averaged 14.3 points, 6.5 assists and 3.3 rebounds in four games.

Calipari Inks Three for 2018 During Fall Signing Period

In what's become somewhat of a fall tradition in college basketball and a celebration of riches in the Big Blue Nation, the Kentucky men's basketball team has begun building one of the strongest recruiting classes in the country, signing three of the nation's top players during the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Tyler Herro, Keldon Johnson and Immanuel Quickley have all inked national letters of intent with UK.

All three players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by the major national recruiting services. Although it's still early in the recruiting process with a number of dominoes still to fall, national analysts once again believe UK's class will be one of the top hauls for 2018.

In every season in the John Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking.

- Tyler Herro - At 6-foot-5, Herro has length, and now listed at 195 pounds by 247Sports, he's quickly adding muscle to his frame. The shooting guard out of Whitnall High School in Greenfield, Wisconsin, averaged 23.9 points and shot 39 percent from 3-point range in his junior season in high school. The top-ranked player out of Wisconsin, Herro is considered one of the top shooting guards in the 2018 class. A consensus four-star recruit, Herro is ranked as high as No. 27 in ESPN's rankings, No. 38 by Rivals and No. 40 by 247Sports. Herro was one of 54 players selected for the USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October. He also averaged 14.8 points, 5.9 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game on the Nike circuit this past summer, shooting 36 percent from 3-point range

- Keldon Johnson - A 6-6 shooting guard out of Oak Hill Academy in Mouth of Wilson, Virginia, Johnson is a consensus five-star player and one of the best in the class of 2018. A native of South Hill, Virginia, he previously played for Huntington Prep in Huntington, West Virginia, before transferring to Oak Hill for the 2017-18 season. Johnson is ranked as high as the No. 7 overall prospect by ESPN, including third at his position. 247Sports ranks him as the nation's No. 11 overall player, while Rivals has him at No. 18. He led his Boo Williams (Va.) AAU team to the semifinals of the Peach Jam after averaging 20.7 points, 8.5 rebounds and 3.1 assists during the Nike regular season. Johnson took home MVP honors at the NBPA Top 100 Camp in June. Like Herro, Johnson was one of 54 players selected for the USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October

- Immanuel Quickley - A 6-4 guard out of the John Carroll School in Bel Air, Maryland, Quickley is a consensus five-star prospect. Considered a consensus top-three player at his position, he's ranked as high as No. 10 by Rivals, No. 12 by ESPN and No. 13 by 247Sports. In his junior season at John Carroll, Quickley averaged 23.7 points and 7.2 assists. He scored 30 or more in five games, 20 or more in 14 games and finished with eight double-doubles. He also averaged 25.7 points, 4.7 rebounds and shot 42.1 percent from 3-point range in the Adidas Summer Championships in July. Quickley was a member of the 2017 USA Men's U19 World Cup Team that competed in Cairo. Playing under Calipari, Quickley averaged 6.7 points and 2.4 assists in 18.3 minutes per game. He was named the Baltimore Sun Metro Player of the Year in 2016

UK Tops Nation with 27 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

Kentucky's unprecedented success with helping players reach the NBA has surpassed a new level of extreme. At the start of the 2017-18 NBA season, a whopping 27 players on NBA opening-day rosters played and finished their college basketball careers at the University of Kentucky, the nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program in the country. UK's 27 players are once again far and away the most of any college basketball program. Duke was second with 20 former players and North Carolina and Kansas each have 16 on opening-day rosters.

Of the 489 players in the NBA to start the 2017-18 season, more than 5.5 percent played and finished their college basketball careers at UK. Seven NBA teams feature multiple Wildcats.

All told, UK's 27 players are represented on 15 of the league's 30 teams. Of the 27 Wildcats on an opening-day NBA roster, head coach John Calipari has coached 25 of them. With Tyreke Evans (Memphis Grizzlies) and Derrick Rose (Cleveland Cavaliers), who played for Calipari at Memphis, Calipari has coached 27 players on 2017-18 opening-day rosters, the most of any coach.

The Wildcats also have a handful of players on the doorstep of the league in the NBA G-League, including Aaron Harrison, Mychal Mulder, Marquis Teague, Derek Willis and James Young, and several others playing professionally internationally.

Kentucky has experienced unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the eight seasons of the Calipari era, 31 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 24 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Anthony Davis, Karl-Anthony Towns and John Wall), seven top-five picks and 17 lottery selections.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose and Evans but not Jodie Meeks or Rajon Rondo) have amassed nearly $1.5 billion in career NBA contracts ($1.455 billion). In the eight seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled more than $1.09 billion in NBA contracts.

In just the 2017-18 season alone, UK players are slated to make more than $178 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose and Evans but not Meeks or Rondo) will make more than $177 million.

UK's growing NBA contingent is already off to a fast start to the 2017-18 season:

- According to Basketball Reference, Davis is the only player since 1983-84 to post 95-plus points and 50-plus rebounds in the first three games of a season
- DeMarcus Cousins returned to Sacramento, his former team, for the first time by recording 41 points, 23 rebounds and six assists. It was the first time a player scored at least 40 points, grabbed at least 20 rebounds and dished out at least five assists since Chris Webber did it on Jan. 5, 2001. According to NBA.com/stats, he was the first player with at least 40 points, at least 20 rebounds and at least six assists on 50-percent shooting since Bob McAdoo did it on Jan. 15, 1976
- Malik Monk became the first Charlotte rookie to score 25 or more points in a game since Michael Kidd-Gilchrist in December of 2012 when he netted 25 on Nov. 1
- In November, Devin Booker became the fourth-youngest player in league history to reach 3,000 points behind LeBron James, Kevin Durant and Carmelo Anthony
- Towns recorded his 122th double-double of his career in his 175th career game. According to Timberwolves public relations, in the past 35 years, only Shaquille O'Neal, Tim Duncan and David Robinson have recorded more double-doubles in their first 175 games
- On Nov. 21, Davis recorded his 16th 35-point, 15-rebound game. According to Basketball Reference, the only other player since 1983 who recorded more than 10 before turning 25 was Shaquille O'Neal, who had 27. As of Dec. 6, Davis and Cousins had more combined 35-point, 15-rebound games than the rest of the league combined since 2012-13
- Young, playing in the NBA G-League, recorded back-to-back 40-point games in November
- With 29 points on Nov. 22, Davis passed Chris Paul to become the Pelicans' second all-time leading scorer. He's behind only David West
- Cousins (Oct. 30), Towns (Nov. 20) and Davis (Nov. 27) have all won NBA Player of the Week
- Cousins became the first player this season to record 500 points and 250 rebounds
- On Nov. 28, Towns recorded his 27th career game with at least 20 points and 15 rebounds. According to ESPN Stats & Info, only Davis has more since 2015-16
- Booker scored 46 points in a win over The Philadelphia 76ers on Dec. 4 for his 10th 30-point game of the season. Only LeBron James reached 10 30-point games faster than Booker in 2017-18
- Cousins recorded 40 points and 22 rebounds on Dec. 6 vs. Denver. According to NBA.com/stats, he's the first player with multiple 40-point, 20-rebound games in a season since Patrick Ewing had two such games in 1989-90. Add in his four blocks that game and he became the first player to record 40 points, 20 rebounds and four blocks in a game

since Hakeem Olajuwon in March 1989

- With Rondo's triple-double on Dec. 11, Rondo and Cousins marked the first time in Pelicans franchise history teammates posted triple-doubles in the same season
- Enes Kanter became the fifth player and first since Bob Lanier in 1971 to have at least 30 points and 20 rebounds in a game on Christmas Day when he had 31 points and 22 boards vs. the 76ers
- Rondo set a Pelicans franchise record with 25 assists on Dec. 27 in a win over the Nets. He became the first player with 25 assists in an NBA game since Jason Kidd (1996), according to NBA.com/stats. He's one of only seven players to ever dish out 25 or more assists and the only player to do it in 30 minutes or less of action, according to ESPN Stats & Info.

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2017 for placing in the top 10 percent of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a perfect 1,000.

It's the third straight year the men's basketball team received the award and the fourth time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2012-13 through 2015-16 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in each of the last four single-year APR rates. The NCAA cut score to compete in the 2016-17 postseason is a 930 four-year APR. Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

Wall Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

John Wall was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2017 class in September.

Wall was the first national player of the year in program history as winner of the Adolph Rupp Trophy. He was named 2010 USBWA National Freshman of the Year, a Consensus First Team All-American, 2010 SEC Player of the Year by Associated Press and SEC Coaches, SEC Freshman of the Year by the AP, First Team All-SEC and SEC Tournament MVP.

Wall led UK to a No. 1 national ranking, SEC regular-season championship and the SEC Tournament championship. He set the single-season assists record with 241 assists (broken in 2016 by Tyler Ulis) and averaged 16.6 points and 6.5 assists. He was the first No. 1 overall NBA Draft pick in UK history. A four-time NBA All-Star through his first seven seasons, he has averaged double-figure scoring every season. Wall was tabbed to the All-NBA Third Team in 2017. He is the Washington franchise career leader in assists and steals.

through games on Jan. 3, 2017

- Calipari has coached 122 career games as a No. 1 team, the fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (235), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (131)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .902 trails only Wooden (.952) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (.872)

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 15 league regular-season championships (including the 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017 SEC championships) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). With a 2017 SEC Tournament championship -- Calipari's third straight and fifth at UK -- he owns 14 conference tournament titles, nine more than his closest competitor (Howland).

He's tallied a 321-93 (.775) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 113-27 (.807) record since joining the SEC.

30 is the new 20

With a road win at Alabama on Feb. 11, John Calipari notched his 23rd consecutive season of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski (21), Bill Self (19) and Jim Boeheim (17).

With a first-round win over Northern Kentucky in the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Calipari and the Cats clinched a 30-win season for the fourth time in his eight seasons as head coach. Calipari has 10 seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (11) have more 30-win seasons as an active head coach. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 wins in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (17 of 17) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last four single-year reports. Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May, was a 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the third year in a row for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the Wildcats routinely post a 3.0 grade-point average or better.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, Coach Cal has helped 42 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 31 over his first eight seasons at Kentucky, which is more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than two No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era

COACH CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 42 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his 25-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 600 victories, 18 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 42 players realize their dreams and guide them to NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he’s had 31 players drafted during his first eight years at Kentucky, including 24 first-round picks.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. He’s coached an MVP, four All-NBA players, three Rookie of the Year winners, and 10 players from Calipari’s first six teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 17 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point averages of 3.0 or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy and another one in 2017 for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

In 2013, Calipari came up with the idea of hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend (the game and the fantasy experience) has generated more than $1 million for charity every year since, including in 2014 without the funds from an alumni game and 2016 with a celebrity softball game in place of the traditional basketball game.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”
