TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – Alabama held off Vanderbilt down the stretch, 77-75, on Sunday afternoon inside Coleman Coliseum.

“I am really proud of the kids today,” said head coach Kristy Curry. “I thought we had different players step up play-after-play and make plays against a high-powered and hot Vanderbilt team that is scoring the basketball really well right now. We had four in double-figures, and Ashley Williams comes back has nine (rebounds) and eight (points). The player of the game is Meo (Knight), and she continues to work hard every day. She has been shooting the ball well, and I knew she was about to have a big day.

“I am really proud of our team, and Vanderbilt is going to beat some teams in our league because they are really good offensively and are coming on right now. That’s a tough one for anyone to lose. I have a lot of respect for their staff. I am so happy for our kids today for continuing to persevere.”

The Crimson Tide (14-6, 4-3 SEC) took the lead over the Commodores (5-16, 1-6 SEC) with 32 seconds left in the game when senior Meoshonti Knight knocked down two free throws to put the Tide up, 73-72. UA hit four more free throws to close out the game and fend off VU.

Knight led the Tide with 17 points, while senior Hannah Cook added 16 points and six rebounds. Senior Quanetria Bolton and sophomore Jordan Lewis finished with 13 points apiece, as six different Alabama players ended with eight or more points in the win.

UA started the game slow and trailed 34-21 with 3:56 remaining in the first half. The Crimson Tide climbed back into the game by closing the opening half on a 9-3 run to trim the deficit to 39-34 after the first 20 minutes of action.

In the second half, the two sides battled back-and-forth when junior Shaquera Wade gave the Tide the 43-42 edge after hitting a free throw with 5:57 remaining in the third quarter. Lewis stretched the Alabama lead to its largest of the game by draining a mid-range jumper with 11 seconds left in the third to put UA up 58-53.

The two teams traded leads eight times in the fourth quarter. Vanderbilt scored five-straight points to go up 70-67 with 2:13 left in the game. Bolton answered for the Tide scoring four-straight points of her own to put UA back on top, 71-70, with 1:27 left.

Less than a minute later, Vanderbilt used a layup to take back the one-point advantage before Knight was fouled on the drive and swished the two free throws to give Alabama the lead with 32 seconds left.

UA shot 48 percent (12-of-25) from the field in the second half and 72 percent (26-of-36) from the free throw in the win.

COOK, WILLIAMS AND KNIGHT ALL 1,000 POINT SCORERS

- Senior Meoshonti Knight joined fellow classmates Hannah Cook and Ashley Williams in the 1,000 Point Club after her 14-point performance against Elon on Nov. 24.
- This is the first season in program history that Alabama has had three 1,000 point scorers on its team at the same time.

FAMILIAR FACES

- Alabama returns its entire team from last year's squad that won 22 games, the most wins since 1997-98, and advanced to the SEC tournament and WNIT quarterfinals.

CAPTAINS BY COMMITTEE

- Instead of selecting permanent captains before the season, the team decided to vote on weekly captains for the duration of the year. They will be chosen based both on and off the court actions.
- Captains will be voted on by the four coaches, and each one is given three votes.
- This week's captains are Ashley Williams, NeNe Bolton and Alana da Silva.

CLIMBING THE LADDER

- Alabama has been one of the best teams in the nation over the last few years in getting to the free throw line, however converting those attempts has not always come easy.
- This year, the team ends each practice by "Climbing the ladder."
- All 14 players gather in a circle around the free throw line and take turns shooting free throws, two at a time.
- The drill is not complete until the team combines to make 21 of 28 attempts.
- At the end of each week, the winners of the drill are given a small crimson ladder to hang in her locker as a sign of accomplishment.
- This week's winner is Meo Knight.

HANNAH COOK NAMED TO CHERYL MILLER AWARD WATCH LIST

- Senior Hannah Cook was one of 20 from across the nation selected to the inaugural Cheryl Miller Award watch list, which will be presented to the nation's top small forward.
- The watch list will be narrowed to 10 semifinalists by mid-February and then five finalists in March. The winner will be announced during the telecast of the national semifinal games in the 2018 NCAA Final Four on Friday, March 30.

BERRY SURPRISED WITH SCHOLARSHIP ON FIRST DAY OF PRACTICE

- Junior Taylor Berry was surprised with a scholarship on the first day of official practice in October.
- Coach Curry realized her team had 14 players and 14 core values, and devised a plan to have each player open her own envelope with one of the values to read. Berry's final envelope finished with the big news.
- The letter in Berry's envelope read: "Grit and gratitude are the last of our 14 core values today that we will mention. We want to be the hardest-working team in the SEC on the court, in the classroom, and in the community with a faithful heart. Taylor, because you represent all 14 of the 14 core values we have reviewed today, it is my honor to award you a full scholarship."

TIDE SIGNS SEVEN DURING EARLY PERIOD

- The Crimson Tide's 2018 class, which is ranked No. 6 by Blue Star Basketball Report, includes Megan Abrams, Hannah Barber, De'Sha Benjamin, Gabrielle "Gabby" Crawford, Allie Craig Cruce, Cierra Johnson and Taniyah Worth.
- Curry's statement on class: "This is a special, four state class that is, by far, the deepest and most talented that we have signed. We feel like the experiences they bring from winning state championships to competing on the biggest stage in the summer will allow them to be an immediate impact. The people and talent in this class are just a great example of where the program is headed."
