Need to Know

- With a win over UIC, John Calipari earned his 700th on-court win as a collegiate head coach. He is the fourth-fastest coach to 700 wins
- Calipari is currently tied with Tubby Smith for the third-most wins in UK history with 263. He's behind only Adolph Rupp (876) and Joe B. Hall (297) for wins in school history
- This Kentucky team is considered the least experienced team in the history of Ken Pomeroy's experience rankings
- Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 976-272 mark (.782) in regular-season conference play
- Kentucky is returning home after playing four of its last five games on the road
- UK is the only team in the country with six freshmen leading the team in scoring
- ESPN's popular pregame show, ESPN College GameDay, is in town. The show will air live on Saturday from Rupp Arena at 11 a.m.

Last Time Out

- Kentucky led by 14 in the second half but couldn't hold on in a 76-68 loss at South Carolina
- It marked just the fifth time in 228 games under John Calipari that Kentucky failed to win a game in which it led by double figures
- Kevin Knox led UK with 21 points and eight rebounds for his 14th game in double figures and his fifth with 20 or more points
- UK got 12 points from Nick Richards and 10 from PJ Washington, his fifth straight game in double figures
- Jarred Vanderbilt made his much-anticipated debut after missing the first 17 games with a left foot injury, and the freshman responded with six points, five rebounds and three assists in 14 minutes of action
- The game was riddled with fouls. A total of 59 fouls were called in total, the most in an SEC game this season
- Kentucky's 32 personal fouls are the second most of the Calipari era and the most in a non-overtime game since Jan. 14, 1997

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

GENERAL INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Memorial Coliseum media room. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the Memorial Coliseum media room.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

Cats Come Up Short at South Carolina

Kevin Knox scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds, but No. 18/16 Kentucky fell to South Carolina 76-68 on Tuesday night at Colonial Life Arena. Knox scored at least 20 points for the fifth time this season and also notched his 14th double-figure scoring effort.

Kentucky (14-4, 4-2 SEC) got 12 points from Nick Richards and 10 from PJ Washington, his fifth straight game in double figures.

Jarred Vanderbilt saw his first playing time of the season after missing the first 17 games with a left foot injury, and the freshman responded with six points, five rebounds and three assists in 14 minutes of action. Compounded by foul trouble -- UK was whistled for 32 fouls, the second most of the Calipari era -- his return was much needed as the Wildcats were once again shorthanded. Both Quade Green and Tai Wynyard missed action again because of back injuries.

The Wildcats hit 22 of their 49 field goal attempts (44.9 percent), but made only one of their 11 shots from behind the arc. UK was also hampered by 16 turnovers.

South Carolina jumped out to a 7-0 lead to begin the game, forcing Kentucky into an early timeout. The Gamecocks would lead by as many as nine, 21-12, before the Wildcats rallied. In fact, Kentucky would assemble a 14-3 run to take a 26-24 lead with 6:40 left in the half.

The teams traded leads for the rest of the half until Kentucky hit three free throws inside the stanza's final minute to take a 37-34 lead into the break.

UK seemed to take control early in the second half, as a 15-4 run gave the Cats a 52-38 advantage with 13:25 remaining. The Wildcats had a 57-43 lead with 11:34 left in the game when South Carolina mounted its rally.

The Gamecocks would go on a 22-8 run to tie the game at 65 apiece with 4:02 left in the game. And South Carolina would continue its hot stretch, finishing the game on a 33-11 run to win by eight. Kentucky missed its last eight shots from the field and did not have a field goal in the final 6:12 of the game.

South Carolina's Chris Silva led all scorers with 27 points, while Frank Booker added 18 for the Gamecocks.

NOTABLES:

- It was just the fifth time in 228 games under John Calipari that Kentucky lost a game in which it led by double figures
- UK fell to 10-2 when leading at halftime
- The game was riddled with fouls. The Wildcats' 32 fouls were their most in a non-overtime game since Jan. 14, 1997. The game featured 59 fouls overall. It's the most combined fouls in an SEC game to this point in the season and the most combined fouls in a non-overtime Kentucky game since the UK-Ole Miss game on March 5, 1999
- Three players fouled out. It's the first time three players have fouled out since Jan. 30, 2016, at Kansas. Three other Wildcats were also in foul trouble with four fouls
- UK went 23 for 36 from the free-throw line, while South Carolina shot 25 of 38 from the charity stripe. South Carolina's 25 makes are the most a Kentucky opponent has made since Tennessee sunk 30 on Feb. 2, 2016, and the 38 attempts are the most by a UK opponent since Kansas attempted 47 the game before, on Jan. 30, 2016
- The Wildcats' one 3-pointer tied for the lowest mark of the Calipari era
- UK limited South Carolina to just 37.7 (23 of 61) percent shooting from the floor. It was the lowest field-goal percentage for an SEC opponent this season against the Cats. It was the lowest percentage by a UK opponent since Louisville shot 34.8 percent
- Knox reached 20 or more points for the first time since the Dec. 16 game vs. Virginia Tech
- Calipari is now 263-57 at Kentucky and remains tied with Tubby Smith for the third-most wins at UK, behind only Adolph Rupp (876) and Joe B. Hall (297)

ESPN College GameDay in Town

With the Florida-Kentucky game as its backdrop, ESPN College GameDay will be in Rupp Arena for Saturday's game.

It's the second straight season College GameDay will feature the Wildcats on their home floor. Saturday's show will be the first College GameDay show of the season.

The ESPN College GameDay crew of Rece Davis, Jay Bilas, Jay Williams and Seth Greenberg will air its popular game-day show on ESPN starting at 11 a.m. inside Rupp Arena. The GameDay crew will preview the Florida-UK game, which will tip at 8:15 p.m. on ESPN. Bilas, Dan Shulman and Maria Taylor will be on the call for the game.

This will be UK's 15th ESPN College GameDay appearance overall, behind only North Carolina (17), and the seventh trip to Lexington, Kentucky, tied with Duke and Kansas for the most trips to one venue. It's the eighth straight season Kentucky is making an appearance on the show.

The most memorable trip was on Feb. 13, 2010, when a record 22,144 fans attended the show in John Calipari's first season at Kentucky. Another 15,087 attended the morning GameDay show on Feb. 23, 2013.

With a 5-9 record in College GameDay appearances, the Wildcats will look to snap a four-game losing streak with the show in town.

The Florida-UK matchup seems like an appropriate game to tip off the College GameDay season. The two schools are among the favorites to win a much-improved Southeastern Conference. Some national analysts project as many as eight teams from the league to make the NCAA Tournament. Kentucky will enter the matchup just a game behind first-place Florida.

The Wildcats and the Gators have produced some memorable moments over the years, but the Wildcats own the overall edge in the series 100-38 and have won six of the last seven matchups.

This will mark the eighth College GameDay visit for the UK-Florida matchup. Only the Duke-North Carolina rivalry (nine games) has featured more College GameDay appearances. The Gators have won six of the seven matchups vs. the Wildcats on College Gameday, but five of the games have appeared on Florida's home floor.

Wildcats Welcome Midseason Addition of Jarred Vanderbilt

Jarred Vanderbilt has been on the roster all season, but his presence in the lineup is expected to feel like a midseason addition with the freshman forward returning from a left foot injury. The injury kept him out of the first 17 games of the season.

Vanderbilt made his debut at South Carolina after suffering the injury in late September. In 14 minutes of action, Vanderbilt looked the part of a player who can make an immediate impact on this team. He posted six points, five rebounds and a team-high three assists -- numbers that don't tell the whole story of just how active he was at both ends of the floor.

In recent weeks, head coach John Calipari raved about his presence in practice and mentioned that he didn't remember how physical Vanderbilt being. Equipped with elite ball-handling skills, especially for someone listed as a 6-foot-9 forward, Vanderbilt has the ability to play "point forward" -- and was needed to against South Carolina.

Although the initial plan was -- and still is -- to ease him into games to get him caught up in the offense and because of a lack of conditioning, Vanderbilt was forced to run the point vs. the Gamecocks when the Wildcats' backcourt (already absent Quade Green because of a back injury) got into foul trouble.

It was announced at the end of September that Vanderbilt would be out until at least January after suffering the injury to his left foot. After consulting with his family and medical personnel, Vanderbilt decided to delay surgery and let the injury heal on its own.

Vanderbilt, a 6-foot-9 forward from Houston, was one of the top signees out of the 2017 class. A consensus top-20 prospect, Vanderbilt was ranked as high as the No. 9 overall prospect by 247Sports and the No. 12 overall player by Scout.

As a senior last season at Victory Prep Academy, Vanderbilt averaged 28.5 points, 13.4 rebounds and 8.8 assists. The lefty appeared in the McDonald's All American Game, the Jordan Brand Classic and the Nike Hoop Summit alongside the nation's top talent. He shined in the Nike Hoop Summit, posting 19 points and 10 rebounds while shooting 8 of 12 from the field.

Vanderbilt was also a member of the USA U16 National Team that captured the gold medal at the 2015 FIBA Americas U16 Championship.

Next Man Up

Even with the return of Jarred Vanderbilt, the Wildcats have already dealt with a season's worth of injuries and are still banged up.

Quade Green has missed the last three games with a back strain and is day-to-day. Tai Wynyard has had buzzard's luck when it comes to injuries this season. After missing UK's first exhibition game vs. Thomas More College with a facial injury, Wynyard has missed most of the last month with a back injury.

Jemari Baker underwent left knee surgery on Oct. 27 and was expected to miss three months from the time of his surgery. He has started to work out recently.

Bounce Back

The Wildcats don't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when they do, they almost always bounce back.

UK improved to 41-8 under Calipari following a loss after a victory over Texas A&M that followed a setback vs. Tennessee. Kentucky's back-to-back losses to Kansas and Tennessee in 2016-17 were its first since also losing back-to-back games at Kansas and at Tennessee in 2015-16.

The Wildcats have only lost back-to-back games eight times during the Calipari era and they've never lost three in a row with Calipari on the sidelines -- including avoiding a three-game skid despite trailing by 14 to Georgia in the first half on Jan. 31, 2017. The last time UK lost three games in a row was in February 2009 when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season.

Gilgeous-Alexander Named SEC Freshman of the Week

Kentucky freshman Shai Gilgeous-Alexander was named the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week after leading Kentucky with 19.0 points per game in wins over Texas A&M and Vanderbilt last week.

With starting point guard Quade Green injured and missing both games this week, Gilgeous-Alexander stepped into the starting point guard role and played 39 minutes in both victories. Gilgeous-Alexander performed at a high level for the Cats leading them to a one-point win over one of the preseason favorites to win the league in Texas A&M and then followed that up with a gritty road win at Vanderbilt.

Gilgeous-Alexander led the Cats in scoring at 19.0 points per game in the two wins, while also dishing out a team-best 5.5 assists per game. He also contributed 5.5 rebounds, 1.0 blocks and 0.5 steals per game running the show. He shot 61.9 percent in the victories.

Against Texas A&M, he had 16 points, seven rebounds, five assists, a career-high two blocks and a steal. On the road at Vanderbilt, he boasted a game-high 22 points. He also chipped in with six assists and four boards. He's dished out four more assists in seven straight games. Gilgeous-Alexander either scored or assisted on 13 of UK's 23 made field goals in the game.

Gilgeous-Alexander has been particularly fantastic of late, benefiting from the annual Camp Cal, where a number of individuals surge with school no in session. He's averaging 17.3 points, 4.8 assists and 4.3 rebounds over his last six games beginning with his MVP performance in a rout of rival Louisville.

The honor is the first of the Canadian's career and the second weekly honor of the season for the Wildcats. Hamidou Diallo previously earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors following a win over Virginia Tech in mid-December.

Kentucky has the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 976-272 mark (.782) in regular-season conference play. Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama and Tennessee), and no other team has a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 84 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 48 SEC titles and 30 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 15 of the last 25 SEC Tournament titles
- UK has won at least a share of five of the last eight SEC regular-season championships under head coach John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in seven of Calipari's eight seasons following its 2017 title
- The SEC was 11-5 in NCAA Tournament games in 2017 with three teams in the Elite Eight
- Nine SEC schools have recruiting classes that ranked in the top 40 of ESPN's 2017 national rankings. A quarter of all ESPN's top 100 players signed with SEC schools
- Three SEC teams are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, and four are receiving votes, a testament to the league's strength this season
- An NCAA-leading 10 SEC teams are in the top 50 of the NCAA's RPI, through games on Jan. 17, and 13 rank in the top 100

Tough Road in League Play

For the first time since the 1976-77 season, the Wildcats have won each of their first four Southeastern Conference games by seven points or less. UK edged out Georgia by five, LSU by three, Texas A&M by one and Vanderbilt by seven.

The 1976-77 team's wins came by margins of five, two, seven and two. The fifth victory for that squad was a 15-point margin over LSU.

Should Kentucky's next win come by seven points or less, it would mark the first time in program history the first five SEC wins came by margins of seven points or fewer.

On the whole, UK is 4-1 in games decided by five and 3-0 in league play.

Kentucky Picked to Win 49th SEC Title

Heading into conference play, Kentucky finds itself in familiar territory under the direction of ninth-year head coach John Calipari. A select panel of media voted the Wildcats to once again win the Southeastern Conference championship. Should Kentucky achieve that standard, it would mark the sixth regular-season title under Calipari and the program's 49th overall.

It's the 13th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite. UK was picked to win the title a season ago and did not disappoint. Calipari has directed his teams to regular-season SEC crowns in 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017.

Each school selected media members that cover their team and additional media from across the nation were selected by the conference office to comprise the voting panel. Points were compiled on a 14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Each media member also voted for two All-SEC teams.

Historically Young

It seems like with every John Calipari team youth is the story, but this year's team is on a whole new level.

Zero seniors. Eight freshmen. Nearly 93 percent of last season's scoring and almost 77 percent of the rebounding gone. And the leading returner, Wenyen Gabriel, averaged just 4.6 points and 4.8 rebounds a year ago.

The Wildcats began the season with 0.18 years of experience in the KenPom.com experience rankings. Not only is that the least experience of any team this season, it's the most inexperienced team since KenPom.com began tracking its experience rankings in 2006-07. As the season has progressed, UK now has 0.20 years of experience, through games on Jan. 17.

For another perspective, only Mississippi Valley State (386) and Pittsburgh (648) return fewer minutes from last season than the Wildcats (890), according to a survey sent to all Division I men's basketball schools.

Even for a Calipari-coached team, this team is extremely young. Entering the 2017-18 season, the average age of the Wildcats' roster is just 19.43 years old. In an updated survey, no other team is younger than the Cats after Chattanooga added a player to its roster at the semester.

Although all of Calipari's teams have been young, they've all had some sort of veteran presence. The 2010 team with John Wall and DeMarcus Cousins had Patrick Patterson. The 2012 national title squad featured Darius Miller. The unforgettable 2015 team that flirted with an undefeated season had Willie Cauley-Stein and Alex Poythress.

In another survey, Kentucky's lineup features more underclassmen without a senior on the roster than any other school in the country. The Wildcats are one of just a handful of schools without any seniors on the roster and are tied for the fewest amount of upperclassmen (juniors and seniors) with just two. It's worth noting that those upperclassmen are walk-ons.

Freshman Production Better Than Ever

Coach John Calipari's youngest team during his tenure and the youngest among all of college basketball this season is quickly growing up and contributing at an unprecedented rate.

With no other choice than to produce after mass losses from the 2016-17 team, this group of freshmen is being relied upon more than any other freshman class under Calipari. The freshmen are producing 78.9 percent of the minutes, 86.4 percent of the scoring load and 69.1 percent of the rebounding numbers.

The Wildcats' top six scorers are all freshmen and six of the top eight rebounders are first-year players. UK is the only school in the country with six freshmen leading the team in scoring.

Outside of blocks per game, this version of the young Cats leads in every other category in average production from the freshmen. The three teams that are better in blocks per game featured two of the best shot blockers in school history in Anthony Davis and Nerlens Noel. The other squad? The 2010 team featuring John Wall, DeMarcus Cousins and Eric Bledsoe.

Here's a look at UK's freshman production vs. other freshman classes under Calipari:

The Cal-Zone?

John Calipari isn't shy in voicing his aversion to zone defenses. The way he explains it, it doesn't hold players personally accountable like man-to-man defense does and it isn't the defense his players will have to play if they are fortunate enough to make it to the NBA.

But, as Calipari has conceded at times this season, he also has a responsibility to win, and the best way to do that with this team given its length may just be to use a zone from time to time.

According to Synergy Sports, UK has played zone defense on 21.5 percent of its defensive possessions this season, by far the most of the Calipari era at Kentucky. The 2013-14 team played zone 5.3 percent of the time, but no other Calipari team featured it more than 3.4 percent of the time.

Calipari is still primarily a man-to-man defensive coach, but the success of the zone has given the Wildcats a change-of-pace defense it can go to at times.

"The issue becomes I have a responsibility to teach these kids how to play pick-and-roll defense, how to stay in front of people, man-to-man," Calipari said after the Utah Valley game. "I mean, from here on there is no more zone. I mean, they're going to have to learn. But I also have a responsibility to win, so I'll play as much as I have to, to win a game. ... Whatever this team needs, I'm going to have to do."

Shai Super Sixth Man (and Super Starter)

Technically Shai Gilgeous-Alexander is Kentucky's sixth man, but that's by design and not because he hasn't earned the right to start.

With Gilgeous-Alexander's ability to affect the game in a number of ways, John Calipari prefers to bring him off the bench so he can plug any holes with his do-it-all sixth man. However, he's stepped into the role as starter in place of the injured Quade Green the last three Southeastern Conference games.

In those three games as a starter, Gilgeous-Alexander is averaging 14.7 points, 4.7 rebounds and 3.7 assists in 35.3 minutes of action. In the road win at Vanderbilt, he scored a game-high 22 points, while also dishing out six assists. He scored or assisted on 13 of UK's 23 made field goals.

Whether he's serving as the man running the show or the energy guy off the bench, he's changing the game in a multitude of ways. First, there's the defense. Gilgeous-Alexander is averaging 1.9 steals per game through UK's first 18 games. Under Calipari, John Wall's 1.8 steals and 66 for the season are the most of any player. Gilgeous-Alexander currently is third among all Southeastern Conference players with 35 steals (through games on Jan. 17).

But what has really taken Gilgeous-Alexander's game to another level in recent games is his poise and consistency on the offensive end.

The Canadian was Kentucky's best player during five critical wins vs. Louisville, Georgia, at LSU, Texas A&M and at Vanderbilt. He averaged a team-best 20.2 points per game during those victories, including back-to-back games of 20 points or more vs. Louisville and Georgia and another at Vanderbilt.

The back-to-back games of 20 points or more vs. Louisville and Georgia marked the first time a player has scored 20 or more points off the bench since Deron Feldhaus turned the trick Jan. 21 and 25, 1992. Gilgeous-Alexander nearly made it three in a row with 18 points in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in the Wildcats' first road victory of the season.

He's been particularly good with the game on the line, averaging 12.0 points in the second half of those games on 59.4-percent shooting and 21 of 26 from the free-throw line in those five wins.

And although he's not Kentucky's starting point guard, he leads the team in assists with a 4.2 average and has led the team in assists in 10 games.

Said Calipari after the effort against Georgia: "He's our best player. The greatest thing about him, he's coming off the bench and not saying anything. Doesn't worry about his shots or anything. He's just playing."

Feldhaus has long been considered one of UK's best off the bench during the "Unforgettables" run, while Darius Miller, Kyle Wiltjer and Devin Booker were selected as UK's only winners of the SEC's Sixth Man of the Year during their respective seasons.

How does Gilgeous-Alexander measure up statistically with some of those sixth-man greats over the last 30 years?

Weight Went Down and the Numbers Went Up for Washington

It started with losing 15 pounds in the two weeks leading up to the Monmouth game (thanks to grueling treadmill sessions before practice each day). Then the numbers started to go up. And now the leadership has followed.

PJ Washington has emerged as the leader of this Kentucky team, according to head coach John Calipari. As he's played well recently, so have the Wildcats.

"PJ is not even the same player he was a month and a half ago, would you say?" John Calipari said after the home win over Texas A&M. "He's not even the same player."

Numbers wise, he certainly isn't. Since shedding the weight and growing more comfortable in his role in the offense, Washington has averaged 13.0 points and 1.3 blocks over the last 10 games. He averaged 8.4 points and 0.9 blocks in the previous eight.

Washington's value was probably best represented in the loss at Tennessee. In the first half, Washington was dominant with 11 points and three steals. As a result, UK ran out to a 37-29 lead at halftime. In the second half, however, Washington's legs cramped up and he missed most of the second half. The Wildcats had no answer without him and were outscored by 19 after halftime, the biggest second-half margin of defeat in the Calipari era.

"Can you see how bad we were missing him at Tennessee in the second half?" Calipari said after Washington made key buckets down the stretch in a one-point win over Texas A&M. "Had no chance of winning the game without him on the floor at least 15 minutes. No chance." Calipari called Washington the toughest player on the team following the victory vs. the

NOTES

Aggies and is counting on him to take the leadership reins of the team.

"I just asked him, he has to take the leadership of this team," Calipari said. "He has to do it now. He's the toughest guy. If a guy is not doing what he has to, you have the ability and the right now to tell him."

Schedule Presents Early Lessons, Development

Kentucky certainly didn't ease into its 2017-18 schedule.

The Wildcats opened the season with three games in five days, including a matchup vs. Kansas in Chicago for the State Farm Champions Classic. UK played three more over a six-day stretch and six total games in 13 days. All told, the Wildcats played seven games in 17 days to start the season.

After that busy stretch, Kentucky played just five games in 33 days, concluding with Louisville. That gave the Wildcats considerably more time between games, an important development for a team that wasn't able to get on the practice court all that much early in the season to fix any problems and improve. Part of that period took place while classes were out of session, allowing for John Calipari to institute what he calls "Camp Cal."

During that time period when there are no restrictions on practice hours and the Wildcats are free of any academic responsibilities, the Wildcats often practice two times a day and sometimes even three if one includes a workout session with strength and conditioning coach Rob Harris. The team basically eats, sleeps and drinks basketball during that time of the season, and it's often when Calipari's teams improve the most.

But now that the conference season is here, the Wildcats are busy again. They had a quick turnaround with just one day in between its game with Louisville before playing Georgia. UK's game at Tennessee was Kentucky's fourth in eight days. UK will follow the format of two games a week for the rest of the season.

Camp Cal concluded with classes back in session on Jan. 10.

Wildcats Near End of Solid Nonconference Schedule

Kentucky's young team was put to the test early and often with another formidable nonconference schedule.

Twelve of UK's 13 nonconference opponents made a postseason tournament in 2017, including eight who made the NCAA Tournament. Three of those advanced to the Sweet 16 or better.

Five nonconference teams finished the 2016-17 season with an RPI in the top 50 and four ended the season in both the Associated Press Top 25 and USA Today Coaches Poll. All told, Kentucky's 2017-18 nonconference opponents combined for a record of 314-134 in 2016-17, a .701 winning percentage.

As of games through Jan. 17, UK's nonconference schedule ranked 18th in the country in the NCAA's RPI report.

Kentucky's nonconference schedule saw the Wildcats play in premier venues such as the United Center in Chicago (vs. Kansas) and Madison Square Garden in New York (vs. Monmouth), took them to a Big Blue Nation favorite in New Orleans (vs. UCLA), and still features a difficult trip to Morgantown, West Virginia, to play the West Virginia Mountaineers in January.

And that doesn't even include an arduous league schedule in what is expected to be a much-improved Southeastern Conference.

A quarter of ESPN's top-100 recruits in the 2017 class signed to play in the SEC. The league is coming off a season in which its teams combined to go 11-5 in the NCAA Tournament and had three teams advance to the Elite Eight.

Seven UK opponents entered the 2017-18 season ranked in one or both of the major polls, including three top-10 opponents.

Tall Order Facing These Cats

John Calipari has said before that you can teach shooting, defense and effort, among other things, but you can't teach height and you can't teach length. This group of Wildcats has both.

The average wingspan of this Kentucky team is just over 6-foot-9. Take out walk-ons Jonny David and Dillon Pulliam and the average wingspan of the scholarship players increases to more than 6-10.

Seven players on the roster have a wingspan of 7 feet or more, making this is a potentially devastating shot-blocking team.

Just in terms of pure height, the Wildcats average better than 6-6 in height. According to kenpom.com, UK's average playing height of 79.0 inches is the fourth tallest in the country. Syracuse, San Jose State, and Duke are the only teams taller than the Cats. The Orange lead the country at 79.8.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Year	Offense (Rank)	Defense (Rank)	Overall
2018	113.2 (45)	95.3 (32)	29th
2017	119.1 (12)	91.4 (7)	4th

numbers through Jan. 16

Efficiency is the Name of the Game

National analysts pointed to the Wildcats' shooting as a perceived weakness heading into the 2017-18 season. As it turns out, it may be a strength. Through 18 games, UK is shooting 48.6 percent from the floor, ranked 33rd in the country (as of games played through Jan. 16).

Kentucky's shooting numbers were boosted by back-to-back 60-percent shooting performances vs. Fort Wayne and UIC. It was the first time a team in the John Calipari era shot 60 percent or better in back-to-back games. It was also the first time UK shot 60 percent or better in consecutive games since turning the trick against High Point and North Carolina in 2002.

Kentucky utilized a 60.0-percent clip against Fort Wayne and then shot 66.7 percent against UIC. Both of those numbers rank among the top 10 all-time under Calipari. The output against UIC was the second highest in the Calipari era, trailing only a 67.7-percent mark against LIU-Brooklyn during the 2012-13 season.

UK is also making 35.0 percent of its shots from behind the 3-point line, the fifth-best mark during the Calipari era.

Three is Better Than Two

Kentucky and UNLV went back and forth all season long last year for the claim of having the longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer. Fittingly, both schools reached a historic milestone -- 1,000 straight games -- within a few hours of each other.

UK just beat out the Runnin' Rebels by mere hours, becoming the first school ever to hit a 3-pointer in 1,000 straight games with a trey at Alabama on Feb. 11, 2017. Malik Monk, UK's leader in 3-point field goals last season, got the Wildcats to 1,000 straight games with a 3-pointer from the right wing with 15:26 to go in the first half. UNLV would match it later in the day.

Kentucky passed UNLV for the nation's longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer in its final game of 2015-16. UK has now knocked down at least one 3-pointer in 1,031 consecutive games. UNLV has hit one in 1,023 straight, through games on Jan. 16.

The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout. The streak began on Nov. 28, 1998, in an 89-71 win vs. California.

The Wildcats' record during the 1,031-game streak is 797-234.

Knowing When to Shoot the 3 is Important, Too

Kentucky is currently taking the fewest number of 3-point shots in the John Calipari era but is shooting it at one of the most efficient rates in Calipari's nine seasons.

As of games played on Jan. 16, Kentucky is attempting a 3-point shot on just 24.8 percent of its total field-goal attempts, far and away the lowest of the Calipari era. As a matter of fact, that's ranked 348th out of 351 teams in the country, according to KenPom.com.

On the flipside, when the Wildcats do hoist one from behind the arc, they're doing a decent job making them at a 35.0-percent rate. Kentucky's 2-point scoring production of 58.6 percent is the fifth-highest mark in the country, according to KenPom.com.

UK's program record low for percentage of 3-point attempts is 13.7 percent in 1987-88, just the second year of existence for the 3-point shot. Only one other team (1988-89) had a rate less than 20 percent at 16.9 percent.

Kentucky's current rate is the lowest since Kentucky attempted a 3-pointer on 27.2 percent of its attempts during the 1995-96 season. That same team holds the program record for the best 3-point field-goal percent with a 39.7 rate.

Here's a look at UK's percentages of 3-point attempts and 3-point field-goal percentages in the Calipari era:

Year	Pct. of FG Attempts that were 3-pointers	3-Point FG Pct.
2009-10:	.313	.331 (lowest)
2010-11:	.324 (highest)	.397 (highest)
2011-12:	.265	.378
2012-13:	.293	.346
2013-14:	.276	.332
2014-15:	.271	.349
2015-16:	.310	.366
2016-17:	.316	.353
2017-18:	.248 (lowest)	.350

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

UK is 223-5 (.978) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

When Kentucky failed to put away South Carolina on Jan. 16 after leading by as many as 14 points in the second half, it was the first time the Wildcats let a double-digit lead wind up in a loss since losing two such games in the 2015-16 campaign.

Kentucky also blew two double-digit leads during the 2012-13 season. Four of the five losses have been to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 71.3 percent of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 84.8 percent of Calipari's 263 career wins at Kentucky.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky have a 50-24 record (.676) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams, UK is 5-3 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five under Calipari.

All-time, Calipari is 11-7 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 75-48, including a 44-20 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 24-15 record, including 13-8 at UK.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 50-24 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 213-33 vs. unranked competition, an .866 winning percentage.

UK has two losses to unranked opponents this season. That's the first time that's happened since the 2015-16 season.

Hold Them to 55

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 63-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer. The Wildcats are 150-5 under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky has been dominant against teams in the state under John Calipari. UK is 16-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm.

The mark also includes an 9-2 mark vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals came in postseason play. UK had its four-game winning streak snapped in 2016-17 but has won all five meetings played in Rupp Arena, including a 29-point blowout this season, the third-biggest margin of victory in the history of the series. Louisville's two wins have come by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Cal took over at UK:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
- March 31, 2012 - UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
- Dec. 29, 2012 - Louisville won 80-77 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
- Dec. 27, 2014 - UK won 58-50 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 26, 2015 - UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 21, 2016 - Louisville won 73-70 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 29, 2017 - UK won 90-61 at Rupp Arena

Recruit and Reload

With everything the Wildcats lost last season to the professional ranks and graduation, UK reloaded with a historic recruiting class.

The Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking, not only rated UK's 2017 class the best of the season – it measures this group as the best ever.

With 582 points in its recruiting calculations, this 2017 Kentucky group beat out another Wildcat class – the 2013 haul – to claim the title as the best recruiting class ever. That 2013 group had 557 points and consisted of Julius Randle, Andrew Harrison, Aaron Harrison, Dakari Johnson, James Young, Marcus Lee and Derek Willis. The RSCI rankings began in 1998.

The 2017 class consists of Kevin Knox (No. 10), Jarred Vanderbilt (No. 13), PJ Washington (No. 14), Nick Richards (No. 18), Quade Green (No. 23), Shai Gilgeous-Alexander (No. 30), Hamidou Diallo (No. 46) and Jemarl Baker (No. 72).

The RSCI includes individual player rankings from all of the major recruiting services, which this season featured Rivals, Scout, 247Sports and longtime recruiting analyst Van Coleman. The RSCI formula uses each of those services' rankings (only the top 100) players to assign a point value to each recruit. Using the point totals for all the five major services, it then adds the totals for all players in a class for the team's final score.

If all five RSCI sources had counted Diallo with the 2017 class, the Wildcats' score would have been closer to 630, according to the site.

UK has ranked No. 1 in the RSCI in seven of Calipari's nine classes at Kentucky.

Keep a Watchful Eye on the Cats

Stocked full of some of the nation's top talent, a handful of Wildcats are on a number of national preseason watch lists:

- Hamidou Diallo - Naimith Trophy, Oscar Robertson Trophy, John R. Wooden Award, Jerry West Award
- Kevin Knox - Naimith Trophy, Oscar Robertson Trophy, John R. Wooden Award, Julius Erving Award, Lute Olson Award Midseason
- Nick Richards - Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award
- PJ Washington - Karl Malone Award

UK Starts Season in Top Five

Despite losing nearly 93 percent of its scoring and almost 77 percent of its rebounding from a season ago, Kentucky began the season in the top five of both major polls. The Wildcats were No. 4 in the USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 to start the year.

It's the ninth consecutive season under head coach John Calipari that Kentucky began the season ranked among the top 25 teams in the country in both polls. As a matter of fact, the Wildcats have been ranked in the preseason top five in both polls in eight of Calipari's nine seasons, including seven straight.

Two Wildcats Selected to Preseason All-SEC Teams

Two players were selected to the preseason All-SEC squads. Freshman Hamidou Diallo was picked to the first team by the league's media and the second team by the coaches, while classmate Kevin Knox was tabbed to the second team by the media and the first team by the head coaches.

Conference play opens Dec. 30 and the 2018 SEC Tournament is set to begin March 7 at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis.

A Winning Institution

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams posted an eighth straight 20-win season in 2016-17. Kentucky is one of just three institutions (Duke and BYU) in the NCAA that have seen both their men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in each of the last eight seasons.

With UK women's basketball coach Matthew Mitchell earning his 250th win on Jan. 11, Kentucky is one of 11 schools with both their men's and women's head coaches having registered at least 250 wins at that school. They join Baylor, BYU, Duke, Florida State, Middle Tennessee State, North Carolina, Notre Dame, Saint Joseph's, Syracuse and Villanova.

International Cats

The Wildcats were well represented in international basketball this summer.

Hamidou Diallo, PJ Washington, Tai Wynyard and John Calipari all were part of the 2017 FIBA World Cup in Cairo. Sacha Killeya-Jones and Brad Calipari also traveled abroad this summer to play basketball.

Diallo and Washington, coached by John Calipari, captured a bronze medal for Team USA, while Wynyard was the star for the New Zealand Junior Tall Blacks.

Washington led Team USA in scoring at 12.9 points per game and added 5.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists. Diallo contributed 10.9 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.1 steals per game. Wynyard led the Junior Tall Blacks in scoring at 14.3 points per game and rebounding with 9.3 boards per outing.

Kevin Knox made the final 16 cuts for Team USA before the roster was trimmed to 12, but he pulled his name from contention after suffering a minor hamstring injury. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander declined an invite to join the Canadian national team for its training camp.

Meanwhile, Killeya-Jones attended Great Britain's national training camp in August to compete for a spot on Great Britain's FIBA EuroBasket 2017 team, while Brad Calipari went on an international basketball trip with Global Sports Academy to Croatia. He averaged 14.3 points, 6.5 assists and 3.3 rebounds in four games.

Calipari Inks Three for 2018 During Fall Signing Period

In what's become somewhat of a fall tradition in college basketball and a celebration of riches in the Big Blue Nation, the Kentucky men's basketball team has begun building one of the strongest recruiting classes in the country, signing three of the nation's top players during the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Tyler Herro, Keldon Johnson and Immanuel Quickley have all inked national letters of intent with UK.

All three players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by the major national recruiting services. Although it's still early in the recruiting process with a number of dominoes still to fall, national analysts once again believe UK's class will be one of the top hauls for 2018.

In every season in the John Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking.

- Tyler Herro - At 6-foot-5, Herro has length, and now listed at 195 pounds by 247Sports, he's quickly adding muscle to his frame. The shooting guard out of Whitnall High School in Greenfield, Wisconsin, averaged 23.9 points and shot 39 percent from 3-point range in his junior season in high school. The top-ranked player out of Wisconsin, Herro is considered one of the top shooting guards in the 2018 class. A consensus four-star recruit, Herro is ranked as high as No. 27 in ESPN's rankings, No. 38 by Rivals and No. 40 by 247Sports. Herro was one of 54 players selected for the USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October. He also averaged 14.8 points, 5.9 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game on the Nike circuit this past summer, shooting 36 percent from 3-point range
- Keldon Johnson - A 6-6 shooting guard out of Oak Hill Academy in Mouth of Wilson, Virginia, Johnson is a consensus five-star player and one of the best in the class of 2018. A native of South Hill, Virginia, he previously played for Huntington Prep in Huntington, West Virginia, before transferring to Oak Hill for the 2017-18 season. Johnson is ranked as high as the No. 7 overall prospect by ESPN, including third at his position. 247Sports ranks him as the nation's No. 11 overall player, while Rivals has him at No. 18. He led his Boo Williams (Va.) AAU team to the semifinals of the Peach Jam after averaging 20.7 points, 8.5 rebounds and 3.1 assists during the Nike regular season. Johnson took home MVP honors at the NBPA Top 100 Camp in June. Like Herro, Johnson was one of 54 players selected for the USA Basketball Junior National Team minicamp in October
- Immanuel Quickley - A 6-4 guard out of the John Carroll School in Bel Air, Maryland, Quickley is a consensus five-star prospect. Considered a consensus top-three player at his position, he's ranked as high as No. 10 by Rivals, No. 12 by ESPN and No. 13 by 247Sports. In his junior season at John Carroll, Quickley averaged 23.7 points and 7.2 assists. He scored 30 or more in five games, 20 or more in 14 games and finished with eight double-doubles. He also averaged 25.7 points, 4.7 rebounds and shot 42.1 percent from 3-point range in the Adidas Summer Championships in July. Quickley was a member of the 2017 USA Men's U19 World Cup Team that competed in Cairo. Playing under Calipari, Quickley averaged 6.7 points and 2.4 assists in 18.3 minutes per game. He was named the Baltimore Sun Metro Player of the Year in 2016

Johnson, Quickley Selected for McDonald's All American Game

The Kentucky men's basketball team's 2018 recruiting class will be well represented during the 2018 McDonald's All American Game in March with the selections of Keldon Johnson and Immanuel Quickley.

Joining an elite list that features some of the greatest players to play for Kentucky, incoming Wildcats Johnson and Quickley were selected to participate in the 41st annual McDonald's All American Game on March 28 in Philips Arena in Atlanta. The game will tip off at 7 p.m. ET and air on ESPN.

With the selections of Johnson and Quickley, UK has signed 32 players during the John Calipari era who have been named to the prestigious high school event, more than any other school in the country during that time period. Multiple players from each signing class have been tabbed McDonald's All Americans during the Calipari era, including five in the 2013 and 2017 classes.

Kentucky has signed 64 McDonald's All Americans since the team began in 1977, including current Wildcats Sacha Killeya-Jones (2016), Quade Green, (2017), Kevin Knox (2017), Nick Richards (2017), Jarred Vanderbilt (2017) and PJ Washington (2017).

UK Tops Nation with 27 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

Kentucky's unprecedented success with helping players reach the NBA has surpassed a new level of extreme. At the start of the 2017-18 NBA season, a whopping 27 players on NBA opening-day rosters played and finished their college basketball careers at the University of Kentucky, the nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program in the country. UK's 27 players are once again far and away the most of any college basketball program. Duke was second with 20 former players and North Carolina and Kansas each have 16 on opening-day rosters.

Of the 489 players in the NBA to start the 2017-18 season, more than 5.5 percent played and finished their college basketball careers at UK. Seven NBA teams feature multiple Wildcats.

All told, UK's 27 players are represented on 15 of the league's 30 teams. Of the 27 Wildcats on an opening-day NBA roster, head coach John Calipari has coached 25 of them. With Tyreke Evans (Memphis Grizzlies) and Derrick Rose (Cleveland Cavaliers), who played for Calipari at Memphis, Calipari has coached 27 players on 2017-18 opening-day rosters, the most of any coach.

The Wildcats also have a handful of players on the doorstep of the league in the NBA G-League, including Aaron Harrison, Mychal Mulder, Marquis Teague, Derek Willis and James Young, and several others playing professionally internationally.

Kentucky has experienced unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the eight seasons of the Calipari era, 31 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 24 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Anthony Davis, Karl-Anthony Towns and John Wall), seven top-five picks and 17 lottery selections.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose and Evans but not Jodie Meeks or Rajon Rondo) have amassed nearly $1.5 billion in career NBA contracts ($1.455 billion). In the eight seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled more than $1.09 billion in NBA contracts.

In just the 2017-18 season alone, UK players are slated to make more than $178 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose and Evans but not Meeks or Rondo) will make more than $177 million.

UK's growing NBA contingent is already off to a fast start to the 2017-18 season:

- According to Basketball Reference, Davis is the only player since 1983-84 to post 95-plus points and 50-plus rebounds in the first three games of a season
- DeMarcus Cousins returned to Sacramento, his former team, for the first time by recording 41 points, 23 rebounds and six assists. It was the first time a player scored at least 40 points, grabbed at least 20 rebounds and dished out at least five assists since Chris Webber did it on Jan. 5, 2001. According to NBA.com/stats, he was the first player with

- On Nov. 21, Davis recorded his 16th 35-point, 15-rebound game. According to Basketball Reference, the only other player since 1983 who recorded more than 10 before turning 25 was Shaquille O'Neal, who had 27. As of Dec. 6, Davis and Cousins had more combined 35-point, 15-rebound games than the rest of the league combined since 2012-13

- Cousins recorded 40 points and 22 rebounds on Dec. 6 vs. Denver. According to NBA.com/stats, he's the first player with multiple 40-point, 20-rebound games in a season since Patrick Ewing had two such games in 1989-90. Add in his four blocks that game and he became the first player to record 40 points, 20 rebounds and four blocks in a game since Hakeem Olajuwon in March 1989
- With Rondo's triple-double on Dec. 11, Rondo and Cousins marked the first time in Pelicans franchise history teammates posted triple-doubles in the same season

- Rondo set a Pelicans franchise record with 25 assists on Dec. 27 in a win over the Nets. He became the first player with 25 assists in an NBA game since Jason Kidd (1996), according to NBA.com/stats. He's one of only seven players to ever dish out 25 or more assists and the only player to do it in 30 minutes or less of action, according to ESPN Stats & Info
- Davis recorded a 48-point, 17-rebound game on Jan. 14 followed by a 45-point, 16-rebound effort on Jan. 16. According to SportsCenter, he's just the third player in NBA history with back-to-back games of at least 45 points and at least 15 rebounds. Davis has done it twice (he did it in 2016-17 as well)

Cousins, Davis Voted to NBA All-Star Game as Starters

The dynamic duo from the Big Easy are headed for the bright lights of Hollywood. Former Kentucky greats Anthony Davis and DeMarcus Cousins were named NBA All-Star Game starters. Davis will make his fifth consecutive appearance while Cousins is heading for his fourth All-Star Game.

The Pelicans' stars will join the league's best players on Feb. 18 in Los Angeles for the league's annual NBA All-Star Game. Davis was drafted No. 1 overall by the New Orleans Pelicans (formerly the New Orleans Hornets) in 2012, while Cousins was the No. 5 overall selection in the 2010 draft to the Sacramento Kings. Since joining forces midway through last season, they've arguably been one of the league's best 1-2 punches inside and have propelled the Pelicans into position for a playoff appearance.

Davis and Cousins were voted in by the fans, their peers and media members. Fans could vote via Twitter, Facebook, NBA.com, the NBA app and Google search.

Kentucky is the only school in the country with two former players in the 2018 All-Star Game starting lineup. When they suit up for the game, it will mark the first time a school has had two players in the starting lineup of the NBA All-Star Game since Wake Forest had Chris Paul and Tim Duncan in the 2011 game. UK had two players – Davis and John Wall – voted into the starting lineup in 2015, but Davis could not play due to injury.

The All-Star reserves are selected by NBA head coaches and will be revealed on Jan. 23. The complete team rosters will be unveiled on Jan. 25.

The game will mark Davis' fifth appearance in the NBA All-Star Game and his third overall as a starter. He was also voted in as a starter for the 2015 and 2017 games. A season ago, he won MVP honors as the game was played in New Orleans. Davis scored an All-Star Game record 52 points in addition to contributing 10 rebounds. He broke Wilt Chamberlain's previous scoring record of 42 points set in 1962.

It will be Cousins' fourth appearance but his first as a starter.

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2017 for placing in the top 10 percent of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a perfect 1,000.

It's the third straight year the men's basketball team received the award and the fourth time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2012-13 through 2015-16 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in each of the last four single-year APR rates.

The NCAA cut score to compete in the 2016-17 postseason is a 930 four-year APR. Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

UK to Tip Off 2018-19 Season as a Part of Champions Classic

Already one of the premier events of the college basketball season, the annual State Farm Champions Classic's spotlight is about to get even brighter with the announcement Wednesday that the event will tip off the 2018-19 season.

The event, which features Kentucky, Duke, Kansas and Michigan State, will move up a week next season to Nov. 6, coinciding with the new start of the college basketball season.

The 2018 Champions Classic, which will continue to be a neutral-site doubleheader, will feature UK vs. Duke and Michigan State vs. Kansas. Indianapolis' Bankers Life Fieldhouse will serve as the backdrop for the 2018 games, with the 2019 Champions Classic returning to Madison Square Garden in New York.

The Champions Classic will be in its eighth season in 2018 with Kentucky and Duke leading the way with 4-3 records. Kansas and Michigan State are 3-4 in the series.

Since the Champions Classic began in 2011, all four teams have reached the NCAA Final Four at least once, with Kentucky and Duke winning national titles, in 2012 and 2015, respectively. Over the last 14 games of the Classic, there have been 13 top-25 matchups, including two games featuring No. 1 vs. No. 2 (according to the AP Top 25).

UK has played Duke in the Champions Classic two times. The Blue Devils defeated the Wildcats 75-68 in 2012 in Atlanta but Kentucky beat Duke 74-63 in 2015 in Chicago.

Wall Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

John Wall was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2017 class in September.

Wall was the first national player of the year in program history as winner of the Adolph Rupp Trophy. He was named 2010 USBWA National Freshman of the Year, a Consensus First Team All-American, 2010 SEC Player of the Year by Associated Press and SEC Coaches, SEC Freshman of the Year by the AP, First Team All-SEC and SEC Tournament MVP.

Wall led UK to a No. 1 national ranking, SEC regular-season championship and the SEC Tournament championship. He set the single-season assists record with 241 assists (broken in 2016 by Tyler Ulis) and averaged 16.6 points and 6.5 assists. He was the first No. 1 overall NBA Draft pick in UK history. A four-time NBA All-Star through his first seven seasons, he has averaged double-figure scoring every season. Wall was tabbed to the All-NBA Third Team in 2017. He is the Washington franchise career leader in assists and steals.

Cats Rock at Rupp

UK has won 228 of its last 257 home games, including a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era. All-time, the Wildcats are 572-66 (.897) in Rupp Arena.

Among the most notable marks of dominance in the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- The Wildcats are 304-40 (.884) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- The Wildcats have gone undefeated at home in five of John Calipari's eight seasons
- Overall, UK has posted a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 40 seasons

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 19 of the last 22 seasons entering this year, including a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

- Kentucky averaged 23,461 fans during the 2016-17 season
- UK has averaged 23,000 or more fans in seven of Calipari's eight seasons

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just three times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just twice in Rupp Arena. Prior to the loss to UCLA by three on Dec. 3, 2016, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 53-2 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat the Wildcats at Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 145-6 (.960) at Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- The Wildcats are 127-3 (.977) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Cal

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, 2016, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for wins in Rupp Arena history.

Another Milestone Reached: 700 Victories

With Kentucky's win over UIC on Nov. 26, 2017, John Calipari became just the 39th coach to reach 700 on-court wins, regardless of classification. Only 27 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever. Only Adolph Rupp (836 games), Jerry Tarkanian (876 games) and Roy Williams (879 games) did it faster.

Moving Up the Kentucky Career Wins List

With a 74-67 victory at Vanderbilt on Jan. 13, John Calipari notched his 263rd career win at Kentucky, tying him with Tubby Smith, who finished his UK career with a 263-83 mark. Calipari trails only the legendary Adolph Rupp (876 wins) and Joe B. Hall (297) for most wins at Kentucky.

Although he's still climbing the charts, he's doing it faster than anyone else in school history. With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville on Dec. 26, 2015, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Division I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau. He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Calipari reached his 250th career win at Kentucky with a 73-63 come-from-behind victory vs. Utah Valley for the 2017-18 season opener. Calipari reached 250 wins at UK faster than any other Wildcat coach. It took Rupp 312 games to reach 250 wins, whereas it took Calipari just 303.

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and Jojo White.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017.

When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, 2017, he made history as a head coach. Calipari is the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, 93, 94, 95 and 96. Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, 06, 07, 08 and 09. Kentucky has captured the SEC five times in 2010, 12, 15, 16 and 17.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 29 combined regular-season and tournament championships. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (30 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41), Dean Smith (30) and Few.

There's No Place Like Home

Since the 2000-01 season, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 298-25 (.923) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 145-6 (.960) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's eight full seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

Coach	Streak (Yrs)
1. John Calipari	54 (2010-13)
2. John Calipari	42 (2014-17)
3. Rick Pitino	33 (1992-94)
4. Joe B. Hall	30 (1981-82)
5. Rick Pitino	27 (1995-97)

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're nearly as good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded an 90-39 (.698) record on the road.

At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 67-16 all-time under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. With UK's No. 1 ranking in 2016-17, Calipari has guided six of his last eight and seven of his last 10 teams to the No. 1 ranking (and the ninth time he's done it overall).

When Coach Cal's teams have been at the top, they've been difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-12 (.902) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-7 (.908) when his team is at the top of the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the pinnacle of the rankings

AHEAD OF THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

• Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to five NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.

• John Calipari is ahead of the pace set by the legend as far as victories to begin his career at UK. Also, Calipari (.822) is tied with Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

- Through games on Dec. 29, Calipari (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (205) in active coaches with victories at No. 1
- Calipari has coached 122 career games as a No. 1 team, the fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (235), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (131)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .902 trails only Wooden (.952) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (.872)

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 15 league regular-season championships (including the 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017 SEC championships) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). With a 2017 SEC Tournament championship -- Calipari's third straight and fifth at UK -- he owns 14 conference tournament titles, nine more than his closest competitor (Howland).

He's tallied a 323-95 (.773) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 115-29 (.799) record since joining the SEC.

30 is the new 20

With a road win at Alabama on Feb. 11, John Calipari notched his 23rd consecutive season of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski (21), Bill Self (19) and Jim Boeheim (17).

With a first-round win over Northern Kentucky in the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Calipari and the Cats clinched a 30-win season for the fourth time in his eight seasons as head coach. Calipari has 10 seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (11) have more 30-win seasons as an active head coach. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 wins in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (17 of 17) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last four single-year reports. Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May, was a 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the third year in a row for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the Wildcats routinely post a 3.0 grade-point average or better.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, Coach Cal has helped 42 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 31 over his first eight seasons at Kentucky, which is more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than two No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history

COACH CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 42 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his 25-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 600 victories, 18 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 42 players realize their dreams and guide them to NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he’s had 31 players drafted during his first eight years at Kentucky, including 24 first-round picks.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. He’s coached an MVP, four All-NBA players, three Rookie of the Year winners, and 10 players from Calipari’s first six teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 17 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point averages of 3.0 or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy and another one in 2017 for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

In 2013, Calipari came up with the idea of hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend (the game and the fantasy experience) has generated more than $1 million for charity every year since, including in 2014 without the funds from an alumni game and 2016 with a celebrity softball game in place of the traditional basketball game.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”
