WILDCATS CLOSE OUT SEC PLAY AT GEORGIA WITH SPOT IN ORANGE BEACH ON THE LINE

The Kentucky women's soccer team will continue its fight to book a ticket to Orange Beach on Thursday night as the Wildcats travel to Athens, Georgia for a match with the UGA Bulldogs. It is the final regular season match of the 2017 season with kick-off slated for 7 p.m. ET from the UGA Soccer Stadium, which is newly remodeled for 2017.

The Wildcats enter Thursday night sitting on six SEC points - which is three below the current cutoff to make Orange Beach. If UK were to beat Georgia, the Wildcats could just be bound for Orange Beach with some help around the SEC. The following are UK's clinching scenarios:

- -UK wins AND Mississippi State loses AND LSU/Missouri tie OR
- -UK wins AND Mississippi State loses AND LSU beats Missouri

The current SEC standings have Mississippi State on nine points, so if the Bulldogs pick up a result against Texas A&M - that eliminates UK, LSU and Mizzou from Orange Beach. If Texas A&M were to win, all three teams then become factors, as they can all reach nine points and tie Mississippi State with a win.

QUICK NOTES

- The Wildcats have 10 freshman this season, its biggest incoming class since 2012 (12 players).
- Kentucky has had nine opening day projected starters miss 2+ matches this year w/ an injury.
- The Wildcats have played 10 teams ranked, or receiving votes in the USCA Top-25.
- UK has already surpassed its win total this year (7) under Ian Carry, than it had all of 2016 (5).
- Kentucky's win over LSU was UK's first SEC win in 342 calendar days.
- UK's 2-1 OT win on Sunday, Aug. 27 was UK's first OT win in over three years (0-5-9 since last win in an overtime match).
- Kentucky's 1-0 win at MSU was its first SEC road shutout since September of 2015 (Alabama).
- Evangeline Soucie was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 2.
- UK's back-to-back-to-back shutout wins (WIU, Ohio, LIP) were the program's first since 2015
- UK has four players from international rosters on its team this year: Yuuka Kurosaki (Japan), Hollie Olding (England), Tanya Samarzich (Mexico) and Sophie Stewart-Hobbs (New Zealand).
- Kentucky's 2017 incoming freshman class was ranked as high as No. 4 by recruiting services.
- The Wildcats have had 11 different players score a goal this season.
- UK is picked to finish 12th in the Southeastern Conference by the coaches.
- This season marks the first season for UK on its new $2 million soccer-specific training facility.

KENTUCKY INJURY REPORT

Injury statuses are for the Georgia match:

*Jada Holmes Suffered a leg injury in the spring ... Out for the season.

*Marissa Bosco Suffered a torn MCL in the spring training with her club ... Out for the season.

*Tanya Samarzich Suffered a torn left ACL at Florida State on Sept. 3 in a non-contact injury ... Out for the season ... She missed the 30% redshirt cutoff by 47 minutes, so she will be elibible for a medical redshirt in 2018.

*Yuuka Kurosaki Has an MCL sprain in her right leg ... She is a game-time decision ... She has missed seven matches this season with the MCL sprain, but returned vs. LSU for the first time in eight matches.

*Jessica Lazo Suffered an ankle injury vs. Auburn ... She is out for the match, which will be her eighth missed match in a row.

*Evangeline Soucie Suffered a concussion against Mizzou ... She is currently in concussion protocal and will be evaluated by the UK Medical Staff for her status on Thursday night.

International Duty

*Hollie Olding Was back in her home nation of England helping the Three Lionesses qualify for the 2019 EURO's. She missed the Loyola-Chicago, Florida and Arkansas matches.

Dicipline

*Foster Ignoffo Was sent off with two yellow cards on Oct. 8 at Mississippi State ... She sat out the Mizzou match (L, 2-1) on Oct. 12 due to the red card.

IAN CARRY TAKES OVER

Ian Carry, who has been with the Kentucky women's soccer team the past four seasons as an assistant coach, was been named the third head coach in Kentucky program history, UK director of athletics Mitch Barnhart announced on Tuesday, Nov. 22, 2016.

He was formally introduced to the team in a phone call (most kids were gone from campus on Thanksgiving Break) with Mitch Barnhart and sport administrator, Stephanie Simmons.

The contract for Carry is a two-year agreement with a school option for two additional years.

THE CARRY TIMELINE

The following is a timeline of the Carry family's crazy late fall and winter season:

Nov. 4, 2016 - Kentucky administration elects to make a coaching change

Nov. 21, 2016 - Mitch Barnhart offers Ian Carry the head coaching job at UK. Carry then accepts.

Nov. 22, 2016 - Mitch Barnhart announces publically that Ian Carry will be the next head coach of UK Women's Soccer

Nov. 23, 2016 - Introductory press conference is held at Rupp Arena

Nov. 24, 2016 - Carry announces that Jason Goodson will stay on staff as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator.

Dec. 15, 2016 - Ian marries his wife, Stephanie in a wedding held in Lexington, KY.

Dec. 20, 2016 - Carry announces Melissa Charloe as the newest assistant coach.

Jan. 11, 2017 - Carry meets in-person with the team for the first time as head coach.

INTERNATIONAL FLARE

Regarded as one of the best international recruiting tandems in the country, lan Carry and Jason Goodson have teamed up to bring in four international players to the UK Women's Soccer team. All four players have played in international matches for their countries - with two of them appearing in a FIFA World Cup. The four international players on the 2017 roster are the most internationals on an opening day roster in UKWS program history.

- Yuuka Kurosaki (Japan)
- Hollie Olding (England)
- Tanya Samarzich (Mexico)
- Sophie Stewart-Hobbs (New Zealand)

NEW PRACTICE FACILITY

Kentucky opened the Wendell & Vickie Bell Soccer Complex in 2014 - but just this preseason - opened a brand new soccer-specific training facility in the same complex. The new $2 million project features a field and a half of bermuda grass (same as game field playing surface). In addition, it includes a seperate area of the same artificial turf used at the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup, and a storage facility with restrooms.

SPORTS SCIENCE

Kentucky has long been one of the leaders amongst Sports Science in all athletics. The Wildcats began a Sports Science partnership with Nike back in 2010 - and have been one of the leading institutions for research since then. With the addition of Chris Morris to the staff. UK women's soccer has taken it to a new level. The Wildcats every practice have a member on-site that is watching their Catapult heart rate monitors and GPS trackers to track sprints, distances, etc. The same system is used by Bayern Munich FC, Real Madrid, PSG, Celtic FC the Golden State Warriors - and the Clemson Tigers national championship football team.

WILDCATS BLANK MISSISSIPPI STATE

Sunday's win at Mississippi State was UK's first road SEC shutout since Sept. of 2015 at Alabama. The Wildcats had gone 11 straight matches without a road shutout in SEC play prior to Sunday.

It was also UK's first win at Mississippi State since 2013, and the first road win under head coach Ian Carry in the SEC.

MULTI GOALS IS THE SOLUTION

Kentucky only has one loss this season when scoring two or more goals in a match. That happened on Sunday in a 5-2 loss against Lovola-Chicago.

BIG WIN OVER LSU

Kentucky's 3-0 win over LSU was UK's first SEC win in 342 calendar days. The Wildcats and Tigers were deadlocked at 0-0 before UK exploded for three goals in less than 10 minutes to put the match away and give Ian Carry his first SEC win as Kentucky's head coach.

ALREADY BETTER THAN 2016

UK has already surpassed its win total from all of 2016 with its 3-0 win against LSU on Sept. 29. Kentucky had just five wins in 2016.

UK now has seven wins on the season - two higher than 2016.

SOUCIE NAMED SEC DEFENSIVE PLAY-ER OF THE WEEK

Evangeline Soucie's shutout of LSU, the first SEC shutout of her career, earned her SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors. It was the second weekly award from the SEC office for Soucie.

Ian Carry has now coached four different

GK's to six different SEC weekly awards since he stepped foot in Lexington in 2013.

ABOVE THE CUTOFF

Sitting on six points in the SEC, the Wildcats would make the SEC Tournament if the season ended today. This is the first time UK is above the cutoff in over a year, as UK was never in the top 10 of the SEC at any point a year ago.

2017 KENTUCKY WOMEN'S SOCCER

BABO'S BRACE

Sophie Babo had her second-career brace on Sept. 29 vs. LSU. Both of her multi-goal games have been in SEC play, as her prior two-goal performance was against Tennessee in 2016 - a match that UK drew with the Vols, 2-2.

DRAWING FIRST BLOOD

The team that scores first has had a huge effect on UK's matches this season:

When UK scores first: 7-0-0 When opponent scores first: 0-12-0

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

UK's strength of schedule is always a point of pride - and this year is no difference, currently ranked as the No. 12 non-conference SOS. The Wildcats will play 10 games in the Southeastern Conference in addition to 10 non-conference games. UK faces Wisconsin, Marquette, former national champion Florida State and Ohio all on the road in non-conference action. UK's non-conference strength of schedule has been in the top 25 nationally five of the last six years.

OLDING CALLED INTO ENGLAND CAMP

Freshman midfielder Hollie Olding missed Kentucky's matches against Ohio and Lipscomb, as she was called into England Women's National Team Camp. She became the first UK player ever to be called into a countries national team camp as an active member of the roster. Arin Gilliland was called into USWNT camp, but as a member of the Chicago Red Stars in October of 2016.

She was then called into England camp again in October to help the Three Lionesses qualify for the 2019 EURO Championships. She will miss the Loyola-Chicago, Florida and Arkansas matches.

BREAKING THE OVERTIME CURSE

UK knocked off Wyoming 2-1 in overtime on Sunday, Aug. 27, marking UK's first OT win since the opening weekend of the 2014 season at Seattle when UK won on a corner kick that went straight in off of the service from Cara Ledman. In UK's prior 14 matches, UK was 0-9-5 in extra time dating back to 2014.

NEW TRAINING STYLE

As part of Ian Carry's stamp on the program, training sessions have become much more organized and higher in intensity in the new structure. The team meets in the team lounge 45 minutes prior to the session to go over the plan for the session and drills before an "activation" phase - which is used as a warm-up. During the activation, players can have music through the speakers and the players participate in rondo, footwork drills and passing drills new to the team for 2017.

BACK-TO-BACK SHUTOUTS

Kentucky shutout Western Illinois (1-0) and Ohio (3-0), marking the Wildcats' first back-toback winning shutouts since the 2015 season.

COACHING STAFF RESPONSIBILITIES

lan Carry - Head coaching duties, Goalkeepers, Opposition scouting, forwards

Jason Goodson - Back line organization, Recruiting coordinator, scheduling

Melissa Charloe - Midfielders, Opposition scouting and film, day-to-day activities, Academics.

CARRY'S FIRST WIN

Kentucky beat Eastern Kentucky 3-1 on Aug. 24 at the Bell Soccer Complex to pick up Ian Carry's first win as an NCAA head coach.

Athletic Director Mitch Barnhart and the team presented him with the match ball after 2003 ... Oct. 24 ... Lexington ... L, 0-1 the game was over.

IGNOFFO'S FIRST GOAL

Sophomore forward Foster Ignoffo scored her first goal as a Wildcats vs. EKU 12 minutes into the match to give the Wildcats a 1-0 lead. Ignoffo appeared in every match for UK her 2010 ... Oct. 1 ... at Athens, Ga. ... T, 1-1 freshman season, but never scored.

SAMARZICH'S GAME-WINNERS

Tanya Samarzich scored three goals in two 2014 ... Oct. 26 ... at Athens, Ga. ... W, 2-0 games on UK's home-opening weekend when the Wildcats beat EKU and Wyoming. Two of the three goals were game-winning goals.

SAMARZICH CALLED INTO MEXICAN NATIONAL TEAM CAMP

Tanya Samarzich was called up to participate in the Mexican National Team's camp on Jan. 24 before roster selection to an international friendly exhibition match against world No. 4 Canada on Feb. 4.

She was on the Mexican World Cup roster two years ago, but suffered a devastating ankle injury vs. Canada less than a week before the tournament started in a closeddoor scrimmage causing her to miss the World Cup.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

The Georgia Bulldogs enter the last match of the season winless in the SEC, but have perhaps one of the best results of the season in their back pockets with a 1-1 draw at SEC-leading South Carolina on Sunday in Columbia. The Bulldogs got a 90th-minute equalizer and then held off the Gamecocks in the overtime session for the point. The Bulldogs are 0-8-1 in the SEC this season and have four non-conference wins to show for, including a 9-1 win before a short, high-intensity session. This is against Coastal Carolina back in mid-September. Last year, these two sides met on Senior Night in Lexington with UGA taking a 3-1 road victory over the Wildcats back to Athens with them.

SERIES HISTORY VS. GEORGIA

UGA leads the all-time series with Kentucky, 12-7-3. The win by the Bulldogs in 2016 snapped a three-match winning streak for UK over Georgia. The last time UK played in Athens, UK won, 2-0.
