LIPSCOMB BECOMING TOP RECEIVING TARGET

Kalija Lipscomb (Jr., WR) has become a leading target for Commodore quarterback Kyle Shurmur.

Lipscomb, who had a career-high 174 receiving yards and two touchdowns vs. Tennessee State on Sept. 29, has hauled in at least nine catches in four of VU's last five games.

Lipscomb's totals from a four-game stretch of Nevada, Notre Dame, South Carolina and Tennessee State pushed him to the top of several SEC receiving categories. He ranks second with 49 catches, is tied for second with six TD catches and is fourth with 560 receiving yards.

He is VU's active career leader with 113 receptions, 1,489 receiving yards and 16 TDs. Lipscomb's 174 receiving yards vs. Tennessee State are the most by a Dore since current Arizona Cardinal Trent Sherfield had 184 yards vs. Tennessee on Nov. 26, 2016. It was the 19th highest single-game receiving total by a Commodore.

ZAC STACY - 2018 VANDERBILT SEC LEGEND

Zac Stacy, who rewrote Commodore rushing record books, will be celebrated as Vanderbilt's 2018 Football Legend at events surrounding the SEC Championship.

Stacy, from Centreville, Ala., ended his collegiate career in 2012 as Vanderbilt's all-time leader with 3,143 rushing yards and 30 rushing TDs. He also became the first back in Commodore history to produce back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

Stacy and other AT&T SEC Legends representing every team in the conference will be recognized honored at the 2018 SEC Football "Weekend of Champions" Nov. 30-Dec. 1 in Atlanta, highlighted by the annual SEC Legends Dinner presented by AT&T on Fri., Nov. 30 at the Hyatt Regency. The group will also be recognized prior to the SEC Football Championship Game, which will be held at the Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Dec. 1.

Stacy blossomed as a junior in 2011 when he set a new team single-season record with 1,193 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns. That season, he was a main cog in the Commodores' 6-6 regular season that resulted in an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

As a senior, Stacy virtually duplicated his 2011 campaign, rushing for 1,141 yards. He capped his career capturing MVP honors of the 2012 Franklin-American Mortgage Music City Bowl after leading VU to a postseason victory over NC State.

Stacy was a fifth-round pick of the St. Louis Rams in the 2013 NFL Draft and enjoyed a four-year NFL career with the Rams and New York Jets.

Many of Stacy's Vanderbilt records have been eclipsed by Ralph Webb, who became one of the SEC's top-10 all-time rushers by amassing 4,173 rushing yards and 32 rushing touchdowns from 2014-17.

SHURMUR MOVING UP COMMODORE ALL-TIME PASSING CHARTS IN SENIOR SEASON

Kyle Shurmur (Sr., QB) continues to rise up Vanderbilt's career passing charts. Shurmur, who became just the third Commodore signal caller to surpass 7,000 passing yards at Georgia, became the second VU quarterback to surpass 50 career touchdown passes in the Florida game.

Shurmur ranks among VU's all-time leaders in virtually every passing stat, including passing yards, touchdown passes and completions.

A three-year starter from Philadelphia, Pa., Shurmur has 51 touchdown passes, and is just nine shy of breaking the school record held by Jay Cutler (2002-05). He threw two touchdowns and 229 yards against the Gators.

Shurmur also went over 7,000 yards in career total offense against Florida. He has compiled 7,075 total yards.

With 7,364 career passing yards, Shurmur needs 617 yards to reach Zolman's second-place total of 7,981 passing yards. Shurmur must average 266.7 passing yards over his last five regular season games to eclipse Cutler's 8,697-yard school mark.

Shurmur ranks high in every Commodore all-time passing category. Besides touchdown passes, passing yards and total offense, he ranks third with 581 pass completions and third with 1,045 pass attempts. Among the team's all-time top passers, Shurmur's 55.6 percent completion rate ranks third behind Cutler (57.2%) and Page (56.7%).

Shurmur earned Reese's Senior Bowl Offensive Senior of the Week honors after his performance earlier this year at Notre Dame where he was 26 of 43 passes for 326 yards and a touchdown.

On Sept. 24, Shurmur was named among 62 other NCAA FBS players as a semifinalist for the William Campbell Trophy, sponsored by the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. The Campbell Trophy is regarded among the nation's top honors for both athletic and academic achievement.

This summer, Shurmur was named to watch lists for three leading awards: the Maxwell Award (Player of the Year), Walter Camp Award (Player of the Year) and the Johnny Unitas Award (nation's top senior quarterback). He became the first Commodore named to the Walter Camp Award preseason watch list since All-America wide receiver Jordan Matthews was recognized in 2013.

Shurmur entered the 2018 campaign third in the SEC in passing yards (behind Missouri's Drew Lock and Auburn's Jarrett Stidham), and second in touchdown passes (trailing only Lock).

In 2017, Shurmur established a new Vanderbilt team mark with 26 touchdown passes, bettering Whit Taylor's previous record of 22 touchdowns set in 1982. He also threw for 2,823 yards, the third-highest single-season total ever by a Commodore.

In 2017, Shurmur threw for at least three touchdowns in five different games. He also matched his single-game high of four touchdowns against Alabama A&M, South Carolina and Tennessee during the season.

NOTES FROM THE FLORIDA GAME

• The Commodore offense was dynamic in the limited time Ke'Shawn Vaughn (Jr., RB) was on the field.

Vaughn produced 131 all-purpose yards on eight touches in the first half, helping the Commodores post an early double-digit lead over the Gators. Vaughn missed the final 40 minutes of action due to injury.

Vaughn was instrumental in two early touchdown drives for the Commodores. His 43-yard carry over right tackle from the VU 2-yard line was the key play in an eventual 98-yard drive capped by Kyle Shurmur's 1-yard pass to tight end Jared Pinkney. It was Vaughn's fourth carry of more than 40 yards this year.

On Vanderbilt's next possession, Vaughn took a short pass from Shurmur 75 yards for a touchdown. It was the second longest offensive play this year for the Commodores, trailing only a 78-yard scoring run by Vaughn against Tennessee State.

Vaughn finished with 56 rushing yards and 75 receiving yards. He leads the Commodores with 495 rushing yards and five rushing touchdowns.

• Jordan Griffin (Sr., ILB) established new single-game highs with 18 total tackles and 10 solo tackles to lead the Commodore defense effort. Griffin's 18-total tackles was the most by a Commodore since All-America Zach Cunningham registered 19 tackles in a 17-16 Vanderbilt win at Georgia on Oct. 15, 2016.

Griffin ranks second in the SEC behind Arkansas LB De'Jon Harris with 37 solo tackles and 68 total tackles.

Griffin has produced at least eight tackles in six of the team's seven games. He is averaging 11.5 tackles over his last four outings.

• In the first quarter Kyle Shurmur (Sr., QB) connected with Jared Pinkney (R-Jr., TE) for his 50th career touchdown pass.

• The Vanderbilt defense was on the field for 92 plays, the most this season. The unit struggled on third downs, allowing Florida to make 12 of 19 third-down conversions.

• Ryley Guay (Jr., PK) had an up-and-down performance. Guay made 2-of-3 field goal attempts, including a 53-yarder in the fourth quarter, but also missed an attempt from 25 yards that would have given the Commodores a 24-13 lead in the third quarter.

Guay's 53-yard conversion was a career long, and is tied for the fifth longest in program history.

• Parker Thome (Grad., punter) averaged 46.3 yards on six punts. He put two punts inside the UGA 20-yard line and had a long effort of 51.

• Dimitri Moore (R-Fr., ILB) and Tae Daley (So., SAF) set career highs with 11 and six tackles, respectively. Daley also contributed a pair of tackles for loss.

Moore ranks as Vanderbilt's No. 3 tackler behind Griffin and LaDarius Wiley (Sr., SAF). He has 44 total tackles.

2018 VU OFFENSE OUT-PERFORMING 2017 UNIT

Through seven games, the 2018 Vanderbilt offense is performing well ahead of the 2017 unit.

The 2018 offense is scoring more points and garnering more first downs and total yardage from their 2017 counterparts.

The current unit is averaging 25.4 points, 3.3 more than a year ago. They are averaging seven more first downs and 92.7 more yards than the 2017 offense.

The improvement has led to 19 fewer punts by the Commodores this year.

Conversely, the 2017 VU offense was more efficient inside the opponent's 20-yard line and committed five fewer turnovers than the 2018 unit.

Both VU teams owned 3-4 records through seven games, and had faced three Associated Press-ranked opponents.

COMMODORE DEFENSIVE NEWCOMERS MAKING THE MOST OF SNAPS

Several new contributors are having a positive impact on the Vanderbilt defense.

While returning starters Jordan Griffin (Sr., ILB), Dare Odeyingbo (Sr., DL), Charles Wright (R-Sr., OLB), Josh Smith (Sr., OLB) and Joejuan Williams (Jr., CB) have provided leadership and solid play, several young prospects and first-time contributors have stepped forward to provide a spark for the VU defense early in the season.

Fifteen different defenders who are new to the program or saw limited to no action a year ago, have contributed at least two tackles and quality snaps for the defense. Twelve of the 15 are young returnees from the 2017 squad.

Dimitri Moore (R-Fr., ILB) has been one of the most consistent defensive performers since being inserted into the starting lineup at Notre Dame. He ranks third on the team with 44 total tackles, including a career-high 11 stops against Florida, and holds a share of the team high with three quarterback hurries.

Tae Daley (So., SAF), Allan George (R-Fr., CB), Frank Coppet (R-Fr., SAF) and Zaire Jones (R-So., SAF) have earned starting assignments in the Commodore secondary. They have combined for 68 total tackles and an interception.

Drew Birchmeier (R-So., DL) and Cameron Tidd (R-So., DL) have contributed 16 and 11 tackles, respectively.

Kenny Hebert (R-So., OLB) started strongly, registering four tackles for loss, three quarterback sacks, a forced fumble and fumble recovery in the first three games.

Other young VU defenders who are seeing their action are Brayden DeVault-Smith (R-Fr., ILB), Randall Haynie (R-Fr., CB), Alston Orji (Fr., ILB) and Rutger Reitmeier (R-Fr., DL).

Two new graduate transfers, Alim Muhammad (CB) and Louis Vecchio (DL), have registered 11 and 10 tackles, respectively.

PINKNEY PLAYING UP TO MACKAY AWARD PRESEASON EXPECTATION

Jared Pinkney (R-Jr., TE) is playing up to his preseason billing as John Mackey Award candidate.

Pinkney, a redshirt junior from Norcross, Ga., has hauled in 22 passes this year, good for 348 yards and three touchdowns.

In his last five games, Pinkney has 18 receptions and 316 receiving yards, highlighted by a five-catch, 111-yard, one-touchdown performance at Notre Dame. He earned National Tight End of the Week honors after the Notre Dame effort from the John Mackey Award committee.

In 2017, Pinkney recorded 22 receptions, 273 receiving yards and three touchdowns, including a 119-yard effort against Missouri.

Pinkney has played in every game during the last two seasons following an injury-riddled freshman campaign. In 2016, he was tabbed a First-Team Freshman All-SEC Tight End by Athlon Sports after hauling in 22 catches, good for 274 yards and two touchdowns.

VANDERBILT SUCCESS IN RECENT GAMES AGAINST OPPONENTS FROM TENNESSEE

Vanderbilt has captured seventh straight games against in-state opponents after a 31-27 victory over Tennessee State on Sept. 29.

The Commodores also opened this season with a 35-7 victory over Middle Tennessee.

The streak, which dates back to a loss at Tennessee to close the 2015 season, includes three wins over Middle Tennessee, a pair of victories over Tennessee and a 2016 decision over Tennessee State.

COMMODORE OFFENSIVE LINE FEATURES ALL FIVE RETURNING STARTERS

The Commodores feature a big advantage in offensive line experience this year as opposed to the 2017 campaign. The Doers entered the 2018 season with all five starters and two top reserves returning.

The returnees combined for 65 starts on the offensive line a year ago.

A pair of seniors, Justin Skule and Bruno Reagan, anchor assistant coach Cameron Norcross's offensive line. Both Skule and Reagan are productive two-year starters who have started at multiple positions during their careers.

A 34-game career starter, Skule put together a solid campaign protecting Kyle Shurmur's blindside in 2017.

Reagan, also a 34-game starter, is one of the team's most versatile linemen. After starting at guard as a sophomore and at center as a junior, he has started at both positions as a senior.

Devin Cochran (R-So.) is arguably the Doers' most athletic lineman. Cochran has 17 career starts, including 10 games as a redshirt freshman right tackle in 2017.

Cole Clemens (R-So.) has started the first seven games at left guard. Saige Young (R-Jr.), a physical eight-game starter last year, has earned two consecutive starts leading to the Kentucky game.

Despite missing the last two games, Egidio DellaRipa (R-Sr.) has five starts at center. He was pushed this summer by fast-improving Grant Miller (R-Fr.).

Jared Southers (R-Jr.) also is the mix at both tackle positions. He started four games last year, showing versatility to play guard or center. Sean McMoore (R-So.) also impressed this August at guard and center.

COMMODORES UTILIZING SEVERAL PLAYERS TO REPLACE WEBB'S RUSHING PRODUCTION

Through preseason camp, Vanderbilt offensive coaches said a stable of running backs would be used to replace the rushing void left by the graduation of school record-holder Ralph Webb.

Through the first half of the season, the Commodores have shown a solid corps of running backs.

Three backs – Ke'Shawn Vaughn (R-Jr.), Khari Blasingame (Grad.) and Jamauri Wakefield (R-So.) – have seen extended action early for the Commodores.

All of them have impressed when inserted into the game.

Vaughn, a first-year Commodore contributor who transferred from the University of Illinois, tops the Commodores with 495 rushing yards and five rushing touchdowns.

Vaughn had 56 yards, including a long gain of 43 yards, and a 75-yard receiving touchdown first half against Florida. He missed the second half.

Blasingame, who finished with 88 rushing yards on 10 carries against Tennessee State, has amassed 254 rushing yards and a touchdown on 52 attempts.

Wakefield, who scored on a 7-yard run against Florida, has 237 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 50 carries.

Josh Crawford (R-Jr.) and Ja'Veon Marlow (Fr.) also have seen action. Crawford impressed late in the Nevada win, and has 56 yards on 17 attempts. Marlow had his first collegiate carry vs. Tennessee State.

SIX COMMODORE PLAYERS WORKING TOWARD POSTGRADUATE DEGREES

Six Commodores are enrolled in postseason studies during the fall semester.

The postgraduates are Khari Blasingame (RB), Trey Ellis (WR), Alim Muhammad (DB), Parker Thome (punter), Louis Vecchio (DL) and LaDarius Wiley (safety).

Blasingame, Ellis and Wiley are Vanderbilt graduates; Muhammad, Thome and Vecchio are graduate transfers.

All six of the postgraduates have played an important role for the Commodores early in the season.

Blasingame, a four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient, and Wiley, a two-year starter in the Commodore defensive backfield, is working toward a Master's of Education at the Peabody College.

Ellis, Muhammad, Thome and Vecchio are working toward Master's of Marketing at Vanderbilt's Owen Management School.

VANDERBILT TIGHT END TURNER COCKRELL FACING MELANOMA STRUGGLE

One active Vanderbilt student-athlete is facing a completely different battle than his teammates. Turner Cockrell (R-So., TE) is continuing his struggle with melanoma.

Cockrell's original diagnosis came last November. After surgery and months of treatment at Vanderbilt Medical Center, routine scans this summer spotted more growths on his lungs.

Cockrell spent five days in early mid-September at MD Anderson Medical Center in Houston undergoing the first step of using tumor-infiltrating lymphocytes. The procedure will harvest cells from Cockrell's body as doctors grow them externally before re-injecting them in six-to-eight weeks. The treatment prepares cells to more effectively attack cancerous cells.

Cockrell has been on campus and at home with his family near Atlanta for the last three weeks.

Through much of the last year, Cockrell continued to train with his teammates. In post-game ceremonies after the Commodores' season-opening win over Middle Tennessee, head coach Derek Mason presented Cockrell with the game ball.

FOUR KEY COACHING STAFF ADDITIONS

Head coach Derek Mason added four new coaches to the Vanderbilt staff this year: Jason Tarver (defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach), Aaron Moorehead (wide receivers coach), Shawn Mennenga (special teams coordinator) and Terrence Brown (cornerbacks coach).

The rest of the Dores' coaching staff returns intact: Andy Ludwig (offensive coordinator/tight ends/running backs), C.J. Ah You (defensive line), Gerry Gdowski (quarterbacks), Chris Marve (inside linebackers), Marc Mattioli (defensive secondary) and Cameron Norcross (offensive line).

JASON TARVER will serve as the Dores' new defensive coordinator taking over for Mason, who has served as his own defensive coordinator since 2015. He brings 16 years of NFL experience to Nashville after working with the San Francisco 49ers and Oakland Raiders. In his second tenure with the 49ers, Tarver worked in a variety of roles, most recently as the team's senior defensive assistant. He also coached outside linebackers (2016) and was the senior defensive assistant/linebackers coach (2015). Tarver was also a member of the staff in San Francisco from 2001-10. Prior to rejoining the 49ers, Tarver served as defensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders (2012-14). He served one season at Stanford alongside Mason as the co-defensive coordinator for the Cardinal (2011).

AARON MOOREHEAD joins Vanderbilt after serving as the wide receivers coach at Texas A&M, the same role he will fill for VU. He spent the last three seasons with the Aggies after spending two years at Virginia Tech (2013-14), three at Stanford (2010-12) and beginning his career at New Mexico. At Texas A&M, Moorehead developed Christian Kirk into one of the most explosive playmakers in the Southeastern Conference. At Virginia Tech, Moorehead had three wide receivers post 40-plus catches in the same season twice for the first time in program history. He also spent five seasons in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts, winning Super Bowl XLI.

SHAWN MENNENGA (MEN-in-guh) returns to college football as the Dores' special teams coordinator after spending the last seven seasons as the Cleveland Browns' special teams assistant coach. During his tenure in Cleveland he helped numerous players set NFL and franchise records, including Travis Coons who set an NFL record by making the first 18 field goals of his career. Prior to joining the Browns, Mennenga made six stops at different levels of college football. His last collegiate stop was as the linebackers coach at South Dakota State (2009-10) before making the jump to professional football. He brings three years of head coaching experience to Vanderbilt, having led the program at Culver-Stockton College from 2002-04.

TERRENCE BROWN joins the Commodores' staff as the team's new cornerbacks coach after spending the last three seasons as a defensive graduate assistant for the Washington Huskies. While with the Huskies, he helped transform the team's defense into one of the Pac-12's and nation's best units. Last season, Washington ranked first in the Pac-12 in scoring and total defense while ranking fifth nationally in scoring defense and eighth in total defense. In 2016, Brown worked with consensus All-American safety Budda Baker, second-team All-American cornerback Sidney Jones and Pac-12

Defensive Freshman of the Year Taylor Rapp.

VANDERBILT OPENS WITH 35-7 WIN OVER MIDDLE TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE – Kyle Shurmur threw for 170 yards and two touchdowns as Vanderbilt routed Middle Tennessee 35-7 Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Dayo Odeyingbo returned a fumble 3 yards for a TD, and Khari Blasingame also ran for a score as the Commodores won their second straight opener at Middle Tennessee's expense. They also wrapped a four-game contract with their fourth straight victory against the Conference USA school less than 40 miles away.

The Commodores had six sacks and forced two turnovers.

With a pair of senior quarterbacks starting, this was expected to be a showdown through the air. Vanderbilt stuck to the ground on its opening touchdown drive, and Shurmur had just 28 yards passing in the first half compared to Brent Stockstill who hit 10 of his first 12 passes for 100 yards in the first quarter alone. Shurmur put Vanderbilt up 21-7 midway through the third quarter with a 17-yard TD pass to Chris Pierce on his first career reception. Shurmur set up the TD with a perfect 49-yard pass to Donaven Tennyson two plays earlier, and he hit Kalija Lipscomb on a 28-yarder in the fourth quarter for a 28-7 lead.

VANDERBILT LIMITS NEVADA, NOTCHES 41-10 HOME VICTORY

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt overcame two early red-zone disappointments and bottled up a high-scoring Nevada offense, winning an early-season, non-conference game 41-10 Saturday with a dominant second-half performance.

Carrying on from last week's opener against Middle Tennessee, the Dores (2-0) were rock-solid defensively, holding the Wolf Pack to 124 yards in the first half and 250 overall, a week after coach Jay Norvell's team scored 72 points on 636 yards against Portland State.

But Vanderbilt's failure to score on two promising drives into the red zone to start the game allowed the visitors from the Mountain West Conference to keep things close, tightening the score to 17-10 on a 9-yard Ty Gangi pass to Brendan O'Leary-Orange in the final minute of the first half.

Nevada (1-1) never closed the gap, though, going three-and-out to start the third quarter. Vanderbilt responded with an impressive 11-play, 77-yard drive, draining 6:17 off the clock, ending with a 25-yard Ryley Guay field goal.

NO. 8 NOTRE DAME HOLDS OFF LATE VANDERBILT RALLY TO CLAIM HOME WIN

SOUTH BEND, Ind. -- On a day when No. 8 Notre Dame's offense remained a work in progress, the Fighting Irish got another big play from its defense to hold off upset-minded Vanderbilt in a 22-17 victory Saturday.

Safety Jalen Elliott knocked the ball loose from Vanderbilt receiver Kalija Lipscomb with 1:07 remaining to give Notre Dame a fourth-down stop against the Commodores. Last week, Elliott had a pair of interceptions in 3-0 Notre Dame's win over Ball State.

GAME 3 SEPT. 15, 2018 SOUTH BEND

Kyle Shurmur threw for 326 yards and one touchdown for Vanderbilt (2-1), rallying his team back from a 16-3 halftime deficit. His fourth-and-4 pass from the Notre Dame 31 to Lipscomb, who caught a game-high 11 passes for 89 yards, was grabbed by the receiver at the Irish 11.

But Elliott, with some help from the ground, knocked the ball loose and incomplete.

Vandy managed just a last-play field goal in the first half by Ryley Guay to go into the locker room trailing 16-3.

Vanderbilt finished with 420 yards to 380 for the Irish, who forced three turnovers. Notre Dame, which entered the game 104th in rushing offense at 124.5 yards per game, finished with 245 on the ground.

COMMODORES STRUGGLE AT HOME IN SEC OPENER VS. SOUTH CAROLINA

NASHVILLE - Jake Bentley threw for 261 yards and a touchdown, and the South Carolina Gamecocks bounced back from their hurricane-forced break by defeating Vanderbilt 37-14 Saturday.

The Gamecocks scored the game's first 10 points and then reeled off 20 straight after Vanderbilt got within 17-14 late in the first half.

Vanderbilt (2-2, 0-1) felt pretty confident coming into its SEC opener after coming up just short in a 22-17 loss at No. 8 Notre Dame last week. The Commodores couldn't match Bentley and the Gamecocks who outgained them 149-32 in the first quarter and finished 534-284 in total offense.

Ke'Shawn Vaughn scored on a 2-yard TD run after an interception. Kyle Shurmur added a 2-yard TD pass for Vanderbilt. The Commodores struggled with snapping the ball and even switched right guard Bruno Reagan over to center late. It didn't help with a bad snap on third down and Vanderbilt trying to chip away at the Gamecocks' lead late.

VANDERBILT HOLDS OFF TENNESSEE STATE ON CAMPUS

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt survived a strong effort from crosstown foe Tennessee State, notching a 31-27 home win against the Tigers on Saturday.

Sparked by a pair of Power 5 transfers in quarterback Demry Croft and wide receiver Treon Harris, the Tigers (2-1) rode their pass-happy offense and played opportunistic defense for a 13-10 halftime lead.

Vanderbilt responded with two rapid-fire touchdowns -- a 38-yard pass from Kyle Shurmur to Kalija Lipscomb and a weaving 78-yard run by Ke'Shawn

Vaughn -- in the first six minutes of the second half and looked to be salting away the win. But TSU refused to go quietly, charging back and putting the game in doubt until Croft, a Minnesota transfer, threw incomplete on fourth down, turning the ball over on downs with 1:25 remaining in the game.
