LOUISVILLE, KY. • CARDINAL STADIUM (60,800)

KENTUCKY SEEKS BEST REGULAR SEASON MARK IN 41 YEARS

The 25th edition of the Governor's Cup game will have a little more on the line for Kentucky this week as the Wildcats seek their ninth win, which would be the most in a regular season since 1977, a span of 41 years. The game is set for a 7 p.m. kickoff and will air on ESPN2.

Kentucky shocked Louisville in its last trip to Cardinal Stadium, hitting a field goal in the final seconds for a 41-38 win over the No. 11 Cardinals. The Cats will be the hunted this time as it caps a regular season filled with accomplishments not seen in the program in decades. Coach Mark Stoops will be looking for his second win over the Cardinals.

The UK defense is led by senior pass rusher extraordinaire Josh Allen, who has set a UK single-season record with 13.0 sacks to go along with 17.5 TFL this season. Allen is the most visible player on a unit stacked with seniors, including linebacker Jordan Jones, safeties Mike Edwards and Darius West, cornerbacks Derrick Baity Jr., Chris Westry and Lonnie Johnson Jr., lineman Adrian Middleton and more. Running back Benny Snell Jr, a 1000-yard rusher, wide receiver Lynn Bowden, tight end C.J. Conrad and quarterback Terry Wilson have been key playmakers for the Wildcat offense.

QUICK NOTES

- UK is 8-3, UK's best 11-game start of a season since 1984 (8-3).
- The Cats have a chance to get nine regular season wins for the first time since 1977.
- UK is bowl-eligible for the third straight season.
- At 5-3, UK posted a winning record in the SEC for the first time since 1977.
- UK tied for second in the SEC Eastern Division. Along with the 2016 season, it is the highest finish for the Wildcats since the league split into division in 1992.
- UK has at least four SEC wins in three straight seasons for the first time in school history.
- UK went .500 or better in the SEC for three straight seasons, first time that has been accomplished since 1953-56.
- UK has 13 SEC wins over the last three seasons, tying the school record for most conference victories over a three-year period.
- The current senior class (2015-18) has 27 total wins, the fourth-most since freshmen became eligible to play in 1972-73.
- The Cats ranks 12th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.8 points per game. They also rank 24th nationally and fourth in the SEC in total defense yards per game (328.2), 38th nationally in team passing efficiency defense (120.3 rating points), and 27th in pass yards allowed (190.6).
- UK has allowed 185 points this season, fewest in the first 11 games of a season since 1979 (143).
- UK has allowed more than 24 points in a game just one time this season.
- UK ranks 29th nationally and fourth in the SEC in red zone defense (0.781).
- Five of UK's wins this season have come against teams with winning records -- Florida, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Missouri and Middle Tennessee.
- Senior LB Josh Allen is a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award (most outstanding defensive player), the Dick Butkus Award (top linebacker) and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (best defensive player). He is also a semifinalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy (national defensive player of the year).
- Allen has been a pass rush terror so far this season. He is 11th in the nation and leads the SEC with 17.5 tackles for loss. His 13 quarterback sacks ranks third nationally. Eleven of Allen's 13 sacks on the season have come in the second half, including eight in the fourth quarter and three in the third. He has forced five fumbles, second in the nation.
- In 2018, Allen has set the school record for career sacks (27.5) and single-season sacks (13).

All times ET

- Senior safety Mike Edwards picked off his 10th career pass in the Middle Tennessee game. He ranks eighth nationally in career interceptions. His two career pick-sixes rank third among all active players.
- Junior RB Benny Snell Jr. ranks eighth among active FBS players in career rushing yards with 3,629. He currently ranks second all-time at UK. To become UK's all-time leading rusher, Snell needs 207 yards to break Sonny Collins' mark of 3,835 (1972-75).
- Snell now has 1,205 yards this season, becoming the first player in school history with three 1,000-yard seasons.
- He is also the second player in SEC history to have 1,000 rushing yards and 12 rushing TDs in each of his first three seasons, joining Georgia's Herschel Walker (1980-82).
- Snell Jr. is second in the SEC and ranks 14th nationally in rushing yards per game (109.5). He is eighth in the nation in total rushing yards (1,205).
- Snell is a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back and to for the Maxwell Award for top collegiate player.
- Senior tight end C.J. Conrad is a finalist for the 2018 Pop Warner College Football Award.
- Mark Stoops has 34 wins at Kentucky for sixth place in school history. He is currently on the watch list for the 2018 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award.
- The Wildcats have either matched or exceeded the previous season's win total in all six seasons of the Mark Stoops era. UK is the only school in the nation that has tied or improved its win total every year since 2013.
- Defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach Matt House is a nominee for the Broyles Award for the national assistant coach of the year.
- Offensive line coach John Schlarman is a candidate for the Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award. Schlarman was diagnosed with cancer this summer and has not missed a practice or game while going through chemotherapy.
- The Wildcats got a great emotional boost when sophomore linebacker Josh Paschal returned to action in the Middle Tennessee game. Diagnosed with malignant melanoma on his right foot in July, Paschal recovered from three surgeries and continues to receive monthly immunotherapy treatments.
- Four Wildcats are midseason All-Americans by various media outlets: LB Josh Allen, RB Benny Snell Jr., OG Bunchy Stallings and S Darius West.
- Since 2016, UK has a 10-5 record in close games -- i.e., games decided by one possession (eight points or less). That's been a key factor in spurring the Wildcats to three-straight seasons of bowl eligibility.
- The Cats have appeared in back-to-back bowl games for the first time since 2009 and 2010.

SENIOR SALUTE

- Sixteen players will be playing their final regular season game on Saturday:

41	Josh Allen	OLB, 6-5, 260	Montclair, N.J.

21	Chris Westry	CB, 6-4, 197	Orange Park, Fla.
42	Tristan Yeomans	LS, 6-2, 208	Waycross, Ga.

SCOUTING LOUISVILLE

- Louisville is 2-9 on the season overall and completed ACC play at 0-8.
- Lorenzo Ward is serving as the Cardinals' interim head coach for the final two games of the season.
- Offensively, the Cardinals have used a committee approach with seven players have at least 22 rushing attempts and one touchdown on the ground.
- Quarterback Jawon Pass has thrown for 1,960 yards and eight touchdowns. Malik Cunningham also has seen time at quarterback and is a dangerous runner as well.

- Six different Cardinals have caught 20 or more passes, with three having broken the 400-yard barrier for receiving yards.
- The big playmakers on defense have been defensive ends Tabarius Peterson (6.0 TFL, 2.0 sacks) and Amonte Caban (5.0 TFL, 2.0 sacks). Safety Dee Smith leads the unit in tackles with 65 stops.
- Kicker Blanton Creque has made 88 percent of his field goal attempts this season.

SERIES VS. LOUISVILLE

- The state rivals play for the Governor's Cup trophy.
- The all-time series is tied at 15. Kentucky leads 7-5 in games played in Louisville.
- In Kentucky's last trip to Louisville (2016) the Cats' stormed into Papa John's Cardinal Stadium and secured a thrilling 41-38 last-second victory over the No. 11 Cardinals, ending a five-game losing streak to Louisville in the process.
- At the time, the win was the Cats' first road win over a ranked team since 2002, which also came against Louisville.
- UK kicker Austin MacGinnis nailed the game-winning 47-yard field goal with 12 seconds left.
- Last season, Louisville left Lexington with a 44-17 victory.
- UK running back Benny Snell Jr. rushed for a career-high 211 yards on 29 carries in that game, including two touchdowns.
- In two games vs. the Cardinals he has 262 yards and three touchdowns on 40 carries.
- The modern version of the Governor's Cup rivalry began in 1994 after a 70-year hiatus and has been played each of the past 24 seasons.

THE GOVERNOR'S CUP

- The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by The Kroger Company at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are optic-grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is made of pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish.
- The cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc. The Kroger Company also is involved in supporting academic pursuits at the schools. Kroger is donating $10,000 to each school for each year the game is played. Including this year, Kroger's donations now total $500,000 -- $250,000 to each school.

KENTUCKY-LOUISVILLE CONNECTIONS

- Kentucky has just one player from the city of Louisville on its current roster: WR Will Crum.
- Louisville has three players from the city of Lexington on its roster: QB Clay Bolin, S Jack Fagot and WR Jordan Thomas.
- Louisville co-offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Mike Summers is a Lexington native and played at nearby Georgetown (Ky.) College.
- Summers had two coaching stints at UK: 2010-12 (Run Game Coordinator/Offensive Line); 1980-81 (Graduate Assistant - Offensive Line).

MILESTONES TO WATCH

- Junior RB Benny Snell Jr. has 3,629 career rushing yards and is second all-time on Kentucky's career rushing list. He needs 206 yards to tie Sonny Collins (3,835 from 1972-75) for first.
- Snell has 17 career 100-yard rushing games, which is second on UK's career chart. He needs one more to tie Sonny Collins (1972-75).
- Snell ranks third on UK's career scoring list with 266 points. He needs 40 points to move past Lones Seiber (305) for second place.
- Senior WR Dorian Baker has 99 career receptions and needs just one more to become the 16th player to reach 100 for his UK career. He needs 27 to crack UK's career top 10 list.
- Baker has 1,127 career receiving yards, ranking 25th in school history. He needs 73 yards to tie Steve Johnson (1,200 from 2006-07) for 24th.
- Senior TE C.J. Conrad counts 12 touchdowns among his 77 career receptions, giving him a scoring grab once in every 6.4 catches. He needs 65 yards to be the 28th player to reach 1,000.
- Senior S Mike Edwards has 10 career interceptions. He's now tied for fourth with Larry Carter (1977-79), Buzz Burnam (1970-72) and Marcus McClinton (2004-08). One more pickoff would tie him for second in school history. He also ranks eighth among active players in career INT.
- Edwards has 311 career tackles. He is the 19th member of that exclusive club.
- Senior LB Josh Allen has 27.5 career sacks, UK's all-time career record. He passed Oliver Barnett with a pair of sacks vs. Middle Tennessee.
- Allen has 13 sacks this season, surpassing the UK single-season record of 12 set by Dennis Johnson in 2001.
- Senior CB Derrick Baity Jr. has 24 career pass breakups and needs two more to match Leonard Burress (2000-03), Eric Kelly (1997-2000) and Van Hiles (1993-96) for third on UK's career list.

A KENTUCKY WIN WOULD...

- Improve Kentucky to 9-3, the best regular season mark since 1977 (10-1).
- Be just the second time the Cats have won nine regular-season games in the past 68 years, also 1977 (10-1).
- Give the current senior class (2015-18) the most wins (28) in their career since the class from (2007-10) won 28. The class from 2006-2009 won 30 total games.

CATS RANKED IN NATIONAL POLLS, CFB PLAYOFF POLL

- Kentucky entered the national polls on Sept. 23 after defeating Mississippi State. It is the first time the Cats have been ranked since the 2007 season.
- The Cats now are No. 17 in the Associated Press poll and No. 18 in the coaches' poll.
- UK has been ranked nine consecutive weeks for the first time since the 1977 team appeared in the polls for 10 consecutive weeks from Oct. 3 through the final AP poll of the season on Jan. 3, 1978.
- The Cats were ranked ninth in the first College Football Playoff poll released on Oct. 30 and should remain in the top 20 this week.

ALLEN A FINALIST, SEMIFINALIST FOR FIVE NATIONAL AWARDS

- Senior linebacker Josh Allen has been named a finalist for the Butkus Award (nation's best linebacker), the Chuck Bednarik Award (defensive player of the year) and the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (defensive player of the year). He's also a semifinalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year and the Lott IMPACT Trophy (defensive player of the year).
- Allen has been a terror on defense the entire season as he leads the SEC and ranks third nationally in sacks (13.0) and leads the SEC and ranks 11th nationally in tackles for loss (17.5). He also ranks second nationally in forced fumbles (five).
- Broke Kentucky single-season and career records for sacks
- First-Team Mid-Season All-America by The Associated Press, ESPN.com, Pro Football Focus and The Athletic
- Four times SEC Defensive Player of the Week this season, including two wins he clinched with a sack, fumble, and UK recovery on the final possession
- Leads UK with 80 total tackles and has five QB hurries, four pass breakups and two fumble recoveries this season
- Helped lead UK to its best regular-season record in 34 years and first winning SEC record in 41 years

PASCHAL OVERCOMES CANCER, RETURNS TO THE FIELD

- In an extremely emotional moment for everyone associated with Kentucky football, sophomore linebacker Josh Paschal returned to action against Middle Tennessee.
- In July, Paschal was diagnosed with malignant melanoma on the bottom of his right foot. He underwent three surgeries, followed by ongoing monthly immunotherapy treatments.

TRACKING KENTUCKY'S OPPONENTS

- Paschal recovered sufficiently to play against Middle Tennessee. He started the game and saw occasional action throughout.
• In the second quarter, he made a tackle on a third down play that forced a punt.

STOOPS NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR GEORGE MUNGER COACH OF THE YEAR AND ON WATCH LIST FOR PAUL "BEAR" BRYANT COACH OF THE YEAR

- Mark Stoops has led Kentucky to a 8-3 record this season and the team's first national rankings (currently No. 17 AP, No. 18 Coaches) since the 2007 season.
• Kentucky finished tied for second in the SEC Eastern Division.
• The Paul "Bear" Bryan Coach of the Year winner will be announced live on Jan. 9, 2019 during the awards dinner and ceremony at the Post Oak Hotel in Houston.

IN OUR LAST GAME...

- On Senior Day, Kentucky got off to a fast start on its way to a 34-23 victory over a seven-win Middle Tennessee squad.
• The win gave UK eight regular-season wins for the first time since 1984.
• Senior safety Mike Edwards returned an interception 66 yards for a touchdown on the Blue Raiders' first possession of the game.

CATS CAN COME FROM BEHIND, WIN AT THE WIRE

- Based in the Horse Capital of the World, everyone here knows a great horse is one that can come from behind or win at the wire. The Kentucky football team has had those characteristics under Coach Mark Stoops.
• Since the beginning of the 2016 season, UK has shown it can win at the wire with a 10-5 record (66.7 percent) in games decided by one possession -- i.e., eight points -- or less.

Tennessee	Josh Allen, George Asafo-Adjei, C.J. Conrad, Mike Edwards
Middle Tennessee	Josh Allen, George Asafo-Adjei, C.J. Conrad, Mike Edwards
Louisville	TBD

Missouri (behind by 11). That’s the most 10-point comebacks for any coach in school history, surpassing eight such games by Rich Brooks from 2003-09.

FOUR WILDCATS EARN MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICA HONORS

- Senior linebacker Josh Allen, junior running back Benny Snell Jr., senior offensive guard Bunchy Stallings and senior safety Darius West earned midseason All-America honors from various media outlets.
- Allen earned first-team honors from the Associated Press, ESPN.com, Pro Football Focus and The Athletic.
- Snell earned second-team honors from the AP and The Athletic.
- Stallings earned second-team honors by ESPN and The Athletic.
- West was a second-team midseason All-America choice by The Athletic.

OFFENSE NOTES

- “Balance” has been the hallmark of the Kentucky offense the last two seasons under Eddie Gran, UK assistant head coach for offense.
- The Wildcats have rushed for more than 2,000 yards and passed for more than 2,000 yards in each of the previous two campaigns, the first time in school history that UK has done so in back-to-back seasons.

BIG PLAYS SPUR KENTUCKY OFFENSE

- Before the season, UK assistant head coach for offense Eddie Gran noted the need for more big plays, and to this point, the Wildcats have done just that.
- In the first 11 games of the 2017 season, UK had 11 offensive touchdown plays of at least 20 yards in length. This year, the Cats have struck for 14 TDs of at least 20 yards.
- When you move the benchmark to 25-yard touchdowns, the contrast increases significantly. In the first 11 games of 2017, UK had just four touchdown plays of at least 25 yards in length. In 2018, the Cats have nine TDs of 25+ yards.

REACHING THE CENTURY MARK, TIMES TWO

- UK is one of just 14 teams in FBS to have a pair of 100-yard rushers in two separate games this season.
- Against Florida, Benny Snell Jr. (175) and Terry Wilson (105) each topped the century mark, while Snell (125) and A.J. Rose (104) did so against Central Michigan.
- The other 13 schools to accomplish the feat include Mississippi State, Louisiana, Pittsburgh, Connecticut and Wyoming (three times), Appalachian State (2), Arizona (2), Boston College (2), Clemson (2), Illinois (2), Maryland (2), Oregon (2), Troy (2).

Quarterbacks

- Starting the season, quarterbacks coach Darin Hinshaw had a big challenge, as no quarterback on the roster had thrown a pass in a major-college game.
- Junior-college transfer Terry Wilson (sophomore eligibility) won the starting job and has started every game this season, completing 67.0 percent of his passes for 1,507 yards and eight touchdowns. He’s also dangerous as a runner with 439 yards and three TDs. Wilson, who redshirted as a freshman at Oregon, threw for 2,133 yards and 26 touchdowns last season in juco.
- Wilson was the “Manning Quarterback of the Week” after accounting for 256 yards total offense and three touchdowns (one rushing, two passing) in the win at Florida.

EDDIE GRAN RUSHING HISTORY

Table with 4 columns: SEASON, SCHOOL, TEAM RUSHING YDS/GM, 1000-YARD RUSHER. Lists Eddie Gran's rushing stats from 1995 to 2018.

- Sophomore Gunnar Hoak has seen action in four games. He saw his first UK action vs. Central Michigan, entering the game in the second quarter and directing a touchdown drive just before halftime, capped by his 24-yard TD toss to David Bouvier. He also threw a touchdown pass in the win over Murray State.
• Redshirt freshman Danny Clark displayed a strong arm in practice last season and scored a two-yard rushing touchdown on his first career rushing attempt in the Murray State game. He also brief action in the Missouri game.
• The quarterbacks were forced to replace Stephen Johnson, a tenacious leader who posted a 14-10 record as the primary QB and led UK to two bowl games in the last two seasons.

Most Rushing Yards By Quarterback, Single Season, School History

PART OF THE GRAN-D DESIGN

- Since taking over the Kentucky running game upon his arrival in 2016, Eddie Gran has fashioned the Cats into one of the more physical and prolific rushing attacks not only in the SEC, but in the country. The Cats averaged 234.2 rushing yards per game in 2016, Gran's first in Lexington and then 161.7 yards per game last season. Those numbers are significant in that only twice in the previous 20 seasons had a UK offense rushed for more than 162 yards per game (2015 and 2009) and not for more than 200 per game since 1993 (210.5).
• Gran has mentored the likes of Benny Snell Jr. and Stanley "Boom" Williams at Kentucky, Chris Thompson, Devonta Freeman and James Wilder Jr. (Florida State), Montario Hardesty (Tennessee), Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Kenny Irons and Rudi Johnson (Auburn) and Deuce McAllister (Ole Miss). During his 23 seasons as a running backs coach he's spent 20 of those against top-shelf competition in the SEC and Atlantic Coast Conference, making the numbers even more impressive.
• Some of the more compelling stats from Gran's 23 seasons at Ole Miss (1995-98), Auburn (1999-2008), Tennessee (2009), Florida State (2010-12), Cincinnati (2013-15) and Kentucky:
• 17 seasons averaging at least 150.0 rushing yards per game
• 10 seasons averaging at least 172.0 rushing yards per game
• 11 individual 1,000-yard rushers, including Benny Snell Jr. this season
• Nine seasons with a running back who scored at least 10 rushing touchdowns

- Only once has his running attack averaged less than 100.0 yards per game
- Only twice has his running attack averaged less than 125.0 yards per game

Running Backs

- The UK backfield is headlined by Benny Snell Jr.
- Snell is averaging 109.5 yards per game, which is second in the SEC and 14th in the nation.
- Snell (125 yards) and sophomore A.J. Rose (104) each surpassed the century mark and scored two touchdowns vs. Central Michigan. It was a career-high performance for Rose, who scored from 55 yards away on his first carry of the season. Rose has run for 264 yards this season with four touchdowns and is averaging 5.5 yards per carry.
- Snell (175) and QB Terry Wilson (105) each surpassed the century mark at Florida, giving UK back-to-back games with 100-yard rushers for the first time since 1979.
- Snell is the first player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in three seasons. He is already second in school history with 3,629 career yards and owns the school record for rushing TDs and total touchdowns with 44.

Tight Ends

- The tight end position is highlighted by All-SEC tight end C.J. Conrad. He is second on the team this season with 27 receptions. He has now totaled 77 receptions for 935 yards and 12 TDs in his UK career.
- Conrad is joined by junior Justin Rigg (6-6, 257), who is an excellent blocker and is also a pass-catching threat.

CONRAD AMONG TOP UK TIGHT ENDS

- Senior tight end C.J. Conrad has proven to be one of the most dangerous players at his position in the country and continues to move up the UK career charts in his final season.
- Conrad needs 65 yards to become the 28th Wildcat to chart 1,000 career receiving yards.

CONRAD NAMED FINALIST FOR 2018 POP WARNER COLLEGE FOOTBALL AWARD

- Conrad was named a finalist for the 2018 Pop Warner Little Scholars, the nation's oldest youth football organization, celebrating its 90th season.
- The Pop Warner National College Football Award recognizes a college graduating senior who has made a difference on the field, in the classroom and in his community, and serves as a role model to Pop Warner's young student-athletes.
- Prior to the 2018 season, Conrad created a program called "Tuesdays with C.J." where he visits the Kentucky Children's Hospital each Tuesday to hang out with the patients and brighten their day.
- Conrad was chosen to participate in a one-week service trip to the Dominican Republic in 2017 where he interacted with residents of impoverished communities, visited an orphanage, constructed park benches in a sugar cane village, distributed food to the hungry, visited a nursing home and spent time with special needs children at a local daycare.
- Conrad has also been a guest speaker at several local schools and organizations and in his hometown of LaGrange, Ohio, talking about leadership. Conrad's mission is to educate and help provide opportunities to young children from small towns like himself, the chance to succeed on and off the field by using the game of football.

- In the classroom, Conrad, a member of the 2017 SEC Academic Honor Roll and Dean's List, is on track to graduate in December with a degree in communications.

Wide Receivers

- The Kentucky wide receivers are somewhat younger this season after the departure of four key contributors, but a pair of veterans and several gifted youngsters give UK the ability to have a capable receiving corps.
- It was bad news at the time, of course, but senior Dorian Baker's season-ending injury in August, 2017, has enabled him to return for a fifth year. Baker has caught 99 passes for 1,127 yards and six touchdowns during his career.
- Sophomore Lynn Bowden leads the team with 56 catches, ranking fifth in the SEC in receptions per game. He has been on a roll lately, with 26 receptions in the past four games. He has a pair of career-long 54-yard scoring strikes, on the road at Florida and Texas A&M.
- Bowden's 56 receptions are the most for a Wildcat since Randall Cobb snagged 84 in 2010.
- Bowden's 13 catches vs. Missouri tie for the second-most catches in a single game in school history.

Most Receptions By A Sophomore, School History

66 - Derek Abney (2001)
59 - Anthony White (1997)
56 - Lynn Bowden Jr. (2018)
55 - Dorian Baker (2015)

Most Receiving Yards By A Sophomore, School History

822 - Dicky Lyons, Jr. (2006)
741 - Derek Abney (2001)
716 - Derek Smith (2000)
694 - Garrett Johnson (2015)
608 - Dorian Baker (2015)
575 - Lynn Bowden Jr. (2018)

BOWDEN CATCHING THE MOST

- Sophomore WR Lynn Bowden currently has 56 receptions, while the team has completed a total of 168 passes. That means Bowden has accounted for 30.0 percent of the team's receptions.
- Among seasons with at least 100 completed passes, Bowden would have the third-highest percentage of team receptions in school history.

Highest Percentage Of Total Team Receptions, Single Season (Min. 100 Comp.)

1. 41.7 Felix Wilson, 1978 (43 receptions of 103 completions)

2. 36.2 Rick Kestner, 1964 (42 receptions of 116 completions)

3. 30.0 Lynn Bowden, 2018 (56 receptions of 168 completions)

- David Bouvier, a fifth-year senior who had caught only one pass entering this season, has emerged as a clutch receiver. Averaging 13.5 per catch, he had key TD receptions in the wins over Central Michigan and Florida, then had two vital catches on the game-winning drive at Missouri.
- Sophomore receivers Josh Ali and Isaiah Epps have caught eight and seven passes, respectively.
- Sophomore Zy'Aire Hughes scored a 49-yard touchdown on his first career offensive touch, ironically not being credited with a catch on the play after Benny Snell Jr. took the direct snap, passed to quarterback Terry Wilson, who latered to Hughes.

Offensive Line

SCHLARMAN NOMINATED FOR ORANGE BOWL-FWAA COURAGE AWARD

- John Schlarman is a nominee for the 2018 Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award. Schlarman was diagnosed with an undisclosed cancer this summer and has coached through chemotherapy treatments. He has not missed a practice or game this season.
- Schlarman was a four-year starter with the Wildcats from 1994-97.
- Schlarman is in his sixth season at Kentucky. His O-line boasts four returning starters who have helped Benny Snell Jr., become the first player in school history with 1,000 rushing yards in three consecutive seasons.
- Sophomore Drake Jackson, out of Woodford County High School, took over the center position midway in the 2017 season and has been a fixture ever since.
- Senior Bunchy Stallings is a two-year starter in the offensive line, currently stationed at right guard. He was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week after the wins against Florida and Mississippi State and is an All-America candidate.
- Senior George Asafa-Adjei (6-5, 315) has started every game at right tackle and was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week after the wins over South Carolina and Vanderbilt.
- The Wildcats got a bad break during August practice when junior Landon Young, a returning starter at left tackle, sustained a knee injury and is out for the season. E.J. Price has taken over as the starter. It is Price's first action at UK after sitting out a year via transfer from Southern California.
- Junior Logan Stenberg (6-6, 320) is in his second season as the starter at left guard.

- Sophomores Mason Wolfe and Luke Fortner have provided the reserve help at the center/guard positions.

UK OFFENSIVE LINE RECOGNIZED BY JOE MOORE AWARD

- The offensive line was on the midseason honor roll for the Joe Moore Award.
- The Wildcats’ running game is averaging 188.7 yards per game. Junior running back Benny Snell Jr. continues to rewrite the record book and now sits second on UK’s all-time rushing list with 3,629 yards. This season, he has rushed for 1,205 yards and 12 touchdowns in 11 games for a 109.5 yards-per-game average (14th nationally).

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

- Special teams coordinator Dean Hood brings a wealth of knowledge to the program as he is in his 31st year of college coaching.
- Special teams played a huge role in the win at Missouri. Darius West blocked a field in the first quarter. In the fourth quarter, then Lynn Bowden’s 67-yard punt return for a touchdown sparked UK’s comeback win. It was Bowden’s first collegiate punt return.
- Senior kicker Miles Butler has made 5 of 9 field goals this season and all 29 extra points.
- True freshman Chance Poore took over as the starting kicker beginning with the Missouri game. He has made 2-of-4 field goal attempts and all three extra-point tries. He was the No. 1 punter/kicker in the 2018 class by ProKicker.com.
- For the second-consecutive season, UK has an Australian transplant handling the punting duties. Max Duffy has done very well, ranking third in the SEC and 10th nationally with a 44.8-yard average. Nearly half of his punts, 25 of 51, have been within the opponent 20-yard line, yet he also has only two touchbacks. He arrived in the United States as an early enrollee in January and used the off-season to learn American football rules, how to say “ya’ll” and how to put on his pads correctly. Another Aussie, Matt Panton, was UK’s punter in 2017. Duffy is currently on the watch list for the Ray Guy Award given annually to the nation’s top punter.
- Hood’s special teams blocked three kicks in 2017, two of which were crucial plays in Wildcat wins. UK special teams did not allow any blocked kicks nor allow a punt or kickoff return for a touchdown.
- Junior Grant McKinniss, the starting punter in 2016, handles the kickoff duties and has 20 touchbacks on the season.
- Senior Tristan Yeomans returns to handle the long snapping for punts, while junior Blake Best is the snapper for field goals and PATs.
- The kickoff return specialist, Lynn Bowden Jr., set UK records last season for most

- Bowden returned a 67-yard punt for a TD vs. Missouri, his first punt return of his career.
- Senior David Bouvier has also been handling punt returns and is averaging 5.8 per return.

DUFFY IS SPECIAL

- First-year punter Max Duffy has been sensational this season, setting two school records and remaining on pace to set a third.
- The Australian punter is averaging 44.8 yards per punt, which ranks 10th nationally and third in the SEC. If he continues on this pace he has a chance to set the UK single-season record for best average yards per punt. He has already met the minimum number requirement of 30 punts:

- 45.58 - Glenn Pakulak (2002)
- 45.23 - Tim Masthay (2008)
- *44.78 - Max Duffy (2018)
- 44.61 - Paul Calhoun (1984)
- 44.50 - Glenn Pakulak (2001)

DEFENSE NOTES

HOUSE NOMINATED FOR 2018 BROYLES AWARD

- Defensive coordinator Matt House has been chosen as one of the 53 nominees for the 2018 Broyles Award, which honors college football’s top assistant coaches.
- The 53 nominees in this year’s class were selected from approximately 1,500 assistant coaches representing 130 Division I-programs across the country. The Broyles Award selection process includes the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), a college football hall-of-fame selection committee and current college head coaches.
- House, who is in his third season at UK and second as defensive coordinator, directs a UK defense that ranks 12th nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 16.8 points per game. The defense also ranks 24th nationally and fourth in the SEC in total defense yards per game (327.3), 27th in passing yards allowed (190.6) and 38th nationally in team passing efficiency defense (112.4).
- UK has allowed 185 points this season, fewest in the first 11 games of a season since 1979 (143 points in 11 games).

Linebackers

- First-year outside linebackers coach Brad White inherited one of the nation’s top pass rushers, Josh Allen, when he came on board in the spring.
- Allen is a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Bednarik Award and the Butkus Award (National Linebacker of the Year) and is a semifinalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and for the Lott IMPACT Trophy as National Defensive Player of the Year.

- Allen has been a force on the outside, improving his numbers each season even as he sees more and more attention from opponents. The senior could have left for the NFL Draft but decided to come back for his final year, giving the Cats one of scariest pass rushers in the country.
- Allen is having a sensational senior season, totaling 80 tackles, 17.5 for loss, 13.0 sacks, and he caused a fumble that UK returned for a touchdown to clinch the win over Florida. He also caused a fumble on Vanderbilt's final possession to preserve the win over the Commodores.
- Weakside linebacker Jordan Jones has 64 tackles, including 4.0 for loss, and had four pass breakups vs. Murray State. He missed four games last season due to injury but is looking to return to his 2016 form when he totaled 109 tackles and earned All-SEC honors.

- Sophomore Jamar "Boogie" Watson started the opener at strongside linebacker and had a career-high six tackles, along with a pass breakup. He has five sacks on the season.
- Junior middle linebacker Kash Daniel is the successor to the graduated Courtney Love after a two-year apprenticeship. Daniel has 68 tackles, including a career-high 11 in wins over Central Michigan, Florida and Vanderbilt.
- Seeing reserve action at the inside linebacker posts are redshirt freshman Jamin Davis (eight tackles, one interception) and true freshmen DeAndre Square (26 tackles, 2.5 TFL, 1 FF) and Chris Oats (19 tackles, 2.0 TFL, FF, FR).
- Oats made his first career start at Texas A&M, notching his first career sack in the process.
- Oats forced and recovered a fumble on the same play at Tennessee.

Secondary

- Coach Steve Clinkscale is in his third season as the secondary coach and is joined by Dean Hood, who is sliding from linebackers to work with the defensive backs. The pair has nine experienced players to utilize, which gives UK one of the deepest units in the SEC at cornerback and safety.

- UK opponents have completed only 58.8 percent of their passes this season and the Wildcats rank 38th in the nation in pass efficiency defense.
- Senior safety Mike Edwards has earned a reputation as one of the league's top defensive backs. He was first-team All-SEC as a junior and second-team All-SEC as a sophomore. He flirted with declaring for the NFL Draft a year early but returned or 2018.
- Edwards has 10 career interceptions, fourth in school history, and two picks this season. Edwards has 311 career tackles. He is the 19th player overall and just the second defensive back in school history to accomplish that feat.

Most Career INTs Among Active SEC Players

- 10 Mike Edwards, Kentucky
- 8 Mark McLaurin, Mississippi State
- 8 Greedy Williams, LSU

Most Career Passes Defended Among Active SEC Players

- 33 Mike Edwards, Kentucky
- 30 Derrick Baity, Kentucky
- 30 Deandre Baker, Georgia

- Senior Darius West has six pass breakups and three interceptions.
- West is third on the team in tackles with 74 and had a game-tying 40-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the closing minutes of regulation at Texas A&M. He also had an interception in that game.
- Sophomore Davonte Robinson is a backup safety. He has 35 tackles this season and, on the final play of the game, returned a fumble 30 yards for a touchdown at Florida. He had a career-high tackles in back-to-back games with seven vs. Vanderbilt and nine vs. Georgia.
- Seniors Derrick Baity Jr. and Chris Westry are back together for a final season as two of the most experienced players in the SEC. The two have played in 96 combined games with 73 starts and snatched nine interceptions. Both players have more than 100 career tackles and at least 13 pass breakups. Baity was named SEC co-Defensive Player of the Week after having a hand in three turnovers in the second half of the Cats' 23-13 road win at South Carolina last season.
- Junior Jordan Griffin has been a luxury for the Cats the past two seasons, a player capable of starting who gave the defense four legitimate SEC cornerbacks against offenses increasingly deploying more receivers. Griffin has two pass breakups this season.
- Junior college transfer Lonnie Johnson

Jr. showed big-time playmaking ability at cornerback in his first season at UK with 41 total tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and five pass breakups. He also blocked an extra point against Eastern Kentucky and started the final five games of the season. With a year of experience he is considered an important piece of the defensive puzzle in 2018.

- Freshman Tyrell Ajian has seen action as a sixth DB and had a crucial interception and pass breakup in the win over Mississippi State.

Defensive Line

- In his second season on the UK staff defensive line, coach Derrick LeBlanc likes what he sees this season. Despite not having a senior starter in 2017 the Cats held six opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, the first time a UK defense had done that since 1949.
- UK has played eight down linemen so far this season, the best depth the Wildcats have had on the front line in many years.
- Senior Adrian Middleton is in his third season as the starting defensive tackle. He has 76 tackles, including 12.0 for loss, during his career.
- Junior T.J. Carter really came on the second half of the 2017 season with three tackles for loss and three sacks over the final five games of the regular season. The defensive end started 12 games and recorded 18.0 tackles to go along with the tackles for loss and sacks. He also had two quarterback hurries and a pass breakup.
- The towering presence on the UK defensive line is Calvin Taylor Jr., who stands 6-foot-9. The junior earned his first start against Northwestern in the Music City Bowl. This season, he has 21 tackles and four for loss, including a sack.
- Senior Tymere Dubose is part of the Youngstown-Lexington pipeline. He is having the best season of his career as a senior, totaling 10 tackles, including 1.5 for loss.
- Sophomore nose guard Quinton Bohanna opened some eyes in 2017 as a true freshman, stepping in and playing very well without having any collegiate experience. The 340-pounder started the final five games of the season and was credited with 14 tackles on the year.

- He forced and recovered a game-changing, fourth quarter fumble in this season's win over Vanderbilt. He added a sack in the win over Middle Tennessee.
- Junior Phil Hoskins and sophomore Kordell Looney provide much-needed depth on the interior of the line. Hoskins has sacks on the road at Florida and Texas A&M and he leads the UK D-Linemen with 20 total tackles.

DEPTH CHARGE IN THE D-LINE

- A key factor of the Kentucky defense this season has been the improved depth in the down lineman positions – noseguard, tackle and end -- in UK's 3-4 defense.
- Eight Wildcats have seen significant action this season in the D-Line – noseguards Quinton Bohanna, Tymere Dubose and Marquan McCall; tackles Adrian Middleton and Phil Hoskins; and ends Calvin Taylor, Kordell Looney and T.J. Carter. A year ago, UK used fewer players and the starters played significantly more snaps.
- The ability to keep a fresher rotation in the game is paying off significantly. This year's D-Line has combined for 20 tackles for loss, including 8.5 quarterback sacks, to this point of the season. For the entire season last year, the interior linemen had 11 TFL and five sacks.

LIVING ON THE EDGE

- Kentucky pass rushing aficionado Josh Allen has taken up residence in opposing quarterbacks' minds for several years but now has a young protege who is looking to be the Cats' next great edge rusher.
- Allen has 27.5 sacks and 37.0 tackles for loss in 48 career games. He also has forced 11 fumbles, picked off a pass and registered 12 quarterback hurries. His 11 forced fumbles ties the UK career record shared with Danny Trevathan (2008-11).
- This season, Allen has totaled 80 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss, 13.0 sacks, five QB hurries, five forced fumbles, four pass break-ups and two fumbles recovered. He leads the SEC and is 11th nationally in TFL per game.
- He leads the SEC with 13.0 sacks, which is good for third nationally.
- His five forced fumbles is second in the nation. His two fumble recoveries is tied for the most in the SEC and 17th-most nationally.
- Allen is just the only FBS player since 2000 to have at least 56 tackles, 14.5 tackles for loss, 10 sacks, four passes defended and five forced fumbles.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

- Josh Allen's sacks this season have set the tone for the defense.
- Eleven of Allen's 13 sacks have come in the second half, including eight in the fourth quarter and three in the third.
- Of the opponents' 13 offensive drives in which Josh Allen has registered a sack, the opponents have had a total of 77 plays run for 201 yards of total offense, just 2.6 yards per play. Those 13 drives resulted in zero points scored, seven punts, and four turnovers. Here's a breakdown:

- > vs. Central Michigan: 3 plays, -4 yards, punt
- > at Florida: 3 plays, 24 yards, turnover (fumble) returned for a touchdown
- > vs. Mississippi State: 3 plays, -4 yards, punt
- > vs. South Carolina: 3 plays, 0 yards, punt
- > vs. South Carolina: 20 plays, 71 yards, turnover (interception)
- > vs. South Carolina: 8 plays, 27 yards, turnover on downs
- > vs. Vanderbilt: 7 plays, 17 yards, punt
- > vs. Vanderbilt: 6 plays, 30 yards, turnover (fumble)
- > at Missouri: 3 plays, -6 yards, punt
- > at Missouri: 3 plays, -2 yards, punt
- > at Tennessee: 3 plays, -8 yards, punt
- > at MTSU: 4 plays, 2 yards, turnover on downs
- > at MTSU: 11 plays, 54 yards, turnover on downs

BENNY IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Throughout his career, Benny Snell Jr. has continued to etch his name into the Kentucky record books. Here's a snapshot of his records in each of his three seasons:

FRESHMAN:

- In 2016, earned All-SEC Freshman honors after rushing a team-high 186 times for 1,091 yards and 13 touchdowns, averaging 5.9 yards per carry
- The 1,091 rushing yards is a school record for most rushing yards by a freshman, besting Moe Williams who had 928 rushing yards as a freshman in 1993
- Had 13 rushing touchdowns, breaking Randall Cobb (2008)'s record for most rushing TDs by a UK freshman (7) and most total touchdowns (9)
- Had the most rushing TDs in a single season (13) since Artose Pinner had 13 in 2002
- With 152 yards against Austin Peay, he eclipsed 100 yards on the ground for the fifth time, setting the school's freshman record for most 100-yard rushing games in a season
- First UK player with a rushing touchdown in three consecutive games since Derrick Locke in 2010 and first freshman with a rushing touchdown in three consecutive games since Randall Cobb in 2008
- First freshman in school history to have 100 rushing yards and a rushing touchdown in three consecutive games

- His career-high 192 yards rushing vs. Mizzou set a school record for most rushing yards by a freshman in a single game ... Previous high was Derick Logan's 186 yards against Mississippi State on Nov. 9, 1996
- The 192 rushing yards tied for the ninth most in a single game in school history and the most since Rafael Little rushed for 198 yards vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 12, 2005
- His 38 carries vs. Mizzou were the most since Derick Logan had 41 attempts vs. Mississippi State in 1996
- His five rushing TDs in the first four games of 2016 were the most by a UK player in his first four games of his freshman season in school history
- Had one of the best rushing touchdown-to-carry ratios by any Kentucky player since rushing TDs were tracked at UK beginning in 1949 (min. 100 career carries)
- Finished ninth in the SEC in total rushing yards per game (83.9)

SOPHOMORE:

- In 2017, earned All-SEC First Team honors after totaling 1,333 total rushing yards and 19 TDs
- Set the UK career record for rushing TDs (32)
- Became the first player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons
- Set the school record for most rushing yards by a sophomore
- Became just the third player in SEC history to have at least 1,000 rushing yards and at least 13 rushing touchdowns in both his freshman and sophomore seasons, joining Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1980-1981) and Knowshon Moreno (Georgia, 2007-2008)
- Set school record for most total touchdowns in a season in 2017 (19), most rushing touchdowns in a season (19) and most points in a season (116)
- Had seven 100-yard games (tied for second in school history)
- Finished third in the SEC in total rushing yards and rushing yards per game (102.5)

JUNIOR (Career charts on page 41):

- Second in the SEC and ranks eighth nationally in total rushing yards (1,205)
- Second in the SEC and ranks 14th nationally in rushing yards per game (109.5)
- Third in the SEC and ranks 17th nationally in rushing TDs (12)
- Second in the SEC and 35th nationally in all-purpose yards per game (119.1)
- Fourth in the SEC and 25th nationally in total TDs (12)
- Ranks second on UK's career rushing list with 3,629 yards
- Only the fifth player in SEC history to reach 2,400 career yards prior to his junior season
- School record for career rushing touchdowns and career total touchdowns with 44

- Ranks third on UK's career scoring list with 266 points
- Ranks second on UK's career rushing attempts list with 693
- Has 17 100-yard games in his career which ranks second in school history ... Five already this season
- Kentucky is 14-3 when Snell rushes for at least 100 yards
- Players in SEC history with at least 1,000 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns in each of their first three seasons: Herschel Walker, Benny Snell Jr.

#SNELLYEAH

- Benny Snell Jr., has earned a reputation as one of the nation's fiercest runners, flashing the speed to take it the house but also an ability and willingness to run through defenders for the touch yardage that moves the chains. The proof is in the YAC (yards after contact):
- Snell accumulated 897 rushing yards after contact in his his first two seasons, which includes yardage lost on negative rush plays.
- The total ranked eighth nationally in 2017 according to Pro Football Focus.
- Snell leads all returning SEC running backs with 44 missed tackles forced on his rushing attempts, 14 more than Alabama's Damien Harris and Mississippi State's Aeris Williams.
- Snell is a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award for the nation's top running back and the Maxwell Award for the College Player of the Year.

QUICKEST TO 3,000

- Benny Snell Jr., has 3,629 career rushing yards through 35 career games with at least one rushing attempt. He's the quickest player in school history to reach 3,000 career rushing yards. Moe Williams reached 3,000 career rushing yards in his 32nd game with a rushing attempt and Sonny Collins reached 3,000 career rushing yards in his 33rd game with a rushing attempt.
- He's the fifth SEC player since 2000 to reach 3,000 career rushing yards within their first 30 career games with a rushing attempt.

DOUBLE DIPPING

- Heading into the 2018 season there are only seven schools in FBS/Division I that maintain at least two straight seasons of playing in a bowl game and the basketball program earning a bid to the NCAA men's basketball tournament. Kentucky has done so in consecutive years after making the TaxSlayer Bowl and Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl:

- West Virginia - 4
- Miami (Fla.) - 3
- Michigan - 3
- KENTUCKY - 2
- Florida State - 2
- Kansas State - 2
- Virginia Tech - 2

SNAP TO IT

- Kentucky entered the season without any quarterback on its roster having ever stepped on the playing field during a game, as none of the Cats' top four projected quarterbacks have taken an FBS snap. Furthermore, this is the first time since 2000 that the Cats open a season without a quarterback having thrown a single pass.
- The Cats are one of the few programs in the country in that position this season, with Minnesota and Nebraska also opening the year without any experience. For Kentucky, returnees Danny Clark, Gunnar Hoak and Walker Wood all watched the 2017 season, while signee Terry Wilson came from junior college after a redshirt season at Oregon. Nebraska will have a transfer with FBS experience on its roster but he is sitting out as a transfer, while Minnesota has only freshmen and redshirt freshmen.

COMEBACK CATS

The Cats' never-say-die attitude and dedication to mental toughness has shined in recent seasons, including the 2018 season opener vs. Central Michigan when they erased a 17-7 deficit on the way to a 35-20 victory and a 14-3 fourth quarter deficit at Missouri. Since 2014, UK has more wins than any SEC program when trailing by at least 10 points at some point during the game.

9 - KENTUCKY
7 - South Carolina, Tennessee

HELLO, I'M NEW HERE

Although Kentucky is one of the more experienced teams in the country this season a new wave of talent is on the way, with 29 players making their Wildcat debut in the 2018.

- Offense: TE Brendan Bates, WR Brayden Berezowitz, QB Danny Clark, WR Allen Dailey Jr., OL Sebastien Dolcine, OL Austin Dotson, WR Akeem Hayes, QB Gunnar Hoak, OL Darian Kinnard, OT E.J. - Special Teams: P Max Duffy, K Chance Poore

EARNED NOT GIVEN

A trio of Wildcats earned the ultimate sign of respect from the coaching staff, being rewarded with full scholarships after arriving in Lexington as walk-ons. Senior wide receiver David Bouvier, senior kicker Miles Butler and junior running back Zach Johnson all were placed on scholarship in a team meeting during training camp, sending teammates into a frenzy of happiness.

- Bouvier (Lexington, Ky.) is a local product who has shown an aptitude for special teams and caught a nine-yard pass in the 2016 TaxSlayerBowl. The 5-foot-9, 168-pounder is a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and three-time Dean's List honoree. He caught a scoring pass in each of the Cats' first two games of 2018.
- Butler (Paducah, Ky.) has the most playing experience of the three, having handled punt duties during the Vanderbilt game last season, when he averaged 38.7 yards on three kicks, with all three punts being placed within the 20-yard line. In 2015, he made all four of his field goal attempts and 11 of 12 PATs. His career long field goal is 46 yards. The 5-foot-9, 165-pounder has been named to the Dean's List for seven semesters and earned SEC Academic Honor Roll for 2015-17.

- Johnson (Cincinnati, Ohio) is in his third season with the program after opting to walk on out of Colerain High School. The 5-foot-10, 185-pound back saw action in eight games last season on special teams and returned a pair of kickoffs for 35 yards.

HERE, THERE, EVERYWHERE

- While most college football programs recruit regionally, Kentucky has expanded its reach as far west as Colorado, east to New Jersey, north to Michigan and south to Florida. Furthermore, the Cats have a second punter/kicker in as many years from Australia, tapping into the ranks of young men who have a history with Australian rules football.
- The Cats' geographic roster breaks down in 17 different states and Australia: Ohio (28), Kentucky (27), Florida (19), Georgia (11), Maryland (3), Oklahoma (3), Tennessee (3), Alabama (3), Louisiana (2), Michigan (2), Colorado (1), Indiana (1), Mississippi (1), New Jersey (1), North Carolina (1), Virginia (1), South Carolina (1) and Australia (1).

HANGING WITH THE HOME-IES

- When Kentucky broke through under former coach Rich Brooks from 2006-09 it was done in large part because of a home-grown nucleus led by quarterback Andre' Woodson (Radcliff), wide receiver Keenan Burton (Louisville), tight end Jacob Tamme (Danville), defensive tackle Corey Peters (Louisville) and others.
- It's notable that the team once again has a strong group of young men from the Commonwealth.

THE STREAK IS BROKEN ...

On Sept. 8, Kentucky ended a 31-game drought against the Florida Gators.

- Was UK's first win in Gainesville since 1979 and first time UK has defeated a ranked UF team in Gainesville.
- Was UK's first win over a ranked Florida team since 1976, when UF was ranked No. 15.
- Moved the Cats to 2-0 for the second straight season and fourth time in the past five years.
- Won SEC opener for the second year in a row, first time that has been accomplished since 2006-07.
- Won SEC road opener for the second year in a row, first time that has been accomplished since 1983-84.
- Was Kentucky's first win over a ranked opponent since winning at No. 11 Louisville in 2016.
- Was UK's first win over a ranked SEC opponent since No. 25 Missouri in 2015.
- Was UK's first road win over a ranked SEC opponent since 1998 at No. 21 LSU.
- Was UK's largest margin of victory in a road win vs. a ranked SEC opponent (11 points) since October 15th, 1977 at LSU (20 points)
- The 16 points scored by Florida was the second-lowest total for the Gators in the series since 1986. The Gators scored 14 in 2015 in a 14-9 win in Lexington.
- Kentucky was the first school to rush for at least 300 yards against Florida since 2002 (Miami (FL), September 7, 2002).
- Benny Snell Jr. was the fourth SEC player since 2000 to rush for 175+ yards at Florida (Travis Stephens, Marcus Lattimore, Trent Richardson).
- Terry Wilson is the only player since 2000 to have at least 150 passing yards and 100 rushing yards in a single game against Florida.
- Game balls were awarded to offensive line coach John Schlarman, who is battling serious illness, and sophomore defensive end Josh Paschal, who is currently out of action while receiving treatment for a malignant melanoma on his foot.
- Kentucky earned Reveal Suits National Team of the Week as selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

CATS TIE/IMPROVE WIN TOTAL

- 2013: two wins (first season under Coach Mark Stoops)
2014: five wins
2015: five wins
2016: seven wins
2017: seven wins
2018: eight wins

UK ADEPT AT HOLDING THIRD-QUARTER LEADS

- Kentucky has won 43 of its past 45 games when staked to a lead at the end of the third quarter, dating back to a 2008 loss vs. South Carolina.
UK is 26-2 in the Mark Stoops era when holding a third-quarter lead. The only losses were in 2016 vs. Georgia and 2017 vs. Florida. The Cats avenged the 2017 Florida defeat in 2018 by ending a 31-game losing streak to the Gators.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- Kentucky currently has two players on its roster who have already earned their undergraduate degrees in David Bouvier and Adrian Middleton.
Twelve Wildcats (George Asafo-Adjei, Dorian Baker, Blake Best, Miles Butler, C.J. Conrad, Tymere Dubose, Mike Edwards, Lonnie Johnson, Bunchy Stallings, Calvin Taylor, Darius West and Tristan Yeomans) are all expected to graduate in December with their undergraduate degrees

- Last season, Kentucky had 20 total graduates, including three who earned a master's degree (Dylan Greenberg, Jacob Hyde, Austin MacGinnis).
Last season, UK had 27 players on the 2017 SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll.
Several players have strong cumulative GPAs over their academic careers, including Miles Butler (4.0), Brayden Berezowitz (4.0), Bryan Berezowitz (4.0), Luke Fortner (3.965), Brett Slusher (3.881), Donald Smith (3.690) and David Bouvier (3.564).

THREE WILDCATS DO SERVICE WORK IN ETHIOPIA

- In May of 2018, three Wildcats, offensive tackle George Asafo-Adjei, offensive guard Bunchy Stallings and long snapper Tristan Yeomans, were chosen by the athletic department to participate in a service/educational trip to the Ethiopia. During the week-long trip, they interacted with residents of impoverished communities, visited and helped paint a preschool, constructed wooden shoe-shining boxes, delivered blankets to widows.

- UK has taken football student-athletes to Ethiopia on a service trip since 2011. Due to the state department's travel ban to Ethiopia in 2017, the Cats visited the Dominican Republic.
2011: Stuart Hines, Danny Trevathan
2012: Mikie Benton, Matt Smith, Larry Warford
2013: Kevin Mitchell, Jonathan George, Avery Williamson
2014: Alvin "Bud" Dupree, Landon Foster, Braylon Heard
2015: Austin MacGinnis, Marcus McWilson, Alex Montgomery
2016: Greg Hart, De'Niro Laster, Courtney Love
*2017: Jordan Bonner, C.J. Conrad, Denzil Ware (Dominican Republic)
2018: George Asafo-Adjei, Bunchy Stallings, Tristan Yeomans

ELEVEN-YEAR OLD LUKE KLAUSING SIGNS WITH UK FOOTBALL

- Head coach Mark Stoops announced the signing of 11-year-old wide receiver Luke Klausing of St. Agnes Catholic School in Louisville, Kentucky to a national letter of intent on Aug. 1.
Klausing was named the newest member the Kentucky football team during an inspirational Team IMPACT Signing Day celebration at Kroger Field. The event was sponsored by Vertex Pharmaceuticals.
Klausing is one of 30,000 patients in the United States living courageously with cystic fibrosis (CF), a disease predominantly diagnosed in children by the age of 2. He was diagnosed at five days old. By sponsoring Signing Days of children with CF, Vertex Pharmaceuticals helps spread awareness for the disease—and the life-long, positive effects Team IMPACT has on these children.
Team IMPACT is a national nonprofit that connects children facing serious and chronic illnesses with local college athletic teams, forming lifelong bonds and life-changing outcomes. Through the support of Vertex Pharmaceuticals, children who have CF, like Luke sign with local college athletic teams and become an official member of the team to support the child's physical, social and emotional needs. By being a part of the Kentucky Football program, Luke will attend Wildcats practices, games, team dinners, events and more.
His bio is located in the Player Bio section of the game notes.

COUCH NAMED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HOF BALLOT

Former Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch has been named to the 2019 ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame announced. Couch is one of 76 players and six coaches from the Football Bowl Subdivision and 100 players and 32 coaches from the divisional ranks.

- A storied name of the Kentucky program, Couch, was the team's quarterback from 1996-98. After giving up his senior season of eligibility, he was drafted as the No. 1 pick by Cleveland in the 1999 NFL Draft. In 1998, the junior quarterback was named a first-team All-American and consensus Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Couch completed 400 of 553 passes for 4,275 yards and 36 touchdowns and led the nation in pass completions while ranked second in completion percentage, passing yardage and touchdown passes, and fourth in total offense. After guiding the Wildcats to the Outback Bowl, UK's first New Year's Day bowl appearance in 47 years, Couch finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award as a junior and sophomore. His breakout sophomore campaign featured 363 of 547 passes completed for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns while leading the nation in pass attempts, completions, yardage, and completion percentage. Also during his sophomore year, Couch earned second-team All-SEC honors and finished ninth in Heisman voting. He played in seven games as a true freshman, with two starts. Career wise, Couch completed 795 passes on 1,184 attempts for 8,435 yards and 74 touchdowns. The legend ended his career with seven NCAA records, 14 SEC records, and 26 school records.
- The announcement of the 2019 Class will be made Monday, Jan. 7, 2019, in Santa Clara, Calif. The city is serving as the host for the CFP National Championship, which will be played later that day at Levi's Stadium.

KENTUCKY'S YOUNGSTOWN BOYS

- As a neighbor of Pittsburgh, a.k.a. Steel City USA, Youngstown, Ohio has a reputation as a blue collar community defined by hard work and relationships forged over generations that are stronger than steel. Kentucky's football program is, in many ways, defined by that bond as it creates a southern alumni club from Youngstown, the hometown of head coach Mark Stoops and several other key members of the program. Below is a list of staffers and players from Youngstown, Ohio:

Mark Stoops - Head Coach (Cardinal Mooney)

Vince Marrow - Recruiting Coord./Tight Ends (Cardinal Mooney)

Steve Clinkscale - Defensive Backs (Chaney)

Frank Buffano - Director of Operations (Cardinal Mooney)

Lynn Bowden Jr. - Wide Receiver (Warren Harding)

Jordan Jones - Linebacker (Cardinal Mooney)

Tymere Dubose - Defensive Tackle (Youngstown Christian)

DID YOU KNOW?

- This is the 128th season of intercollegiate football for Kentucky.
- A picture of longevity, UK Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski is in his 41st season in that role. A group of former players, staff members and current UK coaches pitched in during the summer of 2017 to surprise him with a new Ford Escape.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 23 national cheerleading championships, including 19 of the last 23, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.

- Kentucky is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.
- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.

RICH BROOKS NAMED UK'S LEGEND

- Former UK head coach Rich Brooks was named to the 2018 AT&T SEC Football Legends class, an assemblage of former football standouts who will be honored at events surrounding the SEC Football Championship Game in Atlanta in December.
- Rich Brooks guided the Kentucky football fortunes for seven years from 2003-09 and is the only head coach in UK history to guide the Wildcats to postseason bowl games in four consecutive years and win three straight bowls. The streak began in 2006 with a stunning upset of Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The 2007 season was highlighted by a Top-10 ranking, a victory over No. 1 (and eventual national champion) LSU and was capped by a bowl victory over Florida State. Following the 2008 season, UK defeated East Carolina in the Liberty Bowl. In his final season in 2009, Brooks was named SEC Coach of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com. With the Wildcats reflecting the toughness shown by their head coach, in his last four seasons he led UK to 12 fourth-quarter comeback wins. Prior to joining Kentucky, Brooks served as head coach for the St. Louis Rams of the NFL and the University of Oregon.
- The class will be honored at the 2018 SEC Football "Weekend of Champions" Nov. 30-Dec. 1 in Atlanta, Ga, highlighted by the annual SEC Legends Dinner presented by AT&T on Fri., Nov. 30 at the Hyatt Regency in Atlanta. The group will also be recognized prior to the SEC Football Championship Game, which will be held at the new Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Sat., Dec. 1.

KROGER FIELD

On game day, Kroger Field often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

Video Boards: Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

GAME DAY EXPERIENCES

The "Cat Walk" on Talbott Todd Way: With the unveiling of the new $45 million Kentucky Football Training Facility in August of 2016, the headquarters of the program moved next door to Kroger Field. That means the Cat Walk presented by Chevy will still begin outside Gate 1 two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, but the team roceeds past Gate 1 and between Kroger Field and Nutter Field House which has been dedicated to former Wildcat Talbott Todd (1963-65). Todd, who passed away from ALS in August of 2017, was an avid supporter of the program. From Talbott Todd Way the team will walk to the locker room in the Joe Craft Kentucky Football Training Facility.

Pregame concerts: The Kentucky Football Pregame Concert Series has returned for the 2018 season. Concerts will begin on the stage outside Gate 12 immediately following the Cat Walk and last until 30 minutes prior to kickoff. The Cat Walk takes place two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff.

Coca Cola Fan Zone: Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the Fan Zone located in Nutter Field House. It will have inflatable games, free posters, face tattoos and more, available two hours before kickoff.

- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 299 games within the friendly confines of newly-named Kroger Field. UK has a 162-133-4 record (.548), 26-17 under Mark Stoops.
- UK had its first sellout of the season with 63,081 -- third-largest since the 2015 renovation -- for the South Carolina game.
- The second sellout came against Georgia. The 63,543 fans set a new record for Kroger Field since the renovation in 2015.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 62,382 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance in 14 of the last 16 season. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years.
- The playing surface is named C.M. Newton Grounds at Kroger Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

Kroger is also the Official Nutrition and Pharmacy Partner of UK Athletics. Kroger Field was transformed into a state-of-the-art facility after a $126-million reinvention which was completed prior to the 2015 season. The project was handled by HNTB. The outside of the stadium underwent a dramatic external facelift, receiving a modern look, but one that remained uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Kroger Field was reduced over the course of the two-year project to approximately 61,000, but the value of all remaining seats were increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses were revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reaped the benefits of the new Kroger Field as well, as home-team facilities were built, and a multi-purpose recruiting room hosts future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

KROGER FIELD

Commonwealth Stadium was renamed to Kroger Field in May of 2017. The agreement--which is between Kroger and JMI Sports, UK's multimedia rights partner-- begins at approximately $1.85 million annually with a term of up to 12 years. With the partnership, Kroger becomes the Official Fuel Partner of the University of Kentucky and the Official Grocery Partner of Move-In at UK while also providing additional engagement opportunities with UK students. Per the agreement,

FACTS AND FIGURES

Seating Capacity: 61,000, including the Commonwealth Suites. New bench-back seating has been installed in the South upper level of Kroger Field.

Playing Field: UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Mississippi State, Missouri and Vanderbilt.

TOP ATTENDANCES FOR KROGER FIELD

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS / SIXTH SEASON / IOWA, 1989

Mark Stoops likes to challenge his team to do things that have never been done at the University of Kentucky, or, haven't been done in a long time. His Wildcats are responding nicely to that challenge.

Since Stoops took over as coach of the Cats in 2013, UK is the only school in the nation that has tied or improved its win total in each of the last six seasons.

That steady progression has culminated in multiple achievements:

- From 2016-18, UK has won at least seven games and finished at least .500 in the Southeastern Conference each season. It's the first time UK has won seven games and finished at least .500 in the league in three consecutive seasons since 1949-51.
- The Wildcats placed second in the SEC Eastern Division in 2016 and 2018, the team's best finishes since the league split into divisions in 1992.
- UK's 2016-17-18 bowl appearances will mark only the third time in school history that the school has earned bowl bids in at least three consecutive seasons.
- UK won three road games last season, the first time that has happened since 2009.
- Since 2016, the Wildcats are 10-5 in games decided by eight points.

The methodical advancement made by Stoops' teams is a reflection of the coach's rock-steady work ethic, tireless recruiting, and ability to adapt.

Stoops' ability to adjust when necessary shone its brightest at the beginning of the 2016 season. After losing the first two games of the schedule, and seeing his starting quarterback out for the season with an injury, and seeing his defense struggle in the early stages, Stoops didn't retreat. The Wildcat coach chose determination over despair and went back to work.

Stoops re-tooled the offense with then-backup quarterback Stephen Johnson, going to a more physical, ground-based attack. With a history of success as a defensive coordinator, Stoops returned to his roots by becoming more involved with the planning and play-calling on that side of the ball.

The results? The Wildcats went 7-3 in the last 10 regular-season games, topped by a win at No. 11-ranked Louisville and their inaugural appearance in the TaxSlayer Bowl. Stoops was named SEC Coach of the Year runner-up by Athlon Sports.

Returning the Wildcats to the bowl scene again last season, Stoops' progress at Kentucky continues his history of coaching success.

Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-12. He inherited a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in

STOOPS AND CO. MAKING A HIT IN RECRUITING

In just five seasons at the helm of the Kentucky football program, head coach Mark Stoops and his staff have been making noise on the recruiting trail. Kentucky's five classes under Stoops have ranked in the top 50 by all four major recruiting services. Below is a look at UK's recruiting success under Stoops and Co.

rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornelius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Bob Stoops, retired in 2017 after 18 years as the Sooners' head coach. The eldest Stoops brother, Ron Jr., is special teams coordinator at Youngstown State.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. As did brothers Bob and Mike, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Mark and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

ASSISTANT COACHES

STEVE CLINKSCALE DEFENSIVE BACKS

Clinkscale has two safeties and three cornerbacks who started at least five games last season, along with several additional returning lettermen. Senior safety Mike Edwards was named first-team All-SEC by Phil Steele's College Football after intercepting four passes and leading the SEC's defensive backs in tackles for the second season in a row.

Eddie Gran

EDDIE GRAN ASSISTANT HEAD COACH FOR OFFENSE/RUNNING BACKS

Under Gran's leadership, UK had more than 2,000 rushing yards and 2,000 passing yards in both 2016 and 2017, the first time in school history that UK has done that in back-to-back seasons. Gran guided Benny Snell to 1,333 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns last season, setting several school records en route to first-team AP All-SEC honors.

DEAN HOOD

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/ DEFENSIVE BACKS

Hood has a long history of coaching defensive backs and will work with Steve Clinkscale and that group this season. Hood's special teams blocked three kicks last season, two of which were crucial plays in Wildcat wins. UK special teams did not allow any blocked kicks nor allow a punt or kickoff return for a touchdown. Under Hood's tutelage, LB Josh Allen and DE/LB Denzil Ware earned All-SEC recognition.

MATT HOUSE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ INSIDE LINEBACKERS

In his first season as defensive coordinator, House's unit kept six opponents under 100 rushing yards, the first time UK has done that since 1949. UK improved in points allowed and third-down efficiency last season. House must replace departed middle linebacker Courtney Love, but returns weakside linebacker Jordan Jones, who earned All-SEC honors in 2016.

DARIN HINSHAW CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

Hinshaw has worked with Eddie Gran on an offense that has generated 2,000 rushing yards and 2,000 passing yards in back-to-back seasons, the first time in school history that has been accomplished. Hinshaw is working to develop a talented but inexperienced group of quarterbacks to replace two-year starter Stephen Johnson.

2016-present	Kentucky	Co-Offensive Coordinator, Quarterbacks

DERRICK LeBLANC DEFENSIVE LINE

LeBlanc's young defensive line played a key role in helping UK hold six opponents under 100 rushing yards, the first time UK has accomplished that feat since 1949. UK also improved points allowed and third-down efficiency last season. With no senior starters a year ago, the Wildcat line should continue to improve when looking ahead to 2018.

KENTUCKY 35, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 20

SEPT. 1, 2018 • LEXINGTON, KY
KROGER FIELD (49,138)

Looking ripe for an upset because it kept coughing up the football, Kentucky eventually tightened its grip on it as well as Central Michigan.

The Wildcats' depth on both sides of the ball also helped them avoid a potential disaster.

A.J. Rose and Benny Snell, Jr. each rushed for two touchdowns, Gunnar Hoak came off the bench to throw the go-ahead TD pass and Kentucky overcame four first-half turnovers to beat Central Michigan 35-20 in its season opener.

For a while the upset-minded Chippewas seemed poised to make the Wildcats their third Power Five victim in as many seasons by building a 17-7, second-quarter lead and scoring all their points off two interceptions and two fumbles. Kentucky rallied with two TDs over the final four minutes of the half, including Hoak's 24-yard scoring pass to David Bouvier for a 21-20 edge with 14 seconds remaining.

Kentucky shut out CMU from there, limiting the Mid-American Conference team to 97 second-half yards while outgaining them 427-255 overall to improve to 7-0 in the series.

The Wildcats' offense in particular used strength in numbers to overcome those self-inflicted setbacks.

Snell had TD runs of 52 and 11 yards to finish with 125 yards rushing on 20 attempts. Rose, a sophomore, rushed for TDs of 55 and 4 yards on the way to 104 on eight carries and his first career 100-yard game as Kentucky dominated the ground game 299-118.

Hoak meanwhile demonstrated why it's good to have an able backup with a gutsy bailout after starter Terry Wilson left the game with a shoulder injury sustained while throwing his second interception. The sophomore led Kentucky 71 yards in 41 seconds and hit Bouvier down the middle for his first career TD that shifted momentum for good.

Stoops sidestepped a question about using both QBs next week at Florida but stressed the importance of having them ready after seeing it pay off when Kentucky needed it.

KENTUCKY 27, #25 FLORIDA 16

SEPT. 8, 2018 • GAINESVILLE, FLA.
BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM (80,651)

Benny Snell, Jr. rushed for 175 yards as Kentucky ended a 31-year losing streak against Florida, topping the Gators 27-16 in Gainesville.

Quarterback Terry Wilson completed 11 of 16 passes for 151 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while also rushing for 105 yards and a score.

The win was Kentucky's first over Florida since 1986, and the Cats' first win in Gainesville since 1979.

After the Kentucky defense forced Florida to punt on the opening possession of the game, the Wildcats got on the board. The Cats covered 91 yards in nine plays, capped by a 29-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to David Bouvier. Miles Butler nailed the point after and Kentucky led 7-0 with 5:07 left in the first quarter.

Florida answered with a scoring drive of its own, but the UK defense kept the Gators out of the end zone. Florida was on the UK three-yard line, but a sack by Phil Hoskins and a third-down stop forced the Gators to attempt a 29-yard field goal, which Evan McPherson converted, cutting the UK lead to 7-3.

After Kentucky was forced to punt, Florida went 63 yards in just four plays, scoring on an 18-yard pass from Feleipe Franks to Moral Stephens, giving the Gators a 10-7 lead.

Kentucky would get into Florida territory twice more in the first half, but both drives ended in turnovers. The Cats defense would hold on both occasions, and the Gators held a 10-7 halftime lead.

The Cats took the second-half kickoff and put together an impressive scoring drive. Leaning on Snell, Kentucky drove 90 yards in 10 plays, with Snell covering 36 of those yards. Wilson had a pair of big plays in the drive, with a 19-yard run on third down, and the drive capper, a 24-yard designed run for a touchdown. Butler's PAT was good and Kentucky led 14-10 with 9:49 left in the third quarter.

After a Florida punt, Kentucky struck again. This time, the Cats went 78 yards in just five plays, with Wilson connecting with Lynn Bowden, Jr. for a 54-yard touchdown. The PAT was good and Kentucky led 21-10 with 4:11 left in the third quarter.

Late in the fourth quarter, Franks hit Freddie Swain with a touchdown pass to cut Kentucky's lead to 21-16, after a two-point conversion failed.

The scoring ended when Davonte Robinson recovered a fumble and returned it 30 yards for a score on the game's final play.

KENTUCKY 48, MURRAY STATE 10

SEPT. 15, 2018 • LEXINGTON, KY
KROGER FIELD (48,217)

Kentucky football coach Mark Stoops wasn't worried about his team overlooking Murray State following a 27-16 win at Florida.

Despite a slow start, the Wildcats (3-0) outscored the Racers 31-7 in the second half and rolled to a 48-10 victory Saturday. Murray had trouble stopping Kentucky quarterback Terry Wilson, who threw for 163 yards and rushed for 80 more to keep the Wildcats perfect on the season.

Coming off an 11-point victory over the Gators that ended a 31-game losing streak in their Southeastern Conference opener, the Wildcats (3-0) showed no signs of a letdown and overwhelmed the Racers from start to finish. Leading 17-3 at the break, Kentucky pulled way in the second half.

Traditionally the Wildcats have struggled against FCS opponents and needed overtime to fend off Ohio Valley Conference member Eastern Kentucky in a 34-27 win in 2015. The task was much easier this time for Kentucky.

Paced by Wilson, the Wildcats used a balanced offense to defeat the Racers, amassing 528 yards of offense, including 245 on the ground. Wilson targeted nine different receivers, mainly Lynn Bowden, Jr., who caught eight passes for 89 yards. Wilson and backup Gunnar Hoak threw for 240 yards and one touchdown.

Benny Snell, Jr. collected 75 yards on 15 carries and added a score. In limited action in the second half, Snell had just four carries as A.J. Rose and Sihiem King collected a bulk of the carries in the second half.

In a surprise trick play, Snell completed a shovel pass to Wilson, who then handed the ball off to Zy'Aire Hughes for a 49-yard score to end the third quarter. Snell's block downfield created a wide-open path to the end zone for Hughes in his first career touchdown.

Murray avoided the shutout on Gabriele Vicente's 29-yard field goal at the end of the first half. Racers quarterback Drew Anderson competed 15-of-32 passes for 118 yards. Backup signal caller Preston Rice scored Murray's lone touchdown with a 21-yard run with 30 seconds remaining.

Overall, Stoops was pleased with the win and likes the where his team stands following the first three weeks of the regular season.

SEPT. 22, 2018 • LEXINGTON, KY
KROGER FIELD (60,037)

Benny Snell, Jr. rushed for four touchdowns to break a Kentucky career record, including two in the fourth quarter, and the Wildcats held No. 14 Mississippi State to 56 yards rushing for a 28-7 upset Saturday night.

After Tyrell Ajian's 35-yard interception return to the Bulldogs 36, Snell broke left and down the left sideline for his third score with 8 minutes remaining to break Randall Cobb's previous mark of 37 total touchdowns.

The junior wasn't done and added a 23-yard TD run on the next possession for 21-point cushion the Wildcats (4-0, 2-0 Southeastern Conference) preserved for their second win over a ranked school this month. Kentucky beat then-No. 25 Florida two weeks ago to break a 31-game losing streak to the Gators.

Snell also had TD runs of 1 and 2 yards to finish with 165 on 25 carries, his 15th career 100-yard game. His four rushing TDs also matched a school record he shares with Don Phelps. Kentucky rushed for 229 overall and outgained the Bulldogs 300-201 under a steady drizzle.

MSU (3-1, 0-1) was held nearly 256 rushing yards below its SEC-leading average of 311.7 coming in. The Bulldogs only managed Nick Fitzgerald's 1-yard TD run midway through the second quarter.

KENTUCKY 24, SOUTH CAROLINA 10

SEPT. 29, 2018 • LEXINGTON, KY
KROGER FIELD (63,081)

For one half, No. 17 Kentucky's offense showed the intensity that helped earn its first Top 25 in nearly 11 years. When things sputtered afterward against South Carolina, the Wildcats' defense rose to the challenge with clutch plays to ensure their new-found status ended on a high note.

Their strong start was certainly critical, too.

Benny Snell, Jr. ran for 99 yards and one of Kentucky's three consecutive first-half touchdowns and the Wildcats held on for a 24-10 victory over South Carolina on Saturday night.

Kentucky (5-0, 3-0 Southeastern Conference) quashed initial concerns about a letdown following their first ranking since November 2007 by scoring on four straight drives to lead 24-3 at halftime. The Wildcats ended up needing that cushion to offset a scoreless second half and Jake Bentley's 58-yard, third quarter TD pass to Deebo Samuel that kept the Gamecocks (2-2, 1-2) within striking distance.

Mike Edwards' interception with 3:47 remaining snuffed one chance by the Gamecocks before they turned the ball over on downs in the final minute. Those defensive stands sealed Kentucky's fifth consecutive series win and continued its best SEC start since 1977.

The Wildcats registered four turnovers, including interceptions by Derrick Baity, Darius West and Edwards. They scored 10 points off a fumble and interception before West and Edwards picked off Bentley and preserved a second consecutive SEC win by double digits.

And it's still a work in progress.

Snell's rushing yardage on 28 carries also made him the third Wildcat to break 3,000 in a career. His 4-yard score with 4:53 remaining in the second quarter extended his TD record to 40. Quarterback Terry Wilson and A.J. Rose ran for TDs from 1 and 24 yards as Kentucky edged South Carolina 327-321 in yardage.

KENTUCKY 14, TEXAS A&M 20

OCT. 6, 2018 • COLLEGE STATION, TX
KYLE FIELD ( 99,829)

Despite a valiant effort by its defense, No. 13 Kentucky suffered its first loss of the season on Saturday night, falling 20-14 to Texas A&M in overtime at Kyle Field.

The Wildcats' offense struggled all night against a stout Aggies' defense. Kentucky managed just 178 yards of total offense, with star running back Benny Snell, Jr. held to a season-low 60 yards rushing. Quarterback Terry Wilson passed for 108 yards and a touchdown in the game.

But it was the defense that allowed Kentucky to stay close. Darius West had a huge game with 10 tackles, an interception and a fumble recovery for a 40-yard touchdown that tied the game late in regulation. Mike Edwards had nine tackles, including three tackles for loss.

The game was scoreless until late in the first quarter, when Kentucky got the scoring going. Wilson connected with Lynn Bowden, Jr. on a 54-yard touchdown toss/pass and Miles Butler's extra point gave the Cats a 7-0 lead with 1:10 left in the period. That would be the score after one quarter of play.

It stayed that way until just before halftime, when Texas A&M drove 70 yards in 13 plays, finishing with a three-yard touchdown pass from Kellen Mond to Quartney Davis, tying the game at 7-7 with 1:14 to go in the half. The game would be tied at that score at the break.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but in the fourth period, momentum seemed to shift in Kentucky's favor. An interception by West gave Kentucky the ball near midfield, setting the Cats up for a potential go-ahead score. But Kentucky went three-and-out, and Rashad Hall returned the ensuing punt to the Kentucky 46, giving A&M the momentum back.

The Aggies took immediate advantage, with the help of a lucky bounce. On the second play after the punt return, Mond's pass, intended for Camron Buckley, glanced off of Buckley's hands and into the arms of Jace Sternberger, who took it 46 yards for a touchdown, giving A&M a 14-7 lead with 10:13 to play in the game.

Inside the final five minutes of regulation, A&M appeared to be ready to put the game away. On a third down and one, Derrick Baity, Jr. forced a Mond fumble, which was recovered by West, who returned it 40 yards for a touchdown. Butler's PAT tied the game at 14-14 with 4:17 to play in regulation.

The teams would be tied 14-14 at the end of regulation, forcing overtime. Kentucky's offensive possession stalled, and Butler's 43-yard field goal hit the crossbar, coming up just short. A&M would need just four plays to score, capped by a Trayveon Williams 10-yard touchdown run to win the game.

Kentucky has next weekend off before returning to SEC action on October 20 by hosting Vanderbilt at Kroger Field.

Kentucky's hope of winning with style coming out of an off week quickly evolved into doing whatever it could to get past Vanderbilt.

The No. 14 Wildcats eventually succeeded behind the reliable combination of running back Benny Snell, Jr. and a fierce, opportunistic defense that wouldn't break.

Snell rushed for 169 yards, including the go-ahead 7-yard run with 8:04 remaining that helped Kentucky pull away for a 14-7 victory over Vanderbilt.

The Wildcats clinched bowl eligibility for a third consecutive season and stayed in contention in the East division with their third straight victory over the Commodores (3-5, 0-4). But it took nose guard Quinton Bohanna to force Jamauri Wakefield's fourth-down fumble that he recovered at the 20 midway through the fourth quarter to jump-start Kentucky from game-long inconsistency.

Snell took control from there, rushing 10 times for 74 yards on the drive that ended with his ninth TD run. The junior rushed 32 times for his 16th career 100-yard game on a blustery night that Kentucky had to work hard to outgain Vanderbilt 298-284.

The SEC's rushing leader also factored big in Kentucky's game-tying scoring drive by carrying eight times for 39 yards, including a 3-yard run to the Commodores' 5. Quarterback Terry Wilson capped it with a short TD pass to Lynn Bowden on the next play, but Snell set the tone.

Bohanna's play was one of four forced four fumbles with two recoveries, the second by Mike Edwards with 1:04 left that sealed the outcome. The Wildcats also recorded four sacks.

"We pride ourselves on being the best team out there and making big plays," said linebacker Josh Allen, who had two sacks among eight tackles.

Vanderbilt played without leading rusher Ke'Shawn Vaughn, who did not make the trip after getting hurt last week against Florida. The Commodores converted a first-quarter takeaway into Kyle Shurmur's 29-yard TD pass to C.J. Bolar, but that was their only lead as they rushed for just 68 yards.

Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said his decision to go for the first down instead of kicking a field goal in the fourth quarter was based on an earlier missed kick.

OCT. 27, 2018 • COLUMBIA, MO.
MEMORIAL STADIUM (53,397)

Terry Wilson threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to C.J. Conrad on the final play to give No. 12 Kentucky a 15-14 victory over Missouri.

Kentucky took over on its own 19 with 1:24 left. With 4 seconds left, Wilson threw toward Ahmad Wagner in the back left corner of the end zone. Wagner caught the ball out of bounds, but Missouri cornerback DeMarkus Acy was called for pass interference, giving Kentucky an untimed down that it turned into the winning score.

Lynn Bowden Jr. returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown with 5:18 left to pull the Wildcats (7-1, 5-1 Southeastern Conference) to 14-9.

Kentucky held Missouri without a first down on eight second-half possessions.

Wilson, who was replaced by backup Gunnar Hoak for part of the second half, completed 22 of 31 passes for 267 yards. Bowden had 13 catches for 166 yards. Benny Snell, who entered the game as the nation's fourth-leading rusher, gained just 67 yards on 19 carries.

Missouri opened a 14-3 halftime lead with two 10-play touchdown drives. Damarea Crockett scored on a 2-yard run early in the second quarter, and Larry Rountree added a 1-yard TD run just before halftime.

Missouri's Drew Lock completed 15 of 27 passes for 165 yards.

Kentucky appeared to have squandered its last chance to get back in the game when A.J. Rose was stuffed on a fourth-and-goal run from the 2-yard line with 7:31 left. It was the third failed fourth-down conversion of the game for the Wildcats. But a few minutes later, Bowden returned the punt for a touchdown and the comeback was on.

#6 GEORGIA 34, KENTUCKY 17

NOV. 3, 2018 • LEXINGTON, KY
KROGER FIELD (63,543)

Terry Wilson connected on 23 of 29 passes for 226 yards and a touchdown, but the 11th-ranked Kentucky Wildcats fell to sixth-ranked Georgia 34-17 at Kroger Field.

Georgia got on the board first, using a 65-yard punt return by Mecole Hardman to get great field position at the Kentucky 23 yard line. From there, the Bulldogs needed just four plays to get in the end zone. Quarterback Jake Fromm hit Isaac Nauta on a four-yard touchdown pass, and Rodrigo Blankenship added the extra point to give Georgia a 7-0 lead.

After the teams traded punts, UK drove into Georgia territory, but after catching a Wilson pass, C.J. Conrad fumbled, halting the drive at the Georgia 33 yard line. After a Kentucky penalty, Georgia drove to the UK 26 yard line before Fromm fumbled a high snap, and UK's Josh Allen recovered at the UK 34, ending the Georgia drive. The first quarter ended with UGA leading 7-0.

At the beginning of the second quarter, Kentucky mounted its best drive of the game, to that point, taking the ball inside the Georgia 10 yard line, but a penalty and a sack forced the Cats into a 34-yard field goal attempt by Chance Poore. The kick was good, and Kentucky cut the deficit to 7-3 with 8:23 left in the half.

Georgia would answer on the ensuing drive, going 75 yards in 14 plays, culminating with a 20-yard touchdown rush from D'Andre Swift. Blankenship's extra point was good, and the Bulldogs took a 14-3 lead with 2:28 left in the first half.

UGA appeared to be ready to add to its lead late in the half, but Fromm fumbled at the UK 29 yard line, and Allen recovered again, thwarting the threat. Georgia led 14-3 at the break.

On the first drive of the second half, Georgia marched 78 yards in nine plays, ending with an Elijah Holyfield four-yard touchdown run. Blankenship connected on the PAT, giving the Bulldogs a 21-3 lead with 10:20 left in the third quarter.

After a Kentucky punt, Swift struck again, this time carrying 83 yards for the touchdown. Blankenship's PAT gave Georgia a 28-3 lead with 7:56 left in the third quarter.

The Cats would not go away, turning the next possession into a scoring drive. Kentucky covered 75 yards in nine plays, ending with a Benny Snell, Jr. touchdown, the 42nd of his career. Poore's PAT was good, and Kentucky cut the Georgia lead to 28-10 with 3:45 left in the third quarter. On that rush, Snell eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark this season, becoming the first running back in school history to accomplish that feat.

Georgia led 28-10 after three quarters, and the Bulldogs added a field goal early in the fourth quarter to lead 31-10. But Kentucky went on another scoring drive, covering 75 yards in just seven plays and 2:43, ending with a spectacular 31-yard touchdown catch by A.J. Rose. Poore's PAT cut the Georgia lead to 31-17 with 9:01 remaining in the game.

The Bulldogs would add a field goal to provide the final margin of victory.

TENNESSEE 24, KENTUCKY 7

NOV. 10, 2018 • KNOXVILLE, TENN.
NEYLAND STADIUM (95,258)

Benny Snell, Jr. rushed for 81 yards and caught a career-high six passes, but No. 12 Kentucky was upset by Tennessee, 24-7 at Neyland Stadium.

Terry Wilson completed 21 of his 34 passes for 172 yards and a touchdown, with an interception. Lynn Bowden, Jr. caught six passes for 57 yards in the game.

On defense, Mike Edwards had a team-high six tackles, while adding a pair of pass breakups. Josh Allen recorded his 11th sack of the season, giving him 25.5 for his career, just a half-sack behind Oliver Barnett for the UK school record. Allen needs just 3.5 sacks to crack the SEC's career sack leaders list.

Tennessee got on the board first in Saturday's contest, after driving 55 yards in eight plays. But the Kentucky defense stood tall, holding the Vols to a 19-yard Brent Cimaglia field goal which was good, giving Tennessee a 3-0 lead with 5:09 left in the first quarter. That would be the score after one period.

In the second quarter, Kentucky had a 15-play drive, but the Wildcats did not score. Freshman Chance Poore, attempting his first career field goal from beyond 50 yards, missed wide right from 51 yards out, keeping the score 3-0 with 12:49 to go in the half.

After the teams exchanged punts, Tennessee got into the end zone at the end of a six-play, 81-yard drive. Tim Jordan capped the drive with a three-yard touchdown run, and Cimaglia's PAT was good, giving Tennessee a 10-0 lead with 2:05 left in the half.

The Cats went three-and-out on the ensuing drive, and Tennessee got the ball back with 1:00 left in the half. The Vols got into UK territory, and on the final play of the half, quarterback Jarrett Guarantano connected with Marquez Calloway on a 39-yard Hail Mary touchdown pass. The PAT made it 17-0 Vols at the half.

Tennessee added a touchdown in the third quarter to go up 24-0 before Kentucky was able to get on the board. The Wildcats did so on a five-play, 60-yard drive that ended with a 19-yard Wilson touchdown pass to tight end C.J. Conrad. Poore's extra point was good, and Kentucky cut the lead to 24-7, which would be the score after three quarters.

In the fourth quarter, Kentucky drove into Tennessee territory before the drive stalled. Poore tried a 30-yard field goal that was blocked. But the Cats got the ball back when freshman linebacker Chris Oats forced and recovered a fumble with 10:04 left in the game. But the Cats were unable to cash in on the turnover, giving the ball back on a Wilson fumble.

NOV. 17, 2018 • LEXINGTON, KY
KROGER FIELD (47, 535)

Benny Snell, Jr. rushed 26 times for 116 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Kentucky won its eighth game of the season, topping Middle Tennessee 34-23 at Kroger Field.

It was the fifth time this season that Snell has rushed for at least 100 yards, and the 17th such game in his UK career. Snell's two touchdowns give him 44 for his career, the second-most rushing touchdowns of any player in SEC history prior to his senior year. Only former Georgia Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker had more career touchdowns prior to his senior season (49). The eight wins in a season is the most since Kentucky won eight times in 1984.

Josh Allen had two sacks, breaking a pair of school records in the process. Allen set UK's career record for sacks with 26.5, while also breaking the UK single-season record with 13. Allen registered a career-high 15 tackles in the game.

UK got on the board first, when Mike Edwards picked off a Brent Stockstill pass and returned it 66 yards for a score, the second of Edwards' career. Miles Butler converted the PAT and UK led 7-0 with 13:33 left in the first quarter.

After Edwards caused a MT fumble, which was recovered by Davonte Robinson, UK drove 50 yards in eight plays. Snell finished the drive with a seven-yard TD run and Butler's PAT gave the Cats a 14-0 lead with 8:36 still remaining in the first quarter.

UK added to its lead with 10-play, 34-yard drive that ended with a 38-yard Butler field goal, giving the Cats a 17-0 lead with 1:35 still left in the first period.

Middle Tennessee scored early in the second quarter to cut Kentucky's lead to 17-7 with 11:20 left in the first half. UK quickly answered with an 11-yard Terry Wilson touchdown pass to C.J. Conrad in the back of the end zone.

Late in the first half, MT added a 33-yard Holt field goal to make it 24-10 with 1:04 left in the half.

In the third, Snell got his second touchdown of the game, this one from six yards out, giving UK a 31-10 lead with 10:30 left in the third quarter.

Middle Tennessee cut into the lead later with a Ty Lee 10-yard touchdown catch. The PAT missed, and the Cats led 31-16 with 4:32 left in the quarter.

Early in the fourth, the Blue Raiders struck again, mounting an 11-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Stockstill's third touchdown pass of the game, this one to Patrick Smith from five yards out. Holt's PAT was good, and UK's lead was cut to 31-23 with 13:18 to go.

UK extended its lead with 4:01 left in the game on a 32-yard Butler field goal, giving the Cats a 34-23 advantage.
