- SHU defeated fifth-seeded Bryant in the quarterfinals, before falling 78-47 to eventual conference champions, Saint Francis U.

HAINES NAMED NEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Graduate student Katherine Haines was named Northeast Conference Player of the Week on Dec. 17. Haines had her way at MAAC member Manhattan. Powering the Pioneers to a 74-46 runaway road win in Riverdale, the senior center turned in a well-rounded effort highlighted by her second double-double of the season.
- Shooting 67 percent from the field, Haines tallied a game-high 19 points, 10 rebounds, three steals and two blocked shots. The 6-foot-2 post player accounted for a 3-for-3 clip from the field over the game's first 4:59, scoring seven points as Sacred Heart built a 12-4 advantage during that span.
- Haines, who hit her lone three-point shot attempt of the contest in the first quarter, also recorded a traditional three-point play that bumped SHU's lead to 17 points - the largest of the game at the time - with 7:20 remaining in the second quarter.
- Haines also recorded a double-double in a win over New Hampshire on November 18 before missing the next three games due to injury.

LOTS OF FAMILIAR FACES

She shot 41.3 percent (78-for-189) from the field and 36.3 percent (29-for-80) from three-point range. She will sit out this season due to NCAA transfer eligibility rules.

- Sophomore guard Adrienne Hagood had another impressive game against Manhattan as she tallied 17 points which was second best on team.
- She made four consecutive baskets for the Pioneers racking up 10 points just in the second quarter to help put Pioneers ahead 34-21 at the end of the first half.
- Hagood currently is third on team in points averaging 11.1 a game.

SCARBOROUGH PROMOTED TO ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

- Sacred Heart University head women's basketball coach Jessica Mannetti announced the promotion of Dave Scarborough to Associate Head Coach, effective immediately. Scarborough is a rising star within the women's basketball coaching ranks.
- "I am excited and happy for Dave to receive this advanced role in our program," Mannetti said. "His dedication and work ethic have been impressive throughout the past three seasons and it is a reflection on how hard he works and how passionate he is in helping athletes to achieve their goals. Dave's goal is to be a head coach one day and he constantly takes pride in being able to practice that role through the many responsibilities he has and the dedication he demonstrates within the program."
- Scarborough is in his third season as a member of the Pioneers coaching staff and now is in his second decade of collegiate coaching. His responsibilities include game scheduling, coaching of post players, lead academic liaison, scouting, equipment management and he is a key part of the Pioneers recruiting efforts. "I would like to thank Coach Mannetti, Bobby Valentine and Brad Hurlbut for this opportunity," Scarborough said. "I feel very fortunate to have Coach Mannetti's confidence and trust, and I'm truly humbled to be a part of the legacy of SHU women's basketball. I look forward to the continued success of our program."

- Prior to coming to SHU, Scarborough spent three seasons on Pat Coyle's staff at Saint Peters, where he helped three Peacocks earn All-MAAC accolades. He made the move into the women's game in 2011 when he joined the staff at the University of Pittsburgh as the Basketball Operations and Video Coordinator.
- Scarborough broke into collegiate coaching in 2008 as an assistant coach at La Roche College (NCAA Division III). He made his first foray into the Northeast Conference after that, spending two seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations at Robert Morris University. He was a member of the Colonial staff that won an NEC Championship in his first season and nearly upset Villanova in the NCAA Tournament.

CHEATHAM RISING THROUGH THE RANKS

- Junior Center Madison Cheatham had an impressive performance against Hofstra as she tallied a career high 11 points as well as setting career highs in rebounds and free-throws made.
- She went 4-4 from the field while nailing all three of five free-throws in the game to round out the day with 11 points. If Cheatham continues to play in games she could be a key asset to the squad this season.

SCORING D HIGH NOTE FOR PIOS

- The Pioneers are currently ranked second in the Northeast Conference in scoring defense as they tally 61.9 points which is the second lowest in the conference behind Robert Morris who averages 59.8 a game.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

- The Wildcats are coming off a recent win to continue the team's three game winning streak as Kentucky defeated Murray State by a final score of 88-49. The team improved its record to 12-1 on the year and pushed the Wildcats to be ranked number 18 in the most recent Women's College Basketball Poll.
- Kentucky is led by freshman guard Rhyne Howard who averages 18.5 points a game and also leads the team in total points (240), rebounds per game (6.8), and in three point percentage (48.6%).
- Howard is currently second the Southeastern Conference in points per game.
- From the field Kentucky's leading shooter is senior guard Taylor Murray who is shooting 54.3% from the field and is third on team in points per game averaging 14.3 points. Murray also currently leads the SEC in steals per game averaging 3.6 a game.
- The Wildcats currently outscore opponents with a +25.6 scoring margin as the team averages 81.0 points a game while holding the opponent to just 55.4 a game.
- Coming into Saturday's game, the Wildcats haven't lost a home game this season with the teams one loss coming against in-state rival Louisville as the Wildcats fell 80-75.
