CAROLINA VS. KENTUCKY: This is the 31st meeting between the Gamecocks and Wildcats in a series that dates back to 1937. Carolina leads the all-time series 17-12-1, including an 8-5-1 advantage in Columbia. The teams played just three times (1937, 1978 and 1981) before Carolina joined the SEC in 1992. Since then, they have met every year. Since joining the SEC, the Gamecocks own a 16-11 record against UK, including wins in 13 of the 19 meetings in this century, but the Wildcats have won each of the last five contests, their longest winning streak in the series.

SNELL-LESS 'CATS: Thankfully for the Gamecocks, the Wildcats will be without the services of running back Benny Snell, who has finally used up his eligibility. Over the last three seasons, Snell was a thorn in the Gamecocks' side, rushing 76 times for 274 yards and four touchdowns against Carolina defenses. He carried the pigskin a combined 60 times in the last two meetings.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET: Benny Snell ran for 99 yards and one of Kentucky's three-consecutive first-half touchdowns before the No. 17 Wildcats held on for a 24-10 win over South Carolina on Sept. 29, 2018, in Lexington, Ky. Kentucky scored on four-straight drives to take a 24-3 lead into intermission. The two teams were close in total yards (327-321 in favor of Kentucky) and first downs (20-19 in favor of Carolina) but four Gamecock turnovers proved to be the difference.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET HERE: Benny Snell rushed for 102 yards and two TDs and the Wildcat defense held Carolina to just one score over the final 59:13 as Kentucky upended the Gamecocks 23-13 in Columbia on Sept. 16, 2017. Jake Bentley connected with Deebo Samuel on a 68-yard scoring strike on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Carolina could muster just 290 yards of offense the rest of the way. Bentley completed 24-of-36 passes for 304 yards and two scores and Samuel logged 122 yards on five catches before suffering a season-ending injury.

THE LAST CAROLINA WIN: The 13th-ranked Gamecocks opened up a 27-7 lead, but the Wildcats made it interesting with 21 fourth-quarter points before falling by a 35-28 count in Columbia on Oct. 5, 2013. Mike Davis rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns and quarterback Connor Shaw added 312 yards of total offense, including 262 through the air on 17-of-20 passing. Damiere Byrd had one of the top days of his career, catching five passes for 94 yards, including a 62-yard TD catch on the first drive of the game.

MUSCHAMP VS. THE CATS: Head coach Will Muschamp owns a 4-3 record against Kentucky. He was a perfect 4-0 against the Wildcats as the head coach at Florida, but has dropped all three games as the Carolina head coach.

BLUE GRASS TIES: Gamecock assistant coach Kyle Krantz served as a GA on the Wildcat staff in 2011 and 2012.

A South Carolina win over Kentucky would...

- ◆ Snap the Wildcats winning streak over the Gamecocks at five games.
- ◆ Give the Gamecocks their 18th win in 31 games in the overall series between the two schools.
- ◆ Give the Gamecocks their first SEC win of the season after two losses.

QUICKLY: The South Carolina Gamecocks (1-3, 0-2 SEC) return home to face another SEC Eastern Division rival when the Kentucky Wildcats (2-2, 0-2 SEC) visit Williams-Brice Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 28. Game time is set for 7:39 pm ET, as the Gamecocks play under the lights for the first time this season. SEC Network has the game with Tom Hart and Jordan Rodgers in the booth and Cole Cubelic working the sidelines. This is the second of six-consecutive games against SEC Eastern Division opponents for the Gamecocks.

THE HISTORY: 2019 marks the 126th season of intercollegiate football at the University of South Carolina, dating back to 1892. It is the 113th-consecutive year in which South Carolina has competed on the gridiron. The University did not field a team in either 1893 or 1906. Carolina owns an all-time record of 609-582-44, a .511 winning percentage.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY: The 2019 season marks the 50th anniversary of the 1969 South Carolina squad that won the Atlantic Coast Conference title with a perfect 6-0 mark under Paul Dietzel. That team was rewarded with a trip to the Peach Bowl. 2019 also marks the 25th anniversary of the 1994 South Carolina team that went 7-5 including the school's first bowl victory - a 24-21 win over West Virginia in the Carquest Bowl.

IT JUST MEANS MORE: The 2019 season marks South Carolina's 28th year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the league prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned their lone SEC Eastern Division title in 2010. The Gamecocks are 94-123-1 (.433) all-time in SEC regular-season play, but are 39-35 (.527) in conference action since the start of the 2010 season.

ABOUT LAST WEEK: The Missouri Tigers used a pair of defensive scores en route to a 34-14 win over South Carolina last Saturday in Columbia, Mo., taking the Mayor's Cup for the first time since 2015. The turning point in the game came in the third quarter with Mizzou holding a 24-14 lead. The Gamecocks were three yards away from making it a three-point game, but Ronnell Perkins intercepted a pass and raced 100 yards for a touchdown, giving the Tigers a 31-14 advantage with the 14-point swing. The Gamecocks were limited to just 271 yards of offense in the contest.

QUICK STRIKE: The Gamecocks' two scoring "drives" were quick ones at Missouri. Their first touchdown came on a 1-yard run by Rico Dowdle after D.J. Wonnun's interception return placed the ball on the one. Carolina's second TD came on the first play of the third quarter when Bryan Edwards took a short pass from Ryan Hilinski and scooted 75 yards to paydirt. The two scoring drives came on a combined two plays and used up just 17 seconds on the clock.

EDWARDS STAYS HOT: Bryan Edwards continues to put up impressive numbers. The senior wide receiver had another big day against Missouri, hauling in six passes for 113 yards, including a career-long 75-yard touchdown reception. After being limited to just one catch for seven yards in the season opener, Edwards has hauled in 20 passes for 304 yards over the last three games, including a pair of 100-yard receiving games. With three-straight strong performances, he has moved among the SEC leaders with 5.2 receptions per game (t8th) and 77.8 receiving yards per game (8th).

CHARLTON WAS SENSATIONAL: Joseph Charlton may have had the Gamecocks' best performance against Mizzou. The senior punter boomed eight punts for 427 yards, a 53.4-yard average, with a long of 63 and three pushing the Tigers inside the 20. It was the best day of punting for a Gamecock in the four years under head coach Will Muschamp, and moved Charlton into third among the nation's punters with a 48.9-yard average this season.

ANOTHER GAME, ANOTHER SACK: Javon Kinlaw continues to play at a high level. The senior defensive tackle had another sack, his fourth sack in as many games this season among his four tackles at Missouri. He also recovered a fumble and was credited with a pass break up and a quarterback hurry. Kinlaw leads the SEC with 4.0 sacks this season.

AMONG THE LEADERS: Several Gamecocks are listed in the SEC's top-10 this week:

- Passing Avg/Game - Ryan Hilinski - 4th - 257.3
- Receptions/Game - Bryan Edwards - t8th - 5.2
- Receive Yds/Game - Bryan Edwards - 8th - 77.8

- Forced Fumbles - Jaycee Horn - t1st - 0.5
- Fumbles Recovered - Javon Kinlaw - t1st - 0.5

Offense

THE B-MAC ATTACK: The Gamecock offense has been up-and-down this season, playing very well against Charleston Southern and Alabama, but struggling in losses to North Carolina and Missouri. They were virtually unstoppable against an undermanned Charleston Southern squad, rolling up a school record 775 yards, including a school record 493 on the ground. The Gamecocks scored on 11 of 13 possessions, including 10 touchdowns against the Bucs. Against Alabama, Carolina collected 459 yards while running 86 plays. The Gamecocks are eighth in the SEC in scoring offense (32.2), fifth in rushing offense (193.0) and sixth in total offense (443.8).

TRENDING UP: Under newly-minted offensive coordinator Bryan McClendon, took a big step forward in 2018. The offense had five games of 500 yards or more for the first time in school history, including back-to-back games of 600 yards against Chattanooga and Clemson. Against Charleston Southern earlier this season, they posted school record numbers for total yards and rushing yards in a game. Here's how the numbers have improved from the year before Coach Muschamp and staff took over (2015) through the first four games of this season:

Year	Points/ Game	Rush Yds/ Game	Pass Yds/ Game	Tot. Yds/ Game
2015	21.9	154.7	207.5	362.2
2016	20.8	134.4	213.2	347.5
2017	24.2	122.2	214.9	337.1
2018	30.1	152.8	272.8	425.6
2019	32.2	193.0	250.8	443.8

BENTLEY IS IN THE GARAGE: Senior Jake Bentley triggered the offense from the middle of the 2016 season through the first game of the 2019 campaign. A 6-4, 220-pounder from Opelika, Ala., Bentley suffered a Lisfranc injury to his foot on the last play against North Carolina and will miss the remainder of the season after undergoing surgery during the second week of September. Bentley logged a 19-14 record as a starting signal-caller. He ranks near the top of many Carolina career statistical categories:

- Pass Attempts - 1,002 (4th)
- Pass Completions - 626 (3rd)
- Completion Percentage - 62.5 (2nd)
- Passing Yards - 7,527 (4th)
- Passing Touchdowns - 55 (3rd)
- Career Wins - 19 (6th)
- Touchdowns Responsible For - 63 (t3rd)

NEXT MAN UP: True freshman Ryan Hilinski has moved into the starting lineup. Like Bentley, Hilinski, a highly-touted 6-3, 230-pound signal-caller from California, comes from a quarterbacking family. His brother Kelly played QB at Columbia and Weber State, while his brother, the late Tyler Hilinski, was a quarterback at Washington State. Hilinski joined the team in January and went through spring drills. He made his debut against Charleston Southern by hitting his first 12 passes and finished the day 24-of-30 for 282 yards with a pair of touchdowns and an interception. He also had one rushing touchdown. He followed that up with a 36-for-57, 324-yard, two-touchdown performance against Alabama, earning SEC Freshman of the Week accolades. He went on the road last week for the first time and struggled against Missouri, completing just 13-of-30 passes for 166 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Through three games, he has connected on 73-of-117 passes (62.4 pct.) for 772 yards with five TDs and three picks.

THE SIXTH SENSE: When he got the call against Charleston Southern in week 2, Ryan Hilinski became just the sixth true freshman to start at quarterback for the Gamecocks since joining the SEC. Steve Taneyhill (1992), Mikal Goodman (1999), Lorenzo Nuñez (2015), Brandon McIlwain (2016) and Jake Bentley (2016) were the others. Here's how they each fared in their first career start:

Quarterback	Opp.	W/L	C	A	I	Yds	TD
S. Taneyhill	Miss State	W	7	14	1	183	2
M. Goodman	Ole Miss	L	8	15	0	147	0
L. Nuñez	UCF	W	12	22	0	184	2
B. McIlwain	ECU	W	16	28	0	195	0
J. Bentley	UMass	W	17	26	0	201	2
R. Hilinski	Chas. So.	W	24	30	1	282	2

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS: True freshman Ryan Hilinski, making just his second career start and his first against an FBS opponent, completed 36-of-57 passes for 324 yards with two touchdowns against Alabama, earning SEC Freshman of the Week accolades. The 57 attempts were the second-most in a single-game in school history, topped only by the 58 that Steve Taneyhill threw against East Carolina in 1994, while the 36 completions ranks third in school history, topped only by Taneyhill on two occasions - 39 vs. ECU in '94 and 38 vs. Mississippi State in 1995. Hilinski became just the second freshman in program history to throw for more than 300 yards against an SEC opponent, joining Todd Ellis, who threw for 342 yards against Georgia in 1986.

on 35 carries. Feaster, who played at Clemson in each of the past three seasons, has rushed 257 times for 1,513 yards with 16 touchdowns over 45 career games including 11 starts. He ranks second in Clemson history in career yards per carry (5.99) behind only Travis Etienne.

◆ Mon Denson (5-10, 215) has only carried in one game this season, rushing nine times for a career-high 118 yards against Charleston Southern, including a 57-yard touchdown burst, his third-career 100-yard rushing game. He has five rushing TDs in 25 games including a pair of starts.

WHO'S THE NEW GUY? True freshman Kevin Harris made his Gamecock debut a memorable one against Charleston Southern. He rushed six times for 147 yards with three touchdowns. The three rushing TDs tied the school record and he became the first true freshman to score three rushing touchdowns since Marcus Lattimore in 2010. Harris scored from 1-, 45- and 75-yards out. He became the third true freshman to rush for 100 yards in his debut in the last 20 years, joining Derek Watson (118 vs. NC State in 1999) and Deshaun Fenwick (112 vs. Chattanooga in 2018).

CATCH IT IF YOU CAN:

◆ Bryan Edwards already ranks statistically among the best wide receivers in school history. He has caught a pass in all 42 games in which he has appeared, and is now just one behind school record-holder Kenny McKinley's mark of 43. After being limited to just one catch for seven yards against North Carolina, Edwards bounced back with a five-catch, 112-yard, two-TD performance against CSU, logged a career-high nine receptions for 79 yards against Alabama, and posted a six-catch, 113-yard, one touchdown outing at Miz-zou, his seventh career 100-yard receiving game. He passed Alshon Jeffery into second place on the school's career receptions list with 184, behind only Kenny McKinley's school record 207 career receptions. Edwards also moved past Sterling Sharpe into third place on the school's all-time receiving yards list with 2,540. He trails only Alshon Jeffery (3,042) and Kenny McKinley (2,781) on that list. Edwards owns 19 career TDs, tying Robert Brooks, Jermale Kelly and Kenny McKinley for third on the school's all-time list, behind only Sidney Rice and Alshon Jeffery's mark of 23.

◆ Junior Shi Smith (5-10, 190) is picking up the slack following the graduation of second-round NFL draft pick Deebo Samuel. Smith was the top receiver against North Carolina, catching five passes for 55 yards, and logged six receptions for 90 yards and a score against Alabama. He is second on the team with 16 catches for 190 yards through four games.

◆ Sophomore Josh Vann and veteran Chavis Dawkins have each started twice this season as the third receiver. Vann has 10 catches this season for 70 yards. Dawkins logged his first two receptions of the season at Mizzou for 30 yards. Redshirt sophomore OrTre Smith did not dress for the opener, but has since returned to the field after missing most of last season following knee surgery. Randrecous Davis has missed the first four games with a high ankle sprain. Dakereon Joyner and Jay Urich, who both began their collegiate career at quarterback, have seen time at wide receiver. Urich made the move in the spring and is now wearing number 81. Joyner just started playing the position midway through fall camp and is also taking reps at QB. True freshman Xavier Legette has begun seeing more action and is looking for his first reception.

campaign. He lost K.C. Crosby and Jacob August to graduation, then lost Kiel Pollard to a career-ending medical situation during fall camp, while Evan Hinson elected to pursue a basketball career.

◆ Fifth-year junior Kyle Markway (6-4, 250) is the only experienced D-I tight end in the room and is having a career year. Markway caught three passes for 52 yards last week playing in his home state of Missouri, and now has 14 catches for 172 yards and two touchdowns on the season after having just six catches coming into 2019. He had a career-high four receptions against CSU, then topped that with five catches for 46 yards against Alabama.

◆ Junior Nick Muse (6-3, 232), a transfer from William & Mary, got a waiver for immediate eligibility from the NCAA a day prior to the CSU contest. He made an immediate contribution with two catches for 22 yards in that contest and had four catches for 21 yards against Alabama. He added another two catches for 25 yards last week at Mizzou. He hauled in 30 passes for 453 yards a season ago for the Tribe.

◆ Junior Chandler Farrell, a former walk-on center, moved to tight end during fall camp to add depth. He is now wearing No. 31, rather than the 60 he has worn previously. He is still looking for his first reception.

THROW IT TO THE TIGHT END: Ryan Hilinski completed nine passes to tight ends against Alabama, connecting five times with Kyle Markway (46 yards, 1 TD) and four times with Nick Muse (21 yards), individual game highs in receptions for both tight ends. The duo logged five receptions at Mizzou last week and have combined for 22 receptions this season.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN: Senior tight end Kiel Pollard was forced to give up his playing career during fall camp. Pollard suffered a small fracture in his neck, which was to have sidelined him for 4-6 weeks. However, during an MRI, the doctors discovered a cyst on his spinal cord, which appears to have been there since he was a child. The severity of the situation and the possible long-term consequences from that medical condition forced him to retire. Pollard, who will graduate in December, is helping as a student-assistant coach. He served as a captain in the opener vs. UNC.

THE O-LINE SETTLES IN: The Gamecocks have some experience and some depth along the offensive line in what offensive line coach Eric Wolford considers his most athletic unit since rejoining the Carolina staff. However, Wolford shuffled the deck after the opener, inserting two new starters into the lineup. The same quintet has now started three-consecutive games.

◆ Sixth-year senior Donell Stanley (6-3, 325) anchors the unit. Stanley worked at left guard in the season opener, but has since moved back to center. He worked primarily at center during the 2018 season.

◆ The tackle positions are manned on the left side by redshirt junior Sadarius Hutcherson (6-4, 320) and on the right side by Dylan Wonnun (6-5, 310). Hutcherson played guard in 2018, but is strong and athletic enough to handle the tackle position. He earned a spot on Bruce Feldman's "Freaks" list. Wonnun was a Freshman All-American last season.

◆ The Gamecocks started a new pair of guards against CSU, with redshirt sophomore Jordan Rhodes (6-4, 330) taking over at left guard and redshirt freshman Jovaughn Gwyn (6-2, 305) getting the nod at right guard. They both have now started three-straight games.

Defense

DON'T TREAD ON ME: After struggling to stop the run in the season opener against North Carolina, the Gamecocks responded by allowing just 72 rushing yards on 24 carries against Charleston Southern. 44 of the 72 yards came on one play, so the Bucs gained just 38 yards on the other 23 totes. They followed that up with another strong effort against the run vs. Alabama, allowing just 76 yards on 25 carries, a 3.0-yard average. The last time South Carolina held back-to-back opponents under 100 yards rushing was in 2012 when Florida (89), Tennessee (91) and Arkansas (83) were held under 100 yards in consecutive weeks.

SENIORS LEAD THE WAY UP FRONT: This is easily the best defensive front in both depth and talent assembled at South Carolina since the days of Jadeveon Clowney and company raised havoc throughout the SEC. Coach Muschamp has publicly put the pressure on a quintet of seniors to lead the way up front.

◆ Most of the accolades have gone to Javon Kinlaw (6-6, 310), who some NFL experts have labeled a possible first-round draft pick. He has filled up the stat line this season with 13 tackles including an SEC-leading 4.0 sacks (one in each game), two quarterback hurries, a pair of fumble recoveries and a blocked kick.

◆ D.J. Wonnun (6-5, 260) is back after missing eight games a year ago with an ankle injury. Wonnun was named a team captain in 2017 after logging 13.0 tackles for loss including 6.0 sacks. He logged three of the Gamecocks' six tackles for loss in the season opener and registered 11 tackles overall. He had his first career interception at Missouri and rambled 21 yards, setting up the Gamecocks' first touchdown of the game.

◆ Kobe Smith (6-2, 300) is a "glue guy" in the middle of the line and has recorded nine tackles.

◆ Keir Thomas (6-2, 275) is a swing guy who could play either inside or set the edge. He has been sidelined with an infection in his ankle and has yet to suit up this season.

◆ Daniel Fennell (6-2, 255) is coming off an ACL, but hasn't missed a beat and is a very consistent performer.

BROTHERLY LOVE: When Dylan and D.J. Wonnun both started against Tennessee in 2018, they become the first set of brothers to start in a game for Carolina since 2014 when Gerald Dixon and Gerald Dixon Jr. were starters along the defensive line. Dylan was named the SEC Freshman of the Week for his efforts against the Vols, while D.J. earned SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors for the same game. It was the first time a set of brothers earned SEC honors the same week.

GETTING IN THE SACK: The Gamecocks recorded 26 sacks in each of the last two seasons. Through four games, the Gamecocks have logged eight sacks, with Javon Kinlaw leading the way with 4.0, while Aaron Sterling has 2.0.

BACKING UP THE LINE: What was a very thin unit that saw T.J. Brunson and Sherrod Greene each play over 900 snaps a year ago, the Gamecock linebacking corps is much deeper this season.

◆ T.J. Brunson (6-1, 230) is the veteran leader of the group. The first player that Coach Muschamp recruiting at Carolina, Brunson has logged 235 career tackles, including 106 last season alone. A 2018 team captain, he opened the 2019 season with nine stops against UNC, had a season-high 12 stops at Missouri and is currently second on the team with 29 stops.

◆ Sophomore Ernest Jones (6-2, 235) has continued to improve and earned the starting spot at the MIKE position, allowing Brunson to move to WILL, which he played earlier in his career. An excellent communicator, Jones starred in his first start against UNC, registering a team-high 12 tackles, along with a pair of pass breakups. He leads the team with 31 tackles, including 2.0 tackles for loss, both coming against Alabama.

◆ Sherrod Greene (6-1, 230) started every game last season and has been primarily used in a reserve role this season, but has been coming on of late, earning his first start at Mizzou. Eldridge Thompson (6-1, 225) is a sixth-year senior, while junior Damani Staley (6-0, 235) and sophomore Rosendo Louis Jr. (6-2, 250) figure to see playing time. True freshman Jahmar Brown (6-1, 205) has worked his way into the two-deep.

EASON-RIDDLE AT YOUR SERVICE: Junior linebacker Spencer Eason-Riddle is one of 22 student-athletes selected for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®. Narrowed from a list of 137 nominees, the 22 players stood out for their leadership in local communities and overall commitment to giving back. Eason-Riddle has been a regular at both the Dorn VA Medical Center and at the oncology center of the Prisma Health Children's Hospital. He founded and developed the "Sandstorm Buddies Program" which matches University of South Carolina student-athletes with patients and their families through a buddy system, where the student-athletes can serve in a mentor capacity with cancer patients.

RECONFIGURED SECONDARY: Defensive backs coach Travaris Robinson has a talented, but relatively inexperienced group in his meeting room.

◆ J.T. Ibe (5-10, 195) is a sixth-year graduate transfer who, along with junior Jamyest Williams

(5-8, 180) are the two veterans in the secondary. Ibe missed the opener with a pec injury, something he dealt with at Rice as well, but has since returned to the starting lineup. Williams logged nine stops in the opener.

◆ A pair of sophomores in Jaycee Horn (6-1, 200) and Israel Mukuamu (6-4, 205) have the ability to play more man coverage from their cornerback positions. Both are stars in the making, according to the coaching staff. Horn logged a sack and forced a pair of fumbles in the season opener and had two PBUs vs. Alabama. Mukuamu logged seven tackles against UNC, a pick against CSU and registered eight tackles against Alabama.

◆ Versatile senior A.J. Turner (5-10, 190) transitioned from running back to defensive back for his final campaign. He missed the opener with a shoulder injury and left the CSU game early with a dislocated thumb.

◆ Sophomore R.J. Roderick has worked his way into the starting lineup, seeing action at both nickel and safety. He is third on the team with 23 tackles and logged his first career sack against Alabama.

◆ True freshmen Jammie Robinson (5-11, 200) and John Dixon (6-0, 190) both started vs. UNC. They became the eighth and ninth true freshman to start a season opener for the Gamecocks since the 2009 season, joining Stephon Gilmore (2009), Marcus Lattimore (2010), Jadeveon Clowney (2011), Bryson Allen-Williams (2014), Al Harris Jr. (2014), Bryan Edwards (2016) and Jaycee Horn (2018). Dixon had a pick against CSU.

PICK THIS: After logging just six interceptions through the entire 2018 campaign, the Gamecocks already have four interceptions this season, including three picks against Charleston Southern, the most by Carolina in a game since the Vanderbilt win in 2015.

Special Teams

KICKING IT WITH PARKER: Redshirt junior Parker White is in his third season handling the extra point and field goal attempts. White is 6-for-8 in field goals this season with his only misses coming from 50 and 53 yards. He also hit a career-long 48-yarder vs. Alabama. He is 33-of-49 (67.3 percent) in career field goal attempts, including 24-of-26 (92.3 percent) from inside 40 yards. He is 82-for-83 on extra point attempts, including 11-for-11 this season.

WINNER, WINNER, CHICKEN DINNER: Parker White owns three fourth-quarter game-winning field goals in his career. He provided the deciding points in wins over Louisiana Tech (2017), Missouri (2018) and Tennessee (2018).

I'M CHARLTON YOUR PUNTER: Senior Joseph Charlton handles the punting chores for the Gamecocks and is an All-SEC candidate. He was solid in the opener with a long of 59 yards and twice pinning the Tar Heels inside the 5. He did not punt against Charleston Southern, the first time Carolina has gone without punting in a game since 2011 against The Citadel. He averaged 45.5 yards on two punts against Alabama, then had the best games of his career at Missouri, booming eight punts for a 53.4-yard average. The Gamecocks are currently ranked ninth in the country in net punting. Last season, Charlton averaged a school record 44.8 yards per punt, fifth in the SEC and 13th nationally, while earning second-team All-SEC honors from the league's coaches.

CHARLTON THE G.O.A.T.: Joseph Charlton is currently the school record holder for career punting average at 44.1-yards per punt.

CAREER PUNTING AVERAGE (Min. 75 Punts)

1. Joseph Charlton (2015-19) ...44.7 (118 for 5276)
2. Sean Kelly (2015-16)..... 43.3 (127 for 5496)
3. Spencer Lanning (2007-10)..... 42.6 (171 for 7292)
4. Ryan Succop (2005-08)..... 42.3 (85 for 3597)
5. Tom O'Connor (1984-85) 41.8 (118 for 4934)

PUNT RETURN SPECIALIST: Bryan Edwards serves as the Gamecocks' primary punt returner. He had a big game in the season opener against North Carolina, returning three punts for 66 yards with a career-long of 38. Edwards handled those duties a year ago, returning 12 punts for 95 yards, an average of 7.9 yards per return, with a long of 32.

REPLACING DEEBO: It's tough to replace the school's record-holder in kickoff return average, but Shi Smith is doing his best to make people forget Deebo Samuel. Smith returned three kicks for 100 yards, including a 60-yarder that set up a third-quarter touchdown against North Carolina. He is averaging 23.1 yards on seven returns.

SNAPPING BACK: Graduate transfer Matt Oliveira handles the short and deep snapping duties, replacing two-year starter Ben Asbury. Oliveira has experience, having been the long snapper each of the last two seasons for Maryland.

WATCH ME NOW: The Gamecocks have 11 players on the Senior Bowl preseason watch list, the third-highest total in the country. The list includes Jake Bentley, T.J. Brunson, Joseph Charlton, Rico Dowdle, Bryan Edwards, Tavien Feaster, Javon Kinlaw, Kyle Markway, Donell Stanley, Keir Thomas and D.J. Wonnum.

OLD-TIMERS GAME: The Gamecocks have four players - Caleb Kinlaw, J.T. Ibe, Donell Stanley and Eldridge Thompson - who have been granted a sixth-year of eligibility by the NCAA for the 2019 season. Their first collegiate season was in 2014. South Carolina and Akron are the only Division I schools with four sixth-year players on the roster.

GRAD TRANSFERS: The Gamecocks welcomed two grad transfers this fall. Running back Tavien Feaster comes to Carolina after graduating from Clemson, while deep snapper Matt Oliveira joined the squad after graduating from Maryland. J.T. Ibe is another graduate transfer from Rice, who is in his second season with the Gamecocks.

WORKING OVERTIME: The Gamecocks are 2-4 all-time in games decided in overtime.

Date	Opponent	W/L	Score	No. of OT

YOUR MONEY'S NO GOOD HERE: Just prior to the start of the 2019 academic year, walk-on linebacker Spencer Eason-Riddle was rewarded with a scholarship.

FAMILY TIES: Sophomore defensive back Jaycee Horn is the son of former NFL wide receiver Joe Horn, junior linebacker Damani Staley is the son of former Gamecock and NFL running back Duce Staley, while 2019 signee Shilo Sanders is the son of former NFL and MLB standout Deion Sanders.

TOTING THE SHEEPSKIN: Thirteen Gamecocks already have their undergraduate degree in hand. Those who have graduated include: Joseph Charlton, Mon Denson, Spencer Eason-Riddle, Chandler Farrell, Tavien Feaster, Daniel Fennell, Bailey Hart, J.T. Ibe, Caleb Kinlaw, Kyle Markway, Matt Oliveira, Donell Stanley and Eldridge Thompson.

THE CAP AND GOWN AWAITS: Fifteen Gamecocks are on track to graduate in December. The list includes: Michael Almond, Jake Bentley, T.J. Brunson, Rico Dowdle, Bryan Edwards, Daniel Fennell (Master's), Sadarius Hutcherson, Javon Kinlaw, Sean McGonigal, Kiel Pollard, Kobe Smith, Keir Thomas, Will Tommie, A.J. Turner, and Alex Woznick.

LOVE US FOR OUR MINDS: Gamecock football student-athletes posted a combined 3.026 GPA in the fall semester of 2018, the best in school history, then topped that with a 3.084 team GPA in the spring of 2019.

UP NEXT: The Gamecocks will enjoy the first of two open weeks this season next week before returning to SEC action on Oct. 12, when they travel to Athens to take on the #3/3 Georgia Bulldogs. Georgia leads the all-time series by a 51-18-2 margin in a series that dates back to 1894. The Bulldogs have won each of the last four meetings with Carolina's last win coming in 2014. The Gamecocks' last win in Athens came in 2011.

#17/17 Kentucky 24
South Carolina 10

September 29, 2018
Kroger Field
Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, KY. (AP) — Benny Snell Jr. ran for 99 yards and one of Kentucky's three consecutive first-half touchdowns before the No. 17 Wildcats held on for a 24-10 victory over South Carolina on Saturday night.

Kentucky (5-0, 3-0 Southeastern Conference) quashed initial concerns about a letdown following their first Top 25 ranking since November 2007 by scoring on four straight drives to lead 24-3 at half-time. The Wildcats ended up needing that cushion to offset a scoreless second half and Jake Bentley's 58-yard, third quarter TD pass that kept the Gamecocks (2-2, 1-2) within striking distance.

Mike Edwards' interception with 3:47 remaining snuffed one chance by the Gamecocks before they turned the ball over on downs in the final minute. That sealed Kentucky's fifth consecutive series win and continued its best SEC start since 1977.

Snell's rushing yardage on 28 carries also made him the third Wildcat to break 3,000 career. His 4-yard score with 4:53 remaining in the second quarter extended his TD record to 40. Quarterback Terry Wilson and A.J. Rose ran for TDs from 1 and 24 yards as Kentucky edged South Carolina 327-321 in yardage. The Wildcats also registered four takeaways, scoring 10 points off a fumble and interception.

GAME CHANGER

Kentucky scored three rushing touchdowns in the second quarter as Benny Snell, Terry Wilson and Asim Rose each found paydirt to give the Wildcats a 24-3 halftime lead. Kentucky ended the contest with 195 rushing yards, 99 coming from Snell.

KEY STAT

4 — The two teams were close on total yards (327-321 in favor of Kentucky) and first downs (20-19 in favor of Carolina) but four Gamecock turnovers, including an interception in the end zone with 3:47 left in the contest, led to 10 Wildcat points in Kentucky's 14-point win.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Benny Snell Jr. rushed for two touchdowns and Kentucky's defense held off South Carolina to win its fourth straight over the Gamecocks, 23-13, on Saturday night.

Snell, who's status was in doubt earlier in the week due to bruised ribs, rushed for scores of 5 and 1 yard in leading the Wildcats (1-0 Southeastern Conference) to their first 3-0 start since 2010. Two years ago, Kentucky snapped a 22-game SEC road losing streak at South Carolina.

This time, the Wildcats left no doubt about who was the better team in this one.

It did not start that way, though.

South Carolina (2-1, 1-1) electrified a sold-out stadium with a 68-yard TD catch by receiver Deebo Samuel on the opening play, then got an interception and a fumble from the Wildcats' first two drives. But Kentucky's defense did not allow the Gamecocks any more points after that.

Snell and offense took over with two long, first-half scoring drives for a 14-6 lead. Snell ended a 13-play series with his 5-yard touchdown. He capped an 11-play sequence with his second touchdown.

Kentucky made the critical plays when it needed. Facing fourth-and-goal from the Wildcats 1 in the fourth quarter, Gamecock tailback Rico Dowdle was stopped cold by linebacker Jamar Watson and cornerback Derrick Baity.

Then when the Gamecocks closed it to 20-13 on OrTre Smith's 9-yard touchdown grab with 6:26 left, Kentucky quarterback Stephen Johnson scrambled on third down for a 54-yard run that led to Austin MacGinnis' third field goal with two minutes left that sealed the win.

Snell finished with 102 yards on 32 carries.

Samuel had five catches for 122 yards and his sixth touchdown of the season. But he left the game in the fourth quarter with an injury.

GAME CHANGER

South Carolina forced a pair of first-half turnovers, an interception from Skai Moore and a fumble recovery from Jamyest Williams. The Gamecocks did not turn those Kentucky miscues into points as a Jake Bentley interception and a punt ended those USC drives.

KEY STAT

68 -- Jake Bentley hit Deebo Samuel for a 68-yard touchdown on the first offensive play of the game. Samuel ended the game with five receptions for 122 yards but he suffered an injury that will have him out for extended period of time.

Will Muschamp begins his fourth season directing the Gamecocks' football fortunes in 2019. Muschamp was introduced as the University of South Carolina's 34th head football coach on December 7, 2015.

Coach Muschamp recorded more wins in his first three seasons in Columbia (22) than any coach in school history. He is also the first head coach to take the Gamecocks to bowl games in each of his first three seasons.

In his first season in Columbia, Muschamp guided the Gamecocks to a 6-7 mark and a spot in the Birmingham Bowl. The Gamecocks doubled their win total from the previous season while increasing their SEC wins from one to three. The Gamecocks started as many true freshman (7) as any school in the country, and were the only Division I school to have true freshmen lead the team in both passing (Jake Bentley) and rushing (Rico Dowdle). Seventy-six of the Gamecocks' 113-man Birmingham Bowl roster (67.3 percent) were either freshmen or sophomores in Muschamp's first campaign.

His second season brought more success, as the team won nine games for just the seventh time in school history, was the only Power 5 school to have a multiple win total increase in 2016 and 2017, finished second in the SEC East and earned a second-straight bowl appearance. The season culminated with an Outback Bowl victory over Michigan on New Year's Day.

Coach Muschamp's third squad posted a 7-6 campaign and a third-straight bowl appearance despite being decimated by injuries on the defensive side of the ball. The return of Deebo Samuel, who earned All-America recognition, sparked an offense that logged five games of 500 or more yards.

Regarded as an outstanding defensive mind, Muschamp is a 24-year coaching veteran, including 16 years in the Southeastern Conference. In seven seasons as a head coach, all in the SEC, Muschamp owns a 50-38 record, a .568 winning percentage, including a 22-17 mark at South Carolina.

His previous head coaching experience came at the University of Florida where he posted a 28-21 record from 2011-14. He led the Gators to three bowl games in his four seasons in Gainesville and was recognized as the SEC Coach of the Year in 2012 after guiding Florida to an 11-2 record and a Top-10 finish.

As an assistant coach, the Rome, Ga., native has worked in two national championship games (2003 and 2009), winning with LSU in 2003, and coached in a pair of BCS bowl games following the 2008 and 2012 seasons. He has coached in and won three conference championship games, twice in the SEC and once in the Big 12. He was a finalist for the 2007 Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Muschamp most recently served as the defensive coordinator at Auburn University in 2015, his third stint as an SEC defensive coordinator. He also held that title with Auburn from 2006-07 and at LSU from 2002-04. In his six seasons as an SEC defensive coordinator, Muschamp's units ranked among the nation's Top-10 in total defense and in scoring defense five times.

Muschamp's first full-time coaching experience in the SEC came at LSU. He was the Tigers' linebacker coach for one season before being elevated to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. His 2003 defense helped the Tigers to the national championship by leading the nation both in scoring defense (11.0 ppg) and total defense (252.0 ypg), while finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense (89.8) and third in rushing defense (67.0 ypg).

Prior to taking the reins at Florida, Muschamp served as the defensive coordinator at Texas from 2008-10. Under his guidance, the Longhorn defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks and ranked in the Top-10 nationally allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth) and 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all Big 12 bests during that span. In 2009, Texas played in the BCS National Championship game. Under Muschamp's tutelage, Brian Orakpo won the 2008 Rotary Lombardi, Bronko Nagurski and Ted Hendricks awards. In the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined eight players drafted, seven in the first four rounds, including first-rounders Brian Orakpo and Earl Thomas.

In four of his nine seasons as an FBS defensive coordinator, his teams have allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game and twice led the nation in rushing defense. His 2003 LSU defense led the country by allowing 67 yards per game on the ground, the best mark by an SEC team in the 2000s, while Texas gave up just 73.1 yards on the ground in 2009 to pace the nation.

A 1994 Georgia graduate, Muschamp moved immediately into coaching, working as a GA at Auburn from 1995-96, while earning his master's degree. He served as a secondary coach at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999) before moving into his first defensive coordinator position at Valdosta State for the 2000 season, where he helped the Blazers to a 10-2 record and the Gulf South title.

Muschamp also logged a stint in the NFL, working as the Miami Dolphins Assistant Head Coach for Defense in 2005 under Nick Saban.

During his playing career at Georgia, Muschamp earned his way from walk-on to scholarship player by the spring of his redshirt freshman season and eventually was named co-captain as a senior. A safety on the gridiron, he earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

Born August 3, 1971, Muschamp and his wife, the former Carol Davis, have two sons, Jackson and Whit.

CHARLOTTE N.C. (AP) — True freshman quarterback Sam Howell threw for 245 yards and two touchdowns, Myles Wolfork had two late fourth quarter interceptions and North Carolina battled back to beat South Carolina 24-20 on Saturday in Mack Brown's return to the sideline following a five-year hiatus.

Howell capped second half drives of 98 and 95 yards with a 22-yard TD strike to Dyami Brown and a 17-yard scoring toss to Beau Corrales to give Brown his first win since 2013, when he coached at Texas.

Brown was holding back tears as he was interviewed leaving the field after singing the school fight song with fans and raising his hands to them in victory.

"I don't usually (do that) but I thought I should because they stayed, they were loud," Brown said. ... I wanted to tell them thank you."

Later, Brown danced in the Tar Heels locker room.

The Tar Heels' defense was strong in the second half, and Wolfork sealed the win by intercepting Jake Bentley twice on South Carolina's final three possessions helping North Carolina register its first win over a power-conference opponent in a season opener since topping Indiana in 1997, Brown's final season in his first stint at the school.

The Tar Heels were remarkably conservative on offense in crucial situations in the first half, not wanting to put Howell in difficult situations. North Carolina ran 12 plays inside the South Carolina 25-yard line in the first half and 11 were runs. The only pass attempt resulted in a sack.

But as the game progressed, the Tar Heels began to take the handcuffs off Howell and he responded with two big TD passes and no major mistakes.

"We were very conservative with Sam Howell around the goal line early," Brown said. "And we felt like at halftime, he's a quarterback. We have to turn him loose. And he played a tremendous second half."

North Carolina did most of its damage on the ground though, rushing for 238 yards on 52 carries. Javonte Williams led the way with 102 yards on 18 carries.

"They are patient in their runs and we cut back and over-pursued," said South Carolina coach Will Muschamp.

Clemson graduate transfer Tavien Feaster, who won two national championship rings with the Tigers and ran for 1,109 yards and 13 touchdowns over the past two seasons, ran for 72 yards and a touchdown for the Gamecocks.

Bentley was limited to 142 yards passing.

GAME CHANGER

North Carolina scored on drives of 98 and 95 yards in the fourth quarter to overcome a 20-9 deficit for a 24-20 victory. The Tar Heels scored on passes of 22 and 17 yards, part of Sam Howell's 245 passing yards.

KEY STAT

483 – The Tar Heels gained 483 of total offense, compared to 280 for the Gamecocks. Javonte Williams had 102 rushing yards while Dazz Newsome had 74 yards receiving. North Carolina also has 33:42 time of possession.

South Carolina 72
Charleston Southern 10

September 7, 2019
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — South Carolina fans gave quarterback Ryan Hilinski even more love than a second string QB typically gets in his first start and the freshman with the inspiring backstory responded with a storybook debut.

Hilinski completed 24 of 30 passes for 282 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score leading the Gamecocks (1-1) to a 72-10 win over Charleston Southern on Saturday.

The highly touted Hilinski earned the backup job in spring practice after enrolling early from high school and was elevated to starter after senior Jake Bentley broke his foot in the last play of the opening loss to North Carolina. Bentley is out for at least several weeks.

While South Carolina was recruiting Hilinski, his older brother Tyler Hilinski killed himself while playing quarterback for Washington State. The school promised to do whatever it could to help his family and their Hilinski's Hope foundation in Tyler's honor to help make the mental health of college athletes as important as their physical health.

The crowd chanted "Let's go Ryan!" during his first two drives.

Hilinski's parents were in the stands and his mother, Kym, said during an in-game interview with the SEC Network that she caught herself cheering for Tyler as her younger son took the field for South Carolina.

"I stepped back and I said, 'Oh my god, I can't believe I just yelled that.' But I think they were both out there on the field today, right?" Kym Hilinski said in the TV interview. "It was Ryan and Tyler, and Tyler was his angel on the field. I hope he's with him for the rest of this season and the next few seasons."

The Gamecocks mostly kept it simple for Hilinski against the FCS Buccaneers (0-2) with plenty of screens, short passes and handoffs. Hilinski did hit Bryan Edwards in stride for a 60-yard touchdown pass and looked like a freshman in the third quarter when he was rushed and sailed a pass for his one interception.

But overall, it was a fine debut for the freshman. Things get exponentially harder next week with No. 2 Alabama coming to town for the Southeastern Conference opener.

Muschamp said dealing with the pain and struggle of what happened to his brother helps Ryan Hilinski deal with social media and the crucible of now being a starting quarterback in the SEC.

"It makes you grow up very quickly," Muschamp said. "It helps you handle criticism."

GAME CHANGER

South Carolina accumulated a school-record 775 yards of total offense and scored 11 touchdowns in the rout of the Buccaneers. The Gamecocks scored 21 points in the first quarter and never looked back, as Carolina had two 100-yard rushers (Mon Denson and Kevin Harris) and a 100-yard receiver (Bryan Edwards).

KEY STAT

282 – Ryan Hilinski made his first start in a Gamecock uniform on Saturday, throwing for 282 yards on 24 completions in 30 attempts. Hilinski threw for a pair of touchdowns, including a 60-yard strike to Bryan Edwards.

#2/2 Alabama 47 South Carolina 23

September 14, 2019
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Alabama quarterback Tua Tagovailoa focused on what his team needs to work on instead of his career performance.

Tagovailoa threw for a career-best 444 yards - the third most in history for No. 2 Alabama - and tied his high with five TD passes in a 47-23 victory over South Carolina on Saturday.

But there was no gushing or celebrations for Tagovailoa, who seemed to channel his coach Nick Saban in a single-minded focus on what the Crimson Tide (3-0, 1-0 Southeastern Conference) must do to improve.

"When we start drives, we've got to finish them," he said. "We were able to move the ball really well, but we got stuck."

It seemed like Tagovailoa unstuck the Tide much of the game against South Carolina (1-2, 0-1).

He had TD throws of 24 yards to Najee Harris and 81 yards to Henry Ruggs III in the opening quarter. When the Gamecocks closed to 17-10, Tagovailoa hit Harris who finished a nifty run where he broke through one tackler, leaped over another and dragged a third over the goal line with him.

Tagovailoa finished 28 of 36. He surpassed his previous best of 387 yards set against Texas A&M last year. Tagovailoa matched his career high of five TDs on an 11-yard toss to DeVonta Smith in the final quarter.

The Crimson Tide finished with 76 yards rushing against 495 passing.

Saban reminded his players, about all who were in middle or elementary school in 2010, of the Tides' previous game here when the top-ranked Tide were soundly beaten 35-21.

And the Gamecocks tried anything they could to pull off another miracle, but little worked - especially with Tagovailoa in complete control.

Parker White's fake field goal run to the end zone was called back because of holding. Alabama snuffed out a fake punt to stop the Gamecocks well short of a first down. And when South Carolina drove to Alabama's 1 on the final play of the half, freshman Ryan Hilinski's pass to the back of the end zone was off target.

Tagovailoa's passing yards were the third most in school history. He bettered his previous mark of 387 yards against Texas A&M and tied his personal best for touchdowns set against Auburn, both of those coming in 2018.

Smith and Ruggs both surpassed 100 yards receiving. Smith had 136 yards on eight catches, including two TDs. Ruggs had six catches for 122 yards.

South Carolina coach Will Muschamp said his team's errors near the goal line - Hilinski threw high on one fourth-and-goal and threw an interception into the end zone - cost them the chance to keep things closer.

GAME CHANGER

South Carolina cut the Alabama lead to 24-13 on a 28-yard Parker White field goal with 11:26 left in the third quarter but the Crimson Tide came back with a five-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a DeVonta Smith touchdown reception from Tua Tagovailoa, giving Alabama the 31-13 lead on its way to a 47-23 victory.

KEY STAT

819 - The two teams combined for 819 passing yards, 444 from Tagovailoa and 324 from Carolina freshman Ryan Hilinski. Hilinski was 36-for-57 with a pair of touchdowns in the game.

Missouri 34 South Carolina 14

COLUMBIA, MO. (AP) — Missouri's defense scored the easy way and the hard way as the Tigers beat South Carolina 34-14 on Saturday.

Linebacker Cale Garrett recovered a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown and safety Ronnell Perkins returned an interception 100 yards for another score for the Tigers (3-1, 1-0 Southeastern Conference). South Carolina (1-3, 0-2 SEC) managed just 16 rushing yards and freshman quarterback Ryan Hilinski committed two costly turnovers.

Missouri quarterback Kelly Bryant completed 19 of 33 passes for 227 yards and two touchdowns. He rushed 17 times for 77 yards.

The Tigers began the scoring in the first quarter with a bizarre play. Hilinski's pass was batted back to him by Missouri defensive end Chris Turner. Hilinski grabbed the ball and spiked it at his own 1-yard line. Although the officials initially ruled the second throw an incomplete - and illegal - forward pass, Garrett scooped up the ball in the end zone. After a video review showed Hilinski's spike went backward, the original call was reversed, it was ruled a fumble and the Tigers were awarded a touchdown.

The Gamecocks got back into the game in the second quarter when D.J. Wonnum intercepted a Bryant pass in the flat and rumbled 21 yards to Missouri's 1-yard line. Rico Dowdle pounded in a touchdown run to cut South Carolina's deficit to 10-7. Missouri answered with Bryant's 3-yard touchdown pass to Albert Okwuegbunam, and the Tigers led 17-7 at halftime.

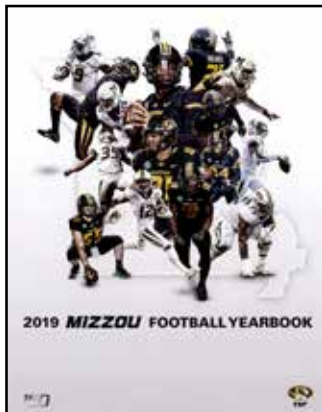

After throwing for only 3 yards in the first half, Hilinski threw a perimeter screen to wide receiver Bryan Edwards on the first play of the second half, and Edwards weaved 75 yards for a touchdown. Hilinski guided the Gamecocks down the field on the ensuing drive by converting two third-down passes and one fourth-down pass. But on third-and-goal from Missouri's 3-yard line, Hilinski threw it right to Missouri's Perkins in the end zone, and he returned it 100 yards to give the Tigers a 31-14 lead.

GAME CHANGER

With the Gamecocks trailing 24-14 and the ball on the Missouri 3-yard line, Ryan Hilinski's pass was intercepted by Ronnell Perkins in the end zone and returned for a 100-yard touchdown, giving the Tigers the 31-14 lead.

KEY STAT

2 — Missouri scored a pair of defensive touchdowns in the game, as Cale Garrett recovered a fumble in the end zone in the first quarter and Perkins returned an interception 100 yards in the third.
