SERIES HISTORY VS. KENTUCKY

Monday night's matchup between Utah Valley and Kentucky will mark just the second time the two teams have met on the basketball hardwood. Kentucky won the only meeting between the two schools, 73-63, on Nov. 10, 2017 at Rupp Arena.

LAST TIME VS. KENTUCKY (UK 73, UVU 63 - Rupp Arena - Lexington, Kentucky)

LEXINGTON--Utah Valley University made a run at No. 4/5 Kentucky before eventually falling, 73-63, on the opening night of the college basketball season on Nov. 10, 2017 at historic Rupp Arena. UVU then headed to Durham, North Carolina for the second half what was dubbed the toughest 24 hours in college basketball history to face top-ranked Duke the following night.

The Wolverines (0-1) led by as much as 12 points in the second half, when Kenneth Ogbe converted on a three-point play with a dunk and a free throw, but the Wildcats (1-0) took control of the game on the strength of an 18-0 run. The run turned a 37-25 UVU lead into a 43-37 advantage for Kentucky.

Ogbe led a balanced scoring attack with 12 points while Jake Toolson added 11 points and three others chipped in 10. Akolda Manyang blocked five shots to go along with six points and six rebounds while Isaac Neilson scored 10 points and grabbed eight boards, as Utah Valley out-rebounded Kentucky, 38-37. Conner Toolson and Brandon Randolph also scored 10 points apiece, while Randolph dished out seven assists.

Hamidou Diallo led all scorers with 18 points while Shai Gilgeous-Alexander finished with 13. Wenyen Gabriel finished with a game-high 13 rebounds, six coming on the offensive glass.

In the first half, Randolph found Neilson for a lay-up that gave UVU an 18-14 advantage before Kentucky responded with nine straight points. The Wolverines answered that with nine straight behind the play of Ben Nakwaasah, who scored a lay-up, found Ogbe for a three, and hit a pair from the line to put Utah Valley back in front, 25-23.

Randolph capped the run with a bucket and later scored the final bucket of the half on a 3-pointer that gave the Wolverine a 34-25 lead at the break. The Wolverines were plus-nine on the glass in the first half, outrebounding Kentucky, 25-16.

Out of halftime, Manyang blocked an attempt

Quoting Madsen

On the play of Brandon Averette at UAB

"I was proud of Brandon Averette and the way he stepped up. He played great defense, knocked down some huge shots. You look at the way he controlled the ball and as much as he had the ball, he only had two turnovers. His 38 minutes shows you the level of physical conditioning and mental stamina that he has."

On playing Kentucky

"No matter what the outcome, our guys are going to play extremely hard. We're going in there to play as hard as possible and to give it our best shot. We've had an extra day of preparation and we'll use that to our benefit to get guys rested up and ready to go."

On UVU's three guard lineup

"The three guard lineup is one that we can go to. Everyone of them can finish in the paint. From Ege to TJ to Brandon. Everyone is capable of having a 10-assist night and of course, they each can make the big play."

ABOUT UVU ATHLETICS' NCAA HISTORY

Until 2003, Utah Valley University competed as a NJCAA athletic program. The 2003-04 season was the school's first competing at an NCAA Division I level. In 2004-05, UVU played its first full Division I schedule. As a program transitioning from junior college to DI, UVU was termed "provisional" and remained that way until 2009. UVU's provisional status was lifted and the program became a full member of NCAA Division I on July 8, 2009. Until then, UVU teams and individuals were not eligible to compete in NCAA championship events.

The Wolverines spent six seasons as an independent before the Great West Conference became an all-sports league in 2008 and began its first full season in 2009. UVU also became a university in 2008, changing its name from Utah Valley State College (UVSC) to Utah Valley University (UVU). UVU joined the Western Athletic Conference on July 1, 2013. Joining the WAC gave UVU teams the opportunity to play for NCAA automatic bids for the first time in program history.
