2019-20 Evansville Men's Basketball

By the Numbers

7 — Evansville will have seven newcomers on the 2019-20 squad

40 — As a player at Kentucky, Walter McCarty wore the #40. He returns to Rupp Arena as a coach on 11/12/19.

101 — The 2019-20 season marks the 101st season of college basketball at the University of Evansville

The Opponent

- Kentucky is a perfect 2-0 on the season with wins over top-ranked Michigan State (69-62) along with a 91-49 victory over Eastern Kentucky in Friday's home opener
- Tyrese Maxey leads the way with 17.5 points per game; the freshman is 9-18 from the field and has connected on 14 out of 15 free throw tries
- Forward Nick Richards is second with 14 PPG; he has converted 12 of his 18 field goal attempts in two games and add 7.0 rebounds
- Nate Sestina has excelled on the glass in the early part of the season for the Wildcats, leading the squad with 8.5 rebounds per game

Coach McCarty on Kentucky...

"I don't think you can prepare a team to play there (Rupp Arena). We have to go in there and play the right way. Kentucky is going to be very aggressive. We just have to make the right play and not try to do too much. We have to stay with what we do and trust what we do. No matter who we are playing, we have to play the right way and value the basketball. Be a team and do it as a team."

Player Analysis heading to Kentucky

"We are treating it like another game. We are trying to focus on ourselves and becoming a better team."

- Senior K.J. Riley

"We do not have to do anything different just because it is Kentucky – we have to do what we do. We just need to play our game."

- Sophomore DeAndre Williams

We are.....UE

There are several ways to reference the University of Evansville. Generally, the first reference should always be "University of Evansville" or "Purple Aces". Later references to our team may be "Aces" as well as just using the word "Evansville".

Our school abbreviation is "UE". Under no circumstances is it acceptable to use "EU". We are not, never have been, and never will be, the European Union.

In the spring of 2019, the entire university underwent a complete re-brand. The "UE" logo below is our primary and the "Aces" is our secondary. Both are acceptable to use at any time. If you need logo files, please email rp113@evansville.edu.

Media Policy

University of Evansville Associate Athletics Director for Media Relations Bob Pristash is the primary media contact for Aces Men's Basketball and all interview and media requests must be directed to his attention. He can be reached via email at rp113@evansville.edu or at 812-266-5288.

Head coach Walter McCarty and requested players will be available at allotted times in the afternoons during the season. All requests must be made within 24 hours of the interview time. No exceptions. All scheduled interviews will take place in the practice facility or Ford Center, depending on practice location. Please see the schedule in game notes for a full schedule of that week. Please contact Bob Pristash on the day of your scheduled interview to confirm location. With schedules at the Ford Center possibly changing last minute, we want to make sure you end up at the correct place. There will also be no availability on game day prior to the contest and on scheduled off days.

Most practices will take place at 6 a.m. in the fall. Please coordinate with Pristash if you would like to attend. All photographers must notify Pristash in advance in order to attend practice. Coach McCarty and selected players will be available following each home game in the media room of the Ford Center following a ten-minute cooling off period.

Quotes from road games will be included in the post-game release.

The Opening Tip
- For the first time in program history, the University of Evansville men's basketball team will travel to Lexington, Ky. to take on the University of Kentucky
- Game time is set for 7 p.m. ET on Tuesday evening at Rupp Arena and the SEC Network will have the broadcast

Setting the Scene
- Purple Aces head coach Walter McCarty makes his return to his alma mater where he was part of the 1996 National Championship team before being drafted by the New York Knicks with the 19th pick in the first round of the 1996 NBA Draft
- With a win over top-ranked Michigan State last week, the Wildcats are expected to assume the top spot in the rankings
- Should they do so, it will mark the third time the Aces have faced the top team in the land; on 12/18/08, UE dropped a 91-73 game at North Carolina while the first meeting against the #1 team came on 2/26/80 at DePaul - a 105-94 UE loss
- Evansville will make its second appearance on the SEC Network; the first came on 12/8/15 when the Aces traveled to Fayetteville, Ark. to face the University of Arkansas; the Razorbacks won by a final of 89-76

Leftovers from Ball State
- Saturday's win over the Cardinals marked UE's 8th win in nine home openers at the Ford Center; the victory was also the program's 100th at the arena since its opening in 2011
- UE improved to 24-2 in 26 home games against Ball State with Saturday's 79-75 win
- The UE defense allowed 18 BSU points in the first half on Saturday before giving up 57 in the second half
- Those totals are the highest and lowest defensive efforts in a half under Coach McCarty; the highest total allowed in a half last year was 54 in the second half against Wyoming; the lowest allowed was 20 in the first half of the home win over Loyola

Last Time Out
- An exciting opener saw Evansville defeat Ball State by a final of 79-75 on Saturday
- It was a tale of two halves as the Purple Aces shot 48.5% in the first half while leading by a 40-18 margin at the break
- Early in the second half, UE extended the lead to 45-20, but over the final 18:44 of the game, Ball State outscored the Aces by a 55-34 span
- UE converted all four free throw attempts in the final 10 seconds to clinch the win

Ford Center Milestone
- The season-opening win over Ball State marked the 100th win inside the Ford Center for the program; UE is 100-39 in the arena, which opened in 2011

Season Openers
- With the win over BSU, the Aces improved to 67-34 in its 101 season openers

What a debut
- Sophomore DeAndre Williams had the best debut in 33 seasons for the program as he tallied 26 points against Ball State
- Williams was 11-for-14 from the field, 3-4 from outside and added 9 rebounds, 3 assists and 2 steals
- His effort was the best in an Evansville debut since Dec. 1, 1986 when Marty Simmons scored 27 points in an 85-79 home win over Montana State
- Interestingly enough - also making his debut that night was Scott Haffner, who added 26 points

Clutch down the stretch
- Sam Cunliffe had a nice program debut of his own on Saturday, recording 17 points for UE
- Cunliffe was 6-13 shooting, but got the job done from outside, hitting 3 of his 4 tries
- The final total was shy of Cunliffe's career scoring mark of 23 points, which came in November of 2016 as a player at Arizona State; his total came against The Citadel

Europe Trip
- Evansville got a head start to its 2019-20 season by playing three games on a trip to Europe in early August
- The Aces opened with an 84-82 win over the London Lions before earning another close win over Gembo Borgerhout, earning an 83-81 victory
- UE put it all together in the finale as they picked up a 77-64 win over AK Training Camp in France

Non-Conference Schedule
- Coach McCarty and his staff have put together an extremely competitive schedule once again
- An exhibition against Division II Final Four participant USI opens play before UE opens the regular season with a home game against Ball State on Nov. 9
- Three days later, the Aces play their first-ever game against the University of Kentucky; Walter McCarty remains a popular Wildcat and won the 1996 National Championship with the team
- Another big home game is on tap on Nov. 18 when the Aces take on SMU before traveling to the Islands of the Bahamas Showcase in Nassau where they open against East Carolina
- From there, UE wraps up the month of November with a trip to IUPUI before beginning December with home games versus Western Illinois and Miami Ohio
- The Aces take a quick 2-game road trip to Green Bay and Jacksonville State before wrapping up the pre-conference slate with a home contest against Murray State on Dec. 21

Home Attendance

- Home attendance saw a large jump for the Aces last season, who averaged 5,299 fans per game, the highest single-season total in Ford Center history
- UE had at least 5,000 in attendance in each of the last ten home games including a season-high of 6,419 against Indiana State
- The 2018-19 season saw the program average 1,512 more fans per game than 2017-18, a 40% increase
- On Nov. 9 against Ball State, the Aces welcomed 5,372 fans - it was the highest total in a home opener since the inaugural opener against Butler in 2011

Well that looks familiar

- Aces fans have become accustomed to what senior K.J. Riley has to offer and he did not disappoint in the season opener
- Riley scored 14 points on 5-of-8 shooting while hitting 4 of his 5 free throw tries
- One of the best in the nation in drawing fouls, Riley drew six in the game
- Riley finished his junior season 16th in the nation in free throw attempts (244) and 24th in the NCAA with 176 free throw makes
- He reached double figures in 24 of the final 27 games last season and finished as the Aces' leading scorer with 13.6 points per game; that tally was 12th in the MVC

Record from Outside

- One of the staples of Coach McCarty's offense has been the propensity to shoot the three
- Last season, Evansville set program marks in 3-point makes (264) and attempts (776)
- The previous UE record for makes was 244 in 1993-94 while the prior mark for attempts was 602 in 2004-05
- Since the 3-pointer was adopted prior to the 1986-87 campaign, UE attempts 500 or more on nine occasions; by comparison, Evansville's opponents have shot 500 triples in 23 of those seasons

Home Cooking

- A native of Evansville, Walter McCarty definitely enjoys the home cooking
- Last year, he led the Purple Aces to a 6-1 non-conference record at the Ford Center
- That included wins over Wyoming, Ball State and Green Bay
- The streak continued on Nov. 9 with a 79-75 win over Ball State

What's Coming Back?

- UE brings back seven players from last year's roster
- That translates to 61.8% of its scoring, 62.3% of the rebounds, 72.3% of the assists and 65.4% of the steals from 2018-19

Moving Forward

- Not too many players saw the improvement that John Hall did in his first season under the teaching of Coach McCarty
- Hall saw his scoring improve from 2.9 to 9.0 points, his rebounds go from 2.7 to 6.6 and his 3-point shooting jump from 16.7% all the way to 35.7%
- He was Evansville's leading rebounder last season with 6.6 per contest
- Hall made the start against BSU grabbing three rebounds

King of the Hill

- Junior Noah Frederking made the 18th start of his career in the 2019-20 opener
- Frederking scored 8 points in the win over the Cardinals and drew a pivotal charge in the final minutes
- His top career game came on 11/15/18 against Kentucky Wesleyan as he scored 26 points

Making the Jump

- Junior Evan Kuhlman was UE's leading free throw shooter last season at 88.0% and averaged 6.2 points per game
- He began the 2019-20 season with a 3-3 effort from the line
- Kuhlman scored a career-best 14 points against Illinois State last season at Redbird Arena

Up-Tempo Sophomore

- Shamar Givance made six starts and played in all 32 games as a freshman, posting 17.1 minutes per game
- His top offensive game was a 12-point day against Wyoming while he added 10 in each game versus UNI for his top MVC efforts
- In 547 minutes, he had 75 assists against 42 turnovers
- Givance was one of the Aces' most productive players in the opener and finished with five points; three of those came on a triple at the buzzer to finish the first half

Making the Effort

- As a freshman last season, Jawaun Newton was touted as the Aces top defensive player
- Offensively, he added a 9-point game against Bradley for his top total
- Newton really came into his own on the summer trip to Europe, tallying eight points in the opener in London before erupting for 15 points in France
- Newton was 7-for-10 from the floor and took over the game in the first half
- His work did not go unnoticed by Coach McCarty as Newton was rewarded with the start in the season opener against BSU
- Newton played 19 minutes while grabbing two rebounds

2019-20 Evansville Men's Basketball

Everyone is a Threat

- "Everyone is a Threat" is the quote used by Coach McCarty and is has shown in the efforts by UE's walk-ons
- Devan Straub came off the bench to play 10 minutes at Missouri State and hit a huge three that helped the Aces pull off the win; he set his UE mark with five points at Loyola; he saw time in 12 games
- Gage Bobe joined the program as a walk-on in 2019

The Freshmen

- Thomasi Gilgeous-Alexander and Marcus Henderson join the program as freshmen in 2019
- Gilgeous-Alexander is the brother of Shai Gilgeous-Alexander, who played for the Oklahoma City Thunder
- He had a huge play in the 4th quarter of the 2-point win in Belgium
- Marcus Henderson is a native of Charlotte, N.C. where he averaged 12.5 points at Statesville Christian HS as a senior
- He scored nine points in his debut in London and was on the floor for three minutes in the season opener; he was 1-1 from the floor

McCarty on the Freshmen:
"Marcus is a knock down shooter, his shot always looks like its going in. He really understands the game as a freshman. You cannot speed him up, he is really composed and it is fun to watch him. He has that natural fit where he knows how to play the game. He has already lost 10-15 pounds and is gaining muscle."

"Thomasi is a 6-7 point guard and he does things that you cannot teach. Getting to the paint, finding his teammates and distributing the ball, he is doing very well all the way around. We are really happy with him."

Aces vs. Ranked Opponents

Since the 1948-49 season, the University of Evansville has squared off against 71 ranked opponents, posting a 16-55 mark. Evansville has knocked off a ranked opponent in five out of the last eight seasons.

2019-20 Evansville Men's Basketball

The Ford Center

The Ford Center

In the fall of 2011, the Ford Center opened as the new home of the University of Evansville men's basketball team. The Aces made the move to the brand new downtown venue after playing at Roberts Stadium or 55 years.

Construction of the $127.5 million arena began in 2010. In August of 2011, Tri-State Ford Dealers acquired the naming rights to the 290,000 square foot facility, dubbing it the Ford Center.

Located on the corner of Main Street and MLK Jr. Boulevard, the Ford Center seats around 10,000 and is fully accessible to wheelchairs and patrons with limited mobility. In addition to cushioned chair backs, the Ford Center features numerous amenities, including six concession stands and one bar, 18 restrooms, and 178 televisions on and around the concourse level.

HEAD COACH WALTER MCCARTY

Walter McCarty was officially introduced as the head men's basketball coach at the University of Evansville on March 23, 2018. McCarty joins the UE program after serving as the assistant coach of the Boston Celtics since 2013.

In just a short time, McCarty has transformed the UE program in all facets. On the floor, he instituted a high-paced system that saw the program set the season mark with 776 3-point attempts. The pace of play improved drastically to one of the top 100 in the nation while he gives his players the freedom to shoot whenever they are open. McCarty guided his first Aces team to 11 victories. UE had a strong non-conference seasons, earning wins over Wyoming, Ball State and Green Bay. In league play, the Aces showed that they could play with anyone, earning wins over the top three seeds in 2019 (Drake, Loyola and Missouri State).

Off the court, he transformed the Fifth Third Basketball Practice Facility into one of the most attractive places in the country. His efforts saw the facility add up-to-date enhancements including movie theater seating in the video room, updated furniture and gaming room for players, a brand new sound system inside the gym as well as wall graphics and a full redesign of the facility and gym.

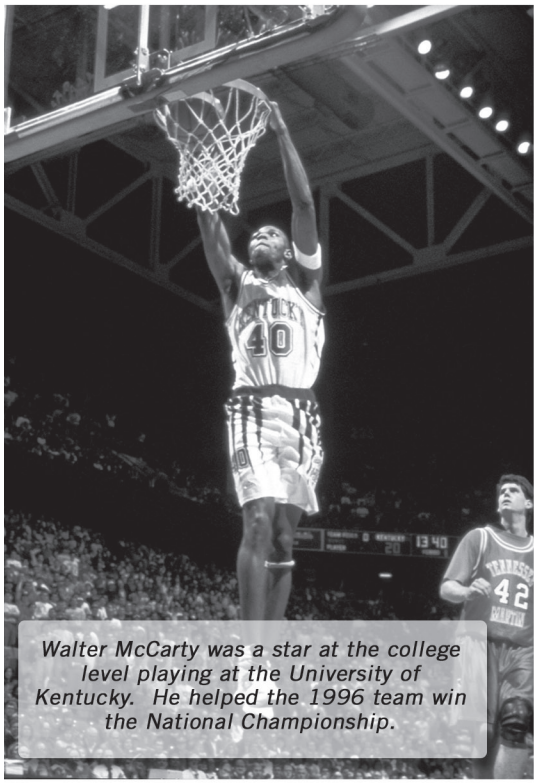
He worked under head coach Brad Stevens in Boston and the staff spearheaded an unbelievable turnaround. In just four seasons, the Celtics more than doubled their win total from 25 games in 2013-14 to 53 wins in 2016-17 along with an Atlantic Division Title. The team also advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2017 for the first time in five years. In his final season with Boston, the Celtics went 55-27 on their way to a second-place finish in the Atlantic Division.

His coaching career began in 2007 when he joined the staff of Rick Pitino at the University of Louisville. In three seasons on the Cardinals staff, he helped the program to 78 wins, three NCAA Tournament appearances and two Elite Eight berths.

The 19th overall pick of the 1996 NBA Draft by the New York Knicks, McCarty also spent time playing for the Boston Celtics, Phoenix Suns and Los Angeles Clippers. Over his 10-year NBA career, McCarty finished with 3,056 points, 1,554 rebounds and 670 assists. One of the most popular player in Kentucky Wildcat history, McCarty helped UK to a National Championship in 1996. Averaging 11.3 points per game, McCarty and his team made an impressive run through the NCAA Tournament, defeating Syracuse in the championship game by a final of 76-67. A team that was known as "The Untouchables", the 1995-96 squad was 34-2 and featured nine players that went on to enjoy a career in the NBA.

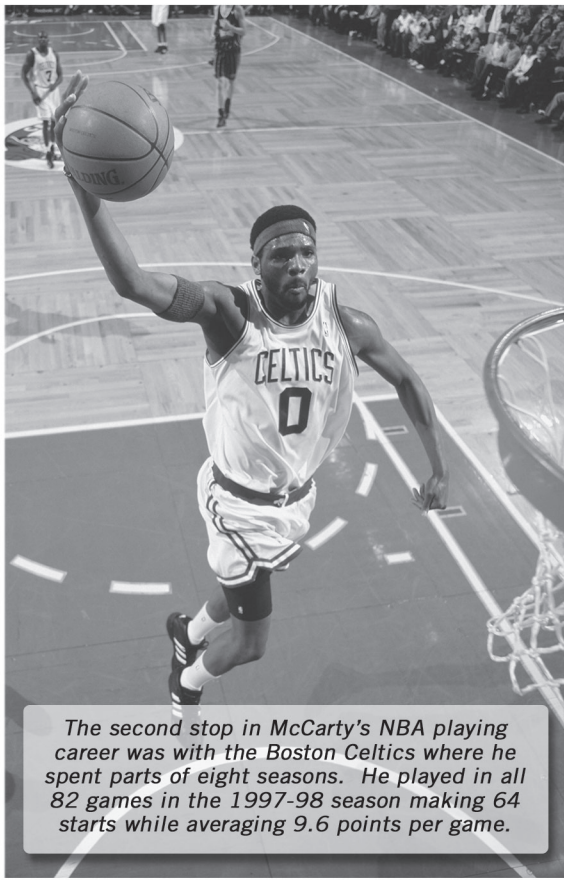
A native of Evansville, McCarty was a standout at Harrison High School. He is the only player in school history to be named a Parade All-American (1992). He was the 1992 Evansville Player of the Year and earned a spot on the Indiana All-Star team. McCarty helped the Warriors to the city and conference title along with its first basketball sectional championship in school history. McCarty and his wife Erin have two daughters – Gabrielle and Sasha.

2019-20 Evansville Men's Basketball

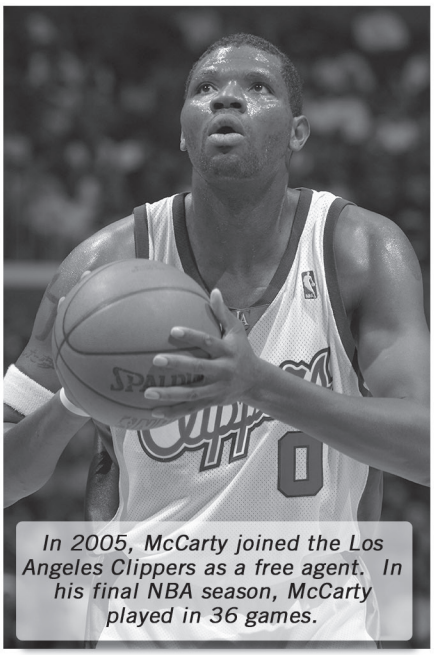


Walter McCarty was a star at the college level playing at the University of Kentucky. He helped the 1996 team win the National Championship.

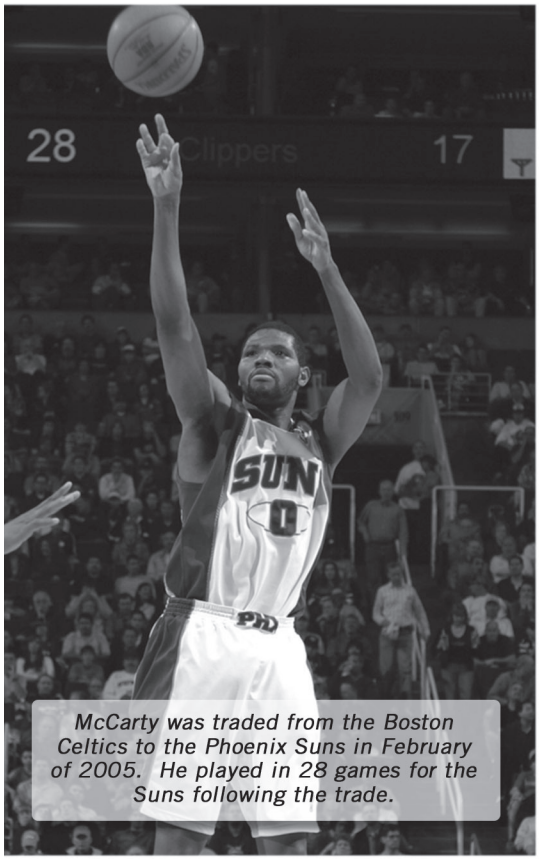
McCarty and NBA Commissioner David Stern at the 1996 NBA Draft where McCarty was selected by the New York Knicks with the 19th pick.



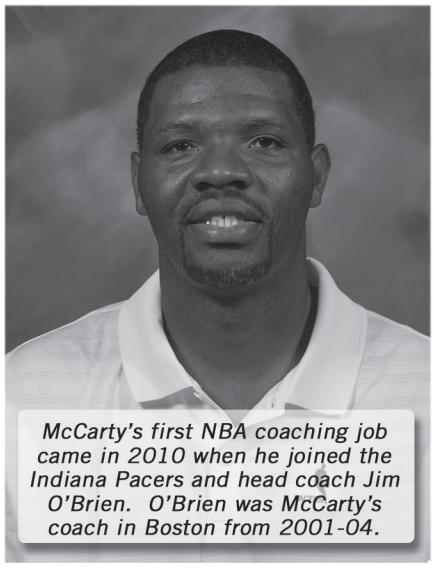
The second stop in McCarty's NBA playing career was with the Boston Celtics where he spent parts of eight seasons. He played in all 82 games in the 1997-98 season making 64 starts while averaging 9.6 points per game.



In 2005, McCarty joined the Los Angeles Clippers as a free agent. In his final NBA season, McCarty played in 36 games.



McCarty was traded from the Boston Celtics to the Phoenix Suns in February of 2005. He played in 28 games for the Suns following the trade.



McCarty's first NBA coaching job came in 2010 when he joined the Indiana Pacers and head coach Jim O'Brien. O'Brien was McCarty's coach in Boston from 2001-04.

In 2013, McCarty joined the Celtics coaching staff, working with head coach Brad Stevens. Under their direction, the Celtics showed great improvement each season, reaching the Eastern Conference Finals in 2017 and 2018.
