OPENING TIP

The University of Utah men's basketball team will get its first test on the national stage this Wednesday, Dec. 18, inside T-Mobile Arena as it takes on No. 6/6 Kentucky at 9 p.m. (MT) on ESPN2 as part of the Neon Hoops Showcase benefitting Coaches vs. Cancer. Utah will be riding a four-game win-streak while the Kentucky enters the game with a six-game win-streak.

Dave Pasch will have the call on the nationally televised game alongside former UCLA and Celtic great Bill Walton.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

The Wildcats moved up two spots in the latest AP Poll thanks to losses from Maryland and Michigan this past week. UK enters the week 8-1 overall and have won six-straight games, including a 67-53 win over Georgia Tech this past Saturday.

When Utah takes on No. 6/6 Kentucky this Wednesday, it will serve as the 13th meeting between the two programs and ninth time it's being played on a neutral court. UK is 12-1 when playing as the No. 6-ranked team in the AP Poll, including an 8-0 mark against unranked teams under head coach John Calipari. With its win over Georgia Tech last week, Kentucky moved to 254-41 all-time when playing against AP unranked teams as well.

The Utes and Wildcats have quite a history when it comes to big games, but Utah is just 1-7 when playing the SEC blueblood on neutral floor. However, the lone win for Utah came in the NIT Championship game (3/24/47) – a 49-45 victory for the Utes in Madison Square Garden. The Wildcats got their revenge 51 years later when they edged the Utes 78-69 in the NCAA Championship game on March 30, 2005, in San Antonio.

Junior Nick Richards leads Kentucky on the offensive end, averaging 13.8 points and 8.0 rebounds with a .699 shooting clip. Sophomore Ashton Hagans, who is on the Lute Olson Watch List, is right behind Richard averaging 13.7 points, 7.0 assists and 4.2 rebounds. His 7.0 dimes per game is ranked ninth nationally while Richards' .699 shooting clip is ranked sixth in the country.

Meanwhile, Tyrese Maxey and Immanuel Quickley are both averaging 12.3 points to round out the double-digit scorers for Kentucky. Maxey, a highly touted freshman out of Garland, Texas, is tied with Quickley for the team-lead with 11 triples. EJ Montgomery is nearly averaging in double-figures for the Wildcats,

HUNTSMAN 50TH ANNIVERSARY

In late August, Utah Athletics launched a year-long celebration of the Jon M. Huntsman Center's 50th anniversary. All four Ute teams that play in the JMHC will have "Huntsman 50" themed nights in the coming months.

A special Huntsman 50th Anniversary logo has been designed and will be displayed on the building's entry doors and concourse banners. The logo will also be featured on social media, posters, schedule cards, game programs and other promotional materials.

A website looking back at the arena's construction, renovations and major events from the past half century is coming soon at www.UtahUtes.com/Huntsman50.

Fans will have the opportunity to share their best memories and photos of attending events in the Huntsman Center through Utah Athletics' social media channels using the hashtag #Huntsman50. There will also be themed give-aways for the fans throughout the year and the Utah Bookstore will produce a line of Huntsman 50 themed apparel.

LAST TIME OUT

It was slow start to the game offensively for Utah, but the Utes were able to grind out a gritty 60-49 victory over Weber State this past Saturday in the final year of the Beehive Classic. Neither team shot well with both programs combining to shoot just 39-of-115 (.339) from the field and 9-of-43 (.209) from beyond the arc.

However, the bright spot for Utah came at the free-throw line – where it knocked down 15-of-19. Timmy Allen finished with a game-high 19 points to go with his seven rebounds and four assists while shooting a perfect 7-of-7 at the line. Riley Battin, Branden Carlson and Mikael Jantunen all nearly had double-doubles as well for the Utes. Battin nine points and a career-high 10 rebounds, Carlson had nine points and eight rebounds and Jantunen had nine points and nine rebounds.

UP NEXT

The Utes wrap up their non-conference schedule and third neutral site game with a 4:30 p.m. (MT) game against undefeated #20 San Diego State on Saturday, Dec. 21, inside STAPLES Center as part of the 2019 Air Force Reserve Basketball Hall of Fame Classic. Guy Haberman will have the call between the Utes and Aztecs while Don MacLean serves as the analyst.

The Utes then welcome No. 8-ranked Oregon for an afternoon showdown on Saturday, Dec. 4. The Ducks sit at 8-2 on the season with wins over #13 Memphis (neutral), Houston, #13 Seton Hall (neutral) and most recently #5 Michigan on the road.

For Utah, it'll play host to Washington on Thursday, Dec. 3, followed by a road game at Arizona State on Sunday, Dec. 6. YOUTHFUL UTES RISE IN OT WIN OVER BYU

Down by as many as 16, the youthful Utes never backed down and fought 'til the bitter end and slow crept their way back into game against rival BYU to claim a 102-95 victory in overtime inside the Jon M. Huntsman Center.

Backed by career-highs in points from Timmy Allen, Rylan Jones and Mikael Jantunen saw the Utes outscore the Cougars 16-9 in the overtime period. Allen scored 14 of his career-high 27 in the second half while Jones rattled in a new season-high 25 points – including eight in overtime – but nothing was more important than his 3-pointer that tied the game up at 86-86 to send the game into overtime. Jantunen was effective for Utah down in the post, pouring in 18 points of his own with six rebounds on 5-of-7 shooting to go with a perfect 8-for-8 night at the line. Sophomore Riley Battin also add 14 points of his own, nearly going perfect from the field knocking Utah holds the edge in overtime 12-4 – including a 6-1 advantage in OT games when playing at home. Of those 15 games, only one has gone into double OT and two have into triple OT.

MAJERUS IMMORTALIZED IN CBHF

Former Utah Runnin' Utes head coach Rick Majerus was inducted into the Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame on Sunday, Nov. 24, in Kansas City, Mo., alongside two other head coaches and six players.

Majerus, who also coached at Marquette, Ball State and Saint Louis) is joined by a pair of former coaches in Homer Drew (Bethel, Indiana-South Bend, Valparaiso) and Lute Olsen (Long Beach State, Iowa, Arizona). Meanwhile, the players being inducted include Indiana's Calbert Chaney, Duke's Shane Battier, Purdue's Terry Dischinger, Providence's Ernie DiGregorio, UNLV's Larry Johnson and Stanford's Todd Lichti.

The late Majerus won a total of 517 games and remarkably, had just one losing season in 25 years as a head coach. He reached the postseason 17 times (13 at Utah), including 12 NCAA Tournament appearances (11 at Utah). He won 10 conference titles in 13 years at Utah, and took the Runnin' Utes to Sweet 16's in 1991 and 1996, and the Elite Eight in 1997.

Majerus' most memorable season came in 1998, when he led Utah to 30 wins and an appearance in the national championship game. He earned five WAC Coach of the Year awards and was named the National Coach of the Year by Basketball Times in 1991.

Majerus, who coached the Utes from 1989-2004, ranks third all-time in school history with 323 wins while roaming the sidelines at Utah. His .773 (323-95) overall winning percentage ranks first among coaches at Utah with at least 100 wins, and his .779 (152-43) conference winning percentage ranks first overall as well. He also tallied a school-leading 17 NCAA Tournament victories at the U.

UTAH ATHLETICS LOSES A LEGEND AND PIONEER

The University of Utah Athletics Department mourns the passing of Wataru "Wat" Misaka, who passed away at the age of 95 on Nov. 20 in Salt Lake City.

Misaka, who helped lead the Utah basketball program to national championships in 1944 and '47, broke barriers when he became the first non-Caucasian player in the Basketball Association of America (predecessor to the NBA) in 1947.

Known as the Jackie Robinson of basketball, Misaka was inducted into the Utah Sports Hall of Fame in 1999 and the University of Utah's Crimson Club Hall of Fame in 2011. Misaka was the point guard for Utah's 1944 NCAA tournament championship team and the 1947 NIT championship team. In between his two seasons playing for Utah he was drafted into the military and rose to the rank of Staff Sergeant.

Following his playing career at Utah, Misaka was drafted by the New York Knicks in 1947. The first player of Japanese descent to play in the NBA, known then as the Basketball Association of America, Misaka took part in three games during the 1947-48 season and scored seven points.

In August of 2018, his hometown of Ogden, Utah, honored Misaka with the "Kilowatt Court" at Liberty Park. He also was the Terasaki Budokan's guest of honor in Los Angeles' Little Tokyo two months earlier. In 2009, U.S. President Barack Obama mentioned Misaka when he spoke at the opening ceremony to mark the formation of the President's Advisory Commission and White House Initiative on Asian American and Pacific Islanders. In 2008, Bruce Johnson and Christine Johnson directed, "Transcending: The Wat Misaka Story."

With the 73-69 win over Minnesota on Nov. 15, head coach Larry Krystkowiak recorded his 200th career victory. The Utes led the Golden Gophers wire-to-wire and weathered a couple late pushes from Minnesota in the second frame to give Krystkowiak the milestone victory.

WHEN THE DEVIL WHEN DOWN TO SLC

The Utes had a record-setting night in their last game against Mississippi Valley State at home. With its offense clicking on all cylinders, Utah defeated the Delta Devils 143-49 and set the new NCAA record or largest margin of victory with its 94-point victory, breaking a record held by Tulsa back on Dec. 7, 1995, when it defeated Prairie View A&M 141-50.

In addition, 143 points in a game broke a 59-year old program record while the 73 points in the second half also broke the record for most points in a half. Both records were set against Evansville back on Dec. 7, 1960.

Speaking of offense, sophomore Both Gach (12pts, 10rebs, 10asts) and freshman Rylan Jones (10pts, 10rebs, 11asts) each recorded a triple-double – which is the first of its kind dating back to the 1996-97 season when those stats were kept per STATS. The triple-double was the first in Ute history since current Jazz assistant coach Alex Jensen did it for Utah against Fresno State on Jan. 25, 1999. Jones also became the second freshman ever in Pac-12 history to record a triple-double since Jelani McCoy did it against Maryland on Dec. 9, 1995.

Sophomore Timmy Allen led all scorers with 26 points while eight other Utes reached double-figures in the blowout victory. The Utes assists on 41 of the team's 57 made field-goals, which is also nearly double the amount of field-goals made by MVSU. Both 41 assists and 57 made field-goals were new single-game records for Utah while the 17 shots made from beyond the arc tied the program record.

RECORDS FALL

With last Friday's record night, here is a list of some notes from the 143-49 win over Mississippi Valley State . . .

- The 57 made field goals was just the 11th time a team has made 55-plus in a game since the 2010-11 season and first between Division I programs since Butler made 56 against Citadel (11/14/15).
 - Also a new program record
- The 41 assists were a new program record, besting the 37 assists set back on Dec. 19, 1985.
- The 68 rebounds are the most in a single-game since hauling in 68 against St. Katherine (12/28/13).
- The 63.3-percent shooting was the most since the Utes shot 60-percent at Washington (1/27/17).
- The 70 points in the first half was actually then the second-most points in a half before moving to third when Utah broke the record with 73 in the second half.
- The 34 triples attempted is tied for fourth in program history, last occurring at San Diego State (1/16/99).
- Rylan Jones' 11 assists and Both Gach's 10 assists was the first time a Ute had dished out 10-plus dimes since Brandon Taylor had 10 at USC (2/21/16)

UTES > WOLFPACK

With a lot of uncertainty heading into Tuesday's season-opener for both Utah and Nevada, the young Runnin' Utes team showed poise down the stretch on the backs of sophomores Timmy Allen and Both Gach – who poured in 23 and 22 points, respectively. With the win, Utah is now 84-27 overall in season-opening games and 8-13 when opening the season on the road.

Gach went off in the second half for the U, scoring 19 of his 22 points on 7-of-11 shooting – including 3-of-6 from downtown. Allen had 12 of his 23 points in the second frame to go with six rebounds as well. The two not only combined for 31 of the team's 42 points in the final 20 minutes of action, but also scored 12 of the last 17 points in the final 5:36 minutes of play.

Riley Battin had a good showing for the Utes, scoring nine points with six boards while freshman Brandon Carlson nearly became the first freshman to post a double-double in a season-opener in five seasons, registering eight points and nine rebounds. Freshman floor general Rylan Jones went for nine points, five rebounds and five assists for the Utes in his debut as well.

As a team the Utes out-rebounded the Wolfpack 51-32 and held Nevada to zero second-chance points with an 8-0 edge in that column. The 51 boards for Utah was the first time they've reached the 50-plus rebound threshold since grabbing 52 against Prairie View A&M on Dec. 27, 2016.

In addition, Allen's double-double of 23 points and 11 rebounds was also the first time a Ute has posted a double-double in a season-opener since Kyle Kuzma (23pts, 19rebs) did so on Nov. 12, 2016. It was also the last a Ute posted 23 points in a season-opener.

FRESH FACES

The University of Utah men's basketball team has a new look with 12 newcomers, including redshirt freshman Lahat Thioune and JUCO transfer Alfonso Plummer. The 12 new faces that'll suit up this season ties Utah for fourth-most in the NCAA with UT Martin heading into the 2019-20 season.

Of the 12 new faces on the court, 10 are freshmen with six hailing from the Beehive state. Returning for the Utes are a pair of starters in Timmy Allen and Riley Battin in addition to Both Gach, who started in 14-of-30 contests last year as a freshman. Utah will also have the services of a pair of returners in senior Marc Reininger and sophomore Brooks King.

Offensively, the Utes return 35-percent of their offense from last season between Allen, Gach, Battin, King and Reininger. Allen is the team's only returner who averaged in double-figures last season, posting 12.2 points per game to go with 5.1 boards per game and a .575 shooting clip. Gach averaged 7.7 points and 2.1 assists last year while Battin averaged 6.4 points and 3.4 boards for the Utes.

YOUTHFUL UTES

As mentioned, the Utes have 10 true freshmen on the team and a redshirt freshman in Lahat Thioune. The 11 freshmen on the team ties Utah with Navy and TCU for the most freshmen (redshirts included) on any team heading into the 2019-20 campaign. Air Force was the only other school with double-digit freshmen on its team.

Speaking of youthful, Utah only has two upperclassmen on its roster in senior Marc Reininger and junior transfer Alfonso Plummer – which is the lowest in Division I. Florida and Ohio are tied for second with three while Central Connecticut, Lipscomb and Long Beach State check in with just four upperclassmen for tie at fourth.

HOME COOKIN'

Dating back to the 2011-12 season, Utah currently has 105 victories when playing in the Jon M. Huntsman Center heading into the 2019-20 campaign. The Utes are just 1-of-13 programs in the west coast to have at least 105 wins at home since 2011-12. The other 12 include: Oregon, Saint Mary's, Arizona, Gonzaga, New Mexico State, San Diego State, UCLA, BYU, Colorado, Wyoming, UNLV and Hawaii.

PRO UTES

On opening night of the 2019-20 NBA season, Utah had three active players on NBA rosters in Kyle Kuzma (Los Angeles Lakers), Jakob Poeltl (San Antonio Spurs) and Delon Wright (Dallas Mavericks). All three were drafted in the first-round of the NBA Draft in consecutive years between 2015-17 – making Utah the only team to do so in the Pac-12.

OPENING TREND

After the home-opener against MVSU, the Utes are now 97-16 overall in home-openers and 20-3 all-time when those home-openers don't serve as the season-opener. Additionally, Utah is 45-7 in home-openers inside the Jon M. Huntsman Center and 7-1 when those home-openers don't serve as the season-openers.

CHAMPIONS ON THE COURT AND IN THE CLASSROOM

In the latest NCAA Graduation Success Rate report, 94-percent of Utah's student-athletes graduated within six years of enrolling – which is the highest of any Power-5 public institution in the nation. In addition, men's basketball was one of eight programs at Utah to achieve a perfect GSR score, joining men's and women's skiing, men's tennis, gymnastics, soccer, women's tennis and volleyball. It also marked the third-consecutive year the men's basketball team has had a perfect GSR score.

IT'S IN THE NAME

With the 2019-20 season less than five days away, the Utah men's basketball program is 1-of-13 NCAA Division I basketball to actively have a father (coach)/son (player) relationship on the team.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

Despite Utah's knack for finishing well above its preseason predictions, the Utes were again picked in the lower-half of the Pac-12 Preseason Poll – checking in at No. 9 with 131 points.

For the second year in a row and third time in the past four seasons, Oregon was picked to win the league title after earning a total of 291 points and receiving 9 of the possible 27 first-place votes. Colorado also received nine first-place votes, while Washington pulled in six. It marked only the second time in the league's preseason poll history that two teams received the same number of first-place votes (1988-89). The three points separating Oregon and Colorado were the fourth-fewest in 36 seasons of the conference preseason polling. Others to receive first-place votes included Arizona (2) and USC (1), picked fourth and fifth, respectively, with 263 and 198 points.

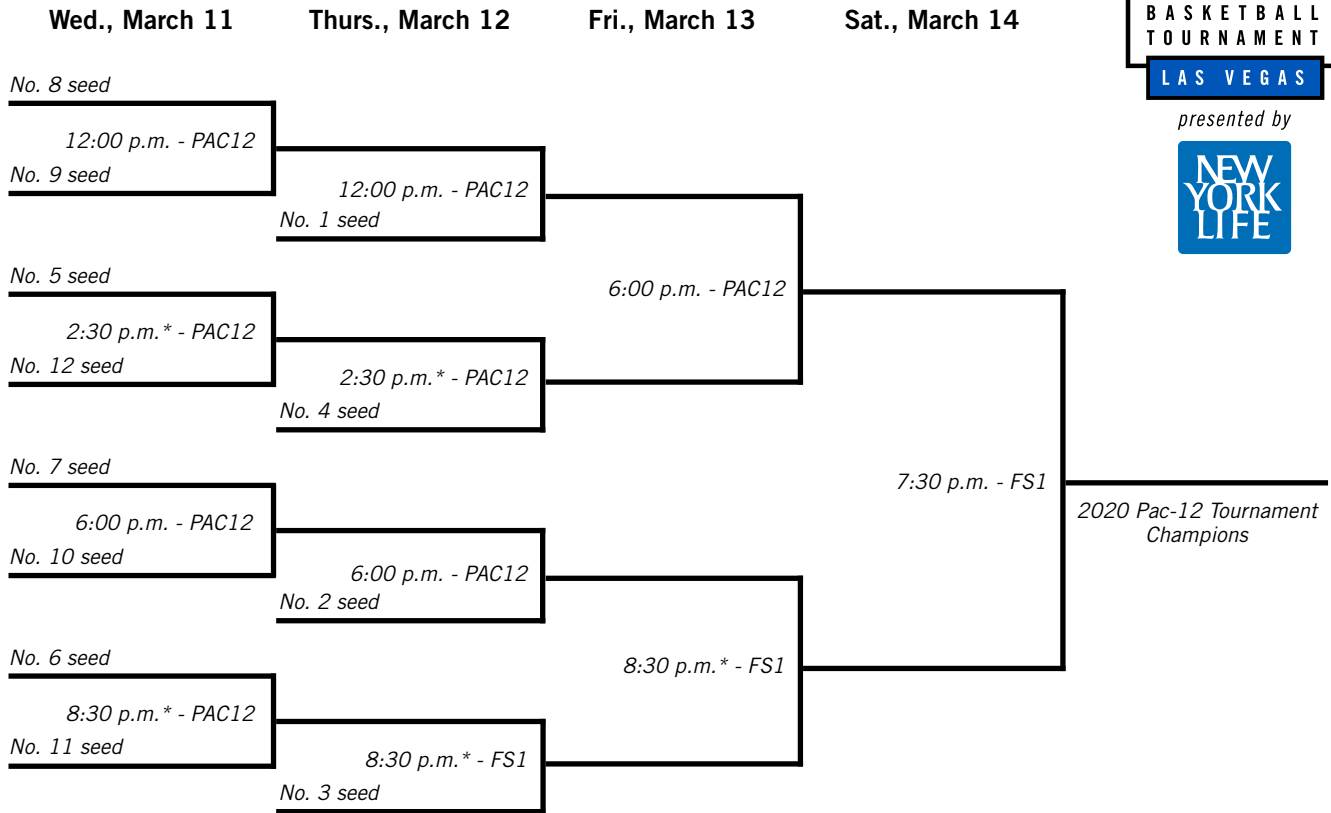

Sophomore forward Timmy Allen was named to the Preseason All-Pac-12 second team after a stellar freshman campaign averaging 12.2 points and 5.5 rebounds, which earned him Pac-12 All-Freshman Team honors.
