Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and public relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. the day before the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Joe Craft Center lower-level lobby. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the lower level lobby of the Joe Craft Center.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The communications and public relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

The Nick and Quick Show Lead Cats Past Mizzou

Nick Richards carried the load for No. 17/14 Kentucky before Immanuel Quickley finished the job for the Wildcats.

Quickley scored a career-high 23 points, Nick Richards had 21 and Kentucky beat Missouri 71-59 Saturday in the Southeastern Conference opener for both schools.

Richards scored the first nine points for the Wildcats, 14 of their first 16 points and had 17 by halftime, including a key 3-point play. Quickley's 3 put Kentucky (10-3, 1-0) ahead to stay, and he was just getting started.

Quickley was 4 of 8 from behind the arc and 5 of 9 overall. He also went 9 for 9 at the line, part of a 27-for-30 performance for Kentucky as a team.

"My way of changing a game is usually a 3-point shot," said Quickley, who surpassed his previous best of 18 points from last Saturday's victory against Louisville. "We've got other guys, they dunk, they block shots. Any way you can change a game, you want to use that to the best of your ability."

Richards went 9 for 13 from the field and grabbed 12 rebounds for his second consecutive double-double. The junior forward also blocked four shots before fouling out with 3:52 left.

In between blocking shots and grabbing rebounds, Richards worked his way free for scoring opportunities, including a few jumpers.

"All the workouts I've been through, eventually it was going to show up on the court," said Richards, who posted his sixth double-double this season. "My coaches told me not to be arrogant with it, just be humble and everything will just fall through."

Kentucky posted its second straight victory since consecutive losses to Utah and Ohio State. But the Wildcats lost point guard Ashton Hagans with 1:48 left after he hurt his left ankle while playing defense.

Coach John Calipari said it was a low sprain instead of an Achilles tendon tear that he initially feared.

"When they told me it wasn't that, OK, we can deal with whatever else it is," Calipari said. "Maybe he's out. Maybe he doesn't play against Georgia (on Tuesday). Then you're going to see the impact and importance he has on this team."

Missouri (8-5, 0-1) cut a 16-point deficit down to 56-46 with 6:03 remaining. The Wildcats answered with a 6-0 spurt to help close it out. Of note ...

- Kentucky is now 67-19 in Southeastern Conference openers, including 9-2 under Calipari
- The Wildcats are now just two victories shy of 1,000 all-time wins in the SEC.
- UK held the visitors to 59 points. UK is 181-7 under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less, including 8-0 this season
- The Wildcats shot 43.5% from the field and Missouri hit 36.2%, moving Kentucky to 9-0 this season when outshooting the opponent
- Kentucky improved to 194-17 in the Calipari era when holding the opponent to 40% or less
- UK was remarkable consistent at the foul line, making 90% in the first half (9 of 10), 90% in the second half (18 of 20) and 90% for the game (27 of 30)
- The Wildcats won the rebounding 36-31 and are now 9-0 this season when leading the rebounding.
- Kentucky had two 20-point scorers for the second time this season. Richards and Hagans did it earlier this season in the Utah Valley game
- UK led by as many as 16 points in the second half. The Wildcats improved to 270-6 under Calipari when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

Hagans' Breakthrough at Georgia

If Ashton Hagans is able to play Tuesday at Georgia -- a big if at this point after the sophomore guard left Saturday's game vs. Missouri late with a left ankle sprain (day-to-day) -- he will have a hard time matching his performance in Athens from a year ago.

The Georgia native capped a breakthrough month with his best offensive performance of his freshman season in his return to his home state. In front of family and friends -- and the school he originally verbally committed to -- Hagans dominated the game with 23 points, four assists and four steals. He was 9 for 18 from the field, which are both still career highs, was 4 of 5 from the free-throw line and 1 of 3 from 3-point range. His 23 points is the second-highest total of his college career. Earlier this season, on Nov. 18 vs. Utah Valley, he topped it with 26 points.

Hagans grew up in Cartersville, Georgia, about an hour-and-45-minute drive from Athens.

Kentucky has the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats are the most dominant team in the league, recording a 998-281 mark (.780) in regular-season conference play. Only one other team has won more than 750 regular-season SEC games (Alabama), and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

- Kentucky has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.3 losses per season in 86 seasons in the SEC
- UK has won 48 SEC titles and 31 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 16 of the last 28 SEC Tournament titles
- Kentucky has captured at least a share of five of the last 10 SEC regular-season championships under head coach John Calipari
- UK has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in eight of Calipari's 10 seasons, winning the tournament six times
- Seven teams made the 2019 NCAA Tournament field, tied for the second most of any league in the country
- The SEC had two teams in the Elite Eight, one in the Final Four and went 12-7 in NCAA Tournament games in 2019
- As of the Jan. 6 rankings, two SEC teams are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25. In addition to UK, Auburn is ranked No. 5. Arkansas, Florida, LSU and Georgia sit just outside the top 25 and received votes
- Eleven SEC schools ranked in the top 100 of the NCAA's Net Evaluation Tool rankings on Jan. 6

Kentucky Picked to Win 49th SEC Title

Eleventh-year head coach John Calipari has often described Kentucky as the hunted within the ranks of the Southeastern Conference. With more regular-season and tournament titles than the entire league combined, it's not a far-fetched mantra. If the 2019-20 preseason media poll conducted by the league's media proves true, Kentucky will once again be the pursued.

UK was voted to win their sixth regular-season title under Calipari by the league's media members. Should Kentucky achieve the feat, it would mark the program's 49th overall regular-season title.

It's the 15th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite. Calipari has directed his teams to regular-season SEC crowns in 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Kentucky has claimed the SEC Tournament title six times under his direction in 2010, 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Each school selected media members that cover their team and additional media from across the nation were selected by the conference office to comprise the voting panel. Points were compiled on a 14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Each media member also voted for two All-SEC teams.

Kentucky Trio Preseason All-SEC

In a league as talented as it's ever been, sophomores Ashton Hagans and EJ Montgomery and freshman Tyrese Maxey were tabbed preseason All-Southeastern Conference picks by both the league's media and its coaches.

Hagans was a first-team pick while Maxey and Montgomery were tabbed to the second team. Hagans also received at least one vote for the preseason pick for SEC Player of the Year from the media.

UK has featured at least one player on one of the two end-of-the-season All-SEC teams (media or coaches) since 2006-07.

UK Continues to Navigate Through Injuries, Illnesses

Kentucky's depth has been tested by a number of injuries and illness this season. Ten Wildcats have dealt with injuries or are still rehabbing old ones as well as illness, and UK has played with all nine available full-time scholarship players in just six games this season after Johnny Juzang missed the Missouri game with an illness.

Against Utah Valley, with EJ Montgomery (right ankle) and Immanuel Quickley (chest) out, just seven full-time basketball scholarship players were available. That included Ashton Hagans, who was dealing with right leg soreness.

Just when the Cats were getting healthy, Juzang's illness became the latest setback. Ashton Hagans also sprained his left ankle late against Missouri and is considered day-to-day entering the Georgia game.

- Dontaie Allen (left knee) - return: undetermined | Torn ACL from his senior season of high school; participated in strength and conditioning programs over the summer and continues to progress with rehabilitation program, including participating in his first practice last week
- Ashton Hagans (left ankle) - day-to-day | Sprained his left ankle against Missouri; also dealt with a lower right leg injury early in the season but has not missed a game
- Ben Jordan (head injury) - available | Sustained a head injury in practice and was unavailable for the Fairleigh Dickinson game
- Johnny Juzang (illness) - day-to-day | Missed the Missouri game with an illness; John Calipari said following the Missouri game he was unlikely to make the trip to Georgia
- EJ Montgomery (right ankle) - available | Sustained a right ankle sprain in the first half of the Michigan State game; missed the next three games and returned vs. Mount St. Mary's
- Zan Payne (right knee) - return: undetermined | Continuing to rehab from a knee injury from his senior season of high school; underwent a rigorous rehab program over the summer and participated in his first practice last week
- Nick Richards (left ankle) - status: available | Sprained his left ankle during the Georgetown College exhibition games and missed the final exhibition vs. Kentucky State
- Nate Sestina (left wrist) - status: available: | Fractured his left wrist on Nov. 26 and returned three weeks later vs. Utah
- Immanuel Quickley (chest contusion) - available | Suffered a chest contusion in practice prior to the Utah Valley game and did not play vs. the Wolverines. Returned the following game
- Kahlil Whitney (left hand) - available | Dislocated his left pinky finger near the end of the Utah Valley game but did not miss a game

Camp Cal

Class is still in session.

No, the players are not in school during this time of the season for the holiday break but learning and development is at its peak right now for the Wildcats during what John Calipari likes to call "Camp Cal."

During this time period, when there are no restrictions on practice hours and the Wildcats are free of any academic responsibilities, the Wildcats often practice two times a day and sometimes even three if one includes a workout session with strength and conditioning coach Robert Harris. With no responsibilities outside of practice, Calipari likes the team to be together focusing on basketball for as much of the break as possible.

In between practices, Calipari will sometimes have the players over to his house to eat and rest. In the evenings, the team will go out together to eat almost every night. The team will basically eat, sleep and drink basketball during this time of the season, and it's often when Calipari's teams improve the most.

The proof is in the numbers. As successful as Calipari's teams have in the nonconference portion of their schedule, it's the conference season where his teams really take off. UK has won five regular-season Southeastern Conference titles in 10 seasons under Calipari and another six SEC Tournament championships.

Taking Advantage of Free Points

One of Kentucky's strengths this season has been its success at the free-throw line. UK is earning 24.6% of its points at the charity stripe and connecting at 80.1%. Kentucky's free-throw point distribution is ranked fifth in the country, according to KenPom.com (through games on Jan. 4), while its make percentage is fourth in the nation.

Five players are shooting 73.3% or better (with a minimum of 10 attempts), led by Immanuel Quickley's 95.8% (46 of 48), which is ahead of Tyler Herro's 2018-19 school-record mark of 93.5%. He's made 24 straight and has hit a combined 17 in UK's last two games.

Kentucky's strong performance at the line isn't relegated to its success rate of makes, but also the frequency in which the Cats are getting to the line and the number of makes per game. Kentucky is traveling to the line an average of 22.8 times a game. The Wildcats are making an average of 18.3 a game. The opposition is averaging 10 makes on an average of 15.1 trips a game. Kentucky's plus-8.3 points per game at the line trails only New Mexico (9.1) and Maryland (8.4) nationally.

John Calipari's best free-throw shooting team at Kentucky shot 72.6 percent in 2014-15. The 2013-14 squad averaged the most trips (28.7) and makes (19.5) per game under Calipari's tutelage. It's still very early in the season, but UK's current free-throw percentage of .801 would be the best in school history. The school record is 77.6% by the 1978-79 team.

UK has made its free throws when they matter the most. The Wildcats are 35 of 43 (81.4%) at the line when it's a single-digit game with five minutes or less to go (including overtime).

Immanuel Off to a Quick(ley) Start

John Calipari called Immanuel Quickley the most improved player on the 2018-19 team, but his development from last season to this one might be even more impressive.

Quickley, now in his sophomore campaign, has scored in double figures in eight of the 12 games he's played. Overall, he's averaging 12.7 points per game, one of four Wildcats averaging double figures, and has made a team-high 18 3-pointers on the season. He's made a 3 in 11 of 12 games he's played.

After witnessing the best season in school history at the free-throw line last season by teammate Tyler Herro, Quickley is threatening to make it a short-lived record. He's currently making 95.8% at the line, ahead of Herro's 93.5% mark. He's missed just two of his 48 attempts, ranking first in the Southeastern Conference (through games on Jan. 4) and second in the nation. He's made 24 straight at the line.

After scoring 16 points in three previous games for his career high, Quickley set a new mark with 18 points in the win over No. 3/4 Louisville. Quickley made two important 3-pointers and was 8 of 8 from the free-throw line, including two in the final seconds of overtime to seal the outcome.

Quickley earned the opportunity for a career day offensively because of a stellar afternoon defensively. Head coach John Calipari told his team that whoever could guard Louisville's leading scorer, Jordan Nwora, would get significant playing time. Quickley answered the call and took on the majority of the assignment. Nwora, who came into the game averaging 21.2 points per contest, was held to just eight points on 2-of-10 shooting.

Following what some called a "breakout" performance against Louisville, Quickley took it up another notch against Missouri. He topped his career high with 23 points and drained all four of UK's 3-point attempts on the day. He also connected on all nine of his free-throw attempts.

Confident Richards Playing His Best Basketball

John Calipari has said every player is on their own timetable. For some that means breaking through after their freshman season. For others it may mean two, three or four years of development. Maybe no player in recent memory is a better example of that than Nick Richards.

The junior forward is enjoying the most productive stretch of his career. He is averaging team highs in rebounds per game (7.5) and blocks per game (2.3) with a team-best six double-doubles. His 12.7 points per game is tied with Immanuel Quickley for third on the team. Richards is shooting a team-high and conference-high .688 percentage. That mark is also good for sixth in the nation, through games on Jan. 4. His .634 career field-goal percentage ranks third in program history.

Richards is one of just four players in the country averaging at least 12.5 points per game, at least 7.0 rebounds and at least 2.0 blocks while shooting at least 65.0% from the floor.

The third-year forward has been one of the Wildcats' most consistent performers and perhaps their most important piece with the thin front line that was magnified early in the season by injuries.

"So much better than a year ago," Calipari said earlier this season. "Then you say, 'You must really be pumping him up, saying great things.' No. He's in the greatest shape he's ever been, and he has built his own confidence. It doesn't matter what I say now."

Richards appears more confident and assertive than at any other point in his UK career.

"I've been patient," Richards said. "My coaches just kept saying, 'Keep getting better, keep getting better, your time will come. Don't even worry about it.' Of course they're still going to coach me — they're going to get on me to be better — but it's a process and you just gotta be patient with it. Some people aren't really patient until they get the end result. I don't think I'm at the end result of my development as a basketball player yet."

The most encouraging sign of Richards' development came in back-to-back games against Louisville and Missouri. Despite some impressive early season numbers, Richards had yet to fully break through vs. an elite opponent.

Against Louisville's front line, one of the best in the country, Richards delivered. The 6-foot-11 big man from Jamaica secured a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, but it was how he did it that impressed the most.

Richards picked up his fourth foul with 14:31 remaining in the second half and UK leading by double figures. In the nearly seven minutes he was forced to the bench, Louisville took a 46-45 lead until he re-entered at the 8:53 mark. Richards played most of the final 8:53 of regulation and all five minutes of overtime without picking up his fifth foul to anchor Kentucky's inside game. During that stretch he took two momentum-changing charges and scored seven straight points in overtime with the game on the line.

With Louisville leading 68-65 with 2:21 to go in overtime, Richards snared an offensive rebound (one of six in the game) and converted the traditional three-point play to even the score once again. His free throws with 27 seconds remaining gave the Wildcats a 72-70 lead they would not relinquish.

Richards also drew a game-high 11 fouls to get Kentucky to the free-throw line, a key difference in the outcome. His defense was a difference maker.

The double-double for Richards was his first against a ranked opponent in his three seasons. In 20 games prior against ranked foes, Richards averaged 3.8 points and 3.9 rebounds per game. He had never recorded double-digit scoring or rebounding numbers against a ranked opponent.

After enjoying that breakout game, many were curious to see what he had in store in his follow-up performance. Richards shined even brighter.

Richards boasted a season-high-tying 21 points and 12 rebounds in the Southeastern Conference opener against Missouri. He also blocked four shots. Richards posted 17 points and eight rebounds in the first half and scored UK's first nine points of the game as Missouri tried to run away with a big early lead. It marked the first back-to-back double-doubles of his career.

Entering this season, Richards was averaging 4.5 points, 3.9 rebounds and 1.1 blocks over 13.4 minutes a game for his career. He entered the season with just one career double-double in 74 career games but now has six in his first 13 games of 2019-20.

Hagens Playing Like one of the Best Point Guards in the Country

Ashton Hagens certainly has the confidence of his head coach in year two as Kentucky's starting point guard.

"We could say there are better point guards in the country, but you got to tell me who you're talking about," John Calipari said recently.

With the way Hagens is playing this season, there are few rebuttals.

Hagens has been the consummate point guard in his sophomore season, doing a little bit of everything to affect the game. He is averaging 12.9 points, 7.3 assists, 4.0 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game while grabbing the leadership reins of a talented but once again young team. He's one of only four players in the nation averaging at least 12.5 points, 7.0 assists, 3.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals.

4-Point Plays

The Cartersville, Georgia, native has boasted double-figure scoring in nine of 13 games, including a career-high 26-point performance in the win over Utah Valley. He's dished out three or more assists in every game and has five or more in 11 of the 13, including a career-high-tying 12 vs. UAB. His current streak of 10 games with six or more assists is the best run by a Wildcat under John Calipari and the best run since Roger Harden dished six or more in 12 straight from Jan. 11 to Feb. 15, 1986.

For the season, Hagans is averaging 7.3 assists per game, ranked seventh in the country and tops in the league (through games on Jan. 4). With 18 regular-season games remaining, Hagans is on pace for 226 assists at his current assist rate before postseason even begins. Ullis owns the single-season record of 246 in 2015-16.

With 95 assists and 43 turnovers for the season, Hagans' 2.2 assist-to-turnover ratio has vaulted him to third in the conference (through games on Jan. 4).

Hagans nearly had a triple-double against Mount St. Mary's with 16 points, seven assists and a career-high-tying seven rebounds, and he followed that vs. Lamar with 15 points, nine assists and a career-high three 3-pointers. He posted the second double-double of his career and first this season with 11 points and 11 assists vs. Fairleigh Dickinson. He again narrowly missed on a triple-double with 21 points, seven assists and seven boards against Georgia Tech.

The reigning Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year remains UK's best on-ball defender with a team-high 26 steals.

Where he's made the biggest improvement: reading the defense, taking what he can get and getting to the free-throw line. He's drained 60 of 71 on the season, good for an 84.5% clip. Hagans had a stretch of 23 straight makes until missing a pair vs. UAB. He was 12 of 12 from the line against Utah Valley, becoming the first Wildcat to make at least 12 perfectly since Jodie Meeks went 14 of 14 at Tennessee on Jan. 13, 2009 (his UK single-game record 54-point night).

Hagans suffered a left ankle sprain late in the Missouri game on Saturday. He is considered day-to-day.

And the Award Goes to ... Kentucky!

After playing leading roles in another signature victory over archrival Louisville, Kentucky men's basketball players Nick Richards and Tyrese Maxey were awarded national and conference honors last week.

Richards was tabbed the Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Maxey was named both the USBWA Wayman Tisdale Freshman of the Week and NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week. The Southeastern Conference picked Richards as one of two winners of the SEC Player of the Week award -- along with Arkansas guard Isaiah Joe -- and Maxey won SEC Freshman of the Week.

Maxey scored a game- and career-high 27 points with career-high-tying numbers for 3-pointers (four) and rebounds (seven), and Richards notched a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, including scoring seven straight points in overtime with the game on the line.

The national honors are the first for any Wildcat this season. Richards becomes the sixth all-time winner of the USBWA award and the first since PJ Washington on Feb. 17. Maxey is the first UK winner of the Tisdale award since Tyler Herro won it on Jan. 2, 2019, following last season's victory over Louisville.

It's the first time Kentucky players have swept both USBWA awards since Kevin Knox won both honors on Jan. 30, 2018.

The SEC awards marked Richards' first career conference honor and Maxey's second. Maxey won the season's first SEC Freshman of the Week award after scoring 26 points in the victory over then-No. 1 Michigan State in Madison Square Garden in early November, his college debut.

As John Calipari's teams have dominated the Southeastern Conference during his tenure, so too have his players.

UK has won more weekly SEC honors (103) than any other school during the Calipari era, including 82 SEC Freshman of the Week honors and 21 SEC Player of the Week awards.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 61-32 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 254-42 vs. unranked competition, an .858 winning percentage.

Maxey at his Best Against the Best

Expectations for Tyrese Maxey escalated after he shot the roof off Madison Square Garden in his collegiate debut in early November.

After scoring 26 points in front of a national audience vs. the No. 1 team in the country at the time, Michigan State, many expected him to do that on a nightly basis. It was a high bar for a freshman who would have to endure the same ups and downs just about every freshman has to that puts on a Kentucky uniform.

Now 13 games into the season, what everyone has found out is that Maxey still has that potential. It just tends to come out when the stakes are at their highest.

After a career-high 27-point performance in the victory over No. 3/4 Louisville, Maxey is averaging 22.7 points and 6.0 rebounds while shooting 53.8% from the field, 44.4% from 3-point range and 81.8% from the free-throw line in UK's three games vs. ranked opponents.

Against those three ranked foes -- Michigan State, Ohio State and Louisville -- Maxey drilled eight 3-pointers.

Maxey's 26 points in the 1-2 matchup vs. Michigan State topped Terrence Jones' 25 points against East Tennessee State in 2010 for the most points by a freshman in their debut as a Wildcat. In that game, Maxey's first points didn't come until just after the midway point of the first half, but he scored seven straight points to help Kentucky earn an 11-point halftime lead. From the 10:03 mark of the second half until a pair of Ashton Hagans' free throws with 37 seconds to play, Maxey scored or assisted on 14 straight UK points to hold off the Michigan State rally.

There was no bigger shot that night though than his final 3-pointer with a minute to play.

Clutch Free Throws

Free-throw totals during a single-digit game with 5:00 to play or OT:

Player	FTs	Pct.
Immanuel Quickley	6-6	1.000
Johnny Juzang	4-4	1.000
Nate Sestina	1-1	1.000
Ashton Hagans	14-16	.875
Nick Richards	6-7	.857
Tyrese Maxey	3-6	.500
Keion Brooks Jr.	1-2	.500
Kahlil Whitney	0-1	.000
Kentucky	35-43	.814

Michigan State had cut the lead to just two and momentum seemed to be swinging to the veteran-laden Spartans. In front of two former UK stars, John Wall and Jones, as well as NBA champion Kevin Durant, and with the shot clock winding down, Maxey took 6-foot-6 Aaron Henry off the dribble and launched a shot nearly four feet behind the 3-point line. And with one swish of the net, Maxey etched his name into Kentucky record books and introduced himself to the nation.

Against Louisville, he made a career-high nine field goals (on 14 shots), sunk a career-best four 3-pointers and tied a career high with seven rebounds. His 27 points are the most by a UK freshman vs. Louisville and the most by a Wildcat in the rivalry since Jodie Meeks score 28 on Jan. 4, 2009.

Highlighted by three 20-point performances, Maxey is averaging a team-best 13.8 points per game. He's scored in double figures in eight games with 16 3-pointers.

Maxey's defense has made huge strides in recent weeks, including holding Georgia Tech leading scorer Michael Devoe, who entered the game averaging 21.4 points per game, to just five points. Maxey's defense was so good that ESPN analyst Jay Bilas called Maxey the player of the game despite going 0 for 9 from the floor.

Forever Young

With a combined 50 starts, 27.2% of the scoring, 30.5% of the rebounding and four key players (Ashton Hagans, Immanuel Quickley, Nick Richards and EJ Montgomery) back from the 2018-19 Elite Eight team -- plus a graduate transfer in Nate Sestina -- this is one of the most experienced teams of the John Calipari era.

The key words being the Calipari era. In comparison to the rest of the country, it's still inexperienced. According to Ken Pomeroy's experience rankings, UK is 340th in the country out of 353 teams with an average of 0.96 years of experience (through games on Jan. 4). Only three other Power Five teams check in with less experience in the KenPom.com rankings.

UK features nine newcomers on its roster, so the usual growing pains can be expected. Having said all that, it does rank as one of Calipari's most experienced teams at Kentucky, and that's important. Every team but one in the Calipari era has made the NCAA Tournament, but his best teams have combined young talent with a few returning pieces.

The 2009-10 squad with John Wall and DeMarcus Cousins featured veteran Patrick Patterson. The 2010-11 Final Four team had DeAndre Liggins and Josh Harrellson. The 2011-12 national championship team boasted three key returners in Terrence Jones, Doron Lamb and Darius Miller. The 2013-14 national runner-up squad featured Alex Poythress and Willie Cauley-Stein. And the 2014-15 team that nearly ran the table had both Poythress and Cauley-Stein back in addition to Andrew and Aaron Harrison and Dakari Johnson.

Bounce Back

Kentucky doesn't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when the Wildcats do, they almost always bounce back and it's extremely rare for the Wildcats to drop more than one in a row. UK is 52-13 under Calipari following a loss (record does not count end-of-season losses) following the win over Louisville.

Kentucky's back-to-back losses to Utah and Ohio State marked just the 13th time the Cats have lost consecutive games during the Calipari era and the most recent since dropping four in a row from Feb. 3-14, 2018. That stretch was the first four-game losing streak under Calipari and the only time Kentucky has lost more than two games in a row under Calipari.

Previously, the last time UK lost four games in a row was in February 2009, when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season. It was the first time Calipari had lost four straight since the end of the 2004-05 season at Memphis.

UK has never lost back-to-back home games under Calipari.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky own a 61-32 record (.656) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams under John Calipari, UK is 7-4 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five following the win over No. 1 Michigan State.

All-time, Calipari is 13-8 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 84-55, including a 53-28 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 27-19 record, including 16-12 at UK.

Last season, Kentucky answered the bell of big-time showdowns after an early season lesson vs. Duke. UK was 7-5 vs. AP Top 25 teams, including three victories over top-10 foes. UK is 2-1 in such games thus far this season with all three games taking place vs. top-five teams at the time.

By defeating the top-ranked Spartans, UK knocked off the No. 1 team in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Last season, Kentucky downed Tennessee on Feb. 19, 2019. With the win over MSU, the Wildcats now have nine victories over the No. 1 team in 25 tries.

Calipari improved to 6-4 vs. the No. 1 team in his career with the win vs. Michigan State, including 3-2 at Kentucky. According to ESPN, Calipari is the only coach with a winning (.600) percentage against No. 1 ranked teams with a minimum of 10 games faced against the No. 1.

Defense is the Difference Again

Long. Athletic. Interchangeable parts. On paper, Kentucky looks like it has the tools to be an elite defensive team. Although there have been early lapses, the numbers suggest this team could live up to preseason expectations. Some national analysts believe this could end up being one of John Calipari's best defensive teams yet -- lofty praise considering the standard his previous teams have set.

Through 13 games, opponents are making just 38.5% from the floor, ranked 35th in the country (through games on Jan. 4). Opponents are only scoring 61.7 points per game. And unlike last season when it seemed like every opponent early in the schedule caught fire from outside, the opposition is only making 30.3% from behind the arc.

Only five opponents have managed to shoot better than 40% from the field. Utah was the first team to make better than 50% from the field, marking the first time a Kentucky opponent has made more than half its shots since Duke did it on Nov. 6, 2018. Ohio State followed that with a 50% performance of its own, the first time back-to-back opponents have shot 50% or better since LSU and Missouri did it in back-to-back games on Jan. 28 and Feb. 1, 2014.

Included in the early defensive play was a spectacular effort vs. the then-No. 1 team in the country, Michigan State, in which UK held the Spartans to just 62 points, 39.3% shooting and 19.2% from 3. The Wildcats limited Louisville to 35.5%.

Sophomore Ashton Hagans, the 2019 Southeastern Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year, is once again playing lockdown defense with 2.0 steals per game.

Perhaps the biggest early season development on the defensive side of the ball is Nick Richards' continued emergence as a rim protector. The junior is averaging a career-best 2.3 blocks per game, including seven swats vs. Lamar, the most blocks by a Wildcat since Karl-Anthony Towns denied seven shots on Jan. 20, 2015.

Hold Them to 55 Points, 40%

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 77-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer, including 3-0 this season. The Wildcats are 181-7 (96.3%) under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less. UK is 8-0 thus far this season in the category. Kentucky's 61-59 loss to Tennessee in 2017-18 snapped a 60-game winning streak when holding the opponent to 63 or less.

Kentucky also fares well when it keeps its opponents to 40% or less from the floor. UK is 194-17 (.919) against opponents under Calipari when its field-goal percent is 40% or less. UK is 7-1 so far this season.

Sharing is Caring

After John Calipari voiced displeasure with his team's low assist numbers in the first few games -- especially after a six-assist night in the stunning upset to Evansville -- the Wildcats responded.

Kentucky is now sharing the ball at a Calipari-era record rate. UK had dished out at least 14 assists in seven straight games before posting 12 against Louisville and 13 against Missouri. The Wildcats' current assist rate (number of baskets that are assisted) is 58.5% - the best mark of the Calipari era.

Of course, it helps to have a distributor like Ashton Hagans running the point. He ranks seventh in the country with 7.3 assists per game, through games on Jan. 4, and is averaging 8.7 assists over the last nine games.

Cats Don't Count on the Long Ball

New rules this season that moved the 3-point line to the international basketball distance of 22 feet, 1.75 inches shouldn't be concerning for the Wildcats. For one, with this guard- and wing-oriented team, the 2019-20 team has capable shooters.

However, Kentucky is off to a slow start behind the arc. UK is shooting a John Calipari-era-low 29.0% from the 3-point line, ranked 325th in the country.

Calipari believes the slow start isn't indicative of things to come.

"I believe we've got good shooters," Calipari said after a perplexing 2-for-17 performance from behind the line in the loss to Utah. "Just maybe timid right now? ... We've got to fix some of that."

The good news is there was a slight up-tick in 3-point shooting against Ohio State and Louisville. After making more than six 3-point field goals just once in the first 10 games -- a 10-make day vs. Lamar -- the Wildcats made seven in those two games, including a season-best 46.7% vs. Louisville (7 of 15). Immanuel Quickley drained all four of UK's makes against Missouri in the SEC opener.

Whether the make percentage goes up or not, Kentucky has never relied on the 3-point shot under Calipari. While the trend nationally has seen teams take more 3-point shots than ever before, UK has bucked the trend and played to the style that's best suited that particular group.

The highest percentage of 3-point shots taken under Calipari was the 2010-11 Final Four team that lofted 32.4% of its shots from beyond the arc. No surprise, that team that consisted of Brandon Knight and Doron Lamb on the perimeter is also Calipari's top 3-point shooting team at Kentucky.

Calipari likes his teams to take between 20 to 24 3-point attempts per game. UK is averaging 15.9 attempts through its first 13 games with the longer line.

Kentucky's Schedule Packs a Punch

Kentucky's schedule is always among the toughest in the country and this season will certainly be no different.

UK's nonconference slate alone has seen the Wildcats defeat Michigan State in the State Farm Champions Classic in New York, endure a tough trip to Las Vegas against Utah and No. 5 Ohio State, included the annual rivalry vs. Louisville in Rupp Arena and takes the Wildcats to Texas Tech to play the Red Raiders on Jan. 25.

Seven of UK's 13 nonconference opponents this season made a postseason tournament in 2019, five of which made the NCAA Tournament. Michigan State (1), Louisville (3) and Ohio State (5) were all ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25 at the time of the meeting. It's the first time UK has played three AP top-five opponents before January since the 1979-80 season. The Wildcats went 2-1 vs. those three opponents.

That nonconference schedule will give way to one of the toughest league schedules in the country. UK will play its permanent home-and-away opponents of Florida, Tennessee and Vanderbilt twice, plus host and visit both Auburn and Georgia. The SEC's 15 NCAA Tournament selections over the last two years are second most in the nation.

The nonconference and league schedule combined reveals that 15 of the 26 opponents UK will face played in the postseason in 2018-19, including 11 in the NCAA Tournament, five in the Sweet 16 and three in the Final Four.

Five Kentucky opponents are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 on Jan. 6, including four nonconference opponents in Michigan State (9), Louisville (11), Ohio State (12), and Texas Tech (21).

SEC member Auburn (5) is also ranked among the AP Top 25 and Arkansas, Florida, LSU and Georgia. Kentucky plays Auburn twice, resulting in six total matchups in 2019-20 against current top-25 opponents.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

UK is 270-6 (.978) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

When Kentucky couldn't put away Auburn in the 2019 Elite Eight after leading by as many as 11 points in the first half, it was the first time the Wildcats let a double-digit lead wind up in a loss since losing a 14-point lead to South Carolina in 2017-18. Five of the six losses are to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 71.0% of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 85.7% of Calipari's 315 career wins at Kentucky.

Jordan First Two-Sport Star Since Braddy

Even with key returners, a deep and talented recruiting class, and the addition of graduate transfer Nate Sestina, Kentucky suffered major losses from last season. Four Wildcats are playing professionally, Jonny David graduated, and Brad Calipari and Jemarl Baker Jr. transferred. Then the injuries started to pile up.

From a numbers standpoint, UK needed more depth. When John Calipari heard there was a 6-foot-9, 250-pound pitcher on the baseball team with considerable basketball talent, he called UK baseball head coach Nick Mingione.

Enter Ben Jordan.

Jordan joined the team just before the Blue-White Game and has been even more important recently because of injuries and ailments to five different players before Thanksgiving.

Jordan is the first multi-sport basketball player since Nehemiah "Junior" Braddy, who played four seasons with the basketball team (1990-93) and one with the baseball team (1991). It's worth noting that while former UK basketball player E.J. Floreal played both basketball (2014-16) and track at Kentucky, he didn't begin his track career until after leaving basketball.

Although Jordan is a highly regarded baseball prospect with a lively arm, he's also a talented basketball player. He played at West Carter High School in Olive Hill, Kentucky, where he was the all-time leading rebounder and shot blocker and the eighth all-time leading scorer.

Jordan won Eastern Kentucky Conference Defensive Player of the Year in his senior season in addition to EKC First Team honors. He averaged 12.2 rebounds a contest in his final year.

Jordan is expected to be a major part of the UK baseball team in the spring. A 2016 Under Armour All-American in high school, he appeared in 10 games last season after redshirting in 2018 with an injury. Over the summer, playing for the Gaithersburg Giants of the Cal Ripken College Baseball League, Jordan appeared in seven games with six starts. He went 1-1 with a 2.70 ERA in 26.2 innings, allowing just 14 hits while striking out 36 en route to First Team All-Cal Ripken League honors.

Nation-Best 29 Wildcats on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

As the 2019-20 NBA season began, 29 players on NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive lists) played and finished their college basketball careers at Kentucky.

Underscoring the fact that no other school in the country can match UK's ability to develop players and put them in the NBA, UK's 29 players were again the most of any college basketball program, beating the next-closest school (Duke) by five players.

Of the 496 players in the NBA to start the 2019-20 season, 5.8% played and finished their college basketball careers at UK. There were actually fewer teams without a Wildcat (12) than there are NBA teams featuring Wildcats (18).

Of the 29 Wildcats on an opening-day NBA roster, John Calipari has coached 28 of them. With Derrick Rose (Detroit Pistons), who played for Calipari during the 2006-07 season at Memphis, Calipari has coached 29 players on 2019-20 opening-day rosters.

Kentucky has enjoyed unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the 10 seasons of the Calipari era, 38 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 29 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Davis, Karl-Anthony Towns and John Wall) and 21 lottery selections.

Calipari's players are not only reaching the next level, they are succeeding when they do. His players have garnered 20 All-Star selections, with Anthony Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Rose was named MVP in 2011. Five of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (Rose, Wall, Davis, DeMarcus Cousins and Towns), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year (Rose, Tyreke Evans and Towns), and 12 players from Calipari's first nine teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) have amassed more than $2.26 billion in career NBA contracts. In the 10 seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled nearly $1.9 billion in NBA contracts.

In just the 2019-20 season alone, UK players will make more than $255 million. Calipari-coached players only (includes Rose but not Rondo) will make more than $260 million.

A player-by-player breakdown is available in the NBA players section in the ensuing pages.

Kentucky at No. 1

For the seventh season in the 11-year John Calipari era, the Kentucky men's basketball team earned a No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 on Nov. 11.

After defeating Michigan State, the previous No. 1 team, in the State Farm Champions Classic and then following it up with a dominating 42-point victory vs. Eastern Kentucky the Wildcats were named the March Madness Team of the Week and then moved atop the AP Top 25 for the first time since December 2016.

No other school has reached No. 1 in seven of the last 11 seasons while Calipari has been at Kentucky. According to STATS, only three other programs (Duke, North Carolina and UCLA) have ever been ranked No. 1 in seven different seasons during an 11-year span.

The Wildcats' stay at No. 1 was brief after a shocking loss to Evansville. It marked just the third loss ever by Kentucky in 57 games in Rupp Arena as the No. 1 team in the country. UK fell to 69-8 as the AP top-ranked team under Calipari.

The Wildcats own an all-time record of 220-31 (.876) at No. 1 in the AP Top 25. UK has appeared at the top of the AP poll 24 different seasons in school history, and the latest stay marked the program's 125th week at No. 1, third most in college basketball (Duke has 145 and UCLA, thanks in large part to its dynasty in the 1960s and 1970s, has 134).

Calipari, one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking, is no stranger to the top spot. Dating back to his time at Memphis, Calipari-coached teams have reached No. 1 in eight of the last 13 seasons. Including his tenure at UMass, his teams have ranked No. 1 in 10 different seasons.

Calipari Named Coach of the Decade

Underscored by more victories than any other coach or program over the last 10 seasons, more Final Four appearances, a record number of NBA Draft picks, and the 2012 national championship, John Calipari was recently named the College Basketball Coach of the Decade by Sporting News.

In a piece penned by national writer Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News credits Calipari for changing the college basketball landscape. Detailing Calipari's success – what DeCourcy described as a "college basketball revolution" – DeCourcy wrote that "no one defined the 2010s in the same way as Calipari ... nor achieved the same degree of consistent success."

In an era where players can enter the NBA Draft at 19 years of age, Calipari has masterfully balanced the priority of players' long-term professional dreams with individual and team development, leading to on-court success that no other program has matched over the last decade.

"I knew we were going to make the program — and I said it at the press conference — it was going to be a players-first program," Calipari told Sporting News. "We were going to make decisions based on them and their needs. And it's not just about the name on the front. It'll be about the name on the back. That's how we're going to do this."

The distinction by Sporting News is hard to argue. One only needs to look at the numbers.

Now in his 11th season in 2019-20, Calipari owns more wins, more NCAA Tournament victories, more Final Four appearances, more Elite Eight berths and more Sweet 16 showings than any other coach since arriving at Kentucky.

With a 313-74 record at UK through last week's game vs. Ohio State, he trails only the Baron of the Bluegrass, Adolph Rupp, in total wins as the head coach of the Wildcats. His winning percentage of .809 at Kentucky is only fractions behind Rupp's pace through his first 387 games at UK, and he surpassed Rupp during the Wildcats' 2019 Elite Eight run for the most NCAA Tournament victories (31) as Kentucky's head coach. When he reached the 300-win mark at UK last season, he became the fourth-fastest coach to 300 wins at one program in NCAA history.

The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer (first ballot) led Kentucky to a national championship and four Final Fours (2011, '12, '14 and '15) in a five-season span, just the third coach (John Wooden and Mike Krzyzewski) in the history of college basketball to accomplish such a feat.

In addition to UK's total wins under Calipari and its NCAA Tournament success, Calipari's Kentucky teams have captured five regular-season Southeastern Conference championships and six SEC Tournament titles since 2010. They've won 30 games in five of the 10 seasons.

2012 Title Team Voted Team of the Decad

Kentucky led college basketball in the 2010s in NCAA Tournament wins, Final Four appearances and NBA Draft picks. According to the Associated Press, the Wildcats also featured the best team of the decade.

The Associated Top 25 panel voted the 2011-12 championship squad the best college basketball team of the decade. The 26-member panel voted UK ahead of the 2017-18 Villanova championship team.

The 2012 national championship team was dominant in every sense of the word. En route to a 38-2 season, the Wildcats captivated the nation with a smothering defense, unselfish play, depth, balance and talent. Led by freshman Anthony Davis, the 2012 team snapped a 14-year title drought with the program's eighth national championship.

Davis, who won all but one of the major national player of the year awards, was the most dominant player in the country, not because of his offense – which was still superb – but because of his defensive abilities and rebounding prowess. The 6-foot-10 forward set a school record for blocked shots with 186, in addition to averaging a team-best 14.2 points and 10.4 rebounds per game.

The national championship game by Davis underscored the story of the 2012 Wildcats. Although Davis was just 1 for 10 from the floor, he was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player after taking over the championship game vs. Kansas with 16 rebounds, six blocks and three steals.

Of course, Davis had plenty of help. Five other players on the team were selected in the NBA Draft just a few months later, including Michael Kidd-Gilchrist – arguably the emotional heartbeat of the team – who would later make history with Davis by becoming the first college teammates to go 1-2 in the draft.

Senior Darius Miller, sophomores Terrence Jones and Doron Lamb, and freshman Marquis Teague provided an unstoppable cast that lost its two games by a combined eight points, one of which was on a buzzer beater.

Memorable victories included a December showdown with preseason national title favorite North Carolina, avenging the first loss of the season with a victory over Indiana in the Sweet 16 and defeating archrival Louisville in the Final Four.

The championship marked John Calipari's first and was a part of four Final Four appearances in five seasons, one of just three schools to accomplish that feat.

Kentucky's 38 wins in 2011-12 is still tied for the most in NCAA Division I history, as are the six NBA Draft picks. Both marks were later tied by the 2014-15 UK team.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky defeated both of its in-state foes in 2019-20 (Eastern Kentucky and Louisville), continuing its domination of teams in state under John Calipari. Kentucky is now 19-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm.

The overall mark also includes an 11-2 record vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals were in postseason play. UK's four-game winning streak was snapped in 2016-17 but the Wildcats have won all six meetings played in Rupp Arena, including a 29-point blowout in 2017-18, the third-biggest margin of victory in the history of the series. Louisville's two wins are by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Calipari took over at UK:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena

UK-Michigan Ink Three-Year Series Starting in London

Kentucky has signed a three-year deal with Michigan that will take the Wildcats to London next season and add a marquee home-and-home series for the following two years.

Beginning with a trip to O2 Arena in London in December of 2020 – exact date to be announced at a later time – the Wildcats and Wolverines will play three consecutive seasons. UK will travel to Ann Arbor, Michigan, for the Dec. 4, 2021 game, and Kentucky will host Michigan in Rupp Arena on Dec. 3, 2022.

The neutral-site game between the two schools will be hosted by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and serve as a fundraiser for the Hall. It will be the first NCAA Division I college basketball game to be played in one of the world's most popular venues. All further details on play date, game time, television partner, ticket pricing, ancillary events and ticket on-sale will be announced in January of 2020.

UK has played internationally on a number of occasions for foreign exhibition tours, but the game in London will mark Kentucky's third regular-season trip outside the U.S. and first in Europe.

London played host to the 1948 U.S. Olympic team that consisted of a handful of Wildcats. After winning the 1948 national championship – UK's first NCAA title – five Wildcats represented the U.S. in the 1948 Olympics in London. The Kentucky-led team won all eight of its games to win the gold medal.

UK leads the all-time series with Michigan 5-2. The most memorable matchup of the bunch – at least in the eyes of Big Blue Nation – was the most recent in March 2014 in Indianapolis. The Wildcats edged the Wolverines 75-72 in a classic in the Elite Eight. Aaron Harrison hit the second of three straight game-winning 3-pointers to advance UK to the Final Four. Howard's Wolverines knocked off Kentucky 81-78 in overtime in the 1993 Final Four to advance to the national championship game.

The on-campus visits in 2021 and 2022 will mark the first in the series since UK's 1970 trip to Ann Arbor and the 1968 UK Invitational Tournament in Memorial Coliseum. The series is tied 1-1 in Lexington, but the Wildcats lead Michigan 2-0 in Ann Arbor and 2-1 at neutral sites.

Wildcats Ink Six in Fall Signing Period

Upon accepting the position of head coach of the Kentucky men's basketball program 10 years ago, John Calipari said one of the reasons he was chosen for the job was because he could recruit the best of the best.

It was a promise kept and a promise on which he continues to deliver. As he begins what he's calling his "second tour" at UK, he hasn't lost his touch.

Calipari and the Wildcats made an emphatic statement during the fall signing period with the additions of six highly skilled, athletic players to the program. UK signed decorated prospects Devin Askew, BJ Boston, Terrence Clarke, Cam'Ron Fletcher, Isaiah Jackson and Lance Ware to national letters of intent.

"I'm really excited about this group of young men," Calipari said. "They recruited us as much as we recruited them. They wanted this culture. They wanted to be with other good players. They didn't need crazy promises. They wanted this. In the past, when we've had groups like that, it's led to success both individually and as a team. When you're building a great team, not only do you need to be talented, you need to have high-character individuals, which we have with this group. These are great kids from good families."

All six players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by the major national recruiting services. Five of the six are on the preseason watch list for the Naismith High School Trophy (Askew was excluded because of his recent reclassification).

With the spring signing class still to go (begins April 15), UK is expected to have one of the nation's top classes yet again. In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking.

Kentucky has now signed 59 top-50 recruits, 48 top-25 players and 24 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari's 12 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

UK can only comment on prospective student-athletes who have signed official paperwork to play at Kentucky.

Cousins Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

DeMarcus Cousins was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2019 class in September.

Cousins was one of the key players on the 2009-10 Kentucky team that went to the Elite Eight in John Calipari's first season at UK. Cousins was named an NCAA Consensus Second Team All-American, including first-team recognition from the Associated Press, the 2010 Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches, and an All-SEC First Team (AP and coaches) selection.

While at UK, Cousins led the Wildcats to a No. 1 national ranking, an SEC regular-season championship and an SEC Tournament championship. He averaged 15.1 points and 9.9 rebounds and concluded freshman season with eighth-most rebounds in a single season in UK history with 375.

Following his one season in Lexington, Cousins was selected by the Sacramento Kings with the fifth overall pick in the 2010 NBA Draft. He's since gone on to a highly successful NBA career. He is a four-time NBA All-Star, was named to All-NBA Second Team in 2015 and 2016, and averaged double figures in all of his nine seasons in the league, including 20-plus points in five of them.

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2019 for placing in the top 10% of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a perfect 1,000. It's the fifth straight year the men's basketball team received the award and the sixth time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2014-15 through 2017-18 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in each of the last six single-year APR rates.

The NCAA cut score to compete in the 2019-20 postseason is a 930 four-year APR. Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

Cats Rock at Rupp

The Wildcats are 603-70 (.896) in Rupp Arena. Among the most notable marks of dominance as the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- School record 54-game winning streak to begin the John Calipari era
- UK is 322-41 (.887) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK has gone undefeated at home in five of Calipari's 11 seasons
- The Wildcats have a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 44 seasons

UK Reaches 600 Wins at Rupp in Record Time

With a victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 7, 2019 Kentucky reached the 600-win mark at Rupp Arena faster than any other program in NCAA Division I level history. UK needed just 670 games to reach win No. 600 in Rupp Arena.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 20 of the last 24 seasons. That number includes a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

- Kentucky averaged 21,695 fans during the 2018-19 season
- UK averaged 23,000-plus fans in seven of Calipari's first 10 seasons
- The Wildcats led the nation in average attendance in 2017-18

New Chairbacks, Fewer Seats

After receiving a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that enhanced the fan experience with the likes of a new Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, ribbons boards, new corner video boards and a new audio system, Rupp Arena is undergoing an additional transformation as a part of UK's new leasing agreement with the Lexington Center.

Chair-back seating in the upper-level sideline was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234 for the 2019-20 season. Club areas will be available to season ticket holders starting with the 2020-21 season.

The new seating reduced Rupp Arena's capacity to 20,500.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), both by three, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat the Wildcats in Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 176-10 (.946) in Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- UK is 21-5 (.840) vs. ranked opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- The Wildcats are 155-5 (.969) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Cal
- UK is 94-4 (.960) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win in Rupp Arena as UK's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari just 104 games to reach the century mark at home, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, 2016, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for wins in Rupp Arena history.

Calipari currently has 176 victories inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

Second Tour: Calipari, UK Agree to New Long-Term Contract

John Calipari, who owns more wins, more NCAA Tournament wins, more Final Four appearances, more Elite Eight berths and more Sweet 16 showings than any other coach since his arrival at Kentucky, signed a new long-term contract with the school in June that offers the opportunity to end his career in Lexington.

The new deal, with total guaranteed compensation – which includes base salary and media/endorsement payments – is valued at $86 million over the lifetime of the contract. With a base salary of $400,000 per season from the university, Calipari will make $8 million in total compensation over the next two seasons with increases starting in 2021-22 ($8.5 million per year for four seasons) and 2025-26 ($9 million per year for four seasons).

The only incentive included in Calipari's new contract remains the performance of the men's basketball team in the Academic Progress Rate, a metric created by the NCAA to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The bonus will remain unchanged at $50,000 from the previous contract for meeting the threshold of 975. The men's basketball team has earned an NCAA award in five straight seasons for finishing among the top 10% of Division I men's basketball schools.

Calipari's new contract will no longer include a retention bonus. Beginning with the sixth contract year of the agreed upon terms, Calipari has the option to step down as the head coach and become special assistant to the athletics director/university representative. He would receive $950,000 in annual compensation for the position.

Calipari is calling the start of his second decade at Kentucky his "second tour" after unprecedented success in his first decade. His goal is for the program to build on that success and do even bigger things on the second tour. First, let's take a look back at his first one ...

A Decorated Decade

Through 10 years at Kentucky (entering 2019-20), John Calipari's time in Lexington has been every bit as successful -- and more -- as fans hoped when he agreed to become the head coach at Kentucky back in the spring of 2009.

By just about every measure, he's the most successful coach in college basketball during the last decade. Among schools who have been to at least two Elite Eights and a Final Four since 2009-10, Calipari ranks:

- First in wins (315), through games on Jan. 4
- First in NCAA Tournament wins (31)
- Fourth in NCAA titles (one)
- First in Final Four appearances (four)
- First in Elite Eight appearances (seven)
- First in Sweet 16 appearances (eight)
- Third in regular-season conference titles (five)
- Second in league tournament titles (six)

Moving Up the Kentucky Career Wins List

With an 80-53 victory vs. Auburn on Feb. 23, 2019, John Calipari moved past Joe B. Hall for the second-most wins in program history. Calipari trails only the legendary Adolph Rupp (876 wins) for the most wins at UK and earned win No. 300 at Ole Miss on March 5, 2019.

When Calipari tied Hall with his 297th win at Missouri on Feb. 19, 2019, he did so 32 games faster than Hall and just two games slower than Rupp.

Although he's still climbing the charts, he's doing it nearly as fast as anyone else in NCAA history. With the win over Ole Miss, Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 300 wins (369 games) at one program in NCAA history. Only Bill Self (358 games at Kansas), Claire Bee (359 games at Long Island) and Rupp (366 at UK) got there faster.

Calipari passed Tubby Smith on Dec. 1 for the third-most coached games at UK. Smith's 10-year career with the Wildcats ended with his 346th game. Calipari and UK's win over UNC Greensboro on Dec. 1, 2018 marked the 347th career game he's been at the helm. Rupp is obviously first in games coached with a 42-year tenure spanning 1,066 career games.

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White.

700 Victories and Counting

With Kentucky's win over UIC on Nov. 26, 2017, John Calipari reached 700 on-court wins. At the time he was one of just 41 coaches, regardless of NCAA level of classification, to reach that barrier. Only 29 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever. Only Adolph Rupp (836 games), Jerry Tarkanian (876 games) and Roy Williams (879 games) did it faster.

Calipari is currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

ON PACE WITH THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

- Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to four NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.
- John Calipari is just behind pace with Rupp to begin his career at UK in total victories. Calipari (.810) is slightly behind Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 15 league regular-season championships (including five Southeastern Conference titles) seven more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Bruce Pearl has eight). Calipari has won six SEC Tournament championships in 10 seasons at Kentucky and owns 15 conference tournament titles in his career, 11 more than his closest competitors (Ben Howland, Kermit Davis).

He's tallied a 345-104 (.768) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 137-38 (.783) record since joining the SEC. Entering the 2019-20 season, his 136 total conference wins were the second most among Division I coaches since 1996-97 over their first 10 seasons with a program, while his winning percentage ranked third. Only Adolph Rupp (.833) had a better winning percentage through his first 10 seasons in league play in Kentucky's history.

Although he's been publicly outspoken against conference tournaments -- only because he doesn't favor playing three or more games on consecutive days to win the tournament -- his teams have gotten up for them. Calipari's teams at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky have been to 19 conference championship games in his 27-year career, winning a remarkable 15 of them. Calipari is 57-12 (.826) all-time in conference tournaments, including 23-4 (.852) at UK.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017.

When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, 2017, he made history as a head coach. Calipari became the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, 93, 94, 95 and 96. Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, 06, 07, 08 and 09. Kentucky has captured the SEC five times in 2010, 12, 15, 16 and 17.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 30 combined regular-season and tournament championships after the 2018 SEC Tournament title. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (33 titles with the West Coast Conference regular-season title in 2019) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

COACH CALIPARI

30 is the new 20

With a 71-67 win over Mississippi State on Feb. 9, 2019, John Calipari achieved another feat in his decorated coaching career. With his 20th victory in 2019, he secured his 25th consecutive on-court 20-win season. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski (23) and Bill Self (21).

With a Sweet 16 win over Houston in the 2019 NCAA Tournament, Calipari and the Cats clinched a 30-win season for the fifth time as UK's head coach. Calipari has 11 seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Krzyzewski (15) and Roy Williams (12) have more 30-win seasons as an active head coach. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 wins in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

There's No Place Like Home

Since his 1991-92 season at UMass, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 386-32 (.923) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 176-10 (.946) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's 11 seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're pretty good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 100-45 (.690) record on the road. At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 78-23 (.772) all-time under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. Calipari has led seven of his 11 UK teams to the No. 1 ranking and eight of his last 13 teams to the top (he's done it 10 times overall). When Coach Cal's teams are at the top, they're difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-13 (.894) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-8 (.896) when his team is atop the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass at No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis
- He (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (219) in active coaches with victories at No. 1
- Calipari has coached 123 career games as a No. 1 team, fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (254), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (127)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .894 trails only Wooden (.952) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (.862)
- Calipari is 6-4 vs. the AP top-ranked team in the land, including 3-2 at Kentucky after defeating Michigan State on Nov. 5
- According to ESPN, his .600 winning percentage against the No. 1 ranked team is the best for any head coach

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100% of the players (20 of 20) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Brad Calipari, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, Kentucky has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last six single-year reports. UK's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May 2019, was a 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the fifth year in a row for finishing in the top 10% of Division I men's basketball programs.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, John Calipari has helped 49 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 38 in his first 10 seasons at Kentucky, more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than three No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 38 NBA Draft picks, 29 first-rounders, three No. 1 overall selections, seven top-five picks and 21 lottery picks at Kentucky
- Of the 60 players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari, 38 have been selected in the NBA Draft, a 63.3% success rate. Another five of those made the NBA, and the majority of the rest were walk-ons
- Of the 27 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, 25 have been first-round picks. All 27 have played a game in the NBA. He is 29 for 31 in that regard when including his players from Memphis
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012 - Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in 12 straight drafts since 2008, the only school to do so during that time period

Recruiting Trail

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players under John Calipari's leadership than any other school. Nearly a quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past 11 classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats. The following list does not include transfers (freshman signees only).

COACH CALIPARI

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level. Of the 35 top-25 Rivals.com players Kentucky has signed and have completed their college eligibility at UK, 31 were drafted and 25 were selected in the first round. But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's 50-plus NBA pros have amassed more than $2.26 billion in NBA contracts, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of his UK players in the NBA, they've earned just shy of $1.9 billion in guaranteed contracts.

There's more: Of UK's 21 lottery picks in the Calipari era, 14 have earned second contracts in the NBA with seven of them cashing in on max contracts. Of the seven who haven't earned contracts, all have been drafted in the last three years and are still on their rookie deal. Over the last 10 years, there have been 22 lottery picks who earned max contracts in the NBA. Seven of them attended Kentucky.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

John Calipari's teams have posted 19 streaks of 10 or more wins at Kentucky, Memphis and UMass, including seven at UK.

They have won 15 or more straight games nine times, 20 or more six times, 25 or more five times, and 30 or more one time. Of course, the most famous streak was the 38-0 start during the 2014-15 season.

COACH CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 49 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 27-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 700 on-court victories, 20 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari’s career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari’s 10 seasons at UK, he leads all coaches in total wins (305), NCAA Tournament wins (31), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight).

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture. In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 50 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 49 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he’s had 38 players drafted during his first 10 years at Kentucky, including 29 first-round picks.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 20 All-Star selections, with Anthony Davis winning the game’s MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Five of his players have been tabbed All-NBA, three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 12 players from Calipari’s first nine teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 18 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including four players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, and in 2017, for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”
