GAME 19 Fight Card - Full preview article on pages 6-7

THE GAME: No. 18 Texas Tech is set to host No. 15 Kentucky at 5 p.m. on Saturday in a Big 12/SEC Challenge matchup at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders (12-6, 3-3 Big 12) are coming off a 65-54 road loss at TCU on Tuesday, while the Wildcats (14-4, 5-1 SEC) earned an 89-79 win over Georgia at home and has now won six of their last seven games. Tech has won 54 straight non-conference home games, is 9-1 on its home court this season and 9-3 in non-conference play, while UK is also 9-3 in non-conference action. The Red Raiders are 0-2 in ranked vs. ranked matchups this season with losses to No. 1 Baylor and No. 14 West Virginia, but also have a 70-57 win over Louisville which was ranked No. 1 when they were unranked. Texas Tech will resume Big 12 play when it hosts West Virginia next Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the USA. With a 73.3 winning percentage (184-67) as a NCAA coach, Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard has the ninth best percentage among active coaches and is 88-37 at Texas Tech. Kentucky head coach John Calipari is third with a 77.2 winning percentage with 722 wins in his career. The Red Raiders are led in scoring by freshman Jahmi'us Ramsey (15.5 ppg.) who is seventh in the Big 12 and graduate transfer Chris Clarke who is at 7.9 rebounds and 5.6 assists per game which both rank in the top-10. Clarke is currently 38th nationally in assists (100 total) and 51st with a 2.27 assist-to-turnover ratio, while Davide Moretti is seventh nationally with a 91.5 percentage at the free-throw line. Tyler Edwards was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on Monday after averaging 23.0 points per game last week, including scoring a career-high 24 at Kansas State and then dropping 22 with a career-best five 3-pointers last Saturday against Iowa State. He was the first Red Raider to earn Big 12 Player of the Week this season.

PROGRAM MARKS: Texas Tech is coming off its winningest season in program history after going 31-7 and 14-4 in Big 12 play last year. The Red Raiders won the Big 12 regular-season championship before advancing to the Final Four and NCAA National Championship Final for the first time in program history. The program is now 1,437-1,118 all-time after its wins over Kansas State and Iowa State last week. Tech is 8-2 in the NCAA Tournament over the past two years after making the 2018 NCAA Elite Eight and reaching the NCAA National Championship Final. The 8-2 mark is the best in the nation over that span.

POLL REPORT: Texas Tech is nationally ranked for the sixth straight week after being slotted No. 18 in the Associated Press Top 25 along with coming in at No. 25 in the NCAA NET Rankings. Tech, which was at No. 23 in last week's poll, moved up five spots after the wins over KSU and ISU. The team has now been ranked in 10 of 12 polls this season, including starting at No. 13 in the preseason ranking for the highest point in program history following its run to the NCAA National Championship Final last season.

BIG 12 HONOR: Texas Tech sophomore Tyler Edwards has been named the Big 12 Player of the Week after averaging 23.0 points per game and going 8-for-10 on 3-pointers in a pair of wins over Kansas State and Iowa State last week. A guard from Arlington, Edwards recorded a career-high 24 points last Tuesday in the win at Kansas State after hitting 9 of 14 shots with three 3-pointers before going 5 of 6 on 3-pointers on Saturday against the Cyclones.

The Texas Tech men's basketball program is memorializing ANDRE EMMETT throughout the season with a patch on their jerseys after he was murdered on Sept. 23, 2019 in Dallas. Emmett is the all-time leading scorer in program history with 2,256 career points from 2001-04. A Dallas native, Emmett finished his career scoring 17.6 points per game and with 765 rebounds, 201 assists and 164 blocks. He earned All-America honors during his senior season, was a two-time NABC All-District First-Team selection and three-time Big 12 All-Conference First-Team member. Emmett was selected in the NBA Draft by the Seattle Supersonics in 2004 and was inducted into the Texas Tech Hall of Fame in 2018.

TEXASTECH.COM PREVIEW: VS. KENTUCKY

LUBBOCK, Texas – No. 18 Texas Tech is set to host No. 15 Kentucky at 5 p.m. on Saturday in a Big 12/SEC Challenge matchup at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (12-6, 3-3 Big 12) are coming off a 65-54 road loss at TCU on Tuesday, while the Wildcats (14-4, 5-1 SEC) earned an 89-79 win over Georgia at home and has now won six of their last seven games. Tech is 9-1 on its home court this season and is 9-3 in non-conference play, while UK is also 9-3 in non-conference action. The Red Raiders are 0-2 in ranked vs. ranked matchups this season with losses to No. 1 Baylor and No. 14 West Virginia, but also have a 70-57 win over Louisville which was ranked No. 1 when they were unranked.

Texas Tech will resume Big 12 play when it hosts West Virginia next Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the USA.

With a 73.3 winning percentage (184-67) as a NCAA coach, Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard has the ninth best percentage among active coaches and is 88-37 at Texas Tech. Kentucky head coach John Calipari is third with a 77.2 winning percentage with 722 wins in his career. The Red Raiders are led in scoring by freshman Jahmi'us Ramsey (15.5 ppg.) who is seventh in the Big 12 and graduate transfer Chris Clarke who is at 7.9 rebounds and 5.6 assists per game which both rank in the top-10. Clarke is currently 38th nationally in assists (100 total) and 51st with a 2.27 assist-to-turnover ratio, while Davide Moretti is seventh nationally with a 91.5 percentage at the free-throw line. Tyler Edwards was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on Monday after averaging 23.0 points per game last week, including scoring a career-high 24 at Kansas State and then dropping 22 with a career-best five 3-pointers last Saturday against Iowa State. He was the first Red Raider to earn Big 12 Player of the Week this season.

PROGRAM MARKS

Texas Tech is coming off its winningest season in program history after going 31-7 and 14-4 in Big 12 play last year. The Red Raiders won the Big 12 regular-season championship before advancing to the Final Four and NCAA National Championship Final for the first time in program history. The program is now 1,437-1,118 all-time after its wins over Kansas State and Iowa State last week. Tech is 8-2 in the NCAA Tournament over the past two years after making the 2018 NCAA Elite Eight and reaching the NCAA National Championship Final. The 8-2 mark is the best in the nation over that span.

STREAKING

Texas Tech has won 54 straight non-conference home games after a 73-58 win over CSU Bakersfield on Dec. 29 in its last non-conference game before starting conference play. The program came into the season following a 67-64 win over Arkansas to complete a 9-0 mark in those games last year. TTU started the streak with a 100-69 win over St. Mary's on Dec. 30, 2013. Chris Beard is 34-0 in non-conference home games as the team's head coach. Butler leads the nation with a 58-game non-conference home winning streak after a 67-36 win over Louisiana-Monroe on Saturday, Dec. 28 in its last home non-conference game at the Hinkle Fieldhouse. Duke had the previous active record at 150 games before falling to SFA on Nov. 27 at Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Red Raiders are currently 7-0 in non-conference home games this season with wins over Eastern Illinois, Bethune-Cookman, Tennessee State, Long Island, Southern Miss, UTRGV and CSU Bakersfield.

HOME DOMINANCE

Beard has helped lead the Red Raiders to a 59-7 record at home in his four seasons, including starting this year with a 9-1 record win Big 12 home wins over Oklahoma State and Iowa State to go along with the non-conference wins. Tech has gone 17-1 at home in the past two seasons with 8-1 records in conference play on its home court. Along with home court winning, the program's attendance has dramatically risen under Beard. The team has sold out four games this season and currently ranks 18th nationally with 14,045 fans per game coming off a 15,098 sell-out last Saturday against Iowa State. Tech's attendance this season ranks second in the Big 12 and is the best in the state of Texas followed by the University of Texas which is drawing 9,437 fans which is 40th nationally, Baylor (7,593), Texas A&M (6,664), Houston (6,619) and TCU (6,136).

STAT RANKINGS

Texas Tech comes into the game against Kentucky ranked 19th nationally with 16.4 assists and 17.39 turnovers forced per game. The Red Raiders are leading the Big 12 in both categories along with topping the conference with 295 total assists through 18 games. The team is 31st in the country by holding teams to 61.8 points per game and have a 10.9 scoring margin advantage which is 37th. Tech is second in the Big 12 with a 1.18 assist-to-turnover ratio, 274 free throws made and a 75.7 free-throw percentage. Individually, Davide Moretti is tied for the NCAA active career lead at 91.1 percent for his career and is seventh this season at 91.5 percent. Moretti is 54 of 59 this season, including going 7 of 8 in the past three games. Kentucky's Emmanuel Quickley is sixth at the free-throw line this season at 91.8 percent, while Nick Richards is sixth nationally by shooting 67.4 percent from the field and Ashton Hagans is sixth with 131 total assists. At 7.3 assists per game, Hagans ranks ninth nationally.

GAME COVERAGE

The game between Texas Tech and Kentucky will be broadcasted on ESPN with Karl Ravech and Jimmy Dykes and on the Texas Tech Sports Network's flagship station Double T 97.3 in Lubbock with Geoff Haxton and Chris Level. Fans can also find the game on any streaming device by using the ESPN app and can follow the game at @TexasTechMBB.

POLL REPORT

Texas Tech is nationally ranked for the sixth straight week after being slotted No. 18 in the Associated Press Top 25 along with coming in at No. 25 in the NCAA NET Rankings. Tech, which was at

No. 23 in last week's poll, moved up five spots after the wins over KSU and ISU. The team has now been ranked in 10 of 12 polls this season, including starting at No. 13 in the preseason ranking for the highest point in program history following its run to the NCAA National Championship Final last season.

BIG 12/SEC CHALLENGE

Texas Tech is 4-2 all-time in the Big 12/SEC Challenge after earning a 67-64 win over Arkansas after securing a 70-63 victory at South Carolina the year before. The Big 12 won the Challenge last season with a 6-4 advantage and are 35-25 over the SEC since the start in the 2014 season. Under Beard, Texas Tech is 3-0 in the Big 12/SEC Challenge and 4-1 against SEC opponents. The Red Raiders also have wins over Auburn and LSU in the challenge with their losses coming to Alabama and Arkansas in a 2016 matchup. The Big 12 is 35-25 against the SEC going into the seventh year of the challenge. In last year's win over the Razorbacks in the Challenge, Moretti led the Red Raiders with 21 points after hitting three 3-pointers and going 6 of 7 from the free-throw line.

SERIES HISTORY

Texas Tech and Kentucky will be meeting for the fifth time with the Wildcats owning a 4-0 advantage in the all-time series. The teams have met once in Lubbock with UK earning an 89-73 win at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum on Dec. 22, 1965. In the last meeting, Kentucky won 83-68 in a neutral-court game on Dec. 17, 1994 in Cincinnati, Ohio. The Red Raiders are 131-142 all-time against the Southeastern Conference, including going 4-1 against the SEC under Beard.

PLAYER NOTES

Texas Tech is led by junior Davide Moretti who has competed in 93 games (70 wins) with the Red Raiders, dynamic freshmen and graduate transfers Chris Clarke and TJ Holyfield who bring experience to a team that lost four starters and the leading reserve off last year's historic team. Moretti is averaging 13.0 points per game this season and has made at least one 3-pointer in 16 of 18 games this season and in 68 of 93 games in his career. He is tied for the NCAA active career lead in free throws at 91.1 percent by shooting 175 of 192 and is the Big 12 leader this season at 91.5 percent (54 of 59). A junior from Italy, Moretti was held without a free-throw attempt at TCU and for only the third time this season. He scored eight points against the Horned Frogs with two 3-pointers after he had made four against West Virginia and three against Kansas State and Iowa State. Moretti scored a career-high 23 points earlier this season against Creighton where he hit three 3-pointers and was 4 of 4 at the free-throw line and has scored in double figures in 13 of 18 games. Moretti has started 56 straight games for the Red Raiders after a sophomore season where he started all 38 and averaged 11.5 points per game, shot 49.8 percent from the field, 45.9 percent on 3-pointers and led the nation at 92.4 percent. He was named to the 2019 All-Big 12 Third Team and earned the NCAA Elite 90 Award. A 6-foot-2 guard, he is on the Bob Cousy Award Watch List and comes into the game against Kentucky having scored 800 points with 139 3-pointers made in his career.

Clarke has proven to be a dynamic player for the Red Raiders where he is leading the team with 7.9 rebounds and 5.6 assists per game this season. A grad transfer who played three seasons at Virginia Tech, Clarke is coming off a game where he had seven rebounds and three assists against TCU and leads Tech with two double-doubles this season coming with 11 points and 10 rebounds against Iowa and then 14 points and 11 rebounds against Southern Miss. He scored a season-high 17 points against Creighton and has two 12-rebound performances this season against Tennessee State and Louisville. A 6-foot-6 guard from Virginia Beach, Virginia, Clarke recorded a career-high 11 assists earlier this season and eight games with six or more assists. For his career, Clarke has scored 843 points, secured 660 rebounds and has 310 assists through 97 games played in his collegiate career. A Virginia Tech, Clarke recorded the first triple-double in program history with 12 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists against the Citadel and scored a career-high 22 points in games against Florida State and UMBC during his sophomore season. Clarke was named the Big 12 Preseason Newcomer of the Year and earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Week on Dec. 23 after averaging a double-double in wins over Southern Miss and UTRGV. Along with his 12 rebounds to help knock off then-No. 1 Louisville, Clarke added six assists and seven points. In conference play, he has a high of 10 rebounds and eight assists in the win over Oklahoma State.

Kyler Edwards was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on Monday and comes into the matchup against Kentucky averaging 11.8 points, 4.5 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. A sophomore from Arlington, Edwards recorded a career-high 24 points last Tuesday at Kansas State and followed it with a career-best five 3-pointers in a 22-point performance last Saturday against Iowa State. During the two-game span, he went 8 of 10 on 3-pointers to earn the conference award. He is coming off scoring nine points and having five rebounds and four assists at TCU on Tuesday night. Edwards has started all 18 games this season after playing a reserve role in all 38 last year as a freshman. Through 18 games of his sophomore season, Edwards has scored in double digits in 10 games and had a career-high nine rebounds at West Virginia. He has scored 20 or more in three games this season after recording freshman-season best of 19 point when he went 7 of 7 from the field with four 3-pointers against Northern Colorado. Edwards enters this weekend having scored 421 points, securing 166 rebounds and with 97 assists through 56 games in his career.

Jahmi'us Ramsey is seventh in the Big 12 in scoring at 15.5 points per game and fifth by shooting 40.3 percent on 3-pointers through 14 games play. A freshman from Arlington, Ramsey led the Red Raiders with 15 points on Tuesday at TCU and also had five rebounds. It was his 11th game scoring in double figures this season and the ninth game with five or more rebounds. Ramsey earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Week on Nov. 25 after scoring a career-high 27 points against Long Island where he was 10 of 16 from the field and 5-for-6 on 3-pointers. He would record his second game with five 3-pointers when he dropped 20 points against Baylor on Jan. 7 and now has 31 made 3-pointers after hitting one against the Horned Frogs. Along with his 27-point performance against LIU, Ramsey scored 25 against Houston Baptist and 20 against CSU Bakersfield to give him four games with 20 or more points this season. Sidelined for four games after injuring his hamstring with 10 minutes remaining against Iowa on Nov. 28 in Las Vegas, he has played over 30 minutes in all eight games since his return. He is shooting 44.7 percent from the field and is also averaging 4.9 rebounds, 1.8 assists and is 11th in the conference with 1.5 steals per game. For a season, Texas Tech has only been led in scoring by two freshmen with Jordan Tolbert averaging 11.5 points per game in the 2011-12 season and Rick Bullock who had 13.8 ppg. in 1972-73.

Terrence Shannon, Jr. is averaging 11.4 points and 4.3 rebounds through 16 games this season after scoring 10 points at TCU on Tuesday. A 6-foot-6 guard from Chicago, Shannon missed games at West Virginia and Kansas State due to injury but has played the last two where he has averaged 10.5 point per game after dropping 11 on Iowa State last Saturday in his return. Shannon scored a career-high 24 points at DePaul on Dec. 4 in his hometown return after going 9 of 18 from the field with two 3-pointers. He was also 4 of 5 from the free-throw line in the game and leads the Red Raiders with 60 made free throws this season (83.3 percent). Through 16 games played, he has scored in double figures in 10 games and has a season-high nine rebounds coming in the game against Iowa. He is shooting 45.4 percent from the field and also has nine blocked shots. Shannon was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week on Dec. 16 after scoring 13 points in the win over Louisville at Madison Square Garden.

Holyfield is the most experienced player on the Texas Tech roster having made 119 starts in 119 games played in his collegiate career. A grad transfer who played in 101 games at SFA before transferring, Holyfield has scored 1,237 points and secured 678 rebounds in his career. Through 18 games with the Red Raiders, Holyfield is averaging 8.7 points and 4.6 rebounds per game after going for 10 points at TCU. He has scored double figures in six games, including a season-high 21 points against Houston Baptist where he shot 9 of 10 from the field after scoring 20 against Bethune-Cookman on 8 of 11 shooting. A 6-foot-8 forward from Albuquerque, New Mexico who earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Week honors on Nov. 11 after those scoring performances, Holyfield leads Tech by shooting 54.5 percent from the field and with 18 blocked shots. He has two games with three blocked shots coming against Oklahoma State and Iowa State and now has 151 blocks in his career. Along with a season-best nine rebounds against UTRGV, he has 11 games with five or more rebounds. Avery Benson and Kevin McCullar continue providing sparks from the bench for the Red Raiders with McCullar averaging 4.1 points per game and Benson at 2.5 points and 1.7 rebounds per game. A redshirt freshman from San Antonio, McCullar graduate high school early and enrolled at Texas Tech in the 2019 spring semester where he redshirted last season. He has played in a reserve role in all 18 games this season and has scored 10 points in games against Kansas State, UTRGV and Long Island. A 6-foot-6 guard, he is averaging 2.2 rebounds per game to go along with his scoring and also has 16 steals. Last Tuesday at KSU, McCullar matched his career-high by going 3 of 6 from the field and also knocked down four free throws. He's currently shooting 45.8 percent from the field and had a season-high five rebounds in the wins over Louisville and KSU. McCullar was limited to two points on 1 of 2 shooting at TCU. Benson, who is in his third year at Texas Tech, is a redshirt sophomore from Arkansas who scored a career-high 10 points against Louisville by going 3-for-3 from the field with a 3-pointer. He was coming off a game against Iowa State where he had three points, but was held scoreless in nine minutes of play at TCU. He as a Big 12-high of five points at WVU where he also provided four rebounds in 18 minutes. Benson played in 20 games last season and is currently 8 of 17 (47.1 percent) on 3-pointers and 7 of 7 from the free-throw line this year. Two players on the Tech roster have not played this season with Joel Ntambwe having his NCAA transfer request denied and Tyreek Smith missing all 18 games due to injury. Ntambwe averaged 11.8 points and 5.5 rebounds per game at UNLV as a freshman last season before deciding to transfer to Tech. He scored a career-high 31 points against Wyoming last year where he started all 31 games and recorded four double-doubles.

Texas Tech is currently 8-2 with the starting rotation of Holyfield, Moretti, Edwards, Shannon and Ramsey. The starting five of Holyfield, Clarke, Moretti, Edwards and Ramsey has started the past four games.

OPPONENT 19

Kentucky comes into Lubbock with a 14-4 overall record and a 5-1 mark in SEC play following an 89-79 win over Georgia on Tuesday at home. The Wildcats are currently 3-3 away from home this season and are 3-3 all-time in the Big 12/SEC Challenge after earning a 71-63 win over Kansas last season. Nick Richards leads Kentucky at 13.7 points and 7.8 rebounds per game following going for 20 points and eight rebounds against Georgia. A junior from Jamaica, Richards also leads the team with 44 blocked shots and with a 67.4 shooting percentage. Ashton Hagans was named a Naismith Defensive Player of the Year candidate this week and is also averaging 13.6 points per game and leads the Wildcats with 131 assists, while Immanuel Quickly is also at 13.6 points per game and leads the team with 30 3-pointers. A sophomore from Georgia, Hagans led UK with 23 points and nine assists on Tuesday against the Bulldogs where he made eight shots and also went 7 of 8 from the free-throw line. Hagans is the only Wildcat to start all 18 games this season, while Texas native Tyrese Maxey has is averaging 13.3 points per game with 15 starts. From Garland and having played at South Garland HS, Maxey has provided 53 assists and has 13 steals in his freshman season. EJ Montgomery, a 6-foot-10 forward from Florida, is adding 7.0 points per game and is second on the team with 16 blocked shots.

The Wildcats are averaging 75.7 points per game by shooting 46.4 percent from the field and 31.6 percent on 3-pointers. The team is limiting opponents to 64.7 points per game and 38.7 percent shooting through 18 games, while dominating the glass with a 6.4 rebounding margin advantage. Kentucky opened its season with a win over preseason No. 1-ranked Michigan State and also knocked off Louisville in its non-conference schedule.

SPANNING THE GLOBE

The Red Raiders are represented by eight players by five international players: Moretti (Italy), Nadolny (France), Ntambwe (Congo), Savrasov (Russia) and Tchewa (Cameroon). The program has two players from Arlington, Texas in Kyler Edwards and Jahmi'us Ramsey, Kevin McCullar is from San Antonio and four from out of state: Avery Benson (Arkansas), TJ Holyfield (New Mexico), Tyreek Smith (Louisiana) and Terrence Shannon, Jr. (Illinois). Ntambwe will redshirt this season after having his transfer waiver denied by the NCAA, while Smith has not played his season after suffering an injury during the preseason.

DEPARTURES

Texas Tech was tasked with following the winningest team in program history that is now without Jarrett Culver, Matt Mooney, Tariq Owens, Brandone Francis and Norense Odiase. Culver declared for the NBA Draft after his sophomore season and was selected No. 6 overall. After leading the Red Raiders with 18.5 points per and 6.4 rebounds per game and earning Big 12 Player of the Year and Consensus All-America honors, Culver is now on the Minnesota Timberwolves. Mooney was the team's third leading scorer behind Culver and Moretti and signed a two-way contract with the Cleveland Cavaliers on Jan. 15 after playing with the Memphis Hustle in the G-League, while Owens established a new program single-season record with 92 blocked shots and was with Odiase on the Northern Arizona Suns (G-League) before signing a two-way contract on Jan. 15 with the Suns. Francis was a member of the 2018 Elite Eight run and 2019 runner-up team and is on the Iowa Wolves roster. Along with players from last year's team, Max Lefevre is now with the Timberwolves working in video and athletic trainer Chris Williams joined the Timberwolves and Iowa Wolves athletic training staff.

RED RAIDER CULTURE

As described by coach Chris Beard following the 2018-19 season

4:1 – The mental is to physical as four is to one. We talked a lot about being the most mentally tough team in the country. We knew our physical talent was there, but we thought for our team to compete and get over the top we would have to be able to overcome adversity and play tough at the end of games. I thought our team embraced it as well as I've ever seen and it's a huge reason we accomplished what we did.

The Secret's In The Dirt – We got it from Jason Whitten last summer when he retired. He spoke to his team about not playing the game for what the game can give you, but rather respect the game and putting in the day-to-day work. It really became a part of the culture during the season. No matter what happened throughout the season, we took the mentality that it was time to get back to work. When we had success, we would go right back to the dirt and work even harder. When we had adversity, we immediately refocused and got back to work. The secret for us was in the dirt.”

Smell the Roses – We wanted to be one of the teams that put ourselves in a position to win the whole thing and part of that was a plan. It started for us with smelling the roses. We wanted to embrace the NCAA Tournament and the fact that we had won the Big 12 regular-season championship. We weren't going to shy away from enjoying the experience. We were going to enjoy the bus rides, flights, meals, press conferences, practice and games.

Street Dogs – We pride ourselves on being the underdog and proving people wrong. Even though we were ranked and competing for championships, we still never lost that street dog in each of us. We didn't have five-star recruits or guys that felt entitled. We had a bunch of hungry, tough guys who fought for each other.

Stone-Faced – I got this when I was coaching the Swiss National Team and we played Russia. I had never seen anything like it. They were tough with zero emotion. They would make a great play and went on to the next play. They hit some adversity and moved right on. A call went against them, no emotion. I loved that terminology of stone-faced and our team proved to be level-headed throughout to lock in. It was a big part of our run where we stayed the course.

Be Us – When it came time to play the game we wanted to be the same team that had won the Big 12, that had earned a three seed. We didn't want to change who we were just because of the stage we were now on. I thought our guys did a great job of being themselves throughout everything all season.

Truth Tellers – It sounds obvious, but we pride ourselves in telling every player and every coach the truth all the time. We don't play mind games. We don't have time for fluff in our culture. We weren't going to feed into egos by trying to build someone up too much and we weren't going to shy away from coaching them tough. We were truth tellers from the first day and it helped build really solid relationships.

Get in the Fight – We put ourselves in the fight and ultimately won it this year. You have to continuously put yourself in the fights to win them. It's a series of fights that you have to win. You're never going to win anything if you don't put yourself in a position to be in the fights along the way. The perennial powers go about a season by winning parts of the season that progresses to the ultimate goal. Our team did a great job of winning fights.

Don't Lose Your Chip – Our closed-door scrimmage against Houston was a great experience for our guys and after the game coach (Kelvin) Sampson came in and talked to our team. We have nothing but respect for him and he told us to never lose our chip. He reminded us who we were. We're not North Carolina or Kansas with their tradition. We are Texas Tech. A younger, immature team may not have understood but we did. It was a message to never lose that edge you need to be great. We were unranked at that time and our guys fed into. Coach Sampson reminded us to be true to who we are and to play with that chip on our shoulder.

Dreamers – At my press conference when I was hired here at Tech I said that we were going to compete for the conference championship and to make the Final Four. A lot of people thought I was crazy, so I need to associate myself with people who dream like I do. The first step to doing anything special is having high expectations and a vision. Then you go to work. This year's team was on the same page. We thought from the first day that we could win the Big 12 championship and then for the national championship. This was a group of dreamers who worked to reach their dreams.

MORETTI/CLARKE NAMED TO PRESEASON WATCH LISTS: Moretti has been named to the 2020 Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year Award Watch List following a season where he helped lead the Red Raiders to the NCAA National Championship Final and the Big 12 regular season championship. Moretti averaged 11.5 points per game, had 91 assists and shot 53.5 from the field, 53.5 percent on 3-pointers and 93.1 percent at the free-throw line during conference play as a sophomore. A Bologna, Italy native, Moretti earned All-Big 12 Third Team honors and led the nation by finishing the season at 92.4 percent at the line (97-of-105).

Clarke was announced as one of 20 players on the watch list for the 2020 Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year Award. Clarke transferred to Texas Tech this season after averaging 9.2 points, 6.5 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.03 steals in 79 games played at Virginia Tech. With the Hokies, Clarke would average 8.2 points and 6.3 rebounds as a junior after going for 11.4 points and 7.3 rebounds per game in his sophomore season. For his career, he has scored 728 points, secured 517 rebounds and has 210 assists in his collegiate career.

The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame announced its watch list with 20 candidates for the Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year Award. Named after Class of 1971 Hall of Famer and former Boston Celtic and Holy Cross guard Bob Cousy, the annual honor now in its seventeenth year recognizes the top point guards in Division I men's college basketball. A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates. Named after Class of 1993 Hall of Famer and 16-year professional basketball player Julius Erving, the annual honor in its sixth year recognizes the top small forwards in Division I men's college basketball. A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates.

COACHING STAFF: The Red Raiders are led by head coach Chris Beard who is in his fourth season. Beard was named the Associated Press National Coach of the Year last season along with earning Big 12 Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season. Beard has led the Red Raiders to an 88-37 record coming into the game against Kansas State. Beard is joined on the coaching bench by assistant coaches Mark Adams, Brian Burg and Ulric Maligi, Tim MacAllister (Chief of Staff), Bob Donewald (Player Development), Sean Sutton (Executive Advisor), John Reilly (Strength & Conditioning), Mike Neal (Athletic Trainer) and graduate assistants Casey Perrin, Ronald Ross, Matt Temple, Elliott De Wit, Khristian Smith, Joey Kuhl, Rusty Grafel and Mike Fallone, Jr. Adams was named the TABC Assistant Coach of the Year last season for his role in helping Beard and the Red Raiders reach the national championship final. Burg was listed by The Athletic as one of the top rising assistants in the game as he enters his fourth season at Tech and fifth with Beard after also being at Little Rock with Beard and Adams. Maligi is in his first season at Texas Tech after working at Texas A&M last year. Neal is also new to the program, joining the Red Raiders after working at Little Rock where he was also a player before going into athletic training. Adams and Burg were previously on Beard's staff at Little Rock along with athletic trainer Mike Neal who is in his first season at Tech. MacAllister was named to the NABC 30 Under 30 list after last year and enters his second season with the Red Raiders. Along with being 13 wins away from 100 at Tech, Beard is 184-67 as a collegiate head coach after prior leadership at Little Rock, Angelo State and McMurry.

BEARD ANNOUNCES IMPRESSIVE SIGNING CLASS

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech head basketball coach Chris Beard has announced the signings of Chibuzo Agbo, Nimari Burnett and Micah Peavy to their national letter of intent for the 2020-21 academic year. The trio of talented recruits is ranked No. 5 nationally by Rivals.com and join a program that has advanced to the 2018 Elite Eight and to the 2019 NCAA National Championship Final over the past two seasons. Burnett is the first Red Raider in program history to be named to the McDonald's All American Games.

CHIBUZO AGBO

Wing | 6-7 | 215 | San Diego, California | Saint Augustine HS
Chibuzo Agbo signs with Texas Tech as a 4-star prospect by Rivals and 247Sports after being named the 2019 Western League Player of the Year playing for Saint Augustine High School. Agbo enters his senior season as the 2019-20 San Diego Preseason Player of the Year after averaging 20 points and 9.0 rebounds per game and shooting 42.0 percent on 3-pointers as a junior. He is currently ranked No. 70 by 247Sports and No. 87 nationally by Rivals. Agbo chose Texas Tech over USC and was also recruited by Arizona, Cal, San Diego State and Marquette.

“Chibuzo Agbo is a versatile small forward who has made consistent strides throughout his high school career. He has good size and length to go with a strong frame with wide shoulders. He consistently plays hard and impacts the game on both sides of the court. Agbo is a much improved shooter and ball handler whose range now stretches to the perimeter. He is a formidable scorer inside due to his strength, athleticism and ability to finish through contact. His trajectory combined with his size, skill and athleticism give a lot of optimism for his future.”

Josh Gershon | 247Sports

“Chibuzo is a multi-dimensional forward that can play a variety of roles in the half-court setting. His progressions within the past year have been impressive, as is just how efficient he has become. He is what every successful program wants and needs and is just another major recruiting win for Chris Beard and his staff.” Corey Evans | Rivals.com

NIMARI BURNETT

Guard | 6-4 | 190 | Chicago, Illinois | Prolific Prep

Burnett is the highest rated recruit to sign in Texas Tech basketball history with a 5-star ranking by ESPN, Rivals and 247Sports. A Chicago, Illinois native, Burnett is ranked No. 19 nationally in the 2020 signing class by ESPN, No. 22 by Rivals and No. 28 in the 247Sports rankings. He helped lead the USA to its first gold medal last summer in the 2019 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Cup in Mongolia and was selected to participate in the USA Basketball Junior National Team Minicamp in Colorado Springs.

Burnett attends Prolific Prep in California which is currently ranked No. 5 in the USA TODAY Preseason Super 25. As a junior, he averaged 23.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and 5.0 assists per game. Playing in the Nike EYBL he averaged 20.4 points per game and was also selected to participate in the 2019 Nike Skills Academy. He chose Texas Tech over Michigan, Oregon and Alabama.

“Burnett brings a complete set of scoring skills to the game including a deep 3 point shot with a compact and quick release. He has a knack of going into the paint to post up which adds to his offensive package. As a secondary ball handler he displays confidence, control and vision to set up the offense or set up his teammates. He reminds me of CJ McCollum at the same stage. A scoring guard with a high Basketball IQ. He will be an impact recruit for Chris Beard.”

Paul Biancardi | ESPN Basketball National Director of Recruiting

“Nimari Burnett is a terrific recruit for Chris Beard as he attempts to get back to another Final Four. Burnett chose Tech over Oregon, Alabama and Michigan and made his decision after visiting Lubbock in October. He can score at all three levels and relishes defending the opponent's top player, which is ideal for coach Beard's style.”

Adam Zagoria | New York Times

MICAH PEAVY

Guard | 6-7 | 195 | Cibolo, Texas | Duncanville HS

Micah Peavy helped lead Duncanville High School to a Class 6A State Championship last season as a junior where he averaged 16 points and 6.6 rebounds per game. He signs with Texas Tech as a 4-star prospect by ESPN, Rivals and 247Sports and is the No. 2-ranked prospect in Texas according to Mike Kunststadt's Texas Hoops. Peavy is the No. 32-ranked player in the nation by ESPN and No. 34 by Rivals. In Nike EYBL play, he was eighth in scoring after averaging 23.2 points per game and fourth with 10.1 rebounds per game. He was one of four players to average a double-double on the Nike EYBL circuit last season.

Peavy, who was teammates with current Red Raider Jahmi'us Ramsey, was selected to participate in the prestigious 2019 Nike Skills Academy and for the 2019 NBPA Top 100 Camp. He chose Texas Tech over TCU, Texas and Florida. Entering his senior season playing for his father, David Peavy, Duncanville is ranked No. 22 in the USA TODAY Preseason Super 25.

“Micah Peavy is a tough, hard-nosed athletic wingman. He can hit the perimeter shot or blow by his man and finish strong at the rim. He is fundamentally sound on the defensive end of the court and rebounding is a bonus he brings to his game.”

Mike Kunststadt | TexasHoops.com

“Texas Tech has landed one of the nation's best wing prospects in Micah Peavy. His athleticism is off the charts and he has tremendous positional size but it's his emerging leadership and developing skill that stand out. I first saw him as a freshman and he continues to get better each step of the way. He is a tremendous fit for Chris Beard and Texas Tech whose best days are still ahead of him.”

Eric Bossi | Rivals.com

“Micah Peavy is a significant pick up for Texas Tech. He's a big wing that plays with terrific energy. He's a very good rebounder for a perimeter and has a lot of potential as a defender. Love the toughness and physicality he plays with.”

The Southeastern and Big 12 conferences will unite to help bring awareness to the Mike Slive Foundation and its fight against prostate cancer during Big 12/SEC Challenge games on Saturday.

All coaches and support staffs from both conferences will wear a Mike Slive Foundation lapel pin during their games.

BIG 12 CHAMPIONS FOR LIFE

Big 12 Champions for Life, an initiative of the Big 12 Conference, is in its fifth year in 2019-20. It features student-athletes, selected by Conference institutions, in a series of public service announcements highlighting the positive impact an athletics scholarship has had on their lives leading to stories of personal growth and success.

"If you know who you are, the sky's the limit." Baylor basketball's Jared Butler has been a role model for his teammates and a great representative of the program throughout his time in Waco.

CONFERENCE NEWS & NOTES

- The Big 12 takes a break from conference action to play against the SEC in the two leagues' annual Challenge on Saturday, January 25.
The Big 12/SEC Challenge will once again own the day on ESPN networks with all 10 matchups televised on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU beginning at 11 a.m. CT.
This season marks the seventh edition of the Big 12/SEC Challenge with the Big 12 winning it in four years with one tie (4-1-1).
All Big 12/SEC Challenge games will be played on the same day for the fifth consecutive season.
For the second time in program history, Baylor is the No. 1-ranked team in the AP Poll.
The Big 12 has three of the nation's top 7 teams in the NCAA "NET" ratings with No. 2 Baylor, No. 3 Kansas and No. 7 West Virginia.
The Big 12 is holding opponents to a nation-low average of 63.6 ppg, led by Baylor who is sixth in NCAA stats, giving up just 58.5 ppg.
Kansas' schedule is rated as the toughest in the nation while West Virginia's slate is second.
Every Big 12 team will finish regular season non-conference competition above .500 for the 16th season since 1996-97.
The Big 12 opened the season with a 91-28 non-conference record and holds a winning percentage of .765, which is second nationally.
The Big 12 has 18 wins over autonomy conference/Big East opponents and is 8-3 in games against non-conference ranked opponents.

NOTES

^ The Big 12 has a yearly Big 12/SEC Challenge record of 4-1-1.

2014: W, 7-3
2015: W, 6-4
2016: W, 7-3
2017: Tied, 5-5
2018: L, 4-6
2019: W, 6-4

^ In the first four years of the event, the Big 12/SEC Challenge trophy remained in the Big 12 office. (in case of a tie, the trophy stays with the conference that won it the previous season).

^ The Big 12 reclaimed the trophy in 2019 after a 6-4 advantage.

^ Big 12 teams are a combined 35-25 (.583) in the Big 12/SEC Challenge.

^ This is the fifth season that all 10 games will be played on the same day. Games were played in December during the first two years.

^ ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU combine to televise the contests with ESPN's College GameDay originating from one of the sites. This year's show will go live from Kansas' Allen Fieldhouse.

CAREER AND TEXAS TECH

Chris Beard has led Texas Tech to a 88-37 record through 18 games into his fourth season where the Red Raiders have advanced to the 2019 National Final after reaching the Elite Eight in 2018 for the first time in program history. He was named the program's 17th head coach on April 15, 2016 by Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt and Interim University President Dr. John Opperman. Beard was named the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year for the second straight season after guiding the team to the Big 12 Conference regular-season championship and then earned Associated Press National Coach of the Year honors.

Beard led the 2018-19 team to a national runner-up finish and a 31-7 overall record after earning NCAA Tournament wins over Northern Kentucky and Buffalo in the first and second rounds in Tulsa, a Sweet 16 victory over Michigan and then an Elite Eight win over Gonzaga in Anaheim. The program reached the Final Four for the first time in program history under Beard and knocked off Michigan State with a 61-51 victory to advance to the title game. Beard and the Red Raiders took Virginia to overtime in the championship game before falling 85-77 to finish as the national runner-up.

Beard elevated the Red Raiders to an elite level of success following a 27-10 record and the program's first NCAA Elite Eight trip in 2017-18. The 27 wins are the second-highest in program history only behind the 30-2 mark put together by the 1995-96 team under James Dickey. He came away as the 2018 Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year, the 2018 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 8 Coach of the Year, the 2018 United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District VII Coach of the Year and the 2018 John McClendon National Coach of the Year award recipient.

Texas Tech garnered a program-best No. 6 final ranking in the USA Today/Coaches Top 25 poll. The Red Raiders checked in as a consensus Top 15 program for the final 10 weeks of the regular season highlighted by six Top 10 rankings. The 1995-96 season was the only other time the program was ranked among the nation's Top 10.

Texas Tech earned a program-best second place finish in the Big 12 regular season and set a program single season mark with 11 Big 12 wins. The Red Raiders registered the program's first victory at Allen Fieldhouse during a wire-to-wire 85-73 win over No. 10 Kansas on Jan. 8, 2018, the largest conference home loss for the Jayhawks under Bill Self.

Texas Tech racked up a nation's best and program single season record eight victories over Associated Press Top 25 opponents in 2017-18. The Red Raiders knocked off No. 2 West Virginia 72-71 on Jan. 13, 2018 which matched the program's best win rankings-wise as Texas Tech defeated No. 2 SMU 64-63 on Jan. 26, 1985 under Gerald Myers. Texas Tech also defeated No. 23 Florida and No. 11 Purdue before falling short to eventual national champion and No. 2 Villanova in the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

Texas Tech has had six seasons with a winning record in Big 12 conference play, five of which came when Beard was an assistant coach. The Red Raiders also have recorded five of their six top half finishes in the Big 12 during Beard's time as an assistant coach.

Beard's 17 wins in Big 12 play are more than Baylor's Scott Drew, Oklahoma's Lon Kruger, TCU's Jamie Dixon, Texas' Shaka Smart and West Virginia's Bob Huggins during their first two seasons as Big 12 head coaches at their respective schools.

Beard guided Little Rock to a historic turnaround in 2015-16 fueled by 30 victories, which was a program single season record and Sun Belt single season mark. The Trojans claimed the Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles en route to the program's fifth NCAA Tournament bid. Little Rock overcame a 14-point deficit during the final five minutes of the second half and won an 85-83 double overtime thriller over

No. 12-ranked and fifth-seeded Purdue in the NCAA Tournament. The Trojans also registered road victories over San Diego State, Tulsa and DePaul to spark a 10-0 regular season start. The 10-game winning streak to start the season matched a Little Rock program record.

Beard's 30-5 record in his only season at Little Rock was a 15-game improvement from a 13-18 campaign prior to his arrival. The 15-game improvement was tied for the NCAA's top spot in 2015-16, while his 30 victories was tied for sixth by a first-year Division I head coach. Little Rock's 27 wins and .871 winning percentage led the nation during the regular season. For his efforts, Beard collected National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 24 and Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year honors.

His previous head coaching stops include Fort Scott Community College, Seminole State College, McMurry University, Angelo State and Little Rock.

Beard's roots in Lubbock and West Texas run deep. He spent 10 years at Texas Tech which included seven seasons as an assistant coach under Hall of Fame Coach Bob Knight and three seasons as an associate head coach under Pat Knight. He was on the Texas Tech bench on January 1, 2007, when the Red Raiders defeated New Mexico making Bob Knight the NCAA's men's all-time career wins leader.

The Red Raiders racked up 188 victories -- the best 10-year stretch in program history -- while Tech piled up four NCAA Tournament bids and three NIT appearances. His tenure with the Red Raiders was highlighted by Tech's run to the 2005 NCAA Sweet 16 where the Red Raiders defeated UCLA and No. 11-ranked and three-seeded Gonzaga in the first two rounds.

Beard spent two seasons at Angelo State from 2013-15 where he secured NABC South Central Region and Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year after he guided the Rams to a program record-setting 28 wins and the program's first NCAA Division II Sweet 16 appearance in 2014-15. Angelo State began the season with a 17-0 record and finished with a No. 19 national ranking. Prior to Beard's arrival, the Rams suffered three consecutive losing seasons which included a 9-17 mark in 2012-13.

Before Angelo State, Beard was the head coach at McMurry University and for the American Basketball Association's (ABA) South Carolina Warriors. McMurry went 19-10 with Beard at the helm during the program's first season as a Division II member in 2012-13. The Warriors won the 2012 Mid Atlantic Championship, advanced to the ABA finals and notched a 31-2 mark as a first-year franchise.

Raised in Irving, Texas, Beard's coaching career began in the Lone Star State as a graduate assistant at Incarnate Word followed by a pair of assistant coaching stints at Abilene Christian and North Texas. He worked under the guidance of Danny Kasper at UIW, Shanon Hays at ACU and Vic Trilli at UNT.

Leading into his time as an assistant with Texas Tech, Beard's first two head coaching opportunities came at Fort Scott Community College in Kansas and Seminole State College in Oklahoma. He led Seminole State College to a 25-6 record and a No. 14 national ranking in 2000-01 after Fort Scott came away with 19 victories and a NJCAA Regional appearance in 1999-2000.

Beard earned his Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas in 1995 where he worked as a student assistant for Tom Penders. He completed his master's degree in education from Abilene Christian in 1998.

Beard played his high school basketball for Mike Kunstadt at Irving High School and for Terry Priest at McCullough High School. He has three daughters: Avery, Ella and Margo.

44 CHRIS CLARKE

Guard • 6-6 • 220 • SR-TR • Virginia Beach, Virginia • Virginia Tech
Pronounced: Chris Clark

PRIOR TO TEXAS TECH: Clarke transfers to Tech as a senior following three seasons at Virginia Tech where he contributed 9.2 points, 6.5 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.03 steals in 79 games played... He was ranked as the No. 8 graduate transfer by ESPN... A Virginia Beach, Virginia native, he played prep basketball at Cape Henry Collegiate School prior to Virginia Tech and helped to lead his school to two state championships. Clarke was the No. 1 rated player by ESPN and 247Sports coming out of Virginia as a senior and was the 2015 VISAA Division I Player of the Year... At Virginia Tech, Clarke would average 8.2 points and 6.3 rebounds as a junior after going for 11.4 points and 7.3 rebounds per game in his sophomore season... Only player in VT history with a triple-double (12/13/10 assists against Citadel)... He will arrive in Lubbock having already scored 728 points, securing 517 rebounds and contributing 210 assists and 82 steals in his collegiate career... During his final season at VT, Clarke recorded three double-doubles with 15 points and 10 rebounds against The Citadel, 16 points and 12 rebounds at Mississippi, and then 12 points and 14 rebounds at Notre Dame... Clarke also had double-digit rebounding performances with 13 against Saint Louis, 11 versus Kentucky and 10 at Syracuse... He scored a career-high 22 points in games against UMBC and Florida State during his sophomore season... As a prep recruit at Cape Henry Collegiate, Clarke was a four-star and was ranked No. 54 nationally on the ESPN 100 list and 68th by Yahoo Sports.
