NEED TO KNOW

Kentucky clinched its 49th SEC regular-season championship with a win over Auburn last weekend. The win also locked up the No. 1 seed in the SEC Tournament

John Calipari has now combined for 31 career regular-season (16) and league tournament titles (15). He ranks third all-time behind only Adolph Rupp (41) and Gonzaga's Mark Few (34)

UK, very much in the conversation for a top-three seed in the NCAA Tournament, is 7-3 vs. quadrant one teams in the NCAA Evaluation Tool rankings

The Wildcats are shooting 79.6% at the free-throw line, ranked third in the country (through games on March 3). Four players are shooting at least 75.7% with at least 100 attempts at the line

Immanuel Quickley is the first player in school history to win back-to-back SEC Player of the Week honors. He's won three total this season

Wildcats Surrender Double-Digit Lead, Fall to Tennessee

On the brink of being blown out, Tennessee stuck with the plan against No. 6 Kentucky by creating opportunities and then making them count. The Volunteers emerged with a huge victory that snapped the Wildcats' hot streak along with 10 perfect years of holding a double-digit halftime lead.

John Fulkerson scored a career-high 27 points, and Yves Pons made several key jumpers down the stretch as Tennessee rallied from a 17-point deficit to upset Kentucky 81-73 on Tuesday night.

The Wildcats (24-6, 14-3 Southeastern Conference) had been 129-0 the past 10 years when leading by double digits at halftime, according to ESPN Stats & Info. Considering how Tennessee (17-13, 9-8) methodically converted that deficit into a lead over the final 20 minutes, it didn't care. "We just kept fighting," Fulkerson said. "I kept trying to look at the score at the top of the (scoreboard) and couldn't find it, which I guess was a good thing. But it was such a team effort, everybody played well. Guys from the bench came in and contributed. This was no surprise to me. I knew we were capable of this, I knew that if everybody comes to play we can get the job done."

The Vols also had the clock in their favor.

The Wildcats appeared in control leading 51-34 early in the second half before the Volunteers outscored them 29-9 over 10:09 to lead 63-60. Kentucky tied it at 63, but Pons answered with a 3-pointer and Fulkerson added two free throws to stay ahead.

Pons then added consecutive jumpers to make it 72-66 with 1:48 left. Nick Richards' two free throws cut the lead to four, but Josiah-Jordan James put back his missed jumper to make it a six-point game again with 1:05 left. He finished with 16 points, all after halftime.

James then made three free throws, and Santiago Vescovi and Jordan Bowden (11 points) each added two more in the final minute to seal its Tennessee's second consecutive victory and just its sixth at Rupp Arena. Two of those wins have come in the last three seasons.

- Meanwhile, Fulkerson made his first seven attempts to finish 10 of 15 from the field along with all seven free throws to top his previous best of 25 against South Carolina on Feb. 15.
- Tyrese Maxey had 21 points and Immanuel Quickley 15 for Kentucky, which clinched the SEC regular season title last weekend. The Wildcats appeared poised to continue their best stretch this season before being outrebounded 23-12 in the second half and 31-26 overall.
- "The game got physical and we couldn't compete," Kentucky coach John Calipari said. "Don't make it about us, it's about Tennessee and how they played. They made some unbelievable shots, some 3s and they just kept coming."
  - Of additional note ...

• Tennessee shot 52.8 % from the field, best by a UK SEC opponent this season and the first opponent to shoot 50% or better vs. UK since Ohio State and Utah did it in back-to-back games in the December trip to Las Vegas. The Wildcats are 0-3 this season when the opponent makes 50% or better from the field

- Entering the game leading the SEC at 79.5% at the foul line, Kentucky made 17 of 20 free throws (85%). UK has made at least 75% at the line in 13 straight games
- Kentucky led by as many as 17 points. UK is 281-8 (97.2%) under Calipari when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest
  - It's the first time the Wildcats have lost after by leading by as many as 17 points since also leading Tennessee and losing on Feb. 2, 2016, when Kentucky had a 21-point lead

• With an 11-point halftime lead, it's the biggest halftime advantage UK has failed to capitalize on with a win in Rupp Arena since losing an 11point halftime lead vs. Ole Miss on Feb. 14, 1998. The Wildcats would note lose again that season, winning the 1998 national championship • The loss ended a 15-game home winning streak. UK finished the season 16-2 at Rupp Arena

• This was Kentucky's first loss on Senior Night since March 4, 2009 vs. Georgia

The Champs Are Here

Kentucky won the 2020 Southeastern Conference regular-season championship with the win over Auburn and doing so with two games to spare. Not only did the win ensure league hardware is headed to Lexington and secures the No. 1 seed for the Wildcats in the SEC Tournament, it added to Kentucky's impressive dominance of the league and John Calipari's continued success in conference play.

- It was the Wildcats' 49th regular-season SEC title. That's 38 more than the next-closest school (LSU with 11) and nearly as many as the rest of the league has combined (53). It's worth noting UK would have 50 titles had the 1988 championship not been vacated by the league due to violations
- It's UK's first league title since 2017
- The SEC regular-season championship is the Wildcats' sixth in 11 seasons under Calipari
- It's Calipari's 16th all-time regular-season conference crown, including his time at Memphis and UMass. Including his 15 league tournament titles, Calipari has 31 combined conference championships in his career. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (34 titles with the West Coast Conference regular-season title in 2020) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

Kentucky Concludes Regular Season Against Familiar Foe in Florida

For the second time in two weeks, Kentucky will take on Florida. The Wildcats earned a 65-59 win over the Gators on Feb. 22 with Immanuel Quickley scoring a then-career-high 26 points. UK is 103-40 all-time against the Gators, including 36-26 when the game is played in Gainseville, Florida. The series is tied at 5-5 in Gainesville in the 10 meetings between the two squads with John Calipari at the helm of the Cats.

Kentucky is 8-2 under Calipyesari in its regular-season finale, with both losses coming at the hands of the Gators. UK is 81-35 all-time in regular-season finales. This marks the 19th time in program history that UK will conclude its season against Florida and the 18th time in the last 21 seasons the two times will finish the season against each other. Kentucky also has faced Tennessee 19 times in its final game and Vanderbilt on 16 occasions in the history of the program.

SEC Tournament Scenarios

By beating Auburn last weekend, Kentucky locked up the No. 1 seed in the Southeastern Conference Tournament in Nashville, Tennessee.

The Wildcats know they have a double bye, they know they won't play until Friday and they know they have a 1 p.m. ET start in every game they could play. Who they could play remains very much up in the air heading into the final game of the regular season.

Kentucky, as the No. 1 seed, will play the winner of the 8-9 game. Heading into Saturday, Mississippi State, Texas A&M, Tennessee, Alabama and Arkansas could all fall into one of those two spots in the various scenarios and tiebreakers. The Wildcats are a combined 5-1 against that group with the lone loss coming on Tuesday to Tennessee.

The 8-9 game will take place Thursday in Nasvhille at 1 p.m. ET on SEC Network.

The last time UK was the No. 1 seed in the SEC Tournament was 2017. UK marched to the title that season with a victory over Arkansas in the championship game. Under the current format of the tournament, which has been in existence since the 2011-12 season when the league went away from divisions, the Wildcats have been the No. 1 seed three times. They've won the tournament two of those times, the exception being the 2012 national championship team that lost in the finals.

Kentucky has won 31 SEC Tournament titles, including six in 10 seasons under John Calipari. Tennessee snapped Kentucky's streak of four straight championships last season.

Bounce Back

Kentucky doesn't lose often during the John Calipari era, but when the Wildcats do, they almost always bounce back, and it's extremely rare for the Wildcats to drop more than one in a row. UK is 54-13 under Calipari following a loss (record does not count end-of-season losses).

The Wildcats' back-to-back losses to Utah and Ohio State marked just the 13th time UK lost consecutive games during the Calipari era and the most recent since dropping four in a row from Feb. 3-14, 2018. That stretch was the first four-game losing streak under Calipari and the only time Kentucky has lost more than two games in a row under Calipari.

Previously, the last time UK lost four games in a row was in February 2009, when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season. It was the first time Calipari had lost four straight since the end of the 2004-05 season at Memphis.

UK has never lost back-to-back home games under Calipari.

Nick and Quick at the Heart of Recent Run

Beginning with the Louisville game, Kentucky has won 16 of its last 19 games and has played like one of the best teams in the country. The Wildcats have wins over ranked opponents, key road victories in hostile environments and moved into first place in the Southeastern Conference.

It's been a team effort, but two players in particular have stood out as the Wildcats have re-emerged on the national scene: Nick Richards and Immanuel Quickley. They're playing at SEC Player of the Year levels beginning with the Louisville win.

Player	Stats Breakdown (per game, excluding FG%)
Richards' first 11	11.9 points, 6.9 rebounds, 2.3 blocks, 68.8 FG%
Richards' last 19	15.0 points, 8.3 rebounds, 2.2 blocks, 64.6 FG%

Kentucky's NCAA Tournament Profile

A whole lot has changed since Feb. 8 when the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship did an early reveal of the bracket and unveiled the top 16 teams at the time. Although Kentucky didn't appear among the top four seeds in any of the regions, UK's résumé would warrant a spot if the field was revealed today.

Although the Wildcats are at No. 21 in the NCAA's Evaluation Tool's March 3 rankings, they have an impressive 7-3 record vs. quadrant one teams, including solid wins vs. Michigan State (at a neutral site), Louisville, Auburn and Texas Tech (on the road). Of UK's five losses, four are to teams in the top two quadrants.

The lone exception is a quadrant four loss to Evansville. Although the Wildcats wouldn't make excuses, Kentucky wasn't exactly at full strength for that one. UK played that game without EJ Montgomery and with Ashton Hagans and Nick Richards playing through injuries. Suffice it to say, Kentucky has come a long way since that Nov. 12 loss.

The Wildcats have also been in every game, something few other teams can say. UK has lost its six games by a combined 32 points, an average margin of 5.3 points.

What could ultimately separate UK from its competition is its impressive play on the road. Kentucky is 7-2 in true road games, including 3-1 during a gauntlet that included four straight Saturday road games vs. Arkansas, Texas Tech, Auburn and Tennessee. UK won three of those four games. Kentucky is also 4-2 vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams at the time of the game.

Most major mock brackets now have Kentucky on the three seed line with a chance to move to a two. The official field will be announced March 15 on TBS.

Quickley is Kentucky's Go-To Option

John Calipari called Immanuel Quickley the most improved player on the 2018-19 team, but his development from last season is on another level.

Quickley, now a sophomore, has scored in double figures in 25 of the 29 games he's played and topped the 20-point plateau in eight. Overall, he's averaging a team-high 16.2 points per game and proven to be Kentucky's best scorer and go-to option down the stretch. He's made a team-high 60 3-pointers -- including making a 3 in 27 of 29 games he's played, including 10 straight -- and shooting a team-high 42.0% from behind the arc after a slow start.

Perhaps flying a bit under the radar nationally, few players have played as well as Quickley has over the last two months. Quickley, who has emerged as a leading candidate for Southeastern Conference Player of the Year, is on a career-best 19-game double-figure scoring streak, the best run since Malik Monk scored in double figures in 30 straight games during the 2016-17 season.

During the recent 19-game stretch, Quickley has scored 20 or more points eight times and made three or more 3-pointers seven times, including a career-high eight at Texas A&M. His offensive rating has ballooned to 124.5, ranked third in the SEC, according to KenPom.com on March 3.

Quickley has won SEC Player of the Week in back-to-back weeks, becoming the first Wildcat in school history to win SEC Player of the Week consecutively (dating back to the 1984-85 season). He's won three times total this season.

During the 19-game stretch, he is averaging 18.9 points to go along with 4.7 rebounds per game and 48 3-pointers while shooting 46.2% from long range. He poured in a career-high 30 points at Texas A&M and sunk a career-best eight 3-pointers to become the first UK player with 30 or more points since Shai Gilgeous-Alexander scored 30 on Jan. 30, 2018, vs. Vanderbilt. He's the first player with back-to-back 25-plus-point games since Monk from Feb. 25-28, 2017. The eight 3s tied Monk, Jamal Murray and Eric Bledsoe for the most 3-pointers in a game during the Calipari era.

What those stats don't fully reveal is just how clutch Quickley has been. He's become Kentucky's go-to scorer down the stretch late in games, breaking the will of more than a handful of opponents with daggers from beyond the arc and clutch free throws.

Two of the best examples were at LSU and at home vs. Florida. He scored 14 of his teamhigh 21 points in the second half in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, which included making all five field-goal attempts and dishing a pair of assists. At home vs. Florida, he scored 22 points in the second half, including 20 of Kentucky's 28 points when the Wildcats fell behind 40-33. He finished with a game-high 26 points vs. the Gators.

ESPN's Jay Bilas said during the LSU game: "That young man has got ice water in his veins." With Karl Ravech lamenting, "On a team that has (Tyrese) Maxey and (Nick) Richards and (Ashton) Hagans, Quickley has become the go-to guy."

Over the course of UK's eight-game winning streak in February, in the second half alone, Quickley averaged 14.9 points, shot 56.4% from the field, 57.7% from 3-point range and 93.3% from the charity stripe.

"The kid lives in the gym," Calipari said. "He's kind of like Tyler (Herro). He's like Shai (Gilgeous-)Alexander, those guys. He's just like them."

After Herro set a new school record at the free-throw line last season, Quickley is threatening to make it a short-lived mark. Quickley is currently making 92.3% at the line, just behind Herro's 93.5%. He's ranked first in the SEC (through games on March 3) and third in the nation in the category. He's enjoyed four different stretches of 17 or more consecutive makes (with a high of 24 straight) and missed more than one free throw in a game just once this season.

Further illustrating his cool, calm, clutch demeanor, Quickly is 30 of 31 at the free-throw line this season when it's a two-possession game at any point with 3:00 or less to go or the game is in overtime. Against Mississippi State, Quickley made all 14 of his free-throw attempts tying a school record for makes without a miss. Previously, Louie Dampier (Dec. 22, 1966 vs. Oregon State), Ramel Bradley (Nov. 7, 2007 vs. Gardner-Webb) and Jodie Meeks (Jan. 13, 2009 at Tennessee) also hit 14 without a miss. Quickley made eight of them in the final minute as Mississippi State tried to extend the game.

Quickley's emergence began in the rivalry game vs. Louisville. After scoring 16 points in three previous games for his career high, Quickley set a new mark with 18 points in the win over No. 3/4 Louisville. He made two key 3-pointers and was 8 of 8 from the free-throw line, including two in the final seconds of overtime to seal the outcome.

The Maryland native earned the opportunity for a career game offensively because of a stellar day defensively. Calipari told his team that whoever could guard Louisville's leading scorer, Jordan Nwora, would get significant playing time. Quickley answered the call and took on the majority of the assignment. Nwora, who came into the game averaging 21.2 points per contest, was held to just eight points on 2-of-10 shooting.

Mirroring his even-keel approach, Quickley has been Kentucky's most consistent performer in hostile territory. He's averaging a team-best 19.9 points in addition to 5.1 rebounds and 27 3-pointers (on 57.4% shooting) in UK's nine true road games.

And the Award Goes to ... Kentucky (and Quickley)!

Kentucky has dominated the weekly Southeastern Conference awards under John Calipari and this season is no different.

UK has won eight total SEC honors this season with five SEC Player of the Week awards and three SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

Immanuel Quickley is the latest SEC award winner and has won three total. By winning back-to-back the last two weeks, he became the Wildcat in school history to win consecutive SEC Player of the Week honors (dating back to the 1984-85 season).

UK has won more SEC honors (108) than any school during the Calipari era, including 83 SEC Freshman of the Week honors and 25 SEC Player of the Week awards.

The Wildcats have won four national honors this season. Nick Richards was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association Oscar Robertson Trophy National Player of the Week after the win over Louisville and the NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week after back-to-back wins vs. Georgia and at Texas Tech. Tyrese Maxey took home both NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week and USBWA Wayman Tisdale National Freshman of the Week honors following the U of L game.

This season, Maxey is a three-time SEC Freshman of the Week winner (Nov. 11, Dec. 30, Jan. 13). In addition to Quickley's three SEC Player of the Week honors (Jan. 13, Feb. 24, March 2), Richards is a two-time SEC Player of the Week winner (Dec. 30, Jan. 27).

Maxey at his Best Against the Best

Expectations for Tyrese Maxey escalated after he shot the roof off Madison Square Garden in his college debut in early November.

After scoring 26 points in front of a national audience vs. the No. 1 team in the country at the time, Michigan State, many expected him to do that on a nightly basis. It was a high bar for a freshman who would have to endure the same ups and downs just about every freshman has to that puts on a Kentucky uniform.

Now at the end of the regular season, what everyone has found out is that Maxey still has that potential. It just tends to come out when the stakes are at their highest.

Highlighted by a career-high 27-point performance in the victory over No. 3/4 Louisville, Maxey is averaging a team-high 19.0 points to go along with 5.3 rebounds in UK's six games vs. Associated Press Top 25 foes.

In true road games, Maxey ranks second on the team with an average of 15.2 points per game and is shooting 45.0% from the field. He's also adding 4.3 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.1 blocks per game in hostile territory.

Maxey's 26 points in the 1-2 matchup vs. Michigan State topped Terrence Jones' 25 points against East Tennessee State in 2010 for the most points by a freshman in their debut as a Wildcat. In that game, Maxey's first points didn't come until just after the midway point of the first half, but he scored seven straight points to help Kentucky earn an 11-point halftime lead. From the 10:03 mark of the second half until a pair of Ashton Hagans' free throws with 37 seconds to play, Maxey scored or assisted on 14 straight UK points to hold off the Michigan State rally.

There was no bigger shot that night though than his final 3-pointer with a minute to play. Michigan State had cut the lead to just two and momentum seemed to be swinging to the veteran-laden Spartans. In front of two former UK stars, John Wall and Jones, as well as NBA champion Kevin Durant, Maxey took 6-foot-6 Aaron Henry off the dribble and launched a shot four feet behind the 3-point line. With one swish of the net, Maxey etched his name into Kentucky record books and introduced himself to the nation.

Against Louisville, he made a career-high nine field goals (on 14 shots), sunk a career-best four 3-pointers and tied a career high with seven rebounds. His 27 points were the most by a UK freshman vs. Louisville and the most by a Wildcat in the rivalry since Jodie Meeks score 28 on Jan. 4, 2009.

Highlighted by six 20-point performances, Maxey -- a three-time Southeastern Conference

NOTES

Freshman of the Week selection -- is averaging 14.2 points per game. He's scored in double figures in 22 games.

The Texas native has played particularly well of late. He's averaging 16.3 points per game on 45.5% shooting over the last 11 games. He's scored in double figures in 10 of those.

Included in that stretch, Maxey had 10 second-half points to lead a double-digit comeback effort at home against Vanderbilt. It was Maxey once again to help lead the charge in another double-digit deficit against the Commodores on the road on Feb. 11. He led the Wildcats with 25 points, 15 coming in the second half as UK rebounded from a 14-point first-half hole for a 78-64 win. Maxey posted 17 points vs. 15th-ranked Auburn to help the Wildcats to the Southeastern Conference regular-season title.

Confident Richards Writing His 'Own (Dominant) Story'

Every player is on their own timetable, John Calipari has repeated throughout his time at Kentucky. For some that means breaking through after their freshman season. For others it may mean two, three or four years of development. Maybe no player is a better example of that than Nick Richards.

The junior is not only enjoying the most productive season of his career, he's producing one of college basketball's best stories of the season. After averaging 4.5 points, 3.9 rebounds and 1.1 blocks over 13.4 minutes a game in the first two seasons of his career, he has emerged as one of the leading candidates for Southeastern Conference Player of the Year and All-America honors.

Highlighted by a career-high 27-point day vs. Mississippi State -- which included 25 points in the second half -- Richards leads the team in rebounding (7.8 per game), blocks (2.2 per game) and double-doubles (10) to go along with a conference-high .660 field-goal percentage and 13.9 points per game. His field-goal percentage mark is also good for fourth in the nation, through games on March 3.

The centerpiece of a frontline that entered the season with questions about its depth and talent after losing PJ Washington and Reid Travis to the pros, Richards has squashed any and all concerns about his ability to produce.

"How many guys have 7-footers that can do what that kid does?" John Calipari said after the Texas Tech game. "Not many."

Case in point: Richards is one of just two players in the country and the only Power 5 big man averaging at least 13.5 points per game, at least 7.5 rebounds and at least 2.0 blocks while shooting at least 65.0% from the floor. He's in the 99th percentile of offensive efficiency in the Synergy national rankings and in the 87th percentile on defense.

In a program headlined by one-and-done success stories, Richards stuck to his own timetable. He didn't start playing basketball until midway through his teenage years, so not only was he behind the traditional development curve, he also lacked the demonstrated performance of his peers. Now that he's built his own confidence, he is playing like one of the best players in the country -- and was awarded as such on Jan. 27, winning his second national player of the week award and his second SEC Player of the Week honor. "Everybody has their own story," Richards said after the Texas Tech game. "Just because I go to a school that's known for one-and-done doesn't mean I have to be one-and-done. It took me time to develop over the past three years. I've had the best time of my life. Meeting incredible people, having the best coaching staff in the world training me to be the player I am right now and to be a better player for times to come."

Richards played well early in the season, but his meteoric rise began vs. Louisville and continued into the conference season. Despite impressive early numbers, Richards had yet to fully break through vs. consistent, upper-level competition. Against Louisville's front line, one of the best in the country, Richards delivered. The 6-foot-11 big man secured a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, but it was how he did it that impressed the most.

Playing the final 8:53 of regulation and all five minutes of overtime with four fouls, Richards took two momentum-changing charges and scored seven straight points in overtime with the game on the line. With Louisville leading 68-65 with 2:21 to go in overtime, Richards snared an offensive rebound (one of six in the game) and converted the traditional three-point play to even the score once again. His free throws with 27 seconds remaining gave the Wildcats a 72-70 lead they would not relinquish. Richards also drew a game-high 11 fouls to get Kentucky to the free-throw line, a key difference in the outcome. His defense was a difference maker.

The double-double for Richards was his first against a ranked opponent in his three seasons. In 20 games prior against ranked foes, Richards averaged 3.8 points and 3.9 rebounds per game. He had never recorded double-digit scoring or rebounding numbers against a ranked opponent. Now he's done it in two of his last four games vs. ranked opponents after a monster 25-point, 14-rebound, four-block game at Texas Tech.

In the game in Lubbock, Texas, Richards became just the second Wildcat in the Calipari era to post at least 25 points, 14 rebounds and four blocks in a game. National Player of the Year Anthony Davis did it in 2012.

Richards was dominant from start to finish vs. the Red Raiders. After setting the tone early in the game with a thunderous dunk and a handful of intimidating swats, he took over in overtime with seven points, including the game-winning free throws with 10 seconds left and nearly 15,000 hostile fans screaming at him to miss.

He's not just impacting the game offensively, as indicated by a six-block performance at LSU that was felt beyond the box score. The Tigers, one of the nation's most efficient offensive teams, were limited to 39.4% from the field.

"We haven't seen a rim protector as good as Nick Richards," LSU's Skylar Mays said. "He did a great job of controlling the paint and it made it tough for us. That's kind of our bread and butter, and he definitely made it a lot harder for us today."

As Richards goes, so does UK. Kentucky is 21-2 this season when he scores in double figures, 10-0 when he grabs double-digit rebounds and 7-1 when he blocks at least four shots.

Hagans One of the Best PGs in the Country

Ashton Hagans certainly has the confidence of his head coach in year two as Kentucky's starting point guard.

"We could say there are better point guards in the country, but you got to tell me who you're talking about," John Calipari said.

Hagans has been the consummate point guard in his sophomore season, doing a little bit of everything to affect the game. He is averaging 11.5 points, 6.4 assists, 3.9 rebounds and 1.9 steals per game while grabbing the leadership reins of a talented but once again young team.

The second-year guard has boasted double-figure scoring in 20 games, including a career-high 26-point performance in the win over Utah Valley. He's dished out three or more assists in every game and has five or more in 22 outings, including a career-high-tying 12 vs. UAB. His streak of 10 games with six or more assists was snapped with five dimes at Georgia. It was the best run by a Wildcat under John Calipari and the best run since Roger Harden dished six or more in 12 straight from Jan. 11 to Feb. 15, 1986.

With 351 career dimes, he ranks 12th in program history in assists. His assist average is ranked 15th in the country and tops in the league (through games on March 3).

The reigning Southeastern Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year remains UK's best on-ball defender with a team-high 58 steals, and even those numbers don't do him justice. His ability to disrupt an opposing team's offense was on full display in the win at Texas Tech.

Hagans posted three steals vs. the Red Raiders, but it was the plays that didn't show up as steals that helped preserve the win. Down the stretch, he forced three key turnovers, including knocking the ball off a defender's foot on the sideline, running the length of the floor to tip away what would have been a transition alley-oop dunk, and swatting away the potential game-tying shot in the closing seconds of overtime.

It is plays like those that underscore why Hagans is a Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year semifinalist for a second season in a row.

"You're not going to find a player that is better on the defensive end on and off the ball than Ashton Hagans has been," ESPN analyst Jay Bilas recently said. "I think he's the frontrunner for national defensive player of the year."

Said national writer Jeff Goodman: "Lots of great defensive players out there, but I'll take Ashton Hagans over all of them."

With 119 swipes in 67 career games, Hagans is averaging 1.776 steals per game for his career. That rate is third all-time in program history, trailing only Rajon Rondo and Derek Anderson.

Hagans has done all this while fighting through nagging injuries this season. He battled lower leg pain for the first handful of games to start the season, played through a left ankle sprain early in the SEC season and suffered a left thigh contusion recently that has limited him.

Hagans has had trouble taking care of the ball of late with four or more turnovers in 10 of the last 18 games, but Calipari reiterated after the Ole Miss game that there isn't another point guard in the country he would rather have running his team.

"He's the least of our worries," Calipari said. "Ashton is my point guard, and I'm with him. The one thing I do know, he'll fight to win a game."

Balanced Attack

Part of what makes this Kentucky team dangerous is the balance. Six different players have led the Wildcats in scoring. Immanuel Quickley has led the team in scoring 10 times, but Tyrese Maxey has led in eight games and Nick Richards seven times.

Five players have scored at least 25 points in a game a total of nine times this season, but ironically the last one to do it was the Wildcats' leading scorer, Quickley, who is averaging 16.2 points per game. He joined the 25-point club with 26 points vs. Florida, making this the first UK team with five players to score 25 points or more since the 2015-16 squad. He then became the first UK player since Malik Monk in 2016-17 with back-to-back games of 25 or more points with a career-high 30 at Texas A&M last week.

This group is trying to become the first UK team to feature four Wildcats averaging at least 12.0 points per game since Rick Pitino's first UK team back in 1989-90. Currently three players are with Ashton Hagans' scoring average dipping just under 12, at 11.5.

If You're into Omens ...

If you're into historical trends, this one may be for you.

Earlier this season, it was noted that winning in Knoxville, Tennessee, has had a peculiar tie with the Wildcats' NCAA Tournament success. Quite simply, a win in Knoxville traditionally spells success for UK in March.

Kentucky has never won an NCAA championship without first winning in Knoxville during the regular season. And leading into this season, every win during the John Calipari era has resulted in a trip to the Final Four later that season (UK did not visit Knoxville in 2014). Kentucky won 77-64 in Thompson-Boling Arena on Feb. 8. It gets wilder.

For just the fourth time in the last 24 seasons, UK now has victories over LSU in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Vanderbilt in Nashville, Tennessee, and Tennessee in Knoxville. The last three times UK has achieved that feat: 2012, 1998 and 1996. Why do those years stand out? They correspond with the last three Kentucky teams to win a national title.

But wait, there's more.

Kentucky had an 11-point lead at halftime at home against Tennessee on March 3 and eventually lost. It was the biggest halftime advantage UK has failed to capitalize on with a win in Rupp Arena since losing an 11-point halftime lead to Ole Miss on Feb. 14, 1998. The Wildcats would not lose again that season, eventually winning the 1998 national championship.

Sestina Joins 1,000-Point Club

Kentucky's most veteran player, Nate Sestina, enjoyed a breakthrough night at LSU with 11 points, eight rebounds and a trio of 3s. Not only did his performance help seal a win for the Wildcats, his first bucket of the night enabled him to top 1,000 career points split between his time at Bucknell and Kentucky.

Sestina, considered one of UK's team leaders for his floor presence and energy, is averaging 5.6 points and 3.7 rebounds per game. He's scored in double figures four times with a double-double vs. Eastern Kentucky.

There have been 60 1,000-point scorers in school history but not one since Terrence Jones, Doron Lamb and Darius Miller all eclipsed the mark in 2011-12. Sestina does not make it into the school's official 1,000-point club because of his split career.

Sestina Makes SEC Community Service Team

Nate Sestina was named to the 2020 Southeastern Conference's Men's Basketball Community Service Team. Sestina is UK's representative on the 14-man team that honors players' exemplary service to their communities.

This marks the 22nd year for the SEC Community Service Team for men's basketball. All 21 league-sponsored sports have had a Community Service Team since 2004. The team honors student-athletes beyond the court for their on-going efforts in the community.

Throughout his collegiate career, Sestina has been a mainstay in the community. In his lone season at Kentucky, he has participated in packing lunches, distributing to a local school and playing backyard games with a local elementary school as a part of God's Pantry.

Sestina was a part of serving Thanksgiving dinner to the Salvation Army and participated in a Samaritan's Feet project. The Pennsylvania native is known to visit local elementary schools and read to the students. He's also been a part of the campus clothing swap, in which he helped collect new and gently used clothing items to donate to Central Kentucky's YMCA. He's also the men's basketball representative on the Student Athletic Advisory Committee.

Sestina's work at the community didn't begin at Kentucky. One of his favorite projects during his four-year career at Bucknell involved coordinating and executing a local marathon with other student-athletes. Sestina is also active at home while he is visiting family during his breaks from college. He can often be found offering motivational talks to the football and basketball teams at his former high school and reads at the local elementary school.

The graduate transfer also volunteers at his church, where he packs and organizes donations and distributes the items to families. During the holiday season, he joins his family in singing carols and helping decorate at The Manor, a local assisted living facility.

Taking Advantage of Free Points

One of Kentucky's strengths is its success at the free-throw line. UK is earning 24.6% of its points at the free-throw line, has a free-throw rate of 41.5% and is connecting at 79.6%. All are among the national leaders.

NOTES

Kentucky's free-throw distribution percentage is ranked fourth and free-throw rate is rated 11th, according to KenPom.com (through games on March 3). The Wildcats' make percentage is third in the country. Five players are making 73.5% or better (with a minimum of 30 attempts), led by Immanuel Quickley's 92.3% (144 of 156).

The Wildcats have also made at least 75% in 13 straight games.

Kentucky's strong performance at the line isn't relegated to its success rate of makes, but also the frequency in which the Wildcats are getting to the line and the number of makes per game. UK is taking an average of 23.0 free throws a game. The Wildcats are making an average of 18.4. The opposition is averaging 12.9 makes on an average of 18.9 attempts a game. Opponents have shot only 15 more free throws than UK has made this season.

UK's plus-5.4 points per game at the line ranks seventh in the country, through games on March 3. Western Kentucky currently leads the country with a plus-8.2 differential. UK is seventh in the country in points per possession off of free throws at 0.079. WKU leads that category with 0.117 points per possession coming from the stripe.

John Calipari's best free-throw shooting team at Kentucky shot 72.6% in 2014-15. The 2013-14 squad averaged the most trips (28.7) and makes (19.5) per game under Calipari's tutelage. There's still a ways to go in the season, but UK's current free-throw percentage of .796 is ahead of the school record of 77.6% by the 1978-79 team.

UK has made its free throws when they matter the most. The Wildcats are 103 of 119 (86.6%) at the line when it's a two-possession game (six points or less) or less at any point with three minutes or less to play (including overtime). Quickley is 30 of 31 (96.8%) on the season after missing his first pressure-situation attempt at LSU.

Injury Bug

Kentucky's depth has been tested by a number of injuries this season. Ten current Wildcats have dealt with injuries or are rehabbing old ones, oftentimes limiting UK's depth in games.

• Dontaie Allen (left knee) - return: undetermined | Torn ACL from senior season of high school; participated in strength and conditioning programs over the summer and continues to progress with rehabilitation program, including participating in practices recently • Ashton Hagans (left thigh) - available | Sustained a left thigh contusion at LSU but played (did not start) the next game vs. Florida; sprained left ankle against Missouri; also dealt with a lower right leg injury early in the season but has not missed a game

• Ben Jordan (head injury) - available | Sustained a head injury in practice and was unavailable vs. Fairleigh Dickinson

Johnny Juzang (illness) - available | Missed Missouri and Georgia games with an illness
 Tyrese Maxey (thigh contusion) - available | Sustained a thigh contusion in the second half at South Carolina

EJ Montgomery (right ankle) - available | Sustained a right ankle sprain in the first half of the Michigan State game; missed the next three games and returned vs. Mount St. Mary's
Zan Payne (right knee) - return: undetermined | Continuing to rehab from a knee injury from his senior season of high school; underwent a rigorous rehab program over the summer and participated in his first practices recently

• Immanuel Quickley (chest contusion) - available | Suffered chest contusion in practice prior to Utah Valley and did not play vs. the Wolverines. Returned the following game

Kentucky is the Southeastern Conference's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats are the most dominant team in the league, recording a 1,011-284 mark (.781) in regular-season conference play. Only one other team has won more than 750 regular-season SEC games (Alabama), and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

• Kentucky has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.3 losses per season in 86 seasons in the SEC

- UK has won 49 SEC regular-season titles and 31 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 16 of the last 28 SEC Tournaments
- . Kentucky has captured at least a share of six of the last 11 SEC regular-season championships under John Calipari

• UK has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in eight of Calipari's 10 seasons, winning six times

• Kentucky won its 1,000th game in SEC regular-season action vs. Alabama on Jan. 11. Kansas has won 1,000 conference games when combining its records in the Big 6, Big 7, Big 8 and Big 12, but no team in the country has won 1,000 or more regular-season league games in one conference alone

• Seven teams made the 2019 NCAA Tournament field, tied for the second most of any league in the country

• The SEC had two teams in the Elite Eight, one in the Final Four and went 12-7 in NCAA Tournament games in 2019

• The SEC has held its own in the annual Big 12/SEC Challenge. The conferences are 20-20 over the last four seasons in the yearly January showdown

• As of the March 2 rankings, two SEC teams are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25. In addition to UK, Auburn is ranked No. 17. LSU is receiving votes

• Twelve SEC schools ranked in the top 100 and six in the top 50 of the NCAA's Net Evaluation Tool rankings, through games on March 3

Kentucky's Schedule Packs a Punch

Kentucky's schedule is always among the toughest in the country and this season will certainly be no different.

UK's nonconference slate alone saw the Wildcats defeat Michigan State in the Champions Classic in New York, endure a tough trip to Las Vegas vs. Utah and Ohio State, included the annual rivalry vs. Louisville in Rupp Arena, and took the Wildcats to Texas Tech.

Seven of UK's 13 nonconference opponents this season made a postseason tournament in 2019, five of which made the NCAA Tournament. Michigan State (1), Louisville (3) and Ohio State (5) were all ranked in the top five of the Associated Press Top 25 at the time of the meeting. It's the first time UK has played three AP top-five opponents before January since the 1979-80 season. The Wildcats went 2-1 vs. those three opponents.

That nonconference schedule has given way to one of the toughest league schedules in the country. UK will play its permanent home-and-away opponents of Florida, Tennessee and Vanderbilt twice, plus host and visit both Auburn and Georgia. The SEC's 15 NCAA Tournament selections over the last two years are second most in the nation.

The nonconference and league schedule combined reveals that 15 of the 26 opponents UK will face played in the postseason in 2018-19, including 11 in the NCAA Tournament, five in the Sweet 16 and three in the Final Four.

Four Kentucky opponents are ranked in the March 2 Associated Press Top 25, including three nonconference foes in Louisville (10), Michigan State (16) and Ohio State (19). SEC foe Auburn (17) is also ranked among the AP Top 25, with LSU and Florida just outside receiving votes. Nonconference opponent Texas Tech is also receiving votes.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

Kentucky is 281-8 (.972) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest with its last loss coming after leading by 17-points in the second-half to Tennessee on March 3.

Ironically, two of the last four instances UK has let a double-digit slip away came on the road at South Carolina. The Wildcats led by as many as 14 in Columbia, South Carolina, on Jan. 15, but the Gamecocks rallied behind a buzzer-beating 3-pointer for the 81-78 win. It was the first time UK let a double-digit lead slip away since Auburn rallied for an overtime win in the 2019 Elite Eight. Prior to that, UK's last loss was another 14-point advantage at South Carolina during the 2017-18 season.

Seven of the eight losses are to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 71.2% of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 85.7% of Calipari's 328 career wins at Kentucky.

Cats Don't Count on the Long Ball

New rules this season that moved the 3-point line to the international basketball distance of 22 feet, 1.75 inches has had an impact on college basketball, and the Wildcats are not immune.

Kentucky is shooting 33.5% from behind the arc, ranked 166th in the country (through games on March 3). The Wildcats rank near the bottom nationally in both 3-point field goals per game (ranked 340th with 5.0 per game) and 3-point scoring distribution (only 20.0% of UK's points come from 3s, which is 350th out of 353 teams) and have taken 235 fewer 3-pointers than the opposition. Additionally, the Wildcats have made four or fewer 3-pointers in 12 games.

But, if you've followed John Calipari's teams over the years, there shouldn't be much concern. Kentucky has never relied on the 3-point shot under Calipari. While teams nationally are taking more 3-point shots than ever before, UK has bucked the trend and played to the style that's best suited that particular group.

The highest percentage of 3-point shots taken under Calipari was the 2010-11 Final Four team that lofted 32.4% of its shots from beyond the arc. No surprise, that team that consisted of Brandon Knight and Doron Lamb on the perimeter is also Calipari's top 3-point shooting team at Kentucky.

Calipari typically likes his teams to take between 20 to 24 3-point attempts per game but believes this team is better suited to take closer to 15 to 20. UK is averaging 14.8 attempts through 30 games.

Not relying on the 3 certainly hasn't hurt the Wildcats. UK is 10-1 all-time under Calipari when making one or fewer from long range, including 3-0 this season. Extended to three or fewer 3-pointers, Kentucky is 8-1 this season.

UK's 3-point numbers are on the rise. The Wildcats are shooting 36.0% from behind the arc in conference games, which ranks second in the SEC.

Oddly enough, Kentucky has shot the ball from deep considerably better in hostile territory. The Wildcats are shooting 45.8% from long range in true road games but only 28.9% at home and 25.9% in their three neutral-site games.

Forever Young

With a combined 50 starts, 27.2% of the scoring, 30.5% of the rebounding and four key players (Ashton Hagans, Immanuel Quickley, Nick Richards and EJ Montgomery) back from the 2018-19 Elite Eight team -- plus a graduate transfer in Nate Sestina -- this is one of the most experienced teams of the John Calipari era.

The key words being the Calipari era.

In comparison to the rest of the country, it's still inexperienced. According to Ken Pomeroy's experience rankings, UK is 336th in the country out of 353 teams with an average of 0.99 years of experience (through games on March 3). Only four other Power 5 teams check in with less experience in the KenPom.com rankings.

UK began the season with nine newcomers on its roster, so growing pains are expected. Having said all that, it does rank as one of Calipari's most experienced teams at Kentucky, and that's important. Every team but one in the Calipari era has made the NCAA Tournament, but his best teams have combined young talent with a few returning pieces.

The 2009-10 squad with John Wall and DeMarcus Cousins featured veteran Patrick Patterson. The 2010-11 Final Four team had DeAndre Liggins and Josh Harrellson. The 2011-12 national championship team boasted three key returners in Terrence Jones, Doron Lamb and Darius Miller. The 2013-14 national runner-up squad featured Alex Poythress and Willie Cauley-Stein. And the 2014-15 team that nearly ran the table had both Poythress and Cauley-Stein back in addition to Andrew and Aaron Harrison and Dakari Johnson.

Defense is the Difference Again

Long. Athletic. Interchangeable parts. Like so many of his past teams, this Kentucky squad is once again stingy defensively.

Opponents are making just 39.1% from the floor, ranked 16th in the country (through games on March 3). And unlike last season when it seemed like every opponent early in the schedule caught fire from outside, the opposition is only making 30.3% from behind the arc.

Kentucky has held 18 opponents this season to 40% or less from the field, including eight of the last 11. UK is 15-3 in those games. Of the six Associated Press Top 25 opponents Kentucky played at the time, the Wildcats held four of them to less than 40% from the floor.

Year, is once again playing lockdown defense with 1.9 steals per game and is a Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year semifinalist.

When opponents are able to get by the likes of Hagans, Nick Richards is there as a rim protector. The junior is averaging a career-best 2.2 blocks per game with eight games of four or more rejections, including seven swats vs. Lamar, the most blocks by a Wildcat since Karl-Anthony Towns denied seven shots on Jan. 20, 2015.

Richards ranks among the best defenders in the country according to Synergy Sports' defensive rankings.

Hold Them to 55 Points, 40%

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 77-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer, including 3-0 this season.

The Wildcats are 185-7 (96.4%) under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less. UK is 12-0 thus far this season in the category. Kentucky's 61-59 loss to Tennessee in 2017-18 snapped a 60-game winning streak when holding the opponent to 63 or less.

Kentucky also fares well when it keeps the competition to 40% or less from the floor. UK is 202-19 (91.4%) vs. opponents under Calipari when its field-goal percent is 40% or less. The Wildcats are 15-3 this season. UK has held eight of the last 11 opponents to 40% or less.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky own a 63-33 record (.655) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams under John Calipari, UK is 7-4 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five.

All-time, Calipari is 13-8 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 86-56, including a 55-29 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 27-19 record, including 16-12 at UK.

Kentucky has answered the bell of big-time showdowns again this season. UK is 4-2 vs. AP Top 25 teams, including 2-1 vs. top-five teams at the time.

By defeating top-ranked Michigan State to start the season, UK knocked off the No. 1 team in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Last season, Kentucky downed Tennessee on Feb. 19, 2019. With the win over MSU, the Wildcats now have nine victories over the No. 1 team in 25 tries.

Calipari improved to 6-4 vs. the No. 1 team in his career with the win vs. Michigan State, including 3-2 at Kentucky. According to ESPN, Calipari is the only coach with a winning (.600) percentage against No. 1 ranked teams with a minimum of 10 games faced against the No. 1.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 63-33 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 266-44 vs. unranked competition, an .858 winning percentage.

Jordan First Two-Sport Star Since Braddy

Even with key returners, a deep and talented recruiting class, and the addition of graduate transfer Nate Sestina, Kentucky suffered major losses from last season.

From a numbers standpoint, UK needed more depth. When John Calipari heard there was a 6-foot-9, 250-pound pitcher on the baseball team with considerable basketball talent, he called UK baseball head coach Nick Mingione.

Enter Ben Jordan.

Jordan joined the team just before the Blue-White Game and served an important role early in the season when injuries mounted.

Jordan is the first multi-sport basketball player since Nehemiah "Junior" Braddy, who played four seasons with the basketball team (1990-93) and one with the baseball team (1991). It's worth noting that while former UK basketball player E.J. Floreal played both basketball (2014-16) and track at UK, he didn't begin his track career until after leaving basketball.

Although Jordan is a highly regarded baseball prospect with a lively arm, he's also a talented basketball player. He played at West Carter High School in Olive Hill, Kentucky, where he was the all-time leading rebounder and shot blocker and the eighth all-time leading scorer.

Jordan won Eastern Kentucky Conference Defensive Player of the Year in his senior season in addition to EKC First Team honors. He averaged 12.2 rebounds a contest in his final year.

Jordan is expected to be a major part of the UK baseball team in the spring. A 2016 Under Armour All-American in high school, he appeared in 10 games last season after redshirting in 2018 with an injury. Over the summer, playing for the Gaithersburg Giants of the Cal Ripken College Baseball League, Jordan appeared in seven games with six starts. He went 1-1 with a 2.70 ERA in 26.2 innings, allowing just 14 hits while striking out 36 en route to First Team All-Cal Ripken League honors.

The plan for Jordan is to remain with basketball through the rest of the season before returning to the diamond for his redshirt sophomore season.

Nation-Best 29 Wildcats on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

As the 2019-20 NBA season began, 29 players on NBA opening-day rosters (including twoway and inactive lists) played and finished their college basketball careers at Kentucky.

Underscoring the fact that no other school in the country can match UK's ability to develop players and put them in the NBA, UK's 29 players were again the most of any college basketball program, beating the next-closest school (Duke) by five players.

Of the 496 players in the NBA to start the 2019-20 season, 5.8% played and finished their college basketball careers at UK. There were actually fewer teams without a Wildcat (12) than there are NBA teams featuring Wildcats (18).

Of the 29 Wildcats on an opening-day NBA roster, John Calipari has coached 28 of them. With Derrick Rose (Detroit Pistons), who played for Calipari during the 2006-07 season at Memphis, Calipari has coached 29 players on 2019-20 opening-day rosters.

Kentucky has enjoyed unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the 10 seasons of the Calipari era, 38 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 29 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Davis, Karl-Anthony Towns and John Wall) and 21 lottery selections.

Calipari's players are not only reaching the next level, they are succeeding when they do. His players have garnered 23 All-Star selections, with Anthony Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Rose was named the league's MVP in 2011. Five of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (Rose, Wall, Davis, DeMarcus Cousins and Towns), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year (Rose, Tyreke Evans and Towns), and 12 players from Calipari's first nine teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) have amassed more than $2.26 billion in career NBA contracts. In the 10 seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled nearly $1.9 billion in NBA contracts.

In just the 2019-20 season alone, UK players will make more than $255 million. Calipari-coached players only (includes Rose but not Rondo) will make more than $260 million.

A full breakdown of the current Wildcats in the NBA can be found later in the notes.

Wildcats Shine at NBA All-Star Weekend

It wasn't just the number of former Kentucky men's basketball players -- six in all -- at NBA All-Star weekend that made it an impressive weekend, it was also how they performed.

The Wildcats had their fingerprints all over Chicago, highlighted by Anthony Davis making the game-winning free throw in the All-Star Game on Sunday night and Bam Adebayo winning the Skills Challenge on Saturday.

Davis (Los Angeles Lakers) made the deciding free throw in the new format of the All-Star Game. With the first team to 157 points (24 more points than the leading team heading into the fourth quarter, a tribute to the late Kobe Bryant), Davis stepped to the line needing to make one of two to end the game. He missed long on the first, but in front of his hometown crowd, calmly sunk the second. He scored 20 points to go along with nine rebounds and three blocks in the Team LeBron win.

Davis was making his seventh All-Star Game appearance and was joined by two other Wildcats in the game, Adebayo and Devin Booker, who made their NBA All-Star debuts. Adebayo (Miami Heat) scored eight points and Booker (Phoenix Suns) totaled six. UK's three representatives were more than any other school.

A night earlier, Adebayo dominated all three rounds of the NBA Skills Challenge to become the second Wildcat to win the competition. Karl-Anthony Towns won it in 2016.

Not long after, Devin Booker nearly made it 2-for-2 for the Kentucky Wildcats at the NBA All-Star Saturday Night in the 3-Point Contest. The 2018 champion scored 27 in the first round and 26 in the championship round but was edged by Buddy Hield on the final shot by a point.

A former Kentucky player has won a major award in five straight NBA All-Star weekends. Towns won the Skills Challenge in 2016, Davis captured MVP honors in the All-Star Game and Jamal Murray won MVP in the Rising Stars Challenge in 2017, Booker took home 3-Point Contest honors in 2018, Hamidou Diallo won the Slam Dunk Contest last season, and Adebayo was crowned the Skills Challenge champion this year.

Three Wildcats played in Friday's Rising Stars Challenge. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander (Oklahoma City Thunder) scored 16 points and PJ Washington (Charlotte Hornets) recorded eights points and five rebounds. Tyler Herro (Miami Heat) was also selected for the game but sat out due to injury.

Kentucky at No. 1

For the seventh season in the 11-year John Calipari era, the Kentucky men's basketball team earned a No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 on Nov. 11.

After defeating Michigan State, the previous No. 1 team, in the State Farm Champions Classic and then following it up with a dominating 42-point victory vs. Eastern Kentucky the Wildcats were named the March Madness Team of the Week and then moved atop the AP Top 25 for the first time since December 2016.

No other school has reached No. 1 in seven of the last 11 seasons while Calipari has been at Kentucky. According to STATS, only three other programs (Duke, North Carolina and UCLA) have ever been ranked No. 1 in seven different seasons during an 11-year span.

The Wildcats' stay at No. 1 was brief after a shocking loss to Evansville. It marked just the third loss ever by Kentucky in 57 games in Rupp Arena as the No. 1 team in the country. UK fell to 69-8 as the AP top-ranked team under Calipari.

The Wildcats own an all-time record of 220-31 (.876) at No. 1 in the AP Top 25. UK has appeared at the top of the AP poll 24 different seasons in school history, and the latest stay marked the program's 125th week at No. 1, third most in college basketball (Duke has 145 and UCLA, thanks in large part to its dynasty in the 1960s and 1970s, has 134).

Calipari, one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking, is no stranger to the top spot. Dating back to his time at Memphis, Calipari-coached teams have reached No. 1 in eight of the last 13 seasons. Including his tenure at UMass, his teams have ranked No. 1 in 10 different seasons.

2012 Title Team Voted Team of the Decade

Kentucky led college basketball in the 2010s in NCAA Tournament wins, Final Four appearances and NBA Draft picks. According to the Associated Press, the Wildcats also featured the best team of the decade.

The AP Top 25 panel tabbed the 2011-12 championship squad the best college basketball team of the decade. The 26-member panel voted UK ahead of the 2017-18 Villanova title team.

The 2012 national championship team was dominant in every sense of the word. En route to a 38-2 season, the Wildcats captivated the nation with a smothering defense, unselfish play, depth, balance and talent. Led by freshman Anthony Davis, the 2012 team snapped a 14-year title drought with the program's eighth national championship.

Davis, who won all but one of the major national player of the year awards, was the most dominant player in the country, not because of his offense – which was still superb – but because of his defensive abilities and rebounding prowess. The 6-foot-10 forward set a school record for blocked shots with 186, in addition to averaging a team-best 14.2 points and 10.4 rebounds per game.

The national championship game by Davis underscored the story of the 2012 Wildcats. Although Davis was 1 for 10 from the floor, he was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player after taking over the title game vs. Kansas with 16 rebounds, six blocks and three steals.

Of course, Davis had plenty of help. Five other players on the team were selected in the NBA Draft just a few months later, including Michael Kidd-Gilchrist – arguably the emotional heartbeat of the team – who would later make history with Davis by becoming the first college teammates to go 1-2 in the draft.

Senior Darius Miller, sophomores Terrence Jones and Doron Lamb, and freshman Marquis Teague provided an unstoppable cast that lost its two games by a combined eight points, one of which was on a buzzer beater.

Memorable victories included a December showdown with preseason national title favorite North Carolina, avenging the first loss of the season with a victory over Indiana in the Sweet 16 and defeating archrival Louisville in the Final Four.

The championship marked John Calipari's first and was a part of four Final Four appearances in five seasons, one of just three schools to accomplish that feat.

Kentucky's 38 wins in 2011-12 is still tied for the most in NCAA Division I history, as are the six NBA Draft picks. Both marks were later tied by the 2014-15 UK team.

The Sporting News also voted John Calipari its College Basketball Coach of the Decade. More on that in the Calipari section below.

UK-Michigan Ink Three-Year Series Starting in London

Kentucky has signed a three-year deal with Michigan that will take the Wildcats to London next season and add a marquee home-and-home series for the following two years.

Beginning with a trip to The O2 Arena in London on Dec. 6, the Wildcats and Wolverines will play three consecutive seasons. UK will travel to Ann Arbor, Michigan, for the Dec. 4, 2021 game, and Kentucky will host Michigan in Rupp Arena on Dec. 3, 2022.

The neutral-site game between the two schools -- the Basketball Hall of Fame Showcase -- will be hosted by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and serve as a fund raiser for the Hall. The UK-Michigan and Marist-UMBC games – taking place prior to the Kentucky game – will be the first NCAA Division I college basketball games in The O2 Arena.

Kentucky has played internationally on a number of occasions for foreign exhibition tours, but the London trip will mark UK's third regular-season game outside the U.S. and first in Europe.

London played host to the 1948 U.S. Olympic team that consisted of a handful of Wildcats. After winning the 1948 national championship – UK's first NCAA title – five Wildcats represented the U.S. in the 1948 Olympics in London. The Kentucky-led team won all eight of its games to win the gold medal.

UK leads the all-time series with Michigan 5-2. The most memorable matchup of the bunch – at least in the eyes of Big Blue Nation – was the most recent in March 2014 in Indianapolis. The Wildcats edged the Wolverines 75-72 in a classic in the Elite Eight. Aaron Harrison hit the second of three straight game-winning 3-pointers to advance UK to the Final Four. Howard's Wolverines knocked off Kentucky 81-78 in overtime in the 1993 Final Four to advance to the national championship game.

The on-campus visits in 2021 and 2022 will mark the first in the series since UK's 1970 trip to Ann Arbor and the 1968 UK Invitational Tournament in Memorial Coliseum. The series is tied 1-1 in Lexington, but the Wildcats lead Michigan 2-0 in Ann Arbor and 2-1 at neutral sites.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky defeated both of its in-state foes in 2019-20 (Eastern Kentucky and Louisville), continuing its domination of teams in state under John Calipari. Kentucky is now 19-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm.

The overall mark also includes an 11-2 record vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals were in postseason play. UK's four-game winning streak was snapped in 2016-17 but the Wildcats have won all six meetings played in Rupp Arena, including a 29-point blowout in 2017-18, the third-biggest margin of victory in the history of the series. Louisville's two wins are by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Calipari took over at UK:

- Jan. 2, 2010 UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 UK won 78-63 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
- March 31, 2012 UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
- Dec. 29, 2012 Louisville won 80-77 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 28, 2013 UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
- Dec. 27, 2014 UK won 58-50 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 26, 2015 UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena

Wildcats Ink Six in Fall Signing Period

Upon accepting the position of head coach of the Kentucky men's basketball program 10 years ago, John Calipari said one of the reasons he was chosen for the job was because he could recruit the best of the best.

It was a promise kept and a promise on which he continues to deliver. As he begins what he's calling his "second tour" at UK, he hasn't lost his touch.

Calipari and the Wildcats made an emphatic statement during the fall signing period with the additions of six highly skilled, athletic players to the program. UK signed decorated prospects Devin Askew, BJ Boston, Terrence Clarke, Cam'Ron Fletcher, Isaiah Jackson and Lance Ware to national letters of intent.

"I'm really excited about this group of young men," Calipari said. "They recruited us as much as we recruited them. They wanted this culture. They wanted to be with other good players. They didn't need crazy promises. They wanted this. In the past, when we've had groups like that, it's led to success both individually and as a team. When you're building a great team, not only do you need to be talented, you need to have high-character individuals, which we have with this group. These are great kids from good families."

All six players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 60 by the major national recruiting services. Five of the six were on the preseason watch list for the Naismith High School Trophy (Askew was excluded because of his recent reclassification).

With the spring signing class still to go (begins April 15), UK is expected to have one of the nation's top classes yet again. In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking.

Kentucky has now signed 59 top-50 recruits, 46 top-25 players and 25 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari's 12 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

UK can only comment on prospective student-athletes who have signed official paperwork to play at Kentucky.

Leach, Ledford Honored by NSMA

It's only fitting that "The Greatest Tradition in the History of College Basketball" has some of the greatest broadcasters calling the action for Big Blue Nation.

Tom Leach, the current "Voice of the Wildcats" and Cawood Ledford, one of Leach's predecessors, were recently honored by the National Sports Media Association. Ledford, the 39-year voice of Wildcats football and men's basketball, was named to the NSMA Hall of Fame while Leach has been chosen as the Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year. They will be recognized at the annual NSMA Awards Banquet, slated for June 29 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Ledford called UK games from 1953 until his retirement in 1992. His work with the Wildcats were more than enough to gain national fame, but his impact was felt far beyond the Commonwealth. He handled the radio call of the NCAA Final Four for 18 years and was four times named the top college basketball announcer in the nation. Ledford also was prominent in horse racing, handling 22 Kentucky Derby broadcasts, and winning numerous awards for his coverage of that sport. He was the Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year by the NSMA 22 times. He is a member of the UK Athletics Hall of Fame and the Kentucky Athletics Hall of Fame.

Leach has been a member of the UK Athletics broadcast team since 1989 and has been the play-by-play voice of Wildcats football since 1997 and men's basketball since 2001. This is the sixth time he has been named the Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year. Like Ledford, he is known for his expertise in horse racing and has won two Eclipse Awards for his coverage. He received the 2019 Tom Hammond Media Award from the Bluegrass Sports Commission and was named a distinguished alumnus of the University of Kentucky School of Journalism and Media.

LCC Announces Naming Rights Agreement with Central Bank

Lexington Center Corporation announced a landmark naming rights agreement with Central Bank, rebranding Lexington-Central Kentucky's premier convention, meeting, sports and entertainment complex as Central Bank Center. The iconic Rupp Arena will be Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center.

The agreement is between Central Bank and JMI Sports, and UK/LCC's multimedia rights partner. This agreement bolsters Central Bank's existing relationship with JMI Sports and UK to an annual average investment of $4.1 million with a term of 14 years, expiring in 2033. Upon completion of the renovation, the portion of this investment associated with naming rights will be $1.5 million. The opportunity to sell naming rights with other media rights is part of LCC's and the university's Right of Use Agreement executed in February 2018 and transferred media rights ownership to UK.

A key part of the agreement is the naming rights to the Lexington Convention Center complex, which is currently undergoing a major expansion. To preserve and honor the history and tradition of the legendary basketball program led by Adolph Rupp, the arena will be known as Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center. The Central Bank Center brand will be on interior, exterior and directional signage, as well as collateral materials related to the Convention Center and Rupp Arena. New graphics are being designed which will be fully integrated into the expansion project and other areas of the facility.

Cousins Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

DeMarcus Cousins was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2019 class in September.

Cousins was one of the key players on the 2009-10 Kentucky team that went to the Elite Eight in John Calipari's first season at UK. Cousins was named an NCAA Consensus Second Team All-American, including first-team recognition from the Associated Press, the 2010 Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches, and an All-SEC First

NOTES

Team (AP and coaches) selection.

While at UK, Cousins led the Wildcats to a No. 1 national ranking, an SEC regular-season championship and an SEC Tournament championship. He averaged 15.1 points and 9.9 rebounds and concluded freshman season with eighth-most rebounds in a single season in UK history with 375.

Following his one season in Lexington, Cousins was selected by the Sacramento Kings with the fifth overall pick in the 2010 NBA Draft. He's since gone on to a highly successful NBA career. He is a four-time NBA All-Star, was named to All-NBA Second Team in 2015 and 2016, and averaged double figures in all of his nine seasons in the league.

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2019 for placing in the top 10% of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a perfect 1,000. It's the fifth straight year the men's basketball team received the award and the sixth time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2014-15 through 2017-18 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in each of the last six single-year APR rates.

The NCAA cut score to compete in the 2019-20 postseason is a 930 four-year APR. Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

Whitney Leaves Program

"I can't express enough the respect I have for Coach Calipari," Whitney said. "I've learned a lot from him in my short time at UK and will take much of his wisdom with me as I continue on my journey. I am forever thankful for my time at Kentucky and for all the people I've met along the way. I thank the coaches, my teammates, tutors, training staff, advisers and professors for working with and believing in me. I wish Big Blue Nation all the best! I've heard your voices and positive messages, and I thank you for your continued love and support. I will always be cheering for UK's success and for all my brothers on the court."

Whitney played in 18 games with eight starts. He averaged 3.3 points and 1.7 rebounds in 12.8 minutes of action in 2019-20. The 6-foot-6 forward scored a season-high 11 points vs. Eastern Kentucky and nine points vs. Mount St. Mary's.

"First and foremost, Kahlil is a great kid," UK head coach John Calipari said. "This is tough for me because Kahlil is a tremendous person who is going to do great things. I certainly don't want to see him go because I wanted to continue to coach him, but I understand his decision and, as we always do here, will support him in whatever way we can. As I told Kahlil ... I hope he goes on and does his thing and makes us all proud. I know he will stay in touch with us and I know our fans will continue to support him as he takes this next step."

Whitney signed with Kentucky as a McDonald's All American and the No. 11 overall player in the class of 2019 by the Recruiting Services Consensus Index. He scored more than 2,000 points in his high school career at Roselle Catholic (New Jersey) and helped lead his team to a title at the New Jersey Tournament of Champions in his junior season.

The Chicago native was also a Jordan Brand All-American and was named co-MVP of the Allen Iverson Roundball Classic. Whitney was named to the Naismith High School Boys' All-America Third Team after his junior season.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 20 of the last 24 seasons. That number includes a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

• Kentucky averaged 20,160 fans during the 2019-20 season (first season with a reduced capacity at 20,500)

• UK averaged 23,000-plus fans in seven of Calipari's first 10 seasons

New Chairbacks, Fewer Seats

After receiving a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that enhanced the fan experience with the likes of a new Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, ribbons boards, new corner video boards and a new audio system, Rupp Arena is undergoing an additional transformation as a part of UK's new leasing agreement with the Lexington Center.

Chair-back seating in the upper-level sideline was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234 for the 2019-20 season. Club areas will be available to season ticket holders starting with the 2020-21 season. The new seating reduced Rupp Arena's capacity to 20,500.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press topranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), both by three, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Calipari's Record at Kentucky ...

vs. No. 1	3-2	vs. Top 25	63-33
vs. Top 3	5-6	Home	22-5
vs. Top 5	12-11	Away	8-13
vs. Top 10	25-20	Neutral	33-15
vs. Top 15	40-24	SEC Tourney	5-2
vs. Top 20	52-30	NCAA Tourney	17-7

John Calipari, who owns more wins, more NCAA Tournament wins, more Final Four appearances, more Elite Eight berths and more Sweet 16 showings than any other coach since his arrival at Kentucky, signed a new long-term contract with the school in June that offers the opportunity to end his career in Lexington.

The new deal, with total guaranteed compensation – which includes base salary and media/endorsement payments – is valued at $86 million over the lifetime of the contract. With a base salary of $400,000 per season from the university, Calipari will make $8 million in total compensation over the next two seasons with increases starting in 2021-22 ($8.5 million per year for four seasons) and 2025-26 ($9 million per year for four seasons).

The only incentive included in Calipari's new contract remains the performance of the men's basketball team in the Academic Progress Rate, a metric created by the NCAA to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The bonus will remain unchanged at $50,000 from the previous contract for meeting the threshold of 975. The men's basketball team has earned an NCAA award in five straight seasons for finishing among the top 10% of Division I men's basketball schools.

Calipari's new contract will no longer include a retention bonus. Beginning with the sixth contract year of the agreed upon terms, Calipari has the option to step down as the head coach and become special assistant to the athletics director/university representative. He would receive $950,000 in annual compensation for the position.

Calipari is calling the start of his second decade at Kentucky his "second tour" after unprecedented success in his first decade. His goal is for the program to build on that success and do even bigger things on the second tour.

A Decorated Decade

Through 10 years at Kentucky (entering 2019-20), John Calipari's time in Lexington has been every bit as successful -- and more -- as fans hoped when he agreed to become the head coach at Kentucky back in the spring of 2009.

By just about every measure, he's the most successful coach in college basketball during the last decade. Among schools who have been to at least two Elite Eights and a Final Four since 2009-10, Calipari ranks:

- First in wins (329), through games on March 3
- First in NCAA Tournament wins (31)
- Fourth in NCAA titles (one)
- First in Final Four appearances (four)
- First in Elite Eight appearances (seven)
- First in Sweet 16 appearances (eight)
- Third in regular-season conference titles (six)
- Second in league tournament titles (six)

Calipari Named Coach of the Decade

Underscored by more victories than any other coach or program over the last 10 seasons, more Final Four appearances, a record number of NBA Draft picks, and the 2012 national championship, John Calipari was named the College Basketball Coach of the Decade by Sporting News in January.

In a piece penned by national writer Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News credits Calipari for changing the college basketball landscape. Detailing Calipari's success – what DeCourcy described as a "college basketball revolution" – DeCourcy wrote that "no one defined the 2010s in the same way as Calipari ... nor achieved the same degree of consistent success."

In an era where kids can enter the NBA Draft at 19 years old, Calipari masterfully balanced the priority of players' long-term professional dreams with individual and team development, leading to on-court success that no other team has matched the last decade.

"I knew we were going to make the program — and I said it at the press conference — it was going to be a players-first program," Calipari told Sporting News. "We were going to make decisions based on them and their needs. And it's not just about the name on the front. It'll be about the name on the back. That's how we're going to do this."

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White.

Moving Up the Kentucky Career Wins, Games Coached List

With an 80-53 victory vs. Auburn on Feb. 23, 2019, John Calipari moved past Joe B. Hall for the second-most wins in program history. Calipari trails only the legendary Adolph Rupp (876 wins) for the most wins at UK and earned win No. 300 at Ole Miss on March 5, 2019.

When Calipari tied Hall with his 297th win at Missouri on Feb. 19, 2019, he did so 32 games faster than Hall and just two games slower than Rupp.

Although he's still climbing the charts, he's doing it nearly as fast as anyone else in NCAA history. With the win over Ole Miss, Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 300 wins (369 games) at one program in NCAA history. Only Bill Self (358 games at Kansas), Claire Bee (359 games at Long Island) and Rupp (366 at UK) got there faster.

Calipari recently passed Hall for the second-most coached games at UK. Hall's 13-year career with the Wildcats ended with his 397th game. Calipari and Kentucky's win over Mississippi State on Feb. 4, 2020 marked the 398th career game he's been at the UK helm. Rupp is obviously first in games coached with a 41-season tenure spanning 1,066 career games.

ON PACE WITH THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to four NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure. John Calipari is just behind pace with Rupp to begin his career at UK in total victories. Calipari (.810) is slightly behind Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

700 Victories and Counting

With Kentucky's win over UIC on Nov. 26, 2017, John Calipari reached 700 on-court wins. At the time he was one of just 41 coaches, regardless of NCAA level of classification, to reach that barrier. Only 29 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever. Only Adolph Rupp (836 games), Jerry Tarkanian (876 games) and Roy Williams (879 games) did it faster.

Calipari is currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 16 league regular-season championships (including six Southeastern Conference titles) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Bruce Pearl has eight). Calipari has won six SEC Tournament championships in 10 seasons at Kentucky and owns 15 conference tournament titles in his career, 11 more than his closest competitors (Ben Howland, Kermit Davis).

He's tallied a 358-107 (.769) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 150-41 (.785) record since joining the SEC. Entering the 2019-20 season, his 136 total conference wins were the second most among Division I coaches since 1996-97 over their first 10 seasons with a program, while his winning percentage ranked third. Only Adolph Rupp (.833) had a better winning percentage through his first 10 seasons in league play in Kentucky's history.

Although he's been publicly outspoken against conference tournaments -- only because he doesn't favor playing three or more games on consecutive days to win the tournament -- his teams have gotten up for them. Calipari's teams at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky have been to 19 conference championship games in his 27-year career, winning a remarkable 15 of them. Calipari is 57-12 (.826) all-time in conference tournaments, including 23-4 (.852) at UK. Calipari ranks fourth in SEC Tournament wins.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017. When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, 2017, he made history as a head coach. Calipari became the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, 93, 94, 95 and 96. Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, 06, 07, 08 and 09. Kentucky has captured the SEC five times in 2010, 12, 15, 16 and 17.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 31 combined regular-season and tournament championships after clinching the SEC regular-season crown in 2020. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (34 titles with the West Coast Conference regular-season title in 2020) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

30 is the new 20

After defeating Ole Miss 67-62 on Feb. 15, John Calipari secured his 26th consecutive on-court 20-win season. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski (24), Bill Self (22) and Mark Few (21) who have all hit the plateau this season as well.

With a Sweet 16 win over Houston in the 2019 NCAA Tournament, Calipari and the Cats clinched a 30-win season for the fifth time as UK's head coach. Calipari has 11 seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Krzyzewski (15) and Roy Williams (12) have more 30-win seasons as an active head coach. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 wins in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

There's No Place Like Home

Since his 1991-92 season at UMass, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 392-33 (.922) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 183-11 (.943) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's 11 seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

	Coach	Streak (Yrs)

2.	John Calipari	42 (2014-17)
3.	Rick Pitino	33 (1992-94)
4.	Joe B. Hall	30 (1981-82)
5.	Rick Pitino	27 (1995-97)

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're pretty good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 107-47 (.695) record on the road. At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 80-23 (.777) all-time under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking.

- Calipari has led seven of his 11 UK teams to the No. 1 ranking and eight of his last 13 teams to the top (he's done it 10 times overall). When Coach Cal's teams are at the top, they're difficult to knock off:
  - Calipari is 110-13 (.894) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
  - He's 69-8 (.896) when his team is atop the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
  - Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass at No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis
  - He (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (219) in active coaches with victories at No. 1

• Calipari has coached 123 career games as a No. 1 team, fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (254), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (127)

• Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .894 trails only Wooden (.952) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (.862)

- Calipari is 6-4 vs. the AP top-ranked team in the land, including 3-2 at Kentucky after defeating Michigan State on Nov. 5
- According to ESPN, his .600 winning percentage against the No. 1 ranked team is the best for any head coach

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100% of the players (20 of 20) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Brad Calipari, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, Kentucky has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last six single-year reports. UK's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May 2019, was a 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the fifth year in a row for finishing in the top 10% of Division I men's basketball programs.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, John Calipari has helped 49 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 38 in his first 10 seasons at Kentucky, more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than three No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- $\bullet$  His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era

Churned out 38 NBA Draft picks, 29 first-rounders, three No. 1 selections, seven top-five picks and 21 lottery picks at Kentucky
Of the 60 players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari, 38 have been selected in the NBA

- Draft, a 63.3% success rate. Another five of those made the NBA, and the majority of the rest were walk-ons
- Of the 27 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, 25 have been first-round picks. All 27 have played a game in the NBA. He is 29 for 31 in that regard when including his players from Memphis
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012 Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in 12 straight drafts since 2008, the only school to do so during that time period

• Seven of his former players have been named NBA All-Stars (23 total), five have been tabbed All-NBA, three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 12 players from Calipari's first nine teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011 and Anthony Davis won NBA All-Star MVP honors in 2017

Recruiting Trail

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players under John Calipari's leadership than any other school. Nearly a quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past 11 classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats. The following list does not include transfers (freshman signees only).

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level. Of the 35 top-25 Rivals.com players Kentucky has signed and have completed their college eligibility at UK, 31 were drafted and 25 were selected in the first round. But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's 50-plus NBA pros have amassed more than $2.26 billion in NBA contracts, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of his UK players in the NBA, they've earned just shy of $1.9 billion in guaranteed contracts.

There's more: Of UK's 21 lottery picks in the Calipari era, 14 have earned second contracts in the NBA with seven of them cashing in on max contracts. Of the seven who haven't earned contracts, all have been drafted in the last three years and are still on their rookie deal. Over the last 10 years, there have been 22 lottery picks who earned max contracts in the NBA. Seven of them attended Kentucky.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

John Calipari's teams have posted 19 streaks of 10 or more wins at Kentucky, Memphis and UMass, including seven at UK. They have won 15 or more straight games nine times, 20 or more six times, 25 or more five times, and 30 or more one time. A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 49 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 27-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 700 on-court victories, 20 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari's career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari's first 10 seasons at UK, he led all coaches in total wins (305), NCAA Tournament wins (31), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight).

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball's first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport's greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari's on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture. In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 50 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 49 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari's help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he's had 38 players drafted during his first 10 years at Kentucky, including 29 first-round picks.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 23 All-Star selections, with Anthony Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Five of his players have been tabbed All-NBA, three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 12 players from Calipari's first nine teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 18 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including four players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari's teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, and in 2017, for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."
