SEC PLAY OPENS AT DEFENDING CHAMPION VANDERBILT

- Kentucky is 11-6 overall and just completed an 11-3 homestand.
- Senior 1B T.J. Collett is the Perfect Game National Player of the Week, the SEC co-Player of the Week and one of Collegiate Baseball's National Players of the Week after blistering opponents last week. He hit .455 with six extra-base hits and an SEC-leading 13 RBI. He also became the 53rd member of UK's career 100-Hit Club.
- The Cats scored their second walk-off win of the season last Wednesday when freshman John Rhodes hit a two-out, solo home run in the ninth inning. He is the first UK freshman to hit a walk-off home run since Andy Burns vs. South Carolina on March 29, 2009.
- Rhodes ranks second nationally in doubles with 10 and is fifth in the SEC in batting (.426).
- Senior INF Zeke Lewis has been sensational during UK's six-game win streak, collecting 12 hits in 21 at-bats with seven runs and five stolen bases.
- Sophomore INF Austin Schultz has proven to be a stick of dynamite for the Cats. He has reached base safely streaks of 27 and 22 games in his short career. It was just the eighth time a UK player has had streak of at least 25 games since the start of 2012. He has reached safely in 56 of 60 career games.
- Schultz ranks second in the SEC and ninth nationally in total bases (46).
- UK's offense has picked up steam and ranks seventh nationally in HBP (34), ninth in home runs (22), 17th in total runs (135) and 18th in slugging percentage (.485).
- The UK pitching staff has struck out at least eight hitters in 14 consecutive games (12 with 10 or more).
- The Cats have lost two key components of their lineup to injuries: Redshirt sophomore OF Cam Hill is out indefinitely after suffering a broken wrist in an outfield collision, while senior INF/OF Elliott Curtis is out for the season with a severe ankle injury.

Final box scores will be available shortly following each game. UK ACPR will send postgame summaries, notes, photos (when available) and box scores via email and via UKathletics.com. Season stats will be updated online as quickly as possible.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Interviews with players and coaches are conducted on the field following each game. Please let Matt May or a member of the UK ACPR staff know of any postgame interview requests and we will coordinate for you. For assistance in locating any member of the Kentucky team, find Matt May for help. For assistance with opposing players and coaches, please see the visiting team SID.

COLLETT COLLECTING HARDWARE

Senior first baseman T.J. Collett was named National Player of the Week by Perfect Game, Southeastern Conference co-Player of the Week and a National Player of the Week by Collegiate Baseball on March 9 after tearing the cover off the ball the week before.

Collett had a sensational week (March 3-8), batting .455 with six extra-base hits (three doubles, three home runs) among his 10 total hits, seven runs and 13 RBI. He led all SEC players in RBI and total bases (22) and ranked second in hits and home runs. He slugged 1.000 as part of an absurd 1.478 OPS in five games.

The senior from Terre Haute, Indiana got off to a great start when he belted home runs in back-to-back at-bats against Cincinnati, the first time in his career he hit multiple home runs in a game. Twice during the week he went back-to-back with a teammate, doing so with Oranj Anu vs. Cincinnati and Austin Schultz vs. Oakland on Sunday.

For the week, he recorded four multi-hit and four multi-RBI games. He was especially ruthless in Sunday's doubleheader sweep of Oakland, driving in seven runs and scoring four on two doubles and a home run. He also became the 53rd player in UK history to reach 100 career hits when he doubled against Norfolk State.

COGGIN, ROSZEL JOIN COACHING STAFF

The UK coaching staff has a new look to it this season with the additions of Will Coggin and Dan Roszel as assistant coaches, the first changes to Mingione's staff during his tenure in Lexington. Coggin will work in concert with volunteer assistant coach Todd Williams on the hitting side of things, as well as serve as the recruiting coordinator, while Roszel is the pitching coordinator.

Roszel has a long-established track record of excellence, which includes mentoring 30 pitchers who have signed professional contracts, 11 who have made the major leagues and a pair of Top 15 overall MLB draft picks in Jeff Hoffman and Boston Red Sox star Chris Sale. He spent the past nine seasons at East Carolina, where the Pirates finished in the nation's top 50 in ERA seven times.

Coggin spent time with Mingione at Mississippi State and has proven to be a winner at every stop of his playing and coaching career. The Mississippi native has worked with 2017 SEC Player of the Year Brent Rooker, SEC all-time hits leader Jake Mangum, and current big-leaguers Nate Lowe and Myles Straw as part of 38 draft picks in relatively short coaching career that began as a student assistant with the Bulldogs in 2009.

BIGGIE BOX

One of the pillars of UK's offense is working its game goals in search of the big inning - "Biggie Box" - which is defined as any inning where the Cats put four or more runs on the scoreboard. The approach has been so effective the lineup has opened its "Biggie Box" 99 times since Mingione took over (37 in 2017 and 31 in 2018) and recorded 20 such innings last season. The Cats also are 87-16 under Mingione when scoring six or more runs. (See box at top right for chart on 2020 big innings)

The 11-run third inning vs. Oakland on March 8 was the highest-scoring inning for the Cats since plating 12 in the first inning at Vanderbilt on May 11, 2002. The Cats also have a 10-run inning this season.

PRODUCTION AT THE PLATE

Kentucky's offense has been one of the nation's elite the past three seasons under Mingione and his staff, in particular renowned hitting guru Todd Guiliams. The Cats have been a devastating offensive club under Guiliams' direction, leading the SEC in a total of 14 offensive statistical categories, while also producing five All-Americans.

CATEGORY	THREE-YEAR TOTAL
Batting Average	.290
Runs per game	6.7
On-Base Percentage	.394
Slugging Percentage	.466
OPS	.860
Extra-Base Hits	596

In 2018, UK led the SEC in home runs per game, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, scoring, doubles per game and sacrifice bunts, while ranking in the nation's top 20 in five of those six categories - and top 10 in three. In 2017, the Cats registered the most hits in a single-season (706) in UK history and ranking near the top of the single-season charts in numerous other categories. The offense also ranked in the top 12 nationally in doubles (2nd), hits (4th), hit by pitches (4th), on-base percentage (7th), walks (10th), sacrifice bunts (10th), slugging percentage (11th) and batting average (12th).

YOU CAN PUT IT ON THE BOARD

UK recently set the school record with 127 consecutive games without being shutout. In fact, the Cats scored in 203 consecutive nine-inning games, the lone exception being a loss to LSU in the 2017 SEC Tournament that was halted after seven innings, before the streak was snapped by UNC Wilmington on Feb. 28.

CATS LEAD THE SEC IN WEEKLY HONORS

Although the strength of our TEAM is our TEAM, the Cats have had standout individual performances that have caught the attention of observers across the country and in the SEC offices. Since the beginning of the 2017 season, UK players have been named either SEC Player or Pitcher of the Week fifteen times, the most for any school in the conference.

ON-BASE MACHINE

Sophomore infielder Austin Schultz was a catalyst at the top of the lineup last season as a rookie, using his combination of hitting ability and patience at the plate to find his way onto the bases. In fact, there have been only eight instances since the beginning of 2012 where a UK player has reached base safely in at least 25 consecutive games. Schultz is the only freshman to have accomplished the feat during that time.

- 44 - Tristan Pompey (2017-18)
- 35 - Luke Becker (2018)
- 32 - AJ Reed (2014)
- 29 - AJ Reed (2013-14)
- 28 - Gunnar McNeill (2016)
- 27 - AUSTIN SCHULTZ (2019)
- 25 - Kole Cottam (2018)

Schultz has reached base safely in 56 of 60 games in his career, and recently had a 22-game streak snapped. Through 16 games he already has 11 extra-base hits, including five home runs (he had two all of 2019), 20 runs, 20 RBI and five stolen bases.

COLLETT'S COMMUNITY SERVICE

One of the tenets of Mingione's philosophy for the UK program is that young men in it are students first, people second and players third. Senior 1B T.J. Collett was honored for the person part of that by being named to both the 2018 and 2019 SEC Community Service Teams. He also was recently inducted, along with Carson Coleman, into UK's prestigious Frank G. Ham Society of Character.

Collett is heavily involved with the NEGU/Jessie Rees Foundation, whose mission is connecting with families of young cancer patients, bringing awareness to their stories, offering them a network of helpful resources and sending the entire family encouragement throughout their journey. NEGU, which stands for Never Ever Give Up, has worked with Collett on bringing children and their families to UK home baseball games to experience pregame activities on the field and in the dugout, as well as be announced during the game. As part of his work with NEGU, Collett has spearheaded an effort where members of the UK baseball team deliver Joy Jars to young cancer patients. The jars are stuffed with toys, games, and more to brighten patients' days while fighting the disease. More information can be found at negu.org.

AIR JORDAN

Redshirt sophomore pitcher Ben Jordan has been absent from the Kentucky baseball team this spring but for good reason as he helps John Calipari's basketball squad try and win the school's ninth national title.

The 6-foot-9 Jordan, who was a star hoopster in at West Carter (Ky.) High School, joined the basketball team after several preseason injuries created a need for a big man. He has appeared in three games while living out his childhood dream of suiting up for the Cats.

Jordan will remain with the basketball team until its post-season run ends and then re-join baseball. He appeared in 10 games in 2019 coming off arm surgery.

KENTUCKY®

KENTUCKY PROUD PARK

Kentucky baseball moved into a new home for the 2019 season, opening the $49 million Kentucky Proud Park, a state-of-the-art facility immediately considered one of the top facilities in all of college baseball. The Wildcats won their first game in their new home, defeating Eastern Kentucky, 7-3, on Feb. 26, 2019.

The stadium features permanent seating for nearly 2,500 fans with additional space on grass berms to accommodate 5,000 fans for regular season games. Beyond the outfield wall, temporary bleachers can be installed for NCAA Tournament games to bring the seating capacity to more than 7,000. Fan amenities also include suites and a new club area.

The team areas were a priority and give our players and coaches everything they need to compete at a high level in a single location. The facility features a team lounge, locker room, training area, indoor hitting and pitching areas, and coaching offices, as well as a recruiting room. All spaces are either new to UK baseball or significantly larger than previous ones.

The playing surface is the AstroTurf® Rootzone Diamond Blend, which will allow the team to maximize usage in all weather conditions. The pitcher's mound will remain dirt.

The video board that looms large beyond the right-centerfield wall measures 48 feet wide by 30 feet tall, making it the eighth-largest in college baseball.

The name is a tribute to farmers and businesses of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the Big Blue Nation. Kentucky Farm Bureau secured the rights to name the stadium from JMI Sports, UK Athletics' multimedia rights partner. In turn, Kentucky Farm Bureau elected to name the stadium for Kentucky Proud, the state's official agricultural marketing program housed at the Kentucky Department of Agriculture. No state taxpayer dollars were used in funding the agreement. The Kentucky Proud program is funded through the generosity of the Kentucky Agricultural Development Fund. The fund is directed by the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board and administered by the Governor's Office of Agricultural Policy.

ALL RHODES LEAD TO LEXINGTON

UK coach Nick Mingione isn't big on hyperbole so when both he and hitting guru Todd Guilliams talk about the talent of freshman infielder/outfielder John Rhodes you're bound to pay a little closer attention. Rhodes, a 6-foot, 200-pounder from the Chattanooga, Tennessee area is an athletically-built five-tool player with a big future.

"John Rhodes is special," Mingione said. "He's a guy I think we're going to be sitting here looking back one day going, 'Wow, that's one of the better players we've had come through here.'"

Rhodes flashed his prodigious talent last summer when he tore up the Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League despite being just weeks removed from high school. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the league's all-star game and the No. 11 overall prospect in the collegiate summer league after hitting .316 with 24 runs, 24 RBI, 15 extra-base hits and six steals in 36 games.

RUN, CATS, RUN

In the first year of Kentucky Proud Park, a more spacious home venue than Cliff Hagan Stadium, the Cats played to its identity, running at every opportunity on the way to 85 stolen bases for the season. That total is the seventh-highest dating to 1985 and the third-most in the past 23 seasons, with four different Cats swiped at least 10 bags. The coaching staff contends the 2020 team is the fastest team they've been a part of and will continue to heavily incorporate it in the gameplan.

Outfielder Jaren Shelby put his speed tool on display last season when he stole five bases against Eastern Kentucky in the first game ever played at Kentucky Proud Park. The five steals were the most for any SEC player in 25 years, dating back to 1994 when Vanderbilt's Boomer Whipple swiped five against Western Kentucky. Shelby stole second, third and home in the fifth inning against ECU and then second and third again an inning later.

MLB TRAINING GROUND

Kentucky has made its presence felt in the Major League Baseball Draft the past three years with 24 players selected, including 21 in 2017 and 2018, which was the most of any college program in the country over that span. In Evan White (2017) and Zack Thompson (2019) the Cats have had two first-round selections under coach Nick Mingione. In the last three drafts:

- 13 Wildcats were selected in the first 10 rounds.
- Six were selected in the first five rounds, including first-rounders Evan White (2017) and Zack Thompson (2019).
- The 13 picks in 2018 are the second-most for any school in a single draft since 2006 and tied for an SEC record with Texas A&M (2016) and national champion Vanderbilt (2019).
- The 14 underclassmen drafted during that span earned $10.435 million in signing bonus money, an average of $745,358 per player.
- All but one draftee was selected higher than previously selected.
- 15 of the draftees had not previously been drafted.

SHELBY CONTINUES FAMILY TRADITION

When UK began recruiting Jaren Shelby it had history and location on its side. The senior outfielder hailed from Lexington, played his prep baseball just down the street at Tates Creek High School and had spent much of his childhood watching older brothers John III and JaVon putting up big numbers for the Wildcats. The first family of Lexington baseball, which includes patriarch John Shelby, had a deep connection to the blue and white that proved to be too much for Jaren, the youngest brother, to pass up coming out of State College of Florida last season.

Jaren, a former Kentucky Gatorade Player of the Year in 2016, opted to follow in the footsteps of his brothers, both of whom were all-conference players with the Cats. John III played at UK from 2004-06, was on the program's first SEC championship team and served as a student assistant coach in 2018, while JaVon wore blue from 2014-16.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

The Wildcats again will face one of the most difficult schedules in the country with 31 games slated against teams that made the 2019 NCAA Tournament, including 11 against College World Series participants and 20 against teams ranked in the preseason top 11.

The season opens on the road against perennial power TCU and after a 15-game homestand the Cats hit the road for the eighth straight season to open SEC play, drawing defending national champion Vanderbilt in Nashville on March 13-15. They will return home to host Florida on March 20-22 before traveling to 2019 College World Series participant Mississippi State to close out March. In all, 15 of the first 18 conference games are against teams ranked 11th or higher in the preseason polls, there is a non-conference home-and-home series with Louisville and road game at Indiana as well.

CANADIAN CATS

Kentucky has made recruiting The Great White North a staple of its talent base, routinely traveling north of the border to bring Canadian players to the SEC. In fact, the program also has spent considerable time recruiting areas like Michigan, Minnesota and other corners of the Great Lakes region.

The Canadian pipeline continues this season as a pair of Ontario natives - freshman Jaden Brown and senior Elliott Curtis - suit up for the Cats. They join a group that includes the likes of current New York Yankees starter James Paxton, Tristan Pompey, Zach Pop, Chris Bisson and others as Canadian players to wear blue. Brown, who spent some time with Canada's national baseball program, wears No. 6 in homage to the nickname for Toronto.

COLLETT JOINS 100-HIT CLUB

Senior T.J. Collett has logged 104 hits during his career, joining UK's all-time 100-hit club with a ringing double against Norfolk State on March 7. He is the 53rd member of that exclusive group.

“THE HOOK”

One of the personal touches to the Wildcats’ new home, Kentucky Proud Park, is “The Hook,” which is the name of the visiting bullpen just beyond the right field wall. The name is a tribute to former UK pitcher Jonathan Hooker, who pitched for the Cats from 1998-2001, and died in the plane crash of Comair Flight 5191 on Aug. 27, 2006 in Lexington.

Hooker and his wife, Scarlett Parsley, were married the night before and were on the early-morning flight headed to their honeymoon when the pilots attempted to take off from the wrong runway and crashed into a neighboring field. Forty-nine of the 50 people on board were killed, including both Hooker and Parsley.

The London, Ky. native was a beloved teammate and member of UK Baseball and his family was honored on Mar. 29, 2019 during an in-game ceremony to officially unveil “The Hook,” which features a sign and memorial to the former Wildcat.

The Hooker Family was honored on March 29, 2019 in memory of the late Jonathan Hooker and his wife, Scarlett Parsley, who died in crash of Comair Flight 5191 in August 2006.

HEAD COACH NICK MINGIONE

KEEPIN' IT 100

Kentucky fans have quickly created a bond with Nick Mingione, whose infectious and unrelenting enthusiasm and down-to-earth personality has earned legions of new fans. Although it is certainly an ingredient in Mingione's on-field success, getting the best out of his players has been the biggest factor in the success he's achieved everywhere he's been..In 17 years of coaching the teams he's been involved with have averaged 38 victories a year and advanced to the postseason 10 times with two national runner-up finishes.

Mingione had a brilliant playing career at Embry-Riddle - he ranks 10th on its career hits list - where he helped lead the program to 154 victories and three NAIA World Series appearances in three seasons as an assistant. When he arrived at Kentucky in 2006 he was immediately part of what is still the Cats' only SEC championship club, then smelled success at Mississippi State before returning to the one place he had always wanted to be a head coach - UK. First season, first Super Regional appearance for the Cats.

With 103 career wins and 39 in SEC play, Mingione is the winngest UK coach during the first three seasons of his tenure:
