MIDWEST FLAVOR: CATS LOOK TO KEEP COOKIN' AT MISSOURI

Coming off a pair of the most complete defensive performances in more than four decades, Kentucky looks to extend its winning streak this Saturday when it travels to Missouri. Game time is 4 p.m. EDT and it will be televised on the SEC Network.

The showdown in the Show Me State comes a week earlier than originally scheduled as the Southeastern Conference adjusted the game dockets for the coming weeks after Covid-19 protocols forced the postponement of a pair of games last week, including Missouri's game against Vanderbilt. The league flipped UK's games against Missouri and Georgia, as the Bulldogs now will travel to Lexington on Halloween.

With a resounding 34-7 victory at No. 18 Tennessee last weekend the Cats scored their first win in Knoxville since 1984, their first win over a ranked Vols squad in Knoxville and tallied their largest margin of victory on the road over an Associated Press-ranked team ever. The nine total points allowed the past two weeks are the fewest in consecutive games vs. SEC teams for UK since 1976 (nine vs. Florida, UT).

Mizzou enters the game off a home win over defending national champion LSU that required a last-second goal line stand. Ironically, UK's last trip to Columbia saw the Cats stage a fourth quarter rally that culminated in a game-winning TD pass on the final play of the game.

QUICK NOTES

- Kentucky is in its 130th season of intercollegiate football.
- This week's game vs. Missouri was originally scheduled for Oct. 31. Due to issues with Covid-19 at other SEC schools the schedule was re-configured and the Wildcats' Oct. 24 and 31 games were flipped with UK now facing Georgia on Oct. 31.
- UK is looking for its sixth straight win over the Tigers.
- Kentucky is coming off a pair of resounding victories, defeating Mississippi State and No. 18 Tennessee by a combined score of 58-9. The nine total points allowed are the fewest in back-to-back SEC games since yielding a total of nine to Florida and Tennessee to end the 1976 regular season.

Kentucky Wildcats

UKStoopsTroops

- The Wildcats' 34-7 defeat of Tennessee ended a 36-year victory drought in Knoxville dating to the 1984 season. It was the first win in Knoxville over a ranked Tennessee team in school history and the largest margin of victory (27) there since a 56-0 win in 1893, the first game of the 116-game series.
- It was the largest margin of victory on the road vs. an Associated Press-ranked team in school history.
- UK ranks second in the SEC and 10th nationally in scoring defense (20.0).
- UK ranks 16th nationally in total defense (341.3) and 15th in rushing defense (106.3).
- UK is third nationally and leads the SEC in red zone defense (.600).
- In the victory over Mississippi State on Oct. 10, the Cats did not allow a touchdown or field goal for the first time since 2009 (a 42-0 shutout of Miami University). It marked the first time UK has held an SEC opponent without a TD or field goal since a 25-0 shutout of Vanderbilt in 1996.
- The performance against MSU helped LB Jordan Wright earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week, while punter Max Duffy was Special Teams Player of the Week.
- With six interceptions vs. Mississippi State, and three more against Tennessee, UK ranks second both in the SEC and nationally with nine this season (Arkansas, 10).
- It's the most total interceptions (nine) in consecutive games since also grabbing nine in 1993 vs. Kent State (2) and Florida (7). The six interceptions against MSU were the second-most in school history and most since grabbing seven vs. Florida in 1993.
- With three defensive touchdowns on the season, all in the past two games, UK is tied for the most in the country with Arkansas.
- Kentucky has rushed for at least 400 yards in four of its past eight games and currently lead the SEC and rank 17th nationally in rushing offense (206.0).
- Against Ole Miss, UK had its most total offense in an SEC home game (559 yards) since Nov. 13, 2010 vs. Vanderbilt (580 yards).
- The Cats had three players (Chris Rodriguez Jr., A.J. Rose and Terry Wilson) rush for more than 100 yards vs. Ole Miss, the first time in the modern era (since 1946) the program has had three 100-yard rushers in a game.
- Against Ole Miss, the Cats had their most rushing touchdowns against an SEC opponent (six) since Oct. 6, 1973 at Mississippi State (six).
- UK had allowed 34 points or less in 28 straight games, the longest active streak in the nation, before Ole Miss tallied 42. The 28 straight games at 34 points or less was the longest for Kentucky since a 45-game streak from 1976-80.
- UK has allowed 30 or fewer points in 29 of the past 31 games.
- By allowing just 20 yards rushing to Mississippi State the Cats now have held an opponent to 20 rushing yards or less twice in the past six games.
- UK allowed just 91 rushing yards at No. 8 Auburn, fewest against a top-10 ranked opponent since 2010 vs. South Carolina and fewest against a top-10 ranked opponent on the road since 1999 vs. Mississippi State.
- QB Terry Wilson's value to the Wildcats runs deeper than raw numbers, as he is 14-5 as a starter and with the Cats' first win at Tennessee since 1984 this season he joined Derrick Ramsey as the only two quarterbacks in school history to win at both Florida and Tennessee in their career.
- The Wildcats had the third-most wins among SEC East schools from 2017-19 (25). Only Georgia (36) and Florida (26) had more.
- Fourteen true freshmen have see action so this season: WR Izayah Cummings, LB Torrance Davis, WR Mike Drennen II, DL Josaih Hayes, LB D'Eryk Jackson, RB JuTahn McClain, DL Octavious Oxendine, DB Andru Phillips, DL Justin Rogers, DL Tre'Vonn Rybka, WR Earnest Sanders IV, DB Vito Tisdale, DB Carrington Valentine and DB Joel Williams. Additionally, transfers Joey Gatewood (QB) and Kelvin Joseph (DB) and sophomore LS Cade Degraw saw their first action in blue and white.
- UK is aiming for a fifth-consecutive winning season. It would be the first time the program has accomplished that since posting 11 straight winning seasons from 1946-56.
- UK set new single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing touchdowns (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32) in 2019.
- Punter Max Duffy was named the 2019 Ray Guy Award winner and earned first-team All-America honors by seven national selectors. He currently ranks third nationally in punting average at 47.8.

MILESTONES TO LOOK FOR...

- Head coach Mark Stoops has 46 career victories at Kentucky, ranking him third on the school's all-time list. He needs one more win to tie Fran Curci (1973-1981) at No. 2.
- Coach Stoops has 22 SEC wins which ties Paul Bryant for the second-most in school history. He needs three more to tie Fran Curci at No. 1 with 25.
- Senior running back Asim Rose Jr. has rushed for 1,497 yards in his career, which ranks him 22nd on the school's all-time list. He needs 34 more yards to pass Lynn Bowden Jr. (2017-19) for 21st
- Rose averages 5.44 yards per carry in his career, fourth on the UK all-time list (min. 200 att.)
- Senior OLB Jamar "Boogie" Watson has 16.5 career sacks. He needs one more to tie Jeremy Jarmon (2006-08) for fifth on the school's all-time list.
- Senior QB Terry Wilson has 844 career rushing yards. He needs 156 to become the 39th player in school history to reach 1,000.
- Sophomore RB Chris Rodriguez Jr. has 833 career rushing yards. He needs 167 to become the 39th player in school history to reach 1,000.
- Duffy is the school's all-time leading punter at 46.50 yards per kick. He bombed a career-long 75-yard punt in the opener at Auburn. It is the third-longest in school history behind Paul Calhoun's 80-yarder vs. Indiana in 1983 and Randy Jenkins' 78-yarder vs. Tennessee in 1983.
- Once again, Kentucky ranks amongst the nation's best in net punting with a 44.33 average, ranking seventh in the country.
- The Wildcats finished in the top 25 of total defense in 2018 and 2019. UK ranked 23rd in 2018 (337.9) and is 21st in 2019 (324.6) in yards allowed per game. The mark was the lowest since 1989 (320.3).
- Since 2016, UK is 13-7 in games decided by seven points or less.
- Kentucky won 32 games from 2016-19, the most in a four-season span since 1950-53, when Paul "Bear" Bryant was coach of the Cats.
- During Stoops' tenure the Wildcats have had eight different starting quarterbacks win a game.
- Coach Mark Stoops is in his eighth season in Lexington. He is 46-46 overall.
- Stoops has 46 wins during his tenure, the third-most in school history. Stoops also has 33 home wins at Kentucky, tied with Bear Bryant for the most in school history.
- The Wildcats signed the No. 20 recruiting class in the nation for 2020, featuring one 5-star recruit and eight 4-star recruits. It marked the fifth consecutive season the program has landed a top 30 class.

SERIES VS. MISSOURI

- Kentucky leads the all-time series 7-3, including 3-2 in Columbia.
- The SEC East rivals have met every year since 2012 with Mizzou winning the first three meetings and UK the past five.
- Two of the past three games came down to the closing minutes even final play, with UK hanging on to a 40-34 win in 2017 and 15-14 in 2018 on one final untimed down.
- Last season, Kentucky defeated Missouri in the rain, producing a 29-7 victory at Kroger Field.
- The game was played in a steady rain from start to finish, marking the second consecutive week the Cats played in the rian from start to finish.
- Biggest UK win: 22 (29-7) in 2019 in Lexington.
- Biggest Mizzou win: 31 (48-17) in 2013 in Lexington.
- Games decided by eight points or less: UK leads 5-0.
- UK's last trip to Columbia was an instant classic, as Terry Wilson connected with C.J. Conrad for a touchdown on the final play of the game to give the Cats the victory.
- UK trailed 14-3 with under six minutes remaining when the comeback started with Lynn Bowden Jr. returning a punt 67 yards for a score to cut the deficit to 14-9.
- The Cats got the ball back on their own 19-yard line with 1:24 remaining and quickly made their way down the field. With four seconds left, Wilson lofted a pass to the back corner of the end zone where Ahmad Wagner caught it but couldn't stay in bounds. However, Missouri was flagged for pass interference, setting up the final untimed down.
- UK coach Mark Stoops is 5-2 vs. Missouri during his tenure.

KENTUCKY-MISSOURI CONNECTIONS

- Former UK kicker Grant McKinniss (2016-19) is a graduate transfer at Missouri. He graduated from UK in May of 2020 with a degree in psychology and is currently working on a master's degree in sport and exercise psychology at Mizzou.
- UK offensive coordinator Eddie Gran spent a season at Southeast Missouri State in 1989, his third year of coaching.

LAST TIME OUT

- Kentucky shellacked Tennessee, 34-7, ending a 36-year victory drought in Knoxville dating to the 1984 season.
- It was the first win in Knoxville over a ranked Tennessee team in school history and the largest margin of victory (27) there since a 56-0 win in 1893, the first game of the 116-game series.
- A week after the Wildcats held an opponent without a touchdown or field goal in 11 years and the first time since 1996 they did not yield a TD or field goal to an SEC opponent (25-0 win vs. Vanderbilt), the Cats allowed just seven points to the Vols. The nine combined points allowed the past two weeks are the fewest in back-to-back weeks vs. SEC teams since 1976 (also nine).
- It was the largest margin of victory on the road vs. an Associated Press-ranked team in school history.
- UK got interceptions on three consecutive possessions in the second quarter, returning the first two for touchdowns.
- It was the first time that UK had defensive touchdowns in consecutive games since 2015, when Mike Edwards (vs. Charlotte) and Josh Forrest (vs. Louisville) had interception touchdowns.
- It was the first time that UK had two defensive touchdowns in the same game since 2014 vs. Louisiana-Monroe, when Josh Forrest and Marcus McWilson had interception touchdowns.
- Kentucky has nine interceptions in two games, most in a two-game stretch since 1993 vs. Kent State (two) and Florida (seven).
- Kentucky played a dominant second half, winning 17-0. The UK defense allowed only 84 yards in the second half, 65 of which did not come until Tennessee's final possession.
- QB Terry Wilson completed 12-of-15 passes for 101 yards and a score while adding 32 rushing yards as he became only the second quarterback in UK history to win at both Florida and Tennessee in their career (Derrick Ramsey).
- RB Chris Rodriguez led the Wildcats on the ground with 13 carries for 73 yards, including a twoyard touchdown run that closed the scoring.
- DB Kelvin Joseph got the scoring started by jumping a route and returning an interception 41 yards for a score. He has an INT in back-to-back games.
- LB Jamin Davis followed with an 85-yard INT return for a score on the next possession, the eighth-longest in school history. It was UK's longest interception return vs. an SEC opponent since Darryl Bishop had a 97-yard runback in 1972. Davis added a career-best 12 tackles just one week after tallying 11 tackles.
- UK offensive line coach John Schlarman, who is battling stage four cancer, was given the game ball by coach Mark Stoops afterwards.

A UK WIN WOULD...

- Extend UK's winning streak over Missouri to six games.
- Be the Cats' third consecutive win in Columbia.
- Improve the Cats to 4-2 all-time vs. Missouri in the Show Me State.
- Be the first time UK has won consecutive SEC road games since 2009. The Cats won three straight road games that season (at Auburn, Vanderbilt and Georgia).
- Give Stoops 47 career victories, tying Fran Curci (1973-81) for second on the school's all-time list.
- Improve Terry Wilson to 15-5 as UK's starting quarterback.

SIMPLY STOOPS-ENDOUS

- UK coach Mark Stoops has proven to be an excellent hire, turning around a struggling program and putting it within reach of a fifth consecutive bowl appearance this season. He also has erased a number of the long-standing hurdles and streaks that have plagued the program's history.
- The accomplishments include, but aren't limited to:
  - First New Year's Day bowl win since 1951 (2018)
  - First 10-win season since 1977 (2018)
  - First winning SEC record since 1977 (2018)
  - First SEC Coach of the Year since 1983 (2018)
  - First ranking in the final AP Poll since 1984 (2018)
  - First bowl win since 2008 (2018)
  - First win at Florida since 1979 (2018)
  - First win at Tennessee since 1984 (2020)
  - Ended 31-game losing streak to Florida (2018)
- · Stoops has 46 career victories at Kentucky, ranking him third on the school's all-time list. He needs one more win to tie Fran Curci (1973-1981) at No. 2.

DAUNTING SCHEDULE

- With the Covid-19 pandemic creating a 10-game Southeastern Conference-only schedule this season, Kentucky will face one of the most difficult slate of games in its history.
- Of the 10 games, nine feature an opponent that was either ranked or receiving votes in one of the two major polls (AP, Coaches) when play started on Sept. 26.
- UK will face four teams ranked in the AP Top 10 as the season opened: No. 2 Alabama, No. 4 Georgia, No. 5 Florida and No. 8 Auburn. Three of those games are on the road.
- When the schedule was adjusted to conference-only games the Cats added contests against No. 8 Auburn and Ole Miss, in its first season under coach Lane Kiffin.

KENTUCKY TO HONOR CHRIS OATS BY ROTATING NO. 22

- Kentucky football has been honoring junior linebacker Chris Oats this season, who has been battling a serious medical condition since May, when a different player is chosen each week of the season to wear Oats' No. 22. Fellow linebacker DeAndre Square was the first to wear No. 22 in the season opener vs. Auburn, while Oats' roommate Keaton Upshaw took the honor in UK's first home game on Oct. 3 vs. Ole Miss.
- LB Jamin Davis wore No. 22 vs. Mississippi State. While wearing the jersey he intercepted a pass in the end zone on the final play of the first half to secure UK's 14-0 lead at the break. He also recorded his first double-digit tackle game.
- LB Boogie Watson pulled on the No. 22 last weekend vs. Tennessee.
- LB Jordan Wright will wear No. 22 at Missouri.
- The team is wearing #22OATSSTRONG wristbands to show their support and they conclude each team practice with "22!" Members of the team have also created a website www.22OATSSTRONG.COM with a GoFundMe page to help the family with medical bills.

OFFENSE

- "Balance" has been the hallmark of the Kentucky offense under Eddie Gran, UK assistant head coach for offense. The Wildcats have totaled more than 2,000 rushing yards and 2,000 passing yards in three of the four seasons that Gran has been here. Prior to Gran's arrival, this had been accomplished in only two seasons total in school history. The Cats just narrowly missed 2,000 passing yards in 2019, despite a receiver-turned-quarterback, Lynn Bowden Jr., taking over the starting QB spot in the final eight games of the season.
- Nine offensive starters return in 2020, including quarterback Terry Wilson (2018 starter) who sat out most of last season with a knee injury. Also returning are running back A.J. Rose, wide receiver Josh Ali, tight end Justin Rigg, along with four members of the "Big Blue Wall" in LT Landon

Young, RG Luke Fortner, C Drake Jackson and RT Darian Kinnard.

- The Cats have averaged at least 25.5 points per game from 2016-19, the first time in school history that UK has done it four years in a row.
- In the first four years of the Gran era (2016-19), UK has rushed for 11,362 yards, most in a fouryear period in school history.
- UK has had a 1,000-yard rusher in four straight seasons (Boom Williams, Benny Snell Jr., Lynn Bowden Jr.); prior to this, UK had never had 1,000-yard rushers in back-to-back seasons, let alone four straight seasons.
- Despite having starting quarterbacks who had never played in a major-college game in 2016 (Stephen Johnson) and 2018 (Terry Wilson) and a receiver-turned-quarterback in 2019 (Lynn Bowden Jr.), UK won 32 games from 2016-19 and advanced to four straight bowl games.
- Kentucky currently ranks 17th nationally and leads the SEC in rushing offense (206.0).

Quarterbacks

- · Gone is the receiver-turned-quarterback, Lynn Bowden Jr., who led the Wildcats for the final eight games of the 2019 season before declaring for the NFL draft, but returning is senior Terry Wilson, who won the starting QB job at the start of the 2018 season and led the Wildcats to their first 10-win season since 1977. He began the 2019 season right where he left off as the starting QB in the first two games, before suffering a torn patellar tendon in his right knee in the third quarter vs. Eastern Michigan.
- Wilson returned to game action this season and has completed 64.4 percent of his passes for 574 yards and three touchdowns. He is averaging 63.2 rushing yards per game and has three TDs.
- Nicknamed "Terry Touchdown" in high school, the signal caller has completed 66.1 percent of his career passes for 2,813 yards and 16 touchdowns. He's also a dangerous runner as he has compiled 844 net rushing yards and eight TDs. UK has a 14-5 record in his 19 starting assignments.
- Wilson, who redshirted as a freshman at Oregon (2016), threw for 2,133 yards and 26 touchdowns in one junior college season (2017).
- Wilson proved he is back from his injury in a blistering performance vs. Ole Miss where he became the third Kentucky quarterback in school history to have at least 150 passing yards and 125 rushing yards in the same game (Pookie Jones vs. Kent State, Sept. 4, 1993; Shane Boyd vs. Indiana, Sept. 18, 2004).

BEST CAREER COMPLETION PERCENTAGE, SCHOOL HISTORY (MIN. 200 COMP.)

- 1) 67.1, Tim Couch
- 2) 66.1, Terry Wilson
- 3) 65.3, Dusty Bonner
- 4) 61.9, Andre Woodson
- 5) 61.2, Mike Hartline

MOST CAREER RUSHING YARDS BY A QUARTERBACK, SCHOOL HISTORY (MIN. 2,500 PASSING YARDS)

- 1) 854. Pookie Jones
- 2) 844, Terry Wilson
- Along with Wilson, quarterbacks coach Darin Hinshaw has a deep stable of quarterbacks to work with, including senior Sawyer Smith, freshman and mid-year enrollee Beau Allen, and Auburn transfer Joey Gatewood.
- After Wilson's injury in 2019, Smith saw action in eight games last season with three starting assignments. He completed 57 of 125 passes for 690 yards and four touchdowns.
- As a redshirt freshman at Auburn last season, Gatewood totaled 176 rushing yards on 32 carries with three touchdowns, and completed 5 of 8 passes for 54 yards and two touchdowns in eight games. He has been granted an eligibility waiver that allows him to play this season and he has seen action in the last two games.
- · During Stoops' tenure, the Wildcats have had eight different starting quarterbacks win a game in Jalen Whitlow, Maxwell Smith, Patrick Towles, Drew Barker, Stephen Johnson, Luke Wright, Terry Wilson, and Lynn Bowden Jr.

2020 TEAM CAPTAINS

Ten players were voted team captains by their peers last week. They are Josh Ali, Quinton Bohanna, Yusuf Corker, Max Duffy, Drake Jackson, Josh Paschal, DeAndre Square, Boogie Watson, Terry Wilson and Landon Young. One captain will represent the team each game and will be decided on a weekby-week basis. They are listed below.

WILSON NAMED TO JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM WATCH LIST

Quarterback Terry Wilson has been named to the 2020 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Watch List honoring the top quarterback in the nation.

The senior is returning to the field after missing most of the 2019 season due to a knee injury, although he had exploded out of the gates before he went down. In two games he completed 63.5 percent of his passes for 360 yards and two scores with another 44 rushing yards and a score.

Wilson's value to the Wildcats runs deeper than raw numbers, as he is 14-5 as a starter, and entered the season with the best record for any UK quarterback in his first 15 starts with starting lineups available since 1993. In 2018, he started all 13 games and led UK to its first 10-win season since 1977, including a VRBO Citrus Bowl victory. With the Cats' first win at Tennessee since 1984 this season WIlson joined Derrick Ramsey as the only two quarterbacks in school history to win at both Florida and Tennessee in their career.

The namesake of the Golden Arm Award has a storied history. Johnny Unitas was an 18-year veteran of the NFL, who played his collegiate career at the University of Louisville before joining the Baltimore Colts in 1958. His NFL career passing figures include 2,830 pass completions for 40,239 yards, 290 touchdowns and throwing a touchdown pass in 47 consecutive games.

This award is presented annually to the top senior and upperclassman quarterback set to graduate with their class by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Educational Foundation and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Selection Committee. Candidates are chosen based on player performance on and off the field.

Running Backs

- Gran's running-back room goes six deep and features a three-headed monster from last season in senior A.J. Rose and sophomores Chris Rodriguez Jr. and Kavosiey Smoke.
- Rose was the team's second-leading rusher behind Bowden in 2019 with 826 yards and six scores. He became the 37th player in school history to reach 1,000 career rushing yards and his total of 1,497 moves him to 22nd on UK's all-time list. Rose also ranks fourth on UK's career yards per attempt list at 5.44 rushing yards per carry, behind only Bowden, Boom Williams and Randall Cobb.
- Rodriguez saw action in all 13 games last season and totaled 71 carries for 533 yards and six scores. He averaged 7.5 yards per carry (second on the team behind Bowden's school record 7.9 ypc).
- Rodriguez rushed for a career-best 133 yards and two scores vs. Ole Miss on Oct. 3, 2020 and now is bearing down on 1,000 career yards (833).
- Smoke was UK's third-leading rusher in '19 with 616 yards on 101 attempts and six scores, averaged 6.1 yards per attempt. He ranked in the top 10 among SEC freshman leaders in the following categories: fifth in rushing (47.5 per game), ninth in all-purpose yards (50.7) and 10th in total offense (47.5) and scoring (2.8). He has not seen action in the last two games with a rib injury.
- True freshman JuTahn McClain has been earning high praise from the coaching staff this season. McClain has seen action in all four games and has eight carries for 40 yards.
- In 2019, UK set single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing touchdowns (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32).
- Kentucky has rushed for at least 400 yards in four of its past eight games and currently lead the

Landon Young

SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week (Tennessee game)
* Second-Team Preseason All-SEC (Coaches,

Pro Football Focus, Phil Steele)

SEC and rank 17th nationally in rushing offense (206.0).

PART OF THE GRAN-D DESIGN

- Since taking over the Kentucky running game upon his arrival in 2016, Eddie Gran has fashioned the Cats into one of the more physical and prolific rushing attacks not only in the SEC, but in the country.
- The work culminated in 2019 with 278.8 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth nationally. The Cats currently rank ninth nationally with 212.3 yards per game.
- The Cats averaged 234.2 rushing yards per game in 2016, Gran's first in Lexington, 161.7 yards per game in 2017, 199.4 in 2018 and 278.8 in 2019. Those numbers are significant in that only twice in the previous 20 seasons had a UK offense rushed for more than 162 yards per game (2015 and 2009) and not for more than 200 per game since 1993 (210.5).
- Gran has mentored the likes of Benny Snell Jr. and Stanley "Boom" Williams at Kentucky, Chris Thompson, Devonta Freeman and James Wilder Jr. (Florida State), Montario Hardesty (Tennessee), Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Kenny Irons and Rudi Johnson (Auburn) and Deuce McAllister (Ole Miss). During his 26 seasons as a running backs coach he's spent 20 of those against top-shelf competition in the SEC and Atlantic Coast Conference, making the numbers even more impressive.
- Some of the more compelling stats from Gran's 26 seasons at Ole Miss (1995-98), Auburn (1999-2008), Tennessee (2009), Florida State (2010-12), Cincinnati (2013-15) and Kentucky:
  - > 20 seasons averaging at least 150.0 rushing yards per game
  - > 13 seasons averaging at least 172.0 rushing yards per game
  - > 13 individual 1,000-yard rushers
  - > Nine seasons with a RB who scored at least 10 rushing TDs
  - > Five seasons averaging at least 200.0 rushing yards per game
  - > Only once has his running attack averaged less than 100.0 ypg
  - > Only twice has his running attack averaged less than 125.0 ypg
- In 2019, the Cats had four players Lynn Bowden Jr., A.J. Rose, Chris Rodriguez Jr. and Kavosiey Smoke all rush for at least 500 yards and five touchdowns.

Wide Receivers

- First-year wide receivers coach Jovon Bouknight, who was added on the coaching staff in March after one season at Oregon, has a mix of experience and young talent at his disposal this season.
- The top returning pass catcher, Josh Ali, is back for his senior season after 23 catches for 233 yards and a team-high three receiving touchdowns last year. Perhaps two of the biggest plays in his career came in the Belk Bowl on UK's final drive of 2019. He made a diving grab of a low pass on fourth down to extend the drive and then hauled in the game-winning 13-yard strike from Bowden with 15 seconds remaining.
- Ali made a strong start to the 2020 season with nine catches for 98 yards, both career highs, at Auburn. He followed that up with seven catches for 88 yards vs. Ole Miss. He leads the receiving corps with 22 catches for 246 yards. His 5.5 pass receptions per game rank 12th in the SEC.
- Redshirt freshman DeMarcus Harris is second on the team in receptions with seven for 39 yards, while redshirt freshman Allen Dailey Jr. is third with six for 68 yards. Dailey caught a one-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter vs. Tennessee, his first TD of the season and second of his career.

TREVATHAN ELECTED TO UK ATHLETICS HOF

The UK Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2020 was announced in May with Chanda Bell (softball), Sawyer Carroll (baseball), Ron Mercer (men's basketball), AJ Reed (baseball), Danny Trevathan (football) and Wayne Turner (men's basketball) chosen for induction.

The honorees will be inducted during a Hall of Fame Weekend at a date to be determined.

Danny Trevathan, Football (2008-11)

Two-year All-America linebacker ... First All-America linebacker in school history ... Chosen National Linebacker of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards after monster senior season in which he totaled 143 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss, four interceptions, five caused fumbles and five pass breakups ... Led the SEC in tackles as a junior and senior, earning first-team All-SEC honors both years ... First-team All-America as a junior with 144 stops ... Selected in the NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos ... Led Denver in tackles two years, with the team advancing to the Super Bowl in both of those seasons, including one Super Bowl championship ... Eight-year veteran with Denver and the Chicago Bears.

• Sophomore Akeem Hayes has four catches on the season for 54 yards and a score. He made two catches vs. Auburn, including an eight-yard grab that is his first collegiate touchdown.

Tight Ends

- Tight ends coach Vince Marrow has one of the most experienced position groups with four returning players in Brenden Bates, Nik Ognenovic, Justin Rigg and Keaton Upshaw.
- Rigg had at least one catch in six games last season, totaling 11 catches for 128 yards, while Upshaw had seven catches for 78 yards and one TD. Rigg has five catches for 43 yards so far this season.
- Upshaw has four catches for 39 yards and score this season. He caught a 12-yard touchdown vs. Mississippi State, his second career score.
- Bates made his first career catch in the Mississippi State game, hauling in a 14-yard pass.
- The tight ends were key blockers for UK's explosive running game which led the SEC and ranked fourth nationally with 278.8 rushing yards per game.

Offensive Line

• Offensive line coach John Schlarman can be described in one word - tough. A 2018 and 2019 Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award nominee, he was diagnosed with cholangiocarcinoma in the summer of 2018. Despite his health issues, he has coached through countless cancer treatments and has not missed a game.

- Schlarman was a four-year starter with the Wildcats from 1994-97, earning first-team All-SEC honors as a senior. He is entering his eighth season at UK, and along with Vince Marrow, one of the two remaining coaches from Stoops' original staff in 2013.
- The O-line returns four of five starters from last season in RT Darian Kinnard, LT Landon Young, RG Luke Fortner and C Drake Jackson. The only loss is a big one in left guard and All-American Logan Stenberg who is currently playing for the Detroit Lions.
- Overall, the O-line has totaled 104 career starts.
- The "Big Blue Wall" has helped Kentucky post four consecutive seasons of 2,000 or more rushing yards, with at least one 1,000-yard individual each season.
- In 2019, the O-line gave up the third-fewest sacks allowed in the SEC with 1.31 per game and allowed Lynn Bowden Jr., to become the third straight Wildcat to total 1,000 rushing yards. The "Big Blue Wall" also helped UK set single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing TDs (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32).
- Senior Landon Young is back for his final season at left tackle after an impressive junior year that saw him total 64 knockdown blocks. He had only one missed assignment in 754 plays in 13 starts.
- Young was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week for his stellar play vs. Tennessee. He graded at 90 percent with 10 knockdown blocks as the Cats piled up 187 rushing yards, including 159 in the second half as they took control of the line of scrimmage with a bruising ground game. He also did not allow any sacks or quarterback pressures and did not miss an assignment or commit a penalty. He produced 22 blocks at the point of attack.
- The graduation of Stenberg freed up the left guard spot and sophomore Kenneth Horsey has stepped in that role. An interesting note about Horsey - he had open-heart surgery in April of
- Senior Drake Jackson has 37 consecutive starts under his belt at center. He earned first-team All-SEC accolades last year and is a preseason All-American and a Rimington Trophy candidate for
- The right guard spot is locked up by senior Luke Fortner, who started in all 13 games last season and totaled 27 knockdown blocks.
- Junior Darian Kinnard has been holding down the right tackle position since he entered the starting lineup at the end of the 2018 season. He had 32 knockdowns in 2019, and only one penalty in 706 snaps and has been rated by Pro Football Focus as the top returning offensive lineman in the country this season.

FORTNER NAMED TO ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM: SEMIFINALIST FOR 2020 WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

For the second straight season, Kentucky has a representative on the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team as senior offensive guard Luke Fortner has received the honor. Fortner is one of only 22 players named to the prestigious team made up of college football players who step up to help those in need. Last year, fellow "Big Blue Wall" member Landon Young was named to the team and was voted team captain in a fan vote.

Fortner has also been named a semifinalist for the 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy which recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.

Fortner, of Sylvania, Ohio, has been a standout on and off the field in his Wildcat career. In the classroom, he graduated in December of 2019 with a degree in mechanical engineering and is currently working on a master's degree in mechanical engineering. He is on track to graduate with his master's degree in December of 2020. He's a three-time member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll and has three times been named to the Dean's List.

Fortner put his degree to good use last fall when he, along with other UK engineering students, played a significant role in helping a team of Toyota Manufacturing engineers design, test and manufacture a specially-built push cart vehicle through a project called "Lift Them Up." The push cart vehicle provides a Kentucky Children's Hospital patient the chance to both accompany the Wildcats on the Cat Walk and attend a game at Kroger Field.

Because of his experience with project "Lift Them Up," Fortner was compelled to continue making an impact at the Kentucky Children's Hospital. He began visiting the kids in September of 2019 as part of the "Tuesdays with the Wildcats" program, created by former Wildcat C.J. Conrad in 2018.

When COVID19 hit, Fortner didn't want to stop interaction with the kids so, along with teammate Max Duffy, they asked what they could do. With the help of the Child Life team at the Kentucky Children's Hospital, they set up a program called "In the Huddle with KCH." For eight weeks, Fortner and Duffy taped a video of themselves answering questions from kids who submitted through the Kentucky Children's Hospital Facebook Page. The video was then posted back to the KCH Facebook page every Tuesday morning to replace what would have been their in-person visit.

This opportunity was open to all Wildcat fans, not just KCH patients. During a difficult time for our nation, Fortner and Duffy provided a fun time for young fans to forget about the virus for even a short time to share a smile.

In addition to "In the Huddle with KCH," Fortner and his teammates got creative in how they could continue their weekly visits with KCH patients. Each week, Fortner spends 1-1.5 hours on Zoom calls with patients who are currently "in-patient" at KCH. They discuss football, favorite hobbies, favorite color, etc. Patients are able to ask the players questions about anything and everything. Fortner and his teammates always offer up words of encouragement. Zoom calls are intimate because it's just one patient with Fortner and his teammates for about 7-10 minutes each so the focus is all on one patient at a time.

More of Fortner's community service projects:

- Volunteered with other engineering students at UK's 2020 "Engineers Day" to celebrate engineering and showcase the "Lift Them Up" cart
- Volunteer at Urban Impact at the Woodhill Community Center, an organization that strives to enable youth to grow, succeed and lead
- Volunteer reader at Athens-Chilesburg Elementary
- Volunteer for Read Across America at Fayette County public schools
- Volunteered with Habitat for Humanity On the field, Fortner has been an integral part of the "Big Blue Wall" during his career.

FOOTBALL HOF BALLOT

Former Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch has been named to the 2021 ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame announced today. Couch is one of 78 players and seven coaches from the Football Bowl Subdivision and 99 players and 33 coaches from the divisional ranks.

A storied name of the Kentucky program, Couch, was the team's quarterback from 1996-98. After giving up his senior season of eligibility, he was drafted as the No. 1 pick by Cleveland in the 1999 NFL Draft. In 1998, the junior quarterback was named a first-team All-American and consensus Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Couch completed 400 of 553 passes for 4,275 yards and 36 touchdowns and led the nation in pass completions while ranked second in completion percentage, passing yardage and touchdown passes, and fourth in total offense. After guiding the Wildcats to the Outback Bowl, UK's first New Year's Day bowl appearance in 47 years, Couch finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award as a junior and sophomore. His breakout sophomore campaign featured 363 of 547 passes completed for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns while leading the nation in pass attempts, completions, yardage, and completion percentage. Also during his sophomore year, Couch earned second-team All-SEC honors and finished ninth in Heisman voting. He played in seven games as a true freshman, with two starts. Career wise, Couch completed 795 passes on 1,184 attempts for 8,435 yards and 74 touchdowns. The legend ended his career with seven NCAA records, 14 SEC records, and 26 school records.

The announcement of the 2021 College Football Hall of Fame Class Presented by ETT will be made in early 2021, with specific details to be announced in the future.

The 2021 College Football Hall of Fame Class Presented by ETT will be officially inducted during the 64th NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 7, 2021, at the New York Hilton Midtown. They will also be honored at their respective schools with an NFF Hall of Fame On-Campus Salute, presented by Fidelity Investments, during the 2021 season.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Special teams coordinator Dean Hood left to become the head coach at Murray State University following the 2019 season and the special teams unit is being coached by committee this season.
- Australian transplant and 2019 Ray Guy Award winner Max Duffy is back for his final season and is the oldest player on the team at age 27. Duffy led the FBS in punting at 48.1 yards per kick in 2019. He also became the school's all-time leading punter at 46.28 yards per kick. With Duffy's punting and hustling coverage by the punt team, UK led the nation in 2019 with 44.6 net yards per punt.
- In the season opener at Auburn, Duffy bombed a career-long 75-yarder that is the third-longest in school history. He's averaging 47.8 yards per punt this season, third nationally and second in the SEC. He doesn't mind contact either as he has three career tackles.
- Senior Matt Ruffolo is the starting placekicker and is 2-3 FG and 13-of-14 PATs this season.
- Chance Poore handles kickoffs. He also has placekicking experience, as he made 5-of-9 FGs and 24-of-26 PATs last season.
- Sophomore Cade Degraw is the long snapper following the graduation of four-year starter Blake Best.
- Senior Zach Johnson is UK's kick returner, while Josh Ali handles punt returns. Ali has three returns for an 8.0 average. Johnson is averaging 24 yards per return this season.

DEFENSE

- Defensive coordinator in Brad White is in his second season as the defensive coordinator, his third season as the outside linebackers coach at UK.
- UK has allowed 30 or fewer points in 29 of the past 31 games.
- Kentucky currently ranks fourth in the SEC in rushing defense, allowing just 106.3 yards per game. The Cats are 3rd in passing defense with 235.0 ypg.
- UK ranks second in the SEC and 10th nationally in scoring defense (20.0).
- UK ranks 16th nationally in total defense (341.3) and 15th in rushing defense (106.3).
- UK is third nationally and leads the SEC in red zone defense (.600).
- In the victory over Mississippi State on Oct. 10, the Cats did not allow a touchdown or field goal for the first time since 2009 (a 42-0 shutout of Miami University). It marked the first time UK has held an SEC opponent without an TD or field goal since a 25-0 shutout of Vanderbilt in 1996.
- The performance against MSU helped LB Jordan Wright earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week, while punter Max Duffy was Special Teams Player of the Week.
- With six interceptions vs. Mississippi State, and three more against Tennessee, UK ranks second both in the SEC and nationally with nine this season (Arkansas, 10)
- It's the most total interceptions (nine) in consecutive games since also grabbing nine in 1993 vs. Kent State (2) and Florida (7). The six interceptions against MSU were the second-most in school history and most since grabbing seven vs. Florida in 1993.
- With three defensive touchdowns on the season, all in the past two games, UK is tied for the most in the country with Arkansas.
- It's the most total interceptions (nine) in consecutive games since also grabbing nine in 1993 vs. Kent State (2) and Florida (7).
- Nineteen letterwinners returned this season, including seven starters in DE Josh Paschal (OLB last season), NG Quinton Bohanna, SLB Jamar "Boogie" Watson, WLB DeAndre Square, DB Cedrick Dort Jr., DB Yusuf Corker, and DB Brandin Echols.

Linebackers

• The linebacking unit runs 20 deep and returns five letterwinners and two starters in senior outside linebacker Jamar "Boogie" Watson and junior Will linebacker DeAndre Square.

- The group corralled four of the Cats' six interceptions in a 24-2 win over Miss. State on Oct. 10, 2020. Jamin Davis, D'Eryk Jackson, Boogie Watson and Jordan Wright each grabbed one.
- Watson is having a huge senior season after totaling 36 tackles, a team-high 11.5 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks and a team-high seven quarterback hurries in 2019. He currently has three sacks this season and an interception vs. Mississippi State where he ripped the ball out of the receiver's hands just before he crossed the goal line for a score.
- Another junior outside linebacker the coaching staff has been impressed with is Jordan Wright, who sealed the Miss. State win with an eight-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also has a fumble return TD in his career.
- Redshirt freshman linebacker J.J. Weaver had six tackles, including two for loss, both career highs vs. Tennessee and continues to make a name for himself in his second season at UK.
- The inside linebackers are led by Square, who was UK's second-leading tackler last season with 69. He's also second this year with 29 stops.
- At the Mike linebacker spot, it's junior Jamin Davis who is turning heads. He is currently UK's leading tackler and against Tennessee he tallied a career-best 12 tackles to go along with an 85-yard interception return for a touchdown, the fourth pickoff of his career. A week earlier against Mississippi State, he had 11 tackles and intercepted a pass in the end zone on the final play of the first half.
- Also contributing quality snaps is junior Marquez Bembry, as well as redshirt freshman Jared Casey.

Defensive Line

- Anwar Stewart, first-year UK defensive line coach and former Wildcat, joined Stoops' staff in January after one season at Appalachian State. Stewart has a veteran defensive line this spring with eight returning letter winners, including two starters in nose guard Quinton Bohanna (18 tackles, 3.0 TFL, 1.0 sacks, 1 PBU) and Joshua Paschal (34 tackles, 9.3 TFL, 3.5 sacks, two FF, 1 PBU and 1 blocked kick).
- Helping make up for the loss of defensive tackle Calvin Taylor Jr., to graduation (starter in all 13 games last season with 9.5 TFL and a team-high 8.5 sacks) is senior Phil Hoskins, who received a sixth year to complete his eligibility after missing last season with a knee injury.
- Senior Kordell Looney has moved from end to tackle and is the backup at that position.
- Josh Paschal moved from outside linebacker to defensive end and is shining in his new role. Paschal has 13 tackles. 2.5 TFL and had a crucial INT vs. Mississippi State that he returned 76 yards to set up a 2-yard score on the next play.
- · Backing up Bohanna at nose guard, UK's starter the last two seasons, is junior Marquan McCall.

Secondary

- Coach Steve Clinkscale's position group returns eight lettermen, including three starters in cornerback Cedrick Dort Jr., senior free safety Yusuf Corker and senior cornerback Brandin Echols.
- Corker led the team in tackles last season with 76 and he is third this vear with 21 stops.
- UK led the SEC and ranked second nationally in passing yards allowed (167.8 yards per game) in 2019 behind Ohio State.
- Last season, the Cats allowed only nine touchdown passes, tied with Clemson and Ohio State for the fewest in the nation.

MID-YEAR ENROLLEES

• UK welcomed 12 mid-year enrollees to the program in January 2020. Eleven Wildcats (Beau Allen, Sam Anaele, Kalil Branham, Deondre Buford, Joey Gatewood, D'Eryk Jackson, Tyler Malin, JuTahn McClain, Octavious Oxendine, Andru Phillips, Joel Williams, and John Young ) are all high school standouts who graduated in December, while Gatewood is a sophomore transfer from Auburn.

COACHING CHANGES

- Defensive line coach, Anwar Stewart, was hired in January of 2020 to replace Derrick LeBlanc, who left for a similar position at Arkansas. Stewart is very familiar with the Kentucky football program after playing linebacker/defensive end at UK from 1996-99 under head coaches Bill Curry and Hal Mumme and having served as a student assistant and defensive assistant under Stoops from 2017-18. He helped UK advance to two bowl games as an student assistant and was an integral part of the Wildcats' 10-3 season in 2018 as he assisted with the development and success of Josh Allen - winner of three National Defensive Player of the Year Awards (Nagurski, Lott, Bednarik), unanimous first-team All-America and SEC Defensive Player of the Year.
- Wide receivers coach, Jovon Bouknight, came on board Stoops' coaching staff in March of 2020. Bouknight replaces Michael Smith, who resigned following the 2019 season. Bouknight arrived in the Bluegrass after coaching receivers for one season at Oregon. Prior to Oregon, he spent three months at Texas Tech before taking the same position with the Ducks. The majority of Bouknight's career was spent at Utah State, where he coached for 10 years primarily focusing on working with the wide receivers. He was also the co-offensive coordinator in 2016 and the passing game coordinator for two seasons from 2014-15.

KENTUCKY'S YOUNGSTOWN BOYS

A neighbor of Pittsburgh, a.k.a. Steel City USA, Youngstown, Ohio has a reputation as a blue collar community defined by hard work and relationships forged over generations that are stronger than steel. Kentucky's football program is, in many ways, defined by that bond as it creates a southern alumni club from Youngstown, the hometown of head coach Mark Stoops and several other key members of the program, including former All-American Lynn Bowden Jr. Below is a list of staffers and

#LAFAMILIA

Kentucky football has several set of sons playing for fathers who were former Wildcats or who are currently working for UK Football:

- Freshman Beau Allen is the son of former Wildcat Bill Allen (1985-88).
- Sophomore TE Brendan Bates is the grandson of former UK basketball player Gene Neff (1951-52).
- Junior WR Zac Berezowitz is the son of UK Football's chief of staff Dan Berezowitz.Identical twins Brayden and Bryan serve as a graduate assistant and student assistant in the football office, respectively.
- · Junior center Tyler Couch is the son former Cat, the late Joey Couch (1988-91).
- Redshirt freshman DB Moses Douglass is the son of former Wildcat Maurice Douglass (1984-85).
- Junior WR Darren Edmond is the son of UK Football's director of performance Corey Edmond.
- Freshman Dru Phillips is the son of former Wildcat Carlos Phillips (1986-90).
- We have brothers, too. Walk-on defensive ends Richard and Alex Brascom of Louisville, Ky., are fraternal twins.
- Transfers Rahsaan and Rayshad Lewis, both WR from Orlando, Florida, also are brothers.

players from Youngstown, Ohio:

Mark Stoops - Head Coach (Cardinal Mooney)

Vince Marrow - Recruiting Coord./Tight Ends (Cardinal Mooney)

Steve Clinkscale - Defensive Backs (Chaney)

Frank Buffano - Safeties (Cardinal Mooney)

Courtney Love - Dir. of Player Development (Cardinal Mooney)

DID YOU KNOW?

- · A picture of longevity, UK Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski is in his 43rd season in that role. He also was a student manager in 1974-77, giving him 47 years in UK football. He has worked more than 500 consecutive games.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 24 national cheerleading championships, including 20 of the last 25, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.
- UK is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.
- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.

KROGER FIELD

On game day, Kroger Field often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 309 games within the friendly confines of newly-named Kroger Field. UK has a 169-136-4 record (.554), 33-20 (.623) under Mark Stoops.
- UK set a new Kroger Field attendance record when 63,543 fans packed the stadium for the Nov. 3, 2018 game vs. No. 6 Georgia.
- Two of the top five crowds in Kroger Field history came in 2018.
- UK announced its first sellout since 2015 when 62,945 fans attended the Florida game on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 62,382 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance in 15 of the last 17 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years. (*Note: Does not include 2020 season due to Covid-19 protocols).
- The playing surface is named C.M. Newton Grounds at Kroger Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.
- Mark Stoops has a school-record 33 wins at Kroger Field/Commonwealth Stadium, surpassing Jerry Claiborne's mark of 32.
- Stoops is tied with Paul "Bear" Bryant for the most home wins in school history with 33.

KROGER FIELD

Commonwealth Stadium was renamed to Kroger Field in May of 2017. The agreement--which is between Kroger and JMI Sports, UK's multimedia rights partner-- begins at approximately $1.85 million annually with a term of up to 12 years. With the partnership, Kroger becomes the Official Fuel Partner of the University of Kentucky and the Official Grocery Partner of Move-In at UK while also providing additional engagement opportunities with UK students. Per the agreement, Kroger is also the Official Nutrition and Pharmacy Partner of UK

Kroger Field was transformed into a state-ofthe-art facility after a $126-million reinvention which was completed prior to the 2015 season. The project was handled by HNTB. The outside of the stadium underwent a dramatic external facelift, receiving a modern look, but one that remained uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Kroger Field was reduced over the course of the two-year project to approximately 61,000, but the value of all remaining seats were increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses were revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reaped the benefits of the new Kroger Field as well, as hometeam facilities were built, and a multi-purpose recruiting room hosts future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Seating Capacity: 61,000, including the Commonwealth Suites (Covid capacity is 12,000)

Playing Field: UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri. The end zones and team sideline areas feature a checkerboard pattern in alternating shades of blue. It was designed to mimic the pattern of Secretariat's silks, which has been part of the football uniforms for five seasons. The school's new interlocking "UK" logo is positioned in the center of the field.

2020 GAME REVIEWS

AUBURN 29, KENTUCKY 13

SEPT. 26. 2020 • AUBURN. ALA. JORDAN-HARE STADIUM (17.490)

Terry Wilson passed for 239 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 42 yards, but No. 23 Kentucky lost its season opener, falling at No. 8 Auburn 29-13.

Wilson was 24 of 37 through the air, connecting with Josh Ali nine times for 98 yards. Kavosiey Smoke led the UK ground attack with seven carries for 62 yards and a touchdown.

Auburn got a couple of first downs on its first possession before being forced to punt. Kentucky took over inside its own 10 yard line. The Cats drove into Auburn territory and, on a third and short, Smoke scampered 35 yards off the right side for the first touchdown of the season. Matt Ruffolo added the PAT and the Cats led 7-0 after an 11-play, 93-yard drive.

The Tigers responded with a scoring drive of their own. Auburn covered 70 yards in just seven plays, capped by a one-yard touchdown run by D.J. Williams. The Tigers faked the extra point and Grant Loy hit John Samuel Shenker with a pass for the two-point conversion, giving Auburn an 8-7 lead with 4:30 to play in the first quarter. That would be the score after the first period.

As the second quarter got underway, Kentucky faced a fourth and three from the Auburn 39, but Wilson's pass intended for Clevan Thomas Jr. was broken up and Auburn took possession.

Auburn promptly drove into Kentucky territory and eventually faced a fourth and one from the UK 16. The Tigers handed the ball to Williams, who was stuffed by UK linebacker DeAndre Square, giving the ball back to the Cats on the UK 16.

Kentucky was able to drive into Auburn territory, but a holding penalty hampered the Cats' progress and UK was forced to punt.

After an Auburn punt, Kentucky again drove into Auburn territory, aided by a 40-yard completion from Wilson to Allen Dailey Jr., setting up the Cats at the Auburn 12. The Cats drove inside the Auburn one, and Chris Rodriguez Jr. appeared to score, but replay indicated that he did not get in. On second and goal from the one, Wilson was stuffed, giving UK third and one from the one. That's when Wilson threw an interception that was returned 100 yards by Roger McCreary for a touchdown. However, after review, Auburn was called for targeting, negating the score. Auburn took an 8-7 lead into the half.

In the second half, Kentucky opened with a three-and-out. After a UK punt, Auburn took over and immediately marched into UK territory. However, the UK defense stood tall, forcing the Tigers to go for it on fourth and eight. Quarterback Bo Nix pooch punted the ball to the UK two yard line.

The Cats could do nothing with the possession but Max Duffy boomed a 75-yard punt, the third-longest in school history, giving the Tigers the ball on their own 24. From there Auburn drove into UK territory and into the red zone. Nix connected with Seth Williams on an 11-yard touchdown pass and Anders Carlson added the PAT to give Auburn a 15-7 lead with 5:42 to play in the third quarter.

Kentucky responded with a drive of its own, methodically marching into Auburn territory. The Cats would get into the red zone and Wilson connected with Akeem Hayes for an eight-yard touchdown, the first of Hayes' career, to make it 15-13 with 1:00 left in the third. The Cats would go for two, but Wilson could not find anyone open and the try failed.

Auburn added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns on passing touchdowns by Nix to Seth Williams and Eli Stove to lead 29-13.

OCT. 3. 2020 • LEXINGTON, KY KROGER FIELD (12,000)

Kentucky rushed for 408 yards and six touchdowns, but the Wildcats fell to Ole Miss 42-41 in overtime.

Kentucky got career-high rushing efforts from Chris Rodriguez Jr., who had 133 yards and two touchdowns, Terry Wilson, who had 129 yards and three touchdowns, and Asim Rose, who had 117 yards on the ground and a touchdown.

Wilson was also 14-of-18 through the air for 151 yards in the game.

Ole Miss took the opening kickoff and methodically marched down the field. The Rebels covered 75 yards in eight plays and just 2:22, ending with a one-yard touchdown rush by Jerrion Ealy. The PAT from Luke Logan was good and the Rebels grabbed an early 7-0 lead.

Kentucky's opening possession started with a 72-yard rush from Rose, taking the ball to the Ole Miss three yard line. Rose carried on the next play, getting the Cats to the one. But on the third UK play, out of the Wildcat formation, Rose fumbled and Ole Miss took over at its own one yard line.

The Rebels were unable to do anything with the ensuing possession and were forced to punt. Josh Ali returned the punt 17 yards to the Ole Miss 29, giving the Cats outstanding field position with which to start their second possession. From there, the Cats needed only four plays and 1:54 to get into the end zone, with quarterback Terry Wilson rushing it in from four yards out. Matt Ruffolo added the PAT to tie the game at 7-7 with 7:36 left in the first period.

On its next possession, Ole Miss made it to midfield, but was forced to punt after a sack from Marquan McCall and J.J. Weaver on third down. Kentucky would take over at its own 20 with 5:58 left in the first.

The Cats again moved right down the field, quickly getting inside the red zone. On third and goal from the two, Rose pushed his way into the end zone, giving UK its first lead of the game. Ruffolo's PAT was good and the Cats led 14-7 with 1:33 left in the first. That would be the score after 15 minutes of play.

As the second quarter began, Ole Miss was driving. The Rebels would tie the game on a 14-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matt Corral to Kenny Yeboah. Logan's PAT tied the game at 14-14 with 13:19 left in the half.

The next four possessions would end in punts, two by each team. But just before the half, Kentucky mounted a drive that would cover 83 yards in nine plays, ending with a 22-yard touchdown run from Wilson. Ruffolo added the PAT, giving Kentucky a 21-14 lead with 29 seconds left in the half. That would be he halftime score.

Kentucky got the ball first in the second half, and the Wildcats used the ground game to effectively drive the ball down the field. UK covered 75 yards in 10 plays, all on the ground, ending with a 22-yard touchdown run from Chris Rodriguez Jr. Ruffolo's PAT gave the Cats a 28-14 lead with 10:41 left in the third quarter.

Ole Miss had a response, quickly assembling a scoring drive of its own. The Rebels needed just four plays to go 75 yards, ending with a 24-yard pass from Corral to Jonathan Mingo. Logan's extra point was good, and Ole Miss climbed within seven, 28-21, with 9:17 still to play in the third quarter.

On its next drive, Kentucky drove into Ole Miss territory, again riding the run game. But Ole Miss would stop the Cats, forcing a field goal. But Ruffolo's try from 49 yards hit the right upright and bounced back onto the field.

The Rebels would take possession and would promptly drive into UK territory. The Rebels would go 68 yards to the UK one-yard line, but the UK defense, led by Kelvin Joseph and Josh Paschal, came up with a stop on fourth-and-goal, keeping the Rebels from scoring.

Pinned at its own goal line, Kentucky was unable to do much with the ensuing possession and was forced to punt. Ole Miss took over and had the ball as the third quarter ended with UK leading 28-21.

But on that same drive, Ole Miss would tie the score, as Corral hit Mingo with a 16-yard touchdown pass. Logan's PAT tied the score at 28 apiece with 13:37 to play in the game.

Kentucky took over and was able to get into Ole Miss territory. However, the Cats suffered yardage losses on third and fourth down and Ole Miss got the ball back at its own 47. The Rebels got a 47-yard completion from Corral to Yeboah on first down, then a pass interference call against UK gave the Rebels possession at the two-yard line. Two plays later, Connor scored from one yard out as Ole Miss took its first lead since the first quarter, a 35-28 advantage with 8:23 to play.

Just as Ole Miss kept doing, Kentucky responded. The Cats rode the arm of Wilson, who had 66 yards passing during a 75-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown carry from Rodriguez. Ruffolo nailed the extra point and the game was tied 35-35 with 2:04 to play.

Kentucky forced at Ole Miss punt on the next possession, and the Cats ran out the clock and the game went to overtime.

The Cats got the ball first in overtime and needed just four plays, all on the ground, to score. Wilson covered the final 10 yards, rushing for his third touchdown of the game. But Ruffolo missed the PAT and the Cats led 41-35.

Ole Miss quickly drove inside the UK 10, aided by a pass interference call in the end zone. The Rebels had first and goal from the two, and on second down, Corral hit Elijah Moore with a three-yard TD pass. Logan made the PAT and Ole Miss claimed the win.

OCT. 10, 2020 • LEXINGTON, KY KROGER FIELD (12,000)

Kentucky defense forced six turnovers and held Mississippi State to just two points as the Cats won for the first time this season by beating the Bulldogs 24-2 on at Kroger Field.

In the process, Kentucky held the Mike Leach-coached Bulldogs to the fewest points that any Leach-coached team has ever scored. Previously, Leach-coached teams, which feature the Air Raid offense that Hal Mumme used at Kentucky, had never been held below three points.

Offensively, Kentucky could never get much going.

Quarterback Terry Wilson hit on only eight of 20 passes for 73 yards and a touchdown. Wilson also led the Cats in rushing, carrying 13 times for 50 yards. Kentucky had just 157 yards of offense in the game compared to Mississippi State's 296. But the six turnovers were the difference.

The teams exchanged punts twice to open the game. Neither team was able to get anything going in the first period, as UK had just 53 yards of total offense, while MSU was held to 48. That resulted in a scoreless tie after 15 minutes of action.

Early in the second quarter, MSU had a chance to get on the board, but a 56-yard field goal attempt by Brandon Ruiz came up short and the game remained scoreless.

On the ensuing possession, Kentucky appeared to be going nowhere until Wilson scrambled for a 51-yard run, getting the case to the MSU 14. Two plays later, Wilson hit Keaton Upshaw over the middle for a 12-yard touchdown pass, breaking the scoring drought. Matt Ruffolo made the PAT and the Cats grabbed a 7-0 lead with 12:13 left in the first half.

Later in the second quarter, MSU drove into the UK red zone before Josh Paschal intercepted a KJ Costello pass and returned it 76 yards to the MSU two yard line. From there, Kentucky needed just one play, a two-yard touchdown rush from Chris Rodriguez Jr. to extend the lead. After Ruffolo's PAT, the Cats had a 14-0 lead with 3:48 left in the half.

MSU drove deep into Kentucky territory near the end of the first half. On the final play of the half, Costello threw into the end zone and was picked off by UK's Jamin Davis. That ended the half with the Cats leading 14-0.

In the second half, MSU went for a fourth-and-inches from their own 34 yard line. But Costello's pass intended for Cameron Gardner was incomplete and Kentucky took over in excellent field position. But the Cats' AJ Rose fumbled on the second play of the possession, giving the ball right back to the Bulldogs.

But the Bulldogs gave it right back to the Cats. On the fourth play of the ensuing drive, Costello was intercepted by UK's Kelvin Joseph at the UK 30 with 10:37 left in the third quarter. But the Cats would do nothing with the possession and were forced to pure MSU would finally get on the board when, on a fourth down, Kentucky snapped the ball over Max Duffy's head on a punt attempt. Duffy scrambled to kick the ball out the back of the end zone, resulting in a safety and making it 14-2 with 5:49 left in the third quarter.

The third quarter would end with MSU driving into UK territory. But the Cats led 14-2 with 15 minutes to play.

As the fourth quarter started, reserve quarterback Will Rogers was intercepted by Jamar "Boogie" Watson in the end zone, thwarting another MSU scoring opportunity.

Another interception was the final straw as UK's Jordan Wright picked off Rogers and returned it eight yards for a touchdown the put the Cats ahead 21-2.

KENTUCKY 34, #17 TENNESSEE 7

OCT. 17. 2020 • KNOXVILLE, TENN. NEYLAND STADIUM (22,519)

Kentucky returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the first half and the UK defense held No. 18 Tennessee in check the entire game as the Cats broke a 17-game losing streak in Knoxville by beating the Vols 34-7 at Neyland Stadium.

Kelvin Joseph got the scoring underway with a pick-six in the second quarter and Jamin Davis did the same later in the guarter to give the Cats a 14-0 lead.

UK had only 294 yards of total offense in the game, but the Cats forced four UT turnovers and scored 17 points off those miscues.

Quarterback Terry Wilson was 12 of 15 through the air for 101 yards and a touchdown. Chris Rodriguez Jr. rushed for 73 yards and a score for the Cats.

The teams traded punts to start the game, then each team turned it over on their next possession. The first quarter would end with the game still scoreless.

Starting the second quarter, Kentucky punted again and Tennessee took possession. After getting a first down, Joseph intercepted UT quarterback Jarrett Guarantano and returned it 41 yards for a touchdown. It was Joseph's second interception in as many weeks. Matt Ruffolo added the extra point and Kentucky led 7-0 with 12:47 left in the half.

On the next UT possession, the Cats did it again. As Tennessee was driving, Guarantano was picked off again, this time by Davis, who grabbed a pass thrown across the middle and returned it 85 yards for UK's second defensive touchdown of the first half. Ruffalo's PAT gave the Cats a 14-0 lead with 10:33 to play in the first half.

Tennessee went to backup quarterback J.T. Shrout on its next possession, but the result was the same. This time, it was UK defensive back Tyrell Ajian interception a pass, giving the Cats possession at the UT 37.

The Cats took advantage of the fourth UT turnover of the first half when Ruffolo nailed a 30-yard field goal to give UK a 17-0 lead with 6:18 to play in the half.

Tennessee was able to get on the board late in the half, using 14 plays to cover 75 yards and ending with a four-yard touchdown rush from Ty Chandler. Brent Cimaglia added the PAT and the Vols pulled within 17-7 with 1:36 to play in the half. That would be the halftime score.

The Vols went three and out on their first possession of the second half. Kentucky took over and drove deep into Tennessee territory. And on third-and-goal from the one, Wilson hit Allen Dailey Jr. in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown to complete the 11-play, 76-yard drive. Ruffolo added the PAT and the Cats led 24-7 with 7:24 to play in the third quarter.

After another UT punt, Kentucky again drove into the UT red zone. But the Vols stopped the Cats inside the ten and UK was forced to settle for a 27-yard field goal from Ruffolo, which he converted to give the Cats a 27-7 lead with 1:02 left in the third.

Tennessee went three and out again on its next possession and the Cats turned to the ground game on the ensuing possession. Kentucky ran the ball on seven straight plays, the final one being a two-yard touchdown rush from Rodriguez. Ruffolo added another PAT and the Cats led 34-7 with 10:54 to play.

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS / EIGHTH SEASON / IOWA, 1989

When Mark Stoops was asked before last season how he could continue success after major personnel losses from the 2018 team, the coach replied, "We didn't come here to build a team. We came here to build a program."

It appears that Stoops is doing exactly that. Stoops followed the landmark '18 season with a remarkable 2019 campaign that represented Kentucky's fourth consecutive winning season and fourth straight postseason bid, topped by a dramatic win over Virginia Tech in the Belk Bowl. However, it didn't come easily.

Stoops had to overcome the departure of 14 starters from 2018, including three All-Americans, and by September three quarterbacks had been lost to injury. The coach relied on the conventional – physical play on both sides of the ball – and the unconventional, moving a wide receiver to quarterback, to navigate the challenging season.

With receiver Lynn Bowden Jr. manning the QB spot, UK went 6-2 down the stretch. UK closed the season with four straight wins, including a 45-13 regular-season finale vs. instate rival Louisville, featuring a school-record 517 rushing yards.

Bowden went on to earn first-team All-America honors and the Paul Hornung Award as the nation's most versatile player. Punter Max Duffy was first-team All-America as well being named the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter. Guard Logan Stenberg checked in as a second-team All-American, giving UK three All-Americans for the second year in a row.

Meanwhile, a young defensive unit continued to mature and became UK's first team in 40 years to hold every opponent to 30 or fewer points.

Stoops is only the second coach in Kentucky history to take his team to four straight bowls and UK's 32 wins over the last four seasons are the most in a four-year span since Paul "Bear" Bryant piloted the Wildcats in 1949-52.

This 2019 team followed the success of the 2018 squad that went 10-3, UK's best season in 41 years, topped by a win over Penn State in the VRBO Citrus Bowl. It was only the third 10-win season in school history.

In addition, the 2018 campaign featured a win at Florida -- the Wildcats' first victory over the Gators in 32 years -- resulting in UK being named the National Team of the

STOOPS AND CO. MAKING A HIT IN RECRUITING

In seven seasons at the helm of the Kentucky football program, head coach Mark Stoops and his staff have been making noise on the recruiting trail. Kentucky's eight classes under Stoops have ranked in the top 50 by all four major recruiting services. Below is a look at UK's recruiting success under Stoops and Co. (Note that the 2020 recruiting rankings are as of December 18, 2019).

Week by the Football Writers Association of America. The regular season concluded with a 56-10 win at in-state rival Louisville, the largest margin of victory in the history of the Governor's Cup series.

UK was No. 11 in the final USA Today coaches' poll and No. 12 in the final Associated Press tabulation, the school's first appearance in the final rankings since 1984.

CollegeFootballNews.com listed Stoops as the best coaching performance of the season and he was named Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by The Associated Press, Athlon Sports and the league coaches.

Stoops' individual accolades also extended to his players. Linebacker Josh Allen earned three National Defensive Player of the Year Awards and was a unanimous first-team All-American. Offensive guard Bunchy Stallings also was a first-team All-American and running back Benny Snell earned second-team All-America while becoming UK's all-time leading rusher.

The 2018 season continued a remarkable trend – since Stoops took over as coach of the Cats in 2013, UK was the only school in the nation that tied or improved its win total in six straight seasons.

How has Stoops accomplished all of this? The coach would tell you that there's been nothing magical about the process.

True to his blue-collar roots in Youngstown, Ohio, the methodical advancement made by Stoops' teams is a reflection of the coach's rock-steady work ethic, tireless recruiting, and ability to adapt.

Stoops' ability to adjust when necessary shone its brightest at the beginning of the 2016 season. After losing the first two games of the schedule, and seeing his starting quarterback out for the season with an injury, and seeing his defense struggle in the early stages, Stoops didn't retreat. The Wildcat coach chose determination over despair and went back to work, revising the offense for a new QB while becoming more involved in helping coach the defense.

The results? The Wildcats went 7-3 in the last 10 regular-season games, highlighted by a win at No. 11-ranked Louisville and a trip to the TaxSlayer Bowl. Stoops was named 2016 SEC Coach of the Year runner-up by Athlon Sports. That was followed by another seven-win season in 2017, topped by a berth in the Franklin-American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-12. He inherited a unit a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Bob Stoops, who spent 18 years as the Oklahoma head coach and now leads the XFL Dallas Renegades. The eldest Stoops brother, Ron Jr., is retired after coaching at Youngstown State.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. As did brothers Bob and Mike, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Mark and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOVON BOUKNIGHT

WIDE RECEIVERS

In a revamped run-based offense last season, Kentucky's wide receivers continued to catch passes while providing outstanding blocking support for the record-breaking ground game. Ahmad Wagner is the only receiver gone from that 2019 receiving corps. Bouknight, who was hired on March 10 after one season at Oregon, has 15 returning receivers to work with, and welcomes three freshmen in Kalil Branham, Izayah Cummings and Earnest Sanders IV.

EDDIE GRAN

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH FOR OFFENSE/RUNNING BACKS

After losing his top three quarterbacks to injury in 2019, Gran did a remarkable job of revamping the offense with Lynn Bowden Jr., a receiver-turned-quarterback. The Cats set new single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing TDs (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32). Gran's top three running backs return this season in A.J. Rose, Christopher Rodriguez and Kavosiey Smoke.

FRANK BUFFANO

SAFETIES

First-year assistant coach Frank Buffano was hired in March of 2020 after serving seven years as the director of football operations at UK. He will help Clinkscale with the defensive backs and work primarily with the safeties. Gone is senior Jordan Griffin to graduation but Buffano's room will feature the return of free safety Davonte Robinson who missed last season with injury. Also returning is the team's leading tackler in Yusuf Corker.

DARIN HINSHAW

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS

Faced with injuries to his top three quarterbacks last year, Hinshaw was faced with immediately turning wide receiver Lynn Bowden Jr. into a quarterback -- a position he had not played since high school. This year, depth isn't an issue. Five signal callers return along with two new additions in freshman Beau Allen and sophomore transfer Joey Gatewood.

STEVE CLINKSCALE

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Unlike the rebuilding he had to do in 2019, Clinkscale returns 16 defensive backs this fall, including three starters in Yusuf Corker (team's leading returning tackler), Brandin Echols, and Cedrick Dort Jr. The secondary ranked second in the nation in fewest touchdown passes allowed (7) and 13th nationally in pass efficiency defense last season.

VINCE MARROW

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Despite playing in a run-based offense the last eight games of the season, Marrow's tight ends combined to catch 19 passes in 2019, while providing solid blocking for the Wildcats' record-setting rushing attack. Five tight ends return this fall, led by senior starter Justin Rigg and sophomore Keaton Upshaw.

JOHN SCHLARMAN

OFFENSIVE LINE

"Big men lead the way" is the motto of UK asst. head coach Eddie Gran. When Gran revamped the offensive system in midseason, John Schlarman's line helped set school records with 3,624 rushing yards and 36 rushing TDs. The "Big Blue Wall" returns nine letter winners from 19, including center Drake Jackson, a first-team All-SEC selection, as well as Luke Fortner, Darian Kinnard and third-team All-SEC choice Landon Young. Schlarman welcomes five newcomers in R.J. Adams, Deondre Buford, Jeremy Flax, Josh Jones and John Young.

ANWAR STEWART

DEFENSIVE LINE

Former Wildcat Anwar Stewart was named the defensive line coach at Kentucky in January of 2020. He returned to the Bluegrass after one season as the defensive line coach at Appalachian State. Seven letter winners are back from last season's D-line, including starters Quinton Bohanna and Josh Paschal. Senior Phil Hoskins also returns after receiving a sixth-year extension waiver due to a knee injury last season. Newcomers are Josaih Hayes, Octavioius Oxendine, Justin Rogers and Tre'Vonn Rybka.

BRAD WHITE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Brad White is in his second season as defensive coordinator and with 20 returners on defense, including seven starters, the 2020 season could be a lot of fun. In 2019, White's young defense gave an outstanding account of itself. For the first time since 1979, UK did not allow more than 30 points in any regular season game. UK ranked 13th in the nation in scoring defense and 21st nationally in total defense.
