KENTUCKY HEADS TO FLORIDA SEEKING REDEMPTION

Kentucky makes its final road trip of the unique 2020 season this week as it travels to face No. 6/5 Florida at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in Gainesville. Game time is noon EST and it will be televised on ESPN. UK is playing its highest-ranked back-to-back opponents since facing No. 1 Florida and No. 3 Alabama in consecutive games during the 2009 season.

The contest presents an opportunity for the Wildcats to gain a measure of redemption on two fronts: shaking off the aftereffects of a 63-3 loss to top-ranked Alabama last time out, but also to erase the memory of last season's defeat to the Gators. UK held a 21-10 lead entering the fourth quarter in Lexington but the Gators rallied for a 29-21 win.

The last time Kentucky traveled to "The Swamp" in 2018 it erased a 31-year dry spell in Gainesville, as Benny Snell, Terry Wilson, and Josh Allen produced one of the most memorable victories in program history. Five of the past six meetings have seen the outcome in doubt deep into the fourth quarter.

Florida is 6-1 after defeating Vanderbilt in Nashville last Saturday, the only loss coming by three points at Texas A&M. Quarterback Kyle Trask, who piloted the Gators' comeback win in Lexington last season, has put himself in Heisman Trophy contention with 365 passing yards per game and 31 TDs in 2020.

QUICK NOTES

- Kentucky is in its 130th season of intercollegiate football.
- UK opened back-to-back road games against No. 1 Alabama and No. 5 Florida last weekend, falling 63-3 to the Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa. This week marks the final road trip of the season.
- In that defeat the Wildcats played without five starters who were unavailable for the game.
- This will be the third top five-ranked team the Cats have faced this season and fourth top-10 opponent in just nine games. Arkansas and Georgia are the only other teams in the nation to have faced three top 10s so far in 2020.
- The series with Florida has been hotly contested in recent years with five of the past six meetings coming down to the final minutes before being settled, including last season's 29-21 Florida victory that saw the Gators rally from an 11-point fourth quarter deficit.
- In the Cats' last trip to Gainesville they erased a 31-year drought to Florida, claiming a 27-16 win that ranks as one of the most memorable moments in the program's recent history.

Kentucky Wildcats

UKStoopsTroops

- Earlier this season UK had a pair of resounding victories, defeating Mississippi State and No. 18 Tennessee by a combined score of 58-9. The nine total points allowed are the fewest in back-to-back SEC games since yielding a total of nine to Florida and Tennessee to end the 1976 regular season.
- The Wildcats' 34-7 defeat of Tennessee on Oct. 17 ended a 36-year victory drought in Knoxville dating to the 1984 season. It was the first win in Knoxville over a ranked Tennessee team in school history and the largest margin of victory (27) there since a 56-0 win in 1893, the first game of the 116-game series.
- It was the largest margin of victory on the road vs. an Associated Press-ranked team in school history.
- UK is fifth in the SEC in scoring defense (26.5).
- UK is 26th nationally and second in the SEC in red zone defense (.758).
- In the victory over Mississippi State on Oct. 10, the Cats did not allow a touchdown or field goal for the first time since 2009 (a 42-0 shutout of Miami University). It marked the first time UK has held an SEC opponent without a TD or field goal since a 25-0 shutout of Vanderbilt in 1996.
- The performance against MSU helped LB Jordan Wright earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week, while punter Max Duffy was Special Teams Player of the Week.
- With six interceptions vs. Mississippi State, and three more against Tennessee, UK ranks second in the SEC and fourth nationally with 12 this season.
- It's the most total interceptions (nine) in consecutive games since also grabbing nine in 1993 vs. Kent State (2) and Florida (7). The six interceptions against MSU were the second-most in school history and most since grabbing seven vs. Florida in 1993.
- With three defensive touchdowns on the season, UK is third nationally and second in the SEC.
- Sophomore DB Kelvin Joseph intercepted his fourth pass of the season in the Alabama game, which puts him tied for the third-most in the country overall. He leads the SEC.
- Kentucky has rushed for at least 300 yards in seven of its past 13 games, including four of at least 400 yards. UK currently ranks fourth in the SEC in rushing offense (178.0).
- Against Ole Miss, UK had its most total offense in an SEC home game (559 yards) since Nov. 13, 2010 vs. Vanderbilt (580 yards).
- The Cats had three players (Chris Rodriguez Jr., A.J. Rose and Terry Wilson) rush for more than 100 yards vs. Ole Miss, the first time in the modern era (since 1946) the program has had three 100-yard rushers in a game.
- Against Ole Miss, the Cats had their most rushing touchdowns against an SEC opponent (six) since Oct. 6, 1973 at Mississippi State (six).
- UK had allowed 34 points or less in 28 straight games, the longest active streak in the nation, before Ole Miss tallied 42. The 28 straight games at 34 points or less was the longest for Kentucky since a 45-game streak from 1976-80.
- UK has allowed 30 or fewer points in 31 of the past 35 games.
- By allowing just 20 yards rushing to Mississippi State the Cats now have held an opponent to 20 rushing yards or less twice in the past 10 games.
- UK allowed just 91 rushing yards at No. 8 Auburn, fewest against a top-10 ranked opponent since 2010 vs. South Carolina and fewest against a top-10 ranked opponent on the road since 1999 vs. Mississippi State.
- QB Terry Wilson's value to the Wildcats runs deeper than raw numbers, as he is 15-7 as a starter and with the Cats' first win at Tennessee since 1984 this season he joined Derrick Ramsey as the only two quarterbacks in school history to win at both Florida and Tennessee in their career.
- The Wildcats had the third-most wins among SEC East schools from 2017-19 (25). Only Georgia (36) and Florida (26) had more.
- Fifteen true freshmen have seen action so this season: QB Beau Allen, WR Izayah Cummings, LB Torrance Davis, WR Mike Drennen II, DL Josaih Hayes, LB D'Eryk Jackson, RB JuTahn McClain, DL Octavious Oxendine, DB Andru Phillips, DL Justin Rogers, DL Tre'Vonn Rybka, WR Earnest Sanders IV, DB Vito Tisdale, DB Carrington Valentine and DB Joel Williams. Additionally, transfers Joey Gatewood (QB) and Kelvin Joseph (DB) and sophomore LS Cade Degraw saw their first action in blue and white.
- UK is aiming for a fifth-consecutive winning season. It would be the first time the program has accomplished that since posting 11 straight winning seasons from 1946-56.
- UK set new single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing touchdowns (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32) in 2019.

MILESTONES TO LOOK FOR...

- Head coach Mark Stoops has 47 career victories at Kentucky, tying him with Fran Curci (1973-1981) at No. 2 on the school's all-time list. Paul "Bear" Bryant is first with 60.
- Coach Stoops has 23 SEC wins, passing Paul Bryant for the second-most in school history. He needs two more to tie Fran Curci at No. 1 with 25.
- Coach Stoops now holds the record for most total home wins in school history (34).
- Senior running back Asim Rose Jr. has rushed for 1,664 yards in his career, which is tied with Bill Leskovar (1949-51) for 17th on the school's all-time list. He needs 24 yards to move past Ivy Joe Hunter (1985-88) into 16th.
- Rose averages 5.55 yards per carry in his career, fourth on the UK all-time list (min. 200 att.)
- Senior OLB Jamar "Boogie" Watson has 18.0 career sacks. He needs one more to pass Dennis Johnson (1998-2001) for fourth on the school's all-time list.
- Sophomore RB Chris Rodriguez Jr. has 1,138 career rushing yards, having become the 39th player in school history to reach 1,000 in his last game. He vaulted all the way to 34th place and needs just seven yards to pass Damon Hood (1991-94) and 30 to pass Doug Kotar (1971-73).
- Senior QB Terry Wilson has 930 career rushing yards. He needs 70 to become the 40th player in school history to reach 1,000.
- Punter Max Duffy was named the 2019 Ray Guy Award winner and earned first-team All-America honors by seven national selectors. He currently ranks ninth nationally in punting average at 46.3.
- Duffy is the school's all-time leading punter at 46.28 yards per kick. He bombed a career-long 75-yard punt in the opener at Auburn. It is the third-longest in school history behind Paul Calhoun's 80-yarder vs. Indiana in 1983 and Randy Jenkins' 78-yarder vs. Tennessee in 1983.
- Once again, Kentucky ranks amongst the nation's best in net punting with a 42.11-yard average, ranking 15th in the country.
- The Wildcats finished in the top 25 of total defense in 2018 and 2019. UK ranked 23rd in 2018 (337.9) and is 21st in 2019 (324.6) in yards allowed per game. The mark was the lowest since 1989 (320.3).
- Since 2016, UK is 14-7 in games decided by seven points or less.
- Kentucky won 32 games from 2016-19, the most in a four-season span since 1950-53, when Paul "Bear" Bryant was coach of the Cats.
- During Stoops' tenure the Wildcats have had eight different starting quarterbacks win a game.
- Coach Mark Stoops is in his eighth season in Lexington. He is 47-49 overall.
- The 47 wins are tied for the second-most in school history. Stoops also has 34 home wins at Kentucky, surpassing Bear Bryant's 33 for the most in school history.
- The Wildcats signed the No. 20 recruiting class in the nation for 2020, featuring one 5-star recruit and eight 4-star recruits. It marked the fifth consecutive season the program has landed a top 30 class.

KENTUCKY TO HONOR LATE OL COACH JOHN SCHLARMAN WITH NO. 65

- Kentucky offensive line coach John Schlarman and an All-SEC offensive lineman during his playing days at UK, died on Nov. 12 following a two-year battle with cancer. He was 45.
- He was diagnosed with cholangiocarcinoma in the summer of 2018 and had been an absolute warrior in his two-year fight against cancer, not missing a game through Oct. 17 this season and very few practices along the way.
- To honor his fight, members of the offensive line have chosen to rotate No. 65, the number Schlarman wore as an offensive lineman at Kentucky. Schlarman was a four-year starter from 1994-97 and was named SEC All-Freshman in 1994, UK's most outstanding lineman in 1995 and '96, and first-team All-SEC in 1997.
- Against Florida, offensive guard Austin Dotson will wear No. 65.
- Drake Jackson wore No. 65 vs. Georgia and Landon Young wore it vs. Vanderbilt in the first game after his death. Darian Kinnard wore the number vs. Alabama.
- The team wore a black sticker on their helmets with the initials "JS" in white letters.

vs. South Carolina	Dec. 5	2-6	L, 10-17, vs. Missouri	vs. Georgia (11/28)

- On the first offensive play, UK took a delay of game penalty, graciously declined by Vanderbilt, as Young took the field wearing Schlarmann's jersey.

SERIES VS. FLORIDA

- Florida leads 52-18 overall and 28-5 in Gainesville.
- Kentucky is looking for a second straight win in Gainesville.
- Last season, Florida erased a second half deficit and stunned the Cats, 29-21, in Lexington.
- In 2019, Kentucky won 27-16 in Gainesville, ending a 31-year losing streak to the Gators.
- Five of the past six meetings have seen the outcome in doubt deep into the fourth quarter.
- UK QB Terry Wilson had one of his two career 100-yard rushing games against Florida in 2018.
- Biggest UK win: 52 (52-0 in 1917)
- Biggest Florida win: 66 (73-7 in 1996)
- Games decided by eight points or less: Florida leads 16-7
- UK coach Mark Stoops is 1-6 vs. Florida during his tenure.

KENTUCKY-FLORIDA CONNECTIONS

- Kentucky has 18 players from the state of Florida: DT Abule Abadi-Fitzgerald (Lakeland), OLB Sam Anaele, WR Josh Ali (Hollywood), DB Jamari Brown (Sunrise), DB Cedric Dort Jr. (Palm Beach Gardens), QB Joey Gatewood, WR DeMarcus Harris (Vero Beach), WR Akeem Hayes (Hollywood), OL Kenneth Horsey (Sanford), OT Nick Lewis (Jacksonville), WR Rahsaan Lewis (Orlando), TE Nik Ognenovic (Fort Lauderdale), WR Bryce Oliver (Fort Lauderdale), OT Jake Pope (Fort Lauderdale), QB Nik Scalzo (Fort Lauderdale), QB Sawyer Smith (Cantonment), WR Clevon Thomas Jr. (Miami) and LB Jordan Wright (Fort Lauderdale).
- Florida does not have a player on its roster from Kentucky.
- Coach Mark Stoops spent six seasons as an assistant coach in the Sunshine State, including three years each with Miami (Fla.) and Florida State. During his time with the schools, they went a combined 64-13. Stoops also spent a year in 1996 on the South Florida coaching staff, helping build the Bulls in the start-up of the program before the 1997 kickoff.
- Co-offensive coordinator Darin Hinshaw is originally from Punta Gorda, Florida and was a standout quarterback at Central Florida from 1991-94. He set numerous school records for the Knights, finishing as the career leader in every major passing category, including yards (9,000) and TDs (82).
- Florida running backs coach Greg Knox coached at Ole Miss (1995-98) and Auburn (1999-2008) with Eddie Gran under head coach Tommy Tuberville. Gran was the special teams coordinator and running backs coach while Knox was the receivers coach and recruiting coordinator.
- Florida defensive line coach David Turner has had two tenures at Kentucky. He spent three seasons in Lexington from 2010-12, as well as the 1993 and 1994 seasons, helping the Wildcats advance to the 1993 Peach Bowl and 2010 BBVA Compass Bowl.

LAST TIME OUT

- Kentucky fell at No. 1 Alabama, 63-3, to drop to 3-5 on the season.
- The Cats were without four starters for the game: LB Jamin Davis, P Max Duffy, OG Luke Fortner, and TE Justin Rigg, along with RB Chris Rodriguez Jr. and several other key reserves.

- The Cats intercepted their 12th pass of the season, second-most in the SEC and are tied for fourth nationally.
- Senior quarterback Terry Wilson completed 10 of 19 passes for 120 yards and an interception. He rushed five times for five yards.
- Wilson has 930 career rushing yards, needs 70 to become the 40th player in school history to reach 1,000 rushing yards.
- Wilson has 3,081 career passing yards, becoming the 14th player in school history to reach 3,000 passing yards.
- He had a streak of 118 consecutive passes without an interception snapped in the third quarter at Alabama.
- Senior running back A.J. Rose gained 68 yards on 10 carries for 6.8 yards per rush at Alabama. He now has 1,664 career rushing yards, passing Steve Campassi for 18th place in school history. He's now tied with Bill Leskovar (1949-50) for 17th.
- Senior wide receiver Josh Ali caught a team-high four passes for a team-best 52 yards. Ali has caught a pass in nine consecutive games.
- Sophomore tight end Keaton Upshaw caught three passes for 44 yards against the Tide. The receptions and yards both are career highs for him.
- Sophomore defensive back Kelvin Joseph intercepted a pass in the third quarter at Alabama. Joseph now has four interceptions this season. He currently leads the SEC and ranks third nationally in total interceptions.
- Senior linebacker Boogie Watson totaled five tackles, including 2.0 for loss and a sack last weekend. He has 18 career sacks, passing Jeremy Jarmon's 17.5 for fifth place in school history.
- Playing in his second collegiate game, senior punter Colin Goodfellow punted seven times for 48.3 yards per kick. He nailed a career-long 55-yarder and placed two inside the 20.

A UK WIN WOULD...

- Be UK's second straight victory in Gainesville after a 38-year losing streak there (19 games). UK has won two in a row in Gainesville only once in school history, 1977 and 1979.
- Give UK its second win over a ranked Florida team in the past three seasons.
- Give UK its first win over a top-10 team since defeating No. 10 South Carolina in 2010, 31-28, in Lexington.
- Give UK its first win over a top-10 team on the road since winning at No. 4 Penn State, 24-20, in 1977.
- Give UK its first win over a top-10 SEC team on the road since defeating No. 1 Ole Miss, 27-21, in 1964.
- Give Stoops 48 career victories at UK, moving him past Fran Curci (1973-81) for second on the school's all-time list.
- Be the Cats' second road victory of the season against a ranked opponent (34-7 win at No. 18 Tennessee, Oct. 14).

KENTUCKY VS. THE RANKED

- Kentucky has played 255 ranked teams in the Associated Press Poll in its history. The Cats are 45-205-5 in those games.
- Since 2015, the Cats are 6-9 against ranked teams. The wins were over No. 18 Tennessee (2020), No. 12 Penn State, No. 14 Mississippi State and No. 25 Florida (2018), No. 11 Louisville (2016) and No. 25 Missouri (2015).
- UK is 4-33 vs. ranked Florida teams.
- UK's last win over a ranked Florida team came in 2018 in Gainesville when the Cats won 27-16 over No. 25 Florida.
- UK's last win over a ranked SEC team was at No. 18 Tennessee, 34-7, on Oct. 17, 2020 in Knoxville.
- The Cats' last win over a top-10 ranked team was vs. No. 10 South Carolina in 2010 in Lexington (31-28).
- The Cats' last win over a top-10 ranked team on the road was a 24-20 win over No. 4 Penn State in 1976.

SIMPLY STOOPS-ENDOUS

- UK coach Mark Stoops has proven to be an excellent hire, turning around a struggling program and putting it within reach of a fifth consecutive bowl appearance this season. He also has erased a number of the long-standing hurdles and streaks that have plagued the program's history.
- The accomplishments include, but aren't limited to:
 - First New Year's Day bowl win since 1951 (2018)
 - First 10-win season since 1977 (2018)
 - First winning SEC record since 1977 (2018)
 - First SEC Coach of the Year since 1983 (2018)
 - First ranking in the final AP Poll since 1984 (2018)
 - First bowl win since 2008 season (2018)
 - First win at Florida since 1979 (2018)
 - First win at Tennessee since 1984 (2020)
 - Ended 31-game losing streak to Florida (2018)
- Stoops has 47 career victories at Kentucky, tying him with Fran Curci (1973-1981) for second on the school's all-time list.

DAUNTING SCHEDULE

- With the Covid-19 pandemic creating a 10-game Southeastern Conference-only schedule this season, Kentucky will face one of the most difficult slate of games in its history.
- Of the 10 games, nine feature an opponent that was either ranked or receiving votes in one of the two major polls (AP, Coaches) when play started on Sept. 26.
- UK will have faced four teams ranked in the AP Top 10 through nine games: No. 1 Alabama, No. 5 Georgia, No. 6 Florida and No. 8 Auburn. Three of those games were on the road.
- Arkansas and Georgia are the only other teams in the nation to have faced three Top 10 teams.
- The Florida game also will be the fifth ranked team UK has faced in nine outings. Entering the Nov. 28 games, only Arkansas and NC State had faced that many.
- When the schedule was adjusted to conference-only games the Cats added contests against No. 8 Auburn and Ole Miss, in its first season under coach Lane Kiffin.

KENTUCKY TO HONOR CHRIS OATS BY ROTATING NO. 22

- Kentucky football has been honoring junior linebacker Chris Oats this season, who has been battling a serious medical condition since May, when a different player is chosen each week of the season to wear Oats' No. 22. Fellow linebacker DeAndre Square was the first to wear No. 22 in the season opener vs. Auburn, while Oats' roommate Keaton Upshaw took the honor in UK's first home game on Oct. 3 vs. Ole Miss.
- LB Jamin Davis wore No. 22 vs. Mississippi State. While wearing the jersey he intercepted a pass in the end zone on the final play of the first half to secure UK's 14-0 lead at the break. He also recorded his first double-digit tackle game.
- LB Boogie Watson pulled on the No. 22 vs. Tennessee and LB Jordan Wright did so at Missouri. DE Joshua Paschal wore the number vs. Georgia, the first game Oats was able to attend in person.
- RB Chris Rodriguez Jr. wore No. 22 vs. Vanderbilt and put on a career performance, rushing for career-best 149 yards with two scores. He added a career-long 74-yard run and surpassed 1,000 yards for his career.
- RB Kavosiey Smoke wore No. 22 vs. Alabama and had nine carries for 26 yards.
- Wearing No. 22 for the Florida game is defensive back Yusuf Corker.
- The team is wearing #22OATSSTRONG wristbands to show their support and they conclude each team practice with "22!" Members of the team have also created a website www.22OATSSTRONG.COM with a GoFundMe page to help the family with medical bills.

WILSON, HORSEY NAMED TO 2020 MAYO CLINIC COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

- Senior quarterback Terry Wilson and sophomore offensive guard Kenneth Horsey have been named two of the 53 players on the 2020 Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award Watch List.

2020 TEAM CAPTAINS

Ten players were voted team captains by their peers last week. They are Josh Ali, Quinton Bohanna, Yusuf Corker, Max Duffy, Drake Jackson, Josh Paschal, DeAndre Square, Boogie Watson, Terry Wilson and Landon Young. One captain will represent the team each game and will be decided on a week-by-week basis. They are listed below.

at Auburn DeAndre Square
vs. Ole Miss Josh Paschal
vs. Miss. State Terry Wilson at Tennessee Boogie Watson at Missouri Max Duffy
vs. Georgia Drake Jackson
vs. Vanderbilt Landon Young at Alabama Quinton Bohanna at Florida
vs. South Carolina

- Wilson returned to play on Sept. 26, 2020 after missing most of last season after suffering a torn patellar tendon in his left knee on Sept. 7, 2019 vs. Eastern Michigan. The injury required surgery and months and months of grueling rehabilitation.
- Horsey, who hails from Sanford, Florida, also has an impressive comeback story. In the spring of 2018, before he was to arrive at Kentucky for his freshman season, he was complaining of a pain in his side. His parents rushed him to the emergency room where doctors ultimately found a growth on one of his heart valves. He went through open-heart surgery on April 8, 2018 and was even told by a few doctors that football was over. However, Horsey would not be deterred. He came to Kentucky and redshirted the 2018 season with a goal of earning a starting spot on Kentucky's offensive line, affectionately known as the "Big Blue Wall." In 2019 he saw action in four games and he continued to train and prepare his body for the rigors of the Southeastern Conference. Since his surgery in 2018, he has lost 50 pounds and because of his hard work and dedication, has earned the starting left guard spot on the "Big Blue Wall." He has started seven games this season, helping the Wildcats ranks fourth in the Southeastern Conference in rushing offense (178.0).

OFFENSE

- "Balance" has been the hallmark of the Kentucky offense under Eddie Gran, UK assistant head coach for offense. The Wildcats have totaled more than 2,000 rushing yards and 2,000 passing yards in three of the four seasons that Gran has been here. Prior to Gran's arrival, this had been accomplished in only two seasons total in school history. The Cats just missed 2,000 passing yards in 2019, as a receiver-turned-quarterback, Lynn Bowden Jr., took over the starting QB spot in the final eight games of the season.
- Nine offensive starters return in 2020, including quarterback Terry Wilson (2018 starter) who sat out most of last season with a knee injury. Also returning are running back A.J. Rose, wide receiver Josh Ali, tight end Justin Rigg, along with four members of the "Big Blue Wall" in LT Landon Young, RG Luke Fortner, C Drake Jackson and RT Darian Kinnard.
- The Cats have averaged at least 25.5 points per game from 2016-19, the first time in school history that UK has done it four years in a row.
- In the first four years of the Gran era (2016-19), UK has rushed for 11,362 yards, most in a four-year period in school history.
- UK has had a 1,000-yard rusher in four straight seasons (Boom Williams, Benny Snell Jr., Lynn Bowden Jr.); prior to this, UK had never had 1,000-yard rushers in back-to-back seasons, let alone four straight seasons.
- Despite having starting quarterbacks who had never played in a major-college game in 2016 (Stephen Johnson) and 2018 (Terry Wilson) and a receiver-turned-quarterback in 2019 (Lynn Bowden Jr.), UK won 32 games from 2016-19 and advanced to four straight bowl games.
- Kentucky has rushed for at least 300 yards in seven of its past 13 games, including four of at least 400 yards. UK currently ranks fourth in the SEC in rushing offense (178.4).

Quarterbacks

- Gone is the receiver-turned-quarterback, Lynn Bowden Jr., who led the Wildcats for the final eight games of the 2019 season before declaring for the NFL draft, but returning is senior Terry Wilson, who won the starting QB job at the start of the 2018 season and led the Wildcats to their first 10-win season since 1977. He began the 2019 season right where he left off as the starting QB in the first two games, before suffering a torn patellar tendon in his right knee in the third quarter vs. Eastern Michigan.
- Wilson returned to game action this season and has completed 63.0 percent of his passes for 832 yards and six touchdowns. He is averaging 48.4 rushing yards per game and has four TDs.
- Nicknamed "Terry Touchdown" in high school, the signal caller has completed 65.5 percent of his career passes for 3,081 yards and 19 touchdowns. He's also a dangerous runner as he has compiled 930 net rushing yards and nine TDs. UK has a 15-7 record in his 27 starting assignments.
- Wilson now is the school's all-time leading rusher for a quarterback with at least 2,500 yards passing. He has 930 rushing yards, passing Pookie Jones (854).
- Wilson, who redshirted as a freshman at Oregon (2016), threw for 2,133 yards and 26 touchdowns in one junior college season (2017).
- Against Ole Miss, Wilson became the third Kentucky quarterback in school history to have at least 150 passing yards and 125 rushing yards in the same game (Pookie Jones vs. Kent State, Sept. 4, 1993; Shane Boyd vs. Indiana, Sept. 18, 2004).

BEST CAREER COMPLETION PERCENTAGE, SCHOOL HISTORY (MIN. 200 COMP.)

- 1) 67.1, Tim Couch
- 2) 65.5, Terry Wilson
- 3) 65.3, Dusty Bonner
- 4) 61.9, Andre Woodson
- 5) 61.2, Mike Hartline

MOST CAREER RUSHING YARDS BY A QUARTERBACK, SCHOOL HISTORY (MIN. 2,000 PASSING YARDS)

- 1) 930, Terry Wilson
- 2) 854, Pookie Jones

- Along with Wilson, quarterbacks coach Darin Hinshaw has a deep stable of quarterbacks to work with, including senior Sawyer Smith, freshman and mid-year enrollee Beau Allen, and Auburn transfer Joey Gatewood.
- Gatewood earned his first career start vs. Georgia, completing 15-of-25 passes for 91 yards and rushing for 23 yards on 16 carries.
- As a redshirt freshman at Auburn last season, Gatewood totaled 176 rushing yards on 32 carries with three touchdowns, and completed 5 of 8 passes for 54 yards and two touchdowns in eight games. He was granted an eligibility waiver in September that allows him to play this season.
- Allen made his career debut vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 14, completing 3-of-5 passes for 40 yards.
- After Wilson's injury in 2019, Smith saw action in eight games last season with three starting assignments. He completed 57 of 125 passes for 690 yards and four touchdowns.
- During Stoops' tenure, the Wildcats have had eight different starting quarterbacks win a game in Jalen Whitlow, Maxwell Smith, Patrick Towles, Drew Barker, Stephen Johnson, Luke Wright, Terry Wilson, and Lynn Bowden Jr.

TREVATHAN ELECTED TO UK ATHLETICS HOF

The UK Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2020 was announced in May with Chanda Bell (softball), Sawyer Carroll (baseball), Ron Mercer (men's basketball), AJ Reed (baseball), Danny Trevathan (football) and Wayne Turner (men's basketball) chosen for induction.

The honorees will be inducted during a Hall of Fame Weekend at a date to be determined.

Danny Trevathan, Football (2008-11)

Two-year All-America linebacker ... First All-America linebacker in school history ... Chosen National Linebacker of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards after monster senior season in which he totaled 143 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss, four interceptions, five caused fumbles and five pass breakups ... Led the SEC in tackles as a junior and senior, earning first-team All-SEC honors both years ... First-team All-America as a junior with 144 stops ... Selected in the NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos ... Led Denver in tackles two years, with the team advancing to the Super Bowl in both of those seasons, including one Super Bowl championship ... Eight-year veteran with Denver and the Chicago Bears.

WILSON NAMED TO JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM WATCH LIST

Quarterback Terry Wilson has been named to the 2020 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Watch List honoring the top quarterback in the nation.

Wilson's value to the Wildcats runs deeper than raw numbers, as he is 15-7 as a starter, and entered the season with the best record for any UK quarterback in his first 15 starts with starting lineups available since 1993. In 2018, he started all 13 games and led UK to its first 10-win season since 1977, including a VRBO Citrus Bowl victory. With the Cats' first win at Tennessee since 1984 this season Wilson joined Derrick Ramsey (1975-77) as the only two quarterbacks in school history to win at both Florida and Tennessee in their career.

Running Backs

- Gran's running-back room goes six deep and features a three-headed monster from last season in senior A.J. Rose and sophomores Chris Rodriguez Jr. and Kavosiey Smoke.
- Rose was the team's second-leading rusher behind Bowden in 2019 with 826 yards and six scores. He became the 37th player in school history to reach 1,000 career rushing yards and his total of 1,664 moves him to 17th on UK's all-time list. Rose also ranks fourth on UK's career yards per attempt list at 5.55 rushing yards per carry, behind only Bowden, Boom Williams and Randall Cobb. He needs 105 yards to move into UK's top 10 for career rushing yards.
- Rodriguez saw action in all 13 games last season and totaled 71 carries for 533 yards and six scores. He averaged 7.5 yards per carry (second on the team behind Bowden's school record 7.9 ypc).
- Rodriguez rushed for a career-best 133 yards and two scores vs. Ole Miss on Oct. 3, 2020 and then bested that with 149 yards and two scores vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 14. In that game he became the 39th player in school history to surpass 1,000 career rushing yards. He also leads the team in rushing yards this season.
- Smoke was UK's third-leading rusher in '19 with 616 yards on 101 attempts and six scores, averaged 6.1 yards per attempt. He ranked in the top 10 among SEC freshman leaders in the following categories: fifth in rushing (47.5 per game), ninth in all-purpose yards (50.7) and 10th in total offense (47.5) and scoring (2.8). He missed three games with a rib injury but returned in a limited capacity vs. Georgia.

- True freshman JuTahn McClain has been earning high praise from the coaching staff this season. McClain has 14 carries for 47 yards.
- In 2019, UK set single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing touchdowns (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32).
- Kentucky has rushed for at least 300 yards in seven of its past 13 games, including four of at least 400 yards.
- UK currently ranks fourth in the SEC in rushing offense (178.0).

PART OF THE GRAN-D DESIGN

- Since taking over the Kentucky running game upon his arrival in 2016, Eddie Gran has fashioned the Cats into one of the more physical and prolific rushing attacks not only in the SEC, but in the country.
- The work culminated in 2019 with 278.8 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth nationally.
- The Cats averaged 234.2 rushing yards per game in 2016, Gran's first in Lexington, 161.7 yards per game in 2017, 199.4 in 2018 and 278.8 in 2019. Those numbers are significant in that only twice in the previous 20 seasons had a UK offense rushed for more than 162 yards per game (2015 and 2009) and not for more than 200 per game since 1993 (210.5).
- Gran has mentored the likes of Benny Snell Jr. and Stanley "Boom" Williams at Kentucky, Chris Thompson, Devonta Freeman and James Wilder Jr. (Florida State), Montario Hardesty (Tennessee), Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Kenny Irons and Rudi Johnson (Auburn) and Deuce McAllister (Ole Miss). During his 26 seasons as a running backs coach he's spent 20 of those against top-shelf competition in the SEC and Atlantic Coast Conference, making the numbers even more impressive.
- Some of the more compelling stats from Gran's 26 seasons at Ole Miss (1995-98), Auburn (1999-2008), Tennessee (2009), Florida State (2010-12), Cincinnati (2013-15) and Kentucky:
 - > 20 seasons averaging at least 150.0 rushing yards per game
 - > 13 seasons averaging at least 172.0 rushing yards per game
 - > 13 individual 1,000-yard rushers
 - > Nine seasons with a RB who scored at least 10 rushing TDs
 - > Five seasons averaging at least 200.0 rushing yards per game

> Only once has his running attack averaged less than 100.0 ypg

> Only twice has his running attack averaged less than 125.0 ypg

- In 2019, the Cats had four players - Lynn Bowden Jr., A.J. Rose, Chris Rodriguez Jr. and Kavosiey Smoke all rush for at least 500 yards and five touchdowns.

Wide Receivers

- First-year wide receivers coach Jovon Bouknight, who was added on the coaching staff in March after one season at Oregon, has a mix of experience and young talent at his disposal this season.
- The top returning pass catcher, Josh Ali, is back for his senior season after 23 catches for 233 yards and a team-high three receiving touchdowns last year. Perhaps two of the biggest plays in his career came in the Belk Bowl on UK's final drive of 2019. He made a diving grab of a low pass on fourth down to extend the drive and then hauled in the game-winning 13-yard strike from Bowden with 15 seconds remaining.
- Ali made a strong start to the 2020 season with nine catches for 98 yards, both career highs, at Auburn. He leads the receiving corps with 38 catches for 395 yards and a touchdown.
- Redshirt freshman DeMarcus Harris is second on the team in receptions with 14 for 87 yards, while redshirt freshman Allen Dailey Jr. is third with 10 for 91 yards. Dailey caught a one-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter vs. Tennessee, his first TD of the season and second of his career.
- Sophomore Akeem Hayes has four catches on the season for 54 yards and a score. He made two catches vs. Auburn, including an eight-yard grab that is his first collegiate touchdown.

Tight Ends

- Tight ends coach Vince Marrow has one of the most experienced position groups with four returning players in Brenden Bates, Nik Oggenovic, Justin Rigg and Keaton Upshaw.
- Rigg had at least one catch in six games last season, totaling 11 catches for 128 yards, while Upshaw had seven catches for 78 yards and one TD. Rigg has eight catches for 65 yards so far this season and caught his first career touchdown pass on Nov. 14 vs. Vanderbilt.
- Upshaw has 10 catches for 134 yards and score this season. He caught a 12-yard touchdown vs. Mississippi State, his second career score, and a 21-yarder vs. Vanderbilt, his third career score.

- Against top-ranked Alabama he set new career bests with three receptions for 44 yards.
- Bates made his first career catch in the Mississippi State game, hauling in a 14-yard pass.
- The tight ends were key blockers for UK's explosive running game which led the SEC and ranked fourth nationally with 278.8 rushing yards per game.

Offensive Line

- After a two-year battle with cancer, offensive line coach John Schlarman died on Nov. 12. A 2018 and 2019 Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award nominee, he was diagnosed with cholangiocarcinoma in the summer of 2018. Despite his health issues, he coached through countless cancer treatments and had not missed a game until Oct. 24. His final game on the sidelines was Oct. 17 at Tennessee, when Stoops presented him with the game ball after the Wildcats' win.
- Schlarman was a four-year starter with the Wildcats from 1994-97, earning first-team All-SEC honors as a senior. He was one of the two remaining coaches (also Vince Marrow) from Stoops' original staff in 2013.
- The O-line returns four of five starters from last season in RT Darian Kinnard, LT Landon Young, RG Luke Fortner and C Drake Jackson. The only loss is a big one in left guard and All-American Logan Stenberg who is currently playing for the Detroit Lions.
- Overall, the O-line has totaled 124 career starts.
- The "Big Blue Wall" has helped Kentucky post four consecutive seasons of 2,000 or more rushing yards, with at least one 1,000-yard individual each season.
- In 2019, the O-line gave up the third-fewest sacks allowed in the SEC with 1.31 per game and allowed Lynn Bowden Jr., to become the third straight Wildcat to total 1,000 rushing yards. The "Big Blue Wall" also helped UK set single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing TDs (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32).
- Senior Landon Young is back for his final season at left tackle after an impressive junior year that saw him total 64 knockdown blocks. He had only one missed assignment in 754 plays in 13 starts.
- Young was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week for his stellar play vs. Tennessee. He graded at 90 percent with 10 knockdown

COUCH NAMED TO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HOF BALLOT

Former Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch has been named to the 2021 ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame announced today. Couch is one of 78 players and seven coaches from the Football Bowl Subdivision and 99 players and 33 coaches from the divisional ranks.

A storied name of the Kentucky program, Couch, was the team's quarterback from 1996-98. After giving up his senior season of eligibility, he was drafted as the No. 1 pick by Cleveland in the 1999 NFL Draft. In 1998, the junior quarterback was named a first-team All-American and consensus Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Couch completed 400 of 553 passes for 4,275 yards and 36 touchdowns and led the nation in pass completions while ranked second in completion percentage, passing yardage and touchdown passes, and fourth in total offense. After guiding the Wildcats to the Outback Bowl, UK's first New Year's Day bowl appearance in 47 years, Couch finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award as a junior and sophomore. His breakout sophomore campaign featured 363 of 547 passes completed for 3,884 yards and 37 touchdowns while leading the nation in pass attempts, completions, yardage, and completion percentage. Also during his sophomore year, Couch earned second-team All-SEC honors and finished ninth in Heisman voting. He played in seven games as a true freshman, with two starts. Career wise, Couch completed 795 passes on 1,184 attempts for 8,435 yards and 74 touchdowns. The legend ended his career with seven NCAA records, 14 SEC records, and 26 school records.

The announcement of the 2021 College Football Hall of Fame Class Presented by ETT will be made in early 2021, with specific details to be announced in the future.

The 2021 College Football Hall of Fame Class Presented by ETT will be officially inducted during the 64th NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 7, 2021, at the New York Hilton Midtown. They will also be honored at their respective schools with an NFF Hall of Fame On-Campus Salute, presented by Fidelity Investments, during the 2021 season.

blocks as the Cats piled up 187 rushing yards, including 159 in the second half as they took control of the line of scrimmage with a bruising ground game. He also did not allow any sacks or quarterback pressures and did not miss an assignment or commit a penalty. He produced 22 blocks at the point of attack.

- The graduation of Stenberg freed up the left guard spot and sophomore Kenneth Horsey has stepped in that role. An interesting note about Horsey - he had open-heart surgery in April of 2018.
- Senior Drake Jackson has 41 consecutive starts under his belt at center. He earned first-team All-SEC accolades last year and is a preseason All-American and a Rimington Trophy candidate for 2020.
- The right guard spot is locked up by senior Luke Fortner, who started in all 13 games last season and totaled 27 knockdown blocks.
- Junior Darian Kinnard has been holding down the right tackle position since he entered the starting lineup at the end of the 2018 season. He had 32 knockdowns in 2019, and only one penalty in 706 snaps and has been rated by Pro Football Focus as the top returning offensive lineman in the country this season.
- Junior guard Austin Dotson has emerged as a valuable member of the group and was the team's top reserve through the first six games. He made his first career start on Nov. 14 vs. Vanderbilt and then started again vs. Alabama.

FORTNER NAMED TO ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM; SEMIFINALIST FOR 2020 WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY

For the second straight season, Kentucky has a representative on the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team as senior offensive guard Luke Fortner has received the honor. Fortner is one of only 22 players named to the prestigious team made up of college football players who step up to help those in need. Last year, fellow "Big Blue Wall" member Landon Young was named to the team and was voted team captain in a fan vote.

Fortner was also named a semifinalist for the 2020 William V. Campbell Trophy which recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.

Fortner, of Sylvania, Ohio, has been a standout on and off the field in his Wildcat career. In the classroom, he graduated in December of 2019 with a degree in mechanical engineering and is currently working on a master's degree in mechanical engineering. He is on track to graduate with his master's degree in December of 2020. He's a three-time member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll and has three times been named to the Dean's List.

Fortner put his degree to good use last fall when he, along with other UK engineering students, played a significant role in helping a team of Toyota Manufacturing engineers design, test and manufacture a specially-built push cart vehicle through a project called "Lift Them Up." The push cart vehicle provides a Kentucky Children's Hospital patient the chance to both accompany the Wildcats on the Cat Walk and attend a game at Kroger Field.

Because of his experience with project "Lift Them Up," Fortner was compelled to continue making an impact at the Kentucky Children's Hospital. He began visiting the kids in September of 2019 as part of the "Tuesdays with the Wildcats" program, created by former Wildcat C.J. Conrad in 2018.

When COVID19 hit, Fortner didn't want to stop interaction with the kids so, along with teammate Max Duffy, they asked what they could do. With the help of the Child Life team at the Kentucky Children's Hospital, they set up a program called "In the Huddle with KCH." For eight weeks, Fortner and Duffy taped a video of themselves answering questions from kids who submitted through the Kentucky Children's Hospital Facebook Page. The video was then posted back to the KCH Facebook page every Tuesday morning to replace what would have been their in-person visit.

This opportunity was open to all Wildcat fans, not just KCH patients. During a difficult time for our nation, Fortner and Duffy provided a fun time for young fans to forget about the virus for even a short time to share a smile.

In addition to "In the Huddle with KCH," Fortner and his teammates got creative in how they could continue their weekly visits with KCH patients. Each week, Fortner spends 1-1.5 hours on Zoom calls with patients who are currently “in-patient” at KCH. They discuss football, favorite hobbies, favorite color, etc. Patients are able to ask the players questions about anything and everything. Fortner and his teammates always offer up words of encouragement. Zoom calls are intimate because it’s just one patient with Fortner and his teammates for about 7-10 minutes each so the focus is all on one patient at a time.

More of Fortner’s community service projects:

- Volunteered with other engineering students at UK’s 2020 “Engineers Day” to celebrate engineering and showcase the “Lift Them Up” cart
- Volunteer at Urban Impact at the Woodhill Community Center, an organization that strives to enable youth to grow, succeed and lead
- Volunteer reader at Athens-Chilesburg Elementary
- Volunteer for Read Across America at Fayette County public schools
- Volunteered with Habitat for Humanity

On the field, Fortner has been an integral part of the “Big Blue Wall” during his career.

JACKSON NAMED TO RIMINGTON TROPHY WATCH LIST

- Senior Drake Jackson has been named a candidate for the 2020 Rimington Trophy, the second straight season he has been a candidate for the prestigious award given annually to the nation’s most outstanding center. The Versailles, Kentucky native has started in 40 consecutive career games as the anchor of Kentucky’s offensive line, the “Big Blue Wall.”

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Special teams coordinator Dean Hood left to become the head coach at Murray State University following the 2019 season and the special teams unit is being coached by committee this season.
- Australian transplant and 2019 Ray Guy Award winner Max Duffy is back for his final season and is the oldest player on the team at age 27. Duffy led the FBS in punting at 48.1 yards per kick in 2019. With Duffy’s punting and hustling coverage by the punt team, UK led the nation in 2019 with 44.6 net yards per punt.
- He is the school’s all-time leading punter at 46.28 yards per kick.
- In the season opener at Auburn, Duffy bombed a career-long 75-yarder that is the third-longest in school history. He’s averaging 46.3 yards per punt this season, 10th nationally and third in the SEC. He doesn’t mind contact either as he has three career tackles.
- Duffy was unavailable vs. Vanderbilt and Alabama. Senior Colin Goodfellow handled his first collegiate appearance well, punting, three times for a 46.3-yard average against Vandy and followed that up by averaging 48.3 yardson seven punts vs. Alabama, including a career-long 55-yarder.
- Senior Matt Ruffolo is the starting placekicker and is 6-8 FG and 14-of-15 PATs this season. He tied a career-long by drilling a 50-yard FG at Missouri on Oct. 24.
- Chance Poore handles kickoffs. He also has placekicking experience, as he made 5-of-9 FGs and 24-of-26 PATs last season. He is 1-of-1 on field goals and 5-of-5 on extra points this season.
- Sophomore Cade Degraw is the long snapper following the graduation of four-year starter Blake Best.
- Senior Zach Johnson is UK’s kick returner, while Josh Ali handles punt returns. Ali has five returns for a 12.4 average. Johnson is averaging 21.5 yards per return this season.

Wildcats' program, a community service event created by former Wildcat C.J. Conrad.

• In the classroom, Duffy graduated in December of 2019 with a degree in psychology and is currently working on a master's degree in kinesiology and health promotion with aspirations of becoming a sports psychologist. He is on track to receive his master's degree in May of 2021. Duffy was named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll and the Dean's List in 2019. Prior to the 2020 season, Duffy was also voted a team captain by his peers.

DEFENSE

- Defensive coordinator in Brad White is in his second season as the defensive coordinator, his third season as the outside linebackers coach at UK.
- UK has allowed 30 or fewer points in 31 of the past 35 games.
- UK is fifth in the SEC in scoring defense (26.5).
- UK is 26th nationally and second in the SEC in red zone defense (.758).
- In the victory over Mississippi State on Oct. 10, the Cats did not allow a touchdown or field goal for the first time since 2009 (a 42-0 shutout of Miami University). It marked the first time UK has held an SEC opponent without an TD or field goal since a 25-0 shutout of Vanderbilt in 1996.
- The performance against MSU helped LB Jordan Wright earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week, while punter Max Duffy was Special Teams Player of the Week.
- Kentucky has 12 interceptions on the season, second in the SEC and fourth nationally.
- Nine interceptions vs. Mississippi State and Tennessee are the most in consecutive games since also grabbing nine in 1993 vs. Kent State (2) and Florida (7). The six interceptions against MSU were the second-most in school history and most since grabbing seven vs. Florida in 1993.
- With three defensive touchdowns on the season, UK is third nationally.

Linebackers

- The linebacking unit runs 20 deep and returns five letterwinners and two starters in senior outside linebacker Jamar "Boogie" Watson and junior Will linebacker DeAndre Square.
- The group corralled four of the Cats' six interceptions in a 24-2 win over Miss. State on Oct. 10, 2020. Jamin Davis, D'Eryk Jackson, Boogie Watson and Jordan Wright each

#LAFAMILIA

Kentucky football has several set of sons playing for fathers who were former Wildcats or who are currently working for UK Football:

- Freshman Beau Allen is the son of former Wildcat Bill Allen (1985-88).
- Sophomore TE Brendan Bates is the grandson of former UK basketball player Gene Neff (1951-52).
- Junior WR Zac Berezowitz is the son of UK Football's chief of staff Dan Berezowitz. Identical twins Brayden and Bryan serve as a graduate assistant and student assistant in the football office, respectively.
- Junior center Tyler Couch is the son former Cat, the late Joey Couch (1988-91).
- Redshirt freshman DB Moses Douglass is the son of former Wildcat Maurice Douglass (1984-85).
- Junior WR Darren Edmond is the son of UK Football's director of performance Corey Edmond.
- Freshman Dru Phillips is the son of former Wildcat Carlos Phillips (1986-90).
- We have brothers, too. Walk-on defensive ends Richard and Alex Brascom of Louisville, Ky., are fraternal twins.

grabbed one.

- Watson is having a strong senior season after totaling 36 tackles, a team-high 11.5 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks and a team-high seven quarterback hurries in 2019. He currently has 4.5 sacks this season and an interception vs. Mississippi State where he ripped the ball out of the receiver's hands just before he crossed the goal line for a score.
- Another junior outside linebacker the coaching staff has been impressed with is Jordan Wright, who sealed the Miss. State win with an eight-yard interception return for a touchdown. He also has a fumble return TD in his career.
- Redshirt freshman linebacker J.J. Weaver had six tackles, including two for loss, both career highs vs. Tennessee. He leads the team with 6.5 TFL.
- The inside linebackers are led by Square, who was UK's second-leading tackler last season with 69. He's third this year with 47 stops.
- At the Mike linebacker spot, it's junior Jamin Davis who is turning heads. He is currently UK's leading tackler and against Tennessee he tallied a then-career-best 12 tackles to go along with an 85-yard interception return for a touchdown, the fourth pickoff of his career. A week earlier against Mississippi State, he had 11 tackles and intercepted a pass in the end zone on the final play of the first half. He had a career-best 15 stops in the win over Vanderbilt. He has recorded five-straight double figure games, the first Wildcat to do that since Danny Trevathan, who had nine straight in 2010.

- Also contributing quality snaps is junior Marquez Bemby, as well as redshirt freshman Jared Casey. Making his first collegiate start, Bemby had his first career double figure tackle game with 10 stops vs. Vanderbilt on Nov. 14.

Defensive Line

- Anwar Stewart, first-year UK defensive line coach and former Wildcat, joined Stoops' staff in January after one season at Appalachian State. Stewart has a veteran defensive line this spring with eight returning letter winners, including two starters in nose guard Quinton Bohanna (18 tackles, 3.0 TFL, 1.0 sacks, 1 PBU) and Joshua Paschal (34 tackles, 9.3 TFL, 3.5 sacks, two FF, 1 PBU and 1 blocked kick).
- Helping make up for the loss of defensive tackle Calvin Taylor Jr., to graduation (starter in all 13 games last season with 9.5 TFL and a team-high 8.5 sacks) is senior Phil Hoskins, who received a sixth year to complete his eligibility after missing last season with a knee injury. Hoskins has 18 tackles on the season, plus a pass interception.
- Senior Kordell Looney has moved from end to tackle and is the backup at that position.
- Josh Paschal moved from outside linebacker to defensive end and is shining in his new role. Paschal has 25 tackles, 4.0 TFL and had a crucial INT vs. Mississippi State that he returned 76 yards to set up a 2-yard score on the next play.
- Backing up Bohanna at nose guard, UK's starter the last two seasons, is junior Marquan McCall. With Bohanna out by injury, McCall got his first collegiate start at Missouri and had a career-high six tackles.

Secondary

- Coach Steve Clinkscale's position group returns eight lettermen, including three starters in cornerback Cedrick Dort Jr., junior free safety Yusuf Corker and senior cornerback Brandin Echols.
- Corker led the team in tackles last season with 76 and he is second this year with 58 stops. He had a career-high 18 tackles at Missouri on Oct. 24, including 16 solo stops. Those 16 solo tackles tie the single-game school record set by Larry Smith vs. Tulane in 1984 and Jeff Zurcher vs. Georgia in 1998.
- UK led the SEC and ranked second nationally in passing yards allowed (167.8 yards per game) in 2019 behind Ohio State.
- Last season, the Cats allowed only nine touchdown passes, tied with Clemson and Ohio State for the fewest in the nation.

- LSU transfer Kelvin Joseph has started every game this season after sitting out the 2019 season. He notched his first career INT in the win over Mississippi State and followed that up with a 41-yard INT return for a touchdown against Tennessee that set the tone for the Cats' 34-7 victory. His fourth INT, coming against Alabama, puts him tied for the third-most in the country overall. He leads the SEC.
- Junior Tyrell Ajan, sophomore Jamari Brown and senior Quandre Mosely also are receiving quality playing time and each has at least one career starting assignment on their resumes.
- Senior Davonte Robinson is back after a season-ending quadriceps injury in 2019. He has 78 career tackles, 4.0 sacks and two fumble recoveries, including the game-sealing one at Florida in 2018 that ended the Cats' losing streak to the Gators.

KENTUCKY'S YOUNGSTOWN BOYS

A neighbor of Pittsburgh, a.k.a. Steel City USA, Youngstown, Ohio has a reputation as a blue collar community defined by hard work and relationships forged over generations that are stronger than steel. Kentucky's football program is, in many ways, defined by that bond as it creates a southern alumni club from Youngstown, the hometown of head coach Mark Stoops and several other key members of the program, including former All-American Lynn Bowden Jr. Below is a list of staffers and players from Youngstown, Ohio:

Mark Stoops - Head Coach (Cardinal Mooney)

Vince Marrow - Recruiting Coord./Tight Ends (Cardinal Mooney)

Steve Clinkscale - Defensive Backs (Chaney)

Frank Buffano - Safeties (Cardinal Mooney)

Courtney Love - Dir. of Player Development (Cardinal Mooney)

DID YOU KNOW?

- A picture of longevity, UK Equipment Manager Tom Kalinowski is in his 43rd season in that role. He also was a student manager in 1974-77, giving him 47 years in UK football. He has worked more than 500 consecutive games.
- UK is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.
- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 24 national cheerleading championships, including 20 of the last 25, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association championships.

KROGER FIELD

On game day, Kroger Field often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 311 games within the friendly confines of newly-named Kroger Field. UK has a 170-137-4 record (.558), 34-21 (.618) under Mark Stoops.
- UK set a new Kroger Field attendance record when 63,543 fans packed the stadium for the Nov. 3, 2018 game vs. No. 6 Georgia.
- Two of the top five crowds in Kroger Field history came in 2018.
- UK announced its first sellout since 2015 when 62,945 fans attended the Florida game on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 62,382 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance in 15 of the last 17 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years. (*Note: Does not include 2020 season due to Covid-19 protocols).
- The playing surface is named C.M. Newton Grounds at Kroger Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

KROGER FIELD

Commonwealth Stadium was renamed to Kroger Field in May of 2017. The agreement--which is between Kroger and JMI Sports, UK's multimedia rights partner--begins at approximately $1.85 million annually with a term of up to 12 years. With the partnership, Kroger becomes the Official Fuel Partner of the University of Kentucky and the Official Grocery Partner of Move-In at UK while also providing additional engagement opportunities with UK students. Per the agreement, Kroger is also the Official Nutrition and Pharmacy Partner of UK Athletics.

Kroger Field was transformed into a state-of-the-art facility after a $126-million reinvention which was completed prior to the 2015 season. The project was handled by HNTB. The outside of the stadium underwent a dramatic external facelift, receiving a modern look, but one that remained uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Kroger Field was reduced over the course of the two-year project to approximately 61,000, but the value of all remaining seats were increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses were revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reaped the benefits of the new Kroger Field as well, as home-team facilities were built, and a multi-purpose recruiting room hosts future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Seating Capacity: 61,000, including the Commonwealth Suites

Playing Field: UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri. The end zones and team sideline areas feature a checkerboard pattern in alternating shades of blue. It was designed to mimic the pattern of Secretariat's silks, which has been part of the football uniforms for five seasons. The school's new interlocking "UK" logo is positioned in the center of the field.

Video Boards: Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage. The interior seating bowl also has LED ribbon boards.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

GAME DAY EXPERIENCES

The "Cat Walk" on Talbott Todd Way: With the unveiling of the new $45 million Kentucky Football Training Facility in August of 2016, the headquarters of the program moved next door to Kroger Field. That means the Cat Walk presented by Chevy will still begin outside Gate 1 two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, but the team proceeds past Gate 1 and between Kroger Field and Nutter Field House which has been dedicated to former Wildcat Talbott Todd (1963-65). Todd, who passed away from ALS in August of 2017, was an avid supporter of the program. From Talbott Todd Way the team will walk to the locker room in the Joe Craft Kentucky Football Training Facility.

Pregame concerts: The Kentucky Football Pregame Concert Series has returned for the 2018 season. Concerts will begin on the stage outside Gate 12 immediately following the Cat Walk and last until 30 minutes prior to kickoff. The Cat Walk takes place two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff.

Coca Cola Fan Zone: Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the Fan Zone located in Nutter Field House. It will have inflatable games, free posters, face tattoos and more, available two hours before kickoff.

Lift Them Up: A unique partnership with Toyota Motor Manufacturing Kentucky (TMMK), the Kentucky College of Engineering and the Kentucky Children's Hospital was launched in 2019 that brings special guests to the Cat Walk presented by Chevy this season as the Kentucky football team arrives at Kroger Field. A brand-new and specially built push cart vehicle provides a Kentucky Children's Hospital patient the chance to both accompany the Wildcats on the Cat Walk and attend a game at Kroger Field. A new patient is chosen by the Kentucky Children's Hospital each week to participate.

AUBURN 29, KENTUCKY 13

SEPT. 26, 2020 • AUBURN, ALA.
JORDAN-HARE STADIUM (17,490)

Terry Wilson passed for 239 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 42 yards, but No. 23 Kentucky lost its season opener, falling at No. 8 Auburn 29-13.

Wilson was 24 of 37 through the air, connecting with Josh Ali nine times for 98 yards. Kavosiey Smoke led the UK ground attack with seven carries for 62 yards and a touchdown.

Auburn got a couple of first downs on its first possession before being forced to punt. Kentucky took over inside its own 10 yard line. The Cats drove into Auburn territory and, on a third and short, Smoke scampered 35 yards off the right side for the first touchdown of the season. Matt Ruffolo added the PAT and the Cats led 7-0 after an 11-play, 93-yard drive.

The Tigers responded with a scoring drive of their own. Auburn covered 70 yards in just seven plays, capped by a one-yard touchdown run by D.J. Williams. The Tigers faked the extra point and Grant Loy hit John Samuel Shenker with a pass for the two-point conversion, giving Auburn an 8-7 lead with 4:30 to play in the first quarter. That would be the score after the first period.

As the second quarter got underway, Kentucky faced a fourth and three from the Auburn 39, but Wilson's pass intended for Clevan Thomas Jr. was broken up and Auburn took possession.

Auburn promptly drove into Kentucky territory and eventually faced a fourth and one from the UK 16. The Tigers handed the ball to Williams, who was stuffed by UK linebacker DeAndre Square, giving the ball back to the Cats on the UK 16.

Kentucky was able to drive into Auburn territory, but a holding penalty hampered the Cats' progress and UK was forced to punt.

After an Auburn punt, Kentucky again drove into Auburn territory, aided by a 40-yard completion from Wilson to Allen Dailey Jr., setting up the Cats at the Auburn 12. The Cats drove inside the Auburn one, and Chris Rodriguez Jr. appeared to score, but replay indicated that he did not get in. On second and goal from the one, Wilson was stuffed, giving UK third and one from the one. That's when Wilson threw an interception that was returned 100 yards by Roger McCreary for a touchdown. However, after review, Auburn was called for targeting, negating the score. Auburn took an 8-7 lead into the half.

In the second half, Kentucky opened with a three-and-out. After a UK punt, Auburn took over and immediately marched into UK territory. However, the UK defense stood tall, forcing the Tigers to go for it on fourth and eight. Quarterback Bo Nix pooch punted the ball to the UK two yard line.

The Cats could do nothing with the possession but Max Duffy boomed a 75-yard punt, the third-longest in school history, giving the Tigers the ball on their own 24. From there Auburn drove into UK territory and into the red zone. Nix connected with Seth Williams on an 11-yard touchdown pass and Anders Carlson added the PAT to give Auburn a 15-7 lead with 5:42 to play in the third quarter.

Kentucky responded with a drive of its own, methodically marching into Auburn territory. The Cats would get into the red zone and Wilson connected with Akeem Hayes for an eight-yard touchdown, the first of Hayes' career, to make it 15-13 with 1:00 left in the third. The Cats would go for two, but Wilson could not find anyone open and the try failed.

Auburn added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns on passing touchdowns by Nix to Seth Williams and Eli Stove to lead 29-13.

OLE MISS 42, KENTUCKY 41

OCT. 3, 2020 • LEXINGTON, KY
KROGER FIELD (12,000)

Kentucky rushed for 408 yards and six touchdowns, but the Wildcats fell to Ole Miss 42-41 in overtime.

Kentucky got career-high rushing efforts from Chris Rodriguez Jr., who had 133 yards and two touchdowns, Terry Wilson, who had 129 yards and three touchdowns, and Asim Rose, who had 117 yards on the ground and a touchdown.

Wilson was also 14-of-18 through the air for 151 yards in the game.

Ole Miss took the opening kickoff and methodically marched down the field. The Rebels covered 75 yards in eight plays and just 2:22, ending with a one-yard touchdown rush by Jerrian Ealy. The PAT from Luke Logan was good and the Rebels grabbed an early 7-0 lead.

Kentucky's opening possession started with a 72-yard rush from Rose, taking the ball to the Ole Miss three yard line. Rose carried on the next play, getting the Cats to the one. But on the third UK play, out of the Wildcat formation, Rose fumbled and Ole Miss took over at its own one yard line.

The Rebels were unable to do anything with the ensuing possession and were forced to punt. Josh Ali returned the punt 17 yards to the Ole Miss 29, giving the Cats outstanding field position with which to start their second possession. From there, the Cats needed only four plays and 1:54 to get into the end zone, with quarterback Terry Wilson rushing it in from four yards out. Matt Ruffolo added the PAT to tie the game at 7-7 with 7:36 left in the first period.

On its next possession, Ole Miss made it to midfield, but was forced to punt after a sack from Marquan McCall and J.J. Weaver on third down. Kentucky would take over at its own 20 with 5:58 left in the first.

The Cats again moved right down the field, quickly getting inside the red zone. On third and goal from the two, Rose pushed his way into the end zone, giving UK its first lead of the game. Ruffolo's PAT was good and the Cats led 14-7 with 1:33 left in the first. That would be the score after 15 minutes of play.

As the second quarter began, Ole Miss was driving. The Rebels would tie the game on a 14-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matt Corral to Kenny Yeboah. Logan's PAT tied the game at 14-14 with 13:19 left in the half.

The next four possessions would end in punts, two by each team. But just before the half, Kentucky mounted a drive that would cover 83 yards in nine plays, ending with a 22-yard touchdown run from Wilson. Ruffolo added the PAT, giving Kentucky a 21-14 lead with 29 seconds left in the half. That would be the halftime score.

Kentucky got the ball first in the second half, and the Wildcats used the ground game to effectively drive the ball down the field. UK covered 75 yards in 10 plays, all on the ground, ending with a 22-yard touchdown run from Chris Rodriguez Jr. Ruffolo's PAT gave the Cats a 28-14 lead with 10:41 left in the third quarter.

Ole Miss had a response, quickly assembling a scoring drive of its own. The Rebels needed just four plays to go 75 yards, ending with a 24-yard pass from Corral to Jonathan Mingo. Logan's extra point was good, and Ole Miss climbed within seven, 28-21, with 9:17 still to play in the third quarter.

On its next drive, Kentucky drove into Ole Miss territory, again riding the run game. But Ole Miss would stop the Cats, forcing a field goal. But Ruffolo's try from 49 yards hit the right upright and bounced back onto the field.

The Rebels would take possession and would promptly drive into UK territory. The Rebels would go 68 yards to the UK one-yard line, but the UK defense, led by Kelvin Joseph and Josh Paschal, came up with a stop on fourth-and-goal, keeping the Rebels from scoring.

Pinned at its own goal line, Kentucky was unable to do much with the ensuing possession and was forced to punt. Ole Miss took over and had the ball as the third quarter ended with UK leading 28-21.

But on that same drive, Ole Miss would tie the score, as Corral hit Mingo with a 16-yard touchdown pass. Logan's PAT tied the score at 28 apiece with 13:37 to play in the game.

Kentucky took over and was able to get into Ole Miss territory. However, the Cats suffered yardage losses on third and fourth down and Ole Miss got the ball back at its own 47. The Rebels got a 47-yard completion from Corral to Yeboah on first down, then a pass interference call against UK gave the Rebels possession at the two-yard line. Two plays later, Connor scored from one yard out as Ole Miss took its first lead since the first quarter, a 35-28 advantage with 8:23 to play.

Just as Ole Miss kept doing, Kentucky responded. The Cats rode the arm of Wilson, who had 66 yards passing during a 75-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown carry from Rodriguez. Ruffolo nailed the extra point and the game was tied 35-35 with 2:04 to play.

Kentucky forced at Ole Miss punt on the next possession, and the Cats ran out the clock and the game went to overtime.

The Cats got the ball first in overtime and needed just four plays, all on the ground, to score. Wilson covered the final 10 yards, rushing for his third touchdown of the game. But Ruffolo missed the PAT and the Cats led 41-35.

Ole Miss quickly drove inside the UK 10, aided by a pass interference call in the end zone. The Rebels had first and goal from the two, and on second down, Corral hit Elijah Moore with a three-yard TD pass. Logan made the PAT and Ole Miss claimed the win.

KENTUCKY 24, MISSISSIPPI STATE 2

OCT. 10, 2020 • LEXINGTON, KY
 KROGER FIELD (12,000)

Kentucky defense forced six turnovers and held Mississippi State to just two points as the Cats won for the first time this season by beating the Bulldogs 24-2 on at Kroger Field.

In the process, Kentucky held the Mike Leach-coached Bulldogs to the fewest points that any Leach-coached team has ever scored. Previously, Leach-coached teams, which feature the Air Raid offense that Hal Mumme used at Kentucky, had never been held below three points.

Offensively, Kentucky could never get much going. Quarterback Terry Wilson hit on only eight of 20 passes for 73 yards and a touchdown. Wilson also led the Cats in rushing, carrying 13 times for 50 yards. Kentucky had just 157 yards of offense in the game compared to Mississippi State's 296. But the six turnovers were the difference.

The teams exchanged punts twice to open the game. Neither team was able to get anything going in the first period, as UK had just 53 yards of total offense, while MSU was held to 48. That resulted in a scoreless tie after 15 minutes of action.

Early in the second quarter, MSU had a chance to get on the board, but a 56-yard field goal attempt by Brandon Ruiz came up short and the game remained scoreless.

On the ensuing possession, Kentucky appeared to be going nowhere until Wilson scrambled for a 51-yard run, getting the case to the MSU 14. Two plays later, Wilson hit Keaton Upshaw over the middle for a 12-yard touchdown pass, breaking the scoring drought. Matt Ruffolo made the PAT and the Cats grabbed a 7-0 lead with 12:13 left in the first half.

Later in the second quarter, MSU drove into the UK red zone before Josh Paschal intercepted a KJ Costello pass and returned it 76 yards to the MSU two yard line. From there, Kentucky needed just one play, a two-yard touchdown rush from Chris Rodriguez Jr. to extend the lead. After Ruffolo's PAT, the Cats had a 14-0 lead with 3:48 left in the half.

MSU drove deep into Kentucky territory near the end of the first half. On the final play of the half, Costello threw into the end zone and was picked off by UK's Jamin Davis. That ended the half with the Cats leading 14-0.

In the second half, MSU went for a fourth-and-inches from their own 34 yard line. But Costello's pass intended for Cameron Gardner was incomplete and Kentucky took over in excellent field position. But the Cats' AJ Rose fumbled on the second play of the possession, giving the ball right back to the Bulldogs.

But the Bulldogs gave it right back to the Cats. On the fourth play of the ensuing drive, Costello was intercepted by UK's Kelvin Joseph at the UK 30 with 10:37 left in the third quarter. But the Cats would do nothing with the possession and were forced to punt.

MSU would finally get on the board when, on a fourth down, Kentucky snapped the ball over Max Duffy's head on a punt attempt. Duffy scrambled to kick the ball out the back of the end zone, resulting in a safety and making it 14-2 with 5:49 left in the third quarter.

The third quarter would end with MSU driving into UK territory. But the Cats led 14-2 with 15 minutes to play.

As the fourth quarter started, reserve quarterback Will Rogers was intercepted by Jamar "Boogie" Watson in the end zone, thwarting another MSU scoring opportunity.

Another interception was the final straw as UK's Jordan Wright picked off Rogers and returned it eight yards for a touchdown the put the Cats ahead 21-2.

KENTUCKY 34, #17 TENNESSEE 7

OCT. 17, 2020 • KNOXVILLE, TENN.
NEYLAND STADIUM (22,519)

Kentucky returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the first half and the UK defense held No. 18 Tennessee in check the entire game as the Cats broke a 17-game losing streak in Knoxville by beating the Vols 34-7 at Neyland Stadium.

Kelvin Joseph got the scoring underway with a pick-six in the second quarter and Jamin Davis did the same later in the quarter to give the Cats a 14-0 lead.

UK had only 294 yards of total offense in the game, but the Cats forced four UT turnovers and scored 17 points off those miscues.

Quarterback Terry Wilson was 12 of 15 through the air for 101 yards and a touchdown. Chris Rodriguez Jr. rushed for 73 yards and a score for the Cats.

The teams traded punts to start the game, then each team turned it over on their next possession. The first quarter would end with the game still scoreless.

Starting the second quarter, Kentucky punted again and Tennessee took possession. After getting a first down, Joseph intercepted UT quarterback Jarrett Guarantano and returned it 41 yards for a touchdown. It was Joseph's second interception in as many weeks. Matt Ruffolo added the extra point and Kentucky led 7-0 with 12:47 left in the half.

On the next UT possession, the Cats did it again. As Tennessee was driving, Guarantano was picked off again, this time by Davis, who grabbed a pass thrown across the middle and returned it 85 yards for UK's second defensive touchdown of the first half. Ruffolo's PAT gave the Cats a 14-0 lead with 10:33 to play in the first half.

Tennessee went to backup quarterback J.T. Shrout on its next possession, but the result was the same. This time, it was UK defensive back Tyrell Ajan interception a pass, giving the Cats possession at the UT 37.

The Cats took advantage of the fourth UT turnover of the first half when Ruffolo nailed a 30-yard field goal to give UK a 17-0 lead with 6:18 to play in the half.

Tennessee was able to get on the board late in the half, using 14 plays to cover 75 yards and ending with a four-yard touchdown rush from Ty Chandler. Brent Cimaglia added the PAT and the Vols pulled within 17-7 with 1:36 to play in the half. That would be the halftime score.

The Vols went three and out on their first possession of the second half. Kentucky took over and drove deep into Tennessee territory. And on third-and-goal from the one, Wilson hit Allen Dailey Jr. in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown to complete the 11-play, 76-yard drive. Ruffolo added the PAT and the Cats led 24-7 with 7:24 to play in the third quarter.

After another UT punt, Kentucky again drove into the UT red zone. But the Vols stopped the Cats inside the ten and UK was forced to settle for a 27-yard field goal from Ruffolo, which he converted to give the Cats a 27-7 lead with 1:02 left in the third.

Tennessee went three and out again on its next possession and the Cats turned to the ground game on the ensuing possession. Kentucky ran the ball on seven straight plays, the final one being a two-yard touchdown rush from Rodriguez. Ruffolo added another PAT and the Cats led 34-7 with 10:54 to play.

MISSOURI 20, KENTUCKY 10

OCT. 24, 2020 • COLUMBIA, MO.
MEMORIAL STADIUM (11,738)

Missouri's defense held Kentucky in check all day as the Tigers broke a five-game losing streak to the Cats by winning 20-10 at Faurot Field.

UK amassed only 145 yards of offense in the game. The Cats had 98 yards on the ground and 47 through the air. Meanwhile, Missouri had 421 yards of offense, with 220 coming on the ground and 201 through the air.

Missouri had the ball for 43:10 in the game, including several long drives. The Tigers ran 92 plays in the game, compared to just 36 for Kentucky.

Yusuf Corker had a career-high 18 tackles in the game, including 16 solo stops. Corker had a sack and two tackles for loss in the contest. Jamin Davis added 10 tackles for Kentucky, his second straight game with double-digit tackle numbers.

The first quarter featured five punts, three by Kentucky and two by Missouri, but no points. Neither offense was able to get much going, with Kentucky amassing only 23 yards of offense, while Missouri had just 80 yards of its own.

Early in the second quarter, Missouri mounted the first significant drive of the game. The Tigers drove into the UK red zone and scored on a one-yard run by Larry Rountree, capping off a 13-play, 66-yard scoring drive. Harrison Mevis added the extra point and Missouri led 7-0 with 10:57 left in the first half.

Kentucky went to Joey Gatewood at quarterback on its next series, and that seemed to spark the offense. For the first time in the game, UK drove into MU territory, but the drive stalled and the Cats settled for a career-long-tying, 50-yard field goal from Matt Ruffolo, cutting the deficit to 7-3 with 8:24 to play in the half.

Late in the half, Missouri drove to the UK one yard line inside the final minute, but the Tigers were forced to settle for a 19-yard field goal from Mevis to make it 10-3 at the half.

On the first drive of the second half, Missouri ate up nearly 10 minutes of clock on a 21-play drive. However, the Kentucky defense stood tall and, on fourth and one from the UK seven, Corker stopped MU quarterback Connor Bazelak for a two-yard loss and the Cats took over at their own nine.

The Cats were unable to do anything with the possession and punted the ball back to Missouri with 3:56 left in the third quarter. On the ensuing drive, Missouri again drove deep into UK territory and scored on a Rountree one-yard rush. Mevis added the PAT and the Tigers led 17-3 with 45 seconds left in the third quarter. That would be the score after three periods.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Cats assembled their best drive of the game to that point. And Kentucky would convert when Terry Wilson hit Josh Ali in the right corner of the end zone for a 26-yard touchdown. Ruffolo added the PAT and the Cats were within 17-10 with 13:14 left in the game.

Later in the fourth, Missouri put the game out of reach with another long drive. The Tigers used 15 plays to cover 61 yards, ending with a 20-yard field goal from Mevis, making it 20-10.

#5/5 GEORGIA 14, KENTUCKY 3

OCT. 31, 2020 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (12,000)

Chris Rodriguez Jr. rushed for 108 yards and the Kentucky defense held No. 5 Georgia in check but the Bulldogs did just enough to beat the Cats 14-3 at Kroger Field.

For Rodriguez, it was his second 100-yard rushing game this season and the fourth of his career. His 20 carries was the most he's ever had in a game as a Wildcat.

Other than Rodriguez's effort, the Wildcats struggled on offense. Kentucky managed just 229 yards of total offense, with 138 on the ground and 91 through the air.

Quarterback Joey Gatewood, making his first career start for Kentucky, was 15 of 25 through the air for 91 yards. Josh Ali was Gatewood's top target, catching five passes for 38 yards.

Kentucky got another big defensive effort from Jamin Davis, who led the Cats with 13 tackles in the game. Davis also blocked a field goal, forced a fumble and had a pass breakup for Kentucky.

The Cats took the opening kickoff and were able to get one first down before being forced to punt. Georgia took possession on its own 14 yard line and from there, the Bulldogs marched down the field, keeping the ball on the ground for the entire drive. Ultimately, Georgia would score on a two-yard touchdown rush by quarterback Stetson Bennett, ending a 12-play scoring drive. Jack Podlesny added the PAT and Georgia took a 7-0 lead with 6:07 to play in the first quarter.

On its second drive, Kentucky again got one first down before being forced to punt. Georgia took over at its own eight yard line with 2:06 left in the first quarter. The Bulldogs would lead 7-0 at the end of the first period.

Early in the second quarter, Georgia punted and Kentucky took over at its own seven yard line. The Cats held onto the ball for 10:28, using 19 plays to cover 77 yards and driving into the Georgia red zone. However, the drive stalled the UK settled for a 34-yard field goal from Matt Ruffolo, cutting the UGA lead to 7-3 with 2:44 left in the half.

Georgia would answer with a 46-yard pass from Bennett to James Cook to start its next drive. After just two plays, the Bulldogs were in the red zone. However, Phil Hoskins made an incredible play, tipping a Bennett pass into the air, then intercepting it, foiling the Georgia drive and giving the Cats the ball at their own 25 with 1:19 to play in the half.

Kentucky would punt and Georgia would take possession with 18 seconds left. The Bulldogs drove across midfield, but their field goal attempt as the half expire was blocked by Davis. Georgia held a 7-3 lead at the break.

Georgia took the second half kickoff and marched into Kentucky territory. But the Cats defense held and forced a fourth-and-one from the UK 22. The Bulldogs went for it, and it paid off as Zamir White ran up the middle for a touchdown. Podlesny added the PAT and Georgia led 14-3 with 11:38 left in the third quarter.

Kentucky took the next possession and drove into Georgia territory. However, on the seventh play of the drive, Gatewood fumbled at the UGA 34 and the Bulldogs recovered, taking over with 7:50 left in the third quarter.

Georgia drove into UK territory but was again foiled by the UK defense. This time, it was Kelvin Joseph picking off a Bennett pass, giving the Cats the ball at their own 18 and keeping Georgia from scoring one more time. The Bulldogs would lead 14-3 after three quarters.

In the fourth quarter, neither team scored and only Georgia really threatened to do so as the defenses took over.

KENTUCKY 38, VANDERBILT 35

NOV. 14, 2020 • LEXINGTON, KY.
KROGER FIELD (12,000)

Chris Rodriguez Jr. carried 13 times for a career-high 149 yards and a pair of touchdowns as Kentucky beat Vanderbilt 38-35 at Kroger Field.

Kentucky rushed for 308 yards as a team in the game, the second-highest total for the Cats this season. Kentucky's 458 yards of total offense also marked the second-highest in a game in 2020. UK's season highs came against Ole Miss in the second game of the season.

Quarterback Terry Wilson had a solid game for the Cats on Saturday. Wilson connected on 13 of his 15 passes, including nine of his first nine, for 110 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Wilson also rushed for 83 yards on seven carries, including a touchdown.

Defensively, Jamin Davis led Kentucky in tackles again this week, notching 13 in Saturday's win. Yusuf Corker and Marquez Bembry each had nine tackles.

In honor of John Schlarman, Kentucky's offensive line coach who died earlier in the week, the Wildcats left an open spot on the offensive line and ultimately took a delay of game penalty on the game's first play. After the penalty, which Vanderbilt declined, UK sent senior offensive tackle Landon Young onto the field, wearing jersey number 65, which Schlarman wore as a UK player.

After honoring their coach, the Wildcat offense marched down the field, covering 75 yards in nine plays. The drive ended when Wilson hit Justin Rigg over the middle with a 15-yard touchdown, the first of Rigg's career, to give the Cats an early lead. Chance Poore added the extra point and Kentucky led 7-0 with 10:15 to play in the first quarter.

Vanderbilt was forced to punt at the conclusion of its first possession, with Kentucky taking over at its own 32 yard line. From there, the Cats needed just six plays to cover 68 yards and extend the lead. It was Wilson scrambling down the right sideline for a 32-yard touchdown rush. Poore added the PAT and Kentucky led 14-0 with 3:48 left in the first. That would be the score after one quarter.

At the beginning of the second quarter, Vanderbilt cut into the UK lead. The Commodores covered 74 yards in just eight plays, culminating with a 34-yard touchdown pass from Ken Seals to Chris Pierce. And when Wes Farley added the PAT, the UK lead was 14-7 with 14:30 to play in the half.

The Wildcats answered on the ensuing drive. Boosted by a 27-yard rush from Rodriguez, the Cats drove into Vandy territory and scored when Wilson connected with Keaton Upshaw for a 21-yard touchdown pass over the middle. Poore added another PAT and the Cats extended the lead to 21-7 with 10:28 left in the half. The drive covered 79 yards in seven plays.

On Vanderbilt's next drive, the Commodores drove deep into Kentucky territory. Then, on a fourth-and-goal from the two yard line, Vandy's Mike Wright connected with Ben Bresnahan with a short touchdown pass. The drive took 17 plays and covered 78 yards and it cut the UK lead to 21-14 with 3:40 to play in the half.

Just before the half, Kentucky drove into Vandy territory and with three seconds left in the half, Poore made a 28-yard field goal to give the Cats a 24-14 lead at the half. It was Poore's first made field goal of the season on his first attempt.

In the second half, Vanderbilt was forced to punt on its first possession and Josh Ali caught the punt on the run and returned it 39 yards to the Vandy 26 yard line.

From there, Kentucky needed just six plays to get into the end zone again. Rodriguez took direct snaps on the last two plays of the drive, the latter of which was a three-yard touchdown run. Poore added another PAT and the Cats' lead was 31-14 with 10:34 to go in the third. At that point, Kentucky had scored on all five of its drives in the game.

Vanderbilt answered with another long, sustained drive. The Commodores would get inside the UK one, but would lose a yard on the third-down play. Then on fourth-and-goal from the two, Wright scrambled around right end for the score. Pierson Cooke added the PAT to cut the UK lead to 31-21 with 2:53 left in the third quarter. It was a 15-play, 75-yard drive that took 7:41 off the clock.

The Cats punted for the first time on their next possession but Vanderbilt was unable to do anything with the possession and punted it back to the Cats, who took the ball at their own nine.

On the ensuing drive, Rodriguez broke loose for a touchdown run that covered 74 yards, a career long, extending the lead. Poore's PAT was good, giving UK a 38-21 lead with 9:14 to play.

Vanderbilt added a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns, including one with 30 seconds remaining, to complete the scoring.

#1/1 ALABAMA 63, KENTUCKY 3

NOV. 21, 2020 • TUSCALOOSA, ALA.
BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM (19,424)

An undermanned Kentucky squad lost at No. 1 Alabama 63-3 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Kentucky was missing approximately 10 players, including five starters in the game.

Terry Wilson completed 10 of 19 passing for 120 yards in the game, while Asim Rose carried 10 times for 68 yards. Alabama native Kavosiey Smoke had 26 yards on nine carries. Josh Ali caught four passes for 52 yards, while Keaton Upshaw had three catches for 44 yards.

Kentucky took the opening kickoff and was able to get one first down before being forced to punt. Alabama took the ensuing possession and went 55 yards in six plays, ending with a one-yard touchdown rush from Najee Harris. Will Reichard added the point after and Alabama led 7-0 with 10:07 left in the first quarter.

On its next drive, Kentucky got the offense going, driving into the Alabama red zone, keyed by a 33-yard reception by Ali from Wilson. But the drive stalled and the Cats were forced to settle for a 33-yard field goal from Matt Ruffolo, which was good. Kentucky cut the lead to 7-3 with 5:19 to go in the first period.

Alabama (7-0, 7-0) got two first downs on its next drive before Jordan Wright broke up a third-down pass and forced the Crimson Tide to punt. The Cats took over at their own 20 with 3:34 to play in the first.

Kentucky promptly drove into Alabama territory again, getting into the red zone as the first quarter ended. A nice mix of running and passing plays allowed the Cats to threaten again. UK would get inside the Alabama 10, but the Cats were unable to get into the end zone. Ruffolo came on for a 24-yard field goal attempt, but a high snap foiled the attempt and Alabama took over at their own 42.

Alabama took advantage, covering 58 yards in just four plays, ending with a Mac Jones 10-yard touchdown pass to DeVonta Smith. Reichard added the PAT and Alabama grabbed a 14-3 lead with 10:12 remaining in the half.

The Cats took the next possession and again drove into Alabama territory. But again the Cats were stopped and were forced to try a 42-yard field goal from Ruffolo. This one missed just to the right and Alabama took over with 5:37 left in the half.

Alabama wasted no time, covering 75 yards in just five plays. Harris finished the drive with a 42-yard touchdown run and Reichard added the PAT to give the Tide a 21-3 lead with 4:02 left in the half.

Kentucky went three-and-out on its next drive and Alabama took over with 2:22 left in the half. The Tide quickly marched down the field and they scored again when Jones hit John Metchie with an 18-yard scoring pass. Reichard added the PAT and the Tide led 28-3. That would be the halftime score.

On the opening drive of the second half, Alabama was driving but Jones tried to hit Smith on a deep ball. Instead, it was intercepted by Kelvin Joseph, his team-best fourth of the year, thwarting the drive and giving UK the ball at their own 22. But after getting one first down, on a Rose 20-yard rush, the Cats were forced to punt.

Alabama would score 35 unanswered points in the second half to provide the final margin of victory.

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS / EIGHTH SEASON / IOWA, 1989

When Mark Stoops was asked before last season how he could continue success after major personnel losses from the 2018 team, the coach replied, “We didn’t come here to build a team. We came here to build a program.”

It appears that Stoops is doing exactly that.

Stoops followed the landmark '18 season with a remarkable 2019 campaign that represented Kentucky’s fourth consecutive winning season and fourth straight post-season bid, topped by a dramatic win over Virginia Tech in the Belk Bowl. However, it didn’t come easily.

Stoops had to overcome the departure of 14 starters from 2018, including three All-Americans, and by September three quarterbacks had been lost to injury. The coach relied on the conventional – physical play on both sides of the ball – and the unconventional, moving a wide receiver to quarterback, to navigate the challenging season.

With receiver Lynn Bowden Jr. manning the QB spot, UK went 6-2 down the stretch. UK closed the season with four straight wins, including a 45-13 regular-season finale vs. in-state rival Louisville, featuring a school-record 517 rushing yards.

Bowden went on to earn first-team All-America honors and the Paul Hornung Award as the nation’s most versatile player. Punter Max Duffy was first-team All-America as well being named the Ray Guy Award as the nation’s top punter. Guard Logan Stenberg checked in as a second-team All-American, giving UK three All-Americans for the second year in a row.

Meanwhile, a young defensive unit continued to mature and became UK’s first team in 40 years to hold every opponent to 30 or fewer points.

Stoops is only the second coach in Kentucky history to take his team to four straight bowls and UK’s 32 wins over the last four seasons are the most in a four-year span since Paul “Bear” Bryant piloted the Wildcats in 1949-52.

This 2019 team followed the success of the 2018 squad that went 10-3, UK’s best season in 41 years, topped by a win over Penn State in the VRBO Citrus Bowl. It was only the third 10-win season in school history.

In addition, the 2018 campaign featured a win at Florida -- the Wildcats’ first victory over the Gators in 32 years -- resulting in UK being named the National Team of the

STOOPS AND CO. MAKING A HIT IN RECRUITING

In seven seasons at the helm of the Kentucky football program, head coach Mark Stoops and his staff have been making noise on the recruiting trail. Kentucky's eight classes under Stoops have ranked in the top 50 by all four major recruiting services. Below is a look at UK's recruiting success under Stoops and Co. (Note that the 2020 recruiting rankings are as of December 18, 2019).

Week by the Football Writers Association of America. The regular season concluded with a 56-10 win at in-state rival Louisville, the largest margin of victory in the history of the Governor's Cup series.

UK was No. 11 in the final USA Today coaches' poll and No. 12 in the final Associated Press tabulation, the school's first appearance in the final rankings since 1984.

CollegeFootballNews.com listed Stoops as the best coaching performance of the season and he was named Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by The Associated Press, Athlon Sports and the league coaches.

Stoops' individual accolades also extended to his players. Linebacker Josh Allen earned three National Defensive Player of the Year Awards and was a unanimous first-team All-American. Offensive guard Bunchy Stallings also was a first-team All-American and running back Benny Snell earned second-team All-America while becoming UK's all-time leading rusher.

The 2018 season continued a remarkable trend – since Stoops took over as coach of the Cats in 2013, UK was the only school in the nation that tied or improved its win total in six straight seasons.

How has Stoops accomplished all of this? The coach would tell you that there's been nothing magical about the process.

True to his blue-collar roots in Youngstown, Ohio, the methodical advancement made by Stoops' teams is a reflection of the coach's rock-steady work ethic, tireless recruiting, and ability to adapt.

Stoops' ability to adjust when necessary shone its brightest at the beginning of the 2016 season. After losing the first two games of the schedule, and seeing his starting quarterback out for the season with an injury, and seeing his defense struggle in the early stages, Stoops didn't retreat. The Wildcat coach chose determination over despair and went back to work, revising the offense for a new QB while becoming more involved in helping coach the defense.

The results? The Wildcats went 7-3 in the last 10 regular-season games, highlighted by a win at No. 11-ranked Louisville and a trip to the TaxSlayer Bowl. Stoops was named 2016 SEC Coach of the Year runner-up by Athlon Sports. That was followed by another seven-win season in 2017, topped by a berth in the Franklin-American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-12. He inherited a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation's top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Cornellius Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13. Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The Seminoles' prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops' defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops' arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops' three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark's time there, Arizona's records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years. Mark and Mike are also brothers of Bob Stoops, who spent 18 years as the Oklahoma head coach and now leads the XFL Dallas Renegades. The eldest Stoops brother, Ron Jr., is retired after coaching at Youngstown State.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Prior to Arizona, Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops' 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs,

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. As did brothers Bob and Mike, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Mark and his wife, Chantel, have two sons, Will and Zack.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOVON BOUKNIGHT

WIDE RECEIVERS

In a revamped run-based offense last season, Kentucky's wide receivers continued to catch passes while providing outstanding blocking support for the record-breaking ground game. Ahmad Wagner is the only receiver gone from that 2019 receiving corps. Bouknight, who was hired on March 10 after one season at Oregon, has 15 returning receivers to work with, and welcomes three freshmen in Kalil Branham, Izayah Cummings and Earnest Sanders IV.

2020-present	Kentucky	Wide Receivers

EDDIE GRANASSISTANT HEAD COACH FOR OFFENSE/RUNNING BACKS

After losing his top three quarterbacks to injury in 2019, Gran did a remarkable job of revamping the offense with Lynn Bowden Jr., a receiver-turned-quarterback. The Cats set new single-season records in rushing yards (3,624), rushing TDs (36) and yards per rushing attempt (6.32). Gran's top three running backs return this season in A.J. Rose, Christopher Rodriguez and Kavosiey Smoke.

FRANK BUFFANO

SAFETIES

First-year assistant coach Frank Buffano was hired in March of 2020 after serving seven years as the director of football operations at UK. He will help Clinkscale with the defensive backs and work primarily with the safeties. Gone is senior Jordan Griffin to graduation but Buffano's room will feature the return of free safety Davonte Robinson who missed last season with injury. Also returning is the team's leading tackler in Yusuf Coker.

DARIN HINSHAWCO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
QUARTERBACKS

Faced with injuries to his top three quarterbacks last year, Hinshaw was faced with immediately turning wide receiver Lynn Bowden Jr. into a quarterback -- a position he had not played since high school. This year, depth isn't an issue. Five signal callers return along with two new additions in freshman Beau Allen and sophomore transfer Joey Gatewood.

STEVE CLINKSCALE

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Unlike the rebuilding he had to do in 2019, Clinkscale returns 16 defensive backs this fall, including three starters in Yusuf Coker (team's leading returning tackler), Brandin Echols, and Cedrick Dort Jr. The secondary ranked second in the nation in fewest touchdown passes allowed (7) and 13th nationally in pass efficiency defense last season.

VINCE MARROW

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Despite playing in a run-based offense the last eight games of the season, Marrow's tight ends combined to catch 19 passes in 2019, while providing solid blocking for the Wildcats' record-setting rushing attack. Five tight ends return this fall, led by senior starter Justin Rigg and sophomore Keaton Upshaw.

JON SUMRALL

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Sumrall oversaw an effective four-man rotation at the middle and weakside linebacker positions in 2019. Two of those linebackers are juniors and are poised to have a stellar season - DeAndre Square and Jamin Davis. Redshirt freshman Jared Casey looks to get into the rotation as well.

JOHN SCHLARMAN

OFFENSIVE LINE

"Big men lead the way" is the motto of UK asst. head coach Eddie Gran. When Gran revamped the offensive system in midseason, John Schlarmann's line helped set school records with 3,624 rushing yards and 36 rushing TDs. The "Big Blue Wall" returns nine letter winners from 19, including center Drake Jackson, a first-team All-SEC selection, as well as Luke Fortner, Darian Kinnard and third-team All-SEC choice Landon Young. Schlarmann welcomes five newcomers in R.J. Adams, Deondre Buford, Jeremy Flax, Josh Jones and John Young.

BRAD WHITE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Brad White is in his second season as defensive coordinator and with 20 returners on defense, including seven starters, the 2020 season could be a lot of fun. In 2019, White's young defense gave an outstanding account of itself. For the first time since 1979, UK did not allow more than 30 points in any regular season game. UK ranked 13th in the nation in scoring defense and 21st nationally in total defense.

ANWAR STEWART

DEFENSIVE LINE

Former Wildcat Anwar Stewart was named the defensive line coach at Kentucky in January of 2020. He returned to the Bluegrass after one season as the defensive line coach at Appalachian State. Seven letter winners are back from last season's D-line, including starters Quinton Bohanna and Josh Paschal. Senior Phil Hoskins also returns after receiving a sixth-year extension waiver due to a knee injury last season. Newcomers are Josaih Hayes, Octavious Oxendine, Justin Rogers and Tre'Vonn Rybka.
