GEORGIA TECH (0-2, 0-0 ACC) vs. #20 KENTUCKY (1-2, 0-0 SEC)
Game 3 • Holiday Hoopsgiving • December 6, 2020 • 5 p.m.

Tech Faces Kentucky at State Farm Arena

Georgia Tech returns to action following an eight-day break when it takes on No. 20 Kentucky in a nationally-televised game at 5 p.m. Sunday at State Farm Arena. The game is part of the Holiday Hoopsgiving event, which includes a slate of high school games as well as four more college games on Dec. 12 at State Farm Arena.

Returning four starters from last year's fifth-place ACC team, including a pair of All-ACC honorees in guards Jose Alvarado and Michael Devoe, Georgia Tech has its most experienced and deepest roster yet under head coach Josh Pastner, beginning his fifth season on The Flats. But the Yellow Jackets stumbled out of the gate Thanksgiving week, dropping both games in its multi-team event at McCamish Pavilion - a 123-120 four-overtime loss to Georgia State and an 83-73 defeat to Mercer.

Kentucky, in its 12th season under head coach John Calipari, is off to a 1-2 start after dropping a 65-62 decision to No. 7 Kansas Tuesday night in the State Farm Champions Classic in Indianapolis, Ind. The Wildcats have also split a pair of home games, defeating Morehead State, 81-45, in their season opener Nov. 25, and falling to Richmond, 76-64, last Sunday.

Sunday's game will be televised nationally on ESPN and will be streamed live on the ESPN app. Radio coverage is

Series vs. Kentucky

• Sunday's game will be the 73rd all-time meeting between Georgia Tech and Kentucky in a series that dates back to 1924. Kentucky leads the series, 57-15. All but 19 of those meetings occurred when the Yellow Jackets were members of the Southeastern Conference.

• Sunday's game is the back end of a two-game contract between the two programs. Kentucky defeated the Yellow Jackets, 67-53, last year at Rupp Arena. It is also the ninth neutral site meeting between the teams, and the second at State Farm Arena. The teams played twice at the Georgia Dome in the late 1990s.

• Tech is 2-8 against the Wildcats since leaving the SEC, including an 86-84 victory on Dec. 9, 2000 at State Farm Arena. The Yellow Jackets' other victory in that span came on Dec. 21, 1991 at the old Omni arena in downtown Atlanta, where State Farm Arena now stands.

• Tech is 4-31 all-time against Kentucky in Lexington, including four losses at Rupp Arena.

• Three of Georgia Tech's nine all-time wins against No. 1-ranked teams came against top-ranked Wildcat teams, all when John "Whack" Hyder coached the Yellow Jackets and Adolph Rupp led Kentucky. Two of those came in the 1954-55 season, when the Jackets ended a 129-game homecourt winning streak by the Wildcats with a 59-58 triumph. Tech completed a season sweep later at home by a 65-59 score. The third Tech win over the No. 1 Wildcats happened on Jan. 4, 1964 in Atlanta by a score of 76-67.

• Sunday also marks the fourth encounter for Georgia Tech against a team coached by John Calipari. Calipari's Massachusetts team, ranked No. 2 at the time, downed Tech, 76-67, in the 1995 Jimmy V Classic. The Yellow Jackets toppled Calipari's 12th-ranked Memphis team, 92-85, in the 2006 Maui Invitational semifinals.

• Tech head coach Josh Pastner was Calipari's assistant coach for his final year at Memphis and replaced him as the Tigers' head coach when he moved on to Kentucky. Pastner is 0-1 (last year's loss) against his former boss.

When We Last Met

Georgia Tech finished off its 2019-20 season by winning six of its last seven games, finishing with its first winning record (17-14) since the 2015-16 season, its best Atlantic Coast Conference record (11-9) since the 2003-04 season and its highest ACC regular season finish (fifth) since the 2004-05 season.

Tech finished the season with four consecutive ACC wins, the longest streak for the program since late in 2015-16.

Among the Yellow Jackets top accomplishments in 2019-20 were their first victory in Chapel Hill since 2010, their first victory at Clemson since 2005 and their first season sweep of the Tigers since 2004-05 season. Tech also knocked off a top-10 team in No. 5 Louisville.

Tech did not play in the ACC Tournament while serving a postseason ban imposed by the NCAA Committee on Infractions.

Tech returned to being one of the nation's top defensive teams while also improving into one of the ACC's better offensive teams. The Yellow Jackets set a program record for three-point defense (28.5 percent), leading the ACC in that category and ranking No. 7 in the nation, and were one of the nation's top-20 teams in defensive efficiency according to KenPom.com.

The Tipoff

• Late start - Due to Covid-19, the NCAA pushed back the start of the 2020-21 season to Nov. 25, two weeks later than normal. Division I teams are allowed to play a maximum of 27 games. The ACC will play a 20-game schedule for the second straight year, and teams are allowed a maximum of seven non-conference games. Tech has seven non-conference games scheduled.

• Tech and Kentucky are meeting for the second time at State Farm Arena. The Yellow Jackets won the previous encounter on Dec. 9, 2000 (86-84) on a last-second corner jumper by Shaun Fein.

• Tech has a 7-11 all-time record at State Farm Arena, which was formerly known as Philips Arena when first built (see history on page 4). The Yellow Jackets have not played a game in the facility since the 2011-12 season, when they played all eight ACC home games and an ACC Tournament game while McCamish Pavilion was being built.

• Tech has lost its first two games for the first time since the 1974-75 season (both of those games were on the road). The Yellow Jackets last began a season with three straight losses the year before (1973-74), when they started 0-7 and finished 5-21 in head coach Dwane Morrison's first season as head coach.

• Tech leads the ACC in scoring average (96.5 ppg), rebound average (52.5 rpg) and offensive rebound average (20.5 pg).

Last Time Out

Georgia Tech is playing for the first time since Thanksgiving week, when the Yellow Jackets dropped a pair of games to in-state teams. Tech lost to crosstown foe Georgia State, 123-120 in four overtimes, the night before Thanksgiving, then came back less than 48 hours later and fell to Mercer, from Macon, Ga., 83-73, the day after Thanksgiving.

• Tech played the first quadruple-overtime game in program history. It was the fourth in ACC history (4 by NC State (110) vs. Wake Forest (103), March 4, 1989; by NC State (78) vs. Canisius (79), March 6, 1956; by North Carolina (113) vs. Tulane (106), Feb. 14, 1976).

• The combined 243 points by Georgia Tech and Georgia State were a school record and surpassed the previous mark by 14 points. Tech and Loyola Marymount combined to score 229 points (a 135-94 Tech victory) on Dec. 22, 1990 at the Omni Arena in Atlanta. Seven players scored 20 or more points in the game.

• Tech's 98 field goal attempts tied for the fifth most in program history, while the Jackets' 41 free throws were the second most, and the 59 free throw attempts were a school record (previous: 56 vs. Furman in a regulation game, Dec. 22, 1971). Tech's 70 rebounds tied for fourth most in program history.

Team Trends

• According to KenPom.com, Tech ranks No. 6 in the nation in experience (average 2.59 years per player) and No. 7 in minutes continuity (75.5 percent), a measure of playing minutes from 2019-20 carrying over to 2020-21.

• Tech has exceeded 100 points per 100 possessions in both games this season after doing so 11 times last season, eight of those games coming after the start of January..

• Tech's adjusted tempo is 72.4 per game according to KenPom.com, above the 70.1 possessions per game last season (No. 87 in the nation), which was its best rate and ranking in Josh Pastner's four years at Tech. The Yellow Jackets' tempo in league play (69.7) was the fourth-highest.

• Tech has reached an average of 70 possessions per game over the course of a full season only five times since 1997, the first year KenPom kept track - 1997-98 (72.3), 2000-01 (72.1), 2001-02 (70.5), 2008-09 (70.5) and 2019-20 (70.1).

• Two fouls in the first half? No problem. Georgia Tech ranked No. 1 in the nation, according to KenPom.com, in 2-foul participation, a measure of percentage of available minutes played by players with two fouls (68.7 percent for Tech). It is

#8/9 Kentucky 67, Georgia Tech 53
Dec. 14, 2019 • Lexington, Ky.

Moses Wright posted his second double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds, but Kentucky's defense limited Georgia Tech to 37.9 percent shooting and one three-point field goal in the second half, carrying the 8th-ranked Wildcats to victory at Rupp Arena.

Bubba Parham and Khalid Moore each scored 10 points for the Yellow Jackets, who lost their second straight game. Kentucky won its sixth straight game.

Ashton Hagans led Kentucky with 21 points, seven assists and seven rebounds, scoring in a variety of ways by going 8-of-10 from the floor. Immanuel Quickley scored 16 for the Wildcats, while Nick Richards added 12 points and Keion Brooks, Jr., chipped in with 10.

Tech finished the game shooting 43.4 percent from the floor, including 5-of-18 from three-point range. The Wildcats finished at 47.1 percent overall, 4-of-12 from three-point range. The teams combined for 33 turnovers.

Kentucky started quickly, hitting its first three shots to take a 7-2 lead, but the Yellow Jackets steadied themselves and led by as many as five points, 26-21, on a three-point play by Moore at the 7:23 mark of the first half. Tech missed six of its last eight shots in the half, however, as the Wildcats ratcheted up their defense to fuel a 15-4 run, leading 36-30 at intermission.

Tech closed its deficit to 44-41 in the second half on a Moore three-pointer, but missed its next seven shots from the floor, and 10 of the next 11, as the Wildcats padded their lead to double digits..

currently ninth at 75.8 percent. The Jackets led the nation in this category in 2018-19, were fourth in 2017-18 and 35th in 2016-17.

• Four Tech players recorded double-doubles in the Yellow Jackets' four-overtime loss to Georgia State, something believed to be a first in program history - Moses Wright (31 points/19 rebounds), Jose Alvarado (29/10), Michael Devoe (24/13) and Jordan Usher (15/10).

• Tech has outrebounded both of its opponents this year by an average of +7.0.

• Tech has given up 22 three-point field goals in its first two games (22-of-55, 40 percent). The Yellow Jackets are 15-of-57 from three-point range and nearly 36 percent of their field goal attempts have come from behind the arc.

Personnel Trends

• Moses Wright averaged 25.5 points and 12.5 rebounds in the two losses to Georgia State and Mercer, including a 31-point, 19-rebound performance against the Panthers. Wright was one rebound shy of becoming the second Tech player to record 30 or more points and 20 or more rebounds in one game. His 19 rebounds were the most for a Tech player since 2016. Tech's last 20-rebound game occurred in 1974. Wright recorded the eighth double-double of his career; he had seven last season.

• Wright followed that game with a 20-point performance against Mercer, giving him five 20-point games in his career. Wright has scored in double digits in 26 of 33 games dating back to the beginning of the 2019-20 season.

• Wright leads the ACC in scoring average, ranks third in rebound average and 10th in field goal percentage (51.5).

• Jose Alvarado (18.5 ppg, 3-of-11 on 3s in two games) has made a three-point basket in 20 straight games, the longest streak for a Tech player since Adam Smith knocked down a three in 24 straight games during the 2015-16 season.

• Alvarado ranks No. 8 in the ACC in scoring, No. 5 in assists (5.5 apg) and third in steals (3.5 pg).

• In two games this season, Alvarado has risen to No. 40 in career points (1,071) at Georgia Tech. He is the ACC's No. 2 active scorer in terms of career points.

• Alvarado is the top steal artist among the ACC's active players with 159. The total ranks No. 10 in Tech history.

• Michael Devoe began his junior season needing 242 points to join Alvarado in the 1,000-point club and now sits at 796. Wright has a little farther to go, with 746.

• Devoe entered his junior year with career norms of 44.4 percent from the floor, 41.1 percent from three-point range and 73.1 percent from the foul line. The Orlando, Fla., native shot 47.6 percent overall last season, 42.7 percent from three-point range and 75 percent from the line. He hit 44.2 percent of his threes in ACC games.

• Devoe currently ranks No. 7 in the ACC in scoring average (19.0), ninth in three-point field goal percentage (31.3 pct.) and seventh in three-point field goals per game

• Double your pleasure - Wright, Alvarado, Devoe and Jordan Usher all recorded double-doubles against Georgia State. It was the first in the careers of Devoe and Usher, the second for Alvarado and the eighth for Wright.

• Jordan Usher has scored in double digits both games this season and 10 times for the Yellow Jackets since he became eligible to play last December.

• Bubba Parham has averaged 14.0 points and scored in double digits in both games this season off the bench (eight times as a Yellow Jacket). His 16 points against Georgia State were a career high in a Tech uniform.

Pastner's Key Metrics

• Assists to made field goals: Tech assisted on 54.4 percent of its field goals last season, well above the national average of 51.6. The Jackets have 28 assists on 64 made field goals in two games this season (43.7 percent). Its nightly goal is to assist on 60 percent, which the Jackets met 16 times last season. Tech assisted on 58.0 percent of its field goals vs. ACC teams last season, the best rate in the conference.

• Free throws made to opponents' attempts: Tech's goal each night is to make more free throws than the opponent attempts. The Yellow Jackets have made 50 of 70 free throws through two games, compared to 38 of 56 for opponents.

• Turnovers: The Yellow Jackets have committed 37 to their opponents' 30 in two games. More telling for Tech under Josh Pastner is that when Tech has committed fewer turnovers than its opponent, it is 27-17. When it has committed more, it is 33-43.

• Guard rebounding: Tech's perimeter players have corralled 42 of 64 defensive rebounds in two games (65.6 percent).

Tech's Dynamic Duo

Three Georgia Tech starters averaged in double figures in 2019-20, with a fourth hovering just under double digits, but it could be argued that no team in the ACC, perhaps beyond Syracuse, relied more on its guards than did the Yellow Jackets.

Starting guards Michael Devoe and Jose Alvarado, Tech's two leading scorers, accounted for 40.7 percent of the Yellow Jackets' points in ACC games, including 44.3 percent over Tech's last 11 conference games. Both players earned All-ACC recognition,

In the 21 games that both played (Alvarado missed seven games, Devoe three due to injury), they accounted for 42.1 percent of the Jackets' scoring.

In ACC games. Alvarado and Devoe ranked No. 8 and 12, respectively, in the ACC in scoring, No. 8 and 11 in assists, No. 6 and 5 in field goal percentage, and No. 10 and 12 in minutes.

Combined, they shot 47 percent from the floor in conference games, 39.3 percent from three-point range and 77.6 percent from the free throw line.

the season opener: "Both Michael and Jose have really gotten better. Look, I remember, and I've told this to Jose, when we signed Jose here, there were a lot of people calling me to tell me he's not good enough to play in the ACC, like they're thinking, 'Coach, that's a stretch to take that type of guard. And obviously, he's turned himself into not only an All-ACC defender but an All-ACC player. Michael Devoe, from where he started to where he is now, his jump has been enormous. And so those two guys, they're a great backcourt. I'll put them up against anybody in the country."

Build the Wall

Due to its ability to play both zone and man-to-man and keep opponents off-balance, Georgia Tech has been able to rely on its mixture of defenses to win games over Josh Pastner's first four seasons at Georgia Tech.

According to KenPom.com, Georgia Tech ranked No. 16 nationally in defensive efficiency in 2019-20 (91.8 points/100 possessions), its best ranking since 2016-17 (No. 6).

Broken down, Tech ranked No. 10 in effective defensive field goal percentage (44.7), No. 45 in two-point field goal defense (45.7) and No. 5 in three-point defense (28.5).

Balancing Act

Georgia Tech has lived and succeeded by playing excellent defense during its four years under Josh Pastner, but once the Yellow Jackets had their entire roster available, they demonstrated efficient and sometimes potent offense as well.

Without relying a great deal on three-point shooting, Tech increased its tempo last season to a four-year high under Pastner, 70.1 possessions per game according to KenPom.com (No. 87 in the nation). Tech hit 70 or more possessions in five of its last seven ACC games, and the Yellow Jackets' tempo in league play (69.7) was the fourth-highest.

Against ACC teams (according to KenPom.com), Tech ranked No. 4 in effective field goal percentage (51.1), the Yellow Jackets' highest ranking in that category since they were No. 2 in 2010 (49.0).

Though the Jackets relied heavily on their starting guards Jose Alvarado and Michael Devoe for scoring, they did the majority of it inside the three-point line along with post players James Banks III and Moses Wright, Tech ranked No. 2 in conference games in percentage of points scored on two-point field goals (57.3), after ranking No. 1 in the ACC in that category each of the three previous seasons under Josh Pastner. Tech ranked 11th nationally in all games (58.5 percent).

Tech exceeded 100 points per 100 possessions 11 times, eight of those games coming since Jan. 4 at North Carolina, which was the Jackets' highest efficiency rating of the season (132.2). Tech exceeded 100 in four of its last 10 games (Notre Dame, Virginia Tech, Wake Forest, Pittsburgh).

Assisted Living

Georgia Tech coach Josh Pastner preached and prodded his Yellow Jackets on ball and player movement and hard cutting from the first time he got his team on the practice court. His primary measuring stick on how well the Jackets perform offensively is their ratio of assists to made field goals.

Tech again was one of the nation's better teams in assists to made field goals (No. 140 nationally at 53.3 pct.). In ACC games, Tech has assisted on 58.0 percent, the second-best figure in the conference.

Pastner's nightly goal is 60 percent. The national average was 51.5 percent.

Tech finished last season No. 49 in 2018-19 at 57.6 percent (56.4 pct. in ACC games), well above the national average (52.1 pct.) in that category. In Pastner's first season, the Yellow Jackets ranked 13th nationally at 62.6 percent, the team's highest rate since the 2000-01 season. Tech's number was 63.2 percent in ACC games.

Tech's top assists-to-made field goals ratios: 1987-88 – 68.3; 1988-89 – 65.9; 1986-87 – 65.8; 1992-93 – 65.0; 1985-86 – 64.8; 2000-01 – 62.9; 1999-00 – 62.9; 2016-17 - 62.6

All in for Alvarado

Point guard Jose Alvarado, recruited to Georgia Tech primarily for his winning attitude and determination, was given the green light by head coach Josh Pastner to handle the position as a freshman, sink or swim. He has developed into Tech's engine and leader on the floor, earning third-team All-ACC honors as a junior.

The Brooklyn native, the first Tech player from the New York area in nearly 20 years, had missed seven full games and most of an eighth with a right ankle sprain suffered before the Jackets' played their second game of the season against Elon. He returned to the court for the Diamond Head Classic in Hawai'i in late December.

After Alvarado's return, the Jackets exceeded 100 points per 100 possessions eight times, averaged 69.9 points per game and shot 46.2 percent from the floor.

He was Tech's leading scorer in ACC games at 16.1 points per game (8th in the ACC) while converting on 46.5 percent of his shots from the floor (6th ACC) and 35.8 percent from three-point range. He led the ACC in steals (2.37) and ranked eighth in assists (4.50) in conference games.

The 6-foot senior exceeded 20 points seven times over his last 17 games, including 26 in a win over NC State and 25 each against North Carolina and Notre Dame (Feb. 1), 22 at Wake Forest on Feb. 19.

In Tech's last 11 games, he shot 46.9 percent from the floor, 36.5 percent from three-point range while averaging 18.2 points per game.

Alvarado has posted 51 double-figure scoring games in his career, 16 times scoring 20 or more. And the playmaker has averaged more than 34 minutes per game, with 15 complete 40-minute games.

• Said Pittsburgh coach Jeff Capel: "He's always challenging. He's good, he's really confident. He plays with great spirit. He looks like he loves to play basketball. He looks like he loves to compete, not just play basketball. He loves to figure out how to beat you, how to get under your skin, how to motivate his team."

Getting it Wright

The best player development story in Georgia Tech's program is that of junior forward Moses Wright, who played only one year of high school basketball and was not rated at all coming out of high school.

One of the most improved players in the ACC, Wright was remarkably consistent as a junior. He failed to reach double figures in scoring only eight times, and never in back-to-back games until the final three games of the season. He doubled his scoring and rebounding averages over his sophomore season, and was the only Jacket to play and start every game in 2019-20.

The 6-9 Raleigh, N.C., native finished No. 3 on Tech's scoring chart (13.0 ppg overall, 13.4 ppg vs. ACC) chart and No. 2 in rebounding (7.0 rpg, 6.8 vs. ACC). He connected on 53.1 percent of his shots from the floor (3rd in the ACC), 50.5 percent in ACC games (4th). He ranked No. 14 in the ACC in rebound average.

Wright had seven double-doubles in 2019-20, four of them in ACC games against Florida State, Duke, Boston College and Syracuse (33 points, 10 rebounds on Feb. 22). He also posted double-doubles against Houston and Kentucky.

He made the all-tournament team at the Diamond Head Classic, averaging 17.7 points and 7.3 rebounds while connecting on 63.6 percent of his field goal tries, earning him ACC Player of the Week honors.

Wright's Historic Game at Syracuse

Moses Wright posted a historic performance for a Georgia Tech player in a close defeat Feb. 22 at Syracuse, scoring 33 points with 10 rebounds in the Yellow Jackets' 79-72 loss to the Orange. The 33 points tied the third-most ever recorded

The 6-9 junior made 14 of 17 field goal attempts in the game, with the 14 field goals the third-most ever by a Tech player against an ACC team.

Wright posted his seventh double-double this season, but this one was the first by a Tech player to involve 30 or more points since Josh Okogie's 35-point, 14-rebound game against Florida State on Jan. 22, 2017.

Sophomore Surge

Sophomore guard Michael Devoe, the highest-rated high school prospect Georgia Tech has recruited under Josh Pastner until this fall, steadily improved over the course of his freshman season and has made a quantum leap for the Yellow Jackets as a sophomore.

The Orlando, Fla., native led the ACC in scoring through the month of November, and finished No. 7 at 16.0 points per game and No. 5 in field goal percentage (47.6).

Devoe scored 20 or more points in 10 games last season, including a career-best 34 in a loss to Georgia that earned him ACC Player of the Week honors, and reached double figures in all but five games.

He topped the NCAA rankings in three-point shooting early in the season, and made 42.7 percent for the season, 44.2 percent in ACC games. After a shooting slump gripped him in December prior to ACC play resuming, he hit 32-of-72 shots from three-point range (44.4 percent) in his last 17 games.

As a freshman, Devoe connected on 43.8 percent of his three-point tries in ACC games and averaged 35.4 minutes (10th-most). He hit 32-of-68 (47.1 pct.) three-point tries in his last 15 games.

Three Freshmen Join 2020-21 Squad

Georgia Tech filled all three of its available scholarships for this season, signing four-star 7-1 center Saba Gigiberia, three-star 6-2 guard Tristan Maxwell and three-star 6-9 forward Jordan Meka.

Gigiberia, originally from Tbilisi in the Republic of Georgia, attended Prolific Preparatory School in Napa, Calif., after a year at Findlay Prep in Las Vegas, Nev. He has represented Georgia in the FIBA U16 and U18 European Championships.

Meka, originally from Yaounde, Cameroon, has attended Mt. Bethel Christian Academy in Marietta, Ga., since ninth grade, and has made all-state teams the last three years and is the school's all-time leading scorer, rebounder and shot-blocker.

Maxwell, the son of 13-year NBA veteran Vernon Maxwell, led class 4A in three-point shooting last season at North Mecklenburg High School in Huntersville, N.C. He is the school's all-time leading three-point shooter and scorer, and was the consensus North Carolina Player of the Year in 2019-20.

Transfers Howard, Sturdivant Eligible Immediately

Georgia Tech added two players with high-major college experience when 6-10 forward Rodney Howard and 6-2 guard Kyle Sturdivant, both of whom prepped in the state of Georgia, transferred into the Tech program from Georgia and Southern California, respectively, following the 2019-20 season.

Both players were granted immediately eligibility by the NCAA and have three seasons to play for the Yellow Jackets.

Howard, who played 24 games last year and was the second-leading shot-blocker for the Bulldogs, adds experience a young post group that includes freshmen Saba Gigiberia and Jordan Meka.

Sturdivant, who played 21 games at USC before his season ended abruptly due to the death of his father, joins a deep and talented group of guards.

Pre-Season Storylines

• Core group returns - Georgia Tech has returned four of its five starters and seven of its eight primary rotation players in 2020-21. Tech's returning players combined for 125 starts and 79.7 percent of Tech's minutes in 2019-20.

• Firepower returning - Tech has returned its top three scorers from the season - Jose Alvarado, Michael Devoe and Moses Wright - who accounted for 56.2 percent of its points, 36.1 percent of its rebounds and 43.7 percent of its minutes.

• Get old and stay old - Tech's core group of returning players includes four seniors and two juniors.

• Reinforcements - Tech added three freshmen rated the nation's No. 51 recruiting class by 247Sports - 6-3 high-scoring guard Tristan Maxwell from North Mecklenburg High School in Charlotte, N.C., 6-9 post player Jordan Meka from Mt. Bethel Christian Academy in Kennesaw, Ga., and 7-1 post player Saba Gigiberia from Prolific Prep Academy in California.

• Boomerang boys - All four of the transfers on Georgia Tech's roster are from the Atlanta metropolitan area or went to high school here - Rodney Howard (Alpharetta/Centennial HS), Bubba Parham (Snellville/Brookwood HS), Kyle Sturdivant (Norcross/Norcross HS) and Jordan Usher (Canton/Wheeler HS). Tech graduated two others last season - James Banks III (Decatur, Ga., transferred from Texas) and Shembari Phillips (Atlanta, Ga., transferred from Tennessee).

• 106th season - Georgia Tech will play its 106th season of basketball in 2020-21 and has an all-time record of 1,393-1,258 (22 wins and one loss were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions).

• 63 - Total years of full-time experience on Division I staffs for Tech's coaching staff.

• Rise above - The Yellow Jackets once again outperformed pre-season projections in 2019-20, finishing in fifth place in the ACC after being picked to finish 12th in the official poll of ACC media. Last season, Tech finished 10th in the ACC after being projected to finish no higher than 13th in the preseason. Tech also outperformed projections in 2016-17, finishing 11th after being picked to finish 14th in Josh Pastner's first season.

• Never on Tuesday - Because Georgia Tech dropped the appeal of its postseason ban by the NCAA, it did not play in the ACC Tournament. It is worth noting, however, that the Yellow Jackets' fifth-place regular-season finish would have given them a first-round bye for the first time since the conference expanded to 15 teams.

• The News at 11 - Tech achieved double-digit ACC wins for the first time since the Yellow Jackets went 13-3 to win

• Winning - Tech's last winning record in the ACC before last season was 2003-04 (9-7), and the Jackets have posted only seven such seasons in 41 years in the league.

• Home stretch - Georgia Tech won its final seven home games (six of them ACC games) after starting the season 3-6 within the confines of McCamish Pavilion. Tech's six-game home ACC win streak is its longest since the Jackets went 8-0 at home in the conference in 1995-96.

• More snacks - Tech finished 5-5 on the road in the ACC, having defeated NC State, North Carolina, Boston College, Wake Forest and Clemson. The last time Tech won five conference road games was 1995-96 (5-3), when the Jackets finished 13-3 overall and won the ACC regular season title. It is the only other time Tech has won as many as five ACC road games.

• ACC honors – Jose Alvarado (All-ACC third team), Michael Devoe (honorable mention All-ACC), James Banks III (ACC All-Defensive team for the second time).

• Offense catches up to defense - Tech finished the regular season No. 17 in the nation in defensive efficiency, according to KenPom.com, and with its best rankings in offensive efficiency and adjusted tempo in the Yellow Jackets' four years under Josh Pastner. Tech improved its overall field goal percentage in ACC games over 2018-19 by 3.6 percent, and its three-point rate by 3.5 percent.

• A make-or-miss game - After ranking near the bottom of the ACC in shooting over the first three years under Josh Pastner, Georgia Tech finished 2019-20 ranked No. 2 in the ACC in field goal percentage (46.2) against the conference, No. 6 in three-point percentage (34.1) and No. 9 in scoring (69.85). See chart on page 4.

• More balanced - Tech ranked ninth in the ACC in scoring average in conference games (69.85) and sixth in scoring defense (69.20). The Jackets have typically ranked near the top in defense (average ranking 4.3) and near the bottom in offense (14.3) the last three seasons. Tech also ranked near the middle in offensive (9th) and defensive efficiency (5th) against the league, according to KenPom.com.

• Defending the arc - Tech finished the season with a program record in 3-point field goal percentage defense (28.5 pct.), beating the 2004 Final Four team mark of 29.74 pct. ACC foes shot 29.2 percent against the Jackets, just shy of the mark of 29.0 percent yielded by the 2007-08 team.

• Clamping down - Tech won its final six ACC games at home (NC State, Virginia Tech, Louisville, Clemson, Miami, Pittsburgh), holding all five to less than 60 points (57.7 ppg) and limiting them to 36.7 percent shooting from the floor, 18.1 percent from three-point range. See chart on page 6.

Building Depth

The upward progress of Georgia Tech's program is evident in the development of its last three classes, each of whom has played significant minutes and made significant contributions on the ACC level. Though not highly-rated in terms of rankings, the players have a wide range of skills and have developed into consistent conference-level performers for the next couple of years.

Media Guidelines

Due to Covid-19 restrictions, all media access during the 2020-21 season, including non-game day sessions and post-game press conferences, will be conducted virtually via Zoom call.

The Yellow Jackets' student-athletes and coaches are generally available to the media prior to practices once prior to each game during the season. The practice schedule varies once the season begins, and media sessions will be scheduled and announced weekly.

Georgia Tech's practices are closed to the public and the media even during normal times.

Interview requests with student-athletes that need to be conducted at other times must be made through Mike Stamus in the communications office at least 24 hours in advance. These interviews will be scheduled around the student-athletes' availability and class schedule.

Media are asked not to contact student-athletes directly either by phone, text, social media or e-mail; they are instructed to refer media to the communications office. Every effort will be made to make players available when requested. Players are not available on game days until after the game.

Interviewing Coach Pastner

Media wishing to speak with Coach Pastner at times other than scheduled media availabilities must notify Mike Stamus in the communications office in advance to make or confirm arrangements. He also is available each Monday on the ACC Teleconference beginning January 4.

Post-Game Protocol

Each team will host its own postgame press conference via video teleconference. Georgia Tech will employ Zoom technology and provide a link to the media the day of each game..

Josh Pastner Radio Show

Head coach Josh Pastner's weekly radio show airs each Monday from 7-8 p.m. on "680 the Fan" and 93.7 FM, beginning in December.

ACC Coaches Weekly Teleconference

The 15 ACC head basketball coaches will be featured on nine Monday teleconferences during the 2019-20 season, beginning on January 4, and continuing through March 1. Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the Conference's internet site TheACC.com each Monday afternoon.

Coaches whose teams play on Monday in January and February are not required to participate in that day's call. Coaches who do not have a Monday game - Georgia Tech is one - will be on every Monday at the same time. The teleconference schedule for each Monday will differ for the other head coaches, depending on what teams play that Monday night.

Contact Andy Fledderjohann at the ACC media relations office (afledder@theacc.org) for the call-in number and for questions on the schedule.

a. The 2017-18 class of Jose Alvarado, Evan Cole and Moses Wright have combined to start 152 games, and contributed 31.8 points, 11.0 rebounds and 76.5 minutes per game last season (Cole graduated and transferred after the season).

b. The 2018-19 class of Michael Devoe, Khalid Moore and Kristian Sjolund have combined to start 117 games, and contributed 19.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 50.4 minutes last season (Sjolund redshirted before transferring).

c. James Banks III, who transferred from Texas, and Jordan Usher, a transfer from Southern California, started 54 games, contributed 17.7 points, 12.0 rebounds and played 56.2 minutes per game in 2019-20.

Five-Star Player Development

Notable player development successes over the past four seasons include Josh Okogie, Ben Lammers, Tadric Jackson, Abdoulaye Gueye, James Banks III, Jose Alvarado, Moses Wright and Michael Devoe, who maximized their skill sets and their production under the current coaching staff.

Okogie went from being ranked 11th in the state as a HS senior to a first-round NBA draft pick. Gueye, a 6-9 forward, developed from a project player into an ACC-level contributor in the first two seasons with the current staff. Graduate transfer Brandon Alston had similar statistical numbers at the ACC level as he compiled in two seasons at Lehigh.

Banks, a 6-10 center, made the ACC's All-Defensive team twice in two years and finished his career No. 8 in blocked shots at Tech. Wright blossomed at the end of the 2018-19 season and doubled his scoring and rebounding averages in 2019-20 over his sophomore year. Devoe added more than six points to his scoring average and ranked among the top five in the ACC in field goal and three-point percentage.

Tech Inks 17th-Ranked Recruiting Class

Georgia Tech signed its highest-rated class in nine years during the November signing period when four-star guards Dallan "Deebo" Coleman and Miles Kelly, as well as three-star forward Jalon Moore, put their names on letters-of-intent to join the Yellow Jackets.

The three-player class is rated the 17th-best in the nation and third-best in the Atlantic Coast Conference according to the 247Sports composite team rankings. Coleman, a 6-6 guard from Callahan, Fla., at No. 48 nationally, is the highest-rated player to sign with Tech during the tenure of head coach Josh Pastner. Kelly, a 6-5 guard from Lilburn, Ga., is No. 108 according to 247Sports but as high as No. 98 according to Rivals. Moore, a 6-6 forward from Gardendale, Ala., holds a 247Sports ranking of No. 137.

It is the first time since 2012 that Georgia Tech has signed as many as three players ranked among the nation's top 150 in the 247Sports ranking. Tech's 2012 recruiting class included four-star forwards Marcus Georges-Hunt and Robert Carter, Jr., and was rated the nation's 10th-best. The Jackets had the nation's 11th-ranked class in 2009, a six-player group highlighted by forward Derrick Favors, the nation's top-ranked prospect, and guard Mfon Udofia.

Wire-to-Wire

Though he has expanded his bench to reflect the growing level of talent within the program, head coach Josh Pastner remains committed to a tight playing rotation whe conference play rolls around, reminiscent of the way Bobby Cremins coached the Yellow Jackets over his 19 seasons.

In 2019-20, Tech's reserves played 26.5 percent of the minutes (No. 268 in the nation), up from the 23.6 percent they played during ACC games last season.

Jose Alvarado and Michael Devoe ranked No. 10 and 12, respectively, in the ACC in minutes in conference games. Last season, Alvarado and Devoe both ranked among the ACC's top 10 and combined for eight 40-minute games. Alvarado has posted 15 40-minute games in his career.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech and head coach Josh Pastner have made a priority of making McCamish Pavilion a real homecourt advantage for the program, and the Yellow Jackets made a good start on that by setting a program record for wins at home (17) in 2017-18, which included a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

Tech is 22-15 against ACC teams at home under Pastner, and that includes a 6-8 mark against ranked opponents.

Tech is 50-22 overall at McCamish Pavilion under Pastner, 93-52 since the building opened for the 2012-13 season.

Three Tech Alumni on NBA Rosters

Since 1982, Georgia Tech has produced 19 first-round NBA draft picks and 46 draft picks overall. A total of 40 Georgia Tech alumni have played in the NBA.

Three former Georgia Tech basketball stars are currently on NBA rosters, including guard Josh Okogie, who was drafted 20th overall by for the Minnesota Timberwolves in 2018 and is in his third season with the team.

Thaddeus Young, a 14-year NBA veteran, is in his second season with the Chicago Bulls following three full seasons with the Indiana Pacers, seven seasons in Philadelphia, one in Minnesota and two in Brooklyn.

Derrick Favors, an 11-year veteran, has returned to the Utah Jazz after spending the 2019-20 campaign with the New Orleans Pelicans. He emerged as a key figure in his previous nine-year stint, but became a free agent after the 2018-19 season and signed with New Orleans.

Welcome to The Hank

Georgia Tech is playing its seventh season in McCamish Pavilion, which was essentially brand new when it opened for the 2012-13 season. The only physical elements of McCamish Pavilion that remain from the venerable Alexander Memorial Coliseum are the roof and the 32 steel ribs that support it.

The capacity of McCamish Pavilion is 8,600, including 1,665 seats in the new balcony level and 6,935 seats in the lower seating bowl. There are no suites, but there is a club area that seats 500. Alexander Memorial Coliseum seated 9,191 spectators in its final configuration.

The most impressive features of McCamish Pavilion are its grand entrance, which fronts 10th and Fowler Streets, the ability for patrons to view the court from the main concourse all the way around, and the theatrical lighting system, which concentrates light on the court while leaving the seating areas dark, modeled after the Staples Center in Los Angeles and Madison Square Garden in New York.

Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion on Jan. 5, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at Philips Arena and the Arena at Gwinnett.

20-Game ACC Schedule Rotation

Beginning with the 2019-20 season, the Atlantic Coast Conference implemented a 20-game schedule for all its teams and announced a rotation that will carry the league through the 2021-22 season.

Each team plays its two primary rivals every season both home and away (four games - Clemson and Notre Dame remain Georgia Tech's primary home-and-away opponents) and four rotating opponents both home and away (eight games). The remaining eight opponents will be single games, four at home and four on the road. The full cycle of repeat opponents will be complete following the third year.

Under the former 18-game schedule, each team played four opponents both home and away each season, four at home and four away.

In 2020-21, Tech's home-and-away opponents are Clemson, Duke, Florida State, Notre Dame, Virginia and Wake Forest, with home games against Boston College, North Carolina, Pittsburgh and Syracuse. Away-only opponents are Louisville, Miami, NC State, Virginia Tech.

In 2021-22, the Yellow Jackets play Boston College, Clemson, Miami, North Carolina, Notre Dame and Virginia Tech both home and on the road, and will host Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest. Away-only opponents are Duke, Pittsburgh, Syracuse and Virginia.

Tech's NCAA Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in the NCAA Tournament 16 times in its history. Fifteen of those appearances have occurred from 1985 to the present, 10 under head coach Bobby Cremins and five under Paul Hewitt.

Tech has a record of 23-16 in NCAA Tournament play, highlighted by its 2004 trip to the NCAA title game as well as a Final Four berth in 1990. The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Sweet 16 seven times (1960, 1985, 1986, 1990, 1992, 1996, 2004).

The 2004 and 2005 appearances were Tech's' first back-to-back appearances since Bobby Cremins led the Institute to the Big Dance nine straight years from 1985-93.

Georgia Tech has won at least one game in 11 of its 16 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Tech's ACC Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in 40 ACC Tournaments, and has a 26-37 all-time record in the event. The Yellow Jackets have won three championships, in 1985 (Atlanta), 1990 (Charlotte) and 1993 (Charlotte).

Tech has been a runner-up four times (1986, 1996, 2005, 2010). The 1986, 1996 and 2010 runs to the finals occurred in Greensboro. Tech also made the finals in 2005 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

Tech was 0-2 in the ACC Tournament under coach Dwane Morrison, 15-16 under Bobby Cremins (including all three titles), 9-11 under Paul Hewitt (runner-up in 2005 and 2010), 2-5 under Brian Gregory. and 0-3 under Josh Pastner.

Tech did not play in the 2020 tournament while serving an NCAA postseason ban.

BIO UPDATES

Head Coach Josh Pastner • 5th season

After guiding Memphis to five post-season berths in seven seasons as the Tigers' head coach, Josh Pastner became Georgia Tech's 14th head basketball coach on April 8, 2016.

Implementing a high-energy style of play and creative offensive and defensive schemes, and building the Jackets' talent base for the future, Pastner has established the Yellow Jackets as one of the top defensive teams in the nation, while he and his staff have steadily improved the team's offense to be ranked in the top half of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Pastner has tirelessly promoted the program on campus and throughout the city of Atlanta in an effort to re-create the major homecourt atmosphere that surrounded the Yellow Jackets throughout the 1980s, 1990s and into the middle of the 2000s. The result has been numerous wins, high excitement and 13 sellouts in four seasons at McCamish Pavilion.

Four of his players - guards Josh Okogie, Jose Alvarado and Michael Devoe, as well as centers Ben Lammers and James Banks III - have earned Atlantic Conference honors during his tenure. Okogie, in particular, developed from an under-the-radar high school prospect into a highly-regarded NBA prospect, having been selected 20th in the 2018 NBA Draft, while Lammers has had a successful first two years as a pro in Europe.

In year four of Pastner's rebuilding of the Tech program, the Yellow Jackets posted a 17-14 record in 2019-20, winning nine of its last 12 games, including six of the last seven. Tech finished with the program's first winning ACC record since 2004, its highest ACC finish since 2005 (fifth) and its most conference victories (11-9 record) since 1996.

The Jackets ranked No. 17 in the nation in defensive efficiency while finishing ninth in the ACC in scoring against league teams, second in field goal percentage and sixth in three-point percentage.

Three players - guards Jose Alvarado (All-ACC third team), Michael Devoe (All-ACC honorable mention) and center James Banks III (ACC All-Defensive team) - earned conference honors.

In his first season at the helm, his Yellow Jacket team defied all pre-season expectations by reaching the post-season and advancing to the finals of the National Invitation Tournament. Tech earned victories over No. 9 North Carolina, No. 6 Florida State and No. 14 Notre Dame (later vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions), who all finished among the top four in the ACC regular season. He was named Coach of the Year in the ACC and in NABC District 2.

Two of his players earned all-Atlantic Coast Conference honors; junior center Ben Lammers was named second-team All-ACC and ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while freshman guard Josh Okogie was named to the ACC All-Freshman team.

Though hampered by several significant injuries and other issues in 2017-18, Tech still was able to knock off a pair of top-25 teams while Lammers and Okogie again earned conference honors, and Okogie developed into an NBA first-round draft choice. In 2018-19, the Yellow Jackets picked up significant road wins at Arkansas, Syracuse and NC State, each of whom made post-season play.

Pastner, 43, compiled a 167-73 record over seven seasons as the head coach at Memphis, where the Tigers earned bids to the NCAA Tournament four times. He tied for the 10th most wins for a head coach in his first seven seasons in Division I basketball history, and was the second winningest active coach under the age of 40 in NCAA Division I at the time.

Despite his young age, Pastner has been involved in basketball at the Division I level for 22 years, as a player and an assistant coach at Arizona, and as an assistant coach and the head coach at Memphis. He has been a part of teams that have won 541 games, played in 17 NCAA Tournaments and 19 total post-season events. Teams he has been involved with have won 12 conference tournament or regular-season championships, advanced to seven Sweet Sixteens, five Elite Eights, two Final Fours and two NCAA championship games.

As an NCAA head or assistant coach and an AAU head coach, he has coached nearly 25 NBA draft selections.

Pastner's Memphis teams averaged 23.9 wins per season and compiled a conference regular-season record of 82-36, including a conference winning streak of 28 games. The Tigers went 11-4 in Conference USA and American Athletic Conference tournaments, including three championships.

He guided Memphis to five post-season berths, the NIT in 2010 and the NCAA Tournament in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014. Pastner twice won Conference USA Coach of the Year honors (2010, 2013) by various organizations and news media.

Pastner was born in Glen Dale, W.Va., and grew up in Kingwood, Texas. He earned his bachelor's degree in family studies in December of 1998, in just two and a half years, from Arizona and his master's degree in teaching and teacher education from Arizona in December of 1999, all while lettering four years in basketball under head coach Lute Olson.

He married the former Kerri Lamas of Sierra Vista, Ariz., in 2009. He has a stepson (Ethan) and three daughters, Payten, Kamryn and Harper.

ERIC REVENO
Associate Head Coach • 5th year at Tech

Eric Reveno, who served 10 years as the head coach at the University of Portland, joined Josh Pastner's men's basketball staff in May, 2016. He was promoted to associate head coach on Nov. 1, 2019.

The former post player oversaw one of the Yellow Jackets' great successes in 2016-17 in the development of 6-10 center Ben Lammers, who became a second-team All-ACC performer and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year. He also helped transfer James Banks III develop into one of the ACC's top defensive players, making the ACC's All-Defensive team twice.

Reveno's penchant for analytics has led the Jackets to adopt advanced new methods and technologies to help the team's performance, such as the new Noah shot-tracking systems in the Zelnak Practice Facility and the McCamish Pavilion main floor, along with other analytics and data-gathering methods. In addition to recruiting, player development, on-court coaching, scouting and game-planning, Reveno also handles budget management, staff organization and game scheduling for the program..

Reveno, 54, and his wife, Amanda, have two children: Katie (16) and Andrew (13).
