A UK WIN WOULD ...

- Snap a three-game skid and avoid just the second four-game losing streak of the Calipari era
- Protect UK's unblemished record at home against Notre Dame
- Improve UK's record to 269-46 vs. AP unranked competition under Calipari
- Move Kentucky to 56-15 in games under Calipari following a loss
- Be the Wildcats' second win at home this season
- Prevent the first two-game skid of the Calipari era in Rupp Arena

NEED TO KNOW

Kentucky is 1-3 for the first time since the 2000-01 season. That team went on to win a share of the SEC title

UK has only lost four or more games once under Calipari, losing four straight during the 2017-18 season

Kentucky is averaging 18.3 turnovers per game, resulting in an average of 20.5 points per game off turnovers for the opponents

Isaiah Jackson flirted with a triple-double vs. Kansas with seven points, eight rebounds and 12 rebounds. His eight blocks were the most ever by a Wildcat vs. an AP top-10 opponent

UK has outrebounded three of four opponents and owns a plus-9.0 margin on the boards

Keion Brooks Jr. remains doubtful with a left leg injury

KenPom.com lists UK's average lineup experience at 0.73, the second-most inexperienced team in the nation that has played in a game in 2020-21

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials will open 14 days prior to the contest and close 7 days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations Office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media via Zoom. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews via Zoom.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's Zoom press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are available via Zoom.

Wildcats Drop Third Straight Game, Lose to Georgia Tech

Moses Wright scored 21 points and Georgia Tech recovered from a poor start to the season to beat No. 20/9 Kentucky 79-62 on Sunday, giving the Wildcats their third straight loss.

After opening the season with a win over Morehead State, the Wildcats (1-3) lost to Richmond and Kansas before seeing their losing streak stretched to three games.

"There's a lot of stuff we're working on and losing games makes it harder," Calipari said.

Calipari said if his young squad, loaded with freshmen, "play bad and do stuff and win a game, they're, 'OK we can do this.' But we don't have any wins."

Freshman Terrence Clarke had 22 points for Kentucky. Brandon Boston Jr., who had 11 points, was the Wildcats' only other scorer in double figures.

Two of the Wildcats' three losses were by double figures.

"I mean everybody is knocking us around right now," Calipari said.

Georgia Tech (1-2) rebounded with a strong performance following losses to state rivals Georgia State and Mercer. The Yellow Jackets won with defense, with 15 steals leading to an overwhelming 33-4 advantage in points off turnovers. Georgia Tech also outscored the Wildcats 36-20 in the paint.

Led by Wright, a 6-foot-9 junior, the Yellow Jackets took advantage of their edge in experience to beat a young Kentucky team. Calipari started four freshmen. The Wildcats lost eight of their top nine scorers from last season. Keion Brooks Jr., the only returning scholarship player, has missed the first four games with an injury.

Kentucky led 22-20 before Georgia Tech took the lead with a 13-0 run. Wright had a reverse layup and free throw for a three-point play during the run. Wright caught a pass from Michael DeVoe before briefly losing control under the basket before making the reverse shot over his head off the backboard.

Bubba Parham and Khalid Moore made 3-pointers in the run that gave the Yellow Jackets their biggest lead of the half at 32-22.

A floater by Isaiah Jackson cut it to 45-42 early in the second half. The Yellow Jackets answered with an 11-0 run, including back-to-back baskets by Parham, to push the lead back to double figures.

Kyle Sturdivant had 15 points for Georgia Tech.

- The three straight losses mark just the second time in Calipari's 12-year Kentucky tenure that UK has dropped three or more games in a row. The 2017-18 team lost four straight late in the season and rebounded to win the Southeastern Conference Tournament and make the Sweet 16. UK fell to 55-15 under Calipari following a loss
- It was Calipari's first loss to a former assistant coach. He was 17-0. Josh Pastner, Georgia Tech's head coach, was an assistant under Calipari during the 2008-09 season at Memphis
- Kentucky is 1-3 for the first time since the 2000-01 season. That team went on to finish the season ranked in the top 10 of both major polls, shared the regular-season SEC championship and won the league tournament
- Despite Kentucky's rich history in Atlanta, it was UK's third straight loss in Atlanta
- UK turned the ball over 21 times and has posted 15 or more turnovers in all four games this season
- Despite the 3-point struggles this season, the Wildcats made a season-high 8 of 20 from behind the arc
- Kentucky dished out 16 assists, two off a season high
- Fueled by 19 fast-break points, Georgia Tech shot 51.7% from the floor, the first time UK has allowed an opponent to shoot better than 50% this season
- Clarke's 22 points are the most by a Wildcat this season

Putting the Start in Perspective

Nobody inside the Kentucky program wants to be 1-3. As John Calipari warned before the Georgia Tech game with a team that is currently playing without a single scholarship player who played a season ago, it isn't a guarantee that things are suddenly going to get better purely out of desire.

"Sometimes you've got to hit rock bottom," Calipari said after the Kansas loss. "I'm not saying we've done it yet. You may ask me after the next game, 'Is that rock bottom?' And then after the next game, 'Is that rock bottom?' I have no idea."

Out of context, those words may have worried Big Blue Nation, especially after Calipari previously warned about having "two feet on the panic button." But proper context is needed.

Under Calipari, Kentucky has been here before -- and bounced back in spectacular fashion.

Just last year in the early part of the season, UK lost to Evansville, which went on to finish just 9-23, and lost back-to-back games to Utah and Ohio State to fall to 8-3 and entered the rivalry game with Louisville with what then felt like must-win territory. All the Wildcats did after a couple of weeks of "Camp Cal" (see next section) was win 17 of their next 20 games to close the season and win the Southeastern Conference regular-season title by three games.

In 2017-18, the Wildcats lost four straight games -- longer than this current losing streak -- in February and came back to win the SEC Tournament a month later and advance to the Sweet 16.

In 2013-14, UK dropped three of four games to close the regular season until a pre-postseason "tweak" by Calipari propelled the Wildcats all the way to the national championship game.

And in 2010-11, Kentucky lost seven of its first nine road games. That team went through the growing pains and ended up winning the SEC Tournament and advanced to the Final Four.

In other words, Calipari teams have been here and done this before. Is the 1-3 start jarring when one looks at it historically from a program perspective? Would UK rather be 4-0, 3-1 or even 2-2? Sure. It's the first time a Kentucky team is below .500 through the first four games since the 2000-01 season and only the third time a UK team has been ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 and lost to two nonconference opponents by double digits while ranked. But even those teams give proof that early bumps in the road don't have to be season-ending potholes.

The 2000-01 team went on to tie for the regular-season SEC championship, won the SEC Tournament and finished the season in the top 10 of both major polls. The 2002-03 team, one of the previous two times an AP Top 25 ranked Kentucky team lost to two unranked foes by double digits, finished 32-4, won both the SEC regular-season and tournament titles, and made it to the Elite Eight. The other team was in 1949-50, and that group finished No. 3 in the polls, won both the SEC regular-season and tournament crowns, and went 25-5.

Given all that history, not to mention the extraordinary youth and inexperience -- although not unprecedented at Kentucky -- and the missing piece of Keion Brooks Jr., it's entirely too early to write this Kentucky team off.

Camp Cal Begins

Off to the slowest start in two decades, the questions for Kentucky, Big Blue Nation and John Calipari have moved to: How do we fix it? How do we get back to winning basketball?

The good news is there is a prime opportunity to get in the gym and focus on solutions with Camp Cal now in session.

With players out of school for the winter break -- which has been lengthened by a modified university fall and spring class schedule due to the COVID-19 pandemic -- the Wildcats will be exclusively focused on basketball for nearly two months. UK will often practice two times a day in addition to a workout session with strength and conditioning coach Rob Harris.

In a normal year where there isn't a pandemic, Calipari has the players over to his house to eat and rest in between practices and the team goes out to eat together almost every night. That won't be possible this season due to COVID-19 safety protocols, but the team will still basically eat, sleep and drink basketball during this time of the season. This period is often when Calipari's teams improve the most.

The proof is in the numbers. As successful as Calipari's teams have been in the nonconference portion of their schedule, it's the conference season where his teams really take off. UK has won six regular-season Southeastern Conference titles in the previous 11 seasons and another six SEC Tournament championships under Calipari.

The first day of spring classes -- and, in essence, the end of Camp Cal -- is Jan. 25.

Bounce Back

Kentucky doesn't lose often during the John Calipari era, but when the Wildcats do, they almost always bounce back. UK is 55-15 under Calipari following a loss (record does not count end-of-season losses).

For just the second time in 12 seasons under Calipari, Kentucky has lost three or more straight games. UK has dropped consecutive games to Richmond, Kansas and Georgia Tech in the early stages of 2020-21 as it navigates its way through a tough schedule with an extremely young team.

The last and only other time the Wildcats lost three or more consecutive games under Calipari was in 2017-18 when UK dropped four straight games during the 2017-18 season. That team went on to win the Southeastern Conference Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16.

Prior to the Calipari era, the last time UK lost four games in a row was in February 2009, when the Wildcats lost four straight games to end the regular season.

UK has never lost back-to-back home games under Calipari.

The First of Three vs. Notre Dame

Saturday's Kentucky-Notre Dame matchup will be the first of three games over the next three seasons. Next year, UK will play the Fighting Irish at a neutral site to be determined and will travel to South Bend, Indiana, in 2022.

The revival of this historic series was initiated by JMI Sports, which will be the promoter of the neutral-site game in 2021. JMI Sports is the exclusive multi-media rights holder at Kentucky and shares comparable rights with Legends at Notre Dame.

The Wildcats and Irish have played in an on-again, off-again series for more than 80 years. UK leads the series by a 43-19 margin and won the last matchup between the two schools in an epic showdown in the NCAA Tournament for the right to move on to the Final Four in 2015. UK prevailed 68-66 thanks to late defensive heroics by Willie Cauley-Stein and clutch plays down the stretch by Aaron and Andrew Harrison.

Kentucky and Notre Dame have only met eight times in Lexington, Kentucky, with the Cats coming out on top in every meeting. UK leads the series 10-6 in South Bend, Indiana, but the Irish have won two straight in the series at home, including a 64-50 win in 2013.

Brooks Remains Doubtful, Needs 'More Time'

Sophomore forward Keion Brooks Jr. -- the only returning scholarship player who played a season ago -- has not played in any of Kentucky's first four games and remains doubtful for the Notre Dame game.

"Let's hope in the next two or three weeks he's back and then we can figure out what we do from there," John Calipari said last week. "The doctors just want him to take more time."

Brooks averaged 4.5 points and 3.2 rebounds in 31 games, including six starts, in 2019-20. Without him in the lineup, Kentucky has played its first three games without a single scholarship player who played for UK last season.

Value the Rock

Kentucky head coach John Calipari was surprised by his team's offensive efficiency and ability to both take care of the ball and share the ball in the team's season opener vs. Morehead State. With 18 assists that game, UK shot 55.9% from the floor and averaged 1.19 points per possession.

Unfortunately it set some early false expectations.

Like most young and inexperienced teams, this group has struggled on offense over the last three, losses to Richmond, Kansas and Georgia Tech, two of which are nationally ranked.

UK turned the ball over 21 times and totaled just five assists -- including zero in the second half -- vs. Richmond. The five assists were tied for the lowest of the Calipari era. The Wildcats were only marginally better vs. Kansas with 16 turnovers and just eight assists but reverted vs. Georgia Tech with 21 turnovers.

The 73 turnovers are the second most of the Calipari era through four games. The 2009-10 team had 77 but also had 61 assists at this point. This team only has 47 so far.

The Wildcats are turning the ball over on 25.4% of their possessions, according to KenPom.com. Only Davion Mintz (11 assists and seven turnovers) and Cam'Ron Fletcher (three assists and two turnovers) have more assists than turnovers.

As a result, Kentucky has struggled to find easy shots and has shot just 38.6% from the floor and 22.0% from 3 in its three losses. Kentucky averaged 0.83 points per possession vs. Richmond, 0.85 vs. Kansas and 0.91 vs. Georgia Tech.

Forever Young

With Keion Brooks Jr., who averaged 4.5 points and 3.2 rebounds in 31 games, including six starts, as the lone major contributor to the roster from last season UK was tasked with replacing 94% of its scoring from last season. That's the most of the John Calipari era. It also had to replace 98.6% of its minutes, 84.4% of its rebounds, 92.0% of its assists and 91.5% of its blocks -- and Brooks has yet to play this season.

According to an NCAA survey, Kentucky's three scholarship returners was among the nation's least amount of returning experience.

Through games on Dec. 6, KenPom.com lists UK's average lineup experience at 0.73, the second-most inexperienced team in the nation that has played in a game in 2020-21.

That's, of course, nothing new for Calipari's teams. Only the 2010-11 team's average years of experience was greater than 1.0 with an average of 1.16 years in 12 years under Calipari. The youngest team was the 2017-18 squad with an average age of 0.18.

Cats Don't Count on the Long Ball

New rules that moved the 3-point line to the international basketball distance of 22 feet, 1.75 inches had an impact on college basketball last season. The Wildcats were not immune.

A season after Kentucky shot 34.3% from behind the arc ranked 122nd in the country, trouble from behind the arc has crept into the 2020-21 season as well.

The Wildcats rank near the bottom nationally in both 3-point field goals per game (ranked 281st through games on Dec. 6 with 4.2 per game) and 3-point scoring distribution (only 19.0% of UK's points come from 3s, which was 256th thus far) and have taken 21 fewer 3-pointers than the opposition. Additionally, the Wildcats have already made four or fewer 3-pointers in two games.

If you've followed John Calipari's teams over the years, Kentucky has never relied on the 3-point shot. While teams nationally are taking more 3-point shots than ever before, UK has bucked the trend and played to the style that's best suited for that particular group.

The highest percentage of 3-point shots taken under Calipari was the 2010-11 Final Four team that lofted 32.4% of its shots from beyond the arc. No surprise, that team consisted of Brandon Knight and Doron Lamb on the perimeter is also Calipari's top 3-point shooting team at Kentucky.

Calipari typically likes his teams to take between 20 to 24 3-point attempts per game. UK is averaging 16.8 3-point attempts in its four games and made 17 thus far.

Kentucky's 25.4% mark from 3 isn't great but last season's team should give some perspective. That group was shooting just 21.3% from behind the arc through four games and rebounded to shoot 34.3% for the season.

Not relying on the 3 certainly doesn't hurt the Wildcats. UK is 10-2 all-time under Calipari when making one or fewer from long range.

Oddly enough, Kentucky shot the ball from deep considerably better in hostile territory last season. The Wildcats made 47.2% from long range in true road games but only 28.9% at home and 25.9% in their three neutral-site games.

| Year | % of Attempts from 3 | 3-Point FG% |

Measurable-wise, sophomore forward Jacob Toppin has the best maximum vertical leap on the team at 42.5 inches. Cam'Ron Fletcher checked in at 40.0.

Also of note, 6-9 freshman forward Isaiah Jackson ran the fastest 3/4-court spring at 3.21 seconds, and sharpshooting redshirt freshman guard Dontaie Allen has a hand width of 11.5 inches, tops on the team.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

Kentucky is 282-9 (.969) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

Ironically, two of the last five instances UK has let a double-digit lead slip away came on the road at South Carolina. The Wildcats led by as many as 14 in Columbia, South Carolina, on Jan. 15, 2020, but the Gamecocks rallied behind a buzzer-beating 3-pointer for the 81-78 win. It was the first time UK let a double-digit lead slip away since Auburn rallied for an overtime win in the 2019 Elite Eight. UK surrendered a 13-point lead in a loss to No. 7/5 Kansas on Dec. 1 earlier this season.

Seven of the nine losses are to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 70.8% of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 85.2% of Calipari's 331 career wins at Kentucky.

Hold Them to 55 Points, 40%

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 78-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer, including 1-0 this season after holding Morehead State to 45 points.

The Wildcats are 186-7 (96.4%) under Calipari and 1-0 this season when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less. Kentucky's 61-59 loss to Tennessee in 2017-18 snapped a 60-game winning streak when holding the opponent to 63 or less.

Kentucky also fares well when it keeps the competition to 40% or less from the floor. UK is 203-20 (91.0%) vs. opponents under Calipari when its field-goal percent is 40% or less. The Wildcats are 1-1 this season when that occurs.

Kentucky's Schedule Packs a Punch

Kentucky's schedule is always among the toughest in the country and this season certainly is no different.

UK's nonconference slate alone has seen the Wildcats play Kansas in the Champions Classic, features non-conference games against Atlantic Coast Conference foes Georgia Tech (Dec. 6 in Atlanta), Notre Dame (Dec. 12 in Rupp Arena) and Louisville (Dec. 26 at the KFC Yum! Center), UCLA (Dec. 19) as a part of the CBS Sports Classic, and sees the Wildcats host Texas on Jan. 30 in the SEC/Big 12 Challenge.

Five Kentucky opponents are ranked in the Dec. 7 Associated Press Top 25, including four nonconference opponents in Kansas (No. 5), Texas (No. 13), Richmond (No. 19) and Louisville

(Nov. 25). UCLA received a vote for inclusion in the poll.

Tennessee, at No. 12, is the only Southeastern Conference program ranked among the AP Top 25. Three more teams in Florida, Missouri and Alabama sit just outside the top 25 and received votes. Kentucky plays Tennessee, Florida and Alabama twice. Based on the current AP Top 25, UK will have six total matchups in 2020-21 against top-25 opponents.

UK's 2020-21 opponents combined to go 399-286 last season, a .582 winning percentage. Eight of the Wildcats' 22 total competitors ranked in the top 50 of the NCAA Evaluation Tool.

Adhering to the NCAA Division I Council's framework for scheduling, UK will play in 24 regular-season games with one three-game multi-team event, resulting in 27 total games before postseason play. The Wildcats will play nine nonconference opponents to go along with 18 SEC matchups. SEC play begins Dec. 29.

The league has built-in make-up dates scheduled for March 5-7 in case games are postponed due to COVID-19 safety protocols.

Schedule Update: Detroit Mercy Game Postponed Again

Kentucky's game vs. Detroit Mercy on Dec. 15 in Rupp Arena has been postponed.

The game, originally scheduled for Nov. 27 in the Bluegrass Showcase and then rescheduled to Dec. 15 because of COVID-19 safety protocols, has been postponed a second time due to concerns with COVID-19 protocols and calendar logistics.

The postponement is due strictly to testing and safety logistics. Both UK and Detroit Mercy will continue with their current practice and playing schedule. The health and safety of Wildcat student-athletes, coaches and staff remains UK Athletics' No. 1 priority.

The status of the game – in addition to Detroit Mercy's games vs. Morehead State and Richmond that were also a part of the Bluegrass Showcase – will be determined at a later date once COVID-19 protocols and calendar logistics provide the opportunity for a comprehensive and safe resolution.

UK ticket holders will receive communication via email if additional changes are made to Kentucky's schedule throughout the season. Given the unusual nature of this season – specifically, the current unknowns related to postponed games getting rescheduled or canceled games getting replaced – UK Athletics appreciates the continued support, flexibility and understanding of its ticket holders. If circumstances change during the season and games are canceled and not rescheduled, UK Athletics will evaluate credit and refund options for the ticket portion of payment at the conclusion of the season.

With hopes of rescheduling Detroit Mercy for later in the season, UK does not plan on rescheduling an opponent for Dec. 15. Per the NCAA Division I Council's framework for scheduling this season, teams can play a maximum of 27 games (24 regular-season games with one three-game multi-team event).

Even by UK Standards, 2020-21 a Major Roster Overhaul

With an unmatched ability to prepare and produce players for the NBA Draft, Kentucky is used to major roster overhauls on an annual basis. But the one the Wildcats face in 2020-21

UK said farewell to nine players, five starters and eight of the top nine scorers from the 2019-20 roster. Nick Richards, Immanuel Quickley, Ashton Hagans, EJ Montgomery and Tyrese Maxey all forfeited their remaining eligibility and declared for the NBA Draft, with three of them earning selection in the Nov. 18 draft. Nate Sestina's college eligibility expired, Johnny Juzang transferred, Ben Jordan returned to baseball full time and Kahlil Whitney departed for a professional career midseason.

That left the Wildcats with just one scholarship player who played in 2019-20: Keion Brooks Jr., who averaged 4.5 points and 3.2 rebounds in 31 games, including six starts. And he has yet to play this season with a lingering left leg injury.

UK was tasked with replacing 94% of its scoring from last season, 98.6% of its minutes, 84.4% of its rebounds, 92.0% of its assists and 91.5% of its blocks. It's the highest loss of points and assists production of the John Calipari era, and according to an NCAA survey of communications directors across the country, UK is replacing a higher scoring percentage than any other school in the country. Only the 2012-13 Kentucky team, which went to the NIT after the 2011-12 team won the national title, had to replace more minutes.

UK Freshman Class Ranked No. 1

If it's not an annual certainty at this point, it's at least become a yearly expectation for John Calipari to reel in a top-ranked recruiting class every season. He's only done it in every year at Kentucky.

This year's group is no exception and they have had to shoulder a major load in the team's first four games. Led by Brandon Boston Jr. and Terrence Clarke, the team's two leading scorers, the six scholarship players have accounted for 68.9% of the points, 70.4% of the rebounds, 66.0% of the assists, 73.9% of the steals and 77.3% of the blocks.

The seven-man class includes guards Devin Askew, Boston and Clarke and forwards Isaiah Jackson, Lance Ware and Cam'Ron Fletcher, plus walk-on guard Kareem Watkins. The Wildcats also added three high-impact transfers (more on them to follow), but they are not included in the official signing class rankings.

As for those rankings, UK finished atop them all. ESPN, 247Sports and Rivals each tabbed the Wildcats' haul the No. 1 class in their final team rankings. The Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking, also ranked it the top class in the country.

With two players rated consensus top-10, five-star prospects and all six of the scholarship signees tabbed four- or five-star players, UK formed its 12th straight top-three signing class under Calipari. Of those 12 classes, eight have been tabbed No. 1 in the final rankings by at least one of the three major recruiting services, the best mark of any team and coach.

Boston, a consensus five-star prospect, was ranked the highest in UK's class. The 6-foot-7 guard out of Norcross, Georgia, was tabbed as high as No. 5 in the Rivals rankings. Boston is UK's highest rated signee since Skal Labissière in 2015 (No. 1 in Rivals, No. 2 in ESPN and 247Sports).

Clarke, a 6-7 guard, was just behind Boston in the rankings. The Boston native was also a consensus five star and was ranked as high as No. 8 by Rivals.

Also picking up five-star ratings by at least one of the three major services were Askew, who earned the elite status from ESPN, and Jackson, who earned the distinction from Rivals. Fletcher and forward Ware were consensus four-star prospects.

All have had an impact so far. Boston leads the Wildcats in scoring, Clarke is the second-leading scorer, and Jackson leads in rebounds and blocks.

Three (Transfers) is More

Kentucky's reinforcements haven't just been freshmen; the Wildcats added three high-impact transfers.

UK added Wake Forest forward Olivier Sarr, Creighton guard Davion Mintz and Rhode Island forward Jacob Toppin.

In the team's first three games, the transfers have accounted for 29.0% of the scoring and 22.8% of the rebounding. Sarr had a double-double vs. Richmond, Mintz posted a team-high 12 points against No. 7/5 Kansas and Toppin provided a spark off the bench against the Jayhawks as well.

Sarr, at 7-feet, 255 pounds, enjoyed a breakthrough season in 2019-20 at Wake Forest, averaging 13.7 points, 9.0 rebounds and 1.2 blocks per game. He shot 52.7% from the floor, made the All-Atlantic Coast Conference Third Team and was the runner-up for the 2020 ACC Most Improved Player award.

Sarr is widely regarded as one of the nation's top transfers. He totaled 664 points, 496 rebounds and 81 blocks with 31 starts in three seasons at Wake Forest. He considered entering the NBA Draft before the coaching change in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Sarr should provide UK with an elite rim protector with considerable size and good athleticism.

A native of Bordeaux, France, Sarr blossomed in his third season with the Demon Deacons. He led the team with 11 double-doubles and 33 blocks, scored in double figures in 23 games and was a two-time ACC Player of the Week. Sarr was particularly good late in conference play, finishing on a six-game double-figure scoring run with three double-doubles.

Sarr posted a double-double in the game vs. Richmond with 17 points and 11 rebounds.

A 6-3 guard out of Creighton, Mintz played in 97 games with 79 starts for the Bluejays. He is expected to add valuable leadership, experience and depth, having totaled more than 100 assists in each of his last two active seasons -- 259 total in his three-year career -- with a 35.0% mark from behind the 3-point line.

Mintz redshirted in 2019-20 after battling an ankle injury in the preseason and then re-aggravating it in practice upon his return, but he started all but one game in the previous two seasons. He started all 35 games for Creighton in 2018-19, averaging 9.7 points, 3.0 assists and 3.0 rebounds in 28.8 minutes per game. Mintz was regarded as the Bluejays' best defender and ranked second on the team with 40 steals.

In his junior season, Mintz scored in double figures in 16 games with a career high of 21 points vs. No. 21 Marquette. He also played all 45 minutes vs. No. 14 Villanova and totaled 19 points, eight rebounds and four assists. He was expected to be a key part of the 2019-20 Creighton squad that went 24-7 and won a share of the Big East title. As a sophomore, Mintz led the Big East and ranked 15th nationally with a 2.83 assist-to-turnover ratio. In 10 games vs. ranked opponents in 2017-18, he totaled 38 assists with just 10 turnovers.

Toppin, a 6-8 forward, is the brother of Dayton's Obi Toppin, the consensus national player of the year in 2019-20. Like his brother Obi, who averaged 20.0 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game as a redshirt sophomore, Jacob possesses a high upside with good size and great athleticism.

Originally from Brooklyn, New York, Toppin became an immediate contributor for a Rhode Island team that went 21-9 on the season and finished 13-5 in the Atlantic 10. He scored in double figures five times in his freshman season, highlighted by 12 points and eight rebounds vs. Richmond, a potential at-large NCAA Tournament team this past season, and 12 points in 11 minutes vs. Saint Joseph's. He also performed well vs. his future SEC foes Alabama and LSU, scoring 11 points and 10, respectively, in non-conference play.

Toppin showed an ability to stretch the floor with 13 3-pointers, including three vs. Alabama. He shot 42.6% from the floor.

Combining the seven-man freshman class with the three transfers, UK welcomed 10 new players to the roster this season, among the most in college basketball.

Wildcats are Underdogs?

For just the second time in 12 seasons under John Calipari and the first since 2010-11, a season that culminated in a Final Four berth, the Wildcats were not picked to win the regular-season league crown. That preseason honor this season goes to the Tennessee Volunteers, who the media predicted will unseat the Wildcats, the defending SEC champions, in 2020-21.

In most seasons, UK has lived up to the high expectations, having won six regular-season SEC crowns in the Calipari era and a league-high 49 overall after posting a 15-3 record last season. The Wildcats also own six SEC Tournament titles under Calipari.

Each school selected media members that cover their team and additional media from across the nation were selected by the conference office to comprise the voting panel. Points were compiled on a 14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Ties were not broken.

Boston, Sarr Tabbed Preseason All-SEC

Kentucky newcomers Brandon Boston Jr. and Olivier Sarr were selected to the two preseason All-Southeastern Conference squads by league and national media and the SEC coaches.

Boston and Sarr earned identical honors from the league and the coaches. Boston, a freshman, was an All-SEC First Team pick and Sarr, a senior transfer from Wake Forest, was an All-SEC Second Team selection. Boston picked up votes for SEC Player of the Year in the media poll.

While noteworthy, preseason honors don't always tell the story of the season. Neither Immanuel Quickley nor Nick Richards were picked for the preseason media All-SEC teams or the coaches' All-SEC picks a season ago. Quickley played his way to the coaches' 2020 choice for SEC Player of the Year while making the media's All-SEC First Team, and Richards was an All-SEC First Team selection by both.

Kentucky has featured at least one player on one of the two end-of-the-season All-SEC teams (media or coaches) since 2006-07.

Four Players on National Watch Lists

Four Wildcats -- Brandon Boston Jr., Terrence Clarke, Isaiah Jackson and Olivier Sarr -- started the season on major national watch lists.

Boston and Clarke are two of 50 players on the Naismith Trophy preseason watch list, awarded annually to the national player of the year by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. Boston and Olivier Sarr are on the watch list for the John R. Wooden Award. Boston is also one of 20 players on the National Association of Basketball Coaches' national player of the year honor.

Four Wildcats are on preseason watch lists for the positional player of the year awards presented by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Boston is on the list for the Julius Erving Award (best small forward), Clarke is nominated for the Jerry West Award (best shooting guard), Jackson is tabbed to the Karl Malone Award watch list (best power forward) and Sarr is among the candidates for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar award (best center).

Calipari Builds 'Staff of the Future'

Kentucky's bench will look significantly different this season with the additions of Bruiser Flint and Jai Lucas and the departure of Kenny Payne.

Payne, UK's longtime associate head coach and assistant since 2010-11, accepted an assistant coaching position with the New York Knicks in August on Tom Thibodeau's staff. He joins former UK players Julius Randle and Kevin Knox in New York.

The departure of Payne offered Calipari the opportunity to alter some responsibilities and create a new position.

Tony Barbee has moved to a new position, the associate to the head coach, where he will play a central part in helping Calipari run the program. Barbee, who played a key role in Kentucky's game management and Xs and Os as an assistant, will take on increased responsibility in game planning, scouting opponents, and helping Calipari formulate the team's approach in practices and in games.

In terms of additions, Calipari first brought in Flint, a former Calipari assistant with more than 30 years of coaching experience, to fill Payne's assistant void and hired Lucas, a Texas assistant coach, to be an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator.

Joel Justus will remain in the other assistant role and longtime Calipari right-hand man John Robic will remain a special assistant to the head coach with basketball operations duties.

Calipari looked to NBA coaching staffs as a model for his changes. He has called this new setup "a staff of the future."

With a blue-collar background and an infectious personality, Flint is well known in the college basketball fraternity for his success in both recruiting and developing players. His honest, engaging approach has been the consistent variable behind 20 successful seasons as a Division I head coach at Drexel (2001-02 to 2015-16) and UMass (1996-97 to 2000-01), plus several prominent assistant coaching stops, including seven seasons at UMass under Calipari. He served the last three seasons as an assistant at Indiana.

Flint won 331 games as a head coach during his 20 seasons at the helm at UMass and Drexel. Four times he was named Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year (2002, 2004, 2009 and 2012) and National Association of Basketball Coaches District Coach of the Year (1998, 2007, 2009 and 2012).

Flint was a member of Calipari's staff at UMass from 1989 through the 1995-96 season, helping build a national program in Amherst, Massachusetts, after 11 straight losing seasons. With Calipari and Flint on staff, the Minutemen made five NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 1996 Final Four run, to go along with five Atlantic 10 regular-season and five A-10 Tournament titles.

Lucas is a former McDonald's High School All American and now a highly respected coach. As an assistant, Lucas has been tasked with taking a lead role in Kentucky's recruiting efforts while filling the traditional on-court roles of an assistant, including helping with game and practice preparation and playing a key role in player development through practice and individual workouts. Additionally, as recruiting coordinator, he manages official and unofficial visits and is responsible for the recruiting strategy for the program.

Lucas spent the previous eight seasons at his alma mater on the University of Texas' coaching staff. A native of Houston, Lucas began his career as a special assistant of the basketball program under Rick Barnes for two seasons. Upon Shaka Smart's hiring, Lucas moved into the director of basketball operations role before being elevated to an assistant coach for the 2016-17 season. He is known in basketball circles for his high-level player development and a penchant for formulating strong relationships.

Also of note, DeWayne Peevy, UK's former deputy director of athletics who also served as the basketball administrator, was named director of athletics at DePaul in August. A longtime confidant of Calipari's, Peevy was in charge of Kentucky's schedule. Kevin Sergent, associate athletic director of compliance, is the new basketball administrator. Sergent and Robic will now oversee scheduling.

Big-Game Cal. Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky own a 63-34 record (.649) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams under John Calipari, UK is 7-4 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five.

All-time, Calipari is 13-8 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 86-57, including a 55-30 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 27-19 record, including 16-12 at UK.

By defeating top-ranked Michigan State to start the 2019-20 season, UK knocked off the No. 1 team in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Kentucky downed Tennessee on Feb. 19, 2019. With the win over MSU to begin 2019-20, the Wildcats have nine victories over the No. 1 team in 25 tries in program history.

Calipari improved to 6-4 vs. the No. 1 team in his career with the win vs. Michigan State, including 3-2 at Kentucky. According to ESPN, Calipari is the only coach with a winning (.600) percentage against No. 1 ranked teams with a minimum of 10 games faced against the No. 1.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 63-34 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 268-46 vs. unranked competition, an .854 winning percentage.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

NOTES

Brooks Leads On and Off the Court

Keion Brooks Jr. was one of 11 Division I men's basketball student-athletes selected to serve on the newly-formed National Association of Basketball Coaches Player Development Coalition. The group is a diverse collection of players who are tasked with providing valuable perspective and feedback on college basketball-related issues.

In addition to creating a vehicle for student-athletes to address current issues, the Player Development Coalition will also provide members with numerous professional and personal development experiences. The coalition will meet quarterly and have regular opportunities to address the NABC Board of Directors and NCAA committees.

"The importance of the coalition is to make sure the players' voices are heard because the players are what make the NCAA go," Brooks said. "I also believe it's important to educate players beyond basketball, with social justice issues and how to carry yourself as a professional."

Members of the initial Player Development Coalition are North Carolina's Armando Bacot, Colorado's Evan Battey, Brooks, Harvard's Kale Catchings, Villanova's Collin Gillespie, Gonzaga's Corey Kispert, Michigan State's Joshua Langford, Duke's Wendell Moore Jr., TCU's RJ Nembhard, Syracuse's Bourama Sidibe and High Point's John-Michael Wright.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky added to its impressive record vs. local competition under John Calipari with a win over Morehead State in the season opener.

UK is 20-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm, including an 11-2 mark vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals were in postseason play. UK's four-game winning streak was snapped in 2016-17 but the Wildcats have won all six meetings played in Rupp Arena, including a 29-point blowout in 2017-18, the third-biggest margin of victory in the history of the series. Louisville's two wins are by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Calipari took over at UK:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
- March 31, 2012 - UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
- Dec. 29, 2012 - Louisville won 80-77 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
- Dec. 27, 2014 - UK won 58-50 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 26, 2015 - UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 21, 2016 - Louisville won 73-70 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 29, 2017 - UK won 90-61 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 29, 2018 - UK won 71-58 at the KFC Yum! Center
- Dec. 28, 2019 - UK won 78-70 (OT) at Rupp Arena

Three More Wildcats Drafted

Although Kentucky men's basketball's "Graduation Night" – as dubbed by head coach John Calipari – came months later than normal, three more Wildcats heard their names called in the NBA Draft on Nov. 18.

Tyrese Maxey (No. 21, Philadelphia 76ers), Immanuel Quickley (No. 25, Oklahoma City Thunder) and Nick Richards (No. 42, New Orleans Pelicans) were selected during the 2020 NBA Draft, which was done virtually this season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In 11 seasons with Calipari at the helm, Kentucky has churned out three No. 1 selections, 31 first-rounders (more than the entire Big Ten in that same time span), 21 lottery picks and 41 total players in the NBA Draft. The 41 draft picks are 14 more than the next closest school (Duke). With two first-round picks, Kentucky has more first-round selections (41) than any other school in the NBA lottery era (since 1985).

Maxey was the first Wildcat off the board and the first UK player selected by Philadelphia since Mike Flynn in 1975.

Quickley was traded to the New York Knicks where former UK associate head coach Kenny Payne is now an assistant and former Kentucky players Kevin Knox and Julius Randle are on the roster. Richards was traded to Charlotte. He joins Wildcats Malik Monk and PJ Washington with the Hornets.

The Wildcats have had more top-10 picks, more lottery selections and more first-round picks in the Calipari era than any other team in the country. UK has had multiple first-round selections in every draft during Calipari's tenure.

Kentucky has had 132 players drafted 134 times in its illustrious history with 55 players selected in the opening round.

It is the 11th consecutive NBA Draft that UK was represented by multiple players in the first round of the draft. Kentucky is the only program since the draft went to two rounds in 1989 to have multiple players selected in the first round in 11 straight years. Calipari is the only coach to have multiple players selected in 13 consecutive NBA Drafts, dating back to his time at Memphis. This marked the first time the Wildcats did not have a lottery pick in the Calipari era. Kentucky previously had at least one lottery pick in 10 straight drafts and multiple lottery selections seven times. Calipari's streak of first-round picks dated back 12 seasons to his time at Memphis.

The Wildcats' three total picks tied Arizona and Duke for the most selections in the 2020 NBA Draft.

Of the 28 players at UK in the Calipari era who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, 26 have been first-round draft picks after Maxey's selections. All previous players (not including Maxey) have played in an NBA game.

Additionally, Ashton Hagans inked a two-way deal with the Minnesota Timberwolves, and EJ Montgomery signed a training camp deal with the Milwaukee Bucks and Nate Sestina got a training camp deal with the Brooklyn Nets.

Wildcats Ink Three in Fall Signing Period

In a year where a lot has changed, one thing has remained a constant: Kentucky head coach John Calipari and his staff have once again begun to build one of the strongest recruiting classes in the country, singling three of the nation's top players in the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Daimion Collins, Bryce Hopkins and Nolan Hickman have all inked national letters of intent with UK.

All three players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by at least one major national recruiting service. They will join the program for the 2021-22 season.

"Our fans have heard me talk a lot about what it means to be 'Built Different.' When you talk about this fall class, you've got three kids who are built to play here at Kentucky," Calipari said. "They wanted to be a part of this culture. They wanted to play against other really good players. They didn't need any promises or guarantees – only the promise that this is going to be the hardest thing they've ever done and that we will challenge them to become the best version of themselves.

"This place isn't for everybody and it takes a certain type of player – a 'Built Different' mentality – to come here and be in this competitive environment. These three are ready to take that step."

With the spring signing period still to go, UK is going to be in the mix for one of the top classes in the nation yet again. Rivals and 247 Sports ranked UK No. 3 with the three fall signees.

In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking. With the fall additions, Kentucky has signed 61 top-50 recruits, 47 top-25 players and 26 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari's 13 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

UK can only comment on prospective student-athletes who have signed official paperwork to play at Kentucky.

La Familia Dominates NBA Bubble

Kentucky's collegiate success and the NBA's infusion of young and talented superstars have been synonymous for the last decade.

In the John Calipari era, 41 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 31 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Anthony Davis, Karl-Anthony Towns and John Wall) and 21 lottery selections. A staggering 29 players from Kentucky were on 2019-20 NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive lists).

As it turns out, the NBA domination could get even stronger. Much stronger.

Former Kentucky players were one of the central storylines of an unforgettable and unique postseason setup at the ESPN Wide World of Sports at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida. Whether it was four players currently vying for an NBA championship in the NBA Finals, record-setting scoring performances, early 20-something-year-olds quickly becoming stars or Wildcats making game-winning plays, UK players had their fingerprints all over the NBA Playoffs.

The postseason began with 13 Wildcats on rosters for the NBA Playoffs, the most of any school in the country. But that was only the beginning of the story.

Jamal Murray ascended to superstar status with mind-blowing scoring performance after mind-blowing scoring performance. He led the Denver Nuggets to back-to-back series wins and into the Western Conference finals after starting in a 3-1 hole, making all types of history in the process. Among the most noteworthy, he scored 142 points in a three-game stretch. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other players have scored more points over a three-game span in the NBA Playoffs: Jerry West (1965) and Michael Jordan (1988).

Then there was Bam Adebayo's unforgettable block in game one of the Eastern Conference finals. Already being hailed as one of the game's best big men after a breakthrough season and a do-it-all run through the NBA Playoffs, Adebayo came up with one of the best blocks in postseason history when he stuffed Jayson Tatum at the rim in the final seconds of the first game of the series, which Adebayo's Miami Heat would go on to win.

Just a couple of nights later, Anthony Davis would add to the Kentucky highlight reel by checking off one of the few remaining things he had yet to do in his career: a game-winning shot in the postseason. With the Nuggets giving the Los Angeles Lakers everything they could handle, Davis -- a 6-foot-10 forward -- popped out to the 3-point line and drilled the shot at the buzzer to give the Lakers a 2-0 series lead. They would ultimately advance.

And then there was Tyler Herro, who captivated NBA fans with an unwavering confidence seen in few rookies. He hit clutch shot after clutch shot during the postseason run, highlighted by a 37-point night vs. the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals. According to StatMuse, he became the youngest player in NBA history to drop 30 points in a playoff game off the bench.

When Adebayo would later go on to score 30 points in that series, UK became the first school with four former players to score 30 or more points in the conference finals. And before the NBA Finals had even started, Kentucky alumni had already scored more points in this NBA Playoffs run than any other school in NBA postseason history.

The NBA Playoffs culminated with Davis and Rondo's Lakers defeating the Heat's Adebayo and Herro 4-2 in the NBA Finals. In winning his first NBA championship, Davis became just the eighth player all-time to win an NCAA title, an NBA ring and an Olympic gold medal. It was Rondo's second NBA championship.

On top of the four players in the NBA Finals, which was tied for the most of any school in NBA history, the Lakers are also coached by Frank Vogel, a former manager and video coordinator at UK, and Pat Riley, a UK Athletics Hall of Famer and All-American, leads the Heat as team president. Riley is one of only two people to win an NBA title as a player, as a coach and as an executive.

And the Winner is ... Kentucky

Kentucky has dominated the weekly Southeastern Conference awards under John Calipari. UK has won more SEC honors (108) than any school during the Calipari era, including 83 SEC Freshman of the Week honors and 25 SEC Player of the Week awards.

Kentucky won eight total SEC honors in 2019-20 with five SEC Player of the Week awards and three SEC Freshman of the Week honors. When Immanuel Quickley won on March 2, he became the first Wildcat in school history to win consecutive SEC Player of the Week honors (dating back to the 1984-85 season).

Quickley won three total SEC Player of the Week honors (Jan. 13, Feb. 24, March 2) this season and Nick Richards was a two-time SEC Player of the Week winner (Dec. 30, Jan. 27). Tyrese Maxey won SEC Freshman of the Week three times (Nov. 11, Dec. 30, Jan. 13).

The Wildcats won four national honors this season. Richards was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association Oscar Robertson Trophy National Player of the Week after the win over Louisville and the NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week after back-to-back wins vs. Georgia and at Texas Tech. Maxey took home both NCAA March Madness National Player of the Week and USBWA Wayman Tisdale National Freshman of the Week honors following the U of L game.

Mercer and Turner Selected to UK Athletics Hall of Fame

Kentucky basketball greats Ron Mercer (1996-97) and Wayne Turner (1996-99) are two of six former UK stars in the 2020 Hall of Fame class.

The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor persons whose participation and achievements enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. The charter class included 88 individuals who had previously had their jersey retired by UK.

There is a five-year waiting period after leaving UK to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. A committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, campus representatives and current coaches and administrators elects new inductees each year.

This year's honorees will be inducted during a Hall of Fame Weekend at a date to be determined.

Mercer was a member of the 1996 national championship team as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He was an NCAA Consensus All-America First Team member in 1997 and a two-time NCAA Tournament All-Final Four Team selection.

After making the SEC All-Freshman Team in 1996, he was one of the top players in college basketball in 1997. In that season, he was named the NCAA Tournament West Regional Most Outstanding Player, SEC Player of the Year by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press, and the 1997 SEC Tournament MVP. He scored 725 points in his sophomore season, at the time the fifth most in a season in program history.

Mercer is a member of Kentucky's 1,000-point club (1,013). He declared for the 1997 NBA Draft after his sophomore season and was drafted sixth overall by the Boston Celtics. He played eight seasons in the NBA.

Turner was a member of the 1996 and 1998 national championship teams as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He finished his career as UK's and the NCAA's all-time games played leader with 151 games (no-w ranks second), UK's all-time steals leader with 238, and a member of UK's 1,000-point club (1,170).

During his career, Turner helped the Wildcats to two SEC regular-season championships and three SEC Tournament titles.

Turner was named to the 1997 NCAA Tournament All-West Regional Team, the 1998 NCAA Tournament All-South Region Most Outstanding Player and the 1998 SEC Tournament MVP. He was also selected for the All-SEC Third Team and the SEC All-Tournament Team in 1999. He played one season in the NBA.

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2020 for placing in the top 10% of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a 994 out of a 1,000.

It's the sixth straight year the men's basketball team has received the award and the seventh time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2015-16 through 2018-19 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in six of the last seven single-year APR rates. Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

Anderson Returns for College Degree

Utilizing UK Athletics' Post-Eligibility Program, former Kentucky men's basketball star Derek Anderson has graduated from the University of Kentucky. He was a part of the December 2020 commencement.

Anderson lettered at Kentucky in 1996 and 1997. He was a part of the 1996 national championship team and a key part of the 1997 national runner-up squad, a team many thought would have repeated as national champions had Anderson not injured his knee and missed the second half of the season.

Through the Post-Eligibility Program, UK Athletics pays for tuition and books for scholarship student-athletes who return to school after completing their eligibility. Since its inception in 1989, more than 150 Wildcats have returned to graduate through the program. Several other former UK basketball players, including Nazr Mohammed, Kelenna Azubuike, Jodie Meeks, Gerald Fitch and Erik Daniels, have returned to school to complete their degree in recent seasons.

Anderson, who transferred from Ohio State scored 674 points in a season in a half at Kentucky. He averaged 9.4 points and 2.4 assists for the Wildcats during unforgettable 1995-96 season and was averaging 17.7 points, 4.1 rebounds and 3.5 assists before the season-ending knee injury.

The Louisville native made the NCAA All-Regional Team in 1996 and was an All-Southeastern Conference Second Team pick by the league's coaches and an All-SEC Third Team selection by the Associated Press that season.

Anderson was drafted 13th overall in the 1997 NBA Draft and played 11 seasons in the NBA. He won an NBA Championship with the Miami Heat in 2006.

Game-Day Changes in Effect During COVID-19 Pandemic

After receiving guidelines from state health officials, UK Athletics has designed a distanced seating plan to host fans at Rupp Arena in the healthiest manner possible for the 2020-21 season during the COVID-19 pandemic. The plan is focused on the recommended health and safety protocols for the well-being of all student-athletes, fans and staff.

At this point, the anticipated attendance for this season at Rupp Arena is up to 15% of normal arena capacity, which includes participants, essential personnel, media and a limited number of spectators. All plans are subject to change based on evolving information as well as local, state and national public health developments.

UK Athletics has taken advice from the Commonwealth of Kentucky, UK health officials, the city of Lexington and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. In response, UK's plan includes a number of new measures to promote a healthy game-day experience at Rupp Arena. These measures include, but are not limited to:

- Enhanced cleaning and sanitization procedures throughout the arena prior to and during all events
- Mobile ticketing to reduce contact between staff and fans
- Requiring face coverings for all fans at all times, with the exception of when fans are actively eating or drinking while sitting in their seats

- Requiring fans to keep the proper physical distance
- Providing signage in common areas to assist with physical distancing
- Locating hand sanitization and washing stations located throughout the arena
- Increasing physical spacing while using elevators by reducing capacity of each elevator
- Providing concessions featuring cashless transactions
- Discouraging the bringing of bags of any sort. Only small, clear bags will be admitted

A complete list of the new game-day regulations is available at the UK Athletics Gameday website.

Fans with pre-existing health conditions, or those who are at a greater risk, should consider not attending sporting events at this time. Even with these measures in place, UK Athletics can, in no way, guarantee that fans will not be exposed to COVID-19.

The UK Ticket Office and K Fund are communicating directly with season ticket holders on the 2020-21 ticketing process. Tickets will be sold in season packages and K Fund priority rankings will determine the order for ticket assignment. Ticket holders are encouraged to regularly monitor their email for additional updates.

Available tickets will be physically distanced throughout Rupp Arena and will be primarily sold in small blocks of two, three and four seats to maximize attendance opportunities for a greater number of season ticket accounts. All seating will be reserved, and ticket holders will be required to sit in their assigned seats. UK Athletics hopes to accommodate as many ticket accounts as possible, though there is no guarantee that every season ticket holder will be able to purchase tickets due to the limited capacity.

With arena capacity limited to 15%, there will be approximately 300 tickets that students will have access to purchase on a single-game basis, for select games. Ticket allotments may vary for games that are played during holiday or semester breaks. A single-game lottery process will be implemented to provide opportunities for as many students as possible to attend games. Games will be grouped into multiple lotteries throughout the season, and there will be a random draw for each game to determine the students that will receive tickets through their My UK Athletics Student Account.

Rupp Arena Renovations Continue

Originally announced when UK agreed to a new lease in December 2016 and formalized the agreement last year, upper-level chair-back seating and new club areas were installed to Rupp Arena last season with construction ongoing for club areas.

Two clubs for season ticket holders are on schedule to open for this season with a third scheduled to open in 2021-22. Fans in these new clubs will be able to enjoy first-class amenities before, during and after games. These new clubs are crucial to providing the funds necessary for both the new lease agreement and the ongoing renovation of Rupp Arena.

Club membership does not include a ticketed seat and club members may have seats throughout Rupp Arena. Season ticket holders may purchase club memberships to accompany their season ticket package. Club membership pricing and amenities will be announced as soon as details are finalized, and sales will begin shortly thereafter. Memberships will initially be offered to season ticket holders based on K Fund priority ranking.

This latest phase of Rupp renovations comes on the heels of the addition of a new center-hung scoreboard, ribbon boards, new sound system and lighting that have created a more dynamic game experience in Rupp.

The chair-back seating that was installed last season was undertaken in response to years of feedback from fans asking for more comfortable seating in the upper level. The seating was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234.

After the seat renovations, Rupp Arena now seats 20,500.

Givens Joins UK Sports Network

Heralded as one of the greatest players in program history, Jack "Goose" Givens has joined the UK Sports Network.

Givens, who scored 41 points in the 1978 national championship game before embarking on a career in professional basketball as both a player and broadcaster, will co-host the Don Franklin Auto Countdown to Tipoff pregame radio show alongside Dave Baker, who returns for his 34th season with the UK Sports Network. Baker previously co-hosted the show with another UK Hall of Famer, Rex Chapman, who will now work with JMI Sports on new media content.

Givens will also provide analysis on television for the UK Sports Network as a featured guest on BBN Gameday and BBN Tonight.

The Don Franklin Auto Countdown to Tipoff pregame show airs 90 minutes prior to all Kentucky men's basketball games on UK Sports Network affiliates and is also available through the UK Athletics app. A stream of the show is also available on UKAthletics.com and on the Kentucky Basketball Facebook page, where fans can ask questions and interact with Baker and Givens.

Once the ball tips, Big Blue Nation will again be guided through game action by The Voice of the Wildcats, Tom Leach, and UK Hall of Famer Mike Pratt. The 2020-21 season marks the 19th season together for the duo, who also host the Ruoff Mortgage Wildcat Wrap Up post-game show, where they are joined each game by a UK basketball player and head coach John Calipari.

Cats Rock at Rupp

The Wildcats are 611-72 (.895) in Rupp Arena. Among the most notable marks of dominance as the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- School record 54-game winning streak to begin the John Calipari era
- Kentucky is 329-42 (.887) in regular-season SEC games in Rupp
- The Wildcats set a program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK has gone undefeated at home in five of Calipari's 11 seasons
- Kentucky has a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 45 seasons

600 Wins at Rupp in Record Time

With a victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 7, 2019, Kentucky reached the 600-win mark at Rupp Arena faster than any other program in NCAA Division I level history. UK needed just 670 games to reach win No. 600 in Rupp Arena.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career home winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

New Chairbacks, Fewer Seats

After receiving a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that enhanced the fan experience with the likes of a new Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, ribbons boards, new corner video boards and a new audio system, Rupp Arena is undergoing an additional transformation as a part of UK's new leasing agreement with the Lexington Center.

Chair-back seating in the upper-level sideline was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234 for the 2019-20 season. Club areas will be available to season ticket holders starting with the 2020-21 season.

The new seating reduced Rupp Arena's capacity to 20,500.

Pack the House

Until reducing capacity for the 2019-20 season, Kentucky had led the nation in average home attendance in 20 of 24 seasons. That number included a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

Kentucky averaged 20,160 fans during the 2019-20 season, the first season with a reduced capacity at 20,500. UK averaged 23,000-plus fans in seven of Calipari's first 10 seasons.

After receiving guidelines from state health officials, attendance for this season at Rupp Arena due to the COVID-19 pandemic will be up to 15% of normal arena capacity (3,075), which includes participants, essential personnel, media and a limited number of spectators.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), both by three, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat Kentucky in Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 184-12 (.939) in Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- Kentucky is 22-5 (.815) vs. Associated Press Top 25 opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- UK is 162-7 (.959) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- The Wildcats are 95-5 (.950) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win in Rupp Arena as Kentucky's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari 104 games to reach the century mark, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, 2016, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for wins in Rupp Arena. Calipari currently has 184 wins inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

Calipari's Record at UK vs. AP Top 25 ...

Calipari Named 2020 SEC, USBWA District IV, NABC District 20 Coach of the Year

Unflinching to early growing pains when his team stumbled out of the gate and resolute in his belief in his players and the annual process of preparing young teams for March, John Calipari was recognized for another stellar coaching job in 2019-20 by winning Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, U.S. Basketball Writers Association District IV Coach of the Year and National Association of Basketball Coaches District 20 Coach of the Year honors.

It was Calipari's fourth SEC Coach of the Year award at Kentucky and his 10th conference coach of the year honors in 28 seasons as a college head coach.

Calipari was also a semifinalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year for a second consecutive season. He is one of just two coaches to win the Naismith Coach of the Year three times (Duke's Mike Krzyzewski is the other).

Calipari guided the Wildcats to a 25-6 regular season in 2019-20 that included a 15-3 league record, an SEC regular-season championship, an 8-2 record on the road and a top-10 national ranking.

Calipari Ahead of the Pack at Kentucky

Through 11-plus seasons at Kentucky, John Calipari's time in Lexington has been every bit as successful -- and more -- as fans hoped it would when he agreed to become the head coach at Kentucky in the spring of 2009.

By just about every measure, he's the most successful coach in college basketball during the last decade. Among schools who have been to at least two Elite Eights and a Final Four since 2009-10, Calipari ranks:

- First in NCAA Tournament wins (31)
- First in Final Four appearances (four)
- First in Elite Eight appearances (seven)
- First in Sweet 16 appearances (eight)
- Second in league tournament titles (six)
- Third in wins (331)
- Fourth in NCAA titles (one)

Calipari Named Coach of the Decade

Underscored by more victories than any other coach or program in his first 10 seasons at the helm at Kentucky, more Final Four appearances, a record number of NBA Draft picks, and the 2012 national championship, John Calipari was named the College Basketball Coach of the Decade by Sporting News in January 2020.

In a piece penned by national writer Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News credited Calipari for changing the college basketball landscape. Detailing Calipari's success -- what DeCourcy described as a "college basketball revolution" -- DeCourcy wrote that "no one defined the 2010s in the same way as Calipari ... nor achieved the same degree of consistent success."

In an era where kids can enter the NBA Draft at 19 years old, Calipari masterfully balances the priority of players' long-term professional dreams with individual and team development, leading to on-court success that no other team has matched.

"I knew we were going to make the program -- and I said it at the press conference -- it was going to be a players-first program," Calipari told Sporting News. "We were going to make decisions based on them and their needs. And it's not just about the name on the front. It'll be about the name on the back. That's how we're going to do this."

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevett, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and Jo Jo White.

Moving Up the Kentucky Career Wins, Games Coached List

With an 80-53 victory vs. Auburn on Feb. 23, 2019, John Calipari moved past Joe B. Hall for the second-most wins in program history. Calipari trails only the legendary Adolph Rupp (876 wins) for the most wins at UK and earned win No. 300 at Ole Miss on March 5, 2019. When Calipari tied Hall with his 297th win at Missouri on Feb. 19, 2019, he did so 32 games faster than Hall and just two games slower than Rupp.

Although he's still climbing the charts, he's doing it nearly as fast as anyone else in NCAA history. With the aforementioned win over Ole Miss, Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 300 wins (369 games) at one program in NCAA history. Only Bill Self (358 games at Kansas), Claire Bee (359 games at Long Island) and Rupp (366 at UK) got there faster.

Calipari also passed Hall for the second-most coached games at UK. Hall's 13-year career with the Wildcats ended with his 397th game. Calipari and Kentucky's win over Mississippi State on Feb. 4, 2020, marked his 398th career game at the UK helm. Rupp is first in games coached with a 41-season tenure spanning 1,066 career games.

700 Victories and Counting

With Kentucky's win over UIC on Nov. 26, 2017, John Calipari reached 700 on-court wins. At the time he was one of just 41 coaches, regardless of NCAA level of classification, to reach that barrier. Only 29 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever. Only Adolph Rupp (836 games), Jerry Tarkanian (876 games) and Roy Williams (879 games) did it faster.

Calipari is currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

ON PACE WITH THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to four NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure. John Calipari is just behind pace with Rupp to begin his career at UK in total victories. Calipari (.805) is slightly behind Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 16 league regular-season championships (including six Southeastern Conference titles) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Bruce Pearl has eight). Calipari has won six SEC Tournament championships at Kentucky and owns 15 conference tournament titles in his career, 11 more than his closest competitors (Ben Howland, Kermit Davis).

Calipari has tallied a 359-107 (.770) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 151-41 (.786) record since joining the SEC. In his 11 seasons at UK, his 151 total conference wins are tied for the most among Division I coaches since 1996-97 over their first 11 seasons with a program, while his winning percentage ranks third. Only Adolph Rupp (.847) had a better winning percentage through his first 11 seasons in league play in Kentucky's history.

Although he's been publicly outspoken against conference tournaments -- only because he doesn't favor playing three or more games on consecutive days to win the tournament -- his teams have gotten up for them. Calipari's teams at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky have been to 19 conference championship games in his 28-year career, winning a remarkable 15 of them. Calipari is 57-12 (.826) all-time in conference tournaments, including 23-4 (.852) at UK. Calipari ranks fourth in SEC Tournament wins.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari added another first to his Hall of Fame career in 2017.

When Kentucky clinched at least a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship by beating Vanderbilt on Feb. 28, 2017, he became the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, '93, '94, '95 and '96, Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, '06, '07, '08 and '09, and Kentucky has captured the SEC six times in 2010, '12, '15, '16, '17 and '20.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 31 combined regular-season and tournament championships after clinching the SEC regular-season crown in 2020. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (35 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

30 is the new 20

After defeating Ole Miss 67-62 on Feb. 15, 2020, John Calipari secured his 26th consecutive on-court 20-win season. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski (24), Bill Self (22) and Mark Few (21) who all hit the plateau last season as well.

COACH CALIPARI

With a Sweet 16 win over Houston in the 2019 NCAA Tournament, Calipari and the Cats clinched a 30-win season for the fifth time as UK's head coach. Calipari has 11 seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Krzyzewski (15) and Roy Williams (12) have more 30-win seasons as an active head coach. Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 wins in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

There's No Place Like Home

Since his 1991-92 season at UMass, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 394-33 (.923) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 184-12 (.939) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's 12 seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

| Coach | Streak (Yrs) |
|-------------------------|---------------------|
| 1. John Calipari | 54 (2010-13) |
| 2. John Calipari | 42 (2014-17) |
| 3. Rick Pitino | 33 (1992-94) |
| 4. Joe B. Hall | 30 (1981-82) |
| 5. Rick Pitino | 27 (1995-97) |

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're pretty good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 108-47 (.697) record on the road. At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 78-25 (.757) under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking.

Calipari has led seven of his 12 UK teams to the No. 1 ranking and eight of his last 14 teams to the top (he's done it 10 times overall). When Coach Cal's teams are at the top, they're difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-13 (.894) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-8 (.896) when his team is atop the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass at No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis
- He (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (219) in active coaches with victories at No. 1
- Calipari has coached 123 career games as a No. 1 team, fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (254), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (127)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .894 trails only Wooden (.952) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (.862)
- Calipari is 6-4 vs. the AP top-ranked team in the land, including 3-2 at Kentucky after defeating Michigan State in 2019-20
- According to ESPN, his .600 winning percentage against the No. 1 ranked team is the best for any head coach

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100% of the players (20 of 20) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Brad Calipari, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, Kentucky has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in six of the last seven single-year reports. UK's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May 2020, was a 994 out of 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the sixth year in a row for finishing in the top 10% of Division I men's basketball programs.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, John Calipari has helped 52 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 41 in his first 11 seasons at Kentucky, more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than three No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 41 NBA Draft picks, 31 first-rounders (more than the entire Big Ten during the same time span), three No. 1 selections, seven top-five picks and 21 lottery picks at Kentucky
- Of the 66 players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari (through the 2019-20 season), 41 have been selected in the NBA Draft, a 62.1% success rate. Another six of those made the NBA, and the majority of the rest were walk-ons
- Of the 28 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, 26 have been first-round picks. All previous players (not including Maxey) have played game in the NBA. He is 30 for 32 in that regard when including his players from Memphis
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012 - Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in 12 straight drafts from 2008-19, the only school to do so during that time period
- Seven of his former players have been named NBA All-Stars (23 total), five have been tabbed All-NBA, three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 14 players from Calipari's first 10 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011 and Anthony Davis won NBA All-Star MVP honors in 2017

Recruiting Trail

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players under John Calipari's leadership than any other school. Nearly a quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past 12 classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats. The following list does not include transfers (freshman signees only).

COACH CALIPARI

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 39 top-25 Rivals.com players Kentucky has signed who have completed their college eligibility at UK, 33 were drafted and 26 were selected in the first round. But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Entering the 2019-20 NBA season, Calipari's NBA pros had amassed more than $2.26 billion in career NBA contracts, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of his UK players in the NBA, they had $1.9 billion in guaranteed career contracts through the 2019-20 season. With free agency currently underway in the NBA, that number is expected to balloon again, especially after the recent max contracts Bam Adebayo, Anthony Davis and De'Aaron Fox landed.

There's more: Of UK's 21 lottery picks in the Calipari era, 16 have earned second contracts in the NBA with nine of them cashing in on max contracts. Of the four who haven't earned second contracts, all have been drafted in the last five years and are still on their rookie deal. Over the last 11 years, there have been 27 lottery picks who earned max contracts in the NBA. Nine of them attended Kentucky.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

John Calipari's teams have posted 19 streaks of 10 or more wins at Kentucky, Memphis and UMass, including seven at UK. They have won 15 or more straight games nine times, 20 or more six times, 25 or more five times, and 30 or more one time. Of course, the most famous streak was the 38-0 start during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari Knows Defense

Defense has always been a staple of John Calipari-coached teams. Dating back to complete NCAA records beginning in 2001-02, Calipari's teams have been among national leaders in several critical defensive categories. Rankings are through games on Dec. 6.

| Year | FG% Def. | 3PT FG% Def. | Rebound Margin | Scoring Margin | Blocks |

Calipari Near Perfect vs. Former Assistants

John Calipari has made it known that he doesn't enjoy coaching against friends. That hasn't stopped him from winning anyway. Calipari is 17-1 all-time when coaching against former assistants. He suffered his first and only loss to a former assistant against former Memphis assistant Josh Pastner, now the head coach of Georgia Tech, on Dec. 6, 2020.

COACH CALIPARI

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 52 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 28-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up nearly 800 on-court victories, 20 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari's career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari's first 11 seasons at UK, he's led all coaches in NCAA Tournament wins (31), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight). He's in the top three in total wins (330) in that time span.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball's first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport's greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari's on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 50 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 52 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari's help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he's had 41 players drafted during his first 11 years at Kentucky, including 31 first-round picks, more than the entire Big Ten combined in that time span.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 23 All-Star selections, with Anthony Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Five of his players have been tabbed All-NBA, three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 14 players from Calipari's first 10 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 18 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including four players who earned their degree in just three years. Calipari's teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, and in 2017, for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2019, when federal workers were without pay due to a government shutdown, he, his wife and his foundation assisted workers with financial help and grocery gift cards. He and his wife, Ellen, teamed up with Fayette County Public Schools to help families in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

His latest efforts include spearheading the creation of the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a nationwide coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship. Participants in the initiative will be known as MLI Future Leaders.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."
