Oscar Tshiebwe has 56 rebounds through three games, the most for any Kentucky player to start a career and the third most to begin a season of any player in college basketball over the last 25 years

With an influx of transfers, key returners and an extra season of eligibility due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this UK team returned more NCAA Division I minutes (13,385) than any other team in program history (minutes statistics through the 1964-65 season)

The Wildcats were picked to win the SEC regular-season title. UK has won 49 all-time regular-season SEC crowns and six under John Calipari

Sahvir Wheeler has dished out 30 assists through three games, the best three-game stretch to start a Kentucky career in school history

Guard CJ Fredrick underwent surgery this week to repair a left hamstring injury and is likely out for the season

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials will open 14 days prior to the deadline date and close five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Priority is given to outlets based on circulation size/household reach/unique site visitors
- Additional consideration is based on amount of original content generated, number of full-time employees of the outlet, length of existence of the outlet and the journalist experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities and the intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky both at home and on the road, also is considered
- Professionalism, which includes is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

Being granted credentials at another institution/event does not equate to meeting the criteria for the University of Kentucky. Being granted credentials for one UK event does not guarantee approval for other UK events. The University of Kentucky has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion. Credentialing also is dependent on space availability.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media.

Player interviews are conducted pregame weekly and will be available to all UK media. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari will meet with members of the media at least once a week in the Memorial Coliseum Media Room.

Game-day shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference in the Rupp Arena interview room and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are available in the interview room.

Wildcats in Midst of Seven-Game Home Stand

After limited attendance in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Big Blue Nation will have plenty of opportunities to see the Wildcats in person over the next month with a seven-game home stand.

Friday vs. Ohio will mark the third game in that stretch after Kentucky opened the season in New York vs. Duke.

The seven-game home stand is not all that uncommon in the John Calipari era and not even the longest home stretch. The 2014-15 and 2019-20 teams both played eight-game home stands. They were building blocks that led to Southeastern Conference regular-season championships.

Ohio is 3-0 this season and played in the NCAA Tournament a season ago. The Bobcats are led by Mark Sears, who is averaging 19.3 points per game. Jason Carter and Ben Vander Plas lead the way with 8.7 boards per game and both are also scoring 15.0 points or more.

The series will be renewed after a 16-year absence. Kentucky is 14-1 all-time against Ohio and a perfect 6-0 when the game is played in Lexington. The series began in 1944 and the teams most recently played in 2005-06.

Friday's game will mark the conclusion of the Kentucky Classic, a multi-team event, for Kentucky. Ohio earned an 85-71 win over Robert Morris on Monday, the teams' lone common opponent to this point.

Kentucky Rolls Past Mount St. Mary's

Oscar Tshiebwe's rebounding drew so much attention that his offense was something of an afterthought. That focus might change after the Kentucky forward showed a skill that was there all along.

Tshiebwe had a career-high 24 points with 16 rebounds, TyTy Washington Jr. scored 16 points and No. 13/11 Kentucky shot well for the second consecutive game to run away from Mount St. Mary's 80-55 on Tuesday night.

Sahvir Wheeler added 12 points and eight assists as the Wildcats (2-1) made 34 of 64 from the field (53.1%) a few days after hitting 57% in a 100-60 rout of Robert Morris.

Leading 38-27 at halftime, Kentucky broke away with a 23-5 run over 6:40 for a 61-32 cushion that grew to 31 with 7:24 remaining.

Tshiebwe helped set the tone with contributions on both ends on the way to his third double-double to start the season. The West Virginia transfer -- who came in averaging 20 boards per game -- continued his strong rebounding and also made short and midrange jumpers to finish 11 of 14 from the field and top his previous best of 21 points against Boston University on Nov. 22, 2019.

"I told you all that he can shoot the ball," Kentucky coach John Calipari said of the 6-foot-9 player. "He's one of our best 15-, 17-foot shooters. ... So, we put in some stuff for him to shoot jumpers."

Tshiebwe took off from there, becoming the first Kentucky player with three consecutive double-doubles since PJ Washington in early 2019. Julius Randle achieved that feat over his first seven games in the 2013-14 season.

"If a big man is staying down there (in the lane), I know I've got to shoot," he said. "Most of the bigs I'm going to play, I believe they're not going to be fast like me. That is a large advantage for me."

Washington shot 7 of 12 with a couple of 3-pointers. Keion Brooks Jr. contributed 10 points and seven rebounds to help the Wildcats win the boards 41-27 and dominate the paint 46-16.

Opportunities were certainly there inside the arc as the Mountaineers limited the Wildcats' perimeter options. Kentucky succeeded nonetheless, hitting 4 of 7 from long range with Washington and Kellan Grady (eight points) each hitting a pair.

"I just feel like if I have an open shot, I'm going to shoot it," Washington said. "Today, the ball was just going in for me."

- By holding Mount St. Mary's to 55 points, UK is now 80-0 under head coach John Calipari when limiting the opponent to 55 or fewer
- UK shot 53.1% from the field, a second consecutive game with better than a 50% clip
- The Wildcats made all eight of their free throws and has made 15 of 16 over the last two games
- UK won the rebounding 41-27. The Wildcats have won all three games on the backboards by an average of 14 per game
- Oscar Tshiebwe's 56 rebounds are the most by a Wildcat over three games to start a career since at least 1956-57 (as far back as comprehensive box scores go)
- Tshiebwe is the first Wildcat with three straight double-doubles since PJ Washington did it in January and February of 2019 and the first UK player with three straight to start a career since Julius Randle opened his Kentucky career with seven straight in the 2013-14 season
- Sahvir Wheeler's 30 assists through his first three games as a Wildcat are the most by any UK player to start a career

'Big O' Making Big Impression on the Boards

When Oscar Tshiebwe told everyone before the season that his goal was to average 20 rebounds per game, it was understandable for everyone to chuckle and chalk it up to a little hyperbole.

"We all laughed," teammate Davion Mintz said. "Like, c'mon man. Twenty rebounds?"

Nobody -- most notably opponents -- is laughing now.

In his first two games, "Big O," as his teammates call him, snatched 20 rebounds vs. both No. 9/9 Duke and in the home-opening win against Robert Morris.

"Now, it's normal," Mintz said. "We're expecting him to get 20."

That might be a little unreasonable considering he got 16 against Mount St. Mary's, but Tshiebwe's 18.7 rebounds per game lead the country. Bob Burrow's single-season record of 17.7 rebounds per game set during the 1954-55 season is officially something to watch as the season progresses.

"Everybody wants to do fancy, different things, but for me, rebounding means a lot," Tshiebwe said. "Rebounding can help your team to win the game. You give one more chance to your team. Since I figured it out, if I have to fight, I have to work for the rebound, I'm going to fight for that rebound like no one believes."

Tshiebwe's focus on rebounding has paid dividends with second-chance scoring opportunities. He leads the team with a 18.3 scoring average and has double-doubles in all three games.

Some of Tshiebwe's absurd rebounding numbers include:

- His 56 rebounds are the most by a Wildcat over three games to start a career since at least 1956-57 (as far back as comprehensive box scores go)
- He has one more rebound than the rest of the team (55) combined (does not include Kentucky's 17 team boards). Tshiebwe is responsible for 43.8% of all of UK's rebounds thus far
- The 56 boards are the third-most rebounds through three games over the past 25 seasons in all of college basketball, behind only Kansas State's Michael Beasley (60, 2007) and Oklahoma's Blake Griffin (58, 2008)
- He is the first Wildcat with three straight double-doubles since PJ Washington did it in January and February of 2019 and the first UK player with three straight to start a career since Julius Randle opened his Kentucky career with seven straight in the 2013-14 season
- With 24 points and 16 rebounds vs. Mount St. Mary, he became the first Wildcat with at least 20 points and at least 15 rebounds in a game since Nick Richards posted 25 points and 15 boards vs. Fort Wayne on Nov. 22, 2017
- His 20 boards vs. Duke set a Champions Classic record and marked the most rebounds for any Wildcat in their debut
- When he snared 20 boards against Robert Morris, it tied for the most by a Kentucky player in Rupp Arena history (Chris Mills had 20 vs. Miami [Ohio] on Dec. 17, 1988, and Jared Prickett pulled down 20 vs. Arkansas on Feb. 9, 1994). Only LSU's Shaquille O'Neal has totaled more in Rupp Arena history. The Hall of Famer grabbed 21 boards vs. UK on Feb. 15, 1990.

- His 22 offensive rebounds tied Louisiana Tech's Paul Millsap for the most by an NCAA Division I player in any two-game span over the last 25 seasons
- He leads the nation in offensive rebounding percentage with a 33.6% clip. As a freshman in 2019-20 at West Virginia, Tshiebwe led the nation at 19.0%

Wheeling and Dealing

The coaching staff challenged Sahvir Wheeler before the season to lead the nation in assists. It's early, but so far he's risen to the occasion.

Through three games, the Georgia transfer leads the country with 10.0 assists per game. Wheeler dished out 10 in the opener vs. No. 9/9 Duke in the Champions Classic -- in addition to 15 points -- followed it up with 12 dimes in the win vs. Robert Morris and had eight assists and 12 points against Mount St. Mary's.

Wheeler's 30 assists are the most ever by a Kentucky player in their first three career games.

John Calipari will tell you he probably played Wheeler too many minutes in the opener vs. Duke. Wheeler clocked in 38 minutes that led to some late miscues when he was fatigued. He ended up with seven turnovers vs. the Blue Devils with five in the second half, tainting what was otherwise a quality debut.

Wheeler cleaned up the mistakes in the regular-season home opener vs. Robert Morris with zero turnovers and had just one against the Mountaineers with 29 minutes of game action. Taking better care of the ball did nothing to slow down the attack of Wheeler.

"He's running it down your throat," Robert Morris head coach Andrew Toole said of the pressure Wheeler puts on defenses. "The way that he pushes the ball down the floor just encourages all those other guys to run so hard because he's so unselfish and he's able to get them shots early in the offense. ... He has such a good understanding of the pace, so as soon as there isn't anything there, he's able to organize and get into whatever action they're trying to execute. There were times in the game that even after a made basket where our guys were sprinting back as fast as they can just trying to keep up. It just adds an incredible amount of pressure to your transition defense. There's not many guys that can do what he does."

Wheeler led the Southeastern Conference in assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio last season at Georgia. His 193 assists in 2020-21 broke Georgia's previous single-season assists record by 24 dimes despite a short-ened season.

He entered the season ranked sixth among all returners nationally in career assists per game. Wheeler was a preseason All-SEC First Team pick by both the league's media and coaches. He is also on the preseason watch list for the Bob Cousy Award, presented annually to the nation's top point guard by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Cats Don't Count on the 3, But They Make Them

New rules that moved the 3-point line to the international basketball distance of 22 feet, 1.75 inches have had an impact on college basketball the last few seasons. The Wildcats, historically, under John Calipari have not been immune to the lower percentages.

Last season, Kentucky ranked in the bottom half nationally in 3-point field goals per game (ranked 255th with 6.4 per game) and 3-point scoring distribution (only 27.3% of UK's points came from 3s, ranked 266th). UK took 49 fewer 3-pointers than the opposition and made five or fewer 3-pointers in 12 of 25 games.

However, the 2021-22 season has been a different story to date. The Wildcats are still not relying on the 3-point shot, but they're making them at a higher rate than they ever have under Calipari.

UK is generating 27.5% of its points from beyond the arc and 24.2% of its attempts are from long range, currently the fewest in the Calipari era.

Led by Kellan Grady, who entered the season with a career 3-point field-goal percentage of 36.6%, has sunk 9 of 16 for a 54.2% clip thus far. Davion Mintz has chipped in with five makes on 55.6% shooting.

As a team, the Wildcats are connecting at a 45.1% rate, currently the best under Calipari. Although it is still very early, it should be noted the school record for 3-point percentage is 39.7% in 1995-96 when the Cats went 266 of 670 in 36 games.

UK currently ranks in the top 20 in 3-point field-goal percentage nationally and are doing this without CJ Fredrick, who entered the season as the nation's leader in 3-point field-goal percentage with at least 150 attempts.

If you have followed Calipari's teams over the years, Kentucky has never relied on the 3-point shot. While teams nationally are taking more 3-point shots than ever before, UK has generally bucked the trend and played to the style that's best suited for that particular group.

NOTES

The highest percentage of 3-point shots taken under Calipari was the 2010-11 Final Four team that lofted 32.4% of its shots from beyond the arc. No surprise, that team consisted of Brandon Knight and Doron Lamb on the perimeter. That team is also Calipari's top 3-point shooting team at Kentucky. The most attempts per game in the Calipari era was the 2016-17 squad that took 19.89 3-point shots per game.

Not relying on the 3 certainly hasn't hurt the Wildcats. UK is 10-3 all-time under Calipari when making one or fewer from long range. Kentucky has hit at least four in all three games thus far this season.

Fredrick Likely to Miss 2021-22 Season

Redshirt junior guard CJ Fredrick underwent surgery this week to repair a left hamstring injury and is likely to miss the remainder of the 2021-22 season.

"This news hurts so much because I love this team and we have a great group of guys," Fredrick said. "I have the best teammates, coaches, medical staff, friends and family that will get me back where I need to be. We have a very special team this season and I will do whatever I can to support the team. I am looking forward to working hard and being the player I want to be for next season. I appreciate all the support of Big Blue Nation during this difficult time. My journey looks a little different, but I will be back."

Fredrick, who transferred from Iowa following the 2020-21 year, entered this season as the nation's leading returner in career 3-point field-goal percentage (46.6%) with a minimum of 150 attempts.

"I really hate this for CJ," John Calipari said. "He worked so hard for us this summer and made such a positive impact on our team and our culture. He has been an unbelievable teammate. CJ has a bright future ahead of him, and after being evaluated by our medical staff and specialists, it was clear the best thing for CJ was to get this surgery done now and get him back on a path to getting back on the court at 100%. He's been great throughout this whole thing and is already itching to get this process going so he can get back to doing what he loves to do."

The Cincinnati native made 83 3-pointers in two seasons at Iowa. Fredrick started all 27 games he appeared in for Iowa as redshirt sophomore in 2020-21 and averaged 7.5 points and 1.9 assists per game. He made three or more 3-pointers in six games, shot 47.4% from 3 – the second-best mark by a sophomore in program history – and posted a 5.2 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Fredrick made the All-Big Ten Freshman Team as a redshirt freshman in 2019-20 after averaging 10.2 points and 2.8 assists per game. He made 47 of 102 from long range and was one of three players nationally and the only player from a major conference dating back to 1993 with 65 or more assists, 32 or fewer turnovers, and 46% shooting or better from 3.

Other Bumps and Bruises

Forward Jacob Toppin has missed the last two games with a shoulder injury and forward Lance Ware did not play in the Tuesday game vs. Mount St. Mary's with an ankle injury. Ware appeared in the game home opener vs. Robert Morris but was limited.

Toppin and Ware are day-to-day.

"Hopefully they're getting closer," John Calipari said Thursday before the Ohio game. "Will they play tomorrow? I don't know. They won't play if they don't practice."

One of the Most Experienced Squads in School History

This Kentucky team isn't just experienced by the standards of the usually green John Calipari era, it's historically experienced.

This group, stocked with transfers who played major minutes at other schools, key returners and only three freshmen, started the season with 13,385 total minutes at the NCAA Division I level. That is more than any team in the history of Kentucky basketball entering a season (minutes statistics available through the 1964-65 season).

Other metrics back up the experience. This team also returned 5,203 career points at the NCAA Division I level, the second most in school history. Only the 1995-96 national title team -- hailed as one of the greatest college basketball teams of all-time -- returned more with 5,232 points (that team, like the 2021-22 group, was aided by transfers with Derek Anderson and Mark Pope).

The 2021-22 squad had played in 541 Division I games entering the season, the most by a Kentucky team since the 2002-03 group returned 559 games to its roster.

This team is also rather long in the tooth. Using strictly years, the 2021-22 team averaged 20.7 years in age as of Nov. 1, 2021. The 2019-20 group had an average age of 19.5 years old. The 2021-22 mark is among the top 25 oldest teams in the country. If one factors in a player's down-to-the-day age (in other words, their age number plus days), this team's average age is actually 21.2 years old, as of Nov. 1, 2021.

It should be noted with all the experience boosts that college basketball is collectively older with the NCAA's COVID-19 additional season of eligibility. Davion Mintz and Kellan Grady are using an extra season for Kentucky. And Kentucky's experience does take a hit with the likely season-ending loss of redshirt junior CJ Fredrick (hamstring).

UK's roster features a sixth-year graduate, a fifth-year graduate, two redshirt juniors, five juniors, a redshirt sophomore, two sophomores, and three highly touted four- and five-star freshmen. Nine of the 15 players are juniors or above.

It is true that not all experience is equal. Experience in college basketball is not the same as experience at Kentucky.

But even by those standards, this is one of Calipari's most veteran groups. From just a UK returners standpoint, Calipari's squad will return 42.1% of its minutes, 41.9% of its scoring, 39.0% of the rebounds, 42.4% of the assists and 60.6% of the 3-pointers from a season ago. For comparison, the only two Calipari-coached Kentucky teams that returned more UK minutes and more points (in terms of percentages) than the 2021-22 team returns were the 2011-12 national championship squad and the 2014-15 Final Four team that started the season 38-0.

Mintz is the first Wildcat to return to school after leading the team in scoring average the previous season since Randolph Morris led the 2005-06 squad and came back to Kentucky for the 2006-07 season.

How big of a change is the returning experience for Calipari? All but one of his previous 12 teams at UK ranked in the bottom 20 nationally in Ken Pomeroy's experience rankings, including two teams that were dead last.

"When you have veterans, they're on time," Calipari said. "Without even saying anything, they lead. That's been fun. I haven't had many teams with veteran kind of players on it, so I kind of forget that it takes one thing off your plate."

Transfer of Power

Kentucky has dominated the recruiting scene under John Calipari, ranking in the top three of every major national recruiting ranking until this past class.

UK's 2021 freshman haul is once again very good, but Calipari and his staff went a different route in restocking the roster for 2021-22: transfers.

With student-athletes in basketball now granted a one-time waiver to transfer without penalty, UK picked up three transfers in the offseason in Kellan Grady (graduate transfer), a 2,000-point scorer from Davidson, Sahvir Wheeler, Georgia's single-season assists leader, and CJ Fredrick, the Big Ten's top 3-point shooter over the last two seasons.

But those are just half of the transfers on the roster. Former All-Big 12 performer Oscar Tshiebwe transferred from West Virginia in the middle of last season and Kentucky returners Davion Mintz (Creighton) and Jacob Toppin (Rhode Island) changed schools before the 2021-22 season. Mintz was Kentucky's leading scorer last season and Toppin played major minutes.

UK's six transfers are its most on a roster in school history. Taking out Mintz and Toppin, who had already played minutes at Kentucky prior to the 2021-22 season, UK's four newest transfers (Fredrick, Grady, Tshiebwe and Wheeler) combined for 3,538 points at their previous stops. That's the seventh-biggest haul in the 2021-22 transfer class.

Their production additions are significant nationally. Grady, with 2,002 career points, entered the season with the second-most points in college basketball on an active roster (only Antoine Davis from Detroit-Mercy, with 2,040, had more). Fredrick had the top 3-point percentage in the country among all players with at least 150 3-point attempts starting the 2021-22 year. And Wheeler ranked sixth among all returners nationally with 5.82 assists per game.

The transfers are making an immediate impact. Tshiebwe leads the country in rebounding with 18.7 boards per game and leads the Wildcats in scoring with an 18.3 average; Wheeler leads the nation in assists with 10.0 dimes per contest; Grady is averaging 12.0 points per game and shooting 56.3% from long range; Mintz has five 3s on a 55.6% clip; and Toppin played well vs. Duke with four points and six rebounds but missed the last two games with a shoulder injury. Unfortunately the Wildcats will likely be without Fredrick for the rest of the season after undergoing surgery for a right hamstring injury.

The Rookies are Still Good

Although the influx of transfers has stolen the headlines of this Kentucky team, don't overlook the freshmen. Just like every John Calipari team at Kentucky, this freshman class is loaded, albeit a bit smaller in terms of total numbers.

UK's three freshmen were all consensus four- or five-star prospects and all were consensus top-50 signees.

Forward Daimion Collins, a 6-foot-9 pogo stick who has drawn comparisons to Isaiah Jackson -- a first-round pick in the 2021 NBA Draft -- was ranked as high as No. 13 by 247Sports.

Guard TyTy Washington Jr. rose up the rankings late in the spring cycle and was tabbed the

No. 14 overall player in the class by Rivals and ESPN. He has already shown an ability to score at all three levels.

And forward Bryce Hopkins, ranked as high as No. 33 by ESPN, drew rave reviews from Calipari in the preseason for his skill level and toughness.

Washington broke out with 16 points against Mount St. Mary's and Collins had 14 points and four blocks vs. Robert Morris. Hopkins has seen action in all three games and has six points, three rebounds, a block and a steal thus far.

The class ranked outside the top three in the major recruiting services for the first time in the Calipari era but only because of the smaller class size. Don't expect it to be the trend as UK is already in the hunt for the top class in 2022.

Kentucky Started Season in Top 10

For the 12th time in 13 seasons under head coach John Calipari, Kentucky began the season among the preseason top 10 in the Associated Press Top 25. The Wildcats were tabbed No. 10 for the second straight year. UK started the season No. 11 in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

Calipari has had a team ranked among the top 11 in the AP Top 25 in all 13 seasons at the helm, as voted on by a panel comprised of media members throughout the country.

With comprehensive records dating back to the 1980-81 season, the fewest wins in a prior season by a team in the preseason AP top 10 was Ohio State with 17 wins in 1990-91, according to STATS. Kentucky had nine last season.

UK Picked to Win SEC Title; Four Honored in Preseason

Bolstered by a collection of transfers and top-rated freshmen, as well as a core group of returners who combine to form the most experienced Kentucky team under the direction of 13th-year head coach John Calipari, the Wildcats were picked to win the 2022 Southeastern Conference title by the league's media.

UK was voted to win their seventh regular-season title under Calipari by the league's media members. Should Kentucky achieve the feat, it would mark the program's 50th overall regular-season title. No other school comes close, with LSU in second place with 11 SEC regular-season championships.

In addition to the preseason poll, four Wildcats were selected to the preseason All-SEC squads by both the media and the coaches. Junior guard Sahvir Wheeler was picked to the first team, while graduate student guard Kellan Grady and junior forwards Keion Brooks Jr. and Oscar Tshiebwe were tabbed to the second team. Brooks and Wheeler also received at least one vote for the preseason pick for SEC Player of the Year by the media.

It's the 16th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite. Calipari has directed his teams to regular-season SEC crowns in 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2020. Kentucky has claimed the SEC Tournament title six times under his direction in 2010, 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Last Season a 'Blip'

By just about every measure, the 2020-21 season was one of the worst in Kentucky's storied history. The winningest program in college basketball posted a 9-16 record, just the program's second losing record since 1927.

A perfect storm of COVID-19 complications, youth (UK was once again one of the most inexperienced teams in the country with only one scholarship returner), injuries (the Wildcats played just one game, the final one of the season, with its full complement of scholarship players), close losses (2-6 in one-possession games) and late-game breakdowns (Kentucky led in the second half in 12 of its 16 losses) led to a season that John Calipari took full responsibility for and deemed "unacceptable."

"We can put it on COVID, no summer ... new guys, Keion (Brooks Jr.) didn't play, blah, blah, blah -- it's still unacceptable," Calipari said.

Calipari went to work this offseason to ensure it never happens again.

The roster features seven newcomers (which includes last season's midseason addition of Oscar Tshiebwe), four of whom are transfers, and three highly touted freshmen. The additions feature a 2,000-point scorer (Kellan Grady from Davidson), the Southeastern Conference's top assists man from last season (Sahvir Wheeler from Georgia), the Big Ten's best 3-point shooter over the last two seasons (CJ Fredrick from Iowa) and an All-Big 12 performer (Tshiebwe).

Plus, UK brought back its 2020-21 leading scorer in Davion Mintz, a proven veteran in Brooks, and key 2020-21 contributors in Dontae Allen, Jacob Toppin and Lance Ware.

Calipari also retooled his staff with the addition of Chin Coleman and the return of fan favorite Orlando Antigua, two of the best recruiters in the country.

"Last year is a blip," Calipari said. "That's so far behind me, what we went through. I learned from it, and you move on."

Despite the blip, UK remains the leader in college basketball under Calipari. Even with missing the NCAA Tournament last season, UK leads the country in NCAA Tournament wins, Sweet Sixteen appearances, Elite Eights and Final Four berths over the previous 12 seasons.

Roster Losses

Seven players are gone from last season's 2020-21 squad.

Isaiah Jackson and Brandon Boston Jr. were selected in the 2021 NBA Draft; Terrence Clarke died tragically in a car accident in April after declaring for the NBA Draft; Olivier Sarr plans to play professionally overseas; Devin Askew (Texas) and Cam'Ron Fletcher (Florida State) transferred; and Riley Welch graduated and is now graduate assistant on Kentucky's staff.

UK's bench will also look different with the departures of several assistants.

Tony Barbee accepted the head coaching position at Central Michigan and Joel Justus was hired as the top assistant under Bobby Hurley at Arizona State. The two were at Kentucky for seven seasons in assistant roles.

Longtime John Calipari right-hand man John Robic, who was an assistant of Calipari's for nearly 25 years at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky, has transitioned into an administrative role within the athletic department. Recruiting analyst Brady Kennedy departed for Arizona State.

Depth and Talent

With major additions via the transfer portal, the usual influx of talented freshmen and key returners back, this is one of John Calipari's deepest teams at Kentucky.

How will Calipari balance the minutes with a roster that could potentially go 11 deep?

"Yes, we do have depth," Calipari said. "So, now you have guys that are similar skills offensively. Who would you play now? They're very similar offensively. Who are you going to play? It's done in practice but how about who defends better, rebounds better, takes care of the ball better. Those guys get a leg up, and I keep telling them, 'You're competing with each other, yet I'll play as many deserve to play.'

"But I'm saying this again, folks: It's not communism. It is not communism. If I have to play 10, 11, 12, I would. It's not what I'd like to do, but it's not about me; it's about them. I've played 10 before. I'd rather not. I've played five before and six. Probably not enough, but I would do it if people separate as we go forward."

Through three games, no player is averaging more than 30.3 minutes per game. Seven players are averaging between 19.0 and 31.0.

UK played 10 against Duke and 13 vs. Robert Morris with Brennan Canada, Zan Payne and Kareem Watkins entering the game in the last minute. Twelve saw action vs. Mount St. Mary's with Jacob Toppin and Lance Ware both out with injuries.

Antigua, Coleman Highlight New-Look Bench

The Kentucky coaching staff underwent an offseason transformation with a familiar face in Orlando Antigua returning to the UK bench and another top assistant from Illinois in Chin Coleman coming on board. Calipari also created a new position, hiring TJ Beisner as director of player development.

Antigua, a key assistant in the first five seasons of the Calipari era at Kentucky, rejoined the program as associate coach. Coleman joined the staff after four seasons with Illinois.

Antigua and Coleman occupy two of the three on-court assistant coaching positions on the 2021-22 staff. Jai Lucas remains in the other assistant coaching position and Bruiser Flint was elevated to associate to the head coach. Both Lucas and Flint are in their second seasons at Kentucky.

During Antigua's first stint at Kentucky, featuring the 2009-10 season through the 2013-14 national runner-up run, UK compiled a 152-37 record (80.4%) with a national championship, three Final Four appearances, and two Southeastern Conference regular-season titles and two SEC Tournament crowns.

Known for his eye on the recruiting trail, Antigua helped UK pull in five straight top-ranked recruiting classes (Recruiting Services Consensus Index). In his initial season with the Wildcats, Antigua saw three of his signees drafted in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft. He was a central figure in the 2010 and 2011 No. 1 classes, which led UK to its eighth national title in 2012 and its first since 1998.

Coleman spent the previous four seasons with Illinois. He was instrumental in the development of Ayo Dosunmu, one of the country's best point guards over the last three seasons. Under Coleman's guidance, Dosunmu raked in dozens of national and conference honors, including USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year and NCAA Consensus All-America First Team honors. He averaged 20.1 points and 5.3 assists to lead Illinois to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

With Coleman on the bench, Illinois posted back-to-back 20-win seasons the last two years for the first time since the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons and finished second in the Big Ten in 2021. With Coleman serving as a defensive coordinator in 2020-21, the Illini finished seventh in the country in the Ken Pomeroy's adjusted defensive rankings and hovered around the top spot for much of the season.

Beisner, who has more than 15 years of experience in media, communications and digital marketing, oversees the execution of all elements of the student-athlete's off-court experience, including primary areas of player welfare and branding.

In concert with Kentucky's brand and content team and the Kentucky Road initiative – Beisner leads and supports the Wildcats' brand-building strategy in the new Name, Image and Likeness era, monitors all changes in NCAA legislation and trends across college athletics to develop strategies and solutions to keep Kentucky at the forefront of college basketball, organizes and manages the program's community service involvement, provides support to players on non-basketball issues, and develops team-wide events focused on educating student-athletes on personal and career development.

Brad Calipari and Riley Welch also joined the staff as graduate assistants. They are involved in on-court activities with the Wildcats, including practices, individual workouts and film sessions.

Calipari played for the Wildcats from 2017-19 and was a part of a program that won 88 games, advanced to the Elite Eight twice, won an SEC regular-season championship and two SEC Tournament titles. He finished his collegiate career at Detroit Mercy where he saw action in 33 games over two seasons for the Titans. During the 2019-20 season, Calipari averaged 6.1 points per game and connected on 51 3-pointers.

NOTES

A 2019 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in communication, Calipari earned his undergraduate degree in three years. He was a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member. At Detroit Mercy he completed a master's degree in liberal studies in May of 2021.

Welch just concluded a two-year career with the Wildcats and graduated in May with an undergraduate degree in liberal studies. He appeared in 34 career games as a Division I player split between two years at Kentucky and one at UC Irvine. Welch also played one season at the College of the Desert where he averaged 8.2 points and 5.0 assists per game.

Wildcats Sign Four During Fall Signing Period

Even by John Calipari era standards, Kentucky 2022 signing class is shaping up to be one of the best in school history.

Sky Clark, Chris Livingston, Shaedon Sharpe and Cason Wallace – all four consensus five-star prospects in the class of 2022 – signed national letters of intent with UK.

Sharpe will enroll at Kentucky for the 2022 spring semester. Clarke, Livingston and Wallace will join the program for the 2022-23 season.

“I am really excited about this group,” John Calipari said. “When you watch these guys play, the talent and upside is obvious, but what stands out to me about all four of them is how much they want this and want to be here. Their mentality and their drive separate them from their peers. They all wanted to play with one another and wanted the challenge of competing against the best every day. Big Blue Nation, I can’t wait for you to meet this group and watch them play.”

With the spring signing period still to go, UK is going to be in the mix for one of the top classes in the nation yet again. Rivals and 247Sports currently rank it as the top haul of the fall with four signees.

In every season but one of the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking. With the fall additions, Kentucky has signed 66 top-50 recruits, 52 top-25 players and 29 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari’s 14 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

The fall signing period concludes Wednesday. The spring signing period begins April 13.

UK can only comment on prospects who have signed official paperwork with the university.

Kentucky is the Southeastern Conference’s gold standard. Since the SEC’s inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats are the most dominant team in the league, recording a 1,020-293 mark (77.7%) in regular-season conference play. Only Alabama has won more than 800 regular-season SEC games and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.3 losses per season in 88 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 49 SEC regular-season titles and 31 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 16 of the last 29 SEC Tournaments (the 2020 one was not played due to the COVID-19 pandemic)
- UK has captured at least a share of six of the last 12 SEC regular-season championships under John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in eight of Calipari’s 12 seasons, winning six times
- UK won its 1,000th game in SEC regular-season action vs. Alabama on Jan. 11, 2020. Kansas has won 1,000 conference games when combining its records in the Big 6, Big 7, Big 8 and Big 12, but no other team in the country had won 1,000 or more regular-season league games in one conference alone
- Six teams made the 2021 NCAA Tournament field with Arkansas reaching the Elite Eight and Alabama making the Sweet Sixteen
- The SEC has had 21 NCAA Tournament selections over the last three tournaments, tied for the second most. Only the Atlantic Coast Conference (23) has had more
- The SEC went 7-6 in NCAA Tournament games in 2021. SEC teams are 73-43 (62.9%) in the NCAA tourney since 2012
- The league has advanced at least one team to the Elite Eight in nine of the last 11 tournaments and nine different SEC teams have advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in the last four NCAA Tournaments
- The SEC has held its own in the annual Big 12/SEC Challenge. The SEC leads 25-24 over the last five seasons in the yearly January showdown and won outright in 2021
- Eleven SEC schools ranked in the top 100 and six were in the top 50 in the final NCAA Evaluation Tool rankings The SEC’s 101 quadrant 1 and quadrant 2 wins ranked second among all conferences
- Six SEC teams are in the Associated Press Top 25 as of Nov. 15. That’s the most of any league

Kentucky's Schedule Packs a Punch

Kentucky’s schedule is always among the toughest in the country and this season will be no different.

UK’s nonconference schedule opened with Duke in New York on Nov. 9 in the Champions Classic. It will also feature the inaugural Unity Series game vs. Southern on Dec. 7, a trip to Notre Dame on Dec. 11, Ohio State in Las Vegas on Dec. 18 in the CBS Sports Classic, Louisville at home on Dec. 22, the return of former UK coach Tubby Smith when High Point visits on Dec. 31, and a road game vs. Kansas on Jan. 29 in the Big 12/SEC Challenge.

The nonconference schedule will give way to the typically difficult SEC slate. UK will play its permanent home-and-away opponents of Florida, Tennessee and Vanderbilt twice, plus host and visit Alabama and LSU. The Wildcats will face the remaining eight SEC opponents once. The league has earned 21 berths in the last three NCAA Tournaments, tied for the second most in college basketball in that time period.

Seven Kentucky opponents are ranked in the Nov. 15 Associated Press Top 25. Nonconference opponents in Kansas (3), Duke (7) and Ohio State (19) are among the top 20 teams. Ohio is receiving votes.

In addition to the Wildcats, the other Southeastern Conference programs ranking among the top 25 include Alabama (14), Arkansas (16), Tennessee (17), Auburn (21) and Florida (24). Mississippi State and LSU are receiving votes.

Kentucky has already played one ranked foe in No. 9 Duke on Nov. 9. The Wildcats are slated to have 10 additional matchups with ranked foes, with UK playing Alabama, Tennessee and Florida twice.

UK Leads with 27 on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The tipoff to the 2021-22 NBA season featured 27 players on NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive players) who played and finished their college basketball careers at Kentucky, more than any other college program in the country. Duke, with 21, was the only other school with more than 20 players in the NBA.

Of the 30 NBA franchises featuring a Wildcat, 17 have multiple UK players.

Arguably the two most visible and storied NBA franchises, the New York Knicks and the Los Angeles Lakers, have the most.

The Knicks -- nicknamed the Kentucky Knicks by much of Big Blue Nation for UK's significant roster presence -- remain the leader in NBA Wildcats with four. Former Kentucky stars Kevin Knox II (2018), Nerlens Noel (2013), Immanuel Quickley (2019-20) and Julius Randle (2014) call New York their professional home. A fifth player, Derrick Rose, also played for John Calipari but at Memphis (2008), and assistant coach Kenny Payne was a longtime UK assistant. All played prominent roles in the Knicks' run to the NBA Playoffs last season.

The Lakers are just behind the Knicks with three former Kentucky players in Anthony Davis (2012), Malik Monk (2017) and Rajon Rondo (2005-06). Davis and Rondo won NBA titles with the Lakers in 2020. Adding to the UK ties, is head coach Frank Vogel who is a Kentucky graduate and former Wildcat student manager and video coordinator.

Five other franchises -- the Charlotte Hornets (Nick Richards [2018-20], PJ Washington [2018-19]), the Detroit Pistons (Hamidou Diallo [2017-18], Trey Lyles [2015]), the Los Angeles Clippers (Eric Bledsoe [2010], Brandon Boston Jr. [2021], the Miami Heat (Bam Adebayo [2017], Tyler Herro [2019]) and the Minnesota Timberwolves (Karl-Anthony Towns [2015], Jarred Vanderbilt [2018]) -- opened the season with at least two Wildcats apiece.

Rondo, now in his 16th season, remains the most experienced Kentucky player in the league. He returned to the Lakers in the offseason for a second stint after playing with the Hawks and Clippers last season. Boston Jr. and Isaiah Jackson (2021) will be the youngest-tenured NBA Wildcats as rookies.

Of the 27 Wildcats on opening-day NBA rosters, John Calipari coached 26 of them. With Rose, a former Calipari player at Memphis, Calipari also coached 27 players on 2021-22 opening-day rosters.

More than 20 other Wildcats are slated to play in the NBA G League or play professionally overseas. Other notable alumni include, 1978 national champion Dwane Casey, who returns as head coach of the Detroit Pistons, and Pat Riley continues to serve as president of the Heat.

Kentucky has enjoyed unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the 12 previous seasons of the Calipari era, 43 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 32 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Davis, Towns and John Wall [2010]) and 21 lottery selections.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 26 All-Star selections -- all since 2010 -- with Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Six of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (Rose, Wall, Davis, Towns, Randle and DeMarcus Cousins), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year (Rose, Towns and Tyreke Evans), and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. UK has produced more All-NBA players, more NBA All-Rookie and more NBA All-Defensive players than any other school in the Calipari era.

The 2020-21 season was another successful one for the former Kentucky stars. Randle was named the 2021 NBA Most Improved Player while Devin Booker (2015) achieved superstar status with a sensational run to the NBA Finals. Following the season, Adebayo, Booker and Keldon Johnson (2019) won gold medals with the U.S. Olympic Team at the Summer Games.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) have amassed nearly $3.4 billion in career NBA contracts. In the 12 seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled nearly $3 billion in NBA contracts.

In the 2021-22 season alone, former UK players are slated to make nearly $340 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) will make about the same.

Calipari produced a top-10 pick in 11 straight drafts prior to 2020, a feat no other coach has ever accomplished. He has a streak of 14 consecutive drafts with a first-round pick. Calipari is the only coach in the history of the sport to have four players drafted No. 1 overall (Rose -- 2008, Wall -- 2010, Davis -- 2012, Towns -- 2015).

A breakdown of the Wildcats in the NBA can be found later in the notes.

Orlando "Tubby" Smith to Have Jersey Retired

Orlando "Tubby" Smith, who coached the University of Kentucky men's basketball program to the 1998 national championship and several Southeastern Conference titles, will have a jersey retired in his honor. The official ceremony will take place Dec. 31 during UK's home game against Smith's current squad, High Point University.

Smith was head coach of the Wildcats for 10 years, from the 1997-98 season through the 2006-07 campaign. His first team became known as the "Comeback Cats" after the Wildcats erased multiple double-digit deficits en route to a 35-4 record and UK's seventh national title.

Trailing Duke by 17 points, with less than 10 minutes to play in the South Regional final, the Wildcats stormed back to win 86-84. Down by 10 against Stanford in the second half of the NCAA semifinal, the Cats clawed back to force overtime and an eventual 86-85 victory. And, it wouldn't have been fitting if UK hadn't trailed Utah by 10 points at halftime of the title tilt, again rallying to take the trophy by a score of 78-69.

During his 10 seasons, Smith coached the Wildcats to at least 22 victories each season, totaling a 263-83 record (76.0%). His teams won five regular-season SEC championships and five SEC Tournament crowns, featuring a league title (regular season or tournament) in seven of his 10 years at UK. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament in all 10 seasons, including six trips to the Sweet Sixteen, and had a 23-9 record (71.9%) in the national playoffs.

Smith was three-time National Coach of the Year (1998, 2003, 2005) as well as a three-time SEC Coach of the Year selection while at UK. He also spent two seasons at UK as an assistant coach, 1989-90 and 1990-91, helping rebuild the program and achieving a 22-6 record and SEC-best 14-4 league mark during the 1991 campaign.

During his outstanding career, Smith also was head coach at Tulsa, Georgia, Minnesota, Texas Tech and Memphis before his current post at his alma mater. He enters the upcoming season with a career head-coaching record of 631-355.

Smith will be the 44th retired jersey to hang in the rafters of Rupp Arena, including fellow national championship coaches Adolph Rupp, Joe B. Hall and Rick Pitino.

Smith was elected by the Retired Jersey Subcommittee of the UK Athletics Hall of Fame Committee. The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. There is a five-year waiting period, after leaving UK, to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. Hall of Famers are eligible for jersey retirement five years after they have been elected to the Hall of Fame.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

Kentucky is 288-12 (96.0%) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

UK surrendered four such instances in 2020-21 (in 11 games) slightly waters down just how dominant Calipari teams have been with a sizable lead.

Nine of the 12 losses in the Calipari era are to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 69.0% of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 84.5% of Calipari's 341 career wins at Kentucky.

Hold Them to 55 Points, 40%

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. Kentucky is a perfect 80-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer, including 1-0 this season.

The Wildcats are 190-9 (95.5%) under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less. The 2020-21 season was a bit of an anomaly as UK was just 3-2 under the same circumstances. Five times last season UK lost despite holding teams to 66 points or less. Under Calipari, that had only occurred 12 times in 407 games prior to the 2020-21 season. UK is 2-0 this season in such circumstances.

Kentucky also fares well when it keeps the competition to 40% or less from the floor. UK is 211-24 (89.8%) vs. opponents under Calipari when its field-goal percentage is 40% or less. Kentucky is 2-0 this season when limiting an opponent to 40% or less.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky own a 64-39 record (62.1%) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams under John Calipari, UK is 7-4 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five.

All-time, Calipari is 13-8 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 86-59, including a 55-31 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 27-20 record, including 16-13 at UK.

NOTES

By defeating top-ranked Michigan State to start the 2019-20 season, UK knocked off the No. 1 team in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Kentucky downed Tennessee on Feb. 19, 2019. With the win over MSU to begin 2019-20, the Wildcats have nine victories over the No. 1 team in 25 tries in program history.

Calipari improved to 6-4 vs. the No. 1 team in his career with the win vs. Michigan State, including 3-2 at Kentucky. According to ESPN, Calipari is the only coach with a winning (.600) percentage against No. 1 ranked teams with a minimum of 10 games faced against the No. 1.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 64-39 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 277-55 vs. unranked competition, an .834 winning percentage.

And the Winner is ... Kentucky!

Kentucky has dominated the weekly Southeastern Conference awards under John Calipari. UK has won more SEC honors (110) than any school during the Calipari era, including 85 SEC Freshman of the Week honors and 25 SEC Player of the Week awards.

The Wildcats won two SEC Freshman of the Week last season. Dontaie Allen won Jan. 4 honors after a career-high 23-point game at Mississippi State that featured seven 3-pointers. Isaiah Jackson won it Feb. 22 after averaging 15.5 points, 8.0 rebounds and 2.0 blocks per game in wins at Vanderbilt and in an upset at No. 19/20 Tennessee.

Last season marked only the second season of the 12-year Calipari era a UK player failed to win SEC Player of the Week. It also happened in 2017-18.

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky is 20-3 against in-state foes with John Calipari at the helm, including an 11-3 mark vs. Louisville.

Two of the victories over the Cardinals were during postseason play. The Wildcats have won all six meetings played inside Rupp Arena, including a 29-point win in 2017-18, the third-largest margin of victory in the history of the series. UofL's three wins are by a combined nine points.

Here is a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs in the Calipari era:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2020 for placing in the top 10% of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a 994 out of a possible 1,000.

It marked the sixth straight year the men's basketball team has received the award and the seventh time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2015-16 through 2018-19 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in six of the last seven single-year APR rates that have been released (numbers were not released last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic). Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

The Wildcats routinely perform well in the classroom, including posting a 3.122 grade-point average in the 2020 fall semester.

Reconnecting with Big Blue Nation

One of John Calipari's main missions this summer was to reconnect his team with the Big Blue Nation.

The COVID-19 pandemic limited the Wildcats' interactions with fans during the 2020-21 season. Between reduced attendance at Rupp Arena (3,075 fans), no Big Blue Madness and considerable restrictions with various fan activities throughout the season, the 2020-21 group was deprived of one of the staples of the Kentucky program.

With many of the health and safety protocols scaled back this summer, Calipari made sure to take his team on the road and get in front of the Kentucky fan base.

While touring the state for its annual satellite camp tour, the Wildcats visited local community centers, regional health facilities and spent a morning at Fort Knox. Players and staff continued the touch points into the fall with visits throughout the state for ticket giveaways.

The motivation for Calipari is obviously to give back to the community, but it also benefits his players to see firsthand the role they play in the state.

"I want these players to realize the impact that they have in our state," Calipari said. "You understand that this is important to our state and it's about bringing people together, doing things to make a difference for people's lives, not trying to separate."

Three Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

Kentucky basketball greats Ron Mercer (1996-97), Wayne Turner (1996-99) and Nazr Mohammed (1996-98) were inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame in early November.

Mercer and Turner were enshrined as a part of the 2020 class and Mohammed was a member of the 2021 class. The 2020 class was unable to be recognized last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor athletes, coaches and contributors whose participation and achievements enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. The charter class included 88 individuals who had previously had their jersey retired by UK.

There is a five-year waiting period after leaving UK to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. A committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, campus representatives and current coaches and administrators elects new inductees each year.

Mercer was a member of the 1996 national championship team as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He was an NCAA Consensus All-America First Team member in 1997 and a two-time NCAA Tournament All-Final Four Team selection.

After making the Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team in 1996, Mercer was one of the top players in college basketball in 1997. In that season, he was named the NCAA Tournament West Regional Most Outstanding Player, Southeastern Conference Player of the Year by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press, and the 1997 SEC Tournament MVP. Mercer scored 725 points in his sophomore season, at the time the fifth most in a season in program history.

Mercer is a member of Kentucky's 1,000-point club (1,013). He declared for the 1997 NBA Draft after his sophomore season and was drafted sixth overall by the Boston Celtics. He played eight seasons in the NBA.

Turner was a member of the 1996 and 1998 national championship teams as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He finished his career as UK's and the NCAA's all-time games played leader with 151 games (now ranks second), UK's all-time steals leader with 238, and a member of UK's 1,000-point club (1,170).

During his career, Turner helped the Wildcats to two SEC regular-season championships and three SEC Tournament titles.

Turner was named to the 1997 NCAA Tournament All-West Regional Team, the 1998 NCAA Tournament All-South Region Most Outstanding Player and the 1998 SEC Tournament MVP. He was also selected for the All-SEC Third Team and the SEC All-Tournament Team in 1999. He played one season in the NBA.

Mohammed is a two-time national champion having played pivotal role on both the 1996 and 1998 teams. He was the second-leading scorer on the 35-4 squad that was dubbed the "Comeback Cats." He averaged 12 points, 7.2 rebounds and 1.9 blocks in 1998.

Mohammed was an All-SEC First Team selection in 1998 and was also named to the SEC All-Tournament Team after helping lead UK to a regular-season and tournament title.

Mohammed entered the NBA Draft following his junior season and was selected 29th overall by Utah. He played in more than 1,000 career NBA games. He scored nearly 6,000 points and hauled in nearly 5,000 rebounds during an 18-year career. Mohammed captured an NBA title in 2005 as a member of the San Antonio Spurs. He now serves as a scout for the Oklahoma City Thunder.

Rupp Arena Renovations Continue

Renovations at Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center are continuing and nearing completion.

Originally announced when UK agreed to a new lease in December 2016, upper-level chair-back seating and new club areas were installed to Rupp Arena for the 2019-20 season with construction ongoing for club areas, expanded concourses, an exterior refresh and a new facade to the building.

Construction is expected to be completed in the spring of 2022.

Two club areas for season ticket holders have opened along with the president's suite. Fans in these new clubs are able to enjoy first-class amenities before, during and after games. These new clubs are crucial to providing the funds necessary for both the new lease agreement and the ongoing renovation of Rupp Arena. A third club area will be available for the 2021-22 season. Club membership does not include a ticketed seat and club members may have seats throughout Rupp Arena. Season ticket holders may purchase club memberships to accompany their season ticket package.

Construction will continue on the exterior of Rupp Arena with new metal "skin" and bold new metal and glass exterior that will wrap around the expanded concourse. The expanded concourse will feature 43,000 square feet of additional room once completed. Rupp Arena is also getting a new 85-foot tall multi-story atrium as its grand entrance into the renovated concourse. A 75-foot climate-controlled pedestrian bridge will provide a direct connection for fans from the Hyatt lobby straight into the Rupp Arena concourse.

This latest phase of Rupp renovations comes on the heels of the addition of a new center-hung scoreboard, ribbon boards, new sound system and lighting that have created a more dynamic game experience in Rupp.

The chair-back seating that was installed for the 2019-20 season was undertaken in response to years of feedback from fans asking for more comfortable seating in the upper level. The seating was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234.

After the seat renovations, Rupp Arena now seats 20,500.

Cats Rock at Rupp

The Wildcats are 617-77 (88.9%) in Rupp Arena. Among the most notable marks of dominance as the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- School record 54-game winning streak to begin the John Calipari era
- Kentucky is 336-46 (89.0%) in regular-season SEC games in Rupp
- The Wildcats set a program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK has gone undefeated at home in five of Calipari's 12 seasons
- Kentucky has a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 45 seasons

600 Wins at Rupp in Record Time

With a victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 7, 2019, Kentucky reached the 600-win mark at Rupp Arena faster than any other program in NCAA Division I level history. UK needed just 670 games to reach win No. 600 in Rupp Arena.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season, in 2012-13. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career home winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

New Chairbacks, Fewer Seats

After receiving a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that enhanced the fan experience with the likes of a new Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, ribbons boards, new corner video boards and a new audio system, Rupp Arena is undergoing an additional transformation as a part of UK's new leasing agreement with the Lexington Center.

Chair-back seating in the upper-level sideline was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234 for the 2019-20 season. Club areas are available to season ticket holders.

The new seating reduced Rupp Arena's capacity to 20,500.

Pack the House

Until reducing capacity for the 2019-20 season, Kentucky had led the nation in average home attendance in 20 of 24 seasons. That number included a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

Kentucky averaged 20,160 fans during the 2019-20 season, the first season with a reduced capacity at 20,500. UK averaged 23,000-plus fans in seven of Calipari's first 10 seasons.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat Kentucky in Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 190-17 (91.8%) in Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- Kentucky is 22-6 (78.6%) vs. Associated Press Top 25 opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- UK is 168-11 (93.9%) vs. AP unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- The Wildcats are 97-6 (94.2%) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win in Rupp Arena as Kentucky's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari 104 games to reach the century mark, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, 2016, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for most wins in Rupp Arena. Calipari currently has 190 wins inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

Calipari Ahead of the Pack at Kentucky

Through 12 seasons at Kentucky, John Calipari's time in Lexington has been every bit as successful -- and more -- as fans hoped it would when he agreed to become the head coach at Kentucky in the spring of 2009.

By just about every measure, he is the most successful coach in college basketball during the last decade-plus. Among schools who have been to at least two Elite Eights and a Final Four since 2009-10, Calipari ranks:

- First in NCAA Tournament wins (31)
- First in Final Four appearances (four)
- First in Elite Eight appearances (seven)
- First in Sweet Sixteen appearances (eight)
- Second in league tournament titles (six)
- Third in wins (330)
- Third in regular-season conference titles (six)
- Third in NCAA titles (one)

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White.

Calipari was inducted in Springfield, Massachusetts. Nearly 70 former players joined him on stage during his acceptance speech.

Coach Cal Immortalized at UMass with Statue Unveiling

John Calipari's Hall of Fame rise began at UMass, and the school honored his program's breakthrough in the 1990s by unveiling a statue of Calipari on the Amherst campus in September.

Calipari was one of four icons synonymous with UMass basketball to earn the honor. Calipari's statue was unveiled next to Marcus Camby, Julius Erving and the late Jack Leaman outside the Mullins Center.

At UMass, Calipari led the Minutemen to a 193-71 on-court record in his eight seasons as head coach from 1989-96. His .731 career winning percentage remains the best in school history, and he ranks second all-time at UMass in victories with 193.

Calipari led UMass to five straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1992 to 1996 after UMass had gone to the NCAAs only once in the first 81 years of the program. His Minutemen made the Atlantic 10's first and only Final Four appearance during the 1996 season, during which they went 35-2 overall and spent 10 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. Following the 1996 season, Calipari was named National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, The Sporting News and Naismith.

UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season and tournament titles under Calipari from 1992 to 1996, becoming only the second team in NCAA history to win its conference championships in the regular season and postseason for five consecutive years.

A three-time Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year selection in 1992, 1993 and 1996, Calipari coached a National Player of the Year (Marcus Camby, 1996), two First Team All-Americans (Lou Roe, 1995; Camby, 1996), three Atlantic 10 Players of the Year (Harper Williams, 1992; Roe, 1995; Camby, 1996) and a total of 24 All-Atlantic 10 selections during his eight seasons at UMass.

Calipari's 1996 Final Four Team was also inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame.

Coach Cal Court

Not only did John Calipari have a statue erected in his honor this past offseason, the court at Clarion -- Calipari's alma mater -- is now named after the Hall of Famer. The court in Tippin Gymnasium was officially renamed the John V. Calipari Court in September and will be known as Coach Cal Court.

Like many coaches, Calipari began his career in basketball on the court as a player. He he was a star high school basketball player at Moon High School in Western Pennsylvania under another Clarion graduate Joe Sacco. Calipari started his college playing career at UNC Wilmington before transferring to Clarion in 1981, helping the Golden Eagles reach their first NCAA Division II Tournament in program history that year.

Under legendary head coach Joe DeGregorio, Clarion went 23-6 and reached the East Region championship game. Calipari was a key member of Clarion's 1981-82 team that started the season 7-0 and ranked third in Division II at one point.

Calipari has remained close with the program throughout his career.

Calipari Named Coach of the Decade

Underscored by more victories than any other coach or program in his first 10 seasons at the helm at Kentucky, more Final Four appearances, a record number of NBA Draft picks, and the 2012 national championship, John Calipari was named the College Basketball Coach of the Decade by Sporting News in January 2020.

In a piece penned by national writer Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News credited Calipari for changing the college basketball landscape. Detailing Calipari's success -- what DeCourcy described as a "college basketball revolution" -- DeCourcy wrote that "no one defined the 2010s in the same way as Calipari ... nor achieved the same degree of consistent success."

In an era where kids can enter the NBA Draft at 19 years old, Calipari masterfully balances the priority of players' long-term professional dreams with individual and team development, leading to on-court success that no other team has matched.

"I knew we were going to make the program -- and I said it at the press conference -- it was going to be a players-first program," Calipari told Sporting News. "We were going to make decisions based on them and their needs. And it's not just about the name on the front. It'll be about the name on the back. That's how we're going to do this."

Calipari Receives Guardians of the Game Award

John Calipari was one of eight coaches to receive the National Association of Basketball Coaches' Guardians of the Game Pillar Awards in 2021 for his work with the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative.

The Guardians of the Game Pillar Awards represent the NABC's core values of advocacy, education, inclusion and leadership. Calipari was one of three coaches, alongside Harvard head coach Tommy Amaker and South Carolina head coach Frank Martin, who received the award for inclusion.

Calipari, Amaker and Martin were honored for leading and launching the McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network, and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship.

Calipari spearheaded the MLI after watching the nation confront issues of social injustice and racial inequality. He recruited Amaker and Martin, both members of the NABC Committee on Racial Reconciliation, to join him to make change on college campuses and present opportunities for minorities. His idea was to recruit minority candidates, known as MLI Future Leaders, and provide access and opportunity with real-world experience and networking platforms designed to elevate talented young women and men of color.

The initiative has drawn more than 80 coaches nationally from basketball, football and baseball across the country to serve as both MLI Ambassadors and be the primary source of funding.

In the first year of the initiative, more than 30 Future Leaders were hired at institutions and organizations and more than 20 landed full-time positions after a year in the program. In the early stages of year two, more than 40 Future Leaders are working at universities and college-driven sports organizations across the country. Nearly $4 million has been raised in funding for the initiative.

Moving Up the Kentucky Career Wins, Games Coached List

With an 80-53 victory vs. Auburn on Feb. 23, 2019, John Calipari moved past Joe B. Hall for the second-most wins in program history. Calipari trails only the legendary Adolph Rupp (876 wins) for the most wins at UK and earned win No. 300 at Ole Miss on March 5, 2019. When Calipari tied Hall with his 297th win at Missouri on Feb. 19, 2019, he did so 32 games faster than Hall and just two games slower than Rupp.

Although he's still climbing the charts, he's doing it nearly as fast as anyone else in NCAA history. With the aforementioned win over Ole Miss, Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 300 wins (369 games) at one program in NCAA history. Only Bill Self (358 games at Kansas), Claire Bee (359 games at Long Island) and Rupp (366 at UK) got there faster.

Calipari also passed Hall for the second-most coached games at UK. Hall's 13-year career with the Wildcats ended with his 397th game. Calipari and Kentucky's win over Mississippi State on Feb. 4, 2020, marked his 398th career game at the UK helm. Rupp is first in games coached with a 41-season tenure spanning 1,066 career games.

Calipari Coaches in 1,000th Career Game

John Calipari coached in his 1,000th career game on Jan. 2, 2021, vs. Mississippi State. He was 777-223 (77.7%) after his 1,000th game with stops at Kentucky, Memphis and UMass. He just entered his 13th season at Kentucky, the longest stop of his 29 seasons as a college head coach.

Calipari remains the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools and is the second-winningest coach in school history. Only two Division I coaches posted more wins through their first 1,000 career games than Calipari.

Most Wins Through First 1,000 Games

Adolph Rupp - 824
Roy Williams - 790
John Calipari - 777
Dean Smith - 776

700 Victories and Counting

With Kentucky's win over UIC on Nov. 26, 2017, John Calipari reached 700 on-court wins. At the time he was one of just 41 coaches, regardless of NCAA level of classification, to reach that barrier. Only 29 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever at 894 games. Only Adolph Rupp (836 games), Jerry Tarkanian (876 games) and Roy Williams (879 games) did it faster.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 16 league regular-season championships (including six Southeastern Conference titles) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Bruce Pearl, Ben Howland and Kermit Davis have eight). Calipari has won six SEC Tournament championships at Kentucky and owns 15 conference tournament titles in his career, 11 more than his closest competitors (Howland, Davis and Nate Oats).

Calipari has tallied a 367-116 (76.0%) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 159-50 (76.1%) record since joining the SEC.

Although he's been publicly outspoken against conference tournaments -- only because he doesn't favor playing three or more games on consecutive days to win the tournament -- his teams have gotten up for them. Calipari's teams at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky have been to 19 conference championship games in his career, winning a remarkable 15 of them. Calipari is 57-13 (81.4%) all-time in conference tournaments, including 23-5 (82.1%) at UK. Calipari ranks fourth in SEC Tournament wins.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

When Kentucky clinched a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship, John Calipari became the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, '93, '94, '95 and '96. Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, '06, '07, '08 and '09, and Kentucky has captured the SEC six times in 2010, '12, '15, '16, '17 and '20.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 31 combined regular-season and tournament championships after clinching the SEC regular-season crown in 2020. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (36 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

There's No Place Like Home

John Calipari-coached teams have posted an all-time record of 429-49 (89.7%) record at home in his stops at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky. At UK, Coach Cal is 190-17 (91.8%) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's 12 complete seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

Coach	Streak (Yrs)
1. John Calipari	54 (2010-13)
2. John Calipari	42 (2014-17)
3. Rick Pitino	33 (1992-94)
4. Joe B. Hall	30 (1981-82)
5. Rick Pitino	27 (1995-97)

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're pretty good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 112-53 (67.9%) record on the road. At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 79-28 (73.8%) under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25.

Calipari has led seven of his 13 UK teams to the No. 1 ranking and eight of his last 15 teams to the top (he's done it 10 times overall). When Coach Cal's teams are at the top, they're difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-13 (89.4%) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-8 (89.6%) when his team is atop the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass at No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis
- He (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (219) in active coaches with victories at No. 1
- Calipari has coached 123 career games as a No. 1 team, fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (254), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (127)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of 89.4% trails only Wooden (95.2%) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (86.2%)

Recruiting Trail

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players under John Calipari's than any other school. Nearly a quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects over the past 13 classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats. The following list is freshman signees only.

COACH CALIPARI

- Calipari is 6-4 vs. the AP top-ranked team in the land, including 3-2 at UK after defeating Michigan State in 2019-20
- According to ESPN, his 60.0% winning percentage against AP top-ranked teams is the best for any head coach

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100% of the players (23 of 23) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Brad Calipari, current Wildcat Zan Payne, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson, Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, Kentucky has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in six of the last seven single-year reports (numbers were not released last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic).

UK's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May 2020, was a 994 out of 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the sixth year in a row for finishing in the top 10% of Division I men's basketball programs.

The Wildcats routinely perform well in the classroom, including posting a 3.122 grade-point average in the 2020 fall semester.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, John Calipari has helped 54 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 43 in his first 12 seasons at UK, more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than three No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 43 NBA Draft picks, 32 first-rounders (more than the entire Big Ten during the same time span), three No. 1 selections, seven top-five picks and 21 lottery picks at Kentucky
- Of the 70 players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari (did not transfer or leave the program early), 43 have been selected in the NBA Draft, a 61.4% success rate. Another seven of those made the NBA, and the majority of the rest were walk-ons. This does not include the late Terrence Clarke
- Of the 30 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft at the conclusion of their freshman seasons, 27 have been first-round picks. All previous players have played game in the NBA. He is 31 for 34 when including his players from Memphis. This does not include the late Terrence Clarke
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012, Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in 12 straight drafts from 2008-19, the only school to do so during that time period
- Eight of his former players have been named NBA All-Stars (26 total and all since 2010), six have been tabbed All-NBA (11 times), three were named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at UK have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011 and Davis won NBA All-Star MVP honors in 2017

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 40 top-25 Rivals.com players Kentucky has signed who did not transfer or leave the program early (and aren't still actively playing at UK), 34 were drafted and 26 were selected in the first round. But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros, they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Entering the 2021-22 NBA season, Calipari's NBA pros had amassed nearly $3.5 billion in career NBA contracts, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of his UK players in the NBA, they have nearly $3 billion in career contracts.

There's more: Of UK's 21 lottery picks in the Calipari era, 18 have earned second contracts in the NBA with 11 of them cashing in on max contracts. Of the four who haven't earned second contracts, all have been drafted in the last four years and are still on their rookie deal. Since Calipari's first draft class, 33 lottery selections have earned max contracts in the NBA. Eleven of those players are Kentucky alums. Duke (three), Georgetown (two) and Kansas (two) are the only other programs to have multiple lottery selections earn a max contract.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

John Calipari's teams have posted 19 streaks of 10 or more wins at Kentucky, Memphis and UMass, including six at UK. They have won 15 or more straight games nine times, 20 or more six times, 25 or more five times, and 30 or more once. Of course, the most famous streak was the 38-0 start during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari Nearly Perfect vs. Former Assistants

John Calipari has made it known that he doesn't enjoy coaching against friends. That hasn't stopped him from winning anyway. Calipari is 17-1 all-time when coaching against former assistants. He suffered his first and only loss to a former assistant against former Memphis assistant Josh Pastner, now the head coach of Georgia Tech, on Dec. 6, 2020.

COACH CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 54 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 30-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up nearly 800 on-court victories, 20 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari’s career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari’s first 12 seasons at UK, he has led all coaches in NCAA Tournament wins (31), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight). He is in the top three in total wins (339) in that time span.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at UMass, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 50 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 54 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he has had 43 players drafted during his first 12 years at Kentucky, including 32 first-round picks, more than the entire Big Ten combined in that time span.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 26 All-Star selections -- all since 2010 -- with Anthony Davis winning the game’s MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Six of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (11 times), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year and 15 players from Calipari’s first 11 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Seventeen of his last 20 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 23 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including five players who earned their degree in just three years, including redshirt junior Zan Payne who completed his degree in August. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, and in 2017, for victims of Hurricane Harvey.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2019, when federal workers were without pay due to a government shutdown, he, his wife and his foundation assisted workers with financial help and grocery gift cards. He and his wife, Ellen, teamed up with Fayette County Public Schools to help families in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

His latest efforts include spearheading the creation of the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a nationwide coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship. Participants in the initiative will be known as MLI Future Leaders.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”
