OPENING KICKOFF

- The Cardinals will close out the 2021 regular season when intra-state rival Kentucky travels to Cardinal Stadium Saturday for a 7:30 p.m. on ESPN2.
- The Cardinals and Wildcats are meeting for the 33rd time in school history with UK holding a 17-15 series advantage. UK has won the last two encounters, including a 56-10 win at Cardinal Stadium in 2018.
- The Cardinals finished the ACC schedule at 4-4 after a 62-22 win over Duke in Durham on Thursday night. The 62 points were tied for the most points scored under Scott Satterfield, matching the 62 the Cards scored versus Wake Forest in 2019.
- Louisville recorded 687 yards of total offense in the win over Duke — its 10th highest total in a game. The total yards gained were the most since they totaled 727 yards in a 56-10 win vs. Syracuse on Nov. 18, 2017.
- Quarterback Malik Cunningham became the only the second player in NCAA history to rush for 200 or more yards and pass for 300 or more yards since Marques Tuiasosopo of Washington, who recorded 207 yards rushing and 302 yards passing in 1999, Cunningham was also the first player since Jordan Lynch in 2012 to pass for 150 yards and rush for 150 yards in the first half versus Duke. Cunningham rushed for 178 yards and threw for 189 as the Cards led 35-9 at the break.
- Louisville's 11.08 yards per play at Duke was the highest average for a game in program history, surpassing the previous record of 11.06 yards per play in a 63-27 win vs. Oregon State on Sept. 17, 2005.
- Cunningham's 527 total yards at Duke is the fourth highest single-game total by a Louisville player. His 224 yards rushing are the ninth most rushing yards in a game by a Louisville player and the second most by a quarterback, falling three yards short of Lamar Jackson's 226 total in 2015.
- Malik Cunningham accounted for seven touchdowns in the win over Duke, becoming only the second Louisville player to be responsible for seven touchdowns in a game. Lamar Jackson recorded a school best eight versus Charlotte in 2016.

- Linebacker Marvin Dallas, who was making his first career start, recorded five tackles and recorded his first interception in the win over Duke.
- Wide receiver Ahmari Huggins-Bruce caught his third touchdown pass in the last two games after catching a 12-yard pass from Cunningham. Huggins Bruce has caught 10 passes for 95 yards in those last two contests.
- The Cardinals rushed for a season high 384 yards in the win over Duke — the most yards under Scott Satterfield and the fifth time that his teams have surpassed the 300-yard mark. The 384 yards on the ground were the most since totaling 411 versus Syracuse in 2017.
- Louisville has gone three consecutive games without a turnover for the first time since doing so vs. Memphis, Cincinnati, and Connecticut Oct. 9-23, 2010.
- The Cardinals has scored on 10 of their first 12 first-half drives in the last two games, scoring 35 points by halftime in back-to-back games for the first time since doing so in its first four games of 2016.
- In the win over Duke, the Cardinals averaged 10.4 yards per carry and totaled four runs of over 30 yards. The 10.4 yards per carry was the highest mark since the Cards averaged 10.1 yards a carry versus Syracuse in 2016.

SERIES VERSUS KENTUCKY

- The state rivals play for the Governor’s Cup trophy.
- UK leads the all-time series 17-15. The Wildcats lead 7-5 in games played in Louisville.
- The Wildcats have won three of the past four meetings, including a 45-13 win to the 2019 season. The two teams didn’t play against one another last season for the first time since 1993.
- UK has won the last two meetings at Cardinal Stadium. UK captured a 56-10 win in 2018 and in 2016, the Wildcats secured a thrilling 41-38 last-second victory over the No. 11 Cardinals, ending a five-game losing streak to Louisville in the process.
- The Wildcats are looking for the first three-game winning streak in the series since the Cardinals won five-straight games since 2011-2015.
- The Governor’s Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by The Kroger Company at a cost of $23,000, the Governor’s Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy’s base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are optic-grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is made of pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish.
- The cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc.
- The Kroger Company also is involved in supporting academic pursuits at the schools. Kroger is donating $10,000 to each school for each year the game is played. Including this year, Kroger’s donations now total $500,000 -- $250,000 to each school.

LAST TIME VERSUS UK

- Lynn Bowden rushed for career highs of 284 yards and four touchdowns to lead Kentucky’s school-record 517-yard ground performance that blew out rival Louisville 45-13 in the Governor’s Cup showdown.
- Bowden broke the game open with TD runs of 60 and 46 yards in the third quarter for a 31-13 lead. The junior also had a 32-yard run in the fourth along with a 6-yarder in the second as Kentucky surpassed 400 yards rushing for the third consecutive game.
- Bowden’s yardage total was 15 short of Moe Williams’ single-game mark of 299 against South Carolina in September 1995. He was named the winner of the Howard Schnellenberger Trophy as the game’s most outstanding player.
- Chris Rodriguez added a 64-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter and AJ Rose had a 4-yard TD run in the first as the bowl-bound Wildcats cruised to their third consecutive win and third Governor’s Cup win in four years.
- Javian Hawkins’ rushed 22 times for 142 yards, including a 56-yard TD just before halftime that brought the Cardinals (7-5) within 17-13. Malik Cunningham tossed a 33-yard TD pass to Tutu Atwell on the game’s opening possession but it was all Kentucky after that.

35 AT THE HALF

- Louisville held halftime leads of over 25 points in consecutive games for only the second time in program history. The previous pair of games were Nov. 27 and Dec. 4 2004 when Louisville held leads of 42-0 and 27-0 against Cincinnati and Tulane.

SCORE POINTS

- Head coach Scott Satterfield has brought big plays back into the Louisville offense since taking over in 2019. During that span, the Cardinals have averaged 6.7 yards per play, ranking in the top 13 in all three seasons. Louisville ranks 13th this year in yards per play at 6.73 and were 12th in 2020 and 2019 at 6.68 and 6.68 yards per play, respectively.
- Over that span from 2019-2021, the Cardinals stand seventh in the country with that 6.7 average behind Alabama at 7.6 yards, Ohio State and Oklahoma at 7.4.
- Louisville leads the ACC in yards per play this season in conference games only at 7.03 yards. The Cards finished league play as the top team in total offense at 469.1.
- Since 2019, the Cardinals have totaled 17 plays of over 70 yards and four of over 90 yards. In 2021, the Cardinals lead the nation with five plays of over 70 yards and two of over 90. UofL recorded six plays of over 70 yards in both 2019 and 2020.

- Louisville's 62 points scored were the most for the Cardinals since posting the same number in a win at Wake Forest on Oct. 12, 2019.
- The Cardinals scored 35 points in the first half for the second consecutive week, marking the first time UofL has done that in back-to-back games since doing so in the first four games of 2016.
- Louisville led 35-9 at halftime, giving it a halftime lead in consecutive games against FBS opponents for only the second time in program history – done previously Nov. 27 and Dec. 4, 2004 against Cincinnati (42-0) and Tulane (27-0).
- The Cardinals ran up 687 yards of total offense, their 10th-highest total all-time and the most since amassing 727 against Syracuse on Nov. 18, 2017.

- Louisville racked up 384 rushing yards, its most since going for 411 against Syracuse on Nov. 18, 2017.

- Louisville set season highs in total yards (687), rushing yards (384), first downs (29), and points (62).
- UofL averaged 11.08 yards per play in the victory, the highest total since finishing with the same number in a win over Oregon State on Sept. 17, 2005.

- Cunningham's 527 total yards marks the fourth-highest single-game total by a Louisville player.
- Cunningham is the second player in Louisville history to be responsible for seven touchdowns in a game – Lamar Jackson did it in three games.

MONTGOMERY, SMITH, CLARK TO MISS REST OF THE YEAR

- The Cardinals have been hit with three season-ending knee injuries this season.
- Linebacker Monty Montgomery will miss the remainder of the 2021 season after tearing his ACL in Louisville's 42-35 win over UCF on Sept. 17. The junior was fourth on the team in tackles with 17 after the first three games
- In his first year as a starter, Montgomery recorded nine tackles versus the Knights and recorded five in the victory over Eastern Kentucky.
- Montgomery was the team's sacks leader the last two seasons, recording four last year and five in 2019. He was credited with 27 tackles in 2019 and upped his total to a career high 46 last year — all coming mainly as a reserve.
- Wide receiver Braden Smith also will miss the remainder of the season after injuring his knee in a loss to Florida State. Smith had caught 11 passes for 68 yards in the first four games.
- Cornerback Ke'itrel Clark's season is over after he tore his ACL versus NC State. He finished the year with 40 tackles and led the team with three interceptions and nine pass break-ups. He picked up a pair of interceptions in the second game versus Eastern Kentucky.

CLOSE CALLS

- In 2020, the Cardinals finished at 4-7 but dropped four games by a touchdown or less, including a 12-7 loss at No. 4 Notre Dame. Saturday's loss to nationally ranked Wake Forest, was the second-straight loss to a ranked opponent by five or fewer points.
- Louisville's last four losses have been by a total of 25 points — a 37-34 loss at Wake Forest, a 34-33 defeat to Virginia, 28-13 loss at NC State and the 30-24 loss to Clemson.

POTENT RUSHING ATTACK

- Louisville ranks 16th nationally and is second in the ACC in rushing this season, averaging 217.5 yards per game — a best under Satterfield — and has totaled over 200 yards in six of the last seven contests.
- Louisville racked up 384 rushing yards on the ground, its most since going for 411 against Syracuse on Nov. 18, 2017. It was the fifth 300-yard rushing game in the Satterfield era and the second this season.

CUNNINGHAM ON POINT

- Quarterback Malik Cunningham has found his touch throwing the football over the last two contests in wins over Syracuse and Duke. The redshirt junior has combined to average 251.0 yards per game, while completing 72.1 percent of his passes and passing for nine touchdowns. - He leads the nation with four completions of 70 or more yards this season. He ranks 16th nationally in passing yards per completion at 14.1 yards.

NOT GETTING TO OUR QB

- Sacks and tackles for loss had been a problem for the Cards over the last two seasons. However, under first-year offensive line Jack Bicknell coach, the Cardinals lead the Atlantic Coast Conference in sacks allowed with an average of 1.6 per game and are 30th nationally.
- Before giving up three sacks to NC State, Louisville's offensive line had gone back-to-back games without allowing a quarterback sack for the first time since wins vs. Memphis and Middle Tennessee in October 2008. Louisville gave up one sack versus Duke.
- The Cardinals allowed multiple sacks in only three games this season — being sacked twice versus Ole Miss and three times in losses to Wake Forest and NC State. Last season, the Cardinals allowed two or more sacks in seven contests.
- Louisville is allowing only 4.64 tackles for loss, which also ranks 35th in the country and is third in the ACC.
- Last season, the Cardinals ranked 98th in the country after allowing 2.8 sacks per game and 121st nationally in tackles for loss allowed at 8.45 per game.

The native of Montgomery, Ala., led the team in rushing as a quarterback in 2018.
- After 11 games, Cunningham leads the team with 2,589 yards passing and is also first on the team in rushing with 933 yards. Cunningham is just 27 yards short of breaking his personal record of passing yards in a season (2,615 yards in 2020).

Scott Satterfield has changed the culture and his imprint is all over the accomplishments of the University of Louisville football program since taking over as head coach prior to the 2019 season.

The native of Durham, N.C., initiated his rebuilding plan and laid the groundwork by petitioning his team to give the two things his players could control "Attitude and Effort."

His team took heed immediately, guiding the Cardinals to the top turnaround in 2019 and its first bowl win since 2015 thanks to Satterfield's leadership. Taking over a program that won two games during the previous season, the Cardinals six-game improvement was tops in the nation amongst Power 5 programs.

Known as an innovative offensive mind, Satterfield has put the Cardinals back on the offensive map over his first two seasons. The Cardinals were one most explosive teams in the country, averaging 445.9 yards per game of total offense and 206.9 yards on the ground. Louisville led the country in 2020 with nine plays of over 60 yards, six of over 70 and one 90 or more yards. They also recorded four rushes of 70 or more yards, the most in the country.

Known as one of the nation's top offensive minds, Satterfield's presence saw the Cardinals go from being one of the worst offensive teams in the nation to ranking 24th in both total offense and rushing offense.

Individually, a pair of Cardinals posted the best statistical seasons in school history in running back Javian Hawkins and wide receiver Tutu Atwell. The duo became only the third players to record 1,000-yard rushing and receiving seasons in the same year. Hawkins broke the school record for rushing yards by a running back and a freshman in school history with 1,525 yards, which included eight 100-yard rushing games.

Atwell set the school record for receiving yards in a year with 1,276 yards and equaled the school mark with 12 touchdown receptions. The 5-foot-9 speedster led the ACC in receiving yards and was second in touchdown receptions as a sophomore. He totaled seven 100-yard receiving games and averaged a solid 18.2 yards a reception.

Before accepting the Louisville job, Satterfield built Appalachian State into a powerhouse.

He guided his teams to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference championships and a remarkable 51-24 record with the Mountaineers, including a 38-10 conference mark in six seasons. His conference record of 34-6 in five Sun Belt seasons is the best in the league over that span.

Notably, he became the first coach to lead a school from the FCS level to FBS and immediately earn three-consecutive bowl wins.

In the Mountaineers' short time in the FBS era, Satterfield directed Appalachian State to three-straight conference titles and led the program to four straight bowl appearances.

Cards Drop Season Opener to Ole Miss

ATLANTA (AP) – Matt Corral threw for 381 yards and accounted for two touchdowns, Snoop Conner ran for a pair of scores and Mississippi romped to a 43-24 victory over Louisville even without head coach Lane Kiffin. Despite being fully vaccinated along with everyone in his program, Kiffin tested positive for COVID-19 and was not able to accompany the team to its season-opening game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. Ole Miss did just fine with its quarantined coach watching from Oxford, piling up 569 total yards. Corral completed 22 of 32 passes, including a 6-yard touchdown to Dontario Drummond. The Ole Miss quarterback also ran 6 yards for a score, while Drummond finished with 177 yards on nine receptions. Conner had TD runs of 1 and 11 yards, barreling right over a Louisville defender on the second score. Jerrion Ealy also powered over from the 1 and Caden Costa kicked three field goals. Louisville quarterback Malik Cunningham ran for two TDs and passed for another, but all came in the second half with the outcome no longer in doubt.

Cards Pick Up First Win of the Season

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Malik Cunningham ran for two touchdowns and threw for another to lead Louisville, which cruised to a 30-3 victory over Eastern Kentucky. In guiding the Cardinals (1-1) to their first victory of the season, the redshirt junior quarterback completed 16-of-24 passes for 277 yards. He got some early help from special teams. Marvin Dallas recovered a muffed punt return at the Colonels 25, leading to Cunningham's first score, a 5-yard touchdown run with 4:27 left in the first quarter. Braden Smith made it 13-0 with a 49-yard punt return for a score with 10:15 left in the first half. Cunningham would have had another touchdown, but freshman Ahmari Huggins-Bruce dropped the ball on the EKU 1 on what would have been a 95-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter. The ball rolled into the endzone, and the Colonels recovered for a touchback. He was replaced by Evan Conley on the next series as the Cardinals were well in command by that point. The Colonels (1-1) mustered just 233 yards of offense and turned it over three times.

Late Interception Return for TD Lift Louisville Past UCF

LOUISVILLE (AP) - Jaylin Alderman returned an interception off a tipped pass for a 66-yard touchdown with 13 seconds remaining, giving Louisville a thrilling 42-35 victory over UCF on Friday night. The Knights appeared primed to win the back-and-forth after intercepting Louisville's Malik Cunningham off a deflection on the previous play for possession at the Cardinals 41 with under a minute to play. But Alderman was there to snatch a tip of Dillon Gabriel's pass on the next snap, then found room down the right sideline for the TD to spark a delirious celebration for Louisville. UCF (2-1) attempted several laterals on the game's final play before being penalized for an illegal forward pass that closed the victory for Louisville (2-1). Cunningham ran for two touchdowns and threw for another TD in helping Louisville. He was 23-of-38 passing 265 yards and rushed 13 times for 99 yards. UCF drove 87 yards in eight plays to tie the game at 35 as Gabriel scored on a 6-yard touchdown run with 1:21 left in the fourth quarter. Gabriel passed for three touchdowns and ran for another, completing 21 of 28 passes for 188 yards. Louisville used trickery to lead 35-28 when receiver Braden Smith completed a 45-yard pass to a wide-open Trevion Cooley for the TD. That came after UCF tied the game at 28 early in the fourth quarter on Gabriel's 6-yard TD pass to Brandon Johnson.

Cunningham Leads Louisville Past Florida State, 31-23

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - Malik Cunningham had four touchdowns - two passing and two rushing - and Louisville held off Florida State's second-half rally, 31-23, in the Cardinals' Atlantic Coast Conference opener. Cunningham now has eight rushing touchdowns, two in each game for Louisville (3-1, 1-0). He completed 25 of 39 passes for 264 yards and ran 14 times for 56 yards. The Seminoles trailed 31-7 with 1:49 to halftime but gradually chipped away at Louisville's lead in the second half, trimming the deficit to 31-23 on Ryan Fitzgerald's 45-yard field-goal with 8:40 left. But the Seminoles' rally fell short when McKenzie Milton's downfield pass was picked off by Louisville's Kei'Trel Clark with 48 seconds left. Milton completed 24 of 39 passes for 248 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown pass to Andrew Parchment. Jashaun Corbin had a 75-yard touchdown run and Treshaun Ward added a 20-yard TD run for Florida State (0-4, 0-2). The Seminoles have not opened 0-4 in a season since 1974, two years before coaching legend Bobby Bowden arrived. Florida State ran for 209 yards, the third time in four games they surpassed that mark.

Sciba's Kick Lifts Wake Forest Over Louisville

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) - Nick Sciba kicked a 29-yard field goal with 22 seconds left and No. 24 Wake Forest beat Louisville 37-34 to remain unbeaten. Sam Hartman threw for 324 yards and two touchdowns to lead the offense for the Demon Deacons (5-0, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference), who got a huge boost late from Justice Ellison with several patient and chain-moving runs on the go-ahead drive. Louisville (3-2, 1-1) got a final drive with a chance to tie and no timeouts, but the Cardinals' desperate, lateral-filled play never got across midfield before Wake Forest's Rondell Bothroyd recovered the loose ball to end this one after time had expired. Malik Cunningham had a big day for the Cardinals, throwing for two scores while running for two additional TDs. His biggest throw of the day came when he hit Tyler Harrell over the middle in a frenetic final few minutes, and Harrell pulled away down the left sideline from four black jerseys in pursuit for a 75-yard touchdown that tied the game at 34 with 3:01 left.

Virginia Comes Back to Upend Louisville 34-33

Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong threw for 487 yards, capping that performance with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Grant Misch with 22 seconds left to give the Cavaliers a stunning 34-33 comeback victory over Louisville. Virginia (4-2, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) trailed 30-13 with 89 seconds left in the third quarter before starting its comeback, but then they had to watch the Cardinals (3-3, 1-2) have one last chance. Malik Cunningham got them to the Virginia 31 in those final seconds. However, James Turner's 49-yard field goal attempt as time expired sailed left and the Cavaliers rushed out of Cardinal Stadium with an improbable victory. Armstrong completed 40-of-60 passes with three touchdowns and two interceptions. The Cavaliers led 13-10 at halftime, but they gave up 20 points in the third quarter. Louisville mounted its comeback behind junior running back Hassan Hall, who ran for 162 yards on 14 carries. His 52-yard run on the first series of the second half gave Louisville its first lead of the day. Then, after Virginia punted from its own 34 with less than four minutes left in the game, Hall, who had his first career 100-yard game, broke off a 53-yard run that looked like it would seal it. But the Cavaliers forced Louisville to settle for a 40-yard field goal from Turner with 2:22 remaining to give Armstrong one last chance to be a hero. Ra'Shaun Henry caught nine passes for 179 yards, and Keytaon Thompson got 132 yards on his nine receptions for the Cavaliers.

Cunningham's Three Rushing Scores Leads Cards Past Boston College

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Malik Cunningham rushed for three touchdowns, including a 14-yard clinching run with 2:53 remaining to cap a milestone performance, and Louisville overcame four turnovers to beat Boston College 28-14 on Saturday to snap a two-game losing streak. Seeking a rebound coming out of a bye following consecutive losses by four total points, the Cardinals (4-3, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) followed a BC touchdown with 21 unanswered points to take control, or so it seemed. Cunningham tossed two interceptions and Hassan Hall fumbled in between their TDs, that thwarted chances to paid their lead. Even after Josh Minkins picked off BC's Dennis Grosel in the end zone midway through the fourth quarter, Louisville freshman Trevion Cooley coughed it back up on the next play to set up the Eagles at the Louisville 36. Jaelen Gill's 6-yard scoring pass got BC within 21-14 and made it interesting before Cunningham's run sealed a rain-soaked win. The mobile quarterback reached 2,000 career yards rushing and became the fourth Louisville player with 30 rushing TDs on a drive capped by his 1-yard run. Cunningham rushed 16 times for 133 yards and completed 9 of 17 passes for 107 yards. Cooley carried 13 times for 112 yards as Louisville rushed for a season-high 331 yards, the most since 2019 against Syracuse.

Leary Throws Four Touchdowns in NC State's 28-13 Win

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) - Devin Leary threw three of his four touchdown passes in the fourth quarter as North Carolina State's offense finally got untracked in a 28-13 win over Louisville. Leary hit Trent Pennix on a 26-yard pass play on the second play of the fourth quarter to push the Wolfpack into the lead. Leary connected with Devin Carter with 5:53 remaining as N.C. State stretched its edge to 21-13. The clinching points came on 10-yard touchdown pass to C.J. Riley with 2:21 to go. N.C. State, which finished with 44 yards on the ground, had only 189 yards of total offense through three quarters. So it was mainly defense that allowed the Wolfpack to bounce back from a one-point loss a week earlier at Miami. The outcome leaves N.C. State as the closest pursuer to undefeated Wake Forest in the ACC's Atlantic Division. Malik Cunningham was 11-for-28 passing for 219 yards with a touchdown and interception for Louisville. He also gained 76 yards rushing on 18 carries. Leary's first touchdown came on a 19-yard pass to Emeka Emezie in the first quarter. Cunningham struck with a 76-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Watkins on the last play of the first quarter.

Uiagalelei rallies Clemson past Louisville 30-24

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - D.J. Uiagalelei's 8-yard touchdown run with 4:12 left in the game rallied Clemson to a 30-24 victory over Louisville. The sophomore quarterback also completed 18 of 30 passes for 220 yards and two scores in what was a war of attrition between the two schools. Both starting quarterbacks missed time during the game due to injuries. So, too, did Will Shipley and Kobe Pace, who entered the game as the top two rushers for the Tigers (6-3, 5-2 Atlantic Coast Conference). Pace left in the first quarter, while Shipley eventually returned. Clemson also overcame a goal-line stand by Louisville's defense in the third quarter. However, the Tigers took the lead for the first time - and for good - on a nine-play, 57-yard drive midway through the fourth quarter. Louisville was led Malik Cunningham, who ran for 134 yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries, but he went down with an injury with less than five minutes left in the third quarter. The junior quarterback, who also threw for 174 yards on 12-of-20 passing, returned with 10 minutes left in the game. The Cardinals (4-5, 2-4) turned the ball over on downs after the Uiagalelei touchdown, which led to a B.T. Potter 40-yard field goal with 2:24 left. On their final drive, Cunningham got the Cardinals down to the Clemson 2 in the game's final minute, thanks to a 45-yard pass to Tyler Harrell and a 19-yard catch by Justin Marshall four plays later. However, on fourth-and-goal, he stumbled on a rollout at the 4 with 10 seconds left to secure the victory.

Diagalelei rallies Clemson past Louisville 30-24

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - Malik Cunningham threw for four of his five first-half touchdowns, and Louisville's defense stifled Syracuse throughout a 41-3 rout that snapped a two-game losing streak. A day in which Louisville retired the No. 8 jersey of 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson at halftime, the game featured Cunningham showing the same dynamic play of his famous predecessor. The junior quarterback provided all the scoring for the Cardinals (5-5, 3-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) before the ceremony with a 6-yard run on their first possession before tossing a series of TD passes. Cunningham's first was a perfect 33-yard toss to Tyler Harrell - one of two Cardinals wearing No. 8 for the time being - before he followed with a 6-yarder to Ahmari Huggins-Bruce, the first of two he caught. Jordan Watkins pulled in a 41-yarder in the back of the end zone before Huggins-Bruce took in another from 17 yards just before the break. Cunningham finished 13 of 18 passing for 209 yards before exiting early in the fourth quarter. Meanwhile, Louisville's defense bottled up Syracuse (5-5, 2-4) and its high-powered offensive tandem of Sean Tucker, the nation's second-leading rusher, and quarterback Garrett Shrader. Tucker gained 95 yards on 19 carries, while Shrader was sacked four times in throwing for just 46 yards.

Diagalelei rallies Clemson past Louisville 30-24

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Malik Cunningham accounted for seven touchdowns in Louisville's 62-22 romp past Duke, helping the Cardinals clinch bowl eligibility. Cunningham threw for five touchdowns - each to a different teammate -- and ran for two more scores. He racked up 303 passing yards and 224 rushing yards. He's the second Football Bowl Subdivision player with at least 300 passing and 200 rushing yards in a game. He sat out the final 12 minutes after 11 carries and 18-for-25 passing. Louisville (6-5, 4-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) has won consecutive ACC games for the first time since November 2019. Cunningham's second-quarter rushing touchdowns went for 44 and 72 yards. By the time it was 28-6, Cunningham had 163 rushing yards and 156 passing yards. Duke had 133 yards total. Duke (3-7, 0-7) has lost seven consecutive games, all except one by at least 25 points. Quarterback Gunnar Holmberg, who missed the previous 1- 1/2 games with an upper-body ailment suffered in the first half Nov. 6 against Pittsburgh, threw for 176 yards before exiting after one third-quarter series. Duke's Charlie Ham kicked first-half field goals of 22, 28 and 26 yards. The Blue Devils failed to score a first-half touchdown for the fourth time in their last five games.
